#ALLSTAREXPERIENCE

Who will be the 2015
Playoff Champions?

June 2015

Dear New York-Penn League Fans:

It is an honor to welcome you to the 2015 season of the New York-Penn League. The New York-Penn League was established in 1939 - then called the Pennsylvania-Ontario New York League (PONY League) - and will celebrate its 77th year of continuous operation in 2015, making the New York-Penn League the oldest, continuously-operated CLASS A league in Baseball. Over the League's 77-year history, 110 baseball clubs have been a member of the League. In 2015, the League welcomes its newest member, the West Virginia Black Bears baseball club and Pittsburgh Pirates affiliate, which will play in Morgantown, West Virginia.

In 2014, the New York-Penn League elected its newest members to its Hall of Fame. Those inductees were Randy Johnson, John Elway, and long-time League historian, Charlie Wride. Randy, John and Charlie join seven National Baseball Hall of Fame members, all of whom were inducted in 2012, and a number of League and club personnel, who were inducted in 2013.

The League also celebrates its 11th annual All-Star Game, hosted by the Aberdeen Ironbirds at Ripken Stadium on Tuesday, August 18th. For more information about the 2015 All-Star Game, regular season schedule, playoff schedule, game tickets, Internet radio and video broadcasts, box scores, club standings, hitting and pitching statistics, attendance, press releases, League and club merchandise, and more, visit the New York-Penn League's web site at www.newyork-pennleague.com.

So, sit back and relax, and allow the New York-Penn League clubs to provide you and your family with that special magic of Minor League Baseball at affordable prices in the most enjoyable surroundings possible.

Very truly yours,

NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE

2015 Scholarship Program

The 2015 NYPL Scholarship Program is open to any graduating senior from a public or private high school within the league's footprint, who has been accepted at any two or four-year college or university, vocational or technical education institution. Applicants will be judged based on academic performance, volunteer and extracurricular activities, and the impact their local NYPL club and Minor League Baseball has had on their lives.

The Scholarship Program will consist of two stages – a local round and a divisional round. In the local stage, students will apply directly with their local NYPL team, with one applicant chosen by each of the 14 teams to advance to the divisional round. The 14 finalists will be separated by the division of the team they represent. The winning application from each of the NYPL's three divisions (McNamara, Pinckney and Stedler).

The scholarship's top prize includes three winners of a $2,500 scholarship and eleven winners of $250 each for books.

"The New York-Penn League Charitable Foundation initiated the scholarship program in 2009 as a way to assist high school seniors from within our league's footprint who not only meet and exceed traditional scholarship criteria, but have also demonstrated the positive benefits their local NYPL club has had on their life," said Ben J. Hayes, President of the New York-Penn League. "The Foundation is pleased to have this scholarship program in place and to support our 14 member clubs in their year-round community outreach efforts."

Students must have a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale) and participate in extracurricular activities. Applicant should also be involved with community service and be able to provide references. A copy of a high school transcript and letter of acceptance to institution must be included in application.

In 2014, the three $2,500 scholarships were awarded to students from the Aberdeen IronBirds, Jamestown Jammers, and Connecticut Tigers.

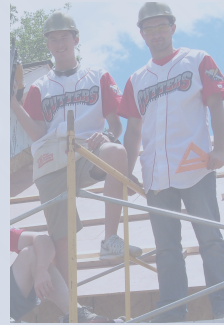

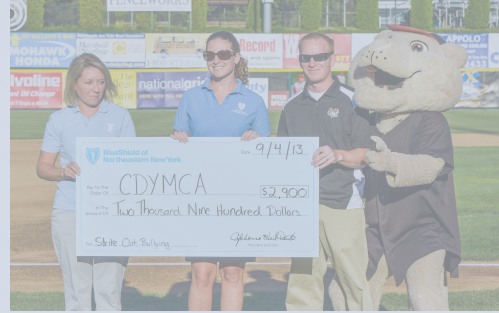

For more information and to Apply visit

The New York-Penn League Hall of Fame was established in 2012 to recognize individuals for their overall accomplishments or contributions to the league both on the field of play or in an administrative role. The Hall of Fame inductions include three parts recognizing NYPL alumni, notable league personnel and team officials, and individuals nominated and voted on by New York-Penn League clubs.

The Hall of Fame inductions will occur annually at the league All-Star Game, the first of which inducted seven NYPL alumni at the 2012 New York-Penn League All-Star Game in Niles, OH on August 14th. The seven inductees include:

Wade Boggs

Boggs hit .263 for the Elmira Pioneers in 1976. He would not hit below .300 again until 1992, his final year with the Red Sox. While with the Red Sox, Boggs won five American League batting titles, including four consecutive, from 1985-1988. He remains the only player in Major League history to collect 200 hits and score 100 runs in seven consecutive seasons. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2005 and to the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2010.

