MATCH PREVIEW

This Saturday, May 27, at 12:30 p.m., Angel City travels to play OL Reign for the first time in the 2023 regular season. The game will stream live in the US on Paramount+ and internationally at NWSLSoccer.com. An English-language radio broadcast will be available from iHeart.

Matchup

This will be Angel City's seventh all-time meeting with OL Reign, counting both Challenge Cup and NWSL matches across 2022 and 2023. The two teams have already played both Challenge Cup games for 2023; ACFC's all-time record against the Seattle side is 0-4-1 (W-L-D), including last year's two regular-season losses.

The Reign are currently sitting in fifth place with a 4-3-1 record. Their most recent result was a 4-1 loss at home to Gotham that saw the visitors up 4-0 by the 73rd minute, with Seattle's Jordyn Huitema scoring a consolation goal in the 77th minute.

Angel City are in ninth place with a 2-3-3 record. Their last game was a nil-nil draw on the road at North Carolina, which saw a gritty defensive performance keep the Courage off the board despite lopsided possession.

Scouting Report

OL is at a difficult moment in their season, having lost their last two matches—the 4-1 home game against Gotham, and a 1-0 away loss to North Carolina the previous week. But the Reign, a perennially strong team with the most NWSL originals of any club in Megan Rapinoe, Jess Fishlock, and Lauren Barnes—all of whom have played for the Reign since 2013—shouldn't be underestimated.

"OL Reign has been a consistent team over the last few years," said Head Coach Freya Coombe to the media this week, discussing the implications of having played the team in the Challenge Cup already. "I don't think playing them twice this season changes that."

Like many teams, the Reign rotated their lineup heavily in the two Challenge Cup matches they played against ACFC this year. "I anticipate that they'll go back to more of a regular starting lineup on Saturday," said Coombe. She also speculates that Reign coach Laura Harvey might make some changes after suffering two losses in a row. "We're always anticipating changes, particularly after their game last week against NJ/NY Gotham FC. They may look to change things up a little bit."

Three players, Fishlock, Huitema, and Bethany Balcer, are tied for top scorer for the Reign with three goals each, highlighting the range of scoring threats the team poses; this isn't a team whose attack will be easily stymied by shutting down one key player.

Home and Away

Saturday's matchup pits two teams with opposing strengths, record-wise, against each other: while Reign have only lost one game at home, winning three, Angel City have yet to lose away, with a win and two draws. ACFC's performances on the road have showcased the team's strong defense and gritty, determined mindset.

"We just have a grittier mentality when we're on the road," said midfielder Dani Weatherholt to the media. "It's helped us to pick up points on every road game so far... When we're on the road, we do the dirty work, the hard things, and have been able to grind out results. Nothing's changed, travel wise. It's more of a mentality piece."

Wind Beneath Their Wings

One of the strengths of Angel City's attack is its width—in particular, the playmaking punch provided by its wingers, in addition to its outside backs.

Not only does ACFC lead the league in crosses with 136 on the season—and have the second-most accurate crosses of any team, with 26—but wingers Jun Endo and Claire Emslie are both in the top five in the league for assists, with two each on the season. They also lead the team in chances created, with 16 each. Both players are strong crossers and are adept at setting up their teammates in other ways, whether that's by sending long passes up the wings or connecting shorter through balls.

2023 TRAINING QUOTES

ACFC Midfielder Dani Weatherholt's Quotes

Thoughts on the team's road form this season:

"We just have a grittier mentality when we're on the road. It's helped us to pick up points on every road game so far. We hope to keep that going and pick up a win this weekend, that's our plan. It's nice to pick up a tie on the road and get a point, but we're going for three this weekend."

"When we're on the road, we do the dirty work, the hard things, and have been able to grind out results. Nothing's changed, travel wise. It's more of a mentality piece."

On playing OL Reign for the third time and if preparation has been easier:

"It's actually our first regular season game against them, which adds a different element. It's going to be different players on the field, so we're excited for this game."

"Yes, we're tired of playing them so many times, but it's going to be a great game. It's a 12:30 p.m. kick-off because it's a double header that day. Having played against OL Reign when we did for the first time at Lumen Field, I know the second half is going to be close to 20,000 people in the stands. It's going to be a really awesome atmosphere and we're excited to go play there."

Memories that stand out during her tenure with OL Reign:

"I actually loved my time there. I was coming from Orlando and wanted to be surrounded by the best midfielders in the world. I got to play with Jess Fishlock, Dzenifer Marozsán came over from France, and Allie Long at the time. I found myself surrounded by really great midfielders, and I was at an age where I could look up to them, learn from them and I received a lot of mentorship from them."

"I have nothing but respect and love for Jess Fishlock. I learned a lot from her. It was tough navigating it during the pandemic. I was so excited to be there, although I only got a year there because I left the following year due to expansion. Overall, great team, great environment."

