There's Nothing Else Like It

Wisconsin fans are legendary for their support of Badger athletics. It's no different when it comes to basketball. Since the beginning of the 1998-99 season, the first full year the Kohl Center was open, the UW has ranked no lower than 11th nationally in attendance. Last year, for the third consecutive season, every ticket was sold prior to the beginning of the season. The Badgers' capacity average attendance of 17,142 was good for seventh-highest in the country and tops in the Big Ten. The Kohl Center is once again sold out for the 2006-07 season.

Another milestone for the UW was the creation of the "Grateful Red" student section prior to the 2002-03 season. Each of the 2,051 student season-ticket holders receives a red and white tie-dyed t-shirt. For four straight years student season tickets have sold out prior to the beginning of the season. This year more than 4,800 students took part in the lottery for season tickets.

In 2003, Sports Illustrated on Campus named Madison the No. 1 Sports College Town in the country saying, "For good teams, good times and good cheer, there's no place like the home of the Badgers."

No wonder the Badgers are 108-17, including 72-5 under Bo Ryan, at the Kohl Center.

For the last eight years, March has meant a couple different things to the people of Wisconsin. The weather turns warmer, spring break rolls around and the Badgers head off to the NCAA tournament.

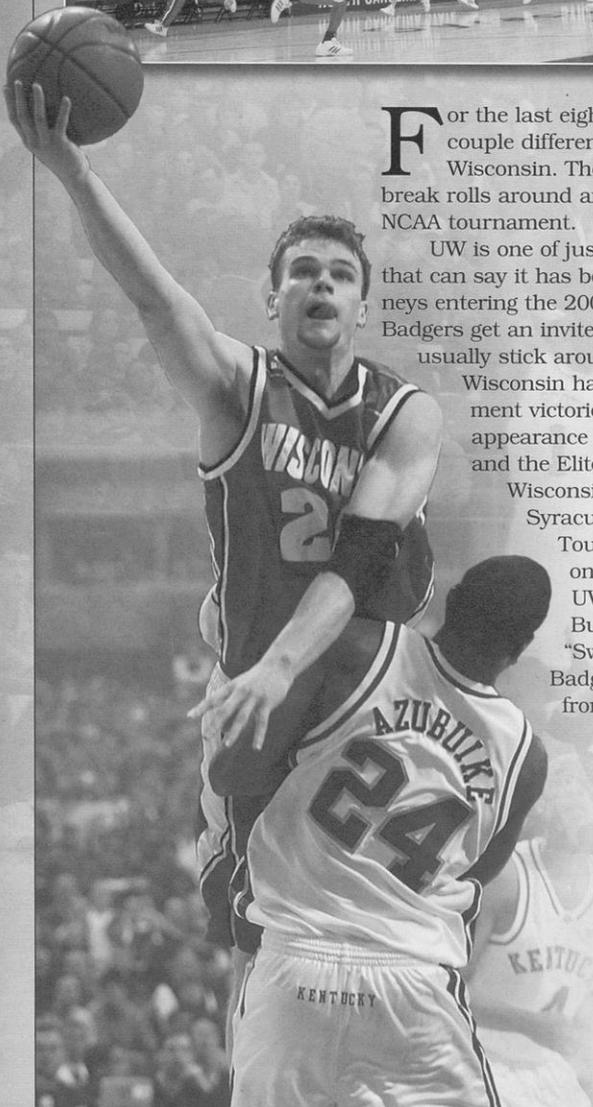

UW is one of just nine teams in the country that can say it has been to eight straight NCAA tourneys entering the 2006-07 season. Not only do the Badgers get an invite to the "Big Dance," but they usually stick around. Over the past seven years, Wisconsin has racked up 11 NCAA tournament victories resulting in a Final Four appearance in 2000, the 2003 Sweet 16, and the Elite Eight showing in 2005.

Wisconsin earned a No. 6 seed in the Syracuse Regional in the 2005 NCAA Tournament. In the first and second rounds in Oklahoma City, UW defeated Northern Iowa and Bucknell to advance to its second "Sweet 16" in three seasons. The Badgers found themselves one step from the Final Four after beating NC State in the regional semifinals.

Their run through the tournament ended, however, with a hard-fought 88-82 loss to eventual national champion North Carolina.

Head coach Bo Ryan is the first coach to lead UW to NCAA appearances in five consecutive seasons. His seven NCAA tournament victories are the most of any UW head coach.

Big

Bo Ryan is the only UW head coach in school history to lead the Badgers to five NCAA tournament appearances. His seven NCAA tourney wins are also a school record.

Making it Count!

THIS IS WISCONSIN BASKETBALL

Wisconsin has won 11 NCAA Tournament games over the last seven years. The Badgers have advanced to the Sweet 16 three times during that span, including a Final Four appearance in 2000 and the 2005 Elite Eight.

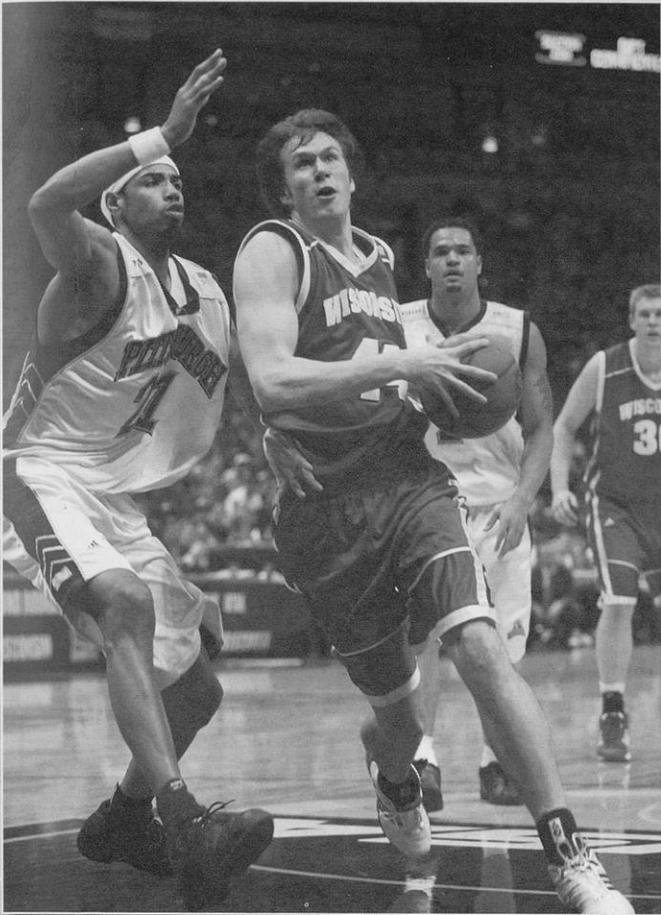

Devin Harris led Wisconsin to the 2003 Sweet 16 in Minneapolis where UW faced No. 1 seed Kentucky.

Building a Winning Tradition

ABOVE: The Badgers take on eventual national champion North Carolina in the 2005 Elite Eight.

BELOW: Kirk Penney cuts down the net after UW defeated Illinois 60-59 to win the 2003 Big Ten title.

The numbers from the last five years speak for themselves: 112 wins, 55 conference victories, 56 national television appearances, a 72-5 record at the Kohl Center. But the smaller numbers are the ones that speak volumes about the Bo Ryan era: five NCAA tournament appearances, two Big Ten regular-season championships, two Sweet 16 appearances, one Big Ten tournament title and one appearance in the Elite Eight.

In the last five years, Wisconsin has also set a school record for victories three times. The Badgers tied a school record by winning 25 games in 2004-05, a mark they also reached in 2003-04. Under Coach Ryan, UW is averaging 22.4 wins per season.

Since Bo Ryan arrived, the Badgers have had a first-team All-Big Ten selection every year. That includes 2004 when junior Devin Harris became the first UW player to be named Big Ten Player of the Year since 1950.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-BIG TEN

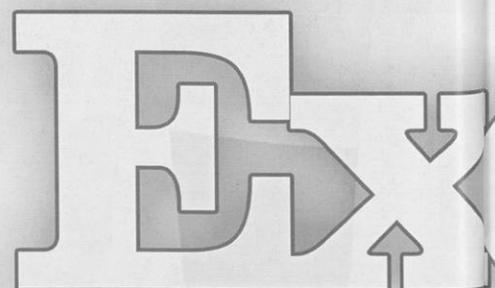

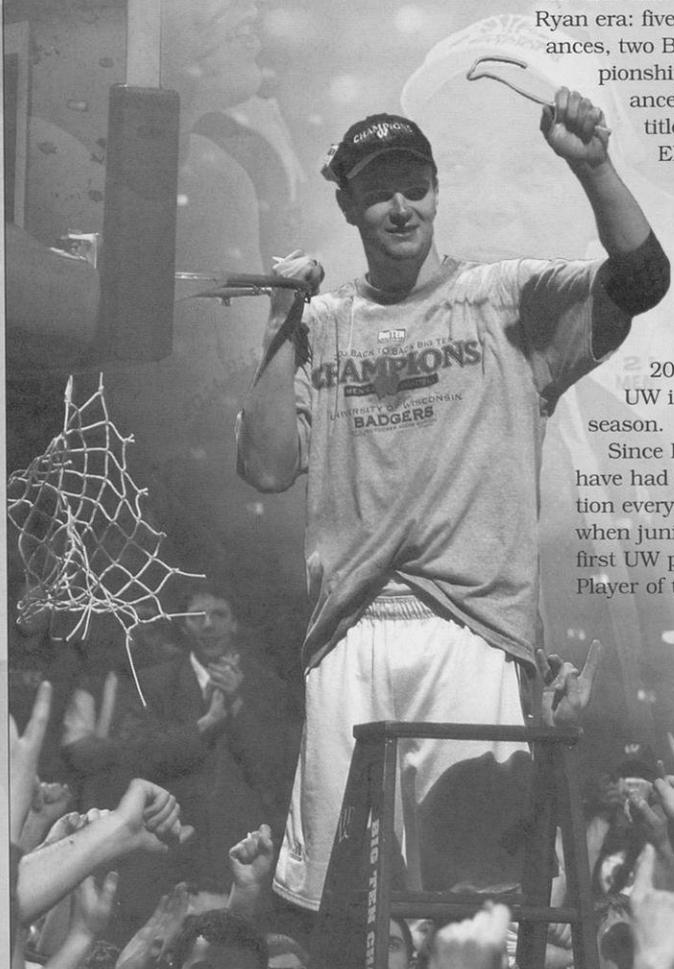

Wisconsin and Illinois are the only two teams in the Big Ten to have produced first-team all-conference selections in each of the past five seasons. Here are the Badgers that have been honored:

- 2002 Kirk Penney
- 2003 Kirk Penney
- 2004 Devin Harris (Big Ten POY)
- 2005 Mike Wilkinson
- 2006 Alando Tucker

All five Badgers were consensus (coaches and media) selections.

Wisconsin has finished among the top four in the Big Ten standings in each of the last five seasons and its 55 combined wins in those years is second only to Illinois during that span. For the first time in school history (2002-05), UW won at least 11 conference games four years in a row.

UW has proven to be a player on the national scene as well as on a conference level. The Badgers are one of just nine teams in the country to have played in eight straight NCAA tournaments and are among the top 20 in the country in winning percentage over the last five seasons.

Wisconsin has averaged 22.4 wins per season over the last five years, including a school-record 25 victories in both 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Badgers in the NBA

THIS IS WISCONSIN BASKETBALL

The 2005-06 NBA season was a very successful one for two former Badgers, Michael Finley and Devin Harris, now playing in the NBA.

Finley, in his 11th NBA season and first with the San Antonio Spurs, played in 77 games, averaging 10.1 points. The two-time all-star raised his game in the playoffs, starting four of the seven games in the Western Conference Semifinals and averaging 10.6 points in 37.0 minutes of action. The Spurs' season ended in that round, however, due largely to the play of Finley's fellow UW alum and former teammate.

Harris, in his second NBA season with the Dallas Mavericks, showed marked improvement during the regular season, raising his scoring, rebounding and assist averages, as well as his shooting percentage, from his rookie campaign. Injuries took their toll, however, and he was limited to just 56 games.

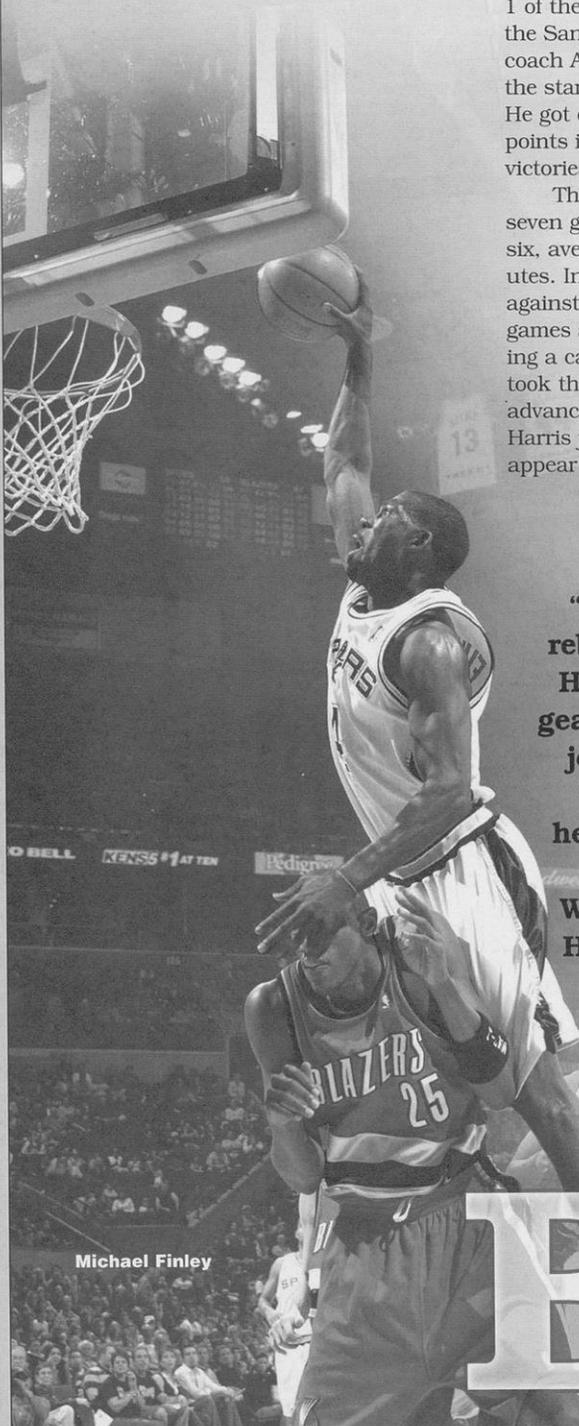

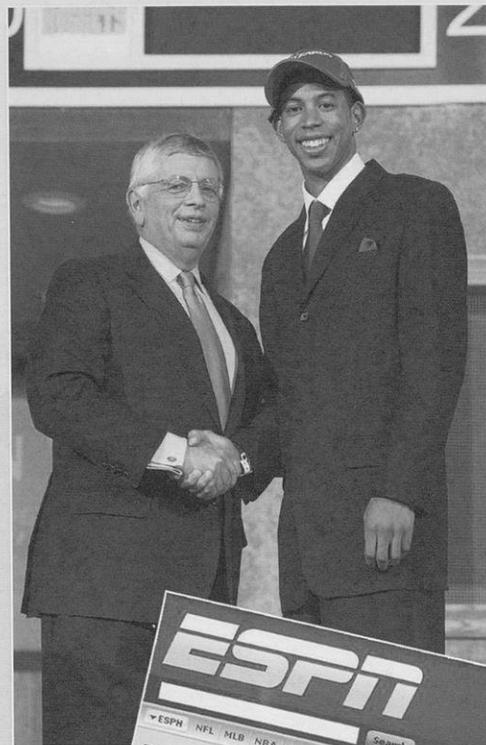

Harris started to get back in the groove in the Mavs' first-round sweep of the Memphis Grizzlies. After losing Game 1 of the Western Conference Semifinals to the San Antonio Spurs, Dallas head coach Avery Johnson inserted Harris into the starting lineup, looking for a spark. He got one as Harris averaged 20.7 points in Dallas' next three games, all victories.

The Mavericks won the series in seven games as Harris started the final six, averaging 12.7 points and 31.6 minutes. In the Western Conference Finals against Phoenix, Harris started all six games and averaged 11.0 points, including a career-high 30 in Game 1. Dallas took the series in six games and advanced to the NBA Finals, making Harris just the second former Badger to appear in the Finals.

“DeSagana Diop snagged the rebound and swung it to Devin Harris, who shifted into fifth gear like somebody activated a jet pack on his back. Even though four Spurs had a headstart on him, Harris roared past them like a Kentucky Derby horse.

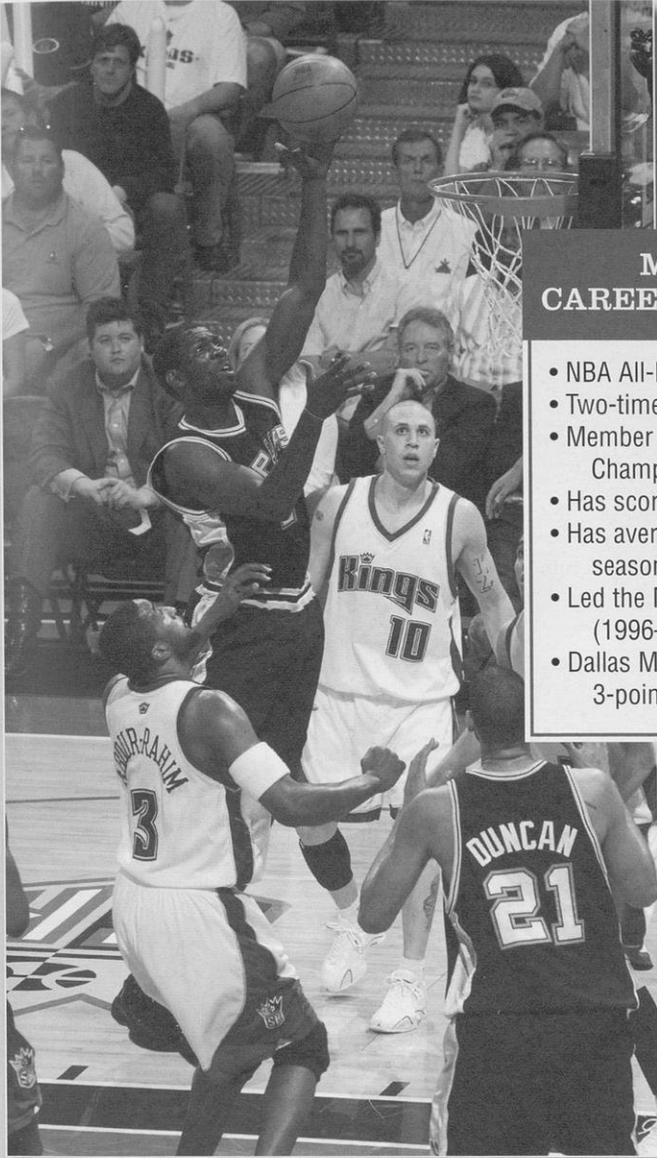

Wooooooooooooooooosh. Not even TNT could keep up with him; Harris went coast-to-coast so abruptly its midcourt camera couldn't move right to left fast enough.”

That includes 56 national television appearances, in which Wisconsin has gone 34-22. It is no different this season.

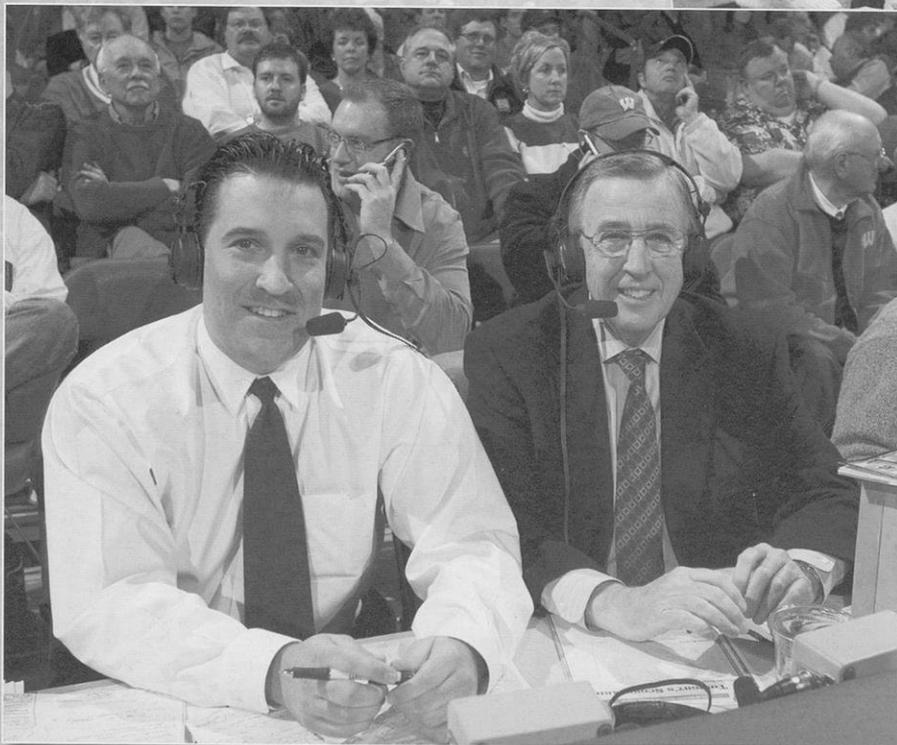

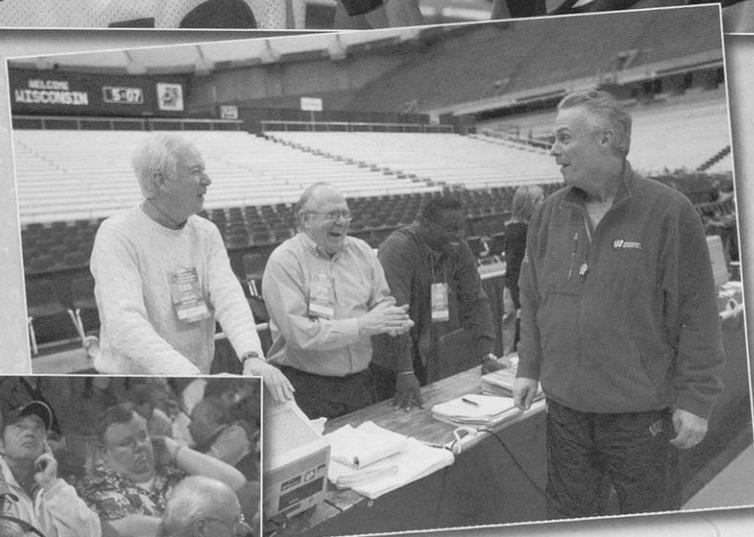

As of press time, at least 23 of Wisconsin's 31 games will be televised in 2006-07, either nationally, regionally or locally. Every Big Ten game in 2007 will be televised.

