ARTHUR B. MODELL

OWNER

Born 6/23/25, Brooklyn, N.Y.
Purchased Browns 3/21/61

The Cleveland Browns' number one fan is also its owner and president. Now in his 25th year as head of the highly successful Browns' franchise, Art Modell still views the team with "a little kid's enthusiasm."

"When I see the first orange helmets pop out of the dugout at Cleveland Stadium; the first day of training camp, the morning of the draft, any opening kickoff — these are tremendous thrills," Modell has said. "I'm proud to be in the NFL, and, more specifically, proud to be a Cleveland Brown. I believe our product is the number one attraction in sports and I can't imagine any other business as visibly competitive as ours. I've seen what a Browns' victory can mean to the community and I've suffered greatly when we've lost," Modell added.

Fortunately, for Modell and Browns' followers, the team has been a consistent and entertaining winner in Art's 24 years of ownership. During this tenure, the Browns own the fifth-best record in the NFL (190-147-6 for .563) behind Dallas (.657), the Raiders (.657), Miami (.634) and the Rams (.583) and in front of the Redskins (.547), Vikings (.547) and Steelers (.541). In 14 of those years, the Browns were either battling to gain the playoffs or had already clinched a spot in the postseason on the final weekend of the schedule. Nine times the Browns advanced to the championship series. In 1964, the Browns won the NFL championship and gained the title game in 1965, 1968 and 1969. Cleveland also advanced to the playoffs in 1967, 1971, 1972, 1980 and 1982. In five other seasons under Modell's leadership, the Browns were playing for a playoff spot in the season finale, but did not qualify (1963, 1970, 1976, 1979 and 1983).

When Modell was 15 years old, he dropped out of high school and began work as an electrician's helper in a Brooklyn, N.Y. shipyard. Modell was cleaning out hulls of ships to help his financially-strapped family after the death of his father. Twenty years later, the progressive and energetic Modell made his bold move to purchase the Cleveland Browns for what was then an "unheard of amount" of $4 million. To a great extent, Modell had achieved the so-called "American success story" from high school dropout to successful businessman and finally to prominence in his profession.

Modell, who completed high school through night classes, joined the Air Force in 1943 (he was 18), and then enrolled in a New York City television school following World War II. Always an innovator, Modell produced one of the first regular daytime television shows in the nation. He moved into the advertising business in 1954 with L.H. Hartman Co. (in N.Y.), one of the country's most successful agencies. Soon after, he became a partner.

After purchasing the Browns (3/21/61), Modell quickly became a recognized leader among league owners and he served as president of the National Football League from 1967 to 1970. His daring transfer of the Browns to the American Conference, along with Pittsburgh and Baltimore, cleared a sizeable roadblock in the merging of the NFL and AFL, returning peace to football. Among the many innovations developed by Modell, was the preseason doubleheader concept that proved extremely popular for a decade (1962-71). Modell volunteered to have his team host the first "Monday Night" game and while skeptics predicted disaster, a soldout crowd watched the Browns defeat the Jets (1970). The 15th anniversary of Monday Night Football will be celebrated when the Browns host the Steelers on Sept. 16. (He also took his team to Dallas (1966) for the first of what has become a NFL doubleheader tradition on Thanksgiving Day).

Modell remains a prominent NFL owner. A recent newspaper poll of league officials revealed that Modell was considered "the second most influential person in the league." He is Chairman of the NFL's important Broadcast Committee.

Modell, a native New Yorker, considers Cleveland his home and has dedicated much time and money to try and improve the community. "I came to Cleveland as an out-of-towner and purchased one of the great loves of this community. I think I understand that responsibility and I'm thankful for the support the fans of this area have given the Browns," Modell said.

Modell has been extensively involved in community projects. In 1974, he signed a 25-year lease with the City of Cleveland to take over management of Cleveland Stadium, which had become a financial strain on the city and was badly in need of repair. With that signing, Art agreed to make at least $10 million worth of improvements, with all of those already completed (plus $1 million more). He also lent his money and influence to refurbish the financially troubled Cleveland Sheraton Hotel at Public Square, which was turned into a downtown showplace under the name of Stouffer Inn on the Square. The Cleveland Plain Dealer said of his efforts: "Not only did Modell take on the job of saving the hotel, he turned the venture into a team effort to save downtown and Public Square from a visual blight and the city from a loss of millions in convention business."

The "National Volunteer Citation" from the Arthritis Foundation is the most recent of a number of top honors that has saluted Modell. Others accorded him in the last few years for his services and accomplishments have included the: "Champion of Brotherhood" distinction from the National Conference of Christians and Jews for Modell's "lifetime of service in combating discrimination and prejudice", the "Citizen of the Year" award from the Cleveland Board of Realtors, and the "United Way Commitment" honor for his and his team's involvement with that organization. Modell has also earned presentations from the New York Football Writers' Assn.; the Sports Media Association of Cleveland and Ohio ("Pride of Cleveland") and the Variety Club ("Super Citizen Award"); plus, the Cleveland Sales and Marketing Club named him 1983 Executive of the Year.

A noted philanthropist, Modell has raised funds for St. Vincent Charity Hospital, has been a chief sponsor for the Mundy Football Assn., and is a regular contributor to the many worthwhile charity and cultural activities of the Cleveland area. Hiram College made him a member of its prestigious Garfield Society. John Carroll University awarded him an honorary LL.D degree (1979) and Wilberforce University has honored him for "Outstanding Citizenship." He has also served as Foreman of the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury.

Along with the Browns, Modell serves on the boards of directors of National City Corporation and National City Bank, The Ohio Bell Telephone Company, The Higbee Company and he is a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees for the world renowned Cleveland Clinic. Modell was also recently (June, 1985) named to the Board of Directors of Churchill Downs. He is a member of the Greater Cleveland Growth Association.

Pat Modell, Art's wife, is also highly involved with the Cleveland community. She is on the board of Ursuline College and is active with the Cleveland Musical Arts Assn., the Cleveland Ballet, the Playhouse Square Foundation and Cerebral Palsy Association. A former movie and television actress, Pat appeared in over 400 TV shows. The couple has two sons: John, 25, and David, 23.

JIM BAILEY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

ADMINISTRATION AND LEGAL

Born 8/21/46, Wilmington, O.
8th Year Browns
Florida State

"Jim's involved in every aspect of our business work and has fast become one of the most capable administrators in the NFL," said owner Art Modell of executive vice president-administration and legal Jim Bailey, who is beginning his eighth year with the organization. Prior to his latest promotion, which came early last year, Bailey was vice president and general counsel.

Bailey, who joined the Browns in June of 1978, has maintained a low public profile while working closely with Modell in the every day operations of all facets of the club. Along with his work with the team, Bailey also has been involved with other Browns' subsidiaries, including handling the legal matters involving Cleveland Stadium and other business activities. He is currently a member of the Civic Dome Committee, the group attempting to produce a domed all-purpose facility in downtown Cleveland.

A three-sport standout at Wilmington (O.) High School, Bailey earned a football scholarship to Florida State. Although never a star for the Seminoles, Jim jokingly claims he did help develop all-time great receiver Fred Biletnikoff. "Working against me in practice, he developed many of his patterns and his tremendous self-confidence."

Bailey earned his law degree at the University of Michigan and became a fulltime associate of the Cleveland law firm of Guren, Merritt, Sogg and Cohen in 1971. He was named a partner in 1976. Included in his duties at the firm was work with Art Modell in the formation of Cleveland Stadium Corporation. Jim and his wife, Ann, and their two daughters, Sarah and Jenny, live in Shaker Heights.

ERNIE ACCORSI

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Born 10/29/41, Hershey, Pa.

2nd Year Browns

Wake Forest

Ernie Accorsi, who joined the Browns as Assistant to the President in early 1984, is now Executive Vice President/Football Operations. "Ernie will continue to work closely with Jim Bailey (Executive Vice President/Administration and Legal) and with me on all our activities, especially player procurement and player contract negotiations," said owner Art Modell, adding "Accorsi will continue to be the principal liaison with the National Football League office relating to player movement."

Prior to joining the Browns, Accorsi, a highly regarded league executive, served two years as general manager of the Baltimore Colts, helping them advance from a winless 1982 to seven victories in 1983. He resigned from that position in February, 1984.

Accorsi has worked in the NFL since 1970 when he joined Baltimore as public relations director. In 1975 and 1976, he served as assistant to the president of the National Football Conference on Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff. He returned to the Colts as assistant general manager in 1977.

During his six years with the Colts, he assisted in policy-making decisions involving every aspect of the Colts' organization. Accorsi directed the development of the Colts' 1981 offseason marketing campaign, which increased season ticket sales. This was the first increase following a sub .500 season in 25 years. He also participated in negotiations of player contracts and radio/TV agreements in addition to serving as the Colts' liaison with the NFL office.

The 43-year-old Accorsi is a native of Hershey, Pa., and a graduate of Wake Forest University (1963), where he was a member of the golf team. He worked as a sportswriter for the Charlotte News prior to a tour of duty with the Army and then joined the Baltimore Evening Sun in 1964. He was the sports publicity director at Philadelphia's St. Joseph College before joining the Philadelphia Inquirer in 1966. In 1969, Accorsi returned to collegiate athletics as assistant sports information director at Penn State University.

Ernie has three children: Michael, 16, Sherlyn, 15, and Patrick, 11.

PAUL WARFIELD

PLAYER RELATIONS

Born 11/28/42, Warren, O.
6th Year Browns
Ohio State

Paul Warfield, whose input of ideas into the organization is of much value to owner Art Modell, begins his sixth year in the Browns' front office, the past three of which he has served as director of player relations.

Warfield, who has become a much sought-after public speaker, is working in an area that never before had been touched by a professional sports team. But in the short period of time the program has been in existence, the results have been dramatic.

Due in large part to Warfield's work, approximately 40 Browns' players reside in the Cleveland area year-round. In addition, through Paul's efforts and encouragements, several players currently are in the process of finishing up work on their college degrees. "What we do is make it as easy as we can for our players to become a part of the Cleveland area community," said Warfield. "That in turn helps them to become more productive as football players." Paul also helps players begin the transformation from pro athlete to business person.

Warfield, an All America at Ohio State as a running and defensive back, is a native of nearby Warren. His undergraduate degree was in physical education and he has a master's in radio/television from Kent State.

Paul began his professional football career as a wide receiver with the Browns in 1964 and had career totals of 427 receptions, 8,565 yards and 85 touchdowns (an average of one per every five catches). Although his number of receptions does not place him in the Top-20 of all-time pass receivers, his 20.1 yards per catch is the all-time best, as is his seven consecutive seasons with a plus-20 yards per catch average. Warfield was with the Browns from 1964 through 1969; was traded to Miami, where he played 1970 through 1974; joined the now defunct World Football League in 1975; then "came home" to the Browns in 1976 and finished his playing career in 1977.

In 1983 he was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. "Being selected to the Hall in my first year of eligibility is really the best honor that I could ever receive," Warfield said.

Following his retirement as a player, Paul spent the next three years as a television sports reporter. He became the Browns' assistant director of pro personnel in 1980. He was elevated to assistant to team president Art Modell in 1981, becoming involved in a number of front office functions. One of his responsibilities was as liaison to the league office regarding NFL rules and player developments, including all waiver procedures.

Paul's wife Beverly, also from Warren, owns a public relations firm. They reside in Beachwood with their two children, Sonja, 15, and Malcolm, 12.

COACHES

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER

HEAD COACH

Born 9/23/43, Canonsburg, Pa.
12th Year Coaching
Pittsburgh

On Oct. 22, 1984, Marty Schottenheimer was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns. Promoted from his position as defensive coordinator, Schottenheimer took over a 1-7 team whose offense had sputtered in the first half of the season and whose defense was tops in the AFC. Owner Art Modell made it clear at that time that Schottenheimer was not an interim coach. "We do not feel we need to go through a nationwide search. We think it's time for Marty to take control and we believe he'll be successful," Modell said.

Schottenheimer had immediate success, but not as much as he wanted. The Browns finished 4-4 under the 41-year old head coach, losing three games (Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and New Orleans) on the final play on field goals. What he did indicate is that he could get things done in a hurry. The offense and special teams showed immediate improvement, while his defense finished the season as the AFC's best (allowing only 290 yards per game — second in the NFL to the Bears).

Schottenheimer's philosophy is simple: "You never know if the next step will be the one that gets it done. So, to me, you keep taking that extra step and, at some point, you will achieve success. I want a certain mental toughness in the players, a determination, a willingness to take that extra step. Because I believe that will enable a team to succeed. Players, coaches and every other member of this organization, are accountable for every responsibility we give them."

The sixth head coach in the Browns' 40-year history came to Cleveland in 1980 as defensive coordinator. He told Modell at that time that he could make the Browns' defense one of the league's best in three years. In 1983, the Cleveland defense was fifth in the AFC and ninth overall in the league, the first time the team's defense had cracked the NFL's top 10 since 1976. Schottenheimer also coached the secondary in 1983 and 1984.

While working as a real estate developer in Denver in early 1974, Schottenheimer gave in to his urge to coach. He began visiting with Bronco defensive coordinator Joe Collier, who had coached Schottenheimer as a Buffalo Bill a few years earlier. "I wanted to learn more about the coaching business and Joe is one of the best," Schottenheimer explained. In 1974, Marty accepted an invitation (from Dick Coury) to become player/coach for the WFL's Portland Storm. A shoulder injury stopped his playing comeback, but he continued working with the linebackers.

Bill Arnsparger, then the New York Giants' head coach, gave Schottenheimer his introduction into the NFL coaching fraternity a year later (1975), naming Marty linebackers' coach. He was the Giants' defensive coordinator in 1977 when he was only 34. Schottenheimer was a member of Monte Clark's Detroit Lion staff in 1978 and 1979 as linebackers' coach.

COACHES

As a player, Schottenheimer was described as an over-achiever. (His career stats included 79 games played, 18 starts and six interceptions for a 22-yard average). "I basically made my living for six years as a special teams' player," Schottenheimer said. After earning All-America honors at the University of Pittsburgh in 1964, Marty was drafted in the seventh round by the Buffalo Bills and the fourth round by the Baltimore Colts. He played four seasons for the Bills (1965-68) and two years with the Boston Patriots (1969-70). In June of 1971, he was traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he played six weeks under Chuck Noll before being traded to the Colts. He retired when the Colts released him three weeks later.

An honor student at Ft. Cherry (McDonald, Pa.) High School, Schottenheimer was a prep football and basketball standout. He was All-Western Pennsylvania as a linebacker and was the center on the state championship basketball team (named all-state honorable mention). Schottenheimer received a B.A. in English from Pittsburgh where he was a three-year starter for the Panthers. (He played for the College All Stars against the 1964 World Champion Browns).

Marty, who was born in Canonsburg, Pa., Sept. 23, 1943, and his wife, Pat, live in the Cleveland suburb of Strongsville with their daughter Kristen, 15, and son Brian, 12.

Schottenheimer, who has been described by members of the Cleveland media as bright, determined, tough, demanding and ambitious, has one football goal. "We want to win the Super Bowl, because, in this league, that's all that matters."

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER ON HIS PHILOSOPHY AS HEAD COACH:

"It's important that players have a very clear understanding of what it is that they're asked to do. That's where the teaching aspect comes in. That's all a coach is, a teacher. I think of myself as a teacher. A coach has those ideas and conveys them to the players and the only way I know to do that is through hard work and repetition."

TOM BETTIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Born 3/17/33, Chicago, Ill.

1st Year Browns

20th Year Coaching

Purdue

Tom Bettis, long regarded as one of the top defensive coaches in the NFL, takes over the role of Browns' defensive coordinator from Marty Schottenheimer, who held that role prior to his being named head coach midway through the 1984 season.

The highly respected Bettis served the St. Louis Cardinals as defensive coordinator for the past seven years. Prior to that, Bettis coached for the Kansas City Chiefs, which included a stint as the interim head coach in 1977 after the departure of Paul Wiggin.

"Attracting Tom Bettis to our staff was very important to this organization and we're pleased we got it done," Schottenheimer said. "Tom is noted for his development of young players and he's going to help our defense mature." In addition to serving as coordinator, Bettis also will coach the defensive backs, another role performed by Schottenheimer last year.

His Chiefs' secondaries led the AFC in interceptions for five straight seasons (1966-70) and in 1974. He helped coach Kansas City to a Super Bowl appearance in 1967 and the championship in 1970, along with AFC Championships in 1966 and 1969 and playoff appearances in 1968, 1969 and 1971.

Bettis' pro career began with Green Bay after the Packers made him their first draft choice in 1955. He was a starting linebacker with the Packers until 1961, helping them earn a world championship. In 1962, he was traded to Pittsburgh before concluding his career with another world championship team, the 1963 Chicago Bears.

Bettis is a native Chicagoan. He attended St. Mel High School, then went on to Purdue where he was All America in 1953 and 1954 and made the All-Big Ten team for three seasons (as a linebacker and offensive guard). In 1954, he was fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, gathering more votes than any other lineman that year. He also was co-captain of the 1955 College All-Star team.

Following a brief retirement to private business, he was encouraged by Hank Stram to join the Kansas City staff in 1966. He also had served as a pro talent scout in 1964 and 1965.

Tom and his wife, Valerie, have three daughters, Lisa, 28, Karen, 25, and Krista, 21. They live in Strongsville.

1st Year Coaching

North Carolina State

When Marty Schottenheimer began filling vacant coaching positions, he started by looking no further than his own backyard. The man he wanted as special teams coach was former Browns' player Bill Cowher who, like Schottenheimer, was a linebacker by trade during his playing days, but in reality earned his keep by his performance on the special teams.

"Bill Cowher has a tremendous work ethic, and anyone who knows him understands that he's one of the fiercest competitors around. He's just my kind of guy," said Schottenheimer, who has made it known he expects his special teams to be among the best in the NFL. "Bill's probably as well respected by his peers as any player I've ever been around."

Cowher, 28, is the second youngest assistant in the NFL and he believes his age will prove helpful in the long run. "I feel I had the respect of the players when I played here, and I believe I'll gain their respect as a coach. I intend to evaluate performance, not personalities."

Cowher first joined the Browns as a free agent in 1980 after originally signing as a free agent with Philadelphia in 1979. He played in three preseason games with the Eagles before being released. Cowher played in all 16 games with the Browns in 1980, including two starts at inside linebacker.

The North Carolina State product was traded to Philadelphia in 1983 and was selected the Eagles' most valuable special teamer that year. He missed all but four games last year due to a knee injury.

Bill and his wife, Kaye, have recently purchased a home in Strongsville.

NFL ALUMNI

The Cleveland Chapter of the NFL Alumni would like to contact all former pro football players living in the Cleveland area.

The chapter was formed in 1980 and is one of 32 in the NFL Alumni. Members get involved in several activities throughout the year, including hosting an NFL Alumni Charity Golf Classic, taking part in the Youth of America Week activities each September, and others which foster camaraderie while working on behalf of today's youth.

Bob Nussbaumer is president of the Cleveland Chapter. Other officers are vice president Tom Brown, secretary Nick Cantanese, and treasurer Jim Houston.

Those interested should call (216) 464-7350 or write to 3690 Orange Place, Suite 325, Beachwood, Ohio 44122.

COACHES

ASSISTANT TO

THE HEAD COACH/OFFENSE

Born 7/3/50, Great Bend, Kan.

1st Year Browns

9th Year Coaching

Fort Hays (Kan.) College

"I will rely greatly on the expertise Steve Crosby has acquired through his experience with Miami and Atlanta as we develop our offensive system," said head coach Marty Schottenheimer in explaining the role Crosby will fill as assistant to the head coach/offense. He also will tutor the running backs.

Crosby, a running back for the New York Giants from 1974-75, began his coaching career on Don Shula's Miami Dolphin staff in 1979 after serving as a Dolphin scout for two years. From 1979 through 1982, Crosby coached the Dolphins' special teams and linebackers, while continuing some personnel duties. "His Miami special teams were considered among the league's best," said Schottenheimer, who first became acquainted with Crosby in 1975. Schottenheimer was the Giants' defensive coordinator at that time.

Crosby joined Dan Henning's Atlanta Falcon staff in 1983 and worked the quarterbacks and running backs for the Falcons the past two years.

"My best experience with Miami was the opportunity to work with Don Shula and Bill Arnsparger on the same staff," Crosby said. "From there, I was able to go from defense to offense under one of the best offensive coaches in the league, Dan Henning."

Crosby is a 1972 graduate of Fort Hays (Kan.) College, where he also earned a master's in athletic administration. As a senior, he rushed for 1,024 yards on 179 carries (5.7 avg.). He was twice named an NAIA All America and was a three-time-all-conference performer before being drafted in the 17th round in 1974.

He has a son, Bradley, 14. Crosby lives in Strongsville.

GREG LANDRY

QUARTERBACKS

Born 12/18/46, Nashua, New Hampshire

1st Year Browns

1st Year Coaching

Massachusetts

"Greg has planned to become a coach ever since high school and he's prepared accordingly. He has had a wealth of both practical and tactical experience, which he can use to help develop our quarterbacks," said head coach Marty Schottenheimer when selecting longtime NFL veteran Greg Landry as the team's new quarterback coach.

Landry, 38, completed his 17-year pro career last year when he joined the Chicago Bears prior to the season finale and was the starting quarterback that week, leading the Bears to a 30-13 win over the Lions. He began his pro career in 1968 with the Detroit Lions, who drafted him number one out of the University of Massachusetts, where he was a first-team small college All America.

Landry played 11 years with the Lions (1968-78). He was traded to Baltimore in April, 1979 and played three years for the Colts. After being released in 1982 by the Colts, he played two years in the USFL with the Chicago Blitz and Arizona Wranglers before wrapping up his career with the Bears.

His NFL statistics include: 147 games; 103 starts; 1,276 completions in 2,300 attempts for 16,502 yards; 98 TDs and 103 interceptions. He also rushed for 2,654 yards (6.2 avg.) and scored 20 touchdowns. Landry finished his Lions' career second to Detroit Hall of Famer Bobby Layne in four club passing categories—attempts, completions, yards and TD passes. He shared Lions' marks for rushing TDs in a season (nine) and most rushing TDs in a game (three).

Landry received a B.S. in physical education from Massachusetts in 1968 and also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Loyola University.

He and his wife, Jeannine, have five children: Kathleen 5, Beth 4, Greg 2, Mary 1 and Joe, born this past January. They live in Strongsville.

RICHARD MANN

RECEIVERS

Born 4/20/47, Aliquippa, Pa.
1st Year Browns
12th Year Coaching
Arizona State

Richard Mann, who helped develop numerous future NFL wide receivers during eight years of collegiate coaching, takes over the role of receiver coach for the Browns after three years in a similar role for the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts. "I decided I wasn't going to hire any assistant after one interview, but I made an exception with Richard," head coach Marty Schottenheimer said.

"Richard has spent his career working with receivers, plus he's played the positions," said Schottenheimer, adding "I thought he maximized the Colts' talent and we expect him to improve our wide receivers."

The 38-year-old native of Aliquippa, Pa., earned all-state honors in football and also participated in basketball and track. He was inducted into the Aliquippa Sports Hall of Fame in 1982.

Mann attended Arizona State University and started three years (1966-1968) under then-head coach Frank Kush. He was a flanker his first year and moved to tight end for his final two seasons, catching a total of 28 passes for 340 yards.

He earned a B.S. degree in elementary education and taught and coached at his hometown high school from 1970 to 1974. He returned to his college alma mater, Arizona State, in 1974 and over the next six years helped develop such wide receivers as current NFLers John Jefferson, Bruce Hardy and Jerry Bell. He then went to the University of Louisville where he helped develop Mark Clayton in 1980 and 1981 before rejoining Kush with the Colts in 1982.

As for the number of passes Browns' receivers dropped last year, Mann said, "Dropped passes are going to happen. When they do, you have to go back to the basics. One thing I learned is you can never take anything about a player for granted. When a player is having a problem dropping passes, it's usually something unsound fundamentally. I have plenty of everyday drills that I have learned over the years. I believe in repetition and hard work."

