FISHER LEADS RAMS INTO NEW ERA

Coach Jeff Fisher

The Rams begin a new era in 2012 as veteran NFL coach Jeff Fisher takes the reins as the team's new head coach.

Fisher was introduced as the Rams head coach on January 17. He enters his 31st NFL season in 2012 as he returns to coaching after a one-year hiatus. Fisher joins the Rams following a 16-season stint as the head coach of the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans.

In addition to his vast coaching experience, Fisher enjoyed a five-year playing career (1981-85) as a defensive back and punt returner with the Chicago Bears.

Fisher boasts a career record of 142-120 (.542) in the regular season. He's tied with Tom Coughlin for 19th in NFL history in regular season victories.

Among active head coaches, Fisher and Coughlin are tied for third in wins, trailing only Bill Belichick (175) and Mike Shanahan (157).

In St. Louis, Fisher takes over a Rams team that finished the 2011 campaign with a 2-14 record, fourth in the NFC West. The Rams hold the second overall pick in April's draft.

The 2011 season was another one filled with milestones for RB Steven Jackson. The three-time Pro Bowler rushed for 1,145 yards and five touchdowns. It was Jackson's seventh-consecutive 1,000-yard season, which is the longest active streak in the NFL. He also moved into third in Rams history in yards from scrimmage and all-purpose yards and into sixth in team history in career receptions. After arriving from Denver in a mid-season trade, WR Brandon Lloyd gave the offense a boost as he caught 51 passes 683 yards and five touchdowns.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Rams were again paced by DE Chris Long and LB James Laurinaitis. Long recorded a career-high 13.0 sacks while adding 15 quarterback pressures and 16 hits. For the third time in as many seasons in St. Louis, Laurinaitis surpassed the 100 tackle mark as he led the team with 142 stops.

The Rams received contributions from several young players who have opportunities to see their roles grow in the future. Rookie DE Robert Quinn posted 5.0 sacks, while second-year pro S Darian Stewart ranked third among Rams with 91 tackles. Rookie TE Lance Kendricks caught 28 passes, and rookie WR Greg Salas recorded 27 receptions before his season was cut short by injury in Week 9.

JACKSON, QUINN, LAURINAITIS & MILLER EARN RAMS TEAM AWARDS

Each year, the Rams honor four players with special awards: the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award, the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, the Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award and the Ed Block Courage Award. The awards are determined by a vote of the players.

DANIEL F. REEVES MEMORIAL AWARD

Given to the team's Most Valuable Player. The award was established in 1969 in honor of the former owner of the Rams, Dan Reeves, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. Reeves owned the Rams from 1941-71 and claimed World Championships in 1945 and 1951. He was the first to integrate football in the modern era with the signing of Woody Strode and Kenny Washington in 1946.

2011 WINNER: RB STEVEN JACKSON

Jackson, who rushed for 1,000 yards for a seventh-consecutive season, was honored with the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award for the third straight year. In 2011, Jackson moved into third place among Rams all-purpose yardage leaders, passing Henry Ellard with 12,084 yards. He also moved into third place in all-time yards from scrimmage passing Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk. Jackson had four 100-yard games this season moving him to 31 for his career, second all-time among Rams. Jackson finished second amongst Rams in receptions and finished first in carries gaining a total of 1,478 yards.

CARROLL ROSENBLOOM MEMORIAL AWARD

Given to the team's Rookie of the Year. The award was established following the passing of former owner Carroll Rosenbloom in 1979. Rosenbloom became the owner of the Rams when he orchestrated an unprecedented franchise trade in 1972. Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore Colts to Robert Irsay for the Rams. The Rams won an NFL-record seven consecutive NFC West titles from 1973-79 under Rosenbloom's leadership.

