RANDOLPH LERNER

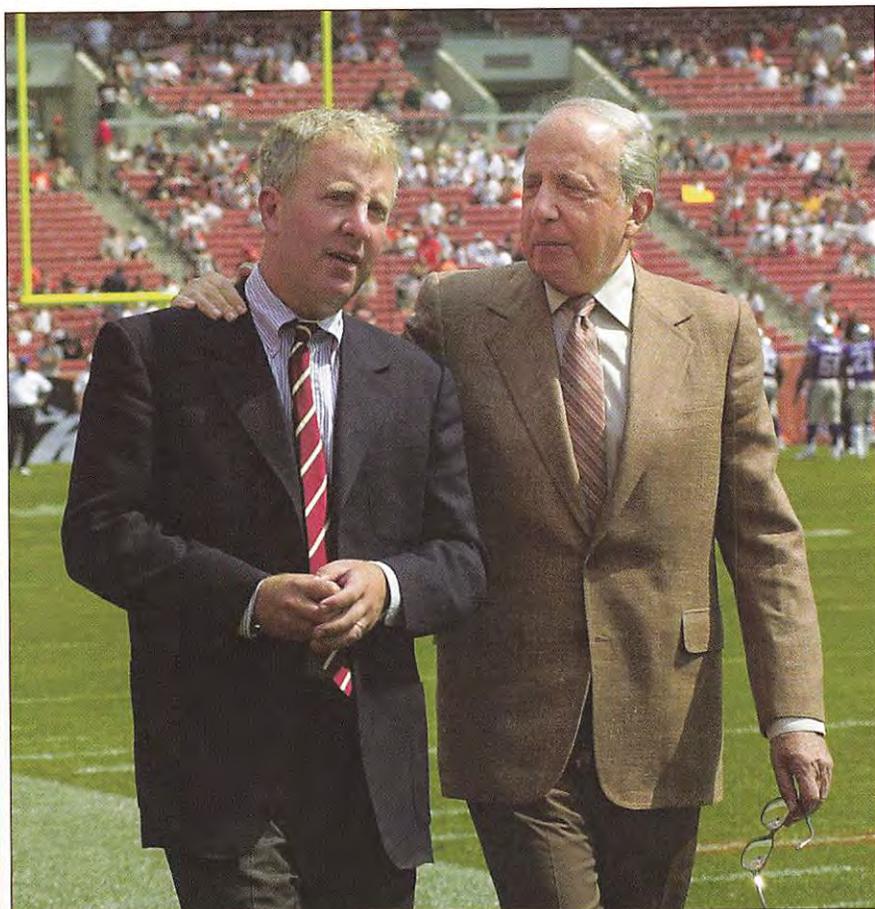

OWNER

Randolph Lerner, Esq., 43, began his career at the Progressive Corporation as an investment analyst. In 1991, he started an independent investment firm with Progressive Corporation called Securities Advisors, Inc. (SAI), which he owned and managed until 2001.

In 1993, Mr. Lerner became a Director of MBNA Corporation. His chairmanship followed the death of his father in October 2002. Also following the death of his father, he became the owner of The Cleveland Browns Football Club.

Mr. Lerner is a 1984 graduate of Columbia College. Also, he is a graduate of Columbia Law School and a member of the New York State and District of Columbia Bars.

Mr. Lerner has been a Trustee of the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City since 1996, was a Trustee of the Corcoran Museum in Washington D.C., and served as Chairman of The New York Academy of Art from 1998-2003. Mr. Lerner recently also became a member of the Marine Corps Heritage Foundation. Within the NFL, Mr. Lerner serves as a member of the Business Ventures Committee.

JOHN COLLINS PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John Collins assumed the role of President & Chief Executive Officer on May 1, 2004. He oversees all aspects of the organization and works with Owner Randy Lerner in the development, strategic planning and implementation of organizational goals and initiatives. Collins also works with Lerner in representing the Browns in National Football League matters.

In 2005, Collins worked with Lerner on the search for a new General Manager and Head Coach which yielded Phil Savage and Romeo Crennel. He has also reshaped the front office by assembling and overseeing an executive staff that drives the Browns business and brand development. In addition, he plays an active role in the Cleveland Browns Foundation and all of the team's charitable endeavors.

From draft day to training camp, to game day and beyond, Collins' creative vision and business acumen, coupled with his passion for the team's rich tradition, is the driving force behind the Browns' wide-ranging, yearly events calendar, the purpose of which is to deliver unique access for Browns fans worldwide.

Prior to joining the Browns, Collins spent 15 years in a variety of key business roles with the National Football League, beginning with NFL Films and most recently as Senior Vice President of Marketing and Sales. In that role, Collins led a renewed brand and consumer focus that further evolved the NFL's position as one of the world's most visible and successful brands. He oversaw all the marketing, corporate sponsorship and advertising sales functions of the NFL and was a key member of the team that launched the NFL Network, the most successful introduction in cable television history.

Collins has received numerous honors in recognition of his achievements. He was selected one of the top 20 sports advertising executives in 2004 by the Sports Business Journal and was selected by Advertising Age Magazine as one of America's top 50 marketers in 2003.

Before the NFL, Collins was in account management with DDB Needham Worldwide (New York) for six years during the 1980s.

A New York City native, he attended C.W. Post College and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Collins and his wife, Christina, have three children: Jackson, Ryan and Sean.

PHIL SAVAGE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Phil Savage joined the Browns as Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 6, 2005. Savage spent the last nine seasons with the Baltimore Ravens organization, including the last two (2003-04) as the Ravens' Director of Player Personnel, and is known throughout the NFL as one of the league's top talent evaluators. Savage, a 14-year veteran of the NFL, worked directly with Baltimore general manager Ozzie Newsome to oversee both college and pro scouting.

Savage was named the Ravens' player personnel director in 2003. In addition to his responsibilities of scouting collegiate players around the country, Savage was involved in many of the day-to-day operations of the team and also negotiated contracts of late-round draft picks.

In his nine years with the Ravens organization, Savage witnessed the franchise earn a 72-71-1 regular season record during that span, including three post-season appearances with a 5-2 record, and the highlight—winning Super Bowl XXXV over the N.Y. Giants in 2000 after a 12-4 record.

Since 1996, Savage assisted the Ravens in drafting 10 pro bowlers: T Jonathan Ogden (D1a, 1996), LB Ray Lewis (D1b, 1996), WR/PR Jermaine Lewis (D5, 1996), LB Peter Boulware (D1, 1997), DB Chris McAlister (D1, 1999), RB Jamal Lewis (D1a, 2000), LB Adalius Thomas (D6, 2000), TE Todd Heap (D1, 2001), S Ed Reed (D1, 2002) and LB Terrell Suggs (D1a, 2003). Other major contributors include LB Jamie Sharper (D2a, 1997), C Jeff Mitchell (D5, 1997), DB Duane Starks (D1, 1998), G Edwin Mulitalo (D4b, 1999), WR Travis Taylor (D1b, 2000), DB Gary Baxter (D2, 2001), LB Edgerton Hartwell (D4, 2001), DE Tony Weaver (D2, 2002), P Dave Zastudil (D4, 2002), TE Terry Jones (D5, 2002), S Chad Williams (D6c, 2002), and QB Kyle Boller (D1b, 2003).

Savage spent the first seven years of his career in the coaching ranks. In 1987, he joined Bill Curry's staff at the University of Alabama as a graduate assistant. In 1988-89, he coached the TE's before following highly-respected offensive coordinator Homer Smith to UCLA in a similar capacity. After one season under head coach Terry Donohue, Savage was hired as RBs/TEs coach for the San Antonio Riders of the World League.

One month passed before the Cleveland Browns called and Savage left for Cleveland to become part of Bill Belichick's first coaching staff in the spring of 1991. For the next three seasons, Savage worked under then-defensive coordinator Nick Saban (now head coach of the Miami Dolphins). During that time, Savage assisted with the DBs, analyzed opponent tapes, compiled scouting reports and in his first exposure to scouting, conducted campus workouts in preparation for the college draft.

In 1994, Savage moved to the player personnel side of the business full-time as an area scout on the West Coast and was elevated to national scout for the 1995 season. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, he became the Director of College Scouting, a post he held for seven years before being promoted to Director of Player Personnel prior to the 2003 NFL Draft.

During the offseason, Savage enjoys working on two football-related projects, Camp Savage and Take-A-Knee Ministry. In the summer of '05, he conducted his 15th annual skills camp for high school QBs and WRs in his hometown of Mobile, Ala. Over 1,000 athletes have participated in the camps, and many of them have continued their playing careers at the collegiate level, including three who were drafted into the NFL: Tee Martin (Tennessee) and Leonardo Carson (Auburn) in 2000 and Eddie Freeman (University of Alabama-Birmingham) in 2002. Three years ago, Phil and his brother, Joe, a pastor in Lakeland, Fla., assembled a combined football camp and mission trip to Cancun, Mexico. Seven Ravens' players, coaches and scouts traveled to Quintana Roo spoke in several local elementary schools and worked with the Ninos Mexicanos football players.

Through the Take-A-Knee Ministry program, Phil has shared his Christian testimony with over 50 audiences around the country since the Ravens' won Super Bowl XXXV in January 2001. More information about Camp Savage, Take-A-Knee Ministry and Phil's monthly commentary can be found at www.philsavagefootball.com.

Savage prepped at Murphy (Mobile, Ala.) High School before playing football and baseball at the University of the South (Sewanee, Tenn.). He earned a B.A. in English and was a three-time All-Conference shortstop in baseball. He received a Master's degree in physical education from the University of Alabama in 1989.

Phil is married to his wife, Dorothy, an accomplished theatrical actress. Savage was born April 7, 1965 in Mobile, Ala.

ROMEO CRENNEL

HEAD COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS (HEAD COACH): 1ST
YEAR IN NFL: 25TH

Romeo Crennel was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns on Feb. 8, 2005, the 11th full-time head coach in franchise history. Crennel, who returns to Cleveland after serving as the Browns defensive coordinator in 2000, most recently crafted the defense for the New England Patriots and helped the Patriots win a Super Bowl in three of the last four seasons (2001, 2003-04). Crennel was widely recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in the NFL. His resume includes 35 years of coaching experience, including 24 years in the NFL.

Crennel's defense played an integral role in the Patriots' 24-21 win over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX, as the defense forced four Eagles turnovers, put pressure on Eagles QB Donovan McNabb with four sacks and limited the Eagles running game to 45 net yards rushing.

In the 2004 postseason, New England allowed only 51 points (17 points per game) in three post-season games, including a 20-3 win over Indianapolis in an AFC Divisional Playoff game, a 41-27 win at Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game and the 24-21 win over Philadelphia in Super Bowl XXXIX. In New England's AFC Divisional Playoff victory over Indianapolis, the Patriots did not allow the Colts in the endzone during their 20-3 victory, marking the first time in NFL history that a team led the league in scoring during the regular season and did not score a touchdown in a playoff game.

During the 2004 regular season, the Patriots ranked ninth in the NFL in total defense (310.8 yards per game), sixth in run defense (98.3 yards per game) and 17th in pass defense (212.5 yards per game). Crennel's defensive unit was tied for third in the NFL with 45 sacks, tied for second with 260 points allowed (16.3 points per game) on the year, allowed nine rushing TDs on the season and ranked third in the AFC in red zone defense (40.8%). The defense recorded this feat using 10 different starting lineups.

In 2003, he was recognized by the Pro Football Writers of America as the NFL's Assistant Coach of the Year. The New England defense was among the best units in NFL history, propelling the Patriots to a 15-game winning streak that culminated with a 32-29 victory over Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII. New England allowed a league-low and franchise-record 14.9 points per game, while also leading the league with 29 interceptions. The dominance of the defense was evident by the team's three shutouts, equaling the franchise shutout total from the previous 17 seasons combined. The Patriots defense was at its best at home, where it allowed only 9.6 points per game and surrendered just four touchdowns in the regular season. During one stretch, the Patriots did not allow a touchdown on 62 consecutive opponents' possessions at home, a streak that spanned more than five games of clock time. New England was the first team in 65 years to keep its opponent out of the end zone in four consecutive home games in a season. The Patriots defense provided some potent offense of its own, leading the NFL with six defensive touchdowns, including five interceptions returned for scores, tying a team record.

Crennel returned to the New England Patriots when he was named the defensive coordinator on Bill Belichick's staff on Feb. 1, 2001. In 2001, the defense played an integral role in propelling the Patriots to a season-ending win streak to claim the first Super Bowl title for the franchise. The 2001 Patriots surrendered just 272 points (17.0 ppg), ranking sixth in the league for fewest points allowed. In its last five regular season games, the defense surrendered just seven field goals and one touchdown. The Patriots won all five of those games and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in three years.

Crennel was reunited with Belichick in 2001 as the two coaches began coaching together as assistants on Ray Perkins' staff for the New York Giants in 1981. The 2004 season marked the 18th campaign for Crennel and Belichick together, during which time they have earned five Super Bowl titles, six conference titles and eight division titles. While with the Patriots, Crennel and Belichick have contributed to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, in addition to New England's AFC title in 1996.

The Patriots defense created opportunities for the offense in 2001 by recording 22 interceptions (second in the AFC, sixth in the NFL), 12 more than they had in 2000. Five of those interceptions were returned for touchdowns, setting a single-season franchise record. In the playoffs, DB Ty Law added another interception, which he returned 47 yards for a touchdown in the 20-17 victory over the St. Louis Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI.

Crennel, who was the defensive line coach for the Patriots from 1993 to 1996, spent three seasons with the New York Jets (1997-99) and a season as the defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns (2000). During his season in Cleveland, the Browns recorded 42 sacks, a 17-sack improvement from the 1999 season.

In his three seasons as Jets' defensive line coach, the New York defense was among the best in the NFL, never allowing more than 20 points per game for a season. In 1997, he successfully incorporated a rotation of six new defensive linemen on a unit that allowed just 287 total points (17.9 points per game), second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. The following season, he added four new linemen to his rotation and the formula contributed to an improvement from the year before as the defense allowed just 16.6 points per game, finishing second in the league.

His first tenure in New England was a four-year assignment as Bill Parcells' defensive line coach, beginning in 1993 and ending with an AFC Championship and Super Bowl XXXI appearance in January of 1997. In 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs for the first time in eight years after winning their last seven games of the regular season. The defense allowed just 13.3 points per game during that seven-game stretch. In 1996, the Patriots defense allowed just 12.8 points per game in the final five contests of the regular season to propel the team back to the playoffs.

Crennel began his professional coaching career in 1981 as a special assignments/special teams/defensive assistant coach with the New York Giants. He became the special teams coach in 1983 and was assigned the defensive line position in 1990, a position he has since coached for 14 seasons. In 12 seasons in New York (1981-92), the Giants qualified for the playoffs six times, won three division titles and two Super Bowl championships. In his first season in New York, the Giants qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1963.

His first Super Bowl championship with the Giants staff was following the 1986 season as special teams coach and a 39-20 win over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. The Giants also won Super Bowl XXV, 20-19, over Buffalo as Crennel served as defensive line coach.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, in 1970. He was named defensive line coach the following season in 1971. In 1975, he started a three-year tenure at Texas Tech as a defensive assistant on Parcells' staff. In 1978, he was named the defensive ends coach at Mississippi. After two seasons at Ole Miss, he accepted a position at Georgia Tech in 1980, where he spent his final season in the collegiate ranks before being hired by the Giants in 1981.

