SPORTS FACILITY PROPOSAL

21st CENTURY SPORTS FACILITY PROPOSED BY OILERS

During the spring of 1994, the Houston Oilers unveiled preliminary plans for a multi-purpose sports and entertainment complex that would move Houston to a preeminent position as a site for the country's premier convention, sports, and entertainment events.

The complex, designed by the esteemed architectural firm of Hellmuth, Obata, and Kassabum, Inc. (HOK), would feature state-of-the-art conversion capabilities from a 75,000-seat football stadium to a self-contained 24,000-seat arena for basketball, hockey, soccer, concerts, and other entertainment-related events to a convention hall with 160,000 square feet of exposition space.

"It will be the first stadium in the world to feature this high-tech convertability providing for the ultimate in versatility," said Ron Labinski, senior vice-president for HOK. The Kansas City-based firm is the acknowledged worldwide leader in design of sports facilities and has project experience that includes Joe Robbie Stadium, the new Comiskey Park, the Alamodome, and the new Cervantes Stadium and Convention facility in St. Louis.

"It will be the finest multi-purpose facility in the world for football, basketball, and hockey," added Labinski. "This facility combines the best features of a football stadium and an arena for a cost of $235 million. Separate facilities for football, basketball, and hockey which include the features embodied in this facility would cost over $300 million. The sightlines for basketball and hockey compare to the newest arenas being built."

The facility, in conjunction with the area's existing sports and convention facilities, would make the metropolitan Houston area attractive for any and every event that is or will be hosted in this country.

"The convertability of the facility will restore Houston's once proud preeminent position as a city with the finest sports facilities in the U.S.," Oilers' Owner/President/Chairman of the Board K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. said. "This facility would make the metropolitan Houston area eligible to host the country's premier events: the Super Bowl, the Final Four, a collegiate football bowl game, and national political conventions."

Coopers and Lybrand released a projected event summary for a minimum of 190 annual sports and entertainment-related events that could be held in the facility with a projected annual attendance of 3.5 million. The summary included 10 NFL games, 49 NBA games, 44 NHL games, six college football games, six college basketball games, one college football bowl game, 20 arena concerts, four stadium concerts, and 50 family shows. Not included in the event summary is projected usage by numerous trade shows, expositions, and assemblies which would be generated by the Greater Houston Convention and Visitor's Bureau.

The preliminary plan calls for investment of a minimum of $85 million from the participating teams. This would be the largest private investment ever made in a publicly-owned sports facility. No real estate, sales, or hotel tax dollars are proposed to be used for the stadium.

K.S. "BUD" ADAMS, JR. Owner/Chairman of the Board/President

One of Texas' premier business leaders, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. brought professional sports to the Gulf Coast when he founded the Houston Oilers football team. The hard-working and aggressive Adams helped co-found the American Football League (AFL) on August 3, 1959 when the Oilers and the Dallas Texans became the first two major league sports franchises in the state of Texas.

Adams' first love, his Houston Oilers, is a team rich in tradition and pride. The Oilers have been in the playoffs a total of 15 times during their 34-year history, and Adams was the leading force in performing miracles during the early years of the AFL.

Adams' Oilers were the dominant team during the early 1960's, winning the championship in 1960 and 1961, finishing second in 1962, and making the playoffs in 1967, 1969, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, and in 1993. In fact, the Oilers' streak of seven consecutive playoff appearances is the longest current streak in the NFL. In 1991, Adams' Oilers captured their first-ever AFC Central Division Championship, and the club was a repeat champion last season.

Adams' interest in sports was first displayed while attending Culver Military Academy where he won letters in football, basketball, and baseball. Upon graduation from Culver, Adams attended Menlo College in California, lettering in both rugby and football. Adams then transferred to the engineering school at the University of Kansas where he also lettered in football for the Jayhawks. During his days at KU, Adams began his loyal affiliation with Sigma Chi fraternity.

Adams, a native of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, served in the U.S. Naval Reserve during World War II and was stationed aboard a PAC-Fleet carrier unit where he served as an aviation engineering officer. Prior to his discharge in 1946, Lt. jg. Adams served as an aide in the U.S. Navy's Congressional Liaison Office in Washington.

Truly a "man for all seasons," Adams has parlayed a 1946 chance stop in Houston, resulting from fog which grounded his plane, into a highly successful and diversified business empire which ranks him among the better known and prominent businessmen in the country.

Adams incorporated ADA Oil Company, which was a forerunner of the publicly-held American Stock Exchange-listed Adams Resources & Energy, Inc., an energy company engaged in oil and gas exploration, crude oil marketing, intrastate and interstate petrochemical trucking, and wholesale and retail marketing of petroleum products. Adams' diverse business interests include extensive farming and ranching in California and Texas, cattle and swine breeding, cattle feeding, real estate, automobile dealerships and leasing, a travel agency, western art, and Indian artifacts.

During his early business career, Adams was an avid sponsor of amateur and AAU teams in basketball and softball. His ADA Oilers were a perennial power in the National Industrial Basketball League in the '50s, capturing third place in the national AAU tournament in 1956. His interest in sports has been further manifested by past ownership participation in professional baseball, basketball, and boxing.

The unknown side of Bud Adams is his charitable and philanthropic activities that are most often anonymous. Very active in national, state, and local programs, Adams is on the Board of Directors of the Cherokee Indian National Historical Society; the Board of Governors of the Sigma Chi Fraternity Foundation; the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio; the Board of Directors of the World League; the Board of Directors of the Boy Scouts of America, Sam Houston Area Council; the Board of Directors of The Hundred Club of Houston; the Board of Trustees of the Culver Educational Foundation; and is a Lifetime Director of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Adams also spearheaded the drive for construction and operation of the Houston Ronald McDonald House. In addition, he is a member of the NFL's Finance, Realignment, Hall of Fame, and International Committees.

Adams has received numerous awards through the years. He was inducted into the Culver Academy's Athletic Hall of Fame in the inaugural class in May of 1994. In June, 1991, he was given the Order of Constantine from Sigma Chi which is the highest honor that fraternity can bestow. In February, 1990, he was given Sigma Chi Foundation's Semi-Centennial Award. In January of 1988, he received the prestigious "Golden Buckle Award" by the Greater Houston Convention and Visitor's Bureau, symbolizing "outstanding promotion of Houston as a premiere destination." In addition, in October, 1987, Adams was recognized with the Distinguished American Award, presented jointly by the Houston Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Houston Athletic Committee (Chamber of Commerce). Other noteworthy honors bestowed upon Adams in the past have included "Houston Salesman of the Year" in 1960 from the Houston Sales Association; "Mr. Sportsman" in 1961 by the Interfaith Charity Group; "Significant Sig" in 1963 by Sigma Chi Fraternity; "Westerner of the Year" in 1969 by the Houston Farm and Ranch Club; "Distinguished Alumnus" in 1980 from the California Community and Junior College Association; Culver Military Academy's "Man of the Year" in 1981; Financial World Magazine's 1981 "Outstanding Chief Executive Officer"; and "King Capon" in 1983 from Bill Williams' annual Capon Charity Dinner, Inc.

Bud and his wife Nancy have two daughters (Susie, Amy) and six grandchildren.

FLOYD REESE

Executive Vice-President/General Manager

Last January 27, Floyd Reese was named Executive Vice-President/General Manager for the Oilers. He had been Houston's Assistant General Manager since January 30, 1990. In his elevated role, Reese is responsible for all aspects of the Oilers' football operations including player personnel, scouting, and contract negotiations.

Prior to joining the Oilers' front office, Reese served as Houston's Linebackers Coach for four years. In 1989, three of the club's top four tacklers were from Reese's group, and in '88, the team's top three tacklers were all linebackers.

A native of Springfield, Missouri, Reese played linebacker at UCLA from 1966-69, and played professionally for one season (1970) as a defensive lineman for the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL. Following his stint in Montreal, Reese began his coaching career at Liberty Union High School in Brentwood, California. He then returned to his alma mater in Westwood as an assistant coach, remaining with the Bruins from 1971-73. Reese ended the collegiate coaching portion of his career with one season at Georgia Tech in 1974.

From 1975-77, Reese was the strength and conditioning coach for the Detroit Lions. After his term with the Lions, Reese joined the San Francisco 49ers for one season (1978) before being added to Bud Grant's staff as linebackers and special teams coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 1979. He served in that role until 1984 when he was elevated to the position of Defensive Coordinator under then-Head Coach Les Steckel. Again under Grant in '85, he reassumed the duties of linebackers coach.

Reese is a member of both the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame and the Liberty Union High School Hall of Fame. Born August 8, 1948, Floyd and his wife Sally (4/3/72) have two sons, Jeremy (9/19/76) and Sean (5/16/80), and reside in Sugar Land, Texas.

MIKE McCLURE

Executive Vice-President/Administration

Mike McClure's tenure with the Houston Oilers is spread over eight years, 1979-1981 and 1989-1994, and as he enters his eighth full season, every Oilers' team with whom he's been associated has had a winning season and earned a trip to the playoffs.

He's one of a handful of people who've served in top level executive capacities in three major professional sports.

McClure reports directly to Oilers' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., and is responsible for the non-football business operations of the franchise. He has negotiated long-term local radio and television contracts for the Oilers and spearheaded the Oilers' training camp move to San Antonio's Trinity University. He recently concluded discussions with the Alamodome and the Dallas Cowboys for the playing of the annual Governor's Cup game in the San Antonio facility in 1995, 1996, and 1997.

Much of McClure's responsibilities fall in the area of strategic planning, and he has been Adam's point man on planning for a new playing facility for the team after the expiration of the current lease at the Astrodome in 1997.

Following six years in private business, McClure entered the sports field in 1970 as Director of the Big Ten Conference Service Bureau. In 1973, he joined the NBA's Chicago Bulls as Director of Public Relations and Marketing.

In 1979, McClure joined the Oilers as Vice-President of Marketing and Public Relations. He conceived and administered the Oilers' "Luv Ya Blue!" promotion which has been hailed as one of the most successful in sports history.

McClure went to the Chicago White Sox in 1981 as Vice-President of Marketing and in 1983 the White Sox became the first baseball team in Chicago history to draw 2 million fans. In 1983 and 1986, he was honored by Major League Baseball with the coveted Team Marketing Excellence Award and is the only two-time recipient.

He was elevated to Senior Vice-President of Marketing and Broadcasting in 1987 and played a key role in the planning and construction of the new Comiskey Park. He also served on the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Properties.

McClure has received numerous professional and community awards, is a Significant Sig of Sigma Chi Fraternity, and serves on the Alumni Board of Trustees of his alma mater, DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. He recently was named to the Board of Directors of the Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Mike and his wife Brenda have two grown sons (Michael 27, Matthew 24) and reside in Sugar Land, Texas.

SCOTT THOMPSON

Executive Vice-President/Finance

Scott Thompson joined the Oilers on September 9, 1991 as the team's Executive Vice-President/Finance. In that role, Thompson reports directly to Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. In addition to his Oiler duties, Thompson also serves as the Executive Vice-President of Operations and Finance for KSA Industries, the Oilers' parent company.

Thompson's responsibilities with the Oilers comprise all financial aspects of the team's operations while monitoring treasury, accounting, and financial reporting functions. Additionally, Thompson is responsible for the companies' investments, dealings and negotiations with financial institutions, electronic data processing, player insurance, and salary cap accounting.

Thompson serves on the Board of Directors of Adams Resources & Energy Inc., an energy company engaged in oil and gas exploration. He also serves on the Board of Crisis Intervention of Houston Inc., a United Way agency, which is dedicated to serving people in crisis through intervention, education, training, and referrals.

Prior to joining the Oilers, the 35-year-old Thompson was with Arthur Andersen and Co., a world-wide accounting and consulting firm. In his ten years at Arthur Andersen, Thompson's main areas of concentration were banking, real estate, and sports industries. Additionally, he was heavily involved in business acquisitions and restructuring.

A native of Ft. Worth, Thompson graduated Magna Cum Laude from Stephen F. Austin University where he was actively involved as a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. Scott and his wife Vanessa reside in Northwest Houston with their son Brandon and daughter Samantha.

THOMAS S. SMITH

Executive Assistant to the Owner/
Chairman of the Board/President

Thomas S. Smith currently serves as the Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of KSA Industries, the parent company of the Houston Oilers. In addition to that post, Smith is also the Executive Assistant to K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. Smith is involved with long range planning for the Oilers' organization and also serves as a liaison in the club's day-to-day operation with Adams. Additionally, he is on the Board of Directors of Adams Resources. Smith played a lead role in the planning of the 1988 Astrodome expansion.

A native of Houston, Smith has been with KSA Industries since 1974. He is a graduate of the University of Texas with a degree in finance.

Among his other activities, Smith is a past president and is currently on the Board of Directors of the Houston Ronald McDonald House. Smith also serves on the Board of Directors of the Red Cross (also on Executive Committee) and the Post Oak YMCA. In addition, he is chairman of the Steering Committee for the Texas Children's Development Council and is on the Board of Trustees of the Kinkaid School Endowment Fund. Previously, Smith was chapter chairman and a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for the March of Dimes. In 1986, Smith was the recipient of the Freedom Foundation Certificate of Merit.

Tommy and his wife Susie reside in Houston with their son Stuart and daughter Nancy.

MIKE HOLOVAK

Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting

This past January 27, Mike HoloVak was named Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting for the Oilers after serving five seasons as the club's Executive Vice-President/General Manager (named GM 2/2/89, Exec. VP 7/2/89). Long regarded as one of the top personnel men in the National Football League, HoloVak is a veteran of over 40 years in football administration including 35 in the professional ranks. Known for his honesty and integrity, HoloVak joined the Oilers on February 15, 1981 and previously held positions within the club that included Director of Player Personnel and Assistant General Manager.

HoloVak was an All-America football player for Boston College, playing for the Eagles from 1940-42 (co-captain in '42). In the January 1, 1943 Orange Bowl game, he set a record for the highest rushing average in that game with a 15.8-yard mark on ten carries for 158 yards. BC lost that Orange Bowl to Alabama 37-21, but HoloVak scored three touchdowns (65, 34, 2 yds.). In January of 1984, he was inducted into the prestigious Orange Bowl Hall of Honor. HoloVak was also inducted into the National Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1983 as well as being inducted into the State of Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in Hershey, Pa. HoloVak is a native of Lansford, Pa.

Following his collegiate career, HoloVak was drafted in the first round by the Los Angeles Rams, but first served in the Navy until 1946. He played for the Rams in '46 before being traded to the Chicago Bears. In two seasons with the Bears (1947-48) under Head Coach George Halas, HoloVak played fullback and linebacker.

HoloVak retired from pro football in 1949 to become the junior varsity coach at Boston College, and from 1951-59 he was BC's head coach, posting a 49-29-3 record during his tenure. When the new American Football League was formed, HoloVak was one of the first employees hired by the Boston Patriots, becoming their Director of Player Personnel in 1959. Elevated to head coach after the fifth game in 1961, HoloVak then guided the Patriots to the AFL Eastern Division title, posting a 7-1-1 record in the final nine games.

In 1964, HoloVak assumed the Patriots' General Manager's duties along with his head coaching job. With a 52-46-9 record, he remains the winningest coach in Patriots' history. He left the Pats in 1968 to join the San Francisco 49ers, and has also been associated with the Oakland Raiders (1971) and the New York Jets (1972-76). He served as the Jets' head coach for one game in '76 following the departure of Lou Holtz. HoloVak returned to the Patriots as a personnel assistant in 1977 before being promoted to Director of College Scouting the following year.

Mike and his wife Pauline live in Sarasota, Florida. They have two grown daughters, Michele and Cindy.

JACK PARDEE

Head Coach

In his four seasons as the Houston Oilers' Head Coach, Jack Pardee's teams have been consistent winners. His squads have qualified for the NFL playoffs in each of his four years at the Houston helm, and Pardee's 65.6% winning percentage (42-22) is the best in team history. After molding one of the winningest teams in the NFL, Pardee now wants more...an AFC championship and a berth in the Super Bowl.

Last season, Pardee led the Oilers on a wild ride that culminated with a team record 11 consecutive victories. No team in the NFL won more games than did Pardee's Oilers who posted a 12-4 mark, the best record in franchise history. In addition, Houston captured the AFC Central Division championship for the second time in the last three years. Pardee was also named AFC Coach of the Year by the 101 Committee. The Oilers enter the 1994 season with a claim that no other NFL team can make...Houston has earned a playoff berth in each of the last seven years.

Pardee became the Oilers' 14th head coach when he signed a five-year contract on January 9, 1990. Upon his hiring, Pardee announced that the Oilers would utilize the "Run 'N Shoot" offense, would play exciting football, and would attempt to continue the Oilers' streak of qualifying for post-season play. And he has delivered.

The 1993 season included several additional highlights for Pardee's Oilers. Among them:

- Pardee joined Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll as the only two coaches whose teams have gone undefeated (6-0) in the AFC's Central Division since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Noll accomplished that feat in 1975. Besides the Oilers, only six other franchises have ever gone through a season undefeated within their division.
- Houston's 11-game winning streak broke the team record of ten set in 1961-62. The Oilers' 11-game mark was the longest in the NFL in nine years (Miami won 11 straight in 1984). The Oilers were just the fifth team in league history to close the regular season with 11 consecutive wins. The undefeated 1972 Dolphins (14 straight) were the last team to accomplish that feat...the others who have done it include the 1934 Bears (13), the 1942 Bears (11), and the 1951 Browns (11).
- The Oilers' total of 12 wins established a new franchise record. The Oilers had won 11 games four times previously: in 1962 (11-3), 1979 (11-5), 1980 (11-5), and 1991 (11-5).

- Houston tied the team record for home wins with seven (also done in 1988, 1991).
- The Oilers tied a 31-year-old team record by winning five consecutive road games. The club's 4-0 mark in both November and December marked just the third time in franchise history that the team had gone undefeated in both of those months in the same season (also 1961, 1962).
- For the fourth straight year, the Oilers were among the league's top three in both passing (1st in 1990-1992, 3rd in 1993) and total offense (1st in 1990, 2nd in 1991, 3rd in 1992-1993).
- The Oilers led the NFL in run defense, surrendering just 79.6 yards per game.
- Houston's defense forced 43 turnovers, which ranked second in the NFL. In addition, the Oilers racked up a league-leading 26 interceptions and led the NFL in third down defense.
- The Oilers set a team record by registering 52 sacks.
- The Oilers own the NFL's longest current streak of not having allowed a 100-yard rusher (24 games).
- From 1990-93, the Oilers have ranked in the NFL's top five in both third down efficiency and first downs per game.
- Houston's touchdowns allowed has shrunk from 51 in 1989 (prior to Pardee's arrival) to 26 in 1991, 28 in 1992, and 26 in 1993.
- The Oilers and the 49ers are the only two teams in the NFL to finish with winning records in each of the last seven seasons.
- The Oilers' 70-41 record since 1987 ties New Orleans for the third best record in the NFL during that span. Houston's 2645 points since '87 ranks second behind San Francisco's 2920.

Pardee is a proven winner, a man who has won "Coach of the Year" honors at every level he has been. Among his many other honors, Pardee has won such accolades in the National Football League, the United States Football League, the World Football League, and the Southwest Conference. He has a talented team that has made seven consecutive playoff appearances, but has yet to achieve its ultimate goals...an AFC championship and a Super Bowl trophy. Pardee wants to help the Oilers reach that next plateau and he plans on doing it the old fashioned way...with hard work, discipline, and determination.

Pardee joined the Oilers from the University of Houston where he had served as Head Coach since 1987. During his three Cougar seasons, his teams compiled a record of 22-10-1. In Pardee's first UH campaign, the team posted a 4-6-1 record but improved to 9-2 in his second year in 1988. That season, the Cougars finished in second place in the Southwest Conference while earning an Aloha Bowl invitation where they lost to Washington State. In 1988, Houston established over 100 NCAA and SWC combined records and finished in the top four nationally in per game averages for total yards (484.6), passing yards (377.5), and scoring (41.1). The Cougars also led the conference in total defense and passing defense. In 1989, UH again finished with a 9-2 slate and a second place finish (tied) in the Southwest Conference. The UH "Run 'N Shoot" offense steamrolled over its opposition, again setting over 100 NCAA/SWC records. The Cougars posted some amazing statistics, leading the nation in per-game averages for total yards (624.9), passing yards (511.3), and scoring (53.5). Houston also finished sixth nationally (1st in SWC) by allowing just 13.6 points per contest. Additionally, Andre Ware, the Cougars' Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback, set NCAA marks with 46 touchdown passes and 4699 yards passing.

