DYNAMO 2 HOST TIMBERS 2 IN FIRST DYNAMO 2 MATCH AT PNC STADIUM

Houston Dynamo 2 will make its debut at PNC Stadium on Saturday, April 16 at 8:00 p.m. CT, when they play host to Timbers 2 as part of a double-header with the first team.

Dynamo 2 currently sit alone in first place in the MLS NEXT Pro standings following the team's 3-0 victory over Sporting Kansas City II. In that game, Dynamo 2 forward Roberto Avila recorded the first and only hat trick in MLS NEXT Pro history, accounting for all three of the goals in the game. Among those goals was a 45th minute volley from outside of the box that came via an assist by fellow forward Papa N'Doye.

Timbers 2 comes into this game with a record of 0-1-1, having lost the team's first match of the season 2-0 to Earthquakes II and having won the shootout in a 2-2 game against Whitecaps FC 2. In that second game, the goal scorers for Timbers 2 were Jamin Gogo Peters and Blake Bodily, while both shots were assisted by Pablo Bonilla. Dynamo 2 came out victorious in matchups against each of Timbers 2's opponents this season.

Outside of the stellar offensive performance by Avila in last week's game, Houston continued its stout defensive performance this season by earning their third consecutive clean sheet. Thus far this season, Dynamo 2 is the only team in MLS NEXT Pro to not have conceded a goal.

Houston has a penchant for unleashing shots from anywhere in the attacking third. Avila's 45th minute strike from outside of the penalty area on Sunday evening was notable beyond simply providing an outstanding highlight. With that goal, Dynamo 2 became the first team in the league to convert two goals from outside of the 18-yard-box. The first goal came in the Dynamo's opening game against Whitecaps FC 2. This goal went on to win MLS NEXT Pro goal of the week honors in the opening week. Avila's goal from outside the penalty box put the Dynamo on top in this category with two goals, while only four other teams even have one such goal.

LAST MATCH at SKC II

HOUSTON (Sunday, April 10, 2022) - Houston Dynamo 2 defeated Sporting Kansas City II by a final score of 3-0 to move to 3-0-0 on the season. This was Houston's third consecutive clean sheet to start the inaugural season of MLS NEXT Pro and first road victory of the year.

The Dynamo got off to another early lead in this game, as they made use of another set piece to take the lead in the first 10 minutes. Forward Beto Avila got on the end of a pass from defender Mujeeb Murana to get his first goal with Dynamo 2 and put the team up 1-0 in just the 8th minute.

Avila was not done in the first half, as forward Papa N'Doye brought down a long pass from defender Talen Maples before flicking the ball back to Avila. Avila took a strike from outside the 18-yard-box in the 46th minute and rocketed the ball past the SKC defender for his second goal of the match, doubling the Houston lead.

Avila kept up his stellar play in the second half, as the former Houston Dynamo Academy player drew a penalty kick just 10 minutes into the second half. Avila lined up to take the shot that he earned himself and knocked home the ball past the SKC II goalkeeper with ease in the 55th minute to record the first hat trick in Dynamo 2 history.

Defenders Ian Hoffman and Jathan Juarez combined for a dangerous run of play in the 35th minute, when Juarez found an overlapping Hoffman inside the penalty area for a dangerous cross that ricocheted off a SKC II defender and onto the goalkeeper, before getting cleared away to avert the danger.

SKC II earned a penalty kick in the 37th minute after Maples brought down forward Rauf Salifu. Collin Fernandez lined up against Dynamo goalkeeper Xavier Valdez, who made an incredible save to keep Houston's lead intact heading into halftime. This was the second penalty kick saved by Valdez this season.

HOUSTON DYNAMO FC TECHNICAL STAFF

HEAD COACH - KENNY BUNDY

Houston Dynamo 2 hired Kenny Bundy as the first head coach in Dynamo 2 history, the Club announced on Jan. 28.

As Dynamo 2 coach, Bundy will work closely with both Houston Dynamo FC head coach Paulo Nagamura and Dynamo Academy Director Paul Holocher to implement a cohesive playing style that prepares players at every age level for the transition from the Academy to Dynamo 2 and ultimately to the Dynamo first team.