Nellie Fox

Fox hit .304 for the Jamestown Falcons in 1944. Fox spent 19 years in the major leagues, 14 of which playing for the Chicago White Sox, earning 12 All-Star selections during that time. The highlight of Fox's career came in 1959 when he helped lead the White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years while being named the American League's Most Valuable Player. Fox was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

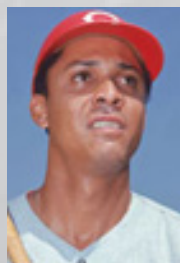

Phil Niekro

Niekro was 2-1 with a 7.76 ERA for the Wellsville Braves in 1959. Nicknamed "Knucksie" because of his skill and use with the knuckleball, Niekro went on to win 318 games in the majors and was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Tony Perez

Perez played two full seasons for the Geneva Redlegs, hitting .279 in 1960 and .348 with 27 home runs in 1961. Perez was one of the premier RBI men of his generation, driving in 100 or more runs seven times during his 23-year career. Perez, a 7-time All-Star, played in two World Series Championships for the 1975 and 1976 Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000, and the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2011.

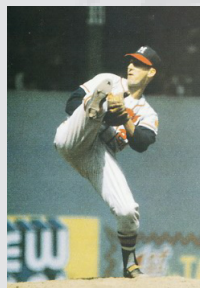

Jim Rice

Rice hit .256 for the 1971 Williamsport Red Sox. One of the most feared right-handed hitters of his era, Rice hit 20 or more home runs in 11 of his 12 major league seasons. He led the American League in total bases four times, home runs three times, RBIs twice, and slugging percentage twice. Rice was named an All-Star 8 times and won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1978. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2009, and to the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2011.

Warren Spahn

Spahn played for the 1940 Bradford Bees, finishing the season 5-4 with a 2.73 ERA. Spahn would dominate the opposing hitters throughout his 21 year career and is the 5th winningest pitcher of all time (363 wins). Spahn was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973.

Robin Yount

Yount played for the Newark Co-Pilots in 1973 hitting .285 in his only minor league season. Yount played 20 seasons, all with the Milwaukee Brewers, and led all other players in hits during the 1980s. In addition to his 1982 and 1989 Most Valuable Player awards, Yount earned 3 All-Star selections, 3 Silver Slugger awards and a Gold Glove. He finished his career with 3,142 hits and was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999, and the NY-P League's All-Time Team in 2010.

Robert Julian

Served as President of the NYPL from 1992 until 2001. He presided over numerous franchises shift to larger markets during his presidency that saw league attendance almost tripling from 684,000 fans in 1992 to 1.6 million fans in 2001. The league's yearly individual award for Community and Baseball Service is named in his honor.

Vince McNamara

McNamara was named president of the New York-Penn League in 1948 and served as head of the loop for 37 years. In 1972, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues paid tribute to McNamara for his years of service by saluting him as the "King of Baseball." One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as is the award for the Outstanding Club in the NYPL.

Sam Nader

After helping to bring baseball back to Oneonta with the Oneonta Red Sox, he purchased the newly named Oneonta Yankees in 1967. Nader served in many roles and held titles as an owner and executive with the team until selling the franchise in 2008. He was an integral part of the league in his over 40 years as an owner

Leo Pinckney

In 1958, he spearheaded a successful fundraising campaign to get Auburn's city team into the New York-Penn League. He served as the Auburn's first president and was later named the president of the New York-Penn League, a position he held from 1984 until 1992. One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as well as the league's Promotional Award given annually to the team deemed best in the areas of promotions.

Robert Stedler

Stedler is considered a "founder" of the New York-Penn League. He served as League President for 10 years. One of the league's 3 divisions is named in his honor as well as the Stedler Award, given yearly to the player in the league deemed likely to go the farthest in pro baseball. In addition, the yearly individual award for the Executive of the Year is named after him.

John Elway

Elway spent the summer of 1982 playing for the Oneonta Yankees of the New York-Penn League. He would hit .318 with 4 home runs and 25 RBI in 45 games. He, of course, went on to have a Hall of Fame career as quarterback for the NFL's Denver Broncos.

Randy Johnson

The 6-foot-10-inch left hander began his professional career with the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League during the 1985 season, starting 8 games and striking out 21 batters. In 22 MLB seasons Johnson would amass 303 victories. His 4,875 strikeouts are the most all-time by a left-handed pitcher and second overall behind only Nolan Ryan.