Prior to his arrival at UH, Pardee spent 1986 as a scout for the Green Bay Packers. Before that, he served for two seasons (1984-85) as the Head Coach for the Houston Gamblers of the USFL, compiling a 23-13 record. His '84 squad won the division title with a 13-5 record as he garnered Coach of the Year honors. Led by quarterback Jim Kelly, the Gamblers led the league in total offense and scoring in both of Pardee's USFL seasons. Before leading the Gamblers, Pardee spent 1982 out of football, working as Vice-President/Marketing for Rannels

Mud Company in Midland, Texas. In 1981, he was the Defensive Coordinator for the NFL's San Diego Chargers as that club won the AFC's Western Division and advanced to the conference championship game before losing to Cincinnati.

From 1978-80, Pardee was the Head Coach for the Washington Redskins. In 1979, he led the team to a 10-6 record and Pardee received Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors. In 1975, Chicago Bears General Manager Jim Finks made Pardee the youngest head coach in the National Football League. Pardee coached the Bears through the '77 season when the team earned their first playoff berth since 1963. Named NFC Coach of the Year in 1976, Pardee's Bear teams improved from 4-10 to 7-7 to 9-5.

Pardee received his first head coaching assignment in 1974 with the Florida Blazers of the World Football League. While also carrying the title of general manager, Pardee led the Blazers to a 14-6 record, an Eastern Division title, and a berth in the league's championship game where they lost a 22-21 decision to Birmingham. His coaching career had officially begun the year before when he served as an assistant for the Redskins.

As a player, Pardee performed in the NFL for 15 years as one of the top linebackers in the league. A second round draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams in 1957, he played for them for 13 years despite sitting out the 1965 campaign while recovering from cancer (served as a special assistant at Texas A&M in '65). He was a Pro Bowler and an All-Pro selection for the Rams in 1963 and was named to the Rams' All-Time 40th Anniversary team. In 1971, Pardee was traded to the Redskins in a deal that involved six players and eight draft choices, and he earned All-Pro honors that year. In his two seasons with Washington, the team advanced to the playoffs both years and lost Super Bowl VII to the undefeated Miami Dolphins. He intercepted three passes in one game against the Cardinals in '71 and, upon his retirement following the '72 season, had notched 22 career interceptions and scored five TDs.

Collegiately, Pardee attended Texas A&M where he played both linebacker and fullback for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. While at A&M, he earned All-America, Academic All-America, and All-Southwest Conference honors. As a senior, Pardee helped lead the Aggies to a 9-0-1 mark and he was selected to play in the Blue-Gray and North-South all-star games.

He is a member of the Texas A&M Hall of Fame (inducted 1969), the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (1986), the Texas Sports Hall of Fame (1987), and the Senior Bowl Hall of Fame (1990).

Extensively involved in community and charitable causes, Pardee is very active with the American Cancer Society on a local, state, and national level. He also is involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and donates his efforts to the Police Athletic League and the Drug Enforcement Agency.

Born John Perry Pardee on April 19, 1936, he is a native of Exira, Iowa. Pardee was raised in Christoval, Texas where he starred in six-man football. Jack and his wife Phyllis have five children including sons Steven and Ted, and daughters Judee, Anne, and Susan.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHARLIE BAGGETT

Receivers

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Oilers

Born: January 21, 1953

In 1994, Charlie Baggett enters his second season as the Oilers' Receivers Coach having assumed that role on February 26, 1993. Under Baggett's guidance, Houston's "Fab Four" enjoyed another successful season in '93 as three members of the quartet (Webster Slaughter, Ernest Givins, Haywood Jeffires) ranked among the AFC's top 12 receivers. Baggett also oversaw the emergence of young Oiler receivers such as Gary Wellman. Despite the diversified offense planned for 1994, Baggett's corps of WRs should again be a cornerstone of the team.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Baggett spent ten years as an assistant coach at Michigan State, his alma mater. While at MSU, he tutored the receivers from 1983-84, 1986-87, and 1990-92, and coached the running backs in 1985 and 1988-89. Working for Spartan Head Coach George Perles, Baggett had several star pupils including Lorenzo White, Atlanta's Andre Rison, Miami's Mark Ingram, and Tampa Bay's Courtney Hawkins.

From 1981-82, Baggett served as the receivers coach at Minnesota for Head Coach Joe Salem. While at UM, Baggett gained experience in the "Run 'N Shoot" offense which the Gophers used exclusively. He began his coaching career as the offensive backs coach at Bowling Green (1977-80) under former Michigan State Head Coach Denny Stolz.

As a player, Baggett was a star quarterback at Michigan State after spending his freshman year at North Carolina. A Spartan QB from 1972-75, he ended his MSU career as the school's all-time total offense leader. As a senior, Baggett was the team's co-captain and set what was then an MSU single season total offense record (1713 yards). During his career at Michigan State, Baggett was named the team's Most Valuable Player and was also named to several All-Big Ten teams. He had a brief stint with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League before embarking on his coaching career.

The 41-year-old Baggett owns a B.S. degree from Michigan State. A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Baggett has a daughter named Camille (4/1/88) and resides in Houston.

TOM BETTIS

Defensive Backs

29th NFL Season, 4th with Oilers

Born: March 17, 1933

Tom Bettis is in the second season of his second stint as Defensive Backs Coach for the Oilers having previously held that position from 1986-87. A veteran of 28 years as an NFL coach, Bettis brings a wealth of knowledge and experience as a highly respected teacher of defensive backs. Last season, Bettis' charges led the NFL with 26 interceptions and his DBs scored five of Houston's NFL-best six defensive touchdowns. Bettis' talented group includes a mix of young veterans such as Cris Dishman and Bubba McDowell, with a talented group of age 25-or-under players like Marcus Robertson, Steve Jackson, Darryll Lewis, Blaine Bishop, Mike Dumas, and Tony Brown.

Before rejoining the Oilers, Bettis spent the 1991 season as the Defensive Backs Coach for John Robinson's Los Angeles Rams. Prior to that, he served in the same capacity for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1989-90. While with the Eagles, Bettis worked for former Oiler Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan who was then Philadelphia's head coach. In Bettis' first season in Philly, the Eagles led the NFL in interceptions while jumping 16 spots from the previous season in their league ranking for yards allowed.

Bettis spent the 1988 campaign in his second tour of duty as the defensive backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. He had returned to K.C. following his two seasons as DB coach for the Oilers. In Bettis' initial Houston season of 1986, the Oilers ranked second in the AFC in fewest passing yards permitted while allowing opposing quarterbacks to complete just 46.5% of their passes. In 1985, Bettis held the post of defensive coordinator/secondary coach for the Cleveland Browns.

From 1978-84, Bettis was the defensive coordinator for the St. Louis Cardinals while also handling the secondary in his final three seasons there. In 1966, he joined Hank Stram's Chiefs staff and remained in Kansas City through the 1977 season. Serving as both defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach, Bettis' troops led their league or conference in interceptions from 1966-70 and in 1974. During his first tenure in K.C., the Chiefs appeared in a pair of Super Bowls (I, IV). Bettis was the Chiefs' interim head coach for the final seven games of the '77 season following the departure of Paul Wiggin. Bettis' non-playing career began when he served as a Chicago Bears' scout from 1964-65.

A native of Chicago, Bettis was a three-time All-Big Ten and two-time All-America selection (1953-54) at linebacker and guard at Purdue. He finished fourth in balloting for the 1954 Heisman Trophy and co-captained the 1955 College All-Stars. Bettis was Green Bay's first round draft choice in 1955 and he played linebacker for the Packers through 1961 (NFL champions that season). He was later traded to Pittsburgh and played for the Steelers in 1962 before finishing his playing career with the World Champion Bears in 1963.

Tom and his wife Valerie (6/4/55) have three grown daughters, Lisa, Karen, and Krista, plus six grandsons and twin granddaughters. The Bettis' live in Pearland, Texas.

FRANK BUSH

Quality Control

8th NFL Season, 8th with Oilers

Born: January 10, 1963

In 1994, Frank Bush's duties will again include quality control while also assisting the defensive positional coaches. Bush's involvement with quality control will include "breaking down" film of Oiler opponents and compiling coaching reports on their offensive/defensive tendencies. In 1992, Bush's first as an assistant coach, he was responsible for the team's linebackers. Under Bush's tutelage, several members of his LB corps had outstanding seasons. Al Smith earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors while Eddie Robinson was a productive contributor as a rookie. Bush was named a Houston assistant coach on May 15, 1992 after serving as the Oilers' college scout for the western states since July 1, 1987.

Bush, considered one of the most talented young players in the NFL, was an Oiler linebacker from 1985-86. He saw his playing career end in 1986 due to an irregularly narrow spinal canal. The 31-year-old Bush suffered a cervical sprain against Kansas City on September 21, 1986 and doctors then diagnosed the condition that forced him to retire.

In his rookie season of 1985, Bush played in all 16 games with 11 starts and contributed 114 tackles and four quarterback sacks. For his efforts, he was selected to UPI's First Team All-NFL Rookie squad. Bush opened the '86 season as the club's starting right outside linebacker. He was a fifth round draft choice of the Oilers in 1985 out of North Carolina State. As a three-year starter for the Wolfpack, Bush compiled 247 tackles, 15 sacks, and four interceptions. Bush earlier starred at Clarke Central High School in his hometown of Athens, Georgia.

Born January 10, 1963, Frank and his wife Stephanie live in Houston.

DICK COURY

Offensive Coordinator

18th NFL Season, 1st with Oilers

Born: September 29, 1929

Dick Coury joined the Oilers as Offensive Coordinator last February 8. His main mission will be to help Assistant Head Coach/Offense Kevin Gilbride diversify the Oilers' "Run 'N Shoot." As part of that expansion of the team's offense, Coury will be responsible for indoctrinating the use of a tight end into Houston's attack. Coury will also assist Gilbride with the implementation of additional offensive formations. Coury joins an offense that has been one of the most successful in the NFL over the past four seasons. In each of those campaigns, Houston has ranked among the league's top three in total offense. In three of those four years, the Oilers have boasted the NFL's #1 passing attack.

A veteran NFL coach, Coury brings a wealth of solid experience to Houston. He came to the Oilers after spending the 1993 season coaching tight ends for the Minnesota Vikings. From 1991-92, Coury was the Offensive Coordinator for the New England Patriots after spending 1986-90 coaching quarterbacks for the Los Angeles Rams. While with the Rams, Coury tutored QB Jim Everett who enjoyed his most productive seasons under Coury. While Coury was with the Rams, Everett twice led the league in touchdown passes while also becoming the first quarterback in Rams' annals to throw for over 4000 yards.

Coury was a head coach in all three years of the United States Football League's existence as the boss of the Breakers. That franchise spent 1983 in Boston before relocating to New Orleans in 1984 and to Portland in '85. He was named USFL Coach of the Year in 1983. His Breaker teams competed against current Oiler Head Coach Jack Pardee's Houston Gambler clubs. Coury got the opportunity to be a USFL head coach after spending six seasons (1976-81) as Wide Receivers Coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Head Coach Dick Vermeil. The '81 Eagles squad advanced to the Super Bowl. In 1975, Coury was the Linebackers Coach for the San Diego Chargers.

Coury got his first professional head coaching post in 1974 when he served as Head Coach/President of Operations for the Portland Storm of the World Football League. Ironically, Pardee got his first pro head coaching spot the same year for the WFL's Florida Blazers. Coury went to the Storm after tutoring wide receivers for the Denver Broncos from 1972-73.

From 1970-71, Coury was the Head Coach for Cal State Fullerton's new program, leading the Titans to a pair of winning records and a bowl appearance. Prior to assuming that job, Coury was John McKay's Defensive Coordinator at USC from 1967-69 as the Trojans earned a Rose Bowl berth in each of those seasons and captured the national championship in '67. Coury began his coaching career as the head coach at Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, California where he posted a nine-year record of 96-9-3. Heisman Trophy winning QB John Huarte (Notre Dame, 1964) was one of Coury's players at Mater Dei.

As a player, Coury was a quarterback at Notre Dame, earning his degree in 1951. He is a native of Athens, Ohio. Dick and his wife Bonnie have seven children including sons Mike (40), Rick (38), Steve (37), Rob (35), and Tim (30), and daughters Catherine (34) and Linda (32).

JEFF FISHER

Defensive Coordinator

9th NFL Season, 1st with Oilers

Born: February 25, 1958

Jeff Fisher became the Oilers' Defensive Coordinator last February 9 after spending the previous two seasons as the Defensive Backs Coach for the San Francisco 49ers. Fisher's hiring was a perfect fit for the Oilers who were looking for a young, aggressive coach who had experience in the "46" defense. Fisher had worked with the "46" for several years with former Houston Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan.

Fisher takes over a defense that achieved dominant status in 1993 but has since lost several key components to free agency. Last season, the Oilers led the NFL in sacks (52), interceptions (26), run defense (79.6 yards per game), opponent third down efficiency (30.8%), and defensive touchdowns (6). Houston's 43 takeaways ranked second in the league behind Buffalo's 47. Fisher's challenge lies in the ability to mix in the necessary new players with the returning veterans while still maintaining a high level of performance.

Prior to working for San Francisco, the 36-year-old Fisher served as Defensive Coordinator for the Rams for the 1991 season. From 1986-90, he was an assistant coach for Ryan with the Eagles, holding the title of Defensive Backs Coach from 1986-88 before becoming the NFL's youngest Defensive Coordinator. In 1989, under Fisher's tutelage, the Eagle "D" ranked first in the NFL in interceptions (30) and sacks (62). The following season, Philly's defense paced the league in rushing defense and ranked second in sacks.

From 1981-85, Fisher was a cornerback for the Chicago Bears after being a seventh round draft choice from USC. He missed the Bears' '85 Super Bowl season, spending the year on injured reserve with an ankle injury that prematurely ended his playing career. During that season, Fisher assisted Ryan as an "unofficial" coach as the Bears ultimately defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XX. Overall, Fisher played in 49 games for the Bears and had five interceptions while also returning punts and kickoffs. He remains the Bears' all-time leader in punt return yards-season (509, 1981); punt returns-season (58, 1984); and punt returns-game (8, 12/16/84). Fisher's 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in 1981 (9/20/81 vs. Buccaneers) was the longest PR by a Bear in 39 years.

As a collegian, Fisher played for John Robinson in a star-studded defensive backfield that included Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith, and Joey Browner. Current Oiler center Bruce Matthews was also one of Fisher's USC teammates. Fisher's career statistics included five interceptions and 108 tackles. He also served as the Trojans' backup placekicker and was a PAC-10 All-Academic selection in 1980.

Fisher, a native of Culver City, California, was a high school All-America wide receiver at Woodland Hills (Cal.) H.S. Jeff and his wife Juli have three children including sons Brandon (6/19/87) and Trenton (6/19/92), and daughter Tara (1/27/89).

KEVIN GILBRIDE

Assistant Head Coach/ Offense

6th NFL Season, 6th with Oilers

Born: August 27, 1951

This past February 8, Kevin Gilbride was promoted from Offensive Coordinator to Assistant Head Coach/Offense. Even with his promotion, Gilbride will continue to oversee the Oilers' offense as they diversify from an exclusive Run 'N Shoot attack. In his five seasons with Houston, Gilbride has established himself as one of the top offensive minds in the National Football League. That claim is backed up by statistics: the Oilers ranked #1 in the NFL in passing yards from 1990-92 and were third in '93; for the fourth straight season, Houston was among the league's top three in total offense (first in 1990, second in 1991, third in 1992-93); the Oilers have scored more points over the last four years than 26 of the NFL's other 27 clubs; and from 1990-93, the Oilers ranked in the NFL's top five in both third down efficiency and first downs per game. Gilbride served as offensive coordinator since January 30, 1990 after being the Oilers' quarterbacks coach for the 1989 season.

Before arriving in Houston, Gilbride coached at East Carolina University where he served as Offensive Coordinator in 1988 after being the Pirates' Passing Game Coordinator in 1987. In '88, utilizing the four-wide receiver offense, the Pirates averaged 390.5 yards and over 26 points per game playing a schedule that included six bowl teams (West Virginia, Miami, Florida State, Syracuse, South Carolina, Southern Mississippi).

Prior to joining East Carolina, Gilbride was slated to be the Offensive Coordinator for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League for the '87 campaign, but the club folded prior to the season. From 1985-86, Gilbride coached the four-wide receiver offense for the CFL's Ottawa Roughriders, serving as Quarterbacks/Receivers Coach in '85 before being elevated to Offensive Coordinator. From 1980-84, he was the Head Coach at Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven where the Owls posted a 35-14-2 mark during his tenure. During that span, SCSU was twice nationally ranked in NCAA Division II. While at Southern Connecticut, Gilbride was named Division II (ECAC region) Coach of the Year (1982), New England Coach of the Year (1983), and Walter Camp Division II Coach of the Year (1983).

Before joining SCSU, Gilbride served as Defensive Coordinator at American International University in Springfield, Mass. from 1978-79, and as Defensive Coordinator at Tufts University from 1976-77. Gilbride began his college coaching career at Idaho State where he was Defensive Ends Coach in 1974 and Secondary Coach in '75.

In 1992, Gilbride's courage captivated the football public. When a routine insurance physical revealed a cancerous kidney, Gilbride was required to immediately have the kidney surgically removed (12/11/92). Despite medical projections that said he would be "out of action" for three-six weeks, Gilbride courageously fought his way back to the team, missing just two games before his return to the Oiler sidelines.

Gilbride earned a bachelor's degree from Southern Connecticut where he played quarterback and tight end as a three-year starter. A native of North Haven, Connecticut, Gilbride also has a master's degree from Idaho State. Kevin and his wife Deborah (1/4/75) live in Missouri City, Texas with their two daughters, Kelly (9/17/75) and Kristen (6/19/77), and son Kevin (12/14/79).

FRANK NOVAK

Special Teams/ Running Backs

6th NFL Season, 6th with Oilers

Born: May 18, 1938

This past February 23, Frank Novak was named as the Oilers' Special Teams/Running Backs Coach after serving as the club's Running Backs Coach for the previous five seasons. Novak inherited special teams duty from Gregg Williams who is now coaching the Oiler linebackers. One of the most popular coaches to ever work for the Oilers, Novak and Assistant Head Coach Kevin Gilbride are the two senior members of Houston's coaching staff.

Special teams-wise, Novak takes over a unit that has finished first and sixth in the NFL in kickoff coverage, and has had the NFL's top punting game in each of the past two seasons. As far as the running game, the Oilers have rated among the league's top five in average gain per rush in both 1992 and 1993. Novak has tutored 1000-yard rushers the past two seasons with Lorenzo White running for 1226 yards and a Pro Bowl berth in '92 and Gary Brown exploding onto the scene with 1002 yards in just eight games last year.

The 56-year-old Novak came to Houston from the University of Missouri where he spent the 1988 season as the Tigers' Running Backs Coach. In 1986, he was the Quarterbacks Coach at the University of Massachusetts. He accepted the position at UMass after the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League folded. Novak was slated to be the Stallions' Offensive Coordinator in 1986 after serving as their Receivers Coach in '85. Novak spent the 1984 campaign as the Running Backs Coach for the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws under Head Coach Woody Widenhofer whom he would later work for at Missouri.

Prior to joining the USFL, Novak served six seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross (1978-83). He was the Crusaders' Offensive Backs Coach from 1978-81 before being elevated to Offensive Coordinator. From 1976-77, he was the Offensive Coordinator at Western Illinois after spending the 1974-75 seasons at the University of Virginia (Quarterback Coach in '74, Offensive Backfield Coach in '75).

In 1973, Novak was hired to be the Offensive Coordinator at East Carolina as the Pirates won the Southern Conference championship that season. He began his college coaching career in 1966 at his alma mater, Northern Michigan. At NMU, he was the Offensive Backs/Receivers Coach from 1966-70 before being promoted to Offensive Coordinator (1971-72). Prior to that, Novak was a high school coach in New London, Connecticut and in Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Novak was an AP Honorable Mention All-America quarterback at Northern Michigan where he received both his bachelor's and master's degrees. A native of Leominster, Massachusetts, Frank and his wife Ellen (3/23/81) have one son, Jason, and live in Missouri City, Texas. Frank also has four grown children who live in the New England area including son Frank Jr. and daughters Kimberly, Tracy, and Linda.

