JOHN COLLINS

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John Collins assumed the role of President & Chief Executive Officer of the Cleveland Browns on May 1, 2004. He oversees all business aspects of the club and works with Owner Randy Lerner and Head Coach Butch Davis in the development, strategic planning and implementation of organizational goals and initiatives. Collins, 42, also works with Lerner in representing the Browns in National Football League matters.

"I accepted this position because I firmly believe in Randy Lerner and his vision for the Cleveland Browns," Collins said. "Randy views this franchise as a Cleveland community asset. As such, it is our responsibility to build value through strengthening the emotional and social connection between fans and the Browns. We intend to build a strong business environment that complements and supports a winning football operation by developing comprehensive and lasting relationships in the community and with our corporate partners."

Collins previously served in a variety of key business roles with the National Football League since joining the league in 1989, and worked since February of 2003 as senior vice president of marketing and sales. In that role, Collins oversaw all the corporate sponsorship, advertising sales and marketing functions of the NFL, one of the most visible brands in the world. During the 14 months he was in charge of NFL sponsorship and sales, Collins helped secure more than $1.9 billion in sponsorship rights fees, marketing and promotion activation and media commitments from blue-chip companies such as Pepsi, Coors, IBM, Gatorade, Anheuser-Busch, GM, Visa and MBNA. Collins also led the sales effort for the NFL Network launch.

Collins has received numerous honors in recognition of his achievements. He was selected one of the top 20 sports advertising executives in 2004 by the Sports Business Journal. In 2003, he was selected by Advertising Age Magazine as one of America's top 50 marketers, won a Silver Lion at the Cannes Film Festival for the NFL's 2003 Super Bowl Advertising, won two Promotion Marketing Association "PRO Awards" for Promotional Marketers of the Year, and won a Silver Effie from the New York American Marketing Association for the NFL's 2003 Playoffs Campaign. In 2002, Collins won three "Reggie" awards for national marketing campaigns from the Promotion Marketing Association, and his NFL advertising campaigns won seven "Addy" awards from the American Advertising Federation. He was also named one of Brandweek Magazine's "Marketers of the Next Generation" in 2000.

Collins was named in September 2000 as senior vice president of entertainment programming and marketing. He spearheaded the NFL's advertising and design, marketing, club services, market research, media planning, and television programming. Collins was an NFL executive from 1989-99 before a brief stint at Broadband Sports. He returned to NFL headquarters in 2000.

Collins joined NFL Films in 1989 as director of sponsorship sales and was promoted to vice president in 1993. In 1996, Collins was named to the newly created position of NFL Vice President of Programming and Sales. Prior to joining the NFL, Collins was in advertising account management with DDB Needham Worldwide (New York) for six years during the 1980s.

A New York City native, he attended C.W. Post College and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Collins and his wife, Christina, have three children: Jackson, Ryan and Sean.

BUTCH DAVIS HEAD COACH & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 4TH

YEAR IN NFL: 10TH

Butch Davis is in his fourth season as head coach of the Cleveland Browns. In his first season as head coach in 2001, Davis led his young team to an impressive 7-9 record, exceeding by two the expansion club's combined victories from 1999 and 2000 (5-27). Cleveland led the NFL in takeaways with 42, including a league-high and team-record 33 interceptions. The Browns defense also scored 32 points (4 interception returns, 1 fumble return, 1 safety). His second season as head coach resulted in the Browns earning their first playoff appearance and best regular season mark since 1994, despite 34 of the 53 players on the team's final active roster having four years of NFL experience or less. Cleveland finished the season with a 7-3 mark over its final 10 games, including victories in four of its final six outings, the best record over the final six games of the season for the franchise since 1988. The Browns 6-2 regular season road record in 2002 tied for the most road wins in a season in club history (6-2 in 1986, 6-1 in 1972, 6-1 in 1965) and also tied Tampa Bay for the NFL's best road mark. The 2003 Browns fell to 5-11 after having a total of 15 players on reserve-injured, reserve-non football injury (NFI) or the physically unable to perform (PUP) list, tying with Detroit for the second highest total in the NFL behind only Houston (17). The Browns also had 10 offensive players miss a total of 65 starts, and were forced to start eight different offensive line combinations. Davis' 48.0 percent (12 for 25) success rate on replay challenges is the 2nd-highest among all active NFL head coaches (1st-Herman Edwards, NY Jets, .500 on 8-16; 3rd-Steve Mariucci, Detroit, .458 on 11-24).

Highly regarded for his background and expertise on defense, Davis has placed equal emphasis on offense and defense in building the current Browns roster. Of their 29 draft picks over the last four years, Cleveland has chosen 15 offensive players, 13 defensive players and one long snapper. In Davis' first off-season in Cleveland, the Browns signed six unrestricted free agents on offense and three unrestricted free agents on defense. Through the 2001 NFL Draft, the Browns selected four players each on offense and defense. In 2002, the Browns signed six free agents—three on offense and three on defense. The Browns selected five players on offense and three players on defense in the 2002 NFL Draft, while tabbing two offensive players, four defensive players and a long snapper in the 2003 NFL Draft. The Browns signed five free agents in 2004—three on offense and two on defense while selecting four offensive players and two defensive players in the 2004 NFL draft.

The 52-year-old Davis was named the 10th full-time head coach in franchise history on Jan. 30, 2001. His 31-year coaching resume includes nine seasons in the NFL and 16 seasons at the major college level. He spent the previous six seasons before joining the Browns as head coach at the University of Miami (Fla.) and capped his overwhelmingly successful tenure by leading the Hurricanes to an 11-1 record and No. 2 consensus national ranking in 2000. Miami's 2001 team, which featured Davis' former players and recruits as well as many of his former assistant coaches, posted a perfect 12-0 record and claimed the National Championship. The 2002 Hurricanes posted a 12-1 record and No. 2 consensus national ranking, while the 2003 Hurricanes were 11-2 and finished with a No. 5 national ranking.

Davis accepted the head coaching position at Miami in 1995 and rebuilt the Hurricanes program back to college football's elite status. Davis inherited a Miami program following NCAA sanctions that severely reduced the number of available scholarships during his first three years. Under his six years of guidance, Miami totaled a 51-20 record, including a combined mark of 5-0 in pre-season and postseason action (4-0 in bowl games and 1-0 in preseason action with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the 1999 Kickoff Classic). Davis' teams were nationally ranked five times and captured three Big East titles. The 2000 Hurricanes ranked second in the nation in scoring (42.6 points per game), fifth in total offense (460.8 yards per game), fifth in scoring defense (15.5 points per game), eighth in passing defense (220.6 yards per game) and capped their season by defeating SEC Champion Florida, 37-20, in the 2001 Nokia Sugar Bowl.

BUTCH DAVIS CONTINUED...

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Davis coached six seasons (1989-94) with the Dallas Cowboys, including the final two as the club's defensive coordinator. Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history as the Cowboys went from a 1-15 season in 1989 to consecutive Super Bowl championships in 1992 and 1993. Davis was defensive line coach in the Cowboys' 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII and served as defensive coordinator in the Cowboys' 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVIII. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys rank first in the NFL in rushing defense (77.8 yards per game). Davis' 1993 defensive squad helped the Cowboys capture their second consecutive Super Bowl, set a club record by allowing just 21 total touchdowns in 16 games and allowed one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games. He was also defensive coordinator during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach and helped Dallas reach the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco denied their bid for a three-peat. Davis' 1994 Cowboys defense ranked first in the NFL in total defense (269.6 yards per game), first in pass defense (172.0 yards per game), third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game), 10th in rushing defense (97.6 yards per game) and had three Pro Bowl starters: defensive end Charles Haley, defensive tackle Leon Lett and defensive back Darren Woodson. The three defensive starters were the most for the Cowboys since 1983.