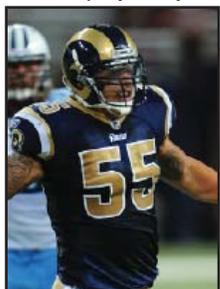

2011 WINNER: QB ROBERT QUINN

Robert Quinn was named the winner of the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial award after he showed steady improvement throughout his rookie season. Quinn ended the season with 20 tackles and 5.0 sacks. Quinn was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after blocking a punt that led to a Rams TD in win over New Orleans in Week 8. He also blocked or partially blocked two other punts. He was third among Rams with five sacks and also had 14 quarterback hits, good for second among Rams. Quinn was selected 14th overall by the Rams in last April's draft.

CARL EKERN SPIRIT OF THE GAME AWARD

Established in 1990, the award is given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic, and commitment to his teammates. Those traits were displayed by former Rams linebacker Carl Ekern, killed in an automobile accident in 1990. Ekern was a starter for the Rams from 1982-88 and earned an invitation to the Pro Bowl in 1986.

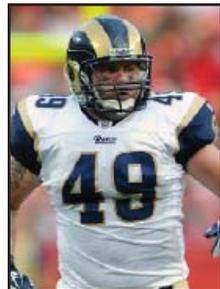

2011 WINNER: LB JAMES LAURINAITIS

James Laurinaitis was this year's winner of the Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award, which goes to a player who embodies the idea of strong work ethic. Laurinaitis led the Rams with 142 tackles and tied for second in interceptions with two while starting all 16 games this season. In addition to his two interceptions, he had three sacks, eight passes defensed, four quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery. He is known for his dedication to the team, spending countless hours in film study to prepare for his opponents. Laurinaitis also is actively involved in the community as he serves as the player chairman for many events such as Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Salvation Army.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Ed Block was the head trainer for the Baltimore Colts for 23 years. When the Ed Block Courage Award was founded in 1978, it honored a Colts player for showing courage on and off the field. In 1984, it became a league-wide award honoring one member from each NFL team. Proceeds from the award and the Ed Block Foundation go to support and provide housing for abused children.

2011 WINNER: FB BRIT MILLER

FB Brit Miller is the Rams 2011 Ed Block Courage Award winner after bouncing back from a late-season knee injury in 2010 to play a key role on both offense and special teams for St. Louis.

Miller finished tied for second among Rams with 16 special teams tackles in 2010, although he played just nine games. Miller started two contests at fullback and helped pave the way for another Pro Bowl season for Steven Jackson. In St. Louis' Week 15 game against the Kansas City Chiefs, Miller suffered an extensive knee injury while covering a kick-off and was placed on injured reserve two days later. Miller tore his Anterior Cruciate Ligament, Medial Collateral Ligament and suffered medial and lateral meniscus tears in his knee. The injury took place late in the season, but Miller vigorously worked throughout the offseason to assure he'd be ready for training camp in 2011.

Miller was in fact recovered, and he hit the ground running with the 2011 season arrived. He again played a key role in St. Louis' coverage units and was used as a lead blocker, receiver and short-yardage runner in the Rams' offense.

SAM'S THE MAN

A year after winning the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year award, Rams QB Sam Bradford's second NFL season was slowed by a high ankle sprain that caused him to miss six contests. Bradford passed for 2,164 yards with six touchdowns and six interceptions in 10 games in 2011.

Bradford turned in two 300-yard performances early in the season. In Week 6 at Green Bay, Bradford passed for 328 yards, his third 300-yard game of his career. He set a new single-game career high in Week 2 as he passed for 331 yards against the New York Giants as he completed 22-of-46 throws with one touchdown and no interceptions in his Monday Night Football debut.

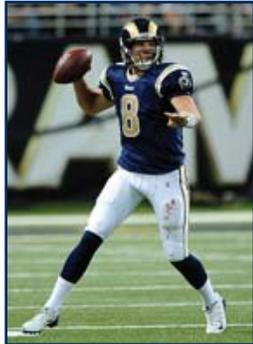

QB Sam Bradford threw for 2,164 yards in 10 games in 2011.

