RED BULL ARENA

MATCH PREVIEW

This Sunday, July 2, at 2:30 p.m. PST, Angel City is on the road against NJ/NY Gotham FC for a rematch of this season's home opener. The match will be broadcast locally on Bally SoCal and will stream in the US on Paramount+ and internationally at NWSLSoccer.com. An English-language radio broadcast will be available on iHeart.

Matchup

This will be Angel City's fourth meeting all-time with Gotham. Last year the two teams split the results, with ACFC losing 0-1 at home and winning 3-1 on the road; in their first meeting this year, Gotham beat their hosts 2-1 following goals by forwards Lynn Williams and Midge Purce for Gotham, and one by forward Alyssa Thompson for Angel City.

Gotham are currently in fifth place in the league with a 6-4-3 (W-L-D) record. Their most recent result was a 2-1 win over Chicago at home in Harrison, NJ that saw goals by Williams and midfielder Allie Long.

Angel City are in ninth place with a 3-6-4 record. Their last league game was a 0-0 draw at home against Houston. The team won a midweek 2023 UKG NWSL Challenge Cup game 2-1 against San Diego Wave FC on the strength of first-half goals by midfielders Madison Hammond and Clarisse Le Bihan.

Scouting Report

Like many teams in the league, Gotham has a handful of key players headed to the World Cup, three of them—Williams, midfielder Kristie Mewis, and defender Kelley O'Hara—having already departed for US Women's National Team camp.

Losing Williams, the team's leading scorer, is a blow, as is losing one of the team's top playmakers in Mewis. The 32-year-old midfielder, who is headed to her first World Cup, has been a crucial piece for Gotham, leading the team in chances created, with 27, and passes into the final third, with 95.

However, just as Williams and Mewis are leaving, Gotham has gotten another attacking threat back, as forward Midge Purce returned from a 10-week-long injury last weekend against Chicago. She's played just 226 minutes, but based on her performance in that time, she looks prepared to fill some of the gaps left by both Williams and Mewis.

Purce has two goals and two assists on the season; she also has about two shots on goal per 90 minutes played and about 3.6 chances created per 90—compared with Williams's 2.3 shots on goal per 90 and Mewis's 2.3 chances created per 90. While it's true that Purce's data set is limited, those numbers nevertheless point to her being ready to help make up for Williams and Mewis's absence.

An Object in Motion Stays in Motion

Angel City are undefeated in the last three games across all competitions, with a win and a draw in their regular-season contests and a win in the UKG NWSL Challenge Cup. While that win doesn't affect the NWSL standings, it's still important as the team builds momentum coming off a string of disappointing results.

"Coming off the San Diego win, in San Diego, is definitely a big momentum boost for us," midfielder Lily Nabet told media this week. "I credit a lot of that to Becki [Tweed] and how hard she's worked, bringing the team together. The team as a whole is growing and we feel more connected than ever. Then, getting a point against Houston at home was big for us—plus the win last night was awesome."

The team improved markedly between last weekend and their midweek Challenge Cup game when it comes to finishing. Against Houston, ACFC had 12 total shots, including four on goal, and recorded 1.2 expected goals (xG), but failed to score. Against San Diego, they converted two goals out of 15 shots on target.

"We've been looking at it and knew it was an area of the game that we needed to improve with creating and finishing more chances," said Tweed. "The finishing piece is still a work in progress. For us, we're still looking to build on that, while creating an identity in the final third. Who do we want to be? I said last night that we want to be unpredictable, but also at the same time, we need to be predictable to our teammates so that we can connect and be smart in the final third, knowing what each other are doing."

"What runs are we making, what spaces are we looking to exploit? That's something we've worked really hard on the last couple of weeks and you can see that pay off now."

2023 TRAINING QUOTES

ACFC Midfielder Lily Nabets's Quotes

On what to expect against NJ/NY Gotham FC:

"Going on the road is always a tricky one, and they're a good team. We're focusing on ourselves and things we can get better on after last night's [Challenge Cup] game. We're going to keep growing and hopefully put on a good performance."

On coming off great wins in the past few weeks and her development and growth personally:

"Coming off the San Diego win, in San Diego, is definitely a big momentum boost for us. I credit a lot of that to Becki [Tweed] and how hard she's worked, bringing the team together. The team as a whole is growing and we feel more connected than ever. Then, getting a point against Houston at home was big for us plus the win last night was awesome."

Personally, my development and growth the past few games and weeks goes just to my teammates and the coaching staff for how much they've prepped not only me but the entire squad. We're riding off this momentum right now and going to keep growing and figuring out the things we need to fix."

On some of the best advice she receives from her teammates and coaches:

"My teammates and coaching staff have just told me to be patient and stay patient. They tell me that my game isn't going to grow in one or two weeks, two months, or three months."