UW will make at least 10 appearances on national TV during the regular season. The Badgers will play in the South Padre Invitational on Nov. 24 and 25. Their game against Missouri State will be televised by CSTV and if UW wins, its next game will also be on CSTV.

Wisconsin will again take part in the ACC-Big Ten Challenge this year, hosting Florida State on Nov. 28 on ESPN2. Two other non-conference games will be nationally televised, Dec. 9 at Marquette and Dec. 16 vs. Pittsburgh. Both games will be carried by ESPN.

During the Big Ten season, at least six of the Badgers' games will be on national TV. On Jan. 9, UW hosts Ohio State on ESPN. Wisconsin's game at Illinois on Jan. 20 will also be shown on ESPN. When the Badgers travel to Iowa on Jan. 28, that game will be on CBS.

Two more appearances on ESPN follow in February, at home against Iowa (Feb. 10) and at Michigan State (Feb. 20). The Badgers play at Ohio State on Feb. 25 in a CBS game. UW's regular-season finale at home against the Spartans could also be picked up by CBS or ESPN.

Badgers Giving Back

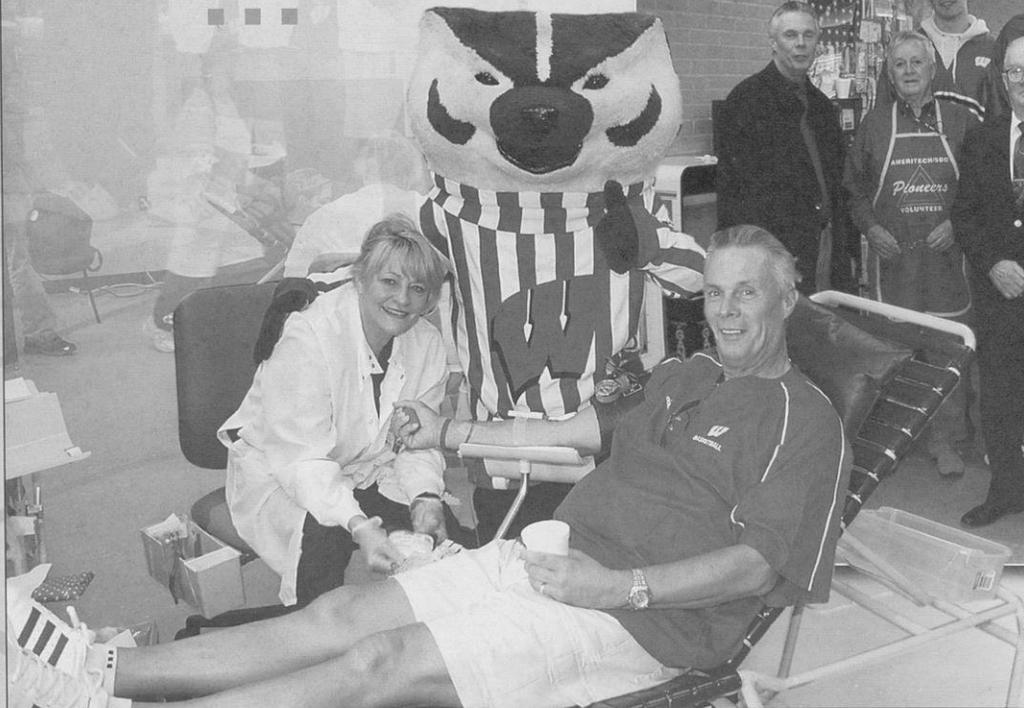

The Wisconsin Department of Athletics has a number of teams that regularly contribute to the city via outreach programs. The Madison community is truly supportive of the UW-Madison athletic teams and their student-athletes.

In appreciation for that support, many student-athletes volunteer frequently in community service programs. The UW men's basketball team is very involved in hospital visits, whether giving out candy at Halloween at the UW Children's Hospital or spending time with former military personnel at the Veterans' Hospital. Last year, in the wake of the Hurricane Katrina and Stoughton tornado disasters, the team took part in a campus blood drive.

The Badgers are also very involved in campus events to show their appreciation for the support they receive from the university community. They have taken part in the "Rolling Out the Red Carpet" campaign and have helped out at student appreciation events. Every year, the basketball team also holds an open scrimmage and autograph session for members of the Madison community.

Badgers on the Road

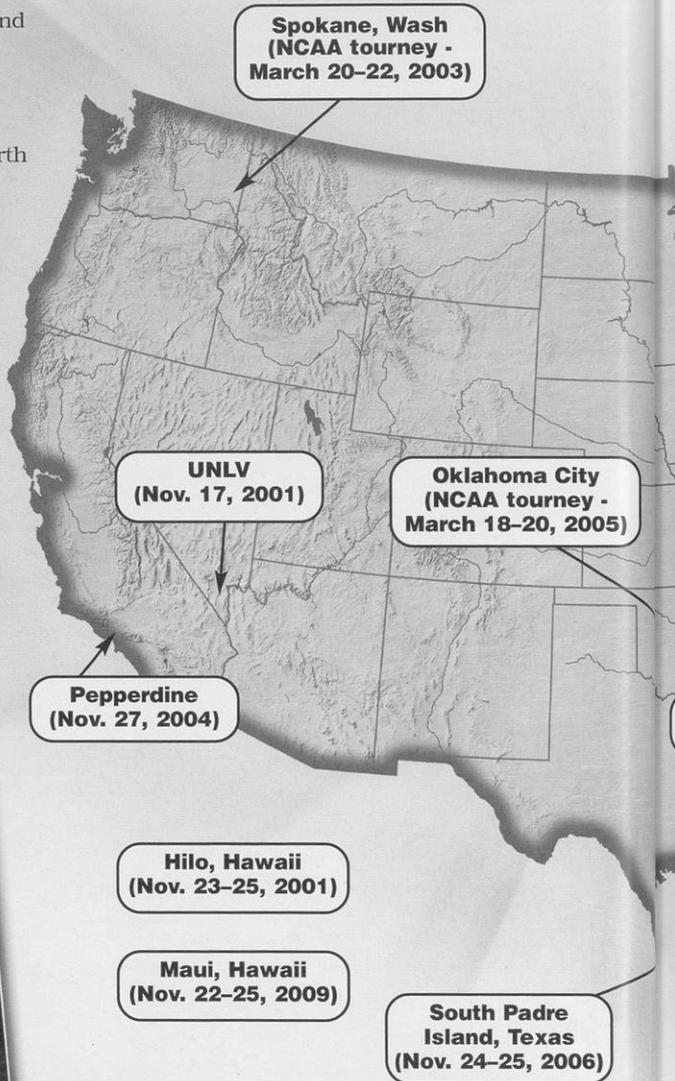

UW travels the country to fill out its schedule

The Wisconsin men's basketball team travels to a number of great locales and historic arenas to play its games. In addition to all the wonderful college towns and famous gyms around the Big Ten, the Badgers' non-conference schedule is filled with tremendous road trips to all regions of the country.

Within the past few seasons, UW has made trips to Las Vegas, Atlanta, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Maryland, Cleveland, Alabama, Malibu, New Jersey, North Carolina and Pittsburgh for road games. The Badgers have also played in-season tournaments in Hawaii (Big Island Invitational) and St. Thomas (Paradise Jam).

Wisconsin will play in a number of in-season tournaments in the upcoming seasons. This year, the Badgers will travel to South Padre Island in Texas for the South Padre Invitational (Nov. 24-25). In 2008, UW has a return trip planned to the Paradise Jam. The following season, Wisconsin will be off to Hawaii for the prestigious Maui Invitational. The Badgers will also participate in the ESPN Classic in Orlando on Thanksgiving weekend in 2010.

In addition to scheduled non-conference games and in-season tournaments, Wisconsin has also been around the country due to its regular NCAA tournament appearances. The Badgers have been placed in Washington, D.C., Spokane, Wash., Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Oklahoma City, Syracuse and Philadelphia in recent years.

Wisconsin has recently participated in the Big Island Invitational and the Paradise Jam. The Badgers have a return trip to the Paradise Jam (2008) as well as trips to the Maui Invitational (2009) and ESPN Classic (2010) in the plans.

Great Competition

The Badgers Face Some of the Nation's Toughest Teams

Besides a grueling Big Ten schedule that often includes the top teams in the country, Wisconsin faces a number of highly ranked teams during the non-conference season and in tournament play. The Badgers have played 33 ranked teams in the past five seasons, including 13 games against teams ranked in the top 10.

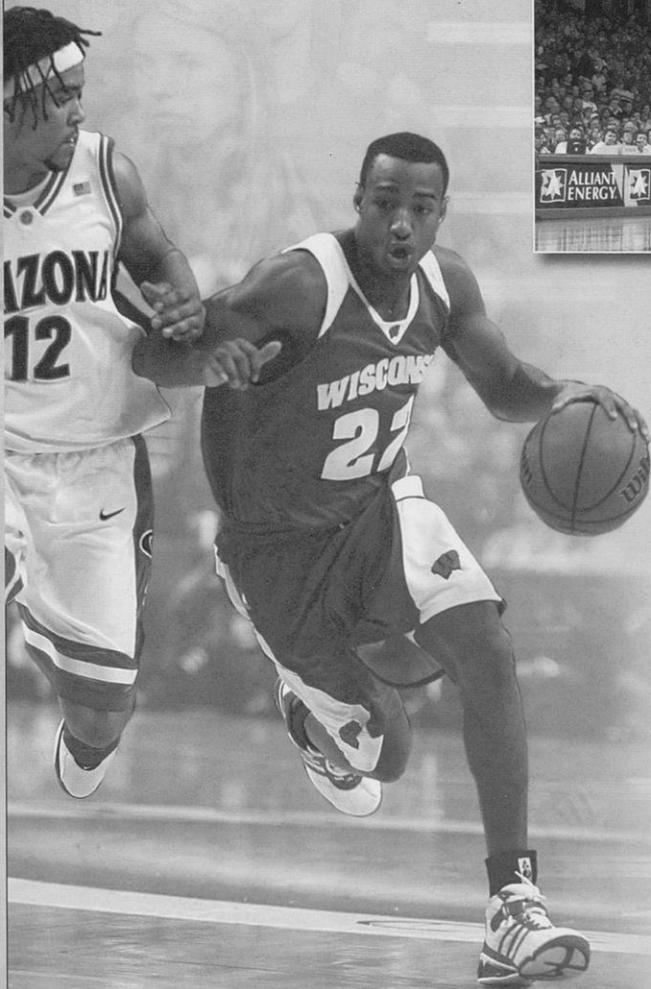

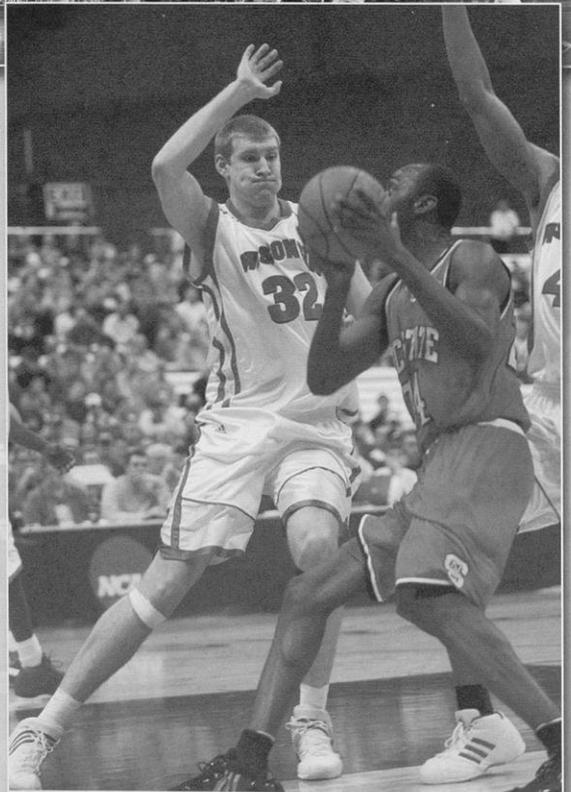

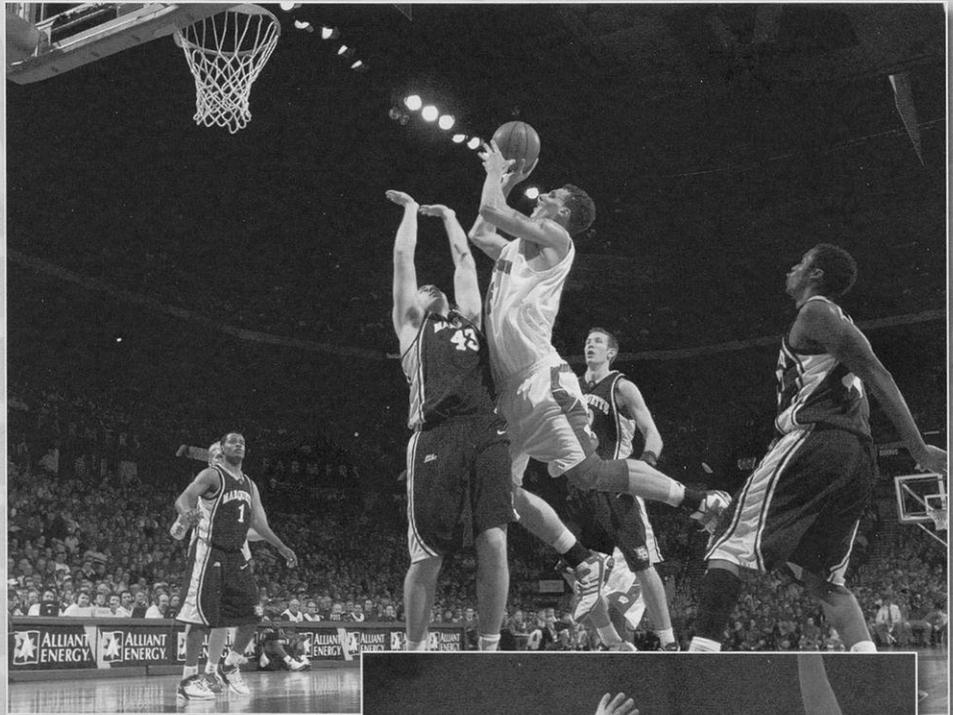

In the past two seasons, UW's schedule has been ranked among the toughest in the country. Last year the Badgers faced 13 teams ranked among the RPI's top 50 and their regular-season schedule was ranked eighth-toughest in the country according to the RPI. In 2004-05, Wisconsin played 17 games against teams ranked in the top 65 and had the 11th-toughest schedule in the nation.

This season, UW faces at least nine teams that played in the postseason in 2006, including six NCAA tourney teams (Southern, Winthrop, Marquette, UW-Milwaukee, Pitt and Pacific), during its non-conference schedule. In all, the Badgers will play 14 games against teams that participated in the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

The Kohl Center

WISCONSIN BASKETBALL FACILITIES

The home for Wisconsin basketball is the Kohl Center, the third-largest (17,190) arena in the Big Ten Conference.

The facility is named after U.S. Sen. Herb Kohl, a 1956 UW-Madison graduate who donated $25 million toward the arena's construction. Kohl's gift is the single largest private donation in UW history.

Former all-Big Ten basketball player Albert "Ab" Nicholas and his wife, Nancy Johnson Nicholas, pledged $10 million toward the project. For their generosity, the facility's practice gymnasium is called the Nicholas-Johnson Pavilion.

The Kohl Center, which cost $76.4 million, also is home to UW women's basketball, ice hockey and numerous concerts, shows and sporting events.

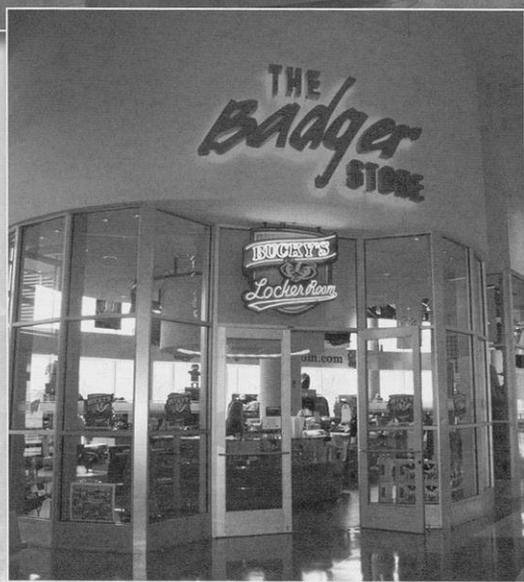

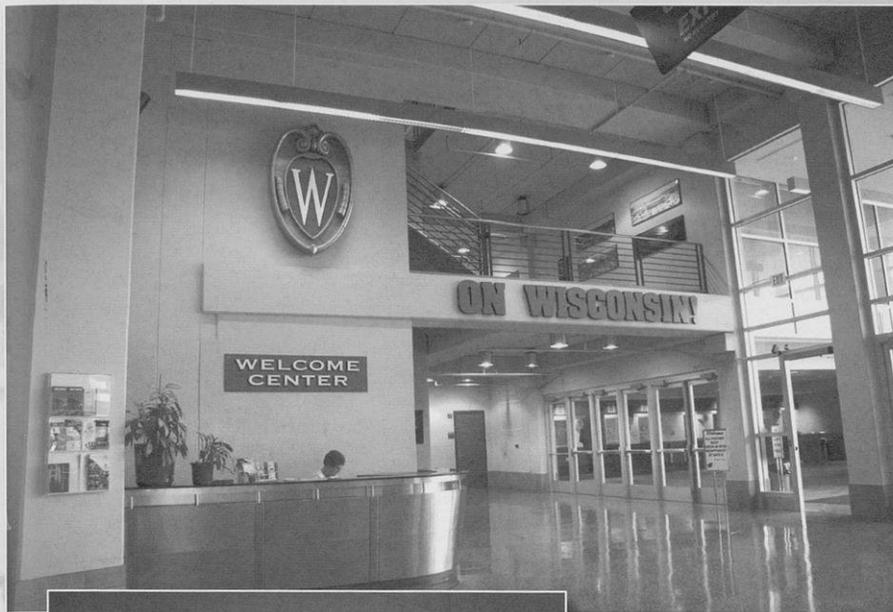

Among the well-known dignitaries and performers who have already appeared at the Kohl Center are Elton John and Billy Joel, The Eagles, 'N Sync, Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers, Shania Twain, the Moody Blues, John Mellencamp, Yanni, Cher, the Dave Matthews Band and the Dalai Lama.

In 2004, the Kohl Center added an impressive scoreboard, with 9x14-foot video replay boards on all four sides. A ring beam was also installed around the circumference of the arena at the first balcony level.

The basketball floor was also refinished and given a new design, as shown in the picture at top right. The practice gym floor, on page 26, was also refinished to match the arena court.

The room is equipped with the latest technology, including a video system and drop-down screen for film study, as well as a desktop computer. In the back lounge area are a number of leather couches and a 70-inch, flat-screen television.

The locker area itself, separated from the lounge area by a smoked glass door, is very spacious and provides ample area for the players to get ready for practices and games. The shower area is adjacent to the locker area.

Feeding the Badgers

The Kellner Club is one of the latest additions to the Kohl Center and another area that benefits Wisconsin's student-athletes. Teams that practice at the Kohl Center, including the men's basketball team, utilize the Kellner Club for post-practice meals.

The Kellner Club was opened last season as a place that donors could have dinner prior to Kohl Center events. This summer, the Kohl Center teams began using the are for their meals.

The Kellner Club is located on the second level of the Kohl Center, on the north end. The north side of the room is completely covered with windows looking out onto Dayton Street and downtown Madison, including the Capital. The room has seating capacity for 132 people.

Quality food and service is provided by the Department of Athletics' food and beverage staff. The staff has a full working kitchen in the Kohl Center in which the meals are prepared.

Our goal is to enhance the strength, speed, agility and conditioning of each athlete, while reducing the incidence of basketball related injuries. We take a proactive approach to accomplishing this through individual athlete evaluations and program design, Olympic lifting exercises and movement specific functional training. This is accomplished in a safe, yet competitive environment, where each student-athlete is encouraged to strive for personal excellence.

Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Centers

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center, named after Wade and Betty Fetzer, provides for the academic needs of more than 700 student-athletes at the University of Wisconsin. The center, located in the Dave McClain Athletic Facility, is home to both the academic advising and learning support staffs of the Office of Academic Services.

The 15,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility is fully wireless and features a large open study area that is surrounded by nine small to mid-sized classrooms, a 55-seat auditorium, staff offices, a computer lab and a canteen area. The open study area has 30 individual carrels as well as several study tables. The state-of-the-art computer lab, under coordinator Jim Eisenmann, allows student-athletes to work on assignments, access online library or course materials and check their e-mail. The computer lab also has several checkout laptop computers for student-athletes who are traveling for competitions and other team-related activities.

