K.S. "BUD" ADAMS, JR.

Owner/Chairman of the Board/President

One of Texas' premier business leaders, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., brought professional sports to the Gulf Coast when he founded the Houston Oilers football team. The hard-working and aggressive Adams helped co-found the American Football League (AFL) on August 3, 1959, when the Oilers and the Dallas Texans became the first two major league sports franchises in the state of Texas.

Adams' first love, his Houston Oilers, is a team rich in tradition and pride. The Oilers have been in the playoffs a total of 15 times during their 36-year history, and Adams was the leading force in performing miracles during the early years of the AFL. Adams currently serves on the NFL's Finance Committee and Audit-Sub Committee as well as the Realignment, Hall of Fame and International Committees, and is one of eight Trustees to the NFL Trust.

Adams' Oilers were the dominant team during the early 1960's, winning championships in 1960 and 1961, finishing second in 1962, and making the playoffs in 1967, 1969, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. In fact, the Oilers' streak of seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93) was the longest streak in the NFL during that time span. In 1991, Adams' Oilers captured their first-ever AFC Central Division Championship, and the club was a repeat champion in '93.

Over the last year, Adams has led the NFL into the Mid-South region, the last untapped resource without a major professional sport. His planned relocation of the Oilers to Nashville, Tennessee, for the '98 season represents the League's first movement into that region and the state of Tennessee. "It is without a doubt the toughest decision I've ever had to make. Change is difficult. I've lived in Houston for 50 years, worked in the same building for 36 years, and kissed the same woman good night for 50 years. So, this has not been easy," said Adams.

Adams' interest in sports was first displayed while at Culver Military Academy where he earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. Upon graduation from Culver, Adams attended Menlo College (CA), lettering in both rugby and football. Adams then transferred to the engineering school at the University of Kansas where he also lettered in football for the Jayhawks. During his days at KU, Adams began his loyal affiliation with Sigma Chi fraternity.

Adams, a native of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, served in the U.S. Naval Reserve during World War II and was stationed aboard a PAC-Fleet carrier unit where he served as an aviation engineering officer. Prior to his discharge in 1946, Lt. jg. Adams served as an aide in the U.S. Navy's Congressional Liaison Office in Washington.

Truly a "man for all seasons," Adams has parlayed a 1946 chance stop in Houston, resulting from fog which grounded his plane, into a highly successful and diversified business empire which ranks him among the prominent businessmen in the country.

Adams incorporated ADA Oil Company, which was a forerunner of the publicly-held American Stock Exchange-listed Adams Resources & Energy, Inc., an energy company engaged in oil and gas exploration, crude oil marketing, intrastate and interstate petrochemical trucking, and wholesale and retail marketing of petroleum products. Adams' diverse business interests include extensive farming and ranching in California and Texas, cattle breeding, cattle feeding, real estate, automobile dealerships and leasing, a travel agency, western art, and Indian artifacts.

During his early business career, Adams was an avid sponsor of amateur and AAU teams in basketball and softball. His ADA Oilers were a perennial power in the National Industrial Basketball League in the '50s, capturing third place in the national AAU tournament in 1956. His interest in sports has been further manifested by past ownership participation in professional baseball, basketball and boxing.

The unknown side of Bud Adams is his charitable and philanthropic activities that are most often anonymous. In 1995, Adams created and funded the Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award in honor of the Oilers' longtime equipment assistant who passed away during the season. The annual $10,000 award (selected by committee) goes to the Oilers employee who most exemplifies the characteristics of "Mojo"; hard work, dedication and loyalty. Last season's recipient was Paul "Hoss" Noska, who donated the award to Houston's Ronald McDonald House. Adams also donated $5,200 to a little league football team, the Southwest Rangers, that needed funds for uniforms, proper equipment and trophies.

Very active in national, state and local programs, Adams is on the Board of Directors of the Cherokee Indian National Historical Society; the Board of Governors of the Sigma Chi Fraternity Foundation; the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio; the Board of Directors of the Boy Scouts of America, Sam Houston Area Council; the Board of Directors of The Hundred Club of Houston; the Board of Trustees of the Culver Educational Foundation; and is a Lifetime Director of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Adams also spearheaded the drive for construction and operation of the Houston Ronald McDonald House.

Adams has received numerous awards through the years. He was inducted into the Culver Academy's Athletic Hall of Fame in the inaugural class in May of 1994. In June 1991, he was given the Order of Constantine from Sigma Chi, which is the highest honor that fraternity can bestow. In February 1990, he was given Sigma Chi Foundation's Semi-Centennial Award. In January of 1988, he received the prestigious "Golden Buckle Award" by the Greater Houston Convention and Visitor's Bureau, symbolizing "outstanding promotion of Houston as a premier destination." In addition, in October 1987, Adams was recognized with the Distinguished American Award, presented jointly by the Houston Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Houston Athletic Committee (Chamber of Commerce). Other noteworthy honors bestowed upon Adams in the past have included "Houston Salesman of the Year" in 1960 from the Houston Sales Association; "Mr. Sportsman" in 1961 by the Interfaith Charity Group; "Significant Sig" in 1963 by Sigma Chi Fraternity; "Westerner of the Year" in 1969 by the Houston Farm and Ranch Club; "Distinguished Alumnus" in 1980 from the California Community and Junior College Association; Culver Military Academy's "Man of the Year" in 1981; Financial World Magazine's 1981 "Outstanding Chief Executive Officer;" and "King Capon" in 1983 from Bill Williams' annual Capon Charity Dinner, Inc.

Bud and his wife Nancy have two daughters (Susie, Amy) and seven grandchildren.

FLOYD REESE

Executive Vice-President/General Manager

On Jan. 27, 1994, Floyd Reese was named Executive Vice-President/General Manager for the Oilers. In his two-and-a-half year tenure, Reese has overseen an overhaul of the squad he inherited in Jan. of '94. Of the 53 players then on the roster, only 12 remained heading into training camp in '96. "The single-toughest thing I've faced since becoming the General Manager," said Reese, "was the salary cap situation we were in prior to '94. No team has had to rebuild the way we have due to our salary structure and seven-year run in the playoffs (1987-93). We're part way there, hopefully we can complete the task."

Reese is responsible for all aspects of the Oilers' football operations, including player personnel, scouting and contract negotiations. Reese has spent the last 22 years in professional football, working with four different organizations in capacities ranging from strength and conditioning, to his present position of Executive Vice-President/General Manager.

Reese aided in Jeff Fisher's selection as the 15th head coach of the Oilers and the selection of his coaching staff, and coordinated all aspects of the team's National Football League draft and free agency. Prior to the 1994 season, he served as Houston's Assistant General Manager since 1990. Before joining the Oilers' front office, Reese served as Houston's linebackers coach for four years.

A native of Springfield, Missouri, Reese played linebacker at UCLA from 1966-69, and one season (1970) as a defensive lineman in the CFL. Reese began his coaching career at Liberty Union High in Brentwood, California. He then returned to his alma mater in Westwood as an assistant coach, remaining with the Bruins from 1971-73. Reese ended the collegiate coaching portion of his career with one season at Georgia Tech in 1974.

From 1975-77, Reese was the strength and conditioning coach for the Detroit Lions. Reese then joined the San Francisco 49ers for one season (1978), before being added to Bud Grant's staff as linebackers and special teams coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 1979. He served that role until 1984 when he was elevated to Defensive Coordinator under then-Head Coach Les Steckel. Under Grant in '85, he reassumed the duties of linebackers coach.

Reese is a member of both the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame and the Liberty Union High Hall of Fame. Born Aug. 8, 1948, Floyd and his wife Sally (4/3/71) have two sons, Jeremy (9/19/76) and Sean (5/16/80), and reside in Sugar Land, Texas.

MIKE McCLURE

Executive Vice-President/Administration

Mike McClure's tenure with the Houston Oilers is spread over ten years, 1979-1981 and 1989-1996. In those ten seasons, the Oilers have qualified for the playoffs eight times.

He's one of a handful of people who've served in top level executive capacities in three major professional sports (NFL, MLB, NBA).

McClure reports directly to Oilers' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., and is responsible for the non-football business operations of the franchise. He has negotiated long-term local radio and television contracts for the Oilers and spearheaded the Oilers' training camp move to San Antonio's Trinity University.

Much of McClure's responsibilities fall in the area of strategic planning, and he has been Adam's point man on the Oilers relocation to Nashville, Tennessee for the 1998 season. McClure served as the club's chief negotiator while organizing and overseeing suite sales (110 sold as of June) and PSL sales (46,000 as of June). He also negotiated new radio and television contracts to start in '98.

Following six years in private business, McClure entered the sports field in 1970 as Director of the Big Ten Conference Service Bureau. In 1973, he joined the NBA's Chicago Bulls as Director of Public Relations and Marketing.

In 1979, McClure joined the Oilers as Vice-President of Marketing and Public Relations. He conceived and administered the Oilers' "Luv Ya Blue!" promotion which has been hailed as one of the most successful in sports history.

McClure went to the Chicago White Sox in 1981 as Vice-President of Marketing and in 1983 the White Sox became the first baseball team in Chicago history to draw 2 million fans. In 1983 and 1986, he was honored by Major League Baseball with the coveted Team Marketing Excellence Award and is the only two-time recipient.

He was elevated to Senior Vice-President of Marketing and Broadcasting in 1987 and played a key role in the planning and construction of the new Comiskey Park. He also served on the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Properties.

McClure has received numerous professional and community awards, is a Significant Sig of Sigma Chi Fraternity, and serves on the Alumni Board of Trustees of his alma mater, DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. He was recently inducted into the Hall of Fame of Morgan Park Academy in Chicago.

Mike and his wife, Brenda, have two grown sons (Michael 29, Matthew 26) and reside in Sugar Land, Texas.

THOMAS S. SMITH

Executive Assistant to the Owner/
Chairman of the Board/President

Thomas S. Smith currently serves as the Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of KSA Industries, the parent company of the Houston Oilers. In addition to that post, Smith is also the Executive Assistant to K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. Smith is involved with the long-range planning for the Oilers' organization and his responsibilities include serving as a liaison in the club's day-to-day operation for Adams. He is also on the Board of Directors of Adams Resources and Energy, Inc. In addition, he takes an active part in helping guide Adams' many business ventures, including his oil and gas investments, automobile dealerships, and farming and ranching interests.

Most recently, Smith has worked closely with the Kansas City-based Architecture and Engineering firm HOK in the planning and development of a stadium and practice facility in Nashville, Tennessee.

A native of Houston, Smith has been with KSA Industries since 1974, and is a graduate of the University of Texas with a B.B.A. in finance. He worked in banking after graduating and prior to joining KSA Industries.

Among his other activities, Smith is a past president and currently on the Board of Directors of the Houston Ronald McDonald House. He is presently helping coordinate a $10 million expansion of its (Houston Ronald McDonald House) existing program within the city of Houston. Smith also serves on the Board of Directors of the Red Cross and the Post Oak YMCA, and works closely with the Post Oak Little League. In addition, he is a past chairman of the Steering Committee for the Texas Children's Development Council and is on the Board of Trustees of the Kinkaid School Endowment Fund. Previously, Smith was chapter chairman and a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for the March of Dimes and served more than 10 years in various capacities for the March of Dimes. In 1986, Smith was the recipient of the Freedom Foundation Certificate of Merit, an annual award presented by a national committee to those who best exemplify citizenship, community awareness and are actively involved in their communities.

Tommy and his wife, Susie, reside in Houston with their son, Stuart, and daughter, Nancy.

MIKE HOLOVAK

Vice-President/Player Personnel & Scouting

On Jan. 27, 1994, Mike Holovak was named Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting for the Oilers after serving five seasons as the club's Executive Vice-President/General Manager (named GM 2/2/89, Exec. VP 7/2/89). Long regarded as one of the top personnel men in the National Football League, Holovak is a veteran with more than 40 years in football administration, including 36 in the professional ranks. Known for his honesty and integrity, Holovak joined the Oilers on Feb. 15, 1981, and previously held positions within the club that included Director of Player Personnel and Assistant General Manager.

Holovak was an All-America football player for Boston College, playing for the Eagles from 1940-42 (co-captain in '42). In the Jan. 1, 1943, Orange Bowl game, he set a record for the highest rushing average in that game with a 15.8-yard mark on ten carries for 158 yards. BC lost that Orange Bowl to Alabama 37-21, but Holovak scored three touchdowns (65, 34, 2 yds.). In Jan. of 1984, he was inducted into the prestigious Orange Bowl Hall of Honor. Holovak was also inducted into the National Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1983 as well as being inducted into the State of Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in Hershey, PA.

Following his collegiate career, Holovak was drafted in the first round by the Los Angeles Rams, but first served in the Navy until 1946. He played for the Rams in '46 before being traded to the Chicago Bears. In two seasons with the Bears (1947-48) under Head Coach George Halas, Holovak played fullback and linebacker.

Holovak retired from pro football in '49 to become the junior varsity coach at Boston College. From 1951-59 he was BC's head coach, posting a 49-29-3 record during his tenure. When the new American Football League was formed, Holovak was one of the first employees hired by the Boston Patriots, becoming their Director of Player Personnel in 1959. Elevated to head coach after the fifth game in 1961, Holovak then guided the Patriots to the AFL Eastern Division title, posting a 7-1-1 record in the final nine games.

In 1964, Holovak assumed the Patriots' General Manager's duties along with his head coaching job. With a 52-46-9 record, he remains the winningest coach in Patriots' history. He left the Pats in 1968 to join the San Francisco 49ers, and has also been associated with the Oakland Raiders (1971) and the New York Jets (1972-76). He served as the Jets' head coach for one game in '76 following the departure of Lou Holtz. Holovak returned to the Patriots as a personnel assistant in 1977 before being promoted to Director of College Scouting the following year.

A native of Lansford, PA, Mike and his wife, Pauline, live in Sarasota, Florida. They have two grown daughters, Michele and Cindy.

DON MacLACHLAN
Senior Vice-President/Marketing
& Broadcasting

On Feb. 1, 1991, the Oilers named Don MacLachlan as team's Vice-President/Marketing and Broadcasting. He was promoted to Senior Vice-President on Sept. 2, 1993. MacLachlan joined the Oilers from Northwestern University where he served as Associate Athletic Director for Public Affairs.

In his present position, MacLachlan is responsible for overseeing the daily operations of the Oilers' marketing, broadcasting, ticket office, and public relations departments, as well as overseeing all aspects of game day operations and presentation at Oiler home games. In addition to working closely in continuing the Oilers' marketing efforts, MacLachlan is the primary liaison between the Oilers radio (KTRH) and television rightsholders.

At Northwestern, MacLachlan was responsible for coordinating and negotiating all radio and TV contracts, preparing sales proposals while securing corporate sponsorships, coordinating game management, preparing revenue projections and developing the Wildcats' marketing plan.

Prior to his promotion to Associate Athletic Director in 1988, MacLachlan served from 1985-88 as NU's Assistant Athletic Director. In that role, he supervised Northwestern's ticket office, sports information office, and sales and promotions. From 1981-85, MacLachlan was the Wildcats' Athletic Ticket Manager, handling all phases of the school's ticket operations, including distribution, advertising, sales, accounting and printing. He joined Northwestern in 1978 as their Assistant Sports Information Director and also assumed the duties of Head Men's Golf Coach the following year.

The 40-year-old MacLachlan is a native of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, and is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Shannon (3/12/89) and Kelly (10/8/93). The family resides in Sugar Land, Texas.

STEVE UNDERWOOD

Vice-President/General Counsel

On March 6, 1992, Steve Underwood joined the Oilers in the newly created position of Vice-President/General Counsel. In his post, Underwood handles a myriad of legal functions, including involvement in player contracts, promotional and corporate contracts and litigation. He also serves as General Counsel for KSA Industries, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s private holding company.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Underwood was an attorney for the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst since 1977. For his entire tenure there, Underwood served as the Oilers' primary counsel.