Davis accepted the head coaching position at Miami in 1995 and helped the Hurricanes earn a share of the Big East Conference Championship by winning seven straight games to close the season. The Hurricanes would have received an invitation to a BCS bowl game following the 1995 season, however, Miami declined the invitation due to NCAA sanctions previously approved by university officials for violations prior to Davis' arrival in South Florida. Davis again led Miami to a share of the Big East title in 1996 and catapulted the Hurricanes to a top 20 ranking and their first bowl victory in five years with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. He led Miami to a 46-23 win over North Carolina State in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl. Davis' 1999 squad began the year with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the Kickoff Classic and capped the season with a 28-13 victory over Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl, the Hurricanes' first New Year's Day bowl game under Davis. In Davis' last season in Miami (2000), the Hurricanes posted an 11-1 mark, including a 37-20 victory over Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. Miami surpassed the national graduation rate for its football players every year under Davis, while receiving recognition from the American Football Coaches Association for exceeding a 70% graduation rate among its football student-athletes.

Davis spent five seasons as the defensive line coach for the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1984-88 and helped guide the Hurricanes to the 1987 National Championship. During his first stint at Miami, Davis coached a defensive line corps that sent 15 linemen to the NFL including All-America selections Bill Hawkins, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Daniel Stubbs and the late Jerome Brown. Davis' line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, broke the mark with 50 in 1988, and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis entered the collegiate coaching ranks on the offensive side of the ball as an assistant on Jimmy Johnson's Oklahoma State University teams from 1979-83. At Oklahoma State, Davis coached receivers and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator. Prior to joining Oklahoma State, Davis was head coach at Rogers High School in Tulsa, Okla., in 1978, after spending time as an assistant at two high schools in Oklahoma and one in Arkansas where he taught biology, life science, anatomy and physiology. Davis played defensive end for the University of Arkansas under Head Coach Frank Broyles and earned his bachelor's degree in biology and life science in 1974.

Born Paul Hilton Davis in Tahlequah, Okla., on Nov. 17, 1951, Davis and his wife, the former Tammy Townsend of Tulsa, Okla., have a son, Andrew, 11.

DAVE CAMPO DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 2ND

YEAR IN NFL: 16TH

Dave Campo was named the Browns defensive coordinator on Jan. 10, 2003. The Browns' 2003 defense ranked 15th in the NFL, the club's best overall defensive ranking since 1994 (7th). Cleveland also posted a sack in 15 of 16 games and ranked 2nd in the AFC, 3rd in the NFL in inside the 20 TD pct. (37.5 pct./48 possessions-18 TDs). The Browns held four teams without a touchdown (Indianapolis, San Francisco, New England and Arizona), and Cleveland's 13 passing TDs allowed tied for the fewest allowed in franchise history during a 16-game season (1988, 1994).

Prior to coaching together with the Browns, Campo and Browns Head Coach Butch Davis also worked together on the same defensive staff for eight other seasons (Miami Hurricanes, 1987-88; Dallas Cowboys, 1989-94), a span that included two Super Bowl titles and one collegiate National Championship.

Before joining the Browns, Campo spent the previous 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, including 11 seasons as an assistant and the last three as head coach. Campo and Davis worked together as assistants on Jimmy Johnson's Dallas Cowboys staff for six seasons from 1989-94, with Davis as defensive line coach (1989-92) and then as defensive coordinator (1993-94), and Campo as the secondary coach. They helped the Cowboys to consecutive Super Bowl championships following the 1992 and 1993 seasons. They also worked together under Johnson at the University of Miami during the 1987-88 seasons and helped the Hurricanes capture the 1987 National Championship.

The 2002 Cowboys finished 5-11 for the third consecutive season, and defensive tackle La'Roi Glover earned a Pro Bowl berth. The Cowboys also featured the youngest starting defensive secondary in the league, with two rookies (Roy Williams, Derek Ross), a second-year player (Tony Dixon) and a third-year player (Mario Edwards). The 2002 Cowboys defense ranked 5th in the NFL by allowing only 10 rushing TDs (only Philadelphia, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Miami allowed fewer rushing TDs). The 2001 Cowboys fielded the NFL's third youngest opening day roster. Of the 22 starters who finished the 2001 season, 13 were under the age of 28. The Dallas defense allowed 1,710 rushing yards, 927 fewer yards than the club allowed during the 2000 season. Those numbers represented the largest turnaround by any defensive unit in the NFL in 2001. In his inaugural season as head coach (2000), Campo led an injury-plagued club. The Cowboys lost 11 opening-day starters for a combined total of 70 games, including nine who suffered season-ending injuries. Ultimately, the team's fate was determined by five losses that were decided by a combined total of 19 points.

In four of the five years that Campo directed the Dallas defense as coordinator (1995-99), the Cowboys finished the year ranked among the NFL's top 10 units, including a pair of top three finishes. The 1999 defense ranked 9th in the NFL (3rd in NFC) in total yards and allowed one touchdown or less in nine of the 16 regular season games. The Cowboys defense held opponents to 13 points or less in nine of the team's 16 games in 1999, tying for the second most in club history. Dallas closed the 1999 season ranked 5th in the NFL in scoring (17.3 ppg.). Only four defensive units permitted fewer offensive touchdowns than the 25 surrendered by Dallas, and only St. Louis (four) surrendered fewer rushing touchdowns than the six allowed by the Cowboys. The 24 interceptions recorded by Dallas marked just the second time in the last 13 years the team topped the 20 interception barrier, and it was the highest interception total for a Dallas team since 1985. Following the 1999 season, linebacker Dexter Coakley and cornerback Deion Sanders were named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Dallas captured the NFC East title in 1998, ranked 5th in the NFL in third down conversion defense (32.9%), and defensive tackle Leon Lett, cornerback Deion Sanders and safety Darren Woodson were named to the Pro Bowl. Campo's 1997 defense ranked 2nd in the NFL in total defense (282.3 ypg.), while leading the league in pass defense (157.6 ypg.). Sanders and Woodson earned Pro Bowl honors.

Campo's 1996 defense helped guide the Cowboys to a 10-6 record and an unprecedented fifth straight NFC Eastern Division crown. During the 1996 regular season, the Dallas defense was ranked 1st in the NFL for 11 of 16 weeks before closing the year ranked 3rd (273.9 ypg.). The Cowboys pass defense finished the year ranked 2nd in the NFL, permitting just 175.4 yards-per-game, while the Dallas rushing defense was 10th (98.5 ypg.). The Cowboys defense surrendered just 20 touchdowns (2nd best in the NFL), and did not allow a touchdown in four games. Three of Dallas' defensive starters, Sanders, Woodson and Tony Tolbert, were named to the Pro Bowl.