The center features a staff of five advisors, four learning specialists, a life skills coordinator and a tutor coordinator. The staff monitors academic eligibility and progress while providing study groups for selected courses, access to tutors, and hosting a variety of academic and career planning events throughout the year.

A new Fetzer Center location, in the Kohl Center, opened in October of this year. Located just down the hall from the men's locker room, the 3,000-square-foot office serves as a convenient resource for student-athletes who practice at the Kohl Center and/or live in the southeast campus area. The Center includes a computer lab, quiet study room, private study rooms and staff offices. The Fetzer is a WiFi area and is open daily from 8-10 p.m.

Under the supervision of assistant athletic director Doug Tiedt, the advising staff of Chris Butler, Jerry Darda, Mary Weaver-Klees and Alan Zussman as well as tutor coordinator Jill Hadfield work along with learning specialists Dan Ott, Toni O'Keefe and Nancy Gatyas to render quality academic and personal support to student-athletes and assist coaches in providing the best possible collegiate experience. CHAMPS/Life Skills Coordinator Kelli Richards oversees programs in career and personal development as well as community outreach.

The staff, including program assistant Nancy Kreklow, has a comprehensive understanding of academics at Wisconsin, and a permanent line of communication with all university departments.

Student-athletes can drop in before practice or between classes to study or meet with the advisors and learning specialists. Sessions are offered on a one-to-one basis at a time appropriate for the student-athlete. Athletes are degree-oriented while allowing for the flexibility to explore different areas. The staff takes a personal approach to each student-athlete in determining his or her individual needs, personal or academic.

Student-athletes at Wisconsin receive recognition for outstanding academics in a number of ways on the national, conference and university level. The annual Student-Athlete Academic banquet recognizes student-athletes off the field of play by honoring over 200 athletes with a 3.5 or better grade point average. Additionally, the annual CHAMPS Cup competition recognizes the teams that succeed academically and are involved in community and campus events.

UW CHAMPS: A Program of Excellence

CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success) is a total development program that uses athletics as a preparation for success in life. Under the direction of Kelli Richards, the goal of the CHAMPS program is to support student development initiatives that enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience within the university setting.

The UW's CHAMPS program was selected as one of four 2005 Program of Excellence recipients. The award is presented annually to schools that have displayed a highly effective and pervasive program benefiting their student-athletes in the five components of the program.

CHAMPS provides support and opportunities for UW student-athletes in the following areas:

Athletic Excellence

- The student-athlete advisory committee (SAAC) works with the CHAMPS program to make sure all of the student-athletes' needs and concerns are being addressed.

Academic Excellence

- Through the Fetzer Academic Center, advisors, tutors, mentors and learning specialists are available to all student-athletes.

- A one-credit, 10-week course available to freshman and sophomore student-athletes discusses issues that many incoming college students face in their transition, such as time management, alcohol abuse and nutrition.

- Scholarships and internships are available through the NCAA for student-athletes continuing their education.

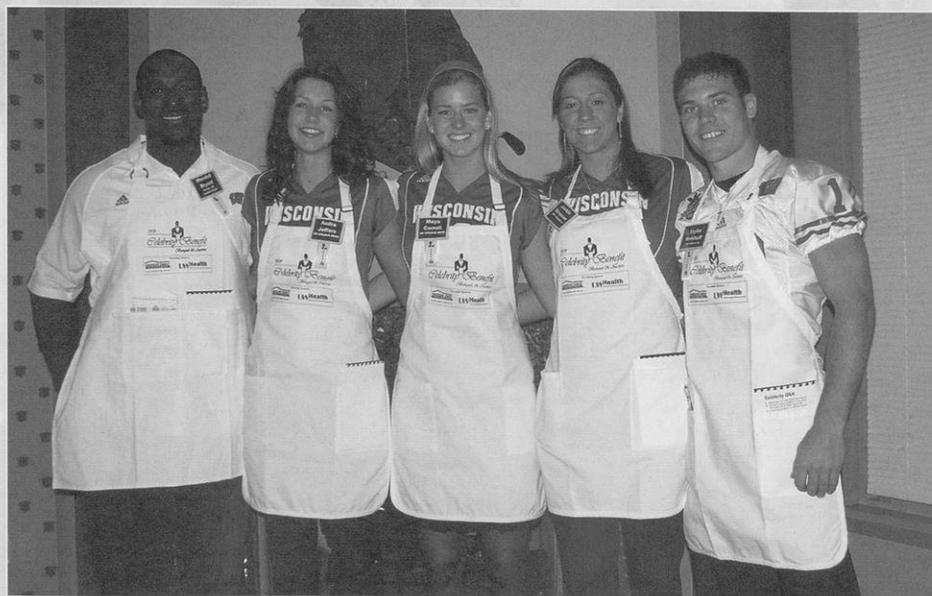

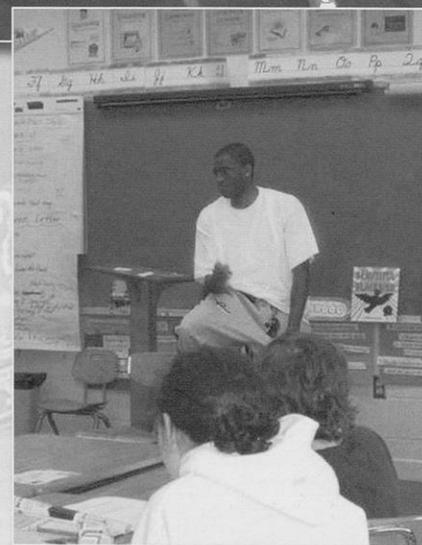

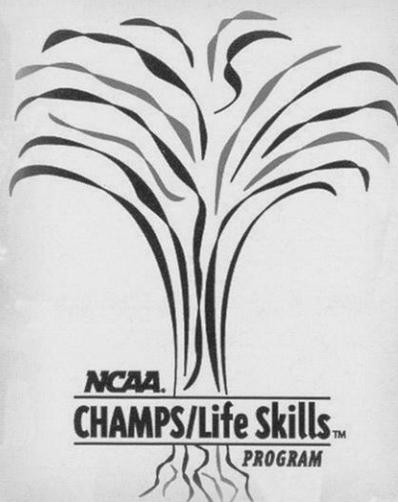

- The Academic Excellence Banquet is held each April to recognize the many academic achievements of our student-athletes.

Personal Development

- The UW CHAMPS program requires all student-athletes to attend three personal development activities each year.

- Workshops are offered for teams as well as any student-athlete on topics such as safe sex, fiscal responsibility, alcohol, peak performance, multiculturalism and many others.

- Opportunities for team and individual leadership development are also available through both the UW and the NCAA.

CHAMPS Cup

The CHAMPS Cup is an all-sport competition, rewarding teams who exemplify all aspects of the student-athlete. Student-athletes earn points for their teams in six categories:

Academic Achievement

Teams receive points for their team GPA, scoring at least 925 mark in the Academic Progress Rate (APR) as well as points for individual academic all-conference honors.

Athletic Achievement

Teams that place in the top three of their conference are awarded points based on their finish. Conference champions—100 points; second place—90 points; third place—80 points.

Personal Enhancement

Teams or individuals earn points for attending any CHAMPS/Life Skills on-campus event related to personal development.

Community Outreach

Community service done as a team, with other student-athletes or individually, will be rewarded.

Badger Pride

Points are awarded to teams that go the extra mile to support their fellow student-athletes by attending each other's sporting events. Each team will choose one competition in their traditional season that it will label as Badger pride night. Any athletes who attend this competition will receive points, individually or as a team.

SAAC Participation

Teams will earn 10 points for each meeting they have two representatives in attendance.

The Scoring System:

Individual Points—Individuals will earn 100 points for their team for each individual effort. At the end of each week, the points will be divided by the number of student-athletes on the active roster for each sport.

Team Points—Team efforts, defined as 70 percent participation or 20 members, for all categories earn 100 points per event. All mandatory events require 100 percent participation in order to receive points.

Reward

One men's and one women's team will be recognized as the overall winners at the Academic Excellence Banquet in April. The men's and women's team with the highest GPA as well as the team with the most community service points will also be recognized at the banquet.

Sports Medicine

Wisconsin's sports medicine staff provides all UW student-athletes with high quality health care. The sports medicine program features state-of-the-art facilities and the services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals.

The sports medicine staff consists of a team of physicians, dentists, athletic trainers and a full-time nutritionist. The day-to-day care, prevention and treatment of injuries to Badger student-athletes is supervised by a team of 12 full-time and three graduate assistant National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) certified and State of Wisconsin licensed athletic trainers.

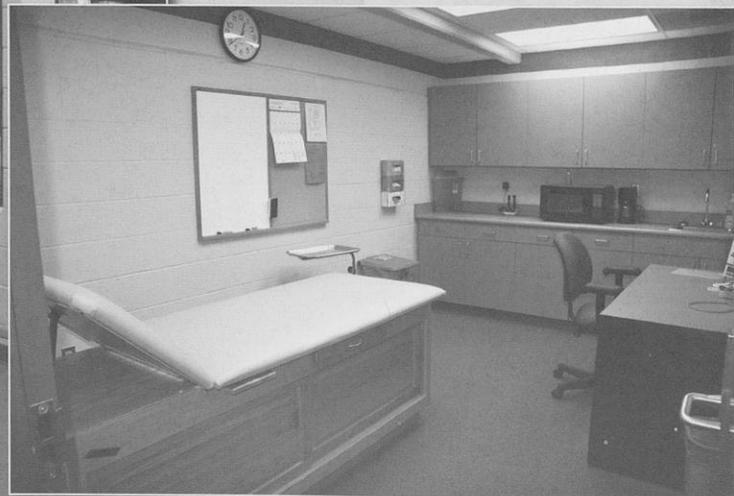

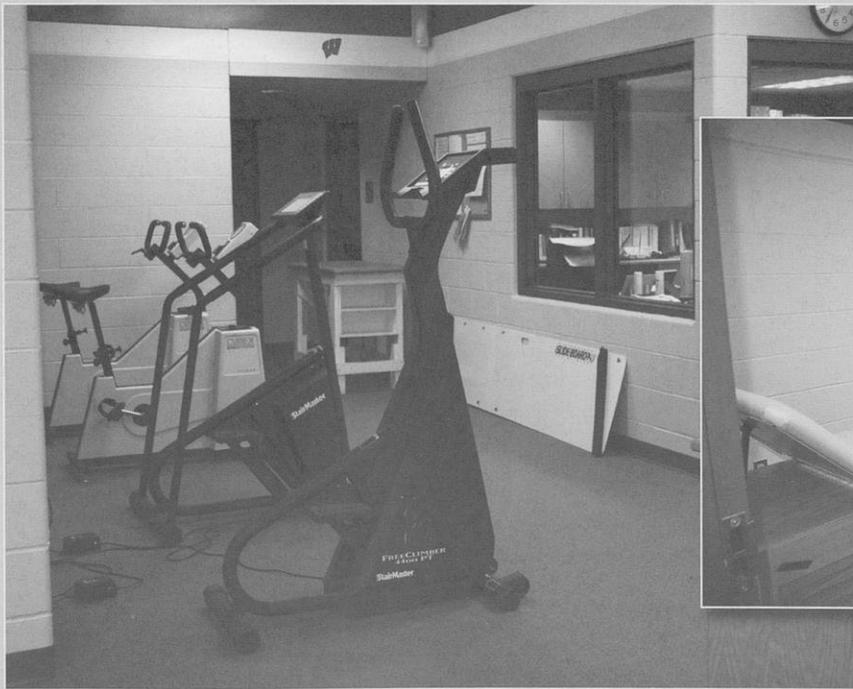

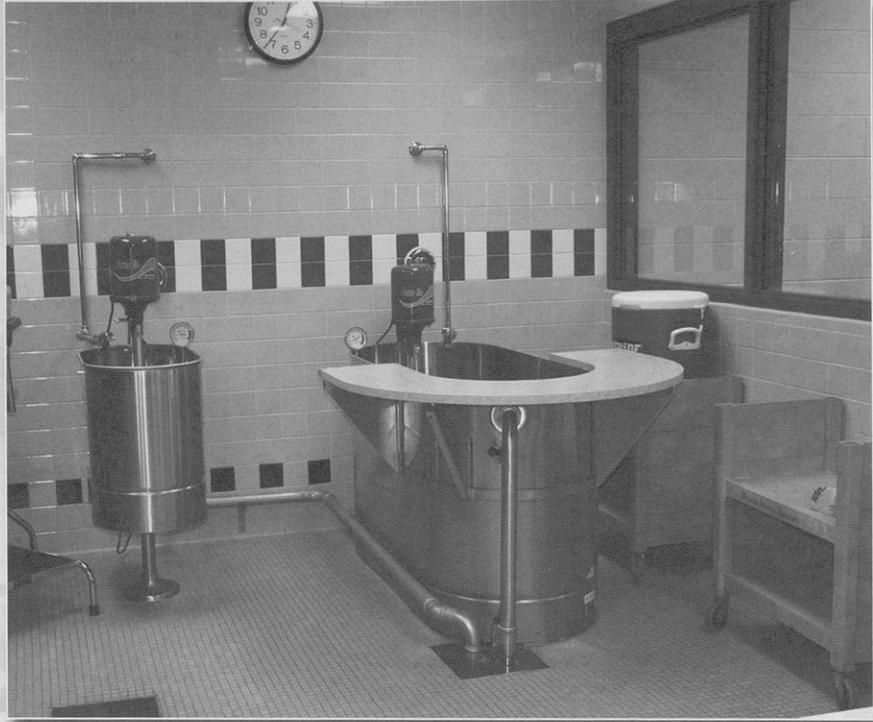

Under the direction of head athletic trainer Dennis Helwig, the sports medicine program focuses on injury prevention. The staff also utilizes functional measures, measures physiological capacity and outlines programs to improve flexibility.

A full-time nutritionist provides dietary analysis and supervises training table meals to enhance the performance of student-athletes.

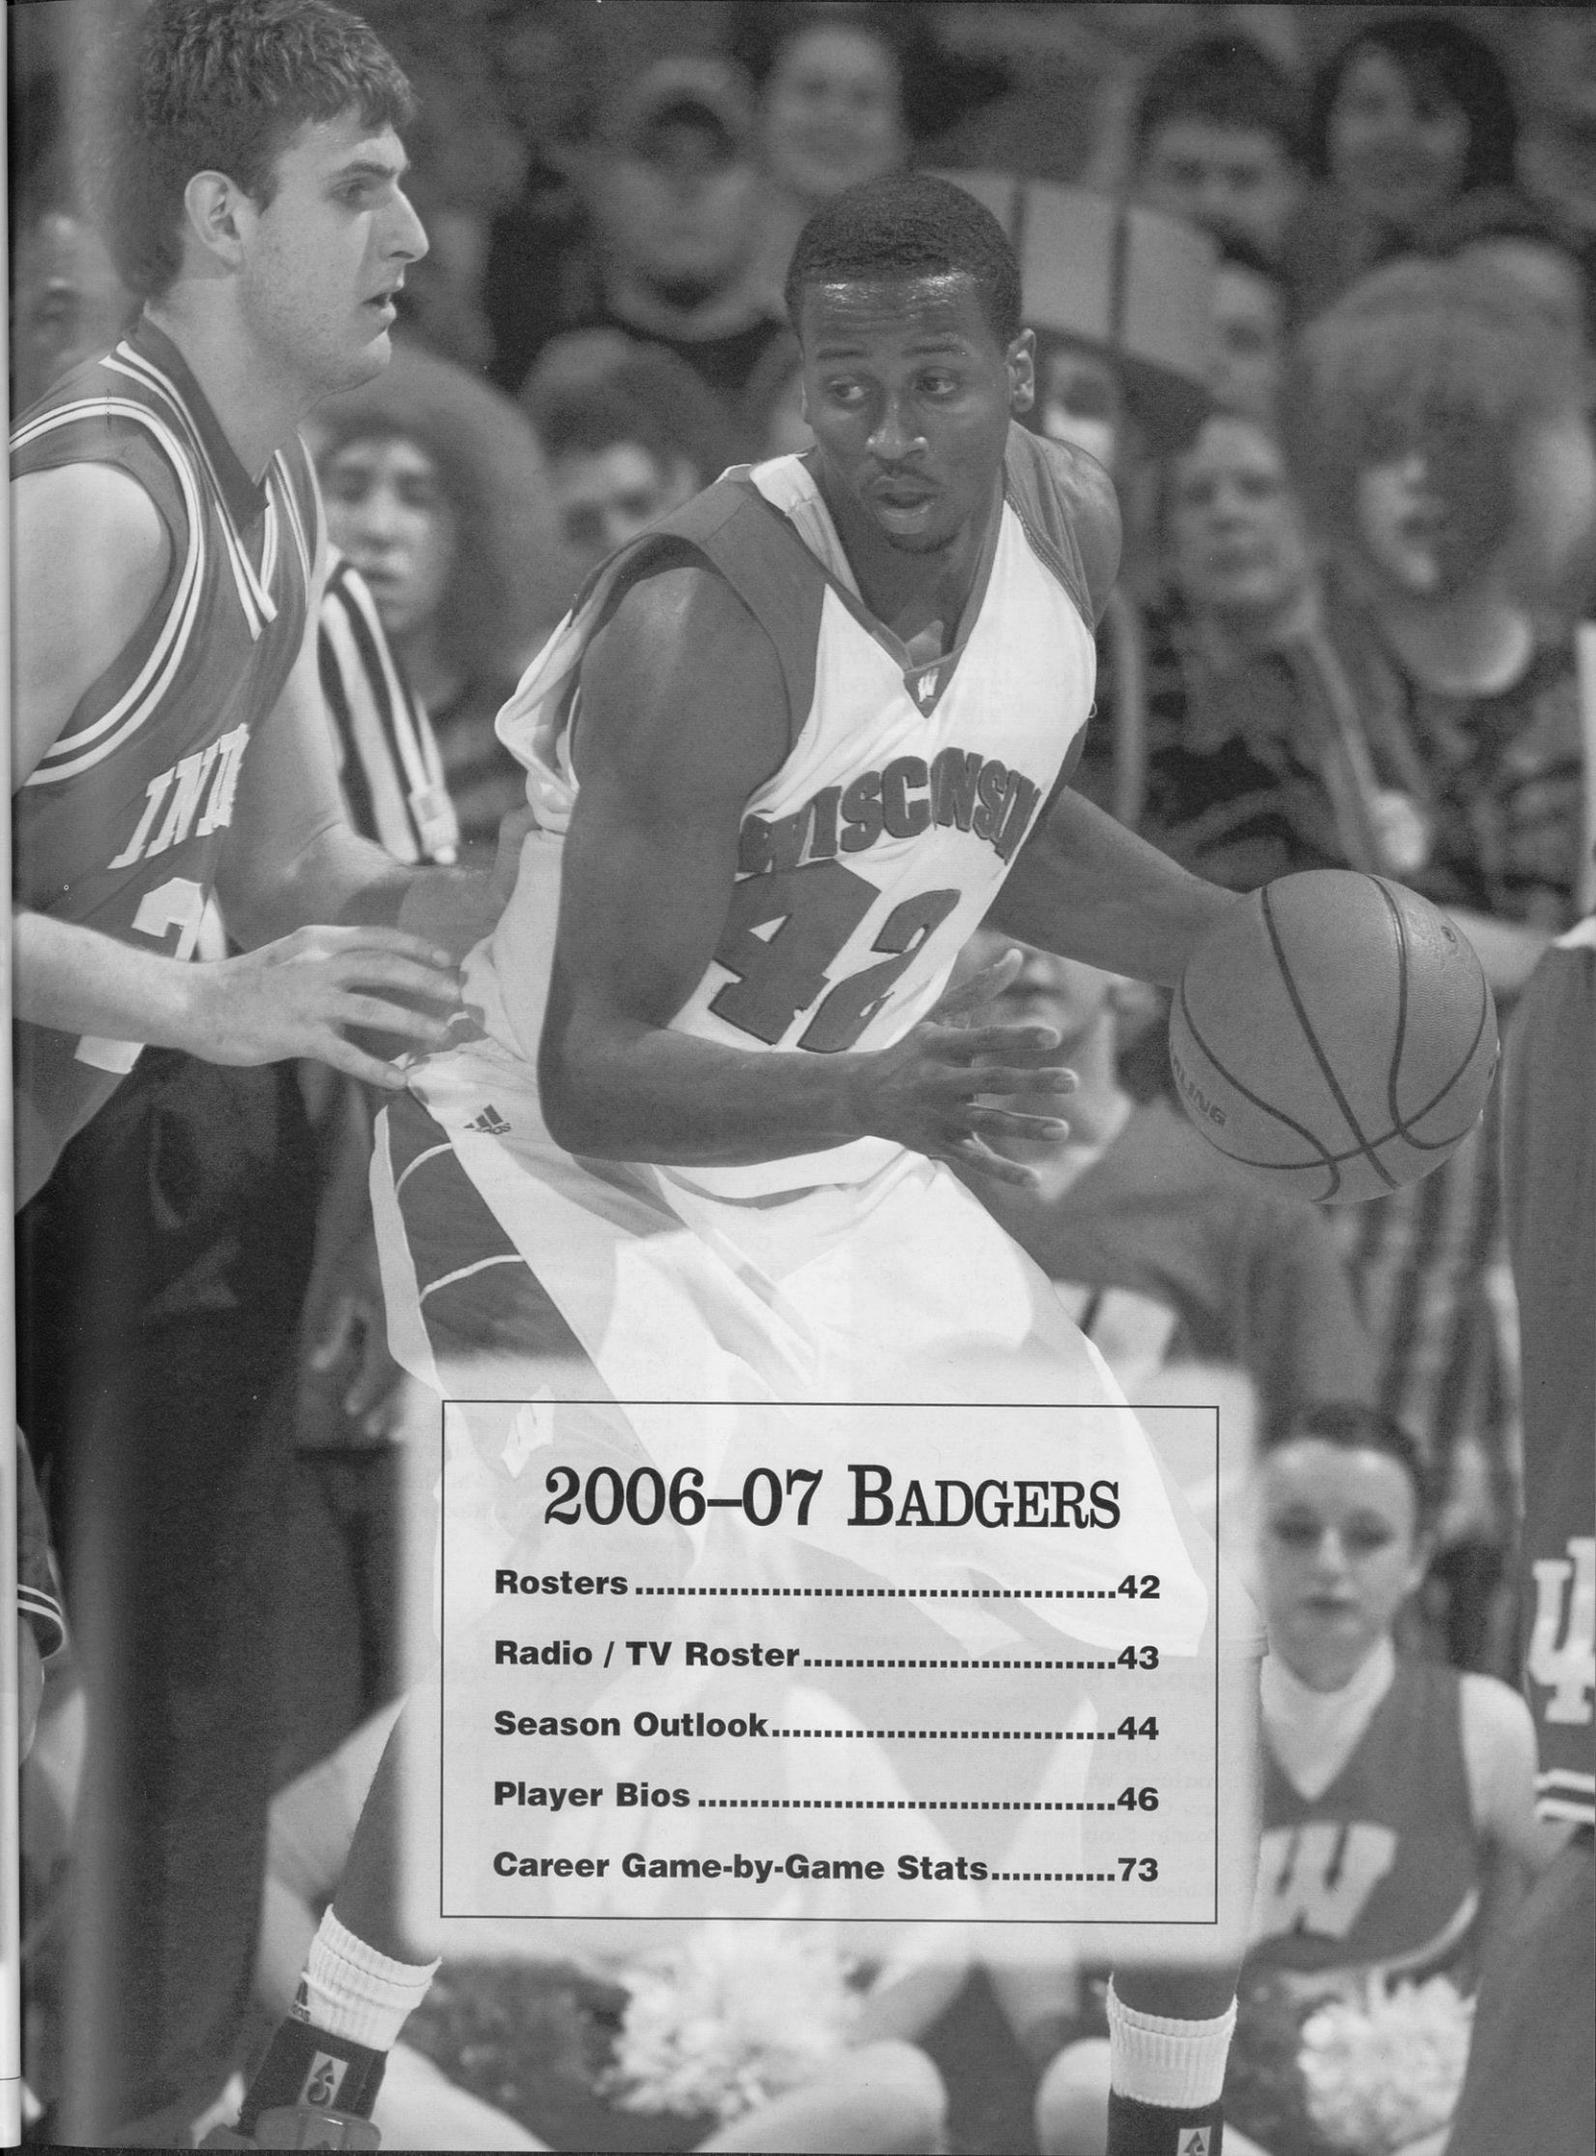

The sports medicine facility in the McClain Center features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane rehabilitation pool and an on-site x-ray facility. Considered one of the nation's finest, the McClain Sports Medicine Center offers an environment conducive to expedient care and a healthy return to competition.