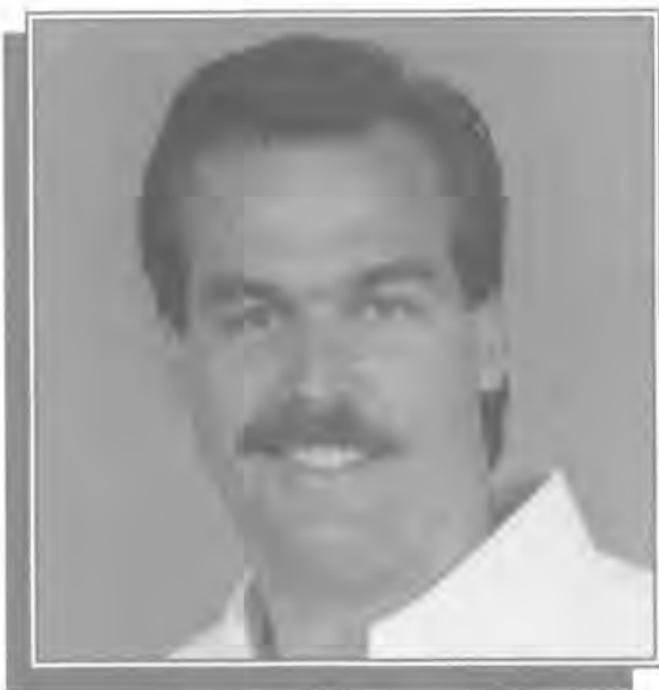

From 1981-85, Underwood also served as a part-time business law/real estate instructor at San Jacinto Junior College. He also worked in that same capacity at Baytown's Lee College from 1980-81. Underwood is a member of the Houston Bar Association, licensed attorney in the U.S. Federal Court system, and member of the Entertainment and Sports Law Section of the State Bar of Texas. Underwood was issued a special citation in 1990 by a student society at Texas Southern University's College of Law for his "educational contribution to the college."

A native of Baytown, Texas, Underwood received his B.S. degree from the University of Texas and his law degree from the University of Houston. From 1974-76, while a law student at UH, he was a legislative aide in the Texas State Legislature.

Steve has four children, including daughters, Christy (4/6/74), Melissa (1/11/80) and Providence (3/2/95), and son, Dennis (12/12/91). Steve and his wife Frances reside in Rosharon, Texas.

JEFF FISHER

Head Coach

Jeff Fisher became the Oilers' 15th head coach officially on Jan. 5, 1995, after closing his first campaign with the Oilers as Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator. He was elevated to that title after Jack Pardee was relieved of his duties on Nov. 14, 1994.

In his first 22 games as head coach, the Oilers have an 8-14 record, including eight wins in their last 17 games. Fisher, as he did as interim head coach for the last six games of '94, has managed to keep the team focused and improving. He, with the help of Floyd Reese, has pieced together a veteran coaching staff. "I think both Floyd and I want the same thing with my staff — teachers," said Fisher. "To rebuild today, you need players contributing much sooner than later. The only way to accomplish that is to teach and that's what we do here."

And the Oilers learned, improving their number of wins by five games from '94 to '95. Offensively, the club surrendered 33 fewer sacks (32 in '95), and converted 43.4% of their third-down opportunities (seventh in the NFL). Defensively, the club improved its overall rank from ninth to fifth and recorded 21 interceptions versus 14 in '94. But, more importantly, the Oilers established themselves in four categories that Fisher had earmarked before the season: the team reduced its number of penalties from 115 to 98, improved their turnover ratio from -16 to even, increased time of possession from 29:06 to 32:12 (first in NFL), and forced 38 total turnovers (third in NFL). "To win in this league, it is my belief that you have to control the clock, force more turnovers than you make, commit less penalties than your opponent, and make big plays," said Fisher. "When you accomplish all four of those things your not going to lose, when you accomplish three you're going to win 75% of the time, if you satisfy two of the four you've got a 50-50 shot, and with one of the four a 25% chance. It's that simple."

Fisher originally joined the Oilers Feb. 9, 1994, after spending two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers. Fisher's hiring was a perfect fit for the Oilers who were looking for a young, aggressive coach who had experience in the "46" defense. Fisher had worked with the "46" for several years with former Houston Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan. Fisher took over a defense that achieved dominant status in 1993, but had lost several key components to free agency. In 1993, the Oilers led the NFL in sacks (52), interceptions (26), run defense (79.6 yards per game), opponent third down efficiency (30.8%) and defensive touchdowns (6). Houston's 43 takeaways ranked second in the league behind Buffalo's 47. Fisher's challenge was in his ability to mix in the necessary new players with the returning veterans, while still maintaining a high level of performance.

Although the Oilers defense suffered some set backs and the offense struggled throughout the year, Fisher was able to keep the defensive unit together while improving their overall NFL defensive ranking from 14th to ninth, no easy task considering the offense had fallen from third to 26th. In his first off-season as a head coach, Fisher assembled a staff of veteran coaches with proven track records. Already possessing a keen understanding and solid knowledge on the defensive side of the ball, his first hire was Offensive Coordinator Jerry Rhome. Fisher then added Les Steckel (wide receivers/tight ends) and Sherman Smith (running backs), while re-signing Dick Coury. "I have studied offenses for a long time, and have never liked facing a Jerry Rhome style offense — now that's not a problem," said Fisher prior to the '95 season.

Fisher also added Steve Sidwell (defensive coordinator) and Rod Perry (defensive backs) to his defensive staff while tabbing Russ Purnell as special teams coach and retaining Gregg Williams (linebackers). This past off-season, after losing offensive line coach Larry Beightol to the Dolphins, Fisher grabbed long-time NFL assistant Warren "Rennie" Simmons to handle offensive line duties, and then added Alan Lowry, who Fisher coached with at San Francisco, as defensive assistant/quality control coach. "Having a solid staff that has a nice blend, of not only coaching experience but playing experience, is important with the way the game is going in the 90's," said Fisher.

The staff Fisher has put together has a combined-total of 136 years of coaching experience in the National Football League alone, and has taken part in a total of 62-playoff seasons and 11 Super Bowls.

Prior to working for San Francisco, the 38-year-old Fisher served as defensive coordinator for the Rams for the 1991 season. From 1986-90, he was an assistant coach for Ryan with the Eagles, holding the title of Defensive Backs Coach from 1986-88 before becoming the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator. In 1989, under Fisher's tutelage, the Eagle "D" ranked first in the NFL in interceptions (30) and sacks (62). The following season, Philly's defense paced the league in rushing defense and ranked second in sacks.

From 1981-85, Fisher was a cornerback for the Chicago Bears after being a seventh-round draft choice from USC. He missed the Bears' '85 Super Bowl season, spending the year on injured reserve with an ankle injury that prematurely ended his playing career. During that season, Fisher assisted Ryan as an "unofficial" coach as the Bears ultimately defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XX. Overall, Fisher played in 49 games for the Bears and had five interceptions, while also returning punts and kickoffs. He remains the Bears' all-time leader in punt return yards/season (509, 1981); punt returns/season (58, 1984); and punt returns/game (8, 12/16/84). Fisher's 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in 1981 (9/20/81 vs. Buccaneers) was the longest PR by a Bear in 39 years.

As a collegian, Fisher played for John Robinson in a star-studded defensive backfield that included Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith and Joey Browner. Current Oiler center Bruce Matthews was also one of Fisher's USC teammates. Fisher's career statistics included five interceptions and 108 tackles. He also served as the Trojans' backup placekicker and was a PAC-10 All-Academic selection in 1980.

Fisher, a native of Culver City, California, was a high school All-America wide receiver at Taft High in Woodland Hills (CA). Jeff and his wife, Juli, have three children, sons, Brandon (6/19/87) and Trenton (6/19/92), and daughter Tara (1/27/89).

Dick Coury

Offensive Asst./Passing Game

'96

19th Year NFL

Third Year Oilers

Coury joined the Oilers as offensive coordinator Feb. 8, 1994, and this season will mark his second as offensive assistant/passing game after making the switch prior to last season. In '95, Coury's primary function was working with the tight ends and H-backs in the Oilers' new offensive system. He was an instrumental part in helping the Oilers officially switch from the "Run 'N Shoot" to a more conventional offense at the end of the '94 campaign.

A veteran NFL coach, Coury brings a wealth of solid experience to Houston. He came to the Oilers after spending the 1993 season coaching tight ends for the Minnesota Vikings. From 1991-92, Coury was the offensive coordinator for the New England Patriots after spending 1986-90 coaching quarterbacks for the Los Angeles Rams. While with the Rams, Coury tutored QB Jim Everett who enjoyed his most productive seasons. While Coury was with the Rams, Everett twice led the league in touchdown passes while also becoming the first quarterback in Rams' annals to throw for over 4,000 yards.

Coury was a head coach in all three years of the United States Football League's existence as the boss of the Breakers. That franchise spent '83 in Boston before relocating to New Orleans in '84 and to Portland in '85. He was named USFL Coach of the Year in 1983. Coury got the opportunity to be a USFL head coach after spending six seasons (1976-81) as wide receivers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Head Coach Dick Vermeil. The '81 Eagles squad advanced to the Super Bowl. In 1975, Coury was the linebackers coach for the San Diego Chargers.

Coury got his first professional head coaching post in 1974 when he served as Head Coach/President of Operations for the Portland Storm of the World Football League. Coury went to the Storm after tutoring wide receivers for the Denver Broncos from 1972-73.

From 1970-71, Coury was the head coach for Cal State-Fullerton's new program, leading the Titans to a pair of winning records and a bowl appearance. Prior to assuming that job, Coury was John McKay's defensive coordinator at USC from 1967-69 as the Trojans earned a Rose Bowl berth in each of those seasons and captured the national championship in '67. Coury began his coaching career as the head coach at Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, California where he posted a nine-year record of 96-9-3. Coury earned his degree from Notre Dame. He was born in Athens, Ohio. Dick and his wife, Bonnie, have seven children, including sons, Mike (10/1/54), Rick (6/6/56), Steve (7/3/57), Rob (10/14/58) and Tim (10/29/63), and daughters, Catherine (5/1/60) and Linda (3/7/62).

Alan Lowry

Defensive Asst./Quality Control

'96

15th Year NFL
First Year Oilers

Alan Lowry joined the Oilers in the capacity of defensive assistant/quality control on March 26, 1996. Lowry, 45, will be responsible for defensive quality control while assisting the defensive positional coaches. Lowry will break-down film of Oiler opponents and piece together coaching reports on their offensive tendencies as well as monitoring the Oilers' defensive tendencies. Lowry joins the Oilers after a four-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers (1992-95) where he served as special teams coach.

Lowry's coaching career started at Virginia Tech (1974) after finishing a SWC playing career as an All-SWC defensive back and quarterback. The following season he moved to Wyoming (1975). He spent one season (1976) in the Dallas Cowboys scouting department before returning to the University of Texas (1977-81) for five seasons as the defensive backs coach.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Lowry spent nine seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1982-90). He originally joined the Cowboys in '82 as their special teams coach before shifting to receivers (1988-90). In 1991, he served as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Lowry, a native of Miami, Oklahoma, resides in Houston with his wife, Donna. The couple has two daughters, Marta (8/22/83) and Lindsay (4/3/88).

Mike Munchak

Offensive Asst./Quality Control

'96

Third Year NFL
Third Year Oilers

Mike Munchak, who joined the Oilers front office prior to the '94 campaign, will assist the offensive coaching staff and provide quality control. He will be responsible for breaking down film of Oiler opponents and compiling coaching reports on their defensive tendencies.

As with last season, Munchak will continue to work on special projects for Executive Vice-President/General Manager Floyd Reese in addition to his other duties.

Munchak joined the Oilers front office after a stellar 12-year playing career (1982-93) at left guard after being selected in the first round of the '82 NFL Draft out of Penn State. He retired on July 21, 1994, after setting a club mark with nine Pro Bowl selections (seven as starter) and finishing fourth on the Oilers' all-time games-played list with 159. He had his #63 jersey retired last Nov. 6, marking only the fourth jersey in Oiler history to be retired (Earl Campbell's #34, Jim Norton's #45 and Elvin Bethea's #65 are the others).

Born March 5, 1960, in Scranton, Pennsylvania, Munchak is married to Marci (5/14/83). The couple resides in Sugar Land, Texas, with daughters, Alexandria (8/13/86) and Julie (4/12/88). Munchak is a prominent investor in eight Gold's Gym franchises (five in Houston, three in Dallas).

Rex Norris

Defensive Line

'96

Sixth Year NFL

Second Year Oilers

Rex Norris joined the Oilers' staff on Feb. 14, 1995, after spending the '94 season with the Denver Broncos in the same capacity. Prior to joining the Broncos, Norris handled defensive line duties at the University of Texas from 1992-93.

Norris enters his 32nd season of coaching in 1996, including his sixth season in the NFL. He also worked in the NFL from 1985-87, when he served as the defensive line coach of the Detroit Lions.

After stints at Carrolton Turner High and Navarro Junior College, Norris joined Texas A&M in 1972 before moving to Oklahoma as a key assistant to Barry Switzer for 11 seasons (1973-83). During his stay at Oklahoma, he coached the defensive line (last three as assistant head coach), helping shape players such as Tony Casillas and LeRoy Selmon, as well as producing seven First-Team All-Americans and helping lead the Sooners to eight bowl appearances.

Prior to joining the Lions, Norris spent 1984 as an assistant coach at Arizona State. He returned to the college ranks in 1988-89 as defensive line coach at Florida. From 1990-91, Norris coached the defensive line at the University of Tennessee before moving to Texas in '92.

Norris, who was born in Tipton, Indiana, was raised in San Angelo, Texas, and was a Junior College All-American at San Angelo J.C. before completing his playing career at East Texas State in 1962. Rex and his wife, Melinda, have four children, Rex Jr., Whitney Rae Gohlke, Nolan Watson and Amanda Watson. The couple resides in Sugar Land, Texas.

Rod Perry

Defensive Backs

'96

Eighth Year NFL

Second Year Oilers

Rod Perry joined the Oilers staff on Jan. 17, 1995. He took over a secondary that's interception rate dropped in 1994. And guided the unit, despite significant injuries, to a 19-interception season. The unit had dipped to just 14 thefts in '94. Perry also helped CB

Darryll Lewis and S Blaine Bishop make their first trips to the NFL Pro Bowl.

Prior to coming to the Oilers, Perry spent three seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (1992-94) as the team's secondary coach. Prior to joining the Rams, Perry served with the Seattle Seahawks (1989-91) in the same capacity. Both Perry's previous professional stints were served under Head Coach Chuck Knox. In his NFL coaching past, Perry has helped shape the careers of Todd Lyght, Patrick Hunter, Dewayne Harper and Eugene Robinson. Perry joined the Seahawks after coaching four years at the collegiate level, two years at Fresno State (1987-88), and one each at Fresno City College (1986) and Columbia University (1985).

As a player, Perry was an All-Big Eight selection as a senior at the University of Colorado. He spent eight seasons as a defensive back for the Rams (1975-82) and is a member of the Rams' 40th Anniversary All-Time Team. Perry was selected by the Rams in the fourth round of the NFL draft in 1975. He twice earned Pro Bowl honors (1978, 1980) and finished his Rams career with 28 interceptions. During his Rams career, Perry played opposite former Oiler defensive backs coach Pat Thomas (1990-92). Perry concluded his playing career with the Cleveland Browns (1983-84).

The 43-year-old Perry lettered in football, basketball and track at Hoover High in Fresno, California. Rod and his wife, Patrice, have three children, sons, Rodney (2/1/79) and Ryan (10/23/85), and daughter, Miranda (10/26/94). The couple resides in Sugar Land, Texas.

Russ Purnell

Special Teams

'96

11th Year NFL

Second Year Oilers

Russ Purnell joined the Oilers staff on Jan. 27, 1995, as special teams coach after spending nine seasons (1986-94) with the Seattle Seahawks, including three (1992-94) as special teams/tight ends coach. Under Purnell's direction the Oilers coverage teams continued to excel, finishing 11th in the league on punt coverage and fifth on kickoff returns. His special teams were among the upper echelon for three seasons and led the AFC (second in NFL) in kick-off coverage by allowing opponents to start drives at their own 25.5-yard line in 1994.

Purnell began his college coaching career at his alma mater, Whittier College, as a graduate assistant in 1970. He then coached three seasons at the University of Southern California (1982-84), handling both special teams and tight ends before moving to the Seahawks in '86.

Purnell originally joined the Seahawks on July 17, 1986, and was named offensive special assignments coach by Chuck Knox. He added tight ends in 1987 along with assisting with the special teams until being promoted to special teams/tight ends coach on Jan. 10, 1992.

After graduating from Huntington Beach High in Huntington Beach, California, Purnell started his college playing career as a center at Orange Coast College (CA) before transferring to Whittier College, where he was an all-league choice and team captain. Purnell began his coaching career in the high school ranks at Corona del Mar High (1972) and Edison High (1973-81) before joining John Robinson's staff at Southern California. Russ, his wife, Jill (6/13/87), son, Timothy (5/11/88), and twins, Erin and Jonathan (2/11/91), reside in Sugar Land, Texas.

