SOCCER '79!

THE BEST GAME IN TOWN!

Games full of goodtimes: Tailgate parties! The Sassy Shakers! The rousing sounds of the Magnolia Jazz Band! Prizes! Surprises! Hilarious halftimes! Professional soccer action as the 'Quakes give you games full of goodtimes you'll remember for a long time. The best game in town—all 15 of them: a home timed to better fit into your schedule. With a schedule of exciting match-ups everytime! Non-stop action and adventure. Chills and thrills! Cheers and jeers! Ooohs—and even boos! Come out and really cheer about: this is the year the Quakes play to capture their 4th trip to the play-offs; devastating opponents, delighting fans. And the Earthquakes of '79 have all the power, skill and drive to do it. Paul Child, the league's second all-time leading scorer and holder of virtually every record in the San Jose books. Returning stars Laurie Calloway, Mike Hewitt, and Ian Wood. Eight great young American players. All new international expert guidance of Coach Terry Fisher. Now that's a team worth cheering about—a team you're going to love cheering for. In Act now for the best choice in choice seating! In Earthquakes Soccer at Spartan Stadium, there's no such thing as a bad seat. The action goes on all over the field, for 90 non-stop minutes. And our stadium's up-close seating lets you see every second of it. Midfield seats give you an overview of teamwork and game tactics. Sideline seats will show you individual skill, agility and ball control. As a matter of fact, the only bad seat at an Earthquakes game is no seat. For the best choice of our choice seating—choose yours right now!
