CLUB CONNECTIONS

New York City FC goalkeeper Sean Johnson is no stranger to Chicago Fire fans, having donned the Fire colors from 2010-2016. Johnson played 177 matches for Chicago and making 557 saves in both regular season play and post-season.

NOTABLY

- Xherdan Shaqiri is coming off a Team of the Week performance for Week 12 in which he scored his first goal from the run of play for the Fire.
- Shaqiri scored and assisted on a goal in the Fire's 3-3 draw with the Red Bulls. He has been involved in seven of Chicago's last nine MLS goals (3 goals, 4 assists).
- Chris Mueller also registered his first goal in a Chicago Fire uniform against the Red Bulls, in the 38th minute.
- Fire goalkeeper Gabriel Slonina earned his first start and clean sheet against NYCFC on Aug. 4, 2022.

THE EZRA ERA

In November 2022, Chicago Fire FC named Ezra Hendrickson the 10th full-time head coach in team history. With more than 25 years of domestic experience, Hendrickson joins the Fire with a proven track record of success in MLS, winning 15 major trophies as a coach and a player. A native of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Hendrickson, 49, comes to Chicago after spending the past 13 seasons coaching domestically and internationally. Most recently, Hendrickson was the lead assistant coach for the reigning MLS champions Columbus Crew (2019-2021), where he helped the team capture the 2020 MLS Cup and the 2021 Campeones Cup.

Hendrickson originally began his coaching career with Seattle Sounders FC, serving as an assistant coach for Sigi Schmid, whose 240 regular season wins are tied for the most in league history, from 2009-2014. During this stretch, Hendrickson helped lead the Sounders to four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles (2009, 2010, 2011, 2014) and an MLS Supporters' Shield (2014), before becoming head coach of Seattle Sounders FC 2 in the USL Championship from 2015-17. Additionally, while working with the Sounders, Hendrickson served as an assistant coach for Saint Vincent and the Grenadines during 2018 FIFA World Cup qualifying (2015-18). Following his time in Seattle, he reunited with Schmid in Los Angeles in 2018, spending one season as an assistant coach for the LA Galaxy, before joining the Crew on July 3, 2019.

As a player, Hendrickson won eight trophies during 12 MLS seasons (1997-2008). The former defender was an MLS champion with three different teams (2002, 2004, 2008) and won three MLS Supporters' Shield trophies (1998, 2002, 2008), the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup (2001) and the Concacaf Champions' Cup (2000).

Overall, Hendrickson made 266 MLS regular season appearances (225 starts) for the New York MetroStars (1997), LA Galaxy (1997-2003), Dallas Burn (2003), D.C. United (2004), Chivas USA (2005-06) and Columbus Crew (2006-08). Prior to joining MLS, Hendrickson spent time with the Des Moines Menace (1994) and the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers (1995-1996).

BENCH NOTES

Hendrickson has brought together a coaching staff brimming with soccer acumen. Chicago Fire FC legend Frank Klopas and goalkeeper coach Adin Brown return to the sideline, joined by assistant coaches Junior González and Ring of Fire member C.J. Brown.

González brings more than 20 years of coaching experience to the Fire and previously worked alongside Hendrickson at the LA Galaxy and Seattle Sounders FC 2.

González joins the Fire after spending the last two-and-a-half seasons as head coach of LA Galaxy II in the USL Championship. González originally joined the LA Galaxy first team as an assistant coach in 2018, where he worked alongside Hendrickson, before being appointed to LA Galaxy II as interim head coach on July 19, 2019.

Klopas, a Chicago soccer icon, has been involved with the Fire and Major League Soccer in a variety of roles since 1998. Since joining his hometown Club in 1998, Klopas has served as a player, head coach, technical director, team ambassador and broadcaster for the Fire over the course of 22 years. His honors with the Club include an MLS Cup title and a U.S. Open Cup championship in the same season (1998). Additionally, Klopas was inducted into the Club's Ring of Fire in 2004 and the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.

Adin Brown joined the Fire in 2020 from Portland Timbers 2, where he spent two seasons. Before his stint in USL, Brown led the goalkeeping duties for the Timbers First Team from 2015-17 and helped guide the club to its first MLS Cup title.

The Club leader in appearances (372), starts (364) and minutes played (32,538), C.J. Brown returns to the Fire with 25 years of experience as a coach and player at the professional level. C.J. spent the 2021 season as the technical director and head coach of Chicago House AC in the National Independent Soccer Association (NISA). Prior to his time with Chicago House, the California Bay Area native spent 10 seasons as an assistant coach in MLS, working with Real Salt Lake (2011-13), the Fire (2014), New York City FC (2015), Orlando City SC (2016-18) and the New York Red Bulls (2018-20). Additionally, earlier this year Brown served as an assistant coach for the U-23 U.S. Men's National Team in the 2020 Concacaf Men's Olympic Qualifying Championship.

