MLS MEDIA RESOURCES: WEEK 2 NEWS & NOTES

News and notes and statistical trends from around Major League Soccer

YOUNGSTERS CONTINUE TO MAKE THEIR MARKS IN MLS HISTORY

Young players continue to set superlatives across Major League Soccer, rewriting the record books as they go as the league kicks off its 26th season.

Two days before turning 20 years of age, Sporting Kansas City goalkeeper John Pulskamp stepped between the posts for the club's season opener at the New York Red Bulls. Pulskamp made two saves as Sporting came from behind for a 2-1 victory – and in the process, Pulskamp became the third-youngest goalkeeper in MLS history to be credited with a victory.

YOUNGEST GOALKEEPER CREDITED WITH WIN

GOALKEEPER	AGE	DATE	MATCH
Bill Hamid	19 years, 161 days	5/5/2010	DC 2 vs. KC 1

MNUFC'S ST. CLAIR STILL UNBEATEN FROM THE SPOT

When Minnesota United FC goalkeeper Dayne St. Clair stepped up to face Raúl Ruidíaz from the penalty spot in Friday night's match at Lumen Field, it was the third penalty kick St. Clair has faced in his MLS career.

St. Clair saved the Ruidíaz attempt – and for the third time in the three penalty kicks faced, St. Clair did not concede a goal (two saves, one off the crossbar).

St. Clair becomes just the third goalkeeper not to concede a goal in the first three penalty kicks faced in their MLS careers. Ian Feuer did not allow a goal in the first four penalty kicks he faced in 1998 (three saves, one post), while Jon Kempin did not concede in his first three penalties against over a three-year span from 2014-17 (all saves).
