QUOTE SHEET

KAROL SWIDERSKI

On missing the first-ever game due to visa process:

“The VISA process takes time, I understand, but I was very sad that couldn’t play in the game. But it’s a new week and we have an important game. First-ever game in history in Charlotte, with a full stadium, this is fantastic and I can’t wait for the next game.

“I feel really good, I was in Poland for like 9 to 10 days, and I already missed this city and this team. But now I have my visa, I’m here, and I’m so happy.”

On the home opener against the LA Galaxy and a capacity crowd:

“They have some fantastic players in front, like Chicharito and Douglas Costa, it will be a difficult game but we are playing with our fans, in our stadium, in our home so I hope we can get a good result.

“I have never played for 70 to 75 thousand people, this will be an unbelievable feeling. We can’t for this game, we talk about it all the time in the dressing room, having more than 70,000 people behind you is very special.”

MIGUEL ÁNGEL RAMÍREZ

On the first-ever game against D.C. United:

“I would have liked to have had a final score line that was more fair. But especially in the first part of the first half and large portions of the second, I was really enjoying the game and I felt really proud of what I was watching, especially knowing that we are just starting out.

“We were arriving in the final third more and better than them [D.C. United]. But they converted their chances and we didn’t. Those are the areas where you have to make a difference in order to win the match.

On the support of the fans at D.C. & home opener against the LA Galaxy:

“Amazing... Thank you [the fans], thank you all that came to support us. We felt your energy and we need you. We need you. It’s still the beginning and as I said before it will be difficult. But it will be easier with the help of our supporters of course.

“I would like to go outside and tell them personally just how much I appreciate them. We have felt them and that we are so excited to see them again next Saturday to hopefully give them a victory.”