HOMEGROWN AND READY

Since January 2020, the Fire have signed nine Homegrowns (a player that has graduated from the Fire's Academy program) and currently have 11 Homegrown Players under contract through the 2022 season. Anchoring the Fire's backline is 17-year-old phenom and Addison native Gabriel Slonina, who was recently ranked as the most valuable goalkeeper in the world for his age. Slonina is joined by fellow 17-year-old goalkeeper and Naperville native Chris Brady, who comes into the season ranked as the 10th most valuable goalkeeper born in 2004, making the Fire the only Club in the world with two top-10 17-year-old goalkeepers.

Brian Gutiérrez, an 18-year-old from West Lawn, can be found in the midfield, creating goal-scoring opportunities for his teammates. In the center of the pitch, you can find 2020 Fire Defender of the Year, Mauricio Pineda, from Bolingbrook. The Club's latest Homegrown signing, Victor Bezerra, can be found scoring goals or walking around his neighborhood, Gold Coast. Head to the other side of the Loop to find Andre Reynolds II, a graduate of South Loop Elementary, and a speedy outside back. Javier Casas Jr., also from Addison, recently was called into the U.S. U-20 MYNT camp. From Downers Grove, Alex Monis was destined to be a Fire player after his dad, Rich, served as the Fire's head athletic trainer from 1998 through 2001. Forward Misael Rodríguez, who earned the Golden Boot at the MLS NEXT Cup Playoffs, represents Chicago Lawn. Last but not least, you have the youngest Homegrown, Sergio Oregel, who at just 16-years-old is a professional soccer player that also hails from West Lawn.

LAKE MICHIGAN MESSI

The Alpine Messi, Switzerland National Team midfielder Xherdan Shaqiri joins Chicago Fire FC as a Designated Player, becoming the most expensive transfer signing in Club history. Since making his professional debut in 2009, he has made 421 appearances across all competitions, winning 17 major trophies during that stretch. Additionally, the attacking midfielder has earned 100 caps for Switzerland's senior national team, featuring in three consecutive FIFA World Cups (2010, 2014, 2018) and back-to-back European Championships (2016, 2020). In his first season in Germany (2012-13), Shaqiri was part of the Bayern team that won the first treble in club history, capturing the UEFA Champions League, German Bundesliga, and German Cup trophies. In total, the Swiss midfielder won eight major trophies in three seasons with Bayern, where he played alongside Fire legend Bastian Schweinsteiger. Following his spell with Bayern, Shaqiri spent time with Inter Milan (2014-15) and Stoke City (2016-18), before signing with Liverpool ahead of the 2018-19 English Premier League campaign.

DURÁN DURÁN

He's not British, or a rock band, but 18-year-old forward Jhon Durán is determined to become a star. His contract with the Fire was signed on Jan. 11, 2021 but formally began on Jan. 1, 2022. Signing at age 17 made the Colombian striker the youngest international player signing in MLS history. His contract includes a three-year deal with Club options for the 2025 and 2026 seasons. Durán spent the 2021 season with Envigado before joining the Fire in 2022.

KACPER, THE FRIENDLY STRIKER

Chicago Fire FC acquired Polish striker Kacper Przybylko from the Philadelphia Union. Przybylko led the Union in scoring each of the last three years, including the shortened 2020 season when Philadelphia captured its first ever Supporters' Shield trophy. He also added five goals for the club in the 2020-21 Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League, finishing as the regional tournament's top scorer while helping to lead the Union to the semifinals.

CZICHOS, DEUTSCH DEFENDER

Defender Rafael Czichos spent the last four seasons as a mainstay along the backline for FC Köln, where he played 111 games in all competitions in Germany's 1. and 2. Bundesliga. During the last three campaigns, Czichos has tallied 74 starts in the German Bundesliga, including every match of the current 2021-22 season. Czichos originally signed with Köln prior to the start of the 2018-19 2. Bundesliga campaign. In his debut season, he made 32 appearances (32 starts) as the team captured the league championship and earned promotion to the top division in Germany.

BIG ANTI-RACIST ENERGY

Chicago Fire FC and HoodSpace Chi announced a collaboration to drop the Big Anti-Racist Energy merchandise collection.

The collection includes a sweatshirt and a beanie, and all profits will be directly donated to HoodSpace Chi. The sweatshirt dons the Anti-Racist Energy Collection slogan over the left chest, with a customized CFFC imprint on the lower left, with HoodSpace pressed on the right sleeve.

HoodSpace Chi was founded in 2020 by Chicago native and former Chicago Red Stars defender Sarah Gorden as a way to bring yoga and meditation to kids in Chicago. Currently a professional soccer player for Angel City FC, Gorden found working on her mental health through yoga and meditation changed her game on and off the field.

It is the second collaboration between the Chicago Fire and HoodSpace Chi, who previously came together to host a soccer clinic and mindfulness session with more than 30 elementary schools student participants in the Chicago Fire FC Foundation's P.L.A.Y.S. Program.
