MATCH PREVIEW

INTER MIAMI CF RETURNS TO DRV PNK STADIUM TO FACE HOUSTON DYNAMO FC

Inter Miami will carry on with the 2022 MLS campaign this weekend when it takes on the Houston Dynamo two weeks after its last matchup, hoping to continue its positive record against the Texas-based side. Inter Miami came out on top in the only previous meeting between the teams, with a 1-0 home victory on Oct. 10, 2020.

For Saturday's fixture, Inter Miami will count with the numerous players that represented the club on the international stage during the current FIFA international window. Midfielder Edison Azcona joined the Dominican Republic on the national team camp, Damion Lowe featured for the full match in the 1-1 draw between Jamaica and El Salvador on March 24 and is available for selection for the Reggae Boyz' match against Honduras on Wednesday, Aimé Mabika made his international debut with Zambia in a 3-1 win over Congo on March 25, Jairo Quinteros was subbed on in Bolivia's match against Colombia on March 24 and is available to face Brazil on Wednesday, and DeAndre Yedlin played 90 minutes in the United States' 0-0 draw against Mexico on March 24 and will be available to face Costa Rica on Wednesday.

Additionally, the team's versatile Costa Rican attacker Ariel Lassiter may face his former side on Saturday, as he was a Dynamo player between in 2020 and 2021.

Houston Dynamo enters Saturday's match coming off of a 1-1 draw at home against the Colorado Rapids. The two-time MLS Cup champions will visit DRV PNK Stadium being led by its top scorers Darwin Quintero and Tyler Pasher, who have two and one goals respectively so far in the 2022 season.

This is Houston Dynamo's Head Coach Paulo Nagamura first season with the team, having been appointed to the position on January 3, 2022. Notably, Nagamura shares a hometown with Inter Miami midfielder Jean Mota, both hailing from Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Players Represent Inter Miami in International Duty

Inter Miami CF seeks to impress following the international break, in which multiple players represented the club. Centerback Damion Lowe was called up by Jamaica, centerback Jairo Quinteros was called up by Bolivia, defender Aime Mabika was called up by Zambia, midfielder Edison Azcona was called up by the Dominican Republic, fullback DeAndre Yedlin was called up by the U.S. Lowe registered 90 minutes during his international call up, featuring on March 25 against El Salvador and will be available for the team's match on Wednesday, March 30 against Honduras. Quinteros recorded a total of 106 combined minutes for Bolivia as he featured against Colombia on March 25 and against Brazil on March 30. Mabika joined Zambia for training camp as well as appeared 90 minutes in an international friendly against Congo on March 25. Azcona joined the Dominican Republic for training camp. Yedlin played the full match, secured a clean sheet and earned a valuable point for the United States on March 25 against Mexico, and was available for selection in the final qualifying match on March 30 against Costa Rica. (As of 3/29)

Inter Miami CF Seeks Its Second Win Against The Dynamo

Inter Miami CF looks to continue a positive record against the Houston Dynamo in the teams' first meeting of the 2022 season. Inter Miami has faced Houston only once previously, defeating the Texas-based side 1-0 on October 10, 2020.

Familiar Faces

The team's versatile Costa Rican attacker Ariel Lassiter may face his former side on Saturday, as he was a Dynamo player between in 2020 and 2021. The international player was acquired by the club in trade with the Dynamo in exchange for General Allocation Money in December 2021.

Houston Dynamo Head Coach Nagamura shares a hometown with Inter Miami midfielder Jean Mota, both hailing from Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Houston Dynamo in 2022

Houston Dynamo enters Saturday's match coming off of a 1-1 draw at home against the Colorado Rapids. The two-time MLS Cup champions will visit DRV PNK Stadium being led by its top scorers Darwin Quintero and Tyler Pasher, who have two and one goals respectively so far in the 2022 season. This is Houston Dynamo's Head Coach Paulo Nagamura first season with the team, having been appointed to the position on January 3, 2022.

Houston Dynamo will play its second away game of the season at DRV PNK, looking to claim its first points on the road.