Campo's 1995 defense helped the Cowboys capture Super Bowl XXX and finish the season ranked 3rd in the NFL in fewest touchdowns allowed (32) and fewest points allowed (18.2 ppg.). Only seven NFL teams had more interceptions than the 19 registered by Dallas, and the Cowboys tied a club record by returning four interceptions for touchdowns. With defensive stars such as Sanders, Kevin Smith, Charles Haley and Russell Maryland missing a combined 37 starts, the Cowboys still managed to finish the season ranked 9th in the NFL (4th in the NFC) in total defense (315.3 ypg.).

Campo was promoted to defensive coordinator on Jan. 24, 1995, after then Cowboys' defensive coordinator Butch Davis left to become head coach of the Miami Hurricanes. Prior to becoming defensive coordinator, Campo directed a secondary that had grown into one of the team's deepest and most productive units. His 1994 squad led the NFL in pass defense (172.0 ypg.) and tied for 4th in the NFL with 22 interceptions. All-Pro strong safety Darren Woodson became the first Dallas defensive back to earn a starting Pro Bowl berth since Everson Walls (1985). While directing the secondary of the Super Bowl XXVIII Champion Cowboys in 1993, Campo's group was led by cornerback Kevin Smith, who intercepted more passes (6) than any Dallas player since the 1986 season. Also in 1993, strong safety Thomas Everett became the first Dallas defensive back in seven seasons to be named to the Pro Bowl.

Campo was hired by Dallas in 1989 after spending two years at the University of Miami as the secondary coach. At Miami, he helped the Hurricanes to a two-year record of 23-1 and the 1987

National Championship. Safety Bennie Blades was the 1987 Jim Thorpe Award winner before being selected with the third pick in the NFL draft by the Detroit Lions. Eight of Campo's Miami players went on to sign NFL contracts. Campo spent three seasons (1984-86) at Syracuse University prior to joining Miami.

Campo began his career at his alma mater, Central Connecticut State, where he spent the 1971-72 seasons. He then moved to the University of Albany (1973), Bridgeport (1974), the University of Pittsburgh (1975), Washington State (1976), Boise State (1977-79), Oregon State (1980), Weber State (1981-82) and Iowa State (1983). In addition to starring at defensive back in college, Campo twice earned All-East honors at shortstop at Central Connecticut State. He attended Robert E. Fitch High School in Groton, Conn. He and his wife, Kay, have six children: Angie, Eric, Becky, Tommy, Shelbie and Michael.

CHUCK PAGANO
SECONDARY COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 4TH

YEAR IN NFL: 4TH

Chuck Pagano is in his fourth year as the defensive backs and secondary coach on Butch Davis' staff. Cleveland's 13 passing TDs allowed in 2003 tied for the fewest allowed in franchise history during a 16-game season (1988, 1994), and the Browns' 2003 defense ranked 15th in the NFL, the club's best overall defensive ranking since 1994 (7th). The 2001 Browns led the league and set a team record with 33 interceptions. The secondary accounted for 28 interceptions, including 10 by then rookie Anthony Henry.

Pagano was a college coach for 17 years prior to his arrival in Cleveland. He spent the previous six years before joining the Browns with Davis at the University of Miami (Fla.), where he was secondary coach and coordinator of special teams. During the 2000 season, his defensive secondary was tabbed the nation's best by the Football News. The Hurricanes ranked 5th in the nation in scoring defense (15.5 points per game), 8th in passing defense (220.6 yards per game) and capped their season by defeating Florida, 37-20, in the 2001 Nokia Sugar Bowl.

In the 1999 season, the Hurricanes secondary did not allow a passing touchdown over the last 27 quarters, as Miami finished with a record of 9-4, including a 6-1 mark in the Big East. Miami capped the season with a 28-13 win over Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl.

During his six years at Miami, Pagano coached several Hurricanes who have made a name for themselves in the NFL including: Duane Starks (Baltimore/Arizona), Tremain Mack (Cincinnati), Carlos Jones (Seattle), Earl Little (Cleveland) and Marcus Wimberly (Atlanta). In 1997, his Miami defensive secondary led the Big East in pass defense. Three of Pagano's former players—Phillip Buchanon, Ed Reed and Mike Rumph—were all selected in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft and a fourth player—James Lewis—was selected in the sixth round.

Pagano directed a very successful Hurricanes special teams unit. Over a five-year period (1995-99), Pagano's squad blocked 39 kicks in 59 games, including a Miami single-season record 12 blocks in 1996, which shattered the previous high of six set in 1970. In the 10 years prior to the 1995 season, Miami totaled 23 blocked kicks.

He began his coaching career in 1984-85 as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California, before heading to Miami in 1986 as a graduate assistant. He was the outside linebackers coach at Boise State University for two years (1987-88), before landing at East Carolina University as the Pirates' defensive backs coach in 1989.

He joined the University of Nevada-Las Vegas staff in 1990 as defensive backs coach, before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1991. In his second stint at East Carolina, Pagano spent three seasons (1992-94) as defensive backs/outside linebackers coach.

Born Oct. 2, 1960 in Boulder, Colo., Pagano received a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Wyoming in 1984. He was a four-year letter winner at Wyoming, where he started two seasons at strong safety.

ANDRE PATTERSON
DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 8TH

Andre Patterson is in his second season as the Browns defensive line coach. The Browns' 2003 defense ranked 15th in the NFL, the club's best overall defensive ranking since 1994 (7th). Cleveland also posted a sack in 15 of 16 games and ranked 2nd in the AFC, 3rd in the NFL in inside the 20 TD pct. (37.5 pct./48 possessions-18 TDs).

He spent the previous three seasons prior to joining the Browns working with the Dallas Cowboys defensive tackles and has over 20 years of coaching experience, including seven years in the NFL (Dallas, Minnesota and New England). Patterson's influence at the defensive tackle position was a large part of the Cowboys defense ranking 5th in the NFL in 2002, by allowing only 10 rushing TDs. The Dallas defense also ranked 8th in the NFC against the rush (113.6 ypg). Patterson helped All-Pro La'Roi Glover rank 2nd on the team in sacks (6.5) and QB pressures (26), 4th in TFL (5) and 6th in tackles (76). Patterson also tutored a pair of young defensive tackles. Brandon Noble totaled 57 tackles and 11 QB pressures, and Michael Myers had 44 tackles, 1 sack, 7 TFL and 8 QB pressures.

In 2001, the Dallas defense made a tremendous turnaround from the previous year, allowing 1,710-rushing yards, a figure that was 927 fewer yards than the club allowed during the 2000 season. In his first year on the job (2000), season ending injuries to starting defensive tackles Chad Hennings and Leon Lett forced Patterson to accelerate the learning and development process for several young players. Second-year man Brandon Noble had a career-high 69 tackles and ranked 3rd on the team with 10 QB pressures, while third-year man Michael Myers added a then career-best 46 tackles.

Before joining the Cowboys, Patterson's three previous years in the NFL were all spent with teams that advanced to the playoffs—Minnesota (1998 and 1999) and New England (1997).

In two seasons with the Vikings (1998-99), Patterson worked with two of the top pass rushers in NFL history in John Randle (137.5 career sacks)—who recorded double-figure sack totals in both seasons under Patterson—and Chris Doleman (150.5 career sacks). The 1999 Vikings defense finished 5th in the NFC in fewest points allowed (335), while Randle led the team with 10 sacks.

