THE 1968-69 OUTLOOK

Bowling Green State University's 1968-69 basketball squad faces a rebuilding season after racing to an 18-7 overall record and the Mid-American Conference championship last year.

Five of Bowling Green's top six 1967-68 players have graduated leaving captain Dick Rudgers, who started at guard for the Falcons last season and averaged 10.5 points a game, as the only returning starter.

Walt Piatkowski, Bowling Green's leading scorer for the past three years, rebounder Al Dixon, defensive forward Joe Henderson, guard Al Hairston, the Falcons second leading scorer and playmaker, and sixth man Carl Assenheimer, have all seen their final minute of action for Bowling Green.

The loss of these five players leaves new coach Bob Conibear with plenty of problems. Conibear, one of Bowling Green's assistant coaches for the past four years, takes over for Bill Fitch, who led the Falcons to the Mid-American Conference title while being named as the Ohio Coach-of-the-Year. After the 1967-68 season, Fitch then accepted the head coaching position at the University of Minnesota.

Looking ahead to the season, Conibear said, "we will very definitely lack size but we will try to make up for this with aggressiveness and all out hustle within a disciplined attack.

"Our biggest problem will be rebounding so we must have help from centers John Heft and Jim Connally plus forward Mark Hoffman and junior college transfers, Garland Stallworth, Dan McLemore and Jim Penix.

"It is certain that we will make extensive use of our bench and that all the members of this year's team will see action. I can see the possible use of two different units, one built for speed and a second one with fair size and a definite offensive patterned attack."

Conibear has a total of five lettermen, Rudgers, center John Heft, forward Mark Hoffman, guard Sid Rodeheffer, and guard Mark Hennessey, returning from last year's team but these players combined for only 15.0 points a game.

So, Conibear figures to dip heavily into the junior college and Bowling Green's freshmen ranks to come up with a starting unit that will be built around Rudgers who started all 25 1967-68 games and scored 262 points.

Center Jim Connally, who stands 6-7, guard Rich Walker, 6-3, and forward Bob Hill, 6-5, figure to supply most of the help from the freshman team. Connally averaged 14.3 points a game last year while connecting on .612 of his field goal attempts. He also took off 14.6 rebounds an outing.

Walker had a 13.1 average as Hill came through with an 18.4 mark to lead the freshman team in scoring.

From the junior college ranks, Conibear is expected to have four fine players, Dan McLemore, Jim Penix, Garland Stallworth and Art Finley. Any or all of these players could well find themselves in BGSU's 1968-69 starting lineup.

McLemore had a fine record at Port Huron Junior College as he made the JC Honorable Mention All-American team for two years as he averaged 19.8 points an outing. Stallworth, the cousin of Dave Stallworth, comes to Bowling Green from Iola Junior College where he won a host of JC honors and averaged 24.4 over two years. Finley also played at Iola.

Penix, from nearby Penta Tech, could be in a class by himself. He led Rossford High School to Ohio's Class A finals then averaged 30.0 points a game as a freshman and 27.0 as a sophomore at Penta.

For Bowling Green in 1968-69, it seems to amount to this, the Falcons will be inexperienced as they go against a difficult schedule that includes Houston, Vanderbilt and Dayton. However, if the junior college transfers and sophomores come through as expected, Bowling Green could still have a good year.

BOWLING GREEN'S STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESSES THIS YEAR

Size: Bowling Green State University's 1968-69 basketball team has good overall height with the far majority of the team in the 6-4 through 6-7 range but the Falcons lack a really big man at the center position.

Speed: As a team, the Falcons have fair speed with this year's squad probably ranking a little ahead of the 1967-68 squad. This season, the speed figures to show itself on both ends of the court instead of just offensively.

Shooting: Overall, this team has better shooters with more range than the Falcons had last season. The top forwards, Stallworth, McLemore, Hill and Penix, are all good outside shooters while Rudgers supplies good range at guard.

Depth: In 1967-68, Coach Fitch would have loved to be able to call on some of the players that Coach Conibear will find on his bench. In other words, the depth is there this year at forward and guard but the players are still young and inexperienced.

MEET THE FALCONS

FORWARDS

BOB HILL

6-5, 200

Age: 19

Sophomore

Worthington

Hill is considered a fine prospect by coach Bob Conibear and his staff . . . he has all the tools to develop into a fine basketball player at Bowling Green . . . fine offensive threat with good range as a shooter . . . improving rapidly on the defensive end of the court . . . figures to gain a lot of early season experience and should help the Falcons by the time they step into Mid-American Conference play . . . he led last year's freshman team in scoring with an 18.4 average . . . Hill took 215 shots from the field and connected on 108 for a .513 percentage . . . also made 41 of 57 free throw attempts while averaging 9.1 in the rebounding department . . . scored a season high of 37 against the alumni . . . with the Worthington High School Cardinals, Hill ran up a fine record as he lettered for three seasons while landing All-League and All-District honors . . . also earned letters in baseball and cross country, which really figured to help him during the Falcons preseason drills.

