MATCH PREVIEW

El Paso Locomotive FC (9-7-6, 33 pts., West-5) will defend its Copa Tejas title against San Antonio FC (14-3-1, 43 pts., West-1) on Saturday, July 23 at Southwest University Park. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. and will conclude with a post-match firework show for fans in attendance.

In the 2021 USL Championship, El Paso Locomotive FC dominated its Texas competition to claim the Copa Tejas trophy and shield. Now in 2022, the title defense is threatened by a red-hot San Antonio FC that currently sits at the top of the league. After Locomotive, San Antonio, and Rio Grande Valley FC have played two games four games in the round robin tournament, San Antonio could claim the Texas trophy. Locomotive and Rio Grande Valley each currently have one point with a loss and a draw in the competition, while San Antonio has run away with two wins to sit at six points.

El Paso Locomotive FC will need a win against San Antonio FC to stay in Copa Tejas contention and continue its title defense. Should El Paso and San Antonio split the points at Southwest University Park on Saturday, the Locos will mathematically be eliminated from the Texas competition. Should San Antonio claim the full three points it will walk away as the USL Championship Copa Tejas champions. As Locomotive enters the weekend, it does so eight undefeated at Southwest University Park, which it will look to extend with a win over challenging competition.

PREVIOUSLY VS OPPONENT

A quiet start gave way to a 1-0 result in favor of San Antonio FC following a goal from Elliott Collier in the 11th minute.

The quiet opening 10 minutes saw Locomotive press high against San Antonio FC's defense before the Locos got caught in transition. Through a long ball on the counter attack, San Antonio swung momentum in their favor with Collier curved a shot for the opening goal. Despite the early goal, Goalkeeper Evan Newton kept San Antonio from advancing their lead.

Through the second half, San Antonio FC became careless with the ball going, though the Locos struggled to capitalize against the fine-man backline. Newton continued to rise to the occasion to keep Locomotive in the game, however, the match turned stale in the final 20 minutes, leaving the game to end in San Antonio coming out with a win.

HEAD COACH JOHN HUTCHINSON

Ring in a new era for El Paso Locomotive, Head Coach and Technical Director John Hutchinson takes the reigns for his first year with Locomotive. Hutchinson has six years of experience on technical staffs spanning over five leagues, including abroad in Japan's J-League 1 and Australia's A-League.

An Australian native, Hutchinson started his coaching career in the 2015/16 season with Central Coast Mariners as an Assistant coach before moving state side in 2017 to join the prestigious Major League Soccer side, Seattle Sounders. While with the Sounders, Hutchinson worked as an Assistant Coach with Tacoma Defiance in the USL Championship for two years, one of those as the Head Coach. Hutchinson returned to Australia for an Assistant Coaching job with Western United FC in 2019, but ultimately returned to the Sounders to take on a double role as an Assistant Coach for the First Team in MLS and as a Development Coach for the extensive Seattle Sounders Academy. In 2021, Hutchinson took a job as First Assistant Head Coach for Yokohama F. Marinos in Japan, helping the club to a second place league finish.

Hutchinson is a young manager with a strong track record both as a coach and as a player. He holds his F.A. Wales UEFA 'A' License and is on schedule to earn an Asian Football Confederation Pro Diploma in September 2022. He comes to El Paso with his wife, Kate, and his two children Kai (12) and Mahli (7).

DOMINIC CASCIATO first assistant coach

Casciato brought his talents to El Paso Locomotive in 2021 as an Attacking Principles Coach to help bolster the Locomotive attacking front. Casciato has an extensive record in coaching, having coached various teams in New York and in Spain.

Dominic Casciato started his coaching career in 2010 as a Graduate Assistant Coach for St. John's University. Since then, he has gone on to coach various clubs across the United States including the Brooklyn Italians Soccer Club. Most notably however, Casciato spent nearly three years coaching at Spain's prestigious RCD Espanyol de Barcelona academy, where he coached the club's pre-academy and academy teams.

Since joining El Paso Locomotive FC, Casciato has helped raise the bar for the Locomotive attack, while simultaneously help lead the charge by coaching the Locomotive USL Academy team.