JIM STANLEY

Defensive Line

11th NFL Season, 6th with Oilers

Born: June 22, 1934

The play of Jim Stanley's defensive line was a primary reason for the success of the Oilers in 1992. Houston established a team record with an NFL-best 52 sacks (after posting 50 in 1992). In addition, the Oilers led the league in run defense, permitting just 79.6 yards per game. Houston has not allowed a 100-yard rusher in 24 games, the best current streak in the league. Stanley and his charges will face a challenge in 1994...two of his stalwarts, William Fuller and Sean Jones, were lost to free agency. With an anchor of Pro Bowlers Ray Childress and Lee Williams, plus rising star Glenn Montgomery. Stanley will rely on his veteran coaching skills to form another top-notch unit for the Oilers. Stanley is hoping for immediate help from the club's top two draft choices, DEs Henry Ford and Jeremy Nunley.

Stanley is currently in his 11th season of NFL coaching and owns more league coaching experience than anyone else on the Houston staff except for Tom Bettis and Dick Coury. Stanley joined the Oilers full-time in his current role in January, 1990 after spending half of the '89 campaign with the club when former Defensive Line Coach Doug Shively underwent minor heart surgery. Stanley continued as a "special assistant" until December of that year following Shively's return.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as the Defensive Coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986. Prior to that, he was the Head Coach for the Michigan Panthers of the United States Football League from 1983-84, compiling a 22-14 record during that span. In 1983, his Panthers posted a 12-6 record as the team won the inaugural USFL championship and Stanley earned Coach of the Year honors. That squad featured such current NFL stars as WR Anthony Carter and QB Bobby Hebert. From 1980-82, he was the Defensive Line Coach for the Atlanta Falcons as that '80 team recorded a 12-4 mark. Stanley served in that same capacity for the New York Giants in 1979.

Stanley was the Head Coach at Oklahoma State for six years (1973-78), posting a 35-33-2 mark during that term. His teams earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and 1976 (Tangerine), and his '76 squad was the Big Eight co-champions (9-3). While holding that post, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977). Before being elevated to head coach, he was the Cowboys' Defensive Coordinator/Assistant Head Coach for the 1972 campaign. Prior to arriving at OSU, Stanley was the Defensive Coordinator for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (1971-72). He also worked as the Defensive Coordinator at Navy (1969-70) and Oklahoma State (1963-68). His first two college positions came as an assistant coach at SMU (1961) and at Texas El Paso (1962). Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo high school system from 1959-60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under Paul "Bear" Bryant. While playing both ways for the Aggies (guard and defensive tackle), one of his teammates was Oiler Head Coach Jack Pardee. A&M's 1956 squad was undefeated and Stanley earned All-Southwest Conference honors.

Born June 22, 1934 in Dunham, Kentucky, Jim and his wife Sylvia have four grown children including daughters Rhonda (10/19/57) and Starlyn (6/14/62), plus sons Mark (2/12/60) and Matthew (10/19/67). The Stanleys reside in Pearland, Texas.

STEVE WATTERSON

Strength and Rehabilitation

11th NFL Season, 9th with Oilers

Born: November 27, 1956

Steve Watterson is recognized as one of the top strength and rehabilitation experts in the NFL. In 1992, Watterson received the biggest honor of his career when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Watterson has been instrumental in helping to develop and implement various strength and conditioning programs with the Oilers. He directs the Oilers' successful off-season conditioning program that is widely credited with helping towards Houston's ascent to perennial playoff status. Watterson joined the Oilers in 1986 as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator before becoming an assistant coach in those areas prior to the 1988 season.

Before coming to the Oilers, Watterson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the assistant trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles. From 1979-80, he served as the Head Trainer at Tucson (Ariz.) High School before accepting a similar post at Amphitheater High School in Tucson (1980-84). Watterson's other activities have included serving as a trainer at the 1982 Olympic Development Camp and at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs in 1983. Following the 1990 season, Watterson received national attention when he personally supervised the rehabilitation of auto racing superstar A.J. Foyt. Foyt was able to come back from severe leg injuries to race in the 1991 Indianapolis 500.

Watterson has patents pending on shoulder and leg rehabilitation devices and on a leg measuring device through his company, Kelsea Plus Corp. He received his bachelor's degree from Rhode Island and his master's degree from Arizona.

A native of Newport, Rhode Island, Steve and his wife Kathryn (7/2/94) reside in Sugar Land, Texas with daughter Kelsea (9/27/88).

GREGG WILLIAMS

Linebackers

5th NFL Season, 5th with Oilers

Born: July 15, 1958

In 1994, Gregg Williams will face his third different coaching assignment in the last three seasons. But if anyone can rise to that challenge, it's the 36-year-old Williams.

This season, he assumes control of the Oilers' linebackers after spending the '93 campaign as the team's special teams coach. In his one year of handling that responsibility, Williams' unit showed a renewed aggressiveness that quickly earned respect around the league. The Oilers had the top-rated punting game, were third in field goal percentage, and rated sixth in kickoff return defense. In taking over the linebackers, Williams will have plenty of young talent to call upon including Eddie Robinson, Joe Bowden, and Micheal Barrow, as well as Pro Bowler Al Smith.

From 1990-92, Williams served as the club's quality control coordinator. In that role, he was responsible for "breaking down" film of Oiler opponents and compiling coaching reports on their offensive/defensive tendencies. In addition, Williams has previously assisted in the coaching of the Oilers' defensive backs, has set up the "scout" teams for Oiler practice sessions, and has helped the defensive coaching staff on game day.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Williams spent the 1988-89 seasons as a graduate assistant (worked with linebackers) at the University of Houston for current Oiler Head Coach Jack Pardee. From 1984-87, Williams was the head coach at Belton (Mo.) High School after spending the 1980-83 campaigns as an assistant coach at Excelsior Springs (Mo.) High School.

A native of Excelsior Springs, Missouri, Williams played football (quarterback) and baseball at Northeast Missouri State where he received his B.S. degree. He later earned his master's in education from Central Missouri State. Gregg and his wife Leigh Ann (8/5/78) have two sons, Blake (12/30/84) and Chase (10/16/91), and a daughter Amy (3/12/90). The family resides in Katy, Texas.

BOB YOUNG

Offensive Line

5th NFL Season, 5th with Oilers

Born: September 3, 1942

Bob Young has perhaps the toughest job of any Oiler assistant coach. Young oversees a group that must protect the quarterback. Considering that in each of Young's five Houston seasons, the Oilers have attempted more passes than any other NFL team, it is clear why Houston's offensive success begins with its offensive line. And that line has allowed the Oilers to lead the NFL in passing in three of the last four years, and to rank among the league's top three offenses in each of the past four seasons. Young's line has also keyed a running attack that has ranked among the NFL's top four in average gain per rush in both 1992 and '93. Led by perennial Pro Bowler Bruce Matthews, Young's "O-line" features a solid mix of veterans and youth that displays the promise of another successful season.

Young came to the Oilers after spending five seasons as an assistant under current Houston Head Coach Jack Pardee. From 1987-89, Young was the Offensive Line Coach for the University of Houston as the Cougars posted records of 4-6-1, 9-2, and 9-2. In 1989, Young's line blocked for Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware as the Cougars set over 100 NCAA/Southwest Conference records for the second year in a row. UH led the nation in per game averages for total yards (624.9), passing yards (511.3), and scoring (53.5).

Before coaching for the Cougars, Young served as the Offensive Line/Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Houston Gamblers of the United States Football League from 1984-85. During his two Gambler seasons, the team twice led the league in total offense and scoring. In '84, the team posted a 13-5 mark and won a division title.

Young enjoyed an outstanding 16-year professional playing career, primarily as a guard. He played for the Denver Broncos of the then-American Football League from 1966-70 before being traded to the Oilers prior to the '71 campaign. After being acquired on waivers by St. Louis in September, 1972, Young launched a nine-year Cardinal career. During that time, he twice earned All-Pro honors while being part of the offensive line that set the NFC record for fewest QB sacks allowed in a season (7). Young returned to the Oilers in 1980 before closing out his playing career with New Orleans in '81.

Young began his college career at Texas under Head Coach Darrell Royal, earning All-Southwest Conference honors before transferring to Howard Payne. He holds a B.S. from Southwest Texas State and a master's from Sam Houston State.

Born September 3, 1942 in Marshall, Texas, Bob resides in Missouri City, Texas with his wife, Mickey (2/7/90) who is a doctor. Bob also has three grown children including daughters Kathy (28) and Jill (26), and son West (24).

PRO PERSONNEL

RICH SNEAD

Director of Pro Personnel

7th NFL Season, 1st with Oilers

Born: November 6, 1955

This past June 27, Rich Snead joined the Oilers in the newly-created position of Director of Pro Personnel. Snead's responsibilities will include the evaluation and grading of league personnel, researching free agents, and monitoring waiver and possible trade transactions.

Snead came to the Oilers after spending four seasons (1990-93) as a pro football scout for the Los Angeles Raiders. Prior to his stint with the Raiders, Snead worked as a scout for the San Diego Chargers from 1988-89. He began his pro career in the United States Football League (USFL), serving as Director of Player Personnel for the Los Angeles Express from 1984-86 after spending the '83 season as a scout for the Oklahoma Outlaws.

Snead's coaching experience includes a stint as wide receivers and quarterbacks coach at Santa Ana College from 1979-82. He earned his degree in physical education from Long Beach State University.

A native of San Gabriel, California, Rich and his wife M'Lissa have one son, Bill (18).

COLLEGE SCOUTING

RAY BIGGS

College Scout

1st NFL Season, 1st with Oilers

Born: October 12, 1946

In his first season with the club, Ray Biggs will be responsible for scouting the west coast for the Oilers. Biggs joined the team this past June 28 after spending five years (1989-93) as a northwest area scout for National Football Scouting, Inc.

Prior to his scouting work, Biggs embarked on a successful coaching career, starting as an assistant at Walla Walla Community College (1969-71). In 1972, he began work on his master's degree at Colorado State and was a graduate assistant with the football program. From 1976-82, he was the assistant head coach and coordinated recruiting at Mesa State College before moving to Yakima Valley College (1983-89) in a similar role.

A native of Walla Walla, Washington, Biggs played two years at defensive tackle at Montana State where he earned a B.S. in business management. He received his master's degree in college student personnel administration from Colorado State in 1975.

Born October 12, 1946, Ray and his wife Lynn (6/10/72) have two sons, Dave (16) and Chris (13). The family resides in Selah, Washington.

C.O. BROCATO

College Scout

17th NFL Season, 17th with Oilers

Born: October 31, 1929

C.O. Brocato joined the Oilers in 1981 for his second tour of duty with the club as a scout. He is responsible for researching all college talent in the central United States. Brocato was recently selected as one of the top ten scouts in the NFL in a newspaper poll of league general managers.

Following his graduation from Baylor University, Brocato coached in the high school ranks as Head Coach at Jesuit High School in Shreveport, Louisiana. In 1968, he assumed the title of Defensive Coordinator at Northern Arizona, remaining at the Flagstaff school for three seasons. From 1971-74, he held a similar post at Texas-Arlington before joining the Oilers in a scouting capacity from 1974-76. From 1977 until rejoining the Oilers, Brocato served as a scout for the United Scouting Combine.

Born October 31, 1929, C.O. and his wife Lucy have one daughter, Becky. The family resides in Arlington, Texas.

GLENN CUMBEE

College Scout

9th NFL Season, 9th with Oilers

Born: September 2, 1948

The man responsible for scouting the southeast and midwest regions for Houston is ninth-year Oiler scout Glenn Cumbee.

As a collegian, Cumbee attended Baptist College and the University of South Carolina. He then embarked on a successful high school coaching career in South Carolina, first serving as Head Coach at Paul Knox High School in North Augusta (1970-71) before moving to Ridge Spring-Monetta High School from 1972-73. In 1974, Cumbee began a stint as Defensive Coordinator at Newberry (S.C.) College, remaining there until 1978. He coached the linebackers at East Tennessee State in 1979 before entering private business for two years. In 1982, Cumbee joined the National Scouting Combine before accepting his current position with the Oilers.

Born September 2, 1948, Glenn and his wife Susan have a daughter, Meredith (6/25/79), and reside in Newberry, South Carolina.

DUB FESPERMAN

College Scout

14th NFL Season, 14th with Oilers

Born: December 21, 1933

The responsibilities of scouting the east coast for the Oilers belongs to Dub Fesperman. The 60-year-old Fesperman joined the Oilers in 1981 after a successful college coaching and scouting career.

A graduate of Duke University where he played both football and baseball, Fesperman began his career as a coach in the North Carolina school system from 1957-1960. After that, he accepted a position as Defensive Line Coach at Wake Forest, spending three years working for the Demon Deacons. From 1964-66, Fesperman served in the same capacity at Tulane (Asst. Head Coach in '66) before joining Bobby Dodd's staff at Georgia Tech (1967-68.). In 1969, Fesperman became the Defensive Coordinator at Massachusetts before accepting a similar post at Dartmouth (1972-74). Fesperman joined the CEPO Scouting Combine in 1975 (later merged with United States Scouting Service) before coming to the Oilers.

Born December 21, 1933, Dub and his wife Marie have two grown daughters, Anne and Sandra. The family resides in Pinehurst, North Carolina.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

STEVE UNDERWOOD Vice-President/ General Counsel

On March 6, 1992, Steve Underwood joined the Oilers in the newly-created position of Vice-President/General Counsel. In his post, Underwood handles a myriad of legal functions including involvement in player contracts, promotional and corporate contracts, and litigation. He also serves as General Counsel for KSA Industries which is K.S. Adams Jr.'s private holding company.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Underwood was an attorney for the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst since 1977. For his entire tenure there, Underwood served as the Oilers' primary counsel. Caldwell and Hurst had handled the Oilers' legal affairs since the team's 1960 inception. While at Caldwell and Hurst, Underwood was also very involved with legal issues in the fields of oil and gas, credit unions, and automobile dealerships.

From 1981-85, Underwood also served as a part-time business law/real estate instructor at San Jacinto Junior College. He also worked in that same capacity at Baytown's Lee College from 1980-81. Underwood is a member of the Houston Bar Association, is a licensed attorney in the U.S. Federal Court system, and is a member of the Entertainment and Sports Law Section of the State Bar of Texas. He has also been a frequent lecturer on sports law. Underwood was issued a special citation in 1990 by a student society at Texas Southern University's College of Law for his "educational contribution to the college."

A native of Baytown, Texas, Underwood received his B.S. degree from the University of Texas and his law degree from the University of Houston. From 1974-76, while a law student at UH, he was a legislative aide in the Texas State Legislature.

Steve has three children including daughters Christy (4/6/74) and Melissa (1/11/80), and son Dennis (12/12/91). Steve and his wife Frances reside in Rosharon, Texas.

DON MacLACHLAN Senior Vice-President/ Marketing and Broadcasting

On February 1, 1991, the Oilers named Don MacLachlan as the team's Vice-President/Marketing and Broadcasting. He was promoted to Senior-Vice President on September 2, 1993. MacLachlan joined the Oilers from Northwestern University where he served as Associate Athletic Director for Public Affairs.

In his present position, MacLachlan is responsible for overseeing the daily operations of the Oilers' marketing, broadcasting, ticket office, and public relations departments as well as overseeing all aspects of game day operations and presentation at Oiler home games. In addition to working closely in continuing the Oilers' marketing efforts, MacLachlan is also very involved as a primary liaison between the Oilers and KTRH (radio contact) and Raycom (pre-season TV, weekly shows).

At Northwestern, MacLachlan was responsible for coordinating and negotiating all radio and TV contracts, preparing sales proposals while securing corporate sponsorships, coordinating game management, preparing revenue projections, and developing the Wildcats' marketing plan.

Prior to his promotion to Associate Athletic Director in 1988, MacLachlan served from 1985-88 as NU's Assistant Athletic Director. In that role, he supervised Northwestern's ticket office, sports information office, and sales and promotions. From 1981-85, MacLachlan was the Wildcats' Athletic Ticket Manager, handling all phases of the school's ticket operations including distribution, advertising, sales, accounting, and printing. He joined Northwestern in 1978 as their Assistant Sports Information Director and also assumed the duties of Head Men's Golf Coach the following year.

The 38-year-old MacLachlan is a native of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan and is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He and his wife Kathy have two daughters, Shannon (3/12/89) and Kelly (10/8/93). The family resides in Sugar Land, Texas.

LEWIS MANGUM Director of Business Operations

In February of 1989, Lewis Mangum returned to the Oilers with the title of Executive Administrator. On March 26, 1990, he was named Director of Business Operations. In that position, Mangum is responsible for training camp, team travel, company purchasing, day-to-day administration of Sky Box Management, and serves as a liaison with Astrodome USA.

The 57-year-old Mangum previously had over 23 years of experience working for the Oilers and also for Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s Ada Oil Company. From 1961-65, Mangum was an Accounting Supervisor for Ada before moving over to the Oilers in '66. While serving as Business Manager, he left the Oilers in 1983 after having also served the club as an accountant, controller, and Director of Ticket Operations.

From 1983-85, Mangum was the Director of Operations for the Houston Gamblers of the United States Football League. After working for the Gamblers, he joined the Greater Houston Orthopedic Center as Manager of Business Affairs, a position he held until rejoining the Oilers.

Mangum, a native of Kosciusko, Mississippi, attended the University of Mississippi before graduating from the University of Houston. Lewis and his wife LaVerne have twin daughters, Lucy and Laura, and a son, Larry. The Mangums live in Pearland, Texas.

DAVE PEARSON

Director of Media Relations and Services

Dave Pearson is currently in his first season as Director of Media Relations and Services for the Oilers. He rejoins the club after spending the last two seasons as the Assistant Director of Public Relations with the Los Angeles Rams (1992-93). Pearson was previously with the Oilers from 1990-91, serving as an intern in media services.

Prior to his first stint with the Oilers, Pearson worked as an intern with the Seattle Seahawks from 1989-90.

With the Oilers, Pearson is responsible for coordinating all football related media coverage for the team. Pearson is the liaison between the local/national media and the Oiler players and coaches. He also writes the team's press releases, compiles statistics, and works in conjunction with the TV networks in the televising of Oiler games.

A native of Tacoma, Washington, Pearson earned a B.A. in communications from Pacific Lutheran University in 1989 after transferring from Whitworth College (Spokane, WA).

Dave and his wife Elizabeth (5/30/92) are expecting their first child this winter.

ROD ST. CLAIR

Director of Public and Community Relations

This past June 28, Rod St. Clair was named to the newly-created position of Director of Public and Community Relations. In that position, St. Clair is responsible for establishing a community relations program through work with the front office, players, and coaches. In addition, he will be the point man for media inquiries on all non-football related stories. St. Clair will also be involved with the NFL player program geared toward post-football career development.

The 34-year old St. Clair comes to the Oilers from the Indianapolis Colts where he was the Assistant Director of Public Relations since 1990. In addition to assisting in the media relations area, St. Clair served as the Colts' GameDay editor, as well as player appearance representative and handling all community relations aspects for the team. Prior to joining the Colts, St. Clair was an assistant in the Promotions and Public Relations Department of the Los Angeles Clippers of the National Basketball Association (1987-89).

A graduate of Ohio University with both a B.S. degree in journalism and a master's in sports administration, St. Clair began his career as a sports and news reporter for WOUB radio and television in Athens, Ohio, followed by stints at Elmhurst (Illinois) College, California Polytechnic State University in Pomona, and Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, California.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Rod and his wife Suzanne (9/25/92) have two children, stepson Michael (1/16/84) and daughter Chelsea (5/4/94).

JACKIE CURLEY

Controller

During this past off-season, Jackie Curley was named as the Oilers' Controller. She assumed that position after serving as Tax Manager for K.S. "Bud" Adams' KSA Industries since 1989. Curley's responsibilities include supervising the Oilers' accounting department, maintaining a system of internal accounting controls, and assisting in salary cap accounting.

Prior to joining KSA Industries, Curley worked from 1985-89 for the Houston accounting firm of Coopers and Lybrand.

A graduate of the University of Denver, Curley also earned an MBA from Rice University. A native of Annapolis, Maryland, she is single and resides in Houston.

