HUSKER POWER: A NATIONAL LEADER

Husker Power is a nationally recognized brand and a source of pride for Nebraska Athletics.

NEBRASKA WAS THE FIRST TO:

- Have a paid strength coach
- Lift weights in-season
- Hold a summer conditioning class
- Offer a degree for strength coaching

With 14 staff members, including men's basketball strength coach Kurt Joseph, it is one of the most comprehensive strength and conditioning organizations in the country. Husker basketball student-athletes train in the Hendricks Training Complex, which features a 5,000-square foot weight room. The facility gives Husker student-athletes a technological and strategic advantage by combining state-of-the-art strength training innovation with top-notch coaching and programming.

Joseph joined the Husker staff in April of 2021 after spending the previous two-plus years as an assistant strength coach with the Minnesota Timberwolves in the NBA. Previously, he worked with the Iowa Wolves of the NBA G League, the New York Knicks and Brooklyn Nets.

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

There is no place like Nebraska when it comes to the high-performance fueling of hard-working athletes. Nebraska Performance Nutrition has a long-standing tradition of setting the highest standard for the 'food first' approach to fueling. The Nebraska Performance Nutrition program is setting the standard for student-athlete welfare across collegiate athletics and beyond.

Nebraska has its own Executive Chef, Mike Steele, who innovates the menus under the guidance of Director of Performance Nutrition, Dave Ellis, who is widely considered to be a thought leader in the high-performance fueling field. Nebraska has its own kitchen and culinary staff and has the ability to source a food supply that is second to none when it comes to fresh, natural and organic sources. Athletes are taught to follow a three-step approach that was conceived right here at Nebraska over three decades ago. It's a simple system, where food is merchandised in three steps, each delivering a health and performance benefit for hard-working athletes.

Husker athletes have the chance to learn how to cook their own food in the Life Skills Kitchen. The staff also provides ready-to-eat food supply and to-go meals that offer fueling solutions when a student-athlete has class conflicts.

Nebraska has four, full-time registered dietitians on staff who help athletes navigate the managed food supply that is served at each meal. The registered dietitians also orchestrate meals on the road for teams and offer fueling solutions before and after workouts or competition. This attention to detail helps get those critically timed sources of fuel and fluids that hard-working muscle requires in just the right amounts. To make fueling convenient when training, there are two locations adjacent to the weight rooms where grab-and-go nutrition support is available to all student-athletes.

With over six decades of collective experience, the performance nutrition staff is very knowledgeable on topics including how to help drug-tested athletes avoid inadvertent adverse analytical findings (AAFs/positive drug test) that can result from adulterated dietary supplements.

Other areas that the registered dietitians can help personalize programs:

- Lean Mass Testing
- Frame Testing
- Off-Season Body Composition Change Planning
- Hydration / Sweat Rate Analysis
- Saliva/Urine/Blood Analysis
- Cooking / Grocery Shopping Classes
- Dietary Supplement Review

DRAFTED HUSKERS

The first NBA draft of collegiate players was held following the 1947-48 season, but the league did not begin to keep records of team-by-team draft lists until 1952. Here is a list of the 28 Cornhusker players drafted by the NBA since 1949:

- 1949 Claude Retherford, St. Louis Bombers
- 1950 Bus Whitehead, Chicago Stags (7th)
- 1951 Bob Pierce, Indianapolis Olympians (5th)
- 1952 Jim Buchanan, Boston Celtics (6th)
- 1954 Bill Johnson, Boston Celtics (11th)
- 1960 Herschell Turner, Syracuse Nationals (6th)
- 1966 Grant Simmons, Washington Bullets (12th)
- 1967 Willie Campbell, Seattle SuperSonics (15th)
- 1968 Stuart Lantz, Houston Rockets (3rd)
Tom Baack, Detroit Pistons (10th)
- 1970 Jim Brooks, Houston Rockets (12th)
- 1971 Marvin Stewart, Philadelphia 76ers (2nd)
Leroy Chalk, Boston Celtics (13th)
- 1972 Chuck Jura, Chicago Bulls (3rd)
Mike Peterson, Portland Trail Blazers (16th)
- 1974 Brendy Lee, Atlanta Hawks (10th)
- 1976 Jerry Fort, Boston Celtics (3rd)
- 1979 Carl McPipe, Philadelphia 76ers (5th)
- 1981 Andre Smith, Cleveland Cavaliers (7th)
- 1982 Jack Moore, Kansas City Kings (9th)
- 1985 Curtis Moore, Portland Trailblazers (6th)
- 1986 Dave Hoppen Atlanta Hawks (3rd)
- 1991 Rich King, Seattle SuperSonics (1st/14th pick)
- 1994 Eric Piatkowski Indiana Pacers (1st/15th pick)
- 1998 Tyronn Lue, Denver Nuggets (1st/23rd pick)
- 1999 Venson Hamilton, Houston Rockets (2nd/50th pick)
- 2019 Isaiah Roby, Detroit Pistons (2nd/45th pick)
- 2021 Dalano Banton, Toronto Raptors (2nd/46th pick)

Note: Nate Branch was drafted by the American Basketball Association's Oakland franchise in 1967; Stuart Lantz was drafted by Oakland in 1968; Marvin Stewart was drafted by the New York Nets in 1971; and Chuck Jura was selected by the Utah Stars in 1972.