Crennel was a four-year starter (1966-69) as a defensive lineman at Western Kentucky. After three seasons as one of the Hilltoppers' top tacklers, he was elected team captain as a senior. When the Western Kentucky offense struggled early in the season, Crennel willingly gave up what would have been a sure shot at all-conference honors as a defensive lineman to fill in at offensive tackle. The move helped solidify the offensive line and earned Crennel team MVP honors.

Crennel is a native of Lynchburg, Va. He was a high school standout at both Fort Knox (Ky.) High and Central High (Amherst, Va.). He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from

DOUGLAS C. JACOBS EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Douglas C. Jacobs is responsible for all financial, tax, budgeting, and treasury matters for the team's football and stadium operations. He is also treasurer and a board member of the Cleveland Browns Foundation.

Prior to joining the Browns in 1999, Jacobs' most recent position was Executive Vice President of Gucci Timepieces, after serving as Cleveland office managing partner during a 33-year career with Arthur Andersen LLP.

Jacobs, after serving two years as an officer in the U.S. Navy, began his career with Arthur Andersen in the Cleveland office in 1963 and was admitted to partnership in 1972. He became managing partner in 1977 and served in that capacity until relocating to the Southern California office, where he was managing partner from 1978 until his retirement from the firm in 1996.

An active leader in civic and professional affairs, Jacobs formerly served as president of Junior Achievement of Greater Cleveland, Inc., and as a councilman in Kirtland, Ohio. In Southern California, he served as chairman of Pacific Legal Foundation, president of Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Orange County; vice chairman-finance of the Orange County Performing Arts Center, and treasurer of the Bowers Museum Foundation.

He serves on the board of directors and is chairman of the Audit Committee of Standard Pacific Corporation, a national residential home builder in Southern California and also serves on the board of directors of Stoneridge Inc., an OEM supplier of automotive products headquartered in Warren, Ohio. He is also a member of the board of directors of Make-A-Wish Foundation of Greater Ohio and Kentucky.

Jacobs, a certified public accountant, holds an MBA from Case Western Reserve University and a B.S. degree from Miami (Ohio) University. Jacobs and his wife, Georgia, reside in Moreland Hills, Ohio. The couple has three sons—Doug Jacobs II, a computer design specialist in southern California, Brett Jacobs, a computer programmer for Juniper Financial in Wilmington, Del., and Greg Jacobs, a professional baseball player.

LEWIS C. MERLETTI EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Lewis C. Merletti is Executive VP and Chief Operating Officer for the Cleveland Browns. Merletti also serves on the NFL's Security Advisory Group; is a member of the International Security Management Association (ISMA); and the Business Executives for National Security (BENS).

A 25-year veteran of the United States Secret Service, Merletti served as the agency's 19th Director immediately prior to joining the Browns organization. Before becoming Director, Merletti served as Assistant Director in the Office of Training, where he was responsible for the curriculum, methodology, and content of training for all Secret Service employees. He served in the Presidential Protective Division under three presidents (Reagan, Bush and Clinton), and as special agent in charge of presidential protection during the Clinton Administration. He was ultimately responsible for the physical security of the president and first family. Merletti has also held supervisory positions in the New York Field Office, the Baltimore Office and the Liaison Division and Office of Inspection at the United States Secret Service headquarters in Washington, D.C. He joined the agency in 1974 as a special agent assigned to the Philadelphia Field Office.

Merletti has extensive experience with complex criminal investigations, major task force operations, and Secret Service counter-terrorist operations. He testified before Congress on many occasions, and also briefed the President, other top government officials, and world leaders, on a regular basis regarding security as it relates to worldwide situations. He has supervised security arrangements for the visit of the President and First Family to hostile environments such as the DMZ; Cartajena, Colombia; Saudi Arabia during Operation Desert Shield; Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Syria, Kuwait, and Bosnia-Herzegovina.

Merletti received numerous commendations and awards for outstanding performance during his government career, including three Secret Service Special Achievement Awards, and the 1997 Rank of Distinguished Executive in the Senior Executive Service. In 2000, the Secret Service dedicated the largest building at their training facility as the Lewis C. Merletti Classroom for the Office of Training.

Since retirement, Merletti has received the following awards: the 1999 Distinguished Alumnus Award of the McNulty College and Graduate School of Liberal Arts at Duquesne University, the 1999 Distinguished Service Award from the Marine Corp Law Enforcement Foundation, and the 2001 Lex et Justitia Award from Marquette University for Outstanding Service to Our Country and Dedication to Truth and Justice.

Merletti served three years in the United States Army, including a tour of duty with the 5th Special Forces Group in Vietnam. Among the citations he earned were the Bronze Star, Good Conduct Medal, Combat Medical Badge, and Parachute Jump Wings.

Merletti, holds a B.A. degree in political science from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh and is now a resident of Cleveland, Ohio.

BILL BONSIIEWICZ

DAVE ATKINS

RUNNING BACKS COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST
YEAR IN NFL: 20TH

Dave Atkins was named running backs coach on Feb. 17, 2005. Atkins spent the previous five seasons (2000-04) as the New Orleans Saints running backs coach and brings nearly 20 years of NFL coaching experience with Philadelphia, New England, Arizona, Minnesota and New Orleans.

Atkins impact on the Saints running game from 2000-04 was evident with the Saints featuring a 1,000 yard runner in five consecutive seasons, establishing a franchise record, and erasing a 10-year void of not having a 1,000-yard rusher dating back to the 1990 season.

In 2004, Atkins worked with RB Deuce McAllister, who rushed for 1,074 yards. In 2003, McAllister was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second-consecutive season, and ranked fourth in the league with 1,641 yards rushing and also added a career-high 67 receptions.

In Atkins first season in New Orleans (2000), the club ranked eighth in the NFL in rushing with 2,068 yards, the highest the team had ranked since finishing third in 1987. That total was achieved despite the loss of starting RB Ricky Williams in Week 11. The Saints still averaged 113.7 yards over the final six contests, with the running game serving as a key factor in capturing the NFC West title.

Prior to joining New Orleans, Atkins served as tight ends coach with Minnesota for three seasons (1997-99) and had his first stint with New Orleans as running backs coach in 1996. Atkins also brings NFL offensive coordinator experience to the coaching staff, having served in that capacity at Arizona from 1994-95. In 1994, the Cardinals led the NFL in time of possession (32:37), and the next season Arizona had one of the league's best backfield duos in FB Larry Centers and RB Garrison Hearst.

In 1993, Atkins joined New England as running backs coach. In his only season with the Patriots, New England averaged 111.3 rushing yards per contest, including a 1,088-yard effort by Leonard Russell, who finished second among AFC running backs. Atkins broke into the NFL ranks with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986. He worked with numerous facets of the Eagles' coaching staff during his seven-year stay, including running backs (1986-90), special teams (1991), and tight ends (1992).

After playing three years of pro football, Atkins started his college coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Texas-El Paso, in 1979. He worked with the running backs and with the kicking game for two seasons at UTEP before joining the staff at San Diego State in 1981, where he spent the next five years.

Born May 18, 1949 in Victoria, Texas, Atkins and his wife, Cynthia, have a son, Dave Jr., and a daughter, Jasmine.

MAURICE CARTHON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST

YEAR IN NFL: 12TH

Maurice Carthon was named offensive coordinator on Feb. 13, 2005. Carthon joins the Browns after serving as the Dallas Cowboys offensive coordinator for the past two seasons (2003-04). Carthon's resume includes 12 years of coaching experience and eight years of playing experience in the NFL. Carthon was on the same coaching staff as Browns head coach

Romeo Crennel from 1997-1999 with the New York Jets under Bill Parcells and also from 1994-1996 with the New England Patriots.

Carthon worked as the Dallas Cowboys offensive coordinator from 2003-04, overseeing game plan preparations, as well as working with the club's running backs. In 2004 with the Cowboys, Carthon directed an offense that featured TE Jason Witten, who led the NFC with 87 receptions and 980 yards, rookie first-round draft choice RB Julius Jones, who totaled 819 yards on 197 carries (4.2 avg.) and QB Vinny Testaverde, who threw for 3,532 yards. The Cowboys ranked 14th offensively (324.8 avg.) in the NFL, including 15th passing (214 avg.) and 20th rushing (110.8 avg.).

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Carthon served as the Detroit Lions offensive coordinator in 2002 after originally joining the team as the running backs coach in 2001. In his two seasons with the Lions, Carthon was instrumental in helping increase the Lions' running game average in 2001 (4.0 avg.) and 2002 (4.1 avg.). In addition, RB James Stewart posted a career-best 4.8 avg. in 2001 and then came back in 2002 to record his second career 1,000-yard rushing season with 1,021 yards on 231 carries (4.4 avg.).

Before going to Detroit, Carthon served as assistant head coach/running backs coach for the New York Jets in 2000, which followed three years (1997-99) as the Jets' running backs coach under Bill Parcells. During his time in New York, the Jets produced four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from a running back after the franchise had experienced only four 1,000-yard rushing seasons in its first 37-years of existence. Pro Bowl back Curtis Martin rushed for 1,204 yards—his sixth 1,000 yard rushing season—and nine touchdowns in 2000, after setting the team's single season rushing record with 1,464 yards in 1999. Martin also finished third on the team with 45 receptions for 259 yards in 1999. Under Carthon's direction, the Jets averaged 122.6 rushing yards-per-game, ranking seventh in the AFC and 12th in the NFL.

In 1998, Carthon worked two new starting backs in Keith Byars and Martin into the Jets' offensive scheme, helping Martin to 1,287 yards, his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season and the second best rushing total in club history. The explosiveness of the Jets running game came to light vs. Indianapolis on Sept. 20, when the club amassed 302 yards on the ground, the second best rushing total in a game in team history. Prior to the arrival of Martin, Carthon directed Adrian Murrell to become just the second running back in Jets history to have consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (Freeman McNeil, 1984-85), when he ran for 1,088 yards.

Carthon began his coaching career in New England in 1994 as an offensive assistant on Parcells' staff and shifted to coaching the Patriots' running backs and was a special teams assistant in 1995. He became the sole running backs coach in 1996 and was partly responsible for the NFL's second highest scoring unit in 1996 (26.1 points per game) with New England. It was with the Patriots that Carthon first became strongly tied to the development of three-time Pro Bowler and current Jets' RB Curtis Martin. Carthon began working with Martin in 1995, a season which saw the unheralded third-round draft choice set single-season rushing records with 1,487 yards and 14 touchdowns on 368 carries, and became the only rookie selected to play in the Pro Bowl, while also garnering Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

A veteran of eight NFL seasons as a player, Carthon began his career in 1985 when he signed with the New York Giants as a free agent. He played the next seven seasons with the team and was a key member of Parcells' 1986 and 1990 Giants Super Bowl championship teams as a punishing blocking fullback. He finished his NFL playing career with the Indianapolis Colts in 1992. Carthon never missed a game due to injury during his career, and he finished his playing days with 950 rushing yards and two touchdowns in 300 attempts and caught 90 passes for 745 yards and two touchdowns.

Prior to signing with the Giants, Carthon began his professional playing career as an eighth-round draft pick of the USFL's New Jersey Generals. He played for the Generals from 1983-85, and totaled 2,102 yards rushing and helped pave the way for Herschel Walker, the league's leading rusher. In 1984, Carthon started all 18 games and finished the season with a career-high 1,042 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns.

Carthon twice earned All-Southland Conference honors while starring at Arkansas State University and led the team in rushing with 682 yards as a senior team captain. He attended Osceola (Ark.) High School and was named the state MVP in basketball and twice earned all-conference honors in football.

Born on April 24, 1961, in Chicago, Ill., Carthon earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and science from Arkansas State and was honored as the Osceola Man-of-the-Year in 1991.

YEAR IN NFL: 1ST

Ben Coates was named tight ends coach on March 4, 2005. Coates was named the head coach of his alma mater Livingstone College in December 2004 prior to coming to Cleveland. His resume includes four years of coaching experience and 10 years of playing experience in the NFL. Coates was an All-Pro tight end on the New England Patriots with Browns head coach Romeo Crennel from 1993-96. His NFL career included five Pro Bowl appearances (1994-98).

Last season, Coates served an internship with the Dallas Cowboys. Under the tutelage of his former NFL coach Bill Parcells, he assisted with the tight ends. Prior to the Cowboys, Coates served as the offensive line and tight ends intern with the NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy.

Coates began his coaching career when he retired from the NFL after winning the Super Bowl with the Baltimore Ravens in 2000. In 2001, he became the tight ends coach under former Livingstone College head coach Gregory Richardson. He has had responsibilities over tight ends and receivers, quarterbacks, and offensive linemen. He was also the offensive coordinator under former Livingstone head coach George Johnson.

In 1991, Coates was drafted by the New England Patriots with their second pick in the fifth round. From 1991-99, Coates became the Patriots all-time leading receiver at tight end. In 2000, he teamed up with Shannon Sharpe and the Baltimore Ravens for the Super Bowl run. When his year long contract expired, he left the NFL as the fourth all-time leading receiver at tight end in NFL history behind Ozzie Newsome, Shannon Sharpe and Kellen Winslow. Coates has played in 158 games with 499 receptions for 5,555 yards. His longest catch was for 84 yards and he had 50 career touchdowns.

Coates was born on Aug. 16, 1969 in Greenwood, S.C. and earned a degree in sports management from Livingstone College.

CARL CRENNEL II

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST
YEAR IN NFL: 1ST

Carl Crennel II was named offensive quality control coach on March 8, 2005.

Crennel came to Cleveland from West Virginia Tech University, where he spent the last two seasons as the director of football operations/assistant football coach.

Prior to arriving at West Virginia Tech University, Crennel was the special teams coordinator and defensive line coach for Duquesne University. He was on the Dukes staff that went 11-0 during the 2002 regular season only losing to the University of Albany in the ECAC (East Coast Athletic Conference) Classic. All four members of Crennel's front four that season finished with all-conference honors and two were named to Don Hansen's All-American team. He coached Browns' DB Leigh Bodden on special teams while at Duquesne.

Prior to his foray into college football for the second time, Crennel coached the offensive and defensive lines and special teams for the Jacksonville Tomcats of arenafootball2 (af2). In 2000, he coached in the Indoor Football League as the defensive coordinator and assistant to the head coach.

His first run in coaching college football was with his alma mater Robert Morris University. Crennel got his start under former New York Jets head coach Joe Walton. He served as an assistant special teams coordinator/defensive line coach under Walton at Robert Morris.

Crennel graduated from Robert Morris University in 1997 with a degree in communications. He was a three-time All-State football player, wrestler and weightlifter at Orange Park (Fla.) High School. Crennel is the nephew of Browns Head Coach Romeo Crennel and the son of Carl Crennel. Crennel, who was born on Sept. 7, 1974 in Montreal, Quebec, is the son of West Virginia Hall of Fame middle guard Carl Crennel (1967-69). Carl Sr., a three-time All-American at WVU, was part of the 1970 Pittsburgh Steelers rookie class that included Mel Blount and Terry Bradshaw. Carl Sr. played one year for the Steelers and one season for the St. Louis Cardinals before embarking on a successful 11-year career in the Canadian Football League.

JEFF DAVIDSON OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 11TH

Jeff Davidson was named offensive line coach on Feb. 14, 2005. Davidson is entering his 15th season in the NFL, including his 11th as an NFL assistant coach after playing four seasons with the Denver Broncos (1990-92) and New Orleans Saints (1993-94). For the last eight seasons (1998-2004), Davidson coached on the New England Patriots sidelines, where he contributed to five playoff performances, including four division titles, three conference titles and three Super Bowl championships. During the last three seasons (2002-04), Davidson served as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach in New England.