In 1998, Patterson led a unit that was a big part of the Vikings defense that shut out opponents in 29-of-73 quarters (including playoffs), held the opposition to 296 points (6th best in the NFL) and had the second-best turnover ratio (+14) in the NFL. Randle led the squad in sacks (10.5) and QB hurries (80), while defensive end Derrick Alexander had a career-high 7.5 sacks.

Patterson joined the Vikings for the 1998 season after spending the 1997 season as a defensive assistant with the New England Patriots. In his first NFL season, he helped guide the Patriots to a 10-6 record and the AFC Eastern Division title. The Patriots finished the campaign with 45 sacks, the second highest total in team history. New England's defense tied for 4th in the NFL in turnover margin (+10) and 5th in the NFL against the run.

Prior to joining the Patriots, Patterson spent three seasons as the head coach at Cal-Poly-San Luis Obispo (1994-96). When he arrived at Cal-Poly, the school had just made the jump from Division II to I-AA. In his first season as a head coach, Patterson led the Mustangs to the American West Conference title with a 7-4 record and earned American West Coach-of-the-Year honors. The following season, the Mustangs finished second in the country in passing yards (344.9 ypg) and total offense (495.9 ypg). The Mustangs averaged 37.4 ppg., 6th in the country, and placed two players on the All-America team.

Prior to joining the Mustangs, Patterson coached the defensive line at Washington State University for two seasons (1992-93). While with the Cougars, Patterson coached future NFL linemen Chad Eaton and Lewis Bush. The pair helped set a Pac-10 single season record with 60 sacks in 1992.

In 1990, Patterson joined the staff at Cornell University for two seasons as the defensive line coach. Cornell claimed the 1990 Ivy League title, powered by a defensive unit that ranked 2nd in the conference.

In 1989, Patterson served as the defensive coordinator at Western Washington University. That year his defense set an NAIA record for limiting an opponent to minus nine yards passing in a game. In 1988, Patterson coached the defensive line at Weber State University.

Patterson was the head coach at St. Monica (Calif.) High School from 1987-88. In 1983, he accepted a teaching and coaching position at Renton High School in Washington, where he served as the defensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1983-86.

Patterson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Montana, in 1982. He played two seasons at Contra Costa Junior College as an offensive lineman before transferring to Montana in 1981. He played one season at Montana before knee injuries ended his playing career.

Andre Patterson was an all-league center and nose guard at Harry Ells High School in Richmond, Va. He earned his Associate of Art degree from Contra Costa Junior College in San Pablo, Calif. in 1980. Patterson received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from the University of Montana in 1983.

Patterson was born on June 12, 1960 in Camdon, Ark. He and his wife, Donna, have a son, Andre Jr. (5/19/92), and a daughter, Ashmera (8/13/98).

JERRY ROSBURG SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 4TH

YEAR IN NFL: 4TH

Jerry Rosburg is in his fourth season as the Browns special teams coordinator. The Browns are the only NFL team to hold opponents to less than a 20-yard average per kickoff return over the last three seasons. The Browns 2002 special teams were rated as the 4th best in the NFL by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News, whose annual comprehensive poll ranks teams from 1-32 based on their results in 21 categories. The Browns blocked a total of five kicks in 2002, after blocking a total of four kicks the previous three seasons combined (1999-PAT and Punt; 2000-FG; 2001-PAT). The Browns three touchdowns via kickoff and punt returns ranked T-2nd in the NFL (N.Y. Jets-4, Kansas City-3, New Orleans-3, Oakland-3). ## CLEVELAND BROWNS HERO FUND

Dawn McAleese (mother) holding son, Aidan, along with (from L to R) daughter, Brianne, and sons Liam, and Jack.

Dawn, and their four children, Brianne (6), Jack (5), Liam (3) and Aidan (2) in the form of annual payments until the youngest child in each family turns 18. In addition to the financial pledge, the Browns have "adopted" the children by bringing them to games in Cleveland and having them join the team at one away game each year. Each trip will be planned so the families can enjoy the city where the game is played in addition to interacting with the team. The Browns will also offer internships to the children, involve the families in holiday gift giving and maintain year-round contact.

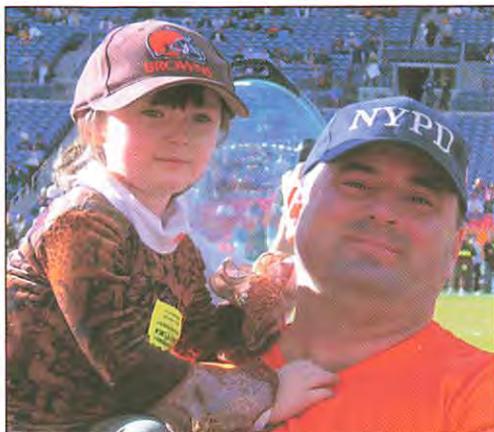

"These are people who dedicated their lives to service to their communities, and they paid a very high price for that dedication on Sept. 11," Lerner said at the time. "We wanted to show that we appreciate it and that they are not alone, and we would not ever let them be alone."

If you wish to contribute to the Cleveland Browns Hero Fund, please make checks payable to: Cleveland Browns Foundation—Hero Fund, Attn: Mr. Doug Jacobs, Executive Vice President, Finance, Cleveland Browns, 76 Lou Groza Blvd., Berea, Ohio 44017.

All donations are tax deductible.

CLEVELAND BROWNS foundation

The Cleveland Browns Foundation was founded as the philanthropic arm of the Cleveland Browns to give back to the community that has so graciously supported the team throughout the years. The primary purpose of the Foundation is to help meet the needs of disadvantaged children throughout Northeast Ohio. The Foundation reaches thousands of children each year through numerous programs that address problems local youth face every day. The Foundation's goal is to both recognize the educational, cultural, social and financial problems kids face and to help cure, minimize, or prevent their occurrence. All donations to the Foundation are tax-deductible and support local youth through Foundation programming. To learn more about the Cleveland Browns Foundation, call (440) 891-5000.

Through its annual grants program, the Cleveland Browns Foundation supports local non-profit organizations that work with children throughout Northeast Ohio. The Foundation reaches thousands of children each year through partner agencies that receive Foundation grants. The Cleveland Browns Foundation supports programs in the areas of arts & culture, career development, education and health.

The Foundation reached a milestone last season when total grants since its inception surpassed the $1 million mark. Already in 2004, the Foundation has awarded over 70 grants to local organizations in support of programming aimed at improving the lives of local children.

While the Browns were gearing up for the 2004 season, children had the opportunity to practice and perfect their football skills. On an annual basis, thousands of children and youth football coaches have participated in an array of interactive football development programs offered by the Cleveland Browns. This past year alone, over 75,000 kids were involved in youth football programs through opportunities provided by the Cleveland Browns.

As the organization looks ahead and builds on the rich tradition established in the community, the Browns will continue to embrace the fans and community with initiatives highlighting Northeast Ohio. During the 2004 season, two signature programs will be launched and fans will be invited to 'Join the Team*' and help give back to the community. Many people are already familiar with the Browns original signature program, Hats Off to Our Heroes, and watched last year as the Browns honored representatives from local military branches and fallen soldiers from the area. Our local heroes were featured on WKYC TV-3 in vignettes which aired throughout the month of September. This year, we will be honoring some of our littlest heroes—the children of our community who have demonstrated grace and courage beyond their age. The two new signature programs that will be introduced this year include: Creating Bright Futures, to showcase education and career exploration in Ohio, and the Diversity and Awareness program that will highlight the rich cultures and backgrounds that define our communities.