Jerry Rhome

Offensive Coordinator

'96

21st Year NFL

Second Year Oilers

Jerry Rhome was named offensive coordinator on Jan. 15, 1995, after spending one season as wide receivers coach for the Minnesota Vikings. Under his direction, the Oilers offense improved in several areas, including sacks allowed (65 in '94 to 32 in '95) and third-down efficiency (43.4 percent, seventh in NFL). The Oilers also finished first in the NFL in time of possession with a 32:12 mark. More importantly, Rhome's role last year also included the tutelage of quarterback Steve McNair. Rhome worked for 45 minutes after every practice during the regular season preparing McNair for his eventual debut. While Rhome was with the Vikings, Minnesota had the most prolific receiving tandem in league history (207 total receptions) as wide receiver Cris Carter set an NFL record with 122 receptions and receiver Jake Reed caught a career-high 85.

Prior to coaching with the Vikings, Rhome spent four seasons (1990-93) as the offensive coordinator of the then-Phoenix Cardinals. In 1993, Phoenix finished in the top three in the NFC in total offense (352.8 yards), average gain per play (5.2 yards), third down efficiency (46.2%), sacks per play (.06) and time of possession (31:54). Before coming to Phoenix, Rhome served as quarterbacks coach in Dallas (1989) and as offensive coordinator in San Diego (1988).

Rhome began his NFL coaching career with the expansion Seattle Seahawks (1976-1982), including the last five years as the team's offensive coordinator. From 1983-87, Rhome served as quarterbacks coach for the Washington Redskins before joining the Chargers in '88. Prior to joining the Seahawks, Rhome served as offensive coordinator at the University of Tulsa (1973-74) and had a hand in the early development of Hall-of-Fame receiver Steve Largent.

Known as a top developer of talent, especially quarterbacks, Rhome has coached such NFL signal callers as Jim Zorn and Dave Krieg (Seattle, 1976-82); Joe Theismann, Doug Williams and Mark Rypien (Washington, 1983-87); Troy Aikman (Dallas, 1989); and Steve Beuerlein (Phoenix, 1990-93).

Rhome is a former Oiler quarterback, having played in Houston in 1970 during an eight-year NFL career. Originally drafted by the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Jets, he played for the Cowboys (1965-68), the Cleveland Browns (1969), Oilers (1970) and the Los Angeles Rams (1971-72). He played collegiately at Southern Methodist (1960-61) and Tulsa (1963-64). In 1964, Rhome was the Heisman Trophy runner-up and Walter Camp Trophy recipient after breaking 17 NCAA passing records.

Rhome is a native of Dallas and earned All-America honors at Sunset High. Jerry and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters, Shannon and Nicole, and one son, Brett. The couple resides in Missouri City, Texas.

Steve Sidwell

Defensive Coordinator

'96

15th Year NFL
Second Year Oilers

Steve Sidwell was named defensive coordinator by Jeff Fisher on Feb. 10, 1995, after spending nine seasons with the New Orleans Saints in the same capacity.

In his first season in Houston, Sidwell helped the Oilers defensive unit improve from ninth ('94) to a defensive ranking of fifth in '95. The Oilers' defense also finished third in the NFL (led AFC) in takeaways with 38 (21 interceptions, 17 fumble recoveries).

Under his direction (1986-94), the Saints defense was one of the best in the league as they led the NFL in points allowed (1991-92), rush defense (1989) and pass defense (1992-93). Before coming to the Oilers, Sidwell spent one month with the Green Bay Packers as linebackers coach.

With the addition of Sidwell, the Oilers are planning to mesh two different defensive philosophies. "Steve is an experienced coach who has directed a defense over the last nine years that has been one of the best in the NFL," Oilers Head Coach Jeff Fisher said. "He brings in another philosophy that we can eventually add to our defensive scheme to increase the productivity of our defensive unit. The wealth of new ideas he brings is valuable because defenses in the NFL are constantly changing."

Sidwell's coaching career began at his alma mater, Colorado, where he was an All-Conference linebacker (1962-65), working with the linebackers from 1966-73. From Colorado, he went on to be defensive coordinator at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas (1974-75) and later at Southern Methodist (1976-81).

His NFL coaching career began in New England, where he coached linebackers from 1982-84. Prior to joining the Saints in '86, he served one season in Indianapolis (1985) as the team's defensive line coach.

The 51-year-old Sidwell, resides in Sugar Land, Texas, with his wife, Katy (6/12/68). The couple have two sons, Brad (12/25/69) and Scott (11/8/71).

Offensive coaches Dick Coury, Mike Munchak and Rennie Simmons oversee a drill at the Oilers' '96 mini-camp.

Warren "Rennie" Simmons joined the Oilers on March 26, 1996, after spending one season at the University of Vanderbilt. Simmons, entering his 15th NFL season, will take over an offensive line that improved in sacks allowed from 65 in '94 to 32 in '95 and sent two players (G Bruce Matthews and C Mark Stepnoski) to the NFL's Pro Bowl.

Simmons originally began his NFL coaching career with the Washington Redskins in 1981. He served the Skins' as tight ends coach (1981-89) and offensive line coach (1990-91), before becoming the receivers coach from 1992-93. During his two-year stint as an offensive line coach, the Redskins allowed just 31 sacks, including a club-record and NFL-leading nine en route to Super Bowl XXVI. Simmons also had a one-year stint with the L.A. Rams (1994).

Simmons began his coaching career at California State-Fullerton (1974-78) and Cerritos Junior College (1978-80) before joining the Redskins. He played center at San Diego State (1961-65).

Born on February 25, 1942 in Poughkeepsie, New York, Rennie grew up in Santa Fe, California, and attended Santa Fe High with Joe Gibbs. Rennie and his wife, Carol, have two children, Rod, and Karen. They reside in Houston, Texas.

Sherman Smith

Running Backs

'96

Second Year NFL
Second Year Oilers

Sherman Smith was named to the position of running backs coach on Feb. 14, 1995, after spending three seasons in the college ranks, coaching for the Fighting Illini of Illinois. With the Oilers, Smith oversaw the development of rookie runner Rodney Thomas. Thomas gained 947 yards and caught 39 passes in the Oilers' new offensive system. In '96, he will add Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George and veteran Ronnie Harmon to his group.

At Illinois, Smith served as tight ends coach from 1992-93 and added running backs to his title in '94.

Smith, an all-star player for Miami University (Ohio) and with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks, moved to the University of Illinois after coaching the running backs at his alma mater for two seasons (1990-91).

After joining the Seahawks as a second-round draft choice in 1976, Smith went on to play nine years in the NFL. Of those nine seasons, seven (1976-82) were under then-Seattle offensive coordinator and present Oiler Offensive Coordinator Jerry Rhome. Smith led a fledgling Seahawk team in rushing in each of his first four seasons, finishing his Seattle tenure with 3,429 yards and 28 touchdowns on 810 attempts. He still ranks among the all-time rushers in Seahawks' history. Smith concluded his NFL playing career with the San Diego Chargers (1983-84).

As a collegian, Smith lettered four seasons (1972-75) as a quarterback at Miami (Ohio). He started in his final three campaigns, leading the Redskins to the Mid-American Conference crown in each year while compiling a 33-1-1 record.

After retiring from the Chargers in 1984 with a knee injury, Smith began teaching in the Northwest where he coached and taught at Redmond Junior High before returning to the college level as a coach in '90.

A Native of Youngstown, Ohio, he and his wife, Sharon, have two children, daughter, Shavonne (2/1/80), and son, Sherman (2/1/82). The couple resides in Missouri City, Texas.

Les Steckel

Wide Receivers/Tight Ends

'96

15th Year NFL

Second Year Oilers

Les Steckel was added to the Oilers staff as wide receivers/tight ends coach on Jan. 24, 1995, after spending two seasons serving with the Denver Broncos in the same capacity.

In his first season with the Oilers, he aided in the development of third-round choice Chris Sanders, who recorded 35 catches for 823 yards, a league-leading 23.5 yards-per-catch average and nine touchdowns. Sanders produced 12 catches of at least 35 yards or more (a franchise record) and had three multi-touchdown games.

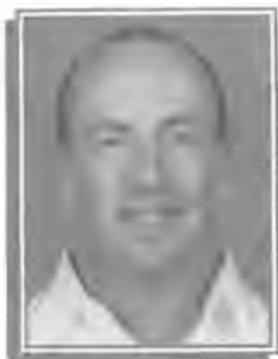

In his two years with the Broncos (1993-94), tight end Shannon Sharpe caught 168 passes (81 in '93, 87 in '94) for 2,005 yards (995 in '93, 1,010 in '94). Sharpe's 87 receptions in '94 was the third highest total in Broncos' history, and two of his three consecutive Pro Bowl selections came while under the direction of Steckel. Sharpe also recorded his first 1,000-yard receiving season.

Prior to his work with the Broncos, Steckel was the offensive coordinator at the University of Colorado (1991-92). Steckel took a year off from football in 1990 after serving as offensive coordinator at Brown University in '89. From 1985-88, Steckel coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers for the New England Patriots, playing a key role in the Patriots' '85 Super Bowl run. He joined New England after a six-year stint in Minnesota (1979-84), serving as the Vikings head coach in his final campaign there. Steckel's first job in the NFL coaching fraternity was in San Francisco (1978) where he coached receivers.

Steckel began his coaching career at Colorado, first serving as a graduate assistant with the defense in 1972 before coaching tight ends and receivers for four seasons (1973-76). He served as the offensive line coach at Navy for one season (1977) prior to jumping to the NFL in '78.

A decorated Vietnam veteran as an infantry officer, Steckel was commissioned as a second lieutenant at the end of Officer's Candidate School. He is presently a Colonel in the United States Marine Corps Reserves. Steckel was also a two-year starter at tailback for the Quantico Marines during his military career.

A native of North Hampton, Pennsylvania, Steckel is married to Chris and has three children, daughter, Lesley (5/6/81), and sons, C.T. (4/20/78) and Luke (4/28/85). They reside in Sugar Land, Texas.

Steve Watterson

Strength & Rehabilitation

13th Year NFL

11th Year Oilers

Steve Watterson is recognized as one of the top strength and rehabilitation experts in the NFL. In 1992, Watterson received the biggest honor of his career when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Watterson has been instrumental in helping to develop and implement various strength and conditioning programs with the Oilers and directs the Oilers' successful off-season conditioning program. Watterson joined the Oilers in 1986 as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator before becoming an assistant coach in those areas prior to the 1988 season.

Before coming to the Oilers, Watterson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the assistant trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles. From 1979-80, he served as the head trainer at Tucson (AZ) High School before accepting a similar post at Amphitheater High School in Tucson (1980-84). Watterson's other activities have included serving as a trainer at the 1982 Olympic Development Camp and at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs in 1983. Following the 1990 season, Watterson received national attention when he personally supervised the rehabilitation of auto racing superstar A.J. Foyt. Foyt was able to come back from severe leg injuries to race in the 1991 Indianapolis 500.

Watterson has patents pending on shoulder and leg rehabilitation devices and on a leg measuring device through his company, Kelsea Plus Corp. He received his bachelor's degree from Rhode Island and his master's degree from Arizona.

A native of Newport, Rhode Island, Steve and his wife, Kathryn (7/2/94), reside in Sugar Land, Texas, with daughter, Kelsea (9/27/88), and sons, Brock (9/8/94) and Cole (11/9/95).

Gregg Williams

Linebackers

'96

Seventh Year NFL

Seventh Year Oilers

For the third-consecutive season, Williams will have control of the Oilers' linebackers after spending the '93 campaign as the team's special teams coach. Despite suffering injuries to starters Al Smith and Micheal Barrow, Williams' unit played a key role in the Oilers improvement on the defensive side of the ball in '95. The unit produced two of the team's top three tacklers (Barrow, Eddie Robinson) and combined to record 8.5 quarterback sacks, eight forced fumbles, ten passes defensed, three fumble recoveries and one interception (returned for a score).

In 1993, Williams' special teams unit showed a renewed aggressiveness that quickly earned respect around the league. The Oilers had the top-rated punting game, were third in field goal percentage and rated sixth in kickoff return defense. In taking over the linebackers, Williams has continued to aide in the development of young talent, including Joe Bowden and Micheal Barrow, Barron Wortham as well as Pro Bowler Al Smith.

From 1990-92, Williams served as the club's quality control coordinator. In that role, he was responsible for breaking down film of Oiler opponents and compiling coaching reports on their offensive/defensive tendencies. In addition, Williams has previously assisted in the coaching of the Oilers' defensive backs, has set up the "scout" teams for Oiler practice sessions and has helped the defensive coaching staff on game day.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Williams spent the 1988-89 seasons as a graduate assistant (worked with linebackers) at the University of Houston for former Oiler Head Coach Jack Pardee. From 1984-87, Williams was the head coach at Belton (MO) High School after spending the 1980-83 campaigns as an assistant coach at Excelsior Springs (MO) High School.

Born in Excelsior Springs, Missouri, Williams played football (quarterback) and baseball at Northeast Missouri State where he received his B.S. degree. He later earned his master's in education from Central Missouri State. Gregg and his wife, Leigh Ann (8/5/78), have two sons, Blake (12/30/84) and Chase (10/16/91), and a daughter, Amy (3/12/90). The family resides in Katy, Texas.

The responsibilities of scouting the east coast for the Oilers belongs to Dub Fesperman. The 62-year-old Fesperman joined the Oilers in '81 after successful college coaching and scouting career.

A graduate of Duke University where he played both football and baseball, Fesperman began his career as a coach in the North Carolina school system from 1957-60. After that, he accepted a position as defensive line coach at Wake Forest, spending three years working for the Demon Deacons. From 1964-66, Fesperman served in the same capacity at Tulane (asst. head coach in '66) before joining Bobby Dodd's staff at Georgia Tech (1967-68). In 1969, Fesperman became defensive coordinator at Massachusetts before accepting a similar post at Dartmouth (1972-74). Fesperman joined the CEPO Scouting Combine in 1975 (later merged with United States Scouting Service) before coming to the Oilers.

Born Dec. 21, 1933, Dub and his wife, Marie, have two grown daughters, Anne and Sandra. The family resides in Pinehurst, North Carolina.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

Lewis Mangum

Director of Business Operations

In Feb. of 1989, Lewis Mangum returned to the Oilers with the title of Executive Administrator. On March 26, 1990, he was named Director of Business Operations. In that position, Mangum is responsible for training camp, team travel, company purchasing, day-to-day administration of Sky Box Management, and serves as a liaison with Astrodome USA.

The 59-year-old Mangum previously had over 24 years of experience working for the Oilers and also for Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s ADA Oil Company. From 1961-65, Mangum was an Accounting Supervisor for ADA before moving over to the Oilers in '66. While serving as Business Manager, he left the Oilers in 1983 after having also served the club as an accountant, controller and Director of Ticket Operations.

From 1983-85, Mangum was the Director of Operations for the Houston Gamblers of the United States Football League. After working for the Gamblers, he joined the Greater Houston Orthopedic Center as Manager of Business Affairs, a position he held until rejoining the Oilers.

Mangum, a native of Kosciusko, Mississippi, attended the University of Mississippi before graduating from the University of Houston. Lewis has twin daughters, Lucy and Laura, a son, Larry and one grand daughter, Lucy Evelyn (7/30/95). He resides in Pearland, Texas.

Dave Pearson

Director of Media Relations & Services

Dave Pearson is currently in his third season as Director of Media Relations and Services for the Oilers. He rejoined the club after spending two seasons (1992-93) as the Assistant Director of Public Relations with the Los Angeles Rams. Pearson was previously with the Oilers from 1990-91, serving as an intern in media services.

Prior to his first stint with the Oilers, Pearson worked as an intern with the Seattle Seahawks from 1989-90.

With the Oilers, Pearson is responsible for coordinating all football related media coverage for the team. Pearson is the liaison between the local/national media and the Oiler players and coaches. He also writes the team's press releases, compiles statistics and works in conjunction with the TV networks in the televising of Oiler games.

A native of Tacoma, Washington, Pearson earned a B.A. in communications from Pacific Lutheran University in 1989 after transferring from Whitworth College (Spokane, WA).

Dave and his wife Elizabeth (5/30/92) have one daughter, Allison Elizabeth (12/23/94). The family resides in Missouri City, Texas.

Rod St. Clair

Director of Public & Community Relations

On June 28, 1994, Rod St. Clair was named to the newly created position of Director of Public and Community Relations. In that position, St. Clair is responsible for establishing a community relations program through work with the front office, players and coaches. In addition, he will be the point man for media inquiries on all non-football related stories. St. Clair will also be involved with the NFL player program geared toward post-football career development.

The 36-year old St. Clair came over to the Oilers from the Indianapolis Colts where he was the Assistant Director of Public Relations since 1990. In addition to assisting in the media relations area, St. Clair served as the Colts' GameDay editor, as well as player appearance representative and handling all community relations aspects for the team. Prior to joining the Colts, St. Clair was an assistant in the Promotions and Public Relations Department of the Los Angeles Clippers of the National Basketball Association (1987-89).

