Team Notes

- The Dragons finished the first half with a .500 record for the fourth time in franchise history (2003, 2006, 2011). In 2011, they followed their 35-35 first half record by going 48-22 in the second half, their all-time best half. That team featured Billy Hamilton, Tucker Barnhart, and Donald Lutz.
- The Dragons finished the first half in second place behind Great Lakes for the second straight year. In 2022, they went 39-27 in the first half and finished one game behind the Loons.
- The Dragons are 17-10 over their last 27 games. They are 27-20 (.574) since April 30. The Dragons team ERA since April 30 is 3.19, first in the Midwest League and second best in full season Minor League Baseball (120 teams).
- Dragons hitters have struck out 757 times in 67 games, the most of any team in Minor League Baseball. The Dragons are on pace to break the club record set in 2022.

Basics for 2023: This is the third year in which the league is classified at the High-A level of Minor League Baseball. The Midwest League was a Low-A league prior to 2021. The 12-team Midwest League operates with two six-team divisions.

The Midwest League will continue to utilize a Pitch Timer to encourage a quicker pace of play. Pitchers are required to deliver each pitch within a 14-second time limit (or 18 seconds with a runner on base). Defensive positioning rules require at least two infielders on each side of second base, with at least four infielders positioned on the infield dirt. Pitchers are limited in the number of unsuccessful pick-off throws they can make to a base. The third pick-off throw must result in an out, or the runner will be awarded the next base.

The Dragons also narrowly missed leading the league in stolen bases, finishing with five fewer than the league leader despite playing four fewer games. LaHair served as manager with the Reds affiliate in the Arizona Complex League in 2021 and was the manager at Billings in 2019. LaHair opened his coaching career as the Billings hitting coach in 2018. As a player, LaHair played professionally for 14 seasons from 2003-14 and 2016-17, appearing in more than 1,000 games. Edwin Arroyo

High School: Arecibo Baseball Academy (Arecibo, PR)

Acquired: Trade with Seattle, July 30, 2022

Home: Arecibo, Puerto Rico

Joined Club: Start of Season

Prospect Rankings: Reds #2 prospect (#40 overall) by ESPN. Reds #3 prospect (#44 overall) by MLB.com.

Reds #3 prospect (#65 overall) by Baseball America. Reds #4 prospect (#58 overall) by The Athletic.

Rated as Reds organization's "Best Defensive Infielder" by Baseball America.

2023 World Baseball Classic: Played for Team Puerto Rico

Notes: 2022: Acquired from Seattle along with INF Noelvi Marte, RHP Levi Stoudt and RHP Andrew Moore in exchange for RHP Luis Castillo at the 2022 trade deadline...Selected by Baseball America as a Low-A All-Star (SS)...Played for Seattle's Low-A club, Modesto, prior to being acquired by the Reds and subsequently assigned to Daytona...Entered the season as the third youngest player in the California League...Ranked among offensive leaders at Low-A in hits (137, 1st), triples (10, 2nd), total bases (224, 3rd), runs (92, T4th), RBI (83, 7th), and extra-base hits (49, 7th)...Was rated by Baseball America as the best defensive infielder in the Mariners system. 2021: Selected by the Mariners in the second round (48th overall) of the First-Year Player Draft. High School: Attended Arecibo Baseball Academy in Puerto Rico and Central Pointe Christian Academy in Kissimmee (FL)...can throw with both hands and pitched left-handed as a prep.

From MLB Pipeline: "(Arroyo) has the chance to be a dynamic up-the-middle player. He swings the bat well from both sides of the plate and was productive each way, showing the ability to make hard contact with a line-drive approach. He's added a good amount of strength to his wiry build already, and that led to more power than anticipated out of the gate, though he's still more of a hit-over-power type. He could become even more of an impact hitter as he tightens up his approach...If he continues to hit at all, Arroyo could be an elite-level player because there's no doubt he's going to be able to play shortstop for a long time. He has excellent hands and actions at the premium position, with more than enough arm to make throws from all over the infield. Assuming he gets his bearings with his new organization, he should continue to prove he has the tools to be an everyday shortstop in the big leagues."