The Cleveland Browns Foundation is looking forward to offering season ticket holders another opportunity to participate in the Tickets for Kids program during the 2004 season. Season ticket holders who are unable to attend a Browns home game may donate their tickets to the Foundation. The Foundation distributes those tickets to non-profit organizations for use by children and their chaperones. Donating your tickets is now easier than ever. Simply log onto www.clevelandbrowns.com/tickets/ to make your tax deductible donation.

When the holidays approach, the Browns will continue to help provide assistance to families during the Thanksgiving and December holidays. Since 1999, the Cleveland Browns have donated over 4,000 turkeys and 6,000 hams to local neighborhoods, in addition to serving dinner at hot meal sites in the heart of Cleveland. December can be flagged as the month of smiles, as children always benefit when the Browns host the annual Toys For Tots kick-off party and toy drive at the stadium to collect toys for children who otherwise would not receive gifts. The Cleveland Browns indoor practice facility is also transformed each year to host the annual Special Olympics Holiday Celebration that has seen over 4,000 children through its doors.

The Browns are also committed to programs focusing on education, neighborhood enhancement, and health & wellness. For more information on the Browns community outreach visit www.clevelandbrowns.com ... and call 1-866-KID DAWG, to Read with the Browns each month.

The Cleveland Browns Foundation is grateful for the support of Browns fans and community members who generously contribute to the Foundation each year. The Foundation raises most of its funds through special Cleveland Browns events. The 2004 calendar is packed with exciting opportunities for you to 'Join the Team' and get involved with these exciting Browns events.

Each April the Cleveland Browns Draft Day Party provides Cleveland Browns fans the opportunity to gather with other loyal football enthusiasts to watch the NFL Draft live from Cleveland Browns Stadium. Current Browns players and alumni are on hand to mingle with fans, sign autographs and talk football. Numerous raffles throughout the day provide fans the opportunity to win unique Browns merchandise.

The Cleveland Browns Foundation Golf Outing presented by Ernst & Young continues to be the largest fundraising event, generating over $1,000,000 for the Foundation throughout the years. Companies may purchase fivesomes in the outing and are paired with a current Browns player, alum, coach or executive for a day of golf at the Country Clubs of Fox Meadows. Recognized as one of the premiere golf outings in the area, this event sells out quickly as golfers are eager to spend a day mingling with their favorite Browns celebrities.

The annual Cleveland Browns Touchdown Run occurs each summer and has proven to be a highlight for Browns fans. One of the largest race events in the city, this 5K race and 1 mile fun walk lead participants around downtown Cleveland to a thrilling finish on the football field in Cleveland Browns Stadium. Bring your entire family to enjoy this event as there are special games and prizes for Browns fans of all ages!

All donations to the Cleveland Browns Foundation are tax-deductible.

JEFF GARCIA'S FOURTH QUARTER COMEBACKS 10 (9 REGULAR SEASON, 1 POSTSEASON)

COMEBACK QUARTERBACK - Jeff Garcia has had a flair for the dramatic throughout his NFL career, leading 10 comeback wins as a starter, including one in 2003, five in 2002, and four in 2001.

SEPTEMBER 9, 2001 VS. ATLANTA, 16-13 (OT) - Began the 4th quarter with a 13-3 deficit. Garcia hit WR J.J. Stokes with a 16-yard TD pass to bring the 49ers within three at 13-10. Garcia then moved the team down to the Falcons two-yard line and K Jose Cortez nailed a 20-yard field goal to send the game into overtime. On the first possession of overtime, Garcia led the team to the Falcons six-yard line where Cortez kicked the 24-yard game winning field goal.

OCTOBER 14, 2001 AT ATLANTA, 37-31 (OT) - Trailing 20-17 entering the 4th quarter, Atlanta kicked a field goal to push the score to 23-17 early in the fourth. Garcia moved the team down to the Atlanta two-yard line, where RB Kevan Barlow plunged in for a TD and brought the 49ers to within one at 24-23. Atlanta answered back with a 47-yard TD and a two-point conversion to push the score to 31-24. Garcia hooked up with WR Terrell Owens on a 17-yard strike with 17 seconds remaining to knot the score at 31. After failing to score on their first possession of overtime, the 49ers forced the Falcons to punt. Garcia then moved the 49ers from their own 33 to the 48 and hit Owens with a 52-yard TD strike with 6:26 remaining in overtime for the 37-31 victory.

NOVEMBER 11, 2001 VS. NEW ORLEANS, 28-27 - The 49ers began the 4th quarter trailing 24-21. With 11:06 remaining, Garcia hit TE Eric Johnson on a 10-yard TD strike to take a 28-24 lead. The Saints hit a 36-yard field goal with 7:56 remaining to cut the lead to 28-27, but could not score again and the 49ers notched a one-point victory.

NOVEMBER 18, 2001 AT CAROLINA, 25-22 (OT) - Trailing 22-14 with 1:52 remaining in the 4th quarter, the 49ers took the ball from their own 34 and moved down to the Carolina seven-yard line, where Garcia connected with WR Terrell Owens on a seven-yard TD strike to bring the score to 22-20 with one second remaining in regulation. Garcia then hooked up with TE Eric Johnson for the two-point conversion to knot the score at 22. On the first possession of overtime, Garcia led the 49ers from their own 26, down to the Carolina eight-yard line, where K Jose Cortez kicked a 26-yard field goal for the 25-22 overtime victory.

SEPTEMBER 5, 2002 VS. NEW YORK GIANTS, 16-13 - Tied 13-13 with 1:49 left to play in the 4th quarter, Garcia and the 49ers took possession at their own 30-yard-line. Garcia quickly found Terrell Owens for a 33-yard gain, then hit J.J. Stokes to put the team in field goal range. Garcia then handed the ball off to Garrison Hearst on three consecutive plays to run down the clock before Jose Cortez kicked the game-winning 36-yard field goal.

OCTOBER 14, 2002 VS. SEATTLE, 28-21 – Trailing 21-20 with 10:11 left to play, the 49ers took over on their own 32-yard-line. Garcia hit Hearst with a 16-yard pass on third-and-four to keep the drive alive, then found Owens along the left sideline for a 37-yard TD. Garcia hooked up with Hearst again for the two-point conversion to give the 49ers a 28-21 win.

NOVEMBER 3, 2002 VS. OAKLAND, 23-20 (OT) – Tied at 13-13 entering the 4th quarter, Garcia led the 49ers down the field, connecting with Tai Streets on a two-yard TD reception. After Oakland tied the game, Garcia calmly engineered a drive down the field, setting up a potential game-winning field goal that was missed. The 49ers regained possession in overtime and Garcia again mounted an impressive drive, going 5-for-6 for 30 yards. This set-up the eventual game winning kick by Jose Cortez for the 23-20 victory.

DECEMBER 8, 2002 VS. DALLAS, 31-27 – Trailing 27-17 with less than seven minutes remaining in the game, Garcia connected with Tai Streets on a 23-yard TD reception. After the 49ers defense, forced the Cowboys to miss a 47-yard field goal, Garcia calmly marched the 49ers on a 13-play, 63-yard drive. He completed five passes for 49 yards and rushed for two first downs on the drive. He eventually found Terrell Owens in the back of the end zone for an eight-yard TD pass and the 31-27 victory.

