Week 3

OMAHA (1-0) vs. SACRAMENTO (1-1)

Saturday, Oct. 2, 2010 | 7:30 p.m. (CDT)
Johnny Rosenblatt Stadium | Omaha, Neb.
Series Record: 0-0
Radio: KOZN (1620 AM)
Television: HDNet

THE MATCHUP

The only unbeaten team left in the UFL, the Omaha Nighthawks will look to follow up on their thrilling season-opening win over Hartford when Daunte Culpepper and the Sacramento Mountain Lions come to town this weekend. The Nighthawks and Mountain Lions will square off at 7:30 p.m. (CDT) at Rosenblatt Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 2.

All eyes will be on the quarterback position, as four-time NFL Pro Bowler Jeff Garcia and the Nighthawks face the three-time Pro Bowler Culpepper in what figures to be one of the best quarterback matchups in all of professional football this weekend.

Sacramento is coming off a notable 24-20 win over the Florida Tuskens last Saturday. The Mountain Lions became the first UFL team to defeat the Tuskens in the regular season, who had been 7-0 in regular season games prior to last weekend.

The matchup is a key early season matchup in the eight-game UFL season. An Omaha win would assure they stay alone at the top of the standings, while a Sacramento win would vault them into at least a share of the top spot.

THE SERIES

This will be the first matchup between the two teams. Omaha will play at Sacramento on Nov. 13 at 10 p.m. (CDT).

THE COACHES

Jeff Jagodzinski (Wisconsin-Whitewater, '85) leads the Nighthawks after leading Boston College to a 20-8 record and two ACC Championship Game appearances in 2007-08. Jagodzinski has coached in the collegiate and professional ranks for 26 years.

Thirteen-year NFL Head Coach Dennis Green (Iowa, '71) is back for his second season in the UFL. The former Minnesota Vikings and Arizona Cardinals Head Coach led the California Redwoods to a 2-4 record last season, before the team relocated to Sacramento in 2010.

LAST TIME OUT

Omaha Nighthawks 27, Hartford Colonials 26

In a game which not only was the Nighthawks' first ever contest, but also the United Football League's first ever sellout (attendance of 23,067), Omaha rallied from a UFL record 13-point deficit to take a 27-26 decision from the Hartford Colonials at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Down 26-20 late in the game, Omaha drove 59 yards in nine plays for the go-ahead points when quarterback Jeff Garcia hit wide receiver Robert Ferguson with a 12-yard touchdown pass with six seconds left for the win.

In his first UFL game, Garcia threw for 226 yards and three touchdowns, and scrambled for 19 more yards. Linebacker Nick Greisen had seven total tackles, three tackles for loss and a forced fumble, and cornerback Ricardo Colclough had six total tackles and four kickoff returns for 110 yards.

For Hartford, quarterback Josh McCown passed for 264 yards and two touchdowns, while linebacker Frantz Joseph had 10 total tackles and a pass breakup.

The Colonials were their own worst enemy, losing three fumbles and committing seven penalties, including four that gave Omaha first downs.

Sacramento Mountain Lions 24, Florida Tuskers 20

In front of approximately 20,000 fans in Hornet Stadium's first professional football game in 16 years, the Mountain Lions defeated the Tuskers, 24-20, handing Florida its first ever regular-season loss.

With 37 seconds left, Sacramento quarterback Daunte Culpepper hit wide receiver Rod Windsor with a 33-yard touchdown pass for the eventual game-winning points. The Mountain Lions came back from a 10-point deficit, one of the biggest deficits ever overcome in UFL history.

Culpepper set a new single-game UFL passing record with 374 yards, and was 26-for-42 with three touchdowns and an interception. Former Tuskers wide receiver Taye Biddle racked up 109 receiving yards, and punter Tom Malone averaged 46.3 yards on six punts. Middle linebacker Zeke Moreno had 11 total tackles (10 solo), three tackles for loss and a pass breakup in the victory, while kicker Fabrizio Scaccia hit a UFL record-tying 54-yard field goal.

For Florida, quarterback Brooks Bollinger threw for 328 yards and a touchdown, and wide receiver Cortez Hankton grabbed six passes for 110 yards and a score.

Sacramento and Florida combined for 799 yards of offense.

GARCIA VS. CULPEPPER, ROUND TWO

The anticipated clash between the host Omaha Nighthawks (1-0) and visiting Sacramento Mountain Lions (1-1) features the most exciting quarterback matchup in United Football League history, Jeff Garcia vs. Daunte Culpepper. It isn't quite Ali vs. Frazier, but it is arguably the best quarterback matchup in all of professional football this weekend.

