ARTHUR B. MODELL*Owner/President*Born: June 23, 1925*Brooklyn, N.Y.*Purchased Browns: March 21, 1961

When the Washington Touchdown Club initiated the Lifetime Achievement Award for Outstanding Performance in the National Football League in 1988, the directors looked no farther than Art Modell as the first-ever recipient. His 29 years of service as owner of one of the NFL's most successful franchises has been highlighted by dedication, loyalty, accomplishment and a human touch that is so often missing in today's multi-million dollar professional sports industry.

Risking every dollar he owned and borrowing as much money as his bankers would allow, Modell, then a highly respected New York advertising and television executive working as a partner for the L.H. Hartman Company, purchased the Cleveland Browns for the then unprecedented price of $4 million on March 21, 1961.

With his entry into the NFL at the age of 35, Modell had written his "American success story." When he was 15 years old, Modell dropped out of high school and began work as an electrician's helper in a Brooklyn shipyard. He was cleaning out the hulls of ships to help his financially strapped family after the death of his father.

Modell's vision that the NFL would soon explode at the box office and on television proved correct, while his prominence in the league grew rapidly. By 1967, he was president of the NFL, a position he held until 1970. "When I first came into the league, I was in awe of people like George Halas and Art Rooney. They were very kind and gracious to accept me into their fraternity so quickly," Modell says. Today, Modell is the dean of owners, having more years of NFL ownership than any other.

His close friend, Art Rooney, passed away prior to the start of the 1988 season. "The Chief" was a gentleman and a gentle man," recalls Modell. "He was a true sportsman, fierce competitor and one of my dearest friends since the first day he welcomed me to the NFL 29 years ago. Pat and I will miss him dearly."

Modell and the Browns have been successful in the 29 years of Art's leadership. During his tenure, the Cleveland record is 230-171-6 for a winning percentage of .572. Only the Raiders (.646), the Cowboys (.642), the Dolphins (.629) and the Bears (.609) have fared better than Modell's Browns. The 1988 Cleveland team was his 13th playoff squad. In five other years (1963, 1970, 1976, 1979 and 1983), the Browns had a chance to make the playoffs on the final day of the regular season, but did not qualify.

Modell's fourth Browns' team (1964) won the NFL Championship with a stunning 27-0 victory over the Baltimore Colts. The 1965, 1968 and 1969 teams each played in the league title contest, while Art's recent frustration saw his team lose heart-breaking, but memorable AFC Championship games in 1986 and '87. Last season's injury-riddled club lost a 24-23 Wild Card game to the Oilers on Christmas Eve. Under Modell, the Browns also earned postseason play in 1967, 1971, 1972 (when the Dolphins preserved their historic undefeated season with a thrilling come-from-behind 20-14 victory), 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Through the years Modell has received many local and national awards for contributions to his community, charities and civic affairs. His most recent was when the Washington Touchdown Club honored him with the first-ever Lifetime Achievement Award. Modell's salute from the Browns' Chapter of the NFL

Alumni on June 19, 1988, is one he cherishes. "I have great respect for the men who have played in this league, specifically those who have helped make this a consistent winning franchise. I'm a fan at heart and to have players like Jim Houston, Doug Dieken and Paul Warfield come back and say 'way to go.' It made me feel very proud," Modell says.

The Professional Football Writers bestowed the Jack Horrigan Award on Modell in 1988, as a tribute to his aiding and understanding their profession.

Here are other awards Modell has earned: the "National Volunteer Citation" from the Arthritis Foundation, "Champion of Brotherhood" distinction from the National Conference of Christians and Jews for "Modell's lifetime service in combating discrimination and prejudice," the "Citizen of the Year" award from the Cleveland Board of Realtors, the "United Way Commitment" honor for his and his team's involvement, the "Blanton Collier Award" from the Browns' Alumni, "1983 Executive of the Year" from the Cleveland Sales and Marketing Club, the "Pride of Cleveland" award from the Sports' Media Association of Cleveland and Ohio, and the "Super-Citizen" honor from the Variety Club.

Area hospitals, cultural organizations, Cleveland schools and youth activities have all received Modell's time and money to meet severe financial strains. Recently, Modell was elected Vice President of the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and is chairman of the current fund drive for the world-renowned hospital facility.

Hiram College made Modell a member of its prestigious Garfield Society; John Carroll University awarded him an honorary LL.D degree (1979); and Wilberforce University has honored him for "Outstanding Citizenship." Modell has also served as the Foreman for the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury.

Modell's community leadership inspired a 1974 request to run Cleveland Stadium, which was in terrible repair and losing money for the city. Fifteen years later, Modell continues to run the Stadium that is leased to his company through 1999 and gives Cleveland over $1 million in revenues annually. Art also lent his money and influence to refurbish the financially troubled Cleveland Sheraton Hotel at Public Square, which became Stouffer's Inn On the Square under his direction. The Cleveland Plain Dealer said of his effort: "Not only did Modell take on the job of saving the hotel, he turned the venture into a team effort to save downtown and Public Square from a visual blight and the city from a loss of millions in convention business."

In NFL matters, his influence is league-wide and his devotion to the league Constitution and Commissioner's office is second to none. Along with Pete Rozelle, he has negotiated the NFL's precedent-setting television contracts. He serves as Chairman of both the league's Broadcast Committee and NFL Films. Currently, he is one of six owners serving on the committee to find a replacement for the retiring Rozelle. His daring transfer (1966) of the Browns to the American Conference, along with Pittsburgh and Baltimore, solved the AFL/NFL merger problem.

One of the many innovations he started with the Browns was the preseason doubleheader concept that proved extremely popular from 1962 to 1971. When a host team was sought for the first Monday Night Game in 1970, Modell volunteered the Browns and 85,703 fans came and watched the Browns beat the Jets, 31-21, quieting league moguls who were predicting box office disaster with a weeknight game. When other teams doubted a second Thanksgiving Day game in Dallas could succeed, Modell volunteered and the Detroit/Dallas doubleheader has become a holiday tradition.

Modell serves on the boards of directors of National City Corporation and National City Bank, the Ohio Bell Telephone Company and the world renowned Cleveland Clinic, where he is on the Executive Committee and is currently heading a major fund drive. He is a board member at Churchill Downs and is one of two Churchill directors on the Triple Crown Productions Company.

Modell, who completed high school through night classes, joined the Air Force in 1943 (he was 18) and then enrolled in a New York City television school following World War II. Always an innovator, Modell produced one of the first regular daytime television shows in the nation before moving into the advertising business in 1954.

Pat Modell, Art's wife, has worked hard to improve the Cleveland community. She serves on the board at Ursuline College and is active with the Cleveland Musical Arts Association, the Cleveland Ballet, the Playhouse Square Foundation and Cerebral Palsy Association. A former actress, Pat appeared in over 400 motion pictures and television shows. The couple has two sons: John, 30, and David, 28. John is a music composer/producer living in Los Angeles with his wife Tracy, who is an artist. David, the Browns' Vice President of Marketing and Assistant to the President, lives in Kirtland with his wife Olwen, who is a lawyer with Cuyahoga County.

"According to the individuals who run the clubs, the NFL's most respected owner is Art Modell of the Cleveland Browns. Modell, they say, makes it a point to get along with the representatives of the league's many cliques and factions. He can be tough, but he plays fair. In a sense, they say Modell is the NFL." Los Angeles Times, Jan. 25, 1987.

JIM BAILEY

Executive Vice President, Administration and Legal

Born: August 21, 1946
Wilmington, O.

12th Year Browns
Florida State

In a business "covered" by the media as thoroughly as an NFL team is, it is almost surprising that Jim Bailey has maintained such a low profile in his dozen years with the Browns. Always working closely with Owner Art Modell since he (Jim) joined the franchise in 1978, Bailey has opted to work quietly behind the scenes, while having impact on every aspect of the team's operations. "There is not a Browns' function that does not include Jim's input. From hiring a head coach, to coordinating a road trip to London, to securing facilities for us to work, Jim is involved," Modell recently said of the Browns' Executive Vice President, Administration and Legal.

A former scholarship winner as a defensive back at Florida State, Bailey was promoted to his current position in early 1984. During his tenure with the Browns, Bailey has done everything from negotiate player, radio and TV contracts, to handle Browns' legal affairs, to coordinate Cleveland Stadium activities. In fact, most of Jim's initial work with the organization involved the development and maintenance of Cleveland Stadium Corporation.

Bailey earned a law degree from the University of Michigan after receiving his undergraduate degree at FSU. Prior to joining the Browns, Jim worked for the Cleveland-based law firm of Guren, Merritt, Sogg and Cohen, where he was quickly named a partner in 1976. Bailey's duties at the law offices included work with Art Modell in the formation of the Cleveland Stadium Corporation lease arrangement with the city. That association was instrumental in bringing Bailey to the Browns.

A native of Wilmington, Ohio, Bailey stood out in three sports (football, basketball and track) at Wilmington High School. Recently, Jim was named to the Board of Directors of the NFL Alumni/Browns' Chapter.

Jim and his wife Ann live in Shaker Heights. Daughter Sarah recently graduated from St. Louis' Washington University with a degree in marketing, while daughter Jenny is attending Northwestern University.

ERNIE ACCORSI

Executive Vice President, Football Operations

Born: October 29, 1941

Hershey, Pa.

6th Year Browns

20th Year NFL

Wake Forest

What is Ernie Accorsi's impact on the Browns? Last December, Pro Football Weekly stated it simply: "Look at the Browns' record since Accorsi arrived." Certainly Ernie has helped make Cleveland an annual Super Bowl contender since his arrival in 1984, but the highly respected football executive down plays his role. "We're not a big company and we have an owner who works everyday at the football business and he allows a number of us to express our opinions. We've been able to reach a consensus on most major decisions and it's worked out pretty well for us."

Accorsi is celebrating his 20th year in the NFL this season. He began his league career in 1970 as the public relations' director of the then Baltimore Colts. Since that job, Accorsi has moved up the administrative ladder and has worked in virtually every phase of the football business, save coaching. In his current capacity with the Browns as Executive Vice President-Football Operations, Accorsi shoulders most of the responsibilities for player acquisitions and other player-related movements. He works closely with new Head Coach Bud Carson, directs all player contract negotiations and manages the Browns' personnel department.

Accorsi handled the delicate and important trade that gave the Browns the rights to then-sophomore Bernie Kosar in the spring of 1985. Kosar joined the Browns that summer and the team progressed to win three consecutive division championships and a fourth straight playoff spot last season. Earlier this year, the aggressive Accorsi put together bold trades that brought the Browns the draft choices to acquire Texas running back Eric Metcalf and Auburn wide receiver Lawyer Tillman. A trade for RB-Mike Oliphant and the scouting and signing of 14 new Browns through the NFL's "Plan B" free agent system kept Ernie's offseason anything but normal.

After serving five years with the Colts in the public relations capacity, Accorsi joined Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff as Assistant to the President of the National Football Conference in 1975 and '76. He returned to the Colts in 1977 as assistant general manager and later became the club's general manager for two years (1982 and '83).

Just prior to coming to Cleveland, Accorsi's responsibilities in Baltimore included all of the Colts' functions. From negotiating local radio/TV contracts, to player movements, to the team's marketing and public relations efforts, Accorsi's imprint was seen. The Colts' climb from a winless 1982 (strike-shortened, 0-9) to seven victories in 1983, is attributed to Ernie's influence and direction.

Last fall (1988), Accorsi received the highest commendation from his alma mater, Wake Forest, when he was presented the "Distinguished Service Citation for Athletics." Following his graduation from Wake in 1963, Accorsi served in the Army between jobs as a sportswriter for the Charlotte News and later with the Baltimore Evening Sun (1964). He then worked as the Sports' Publicity Director of Philadelphia's St. Joseph's College before joining the Philadelphia Inquirer in 1966. Three years later (1969), he returned to collegiate athletics as Penn State University's Assistant Sports Information Director.

Ernie, who is an avid reader of world and sports' histories, has three children: Michael, 20, and Sherlyn, 19, who are students at Pittsburgh and Penn State, respectively, and Patrick, 15.

DAVID MODELL

Vice President-Marketing,
Assistant to the President
Born: August 16, 1961
Los Angeles, California
15th Year with Browns

David Modell, who first worked for the Browns at the age of 14, was recently (April, 1989) promoted to Vice President of Marketing/Assistant to the President. Previously, Modell, who is 28, had been the team's first ever Director of Marketing.

Modell's appointment was explained by Browns' Executive Vice President Jim Bailey. "The promotion reflects the added importance we've placed, as well as the other NFL teams, on local marketing. Player and operational costs are rising and we are aggressively seeking new sources of income through marketing to balance this inflation. Secondly, David's promotion is an indication of his growing role in our organization," Bailey said.

Modell started the club's marketing department in the Spring of 1985 after serving as a public relations' assistant for a year. Since that time, Modell has significantly increased the team's advertising revenues with such innovations as a 48-page training camp program and numerous game-day sponsorships. At the league level, Modell serves on the Executive Committee for marketing specialists.

Along with his marketing duties, Modell has continually increased his responsibilities with the Browns. For the past three years, he has negotiated player contracts under the direction of Ernie Accorsi. He has served as a coordinator for the Browns' promotional and advertising activities with radio station WWWE, which has the rights to the Browns' broadcasts. Most recently, David was a member of the interviewing group to select new Head Coach Bud Carson.

Modell is deeply involved in the Diabetes Association of Greater Cleveland, where he serves on the Board and Executive Council, while heading their development fund raising. Modell also works with the Lake County Boy Scouts' Association.

As a 14-year old student, David worked Browns' games as a member of the grounds' crew. In the next years, he spent time as a front office aid and training camp intern. After graduating from the The Gunnery School (Washington, Ct.) and attending Wittenberg University, Modell joined the Browns in a fulltime capacity in the team's ticket office (1981-82). He then worked two years as the front office manager for the Fernwood Inn, a resort in the Pocono Mountains (1982-84) before returning to Cleveland in October of 1984. Modell and his wife Olwen, who is a lawyer clerking in the Domestic Relations Division of the Cuyahoga County Courts, live in Kirtland.

RICKY FEACHER

Director of Player Relations, College Scout

Born: February 11, 1954
Crystal River, Fla.

5th Year Browns' Administration
Mississippi Valley State

"One of the most important things I do is to prepare players to make the transition from professional football to a career outside of football," says Ricky Feacher of his responsibilities as director of player relations. Feacher has directed new energy into the Browns' career counseling program—a program that is one of the front-runners in the NFL. Besides these efforts, he is a full-time member of the personnel department, evaluating college talent and handling contract negotiations.

"Ricky functions as our national scout and sees the top prospects," says Executive Vice President of Football Operations Ernie Accorsi. "He has a feel for seeing playing talent that is very rare. Although Ricky has additional responsibilities as Director of Player Relations, he has become a valued member of the player personnel staff as well."

Feacher was on the Browns' active roster for nine years (1976-84). He became a consistent starter in 1981 after playing his first five years behind Hall of Famer Paul Warfield, Dave Logan and Reggie Rucker. Nicknamed "The Hollywood Dude" by his teammates, he was such an effective leader in other aspects that his peers voted him special teams' captain in 1980 and '81. After his football career ended in the summer of 1985, Feacher was hired as assistant to then player relations director Warfield.

Originally drafted as a 10th-round pick in 1976 by New England, Feacher was released three weeks into his rookie season. The Browns signed him as a free agent one week later and Ricky totaled 113 receptions for 2,084 yards and an 18.4 yard per catch average for his career. Only the Browns' Ray Renfro (19.6) and Warfield (19.2) are ahead of him.

As a four-year varsity wide receiver at Mississippi Valley State after earning MVP honors in football, basketball and track at Hernando High School in Brooksville, Fla., Feacher caught 54 passes for 1,062 yards and eight touchdowns his last two college seasons. He has a degree in business administration.

Ricky and his wife, Regina, make their home in Westlake.

CAREER COUNSELING PROGRAM

One of the most innovative player development programs in professional sports, the Cleveland Browns' Career Counseling Program was an idea originally developed by Paul Warfield in 1982 to ease the player's transition from football to a lifelong career. The function of the program is to introduce the active player to the business community prior to retirement from sports and get a head start on the future. This past year, Ricky Feacher, director of player relations, has added new commitment to the program with the appointment of Ben Leibowitz as director of career counseling and player development.

Under Feacher's direction, Leibowitz is responsible for the implementation of degree completion programs, comprehensive testing, selective job placement, other educational programs, and career development. Leibowitz, president of Sports Psychology and Counseling Associates, Inc., is a native of Paterson, N.J., and holds a B.A. in Psychology and a Master's in Counseling Psychology from Seton Hall. He has completed coursework toward his Ph.D. at Fordham University in New York City.

KEVIN BYRNE

Vice President, Director of Public Relations

Born: August 20, 1949
Cleveland, Ohio

9th Year Browns

11th Year NFL

Marquette

Now in his ninth year with the Browns and his 11th NFL season, Kevin Byrne is a Browns' Vice President and the team's Director of Public Relations. Byrne, who was born in Cleveland 40 years ago, joined the franchise in 1981 as the Director of Publicity and earned his promotion to vice president three years later (1984).

While he directs the Browns' public relations' department, Byrne also works closely with the team's operations, ticketing and marketing departments. He has negotiated a number of the Browns' preseason television and radio contracts and helps manage the day-to-day activities during training camp.

Byrne began his NFL career with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1977 when he was named as the then youngest public relations director in the league. He stayed with the Big Red for two years before becoming Director of Public Affairs for Trans World Airline (1979-80). In 1980, St. Louis Magazine selected Byrne as one of 80 St. Louisans "to watch in the '80s."

From 1974-77, Byrne was Sports Information Director at Marquette University, where he worked with Al McGuire and the Warriors' 1977 NCAA basketball champions. His first job after graduating from college was as the "SID" at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. His publications at both schools won numerous national and regional awards from the College Sports Information Directors' Association.

Byrne earned distinction as a member of Alpha Sigma Nu, the national Jesuit Honor Society, while gaining a degree in journalism from Marquette University (1971). He was a member of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" and was a four-year member of the Warrior wrestling team. (Byrne currently helps coach a grade school wrestling team in the Cleveland area). Kevin is a graduate of Lakewood (O.) St. Edwards High School, where he serves on the school's Board of Trustees and Executive Committee.

Kevin and his wife Sally live in Westlake with their four children: daughter Shannon, 13, and sons Sean, 12, Tim, 10, and Conor, 7.

NFL ALUMNI

The Cleveland Chapter of the NFL Alumni would like to contact all former pro football players living in the Cleveland area.

The chapter was formed in 1980 and is one of 32 in the NFL Alumni. Members get involved in several activities throughout the year, including hosting an NFL Alumni Charity Golf Classic, taking part in the Youth of America Week activities each September, and others which foster camaraderie while working on behalf of today's youth.

Jim Houston is president of the Cleveland Chapter. Other officers are vice president Tom Brown, secretary Nick Catanese, and treasurer Jim Houston, Jr.

Those interested should call 1-800-336-4728 or write P.O. Box 2747, Bath, Ohio, 44210.

BUD CARSON

Head Coach

Born: April 28, 1931
Freeport, Pa.

1st Year Browns
33rd Year Coaching
North Carolina

The Cleveland Browns will celebrate their 40th season in the NFL with their seventh full-time Head Coach, the 58-year-old Bud Carson. Owner Art Modell named Carson to the position on Jan. 27, 1989. After 33 years in the coaching profession, a period in which Bud gained a reputation as a "defensive genius" in many quarters, Carson's long awaited opportunity to be an NFL head coach was realized.

"This is the greatest thrill of my professional life," Carson said. "I've waited long, but it's worth it. To coach a team with the great history and tradition of the Browns, one that is so well respected for its commitment to winning - this is an opportunity I've worked hard to gain. The fact that I'm coming to a team that is playoff caliber makes it that much better."

Carson inherits a team that owns the AFC's best record over the past three seasons and has made four straight playoff appearances — also tops in the AFC. "There are very few people who become head football coaches in this league who are lucky enough to step into situations like this," said Bud. "I recognize that. I know what they want here. They didn't bring me in to have the team take a step backwards."

Carson most recently served as defensive coordinator for the New York Jets, and has served in a defensive coordinator's role for five NFL clubs (four in the AFC). "We are absolutely confident that Bud Carson is the right man to help us make the next step, which is to win the league championship, and, hopefully, more than one," Browns' owner Art Modell said. "I have never been involved in a more exhaustive talent search for a coach. We wanted to make sure we studied the whole field and, when we did, Carson became the clear-cut choice. He is an honorable and hard-working man, whose capabilities as a coach are readily evident in his defenses' accomplishments."

Carson knows what the organization, the Cleveland fans and the media expect of him. "We want to do exactly what we've done in the last four years — get in the playoffs," said Carson. "We have proven players who know what it takes to win. We've added some other talent and, importantly, I'm pleased with the coaching staff we put together." Five members have coached in a combined 12 Super Bowl games. In 16 seasons as an NFL assistant, Carson's teams made the playoffs 11 times and played in three Super Bowls, winning twice. Carson first gained notoriety as the architect behind the famed "Steel Curtain" of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1970's. He served as defensive coordinator of the Steelers from 1972-77, a period when Pittsburgh gained the playoffs six straight seasons and won Super Bowls IX and X (1974-75). Three members of that unit - Joe Greene, Jack Ham and Mel Blount - have already been named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"Sure we had good players," Carson said. "The double zone had never been played in the pros. We intercepted (a team-record) 37 passes with it in 1973. In football, if you're the first guy to use something, you've got an edge."

Carson was hired by Chuck Noll as secondary coach of the Steelers in 1972 and assumed the coordinator's position by midseason. "I got a call from Chuck Noll in 1972. He wanted me to coach his secondary. That was a start of a lifelong friendship from a guy who gave me a shot at the right time." The Steelers went 11-3 in Carson's first season and made the playoffs for the first time in 25 years.

THE CARSON FILE

— ON PERSONALITY: "I want us to have a team with backbone with players that get after people. I want to be able to blow people off the line of scrimmage. I don't want to have to throw on third and one. I want this team to have a tough personality - no cheap stuff. Just plain, tough man-on-man football and I think we'll get that personality."

— ON DEFENSE: "I think anybody who plays in our defense will love it because we turn people loose and hopefully allow them to do what they are most capable of doing. We're going to change the defensive system into a more attacking style."

— ON CLEVELAND: "We need to win more games in Cleveland Stadium. This should be the toughest place in the world to play. It's a lot tougher, in my opinion, than Cincinnati and a heck of a lot tougher than Houston. We ought to be the team that's 8-0 at home rather than Cincinnati."

After his run with Pittsburgh, Carson was hired by George Allen as the Los Angeles Rams secondary coach in 1978. Allen was fired after the Rams played only two preseason games, and Ray Malavasi was named head coach. Bud was named defensive coordinator, where he served until 1981. The Rams' defense topped the league in yards allowed in Carson's first season. The following year (1979), the Rams advanced to Super Bowl XIV, where they lost to the Steelers.

In a 24-0 Los Angeles victory on Nov. 4, 1979, Carson's Ram defense held the Seahawks to a negative-26 yards total offense, which is an NFL record. But perhaps an even greater feat occurred when Carson was in Pittsburgh, as the Steelers recorded five shutouts and allowed just two TDs in their final nine games of the 1976 season to qualify for the playoffs.

In 1982, Carson was the defensive coordinator of the Baltimore Colts (under Frank Kush). Although the young Colts suffered through an 0-8-1 campaign, Ernie Accorsi, then-general manager of Baltimore, was greatly impressed with Carson's coaching philosophy and his handling of the players. "Bud made an impression on me that I won't forget," said Accorsi, now the Browns' Executive Vice President of Football Operations. "His knowledge of the game vastly exceeded the talent we put on the field. His defensive schemes were always a few years ahead of time."

A year later, Carson joined the Chiefs as defensive coordinator and secondary coach and, in 1984, he served as a volunteer coach at the University of Kansas.

When Bud joined the Jets in 1985, he immediately rebuilt the defense into the league's eighth-ranked unit after the New Yorkers finished with the 21st best defense in 1984. In 1986, despite losing the entire starting defensive line due to injuries for the final six games, the Jets finished second in the AFC in defense (and did not allow a rushing touchdown until week 11). Making the playoffs as a Wild Card, the Jets stopped the Chiefs, 35-15, and then lost to the Browns at Cleveland Stadium, 23-20 in double overtime, in one of the most memorable games in NFL history. In 1987, the Jets slumped to 6-9, but rebounded in 1988 to an 8-7-1 mark, due in part to a young defense (three rookie starters) that held opponents to 17 points or less in seven of the 16 games, including a 23-3 victory over the Browns in week two at the Stadium. The Jets produced 45 quarterback sacks, second best in the AFC behind Buffalo's 46. New York was tied for fifth in the NFL with 40 takeaways (24 INTs and 16 FRs), behind Minnesota, Philadelphia, Houston and a tie with Green Bay and Seattle. FS-Erik McMillan, a third round pick, was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by A.P. and Football News and earned a Pro Bowl trip.

Carson initiated his coaching career at Scottsdale (PA) High School (near Pittsburgh) in 1955, where he coached for two years (record: 16-2-1). "We had 18 players on our team. I had one rule — nobody get hurt. And nobody did. Nobody ever laid down on the field. We were the toughest team in football. We ran in place during timeouts. It's funny how you remember things like that more than Super Bowls."

Bud entered the collegiate ranks at his alma mater, the University of North Carolina, where he served from 1957 to 1964, and then went to South Carolina (1965). In 1966, he joined the staff at Georgia Tech and succeeded the legendary Bobby Dodd as head coach the following year.

In five seasons, Carson guided the Ramblin' Wreck to a 27-27 record, including a 9-3 mark in 1970 that ended with a 17-9 victory over Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl. Carson's first three Tech teams each finished with a 4-6 record, while the 1971 squad (his final season) gained a 6-6 mark, which included a 41-18 loss to Mississippi in the Peach Bowl.

"I made all the mistakes I could make," recalls Carson. "I was no more ready to be a head coach (at Georgia Tech) than to fly. But I know what's ahead of me now. And I'm going to have some fun doing it."

Born April 28, 1931 in Freeport, Pa., Leon H. "Bud" Carson attended Freeport (PA) H.S. and was an All-Southern Conference defensive back for coach Carl Snively at North Carolina for four years. He spent 30 months in the Marines following graduation. Bud's wife, Linda, is an experienced television news journalist who has worked in Atlanta, Los Angeles, Baltimore, Kansas City, Hartford (Ct.) and Pittsburgh. The Carsons have four children: Dana, 29; Cliff, 28; Gary, 27; and Cathy, 13.

JED HUGHES*Secondary

Born: November 14, 1947
New York, N.Y.

1st Year Browns
20th Year Coaching
Gettysburg College

An 18-year veteran of coaching, Jed Hughes will tutor the Browns' deep and talented secondary, after being appointed by Bud Carson on February 7. Pro Bowl starters Frank Minnifield and Hanford Dixon anchor a unit that did not allow a touchdown pass until the eighth week of the season, and finished sixth in the NFL in passing yards allowed.

Hughes, who is 41, most recently served as linebacker coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1984-88), coaching Pro Bowlers Mike Merriweather and Robin Cole. Originally hired by Noll in 1984 as an outside linebacker coach, Hughes' duties were expanded in 1987 to include the inside linebackers. Hughes' other pro experience was with the Minnesota Vikings as defensive backfield (1982-83) coach under then-head coach Bud Grant.

"Jed Hughes is a very capable teacher," said Bud Carson. "He has coached all (defensive) positions. The group of players we have is a talented one, and they will be under more pressure this season to play man-to-man because we will take some more gambles (rushing the passer) than in the past. Jed's background prepares him for the things we want to do. He comes highly recommended by both Chuck Noll and Bud Grant."

After one year as an assistant at Biglerville (Pa.) High in 1970, Hughes obtained his first college level coaching job at Stanford (1971-72) as an assistant line coach working with both the offensive and defensive lines. In 1973, Hughes went to Michigan as an offensive line coach. Shifting to defense in 1974, he coached the Wolverine linebackers for two seasons. Hughes went to UCLA in 1976 as linebacker coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1977, a position he held until joining the Vikings in 1982.

Hughes attended Springfield (Mass.) College from 1966-67, where he lettered in three sports—football (linebacker, tight end), baseball and wrestling. In 1968, he transferred to Gettysburg College, and played for two seasons as the starting tight end and split end, as well as starting catcher on the baseball team.

In 1970, Hughes was graduated from Gettysburg College with a B.S. in biology and physical education. He received his master's in education from Stanford in 1972 and earned his Ph.D. in education at Michigan in 1975.

HAL HUNTER

Offensive Line

Born: June 3, 1934
Canonsburg, Pa.

1st Year Browns
32nd Year Coaching
Pittsburgh

Ask Bud Carson what his major priorities are as new head coach of the Browns, and he'll tell you one of them is to improve the protection of the quarterback and upgrade the running game. Hal Hunter is the coach that Carson selected for that task in 1989. A veteran of 32 years, Hunter was on the Steelers' coaching staff for the past four seasons.

"Hal's experience and associations over the years qualifies him for one of the more important positions on our staff," said Bud Carson. "He has worked under some excellent coaches. Obviously, we need to protect our quarterback, and we have to run the ball effectively. It all starts up front, and that's why Hal's job is important."

Hunter was hired by the Steelers in 1985 to coach guards and centers. He was part of an offensive line coaching duo along with Ron Blackledge, who coached tackles and tight ends. In 1985 and '86, the Steelers were second in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed, and in 1987 they were 5th. On the ground, the Steelers ranked 7th, 5th and 6th in the NFL (1986-88, respectively) in rushing yards.

"I've been in the AFC for the past seven years, and in the AFC Central the last four," said Hunter. "During that time, I've gained a lot of respect for the Cleveland Browns' organization and Art Modell. I was with Bud, (receivers' coach) Richard Mann and Ernie (Accorsi) in Baltimore, and with (running backs' coach) George Sefcik at Kentucky. That familiarity and the fact that my son is just down the road at Akron and my mother (Freda Wargo) lives in Cleveland, makes it an honor to be joining the Browns."

Hunter, who is 54, is a veteran of 31 years of coaching at the professional and college level. He entered the professional ranks in 1981 as offensive coordinator under Frank Kush for the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League. When Kush went to the Baltimore Colts in 1982, he took Hunter with him as offensive line coach. Hunter was named interim head coach for the Indianapolis Colts for the final game of the 1984 season.

In 1958, Hunter began his college career at Richmond as defensive line coach. He switched to the offensive line for a two-year stint at West Virginia (1962-63), another two years at Maryland (1964-65), followed by five years at Duke (1966-70). Hunter became offensive coordinator at Kentucky (1971-72) and accepted an offensive line assignment at Indiana (1973-76). In 1977, he was named head coach at California State University of Pa., and remained there until joining Kush in the CFL.

