LEADING OFF

HARRISON, N.J. - NJ/NY Gotham FC looks to cap off its history-making season in the NWSL Championship, when the club takes on OL Reign on Saturday at Snapdragon Stadium in San Diego (8 p.m. ET, CBS Television Network and Paramount+).

The club's rise to reach the NWSL Championship comes at a momentous moment for captain Ali Krieger, who will play the final game of her professional soccer career on the league's biggest stage.

In the NWSL Playoffs semifinal, the club defeated defending champions Portland Thorns 1-0 in extra time at Providence Park. After a scoreless regulation, Gotham FC finally broke through in the 107th minute with the game-winning goal from forward Katie Stengel. The ball deflected off a Portland defender and fell to midfielder Kristie Mewis, who played the ball first time to Stengel at the top of the box. The forward took a few touches away from goal then struck the ball with her left foot, which bent over the keeper and into the goal.

On Saturday, Gotham FC will look to secure its first NWSL Championship against OL Reign, when the match kicks off at 8 p.m. ET at Snapdragon Stadium.

Fifteen minutes into the match, Gotham FC opened up its attacking opportunities, as Lynn Williams dribbled into the box from the left flank and found Jenna Nighswonger. The rookie sensation took a left footed shot that was saved by the goalkeeper.

In the 30th minute, Gotham FC's Midge Purce served in a corner kick that found Williams for a header, but she redirected the ball over goal. Moments later, Delanie Sheehan gained possession near the box and chipped the ball over Portland's backline to Esther Gonzalez, but the forward and Portland goalkeeper Shelby Hogan collided with the ball going out for a goal kick.

The club finished the half outshooting Portland, 6 to 3, with Nighswonger taking three herself.

Gotham FC continued to push forward in the opening minutes of the second half. In the 49th minute, Purce drove across the field and played in Esther who settled the ball out of the air and tried to curl the shot to the back post, but the goalkeeper saved the shot.

Goalkeeper Mandy Haught was called into action in the 79th minute to help keep Portland scoreless. Portland Thorns forwards Crystal Dunn and Sophia Smith broke away on a counter attack. Dunn played a leading ball to Smith, but Haught anticipated the pass and smothered the ball at Smith's feet.

LAST MEETING GOTHAM FC 4, REIGN FC 1

SEATTLE — Gotham FC secured a dominating victory over the reigning Supporters' Shield winners OL Reign on Sunday at Lumen Field in Seattle. With four goals scored by four different goal scorers, Gotham FC has ascended into first place in the National Women's Soccer League standings with 16 points.

The scoring started early, when in the 10th minute, midfielder Jenna Nighswonger, who started at defense, cranked a shot from distance, burying the ball into the bottom right corner. Nighswonger was assisted by midfielder Kristie Mewis. The goal marks Nighswonger's second of her rookie season and the second time she has scored in the first half after she opened the scoring in Gotham FC's 2-1 win over the Chicago Red Stars on May 7.

Two minutes after Nighswonger's goal on Sunday against OL Reign, Gotham FC forward Lynn Williams beat her defender, putting Reign goalkeeper Phallon Tullis-Joyce on her heels in a one-on-one in the box to score in the back left corner of the goal. It is the fastest in club history that Gotham has scored two goals in a regular season match.

Gotham FC's third goal came in the 38th minute, when midfielder Sinead Farrelly passed the ball to forward Delanie Sheehan, who played in forward Taylor Smith. Smith struck her shot from the center of the box, sinking the ball into the left side.

In the 24th minute, Gotham FC goalkeeper Abby Smith - NWSL Player of the Week presented by Bud Light - made a huge save after Reign forward Jordyn Huitema broke through the defense for a shot from the left side to preserve the 2-0 scoreline. She came up with another first-half save in the 44th minute, grabbing a shot from Reign forward Bethany Balcer to maintain the club's clean sheet through the first half.

In the second half, the goalkeeper made another crucial save in the 59th minute, coming out to block Balcer's shot on a counter attack.

Scoring the club's fourth and final goal was Gotham FC and Brazilian National Team defender Bruninha, who notched her first NWSL career goal after striking from close range to bring the score to 4-0.

Gotham FC goalkeeper Abby Smith made multiple big plays to foil OL Reign's attempts at scoring. However, in the 77th minute, Reign forward Huitema finished off a corner kick for the 4-1 final result.

With Sunday's performance, Gotham FC became the first NWSL team to score three goals against OL Reign in the first half.

JUAN CARLOS AMORÓS

HEAD COACH

Juan Carlos Amorós was named Gotham FC head coach on November 1, 2022. The 38-year-old Amorós, who last season led the Houston Dash as its interim head coach to a fourth-place finish and the team's first-ever NWSL playoff appearance, has been signed by Gotham FC to a three-year contract.

Amorós brings a wealth of experience across global soccer to Gotham FC, having served as a head coach of clubs in the top leagues in Spain, England, and the U.S. Prior to his stint in Houston, Amorós was coach of Real Betis Féminas from 2021 - 22 and led them to a club-record unbeaten streak in Spain's top division.

Before Real Betis, Amorós enjoyed enormous success as a coach in England. Over five years, he helped lead Tottenham Hotspur FC Women from the third tier in England to the FA Women's Super League. In 2019, Tottenham was promoted to the Super League after finishing second in the second-division FA Women's Championship League. He earned Manager of the Year honors that season, and won the same honor while coaching Tottenham Hotspur in the third-division FA Women's National League.

In the 2022 NWSL season, Amorós began his tenure as interim head coach of the Houston Dash on July 16 with a 4-1 win over Chicago. He led Houston to a 6-3-2 record as the club earned the first playoff berth in its nine-year history.

Amorós holds a UEFA PRO license - the highest-level UEFA license attainable - and received a diploma in Football Management from the League Managers Association Institute of Leadership and High Performance. He has also participated in elite coaching courses with the Royal Spanish Football Federation, and in 2018 earned a Master of Business Administration from Autonomous University of Madrid.