MARILAN LOGAN

Director of Accounting Services

Marilan Logan serves as the Oilers' Director of Accounting Services. Logan's responsibilities include accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records, and aiding club management with special projects. She was previously the Controller for KSA Industries (the Oilers' parent company) from 1978-84 and for the Oilers from 1982-90.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Logan was in the cost accounting department for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband Ricky reside in Kingwood, Texas with their three children, Sandy (5/31/70), Jeff (9/10/75), and Roy (12/11/80).

MIKE MULLIS

Director of Ticket Administration and Services

Mike Mullis joined the Oilers' organization in June, 1987 as the team's Ticket Manager. In March, 1990, he assumed his current title of Director of Ticket Administration and Services. In that position, he is responsible for overseeing season and single game ticket sales. Additionally, he supervises the Oilers' telemarketing efforts and the team gift shop.

Mullis came to the Oilers from the University of Houston where he had worked since 1976. From 1976-84, he served as the Cougars' Ticket Manager before being promoted to Assistant Athletic Director/Business Affairs. In December, 1986, Mullis assumed the position of Assistant A.D./Ticket Promotions and Operations at UH before being hired by the Oilers. From 1972-75, Mullis served as the Ticket Manager for the Houston Aeros of the World Hockey Association.

A Houston native (Lamar High School) and a graduate of the University of Houston, Mike and his wife Joella live in Missouri City, Texas with sons Michael (2/7/75) and Matthew (2/20/84).

RALPH STOLARSKI Assistant Ticket Manager

Ralph Stolarski came to the Oilers in June, 1987 to serve in the capacity of Assistant Ticket Manager. He assists Mike Mullis in the day-to-day operation of the ticket office.

Prior to his hiring by the Oilers, Stolarski was from 1980-87 the Assistant Ticket Manager for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, annually one of the biggest events in the Houston area. For ten years, he worked for the Houston Sports Association, serving as the Astrodome's Assistant Ticket Manager from 1970-75 before being promoted to Ticket Manager (1976-80). Stolarski also worked part-time in tickets for the Astrodome for five years (1965-70) while working in the industrial safety industry.

A native Houstonian, Ralph and his wife Pat reside in Meadows, Texas.

GRADY SESSUMS Director of Security

Grady Sessums, a veteran of 22 years of law enforcement experience, is involved in every phase of security for the Oilers and KSA Industries. Prior to joining the Oilers, Sessums spent 14 years as a member of the Texas Rangers where he attained the rank of Captain in the Department of Public Safety.

Sessums oversees the team's security matters at home and on the road as well as at training camp. He works closely with local, state, and national law enforcement agencies in his current position.

Retired from active service with the Texas Rangers, Sessums holds an instructor's certification from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Education. He attended Southwest Texas State Junior College and Sul Ross State University, serving both as a student and instructor in their law enforcement programs.

A past president and current member of the East Texas Peace Officers' Association, Sessums served in the Marine Corps Reserves from 1954-56, and later in the Air Force from 1956-60. He is a member of the Sheriff's Association of Texas and also serves on the Board of Directors of Crime-Stoppers.

Grady and his wife Sandy have two grown children, Steve and Jana, and reside in Cypress, Texas.

WILLIE ALEXANDER Director of Player Relations

Willie Alexander joined the Oilers in May, 1981 as the team's Career Consultant, an innovative program dealing with players' goals during and after their playing career. His position was expanded to Director of Player Relations in July, 1987.

Alexander was a defensive back for the Oilers from 1971-79, participating in 123 of 130 regular season games. He finished his NFL career with 23 interceptions and his 95-yard touchdown return on a pick-off against Green Bay in 1977 is the second longest in Oilers' history. Alexander was a sixth round draft choice of the Oilers in 1971 after a standout college career at Alcorn A&M.

Alexander has spent the last 21 years in the insurance/financial planning industry in Houston and is also an employee benefits consultant. He heads W.J. Alexander and Associates, a Houston-based company. In his position with the Oilers, he counsels players concerning their outside opportunities for employment in the Houston area. In addition, he encourages players to complete their degree requirements and offers general assistance in adjusting to the NFL and the Houston community.

Alexander is a past president of the Houston Ronald McDonald House and serves on its Board of Directors. In addition, he is on the Board of Directors for the United Negro College Fund, the Greater Houston Partnership, American Red Cross, and Unity National Bank. Willie and his wife Carolyn reside in Houston with their children Michael (5/20/78) and Alexis (3/22/80).

DAVID LANG Director of City, State, and Governmental Affairs

David A. Lang joined KSA Industries and its subsidiary the Houston Oilers in June of 1993 as Assistant to the Chairman of the Board and now serves in the newly created position of Director of City, State, and Governmental Affairs for both companies. In this role he serves as the liaison with local, state, and governmental leaders and entities.

Prior to joining KSA Industries and the Oilers, the 30-year-old Lang served as vice-president for development of the Sigma Chi Foundation in Evanston, Illinois. There he directed record-setting fundraising programs. He also served as Vice-Chairman of the Junior Board for the prestigious Art Institute of Chicago.

Lang, an Eagle Scout, has recently accepted a position as Council Ticket Sales Chairman for the 1994 Sam Houston Area Council, B.S.A. Scout Fair. The Scout Fair, scheduled for December 3, 1994, annually draws more than 85,000 scouts, adult leaders, and visitors and is a major fundraiser for this area's Boy Scouts of America.

Lang grew up in Fort Worth, Texas and is a 1987 graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University (Nacogdoches, Texas), where he was an active student leader and served as Counsel for ETA TAU chapter of Sigma Chi Fraternity. He is an avid triathlete and resides in Houston.

STEVE REESE Director of Computer Services

Steve Reese serves as the Director of Computer Services for the Oilers in addition to serving in a similar role for KSA Industries, the Oilers' parent company. In his role with the Oilers, he is responsible for managing the organization's state-of-the-art computer and telecommunication systems as well as systems planning, analysis, design, and implementation. Additionally, Reese's responsibilities include consulting with other KSA affiliates in the automotive, travel, and ranching industries.

Prior to joining KSA and the Oilers, the 33-year old Reese was a Senior Consultant at Arthur Andersen and Company where he worked in the real estate, environmental, and health care industries. He was a founding member of the Business Systems Consulting Practice in Andersen's Detroit office which provides consulting services to high-growth companies.

A native of Detroit, Reese ran track at Saginaw Valley State College where he earned All-America honors. He received his BBA from the University of Houston. Steve and his wife Darleen (5/1/81) reside in Katy, Texas with sons Steven (9/8/87) and Matthew (12/24/88).

TEAM STAFF

BRAD BROWN Head Trainer

In 1994, Brad Brown enters his eighth season as the Head Trainer for the Oilers. He came to Houston from his former position as Assistant Trainer for the Denver Broncos where he served from 1985 until joining the Oilers. Brown was a member of the Broncos' training staff when the team captured the AFC championship and advanced to Super Bowl XXI against the Giants.

Prior to his appointment in Denver, Brown was the Head Trainer at Fort Hays (Kan.) State University from 1978-85 while also serving as an instructor in the school's Health and Physical Education department. He had been a graduate assistant for the Tigers from 1977-78 after working as a student trainer there from 1974-77. In addition, Brown was employed as a student trainer for the Kansas City Chiefs during their 1975-76 training camps.

A native of Quinter, Kansas, Brown is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He holds both a B.S. and master's degree from Fort Hays. Brad and his wife Kristi have two sons, Kyle (8/16/79) and Joel (7/21/82). The family lives in Sugar Land, Texas

DON MOSELEY Assistant Trainer

Don Moseley joined the Oilers in May, 1987 and serves as the club's assistant trainer. Prior to his arrival in Houston, he had been the Head Trainer at Cameron University in Lawton, Oklahoma since 1985.

Before his stint at Cameron, Moseley was the Head Trainer at Central High School in San Angelo, Texas from 1980-85. Moseley held the same position at Cholla High School in Tucson, Arizona (1979-80) and was also a student trainer at Oklahoma from 1976-77. He is certified by the NATA.

Moseley, who served as an assistant in the Oilers' 1986 training camp, has a B.S. from Oklahoma and a master's degree from Arizona. Don and his wife Kim (6/15/91) reside in Missouri City, Texas with their son Matthew (3/8/93).

DAN MURRAY Equipment Manager

Dan Murray joined the Oilers as the team's Equipment Manager last March. He came to Houston after spending the previous seven years as the Assistant Equipment Manager for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to joining the Eagles, Murray spent two seasons as the Assistant Equipment Manager at the University of Pennsylvania.

The 27-year-old Murray orders all equipment and playing gear for the Oilers as well as maintaining that equipment throughout the season. He also handles the computer inventory of the team's equipment.

A native of Philadelphia, Murray attended Temple University. Dan and his wife Maureen live in Missouri City with their son Dan (4/1/93).

KEN SPARACINO Video Tape Coordinator

A native of Houston, Ken Sparacino became a full time member of the Oilers' organization in March, 1986 as the team's Video Tape Coordinator. His responsibilities include the handling of all taping and production for the Oilers' organization.

Sparacino attended Waltrip High School in Houston, and Stephen F. Austin State University. He worked part-time for the Oilers from 1983-85 in film production and cinematography.

He and his wife Marilyn reside in Houston with son Bobby (6/26/70) and daughter Angela (10/13/72).

1993: Continued long-standing reputation as one of AFC's most exciting and durable receivers...Considering hits taken, again showed amazing durability by starting all 16 games as slot receiver in Oilers' "Run 'N Shoot"...Also saw limited action as outside receiver to utilize speed...Has missed just two games due to injury in eight-year career...Finished season second on club in both catches (68, T-9th AFC) and yards (887, 10th AFC) to go with four TDs...Also rushed six times for 19 yards...Led team in receptions in four games and in receiving yards twice...Due to foot injury to Curtis Duncan, started at outside receiver in loss to Rams (9/26) and recorded only 100-yard effort of season with three catches for 107 yards (35.7 avg.)...In that game, had 80-yard TD snag which tied for second longest reception of career (83 yds. vs. Browns 11/22/87) and was longest by an Oiler in three years (Haywood Jeffires 87 yds. vs. Chiefs 12/16/90)...In 24-14 win over Seattle (11/7), had eight catches for 78 yards (14-yd. TD) to move past Ken Burrough's 6907 into second place on Oilers' all-time receiving yards list...Went over 7000 career receiving yards before leaving game in second quarter with neck strain in 38-3 romp at Cincinnati (11/14)...Had club record streak of 82 consecutive games with a catch (5th longest in NFL) snapped in 27-20 victory at Cleveland (11/21)...With a six-yard second quarter pass from QB Warren Moon, passed Drew Hill (480) to become the Oilers' all-time leading receiver in team's 23-3 besting of Pittsburgh (11/28, 5/86 yds.)...Scored game-winning TD on seven-yard catch in 10-7 Christmas Day game at San Francisco...In playoff loss to Chiefs (1/16/94), caught seven balls for 63 yards including seven-yard TD in fourth quarter.

PRO: The Oilers' all-time leading receiver (506 catches), is considered one of the NFL's best after-the-catch receivers...Ranks second on team's all-time chart for receiving yards (7414) behind Drew Hill's 7477...With 276 career points, is tied with Al Del Greco for ninth on Houston's all-time scoring list and is fifth on the touchdowns chart with 46 (Earl Campbell's 73, Charlie Hennigan's 51, Ken Burrough's 48, Hill's 47)...Entering '94 season, receptions total ranked second in AFC (behind Buffalo's Andre Reed with 586) and ninth in NFL among active receivers...Is the Oilers' all-time leader in playoff receptions (60), receiving yards (774), points (48), and TDs (8)...With Arizona's Gary Clark, is only player in NFL history to catch at least 50 passes in each of first eight seasons...Entered '94 season third among active NFL WRs in consecutive starts with 68 (2nd on Oilers behind Bruce Matthews' 101)...Has 17 career 100-yard games (plus 2 in playoffs) to rank third in club annals (Hennigan's 26, Hill's 24)...Has thus produced a 100-yard game in 15.2% of 132 regular season and playoff games...1992: Started all 16 games as slot receiver in Oilers' "Run 'N Shoot", but also saw limited action as an outside receiver to utilize speed...Earned second Pro Bowl berth by catching 67 passes (6th AFC, 3rd on team) for 787 yards (9th AFC, 3rd on team)...Also averaged 10.7 on seven reverses for 75 yards...Had career-best ten touchdown snags which was most by any receiver in AFC (3rd NFL)...Marked first time since 1988 that an Oiler had produced double-digit TD receptions (Drew Hill's 10)...Was one of four Oilers (also Haywood Jeffires, Curtis Duncan, Lorenzo White) to rank among AFC's top ten receivers...Actually was tied with Curtis Duncan in Pro Bowl voting for final AFC receiver spot but NFL decided both would go, thus giving one team three WRs for first time in Pro Bowl history...By exceeding 50 receptions, set club record for most seasons with 50+ catches (7, now has 8)...In individual games, led team in receiving yards four times...In 29-24 opening day loss to Steelers (9/6), had pair of touchdown catches to move past Bill Groman (32) into fourth place on Oilers' all-time TD reception list...Got fourth multi-TD game of regular season career (plus 3 in playoffs) with two in 38-24 win at Cincinnati (10/11)...Led team with eight catches for 79 yards and a score while going over 6000 career receiving yards in 27-21 loss at Denver (10/18)...Got first of two '92 regular season 100-yard games (8/100 yds.) and also became sixth player in Oiler history to amass 400 receptions as Houston defeated Cincinnati 26-10 (10/25)...In 24-14 loss to Browns (11/8), moved past Charlie Hennigan (410) into second place on team's all-time receptions list...In 100th career game played/started for Oilers, collected eight grabs for 91 yards and a TD in 17-13 come-from-behind win at Minnesota (11/15)...Suffered first quarter ankle sprain and did not return in 19-16 loss at Miami (11/22)...Notched 16th regular season 100-yard game (4/100 yds.) and had season-best 41-yard catch in 24-21 Thanksgiving Day triumph at Detroit (11/26)...In next game, had career-best 44-yard rush on reverse in 24-7 Monday night win against Chicago (12/7)...With 34 seconds left in game, caught winning three-yard TD pass from QB Cody Carlson in 17-14 victory at Cleveland (12/20)...Recorded third career 100-yard playoff performance by leading team in receptions (9) and yards (117) in Oilers' 41-38 OT loss at Buffalo (1/3/93)...1991: Started all 16 games as member of Oilers' "Fab Four" receivers...Ranked third on team in both receptions (70, T-7th AFC) and yards (996, 9th AFC), was second in receiving TDs (5), and was first in average-per-catch for fourth time in six years (14.2)...Also rushed four times for 30 yards...For fourth time in last five years, just missed out on 1000 receiving yards (933 in 1987, 976 in '88; 979 in '90)...Was thus four yards short of allowing Oilers to tie NFL record for most 1000-yard receivers in a season (3)... HALL OF FAME OILERS

KEN HOUSTON

EARL CAMPBELL

Three former Oilers have achieved the ultimate honor in their sport—induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The distinguished trio includes George Blanda (inducted in 1981), Ken Houston (inducted in 1986), and Earl Campbell (inducted in 1991).

Blanda played quarterback and was the placekicker for the Oilers from 1960-66 during an NFL-record 26-year career (Bears 1949, Colts 1950, Bears 1950-58, Raiders 1967-75). His NFL career records include most games (340), most points (2002), most PATs (943), and second in most field goals (335). As an Oiler, Blanda led the team to back-to-back AFL championships in 1960 and '61. He was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of his seven Oiler seasons. Blanda's 36 touchdown passes in 1961 stood as an NFL record for 23 years. Included among his Oiler records are most points (596), most field goals (91), and most PATs (299).

Houston is considered one of the finest safeties in NFL history. Originally a ninth round draft choice from Prairie View (three-time national champions), he played 14 seasons, including 1967-72 for the Oilers and 1973-80 for the Redskins. He finished his career with 49 interceptions before retiring to pursue a coaching career. In 14 seasons, Houston achieved Pro Bowl status an amazing 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL), including five selections as an Oiler and seven as a Redskin. At one point in his career, Houston played in 183 consecutive games. He still holds NFL records for most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a career (9), in a season (4, 1971), and in a game (tied-2, vs. San Diego 12/19/71).

Campbell's career achievements are profiled in the "Retired Jerseys" section of this media guide.

Earl Campbell salutes his appreciative fans on the night his jersey was retired, August 13, 1987.

RETIRED JERSEYS

JIM NORTON #43

ELVIN BETHEA #65

EARL CAMPBELL #34

In the 34-year history of the Houston Oilers, only three players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired. That honor belongs only to #43, Jim Norton; #65, Elvin Bethea; and #34, Earl Campbell.

Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the Oiler record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton is tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

Bethea joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the opener in '68 and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November, 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played still stands as a club standard. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea also holds the Oiler records for most games played (210) and most seasons played (16, 1968-83). Bethea led the team in quarterback sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 14 in 1976. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on August 4, 1983.

Campbell's jersey is the most recent to be retired, being honored at a ceremony on August 13, 1987. He came to Houston as the first player selected in the 1978 NFL draft after having won the 1977 Heisman Trophy at the University of Texas (he was later selected as the Southwest Conference's Offensive Player of the Decade for the 1970's). Campbell played eight NFL seasons (6 1/2 for Houston, 1 1/2 for New Orleans) from 1978-85 and ranked as the seventh leading rusher in league history with 9407 yards. In addition, he was eighth all-time in NFL annals in both rushing touchdowns (74) and attempts (2187). Known as "The Tyler Rose," he led the league in rushing in each of his first three seasons, winning the NFL's Most Valuable Player award in each of those years. Campbell's string of four consecutive 1000-yard seasons beginning with his rookie year was interrupted by the strike-shortened nine-game season in 1982. However, he posted his fifth 1000-yard effort the following season. During his career, Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983). Campbell holds virtually every Oiler rushing record including most yards in a career (8574) and in a season (1934 in 1980). His 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979 was the third highest single-season total in NFL history while that 1934 yards in '80 was also the third best in the league record book. One of Campbell's highest honors occurred when he was officially designated as a Texas Legend by the State Legislature. Davy Crockett, Sam Houston, and Stephen F. Austin are the only others to achieve that high-ranking honor, and Campbell is the only designee in this century.

Norton, Bethea, and Campbell's jerseys are permanently displayed at the Oilers' training facility and serve as a constant reminder of their tremendous contributions to the City of Houston and to the Oilers.

September 2—Oilers defeat Redskins 29-27 in opening game as Earl Campbell gains 166 yards on club-record 32 carries.

September 16—Before a reunion of the Houston Oilers' 1960 American Football League championship team, Oilers win 20-6 over Kansas City Chiefs.

November 22—Before national television audience on Thanksgiving Day, Houston defeats cross-state rival Dallas 30-24 for fifth consecutive win.

December 10—Again with the entire nation looking on, Houston defeats division nemesis Pittsburgh 20-17, giving Oilers spot in 1979 playoffs.

December 17—Several Oilers lock up individual titles: Earl Campbell is NFL rushing champion for the second consecutive year; Mike Reinfeldt captures the crown for most interceptions in NFL with 12; Toni Fritsch is the most accurate field goal kicker, connecting on 21-25 attempts; and Jesse Baker leads the AFC in QB sacks with 15 1/2.

December 23—In first playoff game played in Houston since 1962, Oilers defeat Denver Broncos 13-7. Key offensive players Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini, and Ken Burrough are all injured and their status for the following game versus San Diego is questionable.

December 29—Backup QB Gifford Nielsen plays conservative offense as Rob Carpenter, who was injured earlier in the week and was on crutches the night before the game, gains 67 yards rushing in his best effort of the season. The big star of the game is S Vernon Perry as he intercepts an NFL-record four passes in a playoff game. Oilers defeat San Diego 17-14 without injured Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini, and Ken Burrough.

January 6—In a rematch of the 1978 AFC Championship Game, the Steelers win 27-13 in a game that saw a controversial call keep Mike Renfro from scoring what would have been tying score late in third quarter.

January 7—In the wee hours of the morning, the Oilers return from Pittsburgh to an excited throng of 70,000 people at the Astrodome.

January 28—Six Oilers represent Houston in the Pro Bowl: RB Earl Campbell, T Leon Gray, PK Toni Fritsch, LB Robert Brazile, S Mike Reinfeldt, and DE Elvin Bethea.

September 15—Before the largest stadium crowd to ever witness an Oilers' game (80,243), Houston defeats the Browns in Cleveland Stadium 16-7. The game was also televised before a national audience on Monday Night Football.