Mann and his wife Karen have three children: Deven, 6, Richard, 4, and Mario, 2. They live in Strongsville.

HOWARD MUDD

OFFENSIVE LINE

Born 2/10/42, Midland, Mich.
3rd Year Browns
14th Year Coaching
Hillsdale

Howard Mudd returns for his third year as offensive line coach for the Browns faced with the problem of filling the left tackle spot vacated by the retirement of Doug Dieken, as well as cutting down on the number of quarterback sacks allowed last year. Mudd will welcome the return of veteran right tackle Cody Risien, who missed all of last season due to a knee injury suffered in the preseason finale at Philadelphia.

He was one of only two position coaches retained by Schottenheimer from last year's staff.

"He is an excellent coach and has done a fine job coaching our offensive line the last two years," Schottenheimer said. "He's a good teacher and his players respond well to his motivation. I'm pleased he has accepted our invitation to return in the same capacity. Keeping him gives us a better degree of continuity."

Mudd, a two-time All Pro and three-time Pro Bowl performer, played six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers and two with the Chicago Bears. He was named to the All-1960's NFL team.

The Midland, Michigan native, who attended Hillsdale (Mich.) College and later gained entrance to the NAIA Hall of Fame, began his coaching career in 1972 as an assistant at the University of California. His first pro coaching experience came with the San Diego Chargers in 1974. He was instrumental in the development of the fine offensive line the Chargers put together to protect quarterback Dan Fouts.

In 1977, Mudd was line coach at San Francisco, then went to Seattle for the next five years before joining the Browns in 1983.

Howard and his wife, Marie, have a son, Darren, 15, and a daughter, Ami, 13, and they live in Medina. Darren plays line on the Medina High School football team.

TOM OLIVADOTTI

LINEBACKERS

Born 9/22/45, Long Branch, New Jersey
1st Year Browns
19th Year Coaching
Upsala

When Marty Schottenheimer went on scouting missions to Miami University the past few years, he had a chance to visit numerous fine football players, including current Browns' linebacker Scott Nicolas. But, at the same time, the Browns' head coach also had the opportunity to meet and get to know Tom Olivadotti, the Browns' new linebacker coach.

Olivadotti is credited with developing current NFL linebackers such as Nicolas and the Dolphins' Jay Brophy. "Olivadotti is a well known and respected member of the so-called coaching fraternity, but I became more impressed with him when I went to Miami the last couple of years to study players we might draft. He got the most out of players like Nicolas and Brophy."

Olivadotti spent four years at Miami (1980-83), helping the Hurricanes to the national title in 1983, when he was defensive coordinator. Prior to that, the 39-year-old native of Long Branch, New Jersey spent two years at Boston College where he coached the defensive ends and linebackers and organized the overall defense.

His other coaching positions included Princeton University (1975-77), where he taught both offensive and defensive lines and linebackers; head coach at Salesianum School (prep school in Wilmington, Delaware, 1972-76); and three high schools in New Jersey, Red Bank Catholic High (1971-72); Long Branch (1968-71); and Pope Pius High (1967-68).

Olivadotti was a four-year starter at Upsala College as a defensive end and receiver. He also played baseball and ran track. He played five years of semi-pro ball while coaching in high schools. He has a B.A. in business.

Olivadotti, a class 'A' racquetball player, and his wife, Karen, have two children: Kari, 14, and Kirk, 11. They live in Strongsville.

COACHES

JOE PENDRY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Born 8/5/47, Matheny, W. Va.

1st Year Browns

17th Year Coaching

West Virginia

Marty Schottenheimer begins his first full year as head coach of the Cleveland franchise knowing much improvement in the offense is needed for the Browns to become serious Super Bowl contenders. The man he has put in charge of that tall order is 38-year-old Joe Pendry, who, despite his age, already has 17 years of coaching experience.

"I'm obviously impressed with Joe. I interviewed a number of candidates and decided Joe had all the credentials we needed," Schottenheimer said. "He's dedicated to coaching. His track record is excellent and he wanted to come to this organization, even though he had a number of other offers."

Pendry has coached every offensive position and has been an offensive coordinator at both the college and professional levels, in addition to serving as head coach of the Pittsburgh Maulers of the USFL in 1984.

With the Browns, Pendry will be in charge of resurrecting an offense that ranked 24th in the NFL last year. "We'll use two backs," Pendry said. "I think you can do more things with two backs in the backfield. You can tie the run and the pass better. You can do play-action passing. But, we'll also use one-back formations to take advantage of other strengths."

Pendry began coaching at West Virginia University after a spinal injury ended a promising football career during his sophomore season (1966) with the Mountaineers. He became a student/coach during his junior and senior years and was appointed grad assistant, later earning the head coaching position of the Mountaineers' freshman team in 1970. From 1971 through 1974, Pendry coached WVU receivers and the offensive line.

The following season, 1975, Pendry was Kansas State's offensive coordinator before coming back to West Virginia to serve in that same capacity from 1976-77. Pendry was also the offensive coordinator for the Michigan State Spartans in 1980-81 after working at the University of Pittsburgh in 1978 (quarterbacks) and 1979 (offensive line).

Pendry helped organize the USFL Philadelphia Stars in 1982 and was offensive coordinator for the 15-3 Stars in 1983.

Pendry is a native of Matheny, W. Va., where he was a three-sport standout (football, basketball and track) at Oceana H.S. He was all state in both football and basketball, earning West Virginia lineman of the year honors as a senior.

He and his wife, Sandi, have two children: Joe, 14, and Jill, 11, and they reside in Strongsville.

COACHES

TOM PRATT

DEFENSIVE LINE

Born 6/21/35, Edgerton, Wis.
5th Year Browns
29th Year Coaching
Miami (Fla.)

Tom Pratt, beginning his fifth year with the Browns, has witnessed first-hand the growth of the defense, which last year ranked number one in the entire AFC. A major contributor to the defense was the improvement of Pratt's defensive line, which broke a single-game team record with 11 sacks against Atlanta.

Second year defensive end Reggie Camp recorded 14 sacks, second only in team history to Bill Glass' 14½ in 1965. Only three defensive linemen in the AFC had more sacks in 1984.

Keith Baldwin also had his best season at defensive end, while nose tackles Bob Golic and Dave Puzzuoli combined for 100 tackles.

Pratt first started coaching defensive linemen in the NFL 20 years ago with the Kansas City Chiefs, and he is recognized as one of the top teachers of those positions in football. Pratt gained notoriety for his development of the defensive lines for the Chiefs' Super Bowl teams of 1967 and 1970. The latter championship unit of Jerry Mays, Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan and Curly Culp became near awesome. Pratt stayed with the Chiefs from 1963 through 1977.

In 1978, Tom rejoined Hank Stram at New Orleans where he pushed his 1979 line to 46 sacks, a Saints' record.

Pratt played linebacker at Miami (Fla.) from 1953 through 1956 and remained at his alma mater as an assistant coach until 1960. He was an assistant at Southern Mississippi in 1961 and 1962 before joining the Chiefs.

Tom and his wife, Hope, live in Medina and they have three children: Kendra, 23; Shana, 20; and Tyler, 14.

DAVE REDDING

STRENGTH

Born 6/14/52, North Platte, Neb.
4th Year Browns
10th Year Coaching
Nebraska

Now in his fourth year with the Browns, Dave Redding's reputation as a strength and conditioning coach has grown to the point where players from other teams have sought out his services. During the recent offseason, players from the NBA Cleveland Cavaliers have been working out under his guidance.

When Redding became the Browns' first strength coach in 1982, his main objective was simply to add strength to the players through weightlifting. Now, the weightlifting continues, but a bigger emphasis has been put on flexibility, running and agility. Redding recently added juggling to a list of activities that already included ballet and "speed skating". Ballet, in particular, has proven beneficial because it has more specific arm and leg movements and it provides balance.

Over 40 Browns' players now reside in the Cleveland area so that they can take part in Redding's programs year-round.

Redding, who has developed a close relationship with the veteran players, had six years of strength coaching experience prior to joining the Browns in 1982. He also had three years of experience coaching defensive ends on the collegiate level. Plus, Dave was a three-year letterman at defensive end at the University of Nebraska.

COACHES

Prior to arriving in Cleveland, Redding was the strength and conditioning coach at Missouri (1978-81). He also coached defensive ends and was in charge of the football winter conditioning and fitness program for one season at Washington State University (1977).

Upon completion of his B.S. Degree in physical education, with a minor in public health, Redding became a graduate assistant football and strength coach at Nebraska. He was responsible for the winter conditioning and lifting program for his alma mater's freshman football team.

Redding and his wife, Jane, who is a commercial artist, live in Medina.

DARVIN WALLIS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT

Born 2/14/49, Ft. Branch, Ind.

4th Year Browns

15th Year Coaching

Arizona

"He's a tireless worker, a real self-starter and he has been a tremendous asset," said Marty Schottenheimer of Darvin Wallis, now in his fourth year with the Browns.

Wallis has taken a more active role with on the field coaching, while still continuing to aid the staff with computer analysis work.

Darvin came to the Browns from the University of Mississippi, where he coached the tight ends and tackles in 1980 and 1981. At Ole Miss, he also was directly involved with a computer scouting system.

Wallis, who earned his undergraduate degree at the University of Arizona and his master's at Adams State, began his coaching career at Wilcox (Ariz.) High School in 1971. He then became head coach at Ajo (Ariz.) High School from 1972-75, before moving on to Adams (Colo.) State College as offensive line coach. He was offensive line and strength coach at Tulane in 1978 and 1979 before going to Ole Miss.

Darvin, an avid runner, and his wife, Vicky, and two-year-old son, Darvin Leon Jr., live in Middleburg Heights.

BILL TESSENDORF

HEAD TRAINER

Born 11/26/49, Chicago, Ill.

13th Year Browns

Northern Illinois

"Bill Tessendorf is a dedicated, tireless worker who is a very, very valuable member of our organization," said owner Art Modell of the man who is beginning his 13th year in the Browns' organization, including second as head trainer.

Tessendorf first joined the Browns as a part-time assistant trainer in 1973 while working toward his master's degree in exercise physiology at Kent State. Bill did his undergraduate work at Northern Illinois University, graduating with a B.A. in 1971. He worked as a graduate assistant under Kent State coach Don James in 1971, then took a job as an elementary school teacher in the Dekalb (Ill.) Public School District in 1972.

He returned to Kent State a year later and began assisting veteran Browns' trainer, Leo Murphy, while working toward his master's, which he received in 1976. "Billy's a fine young man. We're lucky to have him," Murphy said. "I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with Leo Murphy, Dr. (Vic) Ippolito, Dr. (John) Bergfeld and other doctors on our staff. They have enhanced my professional career," Tessendorf added. Bill and his wife, Nan Jean, reside in Medina and are the parents of Amy Ann, who will be two this winter.

LEO MURPHY

TRAINER

Born 10/24/23, Elmira, N.Y.
36th Year Browns
Notre Dame

Leo Murphy has now been with the Browns longer than any player on the team has been alive. The quick-witted trainer of the Browns is beginning his 36th year with the Cleveland franchise, dating back to 1950 when the old All-America Conference, of which the Browns were a member, and the National Football League merged.

Prior to that, the 1947 graduate of Notre Dame worked with the Chicago Rockets and New York Yankees, both in the All-America Conference.

Murphy has long been regarded as one of the top trainers in the world, evidenced by his induction into the National Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame in 1982. But if there is something Leo is even more famous for, it's his sparkling sense of humor, which has been a valuable asset in the training room throughout the Browns' NFL history.

Leo and his wife, Betty, have two children, Nancy and Martin, and three grandchildren. The Murphys live in Medina.

CHARLEY CUSICK

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Born 10/7/50, San Bernardino, Calif.
16th Year Browns

Charley Cusick is a living example of what hard work and determination can do for an athlete who is determined to make it to the pros, even after a severe injury has cut short his chance of playing the game.

Cusick, who had the talent and physique of a professional athlete, had his career cut short by a severe knee injury. But the Lakewood High School product still found his way to professional football 15 years ago as an assistant to longtime Browns' equipment manager Morrie Kono.

In 1974, Cusick was named equipment manager, replacing Kono, a pioneer in the football equipment business.

As equipment manager, Cusick coordinates the purchasing and maintaining of equipment for the Browns, as well as the operations involved with moving these from Baldwin Wallace to training camp at Lakeland Community College, Cleveland Stadium, road sites and on to the offseason training headquarters at Big Creek Racquet Club.

Cusick lives in Bay Village with his wife, Patty, whom he married in the spring of 1982.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

BILL DAVIS

VICE PRESIDENT OF PERSONNEL

Born 7/21/38, Youngstown, O.
5th Year Browns
Mt. Union College

During Bill Davis' first three years as the man in charge of the Browns' drafts, the team had 16 choices in the first six rounds. Of those 16 draft picks, 15 remain with the team entering the 1985 training camp. (Not making the team was WR Ron Brown, who refused to sign with the Browns and was later traded (to the Rams) for a second-round draft choice, which was used last year to take safety Chris Rockins).

Davis was named to the important post of Director of Personnel July 16, 1981. Owner Art Modell gave Davis a further boost last year when he named Bill a team vice president.

Upon being named, Bill wasted no time in restructuring the Browns' personnel department and weaving it closer to the coaching staff. The result has been a productive and compatible relationship that has proven beneficial to the organization.

Davis has gained the reputation around the NFL of running a very thorough and aggressive personnel department. He was the innovator of the trade in 1984 that saw the Browns package four late-round draft choices to the Chicago Bears in exchange for the Bears' three choices in the June, 1984 supplemental draft (for draft-eligible players who had signed with a rival league). The Browns are hoping to see the first benefits of the trade this year with the acquisition of running back Kevin Mack. The Browns used the first-round supplemental draft choice acquired from the Bears to draft Mack, who had been projected as a late first or second round choice in 1984 before he signed with the USFL's Los Angeles Express.

Davis is accountable for all facets involving player personnel — including the development and management of the team's collegiate and pro scouting staffs, conducting a draft, claiming and acquiring waived players, working on proposed trades and handling the negotiations and signings of most of the Browns' free agents.

His appointment to the Browns' staff was like a homecoming for the Youngstown native, who prepped at Rayen High School. He went on to become a Little-All-America quarterback (1960) at Mt. Union College (Alliance, O.) and then began his coaching career as a student assistant for the Purple Raiders. He later became head coach at Austintown Fitch High School (1964-66), where his record was 18-8-1. He was an assistant coach at Westminster (Pa.) College in 1967 (Bill earned his master's in education at Westminster).

Davis was then named head coach at Adrian (Mich.) College (1968-72). Three of his five teams shared the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship as he produced Adrian's first winning season since 1949 and first league title since 1911.

From 1973-75, Davis was the offensive backfield coach at Michigan State before getting his first shot at professional football. In 1976, Bill was linebacker coach for Dick Vermeil at Philadelphia, then advanced to become Vermeil's administrative assistant and tight end and special teams' coach in 1977 and 1978.

Davis joined the Miami Dolphins' staff in February, 1979, where he was director of Pro Personnel and Administrative Assistant to Don Shula. At Miami, he handled the negotiations of all player contracts and evaluated NFL talent for possible waiver or trade additions.

Davis and his wife, Joanne, also from Youngstown, reside in Berea with their three children: Diane, 21, a senior at Ohio University, and sons Bill, 19, and Bret, 17. Bill, a quarterback, is a sophomore at the University of Cincinnati, while Bret is a standout linebacker-center at Berea High School, where he is a senior.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

CHIP FALIVENE

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Born 3/10/53, Schenectady, N.Y.
11th Year Browns
Baldwin Wallace

Chip Falivene's career has been on a meteoric rise since he joined the Browns' organization in 1975 as an assistant to the team's coaching staff. Eleven years later, he is beginning his third year as Director of Pro Personnel and he continues to be an increasingly important member of the Cleveland franchise.

Falivene has performed like a seasoned veteran as he has been instrumental in the Browns signing several United States and Canadian Football League stars during his reign as Director of Pro Personnel. "For as young as Chip (32) is, he's a remarkable judge of football ability," said Browns Vice President of Personnel Bill Davis. "Plus, he's very organized, which is so important in his work with the volumes of information he must keep on all pro players and possible free agents."

Chip now must keep a thorough file containing information on every NFL player, in addition to tracking the CFL and USFL talent. He also scouts the Browns' upcoming opponents and prepares reports for the coaching staff. Football has always been a part of Falivene's life. His father, Carl, was a highly respected high school coach in the Greater Cleveland area before moving on to an assistant post at Ohio University. Recently, Carl was named offensive coordinator at Akron University.

Chip played center at Baldwin Wallace College, home of the Browns' year-round training and practice facility. Following his graduation, he began working part time for the Browns, devoting much of his work to evaluations and studies with the Browns' computer. In 1978, he was named administrative assistant to Sam Rutigliano and was elevated to pro personnel director in 1982.

Chip and his wife, Denise, reside in Berea with their two sons (eight-year-old Jared and two-year-old Chase) and newly born daughter, Paige Elizabeth.

Born 12/19/38, Brooklyn, N.Y.
3rd Year Browns
C.W. Post

Dom Anile, who is responsible for tracking talent for much of the eastern sections of the country, begins his third year with the Browns following a brilliant 24-year career as a college coach. Anile was well known to the Browns' organization even before he became a scout because he worked the team's training camp as an assistant to the offensive line coach for three years.

"Dom, especially because he's worked with us, understands the talent needed at this level," said Bill Davis, vice president of player personnel.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Anile is a 1959 graduate of C.W. Post and he attended graduate school at Brooklyn College. He began his coaching career immediately after graduation and served in a number of capacities, including offensive coordinator, at Post from 1959 to 1967.

In 1968, he was named head coach at Post and became one of the most successful college division coaches during the next 12 years. His teams compiled an 84-33-1 (.716) record and twice won the Lambert Bowl as the East's top team — 1973 (10-1) and 1976 (8-2).

Anile was selected Eastern College Coach of the Year in 1973 and four times he was picked as New York's Metropolitan Coach of the Year. Dom joined the Columbia staff in 1980 and was the team's offensive coordinator before accepting the Browns' job.

Anile was a three-year letter winner in both football and baseball at Post. He captained the football team two years and was MVP as a senior.

Dom and his wife, Geri, have three children: Dom Jr., 23, Gary, 18, and daughter Terri, 20. The family resides in Centereach, N.Y.

Baldwin Wallace

One of Bill Davis' first official acts as Personnel Director of the Browns was to acquire the services of Dave Beckman, who had accumulated an outstanding background in coaching, administration and analyzing all aspects of football.

And the keen insight Beckman has shown over the past four years has definitely backed up the confidence Davis has in his longtime friend and associate.

The Cleveland native began his coaching career with stints at Akron Highland, Warren Harding and Hubbard high schools. He was head coach at Hubbard from 1961 to 1969 and was coach of the year in 1963. In 1970, he joined Davis' staff at Adrian College as offensive coordinator.

He then served as an assistant coach at the University of Evansville (1971-72), Iowa (1973-78) and Lamar (1979-81). Dave's first collegiate job was in 1960, serving as an assistant to the late Lee Tressel at Baldwin Wallace.

In addition to his coaching duties, Beckman helped Davis evaluate talent at the camps of the Philadelphia Eagles and Miami Dolphins (1976-80).

Dave, a Bellevue H.S. graduate, received his B.A. from Baldwin Wallace and his master's degree at Akron.

Beckman and his wife, Pat, reside in Berea and have two sons. Tim, a strong safety, is a junior at Findlay College, while Ted, a standout prep quarterback, will be a freshman at Fairmont (W.Va.) State this fall.

TOM HECKERT

AREA SCOUT

Born 9/18/38, Youngstown, O.

4th Year Browns

Youngstown State

Tom Heckert, whose input has had a dramatic effect on the Browns' midwest scouting program the past three years, continues to follow a path closely intertwined with Bill Davis.

Heckert began his coaching career as an assistant under Davis at Austintown Fitch High School in 1961. Following a two-year hitch in the Army, Tom returned to Fitch and stayed through 1965.

He enrolled as a graduate assistant (1966-67) at Kent State, earning a master's degree in education. He became head coach at Maumee (O.) High School (1967-68) before he was summoned by Davis to serve as his assistant at Adrian (Mich.) College from 1969-72.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

Heckert was named head coach at Adrian in 1973 and athletic director in 1977. In his last three years before joining the Browns, his teams recorded a 23-3-1 record — posting a 9-0 mark in 1980.

Tom and his wife, Rose, still make their home in Adrian with daughter Kimberly, 21, and son Tom, 17.

TOM MINER

AREA SCOUT

Born 5/14/32, Checotah, Okla.
11th Year Browns
Tulsa

Tom Miner, now in his 11th season with Cleveland, is the dean of the Browns' scouting department. He has played a key role in providing the most comprehensive coverage of talent on the west coast since the inception of the organization.

Miner has been a strength and mainstay since coming to the Browns in 1975 from the San Diego Chargers, where he was Player Personnel Director and Vice President of Player Relations.

Miner earned All-Missouri Valley honors at Tulsa as an end and placekicker. He then played with Winnipeg of the CFL before joining the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1958. He set a club mark of 14 field goals that year, including a 49-yarder against the Browns.

Tom returned to Tulsa University as an assistant coach (1960-63) before becoming a part-time scout for the Chargers. He was elevated to fulltime three years later and subsequently to the top spot in the personnel department.

Miner and his wife, Pat, live in Tucson and they have two daughters.

