Who will be the 2016
Playoff Champions?

June 2016

Dear New York-Penn League Fans:

It is a pleasure to have you join us in sharing another exciting season of New York-Penn League baseball. Now in our 78th season, we take great pride in being the premier Short-Season league, and the oldest, continuously-operated CLASS A league, in Minor League Baseball. The New York-Penn League's 14 clubs have spent the off-season hard at work preparing to bring you another season full of lasting memories.

The clubs' past success has never been more transparent after 1,590,750 fans walked through the gates last season. This was the 15th consecutive season that the New York-Penn League surpassed 1.5 million fans.

The action on the field was equally historic. The West Virginia Black Bears (an affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates), in its inaugural season in Morgantown, WV, made the NYPL playoffs as the Wild Card club and then defeated the Williamsport Crosscutters, an affiliate of the Philadelphia Phillies and Pinckney Division Champions, in the semi-final series and then defeated the Staten Island Yankees, an affiliate of the New York Yankees and McNamara Division Champions, in the final series. In the 11th annual New York-Penn League All-Star Game, which was hosted by the Aberdeen Ironbirds (an affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles) at Ripken Stadium, the North All-Stars beat the South by a score of 4-2. Tri-City Valley Cats first baseman and Houston Astros prospect Dexture McCall, as the North's designated hitter, hit a two-run double in a three-run first inning to win the TOP STAR AWARD.

The action off-the-field during the past winter was also exciting. Tri-City ValleyCats President and Principal Owner William (Bill) Gladstone was named the 2015 KING OF BASEBALL at the Baseball Winter Meetings Banquet on Sunday, December 6, 2015, in Nashville, TN. The KING OF BASEBALL is a long-standing award and tradition in which Minor League Baseball recognizes a veteran of professional baseball for longtime dedication and service. In addition to serving on the New York-Penn League's Board of Directors and Executive Committee, Bill also served as the NYPL's representative on Minor League Baseball's Board of Trustees for 12 years, and was a member of several committees, including chairman of Minor League Baseball's finance committee. Minor League Baseball's President & CEO Pat O'Conner said, "Bill's passion for the game of baseball and his presence and input on the Board of Trustees helped grow the Minor League Baseball brand across the country."

In 2016, we expect more great action on the field. The 12th annual New York-Penn League All-Star Game will be hosted by the Hudson Valley Renegades (an affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays) at Dutchess Stadium, located in Wappingers Falls, NY, on Tuesday, August 16th.

Thank you for joining us this season and helping the New York-Penn League continue its tradition as the most prestigious Short-Season league in professional baseball.

Very truly yours,

NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE

NYPL Scholarship Program

The NYPL Scholarship Program is open to any graduating senior from a public or private high school within the league's footprint, who has been accepted at any two or four-year college or university, vocational or technical education institution. Applicants will be judged based on academic performance, volunteer and extracurricular activities, and the impact their local NYPL club and Minor League Baseball has had on their lives.

The Scholarship Program consists of two stages - a local round and the league round. Students apply directly to their local NYPL team in the local round and one applicant is chosen by each of the 14 clubs to advance to the league round. The 14 local winners compete for three $2,500 scholarships and the other eleven local winners receive $250 each for books.

"The New York-Penn League Charitable Foundation initiated the scholarship program in 2009 as a way to assist high school seniors from within our league's footprint who not only meet and exceed traditional scholarship criteria, but have also demonstrated the positive benefits their local NYPL club has had on their life," said Ben J. Hayes, President of the New York-Penn League. "The Foundation is pleased to have this scholarship program in place and to support our 14 member clubs in their year-round community outreach efforts."

Students must have a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale) and participate in extracurricular activities. Applicants should also be involved with community service and must provide letters of recommendation, a copy of their high school transcript, and letter of acceptance to the college or university that they will attend.

In 2015 the three $2,500 scholarships were awarded to students representing the Aberdeen IronBirds, Mahoning Valley Scrappers, and Connecticut Tigers.

Tommy Leach played for Auburn in 1898.

He was the first player ever to get a hit in a World Series game. In his first World Series at bat, batting third for the Pirates got a triple off of CY Young. Tommy also scored one run and had a RBI in the first World Series ever.

The New York-Penn League Hall of Fame was established in 2012 to recognize individuals for their overall accomplishments or contributions to the league both on the field of play or in an administrative role. The Hall of Fame inductions include three parts recognizing NYPL alumni, notable league personnel and team officials, and individuals nominated and voted on by New York-Penn League clubs.