CATEGORY	GARCIA	CULPEPPER
Professional seasons	17	12
Pass attempts	5,740	3,281
Completions	3,536	2,063
Completion Percentage	61.6	62.9

Touchdown passes	275	153
Interceptions	135	108
Rushing yards	4,517	2,672
Professional championships	1	0
Pro Bowl selections	4	3
UFL record as a starting quarterback	1-0	1-1

This will be the second time the two quarterbacks have started against each other. On Nov. 23, 2008, Garcia and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated Culpepper and the Detroit Lions, 38-20, in Detroit. Garcia went 13-for-18 for 165 yards and two touchdowns. Culpepper went 8-for-20 for 121 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. Garcia started 11 games in the Buccaneers' 9-7 season that year, while Culpepper started five games in the Lions' 0-16 campaign.

“BIG THREE” ACQUISITIONS ON DISPLAY

Saturday's game features three of the UFL's prized offseason acquisitions. Omaha quarterback Jeff Garcia, Nighthawks running back Ahman Green and Sacramento quarterback Daunte Culpepper all will be on the Rosenblatt Stadium field, and they all have made an impact on the UFL's young season.

Garcia pulled off a late game-winning drive in one of the best games in UFL history, throwing a 12-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Robert Ferguson with six seconds left to give the Nighthawks a 27-26 home win over the Hartford Colonials in Week 2. Garcia finished his first UFL game with 226 yards and three touchdowns through the air.

Green was a threat for the Nighthawks both on the ground and as a receiver in his first UFL contest, running for 49 yards on 12 carries and gaining 24 yards on four catches in the Nighthawks' sellout victory.

Culpepper pulled off a similar comeback effort for the Mountain Lions in their 24-20 win over the Florida Tuskers in Sacramento's first professional football game hosted in 16 years. His 33-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rod Windsor with 31 seconds left gave Sacramento the lead for good. That toss was part of a UFL record 374 passing yards for Culpepper, who also threw three touchdowns. Culpepper is 47-for-82 (57.3 percent) in two UFL games for 548 yards, four touchdowns and two interceptions (83.8 passer rating).

COMEBACK KIDS

Both Omaha and Sacramento had thrilling come-from-behind wins in Week 2. Omaha, playing its first game in franchise history, rallied from 13 points down in the fourth quarter to take a 27-26 lead with six seconds to play on Jeff Garcia's 12-yard touchdown pass to Robert Ferguson. The 13-point deficit overcome was the largest in UFL history. The second-largest deficit overcome happened in Sacramento the same weekend, as the Mountain Lions rallied from 10 points down at the start of the fourth quarter to win 24-20 when Daunte Culpepper hit Rod Windsor for a 33-yard touchdown pass with 37 seconds left.

SHIFTING INTO DRIVE

The Nighthawks scored 17 points on their final three possessions of the game against Hartford to earn the 27-26 win. The three drives totaled 32 plays and 187 yards, for an average drive of 10.7 plays and 62.3 yards. Up until those final three drives, Omaha's average drive distance had been 24.8 yards on 5.2 plays.

GARCIA FINDS HIS GROOVE

Quarterback Jeff Garcia did exactly what Pro Bowl quarterbacks do, win games in the final minute. With Omaha taking possession down 26-20 with 2:43 to play, Garcia completed 5-of-8 passes for 45 yards and rushed for 14 himself to set up the game-winning touchdown. Garcia spread the field as well, hitting four different receivers on his five completions.

GREISEN TO THE OCCASION

Linebacker Nick Greisen didn't let any Colonials out of his grasp, recording a team-best seven solo tackles. Three of his tackles went for losses totaling 6 yards, and he forced a fumble in the third quarter that was recovered in Hartford territory by safety Clinton Hart.

NO HARM, NO FOUL

The Nighthawks committed just two penalties in their season opener, the fewest number of penalties committed by any UFL team in its opening game.

ROSS RETURNS

Some Nighthawks fans will be interested in watching Sacramento quarterback Daunte Culpepper play for the first time in person on Saturday. However, Culpepper may not be the most familiar name to Nighthawks' fans on Sacramento's roster. The Mountain Lions' starting running back, Cory Ross, was a standout at Nebraska from 2002-05. Popularly referred to as "Pork Chop" while playing for the Cornhuskers, Ross was the leading rusher in the UFL with the California Redwoods in 2009, totaling 462 yards on 117 carries. This season, Ross has 50 yards on 22 carries. He also leads Sacramento with 10 receptions for 82 yards.