In 2004, Davidson worked with offensive line coach Dante Scarnecchia to emphasize consistency along the offensive line as there were only three lineup changes all season. The Patriots' offensive line had the same starting lineup for the final 13 regular season games, and all three postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXIX. As a collective unit, the offensive line helped RB Corey Dillon gain 1,635 yards on the year and helped Dillon top the 100-yard mark in eight times. In addition, the offensive line helped the Patriots ground game feature big play potential as there were 54 runs of 10 yards or more during the 2004 season. The Patriots offensive line protected QB Tom Brady and allowed only 26 sacks all season, which ranked sixth in the NFL in sacks allowed.

Davidson also assisted the tight ends in 2004, and helped the tight ends become a key ingredient in the Patriots offensive system with nine pass plays of 20 yards or more. TE Daniel Graham tied for the team lead with seven touchdowns and LB Mike Vrabel and TE Christian Fauria added two touchdowns each to give the tight ends a collective 11 touchdowns on the season.

Davidson originally joined the Patriots as the tight ends coach in 1997, when TE Ben Coates led the team with 66 receptions. From 1998-2001, Davidson accepted the responsibilities as an assistant offensive line coach, returning his focus to a position he played professionally for four seasons before pursuing his coaching career.

Prior to the 2002 season, Davidson added the tight end responsibilities along with his assistant offensive line coaching duties. As a result, in 2002 Patriots tight ends had 58 catches, more than three times their production from the previous year, and TE Christian Fauria led the team with seven touchdowns, the most by a Patriots tight end since Coates had eight in 1997. In 2003, the tight ends improved their offensive production yet again with Graham combining with Fauria for 66 receptions and six touchdowns. In addition, the Patriots offensive line did not allow a sack in any of their three postseason games as New England claimed its second title in three seasons with a victory in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Davidson began his NFL coaching career in 1995 with the New Orleans Saints as a volunteer assistant. He gained valuable coaching experience under the guidance of offensive line coach Jon Matsko on Jim Mora's staff. In 1996, he was named offensive assistant, responsible for a multitude of functions, including the breakdown of game tapes, opponent scouting and self-scouting. He also maintained a number of on-field coaching responsibilities.

Davidson earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior and was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Ohio State. He was drafted in the fifth round of the 1990 NFL draft by the Denver Broncos and moved into the starting lineup in just his second season. He started 16 games in 1991, including two playoff games, at left tackle. In 1992, he started every game at left guard. Davidson was released by the Broncos in 1993 and was signed by the New Orleans Saints as a free agent in 1994. He was on the active roster for the first seven games of the season, but suffered a shoulder injury that sidelined him for the remainder of the year and ultimately brought an end to his playing career.

Jeffrey John Davidson was born Oct. 3, 1967 in Akron, Ohio. He attended Westerville (Ohio) North High School, where he earned Parade All-American honors as a senior. He was a two-sport prep letterman, starring in football (3 letters) and track (4). Jeff and his wife, Judi, have two sons, Nicholas and Alexander.

TODD GRANTHAM

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST

YEAR IN NFL: 7TH

Todd Grantham was named the defensive coordinator on Feb. 18, 2005. Grantham joins the Browns with six years of NFL coaching experience with Houston (2002-04) and Indianapolis (1999-2001) as a defensive line coach and also brings nine additional years of coaching experience from the collegiate level.

Last season as the defensive line coach for the Texans, Grantham's line worked in a 3-4 defensive scheme. Overall, the Texans defense ranked 13th in the NFL against the run and had a streak of seven consecutive games without allowing a rushing TD last season (10/10/04 - 11/28/04).

In 2003, Grantham's defensive line unit was devastated by injuries, as NT Seth Payne suffered a season ending knee injury in week two and Pro Bowl DE Gary Walker played in just four games due to shoulder and toe injuries. Despite the injuries, Grantham was able to mix and match his defensive linemen effectively as DT Jerry Deloach collected a career-high 109 tackles and NT Steve Martin racked up 92 stops in only 14 games. In 2002, Grantham's three starters (Gary Walker, Seth Payne, Jerry Deloach) all produced career-high numbers in tackles and Walker earned his second Pro Bowl invitation after racking up 115 tackles and 6.5 sacks.

Grantham arrived in Houston in 2002 after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts. Grantham's charges registered 96 sacks over three seasons, helping the Colts post a 29-19 record and advance to the playoffs twice. Indianapolis' 10-win improvement from 1998 to 1999 marked the greatest one-season turnaround in league history. In 1999 and 2000, the Colts posted 56 sacks, the highest two-year total for the club since it moved to Indianapolis.

Prior to his stint in Indianapolis, Grantham served three seasons as the defensive line coach at Michigan State (1996-98). He added the title of assistant head coach in his final season in East Lansing in 1998. Michigan State ranked 19th in total defense in 1996 and 13th in 1997, making consecutive bowl trips.

Grantham also spent six seasons (1990-95) at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, the final two as defensive line coach. In 1995, the Hokies ranked first nationally in rushing defense, fifth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Virginia Tech racked up 50 sacks en route to the Big East title and a Sugar Bowl triumph over Texas. Grantham coached defensive ends and inside linebackers from 1990-91 and defensive tackles from 1992-93.

Grantham played guard and tackle for the Hokies from 1984-88. He earned second-team All-South and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. Grantham earned a bachelor's degree in sports management. A native of Pulaski, Va., Grantham and his wife, Paige, have a son, Corbin.

MIKE HALUCHAK

LINEBACKERS COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST

YEAR IN NFL: 20TH

Mike Haluchak was named linebackers coach on Feb. 28, 2005. Haluchak served as linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars for the last two seasons and has nearly 20 years of NFL coaching experience.

Haluchak joined Jacksonville from St. Louis, where he coached for three seasons (2000-02), including an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVI. Haluchak guided the Rams' second-round draft choice, Tommy Polley, to the All-Rookie team in 2000. In addition, he has coached players to six Pro Bowls: Jesse Armstead (1997-99), Ken Harvey (1995-96) and Junior Seau (1991).

Haluchak began his NFL coaching career with San Diego in 1986 and spent six seasons with the Chargers. He has also coached with the Cincinnati Bengals (1992-93), Washington Redskins (1994-96) and N.Y. Giants (1997-99).

Haluchak was a high school coach in Southern California from 1972-75 and entered the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at USC (1976-77). Haluchak moved to Cal State-Fullerton in 1978 as defensive backfield coach. Haluchak's first tour as a linebackers coach was at Pacific (1979-80). Haluchak coached at California (1981), North Carolina State (1982) and then coached three seasons with the Oakland Invaders of the USFL (1983-85).

Haluchak was a starting linebacker and safety at Southern California during one of the most memorable periods in the storied history of USC football. He played in the 1969 and 1970 Rose Bowl games against Ohio State and Michigan.

Haluchak was born Nov. 28, 1949 in Concord, Calif. He holds a degree in history from Southern California and a master's degree in secondary education from California Lutheran. Haluchak is married to his wife, Carol.

JOHN LOTT

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST

YEAR IN NFL: 9TH

John Lott was named strength and conditioning coach on Feb. 13, 2005. Lott, who was the first coach hired by Browns head coach Romeo Crennel, joins the Browns after serving in the same capacity with the New York Jets for the last eight years (1997-2004), and worked with Crennel on the Jets' staff from 1997-99.

A native of Denton, Texas, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. Lott also was recognized by Power Magazine as the 2001 Powermag All-NFL Team Top Strength Coach.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help players increase their overall stamina and endurance. Lott is also responsible for working with injured players on secondary rehabilitation programs.

Lott originally joined the Jets in 1997 after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston for seven years (1991-96), where he supervised the strength and conditioning program for all 14 varsity sports with a primary focus on football, men's basketball, men's and women's track and field and the nationally ranked men's golf team. During his seven years at Houston, Lott designed and oversaw the construction of a state-of-the-art 17,000-square foot weight room (the largest in the country at the time of its completion).

Prior to his tenure at Houston, Lott served one year (1990) in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of North Texas, overseeing all 11 varsity sports programs. Lott has a strong track background, having worked as the strength and conditioning coach of the Santa Monica Track Club and trained Olympic gold medalists Carl Lewis, Leroy Burrell and Mike Marsh. Lott also worked with the 1992 and 1996 Indonesian National Track teams, as well as with select members of the Japanese National Track team in preparation for the Olympics in 1992 and 1996. Overall, his athletes have garnered six world records and 12 Olympic medals.

Lott played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. He was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas, where he earned four varsity letters and was named All-Conference twice, and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and a team captain by his teammates, and graduated as the strongest man in school history.

Lott earned his Bachelor of Science degree in corporate fitness in 1988 with minors in biology and kinesiology and later earned his master's degree in physical education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus. Lott was born May 9, 1964 in Denton, Texas. He is married to his wife, Kim, and the couple have a son, Jasper Ryan (3), and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace (1).

RANDY MELVIN

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST

YEAR IN NFL: 3RD

Randy Melvin was named defensive line coach on Feb. 20, 2005. Melvin joins the Browns with 22 years of coaching experience, including two seasons with the New England Patriots as defensive line coach (2000-01). Last season, Melvin was defensive line coach at Rutgers and earlier in 2005 had accepted a position on Ron Zook's staff at the University of Illinois.

Melvin spent the last three seasons as defensive line coach at Rutgers and worked with Romeo Crennel as defensive line coach at New England during the Patriots 2001 Super Bowl Champion season. Melvin also gained experience on the NFL level as a participant in the NFL's minority coaching fellowship program, first with the Denver Broncos in 1995, and also with the New York Jets from 1997-98.

Prior to joining the Patriots staff, Melvin was defensive ends coach at Purdue for three seasons (1997-99). While at Purdue, Melvin was instrumental in the development of several linemen who went on to play in the NFL.

A 1982 graduate of Eastern Illinois, Melvin began coaching on the collegiate level in 1988 at his alma mater as defensive line coach. Melvin spent seven seasons at Eastern Illinois before moving on to Wyoming for two seasons (1995-96). The Cowboys were impressive under Melvin's tutelage, recording a Western Athletic Conference best 33 sacks in 1995, and following it up with another league best 46 sacks in 1996.

Melvin began his coaching career in the high school ranks in 1982, first as assistant coach, and then as head coach, of Aurora West High School (1985-87). He then returned to Eastern Illinois for seven seasons (1988-94). Melvin was a starter on the defensive line for Eastern Illinois for three seasons, and received AP All-America recognition (Division II) in 1979 and 1980. He is a member of both the Eastern Illinois University (inducted in 1995) and Aurora West High School Halls of Fame (inducted in 1994).

TERRY ROBISKIE WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 5TH

YEAR IN NFL: 24TH

Terry Robiskie returns to the Browns in 2005 as the club's wide receivers coach. Robiskie was the club's offensive coordinator in 2004 and served as the Browns interim head coach over the last five games of the season after head coach Butch Davis resigned.

Robiskie previously served as wide receivers coach in Cleveland from 2001-03. The 2005 season will be his 24th in the NFL, and his 24 years of NFL experience includes roles as a position coach, offensive coordinator and head coach.

Prior to joining the Browns in 2001, Robiskie spent the previous seven years with the Washington Redskins and concluded the 2000 season as the Redskins head coach for the final three games of the regular season, following the departure of Norv Turner. Robiskie's record as head coach was 1-2, including a 20-3 win over Arizona on Dec. 24.

Robiskie began the 2000 season as passing game coordinator in Washington, and helped the Redskins rank fifth in the NFC in total offense (337.3 yards per game) and passing (228.0 yards per game). He helped running back Stephen Davis total 1,318 yards and 11 touchdowns on 332 attempts, including five 100-yard outings.

He entered the coaching profession with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1982 as the assistant running backs coach, where he tutored Marcus Allen to two Pro Bowls and two 1,000-yard seasons. Robiskie was the assistant special teams coach for the Raiders from 1985-87, and he tutored the Raiders tight ends in 1988.

Robiskie was the Raiders offensive coordinator from 1989-93. In 1990, Oakland ranked ninth in the NFL with 126.8 yards rushing per game and QB Jay Schroeder ranked sixth in the NFL with a 90.8 QB rating. In 1992, the Raiders ranked 11th in the NFL with 112.1 yards rushing. In 1993, Oakland ranked fifth in the NFL in passing and 13th in total offense as Robiskie helped QB Jeff Hostetler pass for 3,242 yards and 14 TDs. Robiskie's 12 years with the Raiders included seven playoff stints, four division titles and a victory over the Redskins in Super Bowl XVIII.

Originally an eighth round selection by Oakland in the 1977 NFL Draft, Robiskie was a four-year letter winner and the 1976 SEC MVP as a senior at LSU. Robiskie spent five years in the NFL as a running back with the Raiders (1977-79) and the Miami Dolphins (1980-81), while playing for legendary coaches John Madden, Don Shula and Tom Flores.

Born Nov. 12, 1954, in New Orleans, Robiskie and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons: Brian, Andrew and Kyle. Brian will be a freshman this season on the Ohio State University football team.

JERRY ROSBURG SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 5TH

YEAR IN NFL: 5TH

Jerry Rosburg is in his fifth season as the Browns special teams coordinator. Last year, the Browns were one of the best punt return units in the league, finishing second in overall punt return average. Dennis Northcutt led the AFC and finished third in the NFL with a 12.0 average per punt return.

The Browns 2004 special teams were rated as the sixth best in the NFL by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News, whose annual comprehensive poll ranks teams from 1-32 based on their results in 21 categories. In 2002, the club ranked fourth after blocking a total of five kicks to lead the NFL. The 2002 Browns also scored three touchdowns via kickoff and punt returns, which tied for second in the NFL. Additionally, from 2001-04, the Browns have ranked fourth in kickoff coverage.

Rosburg's background includes 20 years as a college coach. Prior to joining the Browns, he served as cornerbacks/special teams coach at the University of Notre Dame for two seasons (1999-2000). He helped the Fighting Irish to a 9-3 finish in 2000 and an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl.

He spent two seasons as secondary coach at Boston College (1997-98), one season as secondary coach at the University of Minnesota (1996) and served as an assistant coach for four seasons at the University of Cincinnati (1992-95). He coached the secondary in 1995, linebackers from 1992-94 and helped the Bearcats to an 8-3 record in 1993. Rosburg coached linebackers and special teams at Western Michigan University from 1987-91. The Broncos posted a nine-win season in 1988 and earned a California Bowl appearance.

Rosburg began his college coaching career at Northern Michigan University, as a two-year graduate assistant in 1981-82 and helped the school earn Division II playoff appearances each season. He was appointed to a full-time assistant position at NMU the following season and coached the Wildcats' linebackers for three years (1983-85), before being elevated to defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1986.

Rosburg was an assistant coach at Fargo (N.D.) Shanley High School (1979-80) prior to coaching on the collegiate level. He was an all-american linebacker at North Dakota State, where he received his bachelor's degree in 1978. Rosburg received his master's degree from Northern Michigan in 1983. A native of Fairmont, Minn., Rosburg was born Nov. 24, 1955. He and his wife, Sherry, have two daughters, Megan and Margaret, and one son, Jerad.

RIP SCHERER
QUARTERBACKS COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST

YEAR IN NFL: 1ST

Rip Scherer was named quarterbacks coach on Feb. 26, 2005. Scherer joins the Browns with over 30 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level.

Most recently, Scherer spent two seasons (2003-04) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Southern Mississippi after serving as co-offensive coordinator at University of Kansas in 2001.