The Hall of Fame inductions will occur annually at the league All-Star Game, the first of which inducted seven NYPL alumni at the 2012 New York-Penn League All-Star Game in Niles, OH on August 14th. The inductees include:

Wade Boggs

Boggs hit .263 for the Elmira Pioneers in 1976. He would not hit below .300 again until 1992, his final year with the Red Sox. While with the Red Sox, Boggs won five American League batting titles, including four consecutive, from 1985-1988. He remains the only player in Major League history to collect 200 hits and score 100 runs in seven consecutive seasons. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2005 and to the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2010.

Nellie Fox

Fox hit .304 for the Jamestown Falcons in 1944. Fox spent 19 years in the major leagues, 14 of which playing for the Chicago White Sox, earning 12 All-Star selections during that time. The highlight of Fox's career came in 1959 when he helped lead the White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years while being named the American League's Most Valuable Player. Fox was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Phil Niekro

Niekro was 2-1 with a 7.76 ERA for the Wellsville Braves in 1959. Nicknamed "Knucksie" because of his skill and use with the knuckleball, Niekro went on to win 318 games in the majors and was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Tony Perez

Perez played two full seasons for the Geneva Redlegs, hitting .279 in 1960 and .348 with 27 home runs in 1961. Perez was one of the premier RBI men of his generation, driving in 100 or more runs seven times during his 23-year career. Perez, a 7-time All-Star, played in two World Series Championships for the 1975 and 1976 Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000, and the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2011.

Jim Rice

Rice hit .256 for the 1971 Williamsport Red Sox. One of the most feared right-handed hitters of his era, Rice hit 20 or more home runs in 11 of his 12 major league seasons. He led the American League in total bases four times, home runs three times, RBIs twice, and slugging percentage twice. Rice was named an All-Star 8 times and won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1978. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2009, and to the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2011.

Warren Spahn

Spahn played for the 1940 Bradford Bees, finishing the season 5-4 with a 2.73 ERA. Spahn would dominate the opposing hitters throughout his 21 year career and is the 5th winningest pitcher of all time (363 wins). Spahn was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973.

Robin Yount

Yount played for the Newark Co-Pilots in 1973 hitting .285 in his only minor league season. Yount played 20 seasons, all with the Milwaukee Brewers, and led all other players in hits during the 1980s. In addition to his 1982 and 1989 Most Valuable Player awards, Yount earned 3 All-Star selections, 3 Silver Slugger awards and a Gold Glove. He finished his career with 3,142 hits and was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999, and the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2010.

Robert Julian

Served as President of the NYPL from 1992 until 2001. He presided over numerous franchises shift to larger markets during his presidency that saw league attendance almost tripling from 684,000 fans in 1992 to 1.6 million fans in 2001. The league's yearly individual award for Community and Baseball Service is named in his honor.

Vince McNamara

McNamara was named president of the New York-Penn League in 1948 and served as head of the loop for 37 years. In 1972, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues paid tribute to McNamara for his years of service by saluting him as the "King of Baseball." One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as is the award for the Outstanding Club in the NYPL.

Sam Nader

After helping to bring baseball back to Oneonta with the Oneonta Red Sox, he purchased the newly named Oneonta Yankees in 1967. Nader served in many roles and held titles as an owner and executive with the team until selling the franchise in 2008. He was an integral part of the league in his over 40 years as an owner

Leo Pinckney

In 1958, he spearheaded a successful fundraising campaign to get Auburn's city team into the New York-Penn League. He served as the Auburn's first president and was later named the president of the New York-Penn League, a position he held from 1984 until 1992. One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as well as the league's Promotional Award given annually to the team deemed best in the areas of promotions.

Robert Stedler

Stedler is considered a "founder" of the New York-Penn League. He served as League President for 10 years. One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as well as the Stedler Award, given yearly to the player in the league deemed likely to go the farthest in pro baseball. In addition, the yearly individual award for the Executive of the Year is named after him.

John Elway

Elway spent the summer of 1982 playing for the Oneonta Yankees of the New York-Penn League. He would hit .318 with 4 home runs and 25 RBI in 45 games. He, of course, went on to have a Hall of Fame career as quarterback for the NFL's Denver Broncos.

Randy Johnson

The 6-foot-10-inch left hander began his professional career with the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League during the 1985 season, starting 8 games and striking out 21 batters. In 22 MLB seasons Johnson would amass 303 victories. His 4,875 strikeouts are the most all-time by a left-handed pitcher and second overall behind only Nolan Ryan.

Charlie Wride

Wride has been a board member, team historian, PA Announcer, umpire attendant, and general goodwill ambassador. In recognition of his efforts, Charlie was inducted into the Auburn Baseball Wall of Fame in 2007. Charlie has devoted countless hours to the New York-Penn League as the circuit's historian, since 1998. His research has been critical in helping to "fill in the blanks" for many records, statistics, and rosters in league history.