QUOTE SHEET - POST-MATCH FC CINCINNATI (3/19)

"This gives us a period of time to work, to bond, to come together even more... By the time we come to [face] Houston [Dynamo], we should have a fully fit squad barring Ian Fray, so that will provide competition and hopefully the standards and the quality will go up." - Phil Neville

"We're all competitors, we all want to win, we all do everything it takes to get three points in the end. I think any team, if they come off a loss, they're going to be very frustrated and that's normal, but I think for us, we have a good group in the sense that we stick together, put our arms around each other and we understand that we all have to have a common goal in order to get there together." - Mo Adams

"It's going to take time for us to come together and really get that chemistry going. It's four games into the season. I've been in this league for five years; the way you start isn't always the way you finish. We have to remain patient and composed and translate what we do in training to games. We have a break now where we can put our head down and really work hard to come back from it." - Mo Adams

QUOTE SHEET - PRE-MATCH HOUSTON DYNAMO (3/29)

"This week, we've worked them even harder, and they're beginning to enjoy the work. They're beginning to enjoy the work because they're beginning to see what the work can give to them; more confidence, more belief, more togetherness." - Phil Neville

"I want to see a team play with freedom, with excitement, with enjoyment, scoring goals, attacking football; that's what I want to see against Houston. I want them to get the shackles off; I want them to play with a little more freedom in terms of not being as nervous and tense. I think in situations like this it's easier said than done because they're all so desperate to do well. They are a great bunch of guys that just want to do so well for this football club. They've gelled together so well; now they just need to transfer that out onto the pitch. The things I see in training, really, really excite me; the things I see in training are really positive." - Phil Neville

"We're excited to be back on the pitch, happy to be back home. The team needs a win, I think we need to win for the fans... We know what we have to do, we've been very focused and we have a good mentality going into the weekend. We're looking to get three points and I think we are ready to do that." - Ariel Lassiter

"I definitely see a hunger within the group...Our mentality has been really good [since our last match], it wasn't the result we wanted in Cincinnati, but we have a great opportunity [to get a win at home] this Saturday." - Ariel Lassiter

MATCH RECAP: INTER MIAMI CF FALLS 3-1 TO FC CINCINNATI ON THE ROAD

Inter Miami made a few notable changes to its starting lineup entering its second road match of 2022; Drake Callender made his first start in goal; DeAndre Yedlin, Damion Lowe, Chris McVey and Kieran Gibbs started in defense; Gregore and Mo Adams again lined up in a double pivot in midfield, while Robert Taylor, Gonzalo Higuaín and Jean Mota lined up behind the striker; Leonardo Campana slotted in at the point of the attack.

With the start, Callender made his first Inter Miami CF appearance and first MLS appearance, while Gibbs made his first appearance and first start of the 2022 campaign. CJ dos Santos, Bryce Duke and Robbie Robinson, meanwhile, were available for selection for the first time this season, appearing on the bench.

It was the hosts who got out to the quick start, as Cincinnati took the lead in the 18th minute; Brandon Vázquez sent a pass from the right side of the box to Ronald Matarrita on the other side, who curled a shot inside the far post for the 1-0 lead. Cincinnati subsequently doubled its lead, netting a second in the 24th minute; a cross from Matarrita met Vázquez in the box, who headed it into the back of the net to make it 2-0.

Inter Miami, however, responded to the goals a few minutes later. In the 28th minute, Campana clipped a pass into a streaking run by Yedlin down the right side of the box, and the speedy fullback was brought down by Matarrita, resulting in a penalty. Higuaín stepped up and calmly slotted his strike from the spot down the middle and into the back of the net to cut the deficit in half. The goal was Higuaín's first of 2022.

The visitors continued to apply pressure on Cincinnati, stringing together stronger attacking sequences, but the match entered halftime 2-1.

In the second half, Robinson came on to make his season debut as Inter Miami pushed to find an equalizer, but the team was unable to find the back of the net. Cincinnati eventually extended its lead in the 82nd minute, with Matarrita once again finding Vázquez for a header to make it 3-1, which remained as the final scoreline.

Inter Miami returns to action in two weeks when it hosts Houston Dynamo FC at DRV PNK Stadium on Saturday, April 2 at 8 p.m. ET.

HOUSTON DYNAMO FC vs. INTER MIAMI CF

MLS REGULAR SEASON - MATCH 5

Saturday, April 2, 2022 · 7:00 p.m. CT · DRV PNK Stadium · Fort Lauderdale, FL

DYNAMO RETURN TO LEAGUE PLAY ON SATURDAY AGAINST MIAMI

Houston Dynamo FC return from the first international window of the season this Saturday when they travel to Florida to face Inter Miami CF. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. CT and fans can watch the game live on AT&T SportsNet in English and TeleXitos 47.2 in Spanish.

