FAST FACTS

MATCHUP HISTORY

The Washington Spirit owns an 11-10-8 record against the Chicago Red Stars. These 29 meetings are tied for the second-most against a single team in Spirit club history. The Red Stars' trip to DC will mark the first time the team has played at Audi Field in the all-time history between the two sides. At other home venues in the series, the Spirit is 5-5-3.

HATCH ATTACK

- With a goal in last week's match, Ashley Hatch set a career best single season goal contribution mark (11 - 9G, 2A).

- Hatch has now scored a game-tying or game-winning penalty kick in second half stoppage time three different times in the regular season in her NWSL career. Hatch's three result-changing penalties in stoppage time are the most of any player in league history.

- It also marked her fifth successful penalty kick of the season — a new Spirit record and one shy of the NWSL single season record. Additionally, Hatch has now scored 39 goals with the Spirit, two shy of fourth-most for a single club in league history.

SPIRIT LOOKING TO EXPLOIT

Throughout the season, the Red Stars have suffered major defensive lapses, resulting in extreme blowouts. The Red Stars have been shut out four times and, in each of those matches, have given up three or more goals. Two of those occasions were 0-5 defeats. The Red Stars have allowed 39 goals this season, the most through 17 league games of a season in NWSL history. Chicago's 24 goals allowed through nine road games are third-most allowed at this point in a season in NWSL history with only the Boston Breakers having more (2015 - 26, 2016 - 25).

50TH APPEARANCE

With an appearance in Sunday's match, defender Tara McKeown will appear in her 50th career NWSL match. All 50 matches have come with the Spirit. The forward-turned-center back has been a key fixture on the Spirit back line this season and leads the NWSL in clearances (99).

Washington Spirit and Community Partner CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield Unite to Celebrate “D.C. Ward Night”

On Sunday, September 3, CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield (CareFirst), the official healthcare partner of the Washington Spirit, will be the presenting sponsor of the Spirit’s first “D.C. Ward Night” during the team’s match versus the Chicago Red Stars. The goal of the themed night is to celebrate the rich history of the city and its diverse neighborhoods, specifically honoring the communities and people of Wards 6, 7 and 8 — the area surrounding the Spirit’s home of Audi Field.

Local businesses and community groups—including Peace For DC, The TraRon Center, Together We Rise Community Development Foundation, DC SCORES and Leveling the Playing Field (LPF)—will promote their services and resources on the Audi Field concourse. Fans, as well as local politicians and representatives from business improvement districts, can learn more about the organizations at their tables.

Since the inception of the Spirit’s partnership with CareFirst, community service to underserved areas of D.C. has been paramount. In April, the Spirit and CareFirst announced their official partnership at the Excel Academy in Washington, D.C., an all-girls public school in Ward 8, which focuses on creating more opportunities for women and girls in soccer. By building their confidence, teamwork, leadership and more, players are empowered to become physically and emotionally healthy adults.

Wanice Edwards, STEAM Coordinator at Excel Academy, who led efforts at Excel Academy to install DC SCORES programming, will be selected as an honorary Spirit team captain. She will be recognized for her embodiment of the Spirit and CareFirst’s mission, and a commitment to the young girls of Ward 8. Excel Academy students will attend Sunday’s match, creating a banner to be displayed in the Supporters Section, as well as selecting the post-game Young Supporters Player of the Match.

CareFirst and the Spirit are both long supporters of Wards 6, 7 and 8, which further entwines their shared mission of improved health and equity for Washington D.C. Over the last year, the Spirit has participated in numerous community engagement events, including SERVE DC’s Youth Day of Service at the Well at Oxon Run. CareFirst and the Spirit have both worked with DC SCORES to engage these areas via several outreach programs including the summer STEAM camp, visits to DC SCORES schools, the East Side Poetry Slam and Junior Jamboree, and more.

2023 TEAM NOTES

- The Spirit became the first team in NWSL history (any competition) to record four goals from outside of the box – Lena Silano (33'), Sam Staab (38'), Marissa Sheva (42') and Ashley Sanchez (90+4') - when they did so against ORL (5/10).
- Since the start of the 2021 season, Ashley Hatch (37), Trinity Rodman (20) and Ashley Sanchez (17) have scored 74 goals for the Spirit in all NWSL competitions, more than any other trio of teammates in that time. The trio has combined to score 18 of the Spirit's 24 regular season goals this year.
- The Spirit have 19 players who've reached 50 appearances in team history after Trinity Rodman did so on June 3rd. This is the most players to reach 50 app. with a club in NWSL history.
- Head Coach Mark Parsons became the first NWSL coach to win 25 regular season matches with two different clubs: 71 for POR, 26 for WAS. After coaching on June 23rd, he has coached the second-most NWSL games in history (now 187).
- Set a Challenge Cup record for most shots faced without allowing a goal (25) on August 4th vs. Orlando.
- In its draw with Houston, Washington held 31.95% of the possession, the lowest mark by any team in a match (all competitions) over the last two seasons. The Spirit were the first NWSL team to earn at least a point in a match while having under 32.0% possession since the Red Stars in September 2016.