Scherer was the head coach at James Madison University from 1991-94, and during that time the team set or tied over 140 school records. While Scherer served as the head coach at the University of Memphis (1995-00), the club registered the first and only victory over the University of Tennessee in school history.

Scherer was also the offensive coordinator at the University of Arizona (1989-90), the University of Alabama (1987) and Georgia Tech (1981, 1986). He also served as assistant athletic director at Georgia Tech in 1985 and director of football operations at Arizona in 1988.

Scherer started his coaching career as a graduate assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State University in 1974 and went on to coach quarterbacks at North Carolina State University (1976), running backs at the University of Hawaii (1977-78) and quarterbacks at the University of Virginia (1979).

Scherer was a three-year letterman at the College of William and Mary from 1970-74, where he played quarterback. Born August 3, 1952, Scherer and his wife, Michele, have three children: Scott, Melanie and Ryan.

BOB TROTT

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST

YEAR IN NFL: 6TH

Bob Trott was named defensive assistant coach on Feb. 26, 2005. Trott joins the Browns with nearly 30 years of coaching experience, including five seasons in the NFL with the New York Giants and New England Patriots. Trott spent the last two years at the University of Louisiana at Monroe as their defensive coordinator.

Beyond his NFL coaching experience, Trott's experience includes serving on the coaching staffs of 11 college bowl teams and has been a defensive coordinator at five NCAA Division I-A universities, including such programs as Arkansas and Clemson. Trott has served as a coach or player under such renowned head coaches as Bill Parcells, Al Groh, Ken Hatfield, Fred Goldsmith, and Bill Dooley.

Trott played at North Carolina under coach Bill Dooley and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Chapel Hill in 1976-77. Trott entered full-time coaching at the Air Force Academy in 1978, handling the defensive ends first under Parcells and in 1981, assumed defensive backs coaching duties.

In 1984, Trott moved to the University of Arkansas and was defensive backfield coach for the Razorbacks from 1984-88 before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1989. Trott helped Arkansas win Southwest Conference championships in 1988 and 1989 and play in six bowl games.

Trott went to Clemson in 1990, serving as the Tigers' defensive coordinator, as well as handling the defensive backs. The Tigers led the NCAA in total defense in 1990.

In 1991, Trott moved up to the NFL, joining Ray Handley's staff at the New York Giants as a defensive assistant. Two years later he rejoined Parcells, going to New England as defensive backfield coach for the Patriots, serving through the 1995 campaign.

Trott became a defensive coordinator again in 1996, also handling the defensive backs, when he joined the Duke staff. He moved to Baylor as defensive coordinator in 2002 before heading to Louisiana-Monroe the following season.

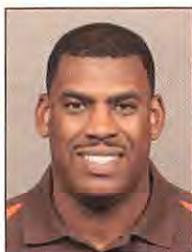

Trott was born in Concord, N.C., on March 19, 1954, and grew up in nearby Kannapolis where he attended A.L. Brown High. He played safety at North Carolina, earning three letters under Dooley and serving as a senior captain in his final season. He also excelled in the classroom, making the all-Atlantic Coast Conference Academic team in 1975. He received a bachelor's degree in business from UNC in 1976 and later, in 1982, was awarded a master's degree in education.

Trott and his wife Barbara are parents of three children. Amanda (22) is a recent graduate of North Carolina and is now in law school; Nathan (20) is on a football scholarship at Elon University; and Brittany (16) is a high school junior.

MEL TUCKER

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 1ST
YEAR IN NFL: 1ST

Mel Tucker was named defensive backs coach on Feb. 18, 2005. Tucker comes to Cleveland after spending the last four seasons (2001-04) on Jim Tressel's staff at the Ohio State University, where he coached the defensive backs and was co-defensive coordinator during the 2004 season and played an integral role in game preparation and strategy.

Tucker grew up in Cleveland and played college football at the University of Wisconsin. Prior to joining the staff at Ohio State, he spent a year (1999) at the University of Miami (Ohio) and one season at LSU (2000), where he coached the defensive backs at both schools.

In his four years at Ohio State, Tucker developed into an outstanding teacher and motivator and demonstrated the ability to get the most out of his players. He was regarded as one of the up-and-coming young coaches in college football.

Two of Tucker's Ohio State players—strong safeties Michael Doss and Will Allen—won first-team All-America honors, while cornerback Chris Gamble was a second-team All-American pick.

Tucker prepped at Cleveland Heights High School and was a two-time member of the Cleveland Plain Dealer's All-Scholastic team. He won All-Ohio honors in football as a senior and also enjoyed an outstanding basketball career.

At Wisconsin, Tucker earned four letters as a defensive back. He graduated in the spring of 1995 and played briefly in the Canadian Football League.

He began his coaching career in 1997 as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban at Michigan State University. After two years in that capacity, he became defensive backfield coach at Miami (Ohio). He spent one year with the RedHawks, leaving after the 1999 season to re-join Saban who had moved on to LSU.

Tucker was born Jan. 4, 1972 in Cleveland. Mel and his wife Jo-Ellyn, an attorney, were married in June of 1999. They have two sons, Joseph (2/18/02) and Christian (2/18/04).

BILL REES DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Bill Rees was named the Browns director of player personnel on Feb. 9, 2005. Rees, who has an extensive background in scouting and personnel, spent the previous four years with the San Francisco 49ers, the most recent as director of player personnel for the 2004 season.

Rees joined the 49ers after four seasons as the director of college scouting with the Chicago Bears. While there, Rees oversaw a staff of six scouts and helped produce successful drafts that generated 14 starters over three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, Rees served as a regional scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. He was primarily responsible for scouting college talent in the Western region.

The majority of Rees' experience came during his 15 years spent with UCLA (1979-93). Rees served as both an assistant coach and as recruiting coordinator for the Bruins, earning a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. While at UCLA, Rees signed 90 prep All-Americans and helped the Bruins earn 12 bowl appearances and win five Pac-10 Championships.

Rees began his football career as an assistant with Northwestern for three seasons, coaching defensive backs for two seasons (1976-77) and running backs for one season (1978). He played quarterback for three years at Ohio Wesleyan and graduated with a degree in history. He also earned his master's degree in education from Northwestern in 1978.

Rees was born April 2, 1954, and he and his wife, Susan, have three children, Danny, Meghan and Tommy.

T.J. McCREIGHT ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

T.J. McCreight was named the Browns assistant director of player personnel on May 24, 2005. McCreight spent the previous eight seasons in the Baltimore Ravens personnel department, including the last two as the Ravens' national scout. McCreight spent three seasons with Baltimore as the East area scout and was then assigned expanded coverage to scout players throughout the United States.

Prior to his appointment as area scout, McCreight's duties with the team included assisting in pro scouting, including advance scouting of upcoming opponents, unrestricted free agency, NFL Europe and free agents, and assisted the college scouting staff in preparation for the NFL Draft.

McCreight gained his football experience in the college ranks both as a player and a coach. He was a tight end at Liberty University (Lynchburg, Va.), where he played under former Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano. McCreight graduated in 1992 with a degree in marketing.

McCreight's college coaching resume includes defensive line coach at Delaware State University from 1994-97 and receivers coach at Oberlin College in 1993. He and his wife, Linda, live with their son Matthew, 4, and daughter, Maggie, 2, in Bainbridge, Ohio.

STEVE SABO COORDINATOR, PRO PERSONNEL

As coordinator, pro personnel, Steve Sabo is responsible for scouting 12 NFL teams, and assists with advance scouting of upcoming opponents. He also plays a role with the acquisition of unrestricted free agents throughout the year.

Sabo joined the Browns in 1998 after working with the New Orleans Saints from 1994-98. He worked as an administrative assistant with the Saints from 1994-96 and as a pro scout from 1996-98. Prior to joining the Saints, Sabo worked as a research assistant with NFL Films in 1993-94.

Sabo, 34, was born in Willingboro, N.J., and graduated from Kutztown University in 1993. He is married to the former Ursula Anderson of Knoxville, Tenn. They have a daughter, Anderson, and reside in Medina, Ohio.

JAKE HALLUM SENIOR SCOUT

Jake Hallum joins the Browns as a senior college scout and has been evaluating college talent for more than three decades. Hallum served the last five seasons as a college scout with the New England Patriots, primarily in the Midwest and Southeast.

Hallum provided the Philadelphia Eagles with five seasons (1995-99) as a college scout. His experience at the college level began as the head coach at Morehead State in 1968. After four seasons (1968-71), Hallum moved to the University of Maryland, where he coached the offensive line from 1972-81. In 1982, he began an eight-year assignment as an assistant at Kentucky.

In 1990, he accepted the position of offensive line and tight ends coach at Arizona State. Following the 1991 season, he left the coaching ranks, completing a 24-year coaching career. In 1992, he began his scouting career as a regional scout for National Football Scouting, and scouted Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mississippi. Hallum held the position with National Scouting for two seasons prior to joining the Eagles, and with Philadelphia, he scouted all areas of the United States.

Hallum was born Nov. 2, 1938 in Liberty, S.C. He played linebacker and guard at Newberry College (1957-60) and later earned his master's degree from Murray State in 1965. He coached high school football at his alma mater, Pickens (S.C.) High (1960-62), later making stops at Hopkinsville (Ky.) High (1962-66) and Paul Blazer High in Ashland, Ky. (1966-67), winning the state AAA championship at Hopkinsville High and Paul Blazer High School.

Jake and his wife, Mable, have two sons, Todd and Bart. They reside in Lexington, Ky.

JIM JAUCH COLLEGE AREA SCOUT

Jim Jauch is in his second season as a college scout for the Browns, but has 13 years of NFL scouting experience. Jauch worked from 1992-2003 as a college scout for the San Diego Chargers, where he was responsible for the most comprehensive area held by a college scout for the franchise. Since 2002, he has covered nine states in the Midwest, including Ohio, and also crosschecked the Southeast, which included eight additional states.

Jauch played four seasons in the Canadian Football League (CFL) for the Calgary Stampeders (1989), Edmonton Eskimos (1990) and Hamilton Tigercats (1991-92).

He earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where he lettered four times as a defensive back. His father, Ray, was a head coach for the Washington Federals (USFL) and also served as a head coach for 14 seasons in the CFL for the Edmonton Eskimos and Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Born June 25, 1965 in Iowa City, Iowa, he and his wife, Shaunea, now reside in Cincinnati.

KEVIN KELLY COLLEGE AREA SCOUT

Kevin Kelly is in his fifth year as a college area scout for the Browns. He arrived in Cleveland following five years (1996-2000) as head coach and offensive coordinator for St. Viator High School in Arlington Heights, Ill.

Kelly previously coached at Case Western Reserve University in 1995 as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach, John Carroll University in 1994 as linebackers coach and at Lake Forest College in 1993 as defensive line coach. He also served as an NFL scout (Midwest) for the Ottawa Rough Riders (CFL) in the summer of 1993 and as a scout for the Prep Football Report in 1992. He began his coaching career with a three-year stint at Indiana University as a graduate assistant.

He holds a master's degree in sports marketing and management and a bachelor's degree in economics from Indiana University. Kelly was a walk-on player at Indiana University and following a stint at

CLEVELAND BROWNS HERO FUND

Dawn McAleese (mother) holding son, Aidan, along with (from L to R) daughter, Brianne, and sons Liam, and Jack.

Dawn, and their four children, Brianne (7), Jack (6), Liam (4) and Aidan (3) in the form of annual payments until the youngest child in each family turns 18. In addition to the financial pledge, the Browns have "adopted" the children by bringing them to games in Cleveland and having them join the team at one away game each year. Each trip will be planned so the families can enjoy the city where the game is played in addition to interacting with the team. The Browns will also offer internships to the children, involve the families in holiday gift giving and maintain year-round contact.

"These are people who dedicated their lives to service to their communities, and they paid a very high price for that dedication on Sept. 11," Lerner said at the time. "We wanted to show that we appreciate it and that they are not alone, and we would not ever let them be alone."

If you wish to contribute to the Cleveland Browns Hero Fund, please make checks payable to: Cleveland Browns Foundation—Hero Fund, Attn: Mr. Doug Jacobs, Executive Vice President, Finance, Cleveland Browns, 76 Lou Groza Blvd., Berea, Ohio 44017.

All donations are tax deductible.

Patricia Mary Smith models her Browns cheerleader costume for Halloween.

The Cleveland Browns created the Cleveland Browns Hero Fund to aid one family each from the New York City Fire and Police Departments who suffered the loss of a parent during the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks. The Browns worked directly with the New York City Fire and Police Departments to adopt one family from each of these departments and the only criterion was that the families have at least one minor child. The initial funding of this program consisted of contributions received from the players, coaches, executives and staff of the Cleveland Browns. Each donation was matched by late Cleveland Browns Owner and Chairman Al Lerner. Additional funding will be provided by the Cleveland Browns Foundation.

The team adopted the families of Police Officer Moira Smith and Firefighter Brian McAleese. The Browns will assist the family of Smith, consisting of her husband, James, and daughter, Patricia Mary (4) and the family of McAleese, consisting of his wife,

join the team

The Cleveland Browns coaches, players and staff are committed to the community and invite you to "Join the Team" and help create bright futures today and for the future. Whether you volunteer, mentor, coach, donate, support, or teach, you can make a difference. Below are some of the programs the Browns have created to help make a difference in the community...Join the Team!

A young volunteer shows Coach Crennel and Browns rookies painting techniques during the Browns field renovation project.

Frisman Jackson helps serve a Traditional Thanksgiving meal at a local soup kitchen.

Neighborhood enhancement is important to the Browns, and this summer Browns rookies and Head Coach Romeo Crennel gathered to landscape and paint an area surrounding the Bump Taylor Field at Patrick Henry Middle School in Cleveland. Over the course of the summer, Bump Taylor Field is scheduled for many renovations, and the Browns were able to contribute $200,000 towards the project through the NFL Youth Football Fund Grassroots program, plus install a new scoreboard and concrete entry way to the field. In addition to the field renovation, the Cleveland Browns have helped build five homes for families through Habitat for Humanity, and have helped renovate the homes of two Cleveland residents through Rebuilding Together since 1999. Last season, the Browns completed building their sixth playground at a United Way Agency through the annual NFL Hometown Huddle project.

READ WITH THE BROWNS

Browns fans can Read with the Browns anytime, day or night, for free! Every two weeks, a Browns player is featured reading a children's book, and by logging onto www.clevelandbrowns.com/community or calling 1-866-KID DAWG, families, friends and children can enjoy reading along while sharpening their reading skills. During the Browns season, the Cuyahoga County Public Library is a key partner in the program and offers several fun activities and rewards for children who visit one of their 29 locations.

Braylon Edwards joins kids to record a book for the Read with the Browns program.

HATS OFF TO OUR HEROES

HATS OFF TO OUR HEROES

Through the Hats Off to Our Heroes program, the Browns recognize men and women who have made a difference in the community. Following 9/11, the Browns created this signature program for the 2002 season, and each year, the Browns have targeted representatives who epitomize the core of our community and have honored them throughout the month of September. During the inaugural year, heroes of all ages were honored and they included a range of representatives, such as a nurse, teacher, EMS team, youth volunteer, etc., in 2003 representatives from each branch of the military were honored, as well as families of fallen soldiers, and in 2004 local war veterans were honored who dated back to WWII. To continue the tradition of honoring a diverse group of local heroes through this award winning program, the Browns accepted online nominations to recognize local heroes from the military, fire protection, police, EMS and crime prevention, who will be honored during the season opener on September 11, 2005 as the Browns battle the Bengals.