Should an injury occur, athletes are seen immediately by team physicians affiliated with the world-renowned UW Hospital and Clinics.

In addition to the headquarters in the McClain Athletic Facility, auxiliary athletic training rooms are located in Camp Randall Stadium, the Natatorium, the UW Field House and the Kohl Center. All training areas are equipped with the finest therapeutic modalities and rehabilitative apparatus.

Returning Class

With just one senior departing from last year's roster, UW is returning 87.1 percent of its minutes, 90.0 percent of its points and 93.1 percent of its rebounds this season. Here is a look at how that stacks up among Big Ten teams:

Team	Pts.	Rebs.	Mins.
Wisconsin	90.0	93.1	87.1
Penn State	81.9	83.6	85.4
Illinois	60.3	65.9	65.7
Michigan	56.9	59.4	59.7
Iowa	43.5	42.9	49.7
Minnesota	39.4	46.2	39.1
Purdue	39.3	30.1	44.3
Northwestern	37.2	52.3	48.6
Ohio State	35.5	24.8	37.2
Indiana	35.2	43.2	40.1
Michigan State	23.6	43.0	43.8

Of the teams that made the NCAA tournament in 2006, only Wisconsin and defending national champion Florida return at least 90 percent of their scoring and rebounding.

The Champ is Back

Senior Alando Tucker led the Big Ten in scoring in league games (20.0 ppg.) last year and scored at least 20 points in 10 of the Badgers' 16 conference games. The last Wisconsin player to lead the Big Ten in scoring in conference games was Don Rehfeldt in 1950.

1,500-Point Club

Tucker has scored 1,501 points in his career, good for seventh place on UW's all-time scoring list. The four players who rank sixth through ninth on that list (Mike Wilkinson, Tucker, Kirk Penney and Devin Harris) all played for current Wisconsin head coach Bo Ryan.

On to 2,000

Tucker needs 499 points (he scored 588 in 2005-06) to become just the second Badger in history to score 2,000 points in his career. Michael Finley is UW's all-time leading scorer with 2,147 career points. Among UW players, only Finley (1,593) had more career points entering his senior season than Tucker does.

That's Not All

Besides being among UW's top 10 in career scoring, Tucker is also among the top 10 in these career categories:

Field Goals - 7th (542)

Free Throws - 7th (356)

Free Throw Atts. - 4th (568)

Tucker holds the school record for offensive rebounds in a season (86).

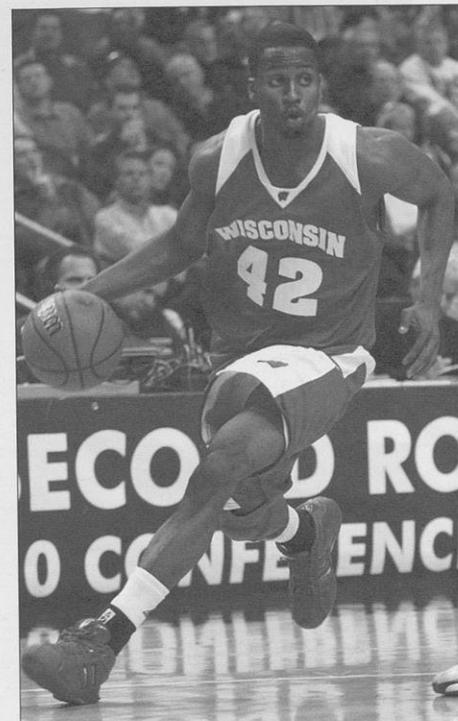

Big Men Are Back

Besides Tucker, UW returns six frontcourt players (Butch, Chappell, Stiemsma, Landry, Gullikson and Krabbenhoft) who combined have played in 205 games, logged 2,857 minutes, scored 883 points and grabbed 674 rebounds in the past two seasons. Butch and Chappell started 30 of 31 games during the 2005-06 season.

Taylor Makes His Run

Senior guard Kammron Taylor needs 255 points (he scored 439 in 2005-06) to become the 31st player in school history to record 1,000 career points.

An honorable mention All-Big Ten selection a year ago, Taylor reached double figures in 24 of the Badgers' 31 games and had seven 20-point outings. He was the team's second-leading scorer (14.2 ppg) and led the squad in minutes played (34.3 mpg).

And His Mark

Taylor led the Badgers with 67 3-point field goals, tied for eighth-most on UW's single-season list. He also paced Wisconsin in free-throw percentage (.829), the 10th-best single-season mark in school history.

New Faces

Wisconsin will welcome three scholarship freshmen in 2006. Jason Bohannon, a 6-2 guard from Marion, Iowa, was named his state's "Mr. Basketball" as a senior. Bohannon scored nearly 1,700 points in his three-year career, the most in Cedar Rapids-Marion metro history.

Trevon Hughes, a 6-2 point guard from Rosedale, N.Y., and J.P. Gavinski, a 6-11 center from Wisconsin Dells, also join the team. Hughes prepped at St. John's NW Academy in Wisconsin and averaged 22.2 points as a senior. Gavinski averaged just over 20 points for the Dells. Both earned all-state honors.

Junior forward Brian Butch led the Badgers in rebounding (6.0 rpg.) and was third on the team in scoring (9.9 ppg.) last year. Butch is one of seven players on UW's roster standing at least 6-7.

Preseason Accolades

With nearly everyone back and three outstanding recruits coming in, the Badgers are receiving plenty of attention in the preseason rankings. FOXSports.com has Wisconsin seventh in its preseason poll. Andy Katz of ESPN.com lists the UW eighth.

Summer "Vacation"

Wisconsin took part in a 10-day tour of Italy in August, playing five games during the trip. The Badgers won all five contests, outscoring their opponents by an average of 23.8 points. Alando Tucker paced the Badgers with 21.2 points per game while guards Kammron Taylor (10.8 ppg.) and Michael Flowers (10.2 ppg.) also averaged in double figures.

UW also took in a number of historical sights during their trip to Rome, Florence and Lake Como. The Badgers visited the Vatican, the Colosseum and the Leaning Tower of Pisa, among other breathtaking sights.

Making it a Habit

UW earned its eighth straight bid to the NCAA tournament last year, a school record. Michigan State is the only other Big Ten team that has been to the NCAA tournament eight straight years. The Badgers are one of nine teams that made their eighth straight tourney appearance in 2006. The others are: Arizona, Duke, Florida, Gonzaga, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan State and Texas.

A Winning Tradition

The Badgers have won at least 19 games in each of Bo Ryan's five seasons and have averaged 22.4 wins per season under Ryan. In the 103 seasons prior to Ryan taking over, Wisconsin won at least 19 games in a season only four times.

Conference Matters

In Bo Ryan's five seasons as UW head coach, the Badgers have amassed 55 Big Ten victories. Only Illinois, with 61 conference wins, has more over that span. Wisconsin has finished no worse than fourth in the Big Ten in Ryan's five seasons. That five-year stretch is the best for UW since 1914-18.

Home Cooking

In Bo Ryan's five seasons as Wisconsin's head coach, the Badgers have compiled a 72-5 record at the Kohl Center, including a 38-2 record in Big Ten home games. The team's overall home winning percentage (.935) is the fifth-best in the country during that span. UW's two losses in conference home games is the fewest of any team in a BCS conference.

Packed House

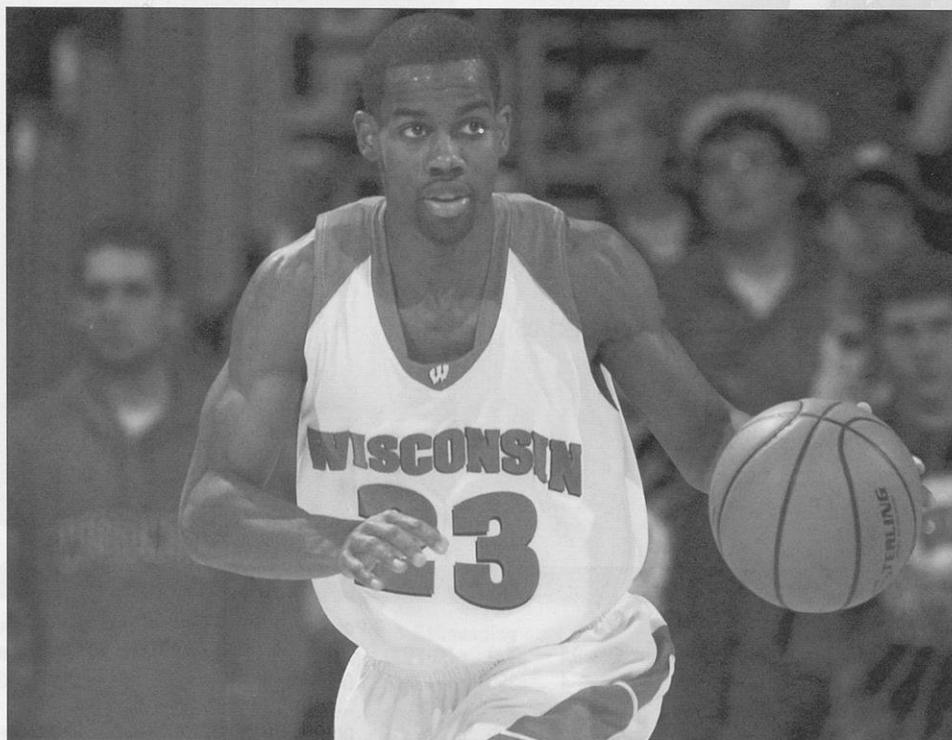

For the third year in a row, all tickets for Wisconsin's home games were sold out prior to the start of the season. Last season, the Badgers ranked seventh nationally (and tops in the Big Ten) in average attendance. The Badgers have a string of 52 consecutive sold-out games at the Kohl Center.

Tidbits

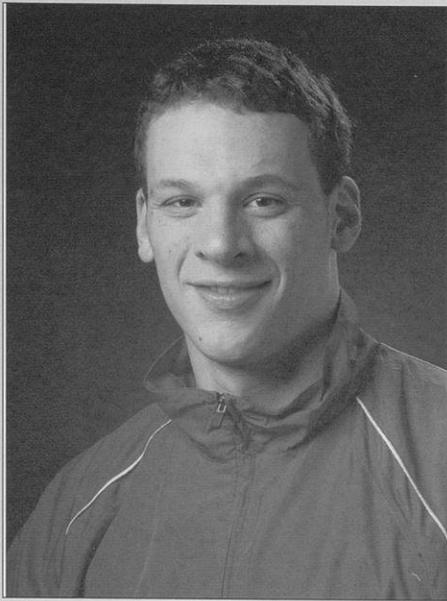

- Wisconsin has had a first-team all-conference player five years in a row (Alando Tucker - 2006, Mike Wilkinson - 2005, Devin Harris - 2004, Kirk Penney - 2002-03). Prior to 2002, UW had just two consensus first-team All-Big Ten choices since 1952 (Michael Finley in 1993 and Joe Franklin in 1968).

- Wisconsin averaged 71.1 points per game in 2005-06, its highest scoring average since the 1994-95 season. The Badgers were 15-3 last season and are 71-5 under Bo Ryan when scoring at least 70 points.

- UW led the Big Ten in fewest turnovers per game at 11.6. That is the fifth-best average in school history. Bo Ryan-coached teams account for four of the top five turnover averages in UW annals.

Senior guard Kammron Taylor averaged 14.2 points per game last season and paced the Badgers in 3-point and free-throw shooting.

Head Coach Bo Ryan

For the past two decades, Bo Ryan has been doing one thing better than anyone else in the college basketball coaching ranks: winning games. His .765 winning percentage (495-152) over his 22-year career is by far the best among active Division I coaches with at least 20 years under their belt. His 495 career victories place him 17th among active Division I head coaches and his 112 wins at UW are the fourth-most in school history.

In his five seasons at Wisconsin, Ryan has led the Badgers to heights not reached in Madison in many years. Each season further establishes UW as a major player on the national scene and Ryan as one of the top coaches in the country.

The accomplishments during Ryan's first five seasons are varied and impressive. The Badgers won a school-record 25 games in back-to-back seasons (2003-04 and 2004-05). They have five NCAA tournament appearances, advancing to two Sweet 16s and the Elite Eight in 2005. In 2002, Ryan's first season, Wisconsin earned a share of the Big Ten title for the first time since 1947. The next year, UW won the title outright, securing back-to-back championships for the first time since 1923 and 1924. Not to be outdone, Ryan led the Badgers to their first Big Ten tournament title in 2004.

Prior to Ryan's arrival in Madison, Wisconsin had never won more than 22 games in a season. Ryan's teams have averaged 22.4 wins in his five seasons.

Wisconsin's success in Big Ten play under Ryan is unparalleled in school history. He is the first coach in conference history to lead a team to at least 11 Big Ten wins in each of his first four seasons. Prior to his arrival in 2001, UW had won at least 11 conference games just seven times, and only once since 1941. Ryan's .688 (55-25) winning percentage in conference games is the third-best of any Big Ten coach in history with more than 50 games coached.

Ryan has also made his mark in the postseason. He is the only coach in school history to have led UW to five NCAA tournament appearances. Ryan's seven NCAA tournament wins are a school record and he is the first coach in UW history to lead a team to two Sweet 16 appearances.

In Ryan's five seasons, the Kohl Center has become one of the toughest places to play in America. The Badgers have compiled a 72-5 home record under Ryan, including a 38-2 mark in Big Ten games. Over the last five seasons, that is the fifth-best home record in the country. From Dec. 7, 2002 to Jan. 24, 2005 Wisconsin did not lose a home game, setting a school record with 38 consecutive wins, a streak that was the longest in the country.

Individual success has followed team success as a number of Ryan's players have earned honors. UW and Illinois are the only two teams to have had a first-team All-Big Ten selection in each of the last five seasons (Kirk Penney - 2002-03, Devin Harris - 2004, Mike Wilkinson - 2005 and Alando Tucker - 2006). Harris, the fifth pick in the 2004 NBA Draft, was also named the 2004 Big Ten Player of the Year and was a consensus second-team All-American. He was a finalist for every major national player of the year award and finished second for the Bob Cousy Award.

Last year, Ryan guided the Badgers to a fifth consecutive NCAA tournament appearance and a share of fourth place in the Big Ten, the No. 1 RPI conference in the country. UW won at least 19 games for the fifth straight season and finished 9-7 in the Big Ten. Wisconsin also won the season-opening Paradise Jam.

In 2004-05, Ryan was named one of 20 finalists for the Naismith Coach of the Year Award. Despite returning just one starter from the previous year's team, he led the Badgers to an appearance in the 2005 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight and a school record-tying 25 wins. UW finished third in the Big Ten with an 11-5 mark and advanced to the Big Ten tournament title game for the second consecutive season. Wisconsin finished the season ranked 10th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll, its highest final ranking in history.

In 2003-04, Ryan led Wisconsin to a 25-7 record, setting a school record for wins in a season and posting the school's highest winning percentage since the 1941 team won the NCAA title with a 20-3 mark. The Badgers' 12-4 mark in the Big Ten was good enough to earn the second seed in the conference tournament. UW went on to win the Big Ten tournament for the first time in school history, defeating No. 1 seed Illinois, 70-53, in the final. For the second time in school history, UW was ranked in the Associated Press poll every week during the season. Those accomplishments came in spite of UW losing its second-leading scorer, Alando Tucker, for all but four games and having just four players see action in all 32 games.

The year before, Ryan and the Badgers set a school record with 24 wins and earned an outright Big Ten title and a trip to the NCAA tournament Sweet 16. The outright conference championship was UW's first since 1947 and the 12 league wins tied a school record set in 1912 and tied in 1914. Ryan earned his second Big Ten Coach of the Year award, becoming the first coach in league history to be so honored in each of his first two seasons.

In his first season, 2001-02, Ryan led an undermanned UW team to an improbable share of its first Big Ten championship in 55 years. Ryan had to juggle a lineup consisting of only eight scholarship players, including five players that had seen very limited or no action at all on the collegiate level. Though it took a period of adjustment, by mid-December the team had started to gel and would go on to win 15 of its final 20 regular-season games and earn a share of the Big Ten title. One of those victories, a 64-56 win over Iowa, was Ryan's 400th as a collegiate coach.

Ryan has experience as a Division I head and assistant coach, as well as a Division III head coach and is well-respected throughout the college basketball world. At the 2004 Final Four, he was honored with the NABC Guardians of the Game Award for Service. The goal of the Gaurdians of the Game program is to focus attention on the positive aspects of basketball and the role coaches play in the lives of student-athletes, in addition to the contributions coaches make to their communities. Ryan is also one of four head coaches on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Issues Committee.

Ryan came to Wisconsin from UW-Milwaukee, where he spent two seasons coaching the Panthers to their first back-to-back winning seasons in eight years. UWM, 8-19 overall the year before Ryan arrived, was 15-14 and 15-13, respectively, in Ryan's two years at the controls. The program also experienced a 161-percent home attendance increase in his first season, including the three largest crowds in the history of the school's home facility.

It was during his 15-year tenure at UW-Platteville (1984-99), however, that Ryan firmly established himself as one of the country's top coaches. He guided the Division III school to a phenomenal 353-76 (.822) overall record and, in his final 12 seasons, the Pioneers:

- Won four national championships (1991, 1995, 1998 and 1999)
- Compiled a 314-37 (.895) record
- Won eight WIAC titles
- Were the winningest NCAA men's basketball team of the 1990s (all divisions) with a 266-26 (.908) record
- Compiled a 30-5 NCAA Division III tournament mark
- Never won fewer than 23 games
- Compiled a 157-7 (.957) record on their home floor
- Set the all-time single-season Division III scoring defense mark (47.5 ppg) in 1996-97

Ryan was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches Division III Coach of the Year four times. In addition he was tabbed the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's Coach of the Year on six occasions.

Ryan took over at UW-Platteville following eight seasons (1976-84) as an assistant coach to Bill Cofield and Steve Yoder at Wisconsin.