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so — thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the offseason and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as a recall of a waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 15, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

6'2", 200 lbs., 6th Year
Houston
Schulenburg (Tex.) H.S.
Born 8/22/56, Weimar, Tex.
D1, 1979

PRO: Once considered the Browns' hard-luck player of all-time, Adams enters 1985 with a consecutive games played streak of 32 ... Topped his previous best season of 20 receptions (1983) when he caught one more for 261 yards last year (playing both WR and TE) ... Most productive day of pro career occurred last year in Cincinnati when he grabbed eight passes for 94 yards ... Also had four receptions for 62 yards versus Saints ... An outstanding special teams player, totaled 11 tackles in 1984 ... Frustrating first four years in Cleveland included: two injuries in rookie training camp (split finger and strained knee ligaments); a healthy 1980 behind WRs Dave Logan, Reggie Rucker and Ricky Feacher, all of whom enjoyed brilliant seasons; split fingers again during '81 preseason camp; missed final nine games in 1981 due to another knee injury; and finally in 1982, bruised his shoulder in season opener in Seattle, had arthroscopic surgery on knee during strike and was placed on injured reserve 11/19 ... Because of numerous injuries and setbacks the former No. 1 draft pick has had to endure, teammates nominated him for the 1984 Ed Block Memorial Courage Award. The award, presented annually to a NFL player in recognition of personal courage, is named for the late Eddie Block, long-time and highly respected trainer of the Baltimore Colts ... A starter in six games (played in all 16) during '83 season, Adams grabbed 20 passes for 374 yards (18.7 avg.) and scored first two TDs of career ... First score (23 yards) came with 2:35 left in season opener vs. Vikings, while his second (15-yarder) gave Browns a 14-3 lead in first quarter of Colts' game (11/27/83) ... Longest reception of career (59 yards) also came that day against Baltimore ... In six shortened seasons, has caught 51 passes for 830 yards; 16.3 average is second-best among active Browns (Feacher has a 18.4) ... was the 20th player chosen in '79 NFL draft; 10th offensive player and second WR behind Bills' Jerry Butler ... Was fastest Browns' vet at 1985 minicamp in 40-yard dash.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: All-SWC as senior at Houston ... Played in East-West Shrine, Cotton Bowl and Japan Bowl games ... Grabbed 29 passes for 534 yards (18.4 avg.) and scored four TDs in 1978 ... Before transferring to Houston, attended Navarro J.C. where he gained All-America recognition as a WR ... All-state performer in track (sprints) and football at Schulenburg (Tex.) H.S. ... Earned B.S. degree in physical education from Houston in 1982 ... Lives in Houston with wife Natalie Christine, an elementary school teacher, son Willis Jr. (1/21/81) and daughter Natasha (9/12/83) ... Spent six weeks in Cleveland this past offseason working at weight and conditioning program ... Spends a great deal of time repairing and working on cars.

for an 87.5% mark — fourth best single-season mark in NFL history ... Only Mark Moseley (95.24), Stenerud (91.67) and Lou Groza (88.46) have had better seasons ... Concluded '83 campaign by making 17 of 18 FGs and nine straight ... 101 points marked the only time since 1968 a Brown scored over 100 points ... Highlights of 1983 season included four game-ball performances: in Sept. 11 victory over Detroit, 25-yard FG with 1:57 remaining gave Browns an important five-point lead; at San Diego (Sept. 25), 32-yarder with 18 seconds left sent game into OT; 44-yard FG as time expired defeated N.Y. Jets, 10-7 (Oct. 9); and in Oct. 30 OT victory against Oilers, was 4-4 with FGs of 37, 37, 29 and 30 yards (latter FG came with 49 seconds remaining in regulation, tied the score) ... Had string of 78 consecutive PATs halted against Seattle (10/2/83) ... Had these "Kardiac Kids" kicks that decided games for Browns in closing seconds: a 24-yard FG with 43 seconds remaining topped former 49er teammates; and 24-yarder as time expired provided 10-7 triumph over Pats at Cleveland (11/21/82) ... 52-yard FG against Raiders (1/8/83) tied NFL record for longest in postseason play (Lou Groza, 1951 and Curt Knight, 1973) ... Originally drafted by Steelers in sixth round in 1979; released by Pittsburgh during 1981 preseason (Aug. 31); signed as free agent by S.F. (9/8/81); and traded to Cleveland prior to Steeler game at Three Rivers in week six ... Named to UPI's All-Rookie team after finishing 1979 season by making 11 of 12 FGs, including seven in a row ... Pittsburgh's leading scorer first two years with 104 points in 1979 and 96 in 1980 ... Hero of Steelers' 33-30 overtime win over Browns at Three Rivers Stadium (11/25/79) as Bahr booted 21-yard FG to tie game with 24 seconds left in regulation, and won it with 37-yarder with nine seconds left in OT period ... Connected on a 44-yard FG and converted PAT (12/19/82) to help defeat former Steeler teammates, 10-9, in rain and mud at Stadium ... Career postseason stats include: 12-13 PATs and 4-5 FGs ... Can use either foot for onside kicks ... Best single-game performance was 11/25/79 vs. Browns when he scored 15 points (four of five FGs and three PATs); had six PATs against Cleveland Oct. 7, 1979 ... Booted 25 FGs from 40 yards or longer during career, including seven last year and six in 1979 and 1983 ... Handled kickoff duties first nine games of 1983 season while Steve Cox was on non-football illness list ... Moved from 13th to 9th on Browns' all-time scoring list and needs 22 points to move past HOFer Paul Warfield (318) and 34 to surpass Ray Renfro and claim 6th place ... Best performance as a Brown is a 13-point effort vs. Oilers (10/30/83).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Set NCAA records senior year for FGs (22) and FG percentage (.815) ... Scored 191 points for Penn State, third most in school history ... In three years as regular, connected on 39 of 61 (.639), including long of 50; was 74-77 PATs ... Four-year starter for Penn State soccer team and was elected captain senior season ... Smiley (Houston, Tex.) H.S.
Born 10/13/60, Houston, Tex.
D2, 1982

PRO: Started all 16 games at right defensive end in 1984 ... Fought off challenges of Elvis Franks and veteran DE Carl Hairston during '84 training camp to keep his starting role ... Turned in his finest season as a pro, recording 4½ QB sacks (-29 yards), causing two fumbles, knocking down two passes and making 36 total tackles (24 solos) ... Early second-round pick in the 1982 NFL draft, was 31st player taken and fourth defensive lineman selected ... Sack total in 1984 was greater than two of the three chosen ahead of him (only Leo Wisniewski of Colts had more, 7; Glen Collins of Bengals had 3 and Ken Simms of Patriots had 3½) ... Has played in all 41 games since joining the Browns and has started 25 of last 32 games ... Forced a fumble and earned a sack against both Kansas City and Jets last season ... Enters '85 season with 6½ career QB takedowns ... Produced 14 tackles and had one sack (as a starter) in first nine games of 1983 season; added two solo tackles while seeing spot duty the last seven games ... Played primarily as one of four down linemen in passing situations as rookie ... Credited with four tackles and one sack in 1982's shortened season ... First NFL start came in regular season finale at Pittsburgh (1/2/83) when DE Mike Robinson sat out with virus ... Excellent quickness (4.7 in 40) and natural instincts for rushing the passer; has made significant strides since rookie season and Marty Schottenheimer sees a much more confident Baldwin in 1985 ... Has added 20 pounds since end of rookie year through dedicated offseason work.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Aggies' defensive leader senior year as he turned in 21 big plays (eight sacks, three pass deflections and 10 tackles behind line of scrimmage) ... Leading tackler among defensive linemen (91) in 1981 ... Tallied career-high 100 tackles in 1980 while contributing six sacks, forcing three fumbles and recovering one ... Produced 28 tackles resulting in 144 lost yards during career at Texas A&M ... Played in Senior Bowl after AP picked him second-team All-SWC ... Majored in business management ... Played both T and DE at Smiley H.S., where he was track standout (49.5 in 440) ... Is a three-year participant in Browns' offseason weight and conditioning program ... Attended Cleveland State University during past two off-seasons and took classes in business management ... Also found time to visit Europe and England this past offseason ... Single and lives in Cleveland suburb of Lakewood.

PRO: Earned Pro Bowl two of first three seasons ... Although he did not record the big plays and same numbers as first two seasons, "Chip Banks played outstanding in 1984 and remains our most talented defensive player," Marty Schottenheimer said after the 1984 season ... Has started every game (41 straight) since he was the third player selected in the 1982 NFL draft ... One of three number one picks the Browns have playing linebacker in 3-4 defense (OLB Clay Matthews and ILB Tom Cousineau are other two) ... Did not win any postseason honors in 1984 despite earning higher grades from coaches than first two seasons ... Finished fifth on Browns' tackles chart with 102 (66 solos), made 2½ QB sacks, defended four passes, intercepted one, caused one fumble and led the team in fumble recoveries with three ... Finished second on team behind DE Reggie Camp (42) in QB "pressures" with 29 ... Season-high 10 tackles came against Bengals at Stadium ... Recovered fumbles against Seahawks, Broncos and returned fumble 22 yards vs. Saints ... Also forced a fumble and intercepted a pass vs. S.F. 49ers ... Earned the following awards after 1983 season: Pro Bowl (starter); All-NFL by PFWA, Pro Football Weekly and AP; first-team All-AFC by UPI; second-team All-NFL by NEA; and was voted best LB in AFC by NFLPA ... Concluded second season with Browns (1983) tied for team lead in passes defended (10), second in interceptions (3) and third in tackles (97, 70 unassisted); also had four QB sacks, recovered one fumble and forced another ... Earned Pro Football Weekly's NFL defensive player-of-week honor and helped Cleveland to a second straight shutout after returning an interception 65 yards for a TD (seventh LG return in team history) and making two sacks, six solo tackles and knocking down two passes against Patriots (11/20/83) ... Recorded game-high 11 tackles in 1983 season opener (vs. Vikes) and had team-high nine at Houston ... Recovered a fumble at Detroit (9/11/83) ... Credited with 10 tackles and a sack against both Jets and Baltimore ... Also had 22-yard interception return vs. Colts ... First '83 interception came against Bengals (9/15/83) when Banks leaped high into air and snatched with one hand a Ken Anderson bullet at the line of scrimmage ... Intercepted a QB Joe Montana pass in 1984 Pro Bowl (after '83 season) ... Earned game balls after Browns' wins against Cincinnati, New England and Baltimore in 1983 ... As a rookie, playing in his first NFL game, recorded three QB sacks, made four tackles, defended a pass and forced a fumble ... Was unanimous All-NFL Rookie team choice; NFL Defensive Rookie-of-Year as voted by Pro Football Weekly, UPI and AP ... Second-team All-AFC (UPI); AFC Defensive Rookie-of-Year, voted by AFC players and conducted by NFLPA; and Browns' defensive MVP as voted by Cleveland TD Club ... Finished strike-shortened rookie season with team-leading 5½ QB sacks; forced team-high two fumbles, and totaled 56 tackles (41 initial hits) — fourth on team ... Returned first NFL interception 14 yards vs. Steelers (1/3/83) ... Third number one pick of Browns from USC in five-year period — Clay Matthews (1978) and Charles White (1980) are other two ... Only fourth Cleveland Brown to gain Pro Bowl honors as a rookie (Jim Brown, 1957; Paul Warfield, 1964; and Greg Pruitt, 1973 were first three). COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A Trojan co-captain, Banks earned first-team All-America honors as senior and third-team selection as a junior ... Led USC in tackles both junior (107) and senior (123) seasons ... Played inside 'backer entire senior year and outside in eight of 11 games as junior ... As a junior, had 15 tackles for losses, including eight QB sacks, two interceptions, 10 passes deflected, two fumble recoveries and made career-high 20 tackles against Oregon ... Had three interceptions and recovered two fumbles in 1981 ... Concluded USC stint in Fiesta Bowl against Penn State with 14 tackles and 20-yard TD interception ... Three-year All-PAC 10 team member ... Started two games inside for 1978 Trojan national championship team as freshman ... Majored in political science at USC ...  Born 2/15/62, Bloomfield, Mich.

PLAYERS

 D4b, 1984

PRO: Despite breaking a bone in his hand against the Steelers (week four) and missing considerable playing time, the fourth-round draft choice recorded the most catches by a rookie wide receiver (35 for 455 yards) since HOFer Paul Warfield grabbed club-record 52 in 1964 ... Missed the following game (at Kansas City), but played in remaining 11 and started three ... Earned a starting role against Pittsburgh (9/23) after five-catch performance (75 yards) at Rams and seven-reception, 84-yard (both career highs) effort vs. Broncos (9/16) on national TV ... Scored first two touchdowns (14 and 7 yards) vs. Oilers (11/25) ... Also had a 21-yard TD grab against Bengals (12/2) ... Closed out initial season with 17 receptions for 161 yards and three TDs in last five games ... Longest catch was a 52-yarder against Super Bowl Champ 49ers in the fourth quarter ... Finished second on team in receptions to TE Ozzie Newsome's 89 ... Brennan's 35 catches are most by any rookie receiver since Newsome had 38 as a rookie in 1978 ... Leading Browns' punt returner with 25 for 199 for 8.0 avg. ... 104th player selected in 1984 draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Finished career at Boston College holding all the school's receiving records ... Three-year totals included: 115 receptions for 2,180 yards (19.0 avg.) and 14 TDs ... Earned second-team All-America honors (from AP, UPI and Football News) as senior when he caught 66 for 1,149, including eight TDs ... Main target of former B.C. QB Doug Flutie ... Against Penn State, pulled in school-record 12 passes for 173 yards and scored two TDs ... Missed most of junior season with a fractured collarbone and caught only 12 passes for 305 yards (25.4 avg.) ... Eagles' leading receiver sophomore season (37 for 726, 19.6 avg., three TDs) ... Earned Harry Agganis award as outstanding senior player in New England and voted region's top offensive player (George "Bulger Lowe" Award) by Boston's Gridiron Club ... 1981 and 1983 seasons on injured reserve ... Started first two games at strong safety in 1983, missed two games with a thigh injury, played some nickel vs. Seattle (week five), started games 6-14, but broke his right arm at Denver and missed last two contests of that season ... Won starting free safety position in 1981, but was sidelined in season's second game (Houston) with a knee injury and spent remainder of campaign on injured reserve ... Despite missing four games in 1983, finished eighth in tackles (57, 44 solos), caused a pair of fumbles, defended nine passes and recovered one fumble ... At Green Bay (11/6/83), stole first pass of season, recovered a fumble and forced one ... Has started at three different secondary positions (CB, FS and SS) since joining Cleveland as a sixth-round draft choice in 1979 ... Found a home at strong safety in 1982, starting all nine games ... Led team in fumble recoveries (four), had a pair of sacks and forced fumbles, intercepted one pass and finished sixth on tackles chart with 44 (29 unassisted) ... Four fumble recoveries in single season are second only to DE Len Ford's club record of five during 12-game 1954 season ... Set stage for victory at Houston (12/26/82), when he recovered his second Earl Campbell fumble of the day, this one on Oiler one-yard line with 5:47 to play and Browns trailing, 14-13, to help lift Cleveland into playoffs for second time in three-year period ... Scored only TD of NFL career at Cincinnati (12/12/82) when he picked off a QB Ken Anderson aerial and sprinted 14 yards for the score ... Starting right cornerback for 13 games in 1980, intercepting five passes, second best on team ... Had two each against Tampa Bay and at Pittsburgh, and a fifth in 17-14 win over NY Jets ... Played in nickel passing situations and was tough contributor to special teams during rookie year (1979) ... Was 151st player selected in 1979 NFL draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Played in just one game last 2½ years at LSU as result of two knee operations ... Redshirted in 1977 ... Still managed nine career interceptions and doubled as a punt returner ... Named to All-SWC squad in 1976 as a junior ... Tied school record in 1976 with three interceptions against Tulane ... Earned B.S. degree in business administration in 1978 ... Three-year letter winner in football and basketball, and lettered one season each in baseball and track as a prepster ... Played both flanker and defensive back at Franklin (La.) H.S. ...  Baldwin (Milledgeville, Ga.) H.S.
 Born 9/15/62, Milledgeville, Ga.
 D10, 1984

PRO: Last player the Browns selected in the 1984 NFL draft, Byner increased his playing time as the year progressed until closing out his rookie season as an integral part of the team's offense ... His 5.9-yard per carry average (426 yards on 72 attempts) was highest among any AFC running back and second in NFL to Saints' Hokie Gajan's 6.0 average ... Byner's 188 yards rushing (21 carries) at Houston in season finale is the second highest total ever by a Cleveland rookie and the most by a Browns' RB since Greg Pruitt had 191 in 1976 (HOFer Jim Brown had a rookie club-record 237 in 1957) ... Only seven rushing performances in team history are better than his 188 ... 54-yard run at Houston was LG of season and longest since Mike Pruitt went 56 yards for a TD vs. Bears in 1980 ... After playing mostly special teams first nine games (eight carries for 28 yards), burst onto the scene in Buffalo when he scooped up a WR Willis Adams fumble and rambled 55 yards for game-winning TD in the fourth quarter ... Also gained 58 yards rushing, including 46 yards on five carries in the second quarter ... 55-yard fumble return is second LG in Browns' history (Don Paul's 89-yarder in 1957 is longer) ... Rushing stats last seven games were: 64 attempts for 398 yards, 6.2-yard per carry average and scored two rushing TDs ... On special teams, contributed 14 tackles (10 unassisted) and led the team in kickoff returns with 22 for 415 yards ... At Pittsburgh (12/9/84), cracked century mark rushing for first time when he gained 103 yards on 15 carries ... Byner was only back in 1984 to gain over 100 yards against Steelers' defense ... Played in all 16 games, starting three (New Orleans, Buffalo and Atlanta) ... Added 11 receptions for 118 yards ... Head coach Marty Schottenheimer describes Earnest as "Versatile, all-purpose back who catches the ball well, is exceptional blocker and an exciting runner" ... Was the 280th player chosen in 1984's NFL draft ... Expected to challenge for a great deal of playing time in 1985.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Leading rusher on 8-3 Pirates' team that lost to national champ Miami (led by QB Bernie Kosar) by five points, Florida by seven and Greg Allen's Florida State, 47-46 ... Three-year starter at FB ... Finished career (lettered four years) as eighth-leading rusher in school's history (Pro Bowler Tony Collins ranks fourth with 2,207 yards) ... One of eight players from East Carolina drafted by NFL in 1984 ... Career totals included: 378 carries, 2,049 yards for a 5.4 avg., 11 TDs rushing, 22 receptions for 208 yards, and two TDs ... Senior season gained 862 yards, averaging 5.0 yards per carry ... 1983 AP All-America honorable mention, first-team All-South Independent and first-team E.C.A.C. Div. I-A ... Majored in physical education ... Played four positions during high school football career (QB, TB, S and LB) ... Gained more than 1,000 yards rushing as a junior ... Earned all-state, all-county and all-city honors ... Long jumped over 23' ... Has two brothers and two sisters ... Lives in North Olmsted (Cleveland suburb) with wife Tina and their two daughters: Semeria (11/28/82) and Adrian Monique (9/28/84).

6'4", 270 lbs., 3rd Year

California

Jefferson (S. San Francisco, Calif.) H.S.

Born 2/28/61, San Francisco, Calif.

D3, 1983

PRO: Development into a consistent, quality defensive end continued in 1984 as Camp recorded a team-high 14 sacks — most by a Browns' player since Bill Glass had a club-record 14½ in 1965 ... Stepped right in as a rookie at left DE and has been a starter ever since (32 straight games) ... Finished second NFL season with 13 QB takedowns in final 12 games, including at least one sack in five straight games (weeks 11-15) ... Camp's 9½ sacks in second-half of '84 season was third highest total among all NFL defensive players from game 9-16 (only Bears' Richard Dent, 12½, and Patriots' Andre Tippett, 12, had more) ... Against the Oilers at the Stadium last year, Camp had the best day of career registering career-high totals in sacks (three), tackles (seven) and passes defended (three) ... Also added a forced fumble ... Had 2½ sacks against both New England and New Orleans ... His 125½ lost yards as result of his 14 sacks broke Joe "Turkey" Jones' single-season mark of 120 lost yards ... Already ranks 11th on the Browns' all-time sack list with 18½ ... Needs seven to surpass Lyle Alzado's three-year total of 24½ and move into 8th place ... Led all defensive linemen with 61 total tackles last year (46 solos), and finished seventh on team ... Recovered first fumble of career at Kansas City (9/30) ... In 1983, produced 52 tackles (31 unassisted) and 4½ sacks (second on team and first among down linemen) ... Started against Raiders (fourth preseason game) and never relinquished role ... Beat out veteran DEs Mike Robinson and Marshall Harris when he led team in sacks during preseason (five) ... 68th player selected overall in 1983 draft and seventh defensive lineman.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Bears' top QB sacker both junior and senior years (six and eight, respectively) ... Credited with 82 tackles as senior when named California's MVP on defensive line ... Started last 22 games as collegian ... Most productive game in college was against Oregon when he had 23 tackles and two sacks ... Earned second-team All-PAC 10 honors and played in Blue-Gray and East-West Shrine games after senior season ... Majored in sociology and would like to become a probation officer or social worker after football ... Always had a childhood dream of playing in the NFL ... Enjoys working with youth and is a willing volunteer for charitable events ... Married (Paula) and they have one child — Reginald Louis Jr. (9/24/84) ... Lives in Cleveland suburb of Bratenahl.

6'5", 270 lbs., 3rd Year
Penn State
Belle Vernon (Pa.) H.S.
Born 5/12/61, Belle Vernon, Pa.
D5, 1983

PRO: Browns' starting right tackle for nine games last year until a knee injury sidelined him at Pittsburgh (12/9) ... Placed on injured reserve 12/12 ... Missed only one game, but rehabilitation on knee did not begin until cast came off in mid-February ... Hopes to be 100% by mid-season ... Played in 15 games last year, earning starting assignments in weeks 2, 3 and 9-15 ... When Contz did not start at RT, he spotted Doug Dieken at LT ... Played some guard against Houston (11/25) and played center during preseason ... Did not play tackle position until both Cody Risien (last preseason game) and Paul Farren (season opener) were injured ... Played RT balance of opener in Seattle and started vs. Rams and Broncos until Farren returned from hip injury ... Returned to a starting role when Marty Schottenheimer became head coach (10/22) ... Returned one kickoff for 15 yards last year ... Made debut during rookie year spelling veteran Dieken at left tackle throughout season for a number of series each game ... Saw considerable action on line in second game of pro career (at Detroit) ... Was one of three draft picks from 1983 to make team as offensive lineman (Paul Farren and Thomas Hopkins were other two) ... Played in all 16 games in 1983 and saw a great deal of playing time on all the Browns' special teams (returned one kickoff for three yards) ... Started two games in rookie preseason at LT ... A fifth-round choice, was the 122nd player selected in 1983.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Starting left tackle last 24 games at Penn State when Nittany Lions earned 21-3 record, including a 10-1 1982 national championship ... Helped Lions offense produce a 422.9 yards per game average senior season (1982) ... Consistently graded out well on both run and pass plays during collegiate career ... Was the only returning starter on offensive line as senior ... Prior to senior year, was considered a potential starter on defensive line because of his combination of speed and strength ... Second-team AP All East in 1982 ... Played in East-West Shrine game ... Junior year played alongside three future NFLers: Mike Munchak (Houston), Sean Farrell (Tampa Bay) and Jim Romano (Raiders) ... All-state honoree in football at Belle Vernon (Pa.) H.S., where he was also a basketball (center) standout ... Earned B.S. degree in business logistics in 1983 ... Enjoys playing golf and basketball ... Participant in Browns' offseason weight and conditioning program past two years ... Lives in North Royalton ... Single.

KICKOFF RETURNS (2): 1983 — one for three yards; 1984 — one for 15 yards.

PRO: Fell two tackles short of leading the Browns in tackles for a third straight year, but still managed career-high 170 stops and continued to gain postseason honors as one of NFL's outstanding 'backers in 1984 ... First-team All-AFC by UPI and second-team All-NFL by AP ... Recorded game-high totals three times last year: 12 tackles vs. Jets; 11 vs. Oilers at Stadium; and 12 at Pittsburgh ... Led the Browns in tackles three other contests: vs.

PLAYERS

Steelers (12); at Buffalo (8); and at Houston (8) ... Against 49ers, tied previous career-best with 15 tackles and also recovered a fumble ... Forced fumbles at Seattle and at Cincinnati; two interceptions were against Rams and Broncos; and defended four passes in 1984 ... Interception vs. Broncos and fumble recovery vs. Steelers (week 4) both led to TDs for Browns ... Tallied double-figure tackle totals in nine games ... Browns' leader in five 1983 defensive categories: total tackles (138); solos (87); assists (51); interceptions (4); and opponents' fumbles recovered (2) ... Added four QB sacks for 41 lost yards, defended nine passes and forced two fumbles ... Earned first-team honors on USA Today's All-NFL squad and UPI's All-AFC team; picked second-team All-NFL by NEA and voted MVP on defense by Cleveland TD Club ... Named HBO's NFL Defensive Player-of-Week for performances against Patriots (two interceptions, six tackles, two passes defended) and Jets (15 tackles, one interception and one fumble recovered) ... Pro Football Weekly also cited him for Jets game ... Voted a game ball for effort at N.E. ... Credited with an "assist" two of last three times opposing QBs have thrown interceptions that were returned for TDs: Solid tackle of Pat QB Steve Grogan caused errant pass that OLB Chip Banks returned 65 yards for a score (11/20/83) and applied pressure that forced Bengal QB Ken Anderson to throw TD interception to SS Clinton Burrell (12/12/82) ... Was Browns' leading tackler in seven games in 1983, including stretch of six straight at midseason ... Has attained double-figure totals in tackles in 17 of his 41 NFL games .. Despite having NFL learning process interrupted by strike rookie year (1982), led Browns with 46 unassisted tackles and 72 total, 12 more than runnerup Dick Ambrose (team leader five previous seasons) ... Was leading tackler for defense in five of nine games ... Intercepted first pass of NFL career at Dallas (11/25/82) ... Originally the Buffalo Bills' and NFL's No. 1 choice in the 1979 draft, but opted to sign with Montreal of Canadian Football League ... Played in CFL from 1979-81, where he was described as best defensive player in last ten years ... Played both inside and outside linebacker ... Named Alouettes' rookie-of-year and selected as outstanding defensive player in 1979 Grey Cup ... In 1980, playing exclusively in middle, produced 227 tackles, five sacks, forced three fumbles, intercepted one pass, recovered a fumble and then was awarded trophy as best defensive player in Eastern Division ... Missed all but two games of final CFL season as result of dislocated elbow ... Received offer sheet from Houston Oilers (4/19/82), which was matched by Buffalo, which then traded "Cooz" to Cleveland for a first-round choice in 1983, third in '84 and fifth in '85 ... Fulfilled his own triple crown: local athlete who gains prep All-America honors, advances to collegiate stardom for state team and finally fulfills childhood dream of playing for his hometown team — the Browns.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Two-time All-America linebacker for Ohio State, Tom played in 47 games and was three-year starter for Woody Hayes ... Led Buckeyes in tackles as a sophomore (184) and as a senior with 227 (18.9 avg.) ... Had 631 career stops (360 unassisted), an average of 13.5 per game ... Recipient of Cleveland TD Club's Collegiate Player of Year award in 1978; also won high school award in 1974 ... Voted defensive MVP of 1977 Orange Bowl and 1979 Hula Bowl ... Earned B.A. degree in marketing from OSU in 1979 ... Was one of USA's most recruited players following his senior year at St. Eds H.S., located in westside suburb of Lakewood ... State finalist in wrestling as both junior and senior ... H.S. honor student ... One of the strongest Browns, Tom has been a dedicated weight lifter since junior high school ... Is not only fast (4.7 in 40), but also has endurance (clocked the mile in 5:20) ... Local honorary chairman for Muscular Dystrophy Association and has worked with numerous other organizations, including U.S. Army and Cleveland Playhouse Foundation ... Three-time participant in Browns' off-season weight and conditioning program ... Worked with NT Bob Golic in pit crew for "Indy-type" racecar driver Scott Brayton during 1984 offseason ... In 1985 drove pace cars in PPG's Indy car world series circuit ... Lives in Cleveland suburb of Rocky River ... Single.