War veterans are honored during the 2004 Hats Off to Our Heroes game ceremony.

The Cleveland Browns believe in connecting education, health & wellness, and neighborhood enhancement as the pillars of our team's commitment to the community. To support health-related causes with the intent for others to enjoy full and balanced lives, the Browns will dedicate October as cancer awareness month, with focus on breast cancer, symbolic of the pink ribbon. Throughout the month you are invited to "Join the Team" to help educate others and support the cause. In other health areas, the Browns are proud to support the American Red Cross and the American Sickle Cell Anemia Association through the annual Cleveland Browns Dr. Charles Drew Blood Drive held simultaneously at Training Camp, and several other sites in NE Ohio. Over the years, thousands of lives have been saved through fans and donors who come out to support the Browns annual blood drive.

For additional information on these programs, visit clevelandbrowns.com, or contact the Community Relations Department at 440-891-5000.

CLEVELAND BROWNS foundation

The Cleveland Browns and the Cleveland Browns Foundation are dedicated to Northeast Ohio and are very proud to have contributed $1.2 million to the community in 2004! Since the Browns' return to Cleveland in 1999, we have donated an astounding $5.2 million to community organizations and programs. The Cleveland Browns and the Cleveland Browns Foundation take great pride in being able to support the outstanding organizations and people of Northeast Ohio. We look forward to growing our programming and support in the community we call home.

The Cleveland Browns Foundation believes in keeping kids healthy, happy and in school. We value the importance of education and we strive to help our kids make healthy decisions. Additionally, we understand the impact that youth football and other activities have on kids' academic achievements. Therefore we develop and support programs that focus not only on kids' health and education, but also on their happiness through youth football and other valuable activities.

KEEPING KIDS HAPPY

The Cleveland Browns Foundation recognizes the importance of youth football in our community and wants to provide every child with an opportunity to get in the game. Through Browns Football Camps and NFL Junior Player Development Camps, we reach thousands of children each year, teaching them basic football skills and important life lessons that accompany the game. We provide scholarship opportunities for disadvantaged children to attend Browns Football Camps held in our backyard each summer.

Browns Youth Football Camps introduce kids to basic football skills.

With our new Support Youth Football Project, the Browns Foundation is reaching out to football programs throughout Northeast Ohio. We provide financial support to area youth football programs including the Cleveland Municipal School District, Pop Warner and the Cleveland MUNY Football League.

The Browns Foundation Tickets for Kids program brings hundreds of kids to home games each season to cheer on the Browns.

This summer the Browns Foundation celebrated football in our community by contributing $300,000 to the Cleveland schools to sustain high school football this fall. This one-time contribution to the district will keep football programs running in nine high schools this year and provide countless athletes with opportunities to succeed. This contribution, which is the largest one-time donation received by the school district for athletics, will cover the costs for transportation, coaches' salaries, equipment, and athletes' physicals. More important than high school football, this contribution gives these athletes incentive to work hard in school and stay focused on their futures.

Browns players join Cleveland high school football players to celebrate the Browns Foundation's $300,000 gift to save high school football in the Cleveland city schools.

Additionally, the Browns Foundation is thrilled to invite 3,500 youth football players and their chaperones to cheer on the Browns at our preseason game against the Carolina Panthers. Through the NFL's "Play Football 2005" program, we will join the other 31 teams to recognize our local youth football athletes.

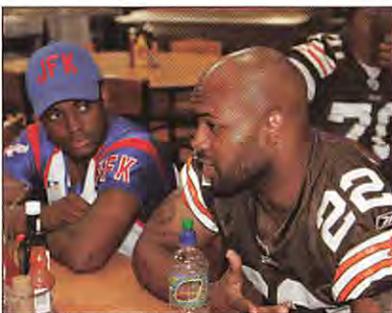

KEEPING KIDS HEALTHY

Keeping kids healthy is the first step in providing them with opportunities to succeed. At the Cleveland Browns Foundation we are dedicated to improving the health and well-being of children in our community. Therefore we are proud to support the Cleveland Municipal School District Physical Fitness Competitions which reward kids for staying physically fit. Additionally, these competitions teach children to make healthy decisions, such as maintaining a healthy diet and avoiding harmful substances.

The Cleveland Browns Foundation is the proud title sponsor of the Shoes & Clothes for Kids Payless Gift Card program which distributes $10 gift cards to families in need. Through this initiative, disadvantaged children are able to visit a Payless ShoeSource and select their own pair of shoes. The Browns Foundation is thrilled that our support will provide a brand new pair of shoes for 5,000 local children!

New this year, the Browns Foundation is partnering with the Cleveland Clinic Foundation to provide health screenings to children and their families at the annual Cleveland Browns Touchdown Run held each July. These screenings will allow the community an opportunity to receive a free health evaluation and will educate people on important health issues.

KEEP KIDS IN SCHOOL

Michael Jameson shares advice and wisdom with a football player from John F. Kennedy High School.

Through two exciting new programs the Cleveland Browns Foundation encourages local youth to stay focused in school and aspire to earn a college degree. First, through our Earn Your Degree program, we recognize our own players who have made the commitment to education and earned their college degrees. We provide funds to these players' high schools to inspire students to follow in their footsteps and create their own bright future. Additionally, through a partnership with the Cleveland Scholarship Program, we created the Cleveland Browns Scholarship Fund to provide assistance to students wishing to pursue careers in sports business.

Finally, we offer opportunities for kids to gain a closer look inside the Browns' business. Internship opportunities and special programming allow kids to join our team and learn the business of journalism, design, filmmaking, photography and much more. These valuable work and volunteer experiences allow kids a first-hand look inside a professional sports team.

PROMOTING DIVERSITY

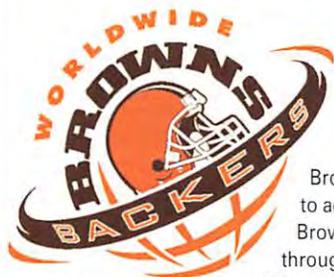

The Cleveland Browns strive to promote diversity both on the field and off, and through our Valuing Diversity Project the Browns Foundation delivers this message to local children. Through community partners like Cleveland State University, we provide educational experiences that teach students the value of diversity. This project teaches youth to accept and celebrate others' differences and encourages them to share this message within their schools and communities.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOU

The Cleveland Browns Foundation depends on the support of fans and community members each year. We provide numerous opportunities for the community to join our team. Our events calendar is full of opportunities for fans to get involved, and our on-line fundraising efforts make contributing to the Foundation easier than ever.

To learn how you can join our team, visit www.clevelandbrowns.com or call 440.891.5063.

Browns Backers Worldwide (BBW), the official worldwide fan club of the Cleveland Browns, is considered to be the largest organized fan club in all of professional sports. The BBW includes over 270 individual clubs encompassing over 40,000 worldwide members.

Browns Backers Worldwide exists as a non-profit organization to actively support and positively promote the Cleveland Browns. Browns Backers Clubs organize various activities and events throughout the year to represent and cheer on the Browns. Some of these activities and events include gathering for game days, marching in local parades, and teeing off at golf outings. Browns Backers Clubs also participate in philanthropic events in their local communities and help to raise money for the Cleveland Browns Foundation.

Official BBW members receive exclusive benefits, opportunities and the most up-to-date information on the Cleveland Browns. These benefits include:

HOW THE BROWNS WERE NAMED

Just how did the Cleveland Browns get their name?

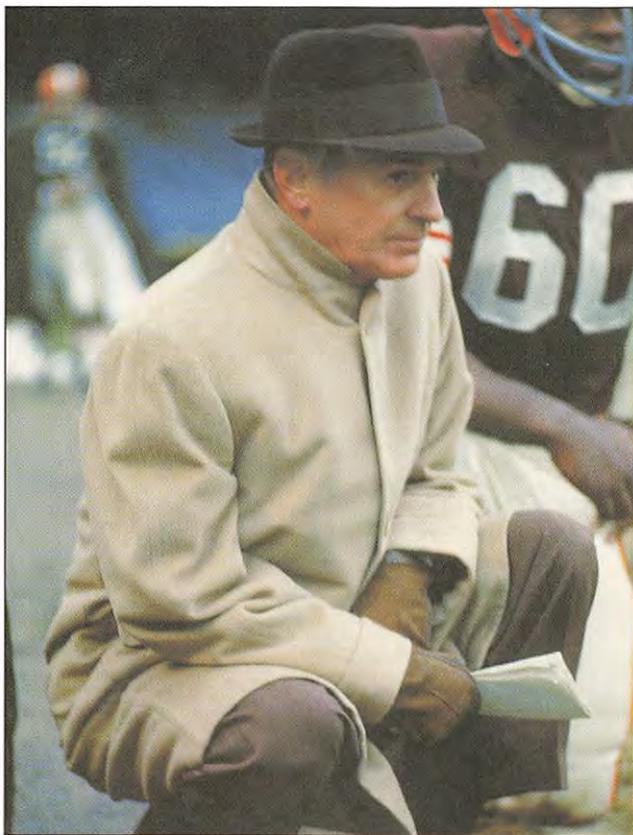

One myth is that the team was named after the popular boxing champion, Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber". The truth, according to several published reports, is this:

When Owner Arthur McBride brought an AAFC team to Cleveland in 1945, he held a newspaper contest to name the team and offered a $1,000 war bond to the winner. Most of the entries submitted wanted the name Browns, because the extremely popular Paul Brown was the team's head coach.

Coach Brown thought it wouldn't be proper to name the team after him, and the entry "Panthers" was selected. A few weeks later, a man approached McBride and said he owned a semi-pro team in the 1920s called the Cleveland Panthers and he still owned the rights to the name.

McBride could have bought the man off, but Brown vetoed the idea. The coach didn't want the new team to be associated with a losing franchise. Instead of holding a new contest, Brown reluctantly agreed to name the team Browns. But, in sticking with his original ideals, Brown suggested publicly that since Louis was "The Brown Bomber", that was how the team got its name. Not a single entry in the contest listed Louis or his nickname as a reason for choosing "Browns".

Paul Brown

The Cleveland Browns were originated by Owner Arthur (Mickey) McBride as a member of the All-America Football Conference. Paul Brown was named coach and general manager, and the first player he signed was then-tailback Otto Graham, who was converted to quarterback with the Browns. The Browns won the Western Division title with a 42-17 victory over the Buffalo Bisons and then defeated the New York Yankees, 14-9, in the championship game.

1947-49

The Browns continued their domination of the AAFC, winning three more championships.

1950

Following the merger of the AAFC and the NFL, the Browns tied the New York Giants with 10-2 records for a share of the Eastern Division title. The Browns defeated the New York Giants, 8-3, in a playoff game and then stopped the Los Angeles Rams, 30-28, for the championship.

1951-53

The Browns won three consecutive Eastern titles, but lost each time in the league's title match, once to the Los Angeles Rams and twice to the Detroit Lions. In 1953, McBride sold the club to an organization headed by David Jones.

1954-55

Led by quarterback Otto Graham, the Browns won back-to-back NFL championships, defeating the Detroit Lions and Los Angeles Rams.

1956

At 5-7, the Browns suffered their first losing season.

1957

Jim Brown was selected in the first round by the Browns and earned rookie-of-the-year honors while helping Cleveland to the Eastern Division title.

1961

Art Modell purchased the Browns for the then unheard sum of $4 million.

1963

Paul Brown was released from his duties after 17 seasons as head coach of the franchise. Blanton Collier, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach.

1964

The Browns won the Eastern Conference title with a 52-20 victory over the New York Giants and defeated the Baltimore Colts, 27-0, in the NFL Championship Game.

1965

In his last season, Jim Brown won NFL MVP honors and led Cleveland to the NFL Championship Game, where the Browns were defeated by the Green Bay Packers.

1966

An eighth round pick in 1964, Leroy Kelly became the club's dominant threat, rushing for 1,141 yards, but the Browns finished second in the Eastern Conference to the Dallas Cowboys.

1968

With newly acquired quarterback Bill Nelsen (from the Pittsburgh Steelers), the Browns won the Century Division title and beat the Dallas Cowboys in the playoffs, but lost to the Baltimore Colts in the NFL Championship Game.

1969

The Browns won the Century Division title for the third straight year, but lost to the Minnesota Vikings in the NFL Championship Game.

1970

The Browns became members of the AFC Central Division and finished second. The Browns beat the New York Jets, 31-21, on Monday Night Football's first-ever telecast.

1971

Nick Skorich, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach. The club won its first AFC Central crown.

1972

The Browns lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Miami Dolphins in the playoffs, 20-14, as the Dolphins completed an undefeated season.

1975-77

Forrest Gregg became head coach in 1975, Greg Pruitt had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons and Dick Modzelewski coached the final game of 1977.

1978

Sam Rutigliano became the first non-Browns' assistant to be named head coach of the Browns. Cleveland won its first three contests en route to an 8-8 finish.

1979

Losses in the final two games dropped the Browns' record to 9-7 and prevented the team from entering the playoffs. Mike Pruitt had the first of three straight 1,000-yard seasons.

1980

The Browns won the AFC Central Division title with an 11-5 record, but lost to eventual Super Bowl Champion Oakland Raiders in the playoffs. Quarterback Brian Sipe was consensus MVP of the NFL.

1982

In a strike-shortened season, the Browns finished eighth in the AFC (4-5) and gained a playoff spot for the second time in three years. Cleveland lost to the Los Angeles Raiders in the Super Bowl Tournament.

1983

The Browns tied for a Wild Card playoff spot with a 9-7 record, but lost the NFL tie-breaking procedure to the Denver Broncos and Seattle Seahawks.

1984

The Browns replaced Head Coach Sam Rutigliano with Defensive Coordinator Marty Schottenheimer after a 1-7 midseason record and finished the season at 5-11. Tight end Ozzie Newsome caught 89 passes for the second straight year.

1985

The Browns captured their third AFC Central Division title, but lost to the Miami Dolphins in the playoffs, 24-21, at Miami. Rookie Kevin Mack (1,104) and Earnest Byner (1,002) each gained 1,000 yards rushing. It marked the third time in the 66-year history of the NFL that teammates both rushed for over 1,000 yards in the same season.

1986

The Browns posted a team-record 12 wins en route to their second consecutive AFC Central Division crown. In a double-overtime playoff thriller before a packed Cleveland Municipal Stadium crowd, the Browns beat the New York Jets, 23-20, to advance to the AFC Championship game. The Browns lost to the Denver Broncos, also in overtime, 23-20.

1987

The Browns captured their third straight AFC Central Division crown, as they finished the season 10-5. The third week of the NFL season was cancelled due to a 24-day players' strike, during which three "replacement" games were played (the Browns posted a 2-1 record). The Browns defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 38-21, at Cleveland Municipal Stadium in the AFC playoffs, then dropped their second straight AFC Championship to the Denver Broncos despite a spectacular come-from-behind bid that saw the Browns score 30 second-half points, only to fall, 38-33, at Mile High Stadium. Bernie Kosar won the AFC passing title with a 95.4 QB rating, and an NFL-high eight Browns made the Pro Bowl.

Cleveland finished 10-6 and earned a Wild Card berth by defeating the Houston Oilers, 28-23, in the season finale by overcoming a 16-point third-quarter deficit. Houston defeated the Browns, 24-23, in the Wild Card Game played on Christmas Eve. Four Cleveland quarterbacks suffered injuries during the course of the season. Marty Schottenheimer resigned on Dec. 27.

