PREVIEW OF TODAY'S MATCH

The Kansas City Wizards will begin their 2003 regular season campaign on Saturday, April 12th when they host D.C. United at Arrowhead Stadium. The match is slated to kickoff at 7:00 p.m. CT. This will mark the third time in eight seasons that the two teams square off in the season opener. Kansas City fell 3-2 in both previous season openers (2001, 1998).

D.C. will bring a host of new faces from last year's squad that failed to reach the postseason for the third consecutive year. Midfielder Dema Kovalenko and forward Hristo Stoitchkov both joined United from Chicago in separate offseason acquisitions while D.C. used the first overall pick on the 2003 MLS SuperDraft to select U-23 National Team standout Aleko Eskandarian. The biggest name to join United during the offseason was U.S. National Team star Earnie Stewart. Stewart joins MLS after spending 14 years in Holland and the past 13 years with the National Team.

United Head Coach Ray Hudson hopes the new additions will help bring back the success of the Red and Black that earned them three MLS Cup Championships in the league's first four seasons. Midfielders Marco Etcheverry and Ben Olsen are the only two players remaining from D.C.'s 1999 squad, the last time they reached the postseason.

Kansas City will also feature a few new faces as they open the 2003 campaign. During the offseason the Wizards traded away their first and second round picks in the 2003 SuperDraft in exchange for two proven veterans who have combined for two MLS Cup Championships, two U.S. Open Cup Championships and an NCAA National Championship. The Wizards sent their first round pick to Chicago for National Team standout Josh Wolff and traded their second round pick to San Jose for defender Jimmy Conrad.

Wolff brings explosive speed and an extraordinary finishing ability and will help the Wizards offensive unit that was held to one goal or less in a game 18 times last season. Defender Jimmy Conrad came over from San Jose and will help solidify the Wizards back line that already features Nick Garcia and the return of Jose Burciaga, who sat out the 2002 season with an ACL injury.

Saturday's match will also mark the first official "Zard Card" event. Fans age 15 and younger who have received a Zard Card may present it at the ticket window on the day of the game and receive a ticket to "The Yard" for just $5 each. The ticket discount is good for a fan with a Zard Card any accompanying family members. In addition, the first 5,000 fans 15 years old and younger will receive a "Zard" T-shirt.

D.C. UNITED NOTES

- * D.C. will be without the services of forward Hristo Stoitchkov who is serving a two-game suspension for an incident during a preseason scrimmage against American University.
- * Forward Earnie Stewart will make his MLS debut on Saturday after spending the last 14 seasons in Holland. Stewart was a member of the U.S. National Team that reached the quarterfinals of the 2002 World Cup.
- * The United roster features just 11 players from their 2002 Opening Day roster.
- * Only two players remain on the D.C. United roster from their 1999 MLS Cup Championship team - Marco Etcheverry and Ben Olsen. That was also the last time D.C. United has appeared in the postseason.
- * Marco Etcheverry led United in scoring last season with 14 points (3 g, 8a).