SAM'S TROPHY CASE

Rams QB Sam Bradford added to his trophy case last January when he was voted Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year by a select group of writers.

As a sophomore at Oklahoma, Bradford won the Heisman Trophy as the nation's top college player. When he added Offensive Rookie of the Year honors last season, he became just the seventh player and first quarterback to win both the Heisman and the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.

The other players in that elite group include University of Pittsburgh/Cowboys RB Tony Dorsett, Texas/Oilers RB Earl Campbell, Oklahoma/Lions RB Billy Sims, South Carolina/Saints RB George Rogers, Southern Cal./Raiders RB Marcus Allen, Oklahoma State/Lions RB Barry Sanders and Ohio State/Oilers RB Eddie George.

FAMILY BUSINESS

When Chris Long recorded his 10th sack in Week 12 against Arizona, it allowed him and his father, Hall of Famer Howie Long, to record some pass-rushing history.

The Longs became only the second father/son combo to each record 10.0 sacks in a season, joining Clay Matthews and Clay Matthews, Jr.

Howie reached 10.0 sacks in three consecutive seasons (1983-85). Matthews did so with the Cleveland Browns in 1984, and Matthews, Jr. reached 10.0 for the Packers in each of his first two NFL seasons.

LONG ON TALENT

DE Chris Long

They say sacks often come in bunches, and that's the way Rams DE Chris Long collected them in 2011.

Long finished the year with 13.0 sacks, which ranked seventh in the NFL. In Week 8 against New Orleans, Long enjoyed his first three-sack game of his career to help the Rams to a victory.

Long has set a new career high in sacks this season. His previous best was 8.5 in 2010.

During a midseason stretch, Long recorded at least one sack in seven of nine games. He also enjoyed a stretch in which he had at least one sack in six consecutive games, a new career long. He had sacks in four straight games in 2010.

With his 13th sack, Long equaled his Hall of Fame father's career high for sacks in a season. Howie Long had 13 sacks for the Raiders in 1983.

Long led the Rams in sacks, quarterback pressures (15) and quarterback hits (16). His play helped the Rams collect 39 sacks as a team this year.

WELCOMED ADDITION

Prior to Week 7, the Rams made a move to upgrade their receiver corps as they sent an undisclosed draft pick to the Denver Broncos in exchange for WR Brandon Lloyd.

The move has paid immediate dividends. Lloyd caught six passes for 74 yards in his St. Louis debut against Dallas, and he totaled 51 receptions for 683 yards and five touchdowns after joining the Rams.

A nine-year veteran, Lloyd was reunited with Rams Offensive Coordinator Josh McDaniels, under whom he had a breakout season in 2010.

While playing in McDaniels' offense, Lloyd posted career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (1,448) and touchdown catches (11). He led the NFL in receiving yards last season as he was named to his first Pro Bowl of his career.

Lloyd's 2011 totals, including his time in Denver, included 70 passes for 966 yards in four games with the Broncos and 11 in St. Louis. Lloyd's career totals include 311 receptions for 4,784 yards and 31 touchdowns.

WELCOME ABOARD

S Quintin Mikell, who signed with the Rams as a free agent this summer, provided an impact on the St. Louis defense. The nine-year veteran was one of three Rams defenders to start all 16 games, and he was a part of five takeaways this season.

Mikell finished second among Rams with 100 tackles, trailing only James Laurinaitis in stops. Mikell also had one sack, two interceptions and four forced fumbles. His interception in Week 10 led to a Rams touchdown against Seattle.

Mikell, who spent his first eight NFL seasons with the Eagles, boasts career totals of 5.0 sacks and 12 interceptions.

S Quintin Mikell celebrates an interception with his teammates.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

If you want to find Rams MLB James Laurinaitis on the football field, one can often simply follow the ball because the third-year pro seems to always be around it. Laurinaitis was again the Rams' leader in tackles as he racked up 142 in his third NFL season. It was his third-consecutive 100-tackle season.