RETIRED JERSEYS

#42 DAVE HOPPEN

#22 STU LANTZ

#42 - DAVE HOPPEN (1983-86)

Nebraska's all-time leading scorer, Hoppen had his No. 42 jersey retired at the end of Senior Night on Feb. 26, 1986. Hoppen totaled 2,167 points before a knee surgery cut short his senior year. Hoppen broke or tied 19 school records as a Husker. A third-round draft pick in 1986, he spent six seasons in the NBA. Hoppen was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996 and Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

#22 - STU LANTZ (1966-68)

Stu Lantz became the second Husker basketball player to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Oct. 17, 1989. A two-time first-team All-Big Eight performer, Lantz totaled 1,269 points and 571 rebounds in his three-year Husker career. He went on to play eight years in the NBA with four teams (San Diego/Houston Rockets, Detroit Pistons, New Orleans Jazz, Los Angeles Lakers). Lantz was a charter member of the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1989. The 2021-22 season will be his Lantz's 35th season with the Los Angeles Lakers broadcast team.

#52 - ERIC PIATKOWSKI (1991-94)

Eric Piatkowski became the third Husker to have his jersey retired, as he was honored on Feb. 18, 2006. Piatkowski was a two-time All-Big Eight selection as he totaled 1,934 points in helping NU to four straight NCAA Tournaments during his collegiate career. A first-round draft pick in 1994, he spent 14 seasons in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, Houston Rockets, Chicago Bulls and Phoenix Suns. Piatkowski, who was also inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006, highlighted the inaugural class of the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

#10 - TYRONN LUE (1996-98)

Tyronn Lue became the fourth Husker to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Feb. 2, 2017. Lue, who ranks in the top 10 in 13 categories during his three-year Husker career, earned All-Big 12 honors in 1998 helping Nebraska to the NCAA Tournament. A first-round draft pick in 1998, he spent 11 seasons in the NBA, including a pair of titles with the Los Angeles Lakers. A 2013 Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Lue coached the Cleveland Cavaliers to an NBA title in 2016 and three NBA Finals appearances. He was named head coach of the Los Angeles Clippers in October of 2020 and guided the Clippers to the 2021 Western Conference Finals.

STUDENT-ATHLETE EXPERIENCE

Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in Academics, Athletics and Life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes across 24 sports.

UNMATCHED SUPPORT

Nebraska has a history of providing unmatched benefits and support to student-athletes. In 2014, a change in NCAA governance and subsequent legislation paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits for student-athletes. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Each student-athlete is offered a free Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities.
- Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance related areas including but not limited to Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory, Nutrition and Sports Analytics.
- As part of Nebraska's innovative Post-Eligibility Opportunity (PEO) program, every student-athlete graduate who has exhausted their athletic eligibility has the opportunity to pursue (with Nebraska support) an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

#NILBRASKA

In the summer of 2021, Nebraska Athletics introduced #NILbraska, an initiative to educate student-athletes on branding, marketing and financial literacy, among other aspects. #NILNebraska will prepare student-athletes to take advantage of Name, Image and Likeness legislation.

The #NILbraska program, which is detailed on the next two pages, will focus on a three-pronged approach to providing education for student-athletes to maximize their potential in the NIL category: Ready Now, Accelerate and the Husker Advantage.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Eight academic counselors, three learning specialists, two assistant academic counselors and one administrative assistant are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall within the Herman Student Life Complex that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

STUDY HALL

Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall within the Herman Student Life Complex that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Academic staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting neuropsychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

All student-athletes are provided the opportunity to have a laptop for use during their academic career at Nebraska. The Herman Student Life Complex has printers and desktop computers available for student-athletes to use in the facility.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country. Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber (pictured, bottom) and Men's Basketball Head Athletic Trainer R.J. Pietig (pictured, left), the 2021-22 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five physicians, 13 full-time athletic trainers and eight graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

Nebraska uses advanced equipment, including two anti-gravity treadmills (pictured, top) to help athletes recondition after injuries. Nebraska's Athletic Medicine Center also features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool, as well as hot and cold plunge tanks (pictured, middle). The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment.

