HEAD COACH MIKE NORRIS

Mike Norris was named Thorns FC head coach on Jan. 9, 2023, becoming the fifth head coach in club history. The 2023 season is Norris' second with the club. He arrived in Portland in 2022 and served as an assistant coach in his first season.

Norris earned his first win as a head coach on March 26, 2023, which was also the club's 100th regular season win. He became the fourth Thorns FC coach to earn his first win in his first game as head coach.

In his first season in 2022, Norris helped Portland win the club's third NWSL Championship. Thorns FC finished second in the NWSL table with a record of 10-3-9 and made a sixth consecutive trip to the NWSL postseason. Statistically, Portland scored a league-best 45 goals, the third-most goals in a single season in NWSL history and posted a +25-goal differential.

Prior to his arrival in Portland, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer in numerous capacities. From 2019-2021, Norris served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

From 2014-19, Norris coached with the U-17 and U-20 women's national teams for Canada. He was as an assistant coach with the U-17s and the goalkeeping coach and interim head coach with the U-20s, while also providing support to the senior team during qualification tournaments. In addition, Norris worked as the head goalkeeping coach for the U-14 and U-15 Vancouver Whitecaps FC Boys Residency teams (2014-16).

A native of Newcastle, England and a long-time resident of Burnaby, B.C. since 2006, Norris currently resides in Lake Oswego with his wife and two daughters.

THORNS VS. OL REIGN

Today's match is the 37th across all competitions between Thorns FC and OL Reign and the third meeting in 2023 between the two sides. Portland won the regular season meeting 2-0 at June 3 at Lymen Field with goals from Sophia Smith and Christine Sinclair. OL Reign edged Portland in the Challenge Cup at Providence Park on June 28, earning a 1-0 win. Notably, Thorns FC have been unbeaten in their last three trips to Lumen Field across all comps (1-0-2). In the last 10 meetings across all comps, OL Reign has only scored multiple goals three times against Portland. During that same 10 game span, the two teams have played to three draws or have played in 4 games that have been decided by a single goal. Only one of those 10 games has been won by multiple goals.

MULTIPLES

Portland is unbeaten this season when scoring multiple goals in a match with a record of 9-0-2 across all competitions. Hannah Betfort recorded her first career brace against San Diego in Portland's 4-1 Challenge Cup victory on July 21. She also added an assist. Meghan Klingenberg recorded two assists in the match becoming the sixth player to record a multi-assist game in Challenge Cup play. Klingenberg has three assists in her last three games across all comps, while Betfort has three goals and one assist in her last three matches across all comps.

NOTABLE CHALLENGE CUP STATS

With a start against OL Reign, Meghan Klingenberg would become the fourth player to start in at least 20 Challenge Cup matches. With an assist, Klingenberg could become just the third player to reach five career Challenge Cup assists, joining Hailie Mace (6) and Maria Sánchez (5). Both Taylor Porter and Reyna Reyes are the only two players to start all five Challenge Cup matches. Alyssa Walker and Kayla Morrison both made their NWSL debuts in the Challenge Cup. Walker on July 21 against San Diego and Morrison on July 29 against Angel City FC.

CHALLENGE CUP NOTES

- Portland and North Carolina are the only two NWSL teams to have won the NWSL Challenge Cup, NWSL Shield and NWSL Championship. Thorns FC won the Shield and Challenge Cup in the same season (2021).
- Since the beginning of 2022, Portland has scored at least three goals in four different Challenge Cup matches, which is the most of any club in that time.
- Thorns FC have scored 26 total Challenge Cup goals with five goals in the opening 15 minutes of the match. Portland is 4-0-1 in the matches in which the team has scored in the first 15 minutes.
- Portland earned its ninth Challenge Cup win on July 21, 2023, which is the third-most in the history of the tournament.
- Thorns FC have recorded seven shutouts in Challenge Cup play, which is tied for third-most in the tournament.
- Mike Norris served as the acting head coach for one match in 2022 during the Challenge Cup - a 1-0 loss to Angel City on April 24.
- Weaver scored her first goal with the club in the 2020 NWSL Challenge Cup, tallying the game-winner in the quarterfinals of the tournament against North Carolina.
- Morgan Weaver is one of two players to have at least one goal in all four editions of the Challenge Cup (along with Debinha), but 2023 is her first Challenge Cup campaign with multiple goals.
- Weaver's six goals in the Challenge Cup are the most by a Thorns player in the tournament.
- With her third goal of the tournament on July 29 against San Diego, Weaver equaled Sophia Smith's record for three goals in the tournament for Portland set in 2022.
- Weaver has four game-winning goals in the Challenge Cup which is tied for most in the tournament's history with Rachel Daly.
- Against Angel City, Morgan Weaver scored her third goal of this season's Challenge Cup, which is tied with four others for most in the competition. Weaver joins Savannah DeMelo and Debinha as the only players in 2023 with three or more goals in both the Challenge Cup and the NWSL regular season.
- Natalia Kuikka and Meaghan Nally both made their club debuts in the 2021 Challenge Cup.
- Four different goalkeepers have registered a shutout for Portland in the Challenge Cup (Abby Smith, Britt Eckerstrom, Bella Bixby, Adriana Franch).
- Bella Bixby earned her first career Challenge Cup win against Angel City on March 30, 2022.
- Natalie Beckman made her professional debut, starting and logging 90 minutes while also recording an assist in the Challenge Cup against Angel City on March 30, 2022.
- Meghan Klingenberg and Kuikka are the only two players with multiple assists in the Challenge Cup for Portland. Klingenberg has four assists, which is tied for third-most in the tournament's history.
- In total, eight current players have at least one assist - Hannah Betfort, Olivia Moultrie, Christine Sinclair, Izzy D'Aquila, Weaver, Rodriguez, Klingenberg, Natalia Kuikka and Beckman.
- In her first professional start, Izzy D'Aquila tallied her first professional goal and added her first assist as well in Portland's Challenge Cup win against Angel City on May 31.
- Michele Vasconcelos made her Challenge Cup debut for Portland against Angel City on May 31, scoring her first goal of the tournament.
- Olivia Moultrie recorded her first career assist in the Challenge Cup against Angel City on May 31.
- Kelli Hubly has played the second-most minutes (1776) of any field player in Challenge Cup history.
- Hannah Betfort is one of three players with a brace in the 2023 Challenge Cup along with Debinha and Savannah DeMelo. Betfort is the second Portland player to record a Challenge Cup brace along with Hina Sugita who notched one during the 2022 tournament.
- Betfort and Reyes became the 11th and 12th different players to score a Challenge Cup goal for Portland in the history of the tournament.