Laurinaitis has proven to be a valuable defender against both the run and the pass. He recorded 3.0 sacks and two interceptions this season, and he was second among Rams with eight passes defended on the year. He also had four quarterback pressures, two quarterback hits and one fumble recovery.

Laurinaitis, due in part to his ability to play the run and pass at a high level, rarely comes off the field. He played a team-high 1,052 snaps in 2011.

Linebacker James Laurinaitis once again finds himself atop the Rams' list of leading tacklers.

GORDY'S GRABS

Rams CB Josh Gordy led the Rams with three interceptions in 2011, including one in two of the team's final three games.

Gordy started nine games on the season. The Rams signed him to their practice squad prior to Week 1 and signed him to the active roster in Week 3. Gordy previously spent time with Green Bay and Jacksonville. He was on the Packers' roster during the team's Super Bowl run late last season.

His 2011 totals included 53 tackles and three passes defended in addition to his three interceptions. His first career interception came in St. Louis' win over New Orleans.

CB Josh Gordy

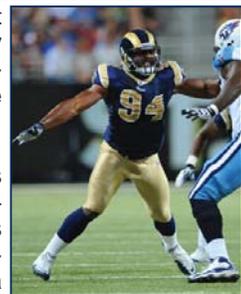

RUSHING ROBERT

The Rams used the 14th overall pick in last year's draft on a young pass rusher who they hoped would help them get after the quarterback, and DE Robert Quinn showed why he was highly coveted in April.

On the season, Quinn recorded 5.0 sacks and finished second among Rams with 14 quarterback hits, trailing only Chris Long's 16. Quinn logged three quarterback pressures, two passes defended and forced a fumble during his rookie campaign.

In addition to his role on defense, Quinn was an asset on special teams. Against the Bengals in Week 15, he partially blocked a punt, which was the third time this season he either blocked or partially blocked a punt. In Week 8, Quinn blocked a punt that led to a Rams touchdown and sacked Drew Brees. Quinn was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts against the Saints.

Quinn tied Sean Gilbert (5.0 in 1992) for the third most sacks by a rookie in Rams history.

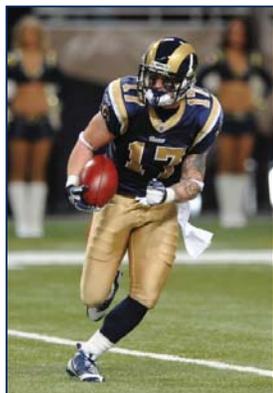

DE Robert Quinn

RETURN TO SENDER

WR/PR Nick Miller was preparing to spend Thanksgiving with his family in Arizona when he got a call to head to St. Louis to join the Rams, and Miller made a big impact just a few days later in his Rams debut.

In the first quarter of the Rams' Week 12 game against the Cardinals, Miller returned a punt 88 yards for a touchdown. The score was Miller's first of his career and is tied for the third-longest punt return in Rams history. It was the first punt returned for a touchdown by a Ram since Dante Hall did so in 2007.

Miller, who spent parts of three seasons with the Oakland Raiders, was on the Rams' roster for two weeks earlier this season but didn't appear in a game with St. Louis until Week 12.

WR/PR Nick Miller

A HALL OF A PLAYER

In his 12th NFL season, DE James Hall continued to be a rock for the Rams' defense. He finished second among Rams with 6.0 sacks this season, and he had 52 tackles, including four for loss, and 13 quarterback hits on the year. In Week 11, he blocked a potential game-winning field goal to help the Rams pull out a victory in Cleveland.

Hall now has 63.0 career sacks. Among active players, Hall ranks 15th in career sacks. His 10.5 sacks in 2010 was his second-highest single season total of his career (11.5 in 2004). He finished last season ranked ninth in the NFC in sacks.

DE James Hall had 6.0 this season and led all Rams defensive linemen in tackles in his 12th NFL season.