SPORTS PSYCHOLOGY

Continuing its commitment to complete care for all student-athletes, Nebraska has four full-time in-house athletic psychologists and a sports psychiatrist who work directly with student-athletes, teams and coaches. Under the leadership of Director of Sports Psychology Dr. Brett Haskell, the Huskers' sports psychology staff provides counseling, psychological services, mental skills training, teambuilding and leadership development services for each of Nebraska's 24 sports and more than 600 Husker student-athletes. The staff works directly with student-athletes to help them develop skills to enhance personal well-being, address mental health and substance use issues to optimize performance.

LIFE SKILLS

NEBRASKA LIFE SKILLS SPORTSMANSHIP PEP RALLY

COMMUNITY ACTIVISM

LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

The Life Skills staff provides proactive education to all incoming and returning student-athletes designed to promote responsible decision-making, enhance one's personal brand and preparing student-athletes for life after sports. Interactive presentations are delivered during summer bridge sessions, orientations and year-by-year tiered development workshops.

HUSKER ADVANTAGE/NAME, IMAGE, LIKENESS (NIL) PERSONAL BRANDING

All Nebraska student-athletes will benefit from specialized personal branding content within the innovative Husker Advantage program. Designed to enhance overall marketability while in college and beyond, engaging and interactive content in the areas of Strength Assessment, Building Personal Brand, Communication, and Finance/Compliance will position student-athletes for potential NIL opportunities while sharpening fundamental life skills beyond athletic eligibility.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills staff member who will assist with personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT & NETWORKING

Nebraska Life Skills organizes an annual Student-Athlete Career Fair Networking Night and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and UNL's Handshake Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge, collectively giving more than 8,000 hours annually to impact thousands across the state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies, Make-A-Wish, School is Cool and Husker Heroes. During the 2020-21 academic year, 259 Husker student-athletes completed at least six service projects earning spots on the coveted Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with countless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Minority Student Athlete Collective (MSAC), Nebraska Football Road Race, Inner Circle, N-Vest or N-VOLVED. UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for common goals.

RECOGNITION

In 2020-21, Husker basketball players Trevor Lakes and Jace Piatkowski were named to the Tom Osborne Citizenship team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. A host of other recognition opportunities at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA levels that all reflect the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement also are available.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered in Lincoln by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a university system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. The flagship University of Nebraska-Lincoln is an educational institution of international stature. Nebraska is classified within the Carnegie "R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity" category. Nebraska is also a land-grant university and a member of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The BTAA includes all 14 Big Ten Institutions and partners with the University of Chicago. The Big Ten Academic Alliance and the institutions together have annual research expenditures topping $10.5 billion - more than the Ivy League and the University of California System combined - and they educate a total of nearly 600,000 students with approximately 50,000 faculty members.

NEBRASKA AND ADIDAS

Nebraska student-athletes are fitted with the finest adidas footwear, uniforms, apparel and accessories as part of the apparel manufacturer's lucrative sponsorship deal with the Nebraska Athletic Department.

From head to toe, Husker athletes receive the newest gear to not only look sharp, but to also have the latest technology at their disposal. Devaney Center Equipment Manager Pat Norris works closely with an on-campus adidas representative to make sure Husker basketball players have everything they need to represent the University in a proper manner. From warmups to workout gear and shoes to winter coats, Norris orders the best fitting, most appropriate gear for the Huskers every season, so they can look their best on and off the court.

Nebraska's relationship with adidas began in 1995, and in August of 2017, Nebraska and adidas extended their partnership until 2028.

For basketball fans around the country, the 2021-22 season looks to be a return to normalcy. Few coaches could be more pleased about that than Fred Hoiberg, who begins his third season in charge of the Husker program.

After a challenging year of trying to integrate nearly an entirely new roster, a COVID pause which lasted nearly a month and a return to action which featured 14 games in 30 days to close conference play, last season was a trying year for the Huskers.

There was a silver lining through, as it brought the Huskers together and they closed the year by playing some of their best basketball of the season. The busy schedule allowed the Huskers to experiment with different lineups and allowed the newcomers to make the adjustments to adapt to the fast-paced offense Hoiberg's teams have traditionally played over the years.

Over the Huskers' final seven games, Nebraska averaged 73 points per game while shooting 46 percent from the field and 37 percent from 3-point range against a schedule which included a pair of road games at top-five teams. Most of that group that started down the stretch returns this year, giving Hoiberg a group of veterans for the first time in his Husker tenure.

"I'm excited that this is the first time we have had continuity with our roster and return a good portion of our scoring and minutes, and we added a very talented recruiting class on top of that. If everybody comes in on the same page and has the same goals of winning, we have a chance to have a really good year."