On what the club looks to improve on this week:

"Last week we didn't play our best, but we grinded out a point. This week we're looking to have a better performance, and keep the ball more. Last week we got into spells of just defending for a while and then we'd win it and give it away."

"We're looking to right when we win the ball, secure it, and have longer spells of possession because that has been one of our strengths this year. We were second in the league with possession, and the last game was not good enough for our standards. That's our goal for this upcoming game, which is to secure the ball when we win it back and then capitalize on our chances."

"You saw last game we had a couple of chances where we could have stolen three points on the road. We're really focusing on those moments and capitalizing on them."

ACFC Head Coach Freya Coombe's Quotes

Thoughts on upcoming match against OL Reign:

"We want to continue working on having more possession, following our game against North Carolina. We didn't have the ball as much as we liked, so that was a focus."

"We're very excited to go up to Seattle and face OL Reign. We've played them twice already this year in Challenge Cup matches. Heading up there knowing it's a League game and knowing the opponent pretty well, we're looking forward to competing."

On being unbeaten on the road and what has been the key:

"It's a very different environment when playing at home. We've been traveling well, and have a great team and a staff group that allows us to facilitate that."

"We're going into environments knowing that it's important to get points on the road. We go in wanting to cause an upset while playing with the freedom, which is fantastic. It can be hard at times to play at home, as great as the support is. It gives the players a chance to play with freedom. Overall, it's a different experience."

On playing OL Reign for the third time this year:

"OL Reign has been a consistent team over the last few years. I don't think playing them twice this season changes that. They have a consistent playing style. They have consistent lineups and have made a few changes in the Challenge Cup. I anticipate that they'll go back to more of a regular starting lineup on Saturday. We're always anticipating changes, particularly after their game last week against NJ/NY Gotham FC. They may look to change things up a little bit."

"Although they've been consistent, and Laura [Harvey] has a very consistent style with them, it's important that we go in and take them as they're going to present this week. We can't get too comfortable with knowing the opponent completely."

Angel City FC, in partnership with Gatorade, launched their second year of the ACFC Coach Network to build real coaching pathways for women and gender expansive individuals through a combination of education, mentorship, and access to paid coaching opportunities.

Through a partnership with the CalSouth Soccer Foundation, ACFC and Gatorade are creating pathways for individuals to access licensing courses at no cost. Members of the ACFC Coach Network will have opportunities to register for introductory level courses hosted by ACFC or apply for scholarships to join higher level courses hosted by affiliates of the CalSouth Soccer Foundation. May 6th marked the first of these career development opportunities where 14 female coaches were hosted by Nike LA HQ for a 9v9 Coach Training. The goal will be to host 3 more training courses in 2023, equating to a total of about 400 collective hours of training.

In addition to professional development, ACFC Coach Network members will have access to paid coaching opportunities across Los Angeles. ACFC ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH GROUP COACHING PLATFORM THE GRAND

On May 23, Angel City announced its partnership with The Grand, a group coaching platform and community enabling leaders to gain confidence and clarity as they navigate work and life. As the team's Official Leadership Coaching Partner and Supporting Level Partner, The Grand will offer group coaching to Angel City players, staff and non-profit partners.

The Grand will host in-person and virtual coaching sessions for players focused on leadership and empowerment. Each session will be expertly facilitated by a professional coach who has worked with top founders and executives. Additionally, The Grand will also offer coaching to help players and staff build confidence to better navigate major career and life transitions.

"The Grand and Angel City are mission aligned, and we see this partnership as an opportunity to create a collective movement. As a mom of two young girls, I was especially drawn to the organization and am excited that we can work towards creating a world where no one has to walk alone in work and life," said Co-Founder and CEO Anita Hossain Choudhry. "We believe that every person should have the chance to live up to their true potential and have a deep sense of purpose and belonging."

As a part of the club's Angel City Sponsorship Model, where 10% of each sponsorship is reallocated back into the community, The Grand will also provide coaching services and workshops to Angel City's network of nonprofit partners.

"Professional and personal growth is a really important piece of building a team and a culture, particularly at a start-up like Angel City that is growing rapidly," said Alex Mallen, Angel City's Director of Partnerships. "It is really important to our leadership to provide growth opportunities to both the front office and our players. The Grand is doing important work to create more access to professional coaching beyond senior-level professionals, which is so needed, particularly as industries and professionals reinvent what it looks like to be a productive and well-supported employee and team member."

Launched in February 2020 by community and coaching thought leaders Anita Hossain Choudhry and Rei Wang, The Grand's is on a mission to inspire everyone to be the grandest version of themselves. Through their combined experience at First Round Capital and Reboot.io, Choudhry and Wang have witnessed firsthand the power of building authentic communities with people at every level as they navigate the intersections of work and life.

