MATCH PREVIEW

El Paso Locomotive FC (9-10-6, 33 pts., West-6) takes to the road to visit Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC (13-8-2, 41 pts., West-3) at Weidner Field in Colorado Springs, Colorado on Friday, August 12. Kickoff is set for 7:00 p.m. MT and will be broadcast live on ESPN+.

El Paso Locomotive FC boasts a 7-0-9 record against Colorado Springs, never losing to the Switchbacks. In the previous meeting between the two clubs on July 09, El Paso defeated Colorado Springs 1-0 at Southwest University Park, earning Aaron Gomez his sixth goal of the season. Locomotive has outscored the Switchbacks 16-6 since the first meeting between the two clubs in the inaugural 2019 season. El Paso looks to get back to winning ways after struggling to find the result in their previous four matches, including narrow losses to the top two teams in the league.

Locomotive continues its push to the playoffs against a Switchbacks FC side that is currently sitting at 3rd in the Western Conference and holds a 1-2-2 record in their previous five matches. As the two sides continue their playoff push, Locomotive and Colorado Springs will clash in what is set to be a thrilling contest between two Western Conference teams.

PREVIOUSLY VS OPPONENT

Locomotive FC earned a 1-0 victory over Switchbacks at home earlier this season. From the offset of the match, El Paso Locomotive knocked on the Switchbacks door with shots that went straight into the hands of Switchbacks' keeper Christian Herrera. Gomez got his first look on goal in the 15th minute with a strike that sent Herrera diving to make the save. Gomez would strike first just minutes later, connecting with a cross from defender Eder Borelli to head away the opening goal in the 18th minute. Going the other way, Defender Martin Payares made a goal line save after a bad pass opened Colorado Springs with a shot. Evan Newton also made saves to stop Switchbacks' Hadji Barry from finding the back of the net, dropping low in the 33rd minute.

The gritty game called for a gutsy performance from El Paso Locomotive as the match heated up. Switchbacks FC tested the Locomotive backline and Newton with an aggressive offensive going into the second half. On the other side, the Locos were just shy of putting the ball into the back of the net through Forward Lucho Solignac and Midfielder Dylan Mares. The game took a turn in the 75th minute, however, as Switchbacks FC's Matthew Mahoney was shown red leaving the Locos with a man advantage up to the 87th minute when Lucho was sent off the field for a second yellow card. The overall performance from Locomotive was enough to claim the three points.

HEAD COACH

JOHN HUTCHINSON

Ring in a new era for El Paso Locomotive, Head Coach and Technical Director John Hutchinson takes the reigns for his first year with Locomotive. Hutchinson has six years of experience on technical staffs spanning over five leagues, including abroad in Japan's J-League 1 and Australia's A-League.

An Australian native, Hutchinson started his coaching career in the 2015/16 season with Central Coast Mariners as an Assistant coach before moving state side in 2017 to join the prestigious Major League Soccer side, Seattle Sounders. While with the Sounders, Hutchinson worked as an Assistant Coach with Tacoma Defiance in the USL Championship for two years, one of those as the Head Coach. Hutchinson returned to Australia for an Assistant Coaching job with Western United FC in 2019, but ultimately returned to the Sounders to take on a double role as an Assistant Coach for the First Team in MLS and as a Development Coach for the extensive Seattle Sounders Academy. In 2021, Hutchinson took a job as First Assistant Head Coach for Yokohama F. Marinos in Japan, helping the club to a second place league finish.

Hutchinson is a young manager with a strong track record both as a coach and as a player. He holds his F.A. Wales UEFA 'A' License and is on schedule to earn an Asian Football Confederation Pro Diploma in September 2022. He comes to El Paso with his wife, Kate, and his two children Kai (12) and Mahli (7).

DOMINIC CASCIATO first assistant coach

Casciato brought his talents to El Paso Locomotive in 2021 as an Attacking Principles Coach to help bolster the Locomotive attacking front. Casciato has an extensive record in coaching, having coached various teams in New York and in Spain.

Dominic Casciato started his coaching career in 2010 as a Graduate Assistant Coach for St. John's University. Since then, he has gone on to coach various clubs across the United States including the Brooklyn Italians Soccer Club. Most notably however, Casciato spent nearly three years coaching at Spain's prestigious RCD Espanyol de Barcelona academy, where he coached the club's pre-academy and academy teams.