Nebraska welcomes back seven letterwinners, including three starters, from a year ago. Trey McGowens and Lat Mayen started all 27 games for the Huskers last season, while Derrick Walker made 16 starts once he was ruled eligible in January. Fifth-year senior Kobe Webster joined that group for the final five games in the starting lineup, as his ball-handling and shooting added a much-needed dimension to the Husker attack. That group includes four of NU's top six scorers and three of its top five rebounders from last year.

The group will be aided by a recruiting class which ranked in the top-15 nationally and features five-star recruit Bryce McGowens and top-100 prospect Wilhelm Breidenbach. In addition, Nebraska adds a trio of power conference transfers headlined by Arizona State transfer Alonzo Verge Jr., who averaged 14.0 points per game for the Sun Devils in 2020-21.

"I like having this depth, and we have a lot of guys who are capable of impacting the game and impacting winning," Hoiberg said. "I think that will help us with the style and pace we want to play."

While Hoiberg's teams have led the Big Ten in tempo in each of the last two years, one area the Huskers have worked hard on this offseason is reducing turnovers. During his Iowa State tenure and his first year at NU, his teams ranked among the national leaders in turnover rate, and Hoiberg believes that fixing that will take the Huskers' attack to another level.

"We like playing with pace, but don't want to be reckless," Hoiberg said. "Last year, our biggest issue was turning the ball over. If we want to have any chance to win, we have to take much better care of the ball. Our teams have always done a good job of that except for last year and that has been a huge emphasis for us over the summer."

BACKCOURT

The Huskers' backcourt will feature a different look in 2021-22 following the selection of Dalano Banton in the NBA Draft and the graduation of four-year performer Thorir Thorbjarnerson. With NU's five-out system, the Huskers will rely on multiple ball-handlers and will often feature lineups with three and four guards.

The good news is the Huskers have three players with extensive D-1 experience in Trey McGowens, Kobe Webster and Arizona State transfer Alonzo Verge Jr., who have combined for nearly 3,500 points at the Division I level. McGowens started all 27 games last year and averaged 10.7 ppg, while Webster played in every game and moved into the starting lineup for NU's final five contests.

Verge is one of three transfers with power conference experience, including C.J. Wilcher (Xavier) and Keon Edwards (DePaul), while five-star recruit Bryce McGowens, headlines NU's backcourt signees, which also includes junior college transfer Keisei Tominaga and Quaran McPherson.

McGowens helped anchor the Husker backcourt in his first season at Nebraska, starting all 27 games and averaging 10.7 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.4 steals per game. He was second on the team in both scoring and assists, while ranking fifth in the Big Ten in steals in 2020-21. McGowens, who was a career 32 percent shooter at Pittsburgh, improved to 37 percent last season, including 39 percent in Big Ten games. McGowens played well in the final quarter of the year, averaging 12.4 ppg on 45 percent shooting with 3.1 assists per game over the final seven games. He reached double figures in six of the final seven games and dished out five assists three times in that span.

Webster proved to be a valuable addition in his first season at Nebraska after starting for three years at Western Illinois. He played in all 27 games and averaged 8.1 points while leading the team in 3-point percentage (.380). He reached double figures 12 times in 2020-21, including a season-high 23 points and five assists at Northwestern, which included 7-of-12 from 3-point range. Webster also had 20 points against ACC Tournament champion Georgia Tech, including six 3-pointers. He moved into the starting lineup for NU's final five games, where he averaged 13.0 ppg, while shooting 43 percent from 3-point range.

A late addition to the Husker roster, Verge joined the Husker roster after spending the last two seasons at Arizona State. He tested the waters for the 2021 NBA Draft, but elected to transfer to Nebraska for his final season, giving the Huskers another experienced playmaking guard. Last season, Verge averaged 14.0 points and a team-best 3.8 assists per game in 23 contests. He ranked in the top 15 in the Pac-12 in scoring, assists, assist-to-turnover ratio, steals and free throw percentage and totaled five 20-point games. Verge averaged 27.0 ppg, 7.0 rpg, and 3.0 apg in the Pac-12 Tournament, including a season-high 28 points against Oregon. A 6-foot-3 guard from Chicago, Verge was the Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year and an honorable-mention all-conference pick in 2019-20, averaging 14.6 points per game, highlighted by a 43-point effort against Saint Mary's.

Edwards comes to Nebraska after spending the 2020-21 season at DePaul. Originally a top-50 recruit in the class of 2021, he reclassified and enrolled at DePaul in December of 2020. He played in just five games for the Blue Demons, totaling 39 minutes of action, but had a season-high 14 minutes against UConn in the Big East Tournament. Edwards played at national power Hillcrest (Ariz.) Prep, averaging 14.3 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.6 assists, 2.4 steals and 1.9 blocks per game in 2019-20, shooting 45 percent from the field, including 43 percent from 3-point range. He has added nearly 20 pounds since arriving on campus and at 6-foot-7, 204 pounds, Edwards provides the Huskers with size and shooting ability on the wing.