Hunter graduated from Pittsburgh in 1956 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education and received his master's in science in 1962 from West Virginia. He was a starting Panther at linebacker and guard from 1953-55. From 1952-54, he was Pitt's heavyweight wrestler and placed fourth in the 1956 AAU wrestling championships.

Hal and his wife Eileen have three children: Hal (offensive line coach at Akron), and two daughters, Heidi (a lawyer in Indianapolis) and Heather (an advertising director in San Diego).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1958-61 (Richmond); 1962-63 (West Virginia); 1964-65 (Maryland); 1966-70 (Duke); 1971-72 (Kentucky); 1973-76 (Indiana); 1977-1980 (Calif. St. University of Pa.); 1981 (Hamilton Tiger Cats); 1982-84 (Baltimore/ Indianapolis Colts); 1985-1988 (Pittsburgh Steelers); 1989 (Browns).

STAN JONES

Strength and Conditioning

Born: November 24, 1931

Altoona, Pa.

1st Year Browns

23rd Year Coaching

Maryland

The Browns hired longtime NFL coach Stan Jones on February 24 as their strength and conditioning coach. A former perennial Pro Bowl lineman, Jones most recently served as defensive line coach for the Denver Broncos. Originally hired by Lou Saban in 1967, Jones spent 18 years with Denver in that capacity. He also worked under Saban in Buffalo from 1972-75, before returning the Broncos in 1976.

Jones was among the first strength coaches in the NFL, serving a dual role as defensive line coach before the advent of full time strength coaches. Two of his products are Pete Martinelli of Oklahoma and Jimmy Williams of the Jets (who started at Nebraska).

"When Dan Reeves became head coach at Denver, he told me, 'Stan, you are going to have to choose between being strength coach and defensive line coach,'" Jones recalled. "I told him I would rather be the strength coach, which had been my first love for 40 years. He said, 'OK, but that means you are going to have to make a lot less money.' I had a younger family then and changed my mind."

"Strength and conditioning has always been my passion. I was going into that field in one form or another now anyway. I am just pleased to be able to do what I always wanted to do and do it with a great organization."

Bud Carson said, "This is a bonus for the Browns. We not only get one of the pioneers in strength and conditioning in this country. . . a guy who trained many of the strength coaches in college and pro football today, but we get a coach of great stature in this league for many years. This also gives me the freedom to use him on the field in various drills if I want to."

1989 will mark Jones' 36th consecutive year in pro football. He played 13 years in the league (1954-1966), 12 with the Chicago Bears and one with the Washington Redskins. He played in seven Pro Bowls and earned All-Pro honors four times as an offensive guard. He played both offensive guard and defensive tackle until 1963, when he played defensive tackle exclusively.

Jones was an All-American tackle at the University of Maryland in 1953 and was named the nation's Lineman of the Year. In 1977, he was named to the Atlantic Coast Conference's 25-year all-star team. He has been honored by the Maryland Alumni Association as Man of the Year, and is a member of Pennsylvania's Sports Hall of Fame.

Stan and his wife, Darlis, have a daughter, Sherrie, and two sons, Kevin and Tony.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1967-71, 1976-88 (Denver Broncos); 1972-75 (Buffalo Bills); 1989 (Browns).

— DID YOU KNOW? —

The Browns have made four straight playoff appearances, the only AFC team to do so. Only San Francisco and Chicago can match that streak in the NFC.

PAUL LANHAM

Special Teams' Coordinator

Born: July 31, 1930

Ripley, West Virginia

1st Year Browns

30th Year Coaching

Glennville (W. Va.) State

Considered a special teams' mastermind, veteran coach Paul Lanham takes over as special teams' coordinator on Bud Carson's new staff. Most recently with the Redskins, Lanham was hired by Washington after the 10th game of the 1987 season, and the Redskins went on to win seven of their next eight games, including a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXII.

A 16-year NFL veteran, Lanham started his pro career with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972 as special teams and offensive backfield coach. He joined the Washington Redskins in 1973, serving under George Allen as special teams' coach from 1973-77. Lanham went to the Los Angeles Rams, where he coached a variety of positions — special teams, quarterbacks and running backs — for five seasons (1978-82). Bud Carson was on that same Rams' staff as defensive coordinator.

"Since the mid-'70s when he was with George Allen and the Redskins, Paul has been considered a kind of expert on special teams," said Bud Carson. "Everyone knows how the Redskins brought him in two years ago to fix their special teams, and they went on to win the Super Bowl. Once Paul told us he was interested in coordinating the special teams, we offered him the job."

In 1983, Lanham rejoined George Allen with the Chicago Blitz (the franchise relocated to Arizona the following season). Browns' defensive line coach John Teerlinck was on that staff in the same capacity. Lanham tutored the Detroit Lions' receivers in 1985-86. He began his coaching career with Delaware in 1960, and coached at Dayton (1961), Colorado State (1962-69) as offensive coordinator, and Arkansas as special teams and tight ends' coach (1970-71).

"I grew up as a Cleveland Browns fan and have long admired Mr. Modell and the organization. I have worked with Bud and several members of his staff and have a great respect for all of them. It's a great opportunity and I'm excited about the possibilities of working in Cleveland for the Browns."

Lanham attended Glenville (W. Va.) State, where he lettered for three years as a linebacker. Paul received his masters degree in educational administration in 1960 from the University of Delaware. He and his wife, Helen, have four children: Tammy (30), Steve (27), Randy (25) and Gary (18).

"I've said it before and I'll say it again," states Bud Carson, "but we'll emphasize special teams. The quickest way to get fired in this league is to have bad special teams."

RICHARD MANN

Wide Receivers

Born: April 20, 1947

Aliquippa, Pa.

5th Year Browns

16th Year Coaching

Arizona State

Richard Mann enters his fifth year with the Browns as receivers' coach. Mann, who has been with the Browns longer than any other coach on Carson's new staff, has played a major role in developing Cleveland's young receiving corps into a productive unit. Mann is no stranger to Bud Carson. They were on the same coaching staff (Baltimore) in 1982.

In 1988, all five Browns' receivers averaged over 12 yards-per-catch. As talented as they are youthful, the group continues to grow and mature along with QB-Bernie Kosar. Even the 1988 injury bug did not escape this group (WR-Webster Slaughter missed eight games), enabling Reggie Langhorne to develop into an every down threat. Veteran Brian Brennan (at 27) has caught more passes than any other receiver selected in the entire 1984 NFL draft. And Slaughter's role as one of the most dangerous pass catchers in the NFL is well known.

"Richard's hard work has certainly paid off in terms of production," said Bud Carson. "Our receivers can get open, they run the correct routes, and have improved every year. That marks the work of a quality coach. The wide receiver position has me most pleasantly surprised. Richard should be commended for the job he has done."

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

14	Otto Graham	45	Ernie Davis
32	Jim Brown	46	Don Fleming
	76	Lou Groza

Mann describes his coaching mode as "demanding" and has been developing receivers for a dozen years on the college level and more recently in the NFL. Among the college players he helped advance are Miami standout WR-Mark Clayton at the University of Louisville. After that, Mann moved on to the pros with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts and maximized the Colts' receiving talent.

With the Colts, Mann worked under then-head coach Frank Kush, whom Mann played under, and later coached for, at Arizona State. At ASU, Mann was a three-year starter (first year at flanker) and caught 28 passes for 340 yards his final two seasons at tight end. After earning a B.S. degree in elementary education, Mann returned to his hometown high school as a teacher and coach from 1970-74.

He returned to ASU and spent six years developing future NFLers like John Jefferson, Bruce Hardy and Jerry Bell. He then moved on to Louisville for two years, before joining Baltimore in 1982. He spent three seasons on that staff before coming to Cleveland in 1985.

Mann and his wife, Karen, have three children: Deven (11), Richard (9) and Mario (7) and reside in Strongsville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1974-79 (Arizona State); 1980-81 (Louisville); 1982-84 (Baltimore/Indianapolis, NFL); 1985-present (Browns).

JOE POPP

Special Assistant to the Head Coach

Born: September 29, 1931
Johnstown, Pa.

1st Year Browns
13th Year Coaching
Catawba College

While new to the NFL, Joe Popp began coaching in 1954, first on the high school level, before moving on to the collegiate and professional levels. Popp's association with new Browns' head coach Bud Carson dates back to 1963 when both were on the University of North Carolina's coaching staff, and continued at Georgia Tech during Carson's tenure as head coach from 1967-71.

"Joe is a fine coach who I've known for many years," said Carson. "He'll assist me in organizing many of the details that go along with being a head coach."

"I'm happy to be a part of the Cleveland Browns," said Popp. "Bud is one super coach with a tremendous mind. I've known him for a long time, and he'll do some things on both sides of the ball that will generate some wins."

Popp, 58, started his career in 1954 as head coach at West Forsyth High School in Winston-Salem, N.C., where he served until 1957. From 1958-61, he moved on to Mooresville (N.C.) High School, where he served as head coach. In 1961, his Mooresville squad won the North Carolina AAA State Championship.

In 1962, Popp took over as freshman and scout team coach at the University of North Carolina, where he served for two seasons. Bud Carson was on the Tar Heels' coaching staff from 1957-64.

From 1964-67, Joe served as defensive coordinator at Wake Forest University. Brian Piccolo graduated from Wake Forest in Popp's first year, and John Mackovich was the Blue Demons' quarterback.

Popp rejoined Carson as a defensive coach at Georgia Tech in 1968, where he stayed until 1972. He served on Abe Gbron's Chicago Fire staff in World Football League in 1974 and '75. He had been self-employed since 1976.

Popp attended Franklin (N.C.) H.S. He earned a football scholarship to Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C., where he lettered for four years in football and three in basketball.

Joe and his wife, Peggy, have three children: Joey, 31, a television reporter in Charlotte, N.C.; Karen, 29, a lawyer in New York City for Sullivan and Cromwell; and Jimmy, 24, who played defensive back for Michigan State and is currently the backfield coach at The Citadel.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1963 (North Carolina); 1964-67 (Wake Forest); 1968-72 (Georgia Tech); 1974-75 (Chicago Fire, WFL); 1989 (Browns).

BUD CARSON ON THE BROWNS' TRANSITION: "There are going to be some bumps in the road we'll try to get over without much problem. I've been involved with transition before. Every time you make a move as a football coach, you're involved with building a defense with unknown people."

DAN RADAKOVICH

Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers

Born: November 27, 1935
Duquesne, Pennsylvania

1st Year Browns
33rd Year Coaching
Penn State

The Browns' new defensive coordinator and linebackers' coach on Bud Carson's staff is Dan Radakovich, 53, who has coached for over 30 years on both sides of the ball. Most recently, Radakovich was with the New York Jets, tutoring the offensive line from 1986-88 and the linebackers in 1985 — his first season with the Jets.

"Rad is a coach I very much wanted to have join our staff," said Bud Carson. "We've worked together at a couple of places and I can tell you he is an outstanding football coach. He will open the eyes of the players with his insights, understanding of the game, and his teaching. Even people who don't follow football closely know what he did with the linebackers at Penn State."

Radakovich began his coaching career at his alma mater, Penn State in 1957, where he tutored linebackers for 13 years (through 1969). He was credited with the development of All-Americans Jack Ham, Dave Robinson and Dennis Onkotz, as the Nittany Lions gained the reputation as "Linebacker U." In 1970, he was named defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati under Ray Callahan. In 1971, he was defensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers, and his impact was immediate.

"I thought he was a master of technique," said Hall of Famer Joe Greene. "He helped me and L.C. Greenwood develop techniques we used our whole careers."

"Rad" then held the same position for Colorado University from 1972-73, before returning to the Steelers in 1974 as offensive line coach. In Radakovich's four years with the Steelers, Pittsburgh won two Super Bowls (1974 and '75). Pro Bowlers' Mike Webster and Jon Kolb were members of the strong Pittsburgh line. In 1978, Dan was named defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers.

Radakovich's career almost paralleled Bud Carson's, as he went to the L.A. Rams as offensive line coach in 1979, where he coached until 1981. In 1979, the Rams went to the Super Bowl (with Carson as defensive coordinator), behind the likes of Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith, all Pro Bowlers. Dan was a football advisor for North Carolina State in 1982, offensive line coach for Denver in 1983, and offensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 1984. He joined the Jets in 1985.

"This is exciting for me because of the chance to work with Bud again, and because I've always looked at the Browns as an organization that worked hard to win," said Radakovich. "I saw that when I was a kid growing up as a Steeler fan when the Browns would always win; and of course, I've seen that from across the field in my time in the NFL."

Radakovich (pronounced rad-a-KO-vich) played linebacker and center for the Nittany Lions from 1954-56. He grew up in Kennywood, PA. Dan and his wife Nancy have a son, Dan (30) and daughters Lisa (25), Leslie (22) and Lori (20).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1957-69 (Penn State); 1970 (Cincinnati); 1971, 1974-77 (Pittsburgh Steelers); 1972-73 (Colorado University); 1978 (San Francisco 49ers); 1979-81 (L.A. Rams); 1982 (North Carolina State); 1983 (Denver Broncos); 1984 (Minnesota Vikings); 1985-88 (N.Y. Jets); 1989 (Browns).

GEORGE SEFCIK

Running Backs

Born: December 27, 1939
Cleveland, O.

1st Year Browns on new staff
27th Year Coaching
Notre Dame

A familiar face on Bud Carson's newly appointed coaching staff, Cleveland native George Sefcik returns to his hometown as the Browns' running backs' coach. Sefcik, who served in the same capacity for the Browns on Forrest Gregg's staff from 1975-77, has coached in the NFL for the past 16 years, most recently as offensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988.

Prior to his appointment with the Chiefs, Sefcik served on the Green Bay Packers' staff for four seasons (1984-87), tutoring the offensive backfield the first two seasons, and the quarterbacks the final two. In 1985, the Packers' running game averaged 4.7 yards per carry, second in the NFL. Sefcik coached the Cincinnati Bengals' running backs from 1978-83. During his tenure, the Bengals made their first Super Bowl appearance following the 1981 season. Before accepting his first position with the Browns in 1975, Sefcik served as offensive backfield coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1973-74.

"It's great to be back in Cleveland," said Sefcik. "I went to Benedictine High School, was raised in Cleveland and I enjoy the community. I feel honored and privileged to be back with a great organization like the Browns, and I'm looking forward to it. I've had to prepare against Bud Carson's defenses before and they have always challenged me. I'm excited to be part of his staff."

A two-way halfback for Notre Dame from 1959-61, Sefcik embarked immediately after college on his coaching career, taking over as head coach at Niles (Ill.) H.S. He returned to his alma mater as a freshman coach under Hugh DeVore in 1963, and when Ara Parseghian became head coach of the Irish, Sefcik tutored the wide receivers for five years (1964-68). The Fighting Irish won National Championships in 1964 and 1966. In 1969, he moved to the University of Kentucky, where he was the Wildcats' offensive coordinator under Johnny Ray for four years (1969-72).

Sefcik helped Benedictine High School bring the state high school title to Cleveland as a 5'-8", 158 lbs. halfback in 1958. An avid golfer and sportsman, George and his wife, Lori, have three children.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1963-68 (Notre Dame); 1969-72 (Kentucky); 1973-74 (Baltimore Colts); 1975-77, 1989 (Browns); 1978-83 (Cincinnati Bengals); 1984-87 (Green Bay Packers); 1988 (Kansas City Chiefs).

LIONEL TAYLOR*Special Assistant/Offense,
Tight Ends*Born: August 15, 1936
Kansas City, Mo.*1st Year Browns
20th Year Coaching
New Mexico Highlands

Former receiving great Lionel Taylor joins the Browns this season to coach tight ends and serve as a special assistant to the offense. Taylor's association with Bud Carson dates back to 1972, when Bud first joined Chuck Noll's Pittsburgh Steelers' coaching staff. Taylor coached the Steelers' wide receivers from 1970-76, and was the senior member on Noll's staff that won back-to-back Super Bowls in 1974-75. Both Carson and Taylor later served on the Los Angeles Rams' coaching staff; Carson as defensive coordinator from 1978-81, while Taylor tutored the Rams' wide receivers from 1977-79, and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1980 and '81.

"Lionel Taylor is a guy with a great background in coaching and we're very fortunate to have him," said Bud Carson. "He has been to three Super Bowls and coached a lot of playoff games. I'm sure our players will be impressed by him. His overall experience, both as a player and a coach, will allow him to make a big contribution to this offense."

"I think it's a great opportunity for me to work for the Browns," said Taylor. "I thought some time ago that Bud Carson would be a great choice as a head coach in the NFL. We've worked together for two different clubs in the past, so I know what he can do. To be a part of his staff is exciting."

Most recently, Taylor served as head coach and athletic director at Texas Southern University in Houston, Texas from 1984-88. Although Texas Southern managed a 13-41-1 record under Taylor, the Tigers' offense averaged over 28 points-per-game in 1986-87, and in 1986, two receivers, Darrell Colbert (currently with K.C. Chiefs) and Donald Narcisse (currently with CFL's Saskatchewan), had 1,000-yard seasons. Prior to going to TSU, Taylor served as receivers' coach at Oregon State from 1982-83.

Taylor distinguished himself as one of the game's receiving greats in his 10-year professional playing career (nine in the old AFL). He totaled 567 receptions playing for the Chicago Bears (1959), Denver Broncos (1960-66) and Houston Oilers (1967-68), which was the second-most ever in the history of pro football at the time of his retirement, and the most in AFL history. He is currently 12th among all-time receivers (tops in AFL history). Taylor caught 100 passes in 1961 for Denver, following a 96-catch year the previous season. Those totals are the second and third most grabs in AFL annals. He led the AFL in receptions in five of his nine years in the league. Taylor is the Denver Broncos' all-time leading receiver, and is a member of the "Ring of Fame" in Mile High Stadium.

On December 13, 1987, Ozzie Newsome caught three passes against Cincinnati to move past Taylor into ninth-place on the NFL's all-time reception list (Ozzie currently stands in sixth place among all-time pass receivers).

Lionel grew up in Lorado, W. Va., then attended New Mexico Highlands, where he was an All-Frontier Conference flanker. He and his wife, Lorencita, have two daughters, Loretta and LaVern.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1970-76 (Pittsburgh Steelers); 1977-81 (Los Angeles Rams); 1982-83 (Oregon State); 1984-88 (Texas Southern, head coach/AD); 1989 (Browns).

JOHN TEERLINCK

Defensive Line

Born: April 9, 1951

Rochester, N.Y.

1st Year Browns

9th Year Coaching

Western Illinois

John Teerlinck, 37, joins the Browns as defensive line coach after a career that has spanned the USFL and college levels. Teerlinck is the youngest member of the Browns' defensive coaching staff.

"I've mentioned the respect I have for George Allen and how much I learned from him in a short time," said Bud Carson. "Well, George gave John Teerlinck the highest recommendation. George said John knew how to teach defensive linemen how to get to the quarterback and that's what we're looking for."

Teerlinck's last coaching job on the professional level was with the Chicago/Arizona Blitz as defensive line coach. He joined the Blitz in 1983, when the franchise was in Chicago. The Blitz transferred to Arizona in 1984 and was renamed the Wranglers. In both seasons, the Blitz led the USFL in defense and quarterback sacks. Of 12 possible All-Pro spots among defensive linemen in the league's two-year existence, the Blitz produced nine.

"It's the chance I've been waiting for," said Teerlinck. "I've been selective as to where I want to coach because I wanted to go to a place where they will get after the passer. That's what we'll do best, is get after the quarterback. After meeting Bud, I knew Cleveland was the organization for me."

Teerlinck entered the coaching ranks as defensive coordinator for Iowa Lakes Junior College in 1977. He took over as defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois University, where he served from 1978-79. In 1978, the Panthers captured the NCAA Division II national championship. Current Raiders' coach Mike Shanahan was the Panthers' offensive coordinator in 1978.

Teerlinck moved to Illinois under coach Mike White, serving as defensive line coach for three seasons (1980-82). During his tenure, John developed seven All-Big 10 linemen. He took over the Blitz' defensive line duties the following season.

An All-Catholic League standout for Fenwick (Oak Park, Ill.) H.S., John later earned first team Little All-America honors at Western Illinois, serving as co-captain. He earned defensive MVP honors in his senior year. John earned his degree in physical education. In 1979, he earned his master's degree in education from Eastern Illinois.

Teerlinck was drafted in the fifth round of the 1974 draft by the San Diego Chargers, and earned a starting defensive tackle position on Tommy Prothro's squad as a rookie. John played for four seasons before a knee injury ended his career.

John owns a highly successful business brokerage firm in Phoenix, which he opened in 1986 and operated from that time until taking the position with the Browns. An avid sportsman, John has among his trophies a world class bull elk.

John and his wife Sue have five children, Ann (14), Bill (11), Mark (9), Molly (5) and Mary (4).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1977 (Iowa Lakes J.C.); 1978-79 (Eastern Illinois); 1980-82 (Illinois); 1983-84 (Chicago/Arizona, USFL); 1989 (Browns).

MARC TRESTMAN*Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks*Born: January 15, 1956
Minneapolis, Minn.*2nd Year Browns
9th Year Coaching
Minnesota

Marc Trestman's steady rise in the coaching ranks escalates in 1989, as he takes over as the Browns' offensive coordinator after serving as quarterbacks' coach in 1988, his first season with Cleveland. Trestman will continue to tutor the Browns' signal callers this season as well. Trestman, 33, is recognized as one of the bright and promising young coaches in the NFL and has coached under some of the game's brightest coaches, such as Howard Schnellenberger, Jimmy Johnson, Bud Grant, Jerry Burns and Ray Perkins.

"When I took this job at the end of January," said Bud Carson, "I was familiar with Marc's philosophies, his intelligence and integrity. Although I didn't hire Marc, I'm pleased he's on our sideline. He develops new ideas and concepts — actually refines them — every day. I haven't been in this business for 30 years without knowing something about offense, and I like what I see with Marc."

Ozzie Newsome, one of the game's greatest players, decided to return for the 1989 season in part because "of my total respect for Marc as a brilliant offensive tactician."

Trestman entered the NFL coaching ranks at the young age of 29 when he joined the Vikings as running backs' coach in 1985. After spending two seasons in Minnesota, Trestman worked in 1987 as the quarterback coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. From 1981 through 1984, Marc worked at the University of Miami.

"I've been fortunate to learn from some quality coaches and, hopefully, they've helped me become a better coach," said Trestman. "I think you take the concepts you've learned from others and try to come up with a combination that allows you to create new ideas."

Trestman began his coaching career while attending law school at the University of Miami. In both 1981 and 1982, he served as a volunteer assistant, spending much of his time the second season with two redshirt freshman quarterbacks named Vinny Testaverde and Bernie Kosar. In 1983, Trestman was the quarterback coach; Kosar was the starter and Miami won the national championship. Trestman remained the quarterback teacher in 1984, Kosar's last collegiate season.

Trestman played quarterback four years (redshirted one season) at Minnesota (1974-77), serving two seasons as a backup to Tony Dungy. Marc played his senior year (1978) at Moorhead (Minn.) State University and was then signed by the Vikings as a free agent defensive back and later released during training camp in 1979. Marc re-signed with the Vikings in 1980 and was released in training camp.

Trestman attended St. Louis Park (Minn.) High School. As a senior quarterback, he was named All State and Prep All America, plus he played basketball and baseball. He graduated from Minnesota with a B.A. in Political Science in 1979, and earned a law degree from Miami and passed the Florida bar in 1983.

Marc is single and resides in Bay Village.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1981-84 (Miami); 1985-86 (Minnesota Vikings); 1987 (Tampa Bay Buccaneers); 1988-present (Browns).

BILL TESSENDORF*Head Trainer*Born: November 26, 1949*Chicago, Illinois*17th Year Browns*Northern Illinois

With a tireless work ethic and a compassion for all, Bill Tessendorf personifies the type of person it takes to be successful in his ever-expanding field. Perhaps never tested as he was last season, when the Browns lost four quarterbacks to injuries, along with a locker room full of ailments (Kevin Mack, Webster Slaughter, et. al.), Bill and his staff still managed to nurse the team onto the field, as the Browns made the playoffs for the fourth time in as many seasons.

"Bill Tessendorf is a dedicated worker who is a very, very valuable member of our organization," says owner Art Modell of the man who is entering his 17th year in the Browns' organization, including sixth as head trainer.

The Ohio Athletic Trainers Association felt that way as well, bestowing upon Bill the Clinical/Professional Trainer of the Year Award last May.

Tessendorf first joined the Browns as an assistant trainer in 1973 while working towards his master's degree in exercise physiology at Kent State. Bill did his undergraduate work at Northern Illinois University, graduating with a B.A. in 1971. He worked as a graduate assistant under Kent State coach Don James in 1971, then took a job as an elementary school teacher in the Dekalb (Ill.) Public School District in 1972.

He returned to Kent State a year later and began assisting Browns' trainer emeritus, Leo Murphy, while working towards his master's, which he received in 1976. "Bill's a fine young man and the team is lucky to have someone with his talents," Murphy said.

"I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with Leo Murphy, Dr. (Vic) Ippolito, Dr. (John) Bergfeld and the other doctors on our staff. They have enhanced my professional career," Tessendorf added. Bill has served for the past year and a half as treasurer of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Bill and his wife, Nan Jean, reside in Medina and are the parents of Amy Ann, who will turn six in February.

STRANGE SEASON

Appropriately titled, the story of the 1988 Cleveland Browns is captured on film, and is now available for viewing by both groups and individuals. "Strange Season" captures the Browns' rocky ride through the 1988 schedule, and documents the relentless "injury bug" that struck the Browns last year. But it also captures the determination of a team that battled to their fourth straight playoff berth. Produced by Louis Schmidt of Emmy Award-winning NFL Films, the film takes a peek at new head coach Bud Carson on the sidelines, in rare footage. An offbeat look at the "Dog Pound," and shots from Carson's initial press conference add to the film's enjoyment. "Strange Season" may be borrowed from one of nine Northeast Ohio public libraries, Cinecraft (25215 Franklin, 781-2300), or the Browns' office at Cleveland Stadium (write Burnie Hairston, Cleveland Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio, 44114). For purchase of video cassettes, telephone 1-800-NFL-TAPE.

LEO MURPHY
 Trainer Emeritus

Of all the kind, generous people who have blessed the Cleveland Browns' organization, perhaps one stands out the most. Leo Murphy will spend his 40th year with the Browns in the capacity of trainer emeritus, having earned well-deserved "semi-retirement." Leo was honored last February by the Cleveland Touch-down Club with the Pro Recognition Award for serving 39 years in the best interest of the organization and the community.

Starting in 1950, when the Browns joined the NFL, Leo's quick wit has made the pressures of the locker and training room a pleasant experience for the team.

In 1947, Murphy graduated from Notre Dame, then went on to work with the AAFC's Chicago Rockets and baseball's New York Yankees. Murphy has long been regarded as one of the top trainers in the world, evidenced by induction into the National Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame in 1982.

Leo and his wife, Betty, have two children, Nancy and Martin, and three grandchildren. The Murphys live in Medina.

CHARLEY CUSICK
Equipment Manager
Born: October 7, 1950
San Bernadino, Calif.
20th Year Browns

Charley Cusick is a living example of what hard work and determination can do for an athlete who has resolved to make it to the pros, even after a severe injury has cut short his chance of playing the game.

Cusick, who has the talent and physique of a professional athlete, had his career cut short by a severe knee injury. However, the Lakewood High School product still found his way to professional football 20 years ago as an assistant to long-time Browns' equipment manager Morrie Kono.

In 1974, Cusick was named equipment manager, replacing Kono, a pioneer in the football equipment business.

As equipment manager, Cusick coordinates the purchasing and maintaining of equipment for the Browns, as well as the operations involved in transporting these from Baldwin Wallace to training camp at Lakeland Community College, Cleveland Stadium, road sites and on to the offseason training headquarters at Big Creek Racquet Club.

The transporting of equipment between NFL cities is a task in itself, but Charley and his staff will coordinate the transport of the club's gear to London, England in 1989 after a trip to Canada in 1988. They also equipped the AFC Pro Bowl squad following the 1986 and 1987 seasons.

Cusick lives in Bay Village with his wife, Patty.

DOM ANILE*College Scout*Born: December 19, 1937*Brooklyn, N.Y.*7th Year Browns*C.W. Post

With an impressive 24-year college coaching career behind him, Dom Anile joined the Browns' scouting staff seven years ago. Anile, while an offensive coordinator at Columbia, was first introduced to the club when he worked three consecutive Browns' training camps assisting the offensive line coach.

A Brooklyn, N.Y. native, Anile is a 1959 graduate of C.W. Post. He was a three-year letter winner in both football and baseball at Post where he captained the football team two years and was MVP as a senior. Immediately after attending graduate school at Brooklyn College, Anile began his coaching career and served in a number of capacities, including offensive coordinator at Post from 1959 to 1967.

"Dom is the senior member of our staff," said Executive Vice President of Football Operations Ernie Accorsi. "He has been largely responsible for the East Coast area, but in our system of cross checks, he has seen most of the top players the past two seasons. Dom brings to our department the value of a great coaching career at Post college and many years of scouting experience."

In 1968, he was named head coach at Post and became one of the most successful college division coaches during the next 12 years. His teams compiled an 84-33-1 (.716) record and twice won the Lambert Bowl as the East's top team — 1973 (10-1) and 1976 (8-2).

Selected as Eastern College Coach of the Year in 1973, Anile was also picked as New York's Metropolitan Coach of the Year four times. Dom joined the Columbia staff in 1980 and was the team's offensive coordinator prior to accepting the Browns' position.

Dom currently resides in Strongsville.

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the league. During the procedure the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so — thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the offseason and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to recind its action (known as a recall of a waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 15, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

TOM DIMITROFF*College Scout*Born: June 6, 1935
Barberton, O.3rd Year Browns
Miami University (Ohio)

When opportunity knocked, Tom Dimitroff didn't hesitate to take advantage of it. The opportunity was an invitation in 1987 to join the Browns' organization and return to his home state. After 32 years of football experience in the U.S. and Canada, the hard-working Dimitroff was ready to come home. He enters his third full year with the club, having already scouted for the 1987 and '88 drafts.

"After a coaching career which spanned college and the Canadian Football League, Tom came to us three years ago with a unique background to scouting," said Executive Vice President of Football Operations Ernie Accorsi. "Tom handles the mid-section of the country, where so many great players have come from, especially lately. He is a sound evaluator of playing talent and has great insight and experience. His firm, no-nonsense approach to the job makes him very important to the personnel department."

