THE MATCHUP

The Omaha Nighthawks hit the road for the first time in the franchise's short history this Friday when the UFL leaders take on the defending UFL champion Las Vegas Locomotives. The game kicks off at 9:00 p.m. (CDT), and can be viewed on HDNet and heard on 1620 AM.

At 2-0 and as the only unbeaten team in the UFL, the Nighthawks have a chance to take a firm hold on the standings with a win. The Nighthawks are coming off their second straight thrilling win, as Omaha outlasted Sacramento 20-17, thanks to another fourth quarter comeback led by quarterback Jeff Garcia. Omaha's two victories have come by a combined total of four points.

On the other side, Las Vegas sits at 1-1, and is coming off a key 20-17 win in a rematch of last year's UFL Championship game with the Florida Tuskers. The Locos had previously lost to the Tuskers in Week 1, 27-20. The Locos are 3-2 all-time at Sam Boyd Stadium.

THE SERIES

This is the first time the Nighthawks and Locos have met. The two teams will square off again on Thursday, Oct. 28, at 7:00 p.m. (CDT) in Omaha.

THE COACHES

Jeff Jagodzinski (Wisconsin-Whitewater, '85) leads the Nighthawks after guiding Boston College to a 20-8 record and two ACC Championship Game appearances in 2007-08. Jagodzinski has coached in the collegiate and professional ranks for 26 years.

Jim Fassel (Long Beach State, '72) returns for his second year as head coach of the Locos. The former NFL Coach of the Year has led the Locos to a 7-3 all-time record in the UFL's brief history. Fassel was the NFL Coach of the Year in 1997 with the New York Giants, and he also led the Giants to the Super Bowl in 2000.

LAST TIME OUT

Las Vegas Locomotives 20, Florida Tuskers 17

Las Vegas showed quite a bit of character in its 20-17 win last week at the Florida Tuskers. For the second meeting in a row, the Locos took a 10-0 lead on the Tuskers. Unlike the 2010 opener, however, Las Vegas held on despite Florida's pushback, and got its first win of the young season.

The Locomotives' offense got a big shot in the arm last week from the return of running back DeDe Dorsey, who ran for 99 yards on 14 carries and caught seven passes for 105 more. Quarterback Tim Rattay had his best UFL game in Week 3 (324 yards, two touchdowns), and is completing 67.6 percent of his passes in two games this season. Defensive end Eric Henderson, who led the team in sacks with three last season, had two last week.

Omaha Nighthawks 20, Sacramento Mountain Lions 17

The first-place Nighthawks have shown a propensity for starting slow, then rallying for victory. Omaha has scored just 22 first-half points in two games, and has been outscored 6-0 in the third quarter. But the Nighthawks have outscored their first two opponents by a 25-10 margin to start 2-0.

Quarterback Jeff Garcia (509 yards, five touchdowns passing in two games) and wide receiver Robert Ferguson (11 catches, 139 yards, one touchdown) have clicked in the Omaha passing game. Middle linebacker Nick Greisen has led the team in tackles in both games, and has 16.5 total tackles (five for loss) for the season.

KEY MATCHUP NO. 1: Omaha outside linebacker Cato June vs. Las Vegas running back DeDe Dorsey. June, a late-training camp arrival for the Nighthawks, has worked his way up the depth chart, and has 6.5 total tackles, two for loss and a sack in two games. Dorsey once again showed his ability to work the edges in the running game and passing game, and is one of the league's top skill players in space.

KEY MATCHUP NO. 2: Omaha left tackle George Foster vs. Las Vegas defensive end Eric Henderson. This could be quite a line matchup. Foster is a seven-year professional veteran who has seen every possible passrush move. Henderson has gotten his sacks in bunches in his brief UFL career, and another game like he had in Week 3 could send Garcia scrambling.

NIGHTHAWKS SIGN NO. 1 DRAFT PICK

Dewayne White, the Omaha Nighthawks No. 1 draft pick in the 2010 UFL Draft and a former second round NFL Draft pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, signed with the undefeated Nighthawks on Tuesday. The Alabama native spent seven years in the NFL, playing for the Bucs and the Detroit Lions.

In his notable NFL career, White recorded 203 tackles, 27 sacks, 11 forced fumbles, 3 interceptions and one touchdown. In 2004, he tied a Tampa Bay team record by recording at least half a sack in six consecutive games.

The Nighthawks are confident that the 6-2, 275-pound defensive end will make a positive impact in the team's first away game against the Las Vegas Locos on Friday.

"Pass rushers are hard to come by and we've had our eye on this one since the draft back in June," Nighthawks General Manager Rick Mueller said. "We couldn't be more excited to have a quality player like Dewayne in a Nighthawks uniform."

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

After two straight sellouts, the Nighthawks are leading the league in average attendance at 23,242. The Nighthawks fed off the energy from the crowd to help pull off two wins to start the season, but will have to create their own energy on the road for the next two weekends. Following the game at Las Vegas, Omaha takes to the road again the following weekend to Hartford. The Nighthawks don't play at home again until October 28, when the Locos come to town. Home teams are 4-2 in the UFL so far this season.

40-YARD CLUB

Quarterback Jeff Garcia has been exceptional at spreading the ball around to different receivers. The Nighthawks' leader has hit 11 different receivers through two games. Against Sacramento, three passes to three different players went for more than 40 yards. In the first quarter, Garcia found Mike Hass for a 42-yard pickup into the red zone. In the second quarter, Garcia hit Devard Darling down the sideline for a 41-yard touchdown. And on the Nighthawks' game-winning drive, Garcia connected across the middle with Biren Ealy, who made a move and then took off to the races for a 48-yard pickup down to the Sacramento 8-yard line that set up the go-ahead touchdown.

THREE IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

The number three – as in the third quarter and third down conversions – hasn't been so magical for the Nighthawks yet this season. Omaha has not scored a point in the third quarter yet. Through two games, the Nighthawks are averaging 11.0 points through the first three quarters. Of course the Nighthawks are averaging 12.5 points per game in the fourth quarter alone, which has allowed them to come from behind twice and earn wins. On third downs, the Nighthawks are 8-of-25 (32 percent), while opponents are converting 43 percent of the time on the young season. The Nighthawks were much improved against Sacramento though, as they converted 6-of-15 (40 percent) third down chances, and held Sacramento to 6-of-17 (35 percent).

SACK IN BLACK

The Omaha Nighthawks' defense showed up in a big way against Sacramento, recording four sacks and breaking up five passes, making it difficult for Daunte Culpepper to establish a rhythm. Cato June, Charles Grant, Willie Williams, Kevin Basped and Josh Savage all hunted down the quarterback, while Ricardo Colclough knocked away three passes, Eric Green one, and Jay Moore batted one away at the line of scrimmage. In addition to the sacks, the Nighthawks made four other plays behind the line of scrimmage, with Nick Greisen recording two tackles for loss, Jay Moore one, and Eric Green and Morlon Greenwood teaming up for another.

FERGY'S BIG DAY

Omaha wide receiver Robert Ferguson made seven receptions for 94 yards against Sacramento last Saturday, none bigger than the 19-yard reception on 3rd and 18 on the Nighthawks' game-winning drive. The seven receptions matched the most the nine-year NFL veteran has ever had in a professional game. Ferguson had seven catches for 79 yards for the Green Bay Packers in a 2003 game against Chicago. Ferguson leads the Nighthawks in receptions (11) and yards (139) this season.