Wilcher is one of three D-1 transfers added to the Husker roster after playing at Xavier last season. He has been one of the Huskers' most consistent players in offseason work. The 6-foot-5, 221-pound guard appeared in 15 games for the Musketeers, averaging 3.3 points and 1.1 rebounds per game. He played at least 10 minutes in seven of his final nine games and had 10 points in his first career start at Marquette. He was a top-100 recruit by ESPN.com at Roselle Catholic High School, where he earned all-state honors by averaging 18.8 points, 4.5 rebounds and 2.8 assists. He had 50 3-pointers as a senior, highlighted by hitting six 3-pointers in a 59-58 win over Gill St. Bernard's in the sectional championship which was the school's final game before the pandemic. His ability to space the floor will greatly help the Huskers' offensive attack.

Bryce McGowens is the centerpiece of the Huskers' highest ranked recruiting class in school history. The 6-foot-6, 179-pound guard was a five-star recruit and a consensus top-25 recruit. As a senior, he was selected to the Iverson Roundball Classic and was a Jordan Brand selection after averaging 21.6 points, 4.7 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game at Legacy Early College last season while playing a national schedule. He was the leading scorer at the St. James NIBC Invitational, posting 20.9 points per contest in seven appearances in a field featuring many of the country's top teams. The Gatorade Player of the Year in South Carolina in 2021, he was a three-time all-state pick who totaled 2,341 career points, including 285 3-pointers. McGowens brings the Huskers athleticism and scoring from all three levels in his first season in the program.

Tominaga arrived in Lincoln after helping Japan reach the quarterfinals in the 3x3 basketball event at the Tokyo Olympics. Despite being the youngest player in the tournament, Tominaga finished third in scoring and in the top-10 in one- and two-point shooting as well as shooting efficiency. Tominaga, a 6-foot-2, 178-pound guard, played two seasons at Ranger (Texas) College, helping the program to a 22-4 record and a NJCAA National Tournament semifinals appearance in 2021. He connected on 198 3-pointers in two seasons at Ranger, hitting 48 percent from long range. Last year, he garnered second-team NJCAA All-America honors, averaging 16.3 points per game on 51 percent shooting, ranking ninth nationally in 3-pointers per game (3.4/gm) and 19th in 3-point percentage (48.7). He also captured a spot on the NJCAA All-Tournament team, averaging 20.3 points, 3.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists and per game, including 26 points in the national semifinals.

McPherson has impressed the coaches with his hard-nosed play and toughness, especially on the defensive end of the floor. A 6-foot-4, 199-pound guard, McPherson spent last year at Link Year (Mo.) School, where he helped his team to a 26-4 record and runner-up honors at the 2021 Post Grad Nationals. He averaged 19 points, four rebounds and four assists per game last season. He was invited to the 2020 Pangos All-America festival, which featured 40 of the top players in the country. The Brooklyn, N.Y., native played two seasons at Christ the King High School, where he played with Kofi Cockburn (Illinois) and Tyson Walker (Michigan State).

NU also has four walk-ons to provide backcourt depth, including Jace Piatkowski and Chris McGraw along with freshmen Sam Hoiberg and Jackson Cronin.

Piatkowski, the son of former NBA player Eric Piatkowski, begins his third season in Lincoln and appeared in 10 games last year, totaling four points and two rebounds in 21 minutes. McGraw sat out after transferring from Otterbein, but had played at Ohio during the 2019-20 season.

Hoiberg joins his father in the Husker program after averaging 14.9 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.8 assists per game to help Lincoln Pius X to the 2021 state tournament. Cronin walked on after averaging 21.3 points, 8.0 rebounds and 6.1 assists per game in eight games at Great Neck North, as his senior season was limited because of COVID-19.

FRONTCOURT

The Huskers will be flexible in the frontcourt with more size and depth than in Hoiberg's first two seasons. The Huskers return a pair of starters in Derrick Walker and Lat Mayen, as well as reserves Eduardo Andre and Trevor Lakes. NU also adds a pair of talented freshmen in Wilhelm Breidenbach, a top-100 recruit, and Oleg Kojenets, who is in the Lithuanian National Team program.

Walker, who did not make debut until January, provided the Huskers with an interior post presence, averaging 5.9 points on 60 percent shooting and 4.8 rebounds per game in his 16 appearances. The 6-foot-8 forward had 10 points in his Husker debut on Jan. 10, but took a while to regain his form following the Huskers' COVID pause. Walker put together some of the best basketball of his career over NU's final seven games, averaging 8.3 points on 64 percent shooting, 5.9 rebounds and 1.9 assists per game. That stretch included a career-high 14 points against Rutgers and eight points, eight rebounds and a career-high six assists in the Huskers' Big Ten Tournament loss to Penn State.