KICKER/PUNTER

6'4", 195 lbs., 5th Year
 Arkansas
 Charleston (Ark.) H.S.
 Born 5/11/58, Shreveport, La.
 D5, 1981

PRO: Cox's 43.4-yard gross punting average in 1984 is the fifth highest single-season average in Browns' history and the highest in 19 years (Gary Collins averaged a club-record 46.7 in 1965) ... Also connected on two big boots last year: 60-yard field goal at Cincinnati broke his own club record and ranks as the second longest in NFL history; and last punt of '84 season, 69-yarder at Houston, ranks as a pro best and ninth LG in Browns' history ...

Finished season ranked fourth among AFC punters in gross average ... Had two blocked punts in 1984 (five for career) — season opener at Seattle and Bengal game at Cleveland Stadium ... Pro Football Weekly voted Cox the Golden Toe Award for his 60-yard FG ... Three-pointer came with :28 left in first half and gave Cleveland a 6-6 tie; also missed a 52-yard attempt (wide right), but had five punts for a 47-yard avg. that day. Only Tom Dempsey's 63-yard FG in 1970 is longer than Steve's 60 ... One of just two straight-ahead kickers in NFL, Steve now owns two of the NFL's six LG field goals ever made ... Averaged the goal line while handling kickoff duties first 11 games of 1984 season (35 KOs) ... Topped his previous best day punting from week 15 at Pittsburgh (five punts for a 49.8 avg.), when he had punts of 55, 44, 44 and 69 for a 53.0 avg. at Houston in season finale ... Raised career punting average from 41.0 to 42.0 during '84 campaign ... Did not have a punting touchback from game 8-13 ... 16 punts inside 20-yard line last season was a career high ... Executed fake punt perfectly at Atlanta when he threw a 16-yard pass completion to WR Ricky Feacher for a first down (first quarter) ... Missed first nine games of 1983 season because of brain surgery, but came back to handle KO duties (week 10) and drilled a then record-setting 58-yard FG at Denver (12/4/83) ... Tied with K.C.'s Nick Lowery for LG in NFL during 1983 season ... Complained of headaches and blurred vision night of Raiders' preseason game (8/26/83); and later had surgery to remove a blockage from his brain to his spinal cord (Aug. 31) ... Medical term for disfunction is "internal hydrocephalus" ... Placed on non-football illness list 8/30 and was activated (11/2) prior to Packer game ... Outstanding rookie season (42.4 avg.) ranked fourth in AFC and at time was best by a Brown since Don Cockroft's 43.2 in 1972 ... Slipped during shortened '82 season and averaged 39.1 yards per punt, good for eighth in AFC, tied with Raiders' Ray Guy ... Best performance in '82 was in playoff loss to Raiders when he punted six times for a 48.5 avg., breaking Browns' playoff record ... Only player in NFL who handles punting chores and also attempts FGs ... Busiest day of career came at Dallas (11/25/82) when he punted nine times (for 43.7 avg.) ... Right-footed conventional kicker ... Kickoffs in rookie year averaged one-foot outside goal line ... LG punt of rookie year was 66-yarder at S.F. (11/15/81) ... Only 54.2% of punts have been returned during career and his 154 career kickoffs have averaged 1.1-yard line ... Enters 1985 season ranked third and fifth on Browns' all-time average and number of punts list, respectively ... Drafted in the fifth round of 1981 draft and 134th player taken.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: NCAA punting champ with a 46.5 average in 1980 ... Played first two years at Tulsa, kicking three FGs freshman season to spark Golden Hurricanes to 9-3 upset over his eventual alma mater, Arkansas ... Voted All-Missouri Valley twice at Tulsa before transferring to Arkansas and sitting out 1978 season ... Allowed only 28 of 106 KOs to be returned and established Razorback record with 45.2 career punting average ... LG punt in college was 86 yards ... Earned All-America honors from Football News (second team), College and Pro Football Weekly (second team) and UPI and Sporting News (both honorable mention) ... Played in Sugar Bowl, Hall of Fame Game and Independence Bowl ... High school All America in football ... Longest FG as prepster was 52 yards as a junior ... Earned ten high school letters in football (K, P and WR), basketball (guard) and track (high jump) ... Averaged nearly 20 points/game his senior year in basketball ... Six-time regional punt, pass and kick winner (ages 8-13) and twice national finalist ... Earned B.S. degree in banking and finance in 1982 ... Works at a bank during offseason in Jonesboro, Ark. ... Wife's name is Virginia (6/27/81).

Divine Child (Dearborn, Mich.) H.S.

Born 9/10/51, Detroit, Mich.

T, 1985

PRO: Obtained from the Lions 5/1/85 (day after NFL draft) for an undisclosed draft choice ... A true free agent success story, Danielson joins the Browns fresh from his finest season as a pro ... In 1984, he completed a club record 252 passes of 410 attempts for 3,076 yards ... His 61.5 completion percentage was also a club mark ... Was working in a sheet metal plant when the Lions signed him as a free agent in 1976 ... Finished his career in Detroit as the third-leading quarterback in club history in four statistical categories behind Hall of Famer Bobby Layne and new Browns' QB tutor Greg Landry

... During his eight years as a Lion (86 games played and 52 starts), accumulated the following stats: 952 passes completed, 1,684 passes attempted for 11,885 yards, 69 TDs and 71 interceptions ... Despite missing the 1984 season finale (Eric Hipple started), concluded career just five completions, 63 attempts, 11 TDs and 572 yards away from Landry's second-place marks ... Career rushing totals include 156 carries for 728 yards (4.7 avg.) and seven rushing TDs, including a career high three in 1984 ... Is the only Detroit QB to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season ... Set the single-season mark with 3,223 in 1980 and surpassed that again last season ... Caught a 22-yard TD pass from FB Joe Jones in '84 ... Career-high 83.1 QB rating last year ranked 10th best in NFL and 6th among NFC signal callers ... Did not start a regular season game in 1983, but subbed for Hipple in 10 of the 16 games and started for the injured Hipple in the 49er playoff game (12/31) ... Completed 24 of 38 for 236 yards, including four of five in the final seconds, as he moved the Lions into FG range before an Ed Murray 43-yarder was wide right (Detroit lost, 24-23) ... Almost brought Lions back vs. Browns (9/11/83) when he completed 10 of 17 for 126 yards (one TD) in second half of (31-26) Cleveland win ... Fine relief efforts gave him starting job in the fifth game of 1982 as he led Detroit in passing for the third time in five seasons ... Included in his 10 TD passes was a 70-yarder to WR Leonard Thompson against Minnesota, 12/19 (347 yards passing in that contest is fifth highest total in team history and Gary's third best) ... Started the first four games of '81 season before injuring his hand against Oakland (9/27) ... On injured reserve with broken wrist, 10/8 through 11/24/81 ... Returned to play in final two games ... Set Detroit records for passes attempted (417) and passing yards (3,223) while starting all 16 games in 1980 ... Finest career game was 12/14/80, when he completed 29 of 44 for 360 yards (3rd best in team history) ... This followed his sitting out entire 1979 campaign with knee injury ... Was NFC's fifth-leading QB in '80 with an 82.6 rating ... Threw 13 TD passes and only surrendered 11 thefts, lowest among NFC starting QBs ... In 1978, came off the bench to lead Lions to six victories in their last nine contests ... Although he did not start until 10/8, tossed 18 TDs in last 11 starts to tie for fourth on the all-time single-season list ... A club-record five came against Minnesota during a 45-14 victory in week 15 ... First two starts of career occurred in 1977 ... Played in all 14 games that season, but was strictly a holder in first 12 ... Appeared in only one game (as a holder) his rookie year in 1976 ... Originally signed as a free agent by New York Stars of the WFL in 1974 ... Traded by Charlotte Hornets to Chicago Winds (1975) before league folded in 1976 ... Of the 17 QBs drafted in 1974, the year Danielson was by-passed in the NFL draft, only Danny White of the Cowboys, remains active in the NFL.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Passed for 2,748 yards in three seasons (1,467 as junior) for Purdue, including 14 TD passes ... Also rushed for five TDs ... Captain of North squad in annual Shrine game as a senior ... Earned B.A. degree in business management and masters in sports administration from Purdue ... A native of Detroit ... Led Dearborn Divine Child H.S. football team to Michigan state championship in 1968 ... Worked as a sportscaster with Detroit's WDIV-TV (NBC) during the 1982, '83 and '84 off-seasons ... Was also the co-chairman and co-host eight years for the Easter Seals Telethon and worked two years as an automobile manufacturer representative ... After acquired in trade, commuted back and forth during '85 off-season between Troy, Mich. and Cleveland ... Gary and his wife Kristy have four children: Kelly (11/26/77); Matt (6/18/79); Tracy (8/30/81); and Molly (3/20/83) ... Kristy's father (George King Jr.) is the Athletic Director at Purdue.

WIDE RECEIVER

85

5'8", 160 lbs., 2nd Year

Baylor

Roosevelt (Dallas, Tex.) H.S.

Born 2/25/63, Dallas, Tex.

D2b, 1984

PRO: As a 21-year-old rookie last year, showed signs of possessing all the tools needed to be a starting receiver in NFL ... Played in 14 games and started one ... Caught first pro pass in week nine against Saints (six yards) and pulled down first career TD reception (18 yards) late in 49ers game (11/11) ... Finished that game with career-high totals of four catches for 64 yards ... Following week at Atlanta showed he can provide "burner" speed at receiver when he caught a pass over the middle, darted outside and out-ran defense to the end zone (43-yard TD) ... Earned a starting role the next week vs. Oilers, but was sidelined most of the game with a sprained ankle ... Finished rookie campaign with seven receptions for 119 yards and two TDs ... Also returned 18 kickoffs for a 20.5 average ... Longest return was 40 yards vs. Cincinnati (10/21/84) ... Second of two, second-round draft picks in 1984; was the 50th player taken overall and eighth wide receiver ... Youngest veteran on team (22 years old) ... Expected to challenge for a starting assignment in 1985.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Was one-half of Baylor's "Mighty Might" receiving corps ... Teamed with Gerald McNeil (a Browns' 1984 supplemental selection) to form one of the smallest, but most productive WR combination in collegiate football history ... First-team All-SWC as voted by players, Dallas Times-Herald and Waco Tribune, and second-team All-SWC (AP and UPI) ... Was considered college football's fastest player in 1983 ... Personal best of 6.11 in the 60-yard dash (track time) ... Broke loose for 99-yard kickoff return for TD vs. SMU (school record) ... Finished second in SWC receiving in 1983 with 42 receptions for 755 yards (17.9 avg. lead team) and eight TDs ... Caught LG Baylor TD reception (69 yards) of season against Rice ... Played in Bluebonnet contest against Browns' other second-round draft choice in 1984, Chris Rockins (Oklahoma State) ... As a junior, finished fourth in '83 NCAA Indoor Track Championships in 60 (6.11) ... Set Baylor record in 100-meter dash with a 10.16 clocking, winning 1984 SWC title ... One scouting combine clocked him in 4.21 seconds in 40-yard dash ... Finished three-year career with 71 catches for 1,393 yards (19.6 avg.) and scored 13 TDs ... Also added 40 career KO returns for 916 yards (22.9 avg.) and scored one TD ... Majored in radio and TV ... In 1980, broke world record for 17-year olds in the 60 (6.17) ... Qualified for 1984 Olympic Trials in 100 meters, but passed up trials to play with Browns ... As a RB in high school, led team to 9-1 record and earned all-district and all-Greater Dallas honors ... Best H.S. time in 100-yard dash was 9.3 ... Helped lead Roosevelt (Dallas, Tex.) H.S. to state track champion-

BRUCE DAVIS ON BEING SHORT: "No matter where I've played, people have always questioned me about my height. It was that way in high school, at Baylor and now with the Browns. I think it's all in the mind. There are short receivers in the NFL, at Miami and Washington and check their numbers. I try to be a positive thinker and get negative things out of my mind. When the ball is thrown toward me, it's more mine than it is the defensive back's."

6'1", 235 lbs., 8th Year

Alabama

Lanier (Montgomery, Ala.) H.S.

Born 7/17/56, Montgomery, Ala.

FA, 1982

PRO: Voted by teammates the coveted "Captain's Award" after the 1984 season; the honor salutes the player who best exemplifies what a Browns' player should be ... Unselfish, hard-working and always smiling, "B-1" carried the ball just three times last year, but played in all 16 games (started four) ... Always prepared, Davis is the reason the Browns were successful in short-yardage situations in 1984 — Davis blocked and FB Mike Pruitt carried ...

Three carries in '84 netted 15 yards and scored on a two-yard plunge at Houston in season finale (second TD as a Brown) ... Is also a member of the wedge on kickoff returns ... Davis on his nickname: "I like to block. I don't consider it a good one unless I knock the other guy down. I guess that's why they call me B-1. They say it's like dropping the bomb" ... Longest carry of 1983 season was a 16-yard gallop at Detroit (9/11) ... Finished second season with Browns with 13 carries for 42 yards and five receptions for 20 yards ... Saw action in all 16 games, primarily in short-yardage, but did start three games ... Acquired by Cleveland as free agent with five games remaining in 1982 season (12/1/82) ... Played in two games, both against Steelers ... One-yard TD plunge, only his second carry as a Brown, secured 10-9 victory over Pittsburgh (12/19/82) ... Originally the 30th player selected in 1978 draft, Davis played three years with Tampa Bay ... While with the Bucs, gained 721 yards and scored six TDs ... Slowed by ankle injury last season with Tampa (1980); was traded to San Francisco (8/31/81) in exchange for RB James Owens ... Finished 49ers' Super Bowl season as third-leading scorer and third-best rusher with 42 points and 297 yards, respectively ... Played in all 19 games (five as a starter), though he played on special teams in five contests ... Tallied TDs in seven games, including each of first four contests he played in as a fullback ... Best performance with 49ers was 65-yard, one-TD effort against Packers (10/18/81) ... Highlight in drive to Super Bowl was in NFC championship game when he carried football just once, a two-yard TD against Dallas (1/10/82) ... Rushed twice for five yards in Super Bowl XVI ... Released by S.F. (8/31/82).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Gained 2,519 yards on 447 carries for 19 TDs in four seasons under late Bear Bryant ... Crimson Tide's leading rusher from 1975-1977 ... Rushed for 931 yards in 1977 as senior ... Finished career as third all-time rusher behind Johnny Musso and Bobby Marlow ... Second-team All-SEC as sophomore and first-team senior season ... Earned B.S. degree in recreation and park management in 1978 ... Captain and played in Senior Bowl ... Named Schoolboy All America when he rushed for 1,139 yards as senior at Lanier (Ala.) H.S. ... Best single-game effort as prepster was 187 yards ... Played both FB and LB ... Studied with University of Alabama jazz ensemble and performed with University Gospel Choir ... Accomplished piano player, won rookie talent competition at Bucs' training camp in 1978 ... Plays every Sunday at Cleveland Church of Christ ... Began playing piano in ninth grade because choir was already filled with his nine brothers and sisters ... Very active in church activities and in Fellowship of Christian Athletes ... Participant each of last three offseasons at Browns' weight and conditioning program ... Full name is Johnny Lee Davis ... Reunited with former Tide teammate and close friend Ozzie Newsome after signing with Browns ... When Johnny married Clevelander Terri Thompson (6/29/82), Newsome was best man ... Lives year-round in Richmond Heights, O. ... Worked last two off-seasons with father-in-law (George Thompson) at his real estate firm, while also taking classes toward real estate license.

(first time in pro career) ... Started 150th game of NFL career at Green Bay (11/6/83) ... Voted second-team All-NFL by AP after 1983 performance ... Has played in every game (175) since Buffalo chose him in first round of 1973 draft (26th player overall, fourth offensive lineman and second guard taken — John Hannah was first) ... Played seven of 12 seasons with Buffalo (1973-1979) ... Only three non-starts of career came as a Brown after he was traded for a second-round pick in 1981 and third in '82 ... Named UPI and Football Digest All Rookie after helping pave way as member of Bills' "Electric Company" for O.J. Simpson's 2,003-yards, then an NFL record season ... After an outstanding sophomore season in 1974, began receiving honors in 1975 (first trip to Pro Bowl, All Pro and All-AFC) ... Consensus All Pro in 1976; selected by Wisconsin Pro Football Writers as "Offensive Lineman of Year" ... Continued with All-Pro honors through 1977, 1978, 1979 and 1980 (with Browns) ... Finished career in Buffalo with 102 straight regular season starts ... Played in three playoff games (two with Browns and one with Bills).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: 1972 All America and three-time All-Big Ten selection for Duffy Daugherty's Spartans ... Invited to play in North-South Shrine, Senior Bowl and College All-Star games ... Earned B.S. degree in criminal justice from MSU in 1973 ... Academic All-Big Ten ... Recruited to Michigan State as a fullback after gaining 1,000 yards and scoring 13 TDs in just eight games senior year in high school ... Earned all-state honors as a FB and All America as a guard ... Named to same All-America Catholic squad as new teammate and former prep rival, Gary Danielson ... Played forward in basketball and ran 100-yard dash and threw shot put on track team ... Won NFLPA's racquetball tourney in 1979 ... Name pronounced Deh-Lah-meh-LURE ... Is second youngest from a family of ten and wife Gerri (Smith) comes from a family of eight ... They have five children: Ellen (7/25/73), Mary (9/3/76), twins Todd and Alison (1/31/79), and Andrew (2/26/85) ... Owns a printing shop in North Olmsted (a suburb of Cleveland) ... Took several history courses at UNC at Charlotte this offseason, plus worked on his real estate license ... Lives in Charlotte during offseason and Middleburg Heights during season ... Out-of-season workout regimen is as intense as any among the Browns ... Works out all but two days of every year (Christmas and Easter).

PLAYERS

the Browns in two defensive categories in 1984: 22 passes defended were eight more than second-place SS Al Gross; and his career-high five interceptions tied Gross for team lead ... Finished '84 with 61 total tackles (seventh on the Browns' tackle chart), 45 unassisted, and one fumble recovery ... Increased career interception total against Steelers to five when he stole two more at Pittsburgh (12/9/84) ... Had four passes defended in first Steeler game (week 4) and was voted a game ball for his aggressive style of play ... Added interceptions last season against Rams, Atlanta and Houston (11/25) ... Recovered first fumble of career at Cincinnati (10/21/84) ... Four of his five aerial thefts in 1984 led to three FGs and a TD ... Had team-high seven tackles at Cin. ... Has been the Browns' leader in passes defended in each of the past three seasons: 10 in 1983 (tied with Chip Banks) and 11 in 1982 ... In 1983, was leading tackler among defensive backs with 83 (68 solos); finished fifth overall ... Added three interceptions, including two (for 38 yards returned) at New England during Browns' 30-0 blanking of Pats ... First of three thefts in '83 came at Detroit (9/11) ... Had a career-high 10 tackles vs. Vikings in season opener and his eight solo stops at Green Bay (11/6/83) won game-high honors ... Earned a game ball for outstanding play in Browns' OT win at San Diego ... Most productive game of career came against Steelers at Cleveland Stadium (12/19/82) when his club-record (tied with five others) three interceptions (off Terry Bradshaw) sparked Cleveland defense to important 10-9 win ... In addition to the first three thefts of career, Dixon also forced a pair of fumbles, made five tackles, had a QB sack and defended a fourth pass; earned NFL defensive player-of-week honors from HBO and Pro Football Weekly ... Gained his fourth interception of nine-game '82 season following week at Houston and added his fifth in four games in Raiders' playoff game (1/8/83) ... Ended 1982 season tied with CB Lawrence Johnson in interceptions (four) and his 49 tackles (nine games) were two more than entire 16-game total of 1981 ... Started last 14 games of rookie season after he replaced L. Johnson at RCB in third game of season at Cin. ... Blocked a FG and PAT in 1981 ... Earned first-team All-Rookie honors by Football Digest (over Everson Walls), marking the first Browns' defensive player chosen to all-rookie team since Clarence Scott was picked in 1971 ... 22nd player and third CB taken in 1981 NFL draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Regarded as best pure cornerback in draft by a number of scouting services after an outstanding senior season (All America by Sporting News and All-South Independent selection in 1981) ... Four-year USM letterman whose career stats included 188 tackles (127 solos) and nine interceptions ... Directed Golden Eagle secondary, which allowed just 99.4 yards passing per game ... Played well in both Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray games ... Majored in athletic administration and coaching ... Earned high school letters in football (3), basketball (3) and track (1) ... All conference as a WR and CB ... Born Christmas Day, 1958 ... Active in numerous local charitable organizations ... Lives in Lakewood during season ... Made Cleveland year-round home after rookie season, but split time this past off-season between Cleveland, Virginia Beach and hometown of Theodore, Ala. ... Single.