A graduate of Ohio University with both a B.S. degree in journalism and a master's in sports administration, St. Clair began his career as a sports and news reporter for WOUB radio and television in Athens, Ohio, followed by stints at Elmhurst (Illinois) College, California Polytechnic State University in Pomona, and Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, California.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Rod and his wife, Suzanne (9/25/92) have two children, stepson, Michael (1/16/84), and daughter, Chelsea (5/4/94).

Jackie Curley

Controller

In 1994, Jackie Curley was named as the Oilers' Controller. She assumed that position after serving as Tax Manager for K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s KSA Industries since 1989. Curley's responsibilities include supervising the Oilers' accounting department, maintaining a system of internal accounting controls and assisting in salary cap accounting.

Prior to joining KSA Industries, Curley worked from 1985-89 for the Houston accounting firm of Coopers and Lybrand.

A graduate of the University of Denver, Curley also earned an M.B.A. from Rice University. A native of Annapolis, Maryland, she is single and resides in Houston.

Marilan Logan

Director of Accounting Services

Marilan Logan serves as the Oilers' Director of Accounting Services. Logan's responsibilities include accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records and aiding club management with special projects. She was previously the Controller for KSA Industries (the Oilers' parent company) from 1978-84 and for the Oilers from 1982-90.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Logan was in the cost accounting department for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband, Ricky, reside in Kingwood, Texas with their three children, Sandy (5/31/70), Jeff (9/10/75) and Roy (12/11/80).

Mike Mullis

Director of Ticket Administration & Services

Mike Mullis joined the Oilers' organization in June, 1987 as the team's Ticket Manager. In March, 1990, he assumed his current title of Director of Ticket Administration and Services. In that position, he is responsible for overseeing season and single-game ticket sales. Additionally, he supervises the Oilers' telemarketing efforts and the team gift shop.

Mullis came to the Oilers from the University of Houston where he had worked since 1976. From 1976-84, he served as the Cougars' Ticket Manager before being promoted to Assistant Athletic Director/Business Affairs. In Dec., 1986, Mullis assumed the position of Assistant A.D./Ticket Promotions and Operations at UH before being hired by the Oilers. From 1972-75, Mullis served as Ticket Manager for the Houston Aeros of the World Hockey Association.

A Houston native (Lamar High) and a graduate of the University of Houston, Mike and his wife, Joella, live in Missouri City, Texas, with sons, Michael (2/7/75) and Matthew (2/20/84).

Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award

The Houston Oilers lost a valued member of their organization with the passing of Bill "Mojo" Lackey on Nov. 2, 1995. Lackey, an equipment assistant, was one of the most popular members of the organization during his 17 years with the team.

On Nov. 12, 1995, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. announced the establishment of the Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award. The Houston Oilers would honor his memory by presenting this award annually to the Oiler employee who best exemplifies the qualities which characterized Bill "Mojo" Lackey.

"Mojo was a special man who represented all that is good in sports - hard work, dedication and loyalty found in few," said Adams. "Although he will be greatly missed, this memorial award will ensure that his impact on the Oiler organization and the community will never be forgotten."

A $10,000 check will be donated to charity in the name of the player, coach or front office staff member who possesses the qualities of hard work, dedication, loyalty and generosity that "Mojo" shared with everyone he knew.

Award Recipients

1995 Paul "Hoss" Noska

Ralph Stolarski

Assistant Ticket Manager

Ralph Stolarski came to the Oilers in June, 1987 to serve in the capacity of Assistant Ticket Manager. He assists Mike Mullis in the day-to-day operation of the ticket office.

Prior to his hiring by the Oilers, Stolarski was the Assistant Ticket Manager for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo from 1980-87, annually one of the biggest events in the Houston area. For ten years, he worked for the Houston Sports Association, serving as the Astrodome's Assistant Ticket Manager from 1970-75 before being promoted to Ticket Manager (1976-80). Stolarski also worked part-time in tickets for the Astrodome for five years (1965-70) while working in the industrial safety industry.

A native Houstonian, Ralph and his wife, Pat reside in Sugar Land, Texas.

Grady Sessums

Director of Security

Grady Sessums, a 22-year veteran of law enforcement experience, is involved in every phase of security for the Oilers and KSA Industries. Prior to joining the Oilers, Sessums spent 14 years as a member of the Texas Rangers where he attained the rank of Captain in the Department of Public Safety.

Sessums oversees the team's security matters at home and on the road as well as at training camp. He works closely with local, state and national law enforcement agencies in his current position.

Retired from active service with the Texas Rangers, Sessums holds an instructor's certification from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Education. He attended Southwest Texas State Junior College and Sul Ross State University, serving both as a student and instructor in their law enforcement programs.

A past president and current member of the East Texas Peace Officers' Association, Sessums served in the Marine Corps Reserves from 1954-56 and later in the Air Force from 1956-60. He is a member of the Sheriff's Association of Texas and also serves on the Board of Directors of Crime-Stoppers.

Grady and his wife, Sandy, have two grown children, Steve and Jana, and reside in Cypress, Texas.

Willie Alexander

Director of Player Relations

Willie Alexander joined the Oilers in May, 1981 as the team's Career Consultant, an innovative program dealing with players' goals during and after their playing career. His position was expanded to Director of Player Relations in July, 1987.

Alexander was a defensive back for the Oilers from 1971-79, participating in 123 of 130 regular season games. He finished his NFL career with 23 interceptions, and his 95-yard touchdown return on a pickoff against Green Bay in 1977 is the second longest in Oilers' history. Alexander was a sixth-round draft choice of the Oilers in 1971 after a standout college career at Alcorn A&M.

Alexander has spent the last 21 years in the insurance/financial planning industry in Houston and is also an employee benefits consultant. He heads W.J. Alexander and Associates, a Houston-based company. In his position with the Oilers, he counsels players concerning their outside opportunities for employment in the Houston area. In addition, he encourages players to complete their degree requirements, and offers general assistance in adjusting to the NFL and the Houston community.

Alexander is a past president of the Houston Ronald McDonald House and serves on its Board of Directors. In addition, he is on the Board of Directors for the United Negro College Fund, the Greater Houston Partnership, American Red Cross, and Unity National Bank. Willie and his wife, Carolyn, reside in Houston with their children, Michael (5/20/78) and Alexis (3/22/80).

David Lang

*Director of
City, State & Governmental Affairs*

David A. Lang joined KSA Industries and its subsidiary, the Houston Oilers, in June of 1993 as Assistant to the Chairman of the Board and now serves in the newly created position of Director of City, State and Governmental Affairs for both companies. In this role he serves as the liaison with local, state and governmental leaders and entities.

Prior to joining KSA Industries and the Oilers, the 32-year-old Lang served as Vice-President for Development of the Sigma Chi Fraternity Foundation in Evanston, Illinois. There he directed record-setting fundraising programs. He also served as Vice-Chairman of the Junior Board for the prestigious Art Institute of Chicago.

Lang, an Eagle Scout, served as Council Ticket Sales Chairman for the '95 Sam Houston Area Council, B.S.A. Scout Fair. The Scout Fair, held Dec. 2, 1995, annually draws more than 85,000 scouts, adult leaders and visitors, and is a major fundraiser for this area's Boy Scouts of America.

Lang grew up in Fort Worth, Texas, and is a 1987 graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University (Nacogdoches, Texas), where he was an active student leader and served as President for the local chapter of Sigma Chi Fraternity. He is an avid triathlete and resides in Houston.

Steve Reese

Director of Computer Services

Steve Reese serves as the Director of Computer Services for the Oilers in addition to serving in a similar role for KSA Industries, the Oilers' parent company. In his role with the Oilers, he is responsible for managing the organization's state-of-the-art computer and telecommunication systems, as well as systems planning, analysis, design and implementation. Additionally, Reese's responsibilities include consulting with other KSA affiliates in the automotive, travel and ranching industries. Recently, Reese was named co-chairman of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee, which addresses league-wide computer-related issues.

Prior to joining KSA and the Oilers, the 35-year old Reese was a Senior Consultant at Arthur Andersen and Company where he worked in the real estate, environmental and health care industries. He was a founding member of the Business Systems Consulting Practice in Andersen's Detroit office that provides consulting services to high-growth companies.

A native of Detroit, Reese ran track at Saginaw Valley State College where he earned All-America honors. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Houston. Steve and his wife, Darleen (5/1/81), reside in Katy, Texas with sons, Steven (9/8/87) and Matthew (12/24/88).

FOOTBALL STAFF

Brad Brown

Head Trainer

In 1996, Brad Brown enters his tenth season as the head trainer for the Oilers. He came to Houston from his former position as assistant trainer for the Denver Broncos where he served from 1985 until joining the Oilers. Brown was a member of the Broncos' training staff when the team captured the AFC championship and advanced to Super Bowl XXI against the Giants.

Prior to his appointment in Denver, Brown was the head trainer at Fort Hays (KS) State University from 1978-85 while also serving as an instructor in the school's Health and Physical Education Department. He had been a graduate assistant for the Tigers from 1977-78 after working as a student trainer there from 1974-77. In addition, Brown was employed as a student trainer for the Kansas City Chiefs during their 1975-76 training camps.

A native of Quinter, Kansas, Brown is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He holds both a B.S. and master's degree from Fort Hays. Brad and his wife, Kristi, have two sons, Kyle (8/16/79) and Joel (7/21/82). The family lives in Sugar Land, Texas.

Don Moseley

Assistant Trainer

Don Moseley joined the Oilers in May, 1987 and serves as the club's assistant trainer. Prior to his arrival in Houston, he had been the head trainer at Cameron University in Lawton, Oklahoma, since 1985.

Before his stint at Cameron, Moseley was the head trainer at Central High School in San Angelo, Texas, from 1980-85. Moseley held the same position at Cholla High School in Tucson, Arizona (1979-80), and was also a student trainer at Oklahoma (1976-77). He is certified by the NATA.

Moseley, who served as an assistant in the Oilers' 1986 training camp, has a B.S. from Oklahoma and a master's degree from Arizona. Don and his wife, Kim (6/15/91), reside in Missouri City, Texas, with their son, Matthew (3/8/93) and daughter, Katherine Rose (6/20/95).

Dan Murray

Equipment Manager

Dan Murray joined the Oilers as the team's equipment manager in March of '94. He came to Houston after spending the previous seven years as the assistant equipment manager for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to joining the Eagles, Murray spent two seasons as the assistant equipment manager at the University of Pennsylvania.

The 30-year-old Murray orders all equipment and playing gear for the Oilers as well as maintaining that equipment throughout the season. He also handles the computer inventory of the team's equipment.

A native of Philadelphia, Murray attended Temple University. Dan and his wife, Maureen, live in Missouri City with their son, Dan (4/1/93).

TRUE VALUE HARDWARE

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

In 1996, True Value Hardware will present the NFL Man of the Year award. This award, presented annually to the player who exemplifies excellence on the field and in his community, is one of the highest honors an NFL player can receive.

Each NFL team presents three finalists from which one team honoree is selected. These 30 team finalists are then considered for the final award which is presented in January. Past honorees have included Warren Moon from the Oilers in 1991.

The True Value Hardware Man of the Year program will be featured throughout the fall in ESPN's NFL broadcasts, through an extensive national print campaign, and the program will conclude with the awards ceremonies televised by ESPN just prior to the Super Bowl.

HALL OF FAME OILERS

Four former Oilers have achieved the ultimate honor in their sport—induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The distinguished foursome includes George Blanda (inducted in 1981), Ken Houston (inducted in 1986), Earl Campbell (inducted in 1991) and Charlie Joiner (inducted in 1996).

Blanda played quarterback and was the placekicker for the Oilers from 1960-66 during an NFL-record 26-year career (Bears 1949, Colts 1950, Bears 1950-58, Raiders 1967-75). His NFL career records include most games (340), most points (2,002), most PATs (943) and second in most field goals (335). As an Oiler, Blanda led the team to back-to-back AFL championships in '60 and '61. He was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of his seven Oiler seasons. Blanda's 36 touchdown passes in 1961 stood as an NFL record for 23 years.

Included among his Oiler records are most points (596) and most PATs (299).

Houston is considered one of the finest safeties in NFL history. Originally a ninth round draft choice from Prairie View (three-time national champions), he played 14 seasons, including 1967-72 for the Oilers and 1973-80 for the Redskins. He finished his career with 49 interceptions before retiring to pursue a coaching career. In 14 seasons, Houston achieved Pro Bowl status an amazing 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL), including five selections as an Oiler and seven as a Redskin. At one point in his career, Houston played in 183 consecutive games. He still holds NFL records for most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a career (9), in a season (4, 1971), and in a game (tied-2, vs. San Diego 12/19/71).

Campbell came to Houston as the first player selected in the 1978 NFL draft after having won the 1977 Heisman Trophy at the University of Texas (he was later selected as the Southwest Conference's Offensive Player of the Decade for the 1970's). Campbell played eight NFL seasons (6 1/2 for Houston, 1 1/2 for New Orleans) from 1978-85 and ranked as the seventh leading rusher in league history with 9,407 yards. In addition, he was eighth all-time in NFL annals in both rushing touchdowns (74) and attempts (2,187). Known as "The Tyler Rose," he led the league in rushing in each of his first three seasons, winning the NFL's Most Valuable Player award in each of those years. Campbell's string of four consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, beginning with his rookie year, was interrupted by the strike-shortened nine-game season in 1982. However, he posted his fifth 1,000-yard effort the following season. During his career, Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983). Campbell holds virtually every Oiler rushing record including most yards in a career (8,574) and in a season (1,934 in '80). His 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979 was the third highest single-season total in NFL history while that 1,934 yards in '80 was also the third best in the league record book. One of Campbell's highest honors occurred when he was officially designated as a Texas Legend by the State Legislature. Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin are the only others to achieve that high-ranking honor, and Campbell is the only designee in this century.

Joiner began his 18-year career (1969-86) as a fourth-round draft choice of the Oilers in 1969. He recorded 82 receptions for 1,480 yards and 12 touchdowns before moving on to the Cincinnati Bengals in a trade during the 1972 season. Joiner was then traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1976, and went on to collect 750 career receptions for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns. He stands fifth on the NFL's all-time list for receptions and receiving yards. As an Oiler, Joiner led the 1971 squad in receiving yards (681) and touchdown receptions (7). He was also the Oilers big-play receiver in '71, recording five of the team's nine longest plays from scrimmage.

RETIRED JERSEYS

In the 36-year history of the Houston Oilers, only four players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired. That honor belongs only to #43, Jim Norton; #65, Elvin Bethea; #34, Earl Campbell; and #63, Mike Munchak.

Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the Oiler record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton is tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

Betha joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the opener in '68 and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November, 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played stands second in team history. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea also holds the Oiler records for most games played (210) and most seasons played (16, 1968-83). Bethea led the team in quarterback sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 17 in 1973. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on August 4, 1983.

Campbell, whose achievements are profiled in the "Hall of Fame Oilers" section on the previous page, was honored by having his number retired at ceremonies on August 13, 1987.

Munchak joined the Oilers as a first-round draft pick in '82 out of Penn State. He was the first offensive lineman taken in the entire draft and the eighth overall selection. Munchak won the starting left guard position as a rookie and went on to play in 12 campaigns (1982-93) and 159 games (156 starts) for the Oilers. He is third on the team's all-time list for seasons played and ranks fifth in games played. Munchak became a fixture on an offensive line that helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93). One of the premier guards in the National Football League, Munchak was selected to NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1980's and was chosen in 1989 to Oilers' 30th Anniversary "Dream Team." He also holds the Oiler record for Pro Bowl selections with nine (seven as starter).

Munchak announced his retirement on July 21, 1994, and on the same day, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. announced that jersey #63 would be retired on "Mike Munchak Appreciation Day" on Nov. 6, 1994.

Norton, Bethea, Campbell and Munchak's jerseys are permanently displayed at the team's training facility and serve as a constant reminder of their tremendous contributions to the community and to the team.

'95 Season

1995 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1

HOUSTON 10, JACKSONVILLE 3

JACKSONVILLE, SEPT. 3—The Oilers defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars 10-3 in front of 72,363 fans at Jacksonville's Municipal Stadium. The Oilers wasted no time, taking the opening kickoff of their '95 season and promptly piecing together a 13-play, 78-yard scoring drive culminating with a 4-yard touchdown pass from QB Chris Chandler to WR Haywood Jeffires and an Oilers 7-0 lead. On the first play of the Oilers' next drive, Chandler suffered a bruised left shoulder. Although he played the remainder of the half, he was replaced by Will Furrer to open the second half. Following Jacksonville's second punt of the third quarter, the Oilers gained possession on their 40-yard line and marched 59 yards on nine plays before settling for a K Al Del Greco 19-yard offering and a 10-0 lead with 5:22 remaining in the third quarter. The field goal marked the 12th consecutive for Del Greco and set a team record, surpassing Florian Kempf's 1983 mark of 11. The big play on the drive was a 32-yard scamper by Oiler rookie RB Rodney Thomas on 3rd-and-3 from the Jaguars' 39-yard line. The Jaguars were able to close within seven points when K Mike Hollis capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive with a 26-yard field goal cutting the Oilers lead to 10-3. The Jaguars started three drives over the final 11 minutes, but were forced to punt twice. CB Darryll Lewis intercepted Mark Brunell's pass on the first play of Jaguars' last drive to seal the victory.