JANUARY 5, 2003 VS. NEW YORK GIANTS (NFC WILD CARD GAME), 39-38 – Trailing 38-22 at the beginning of the 4th quarter, Garcia engineered the second largest comeback in NFL postseason history. He then led the 49ers on a 15-play, 74-yard drive which ended in a Jeff Chandler field goal. He then reeled off an impressive nine-play 68-yard drive which was capped off by a game-winning 13-yard TD to Tai Streets.

DECEMBER 21, 2003 VS. PHILADELPHIA, 31-28 (OT) – Trailing 21-20 with 14:56 left in the 4th quarter, Garcia led San Francisco on a nine-play, 63-yard drive for a 28-21 lead. The key play on the drive was a 30-yard completion to TE Jed Weaver. After Kevan Barlow ran in a one-yard TD, Garcia connected with Brandon Lloyd on a key two-point conversion. After the Eagles tied the game at 28-28, safety Tony Parrish intercepted the first Philadelphia possession in overtime, which led to a Todd Peterson 22-yard field goal and a 31-28 overtime win.

HOW THE BROWNS WERE NAMED

Just how did the Cleveland Browns get their name?

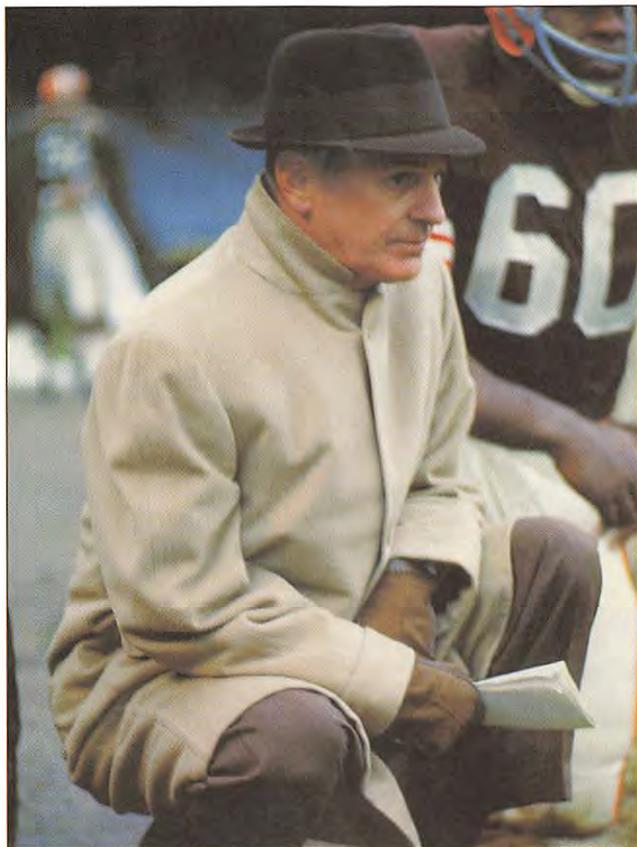

One myth is that the team was named after the popular boxing champion, Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber". The truth, according to several published reports, is this:

When Owner Arthur McBride brought an AAFC team to Cleveland in 1945, he held a newspaper contest to name the team and offered a $1,000 war bond to the winner. Most of the entries submitted wanted the name Browns, because the extremely popular Paul Brown was the team's head coach.

Coach Brown thought it wouldn't be proper to name the team after him, and the entry "Panthers" was selected. A few weeks later, a man approached McBride and said he owned a semi-pro team in the 1920s called the Cleveland Panthers and he still owned the rights to the name.

McBride could have bought the man off, but Brown vetoed the idea. The coach didn't want the new team to be associated with a losing franchise. Instead of holding a new contest, Brown reluctantly agreed to name the team Browns. But, in sticking with his original ideals, Brown suggested publicly that since Louis was "The Brown Bomber", that was how the team got its name. Not a single entry in the contest listed Louis or his nickname as a reason for choosing "Browns".

Paul Brown

1946

The Cleveland Browns were originated by Owner Arthur (Mickey) McBride as a member of the All-America Football Conference. Paul Brown was named coach and general manager, and the first player he signed was then-tailback Otto Graham, who was converted to quarterback with the Browns. The Browns won the Western Division title with a 42-17 victory over the Buffalo Bisons and then defeated the New York Yankees, 14-9, in the championship game.

1947-49

Following the merger of the AAFC and the NFL, the Browns tied the New York Giants with 10-2 records for a share of the Eastern Division title. The Browns defeated the New York Giants, 8-3, in a playoff game and then stopped the Los Angeles Rams, 30-28, for the championship.

1951-53

The Browns won three consecutive Eastern titles, but lost each time in the league's title match, once to the Los Angeles Rams and twice to the Detroit Lions. In 1953, McBride sold the club to an organization headed by David Jones.

1954-55

Led by quarterback Otto Graham, the Browns won back-to-back NFL championships, defeating the Detroit Lions and Los Angeles Rams.

1956

At 5-7, the Browns suffered their first losing season.

1957

Jim Brown was selected in the first round by the Browns and earned rookie-of-the-year honors while helping Cleveland to the Eastern Division title.

1961

Art Modell purchased the Browns for the then unheard sum of $4 million.

1963

Paul Brown was released from his duties after 17 seasons as head coach of the franchise. Blanton Collier, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach.

1964

The Browns won the Eastern Conference title with a 52-20 victory over the New York Giants and defeated the Baltimore Colts, 27-0, in the NFL Championship Game.

1965

In his last season, Jim Brown won NFL MVP honors and led Cleveland to the NFL Championship Game, where the Browns were defeated by the Green Bay Packers.

1966

An eighth round pick in 1964, Leroy Kelly became the club's dominant threat, rushing for 1,141 yards, but the Browns finished second in the Eastern Conference to the Dallas Cowboys.

With newly acquired quarterback Bill Nelsen (from the Pittsburgh Steelers), the Browns won the Century Division title and beat the Dallas Cowboys in the playoffs, but lost to the Baltimore Colts in the NFL Championship Game.

1969

The Browns won the Century Division title for the third straight year, but lost to the Minnesota Vikings in the NFL Championship Game.

1970

The Browns became members of the AFC Central Division and finished second. The Browns beat the New York Jets, 31-21, on Monday Night Football's first-ever telecast.

1971

Nick Skorich, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach. The club won its first AFC Central crown.

1972

The Browns lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Miami Dolphins in the playoffs, 20-14, as the Dolphins completed an undefeated season.

1975-77

Forrest Gregg became head coach in 1975, Greg Pruitt had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons and Dick Modzelewski coached the final game of 1977.

1978

Sam Rutigliano became the first non-Browns' assistant to be named head coach of the Browns. Cleveland won its first three contests en route to an 8-8 finish.

1979

Losses in the final two games dropped the Browns' record to 9-7 and prevented the team from entering the playoffs. Mike Pruitt had the first of three straight 1,000-yard seasons.

The Browns won the AFC Central Division title with an 11-5 record, but lost to eventual Super Bowl Champion Oakland Raiders in the playoffs. Quarterback Brian Sipe was consensus MVP of the NFL.