PRO: Gained a great deal of playing experience against the best defensive ends in the business last season after RT Cody Risien was lost for year in preseason finale ... Started his first NFL game against Seahawks' DE Jacob Green ... After suffering a painful hip injury, Farren missed game two at L.A. (Rams), played some against Denver, but started the next five games against the likes of Art Still (K.C.), Ken Simms (N.E.), Mark Gastineau (N.Y.J.) and Eddie Edwards (Cin.) ... Last eight weeks saw limited duty on the offensive line and played a great deal on special teams ... Expected to challenge for a starting position at either guard or tackle ... Was one of three choices from Browns' 1983 draft to earn a spot on offensive line, beating the odds as a 12th-round pick ... Saw only spot duty on line, but contributed in all 16 games on special teams ... Played some guard against Green Bay, Pittsburgh and New England ... Has the athletic ability and skills to play any one of three positions along offensive line ... Can also deep snap ... 297th player selected overall in draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Played his first two years at BU at tackle and last two at center, where he earned AP Div. I-AA All-America honorable mention honors ... Boston's 1982 MVP ... season (fourth-leading receiver on team), moved from 18th to 14th on the Browns' all-time yards receiving list and cracked top 20 in receptions ... Led team in yards/catch average last year and in 1980 and '81 ... Has a career average of one TD reception every 7.5 catches ... Among active Browns' receivers, is second behind Pro Bowl TE Ozzie Newsome in career receptions ... 125 career games played makes him fourth most experienced NFLer on team ... Started just 25 games in career, but has more starts than any other WR on squad ... Longest reception of career (64 yards) helped enable Browns to tie Rams at seven in first quarter a year ago (9/9) ... Grabbed the 100th pass of NFL career vs. New England (10/7/84) and surpassed 2,000-yard mark in receiving yards at Pittsburgh (12/9/84) ... Only TD last season came with 27 seconds left in first half at Pittsburgh ... Caught season-high three passes on five occasions in 1984, including three for 56 at Three Rivers vs. Steelers ... Caught passes in 11 of 16 games played last year (started three games) ... Did not catch a pass until third NFL season and patiently waited until sixth year before becoming a starter ... Was caught behind Warfield, Dave Logan and Reggie Rucker first five seasons in Cleveland before surfacing as a consistent starter in 1981 ... Played in every Browns' game from 1976 until third game of 1983 season ... Playing in his 100th consecutive regular season game, was forced to leave nationally televised Bengals' game (9/15/83) with severely contused thigh ... Did not fully recover during remainder of season, but managed three catches for 45 yards, including a four-yard scoring toss with one second remaining in first half, in finale vs. Pittsburgh ... Finished '83 campaign with just 13 passes, but three were for TDs ... Prior to injury, had been starting WR every game since 13th week of 1981 season ... Started 1983 season fast, just like he ended 1982 season, when he scored TDs in each of first two games (18-yarder vs. Vikes and 42 yards at Detroit) ... Closed out shortened '82 season grabbing 15 passes for 301 yards and scoring three TDs in final three games ... Also had back-to-back plus-100-yard receiving games (109 at Pittsburgh and 124 in playoff at L.A. Raiders) ... Only Gary Collins and Dante Lavelli have had more yards receiving in a Browns' playoff game than his 124-yard effort at L.A. ... Seven-catch, two-TD performance in Three Rivers is regular season career best, as is 109 yards ... Finished 1982 season as third-leading pass catcher on team (28) and second in yards (408) ... Teammates voted him special teams' captain in both 1980 and 1981 ... 654 yards receiving (22.6 avg.) in 1981 was second on team to Newsome's 1,062 and only Stanley Morgan of NE, with a 23.4-yard/catch avg., was higher among NFL receivers ... Has five career TDs at Bengals' expense: initial pro TD in 1979; three in 1980, including scores of 35 and 34 yards less than three minutes apart early in second half of Browns' divisional title clinching game (12/21/80); and 30-yarder at Stadium (11/29/81) ... Used then LG catch of career (55-yard TD) to help defeat Bengals, 31-7, in 1980 ... An outstanding special teams' player, Feacher originally stayed with the Browns because of his aggressive style of play ... Recovered a fumbled NE kickoff in 1977 to set up a 17-17 third quarter tie and helped Cleveland to a 30-27 (OT) win on nationally televised Monday night game ... Recovered three opponents' fumbles during career.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Second-team All-NAIA senior year and honorable mention as junior ... Four-year varsity performer as wide receiver for MVS; also doubled as punt and kickoff returner as senior ... Ran on number of Delta Devil track relay teams (9.7 100-yard speed) ... Made 54 receptions for 1,062 yards and scored eight TDs during final two seasons of collegiate football ... Earned his B.A. degree from MVS in business administration in 1984 ...  Born 8/30/58, Patuxent River, Md.

PRO: Spent first season with Browns as a backup to QB Paul McDonald, who started all 16 games ... Played in just one game; relieved McDonald in fourth quarter of season opener at Seattle ... Completed his only pass attempted as a Brown, a two-yarder to RB Boyce Green ... Quarterbacked in two preseason games, hitting on 3 of 5 for 22 yards against the Rams and 10 of 15 for 120 yards and one TD (11 yards to TE Harry Holt) at Kansas City

... Selected by Washington in fourth round (90th player selected) of 1981 draft ... Traded by Redskins to New England for QB Tom Owen, 8/25/82 ... Before trade to Pats, was Joe Theismann's backup as a rookie ... Released by New England (9/29/83) and signed by Browns as a free agent (1/3/84) ... Missed all but three days of Patriots' training camp with an elbow injury and was on injured reserve from 8/16 through 9/28/83 ... Passed for 143 yards (13 of 27) in six appearances for Redskins as rookie ... Top game of '81 was 118-yard passing effort (12/22) against 49ers (10/4/81) ... Active for Pats' final two preseason games (after trade from 'Skins), but did not play ... Was on inactive list two games prior to strike, but activated for seven games after layoff ... Only action came at Pittsburgh (12/26/82), when he guided offense for three second-half series before being replaced by Matt Cavanaugh (third QB of game) ... Third QB drafted in 1981 (Rich Campbell and Neil Lomax were first two).
COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Led Huskies to PAC-10 Championship in 1980 and was voted PAC-10 Player-of-Year, honorable mention All America by AP, UPI and Sporting News ... Ended a fine collegiate career with 13 wins in 16 starts ... Earned a starters' role at end of junior year ... His 60.3% career completion mark broke the school record ... Best performance came against Arizona when he connected on 16 of 17 passes for 230 yards and three TDs (1980)

PRO: Played in every Browns' game since joining the club as a fifth-round draft choice in 1980 (73 straight) ... Earned seven starts at end of 1983 season and one in 1981, but for most part has been a special teams' player and designated pass rusher ... Used in the Browns' four-man defensive front in all 16 games last year, recording 1½ sacks, 10 tackles (five solos) and causing one fumble (vs. Houston, 11/25) ... Sacks were against New Orleans and Atlanta ... Played on kickoff coverage team late last season ... 73-game playing streak is third LG among active Browns (Joe DeLamielleure and Ozzie Newsome have longer) ... Has 9½ career sacks for 74½ yards lost ... Took over for right DE Keith Baldwin in second half of 1983 Oilers game (10/30) and held down starting role remainder of season ... Produced 29 tackles (24 solos) and four QB sacks ... Recovered third fumble of career in '83 season opener against Minnesota ... Best game was seven tackle (six unassisted), one sack effort vs. Oilers at Cleveland Stadium ... In addition to pair of sacks vs. Pittsburgh in season finale (1983), had sacks against G.B. and N.E. ... Earned game ball for performance vs. Houston ... Added nearly 30 pounds to frame since end of 1982 season ... In six games (including preseason) prior to 1982 players' strike, led team in sacks (5½), despite missing two games with a back injury ... Opened season in Seattle with two sacks, helping team tie club record (since broken) for most sacks in a single game (eight) ... Lone start prior to 1983 was at Cincinnati (9/20/81).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Named to All-America squad by Pittsburgh Courier and played in Black All-Star game as senior after outstanding four-year letter winning career as defensive end at Morgan State ... Was Golden Bears' leading tackler both junior and senior seasons ... In addition to starring in basketball and track, played offensive tackle, linebacker and running back in high school ... Picked Morgan State because his older brother had played there ... At age nine, a fire destroyed his family's home in Doucette, Texas; sister and brother escaped unhurt, but Elvis' clothes caught fire and he was hospitalized for nine months ... Enjoys visiting ailing youngsters at pediatrics' division of Cleveland Clinic ... Took courses past offseason in physical therapy rehabilitation and recreation at Cleveland State ... 6'2", 260 lbs., 6th Year
St. Joseph (Cleveland, O.) H.S.
Born 10/26/57, Cleveland, O.
WA, 1982

PRO: Has emerged as a leader of the Browns' defensive line by a combination of his personality and fierce, never say quit, style of play ... Started all but one game last year at nose tackle ... Had started 31 consecutive games and played in 34 straight before torn calf muscle sidelined him for Oilers' contest (11/25/84) ... Broke a thumb in first preseason game (vs. Steelers), but did not miss any practice or playing time ... A throwback to the old style player ("I just want to get dirty and knock people down") ... 58 total tackles (39 unassisted) last year ranked ninth on the team's tackle chart ... Also contributed two sacks (vs. Patriots and at Cincinnati), recovered a fumble at K.C. (18-yard return) and coaches credited Bob with 17 additional QB pressures ... Had a season-high seven tackles (all solo) against Saints (10/28/84) and accounted for six tackles on five other occasions ... Nearly capped his first full season at nose tackle (1983) with a trip to Pro Bowl when he finished balloting as first runnerup for AFC squad ... Finished second season with Browns as fourth-leading tackler (86 total, 56 solos) behind the Browns' triumvirate of first-round draft choices at linebacker ... Former LB scored only touchdown of 13-year football career when OLB Chip Banks hit the throwing arm of Packer QB Lynn Dickey, popped the ball up in the air, and Golic galloped seven yards for the score during 1983 season ... Most productive game since joining the Browns was nationally televised Thursday Night special against Bengals (9/15/83). "Mad Dog" (nickname given by teammates) accounted for nine tackles (six unassisted), one QB sack and consistently harassed Ken Anderson throughout evening ... Also had sacks against Tampa Bay (½), Houston and Pittsburgh in 1983, and forced a fumble at Houston ... Originally joined Browns via waivers (9/2/82) after his release by Patriots (8/31/82) ... Developed into surprise find of strike-shortened 1982 season when he started four of last five games (despite weighing only 242 lbs.), and registered four sacks (second on team) and made 30 tackles (highest total among defensive linemen) ... Was inactive for season opener (at Seattle) and did not play against Eagles or Patriots, but relieved injured NT Henry Bradley near end of Dallas game (4th) ... Picked up two QB takedowns and had seven tackles at Cincinnati and finished season as sack leader over last seven games ... Originally drafted in second round in 1979 as LB by Patriots ... Used strictly as a 'backer in N.E. ... On injured reserve with shoulder injury 8/28 through 12/14/79 (rookie year); but was activated (12/15) in time to play in season finale against Minnesota ... Played in all 16 games in 1980 and started last three at inside linebacker ... Tied for eighth on Patriot tackle chart with 30 initial hits and 29 assists (59 total), tops among the non-regular starters ... Started nine of season's final 11 games in 1981 and was second-leading tackler on team with 159 (82 solos) ... Has gained and maintained 20 pounds he added to frame since switching to NT ... 52nd player chosen in '79 draft and ninth LB.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Consensus All-America linebacker for Fighting Irish as well as All-America heavyweight wrestler (junior year) at Notre Dame ...

PLAYERS

Defensive co-captain for Irish as senior when he made 152 stops, including school record 26 vs. Michigan ... Only four losses out of 59 career collegiate wrestling matches came in NCAA tournaments (54-4-1) ... Captured third-place honors as junior at NAAs ... Finished four-year gridiron career with 479 tackles (Irish record) and intercepted six passes ... Finalist in voting for Vince Lombardi Award, defensive MVP in 1978 Cotton Bowl and selected to play in Hula Bowl ... Received B.A. degree in management from N.D. in 1979 ... Father, Robert Sr., played seven years of CFL football; and roomed one year at Indiana University with Tom Cousineau's father, Tom Sr. ... Bob wrestled Cousineau four times (2-1-1) while at St. Joe and Tom was at St. Eds (two Cleveland area high schools) ... Has two brothers that played football and graduated from Notre Dame; Mike, 6'5", 240-pound DE, was drafted in the 10th round of 1985 NFL draft by Houston Oilers ... Along with wife Jackie (Benlein), Bob is very busy with numerous community service projects and charitable organizations, including Northeastern Ohio Multiple Sclerosis Society, Forbes House of Lake County (shelter for battered women and their children), March of Dimes, Cystic Fibrosis, Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital, Notre Dame and St. Joe H.S. Alumni Associations ... Earned Lite Man of Year honors in 1984 and is Browns' candidate this season ... Hardly an offseason day goes by that Bob is not involved in making a scheduled public appearance, usually for charity ... Worked several offseasons prior to 1985 as member of racecar driver Scott Brayton's "Indy-type" pit crew (Cousineau joined him at 1984 Indy 500) ... Lives in Mentor, Ohio.

INTERCEPTION: 1983 — one (returned seven yards for TD).

PRO: In the 35-year NFL history of the Browns, only two players have rushed for more yards after their first two seasons than Boyce Green: Jim Brown totaled 2,469 in his first two years and Bobby Mitchell gained 1,243 ... Green, the Browns' leading rusher in 1984, has rushed for 1,170 yards on 306 carries (3.8 average) in his first two seasons ... Already 14th place on the Browns' all-time rushing list, Green was moved into a starting role by Marty Schottenheimer after Mike Pruitt injured his knee at Cincinnati (week 8) ... Started last eight games, rushing for 580 yards on 154 attempts (3.8 avg.) ... Finished sophomore season with team-high 673 yards ... Ranked 11th among AFC backs last season, but closed out season ranked fifth-highest over last eight weeks ... Increased career 100-yard rushing games to four with two in 1984 ... Had career-high 156 yards (29 carries) on rain-soaked turf at Rich Stadium (11/4/84) and two weeks later at Atlanta, career-high 30 attempts helped him over century mark again (121 yards) ... Also had starts vs. Steelers and Patriots during first half of season ... 44-yard catch and run against Pittsburgh is career LG and his 76 yards receiving is single-game best ... Outstanding rookie season included 497 yards rushing (4.8 avg.); most by a Browns' rookie since HOFer Bobby Mitchell totaled three more (500 yards) in 1958 ... Among AFC RBs with at least 100 attempts, Green's 4.8-yard per carry avg. was bettered only by Mosi Tatupu from New England in 1983 ... Among NFL rookies in '83, Browns' 11th-round draft choice finished fourth in total yards rushing behind first-round picks Eric Dickerson (1,808) and Curt Warner (1,449), and second-rounder Roger Craig (725) ... Accounted for 1,014 all-purpose yards (497 rushing, 350 KO returns and 167 receiving) in 1983 and has 1,811 thus far in career ... Playing in place of injured Pruitt at Pittsburgh (10/16/83), recorded the highest total ever by a Browns' rookie in initial regular season start ... 137-yard performance was also second-best total ever by a Steeler opponent at Three Rivers Stadium (opened 1970); only HOFer O.J. Simpson (227 yards in 1975) had a better day ... Finished first NFL start with 28 carries for 137 yards, scored two TDs and caught career-high five passes (35 yards) ... Went over century mark with 20-yard TD run in OT to beat Oilers at Cleveland Stadium (10/30/83); accounted for 239 yards, including 107 rushing (all in second half), 40 yards receiving and 92 yards on KO returns ... After sitting bench his first three games, touched the ball for first time from RB position versus Seahawks (week 5) and scored on a five-yard pass play ... In two games rookie season against Steelers, had eight runs of 10 yards or more and totaled 15 for season, including team's LG — 29-yarder at Pitt. ... Caught coaches' eyes at Buffalo in second preseason game (8/13/83) when carrying football for only second time of NFL career, burst up middle and ran 71 yards for TD; finished first pro game with 117 yards rushing on six carries, two TDs, two receptions for 14 yards and one kickoff return for 22 yards ... Did not enter game until Charles White broke his ankle ... Was 288th player selected in 1983 draft and only fourth player ever drafted from Carson-Newman College.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Averaged 6.0 yards per carry for career totals of 2,353 yards (second most in Fightin' Eagles' history) and 23 TDs ... Helped team to NAIA Div. I championship game and third place national ranking ... Senior year carried 102 times for 673 yards, 6.6 avg. and eight TDs, despite missing three games ... Had collegiate best 159 yards rushing on 10 carries against Franklin College his junior year ... Earned B.S. degree in physical education in 1984, graduating with honors ... PRO: Browns' surprise find in 1983, Gross started all 16 games at strong safety in 1984 and finished sixth in tackles behind leader Eddie Johnson and four No. 1 draft picks ... Credited with 100 tackles, including 67 unassisted ... Won starting job during 1984 training camp, beating out veteran SS Clinton Burrell and 1984 second-round draft pick, Chris Rockins ... Responsible for a team-high seven turnovers (five interceptions and two fumble recoveries) ... Five of the seven turnovers resulted in four FGs and one TD for the Browns in 1984 ... Recovered fumble in first NFL start (at Seattle) and again in season finale at Houston ... Five interceptions (tied with Hanford Dixon for team lead) were against: Bengals (2), Steelers, Bills and Oilers ... Career-long 47-yard return vs. Houston (11/25/84) set-up a Matt Bahr FG that gave Browns commanding, 20-7 lead ... Also had a 32-yard interception return at Cincinnati (10/21/84) ... Finished second to Dixon in passes defended with 14 ... Most productive game statistically came against Bengals at Stadium when Gross had career-high 11 tackles, intercepted a pass and defended two ... Originally drafted in ninth round by Dallas Cowboys in 1983 ... Released by Cowboys, 8/1/83 (at his request) and awarded to Browns via waivers, 8/3 ... Made Cleveland 49-man roster as result of rugged, hard-hitting special teams' play, quick adjustment to Browns' defensive scheme and ability to play either strong or free safety ... Played in all 16 games rookie season (1983), contributing 27 total tackles (21 solos), two passes defended, one interception, a fumble recovery and an onside kick recovery ... Scooped-up first fumble against Tampa Bay and returned four yards ... Following week at N.E., Browns surprised everyone with an onside kick in second quarter and Gross recovered ... Stole first pass in season finale against Steelers and returned it 18 yards ... Saw increased playing time as '83 season progressed, especially in short-yardage and first-down situations because of his ability to play the run ... 246th player chosen in 1983 NFL draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Four-year Arizona letterman and senior captain ... Did not miss a game in final three seasons, playing in 33 consecutive ... First-team All-PAC 10 free safety in 1982 ... Appeared in all 14 games as a rookie, including nine as a starter ... In 1977, finished second on team in sacks (9½) and total tackles, forced three fumbles and recovered one ... Intercepted first pro pass against Redskins in 1978 when he enjoyed second straight season as Eagles' top defensive lineman ... Completed season with six sacks and forced 3½ fumbles ... Led NFC with career-high 15 QB sacks and added another 14 "hurries" and forced one fumble in 1979 ... In 1980, finished second on team in tackles, but led squad in solo stops with 79 ... Was also credited with two forced fumbles, one fumble recovered, eight sacks and team-leading 40 "hurries" ... Gained second All-NFC recognition by UPI in both 1980 and 1981 ... Again led team in initial hits in 1981 with 79 and finished second in total tackles ... Forced four fumbles, recovered another, and led Eagles with eight QB sacks and 50 "hurries" ... Recorded 60 tackles in 1982 (38 solos), along with four sacks, 15 "hurries" and two fumble recoveries ... His 24-yard return of a recovered Danny White fumble against Dallas set up Eagles' final score (FG) in a 24-20 win at Texas Stadium ... Despite playing at less than 100% because of a knee that required arthroscopic surgery in January, 1983, "Big Daddy" started first 11 games (played in all 16), had five sacks, 56 tackles, two fumbles recovered and forced a fumble for Eagles in 1983.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Four-year starter as linebacker and defensive end at Maryland-Eastern Shore; earned all-conference honors three times ... Accumulated 115 unassisted tackles and nine QB sacks as a senior ... Co-captain ... Played one year of collegiate basketball ... Earned B.A. degree in physical education in May (1985) from Eastern Shore ... Was all state in football last two years and earned high school All-America honors as a senior ... CARL HAIRSTON ON HIS PLAYING PHILOSOPHY: "I learned from Claude Humphrey that you have to be intense on every down to be a dominant pass rusher. He taught me to think about what I'm going to do before I go into my move rather than while the play's in progress. If I know it's a passing down, I make up my mind what I'm going to do before the snap and concentrate on doing nothing but that."

K.C. (week 5) when he suffered a broken rib ... On injured reserve 10/6 to 11/2 ... Returned for game 10 at Buffalo, but did not catch another pass until 11/18 at Atlanta ... Closed out '84 season with seven catches for 74 yards in last two games ... Enters 1985 with 49 career receptions for 681 yards and three TDs ... Started eight games in 1984, including five of last six ... An outstanding blocker and dangerous runner after catching the ball ... With Newsome and Holt, Browns may have most talented TE tandem in football ... Bigger and faster than Ozzie, Holt grabbed 29 passes for 420 yards and scored three TDs as a rookie, including game winners at San Diego and against Pittsburgh (12/18/83) ... Started 11 games out of 15, missing Green Bay contest with sprained ankle ... Highlight of young NFL career occurred when he caught pass at 1:53 of overtime in San Diego at Chargers' 25-yard line; broke three tackles; and scored first NFL TD on play that covered 48 yards (Browns won, 30-24) ... Leading receiver in Seattle game (10/2/83) with six catches for 77 yards ... Caught five passes for 81 yards at Houston (12/11/83) ... Grabbed a pair of big TD passes (3,1 yards) in Browns' 1983 season finale win over Pittsburgh ... Played five seasons in CFL before at least 10 NFL teams tried to sign him as a free agent in 1983 ... Signed with Browns (5/18/83) ... Played five seasons with British Columbia Lions after playing just two years of collegiate football at Arizona ... Career stats in Canada included: 137 receptions for 2,364 yards, 17.3 average, LG of 80 yards (1982) and 14 TDs ... Also returned punts (28 for 325 and scored one TD) and kickoffs (6 for 152, 25.3 avg.); plus he handled kickoff chores ... Had rushing stats of 53 carries for 286 yards (5.4 avg.) and two TDs ... Named to CFL All-Star team in both 1980 and 1981 ... Best season in CFL was 38-catch, 648-yard (five TDs) season in 1980 ... Joined Lions in mid-1978 and saw action in game eight, scoring on a 45-yard pass play the first time he ever touched football as a pro ... Was draft eligible in 1980, but was not selected ... Plans to donate money for USA for Africa Fund and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital with each catch this season.

Born 4/1/53, Charlotte, N.C.

FA, 1975

PRO: Enters 11th NFL season (all with Cleveland) as one of the team's leaders ... Has been with the Browns longer than any other member of the team ... Elected co-captain, along with Ozzie Newsome, on offense last year ... Career totals of 145 games played and 125 started are second only to G Joe DeLamielluere's ... Has been the Browns' starting left guard every game since season opener in 1982 (41 straight — only Joe D. has a longer current streak, 70) ... A free agent success story ... Overlooked in 17 rounds of the 1975 draft (442 players were drafted), Jackson not only won a spot on the roster as a rookie, but earned a starting assignment at right guard in eighth game (11/9/75) at Detroit ... Played so well as starter last seven games in '75, Browns swapped offensive lineman Bob McKay to New England for CB Ron Bolton (4/8/76) ... In ten years of play with Cleveland, has missed just two games ... Injured knee prevented him from playing games 4 and 5 (Tampa Bay and Denver) during the Browns' 1980 Divisional Championship season ... Broke his ankle in 1983 season finale against Pittsburgh, but was 100% by training camp last year ... Enters 1985 with 68 consecutive games played, fifth longest streak among active Browns ... Excluding starting at right tackle for injured Barry Darrow in 1978, started every game at right guard from week eight of 1975 season through 1979 ... Moved from right side to current left position after knee injury in 1980 (replaced by then newly acquired DeLamielleure, who has started every game since at RG) ... Started 13 of 16 games (did not start last three games) in 1981 at left guard, successfully making comeback after having offseason knee surgery ... Was only free agent rookie to make team in 1975 ... Lack of weight (dropped 35 pounds to play senior year in college at 220), probably prevented him from being drafted ... Recovered his fourth offensive fumble last season; also has two opponents' fumbles to credit.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Highly recruited prep quarterback, but was switched to tight end, then to center as a sophomore and finally settled in as a tackle his junior year at Duke ... Played that season at 255 pounds before dieting to what he later described as a "too light 220" as a senior ... Earned B.S. degree in economics from Duke ... Won two letters each in football, basketball and golf (MVP senior year) while attending North Mecklenburg (N.C.) H.S. ... Never selected to any all-county, all-district or all-conference teams in high school or college for his football play ... But, after 1981 season, was voted as Browns' Man of Year by Fairview Park American Legion ... Avid and daily participant in offseason weight and conditioning program since it began in 1982 ... Hosts and organizes annual golf outing and picnic for members of Browns' organization and their families each year ("Jackson Open") ... As busy as any player on team when it comes to giving his time to community and charitable projects ... Nickname "Action Jackson" was given to him by former T Doug Dieken ("because Robert's in perpetual motion") ... Lives in Bay Village with wife Linda (Oldenburg) of Rocky River, who is a "Jazzercise" organizer, and their son, Robert Drew (1/23/83).