"The Grand is passionate about the power of group coaching and it being accessible for everyone. We partner with companies who care deeply about their people and want to help them move forward in their careers and personal life with confidence and support," said Rei Wang, co-founder and Chief Product Officer of The Grand. "Creating a safe space for people who may be going through similar phases of life offers something invaluable to teams. INAUGURAL SEASON OPENER

Angel City's inaugural season opener on April, 29, 2022 drew 22,000 fans to Banc of California Stadium. The sellout crowd was the second biggest for a season opener in NWSL history; the record holder is this week's opponent, the Orlando Pride, who drew 23,403 fans to their inaugural opener in 2016 at what is now Camping World Stadium.

The inaugural match attendance also:

- Outpaced attendance at 18 out of 28 MLS season openers in the 2022 season
- Was larger than the total capacity of all but four NWSL stadiums
- Was the fifth-largest crowd for a standalone NWSL game in regular-season history (last season OL Reign drew 27,278 to a doubleheader with the Seattle Sounders)
- Makes Angel City the second non-Portland team—after Orlando—to break into the top 10 best-attended NWSL games
- Was equal to roughly 1/9 the population of Cary, North Carolina, where the Courage are based.

ANGEL CITY FC TEAM EXECUTIVES

NATALIE PORTMAN
FOUNDER, ACTRESS AND ACTIVIST

Angel City Football Club is founded by Academy Award-winning actress and activist Natalie Portman, technology venture capitalist Kara Nortman, media and gaming entrepreneur Julie Uhrman, and Seven Seven Six founder and former Executive Chair of Reddit, Alexis Ohanian. Portman, who is on the board of Times Up, attended the Times Up Connect event and witnessed Abby Wambach speak about her playing career and the US Women's National Team's fight for equal pay. Natalie was riveted and engaged in conversations about the pay equity issue in women's sports. She approached Nortman, also on the Times Up board and a women's soccer fanatic. One day at lunch, Portman asked Nortman there wasn't a professional women's soccer team in LA, which led them down a path neither could have envisioned. In August 2019, Julie Uhrman was brought on by Portman and Kara Nortman to run the company and help them fulfill their mission and passion for bringing a professional women's sports team to Los Angeles as part of the National Women's Soccer League (NWSL).

JULIE UHRMAN
CO-FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

Julie Uhrman is the Co-Founder and President of Angel City Football Club (ACFC). ACFC is one of the only majority female-founded and run professional sports teams in the world and, in 2021, was named one of the world's most innovative companies by Fast Company Magazine. In addition to leading ACFC day to day, Uhrman is active in the Los Angeles sports and technology communities. She is a board member of the LA Sports and Entertainment Council, The Rose Bowl Institute, the LA Sports Council, an active executive in the LA Chapter of WISE (Women in Sports and Events), and is part of two SPACs focused on sports and gaming/ entertainment. She is also part of the DraftKings' All-Star Network as an Advisor to Drive by DraftKings. Uhrman's accolades include being named a member of Adweek's 2021 and 2020 Most Powerful Women In Sports, one of the 100 Most Creative People in Business by Fast Company, and to the Creative 50 list by Advertising Age.

ALEXIS OHANIAN
LEADING FOUNDING INVESTOR

Alexis Ohanian, ACFC's leading founding investor, was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. and grew up in the suburbs of Baltimore, M.D. He wrote the national bestselling book, Without Their Permission, and has been a vocal advocate for the open internet, STEM education and paid family leave. Out of college, Ohanian co-founded Reddit, one of the largest websites in the U.S., which was funded by Y Combinator in 2005 and sold to Conde Nast in 2006. He returned as executive chairman in 2014 to help lead the turnaround of the now independent company that today is valued at over $10B. In 2016, he left Reddit to run the venture capital firm he co-founded, Initialized Capital, and built it to $100B in market value through early investments in companies like Coinbase, Opendoor, Instacart, Patreon, and Ro. In 2020, Ohanian resigned from the Reddit board in protest and left his role at Initialized Capital to found Seven Seven Six, a new firm built like a technology company that deploys venture capital.

KARA NORTMAN
FOUNDING INVESTOR

Kara is a Managing Partner at Upfront Ventures, the largest venture capital firm based in Los Angeles. Her notable investments include Parachute Home, Time by Ping, Endgame, Writer, Open Raven, Britive, and Fleetsmith (acquired by Apple in 2020). Over 50% of her portfolio is led by women CEOs. Kara is also a founding member of All Raise, a VC-led group dedicated to increased diversity in funders and founders, and is a founder of LA's women's soccer team, Angel City Football Club. Before Upfront, Kara co-founded the children's e-commerce company Moonfrye and also spent seven years at IAC where she co-headed the M&A group and acted as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of Urbanspoon and Citysearch. During her tenure at IAC, she led the initial investment in Tinder. Earlier in her career, she also spent time at Morgan Stanley, Microsoft, and Battery Ventures. She received her AB in Politics from Princeton University and her MBA from Stanford University. Nortman resides in Los Angeles with her husband and three daughters.