Tom, a 1953 graduate of Barberton H.S. and Miami University (Ohio), was a quarterback for the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1957-58), and the American Football League's Boston Patriots (1960). After football, Dimitroff managed an Akron restaurant for four years, then started his coaching career as an assistant for Wadsworth H.S. (1965-68) and Barberton H.S. (1968-69). He began coaching on a collegiate level as an assistant at Miami (Ohio) from 1969-72, and then at Kansas State University in 1973. He moved into the professional ranks in 1974 as the offensive coordinator for the Ottawa Rough Riders (through 1977).

In 1978, Dimitroff was named head coach of the Hamilton Tiger Cats, and then returned to the collegiate level as head coach of the University of Guelph (1979-83), where his five-year record was 21-13-1. Rejoining the Rough Riders in 1984, he served as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator, later moving over to the scouting department as director of player personnel (1985-86).

A challenge on the racquetball court, Tom and his wife Helen have three children, Randy (27), Sharon (26) and Thomas (23). The Dimitroff family currently resides in Strongsville.

GARY HORTON*College Scout*Born: May 6, 1947
Santa Monica, Calif.3rd Year Browns
L.A. Baptist College

Beginning his third year with the club as an area scout, Gary Horton has accumulated 16 years of substantial expertise in evaluating college and pro football talent. His organizational skills well documented, Horton joined the Browns in 1987 after four years of scouting potential players for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

"Gary is responsible for coordinating and scheduling the department, as well covering a large section of the country and then cross-checking the top prospects," said Executive Vice President of Football Operations Ernie Accorsi. "His capacity for work is amazing. He is thorough, talented, and in my opinion, has a bright future in the National Football League."

Horton attended Chaffey Junior College and Cal State Northridge, where he played football and earned two letters. He received his bachelor of science degree from L.A. Baptist College in 1969. After college, Horton taught school and coached at Scottsdale (Ariz.) H.S. from 1970-71, and at Marcos DeNica (Tempe, Ariz.) H.S. in 1972. He joined Arizona State's coaching staff and served as Frank Kush's chief recruiter from 1973-79.

Serving as Director of Player Personnel under Mike White at Illinois (1979-82), Horton concentrated on player evaluation and recruitment. While with the Fighting Illini, he was credited with recruiting a number of standout junior college players, including current NFL quarterbacks Tony Eason, Jack Trudeau and Dave Wilson. Horton joined the Bucs as a college personnel scout (1983-86) and covered the eastern region of the United States.

Gary lives in the Cleveland suburb of Brook Park.

MIKE LOMBARDI

Pro Personnel Director

Born: June 19, 1959

Ocean City, N.J.

3rd Year Browns

Hofstra University

Mike Lombardi was given the title of Pro Personnel Director last May after six years as an NFL scout established him as one of the league's youngest and brightest. Mike's evaluation techniques and knowledge of the game are impressive, despite his youth (30). He spent three years scouting for the San Francisco 49ers' personnel staff before joining the Browns in 1987.

"Mike Lombardi has obviously experienced a rapid rise in his NFL career," said Executive Vice President of Football Operations Ernie Accorsi. "He handles the pro personnel department for the Browns, along with scouting many of the top college prospects. He has terrific instincts for this business, along with an encyclopedic recall of players and events."

Lombardi also assists Accorsi in contract negotiations. A native of Ocean City, N.J., Mike lettered in both football and baseball at Valley Forge Military Academy (Wayne, Pa.). He attended Hofstra University (1978-81), where he played nose tackle for the Flying Dutchman. He started his football career as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas (1982-83).

Just prior to the 1984 NFL Draft, Lombardi joined the 49ers' staff (1984-87), and coordinated all scouting reports in addition to evaluating college talent in the northeast region before switching to the southwest and western regions in 1985.

An avid baseball and basketball fan, Mike and his wife, Millie Kluzinski, reside in Strongsville with their infant son, Michael.

— DID YOU KNOW? —

In the last three years, the Browns' 32-15 regular season record is the AFC's best. Only Chicago (37-10) and San Francisco (33-13-1) own better records in the NFL during that time span.

PRO: Had best season of career in 1988, earning offensive MVP honors from the Cleveland Touchdown Club and Browns' Backers ... Enters the 1989 season as the Browns' all-time FG percentage leader (.751, 127 of 169), including a phenomenal inside-the-40 accuracy rate of .823 (102 of 124) as a Brown ... Has missed just four PATs (208 of 212) for a club record 98.1% success rate ... Will join Jim Brown as the only Cleveland player to score 100 or more points in three seasons if he reaches that milestone again in '89 ... Browns acquired Bahr in a trade with 49ers in 1981 for a ninth-round draft choice in 1983 (49ers traded pick to Chicago) ... Is currently fifth on AFC (sixth on NFL) top 10 active scorers' list with 807 points ... Has scored 589 points in a Cleveland uniform (fourth-best in club history and third-best kicker) ... Has led Browns in scoring in seven seasons (1981-86, 1988) ... All 16 of his career FGs inside the 20 have been good ... Originally drafted by Pittsburgh in sixth round of '79 draft (165th player selected overall) ... Was released by Steelers on 8/31/81, signed by San Francisco on 9/8/81 and traded to Cleveland on 10/6/81 ... Serves as Browns' alternate player rep ... Played soccer for Colorado Caribous and Tulsa Roughnecks of NASL in 1978 (26 games, three assists).

1988: Tied his own individual team mark by making 24 of 29 FGAs ... Also tied career-high with 104 points by hitting 32 of 33 PATs ... Two three-pointers were blocked, and only PAT miss was blocked ... FG success rate of 82.7% was third in AFC (fourth in NFL) ... Kickoff/touchback ratio was 64/9 ... Sacrificed body by making five tackles, including a touchdown-saving tackle of Allen Pinkett in playoff-clinching 28-23 win over Oilers (12/18) ... Was leveled on a fake field goal attempt by LB-Ron Burton vs. Dallas (12/4) in the first quarter and suffered bruised ribs (kicked remainder of game with a flak jacket) ... Moved into fourth place on Browns' all-time scoring list at Phoenix (10/23) by connecting on two FGs (46, 23 yards) and three PATs, surpassing Leroy Kelly's 540 career points ... After having first attempt of season blocked at Kansas City (9/4), he hit on a string of 10 straight successful three-pointers ... Streak ended when Seattle's (10/9) Jeff Bryant blocked a 25-yard attempt, which was returned 62 yards by S-Paul Moyer (QB-Mike Pagel separated shoulder making the tackle) ... His first miss that was not blocked was a 39-yard attempt wide left vs. Eagles (10/16) ... His only errant PAT was blocked by the Eagles ... Had season-long 47-yard field goal in the first quarter to knot score, 3-3, in Browns' 23-3 loss to the Jets (9/11) ... Was his longest field goal since he kicked a 52-yarder at Minnesota on 10/26/86 ... In 6-3 win over Chiefs in opener, hit 19-yarder with no time remaining to knot score 3-3 at end of first half, then booted game-winning 38-yarder with 25 seconds remaining ... Tied a club playoff record with three field goals in the playoff loss to Houston (12/24) ... In addition to special teams' honors (see Pro section), earned Pro of the Year Award from Fairview (Oh.) American Legion.

1987: Spent most of the season on the physically unable to perform list after 1986 knee injury (see 1986) ... Was activated 12/12 for the final three games due to experience factor and health as Browns came down stretch and into playoffs ... Was four of five in field goal attempts and nine of 10 in PATs (one PAT was blocked at Pittsburgh, 12/26) ... Only miss was a 37-yarder that hit the right upright at the L.A. Raiders (12/20) ... Did not kickoff, as P-Lee Johnson handled those chores ... In two playoff games, was two of three in FGAs and nine of nine in PATs.

1986: Was having best season of career, on pace to club-record 26 field goals before knee injury ended season vs. Pittsburgh (11/23) ... Bahr's replacement, Mark Moseley, hit six of seven FGs, as Cleveland ended-up with a team record 26 FGs scored ... Booted 20 of 26 three-pointers and connected on 30 of 30 PATs to lead club in scoring with 90 points (11th in AFC) ... Injured right knee vs. Steelers making touchdown-saving tackle of Lupe Sanchez ... Placed on IR 11/25 ... Matched career-long 52-yard field goal vs. Minnesota (10/26) ... Tied for fourth-longest field goal in team annals.

1985: Attempted career-low 18 FGs (excluding 1982 strike-shortened season) and made 14 for 77.8% mark (fifth best in AFC and ninth in league) ... 77 points ranked 13th in conference ... Had career-long 14 straight FGs before 36-yard miss vs. Patriots in game five.

1984: Broke Lou "The Toe" Groza's 31-year old Browns' record for most FGs in a single season when he booted his 24th three-pointer at Houston in season final ... Made all 25 PATs attempted ... Finished season by making 12 in-a-row, after making only 12 of first 20 FGA ... Tied Steelers' Gary Anderson for first in FGs made (24) and for third in FG percentage (75%) among AFC kickers ... Ranked eighth in scoring with 97 points.

1983: Won NFL kicking title by making 21 of 24 field goal attempts for an 87.5% mark — then fourth best single-season mark in NFL history ... Only Groza's 88.46 mark (1953) is higher in Browns' history ... Concluded season by making 17 of 18 FGs and nine straight ... Had string of 78 consecutive PATs halted vs. Seahawks (10/2).

1982: Finished season by making five of seven FGs after struggling through worst slump (two of eight) in beginning of year ... Connected on a 44-yard FG and PAT in rain, wind and mud at Cleveland Stadium (12/19/82), to help defeat former Steeler teammates, 10-9 ... 52-yard FG at Raiders (1/8/83) tied then NFL record for longest in postseason play.

1981: Joined Browns in trade from 49ers five days before facing Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium (sixth game) ... Despite appearing in just 11 games with Browns, led team in scoring with 61 points (18 with S.F.) ... Made 13 of 20 FGAs (eight of eight inside 30) and was perfect in 22 extra point tries as a Brown ... Made all 12 PATs and two (47 and 43 yards) of six FG attempts with S.F. ... 24-yard FG with 43 seconds remaining topped former 49er teammates and Super Bowl XVI champs, 15-12.

1980: Steelers' leading scorer with 96 points (sixth in AFC and ninth in NFL) for second straight season ... Finished Pittsburgh career with 200 points (ninth on Steelers' all-time list) ... Made 39 of 42 PATs.

1979: Named to UPI's All-Rookie team after finishing year by making 11 of 12 FGs, including seven straight ... Topped rookie campaign with 41-yard FG in Super Bowl XIV victory against L.A. Rams ... Steelers' all-time highest rookie scorer with 104 points (second in AFC and fourth in NFL that year) ... Hero of Steelers' 33-30 OT win over Browns at Three Rivers Stadium (11/25) as Bahr booted 21-yard FG to tie game with 24 seconds left in regulation, and won it with 37-yarder with nine seconds left in overtime ... Game also marked best single-game performance of career (15 points; 4-5 FGs and 3 PATs) ... Had career-high six PATs vs. Browns (10/7) at Cleveland.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Set NCAA records senior year for FGs (22) and FG percentage (.815) ... Scored 191 points for Penn State, third most in school history ... In three years as regular, connected on 39 of 61 (.639), including long of 50; was 74-77 PATs ... Four-year starter for Penn State soccer team and was elected captain senior season ... Member of P.S.U. all-time football team (kicker), beating out older brother Chris (Chargers) ... Chris has scored 1,133 career points ... Chris passed California Bar Exam ... Father retired as soccer coach at Penn State after 14 seasons in 1988 and played on U.S. World Cup team that beat England, 1-0, in 1950; and brother Casey was All-American soccer player at U.S. Naval Academy and played on U.S. Olympic team in Munich (1972) ... Earned undergraduate B.S. degree in electrical engineering in 1979 and earned M.B.A. in 1987 ... Devotes a great deal of time to a number of charitable organizations in Ohio and Pennsylvania ... Co-chairman (along with Dan Fike and Mike Johnson) of the Browns' 65 Roses Sports Club (benefiting Cystic Fibrosis) ... Owns and operates an audio processing equipment company (Texar, Inc.) ... Lives in Pittsburgh during off-season with wife Maresa and daughters Lindsey Davies (12/10/83) and Caitlin Dorothy (2/23/87) ... Full name: Matthew David Bahr.

K-MATT BAHR ON HIS ACCURACY: "One of the nice things about being a kicker is you never look to the past. It doesn't help you on the next kick. So whether you've made the last field goal or missed it, it won't help you on the next one. That's all the Browns are worried about too — the next one."

PRO: Enters 1989 with 122-1/2 sacks in 156 games ... Rejoins Browns (signed as an unprotected free agent on 3/31/89) after playing for Minnesota Vikings in 1988 ... Joined Browns on 9/3/87 in a trade with the St. Louis Cardinals for a fifth-round draft choice ... Placed on waivers on 8/29/88, and was signed by the Vikings (see 1988) ... Originally a second round draft choice of the Detroit Lions in 1978 ... Earned 1978 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors after recording 23 QB sacks, including five vs. Tampa Bay (11/12/78) ... Was named to the Pro Bowl three consecutive years (1978-80) ... Traded to the Cardinals on Sept. 19, 1983 for DT-Mike Dawson and a third round pick in the 1984 draft.

1988: Placed on waivers by Cleveland on 8/29/88, and was signed by the Vikings ... Recorded 5-1/2 QB sacks among his 31 tackles, while playing 14 games, including four starts ... Also forced a fumble and was credited with a safety ... Suspended for one game (at Miami, week five) as a league-imposed disciplinary action ... At Dallas (11/13), had 1-1/2 sacks and a safety, along with four tackles ... Recorded six tackles (five solo) in playoffs.

1987: Joined the Browns in time for the final preseason game in Milwaukee vs. the Packers ... Finished third on Browns with four sacks for 29 yards and added two more in the playoffs ... Four of season's nine tackles were sacks ... Played RDE in passing situations (usually a four-man front) ... Combination of groin pull suffered on 10/26 during 30-17 win over Rams and a foot injury sustained in 40-7 Houston victory (11/22) limited mid-season playing time ... That game also marked his only start of the season, and saw him recover a Warren Moon fumble caused by Carl Hairston ... Crushing fourth-quarter sack of Colts' QB-Jack Trudeau in 38-21 playoff win over Indianapolis (1/9/88) knocked Trudeau out of the game ... Blocked a field goal at Pittsburgh (12/26) that would have given Pittsburgh a 3-0 lead, but Browns went on to jump to a 9-0 lead and eventually a 19-13 win to clinch their third straight AFC Central crown.

1986: Recorded 10 QB sacks among 60 tackles for Cards after signing a contract on Sept. 2 ... Ranked ninth in NFC in QB takedowns ... Marked seventh time in career he recorded 10 or more sacks ... Returned to right defensive end, a position he played for Detroit (1978-82) ... Recorded two sacks vs. K.C. (11/23).

1985: Recorded 58 tackles (tied for team lead among defensive lineman with Curtis Greer), four sacks, and four batted balls while starting all 16 games at left defensive end.

1984: Recorded 34 tackles and 10 QB sacks, while starting 15 games ... Missed L.A Rams (11/4) game with a thigh injury ... Finished season with career total of 99 sacks in 99 games ... Recorded a blocked PAT vs. Miami (9/30).

1983: Acquired in a trade with Detroit (9/19) and played left defensive end for first time in career ... Recorded 13-1/2 QB sacks and led linemen with 57 tackles ... Recorded three sacks vs. Eagles (12/18) in snowstorm ... Snagged career-high two interceptions and career-high two fumble recoveries on season ... Started all 16 games.

1982: Started eight of nine games ... Recorded 8-1/2 sacks and 34 tackles.

1981: Missed five games with a severe muscle pull, yet managed to finish second on team with 10 sacks ... Interception vs. Dallas (11/15) keyed victory for Lions first win over Cowboys since 1960, 27-24 ... Finished season with 67 sacks in 58 NFL games.

DE-AL BAKER ON BEING A ROLE PLAYER: "It's an adjustment a player has to make when he realizes he's not the superstar of the team. I'm used to carrying a defense. Now, I'm finding I need to make a whole new adjustment mentally and physically in playing a certain role. Now that I'm a role player, it may seem easier, but it's more difficult to stay in the game. I'm an emotional person."

PRO: Up-and-coming defensive end signed with Cleveland as an unprotected free agent on 2/15/89 after two seasons with Houston ... Expected to compete for starting defensive end spot ... A quick learner who impressed coaches at last May's mini-camp ... "He has in no way reached the potential and techniques he'll need," said John Teerlinck, the Browns' new defensive line coach, "but I think this guy's got the ability to make it happen." ... Originally picked in the seventh round (176th overall) of the 1987 draft by the Oilers ... Spent his rookie year on injured reserve (see 1987) ... Converted to linebacker from defensive end as a senior at Notre Dame.

1988: Played in 14 games, plus one of the Oilers' two playoff games (loss to Buffalo) ... Totaled four solo tackles, and batted two passes ... Rushed from inside position in Oilers' four-man line on third down, but not until late in the season ... Totaled two special teams' tackles.

1987: Spent the entire season on injured reserve with a dislocated finger that was surgically repaired, and also suffered a knee injury in late-season practice that required post-season arthroscopic surgery.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Played linebacker in his first three seasons for the Fighting Irish, and was switched to defensive line as a senior ... Started 34 of 44 games and made 190 tackles (115 solo), five QB sacks, two fumbles forced and recovered, 17 tackles for losses ... Was selected Notre Dame's outstanding lineman as a senior and played in the East-West Shrine game ... Senior totals included 57 tackles, four QB sacks and eight loss-tackles to earn honorable mention All-America ... Played four different positions at South Bend including inside and outside linebacker, defensive tackle and defensive end ... Lettered at Hampton (Va.) H.S. in football and basketball ... Was only player in state history to earn All State honors on both offense and defense (linebacker and offensive line) ... Was selected as National Defensive Player of the Year by Columbus Touchdown Club ... Has only a few hours left to complete degree in psychology, and returned to Notre Dame this past offseason to continue studies ... Full name: Robert Nathan Banks.

DE-ROBERT BANKS ON BUD CARSON: "His defensive philosophy from his years with the Steelers and Jets was very appealing to me. It's based upon an attacking defense, the way I think the game should be played. When you watch the Jets and Steelers, you know they come after you on defense. You run hard, you play hard, 100 miles an hour until you drop."

— DID YOU KNOW? —

The Browns sold out their last seven home games in 1988, including the Wild Card game on December 24. Cleveland fans totaled 615,545 during the regular season. That total is the second-most in franchise history. The Browns have drawn over 600,000 fans three times: 620,496 in 1980; 615,545 in 1988; 601,725 in 1981.

OFFENSIVE TACKLE/GUARD*RICKEY BOLDEN

6'-4", 280 lbs., 6th Year
 Southern Methodist
 Hillcrest (Dallas, Tex.) H.S.
 Born: September 8, 1961
 Dallas, Tex.
 Draft 4a, 1984

GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: (1984, 12/9); (1985, 16/9); (1986, 7/5); (1987, 5/5); (1988, 16/3) Total 56/31

PRO: Perhaps the best athlete on the offensive line, Rickey has shown versatility by playing both guard and tackle ... Had two-year injury streak, ending the 1986 and '87 campaigns on injured reserve ... Missed 19 games due to injuries ... Streak continued with a broken thumb suffered in the early part of the '88 season, but played with a cast on his hand ... Originally drafted as a tight end, but made transition to offensive line in 1985 after bulking frame to 280 lbs ... Excellent blocker who was highest draft selection of starting offensive line unit in 1986 and 1987, although Gregg Rakoczy (D2-'87) won the starting center job in 1988 ... Selected in the fourth round of the 1984 draft (pick was obtained from Denver, 96th overall, in exchange for WR-Dave Logan) ... Was also picked by USFL Oakland in the fourth round in 1984.

1988: Alternated quarters at both LG and LT throughout season ... Hampered by a broken thumb at beginning of the season ... Started at left guard vs. Dallas (12/4) for Larry Williams (injured shoulder) and at Houston (11/7), marking 50th career game and 30th career start ... Started at Phoenix (10/23) at LT for ailing Paul Farren (knee), and had a lineman's dream come true when he caught a three-yard Kosar TD pass to open the scoring for the Browns on a tackle-eligible play ... Started the playoff loss vs. Houston (12/24) at left guard, in place of Larry Williams.

1987: Started first four "union" games and last replacement game at left tackle before going down at San Diego (11/1) with a broken ankle ... Placed on injured reserve and fitted with a large cast for the remainder of the season and throughout the playoffs.

1986: Started first five games of the season at left tackle after recovering from offseason surgery to repair dislocated shoulder ... Won starting LT position in training camp with steadily improving play ... In Browns' victory over Steelers in Pittsburgh (10/5), suffered broken left arm on winning four-yard TD run ... Placed on injured reserve (10/8) and was not activated until 12/13 ... Slowly worked way back into lineup, and started AFC Championship Game vs. Denver (1/11/87).

1985: Started nine games at three different OL positions ... Played in all 16 games ... First three starts were at RT for injured Cody Risien (games 5-7); next three starts were at RG for ailing Dan Fike (11-13), and last three starts were for injured Paul Farren at LT (weeks 14-16, plus playoff game at Miami) ... Played on all PAT and FG protection units ... Received Most Improved Lineman of the Year Award from Browns' Backers Central for '85 performance.

1984: Used almost exclusively rookie season as a blocking tight end ... Separated his shoulder at Atlanta (11/18/84) and missed balance of season (placed on injured reserve 11/21) ... Started nine of first 12 games, including eight straight before season-ending injury ... Caught one pass (19 yards at Cincinnati), but fumbled after the grab.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: SMU's starting TE from 1981-1983; main duties were to clear path for the "Pony Express" of Eric Dickerson and Craig James, statistically the greatest RB tandem in collegiate history ... Made every catch count senior season when he scored four TDs on just eight receptions ... Scored a total of nine TDs on 19 catches during his college career ... Earned starting TE role as sophomore after being hampered by injuries as freshman ... 1982 second-team All-SWC by AP and UPI ... AP All-America honorable mention, AP first-team All-SWC and second-team All-SWC (UPI and players) in 1983 ... Lettered four seasons and captain senior year ... Played in 1980 Holiday Bowl, 1983 Cotton Bowl, Mirage and Sun Bowls ... Earned B.S. in elementary education ... One of 100 players selected to National Coaches' All-America team (TE and LB) after senior year at Hillcrest H.S. in Dallas ... Also gained all-state honors as a center in basketball and was high jumper on track team ... Shared apartment at SMU with 1984 Olympic silver medalist (shot put) and 49er NT Michael Carter ... Has four brothers and four sisters ... Lives in Cleveland suburb of Westlake ... Married to Glenda Hicks of Dallas ... After tough outing in Browns' preseason victory over Raiders in 1986 when he was called for five holding penalties, Glenda called Rickey after watching the nationally televised game ... Bolden recalls, "She said, 'You don't hold me that much in an evening.' I said I'd have to start holding her more. Balance the scales. Instead of holding her five times, I'll hold her six." ... Full name: Rickey Allen Bolden.

PRO: Has caught more career passes (211) than any other WR drafted in 1984 ... Stands in 11th place among all-time Browns' receivers with 2,966 yards on 211 receptions ... Needs 58 yards to move past Greg Pruitt (3,023) into 10th place ... Led Browns in receptions (among WRs) first three years, while finishing second among WRs in both '87 and '88 ... Was Browns' second pick in the fourth round of 1984 draft (104th overall) ... Was ninth receiver selected ... Has completed two passes on two attempts in career, one for a TD ... Enters 1989 with a six-game catch streak.

1988: Finished third on club, second among WRs with 46 receptions for 579 yards, with one TD ... Only one other non-starting WR in AFC caught more passes (Miami's Jim Jensen: 58) ... Reception total ranked 21st in AFC (for second straight year) ... Caught a pass in 15 of 16 games and 22 in the final six games ... Caught season-high six passes for 71 yards vs. Dallas (12/4) ... Had four receptions for 47 yards at Washington (11/27), including a clutch 21-yard reception on third-and-10 in the Browns' winning TD drive ... Led club with six catches for 59 yards at Denver (11/13) ... Did not catch a pass at Houston (11/7), breaking a 13-game catch string ... Caught an 11-yard TD pass from Mike Pagel at Cincinnati (9/25) ... Started for injured Webster

Slaughter (hamstring) vs. Jets (9/11) and caught one pass for seven yards ... Grabbed two passes for 34 yards in Wild Card loss to Houston (12/24).

1987: Topped conference among non-starting WRs and finished third on club with 43 catches for 607 yards (14.1 avg.) ... Marked first time in three years that he didn't lead club in receptions ... After a fast start (22 receptions in first five games), was often double-teamed, yet still caught 21 more balls in last eight games ... Second on club among WRs behind Webster Slaughter's 47 catches ... Six TD receptions ranked second on club behind Slaughter's seven and matched his previous season high set in 1986 ... Reception total was 21st in AFC, while yardage total ranked 19th ... Had a TD reception in four of the first five games he played in ... Finished tied for third on club behind Byner (60) and Slaughter (42) in non-kicking scoring with 36 points ... Had career-best 10 receptions for 139 yards and a TD at Cinc. (10/18) in final strike game ... Caught seven passes for 73 yards (tops among WRs) in playoffs, including a two-yard scoring toss from Kosar vs. Indianapolis (1/9/88) to put the Browns up, 31-14, in the fourth quarter.

1986: Set career single-season highs while leading the team with 55 receptions for 838 yards (15.2 avg.) and six touchdowns ... Was the first time since 1980, when RB-Mike Pruitt caught 63 passes, that TE-Ozzie Newsome has not led the club in receptions ... Became the first wide receiver to lead the club since Dave Logan caught 59 passes in 1979 ... Finished 20th in AFC in receptions despite not starting a contest ... Won game ball for effort in season finale vs. San Diego, when he gained 176 yards (fifth-best in club history) on seven receptions ... Tied career long gain with a 57-yard touchdown reception vs. Chargers (12/21) ... Also earned game ball vs. Houston (11/30), when he caught seven passes for 76 yards, including a 33-yard TD pass from Kosar in the fourth quarter ... Recorded five tackles on special teams ... Completed a 35-yard pass to WR-Reggie Langhorne vs. Detroit (9/28) ... Caught eight passes in playoffs, including four for 69 yards vs. Jets (1/3/87) and four for 72 yards vs. Denver (1/11/87) to give the Browns a fourth-quarter lead.

1985: Led Browns' wideouts with 32 catches for 487 yards (15.2 avg.), including 13 receptions for 183 yards in last three contests ... Missed first four games of season after injuring reserve 9/3 and activated 10/2 ... Returned 19 punts for an 8.1 average.

1984: As a rookie, missed considerable playing time as result of broken bone in his hand, but still recorded the most catches by a rookie WR (35 for 455 yards) since HOFer Paul Warfield grabbed club-record 52 in 1964 ... Injured his hand against Steelers (9/23/84) and missed following game at Kansas City, but played in remaining 11 games, starting three ... Scored first two NFL TDs (14 and 7 yards) vs. Oilers (11/25) ... Closed out initial season with 17 receptions for 161 yards and three TDs in last five games ... Finished second on team in receptions to TE-Ozzie Newsome's club-record 89 ... Brennan's 35 catches were most by any rookie since Newsome had 38 in 1978 ... Was also Browns' leading punt returner with 25 for 199 (8.0 average).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Finished career at Boston College as the all-time leading receiver in all pass catching categories ... Three-year totals included: 115 receptions for 2,180 yards (19.0 avg.) and 14 TDs ... PRO: Teams with partner Frank Minnifield to give Browns' one of the top cornerback tandems in the NFL ... Named to the Pro Bowl (starter in '86 and '87) last three seasons ... Selected as the NFL Alumni's Defensive Back of the Year following his stellar '87 season ... Teamed with Pro Bowl CB-Frank Minnifield to give Browns the NFL's only starting cornerback duo in Pro Bowl history following the 1987 season ... Duo repeated that feat last season when Dixon was named to squad, and injury to voted starter Albert Lewis (K.C.) gave Hanford his third straight start ... Is originator of "Dawgs" nickname for defense ... Was Cleveland's first pick in 1981 draft, 22nd player selected overall, and the fifth defensive back selected behind Kenny Easley (Sea.); Ronnie Lott (S.F.); Dennis Smith (Den.); and Ted Watts (Raiders) ... Suffered nagging minor injuries throughout the 1988 campaign, and worked hard to overcome ailments this past offseason ... Currently stands in ninth place on the Browns' all-time interception list with 25 (ninth among active AFC players as well).

1988: Named to Pro Bowl for third straight season, as well as second-team AP ... Recorded 43 tackles (34 solo) and finished second to fellow Pro Bowler Frank Minnifield with 11 passes defended ... Sat out season finale vs. Houston (12/18) with a quadricep pull ... Recorded six tackles (five solo) and caused a fumble at Miami (12/12) before leaving game ... Recorded five tackles vs. Dallas (12/4) and a pass defense ... At Washington (11/27), Redskins completed just nine passes to WRs (11 total) ... Recorded three tackles (two solo) and one pass defense vs. Pittsburgh (11/20) ... Was kicked in the back of the thigh at Denver (11/13) and left game after recording one tackle ... Had two tackles and a pass defense vs. Seattle (10/9) before leaving game just prior to half after re-injuring hamstring ... Recorded two solo stops and two passes defended before leaving game with a hamstring injury at Pittsburgh, 10/2 ... Recorded his 25th career interception at the Colts' (9/19) one-yard line to stop a scoring threat (Browns won, 23-17) ... Also recovered an Eric Dickerson fumble that set up one of three Matt Bahr field goals ... Started 100th career game vs. Jets (9/11) and recorded three tackles and a pass defense before leaving game with an ankle sprain ... Recorded four tackles (three solo) and made 24th career interception in third quarter in opener at K.C. (9/4).

1987: Pro Bowl starter at RCB along with LCB-Frank Minnifield (marking first time two CBs from same club started a Pro Bowl game) ... Also named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press, NEA, UPI, PFWA, Sporting News, Football News and Pro Football Weekly ... Recorded 38 tackles (29 solo) and 7 pass defenses (second to Minni's 13) ... Added two pass defenses in playoffs ... Played in 101st career game in finale at Pittsburgh (12/26), and was credited with a season-high five solo tackles and caused a fumble ... Also picked off his 23rd career INT (his third on the season) against Steelers ... Recorded a season-high six tackles (four solo) and a QB pressure vs. Buffalo (11/22) ... Picked off second pass of season vs. Atlanta (11/8) for 22nd of career ... Also picked off a pass at San Diego (11/1) ... One of NFL-high eight Browns who made the Pro Bowl.

