FAMED WORLD CUP COACH

Rinus Michels, considered by many to be the best soccer coach in the world, will coach the Aztecs in 1979. Michels brings to the Aztecs an international record of success that is second to none. In 14 years as a professional coach — first with Ajax (Holland) and later with Barcelona (Spain) — he has won five league championships, three National championships, one European championship, and in 1974 guided the Dutch National team to the World Cup finals.

Tough, pressure soccer is Michels' trademark, and you'll be seeing it at the Rose Bowl this season!
