OMAHA (3-2) at FLORIDA (2-3)

Friday, Nov. 5, 2010 | 7:00 p.m. (CDT)

Citrus Bowl | Orlando, Fla.

Series Record: 0-0

Radio: KOZN (1620 AM)

Television: HDNet

Internet: <http://www.ufl-football.com/networkbroadcast>

THE MATCHUP

Omaha's first ever game against the Florida Tuskers will be a meaningful one. Should the Nighthawks win, they would only need to win one of their final two games to earn a berth in the Championship Game on November 27 in Omaha. Should the Tuskers win, they would be tied for second in the standings and would control their own destiny to reach the Championship Game by winning out.

Omaha is coming off a 24-10 loss at home to the league-leading Las Vegas Locomotives, who subsequently clinched a spot in the Championship Game. Florida is coming off a 21-17 loss at home to the Sacramento Mountain Lions.

The Nighthawks and Tuskers will kick off at 7 p.m. (CDT) at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Fla. HDNet will provide television coverage, and the game can also be heard on 1620 AM.

THE SERIES

This is the first of two meetings between the teams within the next three weeks. Florida travels to Omaha for the regular season finale for both teams on November 19.

THE COACHES

Jeff Jagodzinski (Wisconsin-Whitewater, '85) leads the Nighthawks after guiding Boston College to a 20-8 record and two ACC Championship Game appearances in 2007-08. Jagodzinski has coached in the collegiate and professional ranks for 26 years.

Jay Gruden is in his first year as head coach of the Florida Tuskers. The brother of former Super Bowl Coach Jon Gruden, Jay Gruden is in his 14th year as a professional football coach. Gruden was an offensive coordinator on Jim Haslett's Tuskers staff in 2009. Prior to that, Gruden was an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2002-08 and also a long-time head coach in the Arena Football League.

LAST TIME OUT

Las Vegas Locomotives 24, Omaha Nighthawks 10

Behind a dominating defensive effort, the Las Vegas Locomotives forced five turnovers in a 24-10 win over Omaha before a crowd of 23,554 fans at Rosenblatt Stadium. The win gave Las Vegas (5-1) a season sweep of the Nighthawks and clinched the Locos a spot in the Championship Game in Omaha on November 27.

The Nighthawks and Locos went into the fourth quarter tied at 10-10, but the Locos capitalized off two Omaha turnovers to score 14 points in the final period. Omaha's defense played lights out, allowing just 145 net yards, but its offense was unable to get untracked, as seven penalties for 55 yards hurt the Nighthawks on key drives.

Robert Ferguson caught 5 passes for 44 yards, and Maurice Clarett scored the Nighthawks' first rushing touchdown of the season from one yard out, but it wasn't enough. Marcel Shipp scored from three yards out to give the Locos the lead with 7:43 to play, and Eric Henderson returned an interception 36 yards for a touchdown to seal the win for the Locos.

CHAMPIONSHIP IMPACT

Friday's game has big-time implications as far as determining who will meet the Las Vegas Locomotives in the UFL Championship Game on November 27. The Locos clinched a spot in the Championship Game after posting a 5-1 record through Week 7. Omaha is in second place at 3-2, while Florida is one-game back at 2-3. Hartford and Sacramento enter Week 8 tied for last at 2-4.

An Omaha win would mean the Nighthawks would only need to win one of two remaining games – at Sacramento and vs. Florida – to clinch a spot in the Championship Game in their home city.

A Tuskers' win would create a tie between Omaha and Florida at 3-3, with each team having two games remaining. Omaha plays at Sacramento, while Florida hosts Hartford in Week 9. Should neither team have second-place wrapped up, the regular season finale between the teams on November 19 in Omaha could be pivotal. At 2-4, Hartford or Sacramento would have to win out and then win a tiebreaker to get into the Championship Game.

ONE FOR THE HISTORY BOOKS

Five games into the season and the Nighthawks finally hit paydirt running the ball for the first time in franchise history. Maurice Clarett scored on a one-yard run with 10:54 left in the second quarter to give the Nighthawks a 7-0 lead against Las Vegas and the franchise's first rushing touchdown out of nine offensive touchdowns this year. The touchdown was set up by Omaha's longest run of the season, when Ahman Green busted free for a 27-yard scamper to the one-yard line.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Nighthawks' linebacker Nick Greisen will have added inspiration to try and get back on the field after missing two straight games with a neck sprain. Greisen's older brother, Chris, is a backup quarterback for the Tuskers. Chris Greisen was 2-for-5 for 21 yards in Florida's loss to Sacramento on October 20. Nick Greisen recorded 22 tackles for the Nighthawks to lead them through the first three games of the season before suffering the injury. Greisen still holds a team-best 5.5 tackles for loss on the season.

THOMAS ON A TEAR

Nighthawks' linebacker Patrick Thomas has stepped up in a big way in place of the injured Greisen. Thomas has led all defensive players in tackles in the last three games. At Las Vegas in Week 4, Thomas had 12 tackles, including one for loss. At Hartford in Week 5, Thomas had nine tackles and one pass breakup. Then against Las Vegas last week, Thomas had 10 tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and one pass breakup. The recent tear has Thomas leading the Nighthawks with 38 tackles, 11 more than the next closest tackler.

HART DOES HIS PART

Strong safety Clinton Hart became the first Omaha Nighthawk to record interceptions in back-to-back games when he picked off a desperation pass by Drew Willy at the end of the first half against Las Vegas. Hart previously picked off a pass at Hartford, which he returned 23 yards. Hart also has a fumble recovery this year, giving him a team-best three takeaways.
