THE GAME

Get ready for some hard-hitting, physical football! The biggest rivalry in the United Football League will be renewed once again in the most important game of the year when the Las Vegas Locomotives and the Florida Tuskers face off in the Championship Game Saturday. The teams face each other for the third time this season and for a league-high sixth time total. The previous matchups between the two teams have featured a tough, hard-hitting brand of football and close contests that have come down to the wire. Aside from the first ever meeting, no game between the Locos and the Tuskers has been decided by more than 7 points, and fans can expect another nail-biter at Rosenblatt Stadium. The game will be broadcast nationally on VERSUS. The Locos will also broadcast the game on ESPN Radio 1100 (KWWN). Mitch Moss will call the play-by-play and Douglas Marsh will provide the color commentary.

THE SERIES

In 2009, the Locos and Tuskers met three times, including twice in the regular season. The Tuskers swept the regular season series, beating the Locomotives 29-15 at Sam Boyd Stadium on Oct. 14 and taking a 27-24 decision in an Oct. 30 game that was played at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Fla. The Locos concluded the regular season with a 4-2 record, while Florida finished with a 6-0 mark. The two teams met in the inaugural UFL Championship Game, where Las Vegas recorded a 20-17 win in overtime to claim the title. The Locos dropped a tightly fought season opener of the 2010 campaign 27-20 after leading the game 10-0 early on. They got revenge just two weeks later when they pulled off a last-second 20-17 victory on Parker Douglass' field goal with time running out.

LAST TIME THEY PLAYED

The last time the Locos and Tuskers almost seems like a different season. Both teams have made changes at quarterback since the Week 2 matchup and the Locomotives have a new kicker. Parker Douglass made a 21-yard field goal with time running out to give the Locos a 20-17 victory at the Citrus Bowl. Las Vegas opened up the scoring on a 68-yard touchdown pass from Tim Rattay to Samie Parker. Douglass made it 10-0 with 7:24 to play in the second quarter. Three consecutive Tuskers scores gave Florida a 17-10 lead before a 15-yard connection from Rattay to Andrae Thurman tied the game with just over four minutes to play.

FASSEL EXCITED TO BE BACK ON BIG STAGE FOR SECOND YEAR IN A ROW

For the second time in as many years, the Las Vegas Locos make a trip to the UFL Championship Games. Locos head coach Jim Fassel is proud of his team for not falling victim to the oft-cited championship hangover. "I think it's an accomplishment to be able to come for a second year in a row," Fassel said. "A lot of times when you win a championship you don't get that same fight in you (in the following year). This team has shown me that they can play a winning brand of football, although I'm disappointed in how we played the last two games." However, Fassel knows that this accomplishment will mean very little, if the team doesn't perform in the championship game. He has his eyes set on winning the mouthwatering matchup with the Tuskers: "Winning the Championship is what really sets you apart, not just getting to it."

FAMILIARITY HELPS PLAYERS

Not only do the Locos return to the UFL Championship for the second time in a row, they also face the Florida Tuskers for the sixth time in only the second UFL season. Locos head coach Jim Fassel feels that the team can benefit from the familiarity with their opponents. The players will be practicing at a facility that they are not used to and they will be staying in a hotel 1,200 miles from their homes in Las Vegas. However, Fassel says that many of his players will benefit from having been to the championship game before. "I think it helps us," Fassel said. "For the guys that were here last year, it is comforting to know that we're doing the same thing as last year." The Locos made sure to make the environment as familiar as possible for the players. The team is staying at the same hotel as during their regular season trip to Omaha in Week 7. "It's good having a team that has been here before, been in this town, stayed in this hotel and played in this stadium." It also helps the Locos to know their opponent well, facing them for the third time this season. "I think we know them pretty well and they know us pretty well," Fassel said. "They know our tendencies, we know their tendencies. It really makes it sort of a strategic match, which makes it fun."

KOLODZIEJ RETURNS, LONG RELEASED

After suffering a mid-foot sprain in the Locos' victory over the Sacramento Mountain Lions 26-3 on October 15th, defensive tackle Ross Kolodziej returns for the UFL Championship Game. Preparing to face the ground assault of the league's most potent rushing threat Dominic Rhodes of the Florida Tuskers, the Locos brought back Kolodziej from the injured reserve list. The team waived defensive tackle Gabe Long to free a roster spot for Kolodziej. In Week 10 of UFL action, Rhodes rushed for 52 yards in the Tuskers 27-10 victory over Omaha. Last week Rhodes posted his third 100-yard rushing game of the season and scored two touchdowns as Florida beat the Hartford Colonials. Kolodziej, a 6-foot-2, 289-pound defensive tackle, started for the Locos at the beginning of the season and recorded eight tackles and a sack before injuring his right knee in Week 5. "It's awesome" said Locos defensive tackle Kolodziej about returning to the team. "It's a blessing to be able to get back and be able to play the game I love to play."