MARK HOFFMAN

6-4, 190

Age: 21

Senior

Bellevue

Outstanding hustle . . . gives 100 percent of his ability at all times, on the practice court as well as in a game . . . Hoffman saw some action with the 1967-68 Falcons as he appeared in 18 games and scored 33 points for a 1.8 average . . . lettered with the Falcons last season . . . had his best games against Ball State and Ohio University as he came off the bench to score six points in both games . . . took 32 shots from the field and connected on 12 for a .375 percentage . . . was also a member of Bowling Green's 1966-67 squad . . . good defensive player who should continue to see spot action for the Falcons this season . . . Hoffman earned a total of nine letters at Bellevue High School . . . in basketball, he lettered for three years as a forward and center and made the All-League squad for two seasons . . . also lettered in football and golf.

DAN McLEMORE

6-5, 195

Age: 21

Junior

Toledo

McLemore is a big, strong player with plenty of ability . . . right now, rebounding is his biggest strength . . . most aggressive rebounder on the squad . . . in fact, he is probably the most aggressive player on the team . . . having to make some adjustments on offense as he learns how to play patterned basketball . . .

McLemore came to Bowling Green after a fine career at Port Huron Junior College in Michigan . . . he was a Junior College honorable mention All-American for both years . . . picked to try out for the Junior College Olympic team . . . as a freshman, he scored 576 points in 28 games for a 20.6 average before hitting for 423 markers and an 18.4 average as a sophomore . . . excellent high school record . . . played on the 1965-66 Toledo Libbey High School team that lost in the state finals to Dayton Chaminade . . . lettered for three years as a forward with the Cowboys winning All-City, All-State and honorable mention All-American honors . . . also lettered in cross country, track and baseball for the Cowboys.

JIM PENIX

6-4, 185

Age: 20

Junior

Rossford

Penix could see plenty of action at Bowling Green as either a forward or guard . . . his offensive ability plus his jumping make him a good candidate for the forward slot . . . perhaps the best shot on the 1968-69 squad . . . does several things very well with the ball and one of these just happens to be that he hits the hoop with outstanding regularity . . .

comes to Bowling Green from Penta Tech where he wrote another fine record under his former high school coach Cot Marquette . . . he averaged 30.0 points a game as a freshman before hitting for a 27.0 mark as a sophomore . . . as a sophomore, he canned 53 percent of his shots from the field and 78 from the line . . . before attending Penta Tech, Penix was the local wonder as he led Rossford High School to the 1965-66 state Class A finals . . . he averaged 23.9 points a game as a senior with the Rossford Bulldogs . . . outstanding shooter who figures to help the Falcons this season.

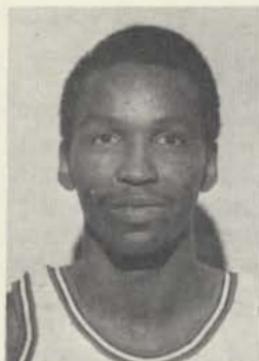

GARLAND STALLWORTH

6-5, 185

Junior

Age: 21

Cleveland

Stallworth, who is the cousin of former All-American Dave Stallworth, is a fine all-around basketball player who can do many things very well . . . he figures to be a definite assist to Bowling Green basketball this season . . . figures to step right into the starting lineup . . . along with McLemore, Finley, and Penix, he is one of the four junior college graduates on the 1968-69 squad . . . Stallworth is from Iola Junior College in Kansas . . . in 47 games over a two-year period with Iola, Stallworth scored 1,147 points for a 24.4 average . . . as a senior, he averaged 21.2 points an outing while taking off 14.1 rebounds per game . . . started for Iola for two seasons and was an All-Region Six Junior College selection for two years while also being named to the All-Conference squad . . . Stallworth earned three letters in basketball at Cleveland John Adams before heading for Iola . . . played both center and forward and earned a host of honors including All State, and All-City . . . also lettered for three years as a high jumper with the track squad and this ability won't hurt him with Bob Conibear's crew.

RICH WALKER

6-3, 180

Sophomore

Age: 19

Inkster, Mich.

Has all the tools to be one of the finest players in Bowling Green's history . . . but he will be a lot better as soon as he learns to put forth his maximum effort . . . has to improve his play making but has excellent speed . . . probably will play either forward or guard, depending on where he fits best into the program . . . last season, he finished as the third leading scorer on the freshman team as he averaged 13.1 points an outing . . . took 169 shots from the field and connected on 79 for .467 while making 25 of 49 free throw attempts . . . took off 113 rebounds for an 8.1 average . . . he had his finest game against Port Huron last year, scoring 21 points . . . Walker wrote a fine record at Inkster High School in Michigan as he lettered for three years at guard and forward . . . honorable mention All-State player while also landing All-League and All-County honors . . . also lettered for three years as a football end.