1986: AFC Pro Bowl starter who also claimed AP All-Pro, PFWA All-Pro, NEA All-NFL (first team), UPI All-AFC (first team), PFW All-NFL, PFW All-AFC, Sports Illustrated All Pro (first-team), Sporting News All-Pro, Football News All-Pro, College & Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro (first team) ... Started all 16 games at RCB ... Finished with 70 tackles, a team-leading 19 passes defended, a forced fumble and a recovered fumble ... Led club with five interceptions for 35 yards ... Thefts came at Houston (9/14), vs. Cincinnati (9/21), two vs. Houston (11/30) and at Cincinnati (12/14) ... In week two at Houston, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for seven tackles, one theft, one fumble recovery performance ... In playoffs, had seven passes defended vs. Jets (1/3/87) and recorded three total tackles in postseason action.

1985: Selected AP All-Pro honorable mention and Pro Bowl alternate for performance during Browns' division winning season ... Started all 16 games at RCB, despite pulled hamstring in first half of Patriots' game (10/6) ... Missed nearly entire Houston game following week ... Pulled thigh muscle in training camp and missed much of preseason ... Finished fifth season with 47 total tackles (36 solos), one forced fumble and 10 passes defended, including three interceptions ... 37-yard return vs. Jets was career LG ... However, best performance of season came in playoff game at Miami when he was credited with three solo tackles and allowed his receiver to catch just one pass entire game (partner LCB Frank Minnifield did not permit a reception).

PRO: Has matured into a solid and versatile lineman after beating odds of being the 316th player selected overall in 1983 ... Not counting injury or players' strike, has started 55 of last 55 games ... Joined other late-round picks and free agents on Browns' promising offensive line ... Skills and athletic ability evidenced by playing both tackle and guard ... Can also deep snap ... Selected as Browns' Backers Most Improved Lineman following the 1987 season.

1988: Started 15 games at left tackle, but split time with Rickey Bolden (usually alternated quarters) ... Did not start at Phoenix (10/23) due to an ankle injury suffered vs. Eagles (10/16), but could have been used in an emergency ... Also started playoff game vs. Houston (12/24).

1987: Started four games at left guard, then made a familiar switch to left tackle when starting LT-Rickey Bolden broke his left leg in week seven at San Diego (11/1) ... Made the same switch in 1986 ... Larry Williams moved to Farren's old LG spot ... Browns went 15-4 in 1986-87 with that combination ... Part of unit that allowed an average of 1.8 QB sacks per game, down from 2.4 per game in 1986 ... Line also allowed just two sacks (both at Denver, 1/17/88) in playoffs, while paving way for 303 rushing yards.

1986: Started all 16 games, the first five at left guard ... Switched to left tackle vs. Kansas City (10/12) after LT-Rickey Bolden broke arm at Steelers (10/5) ... Started last eleven games at left tackle ... Started playoff game vs. Jets (1/3/87) at left tackle and AFC Championship vs. Denver (1/11/87) at left guard after Bolden returned to the lineup.

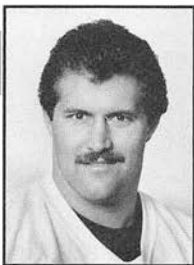

1985: Started first 13 games of season at LT before knee injury forced him to miss most of Giants' game and final three contests ... Was placed on injured reserve before Miami playoff game (1/4/86) to make room on roster for TE-Harry Holt ... Minor arthroscopic surgery on knee after season showed no damage ... Voted Lineman of the Month for November by Cleveland fans.

1984: Gained a great deal of playing experience against the best DEs in the league after RT-Cody Risien was lost for year in preseason finale ... First NFL start was at Seattle against Jacob Green ... After suffering a painful hip injury in opener, missed game two at Rams, played some against Denver, and returned to starting role next five games ... Last eight weeks saw limited duty on offensive line and played a great deal on special teams.

1983: Saw only spot duty on line as rookie, but contributed in all 16 games on special teams ... Played some guard against Green Bay, Pittsburgh and New England.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Played first two years at BU as tackle and last two at center, where he earned AP Div. I-AA All-America honorable mention honors ... Boston's 1982 MVP ... Added 25 pounds between junior and senior seasons through Terriers' weight program and another 15 since joining the Browns ... Earned B.A. degree in marketing in 1983 ... First-team Yankee Conference Coaches All-Star squad in 1982 and second-team UPI All-New England Div. I selection ... Three-year starting tackle in high school where he gained outstanding lineman of year award ... Also All Conference as center in basketball (four letters) ... Willing volunteer for numerous charitable events ... Presented last June 17 with the William French Memorial Award, B.U.'s H.O.F. equivalent ... Married Demetra (5/30/87) and lives in Cleveland suburb of Westlake ... Has competed in postseason action in all six years of pro football (four with Browns) ... Originally a tenth-round draft choice of the New York Jets (274th player selected) in 1983 ... Was waived on 8/29/83 and signed with USFL Tampa Bay on 11/13/83 ... Started at tackle in 36 games with Bandits in '84 and '85 seasons ... Finally beginning to receive recognition, earning second-team All-Pro in '86 and '87 (UPI in '87, NEA in '86).

1988: Started all 16 games at right guard ... One of three offensive linemen to start all 16 games ... Also started Wild Card game vs. Houston (12/24) ... Browns' nominee for Miller Lite/Offensive Lineman of the Year.

1987: Started all 12 games at right guard ... Was named to UPI's All-Pro team (second-team) ... Was part of a unit that allowed an average of 1.8 sacks per game, down from 2.4 in 1986 ... Started both playoff games as offense averaged 151.5 yards per game rushing and offensive line allowed just two QB sacks ... One of four linemen to start all 12 games (less strike).

1986: Started all 16 games at right guard ... Was named to NEA's All-NFL Team (second team) ... Recovered a fumble at Cincinnati (12/14) ... Started both playoff contests.

1985: Started 12 games at right guard and one at right tackle ... Forced to take rest when back spasms kept him on sideline weeks 11-13 ... Came back and started last four games, including playoff game at Miami ... Because of USFL experience in spring, played in 40 games in 1985, including six preseason, 31 regular and three playoff games ... Switched to RT one game for injured Cody Risien (week four at S.D.) and helped Browns to season-high 275 yards rushing ... Surprisingly, did not make any all-rookie teams.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Second-team All-SEC as a senior after starting 11 games for the Gators ... Was two-year starter (sophomore and junior years) as defensive tackle after starting at tackle as a freshman ... Played in Citrus, Peach, Bluebonnet and Japan Bowls ... PRO: Still blessed with a quickness that belies his age and experience ... Veteran leader both on and off the field ... Teammate Al Baker once quipped "Big Daddy" will be the first player to earn a Pro Bowl check and social security check in the same year." ... Carl suffered through an injury-riddled 1988 season, yet managed to accumulate three QB sacks and 24 QB pressures ... Mainstay at right defensive end since joining the Browns in a trade with Philadelphia (2/9/84) in exchange for a ninth-round draft pick in 1985 (Eagles used pick to select C-Dave Toub) ... Has missed only three games in his career (at Green Bay, 11/25/79; vs. Pittsburgh, 11/20/88; and vs. Dallas, 12/4/88) ... Originally drafted by the Eagles in 1976 (seventh round, 191st overall) ... Eight-year starter for Philadelphia at right defensive end who surpassed 100 tackles five straight seasons (1977-81) ... Defensive captain for Eagles in his last five seasons ... Has played in 13 playoff games (seven for Philadelphia including Super Bowl XV and six for Browns), including three conference championship games ... Has recorded 86-1/2 career QB sacks ... Hairston ranks 15th among active AFC QB sackers with 40 since 1982 (the year sacks became an official statistic).

1988: Defensive captain was bothered by minor injuries throughout season ... Finished 10th on club with 46 tackles (38 solo, including three sacks) and third with 24 QB pressures ... Also batted two passes and caused a fumble ... Suffered a knee strain at Denver (11/13) after totalling two tackles, causing him to miss first pro games since 1979 (on inactive list vs. Pittsburgh, 11/20, did not play vs. Dallas, 12/4) ... Did not start at Miami (week 15, 12/12), but credited with a tackle ... Credited with four tackles, all solo and a QB pressure in Houston Wild Card game (12/24) ... Assortment of injuries included: pinched nerve vs. Jets (9/11); big toe injury (at Cincinnati, 9/25); re-injury of his big toe (at Houston, 11/7); knee strain (see above) ... Best game of year was on Monday Night vs. Colts (9/19), when he had four tackles, five QB pressures and slammed QB-Jack Trudeau out of game on a play that caused an interception in fourth quarter.

1987: Named Browns' Defensive MVP by Cleveland Touchdown Club and earned second-team UPI All-Pro honors ... Hairston led the club in sacks (eight for 59-1/2 yards), games started (14), tackles among defensive linemen (51), caused fumbles (four) and tenure (12th NFL season) ... Also finished tied for second on club with two recovered fumbles ... Named as second alternate to the Pro Bowl ... Made Browns' highlight film vs. Cincy (12/13) by taking a Clay Matthews' lateral off an interception 40 yards down the sideline ... Credited with a sack that caused a fumble, three "sack hits" and two QB pressures at Houston (11/22) ... Sacked Jim Kelly twice vs. Buffalo (11/15) ... Sacked Atlanta QB-Scott Campbell twice (11/18), one causing a fumble ... Other sacks came vs. Pittsburgh (9/20), at Cincinnati (10/18), at San Diego (11/1) and at Los Angeles (12/20) ... Recorded three tackles (two solo) vs. Indy (1/9/88) in 38-21 playoff win, and four solo tackles in AFC Championship game at Denver (1/17/88).

1986: Led club in sacks with nine for 56 yards ... Recorded a sack in eight of 16 games played, and one in each of last four regular season games ... Kept momentum going into playoffs, as he led Browns with three sacks vs. Jets (1/3/87), contributing to club NFL postseason record nine-sack effort on day ... Sacks vs. Jets came in third quarter, fourth quarter and first overtime period ... Shared team lead with D.D. Hoggard for most game balls awarded (three) after winning honors vs. K.C. (10/12), at Minnesota (11/2), and vs. San Diego (12/21) ... Recorded two sacks in Vikings' victory ... Also recorded 1-1/2 in season finale vs. Chargers ... Finished with 53 tackles, one forced fumble (vs. Houston, 11/30) and recovered a fumble (at Buffalo, 12/7) ... Moved inside in four-man rush ... Recorded 11 tackles in playoffs, including nine vs. Jets to lead club.

1985: Started all 16 games at right DE and contributed seven sacks (most since he had eight in 1981) ... Finished in ninth place on Browns' tackle chart ... Credited with 54 total stops (37 solos), two passes defended, and one fumble recovered (vs. Bills) ... Recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award as voted by teammates.

1984: Played in all 16 games, mostly as fourth down lineman in passing situations ... Made four sacks, had eight "hurries", nine tackles (all solo) and defended one pass ... Helped Browns' defense increase sack total from 32 to 43 (one shy of club record).

1983: Despite playing season with Eagles at less than 100% because of knee that required arthroscopic surgery in January (1984), started 11 games (played in all 16), had five sacks, 56 tackles, two fumbles recovered and forced a fumble.

1982: Recorded 60 tackles (38 solos), along with four sacks, 15 "hurries" and two fumble recoveries while starting all nine games in strike-shortened season.

1981: Led team in initial hits with 79 and finished second in total tackles (113) ... Gained second-team All-NFC recognition by UPI ... Forced four fumbles, recovered another, and led Eagles with eight sacks and 50 "hurries" ... Started 16 games at right DE.

1980: Second-team All-NFC selection by UPI after leading squad in solo tackles with 79 and making 117 total (second on team) ... Started all 16 games ... Was also credited with two forced fumbles, one interception, one fumble recovery, eight sacks and team-leading 40 "hurries."

1979: Led NFC with career-high 15 QB sacks, added another 14 "hurries" and forced one fumble ... Made 123 total tackles (third on team), while playing and starting in 15 games (missed only game of career at Green Bay).

1978: Intercepted first pro pass (against Redskins) ... Enjoyed second straight season as Eagles' top defensive lineman (career-high 160 tackles) ... Made six sacks and forced 3 1/2 fumbles while starting 16 games.

1977: Finished second on team in tackles (137 total) and sacks (9 1/2) ... Also forced three fumbles and recovered one.

1976: Appeared in all 14 games as a rookie, including nine as a starter ... Made 87 total tackles.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Four-year starter as LB and DE at Maryland-Eastern Shore, where he earned all-conference honors three times ... Accumulated 115 unassisted tackles and nine sacks as a senior ... Co-captain ... Played one season of college basketball ... Earned his B.A. degree in physical educa-

PRO: Veteran inside linebacker who has met every challenge thrown his way in his eight-year NFL career ... Once labeled as "too light to play in the NFL," has proven critics wrong throughout career ... Battled for playing time last season after starting 59 of 60 previous contests, and will resume fight in this year's camp ... String of 101 consecutive games played (excluding the three replacement games in '87) was snapped in 1988 opener ... Joined Browns as a seventh-round draft choice in 1981 (187th player selected) ... Shaves head at start of each training camp.

1988: A frustrating season for "E.J." saw him set career highs with three fumble recoveries, three QB sacks and tie a career high with two interceptions ... Finished eighth on club with 49 tackles (38 solo) ... Also made three special teams' stops ... Did not play in opener, as Mike Junkin (now with Chiefs) was picked for starting role in training camp ... Started week six and weeks 8-14 ... When not starting played in short-yardage defense ... Replaced Junkin (who strained a knee) at Pittsburgh (10/2) and made immediate impact on successive series ... Recovered a Merrill Hoge fumble in the third period and later intercepted a Bubby Brister pass ... Both plays led to Cleveland field goals to give the Browns a 13-9 lead they never relinquished ... Had three tackles (two solo) vs. Pittsburgh (11/20) including one three-yard sack and an interception on the game's second play (setting up a Matt Bahr field goal) ... Totalled eight tackles (seven solo) and recorded an 11-yard sack at Phoenix (10/23) ... Also recovered a Lomax fumble on Cards' first second-half possession, leading to a Browns' score ... Did not start vs. Eagles (10/16), as Browns opened in "Bear", but led club with 10 solo tackles and an assist, including one sack for nine yards ... Junkin was activated prior to Denver (11/13) game, and regained starting spot in week 15, as Eddie did not start final two games.

1987: Perhaps biggest play of his career came vs. Indianapolis in AFC divisional playoff game (1/9/88), when he blitzed QB-Jack Trudeau and forced a third period interception with the score tied at 14 and the Colts on Cleveland's 20 ... Ball was picked off by S-Felix Wright, and Browns went on to score 24 second-half points en-route to a 38-21 win ... Named as first alternate to the Pro Bowl ... Finished tied for second (with Clay Matthews) on team with 72 tackles (43 solo).

1986: Finished third on team with 117 total tackles (75 solo) and defended two passes ... In playoffs, recorded five tackles and a pass defense vs. Jets (1/3/87) before leaving the game with an ankle injury suffered in second quarter ... Played while slightly hobbled in AFC Championship game vs. Broncos (1/11/87) and recorded seven tackles and a pass defense.

1985: Defensive co-captain was Browns' second-leading tackler with 148 ... Also contributed one-half sack and defended nine passes, including stealing a pass at San Diego (9/29) ... Received AP honorable mention All-Pro honors after season ... Had season-high 15 tackles vs. Buffalo (11/17) ... Had one-half sack, three passes defended and eight tackles at San Diego ... Earned game balls for performances in Bengals' (11/24) and Oilers' (12/15) victories ... Made 10 solo stops and two assists at Miami in playoffs (game high).

1984: Led team in tackles with career-high 172, edging out inside partner Cousineau (170) ... 108 unassisted tackles was also team best ... Accounted for one-half sack, seven QB "hurries," defensed seven passes and led team in tackles behind the line of scrimmage (non-sacks) with seven ... Most emotional game was first pro appearance in home state of Georgia; made game-high 13 tackles and recorded first sack of NFL career in front of over 50 friends and relatives — many wearing Browns' No. 51 jerseys ... Intercepted first two passes of career vs. Jets (10/14) ... Started all 16 games.

1983: Shared playing time with Scott Nicolas at Dick Ambrose's ILB spot last 10 games of season (after Ambrose broke his ankle vs. Jets, 10/9) ... Prior to Ambrose injury, was primarily a special teams and short-yardage situation player ... Finished season with 77 total tackles (54 solos), sixth best on team, despite starting only two games (15 and 16) ... Defensed three passes and had season-high 11 tackles at Cincinnati (10/23).

1982: Played in all nine games during strike-shortened season ... First start of career was at Dallas at ROLB in place of injured Clay Matthews ... Playing mostly specialty teams, totaled 17 tackles (12 solos) ... Saw action in Raiders' playoff game.

1981: Made 35 stops as a rookie (18 unassisted) and recovered important fumble vs. Atlanta at Stadium (9/27) ... Played in all 16 games, mostly on special teams.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Started all four years for Cardinals of Louisville ... Had three consecutive seasons of over 100 tackles: 144 in 1980; 145 in 1979; and 110 as a sophomore ... Tallied six QB sacks senior year when he was captain and team's MVP ... All-South Independent and All-Metro ... Captain and MVP in Blue-Gray game (made 22 tackles) ... Majored in communications and radio and TV broadcasting ... All-state performer at Daughtery H.S. in Albany, Ga. (made 215 tackles as senior) ... Was also basketball and track standout ... Long jumped 23'4" and triple jumped 45'7" ... Comes from a family of five brothers and two sisters ... Teammates selected "E.J." as Browns' nominee for Ed Block Courage Award last season ... Involved in Browns' off-season strength and conditioning program last seven years, but did split time last three years between Georgia and Cleveland in order to operate the "Eddie Johnson Fitness Center" in hometown of Albany (but recently sold Center and has minigym at his home) ... Part of Browns' contingent that battled Lions, Colts, Bengals, Bills, and Bears in Stren/NFL Walleye Tournament in Port Clinton, O. last three springs ... Well regarded as a bass-fisherman and competed in bass tournaments in Georgia and Alabama ... Willing volunteer in charitable events; was the Honorary Chairman for Diabetes Association Swim-a-Thon, also involved with March of Dimes ... Helped raise money for Big Brothers/Big Sisters in "Bowling for Kids Sake" event ... Also visited Boy Scouts of America group ... Lives in Brook Park (Cleveland suburb) with wife Ramona, son Rahshan (3/23/83) and daughter Elise Janeen (1/10/87) ... Ramona began labor cramps at Cleveland Stadium during playoff win over Colts in 1987, but stayed for the whole game ... She gave birth at 1:30 a.m. ... Ramona was a shortstop on Georgia state championship team for three years ... Full name: Eddie Johnson.

PRO: Entering his fifth NFL season, the 25-year old leader has guided the Browns to the playoffs in each of his four campaigns, a feat achieved by no other AFC quarterback ... Career 58.2% completion percentage is tops in team history ... Suffered two injuries in 1988, yet managed to guide club to a 6-3 mark in nine starts ... Was the youngest starting quarterback in the NFL in each of his first three seasons ... Only Kosar and Dan Marino of the Dolphins led their clubs to three straight divisional crowns in their first three years in the NFL (since the 1970 merger) ... Joined the Browns as the youngest quarterback in team history, with two years of college eligibility remaining ... Graduated from Miami in only three years ... Is twelve days younger than QB-Vinny Testaverde of Tampa Bay, who succeeded him at Miami, and was the first pick in '87 draft ... Browns obtained Kosar in a trade involving Bills: Cleveland sent Buffalo four draft choices—two number ones (1985 and 1986), a third (1985) and a sixth (1986)—for Bills' first pick in the "Kosar" supplemental draft ... Graduated from Miami in June of 1985 with a double major (finance and economics), became eligible and a special draft was held ... Signed on 7/2/85 ... Already owns six Browns' all-time passing records, including: most yards passing, game (489 vs. Jets, 1/3/87, playoffs); most passes attempted, game (64 vs. Jets, 1/3/87); most passes completed, game (33, tied with Brian Sipe, vs. Jets, 1/3/87); lowest interception rate, career (2.3%, 33 of 1,427, min. 750 attempts); lowest interception rate, season (1.88%, 1986, 10 of 531); highest completion rate, career (58.2%, 831 of 1,427, min. 750 attempts) ... Playoff performance (attempts and yardage) vs. Jets (1986) set NFL postseason records, and completions tied Dan Fouts' postseason mark ... Set an AFC Championship game record in 1987 by completing 26 of 41 passes for 356 yards at Denver (1/17/88) ... Has enjoyed three of five top passing days in club history (489 yards vs. Jets, 1/3/87; 414 vs. Pittsburgh, 11/23/86; 401 vs. Miami, 11/11/86) ... Has thrown for 300 yards or more in eight career games, second only to Brian Sipe's 18 (in 10 years) in club history ... Last season, moved into fourth-place among all-time Browns' passers, and needs to throw for 3,007 yards to surpass Frank Ryan (13,361) and 3,145 yards to surpass Otto Graham (13,499) into second-place on the Browns' all-time yardage list ... With Kosar starting, Browns have regular season winning percentage of .638 (30-17) (26-11, .703 the last three seasons), 2-3 in playoffs, with the total margin of defeat in the three losses totalling 11 points ... The margin of the two victories has been 20 points ... In December the last three years, Kosar has completed 167 of 276 passes (60.5%) for 2,208 yards, 16 TDs, two INTs and a QB rating of 102.1, while compiling a 7-2 record ... 2.3 career interception rate is the NFL's all-time best (Bernie needs 73 pass attempts to qualify for 1500 minimum) ... Has sixth-highest career QB rating (84.5) among active signal-callers, behind Joe Montana (92.0); Dan Marino (91.5); Boomer Esiason (86.2); Dave Kreigh (85.5); Ken O'Brien (85.0).

1988: Fourth-leading passer in AFC: 259 attempts, 156 completions, 60.2% — tops in AFC, second in NFL— 1,890 yards, 10 TDs, 7 INTs, 84.3 QB rating ... Was 6-3 as a starter ... Missed seven regular-season starts and Wild Card game with two different injuries ... Sideline for Houston finale (12/18) and Houston Wild Card loss (12/24) with sprained knee ligaments suffered in third quarter at Miami (12/12, week 15) after a hit by LB-John Offerdahl ... Also absent weeks 2-7 after straining right elbow ligaments in first series of second quarter in opener at K.C. (9/4) when hit by blitzing K.C. S-Lloyd Burruss ... Placed on injured reserve on 9/10, prior to Jets' game ... Completed three of eight passes for 39 yards before injury at K.C., breaking a string of 17 straight games with at least one TD pass ... Made triumphant return at Phoenix (10/23) by completing 25 of 43 passes for 314 yards, three TDs and three INTs ... Moved into fourth place among Browns' all-time passers at Washington (11/27, two days after turning 25), surpassing Bill Nelsen ... More importantly, led Browns on scoring drives of 50, 76 and 80 yards in 17-13 win by completing 23 of 36 passes for 219 yards under heavy pressure (six sacks, tying a career-high) ... Completed longest (77 yards, vs. Pittsburgh, 11/20) and second-longest (73 yards, vs. Dallas, 12/4) passes of career, both to Reggie Langhorne ... Recorded second 300-yard, three-TD passing day of season vs. Dallas (12/4), as he completed 19 of 27 passes for 308 yards, three TDs and 0 INTs ... Completed 21 of 30 passes for 202 yards, one TD, no INTs at Miami (12/12) in last action of season before leaving game with knee injury ... Also rushed for only TD of year, a two-yarder in the third period.

1987: Was voted second alternate to the Pro Bowl, and was named to the squad by AFC coach (and then-Browns' coach) Marty Schottenheimer ... Also named the NFL's MVP in balloting for the Gillette-NFL "People's Choice" Award ... Finished ahead of John Elway and Joe Montana ... His amazing second-half rally in the AFC Championship game (16 of 22 for 256 yards, three TDs, no INTs for a 150.8 QB rating — in the second half) capped a brilliant year ... Led the AFC in passing with a 95.4 QB rating, a 62.0 completion percentage (241 of 389) and 7.8 yards-per-attempt ... Threw for 3,033 yards in 12 games, the most ever by a Cleveland quarterback in that number of games ... His 22 TD passes were fifth-most in team history, a career high, and the most ever in 12 games by a Cleveland QB ... Only Seattle's Dave Kreig (23) and Miami's Dan Marino (26) threw for more scores in the conference ... Threw for a career-high four TDs and no INTs vs. Bengals (12/13) ... Had second lowest INT rate in NFL (2.3, nine of 389) ... His 7.8-yard average gain tied John Elway for the AFC's best and was second to Wade Wilson of Vikings ... His 62.0 completion percentage was the second best in team history (Otto Graham compiled a 64.7 mark in 1953) ... Rushed 15 times for 22 yards on the season, and scored a TD on a three-yard plunge in the opener at N.O. (9/13) ... Completed 46 of 72 passes for 585 yards, six TDs and two INTs in playoffs for a 105.4 QB rating ... Set an AFC Championship record by completing 26 passes (41 attempts) in 38-33 loss to Broncos (rallied club from a 21-3 halftime deficit) ... Browns' nominee for Byron "Whizzer" White humanitarian award ... Named Offensive MVP by Cleveland Touchdown Club for second straight year ... Led all quarterbacks by throwing for 124 yards, while completing 10 of 17 passes for no TDs and one INT in Pro Bowl.

1986: Led Browns to most wins in club history ... Enjoyed third-best season in club history and finished third in AFC (behind Dan Marino and Boomer Esiason) with 3,854 yards ... Completed 310 of 531 passes, while tossing 17 TDs and throwing only 10 interceptions ... 1.9 interception percentage was by far the lowest in the NFL, and the best in club history ... Had thrown 171 consecutive passes (five games) without an interception before K.C.'s Kevin Ross picked one off (10/12) ... Won AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice, both 400-yard passing efforts (Miami, 11/10; Pittsburgh, 11/23) ... 401 yards passing vs. Miami on Monday night was first career 400-yard effort ... Two weeks

QB-BERNIE KOSAR ON THE NEW LOOK BROWNS: "There are a lot of new faces, a whole new atmosphere. It's refreshing, really, having a new perspective on things. I think the guys are enjoying the changes. But we really haven't made that many changes on offense. We're doing a natural process of building on our system."

QB-BERNIE KOSAR ON GOALS: "Our goals haven't changed. Our goal is still to win the Super Bowl. There are a lot of reasons out there for us to think about not reaching our goal. But we are capable of doing it. This year."

BUD CARSON ON BERNIE KOSAR: "I'm like everyone else in the National Football League. I love Bernie Kosar. I'm thrilled to be coaching him. I believe in him. He's a winner. I just hope we can protect him and keep him on the field."

BROWNS' EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS ERNIE ACCORSI ON KOSAR: "Mentally, Kosar is like John Unitas. They have that gunfighter's stare, both of them. They command the respect of their teammates without ever opening their mouths."

later, set regular-season career high with 414-yard performance ... Rank as second and third-best passing days in club regular season history ... His 50 pass attempts (32 completions) vs. Dolphins was third-highest in club history ... Completed 28 of 36 passes vs. Packers (10/19) for a 77.8 completion percentage, which ranks as third-best single-game completion percentage in club history ... Became first Cleveland quarterback to beat Steelers in Pittsburgh since Bill Nelsen (11/16/69), when Browns came away 27-24 victors on 10/5 ... In two playoff games, completed 51 of 96 passes for 748 yards, three TDs and four INTs ... Took every snap from center until Mike Pagel relieved him late in regular season finale vs. San Diego ... Was named Offensive MVP by Cleveland Touchdown Club.

1985: Broke Browns' rookie records for lowest interception rate (2.8) and highest QB rating (69.3) while finishing season ranked ninth among AFC signal callers ... In AFC, only Jets' Ken O'Brien (1.6) and Chiefs' Bill Kenney (2.7) had lower rate than Kosar's 2.8 ... Had thrown 134 consecutive passes (six games) without an interception before his last pass of regular season was stolen in endzone (at Jets) ... Earned AFC Offensive Player of Week honors and was voted first game ball for 14 of 28, 161-yard, three passing TDs and one rushing TD effort vs. Oilers (12/15) ... Quarterbacked in last 12 games after watching Gary Danielson lead team to 2-2 start ... Browns were 4-5 in games which Kosar started and finished (4-6 in all starts) ... Relieved Danielson in second quarter of Patriots' game (10/6) after Gary separated his shoulder; led team to 24-20 comeback win after trailing 20-17 in final period ... After fumbling his first NFL snap (2:12 to play in first half), came back to complete his first seven passes attempted, including his initial pass to Brian Brennan (9 yards) ... Finished afternoon 9 of 15 for 105 yards ... Fired first TD pass following week at Houston in his first NFL start — 68-yard bomb that put the Browns in front to stay, 7-6 ... First home start came before soldout Cleveland Stadium crowd of 77,928 against Raiders (10/20) ... Quarterbacked in first pro game (10/6) at the age of 21 years, 10 months and 11 days ... Was not named to any all-rookie teams (Rams' 34-year-old Dieter Brock was consensus pick).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Joined Browns after playing just two seasons with Hurricanes ... In those two years (red-shirted as freshman in 1982) established 22 single game, season and career records, while leading Miami to a National Championship in 1983 and a Fiesta Bowl berth in 1984 ... Earned Orange Bowl MVP honors after passing for a record 300 yards as a freshman in 31-30 upset over Nebraska ... Chosen second-team AP All-America and first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America in 1984 ... Finished career with 463 completions out of 743 attempts (62.3%) for 5,971 yards (LG of 85 yards), 40 TD passes, 29 interceptions and was sacked 48 times ... Averaged 34.7 passes, 21.8 completions and 303.5 yards per game in 1984 ... 19-6 record as starter ... In 1984, established following single-game records: most completions (30 vs. Maryland); most yards passing (447 vs. Boston College); and most TD passes (five at Cincinnati) ... LG pass was 85-yard TD to Eddie Brown vs. Cincinnati ... Threw for 300-plus yards nine times during two-year career ... Against UCLA in the 1985 Fiesta Bowl, hit on 31 of 44 passes for 294 yards, two TDs and one interception ... 447-yard passing performance against Boston College on national TV was overshadowed by Doug Flutie's 65-yard "Hail Mary" pass on the last play of the game ... Won the 1984 Jack Harding Memorial Award (UM MVP) and the '84 Mariutto Award (UM football scholar award) ... Graduated from Miami 6/25/85 with a double major (finance and economics) ... Took 18 credit hours during '85 spring term and six in summer in order to graduate in three years (with honors) ... As a senior in high school, passed for 2,222 yards and 19 TDs, while leading his team to an 8-2 record ... Acclaimed 1981's Ohio Player of The Year by AP ... Played only six games as junior (due to school strike) and was injured most of sophomore season ... Also played baseball and basketball ... Received Northern Ohio Amateur Athlete of Year in 1984 by SMACO ... Three years ago, Bernie returned to receive SMACO's Northern Ohio Pro of the Year ... In 1987, Bernie performed "hat trick" when he received SMACO's Pride of Cleveland Award ... Born and raised 60 miles from Cleveland Stadium (Boardman, O. — a Youngstown suburb), Bernie is fulfilling a childhood dream of playing for the Browns ... Favorite player growing up was former Browns' QB-Brian Sipe ... Competed in NBC's Superstars competition in 1986 off-season ... Nominated by teammates for Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award ... Donated $10,000 to University of Miami to split between business school and athletic department after rookie NFL season, and maintains a scholarship valued at $5,000 annually to the business school, split between three students on the basis of need ... Also donates substantial sum to the "Miami Project", a UM medical fundraising program designed to help find a cure for paralysis ... PRO: Wanting to cap a solid career with a shot at the Super Bowl, Barry Krauss signed with the Browns on 3/8/89 as a free agent under "Plan B" after starting for 10 seasons for the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts ... Seasoned inside linebacker who combines experience and size ... Made a remarkable rebound from reconstructive knee surgery in 1986 ... Solid play overshadowed by lack of team's success until last two seasons ... Has recorded over 1,000 career tackles, and seen action in 136 games ... A first round pick in 1979 (sixth overall) ... Was the senior member of the Colts in terms of service ... Among current Browns, only DE-Carl Hairston (14), TE-Ozzie Newsome (12, and a former Alabama teammate), LB-Clay Matthews (12) and DE-Al Baker (12) have more NFL experience.