Houston closed a two-game homestand with a 1-1 draw against the Colorado Rapids on March 19. Midfielder Memo Rodriguez capitalized on a misplaced goal kick in the final minute of regulation to secure a point for Houston. The Dynamo Academy alum intercepted the ball near midfield and found forward Tyler Pasher in space for his first goal of the year. With the draw, Houston is unbeaten at home to start the regular season.

Three Dynamo players return from international duty on Saturday. Forward Sebastian Ferreira earned his first start and appearance for the senior Paraguayan National Team. The Designated Player had one of the best opportunities for Paraguay early in the first half with an effort that was tipped over the crossbar. Midfielder Darwin Ceren featured in two matches for El Salvador and fellow midfielder Adalberto Carasquilla represented Panama in their bid to qualify for the upcoming World Cup.

This is the second meeting between both teams and the first match also took place in Florida during the 2020 regular season. Miami edged past the Dynamo with a 1-0 victory after Lewis Morgan converted a penalty kick in the second half.

Five Miami players return from international duty for Saturday's game. DeAndre Yedlin joined the U.S. Men's National Team for their final fixtures in the Concacaf Octagonal and featured in the 0-0 draw with Mexico on Wednesday. Edison Azcona joined the Dominican Republic for a camp and Damion Lowe joined Jamaica for their final matches of this qualifying cycle. Additionally, Aime Mabika traveled to Africa to represent Zambia and Jairo Quinteros joined Colombia for a pair of matches in the Conmebol World Cup qualifiers. Miami have opened the season with two of their first three games on the road, including a 3-1 loss in Cincinnati prior to the FIFA break. The team is managed by former England Women's National Team head coach Phil Neville and their roster includes former Argentina Men's National Team forward Gonzalo Higuain. Miami also features a familiar face in Ari Lassiter, who was traded to Miami from Houston earlier this year. Lassiter spent the second half of 2020 in Houston plus the entire 2021 regular season.

The Dynamo returns to PNC Stadium on April 9 to host Cristian Espinoza and the San Jose Earthquakes.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA. (Saturday, Oct. 10, 2020) – The Houston Dynamo and Inter Miami CF waited out a brief weather delay at Inter Miami CF Stadium before the hosts capitalized on a penalty kick to capture a 1-0 win. Play was halted in the 31st minute due to lightning in the vicinity of the stadium, sending both clubs to their dressing rooms before returning to action 48 minutes later.

Miami took the lead in the 57th minute through a penalty kick from forward Lewis Morgan. The penalty was issued by referee Drew Fischer when he whistled a Dynamo defender for a foul inside the area on an Inter Miami corner kick. Morgan stepped to the spot and put his shot into the lower right corner of the goal.

Goalkeeper Marko Marić continued his strong run of form, coming up with two outstanding saves to keep things scoreless in the first half and another brilliant reaction save late to keep the Dynamo in it.

The goalkeeper was credited with three saves in the match. As part of Major League Soccer and MLS WORKS' Every Save Makes A Difference program, Allstate and TUDN will donate $500 to charity for each save that a team's goalkeeper makes during matches televised on the network. That means that Marić earned $1,500 for Dynamo Charities through his play this evening.

Marić made an athletic diving save off of Morgan in the 23rd minute and a fantastic reaction save off of Miami captain Gonzalo Higuain in the 40th minute to send the match to halftime scoreless. Marić denied Higuain once again in the 53rd minute, reacting quickly to get his left hand onto a close-range volley from the Miami captain and push the ball up and over the crossbar.

Just ahead of intermission, Houston was inches from grabbing the lead in the 42nd minute through center back Kiki Struna. After left back Adam Lundkvist did well to earn a Houston corner kick, the initial corner was cleared, but Houston was able to regain possession and recycle the ball twice before right back Zarek Valentin eventually slipped a centering pass to the edge of the six-yard box where Struna slid to put a toe on it, but his effort rolled just wide of the target.

After the penalty, Houston came close to equalizing in the 71st minute when forward Darwin Quintero slipped a nifty through-pass behind the Miami back line for forward Ari Lassiter. The young Costa Rican raced on to the ball near the six-yard box, but Miami goalkeeper John McCarthy was quick off his line to cut down the angle and deny Lassiter from close range.