In a strike-shortened season, the Browns finished eighth in the AFC (4-5) and gained a playoff spot for the second time in three years. Cleveland lost to the Los Angeles Raiders in the Super Bowl Tournament.

1983

The Browns tied for a Wild Card playoff spot with a 9-7 record, but lost the NFL tie-breaking procedure to the Denver Broncos and Seattle Seahawks.

1984

The Browns replaced Head Coach Sam Rutigliano with Defensive Coordinator Marty Schottenheimer after a 1-7 midseason record and finished the season at 5-11. Tight end Ozzie Newsome caught 89 passes for the second straight year.

The Browns captured their third AFC Central Division title, but lost to the Miami Dolphins, 24-21, at Miami in the playoffs. Rookie Kevin Mack (1,104) and Earnest Byner (1,002) each gained 1,000 yards rushing. It marked the third time in the 66-year history of the NFL that teammates both rushed for over 1,000 yards in the same season.

The Browns posted a team-record 12 wins en route to their second consecutive AFC Central Division crown. In a double-overtime playoff thriller before a packed Cleveland Municipal Stadium crowd, the Browns beat the New York Jets, 23-20, to advance to the AFC Championship game. The Browns lost to the Denver Broncos, also in overtime, 23-20.

The Browns captured their third straight AFC Central Division crown, as they finished the season 10-5. The third week of the NFL season was cancelled due to a 24-day players' strike, during which three "replacement" games were played (the Browns posted a 2-1 record). The Browns defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 38-21, at Cleveland Municipal Stadium in the AFC playoffs, then dropped their second straight AFC Championship to the Denver Broncos despite a spectacular come-from-behind bid that saw the Browns score 30 second-half points, only to fall, 38-33, at Mile High Stadium. Bernie Kosar won the AFC passing title with a 95.4 QB rating, and an NFL-high eight Browns made the Pro Bowl.

Cleveland finished 10-6 and earned a Wild Card berth by defeating the Houston Oilers, 28-23, in the season finale by overcoming a 16-point third-quarter deficit. Houston defeated the Browns, 24-23, in the Wild Card Game played on Christmas Eve. Four Cleveland quarterbacks suffered injuries during the course of the season. Marty Schottenheimer resigned on Dec. 27.

1989

Bud Carson was announced as the Browns' seventh full-time head coach on Jan. 27. The Browns won their fourth division title in five years with a 9-6-1 record, and advanced to the playoffs for an AFC-high fifth-straight season. The Browns advanced to their third title game in four years by defeating the Buffalo Bills, 34-30, but lost to the Denver Broncos, 37-21, at Mile High Stadium in the AFC Championship Game.

1990

The Browns suffered through a 3-13 season. Jim Shofner replaced Bud Carson as interim head coach on Nov. 5.

1991-93

Bill Belichick was named the eighth full-time head coach on Feb. 5, 1991. The Browns moved into a new training and administrative complex located in Berea, Ohio, in August 1991 and began holding training camp there in July 1992. The Browns finished 6-10, 7-9 and 7-9, respectively. Unrestricted free agency began in 1993. The Browns signed five players in the first year of this system, including quarterback Vinny Testaverde of Tampa Bay.

1994

The Browns earned a playoff berth for the first time in the '90s, finishing 11-5 and defeating the New England Patriots, 20-13, in the Wild Card Game at soldout Cleveland Municipal Stadium. The Browns faced the Pittsburgh Steelers for the first time ever in the playoffs, and lost, 29-9, at Three Rivers Stadium. The Cleveland defense set a team record by allowing just 204 points, and six players went to the Pro Bowl.

1995

The Browns concluded the season with a 5-11 record. On November 6, Owner Art Modell announced he was relocating the team to Baltimore, Md. The final game played at Cleveland Municipal Stadium was on Dec. 17 against the Cincinnati Bengals. The Browns defeated the Bengals, 26-10. The victory marked an all-time NFL record of 202-117-5 (.631) while playing at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

1996

The City of Cleveland and the NFL secured an unprecedented deal to return the Cleveland Browns to the playing field in 1999. The deal stipulated that the name, colors and heritage of the Browns would remain in Cleveland.

1998

The NFL awarded the Cleveland Browns to Alfred Lerner on Sept. 8. The NFL formally transferred ownership of the Cleveland Browns to Lerner and Carmen A. Policy on Oct. 23. Dwight Clark was named vice president, director of football operations on Nov. 30.

1999

Chris Palmer was named the ninth full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history Jan. 21. The Browns were awarded the rights to the first pick in the 1999 NFL Draft and used the pick to select Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch. The first game at new Cleveland Browns Stadium was played on Aug. 21 against the Minnesota Vikings, with the Vikings prevailing, 24-17, in a preseason contest. In the first regular-season game in the Browns' 1999 commemorative season and the first regular-season game at Cleveland Browns Stadium, the Browns lost to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 43-0. The Browns recorded their first victory of the '99 season on Oct. 31 with a last-second Hail Mary pass from Couch to Kevin Johnson.

Cleveland Browns Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, ardent, passionate group of people—the only group that can lay claim to the title of “World’s Greatest Fans.” At Cleveland Browns Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes Sunday afternoons with the Browns a memorable and momentous experience.

Cleveland Browns Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Cleveland Municipal Stadium. There’s no better place than on the lakefront for the home of the Cleveland Browns than where legendary coach Paul Brown established Cleveland’s first football dynasty in the 1940s. No other site could have been as appropriate as the location where 15 Cleveland Browns—Jim Brown, Paul Brown, Joe DeLamielleure, Len Ford, Frank Gatski, Otto Graham, Lou Groza, Leroy Kelly, Dante Lavelli, Mike McCormack, Bobby Mitchell, Marion Motley, Ozzie Newsome, Paul Warfield and Bill Willis—established their credentials for induction into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in nearby Canton.

While the location of the Stadium honors the glorious history of athletic achievements in Cleveland, Cleveland Browns Stadium is a celebration of the city’s renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the Northcoast Harbor, Cleveland Browns Stadium is located next to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Great Lakes Science Center. When visiting the Stadium, it is impossible to miss the distinctive architectural design of the columns, beams and notches in the seating bowl. These spacious gaps allow visitors to get an inside perspective of the Stadium and field when the Browns are away and allow ticket holders to see the downtown skyline during the game. While on the south side of the Stadium, Browns fans find it hard to resist a tour through Brownstown. Here fans can catch a game and a bite to eat at The Grille, wander through the Hall of Fame and reminisce about previous Browns players, and grab a personalized Browns jersey at the Team Shop.

At night, Cleveland Browns Stadium lights up the lakefront. Beams and columns are highlighted by a halo of light that can be seen from downtown and the Northcoast Harbor. Day or night, whether the team is playing home or away, Cleveland Browns Stadium brings a new excitement to Brownstown, USA.

Dino Lucarelli

The Dino Lucarelli Media Center, which opened in December of 2002 at the Browns Training and Administrative Complex in Berea, features an expansive media work room, two radio/television interview rooms, a kitchen and private locker space for media members.

Lucarelli, 69, has been working with Cleveland media for nearly 50 years and has been affiliated with the Cleveland Browns organization since 1975 with responsibilities in player relations and media services. He currently serves as the club's Manager of Alumni Relations and is a panelist on the Cleveland Browns Legends Club committee.