1988: Finished second on team with 124 tackles (86 solo), three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, one interception, and five passes defended ... Missed Tampa Bay start (10/16) due to a neck injury suffered week earlier at Buffalo ... Picked off a Jim Kelly pass (first INT since 1984) at Buffalo (10/9), and also recovered a fumble ... Also forced fumbles vs. Houston, vs. Denver and at Green Bay.

1987: Re-gained starting role after reconstructive knee surgery (see 1986) ... Finished third on club tackle chart with 104 (74 solo) and two passes defended ... Had six tackles vs. Browns in playoffs ... Ed Block Courage Award winner.

1986: Started first four games before injuring knee vs. Jets (9/28) ... Streak of 108 games played and 57 starts halted ... Recorded 49 tackles (34 solo) including a career-high 19 stops vs. the Rams (9/21).

1985: Recorded 175 tackles (107) solo, second on club ... Also recovered two fumbles, recorded a sack and an interception.

1984: Led club with 175 tackles (130 solo) ... Also picked off three passes, recovered two fumbles and recorded a QB sack ... Selected All AFC East by Pro Magazine.

1983: Recorded 92 tackles and started all 16 games.

1982: Recorded 70 tackles (47 solo) in strike-shortened campaign ... Scored lone career TD on a five-yard pass reception after a mishandled FG placement at Miami (9/19).

PRO: Explosive and tireless two-time Pro Bowl runner with a 4.2-yard career average ... Struggled through 1988 with injuries ... Named to the Pro Bowl following the 1985 and '87 seasons ... Has averaged 747 yards-per-season despite missing four games in both 1986 (with injury) and 1987 (strike), and part or all of 10 games (with injuries) in 1988 ... Has rushed for 2,989 yards on 720 carries (4.2 avg.) ... In only four seasons, already ranks sixth on Browns' all-time rushing list, and may move into top five with only 216 yards in '89 ... Has nine career 100-yard rushing games ... Has scored 29 career TDs (26 rushing) to rank 19th on Browns' all-time scoring list ... Broke Jim Brown's rookie rushing mark in 1985, 1,104 yards to 942 yards, and Mack passed Brown on his 180th carry of season while Brown ran 202 times ... Originally Browns' first pick (11th overall) in 1984 supplemental draft ... Waived by L.A. Express (1/31/85) and signed by Cleveland 2/1/85 ... Browns obtained supplemental draft pick in trade with Chicago Bears (5/1/84; night of NFL draft) ... Cleveland sent 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th-round choices in '84 NFL draft for Bears' three picks in June supplemental draft ... Was the second RB taken (Mike Rozier was first) and ninth offensive player selected ... USFL stats included: 72 carries for 330 yards (4.5 yard avg.), four TDs, six receptions for 38 yards in 12 games ... Browns are 13-0 in regular season games in which Mack has rushed for 90 yards or more (13-1 including playoffs) and are 24-8 in games he combined for 14 attempts both rushing and receiving (25-10 including playoffs) ... Career playoff rushing totals include 89 carries for 326 yards (3.7 avg.), one TD and a long gain of 27 vs. Indianapolis (1/9/88).

1988: Recorded both of Browns' individual 100-yard rushing games, despite missing all or part of 10 games with a combination of injuries (knee, calf, neck and shoulder) ... Second on club with 485 yards on 123 carries ... Caught 11 passes for 87 yards ... On inactive list final two weeks (at Miami, 12/12 and vs. Houston, 12/18) with knee injury suffered vs. Dallas (12/4) ... Caught a one-yard Kosar pass on the game's opening play and was hit by LB-Ron Burton, causing a fumble ... Also suffered a pinch nerve in his neck on game's first play at Phoenix (10/23), missing remainder of game and the following game vs. Cincinnati (10/30) ... Celebrated 50th career game at Washington (11/27) with his ninth career 100-yard game, as he bulled for 116 yards on 22 carries (and scored 25th career TD, a one-yard plunge) after returning from a calf injury that kept him sidelined for previous two and one-half games (injured at Houston, 11/07 and inactive with the injury at Denver, 11/13, and vs. Pittsburgh, 11/20) ... Recorded his eighth career 100-yard rushing game vs. Eagles (10/16), as he totalled 100 yards on 16 carries (6.3 avg.) ... Had career-long 65-yard jaunt on second play of game ... Led Browns with 66 yards on 15 carries vs. Seattle (10/9), and scored on a one-yard plunge off of right tackle ... Rushed nine times for 41 yards and caught two passes for 20 yards in opener at K.C. (9/4) before leaving game in second quarter with a neck injury ... In Wild Card game vs. Houston (12/24), he struggled for 14 yards on 12 carries and caught one pass for six yards.

1987: Led club with 735 rushing yards on 201 carries (sixth in AFC) and five TDs ... Also caught 32 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown ... Recorded seventh career 100-yard game vs. Bengals (12/13) ... Rushed for career-high 133 yards on 27 carries, scored one TD rushing and one receiving ... 22-yard scoring jaunt was longest scoring run from scrimmage for Browns during season ... Rolled-up 114 yards on 26 carries in Houston (11/22) ... Carried the ball at least 11 times each game but at S.F. (11/29) ... Totalled 958 yards from scrimmage ... Surpassed the career 2,000-yard mark in his 33rd pro game (Atlanta, 11/8) and moved past Bobby Mitchell into sixth-place in all-time Browns' rushing vs. Cincy (12/13) ... Tied career-high when he grabbed eight passes vs. Pittsburgh (9/20) for 45 yards ... Was named to his second AFC Pro Bowl squad (also named in 1985 as a rookie) ... Missed much of playoff win over Colts (1/9/88) with a stomach virus ... Rushed six times for 38 yards (6.3 avg.) and caught three passes for 17 yards ... Following week at Denver in AFC Championship (1/17/88), rushed 12 times for 61 yards (5.1 avg.) and caught four passes for 28 yards.

1986: Despite missing over four games with shoulder injury, finished second in AFC with 10 rushing TDs and led Browns with 665 yards on 174 carries ... Combination of Mack and former Brown Earnest Byner that teamed for over 1,000 yards each in '85 was limited to only seven quarters of playing time in '86 due to injuries both sustained ... Surpassed century mark twice, both overtime victories ... Top game came vs. Houston (11/30), as he rushed for 121 yards on 28 carries ... Week before vs. Pittsburgh (11/23), he piled-up 106 yards on 24 carries ... Scored five TDs in last three games, including two each in weeks 14 and 15 ... Scored two TDs four times: Opener at Chicago (9/7); at L.A. Raiders (11/16); at Buffalo (12/7); at Cincy (12/14) ... Eight of 10 TDs were on road ... Injured shoulder in opener vs. Chicago after gaining 50 yards on 10 carries and scoring two TDs ... Did not play for two weeks, tried to make comeback vs. Detroit in week four, re-injured shoulder and sat out next two games ... Averaged over 4.2 yards per carry in last five weeks as shoulder healed ... Finished seventh on club in receiving with 28 catches for 292 yards ... Caught career-high eight passes vs. Green Bay (10/19) for 68 yards ... Gained career-high 94 yards on six receptions vs. Miami (11/10), including a season-long 44-yard grab ... In playoff win vs. Jets (1/3/87), rushed 20 times for 63 yards and scored late fourth-quarter TD with one-yard plunge to pull the Browns to within three (20-17) in rally ... Gained 47 yards in overtime (including 38 in final drive), despite playing game with two teeth knocked loose and a gash on his lower lip caused when he pounced on a loose ball in the first period ... Also caught five passes for 51 yards ... In AFC Championship, gained game-high 94 yards on 26 carries and caught two passes for 20 yards.

1985: Teamed with second-year back Earnest Byner to produce NFL's third pair of 1,000-yard rushers on same team in same season (Miami's Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris in 1972; and Pittsburgh's Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier in 1976) ... Combined with running mate Byner to form NFL's most productive RB duo (2,106 yards); followed by Raiders' Allen and Hawkins (2,028); and Bears' Payton and Suhey (2,022) ... First Cleveland offensive rookie since Greg Pruitt (1974) and only fifth first-year Brown to gain Pro Bowl honors (Jim Brown, 1957; Paul Warfield, 1964; and Chip Banks, 1982 were others) ... 1,104 yards rushing is 13th highest performance in club single-season history and ranked fourth in AFC and tenth in NFL ... Ten TDs were most by a Browns' rookie since WR/RB Dub Jones set record with 11 in 1950 ... Finished sixth in AFC in scoring (among non-kickers) ... Only HOFer Marion Motley had as many 100-yard rushing games as a first-year player with Browns (Motley and Mack each had three) ... Had one carry for three yards and played great deal on special teams in 1986 Pro Bowl game ... Carried 13 times for 56 yards in Miami playoff game ... In addition to being named NFL Offensive Rookie of Year by Football Digest, was also honorable mention on AP's All-Pro team, named UPI AFC Rookie of Year, was first-team UPI NFL All-Rookie squad, first-team Football Digest All-Star team, voted MVP on offense by Cleveland TD

FB-KEVIN MACK ON THE 1989 BROWNS: "I'm happy with the way the offense is going. The system is going to be more wide open than it was before. Anybody who thinks the offense is going to be the same as it was before is going to be surprised. There are going to be some new twists in there."

Club and PFWA All-Rookie team (first team) ... Also honored as co-Most Valuable Player of Year (along with Byner) by Akron Browns' Backers.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Clemson's leading rusher in 1983, helped Tigers win ACC with 9-1-1 record ... Gained 862 yards on 151 carries (5.7 avg.), scored eight TDs and caught nine passes for 116 yards ... Ranked fourth in rushing among all '83 NCAA fullbacks and set Tiger mark for most yards rushing by FB ... Totalled 1,450 yards on 303 carries (4.8 avg.) and scored 12 TDs during collegiate career ... Played in Blue-Gray game ... Majored in industrial education ... Gained 1,585 yards as senior at Kings Mountain (N.C.) H.S., where he was put into the school's Hall of Fame in March, 1988 ... Also played LB on defense ... Won letters in basketball (forward) and track (100, 200, LJ, HJ, relays) ... Personal best in 100-yard dash was 9.5 ... Married Ava Bassett from Houston on May 31, 1986 ... Ava, along with several other Browns' wives, helps organize successful canned food drives during holidays ... PRO: A four-time Pro Bowler whose consistent every-down reliability is punctuated with big plays ... Has been a mainstay at right outside linebacker spot since being the first linebacker chosen in 1978 draft (first round, 12th selection overall) ... Selected to Pro Bowl the last two seasons after being an alternate in 1985 and 1986 ... Played in 1986 Pro Bowl after then-teammate Chip Banks was unable to play ... Has averaged 86 tackles-per-season in his 11 years of service ... Has recorded 46 career sacks to rank third on Browns' all-time list (needs 12 to equal second-ranked Walter Johnson's 58) ... Along with TE-Ozzie Newsome, is senior active member on club in terms of years played in Browns' uniform ... Will be tied for sixth place (along with Ozzie) among all-time Browns with 12 years of service following the '89 season ... Played inside linebacker in college and switched to OLB position in NFL.

1988: Tied for club lead with six QB sacks, topped club with 39 QB pressures and finished third with 101 tackles (the most since he had 126 in 1984) ... Had seven tackles, two QB pressures and his third career blocked field goal while playing with a cast on his right hand vs. Dallas (12/4) ... Fractured right hand at end of first quarter of Washington game (11/27), which was his 150th game as a Brown ... Recorded two QB sacks vs. Cincinnati (10/30) among his six tackles to move into third-place on Browns' all-time sack list ... Was fifth QB sack in a three-game span ... Also dropped Philadelphia QB-Randall Cunningham twice (10/16) ... Recorded solo sacks at Phoenix (10/23), and vs. Pittsburgh (11/20) ... Credited with four tackles in the Wild Card game vs. Houston (12/24).

1987: Finished tied for second on team with 72 tackles (46 solo) ... Recorded three QB sacks (fourth on team), three recovered fumbles to lead the club, three interceptions (tied for second), and four passes defended ... Intercepted third pass of season and returned it 36 yards (career long) before laterally to "Big Daddy" Carl Hairston ... Three INTs is career single-season high ... Added his 40th career sack (two yards) at N.O. (9/13) in opener ... Intercepted two passes for first time in career vs. Pittsburgh (9/20) ... Totalled four solo tackles vs. Indianapolis in 38-21 playoff win (1/9/88), and three tackles at Denver (1/17/88) in AFC Championship ... One of NFL-high eight Browns to play in Pro Bowl.

1986: Started all 16 games at ROLB, credited with 89 tackles (60 solo) to rank sixth on the club in stops ... Also recorded his 39th career sack on 11/20/86 when he dumped Houston QB-Warren Moon for a nine-yard loss ... In first Oiler matchup (9/14), stole a Moon pass for sixth career theft, then added seventh swipe in win over Dolphins (11/10) ... Recorded season-high 11 tackles (11/16) at LA Raiders ... Recorded one of Browns' playoff record nine sacks in playoff win over the Jets (1/3/87) ... Credited with five tackles in AFC Championship Game vs. Denver (1/11/87) ... Started 100th career game vs. K.C. (10/12).

1985: Played in first Pro Bowl after finishing season with 88 total tackles (46 solos), six QB sacks, one pass defended, one fumble recovery and one forced fumble ... Started in all but two games (did not start vs. Steelers, 9/16 (back spasms) and against Jets (groin) in season finale) ... Made four solo tackles, one assisted stop and had a sack as backup in Pro Bowl game.

1984: Recorded 126 tackles (third best on team behind ILBs Cousineau and Johnson), despite missing almost entire game at Houston with broken arm (12/16) ... Had career-high 12 QB sacks — most ever by a Cleveland LB and fifth best single-season total in team history (records kept since 1964) ... Also led squad in forced fumbles with three, recovered one and defended seven passes ... MVP of defense (voted by Cleveland TD Club) ... Despite gaining three All-NFL team selections (The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and NEA), one second-team (AP) and Pro Football Weekly's All-AFC squad, was not voted to play in Pro Bowl.

1983: Led Browns' defense in two impact categories: sacks, 7, and forced fumbles, 4, and finished second in total tackles with 106 (81 unassisted) ... Was game's leading tackler during back-to-back shutouts of Tampa Bay and New England.

1982: Missed most of season with broken ankle (occurred in final minute of season-opening victory at Seattle) ... Came back to play in season finale at Pittsburgh and started against Raiders in playoff game ... Placed on IR 9/12 and activated 12/30.

1981: Voted MVP on defense by Cleveland TD Club when he recorded a career-high 128 total tackles (87 solos) — second on team ... Also contributed five QB takedowns, stole two passes, recovered a pair of fumbles and blocked FG attempt at Denver (11/8).

1980: Missed two games (knee injury), but started 13 and played in 14 ... Made 83 tackles (64 solos), fifth on tackle chart, and was second on team with five QB sacks.

1979: Won starting job at present position — right outside linebacker, when he beat out veteran Gerald Irons in training camp ... Started all 16 games ... Made 103 tackles (79 unassisted), finishing third on team.

1978: Chipped bone in ankle caused him to miss much of rookie preseason; then bruised his shoulder in week five of regular season, but still played in 15 games, starting the last two ... Lost time hurt adjustment from collegiate ILB position to NFL OLB spot ... Still managed 34 total stops, including 26 solos.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Selected to The Sporting News' All America and AP's first-team All-PAC 8 teams in junior and senior years ... Defensive workhorse and leader of the Trojans; played middle LB throughout college career ... Four-year letter winner and captain senior season ... Played in 1978 Hula Bowl ... Brother Bruce, former All-America guard for USC, was first-round pick (ninth player selected) and is starter and a Pro Bowler on the Houston Oilers' offensive line ... Father (Clay) played end for 49ers in 1950 and from 1953-55 ... Earned B.S. degree in business administration in 1978 and is just a few hours short of his M.B.A. at USC (carries a near-perfect 3.8 average) ... Gained All-America honors in high school as a LB and all-state selection at both LB and RB ... Cracked 1,000 yards rushing senior season, averaging 8.8 yards per carry ... Also played guard on basketball team and was third seed on tennis team ... Still drives the same 1973 Mercury Capri his wife Leslie bought new while in high school ... Odometer stopped at 89,000 miles five years ago ... Lives in Los Angeles during the off-season, but has a home in Strongsville (Cleveland suburb) ... Has taken acting lessons during last three off-seasons ... Also involved in real estate development ... Helped raise money for Humane Society when the Bay Area (Ca.) Browns' Backers held an "Evening with Clay Matthews" ... Clay and his wife Leslie (Zdenek) have five children: Jennifer Lynn (2/22/81); Kyle (5/26/82); Brian Clay (4/16/85); William Clay III (5/14/86); and Casey Christopher (1/16/89) ... Full name: William Clay Matthews Jr.

PRO: Owns the Browns' all-time punt return marks (yards and returns) despite playing for Browns only three seasons. ... Experienced a slight slump in 1988 after a Pro Bowl year in 1987, and a dynamic rookie season ... Dangerous return man whose fearless sprints upfield, coupled with his size and his elusive, slippery returns, inspired former Browns' P-Jeff Gossett to "christen" McNeil "The Ice Cube" ... Signed with Cleveland on 8/12/86 after two seasons with the USFL Houston Gamblers ... Owns the Browns' all-time marks in punt returns (112), punt return yardage (1,049) and long gain (84t) ... Exploded into NFL record books in first year by returning both a kickoff and punt for a touchdown in 1986, the first player to accomplish that feat since Washington's Tony Green in 1978 ... Gained 315 punt return yards in 1988, and broke club record by amassing 386 punt return yards in 1987, after gaining 348 in '86 ... Owns two of top three single-season punt return yardage marks (1986, 87) ... Has returned 60 kickoffs for 1,240 yards (19.5 avg.) to rank ninth on Browns' all-time kickoff return yardage list and tied for seventh in returns ... Raced 100 yards for a TD, the third-longest KO return in club history on 10/5/86 at Pittsburgh (see 1986) ... Has caught 14 career passes, two for TDs, for 203 yards ... USFL stats include 33 games played; 91 receptions for 1,518 yards (16.7 avg.); seven TDs ... Returned 70 punts for 828 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and three TDs ... Named to the Sporting News All-USFL team after 1985 season when he led the league with a 12.6-yard punt return average and two TDs ... Also grabbed 58 passes for 1,017 yards and scored six TDs from then-Gamblers' QB-Jim Kelly (Bills).

1988: Finished 10th in AFC with an 8.3-yard punt return avg. ... Returned two punts for eight yards in season finale vs. Houston (12/18) to surpass Dino Hall as the Browns' all-time leading punt returner (112 returns) ... Became the Browns' all-time punt return yardage leader vs. Bengals (10/30) by gaining 19 yards on two returns, surpassing Leroy Kelly (990) ... Caught five passes for 74 yards, including two for 36 yards at Houston (11/7) ... In Wild Card game (12/24), returned three punts for 27 yards (9.0 avg.), and returned one kickoff 17 yards.

1987: Named the AFC's return specialist for Pro Bowl and to the Football News AFC All-Pro Team ... Finished fourth in AFC with an 11.4-yard punt return avg ... Average should have been even higher, as he had two returns for TDs (92 yards at San Diego (11/1); 73 yards vs. Buffalo (11/15)) nullified due to penalties ... Caught eight passes for 120 yards, including an 11-yarder for a TD in opener at N.O. (9/13) and a 39-yarder for a score at Houston (11/22) ... Gained 17 yards on a reverse vs. Bills ... Returned both kickoffs and punts during playoffs.

1986: Named as first alternate to the AFC Pro Bowl Squad, earned AP All-Pro honorable mention and Football News All-Pro ... Set a club mark with 40 punt returns and recorded the second-most punt return yards with 348 (now stands as third-most after record-breaking year in '87) ... Bolted 84 yards with a punt for a touchdown vs. Detroit (9/28) ... Was the longest in club annals (breaking HOFer Bobby Mitchell's old mark, 78-yard TD, 12/6/59), and the longest in the NFL in '86 ... Responded to kickoff return challenge, a first in his career, by recording the second-most returns (47) for the second-most yardage (997) in PRO: Aggressive cornerback who rates as one of the NFL's best, "Minni" won consensus All-Pro honors and was a Pro Bowl starter the last two seasons ... Teams with partner Hanford Dixon to give the Browns the best cornerback duo in league ... The last two years marked the first time in NFL history that two corners from the same team were named as Pro Bowl starters ... Has been mainstay at left corner for Browns since game four of 1984 season ... Entering his eighth year of pro ball and sixth in the NFL ... Originally drafted by USFL Chicago Blitz in third round (1983, 30th player selected); spent most of '83 on injured reserve (knee) ... Played in 16 USFL games, intercepted four passes for 74 yards (one TD); recovered two fumbles and played in '84 championship game with Arizona ... Signed as free agent with Browns on 4/3/84, but contract was not approved until 8/25 ... Projected by Browns' scouts as early second-round NFL choice in 1983, but went undrafted after signing with Blitz ... Five of 13 career interceptions have come against the Houston Oilers ... Has scored two career TDs after recovering blocked punts, and has blocked two punts (that resulted in TDs) and a field goal.

1988: In addition to a starting Pro Bowl berth, earned AP All-Pro (first team), UPI All-AFC (first team), PFWA All-Pro, Sporting News All-Pro, Sports Illustrated All-Pro (football writer Paul Zimmerman picked Minnifield, "because of consistency and courage — he played hurt."), Football News All-Pro, Pro Football Weekly All-NFL, and World Almanac All-Pro ... Led club with 14 passes defended and four interceptions (tied career single-season high) ... Recorded 48 tackles (37 solo) ... Missed week four at Cincinnati (9/25) with a calf muscle injury ... Recorded 13th career interception at Washington (11/27), as he raced stride for stride with Redskin WR-Ricky Sanders at end of first half ... Scored a TD vs. Pittsburgh (11/20) when Stephen Braggs blocked a Harry Newsome punt, which Minnifield recovered and returned 11 yards for a score ... Also recorded a three-yard interception and three tackles, while adding two pass defenses ... Blocked a Scott Fulhage punt vs. Bengals (10/30), which was returned one yard by Herman Fontenot for a TD ... Had two interceptions vs. Philadelphia (10/16) and had another nullified due to penalty ... Was third multiple-interception game of career ... Also made three solo tackles and three passes defended ... Philadelphia WRs caught just three passes all day ... Injured groin in opener at K.C. (9/4) ... Re-injured groin in Jets' (9/11) game ... Replaced by Stephen Braggs at LCB in both contests ... Recorded a tackle and a pass defense in Wild Card game (12/24).

1987: On top of Pro Bowl starting duties, earned first-team UPI All-Pro, Sporting News All-Pro, PFWA All-Pro, Pro Football Weekly All-NFL, NEA All-Pro (second team), and AP All-Pro (second team) ... Led club with 13 passes defended and was tied for fifth with 56 tackles (39 solo) ... At Houston (11/22), had best day of career and won Defensive Player of the Week honors by intercepting three Warren Moon passes, tying a club record set by seven others (last done by Hanford Dixon, 12/19/82 vs. Steelers) ... Was one of four players in NFL to perform "hat-trick" in '87 ... Credited with three passes defended as Raider WRs caught just five passes in L.A. (12/20) ... Made four tackles vs. Bengals (12/13), three tackles vs. Colts (12/6) and season-high 10 at San Francisco (11/29) ... Led secondary with seven tackles (six solo) vs. Bills (11/15), including two loss-tackles, a caused fumble and a pass defense ... Picked off a Sean Salisbury pass in 38-21 win over Indianapolis in playoffs and returned it 48 yards for a TD, the third-longest interception return in Browns' postseason history ... The score came with 39 seconds remaining in the game.

1986: Earned berth on Pro Bowl squad after outstanding season ... Finished seventh on club with 87 tackles (52 solo), intercepted three passes for 20 yards, defended 15 passes, caused and recovered a fumble, and blocked two kicks ... Herculean effort vs. Houston (11/30) earned him AFC Defensive Player of the Week, when he intercepted two passes (both in Cleveland territory) in overtime to stall Houston drives and set-up winning field goal in 13-10 OT win ... Became only player in NFL history to pick off two passes in an overtime period ... Equally impressive effort came on special teams at Minnesota (10/26) ... Blocked Viking punt which was returned by CB-Felix Wright for a TD ... Also blocked Chuck Nelson's field goal attempt that would have tied the game with seven seconds remaining to preserve come-from-behind 23-20 victory ... Injured calf muscle prevented him from playing in Steelers game (11/23) ... Recorded 11 tackles in playoffs, including seven in Jets victory (1/3/87) ... Five passes defended in AFC Championship vs. Denver (1/11/87) led squad ... Named UPI All-AFC (2nd team) and honorable mention AP All-Pro.

1985: Started all 16 games at LCB ... Finished year with 64 total tackles (53 solos), and led team in passes defended with 15 (tied with SS Al Gross) ... Stole one pass and returned it three yards vs. Buffalo (11/17) ... Had outstanding effort vs. Dolphins' talented group of receivers in playoff game: made three solo tackles, knocked down a pass and did not permit a catch by any receiver he was covering during that contest.

1984: Played in 15 games (started 12 of last 13), despite just six days of practice prior to season opener ... Saw great deal of action first three games in passing situations and on special teams ... Played some LCB for first time against Rams in L.A. (game 2) ... Matched with RCB Hanford Dixon as a starter for first time against Steelers (game 4) ... Started all but Bills' game (hamstring injury), played only the first play of Jets' game and missed playing time in several other games due to hamstring problem ... Finished rookie season with 40 tackles (29 solos), 13 passes defended (third on team), one

CB-FRANK MINNIFIELD ON THE AFC CENTRAL: "Anytime two teams from the AFC Central play, it will be physical. We know it. They know it. This is one tough division, and the teams in it are getting better every year."

CB-FRANK MINNIFIELD ON WIDE RECEIVERS: "Aside from those on our team, they are the scoundrels of the earth. Throughout the game, they try to be your friend. Then, they catch a pass and they want to go through this Indian war dance and spike the ball on you. You're nothing but a scoundrel when you do something like that."

CATHERINE MINNIFIELD ON HER SON, FRANK: "Frank did every thing he could to make a mother out of me. I think Frank named his son Chase because if he's anything like his dad, everyone in the neighborhood will be looking for him."

PRO: Saying he "found new enthusiasm" with the coaching changes made this past offseason, Ozzie Newsome returns for his 12th and final season ... Over a decade of Ozzie's excellence is reflected not only in the record books, but also in the Browns' success on the field and in the Cleveland community ... Ozzie is the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching tight end with 610 receptions for 7,416 yards ... Enters the '89 season as the sixth-leading pass catcher in league annals (second among active players behind Seattle's Steve Largent), and needs 22 catches to move past current Patriots' coach and HOFer Raymond Berry into fifth place ... With 40 grabs, Ozzie would pass HOFer Charley Taylor (649) into third place on the all-time list ... Enters '89 with a 143 game streak in which he has caught at least one pass, the second-longest in league history behind Largent's streak of 168 ... Has caught 30 or more passes every year in the league ... Has not fumbled in his last 505 attempts (since 1980: 10/5 vs. Denver) ... Has earned three trips to the Pro Bowl (1981, 1984-85) ... Has caught at least one pass in 164 of 166 (98.8%) games played; at least two in 138 of 166 (83%); three or more 104 times (63%); and eight or more 13 times ... Has caught 50 or more passes in six seasons and became only the tenth player in league history to accomplish that feat, in 1985 ... Newsome and James Lofton (seventh with 599 catches) are the only receivers in the top 10 with 11 years of service, the fewest among the elite group ... Owns top three and seventh-best single-season receiving performances in club history: 89 in 1983 and '84; 69 in 1981; and 62 in 1985 ... Ranked among NFL's top 10 in single-season receptions three successive years (1982-84) ... Browns' all-time leading receiver in receptions, yards and consecutive games with at least one reception ... Single season record holder in: receptions (89), most seasons 50 or more receptions (6); and most 1,000 yard receiving seasons (2) ... Also holds single-game reception mark (14) and single-game receiving yardage mark (191)—both were set vs. Jets on 10/14/84, breaking club records that were more than 31 years old ... Most durable performer on the team with 166 consecutive games played streak (less two of three strike games in '87) ... Has started all but three games since being 23rd player selected in 1978 draft ... Has not missed a game since the 10th grade, having played 11 seasons for the Browns, four at Alabama and three in high school ... Team leader in receptions six times including five straight (1979, 1981-85) ... Enters 1989 campaign with following stats vs. division foes: 90 catches for 1,165 yards and 6 TDs vs. Steelers; 87 for 862 and 5 TDs vs. Bengals; and 66 for 817 and 3 TDs vs. Oilers ... Choice used to select Newsome (23rd overall) was obtained from Rams, along with Redskins' 4th choice, in exchange for Bears' first choice (obtained for QB-Mike Phipps) ... Second first-round choice by Browns in 1978 ... Cleveland selected LB-Clay Matthews with own pick in first round ... After this, his 12th season, will be tied for sixth on the Browns' all-time service list along with Matthews ... Two games that Ozzie did not make a catch were 10/14/79 vs. Washington and 11/12/78 vs. Denver.