Houston continued to press for the equalizer late and created another chance in the 86th minute through forward Christian Ramirez. The striker worked into a good position near the edge of the penalty area to the left of goal and curled a left-footed shot toward the corner of the goal, but his effort just missed wide.

The busy slate of games continues for Houston, as they return home for a midweek tilt with Eastern Conference side Nashville SC. Houston and Nashville met on Sept. 26 in Tennessee, with the Dynamo snatching a point with a goal from defender Maynor Figueroa in the waning moments to pull out a 1-1 draw. Kickoff for Wednesday's match is set for 7 p.m. CDT, and it will be televised live throughout the Greater Houston area on QuestTEXAS Ch. 55.

GAME 5

LAST MATCH vs. COL

HOUSTON (Saturday, March 19, 2022) – Houston Dynamo FC forced a 1-1 draw with the Colorado Rapids after netting a goal in the final minute of regulation at PNC Stadium on Saturday night.

Dynamo forward Tyler Pasher, who came on as a substitute in the 72nd minute, scored the equalizer in the 90th minute after a mistake by Colorado's goalkeeper. The 'keeper mishit a clearance and it fell to midfielder Memo Rodriguez 35 yards from goal. Rodriguez reacted quickly and played Pasher in behind the defense, where the forward slipped the ball just inside the left post to put Houston on level terms and give the Dynamo a crucial point at home.

The Rapids scored the first goal of the game in the 42nd minute off a corner kick from Jack Price. Dynamo goalkeeper Steve Clark went up for the ball and collided with Danny Wilson, allowing the ball to fall to the waiting foot of Mark-Anthony Kaye at the far post.

Colorado came up with the first big chance of the game 10 minutes in when forward Jonathan Lewis got free for a shot inside the penalty area, but Clark came up with a big diving save to push the ball wide of the target. The Dynamo shot stopper was called into action again in the 25th minute when he saved a shot from Rapids forward Michael Barrios from outside the box.

Houston's best opportunity of the first half came from Dynamo midfielder Matías Vera when he forced goalkeeper William Yarbrough off his line in the 15th minute with a one-touch strike from outside the box.

Houston nearly equalized in the 49th minute off a cross from Dynamo forward Corey Baird that found forward Sebastian Ferreira inside the box, but his effort bounced off the back of his shoulder and over the crossbar.

Clark came up with another big save in the 75th minute when he denied Kaye in a one-on-one situation off of a Colorado counterattack. Clark finished the game with four saves on the night.

The Dynamo return to league play on the road on April 2 against Inter Miami CF. Houston return to PNC Stadium on April 9 to host Cristian Espinoza and the San Jose Earthquakes. For tickets and additional information, visit HoustonDynamoFC.com.

GAME 5

HOUSTON DYNAMO FC TECHNICAL STAFF

HEAD COACH - PAULO NAGAMURA

Houston Dynamo FC hired Paulo Nagamura as the fifth head coach in Dynamo history, the Club announced on Jan. 3.

The 38-year-old is the youngest head coach in Club history and joins the Dynamo after five years as a coach with the Sporting Kansas City organization.

Upon retiring from professional soccer in 2017, Nagamura joined the Sporting Kansas City II staff as an assistant coach for the USL Championship side and helped the team win its second consecutive Western Conference title. He took the helm as head coach in 2018 and led Sporting KC II to the conference semifinals.

He took the helm as head coach in 2018 and led Sporting KC II to the conference semifinals.

Sporting transitioned its USL Championship affiliate to a youth development model in 2019 and Nagamura would go on to coach 15 Sporting Kansas City Homegrown Players and field an additional 23 Sporting KC Academy products in the USL Championship.

Several key players for Sporting Kansas City began their professional journey under Nagamura, including 2021 MLS MVP finalist Dániel Sallói, U.S. youth international Jaylin Lindsey and current U.S. Men's National Team midfielder Gianluca Busio, who made his professional debut as a 15-year-old for the USL Championship side in 2018.

As a player, Nagamura retired in 2016 after a 12-year MLS career where he finished with 252 regular season appearances, three Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles and two MLS Cups. He is a product of the São Paulo FC academy in his native Brazil and finished his youth career in England with Arsenal Football Club.

The former midfielder began his professional career in 2005 with the LA Galaxy where he won the U.S. Open Cup and MLS Cup in his rookie season. Nagamura began the 2007 season with Toronto FC and joined Chivas USA in the spring to lead the team to the best record in the Western Conference. He would remain in Los Angeles through 2009 before spending the 2010 Clausura season in Mexico with Tigres UANL.

