HEAD COACH MIKE NORRIS

Mike Norris was named Thorns FC head coach on Jan. 9, 2023, becoming the fifth head coach in club history. The 2023 season is Norris' second with the club. He arrived in Portland in 2022 and served as an assistant coach in his first season.

Norris earned his first win as a head coach on March 26, 2023, which was also the club's 100th regular season win. He became the fourth Thorns FC coach to earn his first win in his first game as head coach.

In his first season in 2022, Norris helped Portland win the club's third NWSL Championship. Thorns FC finished second in the NWSL table with a record of 10-3-9 and made a sixth consecutive trip to the NWSL postseason. Statistically, Portland scored a league-best 45 goals, the third-most goals in a single season in NWSL history and posted a +25-goal differential.

Prior to his arrival in Portland, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer in numerous capacities. From 2019-2021, Norris served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

From 2014-19, Norris coached with the U-17 and U-20 women's national teams for Canada. He was as an assistant coach with the U-17s and the goalkeeping coach and interim head coach with the U-20s, while also providing support to the senior team during qualification tournaments. In addition, Norris worked as the head goalkeeping coach for the U-14 and U-15 Vancouver Whitecaps FC Boys Residency teams (2014-16).

A native of Newcastle, England and a long-time resident of Burnaby, B.C. since 2006, Norris currently resides in Lake Oswego with his wife and two daughters.

LATE GAME HEROICS

Portland scored its sixth goal after the 75th minute this season on May 26 at San Diego, which is the most in the league. Notably, four of those goals have come after the 75th minute in road games. It was also the team's third game-tying goal after the 80th minute. Reyes' goal is the second game-tying goal for Portland in the 90th minute or later this season. The latest goal was scored by Bella Bixby in the 97th minute in a 3-3 draw at home against Angel City on April 29. Morgan Weaver also notched the game-winner in Portland's 3-2 Challenge Cup win against Angel City on May 31. It was the fourth stoppage-time game-winning goal in the club's history and Weaver has scored two of those goals.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Individually, Portland has three players that have scored three or more goals in NWSL regular season play with only OL Reign having more: Dunn (5), Smith (4), Weaver (3). Reyna Reyes scored her first professional goal against San Diego on May 26. In total, 12 different players have scored a goal this season for Thorns FC, which is the most of any team in the league, with three of the last five goals being scored by defenders. Notably, Portland has had at least 10 different goal scorers in each of the 4 regular seasons. In the last six games, nine different players have scored a goal for Thorns FC.

THORNS FC AVAILABILITY REPORT

OUT: Janine Beckie (SEI - Knee), Rocky Rodríguez (Knee)

QUESTIONABLE: None

(as of June 2, 2023)

NOTES VS. OL REIGN

- The last two matches between Portland and OL Reign at Lumen Field have finished in a draw.
- Today's match is part of a doubleheader with the Timbers and Sounders. It is the second doubleheader between the Cascadia rival, and the first since 2021. OL Reign won that meeting by a scoreline of 2-1.
- The Reign and Thorns FC will be meeting for the 35th time in all NWSL competitions, breaking a tie with Washington vs. Gotham for the most matches in NWSL history.
- Hina Sugita earned her first regular season start against OL Reign on May 13, 2022.
- Sam Coffey and Sugita made their NWSL debuts against OL Reign in the 1-1 draw between the two sides to open the 2022 NWSL Challenge Cup on March 18.
- Meaghan Nally earned her first career NWSL start against OL Reign on March 18 in the Challenge Cup.
- Morgan Weaver scored her first career NWSL regular season goal against OL Reign on Oct. 13, 2021, at Providence Park.
- Meghan Klingenberg made her 100th career appearance for Thorns FC against OL Reign on Oct. 13, 2021.

SETTING THE TABLE

Sam Coffey tallied her fourth assist of the season, setting up Reyna Reyes' game-tying goal at San Diego on May 26. The Portland midfielder finished with a game-high four chances created. Coffey has three assists in her last two regular season games for Portland. Her four assists rank tied as the second-most in the NWSL this season, while she also ranks second in the league in chances created (20).

ALL WE WANT IS GOALS

Dating back to the 2022 season, Thorns FC have scored multiple goals in 10 of their last 15 regular season games, including three or more goals in eight of those games. Portland has scored in its last 13 regular season games, tallying 34 goals during that span. Thorns FC have scored multiple goals in six of their eight matches in 2023. The Thorns have scored in 16 straight regular season matches on the road, one game shy of tying for the longest such streak in NWSL history, held by Orlando (17 straight from June 2019 to August 2021).

DOUBLEHEADER

Today's match marks the fourth time Thorns FC and the Timbers have participated in a doubleheader – the third time on the road. This will be the second Portland-Seattle doubleheader. Thorns FC also earned a 3-2 win on the road on March 31, 2018 against the Chicago Red Stars, while the Timbers played to a 2-2 draw with the Chicago Fire in the opening match.

MILESTONES

Emily Menges is two appearances away from reaching 150 career NWSL appearances, which would all be with the same team. Only five players have played 150 games all with the same team. With her next goal, Sophia Smith will move into sole possession of third-most goals all-time for Portland. Her next assist will be the 10th of her career, she would become the sixth player to reach double-digits assists in career with the club. Additionally, Smith would join Christine Sinclair and Allie Long as one of three players with at least 25 goals and 10 assists with the club. Meghan Klingenberg needs one more assist to become the second player in club history to reach the 20 assist mark, joining Tobin Heath (24 assists). Additionally, Klingenberg is six games away from 150 games played in her NWSL career. Sophia Smith, Morgan Weaver and Michele Vasconcelos are all two games away from 50 games played in their NWSL careers. Crystal Dunn needs two more goals to reach 40 goals for her NWSL career. Kelli Hubly is just six minutes from reaching 5,000 career NWSL minutes played.