1988: Had 35 catches for 343 yards (fourth on club) ... Extended consecutive game with a reception streak to 143 with one 13-yard catch vs. Houston in finale (12/18), although did not start (for third time in career) ... Did not start at Washington (11/27) ... Previous non-start was in 1984 ... Became only the

ENTERING 1989, OZZIE IS:

- ★ The NFL's all-time leading pass-catching tight end with 610 receptions for 7,416 yards.
- ★ The Browns' all-time leader in receptions and receiving yardage, and is 10th on the Browns' all-time scoring list with 276 points (46 TDs: 44 receiving, two rushing).
- ★ In sixth place among the NFL's all-time receivers, and needs 22 catches to move past Raymond Berry into fifth place. Ozzie can move into third place with 40 catches (past Charley Taylor's 649 catches).

sixth NFL player to reach the 600-reception milestone at Houston (11/7) by grabbing five for 65 yards ... His 600th was a four-yard TD reception from Kosar to pull Browns to within four points in the fourth quarter ... Reception total tied his season high ... Was his 44th career touchdown ... Caught two passes for 27 yards vs. Seattle (10/9) to move into sixth-place among all-time receivers ... Caught three passes for 20 yards, including a 14-yard TD reception from Mike Pagel vs. Colts (9/19) ... Marked the Browns' first TD of the year, and Ozzie's first since 11/23/86 ... Caught two passes for 26 yards vs. the Jets (9/11) and moved into eighth place on the NFL's all-time reception list past Harold Jackson ... Did not make a catch in the playoff loss to Houston (12/24).

1987: Finished season with 34 catches for 375 yards ... Came through in clutch when Browns traveled to Pittsburgh needing a win to clinch AFC Central crown in season finale (12/26) ... Grabbed season-high six passes, four for first downs, for 94 yards, as Browns won 19-13 ... Also extended his consecutive game reception streak to 127 ... Caught three passes vs. Bengals (12/13) to move past Lionel Taylor into ninth place on the NFL's all-time reception list ... Grabbed five passes in opener at New Orleans (9/13) ... Had three or more receptions in six of 13 games and two or more in nine ... Hauled in four passes for 65 yards in 38-21 win over Colts in playoffs (1/9/88) and three passes for 35 yards in AFC Championship game at Denver (1/17/88) ... Did not score a TD for first time in career ... Named as first alternate to Pro Bowl for second straight year ... Offensive captain.

1986: Nagged with shoulder and ankle injuries but refused to sit out, starting all 16 games (one of 16 players to do so for the Browns in '86) ... Caught 39 passes for 417 yards, his lowest output since his rookie year, but still tied for fourth on the club ... His perseverance and courage brought him recognition from teammates, as he received the Ed Block Courage Award (in honor of the late Ed Block, longtime Colts' trainer, for exemplifying courage both on and off the field) ... Selected as first alternate to Pro Bowl ... Offensive captain ... Had season-high seven receptions for 94 yards in prime time clash vs. Dolphins (11/10) ... Caught third-quarter TDs vs. Kansas City (10/12) and at Indianapolis (11/2), and one second-quarter TD vs. Pittsburgh (11/23) ... Had clutch performance in playoff win over Jets (1/3), when he recorded game-high six receptions for 114 yards.

1985: Voted a starter in Pro Bowl for second straight season ... Also named to: second-team AP All-Pro squad, UPI All-AFC All-Star team (second team) and College and Pro Football Weekly All-NFL team (second team) ... Led team in receptions (62), yards receiving (711) and TD catches (5) ... Became the all-time leading TE in league history, surpassing Jackie Smith, when he grabbed his 481st career reception at Cincinnati (11/10) on a 38-yard pass (LG catch of season) from Kosar (4th quarter) ... Caught two passes for 22 yards and scored one TD (16-yard strike from Kosar) against Dolphins in playoff game.

1984: Leading receiver in AFC (89 catches) and second to Redskins' Art Monk's NFL record 106 receptions ... Broke four club records and extended or tied four others ... 1,001 yards receiving marked second time in career he surpassed 1,000 ... 191-yard receiving effort vs. Jets (10/14) not only broke club mark, but also tied Steve Largent for top single-game performance of year in AFC ... 14 receptions broke team record set in 1952 ... Co-captain of Browns' offense ... Caught career pass No. 400 at Cincinnati (10/21) and became Browns' all-time leading yardage receiver when he caught a nine-yard pass from QB-Paul McDonald early in fourth quarter against Bengals at Cleveland Stadium (12/2) ... Consensus first-team all-NFL TE ... Also voted starting tight end for AFC squad in 1985 Pro Bowl and recipient of prestigious NFL Alumni Player-of-Year Award for TEs ... MVP on offense by Cleveland TD Club (only player ever to win four times, although Kosar won award in 1986 and '87).

1983: NFL's leading receiver after week 15, but was edged, 92-89, for title by Raiders' Todd Christensen in final weekend of season and finished second in league ... 66-yard TD against Colts (11/27) was second LG of career (LG is also against Balt., 74-yarder in 1979) ... Named HBO NFL offensive player of week for effort vs. Colts (8 for 108, breaking Gary Collins' career club mark of 331 catches) ... Post-season honors included: second-team All-NFL by AP and NEA, second-team All-AFC by UPI and MVP on offense by Cleveland TD Club ... Started all 16 games and led team in catches (89), yards (970) and TDs (6).

1982: Gained three 100-yard receiving games during strike-shortened season and finished with 49 catches (second best in AFC and tied for fourth in NFL) ... 633 yards receiving ranked seventh best in NFL.

1981: Named to AFC Pro Bowl team after catching 69 for 1,002 yards and six TDs ... Only second player in club history to break 1,000-yard barrier (HOFer Paul Warfield was first) ... Named Cleveland TD Club's MVP on offense.

1980: Pulled down 51 catches (594 yards, three TDs) to tie for third with WR-Dave Logan on team's reception list ... Last fumble of career occurred vs. Denver (10/5).

1979: Caught career-high nine TD passes, grabbed longest catch as pro (74 yards) vs. Baltimore (9/16) and began current catch streak with five-catch, 90-yard effort vs. Bengals (10/21) ... Was named All-NFL by PFWA and The Sporting News ... Also voted first-team All-AFC by UPI ... Was held without a reception for just second time of career vs. Washington (10/14).

1978: First rookie in quarter-century history of Cleveland TD Club to be named Browns' Offensive MVP ... Grabbed 38 passes for 589 yards and ran end-around 13 times for 96 yards, including two TDs ... Also named to Football Digest's All-Rookie team ... Held without a catch just once — week 11 vs. Denver (11/12) ... Caught just one pass for six yards in very first NFL game (9/3 vs. 49ers), but scored on a 33-yard end-around play ... First NFL TD reception came at Atlanta (9/17) ... Cracked century mark receiving for first time in career with 124 yards at Houston (11/5).

OZZIE NEWSOME ON RETURNING FOR A FINAL SEASON: "I talked with (former Browns) Calvin Hill, Paul Warfield and (former Indian) Andre Thornton. But the key was a session I had with (offensive coordinator) Marc Trestman. I like his plans to use me in an H-back role. I'll play around 225 lbs. or lighter. And I like (new tight ends' coach) Lionel Taylor. If this were a bad team, I'd retire now. But my teammates all asked me, 'What if we win without you?' This is my 12th and final year, but if I go to training camp and can't play, I'll stop."

MORE ON THE RETURN OF OZ: "With Bud (Carson), it's going to be different and new. That's exciting. And Art (Modell) told me to do what's best for Ozzie Newsome. I'm not coming back for money, I'm coming back for a run at the Super Bowl. They both seemed happy when I told them that I'll return."

ART MODELL ON OZZIE: "I'm pleased Ozzie's returning for another season, which is good news for the Browns and I'm delighted. We left the decision up to Ozzie, because I knew he would decide to play only if he firmly believed he could come back and perform at a high level. He'll help us with his play, but he also provides great leadership off the field."

— DID YOU KNOW? —

On December 13, 1987, Ozzie Newsome caught three passes vs. the Cincinnati Bengals to move past Lionel Taylor into ninth place on the NFL's all-time reception list. So what's the connection? Taylor is the Browns' new tight ends' coach, and a 20-year coaching veteran. He totaled 567 receptions playing for the Chicago Bears (1959), Denver Broncos (1960-66) and Houston Oilers (1967-68), which was the second-most ever in the history of pro football at the time of his retirement, and the most in AFL history. He is currently 12th among all-time receivers (tops in AFL history). He led the AFL in receptions in five of his nine years in the league, is the Broncos' all-time leading receiver, and is a member of the "Ring of Fame" in Mile High Stadium.

PRO: Rejoins the Browns after spending the last two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals ... Originally drafted by the Browns in the seventh round (7b, 174th overall) of the 1986 draft ... That pick was obtained from Kansas City in a draft day (4/29/86) trade of RB-Boyce Green ... He spent the 1986 season on injured reserve with a chronic abdominal muscle strain, was waived on 9/7/87, and was claimed by the Bengals ... "We're very pleased to get Mike Norseth back in our organization," said Ernie Accorsi, the Browns' Executive Vice President of Football Operations. "He is a bright, young quarterback we drafted three years ago who just got caught up in a numbers game with all of the veteran quarterbacks we had here. He has a strong arm and when he had the opportunity in the preseason here, he moved the offense."

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Set 16 Kansas and Big Eight passing records, including school and conference marks for most yards passing in a game (480 vs. Vanderbilt), most total yards in a game (509 vs. Vanderbilt); most yards passing in a season (2,995); most total offensive yards in a season (3,214); and most consecutive passes without an interception (175) ... Rallied the offense by completing 17 of 25 passes for 179 yards, two TDs and one INT ... Cleveland took 16-14 third quarter lead before dropping the contest, 24-23 ... Pagel replaced starter Don Strock, who started in place of injured Bernie Kosar ... In the well-documented quarterback injury parade, Mike suffered a separated shoulder in second period of the Seattle game (10/9, week six) when making a touchdown-saving tackle of S-Paul Moyer after a blocked field goal ... Had completed two of eight passes for 23 yards ... Made first start since 12/22/85, and first-ever for Browns vs. old teammates (Colts, 9/19) and led Browns to 23-17 win before a national television audience on Monday Night in week three. ... Completed 23 of 38 passes for 255 yards, two TDs and one INT ... Came off bench and completed seven of 14 passes for 73 yards after Gary Danielson left Jets' game (9/11, week two) with broken ankle ... Completed 15 of 26 passes for 131 yards, with no TDs and one INT at Pittsburgh (10/2, a 23-9 win) ... Set single-game career highs in attempts (48) and completions (24) at Cincinnati (9/25, a 24-17 loss) while throwing for 254 yards and one TD, with no INTs.

1987: Did not take a snap from center during a regular or postseason game ... Assumed holding chores last four weeks of season (and throughout playoffs) and helped stabilize placements ... Was third holder during "union" games (P-Jeff Gossett started season, was then waived (11/18), gave way to QB-Gary Danielson, who relinquished duties to Pagel) ... On inactive roster weeks six-11 ... Dressed, but did not play in first two games.

1986: Only action came in season finale vs. San Diego (12/21) ... Completed two of three passes for 53 yards, including a 45-yarder to Brian Brennan ... Served as backup to Kosar, as Browns kept only two QBs on active roster.

1985: Set single-season career-highs in attempts (394), completions (199), yardage (2,414) and touchdowns (14) while seeing action in all 16 games, 14 as a starter ... 65.8 rating ranked 12th among AFC signal callers, but 3.8 interception ratio ranked seventh lowest in conference ... 160 yards rushing were third most by an AFC QB and his 6.4-yard per carry avg. was second best behind Bruce Mathison's 8.6 ... Tossed three TD passes in 12/22 finale vs. Houston to tie career-high for TDs passing in a game (also at Hou., 9/9/84) ... Had rushing TDs vs. Buffalo (10/6) and Tampa Bay (12/15) on two and three-yard runs, respectively ... Had three scoring passes exceeding 60 yards (61 yards to Wayne Capers 12/8 at Chicago, 72 yards to Ray Butler 9/29 at Jets and 80 yards to Capers 1/17 vs. Miami) ... 80-yarder to Capers is career LG and is tied for eighth longest in Colts' history ... Caught one pass for six yards.

1984: Played in 11 games and started nine, including first seven of season ... Completed 114 of 212 passes for 1,426 yards (eight TDs) and earned a 71.8 rating (did not attempt enough passes to qualify for AFC ranking) ... Capped 17-point fourth-quarter rally vs. Steelers (10/21) with 13 of 17 for 178-yard performance, and game-winning 54-yard TD toss to Ray Butler ... Won AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors when he was 15 of 20 for 215 yards and threw three TD passes at Houston (9/9) in a 35-21 Colts victory ... Finished year with 149 yards rushing on 26 carries, fifth among AFC QBs.

1983: Started and played in 15 games (missed 11/20 contest at Miami) ... Completed 163 of 328 for 2,353 yards and had 12 TDs (17 interceptions) for a 64.0 rating (13th in AFC) ... Passed for a career-high 292 yards at New England (9/4) ... Career-high 441 yards rushing (8.2 average) ranked second among AFC QBs and third on team ... Had career-LG 33-yard romp vs. Bears.

1982: As a rookie, completed 111 of 221 passes for 1,281 yards, five TDs, seven interceptions and had a QB rating of 62.4 (11th in AFC) ... Started all nine games during strike-shortened season ... 3.2 interception percentage was third-best in conference and tied for fifth-lowest in NFL ... 53-yard scoring toss to Ray Butler at Miami (9/19) was first of pro career and longest of season.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Lettered four years at ASU, starting final two seasons ... Set seven Arizona State records, including career marks for attempts (786) and completions (405) ... Set single-season marks in 1980 for attempts (344), completions (184), percentage (55.1) and fewest interceptions (nine) ... First passer in Sun Devils' history to throw for more than 2,000 yards in consecutive seasons (1980-81) ... Threw a record 137 passes without an interception as a junior ... Had best game ever by a PAC-10 QB when he threw for 466 yards and seven TDs in a 62-36 defeat of (John Elway quarterbacked) Stanford in 1981 ... ASU MVP as a senior after tossing school record 29 TDs (2,484 yards passing) ... Earned All-America honorable mention honors from AP, The Sporting News and Football News ... Played in 1978 Garden State Bowl and 1982 East-West Shrine Classic and Olympia Gold Bowl ... Was an outfielder on Sun Devils' baseball team from 1980-82 ('81 squad won Collegiate World Series) ... Majored in geography and secondary education ... Attended Washington H.S. in Phoenix, Ariz., where he lettered in football (QB and S), baseball (SS) and basketball (G) ... Named Arizona high school Player of the Year as a senior while quarterbacking football team to state finals ... Lives in Strongsville with wife Danita and son, Kyle Gilbert (6/2/87) ... They are expecting their second child in August ... Enjoys basketball, softball and golf ... Studies engineering at Cleveland State during offseason ... Full name: Mike John Pagel.

6'-0", 280 lbs., 2nd Year
Clemson
South Aiken (S.C.) H.S.
Born: August 27, 1965
Aiken, S.C.
Draft 2, 1988

GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: (1988, 16/2) Total 16/2

PRO: Dynamic rookie campaign resulted in a berth on virtually every All-Rookie squad ... Impressed new coaching staff in last May's mini-camp, and will see more playing time in '89 ... Recorded more QB sacks in rookie season than his brother (William) has had in any year as a pro ... Has great quickness and strength, and can play end or tackle ... Originally selected in the second round (50th overall) of the 1988 draft (first player selected out of the ACC).

1988: Tied for team lead with six QB sacks ... Steadily improving play correlated to increased playing time, as he started final two games and the Wild Card game ... Recorded 25 tackles (20 solo), caused and recovered two fumbles and had 17 QB pressures ... Scored on a 10-yard fumble return for first pro TD vs. Houston (12/18) ... Recorded two QB sacks for 17 yards lost vs. Pittsburgh (11/20) among his three tackles, a QB pressure and recovered a Bubby Brister fumble on Pittsburgh's last play ... Had three tackles, one for loss, one caused fumble and a QB pressure at Denver (11/13) ... Sacked Boomer Esiason vs. Cincinnati (10/30) on the game's last play in 23-16 win ... Recorded third sack of season vs. Eagles (10/16) among his three tackles ... Had game's only sack (three yards) at Cincinnati (9/25) and his second in as many games ... First career sack (and game's only sack) with 31 seconds left in 23-17 win over Colts 9/19 (Colts' QB-Chris Chandler on a third-and-six) ... In playoffs, recorded two tackles and four QB pressures ... Won the Browns' Backers' Most Improved Lineman Award.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Solid, dominating force on Clemson's tough defense ... Holds Clemson's all-time sack mark with 28, breaking his brother's (the Bears' William "The Refrigerator") ACC mark of 25 ... Had at least one tackle for a loss in 14 of his last 15 games ... As a senior (1987), won ACC Defensive Player of the Year, as well second-team All-America honors from The Sporting News and Football News ... One of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, given to the nation's best down lineman ... Led the ACC with 24 tackles for 128 yards in losses ... Was the second-ranked tackler on the nation's number three ranked defense ... Tied a school record with five tackles for 34 yards in losses vs. N.C. State (among his season single-game high of 13 tackles) ... Earned first-team All-ACC and AP All America honorable mention as a junior (1986) ... Hampered by an ankle injury, he played in only 37% of defensive snaps ... Still led the team with nine QB sacks and 15 tackles for 84 yards in losses ... Missed five games due to an ankle injury as a sophomore (1985), but was second on the team in loss-tackles (seven for 20 yards) and had the second most batted passes (six) by a lineman in Clemson history ... Fractured his right fibula (9/31) and struggled with ankle problems all year ... Also broke his right hand at Chapel Hill ... As a freshman (1984), recorded 15 loss-tackles including seven sacks, second to his brother William's 26 ... Earned first-team freshman All America honors ... Was red-shirted in 1983 ... Starred at South Aiken (S.C.) High School, capturing all-conference and all-district honors three straight years ... Broke his left ankle in high school and his right ankle at Clemson ... One of 12 children, William said, "Nobody wanted to mess with a big family." ... Recreation and parks major ... Browns' spokesman on anti-drug film designed for Cleveland area students, which is a tool used in the many school visits Browns' players participate in ... Also spends time with a Berea (O.) church youth group ... Lives in Westlake ... Full name (and preferred name): Michael Dean Perry.

MICHAEL DEAN PERRY ON HIS PLAY AND COMPARISONS BETWEEN HIMSELF AND HIS BROTHER: "I'll always be William's little brother, but I think people look at me as a football player now because of my performance on the field. If people look at what I did in college (breaking William's sack record), and my first year with the Browns, they'll see I'm capable. I can contribute to this team as a player. I'm pleased with the way things are shaping up."

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN*CHRIS PIKE*6'-8", 290 lbs., 1st Year*Tulsa*Calvin Coolidge (Washington, D.C.) H.S.*Born: January 13, 1964
Washington, D.C.*Trade (Eagles), 1988

PRO: Mammoth lineman who was acquired in a trade with Philadelphia on 3/12/88 in exchange for a sixth-round draft pick in 1988 (Eagles selected DB-Rob Sterling, Maine) and CB-D.D. Hoggard ... Originally selected by Eagles in sixth round of the 1987 draft ... Pike never signed with Philadelphia and sat out the '87 campaign ... Spent the 1988 season on injured reserve while rehabilitating his knee ... Was placed on IR in training camp, but practiced with the club toward the end of the year ... Worked hard during offseason, dropping weight below 300 pounds ... Looked overpowering in last May's minicamp.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Suffered a knee injury (torn ligaments) in his senior year at Tulsa vs. Cal State-Fullerton and was sidelined for the final six games ... Was off to a great start, with 21 tackles, 10 for 56 yards in losses, and four quarterback sacks ... Three of those sacks came in one game vs. Tennessee Tech ... Totalled 71 career tackles, one fumble recovery, 15 tackles for losses and four QB sacks ... Took over the starting RDT spot in 1985 ... Sat out the 1983 season after transferring to Tulsa from North Carolina ... Was target of intense recruiting battle between UNC and Virginia Tech ... Played only one year of football at Calvin Coolidge (Washington, D.C.) High School as a nose tackle and linebacker ... Earned All-Conference honors in football and basketball ... All-Metro pick by Pigskin Club of Washington ... Averaged 10 points and 13 rebounds per game ... Majored in physical education ... Full name: Chris Holtz Pike.

PRO: Took over as starting center last season after trade of Mike Baab to New England ... Talented, versatile lineman with great strength and an excellent work ethic ... Has the size of a tackle, skill of a center, and quickness of a guard ... Was 32nd pick overall in 1987 ... Choice was obtained from San Diego in draft day deal that saw Browns and Chargers swap first and second-round picks for LB-Chip Banks ... Was first center and fourth OL selected overall in draft ... Bud Carson says, "Gregg's only going to improve. He's going to be a good one."

1988: Started all 16 games at center ... Suffered minor leg injury vs. Eagles (10/16) ... Won starting role in training camp, allowing Browns to trade C-Mike Baab to Patriots prior to start of season.

1987: Talent surfaced in the AFC Championship game at Denver (1/17) when he started for injured left guard Larry Williams, then was switched to center when starter Mike Baab went down with an injury, forcing Williams into action ... Helped pave the way for 464 total net yards in that game ... Played in all 12 regular season games (non-strike), none as a starter, as well as both playoff games ... Saw most action on special teams ... Named to UPI's 1987 NFL All-Rookie team.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Came out of the Hurricanes' program as one of the premier offensive linemen in the country with experience at every position on line ... Settled at center in junior year and proved to be an excellent pass protector for top '87 draft pick Vinny Testaverde (Tampa Bay) ... Earned numerous All-America honors in 1986 including second-team AP and second-team Sporting News ... Was also named to AP's All-South Independent Conference First Team ... Served as offensive co-captain as selected by teammates and did not allow an opponent to register more than four tackles in any game as a senior ... Moved into the starting lineup as a junior at center, while playing tackle as a sophomore ... Was member of 1983 National Championship team (along with Bernie Kosar) as a freshman (one of only three freshman to letter that season) ... Played in Fiesta Bowl ('86 and '84), Sugar Bowl ('85) and Orange Bowl ('83) ... All-South Jersey offensive tackle at Shawnee High in Medford Lakes, N.J. ... Played every position on offensive and defensive lines, in addition to handling placekicking and punting chores ... Set school record with 38-yard field goal ... Also set school mark with shot put throw of 53'-4" ... Avid conditioner who utilizes tennis, jump rope, ice skating and hitting a punching bag for agility and speed ... Active participant in the Browns' off-season program ... Graduated last June 18 with a degree in Business Management ... Lives in Westlake (O.) ... Was engaged last Valentine's Day to Susan Stringer, of Westlake, and married 6/23/89 ... Participant in a SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) workshop last April ... Volunteered his time for St. Edwards' Parish (in a suburb of Cleveland) on Thanksgiving and worked on a Christmas food drive for the poor ... Name is pronounced ra-KOSE-ee ... GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: (1979, 16/10); (1980, 16/16); (1981, 16/16); (1982, 9/9); (1983, 16/16); (1984, IR); (1985, 12/12); (1986, 16/16); (1987, 13/13); (1988, 16/16) Total 130/124

PRO: Two-time Pro Bowler and three-time All-AFC selection who is senior member of offensive line ... Has started since seventh game of rookie year ... Opened at left guard, switched to right tackle in 1980 and has been a fixture there since ... Was youngest starter on offensive line from 1979-82, but oldest since 1985 ... Had surgery during 1986 offseason to remove bone chips from both elbows and underwent arthroscopic surgery last January to remove bone spurs and loose bodies in his right ankle ... Only Ozzie Newsome (166) and Clay Matthews (153) have played more games among active Browns.

1988: Anchored right side of line ... Shut down sack specialists Ed "Too Tall" Jones, Charles Mann, Ray Childress, Freddie Joe Nunn, Reggie White and Jacob Green during season ... One of three linemen to start every game (along with Rakoczy and Fike).

1987: Named to Pro Bowl for second straight year ... Also named to Football News AFC All-Pro Team and UPI's All-Pro Second Team ... Signed a contract after a 28-day holdout in training camp ... Was Browns' nominee for Lite/NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year ... Was senior member of offensive line that allowed just 22 QB sacks (avg. 1.8/game), fourth-lowest in AFC and paved way for an average of 151.5 rushing yards in playoffs and over 120 yards in final three regular season games — all Cleveland victories ... Started 13 games at right tackle.

1986: Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff games en route to Pro Bowl, AP All-Pro honorable mention, UPI All-AFC and Pro Football Weekly All-AFC honors.

1985: Made successful comeback after missing entire 1984 season with knee injury, starting all 12 games when he was "active" ... However, missed four games because of a knee injury suffered in Cowboy's game (9/22), which sidelined him for weeks four through seven ... Was placed on injured reserve after arthroscopic surgery (9/23) ... Returned in time to start vs. Redskins (10/27) ... Started at RT in Miami playoff game.

1984: Missed entire season after injuring knee with 3:09 to play in preseason finale at Philadelphia (8/23) ... As result of injury, his 73 consecutive-games-played streak ended, along with his 67 consecutive starts.

1983: Browns' offensive line find of '79 draft paid dividends when he emerged as one of the top offensive tackles in NFL ... USA Today selected him first-team All-NFL; NEA named him on their second team and UPI voted him first-team All-AFC for his dominating performances.

1982: Started all 10 games at RT, including playoff loss to Raiders, during strike-shortened season.

1981: Started 16 games at RT ... Limited Jets' Pro Bowl starter Mark Gastineau to one tackle, three assists and no sacks during their 12/12 confrontation.

1980: Adjusted to new position of right tackle without a problem as he helped Browns establish reputation as one of the NFL's best offensive lines (QB Brian Sipe was sacked only 4.2% of time he attempted to pass — lowest percentage in league) ... Started all 17 games, including playoff loss to Raiders.

1979: Played in all 16 games rookie season, including last 10 in place of George Buehler at left guard ... First NFL start came against Redskins at Cleveland Stadium (10/14).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Honorable mention on All-America squads of AP, College and Pro Football Weekly and Sporting News as a senior offensive tackle and captain at Texas A&M ... Was also selected All-SWC by AP and UPI in 1977 and 1978 ... Played in six bowl games during four-year career with Aggies, including Senior, Hall of Fame and Hula Bowls in final season ... Earned B.S. degree in building construction in 1982 from Texas A&M ... Eventually hopes to be involved in construction career after football ... Broke high school record in shot put with toss of 58' 6½" while a track and football standout at Fairbanks (Tex.) H.S. ... Helps coordinate Browns' Sunday services and is very active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action ... Lives year-round in Cleveland suburb of Westlake with wife Kathy and three daughters Jenlizbeth (6/19/84), Cassidy Claire (10/1/85), and Jessica Jewel (8/24/87) ... Full name: Cody Lewis Risien.

PRO: A steadfast performer who is fearless over the middle, the lightning quick "Web" has developed into one of the most dangerous receiving threats in the league ... Not counting the eight games he missed due to injury last season, he has caught a pass in 35 of 36 games since joining the club as the Browns' top pick (second round) in the 1986 draft ... Played with a pin inserted into his forearm at end of last season ... Has grabbed at least two passes in 32 of 36 career games, all starts ... Was the Browns' second-round pick (their first round pick was traded to Buffalo in the Kosar deal), the 43rd player selected overall ... Was 27 days older than the league's youngest starting WR (Chicago's Ron Morris) in 1987, and was the youngest starter as a rookie ... Entering 1989: Has totalled four career 100-yard games ... Averages over 51 receiving yards and over three catches per game ... 15.8 career average-per-catch is tops among active Browns, and his 14 career TD receptions ranks third among active Browns (behind Ozzie Newsome and Brian Brennan).

1988: First significant injury of career saw him miss seven games with a fractured forearm suffered in week seven vs. Philadelphia (10/16), yet he led the club with a 15.4-yard average on 30 catches (fifth on club) ... Also sat out week two vs. the Jets (9/11) with a hamstring injury ... Season ended in a flourish, as he caught the game-winning 22-yard TD pass from Don Strock to give the Browns 28-23 win and a playoff berth in week 16 finale vs. Houston

(12/18) ... Capped a six reception, career-high 136-yard day ... The following week in the Wild Card rematch, he caught five passes for 58 yards and two touchdowns ... Returned to the lineup at Miami (12/12) after a seven-week layoff and caught two passes for 17 yards ... A gutsy competitor, "Web" was not expected back until the playoffs ... At time of injury, was tied for club lead with 22 catches for 309 yards (tops in yardage) despite missing Jets' game (9/11) with a hamstring injury, and being shut out for first time in NFL career (32 games) at Pittsburgh (10/2) ... Broke string of two receptions or more in 17 straight games ... Outstanding performance vs. Philadelphia (10/16) dampened by major injury ... Broke left forearm after catching four passes for 50 yards, including a 15-yard TD pass to give Browns a 10-3 third quarter lead in 19-3 win ... Grabbed game-high six passes for 86 yards vs. Colts (9/19), including a 17-yard TD pass ... Pulled a hamstring muscle in fourth quarter of opener at K.C. (9/4) after grabbing five passes for 61 yards.

1987: Led club with 806 receiving yards on 47 catches (17.1 avg.) and a club-high seven TDs ... Yardage total was seventh in AFC, while seven TD receptions tied for third in conference ... Caught at least two passes in every game ... Recorded consecutive 100-yard games vs. Bengals (12/13) and at L.A. Raiders (12/20) ... Marked only the sixth time in team history that a receiver surpassed the century mark in consecutive games ... Had career-long 54-yard TD catch to open scoring when Browns trounced Falcons, 38-3, (11/8) ... Caught TD passes of 27, 52, 54, 20, 18, 22 and 18 yards ... Held to one catch for 14 yards in playoff win over Colts (1/9/88) ... Snared four passes, two in each half, for 53 yards in AFC Championship game at Denver (1/17/88), including a four-yard scoring pass from Kosar to tie the contest, 31-31, with 10:48 left in the game.