TURNOVER BATTLE IS KEY TO THE GAME

During the Locos' 5-game winning streak earlier in the season, Jim Fassel's team dominated the turnover battle. They forced 17 turnovers while giving up the ball only 5 times. In their two losses in Weeks 8 and 10, they lost 7 turnovers and created only 3 takeaways. Getting back on top in the turnover battle will be the key for the Locos to get back to their winning ways. "We led the league last year in turnover ratio," Fassel said. "We were by far the best team in creating them and the best team in not giving the ball up. That was our secret to success last year and to our 5-1 record at the beginning of this season. In the last two games we haven't done it. We have to play smart football and not beat ourselves – and turnovers beat you."

FASSEL RETURNS FOR SECOND SEASON

After winning the inaugural UFL championship with the Las Vegas Locos in 2009, head coach Jim Fassel returns for a second year with the team. Under his guidance, the Locos finished with a 5-2 record in the Premiere season and defeated the Florida Tuskers 20-17 in the championship game. As head coach of the New York Giants, Fassel resurrected the career of quarterback Kerry Collins and received acclaim for his playoff guarantee in the 2000 season, during which he led the Giants to an improbable Super Bowl appearance. Fassel has a long record of offensive successes and has tutored other prominent quarterbacks including Phil Simms, Boomer Esiason, Jeff Hoestetler and John Elway. Prior to becoming the Giants head coach, Fassel was the team's offensive coordinator and served in the same capacity with the Arizona Cardinals, Denver Broncos and Oakland Raiders. Fassel was also the offensive coordinator to the Baltimore Ravens for the 2004 and 2005 seasons. He began his coaching career as an offensive coordinator at the University of Utah and Stanford University before being elevated to head coach at Utah. Fassel took a break from coaching when he was hired as color commentator on NFL Sunday Night Game broadcasts for the Westwood One Radio Network and also served as a color analyst on ESPN. The recipient of numerous awards including the 2000 NFL Coach of the Year by the Sporting News, NJ Sports Writers Association and the Victor Awards Pro Football Coach of the Year, Fassel has also been honored for his work off of the field. He received the Catholic Big Brothers of the Year Award (1998), the Fresh Air Fund Man of the Year (1999) and the Long Beach State University Distinguished Alumnus Award (2001).

SOONER THE BETTER

With the addition of linebacker Teddy Lehman, the Las Vegas Locos now have five players on their roster that played college for the Oklahoma Sooners. Lehman was with the Sooners from 2000-2003 and was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in his senior season. The other Locos that played for Oklahoma include defensive back Lewis Baker, linebacker Brandon Moore and offensive linemen Brandon Braxton and Brandon Walker. Moore and Lehman joined forces during their time at Oklahoma and were part of a strong linebacker unit.

EXPERIENCED LINEBACKING CORPS LEADS THE WAY FOR HUNGRY LOCOS DEFENSE

The Locos defense is led by an experienced linebacker unit in the 2010 season. The three initially projected starting linebackers combine for 16 years of NFL experience and Teddy Lehman adds five more years to the mix. Lehman and Brandon Moore anchored the Locos defense last year and this year Las Vegas adds another six years of NFL experience with Las Vegas native Ed Hartwell. Former Kansas City Chief and Cleveland Brown Kris Griffin is projected to start alongside Hartwell and Moore, and the addition of Lehman gives the Locos a lot of depth at the position.

| PLAYER | NFL YEARS | GAMES | TOT-SOLO | SACK | FF | INT |
|---------------|---------------------|--------------|-----------------|-------------|-----------|------------|
| Brandon Moore | 6 (49ers) | 88 | 244-176 | 15 | 5 | 1 |
| Ed Hartwell | 6 (Ravens, Falcons) | 77 | 400-277 | 7 | 5 | 1 |
| Teddy Lehman | 5 (Lions, Bills) | 45 | 150-105 | 1 | 2 | 2 |
| Kris Griffin | 4 (Chiefs, Browns) | 46 | 40-34 | 0 | 0 | 0 |

LOCOS ROSTER FEATURES NFL EXPERIENCE

The Locos feature 25 players that have NFL experience. The team includes eight players that were drafted by NFL teams, with Teddy Lehman being the highest draft pick. He was picked up by the Detroit Lions as the 37th overall selection in the 2004 NFL draft. The Locos players average 3.8 years of NFL experience.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

With the addition of DeDe Dorsey, the Las Vegas Locos are returning 30 players from the 2009 championship-winning campaign. The returners include 16 players that recorded at least one start last season.