October 14—Oilers acquire All-Pro TE Dave Casper from Oakland for undisclosed draft picks.

October 19—Earl Campbell becomes only the second RB in the history of the Oiler franchise to rush for over 200 yards in a single game when he leads the Oilers to a 21-14 triumph over Tampa Bay with 206 yards. Club rushing record for single game is 216 yards by Billy Cannon (Dec. 10, 1961 vs. New York Titans).

October 26—Earl Campbell ties NFL record for most consecutive 200-yard games rushing (two) with 202 yards vs. Cincinnati in the Astrodome. Campbell now shares record with O.J. Simpson (Buffalo, 1973, 1976). Oilers defeat Bengals 23-3.

December 4—Houston's defense shuts out the Pittsburgh Steelers 6-0. Toni Fritsch provides all the points the Oilers need with two field goals. This marked the third evening prime time win of the season for the Oilers as the game was played in the Astrodome before a sell-out crowd and a national television audience. It marked the first shutout registered by the Oilers since a 47-0 win over the Chicago Bears. (November 6, 1977).

December 21—Oilers clinch third playoff spot in as many years with 20-16 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the Astrodome. Earl Campbell sets NFL record by rushing for over 200 yards in single game four times in one season. He finishes season with 1,934 yards, second highest total in NFL history behind O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. The Oilers must wait until the final game of the season to see who their playoff opponent will be, as their 11-5 record equals that of division foe Cleveland but Oilers become Wild Card participant due to tie-breaker procedures.

December 28—Oilers season comes to an end with disappointing AFC Wild Card loss at the hands of the eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders. The loss marks the third consecutive year that the Oilers have been eliminated from the playoff picture by the eventual Super Bowl champions (Pittsburgh Steelers in both 1978 and 1979).

December 31—K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr. relieves Bum Phillips of his duties as Head Coach and General Manager. Ladd K. Herzeg is promoted from post of Senior Vice-President/Chief Administrative Officer to the position of Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the Oilers.

February 1—Oilers perennial All-Pro DE Elvin Bethea decides not to retire following 1982 season and will return for his 16th year in the NFL, all with the Oilers.

February 2—Oilers announce promotion of Mike Holovak from Assistant General Manager to VP/Player Personnel. Holovak's contract with the club is extended through the 1986 season.

April 6—Jerry Trupiano, Wally Lemm (former Oilers Head Coach), and John O'Reilly named to Oilers radio broadcast team. KTRH in Houston will again serve as the flagship station for the Oilers/Mutual Radio Network.

April 23—The Oilers announce trade of their second pick in first round to Los Angeles Rams for the third pick overall in draft. Oilers receive Rams' fourth round choice in 1983 and fourth round choice in 1984 for moving down one notch in first round.

April 24—The Oilers announce their second trade in as many days involving Oilers' first round draft pick. Oilers trade third choice overall in first round to Seattle for ninth choice overall in first round plus Seahawks' second and third round picks in 1983 (combining trades of April 24-25, Oilers moved from second position in first round to ninth and acquired Seahawks' second and third round choice in 1983 and Rams' fourth round choice in 1983 and 1984, a total of four additional picks).

April 26—Oilers select T Bruce Matthews from USC in round one of NFL draft with the ninth choice in the round. Also, for first time since 1969, the Oilers had each of their choices through the first nine rounds.

August 4—In pre-season opener, ceremonies honoring Elvin Bethea's sixteen years with the club occur at halftime. Bethea's jersey, number 65, will be retired at the conclusion of the season.

October 10—Head Coach Ed Biles resigns after 2 1/2 years as head coach.

October 11—The Oilers appoint Defensive Coordinator Chuck Studley as interim head coach.

October 20—Oilers trade QB Archie Manning and TE Dave Casper to Minnesota for second and fourth round picks in 1984 draft.

November 13—Houston defeats Detroit 27-17 for first win of season with QB Oliver Luck in his first NFL start.

December 18—Oilers close season with 20-10 loss at Baltimore (Colts' final game played in Baltimore before moving to Indianapolis).

December 28—W.O. "Soapy" Johnson, Oilers' official statistician for 24 years, passes away after long bout with cancer.

January 3—The Oilers name Hugh Campbell as new head coach of club.

January 30—Announcement is made that Kay Dalton will remain as offensive coordinator and also that Jerry Glanville will become new defensive coordinator.

February 3—The Oilers announce that they win the "recruiting war" for free agent QB Warren Moon.

February 10—Entire organization loses tremendous friend with the passing of radio talk-show host John Breen. Breen was first employee hired by the Oilers in 1959 and served in numerous front office capacities, including General Manager and Director of Player Personnel.

April 13—Six-year veteran WR Mike Renfro is traded to Dallas for WR Butch Johnson as teams reverse order of selections in the second round of the 1984 draft. Cowboys also receive undisclosed 1985 pick.

April 26—Oilers announce tentative agreement with Nebraska All-America T Dean Steinkuhler as team allowed to sign player prior to NFL draft.

May 1—Oilers officially select Dean Steinkuhler and also draft a total of 14 players during the one-day marathon. Of the 14 selected, 10 were defensive players.

May 14—Six-year QB Gifford Nielsen announces retirement to become sportscaster for local television station.

September 2—Oilers open their Silver Anniversary Season versus Los Angeles Raiders. Houston defeated by the Raiders 24-14 in battle of former AFL rivals as each team celebrates 25 years of play.

September 6—Oilers and City of Houston celebrate 25th season of professional football at "Silver Salute," which is held on the floor of the Astrodome. The black-tie gala consists of dinner, dancing and an auction with all proceeds benefiting the Ronald McDonald House. This date is also proclaimed "Houston Oilers Day" by Mayor Kathryn J. Whitmire.

September 9—Newly-acquired QB Warren Moon throws for season high 365 yards (23 of 43 attempts) versus Indianapolis Colts but Oilers lose 35-21 in the Astrodome.

October 9—Oilers trade RB Earl Campbell to New Orleans Saints for first round choice in 1985 draft. The Oilers also obtain C Jim Romano from Raiders for Houston's third and sixth round picks in 1985.

October 26—Oilers announce that KODA-FM will be new flagship station for Oilers' radio broadcasts beginning in 1985. The Oilers and KODA-FM sign a multi-year contract.

November 11—Oilers defeat Chiefs 17-16 in Kansas City after losing opening ten games of the season as Hugh Campbell gets first win as NFL head coach. Warren Moon completes 73% of his passes (19 of 26) and Larry Moriarty rushes for 117 yards to pace the Oilers.

November 18—Houston wins second consecutive game as Jets fall by a 31-20 margin in the Astrodome. Warren Moon again hits for over 70% of his attempts (20 of 28 for 71%) and throws for three TDs. Larry Moriarty rushes for 138 yards for second consecutive 100-plus yard game.

December 2—Houston defeats Steelers in overtime thriller 23-20 for third win in four weeks before home crowd. Joe Cooper kicks winning field goal with 5:53 elapsed in extra period. It is the first overtime loss in Steeler history.

December 12—G Mike Munchak is selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game in Honolulu.

December 16—Curtain closes on anniversary season as Oilers lose to Browns 27-20. WR Tim Smith has season's personal best with 167 yards on seven catches, marking his sixth 100-plus yard game of season. Warren Moon also throws for over 300 yards for the fourth time, tying a club record.

December 17—Warren Moon completes his first NFL season with 3,338 yards passing, breaking the team record set by George Blanda in 1961 (3,330). Tim Smith's 1,141 yards receiving enabled him to become third player in Oilers' history to post consecutive 1,000 yard receiving seasons after gaining 1,176 in 1983. Bill Groman (1960-61) and Charlie Hennigan (1963-64) were the others.

1985

July 1—The Oilers sign 1983 Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier. Rozier was selected by the Oilers in the first round of the 1984 Supplemental Draft of USFL players.

July 2—WR Drew Hill is acquired by the Oilers in a trade with the Los Angeles Rams.

August 3—The Oilers battle the New York Giants in the annual NFL Hall of Fame Game in Canton Ohio with the Giants winning 21-20. The game also makes radio history as the first stereo broadcast of an NFL game on KODA-FM.

September 8—The Oilers open the season with a 26-23 win over the defending AFC Champion Miami Dolphins. RB Butch Woolfolk catches three passes for 120 yards (including an 80-yard TD) to key the Astrodome victory.

December 9—Hugh Campbell is relieved of his duties as head coach. The club names Defensive Coordinator Jerry Glanville as interim head coach for the season's remaining two games.

December 22—Despite losing the season finale at Indianapolis 34-16, two Oilers turn in season-high performances. QB Warren Moon completes 22 of 40 passes for 364 yards and two TDs while WR Drew Hill catches nine balls for 210 yards and two scores.

- March 15—The Oilers announce that Raycom Sports Network has agreed to a multi-year contract to televise Oiler pre-season games plus a weekly wrap-up show.

September 23—The Oilers win their 1990 home opener 24-10 over the Indianapolis Colts as QB Warren Moon becomes the all-time leading passer in club history. Moon throws for 308 yards (plus 3 TDs) to surpass George Blanda's team record of 19,149 yards...the record fell on a third quarter seven-yard pass to WR Haywood Jeffires. WR Drew Hill catches ten passes for 123 yards to help key the victory.

September 30—The Oilers capture their first road win of the season, defeating the Chargers 17-7 as QB Warren Moon throws for 355 yards and WR Drew Hill records his 50th career touchdown. Moon's 27 completions allows him to pass Dan Pastorini's club record of 1,426.

October 14—QB Warren Moon passes for 369 yards and a career-best five TDs as the Oilers hammer the Cincinnati Bengals 48-17. Moon thus becomes the first player in pro football history to throw for over 20,000 yards in two different leagues (21,228 in Canadian Football League).

November 18—QB Warren Moon celebrates his 34th birthday by throwing for 322 yards and five scores as the Oilers win 35-23 at Cleveland.

December 2—Despite losing 13-10 in overtime at Seattle, QB Warren Moon's 232 passing yards allow him to break his own single-season club passing record of 3,631 yards (set in 1989).

December 9—The Oilers shatter several team records while drubbing Cleveland 58-14. Included among the records set are most points in a game, in a quarter (31), and in a half (45). RB Lorenzo White ties a club mark with four rushing touchdowns, the first time that's been accomplished in the NFL in two years.

December 16—The Oilers win a key road game, beating Kansas City 27-10 at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Warren Moon again supplies the big news, completing 27 of 45 passes for 527 yards. That represents the second best single game passing performance in NFL history. The record belongs to the Rams' Norm Van Brocklin, who threw for 554 yards against the New York Yanks on September 28, 1951. Moon had an opportunity to break the record but declined to do so based on the Oilers' comfortable lead. Almost overshadowed by Moon's effort was WR Haywood Jeffires catching nine balls for 245 yards (including 87-yard TD) which marked the second best receiving day in Oiler history. Charles Hennigan had 272 receiving yards versus the Patriots on October 13, 1961.

December 19—Six Oilers are named to the AFC squad for the February 3 Pro Bowl. The six include starters G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon, and G Mike Munchak, plus reserves DT Ray Childress, WR Ernest Givins, and WR Drew Hill.

May 17—The Oilers and the City of San Antonio formally sign six-year contract which will allow the Oilers to hold training camp there. Trinity University is chosen as the host school.

September 16—In a pre-game ceremony, Earl Campbell receives his Hall of Fame ring from Hall Executive Director Pete Elliott. In the game that follows, the Oilers defeat Kansas City 17-7 to signal the first 3-0 start in franchise history.

October 13—In a 23-20 victory over the Jets at Giants Stadium, WR Haywood Jeffires ties Charlie Hennigan's 30-year-old team record for receptions in a game with 13 (186 yards). QB Warren Moon completes 35 of 50 passes for 423 yards which is the fifth best total in team annals. Also, WR Drew Hill surpasses Hennigan's 410 catches to become the all-time leading receiver in Oiler history.

November 3—Despite a 16-13 OT loss at Washington, WR Drew Hill moves past WR Ken Burrough's 6,907 receiving yards to become the Oilers' all-time leader in that category.

November 10—QB Warren Moon establishes career highs for completions (41) and attempts (56) as he throws for 432 yards, which is fourth best in team history, in Oilers' 26-23 OT victory over Dallas. Moon also passes Fran Tarkenton's 47,003 yards and moves into second place behind Ron Lancaster on all-time professional passing yards chart. The game is watched by 63,001 fans (actual attendance) which represents a franchise high for the Oilers.

December 8—The Oilers defeat the Steelers 31-6 in the Astrodome as Houston captures its first-ever undisputed AFC Central Division championship. QB Warren Moon throws for 254 yards and becomes just the third QB in NFL history (Miami's Dan Marino, San Diego's Dan Fouts) to have back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons.

December 15—QB Warren Moon surpasses Dan Marino's NFL record (378 in 1986) for completions in a season as the Oilers beat the Browns 17-14.

December 18—Eight Oilers (tied NFL-best), including a league-high six starters are named to the AFC team for the February 2 Pro Bowl. The six starters include CB Cris Dishman, DE William Fuller, WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak, and LB Al Smith. DT Ray Childress and QB Warren Moon are also named to the squad although Childress was eventually unable to play because of a back/rib injury.

December 21—WR Haywood Jeffires becomes just the fifth player in NFL history to record 100 receptions in a single season despite the Oilers' 24-20 road loss to the Giants. Coupled with Drew Hill's 90 catches, that pair's 190 represents the most receptions by two teammates in one season in league annals. In addition, QB Warren Moon eclipses Dan Marino's NFL record (623 in 1986) for attempts in a season. DE William Fuller registers his 15th sack of the season and thus becomes the first Oiler ever to lead the conference in that category.

December 29—The Oilers defeat the New York Jets 17-10 in an AFC Wild Card playoff game before 61,485 fans in the Astrodome. S Bubba McDowell intercepts two key passes inside the Oiler five-yard line to preserve the win.

January 4—After leading for most of the game, the Oilers end up losing a heartbreaking 26-24 decision to the Denver Broncos in an AFC Divisional Playoff game in front of 75,301 fans at Mile High Stadium. PK David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds left in the game proves to be the deciding points. The loss mars a great performance by Oiler QB Warren Moon who completes 75% of his passes (27 of 36) for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

March 6—The Oilers name Steve Underwood as General Counsel. Underwood joins the Oilers from the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst where he has handled most of the team's legal work since 1977.

May 15—The Oilers name former player and scout Frank Bush as linebackers coach.

August 1—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 34-23 in the American Bowl in Tokyo, Japan which marks Houston's first game outside of the United States.

August 31—The Oilers and QB Warren Moon reach agreement on a new multi-year contract that includes a settlement of a controversial escalator clause.

September 29—The Oilers sign free agent WR Webster Slaughter to a two-year contract. Slaughter had been one of four players who were declared free agents by a Minneapolis judge on September 24.

October 11—In a 38-24 win at Cincinnati, QB Warren Moon ties a personal best with five TD passes to eclipse George Blanda's team record for career touchdown passes (165, Moon now has 169). Also WR Haywood Jeffires catches three TD passes to tie the franchise record and RB Lorenzo White rushes for a career-best 149 yards.

October 18—QB Warren Moon becomes the leading passer in professional football history by surpassing Ron Lancaster's 50,535 yards (in 19 years). After the Oilers' heartbreaking 27-21 loss at Denver, Moon now has 50,589 yards. Moon's total, accumulated in less than 15 seasons, includes 21,228 yards in the CFL and 29,361 yards in the NFL.

November 15—In Houston's 17-13 win at Minnesota, QB Warren Moon suffers a fractured upper left arm on a fourth quarter hit by Viking S Vencie Glenn and misses the next five games. Despite the injury, Moon becomes just the 14th NFL QB to surpass 30,000 passing yards as he accomplishes that faster (125 games) than any player in league history except for Miami's Dan Marino (114 games).

November 26—Subbing for the injured Warren Moon, QB Cody Carlson throws for a career-high 338 yards as the Oilers defeat the Lions 24-21 on Thanksgiving Day in Detroit.

December 11—After being diagnosed with kidney cancer, Offensive Coordinator Kevin Gilbride undergoes surgery for the removal of his cancerous kidney. He misses two games as Receivers Coach Chris Palmer and injured QB Warren Moon help to handle Gilbride's game day responsibilities.

December 23—An NFL-best nine Oilers earn Pro Bowl honors with four players designated as starters for the February 7 game. The starters include WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak, and LB Al Smith. The Houston reserves feature DT Ray Childress, WR Curtis Duncan, WR Ernest Givins, QB Warren Moon, and RB Lorenzo White. The inclusion of Jeffires, Givins, and Duncan represents the first time ever that three receivers from the same team have been designated as Pro Bowlers.

December 20—Shortly after their exciting, come-from-behind 17-14 win at Cleveland, the Oilers learn that they have clinched a playoff berth for the sixth straight season. That represents the longest current post-season streak in the NFL.

December 27—As Houston routs Buffalo 27-3 in the regular season finale, WR Haywood Jeffires catches six passes to finish with 90 receptions. He thus leads the AFC in that category for the third straight season, becoming only the second player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat.

January 3—The Oilers blow a 32-point third-quarter lead and lose a 41-38 OT decision at Buffalo in an AFC wild card playoff game. QB Warren Moon completes 36 of 50 passes for 371 yards and four first half touchdowns.

January 4—The Oilers announce that they will not offer new contracts to Defensive Coordinator Jim Eddy and Defensive Backs Coach Pat Thomas.

January 29—The Oilers name Buddy Ryan as the team's defensive coordinator.

July 2—NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue rules in a dispute between the Oilers and Redskins. Tagliabue completes a trade which sends Washington LB Wilber Marshall to Houston in exchange for the Oilers' third round draft choice in 1994 and their fifth rounder in 1995.

November 14—WR Haywood Jeffires ties a team record with three touchdown receptions and QB Warren Moon throws four TD passes in just over two quarters of playing time as the Oilers rout the Bengals 38-3 at Riverfront Stadium. RB Gary Brown earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors by rushing for 166 yards in his first NFL start which marks the most yards by an Oiler back in 12 years.

November 21—RB Gary Brown explodes for 194 rushing yards to lead Houston to its fifth straight win, a 27-20 victory at Cleveland. Brown's rushing total is the highest by any AFC back in three years and the most by an Oiler in 13 years. His back-to-back running sum of 360 yards is also the team's best in 13 seasons. Brown becomes the first NFL back in ten years to gain over 100 yards in his first two career starts. Also, S Marcus Robertson ties a team record by becoming the first Oiler in 22 years to get three interceptions in a game.

November 28—In the Oilers' 23-3 Astrodome victory over the Steelers, WR Ernest Givins passes Drew Hill's 480 catches to become Houston's all-time leading receiver.

December 5—As Houston captures its seventh straight win with a 33-17 home decision over Atlanta, the Oilers' defense forces seven turnovers (including a team record-tying six interceptions) for its highest such total in 16 years.

December 14—Oiler DT Jeff Alm commits suicide following the death of his best friend in a traffic accident. The Oilers hold a memorial service for their teammate the following day.

December 19—The Oilers clinch their second outright AFC Central Division championship with a 26-17 win over the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. Houston thus cements a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive season, the longest current streak in the NFL. The Oilers also become just the second team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to go undefeated within the AFC's Central Division (also 1975 Steelers). Against Pittsburgh, PK Al Del Greco surpasses the team record of 115 points in a single season.

December 28—G Mike Munchak establishes an Oiler record by being named to the Pro Bowl for the ninth time (Elvin Bethea had eight appearances).

January 2—The Oilers close the regular season with their club record 11th consecutive win, a 24-0 shutout of the Jets in the Astrodome. The winning streak is the longest in the NFL in nine years as the Oilers become just the fifth team in league history to close a season with 11 straight victories. The Oilers also set a franchise record with 12 wins for the season and go undefeated in both November and December for just the third time ever. Amazingly, RB Gary Brown finished with 1002 yards in just eight starts.

January 27—The Oilers promote Assistant General Manager Floyd Reese to the position of Executive Vice-President/General Manager. Reese succeeds Mike Holovak who assumes the title of Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting.

February 8—The Oilers promote Kevin Gilbride to Assistant Head Coach/Offense and name Dick Coury as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

February 9—Houston names Jeff Fisher as its new Defensive Coordinator replacing Buddy Ryan who left the Oilers to become the Head Coach of the Arizona Cardinals.