PRO: Browns' leading tackler last season, Johnson edged out inside partner Tom Cousineau, 172 to 170 (Cousineau led the Browns in tackles in 1982 and '83), to claim his first team tackle title ... In his first full season as a starter, produced nine games in which his tackle total was in double figures, including at least 11 in six of last seven games ... Won team-high or game-high honors seven times last year ... His 108 unassisted tackles was 11 more than runnerup Cousineau's total ... Also registered a half-sack, seven QB "hurries", defended seven passes and led the team in tackles behind the line of scrimmage (non-sacks) with seven ... Played in all 57 games since joining the Browns as a seventh-round draft choice in 1981 ... Once labeled as too light to play LB in the NFL, Johnson "ran the show on the field and is emerging as an outstanding player," Marty Schottenheimer said ... Only starting linebacker that is not a No. 1 draft pick ... Career-high tackle performance came against 49ers last year when Johnson had 17 total tackles, including career-high 12 initial stops ... Game-high efforts were against: Seahawks (14); Chiefs (12); 49ers; Falcons (13); Bengals (16); and Oilers (11) ... Most emotional game for him was first pro appearance in home state of Georgia; made game-high 13 stops and recorded first sack of NFL career before over 50 friends and relatives — many wearing Browns' No. 51 jerseys ... Intercepted first two passes of career vs. Jets on 10/14/84 ... Started last 18 straight games at ILB for Browns ... Primarily a special teams' and short-yardage situation player his first two seasons, Johnson shared time at Dick Ambrose's ILB spot with Scott Nicolas the last ten games of the 1983 campaign (after Ambrose broke his ankle in game 6) ... "E.J." contributed 77 total tackles (54 solos), sixth best on team, and defended three passes, starting twice ... Started one game in 1982 (at Dallas) in place of injured Clay Matthews ... Accounted for 17 tackles (12 solos) during nine-game regular season ... Made 35 stops as a rookie (18 unassisted) and recovered important fumble versus Atlanta at Stadium ... In all four years with Browns, has been a standout and inspiration to other players on special teams because of his hard-hitting, fierce style-of-play ... 187th player selected in 1981.

COLLEGE. PERSONAL: Started all four years for Cardinals of Louisville ... Had three consecutive seasons of over 100 tackles: 144 in 1980; 145 in 1979; and 110 as a sophomore ... Tallied six QB sacks senior year when he was captain and team's MVP ... All-South Independent and All Metro ... Captain and MVP in Blue-Gray game after making 22 tackles ... Majored in communications and radio and TV broadcasting ... All-state performer at Daughtery H.S. in Albany, Ga. (made 215 tackles as senior) ... Was also basketball and track standout ... Long jumped 23'4" and triple jumped 45'7" ... Comes from a family of five brothers and two sisters ... Involved in Browns' offseason weight and conditioning program last four years, but did split time between Georgia and Cleveland in order to open the "Eddie Johnson Fitness Center" in hometown of Albany ... Shaves head at start of each training camp ... Lives in Brook Park (Cleveland suburb) with wife Ramona and son Rahshan (3/23/83).

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER ON EDDIE JOHNSON: "At times he plays like he's possessed — he's just outstanding. Eddie also provides us with very positive leadership on the field. He calls all the defenses, makes all the adjustments with the line up front. He is a very bright guy, who made significant gains last season. He has tremendous physical skills and despite his apparent lack of size (6-1, 225), he has what I call 'six inch pop'. That is, he takes on a guy bigger than him ... gets into him with such quickness and explosion, that he controls and neutralizes him."

EDDIE JOHNSON ON EDDIE JOHNSON: "I consider myself one of the best 'backers in the league. My strength is I am able to utilize my quickness. What I need to do is make more big plays. I've made some, but not as many as I feel I should have made."

In the last five seasons in which he's started (injured in '82), has averaged 109 tackles a season, tops among active players on the team ... Led Browns' defense in two impact categories (sacks, 7, and forced fumbles, 4) and finished second in total tackles with 106 in 1983 ... Was team's leading tackler during 1983's back-to-back shutouts of Tampa Bay and New England ... Gained game balls for efforts against Baltimore and Pittsburgh ... Missed most of 1982 with a broken ankle (occurred in final minute of season opening victory at Seattle) ... Came back to play season finale at Pittsburgh and started against Raiders in playoff game (placed on injured reserve 9/12 and activated 12/30) ... Voted MVP on defense by Cleveland TD Club in 1981 when he recorded a career-high 128 total tackles (second on team), had five sacks, two interceptions, recovered two fumbles and blocked a FG attempt at Denver ... Missed two games in 1980 (knee injury), but started 13 and made 83 tackles and was second on team with five sacks ... Won starting position (over Gerald Irons) in 1979 when he made 103 tackles (third highest on team), starting all 16 games at present position — right outside linebacker ... Had longest interception return of career (30 yards) vs. Jets in season opener ... Originally picked in the first round of 1978 NFL draft (12th player and first LB) and is one of three first-round picks playing LB for Browns (Cousineau and Banks are other two) ... One scouting combine had him listed as fifth best prospect available that year ...

PLAYERS

Chipped bone in ankle caused him to miss most of rookie preseason; then bruised his shoulder in fifth game of regular season, but still played in 15 games, starting the last two ... Lost time hurt his adjustment from inside (played at USC) to outside LB.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Selected to Sporting News' All America and AP's first-team All-PAC Eight last two years ... Defensive workhorse and leader of the Trojans, played middle linebacker throughout career ... Four-year letter winner ... Captain senior season ... Played in 1978 Hula Bowl ... MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER ON CLAY MATTHEWS: "Clay might be the best outside linebacker in football. If he has another season like last year, he could be put in a class with a Jack Ham. I know those are large compliments, but Clay is a special player."

CLAY MATTHEWS ON SATURDAY MORNING CARTOONS: "I was always totally into adventure; the Warner Brothers cartoons like the Road Runner or Daffy Duck just never appealed to me. I just could never imagine myself being chased by Wiley E. Coyote, but I never had any trouble imagining myself saving New York City from the likes of the Green Goblin, Spiderman's most cunning foe. My favorites include Johnny Quest, Space Ghost, Aquaman, and, of course, Spiderman."

PAUL McDONALD

QUARTERBACK

16

6'2", 185 lbs., 6th Year
Southern California
Bishop Amat (La Puente, Calif.) H.S.
Born 2/23/58, Montebello, Calif.
D4b, 1980

PRO: Patiently served four-year apprenticeship before starting all 16 games for Browns in 1984 ... Has played in 69 games, including 53 straight, since joining Cleveland as a fourth-round draft choice in 1980 ... Finished season ranked 12th among AFC quarterbacks with a 67.3 rating, but over last seven games of '84 season, his 78.8 QB rating was seventh best ... Only two AFC QBs threw more passes than McDonald in 1984 (Dan Marino and Dan Fouts) and only three completed more passes for more yards (Dave Krieg was the third) ... In first eight games, Paul was 155 of 291 (53.3%) for 2,057 yards, 4 TDs, 14 interceptions, 60.5 rating and was sacked 40 times ... In final eight games, stats were: 116 of 202 (57.4) for 1,415 yards, 10 TDs, 9 interceptions, 77.0 rating and sacked just 13 times ... Had career-high attempts (47) and completions (27) in Browns' 12-9 loss to Bengals at Cincinnati (10/21/84) ... Threw for career-high 320 yards (23 of 37) against Patriots and completed career-high 75.0% of passes (18/24 for 191) vs. Bengals at Cleveland Stadium ... Was also 16 of 23 (including 13 straight completions — one shy of Browns' record) for 193 yards (69.6%) and threw two TD passes with no interceptions against Saints, prompting CBS commentator Terry Bradshaw to say, "I've never seen anyone as accurate as Paul is today" ... Threw season-high and tied career-high for TD passes when he tossed three against Houston (11/25/84) ... Scored first NFL rushing TD in game 15 at Pittsburgh ... 16 of his 24 career TD passes have come in second half ... Three of McDonald's five longest passes were thrown last year, including career-long 64-yarder to WR Ricky Feacher at L.A. (Rams) ... 3,472 yards passing on 271 completions last year are both fifth best single-season performances in Browns' history ... Sacked a record 53 times in 1984, but did not miss a play because of injury ... Started two games in 1983, including important 25-19 OT win against Oilers and 35-21 loss to Packers (departed game in third quarter) ... In Oilers' game was 19 of 41 for 209 yards, one TD and two interceptions ... Also played several plays in 1983 Minnesota, Jets and Bengals (at Cin.) games ... Replaced Brian Sipe when Cleveland was 2-4 in 1982's strike-shortened season and took Browns to playoffs ... Guided Browns to victories over Pittsburgh (10-9) and Houston (20-14) before bowing to Raiders in playoffs ... Starting first NFL game (12/19/82), connected on 19 of 40 for 227 yards; Browns scored winning TD against Steelers when he hit Newsome with two passes (2 and 22) to set up FB Johnny Davis' one-yard TD ... In Houston the following week, hit on 18 of 34 for 248 yards and one TD (56-yarder to Dave Logan) ... Did not throw an interception in 37 attempts against Raiders in playoff game (18 completions for 281 yards and one TD), despite being sacked six times ... Against Dallas (11/25/82), in relief of Sipe, guided Browns to two fourth quarter TDs (9/15 for 155) ... Played QB five times in '82 (three as a starter) and was Matt Bahr's holder throughout season ... Played QB in four games in 1981 ... Threw his first NFL pass at Pittsburgh (10/11/81) when he nearly rallied Browns to victory as a dazed Sipe watched from sidelines; directed team from Cleveland five to Steelers' 12 with 1:53 left in game, but a tipped pass intended for Newsome was intercepted ... Finished game 8/16 for 106 yards ... Also saw action against Buffalo (0/1) and Cincinnati (3/6 for 60 yards, and first TD pass of career) ... Enjoyed non-starters' role at Seattle in 1981 season finale, hitting on 24 of 34 for 297 yards and three TDs ... Played in all 16 games as rookie, exclusively as holder for K Don Cockroft ... For career: has thrown 25 passes for 30 yards or longer and 64 for 20 or more; has three 300-yard passing games; thrown 40 or more passes in a single-game five times and completed 20 or more six times, including four in '84 ... Was the 109th player selected and seventh QB taken in 1980 NFL draft; QBs chosen ahead of him were: Marc Wilson (15); Mark Malone (28); Gene Bradley (37); Eric Hipple (85); Rusty Lisch (89); and Ed Luther (101) — next pick after McDonald was QB Bill Hurley, by Steelers.

PLAYERS

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Led USC to two Rose Bowl victories and a national championship ... Finished collegiate career with NCAA record for lowest interception percentage in a career (13 in 561 attempts for 2.3 rate); PAC 10 record for most consecutive passes thrown without an interception (143); and USC marks for TD passes (37), passing yards (4,138), highest completion percentage (59.7) and single-season mark of 62.1% ... Senior season (1979), completed 164 for 264 for 2,223 yards, 18 TDs and six interceptions (all Trojan records) ... All-PAC 10, AP second-team All America, Academic-All America and starred in 1980 Hula Bowl ... Beat LSU senior year with TD pass with 32 seconds left and directed an eight-play, 83-yard march late in final period to defeat Ohio State, 18-17 in 1980 Rose Bowl ... Earned business degree from USC and is currently working toward MBA ... Entering fifth season spearheading a group called "Paul's Pals", an activities group for children with cancer, leukemia and other blood disorders at Cleveland's Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital. (The club was formed to generate a greater awareness of Children's Cancer and Hematology Research Fund and create outings for children) ... As a result of unselfish devotion of time to "Paul's Pals", other charities and his community, was nominee for Miller Man of Year in 1982 and 1983 ... Is an "A" tennis player and avid golfer ... Spent most of 1984 offseason working at Browns' offseason weight and conditioning program ... Has home in South Laguna, Calif. ... Wife Allyson (5/29/82) delivered their first child, Michael Paul 5/11/85 ... They live in Rocky River, O., a Cleveland suburb.

PAUL MCDONALD ON THE BROWNS LOSING EIGHT GAMES IN 1984 BY FOUR POINTS OR LESS: "Absolutely amazing. All I can say is that we have to find a way to win — good teams do. We need to find a way in tight situations. There's no secret — you just play hard and ... maybe it's an intangible thing. But we need to find it in 1985."

tion first three games in passing situations and on special teams ... Played some left CB for first time against Rams in L.A. (game 2) ... Matched with Dixon as a starter for first time against the Steelers (game 4), replacing Lawrence Johnson ... Started 12 of remaining 13 games, missing the Bills' game because of a hamstring injury ... Played only the first play of Jets' game and missed playing time in several other games due to hamstring problem ... Finished rookie season with 40 tackles (29 unassisted), 13 passes defended, one fumble recovery and one forced fumble ... Named to NFL All-Rookie teams by Pro Football Weekly and PFWA ... Against Chiefs in K.C., intercepted first pass (26-yard return), forced his first fumble and registered career-high eight tackles (seven solos) ... Credited with four passes defended against Falcons and recovered a fumble ... Signed as a free agent with Browns 4/3/84 ... Was projected by Browns' scouts as an early second-round draft choice in 1983, but elected to sign with Chicago Blitz prior to NFL draft (was not drafted by NFL team) ... 31st player chosen in USFL draft ... Missed most of rookie season with Blitz because of knee injury suffered in first game ... Placed on injured reserve 3/7/83 and spent balance of season rehabilitating ... Excellent speed (4.45 in 40) ... Made several big plays and intercepted four passes (74 return yards) for Arizona in 1984 ... Returned interception for TD against Oklahoma (game 5) ... Played in USFL Championship game in 1984.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Led nation in kickoff returns as junior with a 30.4 average on 11 returns and ranked fourth in Div. I-A in punt returns in 1982 (senior season), averaging 15 yards per return ... Three-year starter and four-year letter winner as a walk-on ... Inspirational leader of Cardinals' nationally ranked (7th) secondary in 1982 ... Played CB all four years ... Career stats included: 131 tackles (95 solos); five tackles for losses; one fumble recovery and seven interceptions, including one returned 56 yards for TD against Michigan State in 1982 ... Returned KO 89 yards for TD vs. Tennessee State as junior ... Had career punt return avg. of 14.6 (12 for 175 yards) and brought back punt 88 yards against Temple in '82 ... FRANK MINNIFIELD ON BEING SMALL: "Everyone thinks I'm going to have a problem shutting down the sweep, because of my size. That's the area I won't allow the opposition to get an advantage on me. When I get the chance to shut down a sweep, I put everything I've got into it. The fact that I'm not as big as most guys serves as a source of inspiration to me to go harder and try more."

FRANK MINNIFIELD ON PLAYING THE CORNER: "I love the challenge of playing cornerback. I welcome the competition week in and week out. I have a zest for life and love being in the middle of the action. My mother always told me if I wasn't playing football I'd be doing something else pressure-packed and dangerous."

OZZIE NEWSOME ON OZZIE NEWSOME: "I don't think I've peaked yet. I need to gain more confidence in my ability to run after the catch. I don't finish the run consistently enough. Releasing off the line is one of the things I'm best at. That separates me from (Kellen) Winslow and (Todd) Christensen. That's what I do better than they do. If I get knocked down once in a game, I'm disappointed. The Raiders' Mike Davis and Pittsburgh's Donnie Shell are the two safeties who give me the most problems getting off the line. They're as big as linebackers."

NFL FILMS (IN RECENT FEATURE) ON OZZIE NEWSOME: "No other player at his position is so acrobatic, so routinely spectacular. Rarely catching a pass upright, Newsome spends as much time in the pike position as Olympic diving champion Greg Louganis."

PRO: Browns' third-leading rusher in club history endured toughest season of pro career as injury and emergence of several young backs prevented Pruitt from leading team in rushing for a sixth straight season ... Despite starting just seven games in 1984 (played in ten), Pruitt gained 506 yards (163 carries) and scored six touchdowns, finishing second on team in rushing behind Boyce Green (202 carries for 673 yards) ... Missed playing time in several games before having arthroscopic knee surgery 11/2 ... Sideline games 10-13 while on injured reserve, but came back in game 14 and rushed 17 times for 58 yards and scored TD, all in second half of Bengals' game ... Also missed Patriots' game (week six) with a pulled calf muscle ... Scored a pair of rushing TDs for 10th and 11th time in career vs. Denver and Jets

... Highest rushing total last season was 83-yard effort (26 attempts) against Steelers at Stadium ... Fifth-leading rusher in AFC after seven games last season, even though had missed one contest ... Carried football 27 times at Rams and 26 vs. Steelers last season ... Advanced from 22nd place to 17th on the NFL's all-time rushing list last year ... Enters 1985 needing: 39 yards to pass Lawrence McCutcheon (6,578) to move into 16th place; 112 yards to surpass Mark van Eeghen (6,651) into 15th; 163 to move ahead of Chuck Muncie (6,702) — 14th; and 264 to surpass John Henry Johnson (6,803) — 13th ... Needs 735 yards rushing to better Leroy Kelly and become second-leading rusher in Browns' history and 12th on NFL list ... In past six seasons, only Earl Campbell (7,314), Walter Payton (7,993), Otis Anderson (7,364), Tony Dorsett (7,193) and William Andrews (5,772) have rushed for more yards than Pruitt's 5,637 ... Next TD will tie him with HOFer Paul Warfield (318 points) for seventh on Browns' all-time scoring list; Ray Renfro's 330 rank sixth ... Prior to 1984, had missed only one game in six years (1978-1983) and had started 70 of his last 73 games since 1979 ... Entering 1985 season, Pruitt is leading active rusher in AFC and sixth in NFL ... Second-leading receiver on team (Newsome first) over past seven years with 244 receptions, including 63 each in 1980 and 1981 ... Still looking for first TD of career against Pittsburgh, despite rushing for 687 yards and catching 32 passes for 227 yards in 15 games ... Rushed for more yards against Oilers (807 on 202 carries) than any other team in NFL ... 1,184 yards rushing in 1983 (second-highest total of career) enabled Pruitt to become 22nd player in NFL history to crack 6,000-yard barrier (vs. Pitt. in season finale); surpassed 5,000-yard mark at Detroit (9/11/83) ... Despite missing some playing time in 1983 with painful rib injury, still participated in 30.3% of Browns' total plays and accounted for 24% of team's net offense ... Handled ball in 28.3% of team's plays from 1979-1982 ... Only Jim Brown has carried football more in single-season than Pruitt did in 1983 (Mike ran 293 times and Brown carried 306 in 1961) ... Finished 1983 third in rushing in AFC and ninth in NFL and tied for fourth in scoring in AFC and eighth in NFL ... Has been ranked among AFC's top four rushers four of past six seasons, including second in 1979, third in 1980 and fourth in 1981 ... Five 100-yard games in 1983 increased career total to 16 (fourth on Browns' all-time list) ... His 10 rushing TDs in '83 marked a career high; scored 72 points (most by non-kicker since Leroy Kelly's 72 in 1971) ... Consecutive games with at least one reception streak was halted at 53 (second LG in Browns' history to Newsome's current 82) vs. N.Y. Jets (10/9/83) when he bruised his ribs in opening series and did not return ... Missed Steeler game the following week ... Moved past Greg Pruitt into third place on Browns' all-time rushing list with 73-yard effort at Green Bay (11/6/83)... Exceeded 100 yards rushing for fourth time of season and scored two TDs against Colts (11/27/83) ... Career-high three touchdowns and season-high 153 yards rushing (30 carries) at Houston (week 15) earned Pruitt his fourth 1,000-yard season ... Played in 15 games and started 14 in 1983 (missed both starts against Steelers) ... Named to All-AFC squad (second team) by UPI after 1983 season ... Despite nursing a groin pull and series of irritating injuries, still led team with 516 yards rushing and caught 22 passes in shortened '82 season ... In only healthy game of 1982 season, rushed for 136 yards on 30 carries against Seattle in season opener; also scored two TDs ... Nine receptions vs. San Diego (12/5/82) is career high ... Combined for 1,545 yards in 1981 (1,103 rushing and 442 receiving), tenth highest total in NFL ... 213 yards, including 155 yards rushing, was career best; 39 attempts (rush., rec., and returns) in nationally televised contest in Houston (12/3/81) tied (with Jim Brown) a Browns' record for most attempts in single game ... Won Cleveland's player of the year award from Akron Booster Club in 1981 and was named team's best offensive player by TD Club of Cleveland following 1980 campaign when he rushed for 1,034 yards and caught a then Browns' record of 63 passes (most by a RB in NFL in '80) ... Produced team's longest TD runs from scrimmage in 1981 (18 yards vs. Balt.), 1980 (56-yarder vs. Chicago), 1979 (77 vs. Oakland) and 1978 (71 vs. Buffalo) ... 1,294 yards rushing in 1979 are most by a Cleveland RB since Jim Brown's 1,544 in 1965 and 1,666 combined rushing and receiving total was fifth best in NFL that season ... PRO: Missed entire 1984 regular season after injuring knee with 3:09 to play in preseason finale at Philadelphia (8/23/84) ... Had surgery 8/24 and was placed on season-long injured reserve list, 8/27 ... Is expected to be 100 percent for start of Browns' preseason ... Browns' offensive line find in 1979 (drafted in seventh round) began to pay big dividends in 1983 as Cody emerged as one of top offensive tackles in NFL ... USA Today selected him first-team

All-NFL; NEA named him on their second team and UPI voted him first-team ALL-AFC for his dominating performances ... Demonstrated his ability to control defensive ends when he faced the NFL's first and third ranked QB sackers of 1983 (Jets' Mark Gastineau and Seahawks' Jacob Green); in those two contests he allowed no sacks and held Gastineau to two tackles and one assist and Green to one tackle and two assists ... As result of injury last season, his 73 consecutive games played streak ended, along with his 67 straight starts ... Youngest starter on Browns' offensive wall first four years (1979-1982) ... Earned a starting assignment for first time in seventh game of rookie season at left guard ... Played in all 16 games that season, including starting last ten in place of veteran George Buehler ... Switched to right tackle in 1980, helping Browns establish reputation as one of best line's in NFL (QB Brian Sipe was sacked only 4.2% of time he attempted a pass — lowest percentage in NFL) ... Continued domination of NFL DEs in 1981 as he demonstrated against Gastineau (NFL's second-leading sacker); limited Pro Bowl starter to one tackle, three assists and no sacks ... Was the 183rd player selected in 1979 draft ... One of only 12 players entering 1985 training camp that was member of Central Division champion team in 1980 ... Since rookie season, has added nearly 25 pounds.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Honorable mention on All-America squads of AP, College and Pro Football Weekly and Sporting News as a senior captain and offensive tackle at Texas A&M ... PLAYERS

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER ON CODY RISIEN: "Having Cody back is like having a number one draft choice join your team. He is one of the best tackles in the league and we expect him to be 100 percent. He's the type you bring in on Wednesday and say you've got 'so and so' this Sunday and you know you've eliminated one of your headaches. He doesn't get beat one-on-one."