GAME #2

PITTSBURGH 34, HOUSTON 17

HOUSTON, SEPT. 10—The Oilers were defeated by the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-17 in front of 44,122 fans at Houston's Astrodome. The Steelers got on the board quick when WR Andre Hastings returned a punt 72 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead with just 1:11 gone in the first quarter. After both teams exchanged punts, the Oilers took possession on their 40-yard line and used four plays to march 35 yards before K Al Del Greco closed the score to 7-3 with a 43-yarder. The Steelers responded with an eight-play, 87-yard drive that culminated in a QB Mike Tomczak-to-Mark Bruener 15-yard touchdown pass and a 14-3 Pittsburgh advantage. Midway through the second quarter, the Oiler defense stuffed the Steelers on downs and took over at their 1-yard line with 5:41 left in the first half. Following a Camarillo punt, the Steelers began at their 41-yard line with 1:49 remaining in the first half. They used eight plays to move to the Oilers' 25-yard line before K Norm Johnson connected on a 42-yard field goal with two seconds left in the half to give the Steelers a 17-3 halftime lead. The Steelers took the second-half kickoff and moved 55 yards on five plays, including a 22-yard touchdown run by RB Fred McAfee to put the Steelers up 24-3. Houston responded with a 16-play, 67-yard scoring drive that closed the score to 24-10 when QB Chris Chandler bootlegged the ball into the end zone from one yard out with 4:07 left in the third quarter. After forcing the Steelers to punt, the Oilers took over at their 36-yard line and used three plays to move to the Steelers' 18-yard line before a Chandler pass intended for RB Todd McNair was intercepted by S Myron Bell at Pittsburgh's 11-yard line. On the ensuing Steeler possession, LB Joe Bowden forced a RB Erric Pegram fumble that was recovered by DT Ray Childress at the Steelers' 45-yard line. The Oilers offense used three plays to move 28 yards to the Pittsburgh 17-yard line, before a Chandler-attempted-pass-to-WR Derek Russell fell incomplete. On the next play, Chandler was sacked (by Kevin Greene), fumbled and the ball was recovered DE Ray Seals. The Oilers held the Steelers again, and took over at their 14-yard line following a Pittsburgh punt. However, three plays later, S Carnell Lake picked off a Chandler pass and returned it 32 yards for a Pittsburgh score and a 31-10 lead. On the Oilers ensuing possession, the team marched 76 yards on seven plays, which culminated in a RB Rodney Thomas 6-yard run closing the score to 31-17 with 2:42 remaining in the game. An onside kick attempt failed, and the Steelers tacked on a 40-yard field goal to close the scoring.

GAME #3 CLEVELAND 14, HOUSTON 7

HOUSTON, SEPT. 17—The Oilers were defeated by the Cleveland Browns 14-7 in front of 36,077 fans at the Houston Astrodome. After a scoreless first quarter, the Browns took a 7-0 lead on a QB Vinny Testaverde-to-WR Kevin McCardell 15-yard touchdown pass with 13:19 remaining in the first half. The Browns used two plays to move 13 yards for the score after S Stevon Moore had intercepted QB Will Furrer's pass at the Oilers' 28-yard line. The Oilers trailed 7-0 at the half despite posting almost 200 yards of total offense and holding the Browns to 93 total yards. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Oilers pieced together a 12-play, 85-yard drive that culminated in a Furrer-to-WR Haywood Jeffires 4-yard pass play to tie the score at 7-7 with 12:17 left in the game. The drive was highlighted by a 48-yard pass from Furrer to WR Chris Sanders. On the Browns ensuing drive, however, they used six plays to march 78 yards, including a Testaverde-to-WR Michael Jackson 35-yard touchdown play and a 14-7 advantage with 9:27 remaining in the contest. After both teams exchanged punts, the Oilers took possession for the last time on their 29-yard line with 3:06 left in the game. The club used four plays to move to the Browns' 35-yard line where they faced a 4th-and-6. Furrer connected with RB Todd McNair on a flare pass out of the backfield, but LB Mike Caldwell brought the running back down just inches short of the first down with two minutes remaining in the game. The Browns ran out the clock to close with the victory.

HOUSTON 38, CINCINNATI 28

CINCINNATI, SEPT. 24—The Oilers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals 38-28 in front of 46,332 fans at Riverfront Stadium. After fumbling on their opening possession and forcing the Bengals to punt, the Oilers took over at their 20-yard line and used four plays to move 18 yards before QB Chris Chandler connected with rookie WR Chris Sanders for a 58-yard score and a 7-0 lead. Following another Bengals punt, Houston started at their 16-yard line and marched 84 yards in four plays with the drive culminating in a Chandler-to-WR Haywood Jeffires 23-yard hookup, giving the Oilers an early 14-0 lead. The Bengals responded when RB Harold Green scored from 23 yards out on the second play of the second quarter to cut the Oilers lead to 14-7. On the Oilers ensuing drive, the team used 11 plays to move 74 yards, topped by a Chandler 8-yard pass to rookie RB Rodney Thomas for the score and a 21-7 Houston advantage. Cincinnati came back with a 10-play, 78-yard drive in which QB Jeff Blake connected with WR Carl Pickens for an 8-yard score, cutting the Houston lead to 21-14 with 3:04 remaining in the first half. On their next possession, the Oilers used 1:52 to move 70 yards in four plays, the last 46 yards were covered by a second Chandler-to-Sanders touchdown connection, increasing the Oiler lead to 28-14 at the half. The Bengals took the second half kickoff and converted it into a touchdown to close with 28-21 on just three plays, the last of which was a Blake-to-WR Darnay Scott 51-yard score. Starting at their 30-yard line following the kickoff, the Oilers pieced together an eight-play, 70-yard drive that was capped by a Rodney Thomas 1-yard run for the touchdown and a 35-21 advantage. On the ensuing kickoff, converted LB John Henry Mills forced a David Dunn fumble (recovered by WR Travis Hannah) and the Oilers took over on the Bengals' 25-yard line. However, for the first time the team was unable to convert on a third-down situation, and settled for a K Al Del Greco 41-yard field goal and a 38-21 lead with 6:24 left in the third quarter. The Bengals scored the game's final touchdown when Blake hit TE Tony McGee from a yard out to cap a five-play, 80-yard drive with 3:42 remaining in the contest.

GAME #5

JACKSONVILLE 17, HOUSTON 16

HOUSTON, OCT. 1—The Oilers were defeated by the Jacksonville Jaguars in front of 36,346 fans at Houston's Astrodome. The Jaguars' Darren Carrington intercepted QB Chris Chandler's first pass of the game and returned it to the Oilers' 20-yard line. Five plays later, FB Ryan Christopherson carried the ball over from 1 yard out for a Jaguars touchdown and 7-0 lead. Following an Oilers punt, Jacksonville took possession on their 24-yard line and used seven plays to move 72 yards before settling for a K Mike Hollis 22-yard field goal and a 10-0 lead. After both teams exchanged two punts, the Oilers took over at their 27-yard line and pieced together a 13-play, 62-yard drive that culminated in a 29-yard K Al Del Greco field goal, cutting the Oilers deficit to 10-3. The Oilers got the ball back on their 29-yard line after DT Ray Childress forced a RB James Stewart fumble and DT Glenn Montgomery recovered it. The offense then moved 36 yards in 1:40 for Del Greco's second offering of the day, a 53-yarder, and a 10-6 halftime score. On the Jaguars opening possession of the second half, DE Kenny Davidson sacked QB Steve Beuerlein, forcing a fumble, which Davidson recovered at the Jaguars' 43-yard line. Nine plays later, Chandler found RB Rodney Thomas for 17-yard touchdown pass that gave the Oilers their first lead of the day at 13-10 with 8:20 left in the third quarter. Following a Jacksonville punt, the Oilers consumed 6:45 while using 14 plays to move 67 yards for Del Greco's third kick of the game, a 32-yarder, and 16-10 lead with 14:11 remaining in the contest. Two plays later, CB Darryll Lewis intercepted a Beuerlein pass and returned it 12 yards to Jacksonville's 26-yard line. But, two plays later, RB Rodney Thomas fumbled into the Jaguars end zone (recovered by LB Reggie Clark) and the scoring opportunity was lost. Following two Jaguar punts and one Oilers punt, the Oilers gained possession on their 43-yard line with 2:47 remaining in the game. However, two plays later Rodney Thomas fumbled and Jacksonville recovered (S Darren Carrington) at the Oilers' 45-yard line with 2:27 left. The Jaguars then used four plays to move to the 15-yard line before QB Mark Brunell found WR Desmond Howard for the score and a Jaguars' 17-16 lead. With 1:03 remaining, the Oilers used seven pass plays and four completions to move 41 yards. With four seconds left, Del Greco's fourth kick of the day hooked wide left from 52 yards out as time expired.

MINNESOTA 23, HOUSTON 17 (OT)

MINNEAPOLIS, OCT. 8—The Oilers were defeated by the Minnesota Vikings in front of 56,430 fans at Minnesota's Metrodome 23-17 in overtime. In the game, the Oilers opened with a 16-play, 73-yard drive that resulted in a K Al Del Greco 19-yard field goal and an Oiler 3-0 lead. The Vikings' K Fuad Reveiz then countered with 38-yard field goal to tie the game at 3-3. The Oilers marched 46 yards in 10 plays for another Del Greco offering, this time a 50-yarder, and a 6-3 lead. The Vikings responded, with a nine-play, 39-yard scoring drive that was aided by a WR David Palmer 42-yard kickoff return and an Oilers' penalty on a fourth-down field goal attempt. The drive was culminated by a QB Warren Moon-to-WR Cris Carter 4-yard pass play. Trailing 10-6, the Oilers turned the ball over on their next possession and the Vikings took over on Houston's 40-yard line with 5:08 left in the first half. On the sixth play of that drive, CB Darryll Lewis stepped in front of a Moon pass intended for Carter and raced 78 yards for an apparent touch-down, however, the play was nullified by a roughing the passer call. Moon hit Carter on the next play for 17-yard score and a 17-6 Vikings halftime lead. On the third play of the Vikings opening series of the second half, Darryll Lewis picked off a Moon pass and the Oilers took over at Vikings' 45-yard line. However, the Oilers were unable to convert the turnover and punted the ball back to Minnesota. The Vikings started their second drive of the third quarter at the their 10-yard line, and on the third play of that drive, S Chuck Cecil intercepted a Moon pass and returned 20 yards for a score. A RB Rodney Thomas two-point conversion closed the deficit to 17-14 with 10:45 remaining in the third quarter. After both teams exchanged several punts, the Oilers took possession on their 21-yard line with 12:53 left in the contest. The Oilers marched 53 yards in 10 plays before settling for a Del Greco 44-yard field goal to tie the score at 17-17. In overtime, the Vikings won the toss and were forced to punt. However, they pinned the Oilers offense back inside their own 5-yard line. With Will Furrer, replacing an injured Chris Chandler (shoulder), the Oilers moved to the 55-yard line before a CB Dewayne Washington interception that eventually led to the Vikings winning touchdown, a 20-yard run by RB Robert Smith 7:50 remaining in the extra period.

GAME #7

CHICAGO 35, HOUSTON 32

CHICAGO, OCT. 22—The Oilers were defeated by the Chicago Bears 35-32 in front of 63,545 fans at Soldier Field. After the Bears took the opening kick-off and both teams exchanged turnovers on their first offensive plays, the Bears took possession on the Oilers' 41-yard line and used six plays to move 31 yards before settling for a K Kevin Butler 28-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead. The Bears increased their lead to 6-0 when they pieced together a 13-play, 79-yard drive that resulted in a Butler 22-yard effort. After another Houston punt, the Bears used just three plays, the last a 76-yard touchdown pass from QB Erik Kramer to WR Curtis Conway, to move 79 yards. Trailing 13-0, the Oilers were backed up deep in their own end, and on a 2nd-and-15 from the 5-yard line, QB Chris Chandler was sacked for a safety by DE Al Fontenot, improving the Chicago lead to 15-0. Following the Oilers free kick, the Bears marched 57 yards in seven plays, culminated by a RB Rashaan Salaam 1-yard run for a touchdown and a 22-0 Houston deficit. Following a TE Michael Roan fumble at the Bears' 18-yard line, Chicago moved 52 yards in 11 plays to setup Butler's 47-yard offering and a 25-0 Bears lead. With 4:56 remaining in the first half, the Oilers finally got on the scoreboard when QB Chris Chandler found RB Todd McNair for a 24-yard score to cap a six-play, 74-yard drive. After QB Chris Chandler successfully carried the ball in for the two-point conversion, the Oilers trailed 25-8. The Bears responded with a six-play, 29-yard drive that resulted in Butlers' fourth field goal of the half and increased the margin to 28-8 with 1:26 left in the half. On the second play of the Oilers' ensuing possession, Chandler was sacked by DE Alonzo Spellman, fumbled and Chicago recovered at the Houston 17-yard line with 51 seconds left. However, on a 2nd-and-goal from the 3, with 22 seconds left, CB Darryll Lewis stepped in front of Kramer's pass intended for WR Jeff Graham and raced 98 yards for a touchdown, cutting the margin to 28-15 at the half. Houston close to within 28-22 with a three-play, 80-yard drive ending with HB Frank Wycheck's 1-yard dive. On the Bears next possession, DT Gary Walker forced a Salaam fumble which CB Cris Dishman recovered on the Bears' 42. Houston then used seven plays to cover 20 yards before settling for an Al Del Greco 39-yard kick and a 28-25 deficit. The Bears responded with a 73-yard march culminated by a Kramer-to-Graham 18-yard score on the 12th play and a Chicago 35-25 lead. The Oilers moved 83 yards in 11 plays capped by a Chandler-to-WR Haywood Jeffires 6-yard pass play for the game's final score. The Bears recovered an attempted onside kick and ran out the clock.

GAME #8

HOUSTON 19, TAMPA BAY 7

HOUSTON, OCT. 29—The Oilers defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 19-7 in front of 31,489 fans at Houston's Astrodome. The Oilers controlled the ball for more than 41 minutes, including an 18-play, 74-yard drive that consumed 9:33, and led to a K Al Del Greco 19-yard field goal to open the game. Following a Tampa Bay punt, the Oilers moved 21 yards in six plays before Del Greco connected from 45 yards out to give Houston a 6-0 lead. The Bucs responded with a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in a QB Trent Dilfer 21-yard scramble for a score and a Tampa Bay 7-6 advantage with 10:42 remaining in the first half. On the Oilers ensuing drive, they marched 47 yards in 16 plays consuming 9:17, before Del Greco hit his third offering of the game — this time from 41 yards out — to give the Oilers a 9-7 halftime lead. After each team exchanged two punts, the Buccaneers took possession on their 35-yard line, but on their third play from scrimmage, a Trent Dilfer pass intended for TE Jackie Harris was intercepted by CB Cris Dishman, and the Oilers took over at their 46. The Houston offense then used eight plays to cover 50 yards before RB Marion Butts rumbled for the final 4 yards and a touchdown on the ninth play, to give the Oilers a 16-7 lead. Following another Dishman interception, a Del Greco miss from 50 yards and a Reggie Roby punt, the Oilers took control of the ball at their 11-yard line with 9:54 remaining in the game and proceeded to use 9:13 and 16 plays to move 68 yards before Del Greco connected from 39 yards out to cap the game's scoring.

