MATCH PREVIEW

El Paso Locomotive FC (4-6-1, 13 pts., West-9) hosts Sacramento Republic FC (4-2-3, 15 pts., West-5) at Southwest University Park on Wednesday, May 18. The match is scheduled for a 7:00 p.m. MT kickoff and will be broadcast live on ESPN+.

For the second time in the 2022 USL Championship season, El Paso Locomotive will take on Sacramento Republic FC. Locomotive came away from California on a 3-1 loss, but now can right the wrongs of the first match with a victory over Sacramento Republic. Southwest University Park has played host to these two teams only three times in history, including the exhilarating 3-0 victory in the 2019 Western Conference Semifinals. The last time Republic FC visited El Paso was in September of 2021, where the Locos shut down Sacramento on a 2-0 win, leaving the California club without ever claiming a point in El Paso.

Both teams enter the midweek showdown in two very different forms, making for what should be an exciting match. El Paso enters Wednesday off the heels of a 1-0 loss to Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC on the weekend. Prior to the road loss, however, El Paso Locomotive has been heating up, going four games undefeated with a three-game win streak. Now the Locos will look to make Pittsburgh just a bump in the road as it welcomes a Sacramento Side who tasted victory for the first time since the start of April last Sunday. Coming off a 1-0 win over New York Red Bulls II, Sacramento has been earning series a draws blemished only by a loss to Rio Grande Valley its last four games. As Sacramento looks to start building a winning streak, Locomotive will take every opportunity to keep its name in the ring for the 2022 season.

PREVIOUSLY VS OPPONENT

El Paso Locomotive FC opened its 2022 season with a 3-1 loss against Sacramento Republic SC in their last meeting in mid-March at Heart Health Park in Sacramento, California.

Locomotive exploded into their new season with a fast start, pressing Sacramento Republic FC from the onset. It would pay off in the 27th minute with an opening goal from Mid-fielder Emmanuel Sonupe.

Sacramento Republic made tactical changes into the second half to run away with the match. Beginning with a goal from Rodrigo Lopez in the 50th minute, Republic FC would begin a goal scoring rally to take away the three points. Douglas Martinez netted the game winner in the 84th minute while Keko put the match to rest in the 91st minute.

It would be the first loss El Paso has suffered against Sacramento Republic FC.

MATCH FAST FACTS

- El Paso Locomotive FC fell to Sacramento Republic for the first time in their last meeting earlier this season. The California side has never earned a point in El Paso, however.
- Locomotive has seen a mixed bag of results against California teams so far in the 2022 season. In five matches against teams from California this season, Locomotive has earned a 2-2-1 record. Despite the level record, Locomotive has outscored California clubs 13 to 7 this year.
- El Paso Locomotive is undefeated in it's four matches at Southwest University Park, earning two clean sheets in that time while outscoring its opponents a staggering 13 to 2.
- With only two points separating Locomotive and Republic FC from 9th in the West to 5th, a win at home would see El Paso jump back into a playoff position and keep its name in the ring a third of the way in the season.