CHAMBO'S CAREER BEST

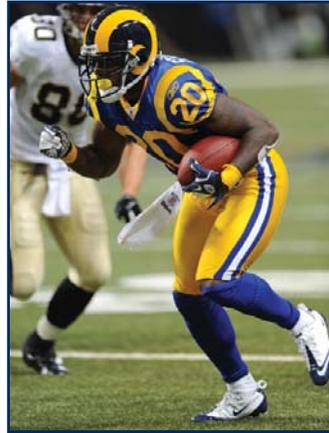

LB Chris Chamberlain took over as the team's starting weakside linebacker in Week 4 and enjoyed his best season as a pro. He posted a career-high 84 tackles, which ranked fourth among Rams. He also recorded two sacks and an interception. Chamberlain started 13 games on defense and was a major contributor.

In 2009 and 2010, Chamberlain led the Rams in special teams tackles, and although his increased workload on defense meant a lighter load in the kicking game, he still pitched in seven special teams tackles.

LB Chris Chamberlain posted career highs in tackles and sacks this season as he won a starting job early in the season.

SAFETY IN STEWART

S Darian Stewart

Darian Stewart entered the starting lineup midway through the season and has become a playmaker for the Rams.

Stewart posted a team-high six tackles for loss on the season and finished third among Rams with 91 stops. He also led the team with 10 passes defended. In addition to his key role on defense, Stewart finished fourth on the team in special teams tackles with 11 on the year.

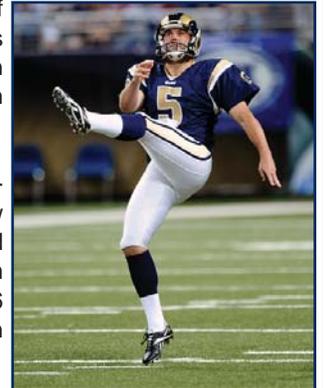

In Week 8 against New Orleans, Stewart notched his first interception of his career, and he returned the pick 27 yards for a touchdown.

Stewart joined the Rams as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2010. He contributed on special teams and defense as a rookie before winning the starting strong safety job this season.

KICKING IT

Rams P Donnie Jones boasts one of the strongest legs in the NFL, and his deep, high kicks have been a weapon for St. Louis in his five seasons with the club.

This season, Jones set a new franchise record for career punts. He now has 449 punts as a Ram. He passed Dale Hatcher to set the new team record. Jones' gross average of 46.6 yards per punt as a Ram is tops in team history.

P Donnie Jones

Since joining the Rams, Jones has placed 133 punts inside the opponents' 20 yard line. Earlier this season, he passed Hatcher for the most such punts in team history. Jones finished the season with 29 punts inside the 20 this season.

The Rams signed Jones as a restricted free agent prior to the 2007 season, and during his time in St. Louis, Jones ranks third among NFL punters in gross average and third in net.