Mayen was one of two Huskers to start all 27 games last season, as the 6-foot-9 forward averaged 8.6 points and 4.5 rebounds per game. Mayen was forced to play inside early in the season because of depth issues, but found his footing once Walker became eligible in early January. Mayen led NU with 48 3-pointers while shooting 35 percent beyond the arc, including 37 percent in Big Ten play. Mayen showed his ability late in the season, averaging 13.3 points and 6.3 rebounds per game over NU's last four contests. He had a career-high 25 points on 9-of-11 shooting, including five 3-pointers, in a win over Rutgers and posted a double-double with 14 points and a season-high 13 caroms at No. 5 Iowa. In all, he had 10 double-figure scoring efforts in 2020-21.

Andre made significant strides in his first season at Nebraska and became the Huskers' first big off the bench by the end of the year. He missed nearly the entire non-conference season because of Big Ten protocols, but found his stride following the team pause. Although he averaged just 2.7 points on 65 percent shooting and 2.2 rebounds per game, he reached double figures in minutes in nine of the last 14 games. The Huskers relied on Andre's 7-foot-5 wingspan to help anchor its defense. Andre had seven points and six boards in the win over Minnesota, one of four straight games with at least three rebounds to close out Big Ten play. He closed out his freshman year by hitting 13-of-16 from the field over the Huskers' last seven games and possesses the ability to play a significant role for the Huskers. Andre has added nearly 20 pounds since the end of last season.

Lakes was scheduled to redshirt last season after playing at Indianapolis for three seasons, but was cleared to play on Dec. 17 and added another perimeter threat. A 6-foot-8 forward, he averaged 3.2 points per game while shooting 33 percent from 3-point range. Lakes had 13 points, including 4-of-5 shooting from distance, in his debut and scored five or more points in each of NU's final three games. Lakes, who averaged 15.7 ppg and 6.2 rpg at Indianapolis in 2019-20, missed most of the offseason following shoulder surgery, but was cleared to practice during the final week of summer workouts.

Breidenbach joins the Husker program as one of the top recruits in the 2021 class. A four-year starter at Mater Dei (Calif.) High School, he ranked No. 75 nationally in the ESPN100 and was a top-100 player in the 247Sports Composite. As a senior, he averaged 15.5 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game in 21 contests while sharing the frontcourt with two other Division I signees. He tallied four double-doubles and six games with at least 20 points, while Mater Dei was unbeaten with Breidenbach in the lineup before he suffered an injury late in the year. In his high school career, he tallied nearly 1,300 points and more than 750 rebounds.

Kojenets is a skilled big man who signed with the Huskers in the spring. The 7-foot, 223-pounder from Lithuania was selected for his country's U19 national team pool, but was unable to train because of injury and didn't arrive on campus until late July. A three-star recruit who selected NU over Georgia Tech, St. Mary's and Seton Hall, he was limited to just nine games as a senior at Western Reserve Academy in Ohio after moving to the United States. Previously, he played for Zalgiris Kaunas' U-18 team at the 2020 adidas Next Generation Tournament. He possesses a good shooting touch, a high basketball IQ and comes from a basketball family, as both of his parents played collegiately.

SCHEDULE

The Huskers will have a number of non-conference tests to prepare for the rigors of Big Ten play. After opening up with Western Illinois and Sam Houston, NU will welcome Creighton to Pinnacle Bank Arena as part of the Gavitt Tipoff Games on Nov. 16. It will be one of seven straight games at Pinnacle Bank Arnea to begin the season.

The second half of the non-conference schedule includes a trip to NC State for the Big Ten/ACC Challenge on Dec. 1 in the first ever matchup between the two schools. NU will open Big Ten play at Indiana on Dec. 4 before hosting Big Ten regular-season champion Michigan on Dec. 7. NU returns to non-conference action with a neutral-site matchup with Auburn in Atlanta on Dec. 11. The Huskers will welcome a familiar foe to Lincoln, as NU hosts Big 12 rival Kansas State on Dec. 19 before closing the non-con slate with Kennesaw State on Dec. 22.

In all, the 20-game Big Ten schedule features 14 games against teams which made the 2021 NCAA Tournament, including 10 of the Huskers' first 12 B1G tilts. The Huskers' January slate features eight games against NCAA teams, including home matchups with Ohio State (Jan. 2), Big Ten Tournament champion Illinois (Jan. 11), Wisconsin (Jan. 25) and Rutgers (Jan. 29), as well as an MLK Day rematch with Indiana (Jan. 17).

Nebraska's road games include a back-to-back trip at Michigan State (Jan. 5) and Rutgers (Jan. 8) along with visits to Purdue (Jan. 14) and Ohio State (Jan. 22).

