CLUB HISTORY

One of the eight inaugural members of the National Women's Soccer League, OL Reign was founded in 2012 as Seattle Reign FC by owners Bill and Teresa Predmore. The club played its first season at Starfire Stadium in Tukwila, Washington, before moving to Memorial Stadium in Seattle in 2014. The club won consecutive NWSL Shields in 2014 and 2015, finishing at the top of the table both seasons. Head coach Laura Harvey was named the NWSL Coach of the Year for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. The club missed the playoffs in 2016 and 2017, before returning in 2018 in its first season under head coach Vlatko Andonovski. On January 30, 2019, OL Reign announced that it would begin playing its home matches at Cheney Stadium in Tacoma, Washington. The club reached the NWSL semifinals for a second consecutive season in 2019, before Andonovski departed the club to accept the head coaching position with the U.S. Women's National Team.

In November of 2019, it was announced that Bill and Teresa Predmore had entered into exclusive negotiations to sell the club to OL Groupe, the parent company of Olympique Lyonnais. The sale was announced on December 19, 2019, with OL Groupe becoming 89.5% owners, Bill and Teresa Predmore retaining a 7.5% stake, and four-time NBA champion Tony Parker holding a 3.0% stake. In March 2020, the club officially unveiled its new name and crest ahead of the 2020 season.

In 2021, OL Reign played its first game at Lumen Field in Seattle, Washington, as part of a first-of-its-kind doubleheader event in partnership with Seattle Sounders FC. Following that event and an inspiring comeback season lead by head coach Laura Harvey and assistant coach Sam Laity, the team finish in second place in the NWSL standings and competed in an NWSL semifinal match. It was then announced in December 2021 that the team would be making Lumen Field its new home stadium beginning in 2022. Club founders Bill and Teresa Predmore announced prior to the start of the 2022 NWSL season that they would be stepping away from the club in an operating capacity and former Chief Operating Officer, Vincent Berthillot, was appointed CEO.

LAURA HARVEY HEAD COACH

OL Reign head coach Laura Harvey was an integral part of OL Reign's comeback throughout the 2021 season. Joining the team after the conclusion of the Olympic Games in Tokyo, she got to work immediately, transitioning seamlessly into her role. Under Harvey, the Reign managed an eight-game unbeaten streak spanning from August 21 to October 16. She led the team to a second-seed finish, ending the season with a 7-2-2 regular season record as head coach. This comeback finish also allowed OL Reign to host a playoff match for the first time since 2015. For all of her work throughout the 2021 season, Harvey was named the 2021 NWSL Coach of the Year.

As the Reign's first ever head coach, Harvey has also played an important part in shaping the culture of OL Reign's organization. The three-time NWSL coach of the year coached for OL Reign from 2013 to 2017 and led the team to win the NWSL Shield in 2014 and 2015. The team's culture on and off the field has been shaped by her leadership and the positive energy she brings into the locker room.

From 2013 to 2017, Harvey finished with a regular season record of 51 wins, 33 losses and 26 draws with a .464 winning percentage over 110 regular-season games with the Reign. She led the club to consecutive NWSL Shields and NWSL Championship appearances in 2014 and 2015, becoming the first NWSL head coach to reach 100 matches coached, as well as the first to notch 50 wins. After stepping away from the Reign in November 2017, Harvey served as the head coach of the Utah Royals for its 2018 and 2019 seasons before joining U.S. Soccer as the head coach of the women's U-20 team in January 2020.

Sam Laity
Assistant Head Coach

Sam Laity enters his tenth season working with OL Reign. A native of Plymouth, England, Laity has lived in the Puget Sound since 2001. In addition to his work with the first team, Laity previously served as a head coach with several teams with OL Reign Academy.

Laity holds a UEFA "B" License and worked with local youth clubs like Pacific Northwest Soccer Club, Dos FC, Westsound FC and Pacific Premier. He holds an NSCAA Master Coach Diploma and has worked as a regional NSCAA staff instructor.

Ljupco Kmetovski
Goalkeeper Coach

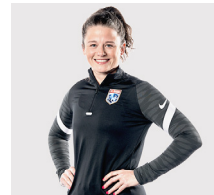

Kmetovski returns for a fourth season with OL Reign. The Macedonian keeper coach, who holds a UEFA "A" License and a UEFA "Pro" goalkeeper license, oversaw a keeper corps that kept seven clean sheets and maintained a 1.125 goals against average in 2019.

NWSL MEDIA POLICY

Included below are the media operations guidelines for the NWSL 2022 season. While recognizing the critically important role that the media plays for sport and society, all guidelines have been developed with health and safety as the number one priority. These guidelines have been created using best-practices developed internationally and domestically, and are subject to change.

The media operations guidelines are in addition to facility protocols, which include but are not limited to required face coverings, social distancing requirements, assigned arrival/departure times, media-specific entrances/exits and assigned seating/photo positions and/or locations. In order to minimize risk of exposure to COVID-19 for Personnel, these rules must be abided by and adhered to.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Lumen Field will be open to credentialed media members only during the NWSL Season. Media members will be issued their credentials when they enter the stadium and must visibly wear them at all times while inside the stadium. Please bring photo identification to receive your credentials.

Members of the media must enter Lumen Field through the sixth floor media check-in via the parking garage at Lumen.

All media members must wear a facemask at all times while inside Lumen Field.

All credentialed media members and photographers must be on a specific assignment as an employee or contractor for the organization for which a credential is issued. Media members are expected to behave in a manner that befits a professional environment. Photographers should refrain from speaking with players.

CREDENTIAL TYPE

Media and photographers will receive the same style of credentials, however, each will be given an assigned spot, where the respective reporter or photographer must remain for the duration of the match.

Credentialed media will be allowed the Press Box. Photographers may use the press box as a work station.

Media members should be careful to remain at least six feet from other media members or OL Reign staff while inside the press box and additional locations. Media members should note that the additional media space has a limited number of power outlets and while OL Reign will provide a number of power strips, they should also plan on having any devices fully charged before entering the stadium.

OL REIGN MEDIA GUIDE

PITCH ACCESS

At no time will there be direct interaction between media, photographers, technical staff, and players. Only credentialed media members with a wristband may access the pitch when appropriate.

MEALS

You will receive a meal at the stadium.

POST-MATCH: REMOTE PRESS CONFERENCE

The post-match press conference will be held after each match and media members may attend via web conference. A link to the web conference will be distributed on the NWSL Press Conferences Slack channel shortly after the final whistle. If a media member wishes to be added to the Slack channel, they should submit a request to lucy@olreign.com

TRAINING SESSION INFORMATION

Members of the media are invited to observe open media training sessions of OL Reign. Players and coaches will be made available for interviews upon request at the conclusion of training sessions. Feel free to share photos, videos, quotes, etc. from training on social media, unless instructed otherwise.

While at a training session you must abide by the COVID-19 protocols at all times which include wearing a mask at all times, staying in the designated media location six feet from fellow media members.

Training schedules will be sent out on a weekly basis to interested members of the media. To be added to that list please send an email to Lucy@olreign.com

OL Reign primarily train at Bellarmine Prep School (2300 S Washington St, Tacoma, 98405). Please consult the weekly training schedule to determine where the team will be training.

Please note: Training sessions may be immediately followed by a team weight-lifting session that can alter media availability times.

*All COVID-19 protocols subject to change.