GAME #9 HOUSTON 37, CLEVELAND 10

CLEVELAND, NOV. 5—The Oilers defeated the Cleveland Browns 37-10 in front of 57,881 fans at Cleveland Stadium. After forcing the Oilers to punt on their first possession, the Browns opened the game's scoring when they marched 76 yards in 12 plays, which culminated in a QB Eric Zeier-to-WR Andre Rison 4-yard pass and a Browns' 7-0 lead. The Oilers responded with a ten-play, 49-yard drive that resulted in a K Al Del Greco 44-yard field goal. After the Browns' Matt Stover missed short from 50 yards out, the Oilers used 4:52 to move 58 yards before QB Chris Chandler ran two yards for a touchdown on the ninth play of the drive. Leading 10-7, the Houston defense forced a WR Michael Jackson fumble (forced by LB Joe Bowden, recovered by S Blaine Bishop) and took possession on Houston's 43-yard line. Chandler guided the Oilers offense to a touchdown when he hit WR Haywood Jeffires from 23 yards away to cap a seven-play, 57-yard drive and gave the Oilers a 17-7 halftime lead. The Browns took the second half kickoff and marched 60 yards in eight plays before settling for a Stover 20-yard field goal, cutting the Houston advantage to 17-10. However, on the Oilers ensuing drive, they used just four plays to move 66 yards capped by a Chandler 15-yard pass to WR Malcolm Seabron to give Houston a 24-10 lead. On the Browns next possession, DE Kenny Davidson intercepted a Zeier pass intended for RB Ernest Byner. With the Oilers taking over at the Browns' 49-yard line, they used four plays to move 21 yards before settling for a Del Greco 45-yarder and a 27-10 lead. Cleveland's next possession ended on its third play with CB Darryll Lewis picking off Zeier and returning it 25 yards to the Cleveland 30. The Oilers then used six plays to move 10 yards before Del Greco connected on his third offering of the game — this time from 37 yards out — and the Oilers increased the lead to 30-10. On the Browns ensuing possession, S Blaine Bishop intercepted a Zeier pass and returned 62 yards for the game's final score with 13:03 remaining in the contest.

GAME #10 CINCINNATI 32, HOUSTON 25

HOUSTON, NOV. 12—The Oilers fell to the Cincinnati Bengals 32-25 in front of 32,998 fans at Houston's Astrodome. The Bengals took the opening kickoff, and after a penalty was added to the 46-yard return by Jeff Hill, the Bengals started at the Oilers' 26-yard line. Four plays later they took a 7-0 lead when RB Eric Bientemy scored on a 1-yard run. The Oilers responded with a 10-play, 46-yard drive that resulted in a K Al Del Greco 40-yard field goal. Trailing 7-3, LB Eddie Robinson intercepted a QB Jeff Blake pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown and a Houston 10-7 lead. The Bengals took the ensuing kickoff and marched 72 yards on nine plays before for a 33-yard field goal from K Doug Pelfrey and a 10-10 tie. The Bengals moved out 13-10 after receiving the ball at their 2-yard line and using 14 plays to move 66 yards, capped by a Pelfrey 49-yard effort. On the ensuing kickoff, CB Chris Shelling forced a KR Mel Gray fumble and the Bengals recovered at the Oilers' 12-yard line. Three plays later, Pelfrey hit from 27 yards out to give the Bengals a 16-10 advantage. The Oilers would take over at their 36-yard line and use 11 plays to move 48 yards before Del Greco connected on a 34-yarder to close the gap to 16-13 at the half. After CB Darryl Williams intercepted a pass from QB Chris Chandler on Houston's first drive of the second half, Blake capped an eight-play, 69-yard drive with a 50-yard score to WR Carl Pickens for a 23-13 Cincy lead. On the Oilers' next possession, they lost Chandler for the game (lower leg), and then surrendered a safety when a Rich Camarillo punt was blocked by Williams out of the end zone. Trailing 25-13, the Oilers forced a Bengals' punt and then used 12 plays to move 73 yards before Del Greco connected from 34 yards out, cutting the Cincy lead to 25-16 with 11:26 left in the game. After forcing a Cincinnati punt, Gray fumbled and the Bengals recovered at the Oilers' 12-yard line. On the next play, Blake found Pickens for the second time and a 32-16 Cincy lead. QB Will Furrer then guided Houston 77 yards on 12 plays before hitting WR Chris Sanders for a 3-yard score on the 13th play. Trailing 32-22 after a failed two-point attempt, the Oilers attempted an onside kick but could not capitalize. The Oilers then used their time outs and forced a Cincinnati punt. On the punt, Lee Johnson dropped the ball and RB Dennis Lundy recovered at the Cincinnati 22 and returned it 16 yards to the Cincinnati 4-yard line. Three plays later, Del Greco closed the Bengals' lead to 32-25 when he connected from 23 yards out. However, for the second time, Bengals' Pickens was able to secure the attempted onside kick and Cincy ran out the clock.

GAME #11

KANSAS CITY 20, HOUSTON 13

KANSAS CITY, NOV. 19—The Oilers fell to the Kansas City Chiefs 20-13 in front of 77,576 fans at Arrowhead Stadium. After both teams exchanged punts to open the game, the Oilers began their second drive at their own 20-yard line. Facing a 3rd-and-11, QB Chris Chandler's pass was deflected off the hands of second-year receiver Malcolm Seabron and was intercepted by LB Anthony Davis at the Houston 33-yard line. The Chiefs moved the ball 3 yards on three plays before settling for a K Lin Elliott 47-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead. On the Oilers next possession, Chandler was again intercepted — this time by DB Willie White at the Houston 39-yard line — and returned it 30 yards to the Oilers 9. Three plays later, QB Steve Bono found former Houston receiver Webster Slaughter for a 3-yard score to increase the Chiefs lead to 10-0. After both teams exchanged punts and the Oilers turned the ball over on downs, the Chiefs took possession at their 42-yard line. On the second play of that drive, CB Cris Dishman stepped in front of a Bono pass intended for WR Willie Davis and recorded his third interception of the season with 5:02 left in the first half. The offense responded with a ten-play, 55-yard drive that was capped by a Chandler-to-WR Chris Sanders 1-yard touchdown pass. After a failed two-point attempt, the Oilers entered the second half trailing 10-6. Following a scoreless third quarter of action, the Chiefs increased their lead to 13-6 early in the fourth quarter when Elliott connected from 21 yards out, following a ten-play, 34-yard drive set up by a DT Joe Phillips interception off a Chandler pass. Following an exchange of punts, the Oilers took possession at their 35-yard line with 4:42 left in the contest. The offense proceeded to march 65 yards on nine plays for the tying score — a Chandler-to-Sanders 40-yard connection on 4th-and-25 with 1:55 remaining in the game. After the Oilers defense forced a Kansas City punt, the Oilers offense started at their 15-yard line with 51 seconds left in the game. After a screen for no gain, RB Todd McNair took a draw and raced 17 yards up the middle of the field, but fumbled after being hit by Doug Terry and Mark Collins. Collins returned the fumble 36 yards for the game's winning touchdown.

GAME #12

HOUSTON 42, DENVER 33

HOUSTON, NOV. 26—The Oilers defeated the Denver Broncos in front of 36,115 fans at Houston's Astrodome. The Broncos opened the scoring when K Jason Elam capped the club's first drive by connecting on a 56-yard field goal to open the game and give the Broncos an early 3-0 advantage. The Oilers responded with a touchdown when RB Rodney Thomas ran 74 yards for a score on the team's second play of the game. Trailing 7-3, the Broncos regained the lead three plays later when QB John Elway connected with WR Anthony Miller for a 50-yard score, giving Denver a 10-7 lead. The Oilers then pieced together a nine-play, 73-yard drive that culminated in a QB Chris Chandler-to-WR Chris Sanders 36-yard score and a 14-10 Oilers' lead. After Elam missed wide left from 48 yards out, the Oilers took possession on their own 38-yard line and used six plays to move 61 yards before RB Marion Butts carried the ball over from 1-yard out on the seventh play of the drive to give the Oilers a 21-10 lead. After both teams exchanged turnovers, Broncos' rusher Terrell Davis went around the left end for 60 yards and a touchdown cutting the Oilers lead to 21-17 with 5:31 left in the first half. The Oilers responded with a five-play, 65-yard drive that ended when Chandler hit Sanders for a second time from 35 yards out. Leading 28-17, the Oilers opened the second half with a 12-play, 72-yard drive that finished with a Chandler-to-WR Haywood Jeffires 12-yard score and a Houston 35-17 advantage.

Denver came back with a 38-yard drive that pulled them to within 11, at 35-24, when RB Aaron Craver scored on a 1-yard run. Following an Oilers punt, the Broncos marched 50 yards on 13 plays before Elam hit his second offering of the game (35-yarder) to close Denver to within eight at 35-27 with 12:08 remaining in the game. However, the Oilers offense countered with a nine-play, 82-yard drive that resulted in a RB Marion Butts 5-yard score and an Oilers 42-27 advantage with 6:49 left in the contest. The Broncos scored five plays later when Elway found Miller for their second score of the game, a 35-yarder. But, the Broncos two-point attempt failed and Houston held on for the victory.

PITTSBURGH 21, HOUSTON 7

PITTSBURGH, DEC. 3—The Oilers were defeated by the Pittsburgh Steelers 21-7 in front of 56,013 fans at Three Rivers Stadium. After the Oilers had punted four times in the first quarter and the Steelers three, the Steelers took possession on their 49-yard line with 52 seconds left in the first period and proceeded to score three plays later when QB Neil O'Donnell connected on a 33-yard scoring strike with WR Yancy Thigpen. Trailing 7-0, the Oilers responded a series later when QB Chris Chandler hit rookie wideout Chris Sanders for a 76-yard touchdown and a 7-7 tie. After S Chuck Cecil intercepted an O'Donnell pass at the 1-yard line and returned it to the 15, the Oilers were forced to punt with 1:40 left in the first half. The Steelers started the drive at their 41-yard line with the Oilers missing CB Darryll Lewis (knee) and S Blaine Bishop (hamstring). Pittsburgh used six plays to move 59 yards for the touchdown, an O'Donnell-to-TE Mark Bruener 7-yard pass, and a 14-7 halftime lead. With Houston QB Chris Chandler unable to play because of the flu, the second half became a defensive battle in which the Oilers punted six times while the defense forced three turnovers. The game's last score came when Steelers' RB Bam Morris carried the ball in from 30 yards out with 3:27 left in the contest.

GAME #14

DETROIT 24, HOUSTON 17

HOUSTON, DEC. 10—The Oilers were defeated by the Detroit Lions 24-17 in front of 35,842 fans at Houston's Astrodome. The Lions got on the board first when QB Scott Mitchell found WR Herman Moore for a 13-yard score and a Lions 7-0 lead in the first quarter. On the Oilers ensuing drive, the team marched 57 yards on nine plays before QB Chris Chandler connected with WR Haywood Jeffires for a 9-yard score on the team's tenth play of the drive, tying the game at 7-7 with 14:55 left in the first half. Three series later, the Lions capitalized on an Oilers' turnover (RB Rodney Thomas fumble) and moved 23 yards in eight plays, capping the drive with a K Jason Hanson 36-yard field goal, giving the Lions a 10-7 lead with 1:44 remaining in the half. On the Oilers' next play from scrimmage, Chandler was sacked by LB Antonio London and fumbled (recovered by CB Ryan McNeil). Detroit took over at the Oilers' 9-yard line, and on the next play, RB Barry Sanders ran off-tackle to the right side for the Lions' second touchdown and a 17-7 halftime lead. In the second half, after both teams had exchanged three scoreless drives, the Oilers took possession on their 24-yard line following a S Chuck Cecil interception. Rookie Steve McNair, who had replaced Chandler at quarterback to start the second half, led the Oilers on an eight-play, 46-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by K Al Del Greco, cutting the Detroit lead to 17-10 with 15 seconds left in the third quarter. The Lions responded with a five-play, 67-yard drive that resulted in a Mitchell-to-Moore hookup from 14 yards out and a 24-10 Lions lead. After both teams exchanged turnovers, Houston took possession at their 41-yard line. Five plays later, McNair found WR Chris Sanders up the right sideline for a 39-yard touchdown, cutting the Oiler deficit to 24-17 with 8:47 left in the game. On the ensuing kickoff, CB Steve Jackson forced an Allen Williams fumble (recovered by CB Tomur Barnes) and the Oilers took over at the Lions' 39-yard line. However, McNair was intercepted (LB Mike Johnson) after the club had moved to the 4-yard line. The Oilers mustered one last drive in which they marched 50 yards in five plays to the Lions' 12, a McNair pass fell incomplete in the end zone as time expired.

HOUSTON 23, NEW YORK JETS 6

HOUSTON, DEC. 17—The Oilers defeated the New York Jets 23-6 in front of 35,873 fans in Houston's Astrodome. After both teams exchanged punts to open the game, the Oilers took possession on the Jets' 41-yard line following a 20-yard punt return by Mel Gray. The Oilers then used seven plays to move just 9 yards before K Al Del Greco connected from 49 yards out for 3-0 Houston lead. After the Oilers defense forced another New York punt, RB Gary Brown carried three times for 12 yards before rookie QB Steve McNair, who was making his first career start, found WR Haywood Jeffires for a 35-yard score and a 10-0 lead with 38 seconds left in the first period. That's where the score stayed until the Oilers took control of the ball at the Jets' 41-yard line with 1:47 remaining in the first half. Five plays later, Del Greco hit his second offering of the game from 53 yards out to give the Oilers a 13-0 halftime lead. After a scoreless third quarter, the Oilers pieced together an 11-play, 57-yard drive that resulted in a 24-yard field goal and increased the Houston lead to 16-0 with 10:24 left in the game. After another Jets' punt, the Oilers used eight plays to move 85 yards in 4:36 capped by RB Marion Butts' touchdown from 1-yard out, giving the Oilers a 23-0 lead with 4:35 remaining in the game. The Jets responded with a seven-play, 75-yard drive in which QB Boomer Esiason found TE Johnny Mitchell for 17-yard score with 2:27 remaining in the contest. But a two-point attempt and subsequent on-side kick failed and the Oilers ran out the clock with two first downs by Butts, including a fourth-and-1 conversion with 51 seconds left in the game.

GAME #16

HOUSTON 28, BUFFALO 17

ORCHARD PARK, DEC. 24—The Oilers defeated the Buffalo Bills 28-17 in front of 45,253 fans at Buffalo's Rich Stadium. After a scoreless first quarter, Buffalo took control of the ball at their own 12-yard line with 14:05 left in the second stanza. Oiler defensive ends, Anthony Cook and Henry Ford, combined to sack Bills' QB Todd Collins to set up second-and-20 at the Buffalo 2-yard line. From there, Cook would again penetrate the Buffalo front to sack Collins in the end zone for a safety and a 2-0 Oiler lead. The Oilers were forced to punt after the free kick, but regained possession on a CB Steve Jackson interception to give Houston the ball at the Buffalo 26-yard line. Four plays later, K Al Del Greco split the uprights from 39 yards out to convert the turnover into a 5-0 Oiler advantage. Houston extended their lead in the second quarter to 8-0 after a 13-play, 66-yard drive, which culminated in a 33-yard field goal by Del Greco. Down by eight points to start the third quarter, WR Damon Thomas helped set up the Bills' first score by forcing Oiler KR Mel Gray to fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half (recovered by Buffalo S Greg Evans). K Steve Christie turned the Houston miscue into a 44-yard field goal, cutting the Oiler lead to five points. The Oilers responded on their ensuing drive by marching 61 yards in just four plays, topped by a 4-yard touchdown run by RB Rodney Thomas (two-point conversion failed). The score was set up by a 44-yard pass from QB Steve McNair (who was making his second consecutive start) to WR Chris Sanders, and a pair of runs for 15 yards by Thomas. The Oiler defense, who limited the Bills to -14 yards passing in the first half, forced another punt and gave the ball back to the offense on the Buffalo 48-yard line with 8:34 left in the third quarter. Houston then used 4:10 to drive 48 yards for Rodney

Thomas' second score (7-yard run) and a 21-3 lead. TE Frank Wycheck helped to extend the Oiler lead to 28-3 in the fourth quarter by taking a McNair pass 36 yards for a touchdown. Buffalo QB Alex Van Pelt, who took over for Collins in the third quarter, rallied the Bills late in the fourth quarter with a pair of touchdown passes, a 15-yarder to WR Andre Reed and a 19-yarder to WR Justin Armour, but fell short as the Oilers prevailed 28-17.

January 30—Earl Campbell, Elvin Bethea, Robert Brazile and Curley Culp represent Houston in the Pro Bowl in Los Angeles.

August 3—Oiler T Greg Sampson undergoes brain surgery which signals the end to a promising career.

December 10—Before national television audience, Houston defeats division nemesis Pittsburgh 20-17, giving Oilers spot in 1979 playoffs.

December 17—Several Oilers lock up individual titles: Earl Campbell is NFL rushing champion for the second consecutive year; Mike Reinfieldt captures the crown for most interceptions in NFL with 12; Toni Fritsch is the most accurate field goal kicker, connecting on 21-25 attempts; and Jesse Baker leads the AFC in QB sacks with 15 1/2.

December 23—In first playoff game played in Houston since 1962, Oilers defeat Denver Broncos 13-7. Key offensive players Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini and Ken Burrough are all injured, and their status for the following game versus San Diego is questionable.