April 13—The Minnesota Vikings announce that they have reached an agreement to acquire QB Warren Moon from the Oilers in exchange for draft choices.

GAME #1

NEW ORLEANS 33, HOUSTON 21

NEW ORLEANS, SEPT. 5—The Houston Oilers were defeated by the New Orleans Saints 33-21 before 69,029 fans in the Superdome. Houston opened the game with an 11-play, 80-yard march that featured three 13-yard completions by QB Warren Moon and ended with Moon's six-yard touchdown pass to WR Haywood Jeffires. On the Oilers' next series, they drove to the Saints' 43 but WR Ernest Givins' fumble was recovered by CB Jimmy Spencer and returned 16 yards to Houston's 41-yard line. New Orleans then began a streak of scoring points on seven consecutive possessions. QB Wade Wilson's 15-yard pass to WR Eric Martin helped set up PK Morten Andersen's 28-yard field goal. The Saints took a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter when Wilson tosses to Martin (20 yds.) and TE Hoby Brenner (17 yds.) led to RB Dalton Hilliard's two-yard touchdown run. The Saints upped their advantage to 13-7 at halftime when Martin's 31-yard reception got them in position for Andersen's 37-yard FG. The Oilers got the ball back with 61 seconds left but PK Al Del Greco missed on a 50-yard field goal try to end the half. New Orleans opened the third quarter with a 13-play, 82-yard drive but Houston's defense stopped the Saints on the Oilers' one-yard line and Andersen converted an 18-yard three-pointer. Houston's ensuing series ended when New Orleans CB Toi Cook got an interception by wrestling a ball away from WR Curtis Duncan at the Saints' 39. Eight plays later, Andersen extended New Orleans' lead to 19-7 when he booted a 47-yard field goal. Early in the final period, Saints' LB Sam Mills forced a Moon fumble on a sack that was returned 47 yards for a touchdown by DE Frank Warren to make it 26-7. The same scenario occurred on the Oilers' next possession when CB Vince Buck sacked Moon and his fumble was picked up by Cook on the Oilers' six. One play later, RB Derek Brown's two-yard TD put New Orleans on top 33-7. Cody Carlson then replaced the injured Moon at QB and led the team on an eight-play, 85-yard drive that featured a 28-yard completion to Givins and a 47-yarder to Duncan. Carlson got the TD on a one-yard option run to close the Houston deficit to 33-14. Four plays after Houston kicked off, FB Lorenzo Neal's fumble was picked up and returned 80 yards for a touchdown by Houston S Marcus Robertson to close out the scoring. The Oilers then recovered an onsidess kick but could not score.

HOUSTON 30, KANSAS CITY 0

HOUSTON, SEPT. 12—The Houston Oilers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 30-0 before 59,780 fans in the Astrodome. The Oilers' first series of the game was one of the longest drives in recent memory. Houston strung together a 18-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 11:40. QB Warren Moon's 13-yard completion to WR Webster Slaughter was the drive's longest play before the touchdown came on Moon's two-yard toss to WR Curtis Duncan. Midway through the second quarter, a fumble by K.C. QB Dave Krieg allowed the Oilers to advance to the Chiefs' 13-yard line but S Martin Bayless forced a RB Lorenzo White fumble (recovered by DE Neil Smith). Houston maintained its 7-0 half-time lead when Kansas City PK Nick Lowery misfired on a 46-yard field goal try. The Oilers opened up the third period with a ten-play, 72-yard series that featured Slaughter's 31-yard catch and ended with PK Al Del Greco's 25-yard FG. Late in the quarter, Houston S Marcus Robertson intercepted a Krieg pass and returned it 48 yards to the Chiefs' ten. Three plays later, Del Greco extended the Oilers' advantage to 13-0 with a 22-yard three-pointer. The Oilers' initial fourth quarter possession resulted in Del Greco's 50-yard field goal that made it 16-0. Two plays later, Krieg connected with TE Mike Dyal for an eight-yard gain but Houston CB Cris Dishman stripped the ball from Dyal and ran 58 yards for a touchdown. On the first play following the ensuing kickoff, Robertson notched his second interception of the game and his 20-yard return set the Oilers up at the Chiefs' 20. Four plays later, White closed out the scoring with a one-yard TD dive.

SAN DIEGO 18, HOUSTON 17

SAN DIEGO, SEPT. 19—The Houston Oilers were defeated by the San Diego Chargers 18-17 before 58,519 fans at Jack Murphy Stadium. The Chargers scored the only points of the first quarter when PK John Carney kicked the first of his six field goals from 34 yards out. San Diego S Darren Carrington's interception of a Warren Moon pass had given the Chargers the ball at the Oiler 44. Late in the opening period, Moon's handoff to WR Webster Slaughter on an end-around was fumbled with Carrington recovering at the Chargers' 48. Houston CB Darryll Lewis' pass interference penalty gave San Diego 24 yards and set the Chargers up for Carney's 34-yard field goal that made it 6-0. Two plays after the kickoff, Moon was picked off by Charger LB Junior Seau who returned the ball nine yards to the Houston 16. Again the Oiler defense stiffened and forced San Diego to settle for Carney's 27-yard three-pointer. The Oilers then strung together their only effective drive of the game, marching 80 yards in 11 plays with WR Curtis Duncan's 25-yard reception preceding Moon's two-yard TD pass to Slaughter that made it 9-7. Three plays later, the Oilers took a 14-9 halftime lead when Lewis intercepted a Stan Humphries pass and ran 47 yards for a touchdown. The third quarter's only points came when Carney booted a 27-yard field goal to close the Chargers' deficit to 14-12. QB John Friesz's (in relief of Humphries) 47-yard completion to WR Nate Lewis was the long play in the 69-yard drive. On Houston's next series, Moon was picked off again by CB Sean Vanhorse at the San Diego 12. After the Oilers forced a San Diego punt and took over on their own 41, Moon was intercepted for the fourth time by Seau (at the San Diego 30) who returned the ball 42 yards to the Houston 28. The Oiler defense again refused to be pushed into the end zone, making San Diego accept Carney's 36-yard field goal that gave the Chargers a 15-14 lead. Willie Drewrey's 34-yard kickoff return gave Houston the ball at their own 39-yard line. Cody Carlson then replaced Moon and led the team 53 yards to the San Diego eight. On a third-and-two, Carlson's pass appeared to be completed to WR Haywood Jeffires in the end zone but officials ruled he was out of bounds (replays clearly showed it was a catch). PK Al Del Greco then kicked a 27-yard FG that gave the Oilers a 17-15 advantage. San Diego got the ball back at its own 16 with 4:59 to play and drove 75 yards in 13 plays consuming 4:56 as Carney kicked a 27-yard field goal to win the game.

LOS ANGELES RAMS 28, HOUSTON 13

HOUSTON, SEPT. 26—The Houston Oilers were defeated by the Los Angeles Rams 28-13 last before 53,072 fans in the Astrodome. On the game's opening possession last Sunday, the Rams marched 65 yards as QB Jim Everett threw a four-yard touchdown pass to WR Willie Anderson. The second quarter began with an 11-play, 79-yard L.A. drive that featured Everett completions to RB Tim Lester (21 yds.) and WR Henry Ellard (27 yds.) and culminated with RB Jerome Bettis' one-yard TD run that made it 14-0. The Oilers then sliced their deficit to 14-3 as RB Lorenzo White's 20-yard catch helped set up PK Al Del Greco's 52-yard field goal. Houston opened the second half with an 11-play march that advanced to the L.A. seven before the Oilers had to settle for Del Greco's 25-yard three-pointer. Following an ensuing Rams' punt, the Oilers assumed possession on their own 14-yard line. Two plays later, Moon and Givins hooked up for an 80-yard scoring bomb that trimmed the L.A. lead to 14-13. However, following the kickoff, the Rams moved 66 yards in nine plays as Everett hit TE Travis McNeal with a 22-yard TD toss to increase the L.A. advantage to 21-13. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Moon was intercepted by S Pat Terrell with the Rams taking over on their own 49. Two plays later, Everett teamed up with Ellard for a 48-yard scoring play that closed out the scoring.

BUFFALO 35, HOUSTON 7

BUFFALO, OCT. 11—The Houston Oilers were defeated 35-7 before 79,613 fans at Rich Stadium. On Houston's initial possession, a pass by QB Warren Moon was tipped by LB Darryl Talley and intercepted by LB Cornelius Bennett who returned the ball to the Oilers' 34-yard line. On the next play, Buffalo QB Jim Kelly threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to WR Don Beebe. Later in the opening quarter, the Oilers drove 74 yards for the tying TD as Moon's 22-yard completion to WR Ernest Givins helped lead to WR Leonard Harris' 17-yard scoring catch. On the Bills' ensuing possession, RB Thurman Thomas' 25-yard run was the long play in a series that culminated with Kelly's 24-yard TD toss to WR Andre Reed. The Bills extended their lead to 21-7 the next time they got the ball as Kelly and Reed hooked up on a 39-yard touchdown pass. Following a fumble by Houston WR Haywood Jeffires (recovered by CB Mickey Washington), the Bills assumed possession on their own 41. FB Carwell Gardner's 22-yard catch was the big play in a drive that ended with Thomas' seven-yard scoring run that gave Buffalo a 28-7 halftime lead. The only score in the second half came late in the fourth quarter when the Bills' 52-yard march ended with RB Kenneth Davis' three-yard TD run.

GAME #6

HOUSTON 28, NEW ENGLAND 14

FOXBORO, OCT. 17—The Houston Oilers defeated the New England Patriots 28-14 before 51,037 fans at Foxboro Stadium. On the game's opening possession, the Patriots advanced to the Oilers' 24-yard line but PK Scott Sisson's 42-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Houston DE Sean Jones. On New England's next series, the club moved to the Oiler 17 but Houston's defense stuffed the Pats on third-and-one and fourth-and-one running plays. In the second quarter, New England was forced to punt from its own one-yard line and the Oilers' return brought the ball to the Patriots' 27. Three plays later, QB Cody Carlson scrambled for a ten-yard touchdown run. The Oilers extended their halftime advantage to 14-0 on their ensuing series but it took two quarterbacks to do it. After completing a 12-yard pass to RB Lorenzo White on the third play of the 11-play march, Carlson further strained his groin that had initially been injured on his TD run. Warren Moon replaced Carlson and completed five of six passes on the drive including a seven-yard scoring toss to WR Webster Slaughter with 15 seconds left in the half. Ray Crittenden got the Pats good field position on their first second half possession with a 30-yard punt return to the Oilers' 46. QB Scott Secules' 23-yard completion to FB Kevin Turner helped lead to the Pats' TD which came on Turner's seven-yard scoring reception that sliced the Oilers' lead to 14-7. However, Houston answered with a 16-play, 85-yard drive that consumed 9:38 and ended with Moon's two-yard touchdown pass to Slaughter that made it 21-7. Moon's clutch third down throw to WR Pat Coleman (14 yds.) and a 17-yarder to Slaughter helped keep that drive alive. Early in the fourth quarter, a New England scoring threat was thwarted when S Bubba McDowell intercepted a Secules pass at the Oilers' 15-yard line. The next time that New England had the ball, Secules was picked off by Oiler CB Steve Jackson who returned the ball 22 yards for his first career TD and a 28-7 Houston lead. Following the ensuing kickoff, Secules led his team on a 12-play, 76-yard series that culminated with RB Leonard Russell's one-yard TD run. The Pats then recovered an onside kick at the Houston 45 but Oiler S Marcus Robertson ultimately intercepted Secules at the two-yard line.

HOUSTON 28, CINCINNATI 12

HOUSTON, OCT. 24—The Houston Oilers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals 28-12 before 50,039 fans in the Astrodome. Houston opened the scoring on its second possession as QB Warren Moon led the team on a ten-play, 83-yard drive that culminated with WR Gary Wellman's nine-yard scoring reception. Wellman also had catches of 18 and 11 yards on the series. Early in the second quarter, a Moon pass was intercepted by DB Sheldon White who lateraled to CB Leonard Wheeler for an additional 24 yards. The Bengals thus began the series at the Oilers' 43 and ultimately got their touchdown on QB Jay Schroeder's eight-yard pass to WR Jeff Query (PAT wide left). Late in the half, the Bengals got the ball back, got a 26-yard run by Derrick Fenner, and took a 9-7 halftime lead on PK Doug Pelfrey's 53-yard field goal with no time left in the quarter. Midway through the third period, Pelfrey's 50-yarder gave Cincinnati a 12-7 advantage. That three-pointer was set up by Schroeder completions to Query (18 yds.) and WR Carl Pickens (21 yds.). The Oilers, though, came right back to gain a 14-12 lead as RB Lorenzo White scored on a four-yard run. The long play in the 71-yard march was Moon's 21-yard connection with WR Pat Coleman. Early in the final quarter, the Bengals advanced to the Houston eight, but on a second down play, Schroeder fumbled with DT Ray Childress recovering for the Oilers at their 16-yard line. Moon then keyed a 12-play, 84-yard series that featured an 18-yard pass to Coleman and ended with WR Haywood Jeffires' 11-yard touchdown grab that gave the Oilers a 21-12 lead. With 3:16 remaining in the game, the Bengals failed on a fourth down attempt and the Oilers assumed possession on their own 49. RB Gary Brown carried the ball on four of the ensuing drive's six plays, gaining nine, eight, eight, and the final 25 yards for a touchdown that closed out the scoring.

HOUSTON 24, SEATTLE 14

HOUSTON, NOV. 7—The Houston Oilers defeated the Seattle Seahawks 24-14 before 50,447 fans at the Astrodome. The Oilers won the toss and promptly moved 79 yards in a 12-play, 6:55 drive. QB Warren Moon was seven of seven on the series including completions to WRs Ernest Givins (20 yds.) and Webster Slaughter (19 yds.) with the touchdown coming on a three-yarder to Slaughter. Later in the opening quarter, Seattle QB Rick Mirer hooked up with WR Kelvin Martin for a 53-yard TD bomb to tie the score. The Oilers took the ball back on the ensuing kickoff and drove 65 yards as Moon's 36-yard connection with Slaughter helped lead to Givins' 14-yard scoring snag (PAT failed). On Houston's initial second quarter possession, the team put together a 17-play series that culminated with PK Al Del Greco's 33-yard field goal that gave the Oilers a 16-7 advantage. Long plays in that drive included Givins' 13-yard catch and Moon's key third-and-ten 11-yard run. Following a Seahawk punt, Moon tossed a 25-yard pass to WR Pat Coleman that ultimately led to Del Greco's 51-yard FG and a 19-7 Houston lead. Oiler CB Cris Dishman intercepted a Mirer pass at Houston's nine-yard line (20 yd. return) and the Oilers took over on their 29 with 66 seconds left in the half. With two Moon completions to Slaughter (22, 16 yds.), the Oilers got into position for Del Greco's 39-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining in the half. On Houston's first series of the second half, the Oilers advanced to the Seahawk 16 but Moon was intercepted in the end zone by CB Patrick Hunter. On the next play, Mirer was whistled for intentional grounding in the end zone after being pressured by Oiler LB Lamar Lathon. The resulting safety gave Houston a 24-7 lead. Late in the third quarter, the Seahawks embarked on a 14-play, 89-yard series that featured Mirer's 21-yard completion to TE Ferrell Edmunds and culminated with RB Chris Warren's ten-yard TD run that closed out the scoring. With a little over two minutes remaining in the game, the Oilers moved to the Seattle three, but Moon was picked off in the end zone by S Eugene Robinson.

GAME #9

HOUSTON 38, CINCINNATI 3

CINCINNATI, NOV. 14—The Houston Oilers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals 38-3 before 42,347 fans at Riverfront Stadium. The victory was played in a constant driving rain storm and was the Oilers' fourth in a row. On the game's opening series, Houston drove 75 yards in 12 plays in a series that consumed 6:48. QB Warren Moon's 20-yard completion to WR Webster Slaughter was the drive's long play before Moon connected with WR Curtis Duncan for a three-yard touchdown pass. The Oilers' next scoring march began late in the first period and covered 70 yards in seven plays. RB Gary Brown, subbing for the injured Lorenzo White, carried six times for 61 of those 70 yards while also getting the TD (4 yd. run) that put Houston ahead 14-0. The Bengals were forced to punt following that score and the Oilers assumed possession at their own 20-yard line. In 4:56, Moon led the Oilers 80 yards in ten plays which included Brown's 17-yard run and a 21-yard scoring toss to WR Haywood Jeffires that gave Houston a 21-0 cushion. With 2:51 left in the half, the Oilers again got the ball back following a Cincinnati punt. Aided by Moon's 12-yard hookup with Slaughter, the Oilers extended their halftime lead to 28-0 when Moon connected on a six-yard scoring strike to Jeffires. It took the Houston defense just 59 second to force a Bengal punt on the second half's opening series. Taking over on their own 24, the Oilers marched 76 yards in nine plays as Moon's 20-yarder to Jeffires preceded Jeffires' 12-yard touchdown grab (his third of the game). When Bengal QB David Klingler fumbled at his own 28 on the first play following the ensuing kickoff, Cody Carlson replaced Moon at quarterback. Six plays later, Oiler PK Al Del Greco kicked a 39-yard field goal that put Houston ahead 38-0. With 47 seconds left in the third quarter, Cincinnati got on the board thanks to PK Doug Pelfrey's 46-yard field goal. The fourth quarter was scoreless.

HOUSTON 27, CLEVELAND 20

CLEVELAND, NOV. 21—The Houston Oilers defeated the Cleveland Browns 27-20 before 71,668 fans at Cleveland Stadium. The win was the Oilers' fifth in a row. The first quarter of the game produced five turnovers (three by Houston) and only three points. Those came when Cleveland PK Matt Stover kicked a 21-yard field goal that was set up by QB Todd Philcox's 36-yard completion to WR Mark Carrier. The Oilers' defense averted another score on the Browns' next series when S Marcus Robertson picked off a Philcox pass seven yards deep in the end zone and returned it 69 yards. Houston did not get any first quarter points despite being at the Browns' 20 and nine-yard lines. The Oilers' initial second quarter series produced a 76-yard drive that included QB Warren Moon's 29-yard connection with WR Curtis Duncan and culminated with RB Gary Brown's 11-yard TD run. Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Oiler CB Cris Dishman intercepted a Philcox pass and returned the ball 30 yards to the Browns' five-yard line. One play later, Moon hit Duncan with a four-yard TD pass that gave the Oilers a 14-3 lead. When Houston got the ball back, Moon was intercepted by S Eric Turner who brought the ball back to the Oiler 17. The Browns then trimmed their deficit to 14-10 when Philcox threw a 13-yard touchdown strike to RB Eric Metcalf. Houston had a chance to extend its lead shortly before halftime but PK Al Del Greco missed a 34-yard field goal attempt. The Oilers began the second half with a mammoth 18-play drive that consumed 8:09. After earning a first down at the Browns' five-yard line, Houston was unable to score a TD and settled for Del Greco's 28-yard FG and a 17-10 advantage. Late in the third quarter, the Oilers embarked on a 15-play, 80-yard march that included eight Brown runs (15-yarder on third-and-12) plus a Brown reception. The TD that gave Houston a 24-10 lead came on Moon's four-yard run on a broken play. Three plays later, Houston's Bubba McDowell blocked a Brian Hansen punt with the Oilers taking over on the Cleveland 17. Three plays netted five yards and Del Greco booted a 30-yard field goal to make it 27-10. The Browns came right back with a 78-yard scoring series that included Philcox's 28-yard completion to TE Brian Kinchen and ended with Carrier's 24-yard TD grab. With two minutes left in the game, a short Houston punt (24 yds.) gave the Browns the ball at the Oilers' 39-yard line. Cleveland then got into position for Stover's 44-yard field goal that made it 27-20 but the Browns' ensuing onside kick was recovered by Houston's Scott Kozak.