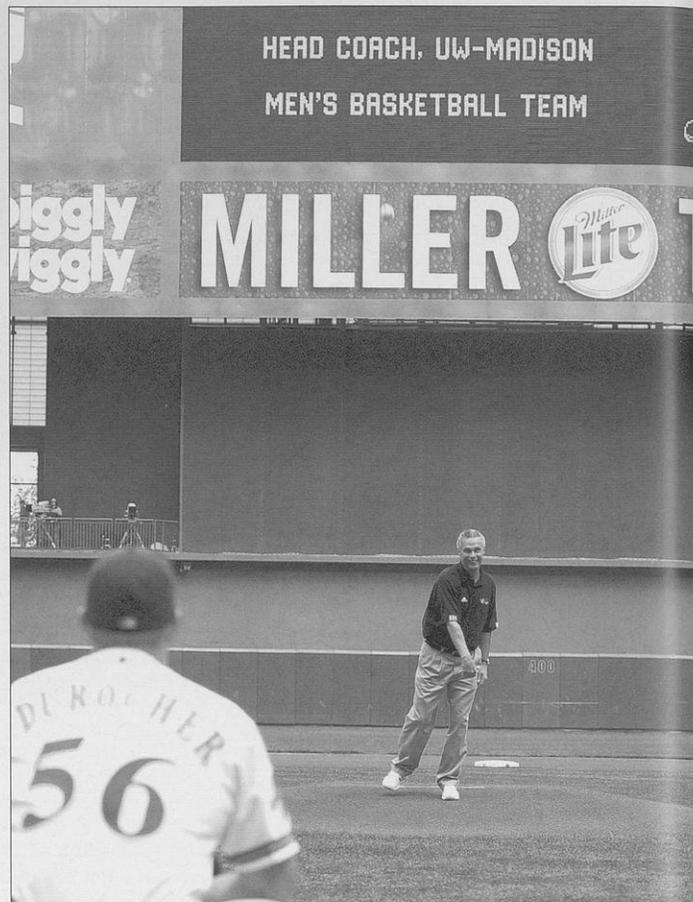

Held in high esteem by colleagues, Ryan has won two gold medals as an assistant coach, first with Virginia head coach Pete Gillen and the gold medal-winning North squad at the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival, and also with former Atlanta Hawks coach Lon Kruger and the United States gold medal winner at the 1995 World University Games.

Ryan was born on Dec. 20, 1947, just outside of Philadelphia in Chester, Pa. He attended Wilkes (Pa.) University, where he starred as a high-scoring guard and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1969. Ryan was inducted into the Wilkes Athletic Hall of Fame on June 1, 2003.

Upon completion of his collegiate career, Ryan did graduate work at Villanova before accepting an assistant coaching position at the College of Racine (Wis.). Ryan accepted his first head coaching job at Philadelphia's Sun Valley High School, where he was named the Delaware County Coach of the Year after directing his team to a second-place finish in the Philadelphia Suburban League. His 1976 club was the first Sun Valley High team to qualify for the state tournament. While in Philadelphia in the early '70s, Ryan was a teammate of Vince Papale, the inspiration for the movie "Invincible," on a championship touch football team.

Ryan is the author of three books on coaching basketball: Passing and Catching: A Lost Art; How to Run the Swing Offense; and Applying and Attacking Pressure. He also has produced five basketball instructional videos.

Ryan and his wife, Kelly, are the parents of five children: Megan, Will, Matt, Brenna and Mairin.

BIG TEN WINNING PERCENTAGE

Among active Big Ten coaches, Bo Ryan ranks third in conference winning percentage. All-time, Ryan's .688 conference winning percentage ranks third among Big Ten coaches who have coached at least 50 games. Over the last five seasons, Wisconsin's 55 Big Ten wins are second only to Illinois (61).

Ryan Receives NABC Guardians of the Game Award

Bo Ryan received the prestigious 2004 NABC Guardians of the Game Award for Service. The Guardians of the Game is a national awareness and education program led by the NABC. The goal of the program is to focus attention on the positive aspects of basketball and the role coaches play in the lives of student-athletes, in addition to the contributions coaches make to their communities.

"I'm honored to be the recipient of an award that represents giving back to the people in our communities," Ryan said. "At an early age, I saw how many people benefited from the work my parents and others did in our hometown. They never expected anything in return but always enjoyed seeing the smiles on the faces of those they helped through their kind gestures. That has always been an inspiration to me."

The Guardians of the Game program emphasizes four core values: advocacy, leadership, service and education. The NABC presents one award in each of these categories to a member coach each year. Ryan, who is active in the Salvation Army, the Boys and Girls Club of Madison, Buckets for Hunger, the UW Children's Hospital and the William S. Middleton Memorial Veterans Hospital, among other charities, received the service award. According to the NABC, "this award winner selflessly gives to those in need and gives the extra effort to make a difference in the lives of their neighbors through volunteerism and giving."

UW-Platteville Names Court After Ryan

The University of Wisconsin-Platteville announced in September that it will honor Bo Ryan by naming the Williams Fieldhouse basketball court "Bo Ryan Court." Ryan coached the Pioneers to four national titles and was named national coach of the year four times.

"I was very fortunate to be at UW-Platteville during a time of great support from the fans and community as well as tremendous players and assistant coaches," Ryan said. "We were the recipients of a lot of cooperation and goodwill throughout the Platteville community. My family and I will cherish the 15 years we spent in Platteville the rest of our lives."

Ryan made UW-Platteville the premier basketball program during his 15-year tenure, which included four NCAA Division III national championships. He recorded a 353-76 record at UW-Platteville from 1984-99 and his .822 winning percentage was the best in the history of NCAA Division III basketball.

UW-Platteville will officially dedicate the floor on Jan. 27, 2007 at halftime of the game vs. UW-Eau Claire. UWP Chancellor David Markee said in announcing the plan, "We are extremely excited and honored to recognize Bo for his accomplishments and the success of the teams. His teams brought such positive recognition for UWP both on and off the court."

Ryan guided the Pioneers to eight conference titles and nine straight NCAA III playoff appearances. UW-Platteville won national titles in 1991, 1995, 1998 and 1999. His 1992 squad also advanced to the Final Four, where it placed third. In all, the Pioneers were 30-5 in NCAA tournament play.

In his last 12 seasons as the Pioneers' leader, Ryan guided his team to 314-37 record, including a phenomenal 157-7 record in Williams Fieldhouse. UW-Platteville was the winningest team of all of college basketball during the 1990s, with a 226-26 record (90.9 percent). Ryan's 1996-97 club set the all-time NCAA record (all divisions) for fewest points allowed at 47.5 ppg. He was named national coach of the year four times and WIAC coach of the year on six occasions.

In Good Company

Bo Ryan has led Wisconsin to success not seen in Madison for a long time, specifically the time of Walter "Doc" Meanwell. Meanwell coached the Badgers for 20 seasons in the early part of the 20th century. His teams won eight Big Ten titles and lost just one game during his first three seasons. Meanwell was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1959.

Many of the Badgers' accomplishments under Ryan have not been matched since the days of Meanwell. Among them are:

- The 2002 and 2003 Badgers won back-to-back Big Ten titles for the first time since 1923-24.
- Ryan reached 100 career victories at Wisconsin (138 games) faster than anyone in school history besides Meanwell (111 games).
- The 2003-04 Badgers were the first UW team to record an undefeated season at home since Meanwell's team went 12-0 in 1929-30.
- Ryan's Badgers have also accomplished a couple things Meanwell's teams did not.
- The 2002-05 Badgers were the first to win at least 11 conference games four seasons in a row.
- Wisconsin's 55 Big Ten victories over the past five seasons are the most in school history, surpassing the 1912-16 total by one.

Assistant Coach Greg Gard

Greg Gard, a veteran of 13 seasons with Wisconsin coach Bo Ryan, is in his sixth season on the Badger basketball staff as an assistant coach.

"Greg is one of the most thorough and organized coaches I have ever been around," Ryan said. "His attention to detail and his ability to communicate that to the student-athletes separates him from other coaches."

Gard serves as the Badgers' recruiting coordinator in addition to on-floor coaching duties, opponent scouting and game preparation, and the constructing of future Badger game schedules. He is also the director of the Badger Boys Basketball Summer Camps.

Gard came to the Badgers after spending the previous two seasons as Ryan's assistant at UW-Milwaukee, where he had responsibilities in scouting, summer basketball camp operations and on-floor coaching, as well as involvement with recruiting.

Previously, Gard served as an assistant coach to Ryan at UW-Platteville from 1993-99. During Gard's years on the Pioneer staff, UW-Platteville compiled a 161-13 (.925) record and won three NCAA Division III titles, five straight Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) championships and appeared in six consecutive NCAA Tournaments. In his final year at UW-Platteville, Gard served as Ryan's top assistant in charge of recruiting, basketball camp operations and scouting. He also worked as an advisor in the university's admissions office.

Prior to joining Ryan's staff in Platteville, Gard spent three seasons at Southwestern High School and one at Platteville High School, where he served in junior high and assistant varsity coaching capacities.

Gard is a 1995 graduate of UW-Platteville with a degree in physical and health education. He and his wife, Michelle, have two children, Mackenzie and Isaac.

Assistant Coach Gary Close

Gary Close, entering his 20th season in Division I, begins his fourth season with the Badgers. Close was an assistant for 16 years at Iowa and Stanford before joining UW's staff in the spring of 2003.

"From the first time I met Gary at Stanford, I knew he was someone with exceptional teaching and coaching skills," Head Coach Bo Ryan said. "The University of Wisconsin will benefit greatly from his addition to our staff and we are looking forward to working together for many years to come."

Close spent three years as the head coach of Regina High School in Iowa City, leading them to two state tournament appearances, and as the Director of Basketball Operations for Championship Productions in Ames, Iowa.

Prior to that, he spent 13 years as an assistant at Iowa under Tom Davis. During that time, the Hawkeyes made nine NCAA tournament appearances, advancing to the "Sweet 16" twice and the regional final once. At Iowa he coached 13 future NBA choices including B.J. Armstrong, Roy Marble, Acie Earl, Matt Bullard, Ricky Davis and Ryan Bowen. A respected shooting coach, Iowa shot better than 48.0 percent from the field five times during his tenure, including a school-record .528 in 1987-88. In his second season with the Badgers, 2004-05, UW set a school record with 250 3-point field goals made.

Close was also an assistant for three years under Davis at Stanford. In his first season, Stanford won 19 games, the most at the school since 1961-62. He was also part of the staff that was responsible for recruiting the Cardinal's all-time leading scorer, Todd Lichti.

A veteran of a number of international tours, Close served as the assistant to Davis on a Pac-10 all-star team that toured Australia in 1985. During the summer of 1995, he served as co-head coach for a Big Ten all-star team on an eight-game tour in Europe.

Under Close's direction in 1996, the People-to-People Sports team became the first American team to win the Malgrat International Tournament in Malgrat, Spain. In 1997, Close coached a team comprised of current and former Iowa players to a perfect 6-0 record on a six-game tour in Germany.

A native of Moorestown, New Jersey, Close earned a bachelor's degree in business-agricultural with a minor in physical education (1978) and a master's degree in athletic administration and coaching (1982) from Arizona State. Close, his wife Kellie and their son Sam live in Middleton.

Assistant Coach Howard Moore

Former University of Wisconsin basketball player Howard Moore begins his second season as a Badger assistant this year. Moore played for UW from 1990-95 and was part of the 1993 NIT team and 1994 NCAA Tournament team.

"We're proud to announce the return of one of the most popular figures in Badger basketball, this time in the coaching ranks," Head Coach Bo Ryan said. "Howard knows the campus and the climate of the University and that will definitely be an advantage on the recruiting trail just as his knowledge as a coach and teacher will be a benefit on the floor."

Moore spent last season as an assistant at the University of Loyola-Chicago, handling off-campus recruiting and working primarily with the team's post players. The Ramblers, who were 9-20 overall and 4-12 in the Horizon League in 2003-04, went 13-17 last season, including 8-8 in the Horizon League. They won six of their last seven games, losing to UW-Milwaukee in the Horizon League Tournament semifinals.

Prior to joining the Loyola staff, Moore was an assistant under Tim Buckley at Ball State for one season. At Ball State, Moore helped the Cardinals become the top three-point field percentage defense team in the Mid-American Conference, limiting foes to .315 shooting from beyond the arc. On the recruiting trail, Moore helped land what was considered by many experts to be the top class in the MAC.

Before his stint at Ball State, Moore served as the head off-campus recruiter and also mentored the guards and post players at Bradley from 2000-03. In that stretch he helped mold Phillip Gilbert and James Gillingham into All-Missouri Valley Conference selections. Moore also served as an administrative assistant at Bradley in 1999-2000.

After a two-year stint as an assistant boys varsity coach at Taft High School, Moore commenced his collegiate coaching career as an assistant at the University of Chicago.

Moore played at UW from 1990-95, playing for Steve Yoder, Stu Jackson and Stan Van Gundy. The Badgers earned an NIT bid in 1991, Moore's redshirt season. His sophomore year, Wisconsin returned to the NIT and as a junior, he was a part of UW's first NCAA tournament team in 47 years.

Moore played in 47 games as a Badger, including 21 as a senior. He represented the Big Ten by touring Argentina with a group of league all-stars in 1994. Moore, who was the recipient of the University of Wisconsin African-American Alumni Association Student Leadership Award in 1993, graduated from Wisconsin in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in African-American Studies.

A 1990 graduate of Taft High School in Chicago, Moore guided his team to the Chicago Public League semifinals as a senior and was named to the Chicago Public League Hall of Fame in 1999.

Moore, his wife, Jennifer, and their son, Jerell, live in Madison.

Director of Basketball Operations Will Ryan

Will Ryan, who spent two seasons as Wisconsin's video coordinator for men's basketball, is in his second season as the team's director of basketball operations.

Ryan, the oldest of head coach Bo Ryan's two sons, graduated from UW-Milwaukee in December of 2002 with a B.S. in Educational Studies/Youth Leadership. Ryan played for his father on the 1998 and 1999 Division III national championship teams at UW-Platteville and also played at UW-Milwaukee in 2000-01.

"With the increased demands on coaches in recent years, the job of director of basketball operations has evolved into a key role in the program," Coach Ryan said. "The person in that position has a lot of administrative duties, such as coordinating the travel, dealing with personal requests that come in for the coaches and handling much of the paperwork that passes through the office, among many other things. By working with us in the last couple of years, I think Will understands the details of what needs to be done to make sure the program runs smoothly and I know he will do a great job to ensure that happens."

In addition to his video coordinator duties, Ryan served as an AAU coach for two seasons, including one year as the head coach of the Wisconsin Swing.

Ryan and his wife, Emily, live in Middleton.

Badger Fund

To sustain the kind of academic and athletic success that characterizes the University of Wisconsin-Madison as one of the nation's finest athletic programs, widespread support is instrumental.

That support begins at the top, through the commitment of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin system, the UW-Madison chancellor's office and the Athletic Board. That commitment extends to the thousands of Badger supporters throughout the nation who contribute in many different ways.

Ultimately, the success of the UW Department of Athletics depends in great part on the collective loyalty and generosity of alumni and friends. One of the areas in which people can support Wisconsin Athletics is through contributions to the Badger Fund.

The Badger Fund was started to enhance the university's athletic programs by helping to financially support more than 750 student-athletes in 23 sports as they strive for excellence both academically and athletically.

Because the UW-Madison Athletics Department receives little of its $78 million annual budget from state appropriations, private support is essential to its continued success.

Contributions to the Badger Fund from nearly 15,000 individuals and companies fund the scholarship needs of student-athletes and help provide the finest public university education and athletic facilities experiences available.

Your continued support will help UW student-athletes achieve their academic and athletic dreams and will assist the University of Wisconsin Division of Intercollegiate Athletics in its effort to reach lofty goals both on the field and in the classroom.

In 1969, about 16 basketball fans met to form a club called the Badger Basketball Boosters. The club was incorporated in 1986 as a tax exempt organization and as a charitable corporation in 1996. A board of 15 members governs the club. Today, the boosters consist of more than 750 members, and continues to grow.

Following are the annual contribution levels of our membership categories:

- Baseline: $100-$499
- Overtime: $500-$999
- 3 Point: $1,000-$2,499
- Slam Dunk: $2,500 and up

Club activities include Pre-Game Chalk Talks, Post-Game Receptions, Steak Fry, Away Game Bus Trip, Tip-Off with Bo (Silent Auction and Style Show), Senior Day, Coaches Appreciation Dinner, and Golf Outings.

Contributions made to the Badger Basketball Boosters will earn credit in the Badger Fund Priority System and count toward your annual giving levels and related Badger Fund benefits. Your donations help support the success of the Men's Basketball Program. For more information, or to join the Badger Basketball Boosters, call Laura Strang at 608-265-6161 or email her at ljs@athletics.wisc.edu.

ENDOWMENTS

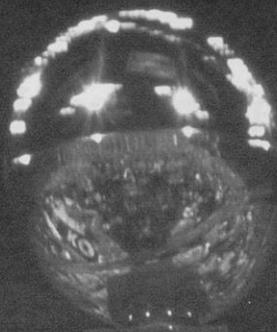

For a student who wants to participate in intercollegiate athletics at the University of Wisconsin, one of the greatest opportunities available is an athletic scholarship.

Many alumni and friends have contributed to the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics by establishing endowed scholarships to help student-athletes take full advantage of the academic and athletic experience at UW-Madison.

These scholarship endowments benefit today's student-athletes as well as those in future years.

The endowed scholarships listed on this page provide full or partial scholarship support for Badger student-athletes. The Wisconsin Athletic Department thanks these donors for their tremendous support of Badger Athletics.

For information about how to create a named scholarship in men's or women's athletics or how to contribute to an established endowment, please contact the UW Foundation at 608/263-4545.

108 Years of Wisconsin Basketball

The Wisconsin men's basketball program begins its 109th season in 2006-07. Following is a chronological list of highlights from the first 108 years of UW basketball.

December, 1898

Six years after the advent of the new sport of basketball, Bob Burdick, John Mapel, Carl Sillman, Paul Stover and Captain Walter Hirschberg make up the first Wisconsin Badger basketball team. Dr. J.C. Elsom is the first UW coach.

Jan. 21, 1899

Wisconsin plays its first game and falls to the Milwaukee Normal Alumni, 25-15, in Milwaukee.

March 4, 1899

The Badgers play their first home game. The Milwaukee Normal Alumni edge Wisconsin, 13-10, and the Badgers finish their first season 0-3.

Feb. 15, 1900

Wisconsin defeats Wayland Academy, 25-15, for the first victory in school history.

March, 1902

After completing a 10-game schedule (all on the road), the Badgers finish the year with a 7-3 record, their first winning season.

Dec. 2, 1904

Emmett Angell coaches the Badgers for the first time and watches his team rout Sparta's Company C, 75-10. Christian Steinmetz scores 50 points in the victory to set a pre-modern, single-game scoring mark.

The Badgers make their first road trip to the East and come home with a 2-6 mark after games in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Spring, 1905

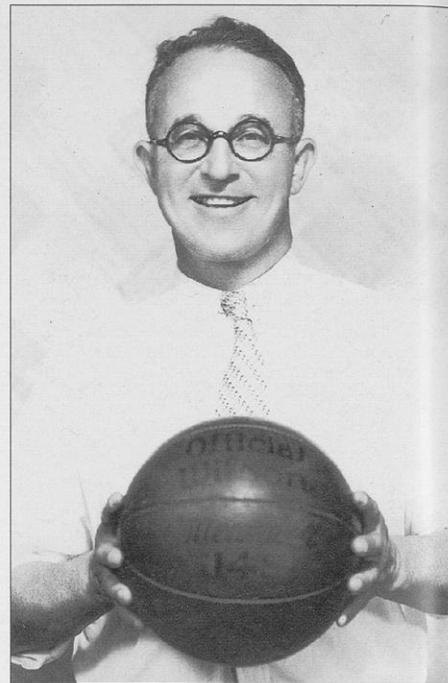

Christian Steinmetz finishes the season with 462 points, setting a Wisconsin season scoring mark that would stand for 61 years. Steinmetz is later named the Badgers' first All-American.

March 15, 1907

Wisconsin defeats Purdue, 37-10, to secure an 11-3 record and a share of the school's first Big Ten championship.

March 16, 1912

First-year coach Walter Meanwell, known as the "Little Doctor," guides the Badgers to a 32-21 win over Indiana to complete an unbeaten season at 15-0. Wisconsin wins the Big Ten title outright and will win or share the conference crown seven more times before Meanwell's coaching career ends in 1934.

Walter Meanwell won eight conference titles during his 20 years at UW.

March 16, 1918

Despite dropping a 19-11 decision to Minnesota, first-year coach Guy Lowman's Badgers win the school's sixth Big Ten championship in 12 years.

Dec. 18, 1930

The Badgers defeat Penn, 25-12, in the dedication game for the new Wisconsin Field House.

Fall, 1934

Harold "Bud" Foster, a former All-America player for the Badgers, takes over as head coach. Foster will hold that position for 25 years, longer than any other basketball coach in school history.

Spring, 1935

In his first season as head coach, "Bud" Foster leads the Badgers to the Big Ten title with a 15-5 record.

The UW Field House opened on Dec. 18, 1930 as Wisconsin defeated Penn 25-12.

Head coach Harold "Bud" Foster visits with former UW All-American Don Rehfeldt. Foster coached the Badgers to their only national title in 1941.

March 29, 1941

The "Cinderella" Badgers, lower division finishers in the Big Ten just one year earlier, top Washington State, 39-34, to win the NCAA tournament. The UW's John Kotz is named tournament MVP. Team captain Gene Englund is the Big Ten MVP and earns All-America honors.

Spring, 1942

Wisconsin has the Big Ten MVP for the second straight season when John Kotz earns the award. Kotz also garners All-America kudos.

March, 1947

The 15-5 Big Ten champion Badgers are invited to play in the NCAA Eastern Regionals in New York's Madison Square Garden. Wisconsin takes third place in the East by squeaking past Navy, 50-49, after losing the opener, 70-56, to CCNY.

Feb. 28, 1949

Junior Don Rehfeldt takes 37 shots in a 70-47 trouncing of Iowa. Rehfeldt's 37 field goal attempts still stand as a single-game Wisconsin record.

Spring, 1950

After being named the Big Ten's MVP, Don Rehfeldt becomes Wisconsin's last All-American to date. He finishes his career as the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,169 points. Rehfeldt also is picked second overall in the NBA Draft.

Jan. 3, 1953

Center Paul Morrow grabs what remains a school-record 30 rebounds in a 50-46 victory over Purdue.

Jan. 27, 1962

Despite Boilermaker Terry Dischinger's UW Field House-record 50 points, the Badgers defeat Purdue 89-86.

March 3, 1962

The Badgers defeat a top-ranked Ohio State squad (86-67) that features all-Americans John Havlicek and Jerry Lucas, as well as reserve forward Bob Knight. The powerful Buckeyes see their 47-game winning streak come to an end.