CENTERS

JIM CONNALLY

6-7, 215

Sophomore

Age: 19

Detroit

At the present time, Connally doesn't know just how good he can be offensively . . . he must give 100 percent effort to become one of the finest centers in the conference . . . improving rapidly but he is inexperienced . . . missed Bowling Green's early season conditioning program when he had his toe nails removed . . . had a fine season with last year's freshman squad . . . finished as the second leading scorer on the squad with a 14.3 average . . . attempted 134 shots and put through 82 for a .612 percentage . . . made 36 of 69 free throws for a .522 mark . . . led the team in rebounding with a 14.6 average . . . scored 200 points with his best game coming against Ohio State as he scored 21 points . . . at Detroit Pershing High School, Connally lettered for three years as a forward . . . the Doughboys, who included Spencer Haywood, were the Class A champions of Michigan in 1966-67 . . . also earned two letters as a football end and safety.

JOHN HEFT

6-6, 200

Senior

Age: 22

Columbus

Heft has continued to show steady improvement at center for the Falcons . . . John, unfortunately, doesn't have any great strengths but he has learned to do several things quite well . . . for this reason, Heft can be expected to see plenty of action at center for the Falcons this season . . . during the early season drills, he was pushing sophomore Jim Connally hard for the first string position . . . Heft has added a little weight this season and should be stronger than he was in 1967-68 . . . lettered with the Falcons last campaign as he appeared in 18 games and scored 37 points for a 2.1 average . . . took just 22 shots from the field and put through 14 for a .636 percentage . . . came off the bench in the second Toledo game last season and dumped in eight points with a six of six performance from the charity line . . . also scored eight points against Loyola . . . Heft is a left hander and this should help him . . . at Columbus Whetstone, landed an All-League berth while lettering for three years as a forward . . . also a baseball pitcher with the Falcons.

GUARDS

JOHN FRAZER

6-2, 165

Sophomore

Age: 20

Columbus

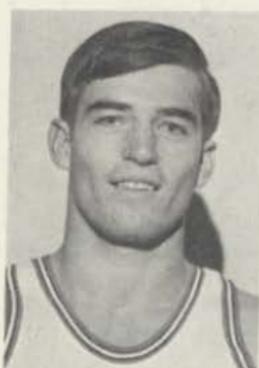

Frazer is pretty much of an unknown quantity . . . he played some freshman ball for the Falcons during the 1966-67 season but was then red shirted last year as Bowling Green moved to the Mid-American Conference title . . . perhaps one of the quickest players on the squad . . . he has the initial quickness that is so important in basketball but he lacks good game experience . . . as a freshman, he appeared in eight games and scored 54 points for a 6.8 average . . . took 50 shots from the field and put through 21 for a .420 percentage . . . that year, he had his best game against the alumni as he scored 17 points while hitting on six of nine shots . . . should help the Falcons in the ball handling department this year where he shows good ability . . . Frazer lettered for two years as a guard at John Marshall Harlan High School in Chicago, Illinois before moving to Columbus and lettering at Columbus East High for one season . . . John's father is a minister.

SID RODEHEFFER

6-2, 190

Junior

Age: 21

Bowling Green

Rodeheffer is a hard working guard with fine court speed who should be able to help coach Bob Conibear's squad . . . saw limited action with the Falcons last season but it was enough to earn a letter . . . appeared in 12 games last year and found the range for 16 points . . . got the vast majority of those markers in the Ball State game as he scored seven while picking up four against Akron . . . should be able to supply the Falcons with some additional speed in the back court this season . . . at Bowling Green High School, Rodeheffer was an honorable mention All-Stater while also landing positions on the All-County and All-League units . . . he lettered for three years with the Bobcats and was the leading scorer in Wood County during his senior year . . . left handed player.

DICK RUDGERS

6-2, 180

Senior

Age: 21

Akron

Rudgers is the only starter back from last year's team that won the Mid-American Conference championship . . . this season, he will be serving as the Falcons' captain . . . lacks real good speed but makes up for this by being a smart player who is able to do several other things quite well . . . good shooter from the medium and long distance ranges . . . has shown ability to drive for the basket . . . finished as Bowling Green's fourth leading scorer last year as he appeared in all 25 Bowling Green games and averaged 10.5 points an outing . . . he got into double figures 15 times last season with his high being 20 at St. Joseph's . . . he also registered 18 against Ohio University . . . shot well from the field and the line making .454 of his field goal attempts and .750 from the line . . . he also lettered with the Falcons as a sophomore while seeing plenty of action . . . hardnosed, smart player who figures to really help the Falcons this season . . . in high school, Rudgers lettered for three years with the Akron Central Wildcats as a guard . . . he landed a first string position on both the All-City and All-District squads while also taking a flock of other honors including All-Ohio.

