SOMETHING DIFFERENT FOR A CHANGE

For the first time in two months, the Red Stars enter tonight having won their last WPS match. Cristiane and Lindsay Tarpley each found the net on July 1 as Chicago scored a pair of second half goals against Washington, becoming the first team in WPS history to come from behind to win a game. Now the Red Stars can look for the first back-to-back wins in franchise history.

TARP'S THE ONE

Red Stars captain Lindsay Tarpley was named WPS Player of the Week for Week 15. The forward had a goal and an assist in the Red Stars' July 1 win over Washington and is tied for the team scoring lead with three goals. Tarpley is the first Chicago player to earn the weekly honor, which is voted on by a panel from the North American Soccer Reporters.

PARTY LIKE IT'S 1999

Friday marked the 10th anniversary of the U.S. victory in the 1999 Women's World Cup. The championship match produced one of the most iconic images in women's soccer, when Brandi Chastain celebrated her game-winning penalty kick by ripping off her jersey and waving it above her head while sliding on the field. Chastain, as well as '99 USWNT teammates Kate Markgraf, Tiffeny Milbrett and Briana Scurry, are at TOYOTA PARK tonight to celebrate the anniversary of this historic moment by taking pictures with fans. The 1999 World Cup trophy is on display at the stadium tonight as well as Chastain's famous sports bra and other memorabilia. Red Stars fans had the opportunity to purchase ticket packages for tonight's match that include a post-game picture with Chastain, Markgraf, Milbrett, Scurry and the World Cup trophy.

PLAYOFF WATCH: ANOTHER BIG GAME

The sixth-place Red Stars are still right in the heart of the WPS playoff hunt, and earning three points tonight against FC Gold Pride would be huge. Depending on today's other league result, a win tonight could move Chicago into fourth place, passing Washington for the last postseason spot. With six games left entering the night there's still plenty of time left to make a push, and the Red Stars also have the advantage of facing each of the league's other six teams once more during the regular season.

SERVING THEIR COUNTRIES

Four members of the Red Stars will miss at least a portion of the team's upcoming road trip to Boston and New Jersey while serving international duty. Karen Carney leaves following tonight's game to join the England National Team for a pair of friendlies, against Iceland on July 16th and Denmark on the 22nd. Carli Lloyd, Megan Rapinoe and Lindsay Tarpley will all join the U.S. Women's National Team later in the week; the U.S. will face Canada July 19th in Rochester, N.Y., and again July 22nd in Charleston, S.C.

SOMEBODY STOP SINCLAIR

The Chicago backline has its sights set on FC Gold Pride forward Christine Sinclair tonight. Two of the Canadian's five goals on the season have come against the Red Stars, including the lone goal in a 1-0 win at TOYOTA PARK on May 16. Sinclair also scored in the first half of the teams' meeting on June 7. She currently ranks third in the league with 39 shots taken this season and is FC Gold Pride's leading scorer.

WE'RE KIND OF A BIG DEAL

Tonight's match is featured in the current issue of ESPN The Magazine, as one of the "What to Watch For" selections. The game is available to watch nationwide, as Comcast SportsNet is televising the match (live or tape delay, depending on the market) and the Comcast feed is also being webcast nationwide on www.chicagoredstars.com. The Red Stars are still looking for their first televised win, having gone 0-1-3 on TV so far this season.

OFFENSE STILL STRUGGLING

Despite a strong offensive attack against Washington, the Red Stars have put just 65 shots on goal this season, which equals FC Gold Pride for the fewest in the league. But Chicago has scored one less goal than tonight's visitors (10 for the Red Stars, 11 for FC Gold Pride), meaning the Red Stars have a lower goal conversion rate at 15.4%. That's still more efficient than Sky Blue FC, which has the worst conversion rate in the league at 12.2%.

OZZY'S BACK IN THE MIDWEST

FC Gold Pride midfielder Leslie Osborne is getting back to her Midwestern roots this weekend. A former college teammate of Chicago's Marian Dalmy, Osborne grew up in the Milwaukee suburb of Brookfield, Wisc., where she was named Wisconsin Gatorade Player of the Year twice in high school. Osborne also played for the Chicago Eclipse club while still a prep star.

THEY SAY IT'S YOUR BIRTHDAY

Four Red Stars players will celebrate birthdays during the month of July. Megan Rapinoe turned 24 last Sunday (July 5th), while Carli Lloyd (16th), Jill Oakes (18th) and Chioma Igwe (21st) have upcoming celebrations.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Following tonight's match the Red Stars hit the road for their final two-game road trip of the season. After stops in Boston and New Jersey the team returns to TOYOTA PARK in two weeks, when Chicago hosts the Washington Freedom for a 3 pm match July 26th.

ABOUT CHICAGO RED STARS COACH EMMA HAYES

Emma Hayes was named the Head Coach and Director of Soccer Operations for the Chicago Red Stars on May 15, 2008.

From 2006-08, Hayes served as first team assistant coach and academy director at the FA's Women's Premier League's top-ranked Arsenal Ladies Football Club in London, England. Hayes helped guide the Lady Gunners to an undefeated league record and won every competition England has to offer.

Prior to joining Arsenal, Hayes served as head women's soccer coach at Iona College in New Rochelle, NY. Hayes' honors at Iona included the 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Coach of the Year and the 2004-2005 MAAC Conference Championships.

Hayes also served as head coach domestically from 2001-2003 in the W-League with the Long Island Lady Riders. The youngest female head coach in W-League history, Hayes was named 2002 National Coach of the Year.