Since joining El Paso Locomotive FC, Casciato has helped raise the bar for the Locomotive attack, while simultaneously help lead the charge by coaching the Locomotive USL Academy team.

Casciato currently holds a USSF B Licence and a UEFA B Licence.

GIANLUCA MASUCCI second assistant coach

Masucci joins El Paso Locomotive FC having previously coached briefly alongside Dominic Casciato in New York City with the Brooklyn Italians Soccer Club. Gianluca got his start as an intern with the New York Cosmos before acting as a Graduate Assistant for his University before returning to the Cosmos full time.

Following his time with Brooklyn Italians Soccer, Masucci coached a local club called Park Slope United.

Masucci earned his degree in Business Management with an emphasis in Sports Management and has earned his USSF C license. Masucci intends to earn his B License when he is able.

MARINA SCHACHOWSKOJ video & technology analyst

Marina comes to El Paso by way of Spain, having worked as a coach and trainer for the B1 Soccer Academy and SantCugat FC Academy in Barcelona. Previously, Marina has coached youth soccer and academy soccer for both boys and girls across New Mexico, Colorado, and Arizona.

Marina earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science and Strength and Conditioning in 2011 from Guilford College. Additionally, in 2017, Marina completed her USSF B License.

Now with El Paso Locomotive FC, Marina works as the video and performance analyst, helping the coaching staff in utilizing technology to improve their game.

JC GARZON goalkeeper coach

Garzon boasts a storied career as he enters his fourth year with El Paso Locomotive FC.

A Pasto, Colombia native, Garzon has played soccer his whole life, moving from club soccer to high school team soccer and college before finally playing with the Colombia Armed Forces during his time in the military. While playing in Colombia, Garzon helped lift his team to victory against their Ecuador and Venezuela counterparts, while also taking on games against the Colombian Men's National Team.

After his playing career, Garzon began his track towards coaching, in part due to his two kids. Garzon began coaching their recreational games, finding that the kids on the team were beginning to pay attention to him. As his kids grew, he continued coaching through to high school programs, taking one team to the regional semi-finals for the first time in 20 years, earning Coach of the Year in 2014.

Garzon holds a Coaching B-License and holds a Bachelor degree in Polic Studies. He is in El Paso with his wife Rquel and daughter, Tatiana, and son, Santiago.

RICARDO RUIZ athletic trainer

Born in Chihuahua, Mexico, but moved to El Paso at the age of two, Ricardo Ruiz is a Borderplex and El Paso native. Growing up through high school, Ricardo was a versatile athlete, playing basketball, baseball, and soccer. Unfortunately, in his senior year, Ricardo suffered a knee injury that took him out of the player role, but put him on track towards the trainer role.

Ricardo went on to get a Bachelor degree in Kinesiology and a Masters in Sports Administration from Michigan State University before jumping into the major leagues. Starting in 2006, Ricardo worked in the National Football League (NFL) with the Detroit Lions, then moved on to Major League Baseball (MLB) to work with the New York Mets in 2008 and the LA Dodgers starting in 2011.

In 2013, Ricardo returned to the Southwest desert, working as the Head Trainer at New Mexico Highlands university for three years before joining Locomotive in 2020.

Ricardo is joined in El Paso by his wife of 11 years and have two kids - a son (6) and daughter (9)

SAUL SOTO strength & conditioning coach

Born and raised in El Paso, Saul Soto attended East Yselta High School, lettering in six different sports (football, basketball, track, cross country, soccer, and baseball). Making sports his entire life, Saul would go from one practice to the next.

Post high school, Saul began going to college, enrolling in a bridge program to coaching sports. He started at 18, coaching middle school sports before coaching high school from 1997 to 2002. After his high school coaching career, Saul moved to Boston where he did a stint in the corporate world working in security and anti-fraud with the Bank of New York. Even while away from coaching, Saul never left sports, working with a non-profit organization called Sports for Kids in Boston. Saul soon moved back to El Paso, joining Locomotive as the strength coach and eventually adding the title of player operations.

Saul holds several degrees including a Bachelor's in Mathematic Statistics, a Master's in Math, a Master's in Education and a Master's of Science in Kinesiology, all which he earned from Univeristy of Texas El Paso, where he also teaches part time.