March 11, 1963

Senior Ken Seibel earns the team's MVP award for the third consecutive season. He remains the Badgers' only three-time MVP.

March 8, 1965

Ken Barnes scores a school-record 42 points, along with 23 rebounds, in a 92-73 loss to Indiana. Barnes' mark stands alone until Michael Finley matches it in December of 1994.

March 11, 1967

With 12 seconds remaining in the season finale against Illinois, sophomore Chuck Nagle makes a layup to tie Christian Steinmetz as the school's single-season scoring leader with 462 points. Fouled on the play, Nagle converts the free throw and sets the record.

Dec. 9, 1967

The Badgers set a school single-game scoring record with a 120-82 win over Southern Methodist.

March 2, 1968

Senior Joe Franklin pulls down a career-high 27 rebounds in a 104-84 victory over Purdue—his final game at the UW Field House. Franklin ends his collegiate career one week later having amassed 858 boards for what still is a school-record 11.9 rebounds per game.

March 9, 1968

Only one year after Chuck Nagle snaps Wisconsin's 62-year-old single-season scoring mark set by Christian Steinmetz, Joe Franklin registers 30 points in the season finale at Northwestern to finish the campaign with a school-best 544 points.

March 13, 1971

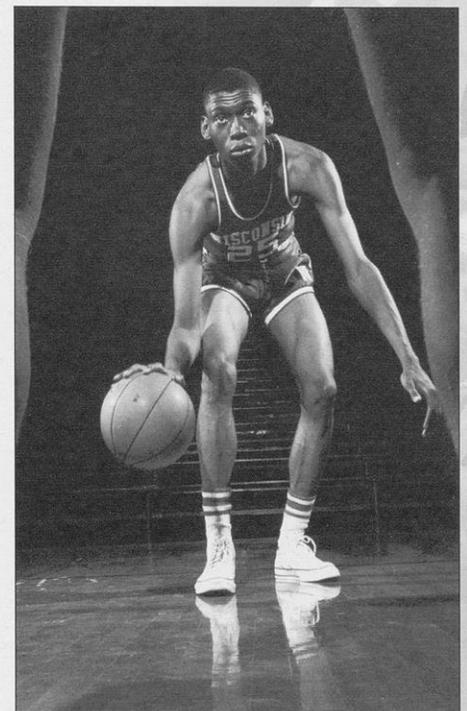

Senior co-captain Clarence Sherrod scores 27 points in a season-ending loss at Michigan to finish the year with 570 points. It is the third time in five seasons that the Badgers have a new all-time single-season scoring leader.

Jan. 5, 1976

The Badgers record the largest comeback in school history when they erase a 22-point (47-25) deficit and gain an 82-81 overtime victory over Ohio State at the UW Field House.

March 3, 1979

Guard Wes Matthews hits a halfcourt shot as time expires as the Badgers defeat Magic Johnson and eventual NCAA champion Michigan State 83-81 at the UW Field House.

Joe Franklin averaged a UW record 11.9 rebounds per game for his career. In his last home game, he pulled down a career-high 27 boards.

Danny Jones is one of just three Badgers (Michael Finley and Devin Harris are the others) to have scored more than 600 points in a season. That season (1989), he led the UW to its first-ever NIT appearance.

Dec. 30, 1979

The Badgers connect on 32 of 43 field goal attempts (.744) to set a single-game school record and defeat Army 78-54.

March 10, 1981

Claude Gregory scores 29 points and grabs 17 rebounds in his last game as a Badger. He leaves the school as Wisconsin's career leader in points (1,745) and rebounds (904).

Dec. 2, 1985

In a non-conference matchup with San Francisco State, senior Rick Olson makes 17 field goals in a 90-61 Badger victory. Olson's 17 field goals tops the previous school record of 16 set nearly 27 years earlier by Bob Litzow.

March 9, 1986

Setting a school record by starting every game (112) in his four-year career, Rick Olson guides Wisconsin past Northwestern, 70-68. Olson scores 26 points in the game and misses becoming the school's career scoring leader by nine points. However, he does become the UW's single-season scoring champion with 571 points.

Feb. 16, 1987

In one of the most infamous games in school history, the Badgers take eventual NCAA champion Indiana to three overtimes before falling 86-85 at the UW Field House before a capacity crowd and national television audience.

March 8, 1987

Mike Heineman scores 20 points, grabs seven rebounds and hands out nine assists in his final game as a Badger. Heineman ends his career as Wisconsin's all-time assist leader with 388.

Dec. 14, 1988

Led by a pair of All-Americans -- Gene Englund and John Kotz -- and a defense-minded coach (Bud Foster) who taught a disciplined brand of basketball, Wisconsin won its only NCAA basketball title in 1941.

The Badgers opened the season with three straight wins, but dropped three of their next five games, including its conference opener against Minnesota. But the UW won its last 15 games, including three in the NCAA tournament, capped by a five-point win over Washington State in the championship game played in Kansas City, Mo.

In 1947, the Wisconsin Badgers won their 14th Big Ten championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in the program's history.

Wisconsin's national title dreams were dashed following its loss to CCNY at Madison Square Garden. UW led 26-10 in the first half of that contest, but was outscored 43-19 in the second half. Exner Menzel paced the Badgers with 15 points.

Ben Selbo's basket in the final seconds propelled the Badgers to a 50-49 win over Navy in the East Regional consolation game. Bobby Cook scored a game-high 21 points to lead Wisconsin.

2001-02 (19-13 Overall / 11-5 Big Ten)

To clinch a share of the 2002 Big Ten championship, Wisconsin had to win its last six regular-season games - something that hadn't been done since 1941. But a two-point, overtime win against 16th-ranked Ohio State ignited the Badgers and a 20-point win over Michigan at home sealed the deal for UW to hoist the Big Ten championship trophy for the first time in over 50 years.

Wisconsin earned the league's No. 1 seed in the conference tournament. The Badgers also advanced to their fourth consecutive NCAA tournament, earning a No. 8 seed in the East Region.

Head Coach Bo Ryan recorded the most successful first year in Wisconsin basketball history. He became the 10th coach in conference history to win a league title in his first season and became the first Badger coach to be named Big Ten Coach of the Year. Ryan was also named national coach of the year by Collegeinsider.com.

Kirk Penney was a consensus first-team all-conference selection, just UW's fifth since 1948. He was UW's leading scorer at 15.1 points per game. Devin Harris, in his freshman season at Wisconsin, chipped in 12.3 points per game and led the team with 43 steals and 18 blocked shots.

Wisconsin's five starters—Mike Wilkinson, Alando Tucker, Devin Harris, Freddie Owens and Kirk Penney—all averaged more than 10 points per game in a season in which the Badgers set a school record for victories in a season (24) and posted its best winning percentage (.750) since 1949-50. UW earned the outright league championship for the first time since 1947, tied a school record with 12 Big Ten victories and won back-to-back Big Ten titles for the first time since 1923 and '24.

Head coach Bo Ryan became one of three coaches in league history to win conference titles in each of his first two seasons. The Badgers earned their highest seed in the NCAA tournament (5) and advanced to the Sweet 16 before losing to top-ranked Kentucky in the Regional Semifinals.

Penney became the first Badger since 1952 to earn first-team honors in consecutive seasons. In his final year at Wisconsin, Penney averaged 16.2 points (led the team) and 6.0 rebounds per game (second to Wilkinson, 6.8 rpg.)

Harris made the game-winning free throw against Illinois in the regular season finale to clinch the title. Then against Tulsa in the NCAA tournament, the Badgers staged the greatest comeback in school history, rallying from 13 points down with 3:36 remaining to beat Tulsa 61-60.

A WINNING TRADITION

UW in the NCAA Tournament

1941 - NCAA Champions

East Regional (Madison, Wis.)

Wisconsin 51, Dartmouth 50

The Badgers began their quest for the national championship by rallying in the second half to down Dartmouth. UW trailed 24-22 at halftime and didn't regain the lead until late in the second half. A pair of baskets by Gene Englund and two free throws by John Kotz put Wisconsin up 51-46 with just over a minute remaining.

Dartmouth scored the game's final four points, including a desperation field goal from near half-court as the final gun sounded.

Englund and Kotz finished with 18 and 15 points, respectively, to lead the Badgers, while three-time Ivy League scoring champion Gus Broberg paced Dartmouth with 20 points.

Wisconsin 36, Pittsburgh 30

Wisconsin avenged a 36-34 home loss to Pittsburgh earlier in the season with a 36-30 victory over the Panthers in the NCAA East Regional title game. This time down four at halftime, the Badgers opened the second half with a 22-8 run to put the game out of reach. Only one Pittsburgh player, Eddie Straloski managed to score more than four points in the contest. He had 12. Gene Englund and John Kotz led Wisconsin with 11 and 10 points respectively.

NCAA Championship (Kansas City, Mo.)

Wisconsin 39, Washington State 34

Wisconsin's 15th consecutive win — a five-point decision over Washington State — netted the Badgers the NCAA crown. The Cougars led 10-8 and 12-9, but the Badgers rallied to take a 13-12 lead on a pair of baskets by John Kotz and never trailed again.

Wisconsin took a 21-17 lead to the locker room at halftime. Kirk Gebert scored Washington State's first three field goals in the second period to help the Cougars pull even at 24-24, but free throws by Kotz and Ted Strain and baskets by Gene Englund and Charles Epperson gave the Badgers a comfortable 30-24 lead. Gebert pitched in three more field goals to help the Cougars narrow the margin to 34-32, but the Badgers nailed down the title on a field goal by Kotz and a free throw by Strain. Englund had 13 points to pace the victors, while Kotz totaled 12 points and was selected tournament MVP. Gebert led the Cougars with a game-high 21 points. Wisconsin ended the season with a 20-3 record.

East Regional (New York)

CCNY 70, Wisconsin 56

City College of New York ended Wisconsin's dreams of a second national championship with an impressive second-half rally that carried it to a 70-56 win at Madison Square Garden in the opening round of the East Regional. The Badgers seemed in complete command in the first half, jumping to a 13-2 lead, extending the edge to 26-10 and cruising to a 37-27 halftime advantage. The second half, however, was dominated by CCNY. The Beavers began with a 12-2 run that tied the game at 39-39. The lead see-sawed for a few minutes before City College took the lead for good at 48-47. The Beavers pulled steadily away from there and rolled to an easy victory. The victors outscored Wisconsin 43-19 in the final period. Irwin Dambrot led CCNY with a game-high 16 points, including 11 in the second half, while Exner Menzel paced the Badgers with 15 points.

Glen Selbo's basket in the final seconds propelled the Badgers to a 50-49 win over the Midshipmen in the East Regional consolation game. Wisconsin led by as many as eight points in the first half and held a 29-24 lead at intermission, but the Middies rallied and went ahead 36-35 on a rebound basket by Bobby Searle and a free throw by Charles Sheehan. Bobby Cook put the Badgers back in front with a long basket and a free throw. Wisconsin extended the lead to 45-38 and appeared in command until Navy staged one final rally and cut the margin to 48-47. A rebound basket by Johnny Barrow pushed Navy in front, 49-48, setting the stage for Selbo's game-winner. Wisconsin fell behind 15-3 just 5:39 into the game and never cut Texas' lead to fewer than seven points in a 71-58 loss to the Longhorns in the first round of the 1997 East Regional in Pittsburgh. Texas guard Reggie Freeman scored a game-high 31 points while Sam Okey paced the Badgers with 17 points, 10 rebounds and six assists. Southwest Missouri State 43, Wisconsin 32

Fifth-seeded Wisconsin's record-setting season came to an end after a 43-32 loss to Southwest Missouri State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Charlotte, N.C. The Badgers shot a season-low .255 from the field and their 32 points were the fewest in an NCAA Tournament game since the advent of the shot clock in 1986. Sean Mason registered 11 points, but he was the only Badger in double figures. Danny Moore and Kevin Ault scored 12 and 10 points, respectively, to pace the Bears. Wisconsin managed just 12 points in the first half on 21-percent shooting, but trailed just 21-12 thanks to a typically solid defensive effort. Wisconsin trailed by as few as six points in the second half, but never came closer than that.

Penney scored 21 points and added nine rebounds and five assists while playing all 40 minutes. The Badgers used a 9-0 run to end the half with a 41-26 lead. The Badgers trailed 58-45 with 3:36 remaining before outscoring Tulsa 16-2 the rest of the way. A Devin Harris three-pointer started an 11-0 UW run that pulled Wisconsin within two with 1:16 left. The teams traded baskets before the Badgers forced Tulsa into a shot clock violation with 12 seconds left. Harris then brought the ball upcourt, came off a high pick, drove to the middle of the lane and found a wide-open Owens on the left baseline. Owens' shot hit nothing but net and gave Wisconsin its first lead since 4:02 remained in the first half.

In a game that included 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Pittsburgh scored seven of the final 10 points to hold on for a 59-55 win and advance to the 2004 "Sweet 16." Neither team led by more than seven points. Mike Wilkinson hit a pair of free throws with 3:03 remaining to tie the game for the 10th and final time. After a Pittsburgh turnover, Devin Harris missed a three-pointer. Pitt's Carl Krauser then made a jumper for a two-point lead. 1996 - Second Round

First Round (Madison, Wis.)

Wisconsin 55, Manhattan 42

Wisconsin trailed by two at the half, but limited visiting Manhattan to 16 points in the second frame to open the NIT tournament with a 55-42 victory. Manhattan's Jeronimo Bucero led all scorers with 16 points. Hennssy Auriantal and Mosezell Peterson had 15 and 13 points, respectively, to lead Wisconsin. The Jaspers' lead grew to nine five minutes into the second half. Bucero scored nine straight points during the run. But Manhattan scored just seven points over the final 15 minutes and watched UW fly right by. A Sam Okey dunk capped a 22-2 run as UW took a 52-40 lead.

The much shorter Redbirds outrebounded the Badgers 40-32 and outshot Wisconsin 47.3% to 37.9%. Maurice Trotter's 19 points and Rico Hill's 15 points helped offset a 28-point performance from UW forward Sam Okey. Okey was the only Badger to reach double figures. Penn State's Calvin Booth hit a 15-footer to give the Nittany Lions a 51-50 edge with 1:32 remaining, but freshman forward Maurice Linton nailed a nine-foot jumper with 3.7 seconds left to play and the 10th-seeded Badgers advanced with a 52-51 decision.

Wisconsin faced league champion Illinois in the second round and fell behind 26-10 at the half. The resilient Badgers, however, staged an incredible second-half comeback and took a 46-45 lead with 6:14 left to play before Illinois countered with an 11-0 run that finally put the game out of reach.

Wisconsin 51, Northwestern 41

March 10

Wisconsin 78, Purdue 66

March 11

Michigan State 55, Wisconsin 46

Figuring they needed at least one Big Ten tournament win to qualify for the NCAA tournament, the Badgers opened the league tourney with a 51-41 victory over Northwestern in the first round. UW led the Wildcats from start to finish.

Wisconsin then squared off against Purdue in the quarterfinals. The Badgers jumped out to a 10-point lead just two minutes into the game and never trailed.

UW then met Michigan State in the semifinals for the second straight season. Though the Spartans grabbed a 34-21 halftime lead, the Badgers made a run that cut the MSU lead to 49-44 with 5:29 remaining to play. The league-champion Spartans held UW to just two points the rest of the way.

2001 - Quarterfinalist

March 9

Indiana 64, Wisconsin 52

The Badgers got off to a nice start in their quarterfinal matchup with Indiana, pulling out to a 28-19 lead with 4:38 left in the first half. Indiana closed to within four points (28-24) at the break.

The Hoosiers then continued their momentum by beginning the second half on a 17-2 run. Wisconsin closed the IU lead to 54-49 with 2:04 remaining, but never again came closer than that.

2002 - Quarterfinalist

March 8

Iowa 58, Wisconsin 56

Wisconsin entered the 2002 Big Ten Tournament as the No. 1 seed for the first time in school history after winning a share of the Big Ten regular-season title.

UW held a 26-21 lead at halftime, but Iowa came back to grab a 39-37 lead with 10:14 to play. Though the Badgers led by six with 3:42 left, the Hawkeyes scored 10 of the final 12 points of the game to win.

1999 - Semifinalist

March 5

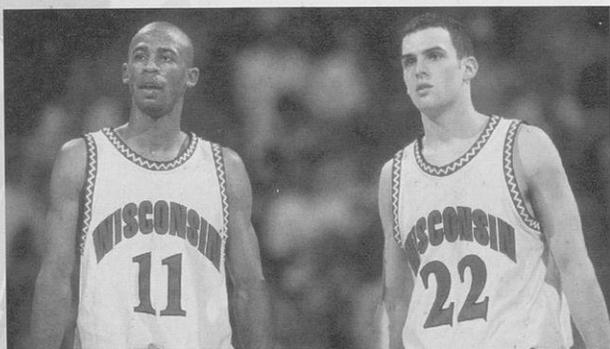

Wisconsin 74, Iowa 60

March 6

Michigan State 56, Wisconsin 41

Wisconsin took on Iowa in a quarterfinal game. After falling behind 25-23 at halftime, the Badgers shot a blistering .737 from the field in the second half and went on to win 74-60.

Just as they had the year before, the Badgers faced the league champion (this time Michigan State) in their second game. The teams played to a 22-22 tie after the first half, but the Badgers, who shot a then-season low .293 from the floor, scored only 19 points in the second half.

For the second consecutive season, Wisconsin entered the Big Ten tournament as the No. 1 seed but lost in the quarterfinals. The Badgers fell to No. 8 seed Ohio State, 58-50.

UW struggled from the field for the entire game, connecting on just 18-53 shots (.340), its second-worst shooting performance of the season. Kirk Penney led Wisconsin with 14 points while Alando Tucker chipped in 13.

2004 - Champion

March 12

Wisconsin 66, Minnesota 52

March 13

Wisconsin 68, Michigan State 66

March 14

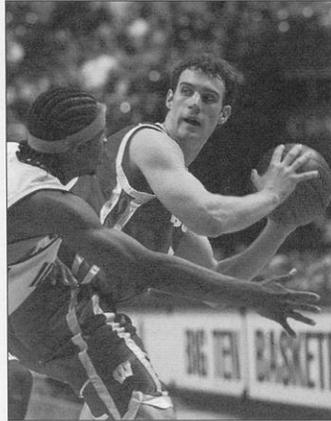

Wisconsin 70, Illinois 53

The Badgers swept through the 2004 tournament, earning their first conference tourney title.

UW faced Minnesota in the quarterfinals and got a combined 43 points from Devin Harris and Mike Wilkinson to defeat the Gophers 66-52.

Michigan State was up next in the semifinals, the third meeting between the teams in 2004. Harris made a late trey to put UW in front. MSU's Maurice Ager answered with a bucket but Wilkinson put the Badgers ahead for good with two free throws with 49 seconds left.

UW opened the final vs. Illinois on a 16-6 run and never led by less than seven points after that. Harris scored a tournament championship-record 29 points and was named the tourney's most outstanding player. Wilkinson had 53 points in the three games and was named to the all-tournament team.

2005 - Finalist

March 11

Wisconsin 60, Ohio State 49

March 12

Wisconsin 59, Iowa 56

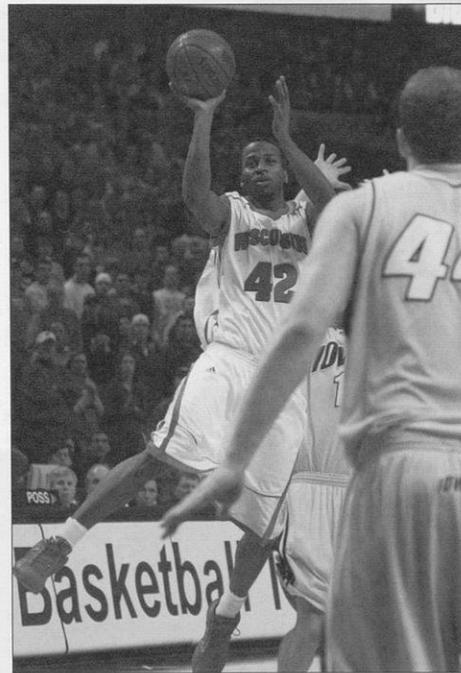

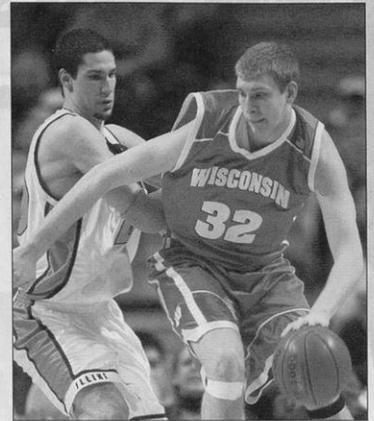

March 13

Illinois 54, Wisconsin 43

A first-half 23-4 run for third-seeded UW proved the difference in defeating Ohio State. Zach Morley scored a career-high 23 points.

In the semifinals, Alando Tucker banked in a running 3-pointer as time expired to lift Wisconsin over Iowa. It was Tucker's second game-winner in four games.

In a rematch of 2004's championship game, Illinois held off a late UW charge to claim the title. The Badgers trailed by as many 16 points in the second half and rallied to cut the Fighting Illini lead to five down the stretch, but could get no closer.

Alando Tucker's last second 3-pointer eliminated Iowa and set up a championship rematch with Illinois.