Nagamura's second stint in MLS began with Chivas USA in 2010 and he went on to spend his final five seasons with Sporting Kansas City from 2012-2016 prior to retiring. Nagamura's tenure with Sporting coincided with the club's emergence as a consistent contender in Major League Soccer. The club won the U.S. Open Cup in 2012 and captured the MLS Cup in 2013 before winning the Open Cup again in 2015.

Nagamura becomes the fifth full-time head coach in club history, following Dominic Kinnear (2006-14), Owen Coyle (2015-16), Wilmer Cabrera (2017-19) and Tab Ramos (2020-2021). He becomes the third Brazilian-born coach in Major League Soccer history and will be the second-youngest among active MLS head coaches.

ASSISTANT COACH - CHRIS MARTINEZ

Martinez, 51, comes to the Dynamo with an extensive coaching background, most recently having served as an assistant coach under Nagamura with Sporting Kansas City II for the past four seasons. After his playing days ended, Martinez transitioned to coaching. Martinez served as Director of Player Development at U.S. Soccer Development Academy club Real Colorado, where he was named U-15/16 Coach of the Year for the Central Conference in 2015.

The former defender returned to MLS when he joined the Colorado Rapids as the club's Development Academy Program Director and U-18/19 head coach. He held this role until he joined Sporting II ahead of the 2018 campaign. During his time in Colorado, he played an instrumental role in developing future MLS stars Tajon Buchanan and Sam Vines. Martinez was inducted into the Colorado Soccer Hall of Fame in 2020.

Martinez played collegiately for Clemson University before a professional career that included stops in the American Professional Soccer League and the National Professional Soccer League before landing with the Rapids, where he played from 1997-2001.

ASSISTANT COACH - JIMMY NIELSEN

Jimmy Nielsen, 44, joins the Dynamo after most recently serving as the Director of Professional Player Development with Sporting Kansas City.

After his twenty-year playing career, Nielsen began his coaching career in 2014 as the head coach of the USL's Oklahoma City Energy. During his tenure with Oklahoma City, the team made the playoffs three out of four seasons, including two appearances in the USL Western Conference finals.

The Danish-national was also a finalist for the 2015 USL Coach of the Year Award after the Energy finished the regular season tied atop the Western Conference standings. The 44-year-old also spent one season as the head coach of the USL's Hartford Athletic in 2020.

GOALKEEPER COACH - ZACH THORNTON

Thornton, 48, joins the Dynamo after seven seasons with the D.C. United coaching staff. He joined the club as the Director of Goalkeeping and assistant coach prior to the 2015 season. The team reached the Audi MLS Cup playoffs four times during his tenure with USMNT goalkeeper Bill Hamid in goal. Hamid earned team MVP honors in 2017 under Thornton's tutelage and set a new D.C. United single-season record with 14 clean sheets in 2019.

The 48-year-old also coached at the collegiate level as the associate head coach for the men's program at Villanova University from 2013-2015. Additionally, Zach spent two years working with new Houston Dynamo FC goalkeeper Steve Clark at D.C. United.

The Maryland native had a 17-year MLS career where he was named MLS Goalkeeper of the Year in 1998 and 2009. Thornton also spent time abroad in Portugal on loan to Benfica in 2004. The former shot stopper won the MLS Cup in 1998 with Chicago Fire FC, the Supporters' Shield with the San Jose Earthquakes in 2003 and three Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups. The six-time MLS All-Star selection played collegiately at Loyola College in Maryland and he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2003.

HEAD OF PERFORMANCE - PAUL CAFFREY

Caffrey enters his seventh season with the Dynamo in 2021 after joining the club in 2015. The Dublin, Ireland native holds experience in MLS and with the United States national team program. Caffrey spent 2014 at Chivas USA as the first assistant coach under Wilmer Cabrera. He served as an assistant coach and fitness coach with the Colorado Rapids on Oscar Pareja's staff from 2012-13.

Caffrey also was the first assistant coach under Cabrera with the United States under-17 national team from 2007-11 and oversaw the physical preparation and fitness training of the team.

Caffrey played four seasons with the Long Island Rough Riders after a four-year college career at Adelphi University. Caffrey's experience also includes roles as the director of coaching with the Rough Riders from 2003-05 and head coach and assistant athletic director with Suffolk County (New York) Community College from 2002-07.