1986: Dynamic initial NFL season saw him grab 40 passes for 577 yards (14.4 yard avg.) and four TDs during regular season, the fourth-most receptions by a rookie in club history (behind Paul Warfield's 52 in 1964, Mac Speedie's 42 in 1950 and TE-Oscar Roan's 41 in 1975) ... Also snared seven passes for 106 yards during playoffs ... Reception total was third-most on club ... Gained 134 yards on six receptions vs. Pittsburgh (11/23), including a dramatic 36-yard, game-winning touchdown from Kosar in 37-31 overtime victory ... Also hauled in a 47-yard Kosar TD pass to give Browns a 14-3 lead in division-clinching 34-3 victory over Cincinnati ... Only receiver to start every game ... In playoff victory over Jets, he grabbed six of Kosar's 33 completions for 86 yards ... Four of those six completions were for a first down ... Biggest catch was a 37-yarder from Kosar with 18 seconds left in fourth quarter that set up game-tying field goal from Jets' five-yard line ... Caught one pass for 20 yards in AFC Championship game.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Fourth-leading receiver in NCAA in senior year with 82 catches for 1,071 yards ... Second-team All-America by both A.P. and Football News ... Led WAC in receptions and all-purpose yards, which included 413 on kickoff returns (19 for a 21.9 yard avg.) and 270 on punt returns (29 for 9.3 yard avg.) ... Finished 10th in all-purpose yards in entire NCAA ... Recorded seven 100-yard games as a senior, while scoring 10 TDs ... 82 catches set new mark at San Diego State ... As a junior, grabbed 40 passes for 576 yards and three TDs ... Transferred from Delta (Stockton) College ... Played in East-West Shrine game ... Did not play football until his senior year at Stockton's Franklin High School ... Won MVP honors in area all-star game as senior ... GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: (1987, 11/2); (1988, 16/3) Total 27/5

PRO: Talented player who will be given every opportunity to start this season ... With Ozzie Newsome's role being switched to an "H-Back" or man-in-motion role, Tennell could see much action, especially in run situations ... In fact, Ozzie said, "Once I get out of the way, I see Derek becoming a (Giants' Mark) Bavaro-type player. He runs well after he makes the catch, plus he's a strong blocker. His improvement has come in all areas." ... Entered the NFL as Seattle's seventh round pick in 1987 (7b, 185th overall) ... Was released during training camp and signed with Browns prior to second replacement game vs. Houston (10/11/87) ... Has four career TDs on only 18 catches.

1988: Caught nine passes for 88 yards ... Caught one four-yard pass from Bernie Kosar at Miami (12/12) on play Kosar injured knee (on hit by LB-John Offerdahl) ... Did not catch a pass vs. Dallas (12/4) but returned one short kickoff 11 yards ... Started in place of Ozzie Newsome at Washington (11/27), but did not catch a pass ... Started vs. Pittsburgh (11/20) as Browns opened in two-tight end formation, and caught three passes for 25 yards, including a two-yard pass from Kosar for the Browns' first TD ... Caught one six-yard pass vs. Bengals (10/30) ... Caught one pass for 15 yards vs. Eagles (10/16) on Browns' first TD drive in third quarter ... Caught first two passes of '88 season at Pittsburgh, 10/2, (26 and four yards).

1987: Made most of every catch, scoring three TDs on nine grabs ... Gained 102 yards on the year, and added one catch for five yards in playoffs (1/17/88 at Denver) ... Had five receptions for 59 yards (11.8 avg.) during strike ... Scored first NFL TD in the second quarter at Cincinnati (10/18) on a three yard pass from QB-Gary Danielson ... Grabbed three passes for 39 yards, including a 21-yarder, at New England (10/11) ... Was on inactive list 10/26 vs. Rams and 11/1 at San Diego ... Activated 11/4 after TE-Travis Tucker went down with ligament damage to his knee at San Diego ... First NFL "union" catch came vs. Buffalo (11/15), a 24-yard Kosar pass ... Caught his second NFL TD pass, a two-yarder from Kosar vs. Cincinnati (12/13) ... Snared third NFL TD pass in finale at Pittsburgh (12/26).

Free Agent (Unprotected: Bears),
1989GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 1987 (10/0); 1988 (16/0) Total 26/0

PRO: Signed by the Browns as an unprotected free agent on 3/30/89 from the Chicago Bears ... Finished second in the NFC in 1988 with a 41.5-yard average ... Coveted by the Browns because of his past success kicking in a "bad weather stadium" on a lake (Soldier Field) ... An upgrade for the Browns at the punting position, Wagner's other assets include experience kicking off, as a holder on placements and as a long-range field goal kicker ... Acquired by the Bears in a trade with the Denver Broncos on 8/25/87, along with a draft choice, for G-Stefan Humphries ... Had tryouts with the Cardinals, Giants and Cowboys in 1985 and '86.

1988: Finished second in the NFC with a 41.5-yard average (behind Jim Arnold's 42.4 for Detroit) ... Dropped 18 punts inside-the-20 and recorded a 33.4 net punting average with 10 touchbacks ... Had season-high eight punts at Detroit (10/9) for 380 yards ... Booted a season-long 70-yarder at New England (10/30), but his best average was 52.8 vs. Green Bay (11/27) ... Saw part-time duty on kickoffs, but majority was handled by Kevin Butler.

1987: Averaged 40.6-yards per punt for Chicago after being traded by Denver on 8/25 ... PRO: Has made the most of his opportunity since starting at free safety midway through the 1987 season ... "Flex" has a career 23.0-yard average on interception returns, the highest in club history ... Has recorded 14 career thefts ... Has four thefts in playoff action, including two in each of the last two seasons ... Two interceptions in playoff loss to Houston (12/24/88) last season tied a club playoff record held by six others ... Has recorded two interceptions in four career games (three regular season) ... Two of those "doubles" were on MNF (12/12/88 at Miami and 10/26/87 vs. the L.A. Rams), as are five of career 14 thefts ... Gained starting role when former S-Al Gross went down with an injury early in 1987 ... Signed as a free agent by Browns on 4/13/85 and made club with excellent special teams play and ability to play both safety and cornerback ... Had three standout years with the Hamilton Tiger Cats (1982-84) of CFL ... Named to CFL Eastern Division All-Star team in 1983 and 1984 ... Had a brief tryout with the Houston Oilers in 1982.

1988: Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December and the Browns' Defensive Player of the Year by the Cleveland Touchdown Club ... Capped a solid season by tying a team record with two interceptions in the playoff loss to Houston (12/24), while adding seven tackles ... Led the club with five interceptions (regular season) and finished second with 120 tackles (career high) and tied for third with 10 passes defended ... Recorded three multiple-interception games and four double-digit tackling efforts ... Recorded two thefts (13th and 14th of career) and recorded six tackles at Miami (12/12) ... Recorded six tackles at Washington (11/27) and had a key pass defense, breaking up a pass in the endzone and forcing a Redskin field goal that put Washington ahead, 10-3 (Browns won by four) ... Recorded season-high 11 tackles (eight solo) at Denver (11/13) ... Had second career two-interception game at Pittsburgh (10/2), as he picked off a Bubby Brister pass on Steelers' first second-half possession ... He then swiped a fourth-quarter Steve Bono pass that he returned 53 yards ... Had a 35-yard interception return, made four tackles and three passes defended, winning the coveted "Bone of the Week" award from the coaching staff vs. Colts (9/19).

1987: Earned a spot in Browns' record book with the second-highest interception return average (38.0) in club annals ... Picked off career-high four passes for 152 yards to tie Frank Minnifield for the team lead ... Promptly added two more in the playoffs to lead the club ... Won AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for effort vs. the Rams (10/26) in front of national TV audience (Monday Night) ... Picked off two QB-Jim Everett passes and returned one 40 yards for his second career TD and the other 68 yards to set up the game's first score ... Single-game return yardage total was second-most in club history ... Returned an interception 26 yards to set up Browns' first score at S.F. (11/29) ... Intercepted his fourth pass on the last play of the Cincinnati game (12/13), as Browns romped, 38-24 ... Finished as leading tackler among secondary with 67 (37 solo), and fourth on the club ... Recorded club-high 16 tackles vs. Colts (12/6), by far his career high ... Made seven tackles in Steeler finale (12/26), three solo tackles in L.A. (12/20) and 10 tackles vs. Bengals (12/13) ...

Recorded seven special teams' tackles ... In 38-21 playoff win over Colts (1/9/88), made biggest theft of his career as he picked off a Jack Trudeau pass in the Colts' first possession of the second half with the score knotted at 14 ... Trudeau was being blitzed by LB-Eddie Johnson and Colts had ball on Browns' 20, but Cleveland scored 24 second-half points to advance to AFC Championship ... Also recorded four tackles and defended two passes ... In AFC title game at Denver (1/17/88), ended Denver's second-half opening drive by picking off a John Elway pass and returning it 13 yards to start Browns' comeback (Browns, down 21-3, knotted game at 31-31 before falling 38-33) ... Added five tackles to total nine in playoffs ... Honored as Browns' unsung hero by the Wooster (O.) Browns' Backers.

1986: Tied CB-Frank Minnifield for second place on club with three interceptions ... Intercepted Warren Moon (11/30 vs. Houston), Boomer Esiason (12/14 at Cinc.) and Dan Fouts (12/21 vs. San Diego) ... Recorded 41 tackles (25 solo) and added 16 special teams' stops (8 solo) ... Blocked a punt against Cincinnati (9/18) that Frank Minnifield recovered for a TD ... Partially blocked a punt vs. Green Bay (10/19) ... Also returned a blocked punt 30 yards for his first NFL TD at Minnesota (10/26) ... Member of punt coverage unit that ranked second in the AFC and tied for third in the NFL (6.1 yards allowed per return) ... Credited with six passes defended (two at Ind., 11/02, and one vs. Pittsburgh, 11/23, and three thefts) ... Recorded seven tackles and a pass defense in playoffs, including five solo vs. Denver (1/11/87).

1985: Played in all 16 games (no starts) as member of nickel and dime defenses, and on all special teams' units ... Stole two passes, one off Warren Moon at Houston (10/13), and one from Bruce Mathison vs. Bills (11/17) ... Finished season with 33 total tackles, including 14 on special teams, forced a fumble at Jets (12/22) and defended four passes.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Never missed a game during four-year letter-winning career at Drake ... MVP defensive back and team captain senior year ... Earned B.A. degree in physical education and history in 1981 ... Played football, basketball and baseball at Charhage (Mo.) H.S. ... Brother Joe was a senior on Kansas State's basketball team in 1986 ... Brother Charles played for Tulsa football team; and sister Wilma Jean is a high school All-America in track (sprints and hurdles) ... Lives in Cleveland suburb of Westlake ... Single ... Has personalized license plate, "Flex 22" ... Worked for the accounting firm of Laventhol and Horiwath this past offseason ... Full name: Felix Carl Wright.

FS-FELIX WRIGHT ON BUD CARSON: "Personally, I'm looking forward to doing a lot more blitzing than we did before. I think we have good defensive linemen, but if we can get the linebackers in there and get the safeties blitzing, we'll have a much better pass rush. We know we have cornerbacks who can cover man-to-man, and we'll be more effective if we can go after people with different stunts."

21RUNNING BACK*ERIC METCALF*5'-10", 185 lbs.*Texas*Bishop O'Connell (Arlington, Va.)
H.S.*Born: January 23, 1968*Seattle, Wash.*Draft 1, 1989 (13th overall)

PRO: The Browns selected Metcalf with the 13th overall pick in the draft ... The choice was acquired when Cleveland sent first (20th overall), second, fifth and ninth picks — all in 1989 — to the Denver Broncos ... Was the fourth running back selected (behind Barry Sanders, Tim Worley and Sammie Smith), and the first SWC player selected ... Was the seventh player ever selected by the Browns from the University of Texas, and the first running back taken in the first round since Charles White of USC was picked in 1980.

COLLEGE: An outstanding athlete who holds the Southwest Conference career all-purpose yardage mark with 5,705 yards ... Was a Heisman Trophy Candidate and two-time NCAA long jump champion ... Equally adept at rushing and receiving, as he totaled 2,661 rushing yards and caught a school record 125 passes for 1,394 yards ... Also a dangerous return specialist, Eric totaled 1,076 yards on 101 punt returns, and 574 yards on 32 kickoff returns ... Even threw for two touchdowns as a junior ... Also won the NCAA long jump championship as a junior, with a jump of 27'-2" ... Has legitimate sub-4.4 speed in the 40-yard dash ... Caught 42 passes in both sophomore and senior seasons (second best single-season mark in UT history) ... Earned third team All-America honors as a senior (1988), as well as All-SWC honors ... Rushed for 932 yards and eight touchdowns, and caught 42 passes for 333 yards, with two TDs ... Totaled five 100-yard games, the fourth-most in school history for a single season ... Won conference player of the year honors as a junior (1987) and second team All-America (AP), while enjoying most productive collegiate season ... Gained 1,925 all-purpose yards, a school record ... Average of 175 all-purpose yards per game ranked first in the conference and third nationally ... Rushed for 1,161 yards, third-best in Longhorn history, and scored 10 TDs ... Rushed for season-high 206 yards vs. TCU on 36 carries, including two TD runs of 57 and three yards ... Grabbed 33 passes for 238 yards on the season ... Completed two passes for 24 yards, both for TDs ... Led the SWC and was sixth nationally with a 13.5 yard punt return average ... Used primarily as a receiver out of the tailback position as a sophomore (1986) ... Grabbed 42 passes for 556 yards and three TDs ... Scored four TDs on 92 rushes for 310 yards ... Was an All-SWC pick despite starting only four of 11 games ... 181 yards in receptions vs. Houston was second-best ever by a Longhorn ... Did not start any games as a freshman (1985), but gained 258 yards on 53 carries, caught eight passes for 267 yards (33.4 avg.), returned 35 punts for 332 yards (9.5 avg.) and 12 kickoffs for 234 yards (19.5 avg.), including a 75-yarder vs. SMU ... Began career with a 90-yard punt return for a TD vs. Missouri, only to be told he stepped out of bounds after 53 yards ... TRACK CAREER: Competed in 24 collegiate meets and compiled 13 wins ... Won the 1985 NCAA Outdoor long jump title as a freshman with a leap of 27' 1/2" ... Also won as a junior with a 27'-2" leap, and had a career best 27' 8-3/4" at the 1988 Mobil Outdoor Track and Field Championships in Tampa ... Finished eighth at the U.S. Olympic Trials in July of '88 due to a nagging injury suffered on his first jump.

ERIC METCALF ON GETTING THE BALL: "I think the more times I have the ball, the better the chances are of ending up in the endzone. I want to return punts, return kicks, play running back and receiver. I'll do whatever it takes."

ERIC METCALF ON COMPARISONS WITH HIS FATHER, TERRY: "I feel great anytime someone compares me to my father because he was an All-Pro and he did so many things in the NFL. When I'm compared to someone who has accomplished so much, I can't help but feel good. I must be doing something right."

ERIC METCALF ON THE CORRELATION BETWEEN LONG JUMPING AND FOOTBALL: "To be a great long jumper (two-time NCAA champion), you have to have body control, from when you take off from the board to when you're in the air. It's all about body control. On the football field, I know how to stop and cut without shifting my whole body around. I really don't have to think about it."

PERSONAL: Was named Washington area prep Player of the Year by the Washington TD Club in his senior year at Bishop O'Connell High School in Arlington, Va. ... Rushed for 1,058 yards as a junior and 1,200 yards as a senior ... Accounted for 35 touchdowns in his final two seasons, and of his 17 as a senior, only four scores came on runs of less than 40 yards ... Also an outstanding trackster, anchored 100 meter and long jump squads ... Almost signed with Miami (Fla.), but decided on Texas for the Longhorn's track program ... Father, Terry, was an All Pro running back and return specialist for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Redskins, who gained 9,978 all-purpose yards in his NFL career ... Standout career at Long Beach State saw him score 29 TDs and 1,673 yards as a junior ... Also had an accomplished track career ... Similarities between running styles is evident to those who have seen both father and son run ... Eric grew up in Seattle when Terry played for St. Louis, but Eric emulated his dad, and once scored 10 TDs in a game as a seven-year old playing in an eight-year olds' league ... Liberal Arts major ... Full name: Eric Quinn Metcalf.

WIDE RECEIVER

LAWYER TILLMAN

6'-5", 230 lbs.

Auburn

LeFlore (Birmingham, Ala.) H.S.

Born: May 20, 1966

Mobile, Ala.

Draft 2, 1989 (31st overall)

PRO: Tillman was acquired with the 31st overall selection (third position, second round) ... The Browns acquired that pick, along with a fifth round choice in 1989, from Green Bay for Cleveland's first round pick in 1990, its third and fifth round picks in 1989 and RB-Herman Fontenot ... Was the third-ever player selected by the Browns out of Auburn and the fifth wide receiver selected in the 1989 draft.

COLLEGE: One of the premier wide receivers in the country, Tillman combines good hands with unusual speed for a player his size ... Has great leaping ability and is fearless over the middle ... Finished third on the Tiger's all-time receiving list with 93 career receptions for 1,808 yards and 14 TDs ... As a senior (1988), was named second-team All-America by the Poor Man's Guide despite being sidelined for three games with a hamstring pull ... Caught 19 passes for 400 yards (21.1 avg.) and two TDs ... Caught three passes for 104 yards, including a 53-yarder on a third-and-19 situation in the third period, as Auburn beat Alabama, 15-10 in season finale to finish 10-1 ... Was unanimous All-SEC selection and second-team All-America (Poor Man's Guide and Sporting News) as a junior (1987) ... Grabbed 32 passes for 600 yards and six TDs to lead the Tigers ... Top game came vs. Florida, when he caught five passes for 114 yards and a touchdown ... Caught a TD in the final seconds of the Georgia Tech game between two defenders to cap a Tiger win ... Caught six passes for 125 yards, including a 17-yard TD in a 16-16 tie with Syracuse in the Sugar Bowl ... Led the SEC as a sophomore (1986) with a 20.9-yard average-per-catch on a career-high 35 receptions (730 yards) ... Scored the winning TD vs. Alabama on a reverse with less than 40 seconds to give the Tigers a memorable 21-17 win ... Caught passes in four of six games played as a freshman (1985), totaling seven for 78 yards, with no TDs.

PERSONAL: Member of Birmingham News' "12 Best List" and Birmingham Post-Herald's "10 Most Wanted List" as a senior at LeFlore High School in Mobile, Ala ... Grabbed 29 passes for 501 yards and four TDs as a senior, while doubling as a free safety (picked off four passes) ... Was also a punter, averaging 40-yards-per-punt ... Lettered in basketball, baseball and track (long jump) ... Majored in Family and Child Development ... Enjoys fishing, swimming and classical music ... Nicknamed "Tilly" ... Full name: Lawyer James Tillman, Jr.

LAWYER TILLMAN ON THE BROWNS: "I've watched them play because I like watching the Miami quarterbacks like Kosar and Testaverde. It's going to be a great experience for me to come up to Cleveland and connect with him (Kosar)."

LAWYER TILLMAN ON TURNING PRO: "Bump and run is something I'll have to improve on because they bump a little harder than in college. I saw a lot of bump and run, but I also saw a lot of double and triple coverage. Because of my size and my athletic ability, I can be physical with the cornerback."

LAWYER TILLMAN ON WHO HE ADMIRES: "The player I've always admired the most was Lynn Swann. He would always go after balls he knew he couldn't get, but he'd make that extra effort. That's something I try to do."

(1) SUNDAY, SEPT. 4 — BROWNS 6, Chiefs 3 (55,654) at Arrowhead Stadium. The Browns overcame injuries to six key players (five starters and five Pro Bowlers) yet won their first opener since 1982 in Kansas City, 6-3, behind two Matt Bahr field goals (19 and 38 yards). Bahr, who had his first three point attempt blocked by S-Lloyd Burruss, booted a 19-yarder with no time remaining in the first half to give the Browns a 3-3 tie at the half. Bahr's game-winner came with 25 seconds remaining in the contest. Both scoring drives (12 plays for 81 yards; 13 plays for 72 yards) were led by QB-Gary Danielson (18 of 29 for 170 yards, no TDs, one INT). QB-Bernie Kosar was forced out of the game when Burruss came clean on a safety blitz after Kosar's release of the ball early in the second quarter. Kosar was placed on injured reserve prior to week two with strained ligaments in his right elbow and missed the next six games. FB-Kevin Mack (neck), CB-Frank Minnifield (groin), NT-Bob Golic (abdomen), WR-Webster Slaughter (hamstring) and PR/WR-Gerald McNeil (thigh) were all sidelined during the contest (although Golic returned to play).

Cleveland's defense held Kansas City to 149 total yards (89 net yards passing) and nine first downs. Kansas City was unable to generate a first down in eight of 12 offensive drives and they started seven drives from their own 20 or less. LB-David Grayson led Cleveland's defensive charge with seven tackles, including two second-half QB sacks for 17 yards lost. The second-year linebacker's last sack was a jarring tackle of Chiefs' QB-Bill Kenney that knocked Kansas City out of potential game-tying field goal range with 6:44 remaining in the game. FB-Tim Manoa (playing for the injured Kevin Mack) gained 70 yards on 14 carries — all in the second half — and caught four passes for 25 yards (also career-highs). The win snapped a five-year opening day losing streak for Cleveland and handed the Chiefs their first opening-day loss in as many seasons.

(2) SUNDAY, SEPT. 11 — Jets 23, BROWNS 3 (74,434) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns fell to 1-1 by dropping a 23-3 game to the visiting New York Jets in front of 74,434 fans. Behind three Pat Leahy field goals, New York held a 9-3 lead going into the fourth quarter. Bud Carson's defense totally dominated the final period. The Jets scored two TDs on runs of one and three yards by FB-Roger Vick. The Browns only score came on a 47-yard field goal by Matt Bahr in the first quarter. Cleveland gained only 218 total net yards, including 27 rushing yards. The Jets controlled the ball for 37 minutes and 47 seconds (compared to 22:13 for Cleveland), and converted 50% of their third down situations (8-16). Perhaps the most telling statistic was that the Jets' average starting field position for their 13 drives was their own 40-yard line, and the Browns' average starting field position was their own 24. Both New York touchdown drives started in Cleveland territory.

QB-Gary Danielson (13 of 23, 154 yards, three sacks) broke his left ankle in the third quarter and was replaced by Mike Pagel. Pagel completed seven of 14 passes for 73 yards, and threw one interception. WR-Reggie Langhorne caught a game-high six passes for 75 yards. FB-Kevin Mack had eight carries for 26 of the Browns' 27 rushing yards.

(3) MONDAY, SEPT. 19 — BROWNS 23, Colts 17 (75,148) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns defeated the visiting Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, before 75,148 Cleveland Stadium fans and a national television audience to improve their record to 2-1. QB-Mike Pagel, the third starting quarterback in as many weeks and making his first start since 12/22/85, led the Browns to victory over his former club. Pagel completed 23 of 38 passes for 255 yards, two TDs and one INT, and threw to seven different receivers. WR-Webster Slaughter had a game-high six for 86 yards, including a 17-yard TD reception. TE-Ozzie Newsome caught a 14-yard TD among three receptions for 20 yards, and WR-Brian Brennan grabbed five for 50 yards. FB-Kevin Mack paced the Browns' ground attack with 76 yards on 23 carries. Colts' RB-Eric Dickerson gained 117 yards on 22 carries to lead all rushers, but gained only 13 yards on eight carries in the second half, as Cleveland's defense held Indianapolis to only one offensive touchdown.

The Colts scored first on Dean Biasucci's 30-yard field goal on the first drive of the game. The Browns countered with a 77-yard, 13-play drive that culminated in Ozzie Newsome's 14-yard TD reception, his first TD since 11/23/86. Matt Bahr kicked the first of three field goals (21, 29 and 40 yards), with 3:14 elapsed into the second quarter, giving the Browns a 10-3 lead. Dickerson then sprinted 41 yards for a TD to knot the score at 10-10 with 9:43 remaining in the first half, but the Browns scored on their next possession as Pagel hit Slaughter (who battled Colts' CB-Eugene Daniel for the ball, ruled complete by simultaneous possession) to put the Browns ahead, 17-10. S-Felix Wright intercepted backup QB-

Chris Chandler's pass with 45 seconds remaining in the half, stalling Indianapolis on Cleveland's 24-yard line, to ensure the Browns' 17-10 halftime lead.

Bahr kicked his second three-pointer from 29 yards for the third period's only score, to give Cleveland a 20-10 edge, and a 40-yard field goal to put the Browns up 23-10 with 14:46 remaining in the game. The Colts drove to the Browns 26-yard line before CB-Hanford Dixon picked off a Jack Trudeau (10 of 19 for 80 yards) pass. On the Browns' next possession, Lee Johnson punted to PR-Clarence Verdin, who raced 73 yards for a TD, to complete the scoring. The Colts were able to generate only one first down in the final 1:43, as Cleveland took over on downs with 20 seconds remaining for the win.

(4) SUNDAY, SEPT. 25 — Bengals 24, BROWNS 17 (54,943) at Riverfront Stadium. The Browns dropped to 2-2 as they traveled to Cincinnati and lost a 24-17 contest — their first setback in Riverfront Stadium since 1985. The Bengals improved their record to 4-0, two games in front of the Browns in the AFC Central. Cincinnati scored all 24 of their points in the first half on two Ickey Woods one-yard touchdown runs, a Lewis Billups 26-yard return of a Kevin Mack first-quarter fumble and a Jim Breech 24-yard field goal. Cleveland QB-Mike Pagel, who completed a career-high 24 of 48 passes for 254 yards, threw an 11-yard TD pass to WR-Brian Brennan in the second quarter following Matt Bahr's 27-yard first-period field goal, and FB-Kevin Mack slammed three yards for the Browns' final touchdown in the fourth quarter. The Browns were forced to start their five second-half drives at their own two, 11, 28, 20 and five-yard lines.

Cleveland's defense limited Boomer Esiason, the NFL's leading passer going into the game, to eight completions on 23 attempts for 183 yards. But Cincinnati's rushing game rolled up 213 yards behind RB-James Brooks (17-83), RB-Stanley Wilson (11-68) and Ickey Woods (13-62, two TDs). Conversely, Cleveland's running attack managed just 68 yards on 21 carries, led by Mack's 39 yards on 14 tries. RB-Earnest Byner was the game's leading receiver with eight for 64 yards, and TE-Ozzie Newsome caught five passes for 72 yards. For Cincinnati, WR-Eddie Brown grabbed four passes for 127 yards. Rookie DE-Michael Dean Perry recorded the game's only sack in the third quarter.

(5) SUNDAY, OCT. 2 — BROWNS 23, Steelers 9 (56, 410) at Three Rivers Stadium. The Browns improved their record to 3-2 with an important 23-9 inter-division victory to move into a tie with Houston for second place in the AFC Central. Cleveland extended their Three Rivers' streak to three wins, reversing a 16-game drought in what was once described as Cleveland's own "House of Horrors".

Cleveland's defense forced five Steeler turnovers in the second half, allowed just 183 yards, and did not allow a touchdown for the second time in 1988. FS-Felix Wright picked off two passes (one to halt Pittsburgh's first second-half drive and the second with 50 seconds left in the game, which he returned 53 yards). LB-Eddie Johnson, subbing for injured Mike Junkin (knee ligaments), recovered a RB-Merril Hoge fumble on the Browns' 19-yard line that set-up the go-ahead score in the third quarter and intercepted a Bubby Brister pass on Pittsburgh's next possession, leading to the second of Matt Bahr's three field goals (22, 21, 40 yards). Rookie SS-Brian Washington bolted 75 yards for a touchdown when he picked off QB-Steve Bono's fourth-quarter pass to give Cleveland a 20-9 lead and control of the game. The theft was the fifth-longest in Browns' history, Cleveland's longest in 20 years and the longest by a Browns' rookie in regular season play.

Second-year FB-Tim Manoa, who played high school football at North Allegheny H.S. in Pittsburgh, impressed family members with 82 rushing yards on 18 carries, including a 34-yard run, and a one-yard TD burst in the second period. RB-Earnest Byner churned out 78 yards on 20 carries. Manoa's TD overcame two Gary Anderson first-quarter field goals (49 and 35 yards), but Anderson booted his third three-pointer with 43 seconds left in the first half to give the Steelers a 9-7 halftime lead. Cleveland's defense shut out Pittsburgh in the second half, and QB-Mike Pagel (15 of 26 for 131 yards, 0 TDs, one INT) led a ball-controlled attack, as the Browns held the ball for 20:31 vs. Pittsburgh's 9:29 in the final half.

(6) SUNDAY, OCT. 10 — Seahawks 16, BROWNS 10 (78,605) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns committed four turnovers, three of which led to Seattle's 16 points, as Cleveland dropped a 16-10 contest to the visiting Seahawks. The setback dropped the Browns to 3-3, three games behind division-leading Cincinnati. A sellout Cleveland Stadium crowd of 78,605 witnessed the loss of QB-Mike Pagel, who suffered a second-period shoulder separation while tackling S-Paul Moyer on a blocked field goal. Pagel marked the third (of four) starting quarterback to go down with a serious injury in 1988.

Cleveland opened the scoring, driving 69 yards in eight plays, as FB-Kevin Mack slammed over right tackle from one-yard out. Mack (15 carries, 66 yards) paced the Cleveland ground attack that rolled-up 160 yards on 30 rushes (5.3 avg.). On Seattle's next possession, the Browns forced a punt, but PR-Gerald McNeil fumbled, giving Seattle the ball on Cleveland's 24-yard line. RB-Curt Warner (24 carries, 96 yards), swept left on a one-yard score to knot the game at seven.

K-Matt Bahr attempted a 21-yard field goal on the Browns' first second-quarter possession and it was blocked by DE-Jeff Bryant and recovered by Moyer, who rambled 62 yards to set up a Norm Johnson 31-yard field goal to give Seattle a 10-7 lead. Pagel was injured making the tackle, but remained in the game for the Browns' next possession, which ended when he threw an interception. QB-Don Strock took over and completed 12 of 21 passes for 151 yards, no TDs and one INT. In Strock's second drive, he fumbled a snap on Seattle's 45-yard line to set-up Johnson's second field goal, this one from 38 yards, as the Seahawks took a 13-7 lead with 11 seconds remaining in the first half.

The Browns drove to Seattle's 25-yard line from their own three late in the third quarter, but Strock was intercepted by LCB-Melvin Jenkins when he tried to hit Reggie Langhorne in the endzone for the go-ahead score. The Seahawks drove to the Browns' four-yard line before Johnson kicked his third and final field goal of the day, a 22-yarder to put Seattle ahead 16-7 with 8:46 remaining in the game. The Browns drove to Seattle's six and Matt Bahr booted a 23-yard field goal to pull Cleveland to within six, 16-10, but Seattle took over possession with 2:32 remaining in the game, and the Browns were unable to stop the clock, thus ending the game.

Cleveland outgained Seattle, 334 yards to 227, had 21 first downs to Seattle's 14, out-passed Seattle 174 to 101, and controlled time of possession, 32:06 to 27:54, but four turnovers and the blocked field goal proved too much to overcome.

(7) SUNDAY, OCT. 16 — BROWNS 19, Eagles 3 (78,787) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns' defense dominated a potent Philadelphia Eagles' offensive unit and Don Strock directed the Cleveland offense to a 19-3 win in his first start as a Brown and his first in five years. Strock used a left wristband with 55 plays written on it, as Cleveland won the hard-hitting contest with their fourth starting quarterback in seven games. The Browns sacked Eagles' QB-Randall Cunningham nine times and their defensive effort (119 net yards allowed) was the seventh-stingiest in club history. Philadelphia penetrated Cleveland's 40-yard line only twice (both in the first half).