1989

Bud Carson was announced as the Browns' seventh full-time head coach on Jan. 27. The Browns won their fourth division title in five years with a 9-6-1 record, and advanced to the playoffs for an AFC-high fifth-straight season. The Browns advanced to their third title game in four years by defeating the Buffalo Bills, 34-30, but lost to the Denver Broncos, 37-21, at Mile High Stadium in the AFC Championship Game.

1990

The Browns suffered through a 3-13 season. Jim Shofner replaced Bud Carson as interim head coach on Nov. 5.

1991-93

Bill Belichick was named the eighth full-time head coach on Feb. 5, 1991. The Browns moved into a new training and administrative complex located in Berea, Ohio, in August 1991 and began holding training camp there in July 1992. The Browns finished 6-10, 7-9 and 7-9, respectively. Unrestricted free agency began in 1993. The Browns signed five players in the first year of this system, including quarterback Vinny Testaverde of Tampa Bay.

1994

The Browns earned a playoff berth for the first time in the '90s, finishing 11-5 and defeating the New England Patriots, 20-13, in the Wild Card Game at soldout Cleveland Municipal Stadium. The Browns faced the Pittsburgh Steelers for the first time ever in the playoffs, and lost, 29-9, at Three Rivers Stadium. The Cleveland defense set a team record by allowing just 204 points, and six players went to the Pro Bowl.

1995

The Browns concluded the season with a 5-11 record. On November 6, Owner Art Modell announced he was relocating the team to Baltimore, Md. The final game played at Cleveland Municipal Stadium was on Dec. 17 against the Cincinnati Bengals. The Browns defeated the Bengals, 26-10. The victory marked an all-time NFL record of 202-117-5 (.631) while playing at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

1996

The City of Cleveland and the NFL secured an unprecedented deal to return the Cleveland Browns to the playing field in 1999. The deal stipulated that the name, colors and heritage of the Browns would remain in Cleveland.

1998

The NFL awarded the Cleveland Browns to Alfred Lerner on Sept. 8. The NFL formally transferred ownership of the Cleveland Browns to Lerner and Carmen A. Policy on Oct. 23. Dwight Clark was named vice president, director of football operations on Nov. 30.

1999

Chris Palmer was named the ninth full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history Jan. 21. The Browns were awarded the rights to the first pick in the 1999 NFL Draft and used the pick to select Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch. The first game at new Cleveland Browns Stadium was played on Aug. 21 against the Minnesota Vikings, with the Vikings prevailing, 24-17 in a preseason contest. In the first regular-season game in the Browns' 1999 commemorative season and the first regular-season game at Cleveland Browns Stadium, the Browns lost to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 43-0. The Browns recorded their first victory of the '99 season on Oct. 31 with a last-second Hail Mary pass from Couch to Kevin Johnson.

The Browns selected Penn State defensive end Courtney Brown with the first pick in the 2000 NFL Draft. The Browns notched their first regular-season victory at Cleveland Browns Stadium on Sept. 17 with a 23-20 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

2001

The Browns fired Head Coach Chris Palmer on Jan. 11. The Browns hired Butch Davis as the franchise's 10th full-time head coach on Jan. 30.

2002

Dwight Clark resigned his post as the team's executive vice president, director of football operations on May 13. Owner Alfred Lerner passed away on Oct. 23. The Browns finished the season by winning seven of their last 10 contests to earn the club's first postseason berth since 1994 with a 9-7 record. The Browns were defeated in the AFC Wild Card Game at Pittsburgh, 36-33.

2003

The Browns finished with a 5-11 record as the season was highlighted by a 33-13 win at Pittsburgh on Oct. 5 in front of a nationally televised audience on ESPN Sunday Night Football.

2004

John Collins assumed the role of President & CEO on May 1. Rookie TE Kellen Winslow was lost for the season with an ankle injury after week two and the Browns went on to finish with a 4-12 record. Head coach Butch Davis resigned after a 3-8 start and interim head coach Terry Robiskie coached the team over the final five weeks, including a 22-14 season-ending victory at Houston.

2005

Phil Savage was named Senior Vice President & General Manager on Jan. 7 and Romeo Crennel was named head coach on Feb. 8.

CLEVELAND BROWNS IN THE HALL OF FAME

The rich tradition of the Cleveland Browns boasts 15 members in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which is tied with Washington for the fifth-highest total league-wide. Only the Chicago Bears, Green Bay Packers, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers claim more Hall of Famers.

Cleveland Browns (1957-65)

Syracuse

Enshrined in 1971

Brown came out of Syracuse University as an All-America choice in 1956. He was the Browns' No. 1 draft pick in 1957. Brown was the NFL's leading rusher in eight of his nine NFL seasons. He was named to the All-NFL team eight times. Brown was the NFL's most valuable player in 1958 and '65. He was the NFL's Rookie of the Year in 1957 and played in nine straight Pro Bowls. Brown's career totals were: 12,312 yards rushing, 262 receptions and 15,459 combined net yards. Brown scored 756 points in his career. Brown holds the Browns' record for the most combined net yards, most career yards rushing, most points in one season (126), career touchdowns (126), most consecutive games scoring a touchdown (10) and most 1,000-yard seasons (7). Brown had 58 games in which he rushed for 100 or more yards. His 106 rushing touchdowns is also a club record. His 5.22 average per rushing attempt is an NFL record. Brown's No. 32 was retired by the Browns. He was the second-youngest player ever inducted into the Hall of Fame at age 35 behind Gayle Sayers, who was inducted at age 34. Brown was born on Feb. 17, 1936 in St. Simons, Ga.

PAUL BROWN

Head Coach

Cleveland Browns (AAFC, 1946-49; NFL, 1950-62)

Miami (Ohio)

Enshrined in 1967

Brown distinguished himself as an exceptionally successful coach at all levels of football. Brown organized the Browns in the AAFC in 1946, building the great Browns' dynasty with a career record of 167-53-8 from 1946-62, including four AAFC titles and three NFL crowns. He had just one losing season in 17 years. Brown's .759 career winning percentage with the Browns is the best in team history. Brown was known as a revolutionary innovator with many coaching firsts to his credit. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame before he began his tenure as coach and owner of the Cincinnati Bengals. Brown was born on Sept. 7, 1908 in Norwalk, Ohio. He died on Aug. 5, 1991 at the age of 82.

JOE DELAMIELLEURE

Offensive Guard
Buffalo Bills (1973-79, 1985);
Cleveland Browns (1980-84)
Michigan State
Enshrined in 2003

DeLamielleure spent his first seven seasons (1973-79) in the NFL with the Buffalo Bills before being acquired by the Browns in a 1980 trade. During his tenure in Buffalo he was selected to the Pro Bowl five straight times (1975-79). In 1973 he paved the way for Bills running back O.J. Simpson to earn NFL Most Valuable Player honors and was selected All-NFL. He was also named the 1975 AFC Lineman of the Year. He made an immediate impact upon joining the Browns in 1980 and earned All-NFL honors while making the Pro Bowl for the sixth consecutive season. He was the cornerstone of a solid offensive line and will be remembered for his days as a member of the Browns' famed "Kardiac Kids." DeLamielleure was also named to the NFL Team of the Decade for the 1970s.

PAUL WARFIELD

Wide Receiver
6-0, 188

Cleveland Browns (1964-69, 1976-77);

Miami Dolphins (1970-74)

Ohio State

Enshrined in 1983

Warfield was drafted by both the Browns and the Buffalo Bills in 1964. He was a Browns fixture at wide receiver before being traded to the Miami Dolphins in 1970. Warfield was a key element in the Dolphins' offenses. His mere presence on the field forced the defense to make adjustments. Warfield was fast and super-smooth and was known as a precise pattern runner. He also had exceptional hands and was an excellent blocker. In his career, Warfield caught 427 passes for 8,565 yards, including 85 touchdowns. He had a sensational 20.1-yard per catch average. Warfield was named All-NFL five times and was named to eight Pro Bowls. He was born on Nov. 28, 1942 in Warren, Ohio.

Pittsburgh answered with an 11-play, 52-yard drive, capped by a 31-yard field goal by K Todd Peterson. Peterson's first attempt at the game-winner on third down was blocked by the Browns but recovered by Pittsburgh behind the line of scrimmage to set up another fourth down kick.

Dec. 14, 2003—Denver 23, Cleveland 20, at Denver; Browns won toss. Cleveland overcame an early 10-0 deficit in the 1st quarter as Browns' QB Tim Couch threw for 2 TDs in regulation. Denver stopped Cleveland in OT and orchestrated an 8-play, 46-yard drive as Broncos K Jason Elam connected on a 25-yard field goal.

Oct. 24, 2004—Philadelphia 34, Cleveland 31, at Cleveland; Eagles won toss. QB Jeff Garcia sent the game to overtime with a 4-yard run with :30 left in the fourth quarter. The Browns forced a punt on the Eagles first possession of overtime but couldn't cross mid-field and gave the ball back to Philadelphia. Eagles K David Akers made a 50-yard field goal with 5:02 left in overtime.

NOTE—Cleveland's overtime record is 13-13-1 (14-14-1 including postseason). The Browns set a team record with four overtime games in 1989, tying for second most in NFL history. The Browns are 1-1 in postseason overtime games. Coin toss results (includes post-season): Browns won toss (9-8-1); Browns lost toss (5-6).

DEC. 17, 1950 NFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 8, NEW YORK GIANTS 3—Lou Groza's 28-yard field goal with 58 seconds left gave the Browns the victory after they had lost to the Giants in both regular-season meetings. The offenses were thwarted by 10-degree weather and a numbing wind. The Giants had a chance for a touchdown, but after a bizarre series of plays inside the Browns' 10, they had to accept a tying field goal. Then Otto Graham used the quarterback draw to move Cleveland down the field to Groza's winning kick. Moments later, the Browns added a safety. Graham ran for 70 yards on 8 carries.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

CLEVELAND 30, LOS ANGELES 28—Lou Groza kicked a 16-yard field goal with 28 seconds remaining to give the Browns the NFL title in their inaugural season. Cleveland, which had appeared in the AAFC championship game all four years of that league's existence, joined the NFL in 1950. The Browns trailed 28-20 in the fourth quarter when Otto Graham led them on a 65-yard drive, capped by his 14-yard scoring pass to Rex Bumgardner with 4:35 left. After a Rams' punt, the Browns took over at their 32 with two minutes left. Graham led a 57-yard drive to set up Groza's winning kick. Graham passed for 298 yards and 4 touchdowns, including 11 completions for 128 yards and 2 scores to Dante Lavelli. Bob Waterfield of the Rams passed for 312 yards. The Rams' Tom Fears had 9 catches for 136 yards.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

LOS ANGELES 24, CLEVELAND 17—Norm Van Brocklin's 73-yard scoring pass to Tom Fears lifted the Rams to their second NFL title. The Rams took a 14-10 lead in the third quarter on Dan Towler's 1-yard run, which was set up by Andy Robustelli's fumble return to the Browns' 2. A field goal made it 17-10, but the Browns tied the game midway through the fourth quarter on Ken Carpenter's 5-yard touchdown run. After the ensuing kickoff, Van Brocklin, facing a third and 3 from his 27, found Fears near midfield. Fears caught the pass between two Browns defenders, who collided, which left Fears with an easy gallop to the end zone.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DETROIT 17, CLEVELAND 7—Despite being outgained 384-258, the Lions stopped Cleveland five times inside their 25-yard line to pull out the victory. A shanked punt by the Browns set up the game's first score, a 2-yard run by Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne. Doak Walker made it 14-0 in the third quarter when he raced 67 yards for a touchdown. The Browns answered with a 67-yard touchdown drive to make it 14-7 entering the fourth quarter. In the final period, Cleveland was stopped twice inside the Lions' 10, while Pat Harder clinched the victory for Detroit with a 36-yard field goal.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DETROIT 17, CLEVELAND 16—The Lions drove 80 yards in the final minutes to upend the Browns. Doak Walker gave the Lions a 10-3 lead, scoring on a 1-yard run and kicking a field goal and an extra point. Otto Graham struggled all day, but he led the Browns to a touchdown and 2 field goals as Cleveland took a 16-10 lead with 4:10 left. Quarterback Bobby Layne then moved the Lions from their 20 to the Browns' 33. The Lions' coaches called for a screen pass, but Layne changed the call and went deep, finding Jim Doran for the winning 33-yard touchdown with 2:10 left. Doran had 4 catches for 95 yards, including 3 for 68 on the final drive.

DETROIT 59, CLEVELAND 14—The Lions had a new coach and a new quarterback, but they still won their third title in six seasons. Coach Raymond (Buddy) Parker had quit before the season, but the Lions did not miss a beat under George Wilson. One of Wilson's first moves was to acquire quarterback Tobin Rote, who replaced an injured Bobby Layne late in the season. In this game, Rote passed for 280 yards and 4 touchdowns to lead the rout. After the Browns cut the Lions' lead to 17-7, Rote, on a fake field goal, fired a 26-yard scoring pass to Steve Junker. The Browns later closed to 31-14, but Rote answered again, this time with a 78-yard scoring strike to Jim Doran. Junker had 5 catches for 109 yards.

NFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

NEW YORK GIANTS 10, CLEVELAND 0—The Giants limited Cleveland to just 86 total yards to defeat the Browns. New York forced this playoff game with a last minute victory over Cleveland the week before. The teams traded turnovers until the Giants drove 84 yards for the game's only touchdown on a trick play. Frank Gifford ran 8 yards on a reverse, then pitched to Charlie Conerly, who ran 10 yards for a touchdown. The Giants added a field goal, then concentrated on stopping the Browns. Jim Brown, who had 1,527 rushing yards during the regular season, had just 8 yards on 7 carries.

DEC. 27, 1964NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Frank Ryan and Gary Collins combined for 3 second-half touchdown passes to break open a close game and give the Browns the victory. What was expected to be a high scoring game turned into a scoreless first half as both teams played conservatively. In the second half, Cleveland turned a shanked punt by Baltimore into a field goal and then used a 46-yard run by Jim Brown to set up Ryan's 18-yard scoring pass to Collins. Ryan hit Collins again at the end of the third quarter for a 42-yard score and a 17-0 lead. Ryan capped the scoring with a 51-yard pass to Collins in the fourth quarter. Collins had 5 receptions for 130 yards, while Brown ran for 114 yards on 27 carries.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12—Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor combined for 201 rushing yards while the Packers' defense shut down Jim Brown in the mud to give Green Bay the victory. The Packers built a 13-12 lead in a seesaw first half. In the second half, Green Bay's runners took over. Taylor carried on 12 of 24 plays as the Packers drove to a touchdown (Hornung's 13-yard run) and a field goal (29 yards by Don Chandler) and consumed 14 minutes. Hornung finished with 105 yards on 18 carries, while Taylor had 96 yards on 27 carries. Brown, who rushed for an NFL-high 1,544 yards during the regular season, managed only 50 yards.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

MINNESOTA 27, CLEVELAND 7—With snow stacked on the sidelines, the Vikings scored on each of their first two possessions and were never challenged en route to becoming the first expansion team to win a championship. Joe Kapp fired a 33-yard pass to Gene Washington to set up Kapp's 7-yard touchdown run for the game's first score. On the Vikings' next possession, Kapp hit Washington for a 75-yard scoring pass to give Minnesota a 14-0 lead. Dave Osborn's 20-yard scoring run made it 24-0 at halftime. Kapp passed for 169 yards and ran for 57. Washington had 3 catches for 120 yards, while Osborn ran for 108 yards.