Casciato currently holds a USSF B Licence and a UEFA B Licence.

GIANLUCA MASUCCI second assistant coach

Masucci joins El Paso Locomotive FC having previously coached briefly alongside Dominic Casciato in New York City with the Brooklyn Italians Soccer Club. Gianluca got his start as an intern with the New York Cosmos before acting as a Graduate Assistant for his University before returning to the Cosmos full time.

Following his time with Brooklyn Italians Soccer, Masucci coached a local club called Park Slope United.

Masucci earned his degree in Business Management with an emphasis in Sports Management and has earned his USSF C license. Masucci intends to earn his B License when he is able.

MARINA SCHACHOWSKOJ video & technology analyst

Marina comes to El Paso by way of Spain, having worked as a coach and trainer for the B1 Soccer Academy and SantCugat FC Academy in Barcelona. Previously, Marina has coached youth soccer and academy soccer for both boys and girls across New Mexico, Colorado, and Arizona.

Marina earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science and Strength and Conditioning in 2011 from Guilford College. Additionally, in 2017, Marina completed her USSF B License.

Now with El Paso Locomotive FC, Marina works as the video and performance analyst, helping the coaching staff in utilizing technology to improve their game.

JC GARZON goalkeeper coach

Garzon boasts a storied career as he enters his fourth year with El Paso Locomotive FC.

A Pasto, Colombia native, Garzon has played soccer his whole life, moving from club soccer to high school team soccer and college before finally playing with the Colombia Armed Forces during his time in the military. While playing in Colombia, Garzon helped lift his team to victory against their Ecuador and Venezuela counterparts, while also taking on games against the Colombian Men's National Team.

After his playing career, Garzon began his track towards coaching, in part due to his two kids. Garzon began coaching their recreational games, finding that the kids on the team were beginning to pay attention to him. As his kids grew, he continued coaching through to high school programs, taking one team to the regional semi-finals for the first time in 20 years, earning Coach of the Year in 2014.

Garzon holds a Coaching B-License and holds a Bachelor degree in Polic Studies. He is in El Paso with his wife Rquel and daughter, Tatiana, and son, Santiago.

RICARDO RUIZ athletic trainer

Born in Chihuahua, Mexico, but moved to El Paso at the age of two, Ricardo Ruiz is a Borderplex and El Paso native. Growing up through high school, Ricardo was a versatile athlete, playing basketball, baseball, and soccer. Unfortunately, in his senior year, Ricardo suffered a knee injury that took him out of the player role, but put him on track towards the trainer role.

Ricardo went on to get a Bachelor degree in Kinesiology and a Masters in Sports Administration from Michigan State University before jumping into the major leagues. Starting in 2006, Ricardo worked in the National Football League (NFL) with the Detroit Lions, then moved on to Major League Baseball (MLB) to work with the New York Mets in 2008 and the LA Dodgers starting in 2011.

In 2013, Ricardo returned to the Southwest desert, working as the Head Trainer at New Mexico Highlands university for three years before joining Locomotive in 2020.

Ricardo is joined in El Paso by his wife of 11 years and have two kids - a son (6) and daughter (9)

SAUL SOTO strength & conditioning coach

Born and raised in El Paso, Saul Soto attended East Yselta High School, lettering in six different sports (football, basketball, track, cross country, soccer, and baseball). Making sports his entire life, Saul would go from one practice to the next.

Post high school, Saul began going to college, enrolling in a bridge program to coaching sports. He started at 18, coaching middle school sports before coaching high school from 1997 to 2002. After his high school coaching career, Saul moved to Boston where he did a stint in the corporate world working in security and anti-fraud with the Bank of New York. Even while away from coaching, Saul never left sports, working with a non-profit organization called Sports for Kids in Boston. Saul soon moved back to El Paso, joining Locomotive as the strength coach and eventually adding the title of player operations.

Saul holds several degrees including a Bachelor's in Mathematic Statistics, a Master's in Math, a Master's in Education and a Master's of Science in Kinesiology, all which he earned from Univeristy of Texas El Paso, where he also teaches part time.