CB-Frank Minnifield recorded two interceptions (and had a third nullified due to a pass interference call), and seven different defensive players accounted for the nine QB sacks (the most by a Cleveland team during the regular season since they set a team record with 11 on 11/11/84 vs. Atlanta). First-year DE-Charles Buchanan, activated off of PUP prior to the game, led the charge with 2-1/2 sacks. Conversely, the Browns' offense rolled up 361 yards, including 182 on the ground. QB-Don Strock (11 of 18 for 189 yards) threw for two touchdowns in his first NFL start since 1983. FB-Kevin Mack rushed for 100 yards on 16 carries, including a career-long 65-yard jaunt on the second play from scrimmage. RB-Earnest Byner added 74 yards on 17 carries. WR-Brian Brennan gained a game-high 79 yards on three receptions.

The game was deadlocked 3-3 at halftime after Cleveland squandered two first-half scoring opportunities, advancing the ball inside the Eagles' 15-yard line twice (one drive was halted on a Strock interception, another on a wide 39-yard field goal attempt). WR-Webster Slaughter, who caught four passes for 50 yards, scored on a 15-yard TD pass from Strock in the third quarter, before exiting the game in the fourth period with a fractured forearm. WR-Reggie Langhorne scored the other Cleveland TD on an 18-yard fourth-quarter pass from Strock, and Matt Bahr kicked field goals of 24 and 37 yards.

(8) SUNDAY, OCT. 23 — BROWNS 29, Cardinals 21 (61,261) at Sun Devil Stadium. QB-Bernie Kosar made a triumphant return to the starting lineup by leading the Browns to a 29-21 victory over the Cardinals in sun-drenched Sun Devil Stadium's 110 degree heat. Kosar (25 of 43, three TDs, three INTs) threw for 314 yards, his fifth career regular-season 300-yard game, after missing the previous six starts due to an elbow injury suffered in the season's opening game. WR-Reggie Langhorne scored two TDs (a career high) on receptions of 29 and 25 yards, and starting LT-Rickey Bolden caught his first career TD pass (three yards) on a tackle-eligible play for the Browns' first score. Kosar completed passes to 10 different receivers — six (a game high) to RB-Earnest Byner. K-Matt Bahr was perfect on two FGAs (46 and 23 yards). The Browns jumped to a 14-0 first-half lead before turnovers enabled Phoenix to tie the game, 14-14, at the half.

Cleveland's defense allowed only 161 net yards passing, recorded six QB sacks, forced four Phoenix turnovers and recorded a safety. LB-Mike Johnson recorded two interceptions (career high), and SS-Brian Washington swiped a fourth-quarter Cliff Stoudt pass. DE-Carl Hairston recorded two sacks, forcing a fumble on the Cardinals' first possession of the second half on one, which was recovered by LB-Eddie Johnson. First-year DE-Charles Buchanan, in only his second game as a pro, recorded two sacks including a fourth-quarter safety, and LBs-Clay Matthews and Eddie Johnson each recorded solo takedowns.

(9) SUNDAY, OCT. 30 — BROWNS 23, Bengals 16 (79,147) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns held the Cincinnati Bengals' offense to three field goals and moved to within one game of the Bengals with a 23-16 victory before 79,147 Cleveland Stadium fans. The margin of victory proved to be a blocked Scott Fulhage punt by LCB-Frank Minnifield that was recovered by Herman Fontenot for a third-quarter touchdown. Cleveland's defense held the Bengals to 281 total net yards, and stalled four Cincinnati drives inside the Cleveland 14-yard line. Three of those drives resulted in Jim Breech field goals (19, 32, and 22 yards). Cleveland stopped the Bengals on a fourth-and-one from the Browns' 12 in the second quarter, and the Browns sacked QB-Boomer Esiason four times (DE-Sam Clancy, DL-Michael Dean Perry and two by LB-Clay Matthews) and limited the AFC's top passer to a 12 of 25 for 173 yard performance, with no TDs or INTs.

QB-Bernie Kosar completed 18 of 28 passes for 210 yards, did not throw a touchdown and had two interceptions, including one that was returned 16 yards by SS-David Fulcher for a TD. On the ensuing kickoff, Herman Fontenot raced 84 yards to set up a FB-Tim Manoa two-yard TD plunge. Manoa, who started his first pro game for the injured Kevin Mack (neck), bulled for 89 yards on 23 carries. Matt Bahr was perfect on FGAs of 34, 39 and 29 yards. WR-Clarence Weathers, starting for the injured Webster Slaughter (broken forearm), had a career day as he caught seven passes for 140 yards.

(10) MONDAY, NOV. 7 — Oilers 24, BROWNS 17 (51,467) at the Astrodome. The Browns lost a 24-17 game before a national television audience and 51,467 fans at the Astrodome to drop to 6-4, two games behind 8-2 Cincinnati and one game behind the 7-3 Oilers. After stopping Houston's first drive (K-Tony Zendejas missed a 52-yard field goal attempt), Matt Bahr booted a 40-yard three pointer to put Cleveland on top, 3-0. Houston drove 51 yards on eight plays following the Browns' next possession, and went ahead 7-3 when FB-Alonzo Highsmith scored on a one-yard TD run with 11:50 remaining in the first half. The Browns had a chance to take the lead when QB-Bernie Kosar led the Browns on a nine-play drive down to the Oilers' one-yard line with seconds remaining, but time expired in the half as his last pass into the endzone intended for Langhorne was incomplete.

The Browns' first second-half possession ended when LB-Johnny Meads blocked a Max Runager punt (the Oilers' fifth, and NFL record-tying, blocked punt on the season) giving Houston the ball on the Browns' 27-yard line. QB-Warren Moon (11 of 17 for 182 yards, no INTs), hit WR-Ernest Givins on a seven-yard TD pass to give the Oilers a 14-3 lead. The Oilers scored another third-quarter touchdown (the first two of the season in that period vs. the Browns) when RB-Mike Rozier scored on a three-yard rush to make the score 21-3.

WR-Reggie Langhorne accounted for 53 of Cleveland's 67-yard scoring drive on their ensuing possession, including a 33-yard reception and a 20-yard touchdown on a reverse play with 2:26 remaining to play in the third period. The score was Langhorne's first rushing TD of his career and cut Houston's lead to 21-10. Kosar (16 of 33 for 219 yards and no INTs) hit TE-Ozzie Newsome on a four-yard pass with 7:26 remaining to pull Cleveland within four, 21-17. That reception was the 600th of Ozzie's career. Following an exchange of punts, the Oilers moved 48 yards in seven plays, as Zendejas booted a 47-yard field goal to put Houston up 24-17, completing the scoring. The Browns regained possession on the ensuing kickoff with 1:44 remaining in the game, but a high snap from center in the shotgun was recovered by Oilers' DE-Ray Childress.

(11) SUNDAY, NOV. 13 — Broncos 30, BROWNS 7 (75,806) at Mile High Stadium. Denver scored on their first six possessions and were aided by four Cleveland turnovers — all in the first half. The loss marked the 10th straight for the Browns against Denver, who scored all 30 points in the first half. Cleveland's lone score was an Earnest Byner two-yard run in the third period after the Browns went to a no-huddle offense.

The tone was set on the game's first play from scrimmage, as FB-Tim Manoa's fumble was recovered by Denver S-Dennis Smith, leading to a Rich Karlis 18-yard field goal. Karlis was three of five on the day. Denver QB-John Elway (21 of 30 for 207 yards and two TDs) directed an eight-play, 53-yard drive to put Denver ahead 10-0. A Karlis 22-yard field goal put Denver ahead 13-0, and then Cleveland's next three possessions resulted in a Bernie Kosar interception and two lost fumbles (WRs-Clarence Weathers and Reggie Langhorne — both after receptions). All three turnovers led to scores (two TDs and Karlis' third three-pointer).

Cleveland was unable to take advantage of setbacks to their three AFC Central foes, as their record slipped to 6-5. QB-Bernie Kosar (19 of 30 for 175 yards, no TDs and one INT) was sacked six times and completed passes to eight different receivers. RB-Earnest Byner led all rushers with 60 yards on 11 carries. WR-Brian Brennan caught six passes for 59 yards. Denver's average starting field position was their own 47-yard line, while Cleveland started no drive past their own 30.

(12) SUNDAY, NOV. 20 — BROWNS 27, Steelers 7 (77,131) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns forced four Pittsburgh turnovers, blocked a punt for a touchdown, and allowed just one score as they defeated the Steelers, 27-7, in front of 77,131 fans at rain-drenched Cleveland Stadium. The win marked Cleveland's sixth straight over Pittsburgh and improved their record to 7-5. The Browns jumped to a 17-0 lead early in the second quarter when CB-Stephen Braggs blocked a Harry Newsome punt, which CB-Frank Minnifield returned 11 yards for a touchdown, the second time this season that Cleveland has scored on a blocked punt. Newsome had six punts blocked in 1988, an NFL record.

LB-Eddie Johnson intercepted Steeler QB-Bubby Brister (16 of 35 for 220 yards, six sacks, no TDs, two INTs) on the game's second play, which led to a Matt Bahr 32-yard field goal. The Browns forced a Pittsburgh punt early in the second quarter, but C-Mike Webster (playing in his 30th game vs. the Browns) snapped the ball over Newsome's head, giving Cleveland the ball on the Pittsburgh three-yard line. QB-Bernie Kosar (12 of 24 for 204 yards, two sacks, two TDs, no INTs) hit TE-Derek Tennell for a touchdown on the next play to put Cleveland ahead, 10-0. Pittsburgh's next possession resulted in the blocked punt for Minnifield's touchdown, and then a miscue on a Cleveland punt (Max Runager fumbled the snap on the Browns' five-yard line) set up a Rodney Carter one-yard touchdown plunge to make the score 17-7 at the half.

Kosar hit WR-Reggie Langhorne on the second play of the final half on a 10-yard "out" pattern, and Langhorne bounced off three tacklers and jaunted 77 yards for a touchdown. It marked the longest pass play for the Browns in 16 years. Matt Bahr kicked a fourth-quarter 34-yard field goal to complete the scoring.

Six different Browns recorded QB sacks (Mark Harper, Eddie Johnson, David Grayson, Clay Matthews, Bob Golic (one-half) and Michael Dean Perry (one and one-half)), and Minnifield added an interception and held Pittsburgh WR-Louis Lipps to two catches for 40 yards.

(13) SUNDAY, NOV. 27 — BROWNS 17, Redskins 13 (51,604) at RFK Stadium. RB-Earnest Byner raced 27 yards for the game-winning touchdown with 1:49 remaining, lifting the Browns to a 17-13 victory over the defending world champion Washington Redskins in a steady rain at RFK Stadium (51,604). The victory marked Cleveland's second straight and improved their record to 8-5, as they rallied from a 10-3 third-period deficit by outscoring the Redskins 14-3 in the fourth quarter.

Byner's touchdown scamper (on a third-and-five and Washington leading, 13-10) came three plays after QB-Bernie Kosar connected with WR-Brian Brennan on a 21-yard pass under extremely heavy pressure from Washington's talented front line. Kosar completed 23 of 36 passes for 219 yard, no TDs, one INT, and was sacked six times. The 25-year old directed the Browns on scoring drives of 50, 76 and 80 yards. FB-Kevin Mack rushed for his ninth career 100-yard game (22 for 116) and scored the Browns' first TD, a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter. Mack rushed for 46 yards in the fourth quarter. PK-Matt Bahr booted a 37-yard field goal in the second period, atoning for a miss (wide right) from the same distance on Cleveland's opening drive.

The Browns' rushing attack rolled-up 158 yards on 31 carries (5.1 avg.) against the Redskins' second-ranked run defense and controlled time of possession, 38:02 to 21:58. The Browns' defense limited the Redskins to 11 first downs, 227 total net yards, recorded two interceptions (CB-Frank Minnifield and CB-Mark Harper) and shut out the Redskins in the first half. Cleveland suffered a blocked punt following Washington's first touchdown (in the third period), which gave the Redskins the ball at Cleveland's nine-yard line with a 7-3 lead. Washington was held to just a 21-yard field goal by Chip Lohmiller after two running plays and pass into the endzone that was deflected by FS-Felix Wright. Lohmiller hit a 40-yard three-pointer to put Washington ahead 13-10 before the Browns' winning drive.

(14) SUNDAY, DEC. 4 — BROWNS 24, Cowboys 21 (77,683) at Cleveland Stadium. For the second straight week, the Browns scored 14 fourth-quarter points and came from behind to defeat an NFC East opponent, as Cleveland improved their record to 9-5 with a 24-21 win over the Dallas Cowboys at Cleveland Stadium. QB-Bernie Kosar (19 of 27, including nine of his first nine, for 308 yards, three TDs, no INTs) led a Browns' offensive attack that relied almost exclusively on the passing game. The Browns' running attack struggled to only 27 yards on 20 carries, with a team-record zero first downs rushing. But Kosar completed passes to eight different receivers and threw TD passes to WR-Clarence Weathers (36 yards), WR-Reggie Langhorne (73 yards) and RB-Herman Fontenot (14 yards). Dallas RB-Herschel Walker gained 134 rushing yards, and QB-Steve Pelluer completed 20 of 32 passes for 247 yards, two TDs and no INTs. But the Cowboys were called for 17 penalties for 142 yards, including two that wiped out successful field goals.

After a FB-Kevin Mack fumble on the game's first play, a 38-yard field goal by K-Roger Ruzek was negated by an illegal hands to the face penalty. LB-Clay Matthews blocked the ensuing 48-yard attempt to deny the Cowboys from a scoring opportunity. Kosar connected with Langhorne on the 73-yard scoring play with 35 seconds remaining in the first period for the game's first score. Dallas scored on their next possession when FB-Darryl Clack caught a seven-yard pass from Pelluer. K-Matt Bahr booted a 25-yard field goal on the Browns' next possession, and then Dallas drove 80 yards in 10 plays, capped by a TE-Steve Folsom five-yard TD reception to give Dallas a 14-10 halftime lead. After a scoreless third quarter, the Browns scored with just nine seconds elapsed in the final quarter when Fontenot scored on a 14-yard reception and run, and then Clarence Weathers made a one-handed 36-yard TD grab following a Dallas fumble. Walker scored on a four-yard TD sweep to pull Dallas to within three, 24-21. Dallas then had the game-tying field goal taken off the board due to penalty, when a 40-yarder with 1:43 remaining was negated to a tripping penalty, and Ruzek's ensuing 50-yard attempt was short.

(15) MONDAY, DEC. 12 — Dolphins 38, BROWNS 31 (61,884) at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Browns dropped a 38-31 shootout to the Miami Dolphins in Joe Robbie Stadium before 61,884 fans and a national television audience. Miami QB-Dan Marino became the first quarterback to throw for over 400 yards against Cleveland since Tommy Kramer of the Minnesota Vikings threw for 456 yards at Minnesota on 12/14/80. Marino riddled the Browns' secondary for four TDs among his 30 completions (on 50 attempts) for 404 yards, with three INTs.

Browns' QB-Bernie Kosar (21 of 30 for 202 yards, one TD, no INTs) left the game (to be his last in the '88 season) in the fourth quarter with strained ligaments in his left knee. QB-Don Strock performed brilliantly in relief, connecting on seven of 11 passes for 70 yards, including two TD strikes (three and two yards) to WR-Reggie Langhorne, the last one to knot the score at 31-31 with 59 seconds in the game. But Marino directed a four-play, 65-yard scoring drive in just 25 seconds to drop the Browns to 9-6.

(16) SUNDAY, DEC. 18 — BROWNS 28, Oilers 23 (74,610) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns captured a playoff berth in dramatic fashion by rallying from a 16-point deficit and defeating the Houston Oilers, 28-23. QB-Don Strock reversed the Browns' fortunes by completing 16 of 23 passes for 215 yards, two TDs and no INTs in the second half, after throwing three interceptions and no touchdowns in the first half. The 38-year old veteran ended this snowy day by completing 25 of 42 passes for 326 yards (his second career 300-yard game), two TDs and three INTs. WR-Webster Slaughter caught the game-winning pass from Strock with 7:23 remaining, a 22-yarder to culminate an 11-play, 89-yard drive. Slaughter caught six passes for 136 yards, his fourth career 100-yard game.

The Browns' first three possessions resulted in interceptions and staked the Oilers to a 10-0 lead behind a Tony Zendejas 39-yard field goal and a Domingo Bryant 36-yard interception return for a TD. DE-Micahel Dean Perry scored his first NFL TD when he returned a fumble 10 yards after a jolting sack of QB-Warren Moon (20 of 35 for 287 yards, one TD, no INTs) by LB-David Grayson knocked the ball loose in the second quarter. Two more Zendejas field goals (42 and 35 yards) gave the Oilers a 16-7 halftime lead. Moon threw a seven-yard TD pass to rookie WR-Haywood Jeffries with 5:57 elapsed into the second half to put Houston up, 23-7.

RB-Earnest Byner scored on a two-yard Strock third-quarter pass to top an eight-play, 63-yard drive and then plowed into the endzone from two-yards out with 13:17 remaining to make the score 23-21, Houston. Following a Houston punt, WR-Reggie Langhorne (six catches, 68 yards), caught three passes for 47 yards in the Browns' winning drive, which ended in Slaughter's scoring catch. Houston was forced to punt on their next possession, and the Browns used 4:18 off the clock to preserve the victory.

WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

SATURDAY, DEC. 24 — Oilers 24, BROWNS 23 (74,977) at Cleveland Stadium. For the second straight week, the Browns and Oilers met in Cleveland Stadium in a close, dramatic game, but this time the Oilers prevailed, 24-23. QB-Don Strock became the fourth Cleveland quarterback to leave a game with an injury. The 38-year old veteran started in place of Bernie Kosar, who was injured in week 15 vs. Miami, but he injured his hand early in the second quarter trying to recover his own fumble. For the second straight week, the Browns rallied from a deficit, as Houston built a 14-3 second-quarter lead only to see the Browns scratch back to a 16-14 edge behind QB-Mike Pagel. Pagel, who was activated off of injured reserve on 12/23 after suffering a shoulder separation in week six vs. Seattle, completed 17 of 25 passes for 179 yards and two TDs.

The Browns scored first when Matt Bahr booted a 33-yard field goal after FS-Felix Wright intercepted a QB-Warren Moon pass in the Oilers' first possession. Moon was 16 of 26 for 213 yards, one TD, three INTs. The Oilers marched 91 yards in 17 plays to take a 7-3 lead, as Moon hit RB-Allen Pinkett on a 14-yard TD pass. Strock fumbled the first snap on the Browns' ensuing possession (injuring his hand) and on the Oilers' next play, Pinkett swept left for a 16-yard TD run to put Houston on top, 14-3.

Pagel led a 71-yard drive in 13 plays, but the Browns were able to manage only a field goal, as Bahr connected from 26 yards to make the score 14-6, Houston. Bahr kicked his third three-pointer (tying a club playoff record), this from 28 yards, to pull the Browns to within five, 14-9, at the half. Cleveland took a 16-14 lead in the third period, as Pagel threw a 14-yard TD pass to Webster Slaughter with 2:36 remaining in the third quarter. Lorenzo White scored on a one-yard plunge with 12:25 left in the game to put Houston ahead, 21-16, after a 76-yard drive, and Tony Zendejas kicked a 49-yard field goal to increase Houston's lead to 24-16. The Browns scored on Slaughter's second TD from Pagel, a two-yarder, to pull the Browns within one point (24-23), but only 31 seconds remained and a series of unsuccessful onside kicks gave the Oilers the ball, where one play ran out the clock.

- 1946: Browns were started by owner Arthur (Mickey) McBride as member of the All American Football Conference. Paul Brown was named coach and general manager and the first player he signed was then tailback Otto Graham. The Browns won the Western title with a 42-17 victory over the Buffalo Bisons and then defeated the New York Yankees in the championship game (14-9).
- 1947-49: Browns continued their domination of the AAFC, winning three more championships.
- 1950: Following the merger of the AAFC and the NFL, the Browns tied with the New York Giants with 10-2 records for a share of Eastern title. Browns won playoff, 8-3, and then stopped Los Angeles, 30-28, for the championship.
- 1951-53: Browns won three consecutive Eastern titles, but lost each time in the league's title match. In 1953, McBride sold the club to an organization headed by David Jones.
- 1954-55: Led by quarterback Otto Graham, the Browns won back-to-back NFL championships.
- 1956: At 5-7, the Browns suffered first losing season.
- 1957: Jim Brown was drafted; was named rookie of the year and helped Cleveland to Eastern Division title.
- 1961: Former television and advertising executive Art Modell bought the Browns.
- 1963: Blanton Collier, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach.
- 1964: Browns win division title with 52-20 victory over Giants and captured NFL championship with 27-0 win over Colts.
- 1965: In what was to be his last season, Jim Brown won NFL MVP honors and led Cleveland to league title game where they were defeated by Green Bay.
- 1966: An eighth round pick from 1964, Leroy Kelly became the club's dominant threat, rushing for 1,141 yards, but the Browns finished second in their division to Dallas.
- 1968: With newly acquired quarterback Bill Nelsen (from Pittsburgh), Browns won division; beat Dallas in playoffs and lost to Baltimore in the championship.
- 1969: Browns won third consecutive division crown, but lost to Minnesota in title game.
- 1970: Browns became members of AFC Central and finished second.
- 1971: Nick Skorich, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach. Team won first AFC Central crown.
- 1972: Browns once again gained postseason, losing to eventual champion Miami in playoffs.
- 1975-77: Forrest Gregg, Browns' offensive line coach, becomes head coach; Greg Pruitt has three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons; Dick Modzelewski coaches final game of 1977.
- 1978: Sam Rutigliano becomes the first non-Browns' assistant to gain head coaching position. Team won first three on way to 8-8 finish.
- 1979: Losses in final two games prevented team from entering playoffs, finishing 9-7; Mike Pruitt keeps the tradition of outstanding Browns' running backs and has the first of three straight 1,000-yard seasons.
- 1980: Browns win AFC Central title with 11-5 record; lost to eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland in playoff; Brian Sipe is consensus MVP of league.
- 1982: In strike-shortened season, Browns finish eighth in AFC (4-5) and gain playoffs second time in three years. Lost to Raiders in Super Bowl Tournament.
- 1983: Browns tied for wildcard playoff spot with 9-7 record, but did not advance, losing to Denver and Seattle through NFL tie-breaking procedure.
- 1984: Browns replaced head coach Sam Rutigliano with defensive coordinator Marty Schottenheimer after a 1-7 midseason record and finished season at 5-11. TE Ozzie Newsome caught 89 passes for second straight year.
- 1985: Browns captured their third central division championship, but lost to Dolphins, 24-21, in Miami. Rookie Kevin Mack (1,104) and Earnest Byner (1,002) each gained 1,000 yards rushing. It marked the third time in 66-year history of NFL that teammates both rushed for over 1,000 yards in the same season.

- 1986: Browns won more games than ever before during regular season, as they roll-up a 12-4 record en route to their second consecutive AFC Central crown. In a double-overtime playoff thriller before a packed Cleveland Stadium crowd, Bernie Kosar throws for an NFL-record 487 yards as the Browns beat the New York Jets, 23-20, to advance to the AFC championship game. The Browns lose to Denver, also in overtime, 23-20.
- 1987: Browns capture their third straight AFC Central, as they finished the season 10-5. The third week of the NFL season was cancelled due to the 24-day players' strike, while three "replacement" games were played (the Browns went 2-1). The Browns defeated the Colts, 38-21, at Cleveland Stadium in the AFC playoffs, then drop their second straight AFC Championship to Denver despite a spectacular come-from-behind bid that saw them score 30 second-half points, only to fall, 38-33 in Mile High Stadium. Bernie Kosar wins the AFC passing title with a 95.4 QB rating, and an NFL-high eight Browns make the Pro Bowl.
- 1988: Cleveland finishes 10-6 and earns a Wild Card berth by defeating Houston, 28-33, in the season finale by overcoming a 16-point third-quarter deficit. Houston defeats the Browns, 24-23, in the Wild Card game played on Christmas Eve. Four Cleveland quarterbacks suffered injuries during the course of the season. Marty Schottenheimer resigns on Dec. 27.
- 1989: Owner Art Modell announces Bud Carson as the Browns' seventh fulltime head coach on January 27.

The Cleveland Touchdown Club was founded in 1938 by Joe Fogg and twelve other Cleveland businessmen, whose love for football prompted them to organize a group dedicated to the sport. By the time the Rams departed for Los Angeles in 1946 and the Browns established themselves in Cleveland, that same year, club membership had multiplied twelve times.

Over the years, the TD Club evolved from a college and pro football booster club, to one that also included recognition for outstanding achievements of players and coaches on the high school level. Proceeds from special events are recycled back to the community through donations to various youth groups, high school wrestling tournaments, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and sponsorships to young women and men whose lofty goals include the Olympic trials.

A few of the club's more popular events are the Annual Kickoff Luncheon (Sept. 1), the postseason awards dinner (the second Monday) in February, and the TD Club Golf Outing in June.

For further information on the club or its events, call 888-8880.

Considered among the NFL's elite broadcasting teams, the Browns' announcing trio consists of (left to right): Doug Dieken, entering his fifth year as analyst; Nev Chandler, also in his fifth year handling play-by-play; and Jim Mueller, who handles pre- and post-game and is in his 15th season.

1989 RULES CHANGES

Instant Replay will return in 1989 for the fourth consecutive year.

Replay was first adopted in 1986. It is used if there is indisputable visual evidence on videotape of an obvious error by a field official on plays limited to possession and goal line and out-of-bounds decisions.

In other action, a joint proposal by the Long-Range Planning and Finance committees regarding player personnel was adopted. The committees' recommendation for the first time sets offseason roster limits and the creation of a developmental squad. It also addressed roster cutdown dates and injured reserve. The teams agreed:

- Until May 31: No more than 90 players under contract.
- June 1: No more than 80 players under contract.
- Roster cutdown to 60 players after third preseason game (August 29).
- Roster cutdown to 47 players Monday (September 4) prior to regular-season opener.
 - Regular-season game roster of 45 players plus 2 inactive.
 - Developmental squad of 6 players maximum per club established after final cut to 47 and comprised of only rookies/first-year players who have passed through waivers.
 - Players placed on injured reserve during the preseason may not return to same club that year; also may not practice.
 - Players placed on injured reserve after the final cut may return after six games by free reactivation (each club has five) or procedural-recall waivers.
 - Two practice options: Option 1: After four weeks on injured reserve, player can practice for two weeks, then club must waive or activate; Option 2: After six weeks on injured reserve, a player can be activated, waived, or begin unlimited practice. If practicing, player must count against developmental squad total of six.

Also, the clubs approved the following:

- Further clarified the roughing-the-passer rule by prohibiting a defender who has an unrestricted path to the quarterback from flagrantly hitting him in the area of the knees when approaching from any direction.
- Specified that fouls which occur in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter as well as the last two minutes of the first half will result in the clock starting on the snap.
 - Called for strong disciplinary measures in cases of feigned injuries.
 - Any entering substitute who participates in a play must enter while the ball is dead and must move onto the field as far as the inside of the field numerals; in addition, the player or players replaced must have cleared the field on their own side (between end lines) prior to the snap or free kick.
 - Established a new set of procedures, including loss of team timeouts or a five-yard penalty on the defense, to handle the problem of crowd noise which prevents the offense from hearing its signals.
 - Further liberalized blocking rule to permit a blocker to initially contact an opponent on or outside the opponent's frame of the body so long as the blocker works to bring his hands back on or inside the frame after initial contact.
 - Changed the simultaneous catch rule so that the offensive or defensive player who first controls and continues to maintain control of a pass will be awarded the ball even though his opponent later establishes joint control of the ball.
 - Prohibited the offense, while in the process of substitution or simulated substitution, from rushing quickly to the line and snapping the ball with the obvious attempt to cause a defensive foul. In such an instance, the umpire shall hold the snap, giving the defense a reasonable time to complete its substitution or if a defensive foul results, the flag will be picked up and the down replayed.

CLEVELAND STADIUM

Cleveland Stadium, a famous and proud landmark for this city, is the nation's largest facility housing both a Major League baseball team and an NFL franchise. The Stadium, with a current capacity of 80,098, was completed in July of 1931 at a cost of $3.5 million.

An estimated six-million dollar improvement plan, begun in December of 1988, gives Cleveland Stadium a new look in 1989. Upgrades include: a new scoreboard (including sideboards that continuously update out-of-town scores), a new sound system, 47 color TV monitors located within the concourse, renovation of concession stands and upgraded restroom facilities.

The Stadium, which sits on a landfill, has proved to be multi-purpose. Along with baseball and football, the range of activities at the Stadium has included everything from a heavyweight championship bout (Schmeling vs. Stribling) to religious convocations. The Metropolitan Opera and the Beatles have performed on the field, as have circuses, rodeos, big bands, tractor pulls, and a horde of professional and amateur athletes.

Over the years, the Stadium became a financial strain for the city of Cleveland. Art Modell responded to the need in 1974, when he formed Cleveland Stadium Corporation and signed a 25-year lease with the city. When the agreement between the city and Modell was first reached in 1974, the Browns' owner promised a $10 million improvement plan, which was concluded in 1984.

Those improvements included the addition of 108 luxurious loges, a computerized scoreboard, more comfortable seats, new concession facilities, a new lighting system (both inside and around the perimeter of the Stadium), out-field fence pads, and the installation of a new playing field, which was lowered two feet to provide a better view from the stands (1976).

Current Cleveland Mayor George Voinovich gives Modell and the Stadium staff the credit for saving the Stadium. "If the city had held onto the Stadium, it probably would be closed today," Voinovich said. (Cleveland Press, 3/28/80).

A PLAYOFF FRANCHISE

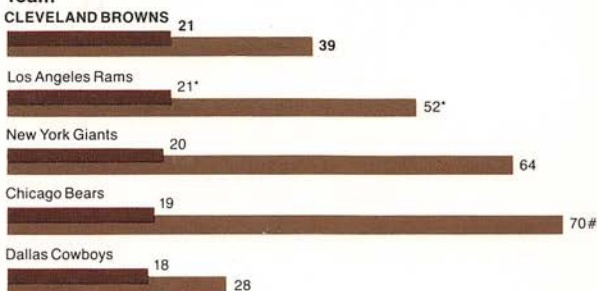

The 1988 Browns were the twenty-first playoff team in the franchise's 39-year NFL history. Only the Rams have enjoyed as many playoff seasons.

The Browns are the only AFC team to advance to postseason play for the past four years (including three division titles: 1985: 8-8; 1986, 12-4; and 1987, 10-5; and a Wild Card berth in 1988, 10-6). Only Chicago and San Francisco can match that streak in the NFC.

The Browns have made the Super Bowl tournament six times in the 1980s (also qualified in 1980 as the division winner and in 1982 during the strike-shortened campaign). The Browns' current string of four straight trips to the postseason is the second-best playoff streak in the franchise's history.