"It's a constant thing you have to put work and effort in. So just to stay patient, learn from my mistakes, and that it's okay to make mistakes was a big one for me. I'm constantly on the go, watching film, and trying to fix mistakes. They're telling me those things have to happen for me to grow as a player."

ACFC Interim Head Coach Beci Tweed's Quotes

On playing NJ/NY Gotham FC with players going to the World Cup and what's different than the first match:

"It's the same for both teams. We're both going to be without the players that have gone to the World Cup. For us, it's remaining to build on last night's performance and remaining to build on our identity. Gotham is losing Lynn [Williams], Kristie [Mewis], and Kelley [O'Hara], which are three big players for them."

"The question is how can we look at spaces that we want to target and hurt them. We prepare for moments like this. We prepare with a squad of players that can step in and do the roles. So it doesn't change a crazy amount for us."

On what she saw from NTRP Eddy Elizabeth:

"Adding depth to the roster and options in multiple positions is really important. Liz [Eddy] coming in, it was an easy transition. She's played in the league, she's experienced, and she's versatile. You know what you're going to get, so for her to come into the environment, be competitive, and push for places straight away is really key and important, especially with the national team players gone."

"They'll be traveling, they'll be in the squad and we'll look at the game and how it's going. If we need to use them and if we choose to use them, we will."

On the team's recent ability to create changes and scores goals:

"We've been looking at it and knew it was an area of the game that we needed to improve with creating and finishing more chances. The finishing piece is still a work in progress. For us, we're still looking to build on that, while creating an identity in the final third. Who do we want to be? I said last night that we want to be unpredictable, but also at the same time, we need to be predictable to our teammates so that we can connect and be smart in the final third, knowing what each other are doing."

"What runs are we making, what spaces are we looking to exploit? That's something we've worked really hard on the last couple of weeks and you can see that pay off now."

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

ANGEL CITY FC X BIRDIES SOAR INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Angel City Football Club has teamed up once again with BIRDIES to launch the SOAR Internship Program for high school students across Los Angeles. Together, we are allocating 10% of the value of Birdies' sponsorship to put into action our deeply-held belief that women can go everywhere with the right support system.

In its third year, the SOAR Internship Program will expose young women to careers in sports, business, and entrepreneurship by introducing them to the leaders of female-founded organizations like ACFC and BIRDIES. By exposing the youth to such career opportunities, the team hopes to introduce participants to careers they may want to pursue. These eight salaried positions give interns exposure to corporate workplaces, leadership guidance, and funds to keep moving forward academically. The program also grants these interns first-hand access to key leaders, employees, and projects at both ACFC and Birdies.

The six-week program follows a curriculum consisting of weekly educational sessions, workshops, and career panels focusing on leadership, teamwork, sports, entrepreneurship, and public speaking.

Interns alternate on days dedicated to panels and job shadowing. Through these activities, interns interact with Birdies staff, ACFC staff, and leaders within ACFC's extended network. The program concludes with a final project presentation to ACFC and Birdies leadership.

Each intern will receive a $3,000 scholarship for participation and completion of the internship.

ANGEL CITY EXTENDS CONTRACT WITH DEFENDER AND CAPTAIN ALI RILEY

On June 29, Angel City announced that team captain and defender Ali Riley has agreed to a contract extension through the end of the 2025 NWSL Season. Riley joined the team in December 2021 via a trade with the Orlando Pride. She was named team captain ahead of the club's inaugural match in April 2022.

"This is my home. Being at Angel City is more than my job. It is my life. Angel City is me," said Riley. "I identify so much with the club. I feel so privileged and motivated. I get so much energy being a part of this club because this is more than soccer. It is about community, love, belonging, inclusiveness, equity and support—all of these things that mean so much to me. Having a contract extension like this shows the club's investment in me. To have this kind of security in my life, I can give even more and be able to be home for the foreseeable future."

"There are so many things that I want to achieve at this club. I want to win a championship. But most importantly, I want us to get to the level where our performances on the field match the support we get from our fans, our supporters, and my family," Riley continued. "I now have more time to achieve these dreams and I am so excited and so committed. To have the club committed to me in return, I know in my whole heart that this is where I am meant to be."

Riley, who recently reached 50 career NWSL match appearances, has been ACFC's team captain for the past two seasons, totaling 2,320 minutes on the pitch in 31 appearances. She scored her first two NWSL career goals and assists in the club's 2022 inaugural season.

In 2020, Riley signed with the Orlando Pride prior to the 2020 season, ultimately making her NWSL debut for the Pride during the 2021 Challenge Cup due to COVID-19. She appeared in 20 matches for the Pride, totaling 1,550 minutes.

Before entering the NWSL, Riley spent six seasons (2013-2018) in the Damallsvenskan, Sweden's women's professional league, winning five consecutive titles before heading to Chelsea FC Women of the FA Women's Super League (2018), where she scored two goals in 16 appearances.