2006 - Quarterfinalist

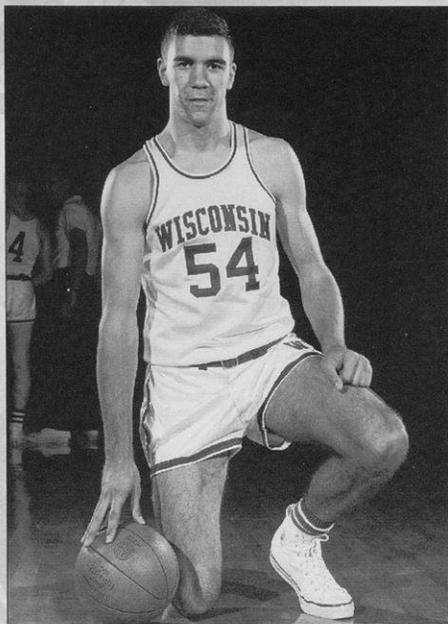

March 10

Indiana 61, Wisconsin 56

Wisconsin's bid for three consecutive tournament finals appearances came to an abrupt halt after a 61-56 loss to Indiana in the quarterfinal round of the Big Ten tournament. The Badgers led by two at the half, but allowed an 11-2 run to the Hoosiers to begin the second half. A Ray Nixon dunk off an offensive rebound gave UW a 46-45 lead with 7:41 left. A late 7-0 run by the Hoosiers put Indiana on top for good as Wisconsin couldn't get within four points the rest of the way. Alando Tucker led UW with 20 points despite spending most of the first half in foul trouble. Brian Butch just missed a double-double with 12 points and nine rebounds.

A WINNING TRADITION

UW and the Weekly Associated Press Poll

Jack Brens and the 1962-63 squad were ranked as high as sixth in the nation. Brens led the Badgers in scoring (17.8 ppg.) and rebounding (12.8 rpg.) that year.

FIRST ROUNDERS

Wisconsin has had six first-round NBA draft choices through the years. In 2004, Devin Harris became the highest Badger drafted since 1950 when the Washington Wizards selected him with the fifth overall pick. He was then traded to the Dallas Mavericks. Prior to that, the two most recent first-round selections were Paul Grant in 1997 and Michael Finley in 1995. Wes Matthews was a first-rounder in 1980, Albert Henry was chosen in the first round in 1970 and Don Rehfeldt was the second pick overall in 1950.

Michael Finley

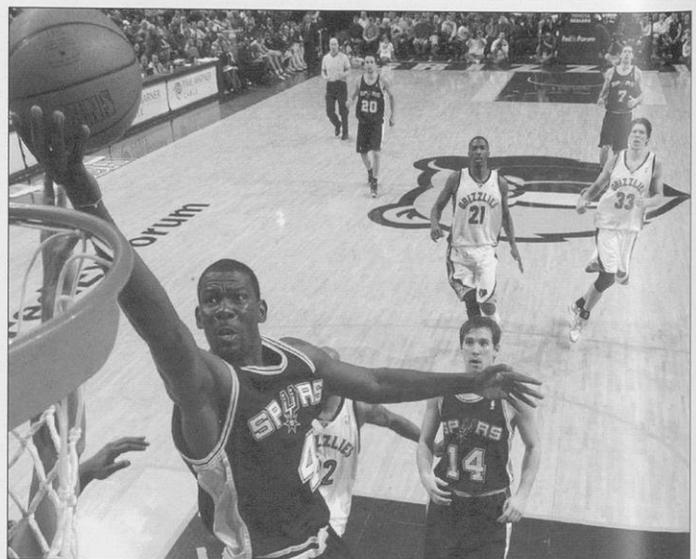

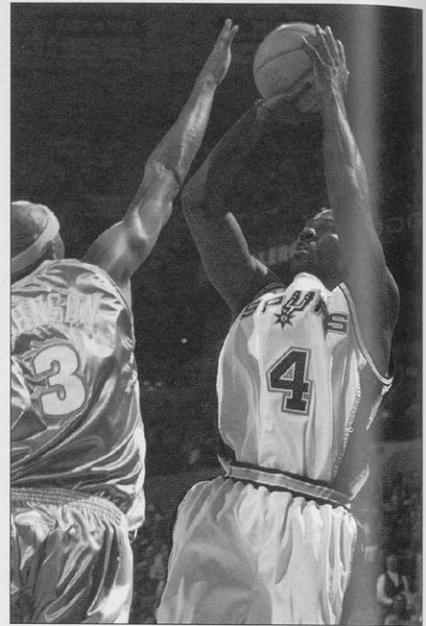

Former Badger stand-out Michael Finley completed his first season with the San Antonio Spurs in 2006 after spending the previous eight with the Dallas Mavericks. Finley has spent 11 years in the NBA while playing for three teams.

Finley averaged 10.1 points and made a team-high 110 3-pointers for a team that captured its fifth division title in six seasons. Starring mostly in a sixth-man role, Finley was the fourth-leading scorer on the team. He was the Spurs' leading free-throw shooter at 85.2 percent, handed out 116 assists and logged over 2,038.

San Antonio earned the top-seed in the 2006 NBA playoffs. But after a 4-2 series victory over the Sacramento Kings, the Spurs dropped a seven-game series to Devin Harris' Dallas Mavericks. Finley averaged 10.5 points in the postseason and was the team's third-leading rebounder, averaging 3.8 boards per game.

A two-time NBA All-Star, Finley has averaged 18.2 points and 4.9 rebounds over his career (812 games). He led the NBA in minutes played in 1999-2000 and has averaged at least 38.0 minutes per game in seven of his 11 seasons.

In 2002, he represented the USA at the World Basketball Championships in Indianapolis. There, he led Team USA in minutes (25.1 mpg) and free-throw percentage (19-22, .864) and was second on the squad with 13.0 points per game.

Devin Harris

After being named the Big Ten Player of the Year in his senior season at Wisconsin, Devin Harris was selected fifth overall by the Washington Wizards in the 2004 NBA Draft. He was traded later that day to the Dallas Mavericks and has had two successful seasons with the Mavs.

Harris enjoyed a sophomore season in which he saw an increase in his average points, rebounds, assists and minutes per game. Despite missing more than 20 contests during the regular season with an injury, he returned in time for Dallas' magical run to the NBA Finals. Harris earned 15 starts during the postseason and was one of only three Dallas players to appear in all 23 games.

In his first four starts of the playoffs, and against Michael Finley's San Antonio Spurs, Harris averaged 19.3 points. He scored a career-high 30 in game one of the Western Conference Finals against the Phoenix Suns and started three games of the NBA Finals against the Miami Heat.

Harris started the first 19 games of the 2004-05 season for Dallas and was named the "got milk?" Western Conference Rookie of the Month for November.

That year, he played in 76 games during the regular season and averaged 5.7 points and 2.2 assists. He ranked second in the league in steals per 48 minutes (3.15).

Harris averaged 9.9 points during the 2005-06 season and 3.2 assists. He played in 56 games and earned four starts.

Rashard Griffith

The only Wisconsin Badger in the last 30 years to average a double-double for an entire season (17.2 ppg./10.8 rpg., 1994-95), Rashard Griffith continues to tour the professional leagues in Europe.

Griffith became the highest paid rookie in the European league when he accepted a $600,000 salary offer by Tofas Bursa prior to the 1996-97 season. He has remained in Europe ever since.

Griffith led Tofas Bursa to the 1997 Turkish National Championship. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player that season after averaging 17.9 points and 10.9 rebounds.

Griffith would go on to win six consecutive national titles, though not all of them came with Tofas Bursa. He added an Israeli national championship, two Italian national championships and two more Turkish titles in the following years.

From 1996-2003, over a span of seven seasons, Griffith scored over 2,800 points, pulled down over 1,800 rebounds and shot over 60 percent from the field.

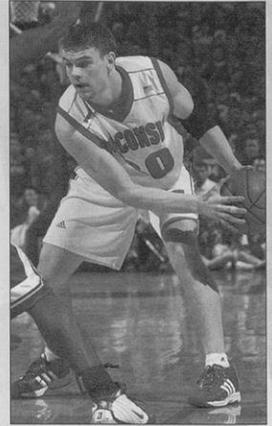

Kirk Penney

Kirk Penney left Wisconsin as a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection and sixth-leading scorer in school history. Now eighth on the all-time scoring list, Penney has been playing professional basketball for the past three years.

Penney has had brief stints in the NBA with both the Miami Heat and Los Angeles Clippers. In 2004-05, Penney earned honorable mention all-league while playing for the Asheville Altitude in the NBA's Developmental League.

Last year, Penney played in Israel for Maccabi Tel Aviv, one of the top pro teams in Europe. Recently he signed on to play for Zalgiris Kaunas, a Lithuanian team termed "Northern Europe's most traditional power" by euroleague.net.

Penney has played extensively for his home country New Zealand in international play, including two Olympic Games appearances and two World Basketball Championships. Penney led New Zealand in scoring during the 2006 World Championships, averaging 13.7 points.

Mike Wilkinson

After playing with the Utah Jazz summer camp following his graduation from Wisconsin, Mike Wilkinson signed with Aris B.S.A. Basketball Club in Thessaloniki, Greece where he's completed one season. Wilkinson averaged 11 points and was the leading rebounder (6.2 rpg.) on a team that finished 15-11 on the year.

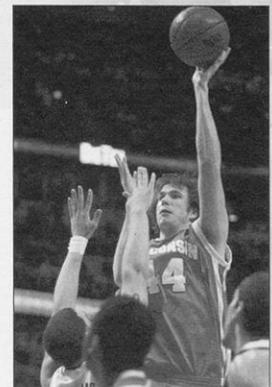

Wilkinson was a first-team All-Big Ten selection during his senior year at Wisconsin. In 2005, he helped lead UW to a school-record tying 25 wins and a spot in the NCAA tournament Elite Eight. He finished his career ranked among the top 10 in UW history in 11 categories including sixth on the school's all-time scoring list and third on the career rebounding list.

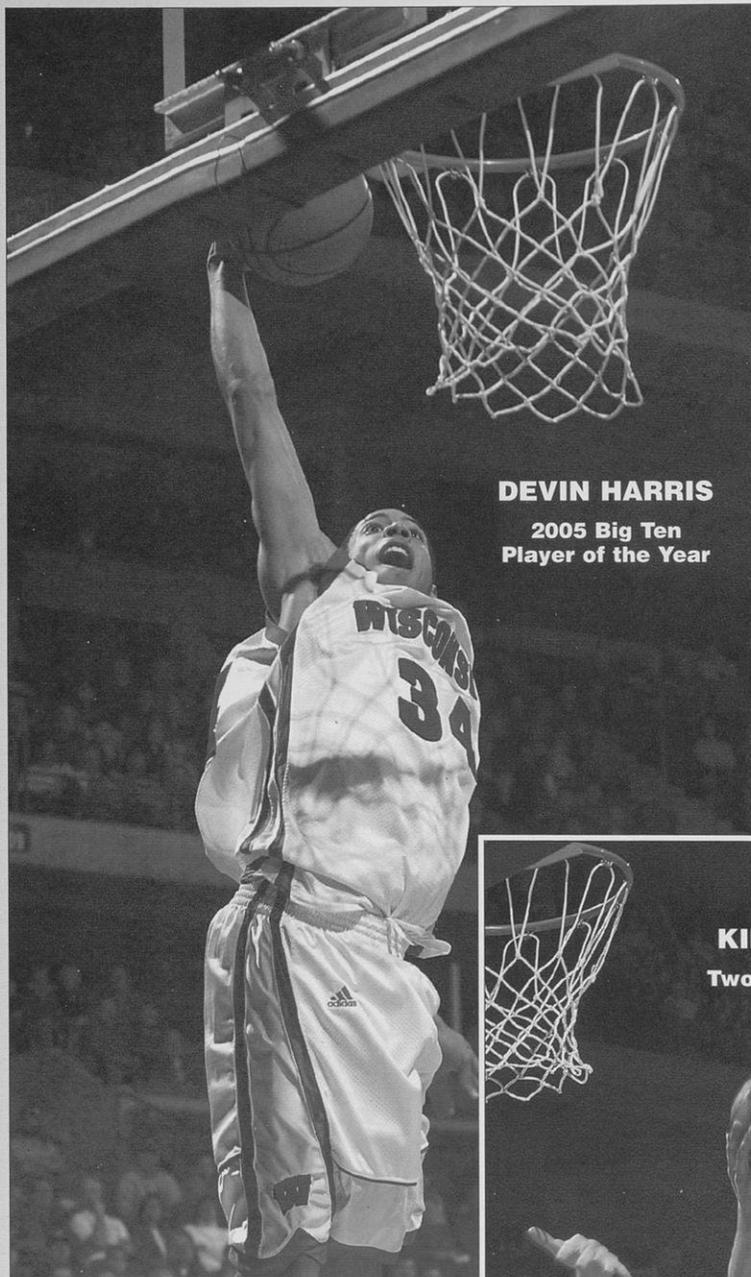

Zach Morley

Zach Morley helped lead Aguas De Valencia-Gandia to a runner-up finish at the 2006 LEB2 Championships in Spain this past season. Morley was the second leading scorer and rebounder on a team that finished 21-9 during the regular season. He averaged 14.1 points and 6.1 rebounds with the team while shooting 55 percent from the floor.

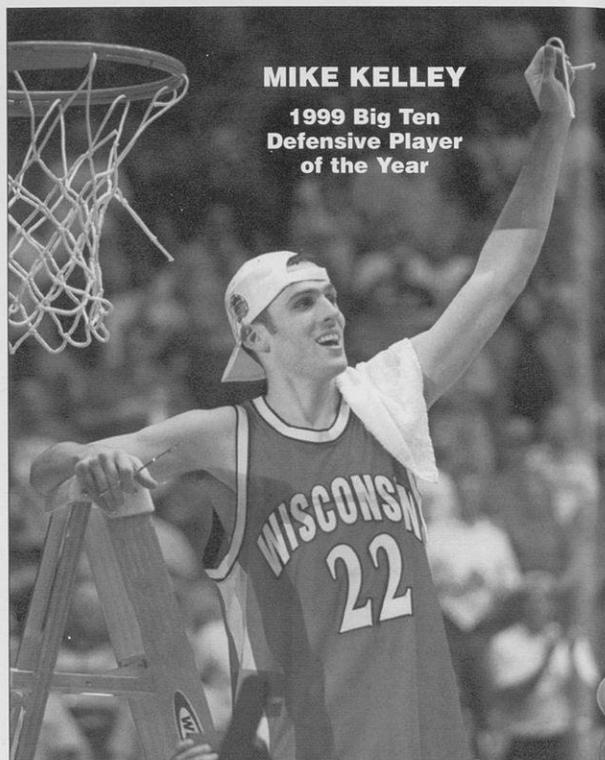

Morley averaged 8.1 points and 6.3 rebounds in his two seasons with the Badgers. He was named to the Big Ten All-Tournament Team in his senior season of 2005 and helped UW advance to the NCAA tournament Elite Eight.

2005-06 Season Review

Wisconsin advanced to the NCAA tournament for the eighth straight season. Only nine teams in the country have been to that many consecutive NCAA tournaments entering the 2006-07 season.

- Wisconsin finished the 2005-06 season 19-12 overall and 9-7 in the Big Ten, good for a share of fourth place. The Badgers earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament, receiving a No. 9 seed. UW lost to eighth-seeded Arizona, 94-75, in the first round in Philadelphia, Pa.

- UW earned its eighth straight bid to the NCAA tournament, a school-record. Michigan State is the only other Big Ten team that has been to the NCAA tournament eight straight years. The Badgers are one of nine teams that made their eighth straight tourney appearance in 2006. The others are: Arizona, Duke, Florida, Gonzaga, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan State and Texas.

- The Badgers have won at least 19 games in each of Bo Ryan's five seasons and have averaged 22.4 wins per season under Ryan. In the 103 seasons prior to Ryan taking over, Wisconsin won at least 19 games in a season only four times.

- In Bo Ryan's five seasons as UW head coach, the Badgers have amassed 55 Big Ten victories. Only Illinois, with 61 conference wins, has more over that span.

- Wisconsin has finished no worse than fourth in the Big Ten in Ryan's five seasons. That five-year stretch is the best for UW since 1914-18.

- The Badgers' current six-year run with better than .500 records in Big Ten play is the longest for UW since 1912-18.

- Among Big Ten teams, Wisconsin was tied with Penn State for the fewest number of seniors and juniors on its roster with four. Eight of the 11 teams in the league had at least four seniors on their rosters. Wisconsin and LSU were the only teams in the NCAA tournament with just one senior on their rosters.

- Prior to the start of the NCAA tournament, the Badgers' strength of schedule was ranked eighth in the country, toughest in the Big Ten according to the RPI rankings.

- Wisconsin was 7-7 against teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament field. The Badgers defeated UNC Wilmington, Marquette and UW-Milwaukee, lost to Pittsburgh, Illinois and Arizona and split with Iowa, Indiana, Michigan State and Ohio State.

- Junior Alando Tucker was named first-team All-Big Ten this year, marking the fifth consecutive season that Wisconsin has had a consensus first-team selection. Prior to 2002, UW had just two consensus first-team All-Big Ten choices since 1952 (Michael Finley in 1993 and Joe Franklin in 1968).

- Tucker was also the fourth different Badger to be honored in the last four years. Kirk Penney (2002 and '03), Devin Harris (2004) and Mike Wilkinson (2005) were the other UW first-teamers.

- Two other Badgers were honored when the Big Ten announced its awards. Junior guard Kammron Taylor was an honorable mention All-Big Ten choice and Joe Krabbenhoft was named to the league's All-Freshman team.

- Tucker led the Big Ten in scoring in league games (20.0 ppg.) and scored at least 20 points in 10 of the Badgers' 16 conference games. The last Wisconsin player to lead the Big Ten in scoring in conference games was Don Rehfeldt in 1950.

- Tucker has scored 1,501 points in his career, good for seventh place on UW's all-time scoring list. The four players who rank sixth through ninth on that list (Mike Wilkinson, Kirk Penney, Tucker and Devin Harris) all played for current Wisconsin head coach Bo Ryan.

- Besides being among UW's top 10 in career scoring, Tucker is also among the top 10 in these career categories:

- Field Goals - 7th (542)
- Free Throws - 7th (356)
- Free Throw Atts. - 4th (568)

- Tucker's numbers last season ranked him among the top 10 on the UW single-season lists for the following categories:

- Points - 5th (588)
- Field Goals - 4th (222)
- Field Goal Atts. - 3rd (490)
- Free Throw Atts. - 1st (233)
- Offensive Rebs. - T8th (75)

- Wisconsin scored 80 points against Minnesota, reaching the 80-point plateau for the ninth time in 2005-06. UW averaged 71.1 points per game last season, its highest scoring average since the 1994-95 season. The Badgers were 15-3 last year and 71-5 under Bo Ryan when scoring at least 70 points.

- Wisconsin, which finished the season at Michigan State and at Iowa, was the only Big Ten team to play consecutive road games with just one day in between last season. UW ended the season playing four NCAA tournament teams on the road or at neutral sites.

- On the season, UW grabbed a school-record 400 offensive rebounds. The Badgers led the Big Ten in offensive boards, averaging 12.9 per game.

- UW led the Big Ten in fewest turnovers per game at 11.6. That is the fifth-best average in school history. Bo Ryan-coached teams account for four of the top five turnover averages in UW annals.

- In the win over Minnesota on Feb. 26, the Badgers had four players (Alando Tucker, Kevin Gullikson, Kammron Taylor and Joe Krabbenhoft) score in double figures. Wisconsin is 43-3 under Bo Ryan when at least four Badgers score in double figures.

- The win over Minnesota was the ninth time during the 2005-06 season in which UW trailed in the second half and came back to win. Last season, the Badgers' record was 7-2 in games decided by six points or less. Over the last two years, Wisconsin's record is 14-3 in such games.

- Alando Tucker suffered a nasal injury against Wake Forest on Nov. 29 and wore a custom-made protective mask for 13 games. In those games he averaged 18.2 points and shot .428 (92-of-215) from the field and .455 (45-of-99) from the free throw line. He played without the mask in the final 13 games of the season and averaged 19.4 points per game, shooting .474 (93-of-196) from the field and .621 (59-of-95) from the line.

- Wisconsin went 93-36 (.721) in senior Ray Nixon's four years. Only Mike Wilkinson, with 93 wins in his four years, had a hand in as many wins as Nixon. He played in 82 UW victories, second-most in school history behind Wilkinson's 93.

Alando Tucker led the Big Ten in scoring and was a consensus first-team all-conference selection. He led the Badgers to the title in the season-opening Paradise Jam, averaging 22.7 points over the three games.

- Wisconsin used the same starting lineup in 29 of its 31 games last season. The only deviations were against Indiana when Michael Flowers started in place of Brian Butch (2/8) and Jason Chappell (3/10).

- Junior guard Kammron Taylor averaged 8.4 points and 24.0 minutes per game as a sophomore and had 10 double-digit scoring performances. Last season, Taylor was second on the Badgers in scoring at 14.2 ppg. and led the squad in minutes played (34.3 mpg.) He reached double figures in 24 of the Badgers' 31 games and had seven 20-point outings.

- Taylor led the Badgers with 67 3-point field goals, tied for eighth-most on UW's single-season list. He also paced Wisconsin in free throw percentage (.829), the 10th-best single-season mark in school history.

- Sophomore forward Brian Butch led the team in rebounding (6.0 rpg) and was third on the team in scoring (9.9 ppg), starting all but one game last season. This follows a freshman season in which Butch scored just 33 points and grabbed 20 rebounds in Big Ten play.

- Junior forward Jason Chappell entered the 2005-06 season having played just 59 minutes and scored just 18 points in his career. Last year Chappell started 30 games and was third on the team in rebounding.