In February, the Huskers open the month with a rematch with the Wolverines (Feb. 1) before returning home for games against Northwestern (Feb. 5) and Minnesota (Feb. 9). The month also includes a home-and-home series against Iowa (Feb. 13 and Feb. 25) with the game in Lincoln on Feb. 25 serving as Senior Night. Other games that month include trips to Northwestern (Feb. 22) and Penn State (Feb. 28) and a home game against Maryland (Feb. 18).

The Huskers close the regular season on Sunday, March 6, at Wisconsin before the 25th Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament takes place at Gainbridge Fieldhouse in Indianapolis from March 9-13.

HUSKER BASKETBALL NOTEBOOK

▶ For the first time in Fred Hoiberg's three seasons, the Huskers return a significant portion of their roster. With three starters (Trey McGowens, Lat Mayen and Derek Walker) and two of its top reserves (Kobe Webster and Eduardo Andre), the Huskers return nearly 50 percent of its scoring and more than 40 percent of its rebounding and assists.

While it may not seem like a large number, the two previous teams had just 21 percent and two percent of its points back from the previous season - the lowest two totals for the Huskers in nearly 20 years. In Hoiberg's first season, NU returned just one letterwinner and 50 points - the fewest returning total by any power conference school in a decade.

▶ The Huskers bring one of the nation's top recruiting classes to campus this fall. The class is ranked as high as 13th by ESPN as well as 18th by 247Sports and 21st by Rivals and is the third-highest ranked class in the Big Ten.

Nebraska's five signees are headlined by five-star Bryce McGowens and four-star recruit Wilhelm Breidenbach, both of whom were top-100 recruits. McGowens was a consensus top-25 recruit who played in the Iverson Classic and was selected to the Jordan Brand team. NU rounded out the class with junior college All-American Keisei Tominaga, Oleg Kojenets and Quaran McPherson.

The Huskers three incoming transfers, who do not count in recruiting rankings included a pair of former top-100 recruits in C.J. Wilcher (Xavier) and Keon Edwards (DePaul) while Alonzo Verge spent the last two seasons at Arizona State.

▶ Nebraska 2021-22 roster features an Olympian, as Keisei Tominaga played for his native Japan in 3x3 basketball during the Tokyo Olympics. Tominaga, the youngest player in the eight-team field, helped Japan reach the medal round and finished third among all players in scoring (6.9 ppg), fourth in 1-point shooting (74 percent) and seventh in 2-point shooting (36 percent). He was one of only two active NCAA players to play in the Olympics, joining Virginia's Francisco Caffaro, who played for Argentina in men's basketball. Tominaga became the third Husker basketball player to play in the Olympics, joining Aleks Maric (2012, Australia) and Ade Dagunduro (2012, Nigeria).

▶ Fourth-year guard Trey McGowens led Nebraska with 38 steals in his first season, continuing a trend during his college career. The 6-foot-4 guard was fourth in the Big Ten with 1.4 steals per game while starting all 27 games for the Big Red. It marked the third straight season he ranked in the top five in the conference in steals, as he ranked among the ACC leaders in both 2018-19 and 2019-20.

He is one of only four players in power conference who have ranked in the top five in steals in each of the past three seasons, joining Jamari Wheeler, LJ Figueroa and Marcus Garrett. McGowens and Wheeler, who has transferred from Penn State to Ohio State, return to college basketball in 2021-22.

Charting McGowens

Year	SPG	Conf. Rank
2018-19	1.9	3rd (ACC)
2019-20	1.9	4th (ACC)
2020-21	1.4	5th (B1G)

▶ One trait of a Fred Hoiberg coached team is to play at a fast pace. The Huskers have led the Big Ten in pace in each of the last two seasons, ranking 16th nationally by KenPom in 2019-20 and 35th in 2020-21. NU has been the only Big Ten team to rank in the top-50 in each of the past two seasons. In seven full seasons as a college head coach, Hoiberg's teams have ranked in the top-50 in tempo five times, including three times in the top-20.

Prior to Hoiberg's arrival, the last time a Husker team was in the top-100 nationally in tempo according to KenPom was in 1999-2000 under Danny Nee.

Playing with Pace (Adjusted Tempo per KenPom)

Year	Hoiberg-Coached Team	Big Ten Leader
2010-11	Iowa State (34th)	Iowa (100th)
2011-12	Iowa State (128th)	Iowa (70th)
2012-13	Iowa State (30th)	Iowa (95th)
2013-14	Iowa State (12th)	Iowa (29th)
2014-15	Iowa State (10th)	Minnesota (47th)
2019-20	Nebraska (16th)	Same
2020-21	Nebraska (35th)	Same

▶ With no fans allowed in 2020-21, Nebraska missed out on the fan support which has ranked among the nation's best since opening Pinnacle Bank Arena in August of 2013. From 2013-14 to 2020-21, Nebraska annually ranked in the top 15 nationally in average attendance, averaging sellout crowds in the 15,000-seat arena.