ANGEL CITY FC'S WOMEN'S WORLD CUP CALL UPS

WELCOME TO LA FORTALEZA!

During the 2023 home opener on March 26, Angel City FC's Supporters Groups announced the name of their supporters section: La Fortaleza, revealing their tifo, depicting Angel City FC's first captain, Ali Riley, in front of an art deco sol rosa-themed sunburst.

La Fortaleza is the safe-standing section located at the north end of BMO Stadium, where many of Angel City FC's most active and passionate fans gather to show their support for the team.

A group of 70+ members representing all six supporters groups traced and painted the tifo over the course of 29 hours in early March 2023.

After the club's inaugural match on April 29, 2022, Ali Riley called the stadium a 'fortress' during a press conference. Ultimately, inspiring the members of the six supporters groups to vote for the name La Fortaleza out of a list of suggestions.

The name La Fortaleza communicates that the supporters section is not simply a physical location in the stadium. La Fortaleza's power comes from the people in it.

ANGEL CITY FC TEAM EXECUTIVES

NATALIE PORTMAN
FOUNDER, ACTRESS AND ACTIVIST

Angel City Football Club is founded by Academy Award-winning actress and activist Natalie Portman, technology venture capitalist Kara Nortman, media and gaming entrepreneur Julie Uhrman, and Seven Seven Six founder and former Executive Chair of Reddit, Alexis Ohanian. Portman, who is on the board of Times Up, attended the Times Up Connect event and witnessed Abby Wambach speak about her playing career and the US Women's National Team's fight for equal pay. Natalie was riveted and engaged in conversations about the pay equity issue in women's sports. She approached Nortman, also on the Times Up board and a women's soccer fanatic. One day at lunch, Portman asked Nortman there wasn't a professional women's soccer team in LA, which led them down a path neither could have envisioned. In August 2019, Julie Uhrman was brought on by Portman and Kara Nortman to run the company and help them fulfill their mission and passion for bringing a professional women's sports team to Los Angeles as part of the National Women's Soccer League (NWSL).

JULIE UHRMAN
CO-FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

Julie Uhrman is the Co-Founder and President of Angel City Football Club (ACFC). ACFC is one of the only majority female-founded and run professional sports teams in the world and, in 2021, was named one of the world's most innovative companies by Fast Company Magazine. In addition to leading ACFC day to day, Uhrman is active in the Los Angeles sports and technology communities. She is a board member of the LA Sports and Entertainment Council, The Rose Bowl Institute, the LA Sports Council, an active executive in the LA Chapter of WISE (Women in Sports and Events), and is part of two SPACs focused on sports and gaming/ entertainment. She is also part of the DraftKings' All-Star Network as an Advisor to Drive by DraftKings. Uhrman's accolades include being named a member of Adweek's 2021 and 2020 Most Powerful Women In Sports, one of the 100 Most Creative People in Business by Fast Company, and to the Creative 50 list by Advertising Age.

ALEXIS OHANIAN
LEADING FOUNDING INVESTOR

Alexis Ohanian, ACFC's leading founding investor, was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. and grew up in the suburbs of Baltimore, M.D. He wrote the national bestselling book, Without Their Permission, and has been a vocal advocate for the open internet, STEM education and paid family leave. Out of college, Ohanian co-founded Reddit, one of the largest websites in the U.S., which was funded by Y Combinator in 2005 and sold to Conde Nast in 2006. He returned as executive chairman in 2014 to help lead the turnaround of the now independent company that today is valued at over $10B. In 2016, he left Reddit to run the venture capital firm he co-founded, Initialized Capital, and built it to $100B in market value through early investments in companies like Coinbase, Opendoor, Instacart, Patreon, and Ro. In 2020, Ohanian resigned from the Reddit board in protest and left his role at Initialized Capital to found Seven Seven Six, a new firm built like a technology company that deploys venture capital.

KARA NORTMAN
FOUNDING INVESTOR

Kara is a Managing Partner at Upfront Ventures, the largest venture capital firm based in Los Angeles. Her notable investments include Parachute Home, Time by Ping, Endgame, Writer, Open Raven, Britive, and Fleetsmith (acquired by Apple in 2020). Over 50% of her portfolio is led by women CEOs. Kara is also a founding member of All Raise, a VC-led group dedicated to increased diversity in funders and founders, and is a founder of LA's women's soccer team, Angel City Football Club. Before Upfront, Kara co-founded the children's e-commerce company Moonfrye and also spent seven years at IAC where she co-headed the M&A group and acted as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of Urbanspoon and Citysearch. During her tenure at IAC, she led the initial investment in Tinder. Earlier in her career, she also spent time at Morgan Stanley, Microsoft, and Battery Ventures. She received her AB in Politics from Princeton University and her MBA from Stanford University. Nortman resides in Los Angeles with her husband and three daughters.