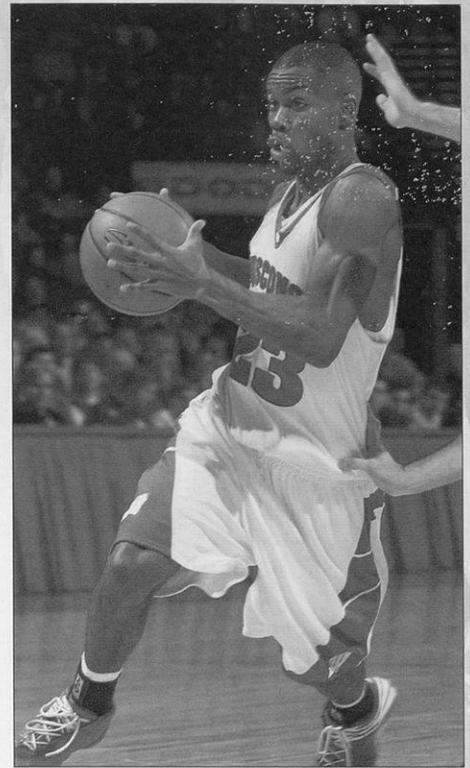

- Sophomore guard Michael Flowers was the Badgers' best perimeter defender. As the team's sixth man, Flowers averaged 24.5 minutes per game and led the team with 39 steals. Over the last six games of the season, Flowers averaged 8.3 points.

- Wisconsin received large contributions from a pair of true freshmen last season. Joe Krabbenhoft and Kevin Gullikson combined to average 31.9 minutes per game in Big Ten play.

- Krabbenhoft averaged 18.7 minutes during conference play, grabbing 5.1 rebounds per game. That was the second-best rebounding average in league play among freshmen. He also ranked fourth in assists among freshmen.

- Gullikson averaged 4.7 points, 3.3 rebounds and 17.4 minutes over the last 12 games. In the first 19 games of the season, Gullikson played a combined total of 19 minutes, scoring nine points and grabbing four rebounds.

- UW shot .471 (24-of-51) from the field against Minnesota on Feb. 26, improving to 13-1 last season (75-8 under Bo Ryan) when shooting better than 45.0 percent from the field. The Badgers were also 18-0 last year when having a better shooting percentage than their opponents.

Kammron Taylor was the second-leading scorer on the Badgers and was a consensus third-team All-Big Ten selection. He averaged 14.2 points per game and led the UW in assists, 3-pointers made, 3-point percentage and free throw percentage.

- In its 19 wins last season, Wisconsin shot .471 from the field. In its 12 losses, the Badgers shot just .372 from the field. Kevin Gullikson was the only Badger to shoot better than 40.0 percent from the field in the 12 losses.

- The Badgers made a season-high 29-of-36 (.806) free throws against Minnesota. It was the second time in the 2005-06 season that UW made better than 80.0 percent of its free throws. Wisconsin was 10-1 last season (42-4 under Bo Ryan) when attempting at least 25 free throws.

- The Badgers ranked third in the league in field goal percentage defense in league games (.416). UW was 15-2 when limiting its opponent to less than 45.0 percent shooting from the field last season.

- Junior guard Kammron Taylor hit a 3-pointer as time expired to lead the Badgers to a 54-51 win over UNC Wilmington on Dec. 12. Earlier in the season, against Eastern Kentucky, Taylor drained a long trey with 3.3 seconds left in the first overtime to send the game to a second OT.

- UW defeated Norfolk State, Eastern Kentucky and Old Dominion to win the 2005 Paradise Jam Tournament title in St. Thomas, USVI on Nov. 18-21. Alando Tucker was named the tournament's MVP and was joined on the all-tournament team by Kammron Taylor.

Game Credentials

Wisconsin uses an online credentialing system for both men's basketball and football. For instructions on how to use the online system, please contact Brian Lucas or Anne Franken in the UW Athletic Communications Office (608-262-1811). No emailed, faxed, mailed or telephone requests for credentials will be accepted. Upon receipt of applications, appropriate credentials are either mailed, or made available at the Athletic Communications Office or with the parking attendant (white vehicle) at the entrance to Lot 91 off of Bedford Street, just east of the Kohl Center.

Credentials will be issued according to the following priority guidelines: 1) National publications and newspapers filing for the following day's publication. 2) Newspapers designated by the visiting sports information director. 3) Television and radio stations originating a live broadcast. 4) Television and radio stations covering for nightly news. 5) All other requests will be evaluated on a space-available basis, with preferences given to those who regularly cover Wisconsin basketball.

Spouses, dates, children and other non-workers are not allowed in any of the media areas.

Scouting Tickets

As per Big Ten policy, professional basketball scouts must purchase tickets through the UW Ticket Office (1-800-GO-BADGERS or 608-262-1440).

Parking

A limited number of media parking passes are available. They will be issued on a priority basis similar to the guidelines for the issuance of credentials. Media parking at the Kohl Center is on the East side of the building along Frances Street as well as in Lot 91 and lot 46 (corner of Frances and Johnson). The media entrance is on the northeast corner of the Kohl Center.

Visiting Radio

Each visiting radio station admitted for broadcast should contact the UW Athletic Communications Office at least one week prior to the game they wish to cover. If credentials are not mailed, they may be picked up at the Athletic Communications Office. Visiting radio talent works from a courtside location at the Kohl Center.

Photographers

The University of Wisconsin follows NCAA and Big Ten guidelines regarding event photography. Floor photo passes are limited to daily newspaper, wire service and television photographers. Photographers must display their credentials prominently at all times and must work from either the southeast or northwest corners of the baseline. Photographers are not permitted along the length of the floor.

Practice Coverage

Wisconsin basketball practices for the fall semester will run from approximately 1:30-4:30 p.m. Practice will be open to the media after 3:30 p.m. Members of the media are asked to watch Kohl Center practices from the arena seats and practices in the Nicholas-Johnson Pavilion from the designated seating on the south side of the facility. Still and video photographers shooting practice are asked to remain off the court, on the baselines, and away from the vicinity of workouts. Gameday practice sessions are closed.

Player Interviews

Badger players are normally available for interviews after practices once before each game during the season.

All interviews should be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office. Please contact Brian Lucas at 608-263-5052 or prior to the end of practice to secure interviews. No interviews will be granted the day of a game, with the exception of postgame interviews.

Players' telephone numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted by phone without prior approval from a member of the Athletic Communications Office. For out-of-town reporters, requests for collect-call telephone interviews may be made with Brian Lucas of the Athletic Communications Office.

Coach Ryan Interviews

Head coach Bo Ryan will normally be available for interviews for approximately 15-20 minutes after practice.

Additionally, Ryan holds a weekly media conference throughout the season. These sessions are generally at 1 p.m. in the media room at the Kohl Center. Live video streaming of these press conferences will be available on the UW athletic department website, UWBADGERS.COM.

Contact Brian Lucas in the Athletic Communications Office to arrange an interview with Bo Ryan.

Big Ten Teleconference

The Big Ten will hold a weekly teleconference with the league's head coaches beginning in December. Coach Ryan will be available on this teleconference between 10:10-10:20 a.m. Contact Brian Lucas or the Big Ten Conference (847-696-1010) for details.

Press Row Services

The primary working area (approximately 40 seats) for the media at the Kohl Center is located on the second level (Section 208) on the east side of the floor. There also is an auxiliary media area in Section 210 of the Kohl Center that can accommodate an additional 20 seats. Television and radio broadcasters all work from the court level location.

Media are provided with several statistics monitors. Halftime boxes and play-by-play are delivered to both working media locations by the Athletic Communications staff.

Media Workroom

The Kohl Center is equipped with a large media workroom that contains the following:

- postgame interview area
- numerous working locations from which media can file stories
- platform for video cameras
- copy machine
- pre-game dining area
- kitchenette area where a pregame meal is served

Pregame notes, statistics and game programs are also available in the workroom.

Media may store personal belongings in the workroom from the time they arrive at the Kohl Center until after the game.

The workroom is located at the northeast corner of the arena with access to and from the press areas. To access the workroom from outside the arena, just enter through the media gate and proceed down the stairs on your right.

Telephones

All requests for installation of phone lines should be made to Dominic Osterhaus at the Kohl Center (608-265-8546). Cost per line per event is $100 ($140 for an unrestricted analog line or an ISDN line). Seating locations are determined by the UW Athletic Communications Office. Several courtesy phones in the media room will be made available by the UW Athletic Communications Office.

Internet Access

Wireless internet access is available for working media in the Kohl Center bowl (press row) and in the Kohl Center media room. Please see Brian Lucas or a member of the UW Athletic Communications staff for instructions on how to access the wireless network.

Postgame Procedures

Head coaches and selected players will be made available in the media workroom's interview area following each home game. Generally, the visiting coach and/or players will be available first, followed by Badger coach Bo Ryan and Wisconsin players.

Contact Brian Lucas of the Athletic Communications Office for postgame procedures on the road (vary from school to school). The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road.

A World Class University

Carly Piper, a 2004 U.S. Olympic gold medalist in swimming, proudly shows off her diploma from the University of Wisconsin.

The University of Wisconsin is a world-class university, nationally and internationally recognized for its academic excellence, incredible students, inspiring faculty, exceptional value and an amazing campus and community.

The UW was founded in 1848 with the first class of 17 students enrolling on February 5, 1849. Today, Wisconsin ranks as the nation's ninth largest university with 41,169 students.

On a single campus, students can find a complete spectrum of liberal arts studies, professional programs and student activities. As one of the nation's first land-grant universities, Wisconsin maintains a strong research emphasis in agricultural and life sciences. Award-winning research spanning the academic disciplines, however, has earned Wisconsin a place among the world's elite institutions of higher education. The quality of its undergraduate, graduate and research programs is recognized around the world.

Students can also take advantage of opportunities to study abroad, participate in honors programs, complete an internship, conduct hands-on research and take service-learning courses.

The flagship school of the state system, UW-Madison offers the only public schools of law, medicine and veterinary medicine in the state and is one of only two state-supported schools to offer doctoral degrees.

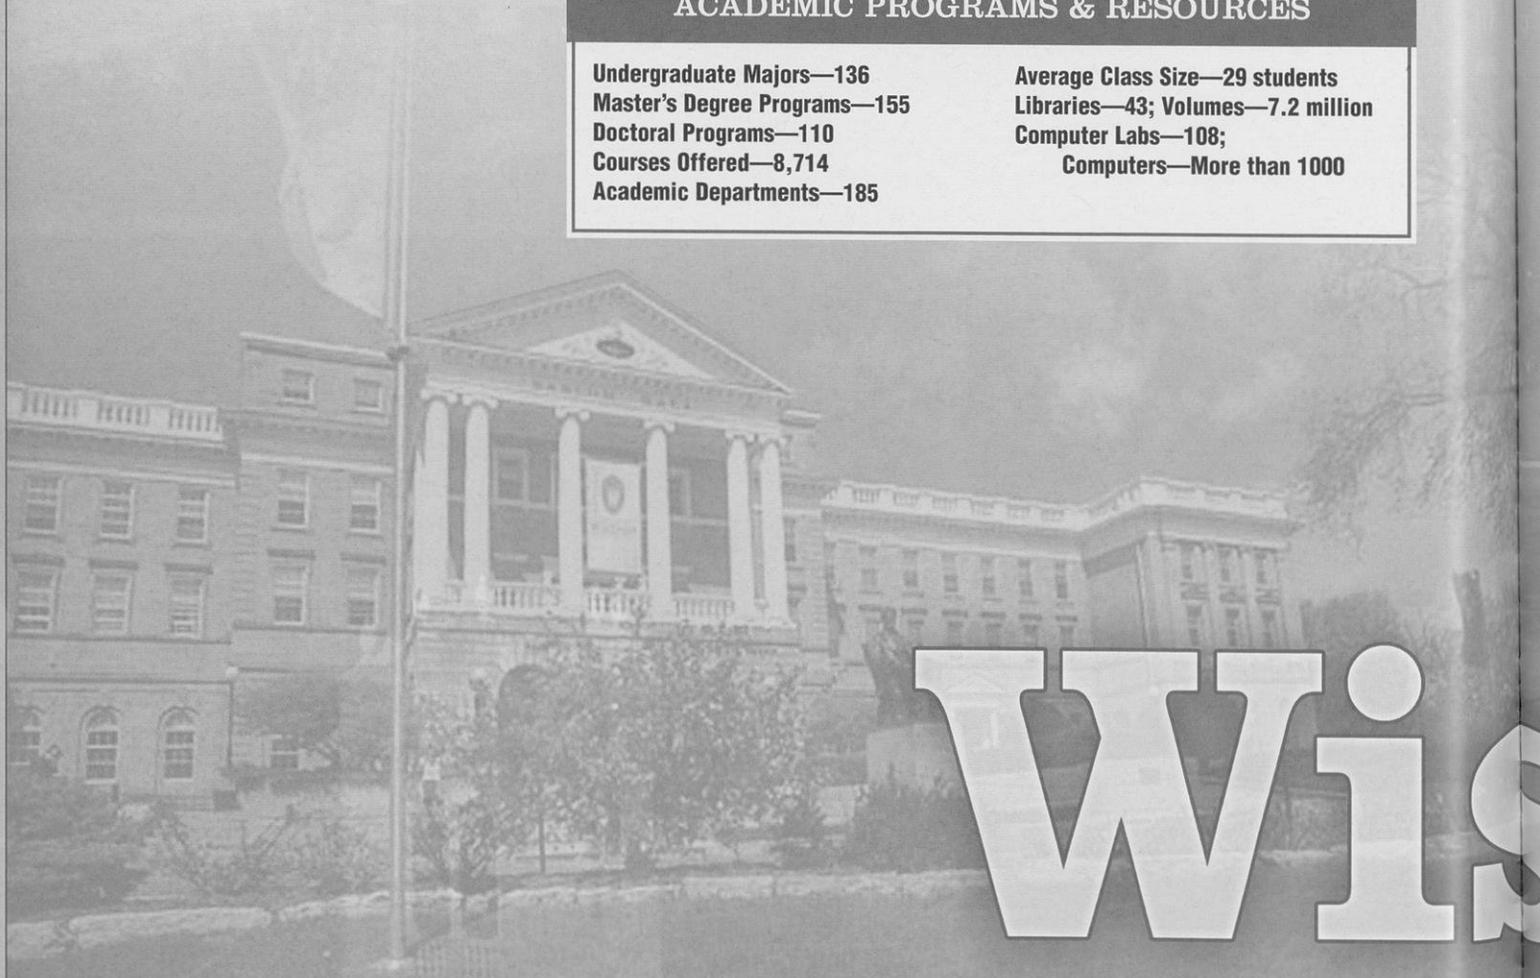

One of the most picturesque college campuses in the country, Wisconsin sits along the shore of beautiful Lake Mendota. The city of Madison and the University were designed to be linked, signifying the interrelated nature of academic and political life at Wisconsin.

Growing with the times to meet changing needs in education and research has kept the university great. With an eye to the future, the university continues to change, guaranteeing a community and environment where true learning can take place.

Student Life

Student life at Wisconsin is more than books, term papers and exams. Some of the most important lessons learned at Wisconsin occur far from any lecture hall or lab.

UW-Madison is a community that embraces diversity—both in the people who live, learn and work here, and in the experiences that enrich life in the classroom and beyond. Our students come from every state in the nation and some 120 countries, bringing an abundant mix of life experiences and cultures. The campus provides services and student life programs designed to meet a broad range of student needs and concerns.

More than 700 student organizations, extensive recreational programs, modern fitness facilities, performing arts groups, Big Ten athletics, and ongoing cultural, social, and political events will provide you with hundreds of ways to get involved and challenge yourself. Whatever your interests, you can connect with others who share your enthusiasm.

The hub of student life on campus is the Memorial Union. With good food, live music, freshly made Babcock ice cream, movies and study lounges, you can eat well, be entertained, enjoy a good book or good company. The Union welcomes more than 15,000 students through its doors each day. It's no wonder the Union is considered the "living room of campus."

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP HOSTS

Since 1993, the UW has hosted six NCAA championships and one NCAA men's basketball regional. Madison will also be the site of a hockey regional in 2008.

The Badgers played host to the NCAA Men's Ice Hockey Frozen Four in 1993, 1997 and 2006. All three events were sell-outs including the 2006 crowd that saw Wisconsin win the national title.

Wisconsin played host to the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in 1993 and 1998. The Badgers shattered the attendance records for the championship match and two-day event both years.

The UW was also the site of the 1998 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship. The event was the first national championship held at University Ridge Golf Course and the first women's championship shown live on national television.

The NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament came to Wisconsin in 2002 when the Badgers played host to a regional in the Kohl Center.

Wisconsin Traditions

Badger Nickname

The nickname “Badgers” was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin, which was dubbed the “Badger State.” The name didn’t come from the animals in the region, but rather from an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to “live like Badgers” in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bucky Badger

Although badgers in various forms had been the University of Wisconsin mascot for decades, the version that is currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by professional illustrator Art Evans.

In 1949, a student wore a badger outfit with a papier-mâché head at the homecoming game. A pep rally was held to determine the mascot’s name—Buckingham U. Badger.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song “You’ve said it all,” a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karen for Budweiser beer commercials. The song has become legendary at the UW because of its polka-like rhythm.

Fifth Quarter

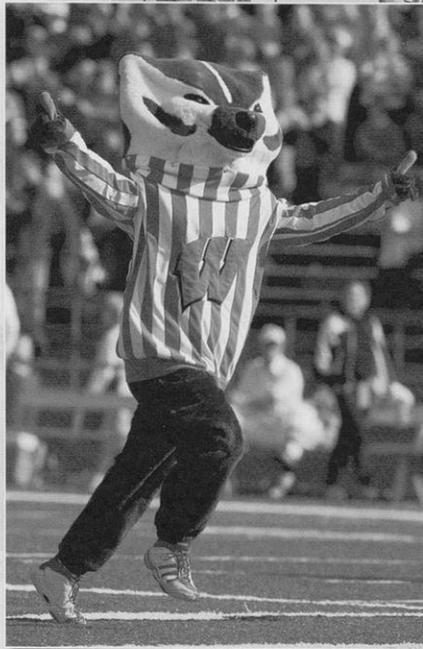

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer the band as it plays traditional favorites like “On, Wisconsin” and the Bud song.

On, Wisconsin

The tune was composed in 1909 by William Purdy, with the words written by UW alumnus Carl Beck, who rewrote them in 1951. Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs.

Hall of Fame

The UW Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1991 to recognize and honor former student-athletes and staff for their exemplary athletic achievement and contributions to the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department.

SCHOOL SONGS

Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time.
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame.
Fight fellows, Fight! Fight! Fight!
We'll win this game!

Praise to thee we sing

This is the Big Ten Conference

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 world-class universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within the mission.

Founded in 1896, the Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics in student-athletes' lives and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness.

Big Ten universities provide in excess of $89 million in athletic scholarship aid to more than 8,400 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women.

In 2005-06, the Big Ten distributed over $117 million in revenues to its 11 member institutions. Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams.

Big Ten Universities ...

- are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.
- have more than four million living alumni and over 300,000 undergraduate students attending Big Ten universities.
- house on their campuses nine of the nation's 30 largest academic libraries. Conference libraries hold more than 66 million book volumes and institutions freely share their materials with other league members.
- host more than 70 Nobel laureates as faculty, students, researchers or alumni
- enroll students of whom over 40 percent have graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class, while 74 percent graduated in the top quarter of their class.

Big Ten Athletics ...

- since 1992, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams.
- based on the federal graduation rate average for the 1995-98 freshman classes, Big Ten student-athletes graduated at 70 percent compared to 62 percent for all Division I student-athletes. As a conference, student-athletes tend to graduate at rates consistent with the general student body (71 percent). In 2006, the NCAA also introduced a new calculation- the Graduation Success Rate (GSR) - that accounts for transfer student-athletes. The Big Ten's GSR was 81 percent compared to the Division I average of 76 percent.
- recognized 1,992 Academic All-Big Ten honorees during the 2005-06 academic year, the highest total in the last decade. Over the past five years, the Conference has annually acknowledged nearly 1,700 student-athletes as Academic All-Conference honorees.
- has claimed at least four team national championships in seven of the last nine full seasons, including six national titles during 1999-2000 alone, the most for the conference in more than a decade. Big Ten national champions in 2005-06 included Northwestern women's lacrosse and three national crowns for Wisconsin in men's cross country and men's and women's ice hockey. The conference has also produced team national crowns in the sports of basketball, fencing, field hockey, football, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, synchronized

BIG TEN 9-11 SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Following the national tragedy on Sept. 11, 2001, the Big Ten, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The Big Ten made a presentation to Lumina Foundation for Education and the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of America™ (CSFA) to provide undergraduate and graduate degree scholarships at Big Ten member institutions. The conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund." The $1 million contribution will be drawn from conference reserves, which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular season television opportunities.

swimming, tennis, volleyball and wrestling over those nine seasons.

- led all conferences with nine institutions appearing among the top 30 in the 2005 Excellence in Athletics Cup, which was established in 2004 by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics at Texas A&M to recognize all-around achievement in athletics. The athletic departments for all NCAA Division I schools were evaluated based upon on-field success, graduation rate indicators, gender equity indicators and efficiency in using financial resources. While conferences were not ranked in the second annual study, the Big Ten was rated as the best among the six major conferences in the initial Excellence in Athletics Cup. The conference ranked among the top two in four categories including first in overall graduation rates and achieving gender equity and second in African-American student-athlete graduation rates and NCAA post-season competition.
- showcased more than 300 events that were televised nationally, regionally and locally last year, representing over 600 hours of programming.

Wisconsin: Life's So Good

Wisconsin, located in America's heartland, is a four-season travel destination offering both urban and rural vacations. Ranked a top travel spot in the United States, Wisconsin owes much of its popularity to its natural beauty, with two Great Lakes, Superior and Michigan, and the world's most famous river, the Mississippi, as well as 15,000 inland lakes.

Forty percent of the state is forested land, with 43 state parks and 11 state forests providing plenty of outdoor recreation. Wisconsin's also been described as having the best natural golf course landscape in the country.

In spring and summer, travelers enjoy water-related activities, including fishing, sailing and canoeing. Fall is the time for "colorama," when the leaves turn colors and the entire state offers spectacular scenic touring. Winter features ample cross-country and downhill skiing, sled dog races, sleigh rides and snowmobiling.