The Rams lost their first NFC West division game against the Arizona Cardinals in overtime, 19-13. The Cardinals got on the board first with K Jay Feely kicking a 27-yard field goal. The Rams responded with K Josh Brown kicking a 48-yard field goal in the first quarter tying the game at 3-3. On the Rams first drive of the second quarter Josh Brown kicked a 37-yard field goal putting the Rams ahead 6-3. The Rams defense was able to stop the Cardinals on their next drive forcing them to punt from their own 43-yard line. The Rams then got another score with Josh Brown kicking a 41-yard field goal with three seconds left in the half expanding their lead to 9-3 at halftime. After the break, the defense came out strong to start as they held the Cardinals to a field goal on their first drive. The special teams came through with P Donnie Jones pinning the Cardinals deep in their own territory. DE James Hall sacked QB John Skelton in the end zone for the Rams' first safety of the year putting the score at 11-6. Donnie Jones again punted inside the Cardinals' 10-yard line. This time Skelton was called for intentional grounding as C.J. Ah You tackled him in the end zone and the penalty resulted in another safety. The safeties marked the first time a team tallied two safeties in one game since the Minnesota Vikings did it in 2008. The last time the Rams collected two safeties in one game was vs. Green Bay in '73. Late in the fourth quarter Skelton completed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Larry Fitzgerald tying the score at 13. With four seconds left in the fourth quarter Josh Brown had a field goal blocked sending the game into overtime. The Rams got the ball first and were unable to score and the Cardinals capitalized off of Donnie Jones' punt with Patrick Peterson returning it for a 99-yard touchdown. The Cardinals won 19-13. RB Steven Jackson had his second straight 100-yard rushing game of the season and 29th of his career. Jackson caught one pass on Sunday to give him 344 for his career, passing Elroy "Crazy Legs" Hirsch for sixth on the Rams' all-time receptions leaders list. Jones placed four punts inside the 20 to push his career total as a Ram to 121, tying P Dale Hatcher for the Rams' all-time record. Going into the game, Jones was tied for fourth in the league with 13 punts inside the 20.

ST. LOUIS 7, SEATTLE 24

November 20, 2011
Edward Jones Dome - St. Louis, MO

WEATHER: Indoors - ATTENDANCE: 56,400 - TIME: 3:09

The Rams fell to NFC West foe Seattle Seahawks, 24-7. On Seattle's second play of the game LB Chris Chamberlain intercepted QB Tarvaris Jackson's first pass of the day for 4 yards. The interception was Chamberlain's first of his career. On the Seahawks' next drive S Quintin Mikell made a big play intercepting Jackson's pass and returned it 11 yards, putting the Rams in prime position to score. Mikell has now had a role in four takeaways this season: two interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. The Rams offense was able to capitalize and scored a touchdown on a 30-yard pass from QB Sam Bradford to WR Brandon Lloyd. This put the Rams on the board first, with a score of 7-0. On the Seahawks first drive of the second quarter they were able to tie it up with a 14-yard touchdown pass from Jackson to WR Sidney Rice. With three seconds left in the half the Seahawks were able to score again on a 19-yard field goal from K Steven Hauschka leading 10-7 going into the locker room. To start the second half Marshawn Lynch ran 3 yards for a touchdown, bring the score to 17-7. Seattle then scored one more time with five minutes left in the game on a 22-yard touchdown run by Justin Forsett. Throughout the game the Rams defense was able to sack Tarvaris Jackson for a loss of 40 yards. DE Chris Long sacked Jackson late in the second quarter to give him 9.0 sacks on the year, a new career high for Long. His previous career high was 8.5 in 2010. Long has at least one sack in four-consecutive games, tying a career high. DE Robert Quinn recorded his fourth sack of the season when he dropped Jackson. Quinn also made an impact on special teams as he partially deflected a punt in the first quarter. S Darian Stewart collected his first sack of the season and second of his career when he got to Jackson. RB Steven Jackson caught three passes Sunday to give him 350 career receptions. Jackson ranks sixth in team history in the category.

ST. LOUIS 20, CARDINALS 23

November 27, 2011

Edward Jones Dome- St. Louis, Mo.