HOUSTON 23, PITTSBURGH 3

HOUSTON, NOV. 28—The Houston Oilers defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 23-3 before 61,238 fans at the Astrodome. The victory was Houston's sixth in a row and moved the Oilers into sole possession of first place in the AFC's Central Division. After a scoreless first quarter, Houston jumped out to a 3-0 lead on PK Al Del Greco's 43-yard field goal. The long play in that ten-play drive was QB Warren Moon's 16-yard run. Later in the second period, the Steelers tied it on PK Gary Anderson's 42-yard FG that was set up by a 24-yard pass interference penalty and QB Neil O'Donnell's 27-yard run. The Oilers took over following the ensuing kickoff with 2:23 left in the half and moved 79 yards in nine plays with the touchdown coming on RB Gary Brown's three-yard run. That scoring series featured three Moon completions to WR Ernest Givins of 25, 24, and 18 yards. Pittsburgh then earned a first down at the Oilers' 40-yard line with 34 seconds left in the half but Houston's defense prevented any score. On the fifth play of the second half, Moon and WR Haywood Jeffires hooked up on a 66-yard scoring pass that expanded the Oilers' lead to 17-3. Midway through the third quarter, Houston S Bubba McDowell intercepted a Mike Tomczak pass and returned the ball 13 yards to the Steeler 47. Moon's 17-yard pass to WR Webster Slaughter was the Oilers' long play before Del Greco made it 20-3 with a 21-yard three-pointer. Early in the fourth quarter, Houston had a fourth-and-one from Pittsburgh's 29 but a busted play resulted in no gain. On the Oilers' next series, they advanced to the Steelers' three-yard line but Moon was ultimately picked off by CB D.J. Johnson. However, on the very next play, Tomczak was intercepted by Houston CB Cris Dishman, thus giving the Oilers possession at Pittsburgh's 20. Three plays later, Del Greco's third field goal of the game (from 28 yards) gave the Oilers their final margin of victory. The Oilers ended the night on the Steelers' five-yard line but Moon knelt down on the game's final two snaps.

HOUSTON 33, ATLANTA 17

HOUSTON, DEC. 5—The Houston Oilers defeated the Atlanta Falcons 33-17 before 58,186 fans at the Astrodome. The win was Houston's seventh in a row and helped the Oilers maintain sole possession of first place in the AFC's Central Division. The game's first points came midway through the opening quarter when PK Al Del Greco kicked a 52-yard field goal that was set up by QB Warren Moon's 23-yard completion to WR Ernest Givins. Later in the quarter, on a third down play at the Oilers' five-yard line, Houston CB Steve Jackson made perhaps the play of the game when he wrestled the ball away from Atlanta WR Andre Rison in the end zone for an interception. The Oilers extended their lead to 6-0 in the second period when a pair of receptions by RB Gary Brown (25, 16 yds.) helped lead to Del Greco's 43-yard FG. However, on the Falcons' next possession, they moved 80 yards in nine plays and took a 7-6 halftime lead on QB Bobby Hebert's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Mike Pritchard. Del Greco was short on a 56-yard field goal try on the half's final play. On the second half's opening series, Houston got into position for a 52-yard FG attempt by Del Greco but it was wide right. Taking over on the Houston 35, Atlanta took nine plays to expand its lead to 14-6 as Hebert connected with Rison on a six-yard TD toss. Long plays in that drive included Hebert's 31-yard pass to RB Eric Pegrum plus his 26-yard hookup with Pritchard. On the first play following the ensuing kickoff, Moon threw a 42-yard pass to Givins. Two plays later, Moon and WR Webster Slaughter combined for a 25-yard touchdown play to narrow Houston's deficit to 14-13. On the Oilers' next series, WR Haywood Jeffires caught a pass at the Falcons' one-yard line and attempted to extend the ball over the goal line as he was being tackled. The officials ruled it a fumble and Atlanta assumed possession on Houston's 10 following a Falcon unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. Two plays later, Hebert was sacked by Oiler DE William Fuller, forcing a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by DT Ray Childress for a touchdown that gave Houston a 20-14 lead. On the second play of the fourth quarter, Jackson racked up his second interception of the game and his 16-yard return gave the Oilers the ball at the Falcon nine-yard line. Three plays later, Del Greco's 21-yard three-pointer gave the Oilers a 23-14 advantage. One play after the Oilers' kickoff, Hebert was picked off by CB Cris Dishman who returned the ball 20 yards to the Falcons' 22. Givins' ten-yard reception was the long play before Brown put the Oilers up 30-14 with a one-yard TD dive. With about four minutes left in the game, Atlanta PK Norm Johnson booted a 30-yard field goal. However, Houston got those points back on its next possession as Del Greco kicked a 36-yard FG after the Oilers recovered an onsidess kick.

HOUSTON 19, CLEVELAND 17

HOUSTON, DEC. 12—The Houston Oilers defeated the Cleveland Browns 19-17 before 58,720 fans at the Astrodome. The victory was Houston's eighth in a row. The Browns opened the game's scoring on their first offensive play as QB Vinny Testaverde completed a short pass to RB Eric Metcalf who turned it into a 49-yard scoring play. On Houston's next series, the team failed to convert a fourth-and-one play and the Browns took over on their own 42-yard line. Five plays later, PK Matt Stover converted a 53-yard field goal that gave Cleveland a 10-0 lead. Following the ensuing kickoff, the Oilers drove 70 yards in ten plays as QB Warren Moon had two key completions to WR Webster Slaughter of 20 and 27 yards. Houston eventually had to settle for PK Al Del Greco's 27-yard field goal after RB Gary Brown's TD run was disallowed due to an illegal motion penalty. Late in the first quarter, the Oilers embarked on a drive that featured WR Haywood Jeffires' 20-yard reception (plus a 15-yard personal foul on Cleveland) and ended with Del Greco's 48-yard FG that closed Houston's deficit to 10-6. The Browns' next series began on their 20 but the Oiler defense pinned them back to the three. Brian Hansen's punt and Willie Drewrey's ten-yard return set the Oilers up at Cleveland's 28. Runs by Brown of 12 and 11 yards helped lead to Moon's four-yard touchdown toss to RB Spencer Tillman which gave Houston a 13-10 lead. On the Browns' first play following the kickoff, Houston S Marcus Robertson forced a fumble by Cleveland TE Brian Kinchen that was recovered by LB Wilber Marshall at the Browns' 32. Three plays later, Del Greco's 49-yard three-pointer extended Houston's lead to 16-10. On the half's final play, Metcalf was tackled at the Oilers' three-yard line but time expired before the Browns could run another play. Following a Houston punt, Cleveland's second series of the second half began on its own 49. Metcalf's 29-yard run preceded Testaverde's 28-yard TD pass to WR Mark Carrier that put the Browns on top 17-16. Late in the third period, Stover missed a 46-yard field goal try. The Browns' initial possession of the fourth quarter ended when Houston CB Cris Dishman intercepted a Testaverde pass at Cleveland' 39-yard line. When the Oilers couldn't convert a third-and-two from the Browns' five, Del Greco booted his fourth field goal of the game from 25 yards out to put Houston ahead 19-17. Twenty-five of that drive's 32 yards came on defensive penalties on Cleveland CB Terry Taylor. When the Browns next series stalled at the Houston 38, Stover tried a 56-yard field goal but it was wide right. The Oilers then assumed possession with 3:35 left and were able to run out the clock.

HOUSTON 26, PITTSBURGH 17

PITTSBURGH, DEC. 19—The Houston Oilers defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 26-17 before 57,592 fans at Three Rivers Stadium. The win was Houston's ninth in a row and allowed the Oilers to clinch the AFC Central Division championship. In the game's first five minutes, the Oilers jumped out to a 14-0 lead. On its opening possession, Houston moved 80 yards in eight plays as QB Warren Moon's 17-yard hookup with WR Ernest Givins was the long play before Moon and RB Gary Brown teamed up on a 38-yard screen pass for a TD. Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh QB Neil O'Donnell was intercepted by Houston S Bo Orlando who returned the ball 38 yards for a touchdown. On the Oilers' next series, PK Al Del Greco was wide right on a 41-yard field goal attempt. When Houston reassumed possession, the Oilers traveled to the Steelers' 17-yard line thanks to a 17-yard Givins reception but the drive stalled and Del Greco extended the Oilers' lead to 17-0 with a 34-yard field goal. Following a Pittsburgh punt, the Oilers got the ball at their own 48. Brown's 26-yard run helped Houston get to the Steeler five where Del Greco eventually booted a 22-yard FG to make it 20-0. Pittsburgh's next series featured O'Donnell's 42-yard pass to WR Jeff Graham that led to PK Gary Anderson's 26-yard field goal and accounted for the 20-3 halftime score. Midway through the third period, Houston DT Glenn Montgomery recovered a fumble by TE Adrian Cooper at Pittsburgh's 40-yard line. The Oilers gained 24 yards to the Steeler 16 before Del Greco made the score 23-3 with a 33-yard three-pointer. When Pittsburgh got the ball back, O'Donnell's 30-yard connection with WR Ernie Mills preceded TE Eric Green's 36-yard touchdown catch that trimmed the Steelers' deficit to 23-10. Early in the fourth quarter, a short Steeler punt gave the Oilers the ball at the Pittsburgh 42. WR Gary Wellman's 28-yard reception helped Houston move to the three-yard line but the Oilers again had to settle for a Del Greco field goal (21 yards). Pittsburgh closed out the scoring when Graham's 37-yard snag helped lead to RB Merril Hoge's five-yard touchdown run. The Steelers recovered the ensuing onside kick but could not score.

GAME #15

HOUSTON 10, SAN FRANCISCO 7

SAN FRANCISCO, DEC. 25—The Houston Oilers defeated the San Francisco 49ers 10-7 before 61,744 fans at Candlestick Park. The victory was Houston's tenth in a row and helped to allow the AFC Central Division champion Oilers to clinch a first round bye in the playoffs. The first quarter of Saturday's Christmas Day affair was scoreless although San Francisco PK Mike Cofer missed a 47-yard field goal and 49er QB Steve Young was intercepted in the end zone by CB Steve Jackson. Houston broke out on top early in the second quarter as RB Gary Brown's 20-yard run and WR Gary Wellman's 44-yard catch helped set up PK Al Del Greco's 24-yard field goal. Four plays later, Oiler S Blaine Bishop sacked Young, forcing a fumble which Bishop recovered at the 49ers' 18-yard line. Two plays later, QB Warren Moon tossed a seven-yard touchdown pass to WR Ernest Givins to give the Oilers a 10-0 lead. On San Francisco's next possession, the 49ers advanced to the Oilers' 19 but Young was again picked off in the end zone, this time by CB Cris Dishman. Houston then appeared headed for more points, driving to the 49ers' 35-yard line before Moon was intercepted by CB Don Griffin. On the Oilers' opening second half possession, the club advanced to San Francisco's 36 but Moon was picked off by CB Mike McGruder at the 49ers' 15-yard line. The 49ers then had a chance to slice into the Houston lead but Cofer's 24-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Oiler LB Eddie Robinson. Following an Oiler punt, Steve Bono replaced Young with 3:33 left in the third quarter and promptly led the 49ers on a 12-play, 73-yard march. Bono's 15-yard pass to RB Amp Lee was the long play before Lee scored a TD on an eight-yard run with 12:11 remaining in the game. After both teams exchanged punts, the Oilers reassumed possession with 6:41 remaining in the game and Cody Carlson replacing the injured Moon (rib) at quarterback. Houston was able to run out the clock as Carlson completed all three of his passes including a second-and-21 (from the Oilers' nine) toss to Wellman for 24 yards and a third-and-four completion to WR Haywood Jeffires for ten yards. During that clock-killing drive, Brown carried the ball four times for 36 yards.

HOUSTON 24, NEW YORK JETS 0

HOUSTON, JAN. 2—The Houston Oilers defeated the New York Jets 24-0 before 61,040 fans in the Astrodome. The win was the Oilers' franchise-record 11th in a row as they established a team mark for victories in a season (12). Houston got on the scoreboard on its first series as QB Cody Carlson directed a 16-play, 83-yard drive that ended with his 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Ernest Givins. Midway through the second quarter, the Oilers embarked on another lengthy march, moving 80 yards in 12 plays including four completions to WR Gary Wellman. The TD that put Houston ahead 14-0 came on Carlson's eight-yard hookup with RB Gary Brown. With 24 seconds left in the first half, the Jets recovered a fumble at the Oilers' 18-yard line but were unable to score. The Oilers extended their advantage to 17-0 on the third period's opening series as Wellman's 22-yard snag helped set up PK Al Del Greco's 38-yard field goal. Houston had a chance to extend its lead early in the fourth quarter but Carlson was intercepted by Jets' S Brian Washington at the New York six. With 9:52 left in the game, third-string QB Bucky Richardson took the Oilers 88 yards in nine plays as his 34-yard completion to Givins preceded Brown's 16-yard scoring run. The Oilers then held New York on its final possession to cement their second shutout of the season.

OILERS IN OVERTIME

December 23, 1962 - Dallas 20, at Houston 17: Texans win the toss but elect to kick. Each team gets three cracks at winning the game in the first overtime before PK Tommy Brooker's championship-winning 25-yard field goal at 12:06 of the second OT.

October 30, 1977 - at Cincinnati 13, Houston 10: Bengals win the toss. QB Ken Anderson's 17-yard completion to WR Billy Brooks is the long play prior to PK Chris Bahr's winning 22-yard field goal at 5:51 of OT.

September 23, 1979 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Oilers win the toss. On opening series, Bengals force Cliff Parsley punt. Cincinnati drives to Oilers' 14-yard line, but PK Chris Bahr misses a 32-yard field goal attempt. Houston again has to punt on its ensuing series. The Oiler defense then forces a punt by Bengals' Pat McInally. Houston takes over on the Cincinnati 42. FB Earl Campbell's 15-yard run is the long play prior to PK Toni Fritsch's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:28 of OT.

October 28, 1979 - at Houston 27, N.Y. Jets 24: Oilers win the toss. QB Dan Pastorini's 22-yard completion to FB Rob Carpenter is the long play as Oilers drive 58 yards. PK Toni Fritsch kicks the winning 35-yard field goal at 5:10 of OT.

November 23, 1980 - at N.Y. Jets 31, Houston 28: Jets win the toss. A personal foul on Houston's Guido Merkens on the kickoff gives New York possession at the Jets' 40-yard line. QB Richard Todd's 17-yard screen pass to RB Bobby Harper is the long play prior to PK Pat Leahy's winning 38-yard field goal at 3:58 of OT.

September 4, 1983 - Green Bay 41, at Houston 38: Packers win the toss. RB Eddie Lee Ivery's 12-yard run is the long play as Packers drive 59 yards. PK Jan Stenerud kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 5:55 of OT.

October 23, 1983 - Kansas City 13, at Houston 10: Chiefs win the toss. QB Bill Kenney's 20-yard completion to WR Stephone Paige is the long play as Chiefs drive 60 yards. PK Nick Lowery kicks the winning 41-yard field goal at 7:41 of OT.

October 30, 1983 - at Cleveland 25, Houston 19: Oilers win the toss. Browns' defense forces a John James punt. Houston defense does the same to Cleveland as Jeff Gossett punts on ensuing series. Oiler QB Gifford Nielsen's pass is intercepted by Cleveland S Mike Whitwell and returned 15 yards to the Houston 20-yard line. On the next play, RB Boyce Green scores a touchdown on a 20-yard run at 6:34 of OT.

December 2, 1984 - at Houston 23, Pittsburgh 20: Oilers win the toss. QB Warren Moon's 19-yard completion to WR Steve Bryant is the long play as Oilers drive 63 yards. PK Joe Cooper kicks the winning 30-yard field goal at 5:53 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - Pittsburgh 22, at Houston 16: Oilers win the toss. Steelers' defense forces a Lee Johnson punt that is returned 41 yards to the Oilers' 15-yard line by Pittsburgh's Rick Woods. Two plays later, RB Walter Abercrombie runs three yards for winning touchdown at 2:35 of OT.

November 30, 1986 - at Cleveland 13, Houston 10: Oilers win the toss but elect to kickoff (18-25 MPH winds). Oilers' defense forces a Jeff Gossett punt. QB Oliver Luck, replacing an injured Warren Moon, leads the Oilers to the Cleveland 31-yard line, but then is intercepted by CB Frank Minnifield at the Browns' 21. Again Houston's defense puts the Browns in a punting situation. Once again, Minnifield picks off a Luck pass, returning it to the Oilers' 37. FB Kevin Mack's seven-yard run and QB Bernie Kosar's seven-yard pass to WR Brian Brennan are the long plays prior to PK Mark Moseley's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:44 of OT.

*January 3, 1988 - at Houston 23, Seattle 20: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Ruben Rodriguez punt. QB Warren Moon's 15-yard pass to WR Drew Hill is the long play as the Oilers drive 61 yards. PK Tony Zendejas kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 8:05 of OT.

September 4, 1988 - Houston 17, at Indianapolis 14: Colts win the toss. On the opening series, QB Gary Hogeboom completes a screen pass to RB Eric Dickerson, but Oiler LB John Grimsley forces a fumble which is recovered by LB Robert Lyles on the Colts' 42-yard line. QB Cody Carlson, subbing for the injured Warren Moon, completes a 21-yard pass to WR Ernest Givins for the long play prior to PK Tony Zendejas' 35-yard field goal at 3:51 of OT.

September 24, 1989 - Buffalo 47, at Houston 41: Oilers win the toss. Houston takes over on its own 19-yard line and advances to the Buffalo 20 thanks to QB Warren Moon's 32-yard completion to FB Alonzo Highsmith, plus a 17-yard run by Moon and an 11-yarder by Highsmith. Tony Zendejas attempts a 37-yard field goal, but it is wide left. The Bills assume possession on their own 20 and move 80 yards in seven plays. A 21-yard QB Jim Kelly to TE Pete Metzelaars pass precedes the game-winning 28-yard TD catch by WR Andre Reed at 8:42 of OT.

*December 31, 1989 - Pittsburgh 26, at Houston 23: Steelers win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Harry Newsome punt as Houston takes over on its own 45-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White fumbles on the first play as CB Rod Woodson recovers for the Steelers on the Houston 46. RB Merrill Hoge's 11-yard run helps Pittsburgh advance to the Oiler 33 before Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal (his 4th of the game) to win the game at 3:26 of OT.

December 2, 1990 - at Seattle 13, Houston 10: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Rick Donnelly punt as Houston takes over on its own 23-yard line. Oiler WR Bernard Ford fumbles on the first play as LB David Wyman recovers for the Seahawks on the Houston 27. Seattle FB John L. Williams rushes twice for a total of three yards before Norm Johnson kicks a 42-yard field goal to win the game at 4:25 of OT.

November 3, 1991 - at Washington 16, Houston 13: Redskins win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Kelly Goodburn punt as Houston takes over on its own 31-yard line. Oiler QB Warren Moon is intercepted on the second play by CB Darrell Green with Washington taking over on Houston's 33. RB Earnest Byner carries three times for a total of nine yards before Chip Lohmiller kicks a 41-yard field goal to win the game at 4:01 of OT.

November 10, 1991 - at Houston 26, Dallas 23: Oilers win the toss. Cowboys' defense forces a Greg Montgomery punt as Dallas takes over on its' own 24-yard line. The Cowboys move to the Oiler 24-yard line where they have a first down following a Houston holding penalty. Dallas RB Emmitt Smith gains seven yards but fumbles after a hit by LB Lamar Lathon with Oiler S Bo Orlando recovering at the Houston 15. The Oilers then embark on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in which QB Warren Moon completes all seven of his passes for 70 yards. On second down, PK Al Del Greco kicks a 23-yard field goal at 14:31 of OT.

September 20, 1992 - at Houston 23, Kansas City 20: Chiefs win the toss. On the third play of OT, Kansas City WR J.J. Birden fumbles after a hit by Houston CB Cris Dishman with DT Doug Smith recovering the ball at the Chief's 23-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White runs once for two yards before PK Al Del Greco boots the game-winning 39-yard field goal at 1:55 of OT.

*January 3, 1993 - at Buffalo 41, Houston 38: Oilers win the toss. On third-and-three from Houston's 27-yard line, QB Warren Moon is intercepted by Buffalo CB Nate Odomes who returns the ball to the Oiler 35. On the return, Houston WR Haywood Jeffires is penalized for a face mask infraction which moves the ball to the Oilers' 20. After a pair of Kenneth Davis runs net six yards, PK Steve Christie kicks a 32-yard field goal to win the game at 3:06 of OT.

OILERS ON THE AIR

Russ Small

Gifford Nielsen

Bum Phillips

On May 4, 1994, it was announced that a new five-year agreement had been reached with KTRH to continue broadcasting all Houston Oiler football games. The '94 campaign marks the final year of the current agreement which began in 1990. KTRH had previously broadcast Oiler football from 1976-84. In addition, KTRH also broadcasts the games for basketball's Houston Rockets.