December 29—Oilers defeat San Diego 17-14 without injured Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini and Ken Burrough. Backup QB Gifford Nielsen plays conservative offense as Rob Carpenter, who was injured earlier in the week and was on crutches the night before the game, gains 67 yards rushing in his best effort of the season. The big star of the game is S Vernon Perry as he intercepts an NFL-record four passes in a playoff game.

January 6—In a rematch of the 1978 AFC Championship Game, the Steelers win 27-13 in a game that saw a controversial call keep Mike Renfro from scoring what would have been tying score late in third quarter.

January 7—In the wee hours of the morning, the Oilers return from Pittsburgh to an excited throng of 70,000 people at the Astrodome.

January 28—Six Oilers represent Houston in the Pro Bowl: RB Earl Campbell, T Leon Gray, PK Toni Fritsch, LB Robert Brazile, S Mike Reinfieldt and DE Elvin Bethea.

September 15—Before the largest stadium crowd to ever witness an Oilers' game (80,245), Houston defeats the Browns in Cleveland Stadium 16-7. The game was also televised before a national audience on Monday Night Football.

October 14—Oilers acquire All-Pro TE Dave Casper from Oakland for undisclosed draft picks.

October 19—Earl Campbell becomes only the second RB in the history of the Oiler franchise to rush for over 200 yards in a single game when he leads the Oilers to a 21-14 triumph over Tampa Bay with 206 yards. Club rushing record for single game is 216 yards by Billy Cannon (Dec. 10, 1961 vs. New York Titans)

October 26—Earl Campbell ties NFL record for most consecutive 200-yard games rushing (two) with 202 yards vs. Cincinnati in the Astrodome. Campbell now shares record with O.J. Simpson (Buffalo, 1973, 1976). Oilers defeat Bengals 23-3.

December 4—Houston's defense shuts out the Pittsburgh Steelers 6-0. Toni Fritsch provides all the points the Oilers need with two field goals. This marked the third evening prime time win of the season for the Oilers as the game was played in the Astrodome before a sell-out crowd and a national television audience. It marked the first shutout registered by the Oilers since a 47-0 win over the Chicago Bears. (November 6, 1977).

December 21—Oilers clinch third playoff spot in as many years with 20-16 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the Astrodome. Earl Campbell sets NFL record by rushing for over 200 yards in single game four times in one season. He finishes season with 1,934 yards, second highest total in NFL history behind O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. The Oilers must wait until the final game of the season to see who their playoff opponent will be, as their 11-5 record equals that of division foe Cleveland, but Oilers become Wild Card participant due to tie-breaker procedures.

December 28—Oilers season comes to an end with disappointing AFC Wild Card loss at the hands of the eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders. The loss marks the third consecutive year that the Oilers have been eliminated from the playoff picture by the eventual Super Bowl champions (Pittsburgh Steelers in both 1978 and 1979).

December 31—K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., relieves Bum Phillips of his duties as Head Coach and General Manager. Ladd K. Herzeg is promoted from post of Senior Vice-President/Chief Administrative Officer to the position of Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the Oilers.

November 11—Oilers defeat Chiefs 17-16 in Kansas City after losing opening ten games of the season as Hugh Campbell gets first win as NFL head coach.

November 18—Houston wins second consecutive game as Jets fall by a 31-20 margin in the Astrodome. Warren Moon again hits for over 70% of his attempts (20 of 28 for 71%) and throws for three TDs. Larry Morarty rushes for 138 yards for second consecutive 100-plus yard game.

December 2—Houston defeats Steelers in overtime thriller 23-20 for third win in four weeks before home crowd. Joe Cooper kicks winning field goal with 5:53 elapsed in extra period. It is the first overtime loss in Steeler history.

December 12—G Mike Munchak is selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game in Honolulu.

December 17—Warren Moon completes his first NFL season with 3,338 yards passing, breaking the team record set by George Blanda in 1961 (3,330). Tim Smith's 1,141 yards receiving enabled him to become third player in Oilers' history to post consecutive 1,000 yard receiving seasons after gaining 1,176 in 1983. Bill Groman (1960-61) and Charlie Hennigan (1963-64) were the others.

1985

July 1—The Oilers sign 1983 Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier. Rozier was selected by the Oilers in the first round of the 1984 Supplemental Draft of USFL players.

July 2—WR Drew Hill is acquired by the Oilers in a trade with the Los Angeles Rams.

August 3—The Oilers battle the New York Giants in the annual NFL Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, with the Giants winning 21-20. The game also makes radio history as the first stereo broadcast of an NFL game on KODA-FM.

December 9—Hugh Campbell is relieved of his duties as head coach. The club names Defensive Coordinator Jerry Glanville as interim head coach for the season's remaining two games.

September 23—The Oilers win their 1990 home opener 24-10 over the Indianapolis Colts as QB Warren Moon becomes the all-time leading passer in club history. Moon throws for 308 yards (plus 3 TDs) to surpass George Blanda's team record of 19,149 yards. The record fell on a third quarter seven-yard pass to WR Haywood Jeffires. WR Drew Hill catches ten passes for 123 yards to help key the victory.

September 30—The Oilers capture their first road win of the season, defeating the Chargers 17-7 as QB Warren Moon throws for 355 yards, and WR Drew Hill records his 50th career touchdown. Moon's 27 completions allows him to pass Dan Pastorini's club record of 1,426.

October 14—QB Warren Moon passes for 369 yards and a career-best five TDs as the Oilers hammer the Cincinnati Bengals 48-17. Moon thus becomes the first player in pro football history to throw for over 20,000 yards in two different leagues (21,228 in Canadian Football League).

December 2—Despite losing 15-10 in overtime at Seattle, QB Warren Moon's 232 passing yards allow him to break his own single-season club passing record of 3,631 yards (set in 1989).

December 9—The Oilers shatter several team records while drubbing Cleveland 58-14. Included among the records set are most points in a game, in a quarter (31) and in a half (45). RB Lorenzo White ties a club mark with four rushing touchdowns, the first time that's been accomplished in the NFL in two years.

December 16—The Oilers win a key road game, beating Kansas City 27-10 at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Warren Moon again supplies the big news, completing 27 of 45 passes for 527 yards. That represents the second best single game passing performance in NFL history. The record belongs to the Rams' Norm Van Brocklin, who threw for 554 yards against the New York Yanks on September 28, 1951. Moon had an opportunity to break the record but declined to do so based on the Oilers' comfortable lead. Almost overshadowed by Moon's effort was WR Haywood Jeffires catching nine balls for 245 yards (including 87-yard TD) which marked the second best receiving day in Oiler history. Charles Hennigan had 272 receiving yards versus the Patriots on October 13, 1961.

December 19—Six Oilers are named to the AFC squad for the February 3 Pro Bowl. The six include starters G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon and G Mike Munchak, plus reserves DT Ray Childress, WR Ernest Givins and WR Drew Hill.

December 23—The Oilers lose an opportunity to cement their grasp on first place in the AFC Central Division by losing at Cincinnati 40-20. Additionally, QB Warren Moon is lost for the remainder of the season after suffering an open dislocation of his throwing thumb.

December 29—Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams and San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell jointly announce a tentative agreement for the Oilers to hold their annual summer training camp in San Antonio. Also it is announced that the Oilers will serve as the host team for preseason games in San Antonio's Alamodome when that facility is completed in 1993.

December 30—Led by back-up QB Cody Carlson, the Oilers earn a wild card playoff berth by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-14 in the Astrodome. Carlson completes 22 of 29 passes for 247 yards and three TDs. With the victory, the Oilers end up in a three-way tie for first place with Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in the AFC Central.

November 10—QB Warren Moon establishes career highs for completions (41) and attempts (56) as he throws for 432 yards, which is fourth best in team history, in Oilers' 26-23 OT victory over Dallas. Moon also passes Fran Tarkenton's 47,003 yards and moves into second place behind Ron Lancaster on all-time professional passing yards chart.

December 8—The Oilers defeat the Steelers 31-6 in the Astrodome as Houston captures its first-ever undisputed AFC Central Division championship. QB Warren Moon throws for 254 yards and becomes just the third QB in NFL history (Miami's Dan Marino, San Diego's Dan Fouts) to have back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons.

December 15—QB Warren Moon surpasses Dan Marino's NFL record (378 in 1986) for completions in a season as the Oilers beat the Browns 17-14.

December 18—Eight Oilers (tied NFL-best), including a league-high six starters are named to the AFC team for the February 2 Pro Bowl. The six starters include CB Cris Dishman, DE William Fuller, WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. DT Ray Childress and QB Warren Moon are also named to the squad although Childress was eventually unable to play because of a back/rib injury.

December 21—WR Haywood Jeffires becomes just the fifth player in NFL history to record 100 receptions in a single season despite the Oilers' 24-20 road loss to the Giants. Coupled with Drew Hill's 90 catches, that pair's 190 represents the most receptions by two teammates in one season in league annals. In addition, QB Warren Moon eclipses Dan Marino's NFL record (623 in 1986) for attempts in a season. DE William Fuller registers his 15th sack of the season and thus becomes the first Oiler ever to lead the conference in that category.

December 29—The Oilers defeat the New York Jets 17-10 in an AFC Wild Card playoff game before 61,485 fans in the Astrodome. S Bubba McDowell intercepts two key passes inside the Oiler five-yard line to preserve the win.

January 4—After leading for most of the game, the Oilers end up losing a heartbreaking 26-24 decision to the Denver Broncos in an AFC Divisional Playoff game in front of 75,301 fans at Mile High Stadium. PK

David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds left in the game proves to be the deciding point. The loss mars a great performance by Oilers QB Warren Moon who completes 75% of his passes (27 of 36) for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

March 6—The Oilers name Steve Underwood as General Counsel. Underwood joins the Oilers from the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst where he has handled most of the team's legal work since 1977.

August 1—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 34-23 in the American Bowl in Tokyo, Japan, which marks Houston's first game outside of the United States.

August 31—The Oilers and QB Warren Moon reach agreement on a new multi-year contract that includes a settlement of a controversial escalator clause.

September 29—The Oilers sign free agent WR Webster Slaughter to a two-year contract. Slaughter had been one of four players who were declared free agents by a Minneapolis judge on September 24.

October 11—In a 38-24 win at Cincinnati, QB Warren Moon ties a personal best with five TD passes to eclipse George Blanda's team record for career touchdown passes (165, Moon now has 169). Also WR Haywood Jeffires catches three TD passes to tie the franchise record, and RB Lorenzo White rushes for a career-best 149 yards.

October 18—QB Warren Moon becomes the leading passer in professional football history by surpassing Ron Lancaster's 50,535 yards (in 19 years). After the Oilers' heartbreaking 27-21 loss at Denver, Moon now has 50,589 yards. Moon's total, accumulated in less than 15 seasons, includes 21,228 yards in the CFL and 29,361 yards in the NFL.

November 15—In Houston's 17-13 win at Minnesota, QB Warren Moon suffers a fractured upper left arm on a fourth quarter hit by Viking S Vencie Glenn and misses the next five games. Despite the injury, Moon becomes just the 14th NFL QB to surpass 30,000 passing yards as he accomplishes that faster (125 games) than any player in league history except for Miami's Dan Marino (114 games).

November 26—Subbing for the injured Warren Moon, QB Cody Carlson throws for a career-high 338 yards as the Oilers defeat the Lions 24-21 on Thanksgiving Day in Detroit.

December 11—After being diagnosed with kidney cancer, Offensive Coordinator Kevin Gilbride undergoes surgery for the removal of his cancerous kidney. He misses two games as Receivers Coach Chris Palmer and injured QB Warren Moon help to handle Gilbride's game day responsibilities.

December 23—An NFL-best nine Oilers earn Pro Bowl honors with four players designated as starters for the February 7 game. The starters include WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. The Houston reserves feature DT Ray Childress, WR Curtis Duncan, WR Ernest Givins, QB Warren Moon and RB Lorenzo White. The inclusion of Jeffires, Givins and Duncan represents the first time ever that three receivers from the same team have been designated as Pro Bowlers.

December 20—Shortly after their exciting, come-from-behind 17-14 win at Cleveland, the Oilers learn that they have clinched a playoff berth for the sixth straight season. That represents the longest current post-season streak in the NFL.

December 27—As Houston routs Buffalo 27-3 in the regular season finale, WR Haywood Jeffires catches six passes to finish with 90 receptions. He thus leads the AFC in that category for the third straight season, becoming only the second player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat.

January 3—The Oilers lose a 41-38 OT decision at Buffalo in an AFC Wild Card playoff game. QB Warren Moon completes 36 of 50 passes for 371 yards and four first half touchdowns.

January 4—The Oilers announce that they will not offer new contracts to Defensive Coordinator Jim Eddy and Defensive Backs Coach Pat Thomas.

January 29—The Oilers name Buddy Ryan as the team's defensive coordinator.

July 2—NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue rules in a dispute between the Oilers and Redskins. Tagliabue completes a trade which sends Washington LB Wilber Marshall to Houston in exchange for the Oilers' third round draft choice in 1994 and their fifth rounder in 1995.

November 14—WR Haywood Jeffires ties a team record with three touchdown receptions and QB Warren Moon throws four TD passes in just over two quarters of playing time as the Oilers rout the Bengals 38-3 at Riverfront Stadium. RB Gary Brown earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors by rushing for 166 yards in his first NFL start which marks the most yards by an Oiler back in 12 years.

November 21—RB Gary Brown explodes for 194 rushing yards to lead Houston to its fifth straight win, a 27-20 victory at Cleveland. Brown's rushing total is the highest by any AFC back in three years and the most by an Oiler in 13 years. His back-to-back running sum of 360 yards is also the team's best in 13 seasons. Brown becomes the first NFL back in ten years to gain over 100 yards in his first two career starts. Also, S Marcus Robertson ties a team record by becoming the first Oiler in 22 years to get three interceptions in a game.

November 28—In the Oilers' 23-3 AstroDome victory over the Steelers, WR Ernest Givins passes Drew Hill's 480 catches to become Houston's all-time leading receiver.

December 5—As Houston captures its seventh straight win with a 33-17 home decision over Atlanta, the Oilers' defense forces seven turnovers (including a team record-tying six interceptions) for its highest such total in 16 years.

December 14—Oiler DT Jeff Alm commits suicide following the death of his best friend in a traffic accident. The Oilers hold a memorial service for their teammate the following day.

December 19—The Oilers clinch their second outright AFC Central Division championship with a 26-17 win over the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. Houston thus cements a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive season, the longest current streak in the NFL. The Oilers also become just the second team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to go undefeated within the AFC's Central Division (also 1975 Steelers). Against Pittsburgh, PK Al Del Greco surpasses the team record of 115 points in a single season.

December 28—G Mike Munchak establishes an Oiler record by being named to the Pro Bowl for the ninth time (Elvin Bethea had eight appearances).

January 2—The Oilers close the regular season with their club record 11th consecutive win, a 24-0 shutout of the Jets in the AstroDome. The winning streak is the longest in the NFL in nine years as the Oilers become just the fifth team in league history to close a season with 11 straight victories. The Oilers also set a franchise record with 12 wins for the season and go undefeated in both November and December for just the third time ever. Amazingly, RB Gary Brown finished with 1,002 yards in just eight starts.

January 27—The Oilers promote Assistant General Manager Floyd Reese to the position of Executive Vice-President/General Manager. Reese succeeds Mike Holovak who assumes the title of Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting.

February 8—The Oilers promote Kevin Gilbride to Assistant Head Coach/Offense and name Dick Coury as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

February 9—Houston names Jeff Fisher as its new Defensive Coordinator, replacing Buddy Ryan who left the Oilers to become General Manager/Head Coach of the Arizona Cardinals.

April 13—The Minnesota Vikings announce that they have reached an agreement to acquire QB Warren Moon from the Oilers in exchange for draft choices.

August 15—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys, 6-0, before 112,376 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. The in-house attendance is the largest ever for an NFL game.

September 4—WR Ernest Givins becomes Oilers' all-time receiving yardage leader, surpassing Drew Hill's mark of 7,477. Givins would end the season with 7,935 yards on 542 career receptions.

November 6—G Mike Munchak, who announced his retirement on July 21, 1994 to join the Oilers under the title of Assistant to Football Operations, is honored by Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., by having his #63 jersey retired at halftime ceremonies of Oilers-Steelers game.

November 14—After a 1-9 start, Head Coach Jack Pardee and Assistant Head Coach/Offense Kevin Gilbride are relieved of their duties. Jeff Fisher is elevated to title of Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator.

December 24—Houston closes out season with 24-10 victory over the New York Jets for Fisher's first win as a head coach.

1995

January 5—Oilers announce that Jeff Fisher will remain as head coach, officially becoming the 15th head coach in franchise history.