WEATHER: Light rain, 43° - ATTENDANCE: 56,029 - TIME: 3:17

The Rams dropped their second meeting of the season with NFC West foe Arizona Cardinals, 23-20. The Rams got off to a hot start with WR Nick Miller returning an 88-yard punt return for a touchdown giving the Rams a lead to start the game of 7-0. Miller tied Tommy Harmon for the third-longest punt return in team history. It was Miller's first career touchdown and the first punt return for a touchdown by a Ram since Dante Hall did so at Dallas on 9/30/07. Miller, who enjoyed a short stint with the Rams earlier this season and returned to the club on Thursday, made his Rams debut Sunday. On Arizona's next possession CB Rod Hood intercepted QB John Skelton's pass intended for WR Larry Fitzgerald., taking it 27 yards. It was Hood's first interception as a Ram and 15th of his career. The offense was unable to capitalize with Arizona recovering a QB Sam Bradford fumble. To end the first quarter K Jay Feely kicked a 29-yard field goal, putting the score at 7-3. In the second quarter DE Chris Long sacked Skelton, gaining his 10th sack of the season. With the sack, Long and his father Howie became just the second father-son combo to record a 10-sack season since the statistic became official in 1982. Clay Matthews, Sr. and Clay Matthews, Jr. are the other father-son combo to accomplish the feat. Long also set a new career high for consecutive games with a sack. Long has at least one sack in each of the Rams' last five games. At the end of the half K Josh Brown kicked a 35-yard field goal giving the Rams a 10-3 lead heading into half time. To start the second half Jay Feely kicked a 37-yard field goal. On the Cardinals next possession RB Beanie Wells ran for a 7-yard touchdown putting the Cardinals up 13-10. Cardinals scored another touchdown before the end of the quarter with CB Patrick Peterson returning P Donnie Jones' punt for a 80-yard touchdown, bring the score to 20-10. Josh Brown started the fourth quarter by kicking a 48-yard field goal, putting the Rams within one score, 20-13. On the Cardinals next possession LB James Laurinaitis intercepted Skelton for his second interception of the season and fifth of his career. DE Robert Quinn sacked Skelton in the fourth quarter on their next possession and recorded his fifth sack of the season. Quinn now has sacks in back-to-back games for the second time this season. LB Brady Poppinga set up the Rams' game-tying score when he stripped RB Beanie Wells and took possession of the ball in the process. Poppinga's takeaway gave the Rams the ball at the Arizona 43-yard line. WR Brandon Lloyd was able to capitalize on this interception as he caught a touchdown pass for the third-consecutive week as he hauled in a 16-yard throw from Sam Bradford to tie the game 20-20 midway through the fourth quarter. Lloyd led the Rams with five receptions for 74 yards and has caught at least four passes in each of his six games with St. Louis. Jay Feely kicked the game winning 22-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to put the Cardinals up 23-20. RB Steven Jackson rushed for 64 yards and caught three passes for 14 yards to give him 11,661 all-purpose yards on his career. Jackson needs just 46 more yards to tie Henry Elard for third most all-purpose yards in Rams history.

The Rams dropped their fifth straight game to the Bengals, 20-13. RB Steven Jackson rushed for 71 yards Sunday to give him 966 rushing yards on the season. Jackson sits just 34 yards shy of 1,000 on the year, which would give him his seventh-consecutive 1,000-yard campaign. Jackson's current streak of six-straight 1,000-yard seasons is the longest active streak in the NFL. Jackson also led the Rams with nine receptions for 72 yards Sunday to give him 143 yards from scrimmage on the day. DE Chris Long recorded his 13th sack of the season. He now has at least one sack in seven of his last eight games. Long entered the day ranked sixth in the NFL in sacks this season. QB Kellen Clemens made his first start as a Ram and completed 25-of-36 passes for 229 yards and a touchdown. CB Josh Gordy recorded his second interception of the season when he picked off Andy Dalton early in the second quarter. Danario Alexander scored his second touchdown of the season on a 25-yard pass from Clemens. DE Robert Quinn partially blocked a punt in the second quarter that traveled just 21 yards. The play marked the third time this season Quinn has deflected or blocked a punt this season. The Rams took advantage of the field position Quinn provided as Josh Brown kicked a 26-yard field goal on the ensuing drive. P Donnie Jones broke Dale Hatcher's record for career punts Sunday. Jones punted seven times to give him 436 as a Ram. Hatcher punted 432 times in six seasons with the Rams (1985-89, '91). Jones averaged 42.9 yards per punt Sunday. WR Brandon Lloyd caught five passes for 42 yards Sunday. He's caught at least four passes in eight of his nine games as a Ram.
