THE MATCHUP

Both Omaha and Hartford enter their second matchup of the season eager to rebound from tough losses in Week 4. The Nighthawks and Colonials will look to do just that at 2:00 p.m. CDT at Rentschler Field in Hartford, Conn. The game will be televised by the New England Sports Network, and can be heard on the radio on 1620 AM. Free live streaming is available online at the link above.

At 2-1, Omaha is tied for the standings lead, and depending on the result of Friday night's Las Vegas vs. Sacramento game, the Nighthawks may need to win to stay at the top. Hartford is 1-2 and tied with Sacramento at the bottom, but a win would quickly change things, putting them in a pack of teams at 2-2.

THE SERIES

The Omaha Nighthawks opened their season with a 27-26 win over the Hartford Colonials in Omaha. The Nighthawks scored the game-winning touchdown with six seconds left when Jeff Garcia found Robert Ferguson in the end zone from 12 yards out. Saturday's meeting will be the final meeting of the regular season between the teams.

THE COACHES

Jeff Jagodzinski (Wisconsin-Whitewater, '85) leads the Nighthawks after guiding Boston College to a 20-8 record and two ACC Championship Game appearances in 2007-08. Jagodzinski has coached in the collegiate and professional ranks for 26 years.

Chris Palmer (Southern Connecticut State, '72) brings 39 years of coaching experience to the Hartford sideline. Palmer was the head coach of the Cleveland Browns from 1999-2000 and at Boston University (1988-89). Most recently, Palmer was the quarterbacks coach for the New York Giants for three seasons.

LAST TIME THEY MET

Omaha Nighthawks 27, Hartford Colonials 26

In Week 2, Omaha and Hartford played the closest game in UFL history. The Colonials ran out to a 23-10 lead, but the Nighthawks rallied, winning game with six seconds to go on a 12-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jeff Garcia to wide receiver Robert Ferguson.

The first matchup also was played in front of the first sellout crowd in the UFL's brief history.

For Hartford in that meeting, quarterback Josh McCown set a UFL single-game completion percentage record (88 percent, 22-for-25), and passed for 264 yards and two touchdowns. Eight different players caught passes, and six different players caught at least three passes. Middle linebacker Franz Joseph led the defense with 10 total tackles.

Garcia led the Nighthawks' offense with 226 yards and three touchdowns through the air. Eight different players caught passes, and running back Ahman Green ran for 49 yards on 12 carries in his UFL debut. Cornerback Ricardo Colclough returned three kickoffs for 91 yards and had six solo tackles, a tackle for loss and a pass breakup on defense, while middle linebacker Nick Greisen led the way with seven solo tackles and three stops for loss.

KEY MATCHUP NO. 1: Omaha linebacker Nick Greisen vs. Hartford running back Andre Dixon. Greisen has 22 total tackles and 5.5 tackles for loss in three games this season, while Dixon has 177 rushing yards so far in 2010.

KEY MATCHUP NO. 2: Hartford cornerback Ryan Palmer vs. Omaha wide receiver Devard Darling. Palmer has broken up three passes in three games, while Darling has 12 catches for 129 yards and two touchdowns this fall.

SHAUD WILL DO IT ALL

Backup running back Shaud Williams recorded 135 all-purpose yards against Las Vegas, giving him a team-best 286 all-purpose yards on the year. Williams ranks fourth in the UFL in all-purpose yards through Week 4. Against Las Vegas, Williams returned two punts for 31 yards, four kickoffs for 83 yards, rushed two times for 15 yards and caught one pass for six yards.

PICK ERIC

With starting cornerback Ricardo Colclough out with an illness, cornerback Eric Green made the most of his chances, recording the first interception of the season for the Nighthawks on the first play of the Locos' second series. Green jumped the wide receiver's route and returned the interception six yards before going to ground at the Locos' 32-yard line.

ALL FOR NAUGHT

Safety Jermaine Phillips also intercepted a Locos' pass, but it came on a two-point conversion try. Phillips returned the ball 100 yards to the other end zone, but UFL rules call for the play to be blown dead when the defense intercepts or recovers the ball on a two-point try.

DROPPING THE BOOM

Punter Justin Brantly is leading the UFL with a 42.4-yard average on 13 punts this season. Brantly used a big day against the Locos to move him to the top, hammering four of his five punts between 49-52 yards.

P.T. NEEDED

Linebacker Patrick Thomas certainly had a lot of work to do against the Locos with fellow position mates Morlon Greenwood and Nick Greisen going out in the second half with injuries. Thomas stepped up big, ending up with a game-high 12 tackles, including one tackle for loss.

DRIVING THE LOCOS CRAZY

Omaha's defense was all over the field against Las Vegas, recording a season-high nine tackles for loss for 14 yards. The pressure came from everywhere, as the defensive line accounted for four of the tackles, the linebackers accounted for 2.5 of the tackles, and the safeties accounted for 2.5 of the tackles. In addition, Jay Moore recorded the lone sack of the game for the Nighthawks.