Caffrey holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" License as well as certifications as a strength and conditioning specialist (National Strength & Conditioning Association) and functional movement specialist (Functional Movement Systems). He also carries Master's degrees in Business Administration and Physical Education.

HEAD OF SPORTS SCIENCE - ALEX CALDER

A former professional player in his native Australia, Calder has nine years of experience working with elite athletes around the world, most recently with Orlando City SC as the club's Sports Science Analyst and Fitness Coach.

With a Bachelor in Sport and Exercise Science from Fitchburg State University in Fitchburg, Mass., and a Master of High Performance Sport from Australian Catholic University, Calder began his career working with high-level athletes at Next Level Training Institute in Melbourne.

Calder worked with Australian Football League players Collingwood FC before moving to the United States in 2014 as the head strength and conditioning coach at Super Strength and Conditioning in Westminster, Mass. He returned to the team side as a Sports Performance Intern at Purdue University in 2016 and was a Field Sport Specialist for the University of Louisville from 2016-17.

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER - CASEY CARLSON

Carlson was promoted from assistant athletic trainer to head athletic trainer in 2021, following his third season with the Dynamo. Carlson joined the Club in March 2018, after serving as an athletic trainer at Kansas State University. Carlson also previously worked in Major League Soccer with the Colorado Rapids and Los Angeles Galaxy, while also gaining professional experience as an intern with the San Diego Chargers in the NFL. Carlson received his bachelor's in Athletic Training from South Dakota University and his master's degree in Kinesiology from Georgia Southern University. Carlson is the fourth head athletic trainer in Club history.

ASST. ATHLETIC TRAINER - STEVEN PATERA

This is the second season with the Dynamo for Patera, who joined the team as an assistant athletic trainer in 2021 after three seasons with Reno 1868 FC in the USL Championship. Patera received his bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from James Madison University and began his career in sports with the Washington Capitals as an intern and his first full-time role came with the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim in 2008 as the strength and conditioning coordinator. Patera obtained his master's degree in Kinesiology in 2013 at Georgia Southern University prior to his first role in professional soccer with Reno 1868 FC.

ASST. ATHLETIC TRAINER - JOEL LOCKHART

Lockhart transitioned to the Dynamo First Team as an assistant athletic trainer in 2021. Lockhart joined the Club as the Dynamo Academy head athletic trainer in Aug. 2019 and led the effort for the Academy to return to play following the end of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy season in April. Lockhart joined the Dynamo after spending two years as an athletic trainer for the Indiana Fire youth soccer club from May 2017-Aug. 2019. He also spent time with U.S. Soccer as an athletic trainer for the U-14 U.S. Girl's National Team in pre-tournament camps in 2018. Lockhart received his bachelor's in Kinesiology from Southeastern Louisiana University and master's from Illinois State University.

ABOUT PNC STADIUM

PNC Stadium is a state-of-the-art, open-air stadium designed to host Houston Dynamo Football Club matches, Houston Dash matches and Texas Southern University football games as well as additional professional, collegiate and community sporting events, concerts, exhibitions, conventions and special events. Opened on May 12, 2012, the 340,000-square foot, 22,000-seat stadium is the first soccer-specific stadium in Major League Soccer located in a city's downtown district.

An architecturally stunning building, the stadium features 94,000 square feet of aluminum panels on its exterior, giving it a modern and stylish appearance. Each of the panels is 50 percent open to improve air flow throughout the concourses. Canopies extend 75 feet over the stands on the east and west sides of the stadium, and a stage canopy extends 125 feet over the south end, providing shade to soccer fans and a built-in speaker setup for concerts. With its downtown location, the stadium is a part of a true 'Stadium District,' which includes Minute Maid Park and the Toyota Center, as well as the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green, Warehouse Live and House of Blues.

BBVA Stadium was awarded the LEED® Silver certification from the U.S. Green Building Council in December 2012. The stadium has been identified as a pioneering example of new construction and sustainable design and is considered a leader in transforming the building industry.

On June 13, 2019, the stadium was officially renamed from BBVA Compass Stadium to BBVA Stadium. The new stadium name and corresponding signage change was part of BBVA's ongoing brand unification happening across the globe. BBVA Group's new logo and brand signals an advancement in the financial institution's efforts become a single, global digital entity in all areas where it operates.

The stadium was again renamed in 2021 following the merger of PNC Bank and the U.S. division of BBVA.
