IXI NEWS & NOTES

- ★ Indy Eleven has announced entry into top-tier professional academies for both boys and girls teams, competing in MLS NEXT and the ECNL, respectively, under the Eleven's crest as the Indy Eleven Pro Academy. The Indy Eleven Pro Academies will compete at the highest level of youth programming, effective July 1st onward following a partnership with the Indiana Fire Pro Academy. After the recent announcement of Indy Eleven's acquisition of a top-tier professional women's franchise in the Super League, it is adding these professional academies as it prepares to break ground on its new 20,000 seat downtown stadium as part of the Eleven Park transformational neighborhood development set to change the southwest quadrant of downtown Indianapolis.
- ★ The Eleven announced the signing of forward Roberto Molina, who spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons with USL Championship side Las Vegas Lights. In 45 appearances, including 30 during his rookie campaign, Molina tallied three goals and seven assists. Indy also added Academy signing Grayson Elmquist.
- ★ Indy Eleven announced its commitment to the USL Super League, a new professional women's soccer league kicking off in August 2024. The Eleven will join an initial group of 10-12 markets as pioneering members of this first division league in women's soccer.
- ★ The Indy Eleven women host Racing Louisville FC Friday, June 2 at 7 p.m. for their home opener after going 2-0 to open the 2023 campaign on the road. The team posted an undefeated regular season record in its inaugural year, going 10-0-2 in 2022.