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14—The Dolphins came from behind to defeat the Browns and remain unbeaten. Trailing 14-13, Miami marched 80 yards to the winning score, led by Paul Warfield's 15- and 35-yard receptions. Miami led 10-0 until the third quarter, when Cleveland's Mike Phipps ran 5 yards for a touchdown. After a Miami field goal, Phipps gave the Browns the lead in the fourth quarter with a 27-yard scoring pass to Fair Hooker. The Dolphins intercepted 5 passes, including 1 in the closing seconds to seal the victory.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 14, CLEVELAND 12—Safety Mike Davis' end-zone interception with 41 seconds remaining saved the Raiders' victory over the Browns. Playing in one-degree weather, Oakland drove 64 and 80 yards for its touchdowns, both coming on 1-yard runs by Mark van Eeghen. The latter score came with 9:22 remaining. The conditions and Raiders' defense combined to limit Brian Sipe to a 13-of-40 day, although he did drive the Browns 73 yards in the final minutes before throwing the fateful interception.

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 27, CLEVELAND 10—Jim Plunkett passed for a career-high 386 yards to lead the Raiders over the Browns. Trailing 13-10, Cleveland was poised to take the lead until Raiders defensive end Lyle Alzado forced a fumble deep in Los Angeles territory. The Raiders then drove 89 yards to make it 20-10 on Marcus Allen's second touchdown run of the day. Frank Hawkins' 1-yard scoring run concluded the scoring. The Raiders set a club postseason record with 510 total yards, including 145 total yards by Allen.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 23, CLEVELAND 20—Rich Karlis' 33-yard field goal 5:38 into overtime gave the Broncos a dramatic victory over the Browns. Trailing 20-13, Denver assumed possession at its 2-yard line with 5:32 left in regulation. In 15 plays, John Elway drove the Broncos 98 yards to the tying touchdown on a 5-yard pass to Mark Jackson with 37 seconds left. Elway was 6 of 9 for 78 yards on the drive, including a key 20-yard completion to Jackson on third-and-18 from the Browns' 48. He also scrambled twice for 20 yards. After the Broncos forced the Browns to punt in overtime, Elway completed passes of 22 and 28 yards to lead a 60-yard drive to the winning field goal. Elway finished with 22 completions in 38 attempts for 244 yards. He also rushed for 56 yards on 4 carries. The Browns' Bernie Kosar completed 18 of 32 passes for 259 yards and 2 touchdowns, including a 48-yard scoring strike to Brian Brennan that gave Cleveland a 20-13 fourth-quarter lead.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 38, INDIANAPOLIS 21—Bernie Kosar passed for 229 yards and 3 touchdowns to lead the Browns over the Colts. Kosar (10 yards to Earnest Byner and 39 yards to Reggie Langhorne) and the Colts' Jack Trudeau (2 yards to Pat Beach and 19 yards to Eric Dickerson) traded scoring passes as the teams battled to a 14-14 halftime tie. In the third quarter, Byner, who finished with 122 rushing yards, ran 2 yards for a score to cap an 86-yard drive and give the Browns a lead they did not relinquish. Kosar's third scoring strike highlighted the Browns' 17-point fourth quarter.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 38, CLEVELAND 33—Jeremiah Castille's fumble recovery at the 3-yard line with 1:05 to play preserved the Broncos' victory over the Browns. Denver built leads of 21-3 and 28-10 before Cleveland stormed back behind quarterback Bernie Kosar to tie the game at 31-31. The Broncos answered with a 75-yard drive, capped by John Elway's 20-yard scoring pass to Sammy Winder, to take a 38-31 lead with 4:01 left. The Browns took the ensuing kickoff and drove 67 yards to the Broncos' 8, where Earnest Byner took a hand-off and had a clear path to the tying score. But Castille stripped the ball from Byner, then recovered it at the 3-yard line to dash the Browns' hopes. Kosar completed 26 of 41 passes for 356 yards and 3 touchdowns, while Elway passed for 281 yards and 3 touchdowns.

JAN. 6, 1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 34, BUFFALO 30—Clay Matthews' interception at the 1-yard line with 3 seconds to play preserved the Browns' win over the Bills. Buffalo quarterback Jim Kelly passed for 405 yards and 4 touchdowns, while his Cleveland counterpart, Bernie Kosar, had 3 scoring strikes. After the Bills pulled within 24-21 in the third quarter, Browns rookie Eric Metcalf returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown and a 31-21 lead. The teams traded field goals, and then Kelly's fourth scoring pass made it 34-30. But the Bills missed the extra point, a mistake that proved crucial on their final drive when they had to try for the end zone instead of kicking a potential tying field goal.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 37, CLEVELAND 21—John Elway passed for 385 yards and 3 touchdowns to lead the Broncos to their third AFC title in four seasons. Elway tossed touchdown passes of 70 yards to wide receiver Michael Young and 5 yards to tight end Orson Mobley to help Denver build a 24-7 third-quarter lead. After Cleveland scored 2 quick touchdowns to pull close at 24-21, the Broncos answered by scoring on three of their four possessions in the fourth quarter. Elway hit Sammy Winder with a 39-yard touchdown, then David Treadwell kicked 34- and 31-yard field goals to clinch the victory. Elway completed 20 of 36 passes, and set club records for passing yards and total offense (424).

1989 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

JAN. 1, 1995 AFC WILD CARD

CLEVELAND 20, NEW ENGLAND 13—Vinny Testaverde threw for 268 yards and 1 touchdown and the Browns survived a late scare to beat the Patriots. After Matt Stover's 21-yard field goal with 3:36 remaining gave Cleveland a 20-10 advantage, the Patriots marched from their own 22-yard line to the Browns' 15. The drive stalled there, and Matt Bahr trimmed New England's deficit to seven points with a 33-yard field goal at the 1:30 mark. The Patriots recovered the ensuing onside kick and picked up a first down before four consecutive incompletions from their 48-yard line ended their comeback hopes. Testaverde completed 20 of 30 passes for the Browns, including a 5-yard touchdown to Mark Carrier in the second quarter. Michael Jackson caught 7 passes for 122 yards. Drew Bledsoe completed only 21 of 50 passes for 235 yards for New England and was intercepted 3 times.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 29, CLEVELAND 9—The Steelers scored on their first three possessions to open a 17-0 lead and went on to defeat the Browns for the third time this season. Pittsburgh dominated the first playoff meeting ever between these long-time rivals (they've played each other twice a year in the regular season since 1950), rushing for 238 yards while amassing 424 total yards and maintaining possession for 42:37 of the game's 60 minutes. Barry Foster ran for 133 yards on 24 carries, and rookie Byron (Bam) Morris added 60 yards on 22 attempts. Neil O'Donnell was efficient, completing 8 of his first 9 passes and finishing with 16 completions in 23 attempts for 186 yards. He threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Eric Green early in the second quarter and put the game out of reach with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen for a 24-3 lead just 16 seconds before halftime. That touchdown was set up by Tim McKyer's interception and 21-yard return to Cleveland's 6-yard line. It was 1 of 2 interceptions (safety Darren Perry had the other) of Vinny Testaverde, who was 13 of 31 for 144 yards. Testaverde received little help from Cleveland's running game, which managed only 55 yards. Ernie Mills caught 5 passes for 117 yards for the Steelers.

JAN. 5, 2003 AFC WILD CARD

PITTSBURGH 36, CLEVELAND 33—The NFL's comeback player of the year, Tommy Maddox, led the Steelers to 29 points in the final 19 minutes to overcome a 17-point deficit. On the game's third play, Kelly Holcomb, starting in place of the injured Tim Couch, connected on an 83-yard pass to Kevin Johnson to set up William Green's 1-yard run. A muffed punt by Antwaan Randle El early in the second quarter was followed on the next play by Holcomb's 32-yard touchdown pass to Dennis Northcutt. Randle El redeemed himself five minutes later with a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown. The Browns led 17-7 at halftime, and when Northcutt returned a punt 59 yards and three plays later caught a 15-yard touchdown pass, the Browns had a 17-point lead with 12:11 left in the third quarter. Maddox engineered touchdown drives of 71 and 65 yards, sandwiched around a Browns' field goal, but Holcomb's 22-yard touchdown pass to Andre' Davis with 10:17 left gave Cleveland a 33-21 lead. Two possessions later, the Steelers drove 77 yards, with the benefit of three Browns defensive penalties, and cut the deficit to 33-28 on Maddox's 5-yard scoring pass to Hines Ward with 3:06 left. Faced with third-and-12 on the ensuing possession, Northcutt dropped Holcomb's pass for what would have been a first down, and the Browns punted. Needing 61 yards with 2:35 remaining, Maddox completed 2 passes each to Plaxico Burress and Ward, and Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala scored from 3 yards out with 54 seconds left. The Browns reached the Steelers' 45 with seven seconds left, but Andre King could not get out of bounds on a 16-yard reception as time expired, thus denying Cleveland a game-tying field-goal opportunity. Maddox was 30 of 48 for 367 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions. Ward had 11 catches for 104 yards, and Burress added 6 receptions for 100 yards. Holcomb was 26 of 43 for 429 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Johnson had 4 catches for 140 yards.

Mike Pruitt-2004 inductee to the Cleveland Browns Legends.

Cleveland Browns Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, ardent, passionate group of people—the only group that can lay claim to the title of “World’s Greatest Fans.” At Cleveland Browns Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes Sunday afternoons with the Browns a memorable and momentous experience.

Cleveland Browns Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium. There’s no better place than on the lakefront for the home of the Cleveland Browns than where legendary coach Paul Brown established Cleveland’s first football dynasty in the 1940s. No other site could have been as appropriate as the location where 15 Cleveland Browns—Jim Brown, Paul Brown, Joe DeLamielleure, Len Ford, Frank Gatski, Otto Graham, Lou Groza, Leroy Kelly, Dante Lavelli, Mike McCormack, Bobby Mitchell, Marion Motley, Ozzie Newsome, Paul Warfield and Bill Willis—established their credentials for induction into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in nearby Canton.

While the location of the Stadium honors the glorious history of athletic achievements in Cleveland, Cleveland Browns Stadium is a celebration of the city’s renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the Northcoast Harbor, Cleveland Browns Stadium is located next to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Great Lakes Science Center. When visiting the Stadium, it is impossible to miss the distinctive architectural design of the columns, beams and notches in the seating bowl. These spacious gaps allow visitors to get an inside perspective of the Stadium and field when the Browns are away and allow ticket holders to see the downtown skyline during the game. While on the south side of the Stadium, Browns fans find it hard to resist a tour through Brownstown. Here fans can catch a game and a bite to eat at The Grille, wander through the Hall of Fame and reminisce about previous Browns players, and grab a personalized Browns jersey at the Team Shop.

At night, Cleveland Browns Stadium lights up the lakefront. Beams and columns are highlighted by a halo of light that can be seen from downtown and the Northcoast Harbor. Day or night, whether the team is playing home or away, Cleveland Browns Stadium brings a new excitement to Brownstown, USA.

They are capable of displaying live video and instant replays, as well as game information, player and team statistics, advertising, graphics and animation in 16.7 million colors.
- Stadium Gates:
 - Cleveland Clinic Sports Health Gate—southwest corner
 - National City Gate—southeast corner
 - STERIS Gate—northeast corner
 - FirstEnergy Gate—northwest corner
- Playing Field: The field is a Kentucky Bluegrass irrigated field with a sand-soil root zone and an underground heating system containing nine boilers and 40 miles of underground piping. The heating system keeps the field from freezing and extends the growing season of the turf.
- 12 Ticket Windows.
- Six escalators, nine passenger elevators and two freight elevators.
- Seat widths: 19–21".
- Restrooms: 41 women's, 30 men's and 12 family. Fixtures include 900 toilets, 390 urinals and 200 sinks.

- The Browns locker room is 11,000 square feet and the Stadium features two visiting team locker rooms, each being 5,600 square feet, and one officials' locker room at 1,600 square feet.
- Club Lounges located on the North (30,000 square feet) and South (28,000 square feet) sides of the Stadium.
- Stadium lighting system features 592 light fixtures, 528 1,500 watt conventional metal halide fixtures with an additional 64 1,500 watt double-ended hot-restart fixtures.
- 640 speakers (435,000 watt audio system) in the seating bowl.
- 24,703 trees, plants and flowers.

- There are 2,475,000 ft. (469 miles) of telecommunications, security, broadcast and audio system cable.
- Footprint: 31-acre site.
- Facility Area: 1.64 million square feet.
- The Stadium is a concrete and glass structure. Pre-cast concrete and cast in-place was used for the upper concourse. Natural stone accents were used at the base of the Stadium.
- The concrete superstructure used more than 600 truckloads of concrete, which is equivalent to 60,000 yards or 1,620,000 cubic feet, with a weight of approximately 235,000,000 pounds.
- Superstructure contains 5,300 tons, or 10,600,000 pounds, of reinforced steel.
- There are over 771,400 square feet of masonry walls.
- More than 829,100 construction masonry units and over 50,500 ground face units were laid.
- The base course of the Stadium is made of over 14,500 square feet of granite.
- 1,200 tons of coolant using air chillers and glycol chilled water.
- 11.65 miles of plumbing pipe includes storm, sanitary, vent, water and gas piping.
- Plumbing system contains two 2,500-gallon storage tanks.

- State-of-the-art press box seats more than 250 media personnel and is located on the South side of the Stadium.
- Stadium Dimensions: 933 feet wide, 695 feet long, 171 feet high.

Cleveland Browns Stadium

The Cleveland Browns Training and Administrative Complex is located in Berea, Ohio, on 13 acres of land. The building, which originally opened in August 1991, was renovated in the spring of 1999 and is currently undergoing further renovations and expansion. Recent renovations include an expanded weight room (7,500 sq. ft.), a new players' lounge, a complete lobby restoration and 120 new theater seats in the team meeting room. A sparkling new 14,000 sq. ft. addition to the administration building opened December 2, 2002, and features the Dino Lucarelli Media Center, which includes a media work room, press conference room, interview rooms and media flex space. The expansion also included 14 new offices for coaches and football administration, storage and a new shipping/receiving area. Current construction will create new executive offices.

Existing features in the state-of-the-art facility include a field house of 60,000 sq. ft. with a 70-yard field, a 3,100 sq. ft. athletic training room, a 1,280 sq. ft. team meeting room, individual meeting rooms for position meetings, a 2,700 sq. ft. players' locker room with room for more than 90 lockers and a restaurant-style kitchen for meal preparation. The complex also hosts three regulation-size natural grass practice fields ideal for year-round football operations, including the team's training camp.

2005 TRAINING CAMP

The Cleveland Browns begin preparations for the 2005 season by officially opening training camp on July 29 at the club's training and administrative complex in Berea, Ohio. Training camp practices conclude in mid-August.

All practices are open to the public free of charge. Fans can park in the team-owned parking lot across the street from the team's facility or in legal parking spaces on surrounding streets.

CLEVELAND BROWNS TRAINING CAMP HISTORY

The training and administrative complex is host to the Browns 2005 training camp, which marks the 11th time (1992-95, 1999-2005) the Browns have conducted training camp at the facility.

Bowling Green State University	1946-51
Hiram College	1952-74
Kent State University	1975-81
Lakeland Community College	1982-91
Berea	1992-95, 1999-2005

The Cleveland Browns organization honors the team's all-time greats through the Cleveland Browns Legends Program. Each year former players are inducted into the Legends Program through a combination vote of panelists and fan voting, which takes place exclusively on ClevelandBrowns.com.