THE COACHES

HEAD COACH

BOB CONIBEAR

Robert Conibear, Bowling Green State University's assistant basketball coach for the past four years, was named as BGSU's 10th head coach after the 1967-68 season.

Conibear replaces Bill Fitch who led the Falcons to the 1967-68 Mid-American Conference title and an 18-7 overall record then resigned to accept the head coaching position at the University of Minnesota.

"After carefully screening over sixty applications, our Committee unanimously recommended Bob Conibear as Bowling Green's Head Basketball coach. By employing from within, we believe that the program of the past year can best be perpetuated.

"I know that Bob will have the full cooperation and support of the basketball players and the Athletic Department," Bowling Green's Athletic Director Doyt Perry stated in announcing Conibear's appointment.

As Bowling Green's assistant coach for the past four years, Conibear has been concerned with BGSU's recruiting program as well as scouting the university's opponents.

During his first two years at Bowling Green, Conibear served as freshman basketball coach, directing the young Falcons to a fine 22-9 record. His first team, that included All-American Walt Piatkowski, posted a 13-3 mark.

Before coming to Bowling Green, Conibear served as the head basketball coach at Detroit's Northeastern High School. He led the Northeastern Falcons to an outstanding 117-29 record while winning four league and two city championships. His teams also claimed one district title.

Conibear, who received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Wayne State University, earned four varsity letters in basketball during his collegiate career.

After graduation, he played for an AAU basketball team, composed of outstanding players from Wayne State, the University of Detroit and the University of Michigan. This team twice won the state championship and progressed to the finals for the regional title.

Conibear, after graduating from Detroit's Southeastern High School in 1946, was drafted into the Armed Services and spent one and one-half years in the United States Army Mountain and Ski Infantry. While working in Detroit's elementary schools, Conibear received his Master's degree in Health and Physical Education from Wayne State in 1959.

At Northeastern High School, Conibear was also track, cross country and swimming coach. During the summer months, he served as assistant camp director at Al-gon-quian, Michigan's finest and largest boys' camp.

Conibear, age 40, is married and has a daughter, Connie, and a son, Michael.

THE ASSISTANT COACHES

GARY HULST

Gary Hulst, who has served as the Athletic Director and basketball coach at Fort Dodge Junior College for the past four years, was named as Bowling Green State University's varsity assistant coach before the 1968-69 season opened.

In four years at Fort Dodge, Hulst led his teams to a 74-28 record. This past season, his squad finished fifth in the national junior college tournament.

Before accepting the Fort Dodge position, Hulst coached for three years at Calumet High School in Calumet, Iowa, and for two seasons at Washington, Iowa, High School. His teams posted a combined record of 82-29.

Hulst graduated from Hosbers, Iowa, High School in 1953 then attended Iowa State University for one year before serving in the Navy for two years at Great Lakes where he continued to play baseball and basketball.

After his Navy duty, Hulst returned to school and earned his Bachelor's degree from Morningside College in 1959 before receiving his Master's degree at Colorado State in 1962.

At Morningside, Hulst lettered for two years as a forward and guard while earning the school's Most Valuable Player award as a senior. He also lettered for two years as a baseball pitcher.

At Fort Dodge, he served as head football, baseball and basketball coach for one year. He then became director of the school's Health and Physical Education program, Athletic Director and basketball coach for the next three years.

Hulst, age 32, is married and has two children.

JOHN PIPER

John Piper, a member of Bowling Green State University's Health and Physical Education staff for the past year, has been named as BGSU's freshman basketball coach.

Piper replaces Jim Lessig who has asked to be relieved of his coaching position in order to devote full time to his duties as assistant to the Athletic Director.

Piper, who graduated from Mt. Union College in 1958, then earned his masters degree from Bowling Green in 1961, brings to his new position a good high school coaching background.

From 1963-66, Piper was the head basketball coach at Lakewood High School where his teams compiled a 35-26 record. His 1963-64 team captured the Lake Erie League title before his 1964-65 squad won the Berea sectional tournament.

During the 1966-67 year, Piper was at Ohio State University working on his doctorate degree in health and physical education. This past year, Piper has been a member of Bowling Green's staff while serving as freshman golf coach.

Piper also coached at Port Clinton and Sandusky High Schools for one year apiece before guiding Lakewood's junior varsity basketball program for two years.

Along with basketball he has also coached football, golf and cross country in high school. Piper's 1966 golf team captured the Lake Erie League title. Among his recent honors, Piper was selected as an "Outstanding Young Man in America in 1968". He is married.