Lucarelli called the naming of the media center "one of the biggest thrills of my life."

The Cleveland Chapter of the Professional Football Writers Association (PFWA) has named its "Good Guy Award" for Lucarelli. The Good Guy Award is given annually for cooperation with the media and for the way a player carries himself in the community and with his teammates. The National Football Foundation (Northeast Ohio Chapter) Lifetime Achievement Award is also named for Lucarelli.

"It's a shame that the work that comes out of the media center on a daily basis does not match the work of Dino Lucarelli," said Pat McManamon of the Akron Beacon Journal, head of the Cleveland Chapter of the PFWA. "He is a man everyone in the local media feels great fondness and affection for."

Joe DeLamielleure (64), Bob Gain (79), Dick Schafrath (77), and Hanford Dixon (29) were honored at the Browns-San Diego Chargers game on October 19, 2003.

The Cleveland Browns organization honors the team's all-time greats through the Cleveland Browns Legends program. Each year former players are inducted into the Legends through a combination vote of panelists and fan voting, which takes place exclusively on ClevelandBrowns.com.

The Legends program started in 2001 with the automatic induction of the Browns' then 14 Hall of Fame inductees. Five players were elected to the Legends club in 2001, three more were added in 2002, and three more plus new Hall of Fame lineman Joe DeLamielleure were added in 2003. Three new members will join the Legends club in 2004.

CLEVELAND BROWNS.COM

ClevelandBrowns.com, the official website of the Cleveland Browns, is a Browns fan's "first hit" for news, stats, features, and just about everything orange and brown. Season ticket holders can renew their seats online, Browns Backers can purchase merchandise in the Online Pro Shop, and history buffs can follow the Browns' Hall of Famers and check out the all-time roster and results.

In 2002, ClevelandBrowns.com ranked #1 out of 121 professional team websites in the NHL, NBA, NFL and MLB in a study conducted by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal. The study graded sites in four categories: content, design/technical, commerce and interactivity. The Browns ranked first in content and also were honored by the NFL in 2003 with the league's "Most Interactive" award.

ClevelandBrowns.com Multimedia Coordinator Eric Penix makes it possible for fans everywhere to hear and see locker room interviews and press conferences on a daily basis. Penix also serves as producer for the popular Internet radio show "In The Office with Butch Davis," featuring the Browns Head Coach and special player guests.

"In The Office" airs every Thursday during the season at 11:30 a.m. and once a month at various times during the offseason. Entering their third season of "In The Office" and their second season with "The Cleveland Browns Preview Show" are hosts Reggie Rucker and Zac Jackson. In 2003, ClevelandBrowns.com added two more television-style shows to the mix and utilized the talents of Amy Gretsinger and Jamir Howerton.

Rucker played 13 seasons in the NFL, served as an announcer for the Cleveland Indians on WUAB and for the NFL on NBC, and released a biography—"From Ghetto to God"—in 2002. He's the only undrafted rookie receiver in NFL history to start in the Super Bowl (for Dallas in Super Bowl V).

Jackson, the beat writer for ClevelandBrowns.com, has been with the Browns since 2000. Howerton and Gretsinger have been with the Browns since 1999.

PRESEASON TELEVISION ANNOUNCERS

The announcing team for Cleveland Browns preseason games on WKYC-TV 3 consists of Don Criqui and Todd Blackledge. Criqui, a veteran sports announcer, provides play-by-play coverage and Blackledge, a former NFL quarterback, adds color commentary for the Browns games on TV-3.

Criqui rejoined NFL coverage on CBS in 1998, doing play-by-play. Previously, he had worked at CBS Sports for 12 years and with NBC Sports for 19 years. Criqui joined NBC Sports as a football play-by-play announcer in 1979. In 1992, he served as host of NBC/Cablevision's pay-per-view coverage of the Summer Olympics from Barcelona, Spain. He has called Notre Dame football, NBA, golf, auto racing and 14 Orange Bowl games. Criqui has hosted Wimbledon, World Cup soccer and called play-by-play for NBC Radio's coverage of the NFL and Super Bowls XX and XXI.

Blackledge, a seven-year National Football League veteran and former Penn State starting quarterback, joined CBS Sports in 1999 as lead analyst for college football coverage. The Cleveland Browns awarded radio broadcast rights to Clear Channel Communications. WMMS (100.7 FM) is the flagship station of the Browns Radio Network, and Browns-related programming is featured on other Clear Channel stations as well. The radio network includes nearly 40 affiliates and reaches Browns fans in five states.

The talent line-up for the Cleveland Browns Radio Network Broadcast Team features WKYC Channel 3 Sports Director Jim Donovan as the play-by-play announcer, former Browns offensive tackle Doug Dieken as analyst, WTAM Sports Director Mike Snyder as the host of all game day programming, WTAM Sports Anchor Casey Coleman as field and locker room reporter, and former Browns cornerback Hanford Dixon provides analysis on the pre-game show.

Donovan takes the game from kickoff to final play. Donovan began his Cleveland career in 1985 as weekend sports anchor for Channel 3 and handled play-by-play for NBC Sports' NFL games from 1987-97. In addition, he received an Emmy for "Browns '92: The Next Step" and for his report in 1990 on Bob Golic's farewell to the Cleveland Browns. Before coming to Cleveland, he provided play-by-play basketball and hockey coverage for the Satellite News Channel in Burlington, Vt. He also served for one season as play-by-play announcer for the Vermont Reds, a Cincinnati Reds minor league baseball team.

Dieken, a former Browns player and the radio color talent, analyzes the action. Dieken played 14 seasons at left tackle for the Browns and is one of only 12 men in the history of the NFL to play in over 200 consecutive games. Following his retirement from football, Dieken became one of the voices of the Browns sharing the Browns Radio Network microphone with Jim Mueller, Casey Coleman and the late Nev Chandler.

Snyder hosts all game day programming including pre-game, halftime and post-game. With over 20 years of sports broadcasting experience, Snyder hosted the pre-game and halftime show on the Browns Radio Network from 1986-89. He currently hosts the pre-game, post-game and halftime shows for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. Additionally, Snyder hosted the Cleveland Indians Radio Network pre-game show for two seasons.

Coleman covers all field, sideline and locker room reporting. Son of legendary Cleveland Browns football play-by-play announcer Ken Coleman, Casey is no stranger to sports. With almost 25 years of sports broadcasting under his belt, he brings two seasons (1994 and '95) of Cleveland Browns play-by-play experience with partner Doug Dieken and currently hosts "Tribe Insider", WTAM's Cleveland Indians pre-game show.

Dixon, a former first round draft pick of the Browns in 1981, provides analysis for the "Countdown to Kickoff" pre-game show. Dixon played cornerback for nine seasons with the Browns, totaled 26 career interceptions and was named All Pro on three occasions.

The NFL announced the regular-season scheduling rotation for eight seasons (2002 through 2009) under the club-approved realignment plan beginning in the 2002 season. The interconference and intraconference divisional matchups—comprising 14 of each season's 16 regular-season games—for the next eight seasons were determined following extensive analysis and discussion with NFL clubs.

These eight season schedules will take each team through a cycle of games—home and away—against every other team in the league. In these eight seasons, every team will play every other team at least twice—once home and once away.