6'0", 195 lbs., 2nd Year
Oklahoma State
Sherman (Tex.) H.S.
Born 5/18/62, Sherman, Tex.
D2a, 1984

PRO: Played in all 16 games and started twice (at free safety) during 1984 rookie season ... In his two starts (at Buffalo and vs. S.F.), made 14 tackles, including career-high 10 vs. 49ers, intercepted first pass (Bills' game) and defended one pass, while subbing for injured FS Don Rogers (shoulder) ... Interception in Buffalo came in second quarter on a pass thrown into the end zone ... Overall, finished rookie year with 34 total tackles (21 unassisted), two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery ... Fumble recovery in Atlanta led to a Browns' TD on the next play ... Made three unassisted special teams' tackles and recovered an onside kick against Bengals (12/2/84) ... Two forced fumbles were against Rams and Oilers (season finale) ... According to Marty Schottenheimer, "Strong safety was new to Chris in 1984; he didn't progress as quickly as I'd anticipated, but his significant progress over the last four games has us excited about what he can do for us in 1985" ... Will compete for a starting job at strong safety, but will also get a chance to learn the corner ... First of two second-round draft picks by Browns in 1984 ... 48th player chosen and eighth defensive back taken ... Choice used to select Rockins was acquired from Rams for rights to WR Ron Brown (1983 second rounder of Browns).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Started an OSU record 46 consecutive games (first three years at safety and last year at CB) ... All-Big 8 selection ... Fourth-leading tackler in school's history with 347 (206 solos), which are most by a DB ... Had 12 career interceptions, while lettering four years (captain senior year) for Cowboys ... Speed (4.5) and aggressive play earned him close attention from NFL scouts ... Finished senior season with 96 tackles, three interceptions, three fumble recoveries and 13 passes knocked down ... Named Big 8 Defensive Player of Week for performance against Cincinnati in 1983 (13 tackles, one interception, one fumble recovery and one pass deflection) ... 17 passes defended as junior was tops in Big 8 ... Enjoyed a number of standout performances against Nebraska, making 59 tackles and recovering three fumbles in four games vs. Cornhuskers ... All-Big Eight honorable mention as a sophomore and freshman ... Played in Senior Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl against Browns' other second rounder, Bruce Davis of Baylor ... Three interceptions in 1982 and four as a freshman ... Majored in business administration ... Football, basketball (forward) and track (relays) standout in H.S. (won all-state honors in football) ... Won district long jump title with a leap of 24'2" ... Has three brothers and two sisters ... Moved to Cleveland after draft to participate in Browns' offseason weight and conditioning program ... Also took part in program this past offseason ... Lives in Lakewood, O. ... Single.

PRO: Browns' 1984 No. 1 draft choice made an immediate impact on the defense and earned AFC Defensive Rookie-of-the-Year Award by NFLPA (voted by players), despite separating his shoulder near midseason ... Played in 15 games and started 14; missed Buffalo game and part of 49ers' game after injuring shoulder vs. New Orleans ... Finished rookie campaign with 105 tackles (63 solos), fourth on team behind three LBs; five passes defensed; two forced fumbles; and one interception ... Named to NFL all-rookie team by UPI, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest and PFWA ... Returned only pro interception (at K.C.) 39 yards ... Playing in his first NFL regular season game (at Seattle), recorded game-high 12 tackles and forced a fumble that LB Chip Banks recovered ... Following week made another dozen tackles and knocked down one pass vs. Rams ... Demonstrated why he was 18th player selected in 1984 NFL draft against Pittsburgh when he accumulated 11 tackles and helped set up go-ahead TD after forcing rookie WR Louis Lipps to fumble (Tom Cousineau recovered and Browns scored four plays later) ... Cracked double figures in tackles again when he made 10 and defensed a pass at Cincinnati (10/21/84) ... Made seven tackles against Saints before shoulder separation sidelined him for two starts (one game) ... Came back slowly after injury, but closed year with 22 tackles in last three games ... One of five No. 1 draft picks on Browns' starting defense ... Led team in fewest "knockdowns" last year (was blocked to the ground only once in 15 games) ... Fourth defensive back chosen in last year's draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Often compared to Ken Easley, another UCLA safety who's now a Pro Bowler with Seattle, Rogers was one of 1983's dominant collegiate football players ... Averaged over 100 tackles per season during his four-year career (three as a starter) with Bruins; 405 tackles (291 unassisted) ... First UCLA player to compile three straight seasons of 90 or more solo tackles (had 133 stops sophomore year, 124 as junior and 143 in 1983) ... Second in PAC-10 with seven interceptions as senior ... Earned first-team All-America honors from Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, Sporting News, Football News and College and Pro Football Weekly; was second team by AP, UPI and NEA; consensus first-team All-PAC 10 ... Had 34 career passes defensed and 14 interceptions ... Topped career with two aerial thefts that set up 10 of UCLA's 45 points in the Rose Bowl rout of Illinois ... Lone UCLA TD came as senior when he returned an interception 29 yards for score against Stanford ... Bruin MVP and leadership award winner in 1983 ... Player of game in 1982 Rose Bowl defeat of Michigan; made 11 tackles and knocked Wolverine QB Steve Smith out of game ... Cracked double figures in tackles in 18 of last 23 games ... Won most improved player award after sophomore season ... Backed up and roomed with Easley on the road as freshman ... Majored in history ... Gifted athlete who earned recognition in prep football, basketball, and track ... Captain of all three ... Was DB and QB while earning all-conference and all-metro honors for Notre Del Rio H.S. ... Averaged seven tackles/game, passed for 975 yards (8 TDs) and rushed for 450 yards (4 TDs) as prep senior ... Track bests included 9.8 100-yard dash and outstanding 14.1 in 120-yard high hurdles ... Made All-Northern California team in basketball ... Full name is Donald Lavert Rogers ... Took courses in history this past offseason at UCLA ... Lives in Los Angeles, Calif. ... Brother Reggie is basketball and football player at U. of Washington and sister Jackie plays basketball for Oregon State ... Enjoys working with children ... Lives in Lakewood during season ... Single.

DON ROGERS ON HIS ROOKIE SEASON: "From the very beginning, I was sure I could play here. There were things to learn, and I am still learning, but I'll say this — I thoroughly enjoyed my rookie year in the NFL. I was used to aggressive football and that's what we play here. The vets were a great deal of help to me, particularly Hanford (Dixon). He talked to me and gave me advice all the time."

PRO: After a very promising rookie season, spent all but six games (at midseason) on injured reserve list in 1984 ... Sustained a neck injury in final game of 1984 preseason (at Philadelphia) and was not able to play until 10/6 ... Played in six games, including first NFL start (vs. New England, 10/7/84) ... But, in the 11th game of season (vs. San Francisco), broke his ankle and was back on injured reserve again ... 1984 stats showed one reception for 15 yards (vs. N.E.), six games played and two unassisted special teams' tackles ... Abundantly talented athlete, Stracka impressed coaches rookie summer with good speed, soft hands and very good concentration ... Played in 13 games in 1983, mostly on special teams; caught first pro pass for 12 yards in closing seconds of Steelers' game at Three Rivers ... Missed three games due to virus infection ... Contributed nine tackles on special teams (seven solos) ... Was a highlight in training camp until hampered by several minor injuries ... Draft choice used to select Stracka was obtained by trade of C Gerry Sullivan to Bears ... Sixth-round pick and 145th player selected overall ... One of eight draft picks that year to make Browns' final 49-man roster.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Finished career as WR at Wisconsin as third-ranked receiver in Badgers' history (caught 91 passes for 1,346 yards) ... Led team in receptions both junior and senior seasons ... Missed all of 1981 with broken collarbone ... Sealed 14-3 Independence Bowl (1982) victory over Kansas State with Wisconsin/Independence Bowl record 87-yard TD catch ... First two collegiate receptions were for TDs ... Three-time Big Ten and two-time NCAA District IV All-Academic choice ... AP and UPI honorable mention All-Big 10 ... Second-team All-Academic All America ... Played on Badger basketball team as freshman ... Voted outstanding football player in state of Wisconsin as a senior in high school ... Received B.A. degree in business administration with double major (finance and risk management) in 1983 ... All state in football (safety and wide receiver), basketball (forward) and baseball (center-fielder) as a senior and all-state junior year in football and basketball ... Played on players' offseason basketball team past two years, while also participating in Browns' weight and conditioning program ... Enjoys hunting, fishing and is low handicap golfer ... Lived with teammate Terry Nugent this past offseason in Cleveland suburb of Lakewood ... Single.

decathlete in high school ... Has eight career blocked kicks ... Most recent blocked FG was 34-yarder attempted by Rolf Benirschke early in the fourth quarter of Browns' OT win at S.D. (9/25/83) ... Earned a game ball for effort vs. Chargers ... Contributed 12 tackles (mostly kick and punt coverage), blocked one FG and helped cause a fumble during 1983 campaign ... Valuable member of nearly every special teams' unit ... Started final five games of 1982 season at right OLB after spending part of his third straight season on injured reserve ... Knee injury prevented him from playing two games, but was activated after strike for Patriots' game ... Against San Diego (12/5/82), started first pro game and made game-high (tied with Banks) nine tackles ... In '82 season finale at Pittsburgh, totaled nine solo tackles, an assist, one pass defended and a QB sack ... Despite playing relatively new position (drafted as TE), finished shortened season with career-high 36 total tackles (eighth on team), forced a fumble (vs. Dallas), defended two passes and had one QB sack ... Assortment of injuries hampered a smooth transition from TE to LB in 1981 as he missed all but first week of training camp with shoulder injury ... Also missed playing time due to knee problem and did not play last three games of season because of broken thumb (placed on injured reserve 12/9/81) ... Absence was felt in first two games of 1981 when opponents' made all six FG attempts; after return from IR, blocked two FGs and opposition made only seven of 16 tries during a seven game stretch ... Of his eight blocked kicks, seven are FGs, with PAT block coming in 1981 ... Spent 9/26 through 11/2/80 on injured reserve with strained knee and pulled hamstring ... Saw action in every game as rookie after beating out veteran Gary Parris for backup TE to Pro Bowler Ozzie Newsome ... Demonstrated excellent tackling skills on special teams and was switched to defense after 1980 season ... Caught one pass in 1979 ... One of Browns' hardest workers in the offseason, Curtis has participated in team's offseason weight and conditioning program all four years ... Ninth-round draft pick in 1979 (Cleveland acquired pick for Weathers as part of Tom Skladany deal to Detroit; Cody Risien was another player obtained in that deal).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Caught 71 passes for 1,196 (16.8 avg.) during four-year TE career at Ole Miss ... Played in Blue-Gray game and Japan Bowl as senior when he served as Mississippi team captain ... Honorable mention All America by Sporting News ... "Redshirted" in 1975 with broken wrist ... Earned undergraduate degree in political science in 1979 ... Captain of football (wingback and defensive end), track and basketball teams in high school ... Demonstrated versatile athletic ability in high school by placing second in Tennessee track and field decathlon championships ... Nicknamed "Apollo Creed" by his teammates because of uncanny resemblance to actor Carl Weathers (of "Rocky" films) ... Enrolled in real estate classes this past off-season, while continuing to work in marketing for East Ohio Gas Co. (past two years) ... Lives in Cleveland suburb of Berea with wife Nancy (6/6/81), who is active in the Browns' Wives' Association.

blems making smooth transition ... Stole three passes in 1983, including one each in his first two games (Minnesota and at Detroit) ... Biggest theft of career came at Stadium when he intercepted a QB Gifford Nielsen pass and returned it 15 yards to the Oiler 20; on next play rookie RB Boyce Green raced 20 yards for the Browns OT victory ... Finished season with 59 tackles (40 solos), five passes defended, one sack and was credited with one-half forced fumble (at New England) ... Team-high eight tackles in Browns' OT win at San Diego ... Interception at Detroit came with 3:42 remaining and Cleveland clinging to a 28-26 lead ... Drafted in sixth round (162nd player selected) as a WR in 1982 (choice acquired in trade with Denver for LB Robert L. Jackson) ... Demonstrated outstanding tackling ability on special teams during rookie season (eight special team tackles in nine games) and was switched to defense during 1983 offseason ... Did not catch a pass in 1982, but did earn a game ball for play in 10-9 win over Steelers ... Forced a fumble that resulted in a FB Mike Pruitt TD and 21-0 halftime lead in first professional game at Seattle (9/12/82).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Won four letters while setting Aggies' all-time mark with 1,372 yards receiving after "walking on" to team as freshman ... Originally enrolled at Texas A&M on a track grant, but gridiron play earned him a football scholarship ... Caught four passes first two years and 57 last two for a 23.4 avg ... Gathered in seven career TD passes and earned All-SWC honors as senior ... 27.1-yard per catch average was highest in SWC in 1981 ... Played in both Senior and Independence Bowls ... BERNIE KOSAR

6'5", 210 lbs., Rookie
 Miami
 Boardman (O.) H.S.
 Born 11/25/63, Boardman, O.
 D1 (S), 1985

COLLEGE: Joined the Browns in early July as one of the most publicized and sought after collegiate players in the history of the NFL ... Only player drafted in the June, 1985 supplemental draft; Kosar came to the Browns after playing just two football seasons with the Miami Hurricanes ... In those two years (redshirted as freshman in 1982), the native Ohioan established 22 single game, season and career records while leading Miami to a national championship in 1983 and a Fiesta Bowl berth in 1984 ... Earned Orange Bowl MVP honors after passing for a record 300 yards as a freshman in 31-30 victory over Nebraska ... Chosen second-team AP All America and first-team CoSIDA Academic All America in 1984 ... Finished career at Miami with 463 completions out of 743 attempts (62.3%) for 5,971 yards (LG of 85 yards), 40 TD passes, 29 interceptions and was sacked 48 times ... In 1984, averaged 34.7 passes, 21.8 completions and 303.5 yards per game ... Compiled a 19-6 record as Hurricane starter ... During that period, Miami was 9-5 vs. opponents who were ranked in top 20; 5-1 against teams ranked in top 10; 2-0 vs. No. 1 ranked teams; and 6-3 in games when Hurricanes were on national TV ... In 1984, established following UM single-game records: most passes completed (30 vs. Maryland); most yards passing (447 vs. Boston College); most TD passes (five at Cincinnati); and most yards gained total offense (436 vs. Boston College) ... Also broke nine school records last year, including: most passes attempted (416); most passes completed (262); most yards gained passing (3,642); most TD passes (25); most 300-yard games (eight); and most consecutive 300-yard games (five) ... In his 23-game collegiate career, Kosar broke nine more records, including: most passes completed (463); most yards gained passing (5,971); most TD passes (40); LG play from scrimmage (85 TD pass to Eddie Brown, at Cincinnati); most 300-yard passing games (nine); and most 200-yard passing games (18) ... Won the 1984 Jack Harding Memorial Award (UM MVP) and the '84 Mariotto Award (UM football scholar award) ... Against UCLA in the 1985 Fiesta Bowl, hit on 31 of 44 passes (70.5%) for 294 yards, two TDs and one interception ... Was 19 of 35 for 300 yards (two TDs) while guiding Miami to 1983 national championship over Nebraska ... 447-yard passing performance against Boston College on national TV was overshadowed by Doug Flutie's 65-yard last second pass ... Moments before, Kosar had rescued Miami from a third-and-21 situation at own eight-yard line and marched them to a go-ahead TD with 28 seconds remaining ... Graduated from Miami this past June 25 with a double major (finance and economics) ... Took 18 credit hours during spring term and six this past summer in order to graduate in three years (with honors) ... In an unprecedented series of events concerning college graduation and the NFL draft, Kosar announced on 3/14/85 that he was considering skipping his final two seasons of eligibility at UM in order to try professional football ... On 4/9, the Browns traded two number one draft picks (1985 and 1986), a third (1985) and a sixth (1986) to the Buffalo Bills for their first pick in the 1985 supplemental draft ... Two weeks later (4/23/85), NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle ruled the Browns' trade with Buffalo valid ... The following day, Kosar announced that he would not make himself available (by letter) for the regular draft, but would wait until after he graduated and become eligible for a supplemental draft.

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Boardman, Ohio (Youngstown suburb). Bernie is fulfilling a childhood dream of playing for the Browns ... His favorite player growing up was former Browns' QB Brian Sipe ... As a senior at Boardman H.S., passed for 2,022 yards and 19 touchdowns, while leading his team to an 8-2 record ... Acclaimed Ohio's Player of the Year by the Associated Press ... Played only six games as junior (due to school strike) and was injured most of sophomore season ... Also played basketball and baseball ... Selected Miami after also considering Cincinnati, West Virginia and Florida ... Played linebacker and quarterback for the Byzantine Catholic Central Grade School team in local league ... Enjoys playing golf ... Single.

1984 REVIEW

MONDAY, SEPT. 3 — Seahawks 33, BROWNS 0 (59,540) at Kingdome. In the season opener, Cleveland was shut out for the first time since 11/27/77 (Rams, 9-0). Browns got in an early hole and never recovered as Seahawks defense grabbed two QB Paul McDonald passes, recovered three fumbles and sacked Browns' quarterbacks seven times. McDonald managed just eight completions in 27 attempts (season-low 29.6%) for 114 yards. Seattle QB David Krieg produced three TD passes on 14 completions (28 attempts) for 179 yards. RB Curt Warner gained 40 yards rushing on 10 carries, but was lost for the season with a knee injury. The Browns' offense struggled to it's worst performance of the 1984 season (10 first downs and 120 total net yards) as they did not convert a third-down play in 11 attempts and committed a season-high six turnovers (including a blocked punt). Seattle owned a time of possession advantage of 36:03 to 23:57. The Browns trailed 20-0 at the half, which Seattle built to the final 33 point total in the third quarter. ILB Eddie Johnson and Rookie FS Don Rogers, each produced game-high 10 tackles and Rogers forced a fumble. The game, originally scheduled for Sunday, was switched to Labor Day afternoon because of a baseball conflict.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 9 — Rams 20, BROWNS 17 (43,043) at Anaheim Stadium. The Browns took a 17-10 lead into the fourth quarter, but a timely 18-yard run by Eric Dickerson and a 27-yard field goal by K Mike Lansford with 1:28 left in the game, gave the Rams a 20-17 victory. The Browns built their seven point margin on a six-yard Mike Pruitt run in the first quarter (set up by a 64-yard pass from QB Paul McDonald to WR Ricky Feacher), a 25-yard Matt Bahr FG in the second and a third quarter, four-yard TD toss to TE Ozzie Newsome from McDonald. L.A. scored first on an 81-yard interception return by CB LeRoy Irvin in the first quarter and tied it at 17 when WR Ron Brown caught a six-yard pass from QB Vince Ferragamo in the final quarter. Dickerson, the only back all season to crack the century mark rushing against the Browns' defense (102 yards on 27 carries), set up the game-winning FG when he bulled his way 18 yards to a first down on a crucial third-and-seven play from the Browns' 48 with a little more than two minutes left. McDonald and rookie WR Brian Brennan moved the ball from the Browns' 17 to the Rams' 49 on two completions (for 34 yards) in the closing seconds, but a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty (against WR Duriel Harris) ended any hopes of a game-tying FG. With 78 yards rushing (27 attempts), Pruitt cracked the NFL's all-time top 20 rushing list. McDonald finished the day 18 of 35 for 263 yards and Ferragamo was 12 of 20 for 101. Newsome grabbed a game-high eight catches (65 yards) and Brennan contributed five for 75. CB Hanford Dixon and ILB Tom Cousineau each had interceptions and for the second straight game, ILB Eddie Johnson was the team's leading tackler with 10. LT Doug Dieken broke K Don Cockroft's club record for most consecutive games played with his 189th straight. "Diek" also increased his own record for most consecutive starts to 180.

SUNDAY NIGHT, SEPT. 16 — Broncos 24, BROWNS 14 (61,980) at Cleveland Stadium. For the second straight week, the Browns failed in a last minute drive to reach field position to attempt a game-tying field goal. Trailing 17-14 and facing a second and ten at the Denver 46-yard line with 50 seconds to play, Bronco CB Randy Robbins stole a QB Paul McDonald pass (intended for rookie WR Brian Brennan) and raced 62 yards for the clinching touchdown. Cleveland had jumped to a 14-0 lead late in the second period after sustaining two drives (11 plays, 69 yards and 12 plays, 64 yards) that were capped by a pair of FB Mike Pruitt TD plunges (one and two yards). McDonald finished the night 22 of 42 for 282 yards and helped the Browns to a 36:31 to 23:29 time of possession advantage, but he was sacked seven times and was intercepted three times. QB John Elway was just 15 of 35 for 170 yards, but threw two TD passes and avoided Browns' blitzes by running for 42 yards on six carries. Pruitt, with 67 yards rushing (24 carries), moved into 19th place on the NFL's all-time rushing list. Brennan caught a game-high seven SUNDAY, SEPT. 23 — BROWNS 20, Steelers 10 (77,312) at Cleveland Stadium.

The Browns notched their first victory of the season when the offense rolled up a season-high 413 yards and the defense did not allow the Steelers a touchdown. Pittsburgh's lone TD, the only score in the first half, occurred when CB Sam Washington grabbed a tipped QB Paul McDonald pass and raced 69 yards to the end zone. The Steelers carried their 7-0 lead into the third quarter before Cleveland moved ahead with an 18-yard Matt Bahr field goal and a 44-yard catch and run by RB Boyce Green from McDonald (LG of Green's career). After Pittsburgh tied the score at 10 (46-yard Gary Anderson FG), the Browns produced 10 fourth-quarter points for the victory. WR Duriel Harris grabbed a three-yard TD toss from McDonald 11 seconds into the quarter and Matt Bahr hit a 48-yard FG after CB Hanford Dixon tipped a David Woodley pass which SS Al Gross intercepted. Meanwhile, the Browns' "Dog" defense limited the Steelers to just 12 first downs, surrendered only 219 total net yards, forced three turnovers and allowed a season-low 71 yards rushing. Woodley managed just nine completions in 25 attempts for 153 yards. WR John Stallworth caught three for 68 yards. The sellout crowd saw McDonald hit on 15 of 28 passes for 293 yards and two TDs. TEs Ozzie Newsome (6 for 99) and Harry Holt (3 for 89) combined for nine receptions for 188 yards as "The Wizard" extended his catch streak to 70 straight. Green had a career high 76 yards receiving (three catches) and added 41 yards rushing. FB Mike Pruitt led all rushers with 83 yards on 26 carries. ILB Tom Cousineau had a team-high 12 tackles and recovered a WR Louis Lipps fumble (caused by rookie FS Don Rogers). OLB Clay Matthews recovered a fumble and forced another. The Browns victory marked the third straight and fourth in last five meetings against the Steelers in Cleveland Stadium.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 30 — Chiefs 10, BROWNS 6 (40,785) at Arrowhead Stadium.

An outstanding Browns' defensive effort could not overcome a disappointing offensive showing when Cleveland dropped a 10-6 decision to the Chiefs. The Browns' defense produced a season-high four turnovers, including the first NFL interceptions for rookies Don Rogers and Frank Minnifield. NT Bob Golic and DE Reggie Camp each had fumble recoveries as the defense limited K.C. to just 234 total net yards and held the opposing QB under 50% completions for the third straight game. Chiefs' QB Todd Blackledge was 15 of 33 for 155 yards, but his nine-yard scoring toss to FB Billy Jackson in the fourth quarter gave defeat to the Browns. The 63-yard (seven plays) drive was the first TD surrendered by the Browns' defense in nine quarters. Unfortunately for the Browns, the offense never got untracked. QB Paul McDonald was sacked a club record 11 times and he threw a career-high four interceptions. The last errant throw came after marching the offense from their own four-yard line to the K.C. 30. But with 52 seconds remaining and facing a third and ten, McDonald's pass intended for rookie WR Bruce Davis was intercepted at the 10-yard line by FS Deron Cherry. McDonald finished the game 17 of 38 for 186 yards. FB Mike Pruitt rushed 20 times for 67 yards and surpassed Floyd Little into 18th place on the NFL's all-time rushing list. TE Ozzie Newsome was the game's leading receiver with seven catches for 74 yards. TE Harry Holt suffered broken ribs and missed the next four games. ILB Eddie Johnson contributed a team-high nine tackles. WR Dwight Walker, playing for the first time this season, grabbed four passes for 74 yards.