The Legends Program started in 2001 with the automatic induction of the Browns' then 14 Hall of Famers. Here's a current list of Browns Legends:

Class of 2001: Ray Renfro, Gene Hickerson, Greg Pruitt, Bernie Kosar, Michael Dean Perry

Class of 2002: Mac Speedie, Brian Sipe, Clay Matthews

Class of 2003: Bob Gain, Dick Schafrath, Hanford Dixon

Class of 2004: Tommy James, Dub Jones, Gary Collins, Mike Pruitt

The Legends Panelists include:

- Dino Lucarelli, Cleveland Browns Manager of Alumni Relations (Chairman)
- Reggie Rucker, Cleveland Browns Alumni Liaison (Vice Chairman)
- Casey Coleman, WTAM Radio
- Jim Donovan, WKYC TV
- Tony Grossi, Cleveland Plain Dealer
- Joe Horrigan, Pro Football Hall of Fame
- Hal Lebovitz, News Herald
- Terry Pluto, Akron Beacon Journal
- Steve Sabol, NFL Films
- Pat McManamon, Akron Beacon Journal

Cleveland Browns Television (CBTV) has taken a major step forward in 2005. CBTV will provide daily video stories as BrownsTV for www.clevelandbrowns.com, launch Cleveland Browns Web Radio, supply video content to its new TV partner (Cleveland's Ch. 19 WOIO), create TV shows such as 2005 Training Camp preview, launch a full post-production edit facility (CB Productions) at Cleveland Browns Stadium, create TV studios at various locations in Cleveland Browns Stadium and the Berea training complex and produce all Browns preseason football. In addition, CBTV will create programming for the scoreboard operation during the season and help to integrate video across sales and marketing platforms within the Cleveland Browns organization.

Under the direction of Vice President of Broadcasting and Production and 12-time Sports Emmy Award winner George Veras, BrownsTV features an experienced staff, including Executive Director Kathy McLain, Senior Editor Eric Penix, Producer Mike Atkinson, Talent/Associate Producer Jamir Howerton and Associate Producer Tim Dubravetz.

WOIO CLEVELAND'S CBS 19: THE OFFICIAL TV HOME OF THE BROWNS

It's a partnership that brings the most passionate fans in America more access and coverage to their team than anywhere else in the NFL—Cleveland's CBS 19 is now the official Home Of The Browns. A local broadcasting first, this commitment to provide Browns fans with day-to-day and in several circumstances hour-by-hour live coverage of the team begins in the preseason with live 19 Action News coverage throughout training camp, including broadcasting all preseason games.

Coverage during the regular season begins Sunday's at 7 a.m. with 19 Action News Browns Breakfast, followed by 19 Action News Browns Tailgate, The NFL Today on CBS, the game, and post-game coverage in 19 Action News Browns Tonight. Browns Insider, a new Monday Night

Players Show, will be broadcast live from the Stadiums' newly designed Legend's Club. The exclusive coverage doesn't end there. During the week fans will see the latest news and interviews you can only get from the Home of the Browns on 19 Action News at 4, 5, 6 and 11 p.m. on WOIO Cleveland's CBS 19 and 19 Action News at 10 p.m. on WUAB UPN 43.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

For the first time since 1994, the Cleveland Browns will produce their own preseason telecasts. Former Browns Bob Golic (play-by-play) and Brian Brennan (color analyst) will spearhead the coverage, while the third TV chair will be open to other Browns alumni, including Jim Brown, Brian Sipe, Bernie Kosar and Reggie Rucker.

Field reporters Chuck Galeti and Sharon Reed round out the coverage, with Veras producing the games and CBS Sports director Mike Arnold directing the telecasts.

A three-time NFL Pro Bowler (1985-87), Golic played seven seasons with the Browns (1982-88) at nose tackle and retired from the NFL in 1992 after a 14-year career. Following his NFL career, Golic worked in radio and television for NBC Sports, Fox Sports Net, CNN and ESPN.

Golic played high school football at St. Joseph's High School in Cleveland and continued to play collegiate football at Notre Dame, where he garnered All-America status as a linebacker. Golic was drafted by New England in the second-round in the 1979 NFL draft.

Brennan played receiver for the Browns from 1984-1991 and ranks among the top 10 receivers in Cleveland history. He ranks fourth all-time in career receptions (315) and ninth in receiving yards (4,148). Brennan has also worked as a pre-game radio host on WTAM radio in addition to acting as Director of Football at Gilmour Academy in Cleveland. During the week, Brennan works as managing director for McDonald Investments.

With several new ventures by the team's New Media and Publishing Department, Browns fans have greater opportunities to get more inside, exclusive access than ever to their favorite team.

BROWNS Huddle

Official Publication of the Cleveland Browns

Browns Huddle, the team's new official newspaper, is produced weekly during the 2005 season, from the preseason through the postseason. There also will be special off-season issues.

The newspaper acts as the perfect companion for any true Browns fan, featuring exclusive columns by Hall of Fame running back Jim Brown, Browns Senior Vice President/General Manager Phil Savage and head coach Romeo Crennel, extensive game preview and recaps, scouting reports, photo galleries, player profiles and more.

With 40-plus pages of weekly news, information and insight, this is no skimpy newsletter!

CLEVELANDBROWNS.COM

Meanwhile, ClevelandBrowns.com, the team's official website, continues to expand upon the team coverage and multimedia content that helped it be named Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's top professional team website in 2002.

Guest columnists like former Browns Brian Brennan, Bob Golic and Reggie Rucker join ClevelandBrowns.com staffers Zac Jackson, Steve King, and Jeff Walcoff to provide the best up-to-the-minute, extensive Browns coverage anywhere.

During the season, the site also hosts the club's weekly revamped web radio show, featuring current player and alumni guests, fan e-mails, and news and analysis from the ClevelandBrowns.com editorial team.

The site's audio and video content is once again expanded for even more direct access to the team's day-to-day inner workings.

Along with practice and game highlights, video correspondent Jamir Howerton provides regular news updates and player features—dealing with matters on and off the field—from inside team headquarters.

On ClevelandBrowns.com, fans also can view stats, play games, download wallpaper and screen-savers, read about team history, access ticket information and shop at the team's official pro shop.

The Cleveland Browns awarded radio broadcast rights to Clear Channel Communications. WMMS (100.7 FM) is the flagship station of the Browns Radio Network, and Browns-related programming is featured on other Clear Channel stations as well. The radio network includes over 30 affiliates and reaches Browns fans in three states.

The talent line-up for the Cleveland Browns Radio Network Broadcast Team features WKYC Channel 3 Sports Director Jim Donovan as the play-by-play announcer, former Browns offensive tackle Doug Dieken as analyst, WTAM Sports Director Mike Snyder as the host of all game day programming, WTAM Sports Anchor Casey Coleman as field and locker room reporter, and former Browns cornerback Hanford Dixon provides analysis on the pre-game show.

Donovan takes the game from kickoff to final play. Donovan began his Cleveland career in 1985 as weekend sports anchor for Channel 3 and handled play-by-play for NBC Sports' NFL games from 1987-97. In addition, he received an Emmy for "Browns '92: The Next Step" and for his report in 1990 on Bob Golic's farewell to the Cleveland Browns. Before coming to Cleveland, he provided play-by-play basketball and hockey coverage for the Satellite News Channel in Burlington, Vt. He also served for one season as play-by-play announcer for the Vermont Reds, a Cincinnati Reds minor league baseball team.

Dieken, a former Browns player and the radio color talent, analyzes the action. Dieken played 14 seasons at left tackle for the Browns and is one of only 12 men in the history of the NFL to play in over 200 consecutive games. Following his retirement from football, Dieken became one of the voices of the Browns sharing the Browns Radio Network microphone with Jim Mueller, Casey Coleman and the late Nev Chandler.

Snyder hosts all game day programming including pre-game, halftime and post-game. With over 20 years of sports broadcasting experience, Snyder hosted the pre-game and halftime show on the Browns Radio Network from 1986-89. He currently hosts the pre-game, post-game and halftime shows for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. Additionally, Snyder hosted the Cleveland Indians Radio Network pre-game show for two seasons.

Coleman covers all field, sideline and locker room reporting. Son of legendary Cleveland Browns football play-by-play announcer Ken Coleman, Casey is no stranger to sports. With almost 25 years of sports broadcasting under his belt, he brings two seasons (1994 and '95) of Cleveland Browns play-by-play experience with partner Doug Dieken and currently hosts "Tribe Insider", WTAM's Cleveland Indians pre-game show.

Dixon, a former first-round draft pick of the Browns in 1981, provides analysis for the "Countdown to Kickoff" pre-game show. Dixon played cornerback for nine seasons with the Browns, totaled 26 career interceptions and was named All Pro on three occasions.

The NFL announced the regular-season scheduling rotation for eight seasons (2002-09) under the club-approved realignment plan that began in the 2002 season. The interconference and intraconference divisional matchups—comprising 14 of each season's 16 regular-season games—for the next eight seasons were determined following extensive analysis and discussion with NFL clubs.

The eight season schedules will take each team through a cycle of games—home and away—against every other team in the league. In eight seasons, every team will play every other team at least twice—once home and once away.

Training Camp

Credentials for training camp are issued by the Browns' public relations office. Those outlets not covering the club on a daily basis must contact the public relations office one day prior to arrival. ALL media are required to show a photo ID and sign in before attending practice. Credentials must be worn at all times.

Reporters and photographers accredited for camp are requested to remain within designated areas on the perimeter of the fields. No media members will be allowed in the areas between the two practice fields. Photographers and videographers are requested to stand 10 yards off the sidelines. Camera equipment must be attended to at all times. CAMERA TRIPODS ARE NOT ALLOWED ON THE PRACTICE FIELDS. Any member of the media wishing to interview a Browns' assistant coach must first receive clearance from the club's public relations department. Please notify anyone on the public relations staff of these requests as soon as possible to ensure your needs can be facilitated. Head Coach Romeo Crennel will address the media at the conclusion of the final practice each day.

Regular Season

Only local media will be allowed to attend regular season practices. Reporters and photographers are requested to remain within designated areas on the perimeter of the fields. No media members will be allowed in the areas between the two practice fields. Photographers and videographers are requested to stand 10 yards off the sidelines. Camera equipment must be attended to at all times. CAMERA TRIPODS ARE NOT ALLOWED ON THE PRACTICE FIELDS. The Browns locker room will be open for player interviews on Monday from 3:30-4:00 p.m., on Wednesday and Thursday from 11:45 a.m. -12:15 p.m. and on Friday from 1:00-1:30 p.m. Any member of the media wishing to interview a Browns' assistant coach must first receive clearance from the club's public relations department. Please notify anyone on the public relations staff of these requests as soon as possible to ensure your needs can be facilitated. Head Coach Romeo Crennel will hold a weekly news conference each Monday at a time TBD and will be available to the media on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday following practice. There will be no interviews granted on Saturdays during the season except for network TV.

Booths

Radio and television broadcast booths are located to the east of the working press area on the same level.

Dark Rooms

Dark rooms are located in the Northwest corridor on the service level.

Entry

The media entrance is located on the North side of the Stadium off Erieside Avenue, across from the Port Authority parking lots.

Locker Room Access

Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-12 minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room with five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevators to the Service/Locker Room Level and follow signs or ask for directions from Guest Services staff to home and visitor locker rooms.

Media Relations

The Cleveland Browns Communications staff will be located at the East end of the working press box. The Communications staff will also have an office in the press box, located behind the seating on the South side of the working press box area.

Media Room (Field Level)

The media room, which will serve meals to sideline media prior to the game and at halftime, is located adjacent to the television truck parking area. Flip cards, releases, NFL Insiders and game statistics will also be distributed to sideline media from this room.

Parking

Members of the media that obtain parking passes will find parking on the North side of the Stadium. Only media members with properly displayed parking passes will be allowed in the media lot.

Press Box

The Cleveland Browns Stadium Press Box houses both print and electronic media on the same level. Upon exiting the media elevator, follow directions to the press box and dining area.

Pre-Game Meals

Pre-game meals will be served buffet style in the spacious press box dining area. While dining, guests may keep up with all of the game action around the National Football League through television monitors mounted above the working area of the press box that display replays, statistics, scores and action from around the league.

Post-Game Interview Areas

Following the conclusion of the game, the head coach for each team will address the media from designated interview areas.

Statistics and Materials

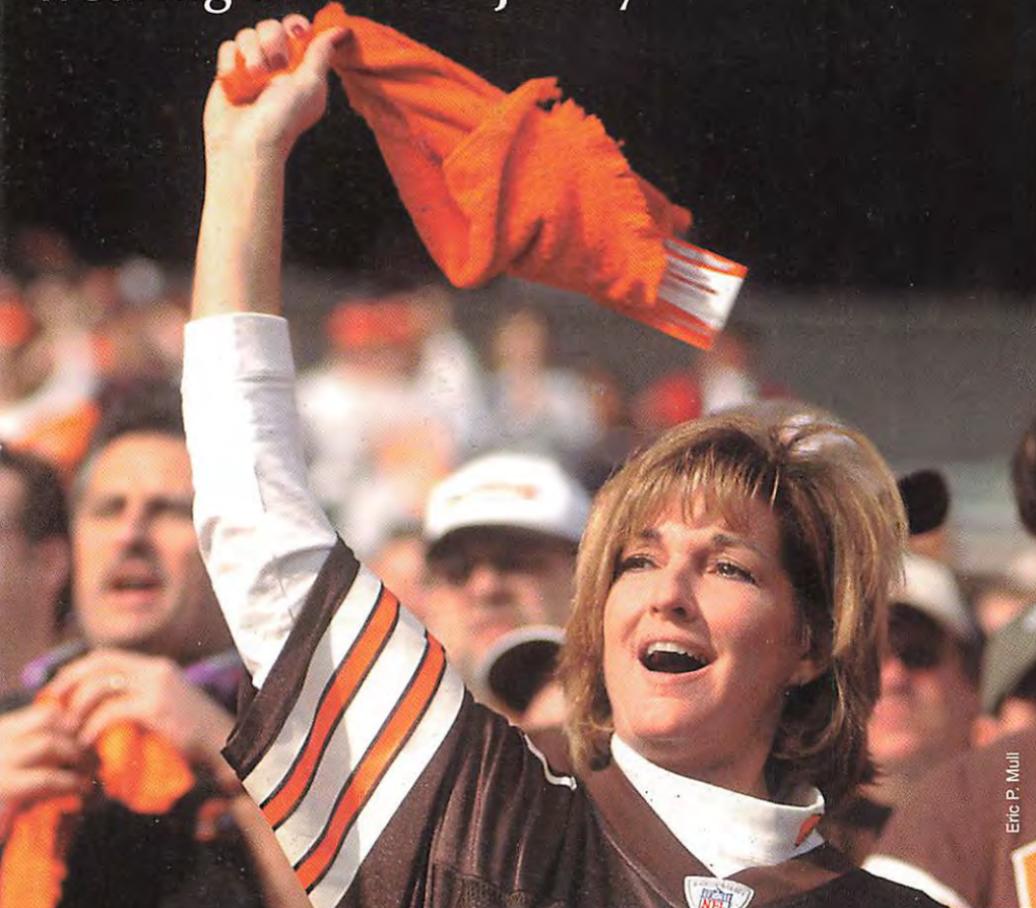

Statistics will be distributed to each seat throughout the game and full play-by-plays will be available approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of each contest. The Browns media relations staff will distribute all statistics and material from the copy room located in the Media Room behind the working press box area.

Will Call

Members of the media needing to pick up their passes at the game will find the media will-call booth located at the Southwest corner of the Stadium and the press gate entrance is located at the Northwest corner of Cleveland Browns Stadium.
