MATCH PREVIEW

On April 19 at 7:00 p.m., Angel City plays their first game in the 2023 Challenge Cup at home against OL Reign. The game will broadcast live in the US on CBSSN and internationally on NWSLSoccer.com; an English-language radio broadcast will be available on iHeart. For more information on broadcasts, click here.

Challenge Cup V 2.0

For the first time, the Challenge Cup is taking place concurrently with the regular NWSL season. For the two years following its inception in 2020, when it was held in an isolated “bubble” in Sandy, Utah, it became a preseason competition. The new format mirrors that of many other cup competitions globally, including the men’s US Open Cup and the English FA Cup.

Also new this year is a $1 million prize pool, the biggest ever in US women’s club soccer.

Like in 2022, the league is split into three groups of four teams, West, Central, and East; within each group, all four teams will play the other three teams twice each, home and away. ACFC is in the West region with Portland, Seattle, and San Diego.

“It’s definitely going to be different,” said forward Katie Johnson of the new schedule after Saturday’s game. “It’s in the middle of the season, and the games will have a different look and feel. At the beginning of the season, you’re still trying to form bonds and relationships with players. Now that it’s going to be mixed in, depth will be important for us, too.”

Midfielder Savannah McCaskill added that the team is serious about getting results in the Challenge Cup. “We really want to make a good run,” she said. “We don’t want to just put it aside and be like, ‘Oh, well, it’s an extra tournament.’ We really want to get results out of [the Challenge Cup] and I think it’ll be a good test.”

You can see Angel City’s full schedule for the tournament here.

Matchup

Angel City has played OL Reign four times in total, twice in last year’s Challenge Cup and twice in the regular season, losing all four games. In those matchups, ACFC scored four total goals while conceding nine; all but one was decided by one goal.

The Reign, who won the shield in 2022, are currently 2-1-0 (W-L-D) in the regular season, putting them in fourth place. Their one loss was on opening weekend away at Washington, a game that ended 1-0. ACFC are 1-1-2 so far in the regular season.

Their one loss was on opening weekend away at Washington, a game that ended 1-0. ACFC are 1-1-2 so far in the regular season.

Their most recent result was a 1-0 win at home against San Diego. That game was decided by an Olivia Van der Jagt goal late in second-half stoppage time.

Angel City’s last game was a 2-2 come-from-behind draw against Racing Louisville FC at home. Johnson and McCaskill each scored a goal for the home side.

Scouting Report

The Reign are a stacked team, with a laundry list of creating and scoring threats in players like Rose Lavelle, Jess Fishlock, Jordyn Huitema, Bethany Balcer, and Sofia Huerta. They are a perennially strong team with the most roster continuity of any NWSL club; three of their players, Fishlock, defender Lauren Barnes, and forward Megan Rapinoe, have been on the roster since 2013. Their head coach, Laura Harvey, began her current stint with the team midway through 2021, having previously coached in Seattle from 2013-2017.

Seattle’s lineup has only seen a few changes since 2022, with their biggest roster addition being USWNT defender Emily Sonnett, who they acquired in a trade with the Washington Spirit. Sonnett is a World Cup winner, two-time NWSL champion (with Portland in 2017 and Washington in 2021), and NWSL Shield winner with Portland in 2016. Though she has played center back for most of her NWSL career, Harvey has deployed her as a defensive midfielder so far this season.

OL also added forward Elyse Bennett, who had an impressive rookie season with the Kansas City Current in 2022. At 5’10, Bennett poses a significant aerial threat, but she’s much more than a target forward. In the minutes she got in 2022, she demonstrated significant skill as a creator, recording stats in the 90th percentile or above among forwards in the categories of progressive carries and progressive passes received per 90; she was in the 84th percentile among forwards in assists per 90.

ANGEL CITY SIGNS USWNT STAR MID-FIELDER JULIE ERTZ

Angel City confirmed that the team has signed US Women's National Team (USWNT) star midfielder Julie Ertz to the club's roster. Ertz, who is returning to the NWSL after a more than two-year hiatus following the birth of her son, signed a one-year contract.

"I am so thrilled to be joining one of the most exciting clubs in the world in Angel City FC," said Ertz. "From the moment they traded for my rights up until now, they have been unwavering in their support of my journey. I cannot wait to get to work with the team and finally experience the amazing game day atmosphere."

On her return to soccer after more than two years away from the pitch, Ertz said, "I feel like I am in a good place to come back now. I have a different perspective. It has been a joy to be a mom and learn my new identity in motherhood while also finding myself back in a space [soccer] that I have been in for so long."

"Julie is a world-class player who has proven herself time and again at both club and national team levels," said ACFC Head Coach Freya Coombe. "In addition to her quality on the ball, she will help us defend higher up the field and against opponent transition. Her leadership and World Cup and Olympic medal-winning experience will undoubtedly help us on our quest for a championship."