1984 REVIEW

SUNDAY, OCT. 7 — Patriots 17, BROWNS 16 (53,036) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns were defeated for the fifth time in six games, despite outgaining their opponent in total net yards for the fourth time of the season. But, what was so bitter about this defeat was the manner in which they lost. Cleveland saw a 16-3 third quarter lead disappear when Pats' WR Stephen Starring grabbed a 42-yard touchdown pass from QB Tony Eason (Eason had handed the ball to RB Mose Tatupe, who flipped it back to Eason). RB Tony Collins scored on a two-yard dive for New England's final TD. Trailing by one, with 23 seconds left from the N.E. 21-yard line, McDonald's first-down pass intended for WR Durriel Harris was intercepted at the seven by CB Ray Clayborn. Minutes before the Browns' two-minute drill, K Matt Bahr had missed a 36-yard FG that would have given Cleveland a 19-17 lead. The Browns led 9-3 at the half after three Bahr FGs (24, 48 and 27 yards). Harris' 16-yard TD catch from McDonald early in the third period had given Cleveland the 13-point edge. McDonald had the most productive day of his career, throwing for a career-high 320 yards on 23 completions (37 passes) and a 62.1 completion percentage. Harris caught eight for 136 and TE Ozzie Newsome hauled in six for 55. Cleveland outgained the Patriots 349-254 in total yards and sacked Eason five times, including 2½ by DE Reggie Camp. OLB Clay Matthews produced a team-leading nine tackles and contributed one sack. The Browns' backfield was held to 44 yards rushing on 24 carries as FB Mike Pruitt sat out the game with a pulled calf muscle.

SUNDAY, OCT. 14 — Jets 24, BROWNS 20 (55,673) at Cleveland Stadium. A milestone in Pro Bowler Ozzie Newsome's career was wasted as the Browns suffered another loss, missing another opportunity for a "Kardiac Kid" victory. New York took a 17-14 first-half lead on two RB Freeman McNeil touchdown runs and a Pat Leahy field goal (Browns' defense had given up only one rushing TD prior to game). FB Mike Pruitt gave the Browns their two scores before the intermission with a pair of one-yard dives. K Matt Bahr used the LG field goal of his career, 49 yards, to tie the game at 17. His 18-yarder in the final period gave Cleveland a 20-17 lead. The Jets' winning score came on a one-yard RB Tony Paige run. The Browns' final drive stalled when QB Paul McDonald was sacked on three consecutive plays (twice by Mark Gastineau), beginning at the N.Y. 28 with 1:28 to play. Newsome finished his finest day as a pro with 14 receptions for 191 yards (both club records), cracked the 5,000-yard career receiving mark and surpassed WR Reggie Rucker into 4th place on the Browns' all-time yardage list. The Browns' offense produced a season-high 26 first downs and 384 total net yards to the Jets' 336. McDonald was 25 of 37 for 299 yards and did not throw an interception for the first time in eight games. Jet QB Pat Ryan was 11 of 25 for 145 yards, and was intercepted twice by ILB Eddie Johnson. ILB Tom Cousineau was the game's leading tackler with 12.

SUNDAY, OCT. 21 — Bengals 12, BROWNS 9 (50,667) at Riverfront Stadium. The Browns' fourth consecutive loss was unusual as Cincinnati out-kicked Cleveland, four field goals to three. Bengals' Jim Breech hit the decisive FG (33 yards) as time expired. K Matt Bahr had knotted the game at nine with 2:02 to play when he kicked a 47-yarder. Bahr also converted a three-pointer from 50 yards in the first quarter (career LG). But Bahr's best almost pales in comparison to Steve Cox's effort with 28 seconds remaining in the half. Cox hit from 60 yards, second LG in NFL history to Tom Dempsey's 63-yarder in 1970. Turk Schonert (9 of 13 for 130 yards), the third Bengal QB used in the game, rallied Cincinnati to the clinching pair of fourth quarter FGs. QB Paul McDonald, despite numerous drops in the rain, completed a career-high 27 passes for 300 yards in 47 attempts. TE/WR Willis Adams had his best game as a pro, catching eight for 94. TE Ozzie Newsome became the sixth tight end in NFL history to reach the 400 career reception mark. SS Al Gross, CB Hanford Dixon and ILB Tom Cousineau all contributed a game-high 10 tackles, while OLB Clay Matthews had two QB sacks. The Browns outgained their opponent in total net yards (324-296) for the sixth time of the season, but their record fell to 1-7. Sam Rutigliano was replaced by defensive coordinator Marty Schottenheimer as head coach the following day.

SUNDAY, OCT. 28 — SAINTS 16, BROWNS 14 (52,489) at Cleveland Stadium.

For the second consecutive game, the Browns suffered defeat on the final play of the game. This time, Morten Andersen kicked the longest field goal in the history of Cleveland Stadium when he booted a 53-yarder into the open end of the rainswept Stadium. The game-winning kick spoiled the head coaching baptism of new Browns' boss Marty Schottenheimer. Andersen's career LG was the 20th straight successful FG attempt vs. the Browns and marked the second time in the game he was good on a three-pointer as time expired. His 26-yarder before the half put the Saints ahead, 10-7. The winning drive started from the N.O. 23-yard line with 59 seconds left and no timeouts remaining. QB Richard Todd completed passes to WR Lindsay Scott (36 yards) and FB Hokie Gajan (five yards) before throwing an incomple- tion to stop the clock with six seconds. Andersen had brought New Orleans to within one with a 21-yard FG with 3:05 remaining in the game. On Cleveland's next possession, QB Paul McDonald connected with rookie WR Brian Brennan on a picture- perfect 40-yard pass to the Saints five, but a holding penalty nullified the gain and Cleveland was forced to punt two plays later. The loss also overshadowed another fine performance by McDonald, who was 16 of 23 for 193 yards (no interceptions), including a stretch of 13 straight completions (one shy of the club mark). TE Ozzie Newsome was on the receiving end of two McDonald TD passes (four and 42 yards) as he stretched his catch streak to 75 straight games. RB Boyce Green rushed 23 times for 74 yards. The Browns' LBs combined for 34 tackles. ILB Tom Cousineau was the leader with 10, inside partner Eddie Johnson had nine, and outside 'backers Clay Matthews and Chip Banks got eight and seven, respective- ly. Rookie FS Don Rogers separated a shoulder in the second quarter. Through nine games, in seven of the Browns' eight losses, Cleveland had the opportunity to win in the final two minutes of play, but failed.

SUNDAY, NOV. 4 — BROWNS 13, BILLS 10 (33,343) at Rich Stadium.

In a pour- ing rain, the Browns' defense held Buffalo to just 183 yards and no touchdowns as Cleveland snapped a five-game losing skid. Head coach Marty Schottenheimer earned his first victory in two tries. K Matt Bahr made both field goals he attempt- ed (36 and 28 yards) and rookie RB Earnest Byner raced 55 yards with a WR Willis Adams fumble (caused by former Brown CB Lawrence Johnson) for the Browns' lone TD. Byner's game-winning return (second LG in club history) came with 7:32 left in the fourth quarter and the Browns facing a third and twenty at the Cleveland 32. QB Paul McDonald completed a 13-yard pass to Adams before Johnson jarred the ball loose and an alert Byner scooped it up. The Bills' only TD came in the second quarter when LB Chris Keating picked up a McDonald fumble and ran 34 yards for the score. Bills' LB Darryl Talley forced the fumble when he sacked McDonald. While Boyce Green was enjoying the finest day of his young career, gaining 156 yards on 29 carries, his running mate Byner added a combined yards' total of 138 (58 rushing on nine tries, 25 on one KO return and 55 yards on the fumble and run). The defense, playing without starting DBs Don Rogers (separated shoulder) and Frank Minnifield (hamstring), limited QB Joe Ferguson to 110 yards passing (16 of 24), stole two passes (SS Al Gross and FS Chris Rockins) and registered three sacks, two by veteran DE Carl Hairston. Rockins' interception, the first of his NFL career, came on a key third-down play in the end zone. Green's yards were the most by a Cleveland back since 1978 when Greg Pruitt rushed for 182 yards at Cincy in the season finale. Bills' rookie RB Greg Bell rushed 20 times for 82 yards and added six catches for 27 yards. ILB Tom Cousineau led the Browns in tackles with eight (seven solos).

SUNDAY, NOV. 11 — 49ers 41, BROWNS 7 (60,092) at Cleveland Stadium. In the Browns' worst performance of the season, the 49ers blasted the home team, 41-7. San Francisco turned three Cleveland turnovers into a 13-0 halftime lead and added 14 points each in the third and fourth quarters. Six of the 49ers' first eight drives started in Browns' territory and four were the result of turnovers, including the first two times Cleveland had the ball. The defense surrendered season-high first downs (23), points (41), yards rushing (231) and total net yards (468). The Browns' offense rushed for a season-low 43 yards and lost three fumbles. Cleveland's only touchdown came at the 11:22 mark of the final quarter when QB Paul McDonald's deflected pass was grabbed by rookie WR Bruce Davis in the end zone (first TD of career). Davis finished with four catches for 64 yards and added 58 yards on three kickoffs. McDonald, who had seven of his passes dropped, was 13 of 33 for 220 yards and one interception. TE Ozzie Newsome, playing in his 100th consecutive game, moved past Hall of Famer Paul Warfield into third place on the Browns' all-time yardage list with two receptions for 56 yards. San Francisco QB and Super Bowl XIX MVP Joe Montana led a balanced offensive attack that amassed 468 yards. He completed 24 of 30 for 263 yards, passing to eight different receivers, including RB Roger Craig, who caught a game-high eight for 49 yards. WR Freddie Solomon had five catches for 105 yards and two TDs, including a 60-yarder. RB Wendell Tyler rushed 17 times for 87 yards and Craig added 45 yards (nine carries) with two rushing TDs. Recording career-high tackle performances for the Browns were ILBs Eddie Johnson (12 solos, 5 assists for total of 17) and Tom Cousineau, 15 (5 solos and 10 assists). G Joe DeLamielleure played in the 170th consecutive game of his NFL career.

SUNDAY, NOV. 18 — BROWNS 23, Falcons 7 (28,280) at Fulton County Stadium. Behind a defense that produced a team-record 11 sacks, allowed only 210 net yards and forced a season-high four turnovers, the Browns turned back Atlanta, 23-7. Eight Browns' defenders were credited with sacks, including OLB Clay Matthews, who produced 3½, along with his 11 tackles. Chip Banks added two QB takedowns. The Browns took a 13-7 lead into the final quarter, which improved to 20-7 when QB Paul McDonald hit TE Ozzie Newsome on a 16-yard scoring pass. K Matt Bahr added his third field goal of the game late in the fourth quarter to conclude the scoring. Atlanta's only score resulted from a McDonald fumble (on a sack) at the Browns' 22-yard line in the first quarter. The Browns tied the game seven minutes later when McDonald threw 43 yards to rookie WR Bruce Davis. CB Hanford Dixon helped put the Browns on top, 10-7, when his first quarter interception led to a 27-yard Bahr FG. McDonald, sacked just once, was 13 of 23 for 205 yards and two TDs. RB Boyce Green helped the Browns with his second 100-yard game in three weeks (121 yards on a career-high 30 carries). Newsome, the AFC's leading receiver, grabbed five for 97 yards. CB Rod Perry thwarted a fourth quarter Atlanta drive with the 30th, and last, interception of his 10-year NFL career (eight years with the Rams). The Browns' defense held Falcon RB Gerald Riggs to a season-low 71 yards (on 21 rushes). Native Georgian Eddie Johnson made 10 solo tackles (11 total) and contributed one-half sack. Defensive linemen Reggie Camp, Keith Baldwin, Elvis Franks and Carl Hairston also had sacks, helping the Browns to the club mark.

SUNDAY, NOV. 25 — BROWNS 27, Oilers 10 (46,077) at Cleveland Stadium.

Paul McDonald threw a career-high three touchdown passes, TE Ozzie Newsome caught 10 passes for 102 yards and the Browns' defense produced the best performance by a Cleveland defense in nine years as the Browns completely dominated Houston, 27-10. The Oilers, who did not cross midfield until the closing minutes of the third quarter, got their lone TD when CB Keith Bostic plucked the ball from McDonald's grasp and raced 25 yards to the end zone. Sandwiched between rookie WR Brian Brennan's first two NFL TD receptions were two Matt Bahr field goals (18 and 29 yards) and an Ozzie Newsome scoring catch from McDonald (12 yards). Oiler QB Warren Moon, limited to nine completions in 20 attempts for 84 yards, was constantly harassed and sacked four times (-46 yards), including three by DE Reggie Camp. The defense yielded a season-low 147 total net yards, fewest permitted by a Cleveland unit since the Chiefs' 146 in 1975. In addition, the defense did not allow a touchdown for the fourth time of the season, and surrendered just 11 first downs and 38 net yards passing — both season bests. The Oilers' longest play of the game was a 15-yard pass. McDonald finished the day 16 of 26 for 151 yards. Brennan caught four for 34 yards and returned five punts for 54 yards. RB Boyce Green rushed for 74 yards on 26 carries. CB Hanford Dixon and SS Al Gross each had interceptions in the second quarter that led to scores. LT Doug Dieken became the eighth player in NFL history to play in 200 consecutive regular season games. ILB Tom Cousineau led all tacklers with 11 stops.

SUNDAY, DEC. 2 — Bengals 20, BROWNS 17 (OT) (51,774) at Cleveland Stadium.

For the second time in the 1984 season, the Bengals' Jim Breech kicked a field goal on the final play of the game to defeat the Browns. This time it was a 35-yarder at 4:34 in overtime, after it appeared Cleveland had the game won in regulation. The Browns led 17-10 with 1:08 remaining when Cincinnati forced Cleveland to punt from the Bengal 42. TE Rodney Holman blocked Steve Cox's punt, which was recovered at the Cleveland 28 by CB John Simmons. With no timeouts remaining, rookie QB Boomer Esiason completed four consecutive passes to the Browns' one before making it five straight on a tackle-eligible pass to Anthony Munoz for the tying touchdown. After an on-side kick was recovered by S Chris Rockins, Cox's 64-yard field goal attempt with one second left fell short. Cleveland won the OT toss and elected to receive, but was forced to punt after three plays. Simmons returned the punt 30 yards to the Browns' 35 to set up the winning FG. The stunning turn of events overshadowed another impressive Paul McDonald outing and a milestone in TE Ozzie Newsome's career. The Bengals marched 80 yards in 12 plays on their first possession for a 7-0 advantage, but Cleveland countered with 17 unanswered points — TDs by rookie WR Brian Brennan (21-yard pass from McDonald) and RB Mike Pruitt (one-yard run), and the 100th FG of Matt Bahr's NFL career. A 22-yard Breech FG with five and one-half minutes left in the game closed the gap to 17-10. McDonald completed a career-high 75 percent of his passes (18 of 24) for 191 yards, was sacked just once and did not throw an interception. Newsome (eight receptions for 62 yards) became the Browns' all-time yards' receiving leader (passing Ray Renfro, 5,508). Brennan added five for 55 yards. Pruitt, who did not play in the first half, finished with 58 yards rushing on 17 tries. QB Turk Schonert, who left the game after a third-quarter sack by DE Reggie Camp, was 16 of 21 for 138. Esiason ended the game 12 of 20 for 108 yards.

1984 REVIEW

Cincy's 28 completions were the most all season against the Browns' secondary. ILBs Eddie Johnson and Tom Cousineau led all tacklers with 16 and 13, respectively. The Browns, who fell to 4-10, were mathematically eliminated from the divisional championship race, while Cincinnati, 6-8, continued in the chase.

SUNDAY, DEC. 9 — STEELERS 23, BROWNS 20 (55,825) at Three Rivers Stadium.

For the ninth time in eleven 1984 losses, the Browns had the opportunity to win or tie in the final two minutes of play, but failed. This time, it was not the last play of the game, but it was close . . . the second last. Steeler K Gary Anderson hit a 34-yard field goal with five seconds left, handing the Browns their 15th straight loss at Three Rivers. Cleveland had tied the game at 20 with 8:49 remaining on a three-yard Paul McDonald sweep (the first of his NFL career). CB Hanford Dixon's second interception of the game halted a Steeler drive in the end zone with 4:51 left, but Pittsburgh got the ball back after three Cleveland plays netted just six yards. The Steelers then moved the ball 40 yards in nine plays before Anderson's winning FG. Cleveland took an early 3-0 lead, but Pittsburgh came right back on a 61-yard pass from QB Mark Malone to rookie WR Louis Lipps (LG pass allowed by the Browns' secondary in '84). The Central Division foes then traded second-quarter FGs and TDs before Anderson's 22-yard FG gave the Steelers a 20-13 lead in the third quarter. Cleveland's second period points were the result of a 49-yard Matt Bahr FG (after a Dixon interception) and an eight-play, 75-yard drive, capped by a McDonald to WR Ricky Feacher pass (16 yards) with 27 seconds left in the half. Rookie RB Earnest Byner's 103 yards rushing (15 carries) marked the only time all season the Steelers' defense permitted a back to gain over 100 yards. Byner also joined teammate Boyce Green as the only backs to crack the century mark rushing against Pittsburgh in Three Rivers during the last two seasons. McDonald was 19 of 33 for 211 yards, but was intercepted four times. TE Ozzie Newsome made five catches for 33 yards and WR Glen Young grabbed a 47-yarder on the first play of the game. ILB Tom Cousineau was credited with a game-high 11 solo tackles and ILB Eddie Johnson made 10 unassisted stops. DE Reggie Camp had one QB sack, giving him 13 in the last 11 games. P Steve Cox (five punts for a 49.8 average) had his best day as a pro.

SUNDAY, DEC. 16 — BROWNS 27, Oilers 20 (33,676) at Astrodome.

Behind the hard running of rookie RB Earnest Byner (188 yards rushing on 21 attempts), the Browns completed a two-game sweep of the Oilers for the first time since 1976 and finished the second half of the season with a 4-4 record under Marty Schottenheimer. The Browns' offensive line (LT Doug Dieken, LG Robert Jackson, C Mike Baab, RG Joe DeLamielleure and RT George Lilja) opened huge holes, which allowed Byner, Boyce Green and Johnny Davis to roll to a season-high 254 yards rushing (most since 309 vs. Buffalo in '78). Byner, who tallied his first two rushing TDs as a pro, recorded the second highest total ever by a Browns' rookie (Jim Brown had a club-record 237 in 1957). Cleveland jumped to an early 10-0 lead before Houston tied the game at 10 and again at 17. The Browns went ahead for good in the fourth quarter when J. Davis bulled his way to his only TD of the season (two yards). K Matt Bahr finished the scoring by making his 12th straight field goal (career best) over the past seven games (Bahr's 24 FGs for the season also topped Lou Groza's club record of 23 set in 1953). Pro Bowl TE Ozzie Newsome caught just two passes for 18 yards, but tied his own single-season record for most receptions (89), extended his catch streak to 82 games and finished the season with 1,001 yards. In winning their regular season finale for only the third time in past 12 years, the Browns overcame a season-high 13 penalties for 119 yards and outstanding efforts by Oiler QB Warren Moon (19 of 31 for 306 yards and no interceptions) and WR Tim Smith (seven catches for 167 yards). McDonald was 14 of 22 for 158 yards. TE Harry Holt grabbed four for 43 and Byner also caught three for 31. WR/KR Glen Young returned four kickoffs for 111 yards (27.8 avg.). P Steve Cox, who bettered his previous best single-game punting average for the second straight week, averaged 53 yards per punt, including the longest of career, 69 yards. Eddie Johnson and Tom Cousineau contributed a team-high eight tackles each.

NOTE—The Browns have won more games in overtime (7-4) than any team in NFL since OT rule was adopted in 1974. Cleveland, Chicago and Green Bay have played the most overtime games—11 each.

HISTORY

- 1946: Browns were started by owner Arthur (Mickey) McBride as member of the All America Football Conference. Paul Brown was named coach and general manager and the first player he signed was then tailback Otto Graham. The Browns won the Western title with a 42-17 victory over the Buffalo Bisons and then defeated the New York Yankees in the championship game (14-9).
- 1947-49: Browns continued their domination of the AAFC, winning three more championships.
- 1950: Following the merger of the AAFC and the NFL, the Browns tied with the New York Giants with 10-2 records for a share of Eastern title. Browns won playoff, 8-3, and then stopped Los Angeles, 30-28, for the championship.
- 1951-53: Browns won three consecutive Eastern titles, but lost each time in the league's title match. In 1953, McBride sold the club to an organization headed by David Jones.
- 1954-55: Led by quarterback Otto Graham, the Browns won back-to-back NFL championships.
- 1956: At 5-7, the Browns suffered first losing season.
- 1957: Jim Brown was drafted; was named rookie of the year and helped Cleveland to Eastern Division title.
- 1961: Former television and advertising executive Art Modell bought the Browns.
- 1963: Blanton Collier, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach.
- 1964: Browns win division title with 52-20 victory over Giants and captured NFL championship with 27-0 win over Colts.
- 1965: In what was to be his last season, Jim Brown won NFL MVP honors and led Cleveland to league title game where they were defeated by Green Bay.
- 1966: An eighth round pick from 1964, Leroy Kelly became the club's dominant threat, rushing for 1,141 yards, but the Browns finished second in their division to Dallas.
- 1967: NFL was realigned and Browns won Century Division.
- 1968: With newly acquired quarterback Bill Nelsen (from Pittsburgh), Browns won division; beat Dallas in playoffs and lost to Baltimore in the championship.
- 1969: Browns won third consecutive division crown, but lost to Minnesota in title game.
- 1970: Browns became members of AFC Central and finished second.
- 1971: Nick Skorich, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach. Team won first AFC Central crown.
- 1972: Browns once again gained postseason, losing to eventual champion Miami in playoffs.
- 1975-77: Forrest Gregg, Browns' offensive line coach, becomes head coach; Gregg Pruitt has three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons; Dick Modzelewski coaches final game of 1977.
- 1978: Sam Rutigliano becomes the first non-Browns' assistant to gain head coaching position. Team won first three on way to 8-8 finish.
- 1979: Losses in final two games prevented team from entering playoffs, finishing 9-7; Mike Pruitt keeps the tradition of outstanding Browns' running backs and has the first of three straight 1,000-yard seasons.
- 1980: Browns win AFC Central title with 11-5 record; lost to eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland in playoff; Brian Sipe is consensus MVP of league.
- 1982: In strike-shortened season, Browns finish eighth in AFC (4-5) and gain playoffs second time in three years. Lost to Raiders in Super Bowl Tournament.
- 1983: Browns tied for wildcard playoff spot with 9-7 record, but did not advance, losing to Denver and Seattle through NFL tie-breaking procedure.
- 1984: Browns replaced head coach Sam Rutigliano with defensive coordinator Marty Schottenheimer after a 1-7 midseason record and finished season at 5-11. TE Ozzie Newsome caught 89 passes for second straight year.

CLEVELAND STADIUM

Cleveland Stadium, a famous and proud landmark for this city, is the nation's largest facility housing both a Major League baseball team and an NFL franchise. The Stadium, with a current capacity of 80,098, was completed in July of 1931 at a cost of $3.5 million.

The Stadium, which sits on a landfill, has proved to be multi-purpose. Along with baseball and football, the range of activities at the Stadium has included everything from a heavyweight championship bout (Schmeling vs. Stribling) to religious convocations. The Metropolitan Opera and the Beatles have performed on the field, as have circuses, rodeos, big bands, tractor pulls, and a horde of professional and amateur athletes.

Over the years, the Stadium became a financial strain for the city of Cleveland. Art Modell responded to the need in 1974, when he formed Cleveland Stadium Corporation and signed a 25-year lease with the city. In early 1982, all of the stock of the corporation was sold to the Browns.

When the agreement between the city and Modell had been reached in 1974, the Browns' owner promised a $10 million improvement plan, which was recently concluded. The results are very much in evidence.

The list of improvements is a long one, but includes the addition of 108 luxurious loges, a computerized scoreboard, more comfortable seats, new concession facilities, a new lighting system (both inside and around the perimeter of the Stadium), outfield fence pads, and the installation of a new playing field, which was lowered two feet to provide a better view from the stands (1976).

Old electrical and plumbing systems were replaced. Locker rooms have been upgraded; Stadium restaurants have been renovated; and first aid areas were completed. A press box elevator was added. Cleaning and painting continue to be top priority items in a continuous maintenance program.

Current Cleveland Mayor George Voinovich gives Modell and the Stadium staff the credit. "If the city had held onto the Stadium, it probably would be closed today," Voinovich said. (Cleveland Press, 3/28/80).