Bundy recently served as head coach of the Houston Dynamo Academy U-23 team, managing the team through a pilot season in 2021.

Bundy has been with the Club since 2016, serving as head coach of both the U-23 and U-19 teams. While in those roles, Bundy coached a number of Dynamo Homegrown Players, including Juan Castilla, Marcelo Palomino and Danny Rios. In the 2017-18 season, Bundy guided the Dynamo Academy U-19s to the Developmental Academy League national playoffs. In addition, Bundy coached Brazos Valley Cavalry FC to the 2019 USL League Two Mid-South Division Title and an appearance in that season's conference finals match.

After a successful collegiate career at UNC-Greensboro, Bundy played more than 120 games as a professional in the United Soccer League and Major Indoor Soccer League from 2003-09, earning USL2 All-League First Team honors in 2009 with the Wilmington Hammerheads.

ASSISTANT COACH - DANIEL ROBERTS

Roberts, the former Houston Dynamo Academy U-15 coach, has been with the Dynamo since he was a member of the first class of Dynamo Academy players in 2007. The Reading, England native graduated from Clements High School in Sugar Land before playing college soccer at University of North Carolina-Wilmington.

Roberts was drafted by the Dynamo in the 2012 MLS Draft and played for the Wilmington Hammerheads in the USL from 2012-14. He holds United States Soccer Federation's A-Youth, National Youth, and Talent Scout Licenses.

ASSISTANT COACH - ROY LASSITER

Lassiter is one of the legends of Major League Soccer, having helped launch the league in 1996 and holding the all-time scoring record until 2004. His record of 27 goals in a season with the Tampa Bay Mutiny in the League's inaugural season held for 22 years until it was recently broken by Josef Martinez in Atlanta United. He ended his career with 88 regular season goals, 13 playoff goals, and a MLS Cup in 1999.

Lassiter also earned 34 caps for the U.S. Men's National Team. After retiring from playing, Lassiter moved into the coaching ranks, most recently having served as the manager of Kitsap Soccer Club in the National Professional Soccer League. Lassiter's son, Ari, played for the Dynamo in 2020 and 2021, and currently plays for Inter Miami CF.

GOALKEEPER COACH - JASON GRUBB

Grubb will serve as the team’s Goal-keeping coach and the Dynamo Academy’s Director of Goalkeeping. Grubb, a USSF and Union European Football Associations certified coach, has been with the Dynamo since 2016. Prior to coming to Houston, Grubb served as the goal-keeping coach with IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida and Quinnipiac University. Before embarking on a coaching career in America, Jason played at the Forest Green Rovers Academy in England.

HEAD OF STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING - RICHARD MOORE

A graduate of Bangor University and the University of Derby, Moore comes to the Dynamo following a seven-year stint with English side Derby County FC, where he worked his way up to become the team’s lead sports scientist. Prior to his time at Derby, Moore started out as an intern with Ulster Rugby Academy.

ASSISTANT SPORT SCIENTIST - AI ISHIDA

Ishida comes to Dynamo 2 as the assistant sports scientist after previously serving as a Sports Science and Strength and Conditioning Fellow for the Philadelphia Union and a Sports Science Intern with Orlando City SC.

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER - BRANDI NEELEY

Neeley joins the Dynamo 2 staff after most recently holding the Head Athletic Trainer position for the Dynamo Academy. Neely got her start in professional soccer as a part-time athletic trainer for the Dynamo Academy, a position she began at the start of 2020. When the Academy season was shut down due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Neely transitioned to a position assisting the Houston Dash during their championship performance in the first-ever NWSL Challenge Cup.

A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Neely completed her B.S. in Athletic Training from the University of West Alabama in 2014 then later went on to complete her M.S in Sports Administration from Texas A&M University – Commerce in 2018.

EQUIPMENT MANAGER - JAIME GONZALEZ

Gonzalez spent the previous four years as assistant equipment manager and travel coordinator for the USL’s Rio Grande Valley FC and as the equipment manager and travel coordinator for the NBA G-League’s RGV Vipers, where he was a part of the 2019 G League championship. Gonzalez graduated from the University of Texas-RGV with a Bachelor’s in Liberal Arts. While there, he was the head student manager of the basketball team for four years.