ANGEL CITY FC ORIGIN

In July 2020, Angel City Football Club (ACFC) launched as a US-based National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) expansion team and announced that we would be taking the pitch in April 2022. ## INAUGURAL SEASON OPENER

Angel City's inaugural season opener on April, 29, 2022 drew 22,000 fans to Banc of California Stadium. The sellout crowd was the second biggest for a season opener in NWSL history; the record holder is this week's opponent, the Orlando Pride, who drew 23,403 fans to their inaugural opener in 2016 at what is now Camping World Stadium.

The inaugural match attendance also:

- Outpaced attendance at 18 out of 28 MLS season openers in the 2022 season
- Was larger than the total capacity of all but four NWSL stadiums
- Was the fifth-largest crowd for a standalone NWSL game in regular-season history (last season OL Reign drew 27,278 to a doubleheader with the Seattle Sounders)
- Makes Angel City the second non-Portland team—after Orlando—to break into the top 10 best-attended NWSL games
- Was equal to roughly 1/9 the population of Cary, North Carolina, where the Courage are based.

ANGEL CITY FC TEAM EXECUTIVES

NATALIE PORTMAN

FOUNDER, ACTRESS AND ACTIVIST

Angel City Football Club is founded by Academy Award-winning actress and activist Natalie Portman, technology venture capitalist Kara Nortman, media and gaming entrepreneur Julie Uhrman, and Seven Seven Six founder and former Executive Chair of Reddit, Alexis Ohanian. Portman, who is on the board of Times Up, attended the Times Up Connect event and witnessed Abby Wambach speak about her playing career and the US Women's National Team's fight for equal pay. Natalie was riveted and engaged in conversations about the pay equity issue in women's sports. She approached Nortman, also on the Times Up board and a women's soccer fanatic. One day at lunch, Portman asked Nortman there wasn't a professional women's soccer team in LA, which led them down a path neither could have envisioned. In August 2019, Julie Uhrman was brought on by Portman and Kara Nortman to run the company and help them fulfill their mission and passion for bringing a professional women's sports team to Los Angeles as part of the National Women's Soccer League (NWSL).

JULIE UHRMAN

CO-FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

Julie Uhrman is the Co-Founder and President of Angel City Football Club (ACFC). ACFC is one of the only majority female-founded and run professional sports teams in the world and, in 2021, was named one of the world's most innovative companies by Fast Company Magazine. In addition to leading ACFC day to day, Uhrman is active in the Los Angeles sports and technology communities. She is a board member of the LA Sports and Entertainment Council, The Rose Bowl Institute, the LA Sports Council, an active executive in the LA Chapter of WISE (Women in Sports and Events), and is part of two SPACs focused on sports and gaming/entertainment. She is also part of the DraftKings' All-Star Network as an Advisor to Drive by DraftKings. Uhrman's accolades include being named a member of Adweek's 2021 and 2020 Most Powerful Women In Sports, one of the 100 Most Creative People in Business by Fast Company, and to the Creative 50 list by Advertising Age.

ALEXIS OHANIAN

LEADING FOUNDING INVESTOR

Alexis Ohanian, ACFC's leading founding investor, was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. and grew up in the suburbs of Baltimore, M.D. He wrote the national bestselling book, Without Their Permission, and has been a vocal advocate for the open internet, STEM education and paid family leave. Out of college, Ohanian co-founded Reddit, one of the largest websites in the U.S., which was funded by Y Combinator in 2005 and sold to Conde Nast in 2006. He returned as executive chairman in 2014 to help lead the turnaround of the now independent company that today is valued at over $10B. In 2016, he left Reddit to run the venture capital firm he co-founded, Initialized Capital, and built it to $100B in market value through early investments in companies like Coinbase, Opendoor, Instacart, Patreon, and Ro. In 2020, Ohanian resigned from the Reddit board in protest and left his role at Initialized Capital to found Seven Seven Six, a new firm built like a technology company that deploys venture capital.

KARA NORTMAN

FOUNDING INVESTOR

Kara is a Managing Partner at Upfront Ventures, the largest venture capital firm based in Los Angeles. Her notable investments include Parachute Home, Time by Ping, Endgame, Writer, Open Raven, Britive, and Fleetsmith (acquired by Apple in 2020). Over 50% of her portfolio is led by women CEOs. Kara is also a founding member of All Raise, a VC-led group dedicated to increased diversity in funders and founders, and is a founder of LA's women's soccer team, Angel City Football Club. Before Upfront, Kara co-founded the children's e-commerce company Moonfrye and also spent seven years at IAC where she co-headed the M&A group and acted as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of Urbanspoon and Citysearch. During her tenure at IAC, she led the initial investment in Tinder. Earlier in her career, she also spent time at Morgan Stanley, Microsoft, and Battery Ventures. She received her AB in Politics from Princeton University and her MBA from Stanford University. Nortman resides in Los Angeles with her husband and three daughters.