With a 50,000-watt AM signal, KTRH reaches the Louisiana, Texas, and Mexican gulf coasts. KTRH boasts Houston's highest rated news plus the top-rated "SportsBeat" nightly talk show. Their package with the Oilers includes a three-hour pre-game show, "KTRH Countdown to Kickoff," and a two-hour post-game show, including "KTRH Fan Feedback," hosted by Charlie Pallilo and Rich Lord. In addition, KTRH carries Oiler-related shows starring Head Coach Jack Pardee and DT Ray Childress.

Handling the play-by-play chores for his first season will be KTRH Sports Director (and co-host of "SportsBeat") Russ Small who was the Oilers' color analyst from 1992-93. Small joined KTRH in June of 1992 after serving as Sports Director at WXYT Radio in Detroit where he also served as the play-by-play man for Michigan State football and basketball. Serving as the color commentator will be KHOU-TV Sports Director Gifford Nielsen. Nielsen, who previously served in the same capacity for the Oilers from 1985-87, is a former star quarterback at Brigham Young and for the Oilers (1978-83).

The third man in the booth will again be football analyst Bum Phillips, who remains one of the all-time most popular Houston sports figures. He served as the Oilers' head coach from 1975-80 and is the winningest coach in franchise history with a 55-35 record. Phillips also was the head coach for the New Orleans Saints from 1981-85.

PRE-SEASON TV

Dave Barnett

Gifford Nielsen

In March of 1990, the Oilers entered into an agreement with Raycom Sports and Entertainment to televise Oiler pre-season games beginning in 1990. As the nation's leading independent sports programmer, Raycom produces and markets college football and basketball packages for the Big Eight, Big Ten, Metro, PAC-10, Southwest, and Atlantic Coast Conferences.

Raycom will televise two of the Oilers' five pre-season games with the additional contests being aired nationally by ABC, ESPN, and NBC. Carrying Raycom's production of Oiler pre-season games will be Houston's KHOU-TV (Channel 11, CBS affiliate). KHOU will air both games on a live basis. The 1994 package kicks off with live coverage of the opener against the Kansas City Chiefs on Sunday, July 31. Houston then hosts the San Diego Chargers in San Antonio's Alamodome on Saturday, August 6. On Monday, August 15 in part of the NFL American Bowl series, the Oilers will travel to Mexico City for their annual pre-season meeting with the Dallas Cowboys in a game that will be nationally televised by ABC. The Oilers return to the Alamodome on Saturday, August 20 to face the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills for a nationally televised game on ESPN. Houston will close out their pre-season slate on Saturday, August 27 when the Los Angeles Raiders invade the Astrodome in an NBC match-up.

Raycom's Oiler play-by-play announcer will be Dave Barnett who is very familiar to sports fans around the Southwest. Barnett has done play-by-play for baseball's Texas Rangers and basketball's Dallas Mavericks, plus for SMU, North Texas State, and the Southwest Conference Game of the Week. Joining Barnett in the booth as color analyst is KHOU Sports Director Gifford Nielsen. Nielsen, who also serves in the same capacity for the Oilers' flagship station (KTRH-radio), is a former star quarterback at BYU and for the Oilers (1978-83).

SPANISH RADIO

Rolando Becerra

Rick Vasquez

For the sixth consecutive season, all Oiler games will be broadcast in Spanish. This season, KLAT (AM 1010), known in the Houston Hispanic community as "La Tremenda," will again carry all of the Oiler action. Joining KLAT on the Oilers' Spanish radio network will be San Antonio's KSAH.

KLAT is considered Houston's leading Spanish radio station and has been broadcasting entirely in Spanish since 1979. KLAT is owned by Tichenor Media System, the largest Spanish station ownership group in the nation. Tichenor also owns stations in Chicago, New York, Miami, San Antonio, El Paso, Corpus Christi, and Rio Grande Valley.

Handling play-by-play chores for his first season will be Rolando Becerra who has been one of Houston's top sports reporters and talk show hosts for KLAT and other Spanish stations since 1980. Becerra has also served as the Spanish play-by-play announcer for the Houston Astros (1986-92) and Houston Rockets (1988-93). Joining Becerra in the booth as analyst will be Rick Vasquez who served as the Oilers' Spanish play-by-play man in 1993 and color commentator for the second half of 1992. Vasquez had previously been the play-by-play announcer for Sam Houston State football. Serving as KLAT pre- and post-game host will be KTMD-TV Sports Director Luis Rodriguez.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Telephone or written requests must be made at least three working days in advance to Dave Pearson, Director of Media Relations and Services, Houston Oilers, 6910 Fannin Street, Houston, Texas 77030 (713/797-9111). Reserved credentials can be picked up at Press Will Call, located at the Astrodome's Loading Dock, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Oilers' Media Relations Department. Due to space limitations, it is not possible to issue credentials to freelance photographers. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench areas.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Astrodome press box, enter the stadium at the Loading Dock entrance between the West and South gates (where the TV trucks are parked). Take the press elevator to Level 5 and turn right on the concourse. Follow the concourse until it ends and you will be in the working press area. Visiting radio is located in Booth 567 while network TV announcers will be in Booth 571. All broadcasting booths are located on the fifth floor concourse. Only credentials issued by the Houston Oilers will be honored for admittance to the Astrodome.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials will be admitted into the locker rooms. No one will be admitted into the locker rooms prior to or during the game. Your press credential is good for admittance to both locker rooms. To reach the Oilers' locker room from the press box, take the fifth floor concourse to Aisle 561 and turn left to the elevator. The Oilers' locker room is on Level 2 (on the left as you exit the elevator). To reach the visiting team's locker room, proceed past the Oilers' locker room to the concourse and turn left. Follow the concourse until it ends at Aisle 226. Turn left through the double doors and it will be on the left.

PARKING: Press parking at the Astrodome is very limited. Single game parking requests should be made when requesting your credential and will be processed on a "first come-first served" basis. Media with parking passes should use the main Astrodome entrance at Murworth and Kirby.

TELEPHONES: Pool telephones for credit card or collect calls are available in the Astrodome press box. Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone must order it directly from Beverly Blankenship, FCI (lines) at (713) 853-8119. Media may rent instruments directly from the Oilers at a per-game rate of $25 while still ordering lines from FCI.

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Houston Oiler home game. The transmission representative is Tom Moen, 1719 Fairview Avenue, Houston, Texas 77006, (713) 661-3324.

FIELD ACCESS: Only working photographers, TV camera personnel and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Media members with press box credentials are allowed on the field with five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

GAME INFORMATION: The Astrodome press box telephone number for all game information inquiries is (713) 791-9118.

INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Jack Pardee will be available to the media daily following practice. The best time to schedule player interviews is immediately following practice. Please contact the Media Relations Department to arrange.

PRACTICE DIRECTIONS: The Oilers' regular season practice facility is located at 2727 El Camino in Houston. To get there from Loop 610, take the Fannin Street exit and turn north. Go to the first light and turn right on Holly Hall. Follow through four-way stop sign. Make first left after railroad tracks on El Rio. At the end of the street, the road will curve to the right and become El Camino. The Oilers' complex will be on the left.

THE ASTRODOME

The Houston Oilers play their home games in the "new and improved" Astrodome. Since 1988, more than 10,000 seats have been added to the Astrodome's capacity, thus making its seating availability now comparable to other domed stadiums. In early 1988, a state-of-the-art "Magic Carpet" AstroTurf system was installed by AstroTurf Industries, making the Astrodome the only artificial turf stadium in America with entirely separate fields for both football and baseball. In addition, construction has been completed on 65 "Columbia Suite" luxury boxes.

Officially named the Harris County Domed Stadium, the Astrodome was financed by an $18 million general obligation bond which passed in January of 1961. The cost of the project, including off-site improvements, land acquisition, engineering fees, site roads, and parking lot paving was $31.6 million.

In 1982, a $42 million improvement program updated all of the Astrodome Complex. Financed by Harris County's portion of the hotel-motel tax, the renovations included the installation of the first Diamond Vision screen in the Astrodome scoreboard.

The stadium structure itself covers 9 1/2 acres, and the entire complex, including exhibition halls and parking areas, covers 260 acres. The outside diameter of the stadium structure is 710 feet and the floor of the stadium is approximately 25 feet below normal ground level, affording minimum vertical travel by fans.

The permanent roof of the dome, which has a clear span of 642 feet (twice that of any previous structure), has a maximum height of 208 feet above the playing field. This would allow the construction of an 18-story building under the roof. The roof can withstand hurricane winds of 135 m.p.h. and gusts of 165 m.p.h.

The playing surface of the Astrodome is AstroTurf. Initially only the infield was covered with the man-made turf. On July 19, 1966 the entire surface of the Astrodome was covered with AstroTurf. A new surface was installed in April, 1978, and again in February, 1988.

There are 51,000 cushioned, upholstered theatre seats in the stadium and 4,000 pavilion seats with cushioned, upholstered seats and wooden backs. The seating capacities are 54,313 for baseball, 59,905 for football, 68,000 for conventions and a maximum of 74,000 for boxing and similar events. To convert from baseball to football seating, the stands holding additional seats move around on steel rails until they parallel the football sidelines.

The Astrodome's new scoreboard features pertinent information throughout all events. The 'Dome is one of the only stadiums in the country that now boasts two Diamond Vision screens. Each Diamond Vision is a 26 1/2 by 37 1/2-foot screen that brings field action, including instant replays, up-close for spectators. The screen's clear picture is the product of a 35-mm tube with 43,200 CRT's (a home television set has one CRT). The Diamond Vision's brain is a state-of-the-art computer, operated by a nine-person crew that includes technicians and cameramen.

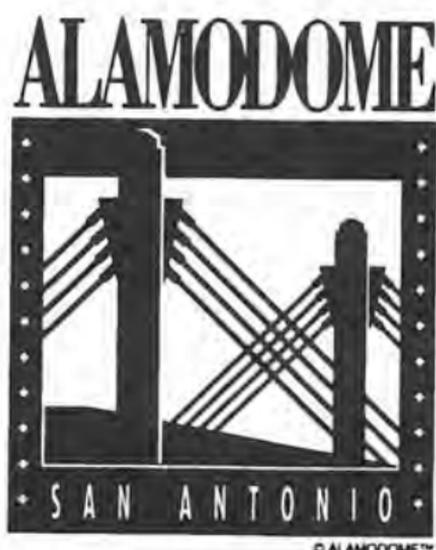

THE ALAMODOME

Once again this season, the Oilers will play two pre-season games in San Antonio's Alamodome. Houston will take on the San Diego Chargers on August 6 and the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on August 20. It was also announced this past April that the annual Governor's Cup pre-season contest between the Oilers and the Dallas Cowboys will be played in the Alamodome from 1995-97. The Oilers had the privilege of playing the first-ever football game in the Alamodome on August 7, 1993 against the New Orleans Saints.

Already considered one of the nation's premier domed stadiums, the Alamodome hosted its first event in May, 1993. Construction began in November, 1990 and the facility was completed on schedule at a cost of approximately $186 million. Financed by a 1/2 cent sales tax, the Alamodome is expected to be debt-free in 1994.

The Alamodome's seating capacity for football is 65,000 and for basketball is 21,372 (can increase to 35,000). The stadium, which sits on a site of 57 acres, features 160,000 gross square feet of exhibit space and 16 field level conference rooms. It has 12,000 retractable seats which is the largest retractable seating unit in the world. Additionally, the Alamodome is the only building in North America with two permanent ice rinks. During major events, the Alamodome has the capacity of satellite transmission to countries throughout the world.

TRINITY UNIVERSITY

"The Summer Home of the Houston Oilers"

Trinity's William H. Bell Athletic Center

The summer of 1994 marks the Oilers' fourth training camp at Trinity University in San Antonio. Trinity is a nationally-recognized liberal arts and sciences university that has been consistently ranked as one of the nation's top colleges by U.S. News & World Report.

With an enrollment of approximately 2,500, Trinity's student population includes representation from all 50 states and several foreign countries. Hailing from a diversity of geographic, ethnic (minority enrollment is 18 percent), and socio-economic backgrounds, the one characteristic Trinity students do share is academic talent.

More than 65 percent of the University's incoming freshmen rank in the top 10 percent of their high school graduating class. Increasingly, Trinity students receive prestigious national awards, including National Science Foundation grants, Truman Scholarships, National Endowment for the Humanities, Young Scholars Awards, Mellon Fellows, and the Goldwater Scholarship in Science. Also active volunteers, Trinity students devote more than 6,000 hours each year to community service in San Antonio nursing homes, homeless shelters, and tutoring in literacy programs.

Athletically, Trinity fields varsity teams in 12 sports, and the University is a member of the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference. Trinity boasts men's and women's programs in NCAA Division III with participation in sports such as football, basketball, baseball, tennis, volleyball, cross country, soccer, track, and golf.

The 117-acre campus, located just north of downtown, offers a panoramic view of the San Antonio skyline. The newly-renovated William H. Bell Athletic Center, a state-of-the-art indoor athletic complex, features a basketball court, a modern weight-training area, an aerobics studio, and a natatorium. Recently, the Bell Center received a national award for indoor facility management. The Oilers will do most of their outdoor training in Trinity's E.M. Stevens Football Stadium.

Founded in 1869 in Tehuacana, Texas, Trinity was moved to Waxahachie, Texas in 1902, and to San Antonio in 1942. In 1952, Trinity moved to its current location, the "Skyline Campus" that overlooks the city.

NFL PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure, the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so--thus the term "waiver". Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the off-season and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as a recall of a waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline (October 11, 1994), any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for pre-season, regular season, and post-season games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with 80 players but thereafter must meet two mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an active list of 45 players and an inactive list of eight players for each regular and post-season game. Thus, only 45 players plus an emergency quarterback may suit up for each game. Each team may also establish a practice squad of up to five players who are eligible to participate in practice, but remain free agents who may sign with any other team in the league.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive list in the same season that they are placed on Reserve.

Players in the category of Reserve/Retired or Reserve/Did Not Report may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the post-season.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading between the AFC and NFC is allowed until October 11, 1994 after which trading of player contracts/rights will end until February 1, 1995.

1994 RULE CHANGES

At its annual meeting, the NFL took significant measures to strengthen offensive football for 1994. After in-depth study by special meetings of head coaches and the Competition Committee, member clubs adopted several new playing rules. In addition, longstanding policies affecting offensive production were re-emphasized and refined.

Chunking Rules: The policy which governs chunking and other contact by defensive players with offensive receivers will be strictly enforced. Evidence showed that receivers were being unfairly restricted both within the five-yard chunking zone and farther downfield.

Roughing-the-Passer Rules: Like the chunking rules, roughing the passer has been re-defined and will be strictly enforced. Officials will emphasize fouls when defensive players unnecessarily punish a passer (e.g., stuffing him into the ground or driving him down after he has thrown the ball). Formerly the defender was given one step after the passer completed his throwing motion (often with the arm far forward or at his waist). That will be changed to after the pass is released.

Coach to Quarterback Radio: Coaching staffs will send in offensive plays to the quarterback by a radio equipped with a scrambling device. These benefits will result for the offensive team: 1) uniformly easy to understand signals, 2) signals secure from eavesdropping or other observation, 3) ease of communication when the ball is at an extreme end of the field, 4) better time management between plays, 5) better understanding by quarterback in noisy environments.

Deeper Alignment for Offensive Lineman: Offensive linemen now may line up deeper off the ball, provided their helmets pass through an imaginary plane at the center's beltline (formerly the numeral on his jersey). This will promote better protection against pass rushers and allow linemen to easily see the snap of the ball (particularly helpful when crowd noise is high).

Restrictions on Defensive Players: If a defensive player enters the neutral zone and causes the offense to move, a foul will be called on the defense (formerly an offensive foul and only a warning to the defense).

Kickoff from 30: The kickoff spot will be moved back to the 30-yard line, and a tee no higher than one inch may be used. Although this should produce more kickoff returns, often a highly exciting play, the main benefit will be better field position for the offense.

Two-Point Conversion: After a touchdown the ball will be placed on the two-yard line and offensive teams will have the choice of kicking for one point, or running or passing for two. The possibility of an "eight-point touchdown" will help teams behind to catch up.

Spot of Missed Field Goals: Missed field goals attempted from beyond the 20-yard line will be brought back to the spot of the kick (formerly the line of scrimmage). It is expected that this approximately seven-yard difference will affect coaching strategy and keep the emphasis on first downs and touchdowns.

In the height of the Luv Ya Blue era, the Derrick Dolls danced their way into the hearts of millions of fans, both in the city of Houston and across the nation. Their high-spirited dancing added excitement to every Oilers' home game and their off-field support made them goodwill ambassadors for the team and the city.

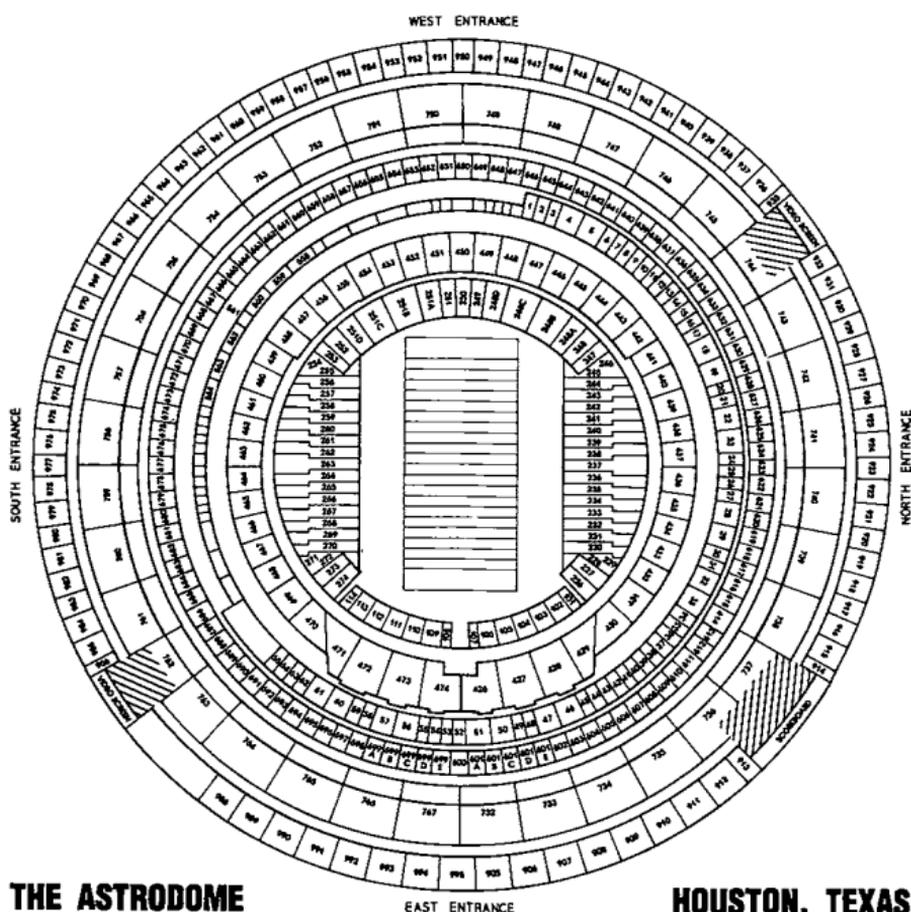

In 1994, the Derrick Dolls will again look to capture the support of the fans and captivate them with their dancing, high-kick routines and sideline entertainment. Off the field, they will be a part of Houston Oilers Entertainment Inc., a full-scale entertainment company. Title sponsor for the 1994 Derrick Dolls is the Institute of Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation.

The Director of the Derrick Dolls is Cindy Villarreal-Hughes, who is a former Dallas Cowboys Cheerleader (1988-89) and Dallas Mavericks Dancer (1989-90). Villarreal-Hughes is also a former Miss Texas (1991) and author of an inspirational book for young women entitled "The Cheerleader's Guide to Life."

For additional information on the Derrick Dolls, please contact Cindy Villarreal-Hughes, Houston Oilers Entertainment, Inc., 6910 Fannin, Houston, Texas 77030 or phone by (713) 797-9111.

Improve your running game

If your car's running rough when you step on the gas, try FormulaShell[®] gasoline. It's Shell's cleanest gasoline ever. All three grades help reduce harmful intake valve deposits other gasolines can leave behind. Giving you better acceleration. Quicker starts. And improved gas mileage. Just a few more reasons to run with the best-selling gasoline in the world — Shell.