January 17—As his first hire, Fisher brings in Jerry Rhome under the title of Offensive Coordinator.

March 3—The Oilers jump into the free agent pool and sign the NFL's all-time leading kickoff returner, Mel Gray. Gray joins the Oilers after successful stints with the Detroit Lions and New Orleans Saints.

March 7—The team announces five-year contract with KHTV/Channel 39 to broadcast Oilers' preseason games. The pact reunites the team and KHTV, which carried Oilers preseason action in '89.

March 23—Houston lures in one of the most coveted unrestricted free agents by signing C Mark Stepnoski from the Dallas Cowboys.

March 28—The Oilers sign veteran QB Chris Chandler from the Rams.

April 22—With the third overall choice in the draft, Houston selects Alcorn State QB Steve McNair.

July 25—QB Steve McNair signs contract at press conference held at Oilers' training camp.

August 11—Tennessee newspaper reports that Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen is meeting with Oiler officials. Nashville is willing to build new stadium if it will attract a professional team. K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Bredesen execute an agreement that gives the City of Nashville a 70-day exclusive negotiating period with the Houston Oilers to build a stadium and relocate the team.

August 19—Oilers-Chargers preseason game is canceled by NFL after field is deemed unplayable for safety reasons.

September 3—The Oilers travel to Jacksonville and defeat the Jaguars 10-3 in the expansion team's inaugural game.

September 24—QB Chris Chandler connects on 23 of 26 passes for 352 yards and four TDs, leading Oilers to a 38-28 win over the Bengals at Riverfront Stadium. Chandler's 88.46 completion percentage misses the NFL record by one completion. Chandler, who hooked up with rookie WR Chris Sanders on TD passes of 58 and 46 yards, is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week.

November 2—Oilers' long-time equipment assistant Bill "Mojo" Lackey passes away after a massive stroke.

November 5—Oilers win 37-10 over Browns and dedicate game to "Mojo" and his family. The win marks the Oilers' largest margin of victory at Cleveland since a 40-10 decision on Oct. 12, 1975.

November 12—K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and the Oilers announce the establishment of the Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award, which would be given to the player, coach or front office staff member that best exemplifies the qualities of the former equipment assistant. A $10,000 check is given to the winner to be awarded to charity in his or her name.

November 16—K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen sign a relocation agreement to move the Oilers to Tennessee.

December 14—G Bruce Matthews, S Blaine Bishop, CB Darryll Lewis and C Mark Stepnoski are selected to the Pro Bowl. Matthews sets the Oiler mark for consecutive selections with his eighth straight Pro Bowl honor.

December 17—Paul "Hoss" Noska, equipment assistant, is honored with the First Annual Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award.

March 26—Oilers sign veteran WR Willie Davis from the Kansas City Chiefs.

April 20—After trading down in the first round (from 9th to 17th) to acquire extra picks from Oakland, General Manager Floyd Reese and Head Coach Jeff Fisher execute a trade with the Seattle Seahawks to move back up to the 14th spot in the '96 draft to select Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George from Ohio State. Sent to the Seahawks in the trade was DT Glenn Montgomery.

April 30—The National Football League approves the team's relocation to Nashville in a special owner's meeting held in Atlanta, Georgia.

May 3—Adding more weapons to the offense, the Oilers agree to terms with RB Ronnie Harmon from the San Diego Chargers.

May 7—Voters of Davidson County in Nashville, Tennessee, overwhelmingly approve a referendum held to decide on the use of public funding for a new downtown stadium.

OILERS IN OVERTIME

December 23, 1962 - Dallas 20, at Houston 17: Texans win the toss but elect to kick. Each team gets three cracks at winning the game in the first overtime before K Tommy Brooker's championship-winning 25-yard field goal at 12:06 of the second OT.

October 30, 1977 - at Cincinnati 13, Houston 10: Bengals win the toss. QB Ken Anderson's 17-yard completion to WR Billy Brooks is the long play prior to K Chris Bahr's winning 22-yard field goal at 5:51 of OT.

September 23, 1979 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Oilers win the toss. On opening series, Bengals force Cliff Parsley punt. Cincinnati drives to Oilers' 14-yard line, but K Chris Bahr misses a 32-yard field goal attempt. Houston again has to punt on its ensuing series. The Oiler defense then forces a punt by Bengals' Pat McNally. Houston takes over on the Cincinnati 42. RB Earl Campbell's 15-yard run is the long play prior to K Toni Fritsch's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:28 of OT.

October 28, 1979 - at Houston 27, N.Y. Jets 24: Oilers win the toss. QB Dan Pastorini's 22-yard completion to FB Rob Carpenter is the long play as Oilers drive 58 yards. K Toni Fritsch kicks the winning 35-yard field goal at 5:10 of OT.

November 23, 1980 - at N.Y. Jets 31, Houston 28: Jets win the toss. A personal foul on Houston's Guido Merkens on the kickoff gives New York possession at the Jets' 40-yard line. QB Richard Todd's 17-yard screen pass to RB Bobby Harper is the long play prior to K Pat Leahy's winning 38-yard field goal at 3:58 of OT.

September 4, 1983 - Green Bay 41, at Houston 38: Packers win the toss. RB Eddie Lee Ivey's 12-yard run is the long play as Packers drive 59 yards. K Jan Stenerud kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 5:55 of OT.

October 23, 1983 - Kansas City 13, at Houston 10: Chiefs win the toss. QB Bill Kenney's 20-yard completion to WR Stephone Paige is the long play as Chiefs drive 60 yards. K Nick Lowery kicks the winning 41-yard field goal at 7:41 of OT.

October 30, 1983 - at Cleveland 25, Houston 19: Oilers win the toss. Browns' defense forces a John James punt. Houston defense does the same to Cleveland as Jeff Gossett punts on ensuing series. Oiler QB Gifford Nielsen's pass is intercepted by Cleveland S Mike Whitwell and returned 15 yards to the Houston 20-yard line. On the next play, RB Boyce Green scores a touchdown on a 20-yard run at 6:34 of OT.

December 2, 1984 - at Houston 23, Pittsburgh 20: Oilers win the toss. QB Warren Moon's 19-yard completion to WR Steve Bryant is the long play as Oilers drive 63 yards. K Joe Cooper kicks the winning 30-yard field goal at 5:53 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - Pittsburgh 22, at Houston 16: Oilers win the toss. Steelers' defense forces a Lee Johnson punt that is returned 41 yards to the Oilers' 15-yard line by Pittsburgh's Rick Woods. Two plays later, RB Walter Abercrombie runs three yards for winning touchdown at 2:55 of OT.

November 30, 1986 - at Cleveland 13, Houston 10: Oilers win the toss but elect to kickoff (18-25 MPH winds). Oilers' defense forces a Jeff Gossett punt. QB Oliver Luck, replacing an injured Warren Moon, leads the Oilers to the Cleveland 31-yard line, but then is intercepted by CB Frank Minnifield at the Browns' 21. Again Houston's defense puts the Browns in a punting situation. Once again, Minnifield picks off a Luck pass, returning it to the Oilers' 37. FB Kevin Mack's seven-yard run and QB Bernie Kosar's seven-yard pass to WR Brian Brennan are the long plays prior to K Mark Moseley's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:44 of OT.

*January 3, 1988 - at Houston 23, Seattle 20: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Ruben Rodriguez punt. QB Warren Moon's 15-yard pass to WR Drew Hill is the long play as the Oilers drive 61 yards. K Tony Zendejas kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 8:05 of OT.

September 4, 1988 - Houston 17, at Indianapolis 14: Colts win the toss. On the opening series, QB Gary Hogeboom completes a screen pass to RB Eric Dickerson, but Oiler LB John Grimsley forces a fumble which is recovered by LB Robert Lyles on the Colts' 42-yard line. QB Cody Carlson, substituting for injured Warren Moon, completes a 21-yard pass to WR Ernest Givins for the long play prior to K Tony Zendejas' 35-yard field goal at 3:51 of OT.

September 24, 1989 - Buffalo 47, at Houston 41: Oilers win the toss. Houston takes over on its own 19-yard line and advances to the Buffalo 20 thanks to QB Warren Moon's 32-yard completion to FB Alonzo Highsmith, plus a 17-yard run by Moon and an 11-yarder by Highsmith. K Tony Zendejas attempts a 37-yard field goal, but it is wide left. The Bills assume possession on their own 20 and move 80 yards in seven plays. A 21-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-TB Pete Metzelaars pass precedes the game-winning 28-yard TD catch by WR Andre Reed at 8:42 of OT.

*December 31, 1989 - Pittsburgh 26, at Houston 23: Steelers win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Harry Newsome punt as Houston takes over on its own 45-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White fumbles on the first play as CB Rod Woodson recovers for the Steelers on the Houston 46. RB Merrill Hoge's 11-yard run helps Pittsburgh advance to the Oiler 33 before Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal (his 4th of the game) to win the game at 3:26 of OT.

December 2, 1990 - at Seattle 13, Houston 10: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Rick Donnelly punt as Houston takes over on its own 23-yard line. Oiler WR Bernard Ford fumbles on the first play as LB David Wyman recovers for the Seahawks on the Houston 27. Seattle FB John L. Williams rushes twice for a total of three yards before Norm Johnson kicks a 42-yard field goal to win the game at 4:25 of OT.

November 3, 1991 - at Washington 16, Houston 13: Redskins win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Kelly Goodburn punt as Houston takes over on its own 31-yard line. Oiler QB Warren Moon is intercepted on the second play by CB Darrell Green with Washington taking over on Houston's 33. RB Earnest Byner carries three times for a total of nine yards before Chip Lohmiller kicks a 41-yard field goal to win the game at 4:01 of OT.

November 10, 1991 - at Houston 26, Dallas 23: Oilers win the toss. Cowboys' defense forces a Greg Montgomery punt as Dallas takes over on its own 24-yard line. The Cowboys move to the Oiler 24-yard line where they have a first down following a Houston holding penalty. Dallas RB Emmitt Smith gains seven yards but fumbles after a hit by LB Lamar Lathon with Oiler S Bo Orlando recovering at the Houston 15. The Oilers then embark on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in which QB Warren Moon completes all seven of his passes for 70 yards. On second down, K Al Del Greco kicks a 23-yard field goal at 14:31 of OT.

September 20, 1992 - at Houston 23, Kansas City 20: Chiefs win the toss. On the third play of OT, Kansas City WR J.J. Birden fumbles after a hit by Houston CB Cris Dishman with DT Doug Smith recovering the ball at the Chief's 23-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White runs once for two yards before K Al Del Greco boots the game-winning 39-yard field goal at 1:55 of OT.

*January 3, 1993 - at Buffalo 41, Houston 38: Oilers win the toss. On third-and-three from Houston's 27-yard line, QB Warren Moon is intercepted by Buffalo CB Nate Odomes who returns the ball to the Oiler 35. On the return, Houston WR Haywood Jeffires is penalized for a face mask infraction which moves the ball to the Oilers' 20. After a pair of Kenneth Davis runs net six yards, K Steve Christie kicks a 32-yard field goal to win the game at 3:06 of OT.

November 6, 1994 - Pittsburgh 12, at Houston 9: Steelers win the toss. Both teams exchange five punts before the Oilers gain possession on their 12-yard line with 4:30 left in the extra period. On the first play from scrimmage, RB Gary Brown scoots up the middle for 8 yards before being hit by CB Rod Woodson, he fumbles and the Steelers take over at the Oilers 22-yard line. Two plays later, K Gary Anderson hits from 40 yards out for the winning score at 3:36 of OT.

October 8, 1995 - at Minnesota 23, Houston 17: Vikings win the toss. The Vikings move the ball to their 38-yard line but are forced to punt. Minnesota P Mike Saxon then pins the Oilers in at their 8-yard line with a 54-yard boot. On his third carry of overtime, RB Rodney Thomas scampers 27 yards to give the Oilers a first down at their 35. QB Will Furrer, who replaced Chris Chandler after he injured his shoulder while being sacked on the Oilers' last offensive series in the fourth quarter, is intercepted on his second pass attempt by CB Dewayne Washington (25-yard return). RB Robert Smith takes his third consecutive carry of OT 20 yards for the winning score with 7:10 gone in the extra stanza.

Media Info

OILERS RADIO

The '96 campaign marks KTRH's 16th year of broadcasting Houston Oiler football games. KTRH broadcasted Oiler football from 1976-84 and were reunited with the Oilers again in 1990.

Handling the play-by-play chores for his third season will be KTRH Sports Director Russ Small, who was the Oilers' color analyst from 1992-93.

PRESEASON TV

For the second consecutive year, KHTV (Channel 39) will carry Houston Oilers' preseason football. The Oilers and KHTV were reunited in '95 after the station carried games during the summer of '89.

Ron Franklin, who previously did play-by-play for Oilers' radio broadcasts from 1971-1982, will again call the action this summer.

Franklin is nationally-known as an ESPN play-by-play commentator for the cable network's prime-time College Football Association telecasts and NCAA basketball games. He currently operates his own production company, "Ron Franklin Productions," in Austin, Texas.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Telephone or written requests must be made at least three working days in advance to Dave Pearson, Director of Media Relations and Services; Houston Oilers, 8030 El Rio, Houston, Texas 77054 (713/881-3500). Reserved credentials can be picked up at Press Will Call, located at the Astrodome's Loading Dock on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Oilers' Media Relations Department. Due to space limitations, it is not possible to issue credentials to freelance photographers. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench areas.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Astrodome press box, enter the stadium at the Loading Dock entrance between the West and South gates (where the TV trucks are parked). Take the press elevator to Level 5 and turn right on the concourse. Follow the concourse until it ends, and you will be in the working press area. Visiting radio is located in Booth 567 while network TV announcers will be in Booth 571. All broadcasting booths are located on the fifth floor concourse. Only credentials issued by the Houston Oilers will be honored for admittance to the Astrodome.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials will be admitted into the locker rooms. No one will be admitted into the locker rooms prior to or during the game. Your press credential is good for admittance to both locker rooms. To reach the Oilers' locker room from the press box, take the fifth floor concourse to Aisle 561 and turn left to the elevator. The Oilers' locker room is on Level 2 (on the left as you exit the elevator). To reach the visiting team's locker room, proceed past the Oilers' locker room to the concourse and turn left. Follow the concourse until it ends at Aisle 226. Turn left through the double doors and it will be on the left.

PARKING: Press parking at the Astrodome is very limited. Single game parking requests should be made when requesting your credential and will be processed on a "first come-first served" basis. Media with parking passes should use the main Astrodome entrance at Murworth and Kirby.

TELEPHONES: Pool telephones for credit card or collect calls are available in the Astrodome press box. Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone must order it directly from Ed Lucky, US Telcom (lines) at (713) 853-8119. Media may rent instruments directly from the Oilers at a per-game rate of $25 while still ordering lines from US Telcom.

FAX SERVICE: A FAX service is available at every Houston Oiler home game. The transmission representative is Tom Moen, 1719 Fairview Avenue, Houston, Texas 77006, (713) 528-2345.

FIELD ACCESS: Only working photographers, TV camera personnel and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Media members with press box credentials are allowed on the field with five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

GAME INFORMATION: The Astrodome press box telephone number for all game information inquiries is (713) 791-9118.

INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Jeff Fisher will be available to the media daily following practice. The best time to schedule player interviews is immediately following practice. Please contact the Media Relations Department to arrange.

PRACTICE DIRECTIONS: The Oilers' regular season practice facility is located at 2727 El Camino in Houston. To get there from Loop 610, take the Fannin Street exit and turn north. Go to the first light and turn right on Holly Hall. Follow through four-way stop sign. Make first left after railroad tracks on El Rio. At the end of the street, the road will curve to the right and become El Camino. The Oilers' complex will be on the left.

TRINITY UNIVERSITY

The summer of 1996 marks the Oilers' sixth training camp at Trinity University in San Antonio.

The 117-acre campus is located just north of downtown San Antonio. The club's indoor athletic complex is the William H. Bell Athletic Center. The Oilers do most of their outdoor training in Trinity's E.M. Stevens Football Stadium.

Founded in 1869 in Tehuacana, Texas, Trinity was moved to Waxahachie, Texas in 1902, and to San Antonio in 1942. In 1952, Trinity moved to its current location, the "Skyline Campus" that overlooks the city.

THE ASTRODOME

THE ASTRODOME

HOUSTON, TEXAS

The Houston Oilers have played their home games in the Astrodome since 1968.

The playing surface of the Astrodome is AstroTurf. Initially only the baseball infield was covered with the man-made turf. On July 19, 1966, the entire surface of the Astrodome was covered with AstroTurf. A new surface was installed in April, 1978, and again in February, 1988.

The seating capacities are 54,313 for baseball, 59,969 for football, 68,000 for conventions and a maximum of 74,000 for boxing and similar events.