Two years ago, the Huskers established a single-season record with an average of 15,605 fans per game despite posting a 7-25 record. That set NU's single-season record, breaking the mark of 15,569 per game set during the 2014-15 season. Nebraska was one of nine schools in the country to average 15,000+ fans per contest in each of the last seven seasons (2014-20), joining Kentucky, Syracuse, Louisville, North Carolina, Wisconsin, Indiana, Kansas and Creighton.

With the Huskers' roster turnover the past two years, only one Husker has played in Pinnacle Bank Arena with fans. That was graduate transfer Kobe Webster, who faced Nebraska when he was at Western Illinois in 2018-19.

Filling Up Pinnacle Bank Arena

Season	Average	NCAA Rank
2013-14	15,419	13th
2014-15	15,569	10th

▶ Kobe Webster became the latest Husker men's basketball player to earn CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, as he was a third-team selection earlier this spring. Webster, who graduated from Western Illinois in 2020, has a 3.75 GPA while working on his master's degree in educational administration.

Webster was the first Husker men's basketball player to be honored since Shavon Shields in 2015 and 2016. NU Head Coach Fred Hoiberg was a two-time Academic All-American at Iowa State (1994 and 1995) and was inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America® Hall of Fame in 2016.

Entering the 2021-22 school year, Nebraska leads all NCAA Division I programs with 347 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans ▶ Dalano Banton became Nebraska's most recent NBA Draft pick, as he was taken by his hometown Toronto Raptors with the No. 46 pick of the 2021 NBA Draft. Banton became the first Canadian player ever drafted by the Raptors. He signed a multi-year contract with Toronto on Aug. 14. Banton will look to become the 11th player under Fred Hoiberg to play in the NBA.

Banton appeared in all 27 games, including 22 starts, for the Huskers in 2020-21 after transferring from Western Kentucky. He averaged 9.6 points per game while leading the Huskers in both rebounding (5.9) and assists (3.9) per game. Banton finished in the top 20 in the Big Ten in assists (ninth), blocked shots (15th) and rebounding (18th) and was the first Husker since 1974 to lead NU in both rebounding and assists in the same season.

▶ Nebraska's roster has had an international flavor in recent seasons and that trend will continue in 2021-22. Four members of this season's roster are from overseas, including Eduardo Andre (London, England), Oleg Kojenets (Kaunas, Lithuania), Lat Mayen (Adelaide, Australia) and Keisei Tominaga (Moriyama Nagoya Aichi, Japan). In three seasons under Hoiberg, NU has had players on its roster from a host of countries, including Australia, Canada, England, France, Iceland and Slovenia.

International Huskers in 2021-22

Year	Hometown
Lat Mayen	Adelaide, Australia
Keisei Tominaga	Moriyama Nagoya Aichi, Japan
Oleg Kojenets	Kaunas, Lithuania

starting with a 13-point effort at Penn State on Feb. 14 to lead NU to its first win in State College since 2013.

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Graduate transfer Kobe Webster took advantage of the extra COVID-19 year and is back for a second season with the Huskers. The 6-foot, 176-pound guard was one of the Big Ten's top scoring reserves until he moved into the lineup against Minnesota on Feb. 27. That move sparked a late-season flourish which saw Webster average 13.0 points and 2.5 assists per game in the Huskers' final five contests. Webster, who started for three years at Western Illinois before coming to Lincoln, can play on or off the ball and provides the Huskers with another solid 3-point shooter. Webster shot 38 percent from long distance in his first season at NU and had three games with at least five 3-pointers in 2020-21, including a career-high seven at Northwestern. He has scored over 1,600 points in his collegiate career and can be used in a number of ways, as he helps the Huskers make significant strides this season. Webster is also a returning Academic All-American who is working on a master's degree in educational administration.

2020-21 (COVID SEASON)

Webster proved to be a valuable addition in his first season at Nebraska. He played in all 27 games, averaging 8.1 points and 1.3 assists per game in 2020-21. Webster led the Huskers in 3-point percentage (.380) and was second on the team with 46 3-pointers. On the year, Webster totaled double figures 12 times, including a season-high 23 points and five assists at Northwestern, which included 7-of-12 from 3-point range, and 20 points against ACC Tournament champion Georgia Tech, when he hit 7-of-9 shots from the field, including six 3-pointers.

Webster was playing some of his best basketball at the end of the season, moving into the Huskers' starting lineup for the final five games. In that stretch, he averaged a team-high 13.0 points per game, while shooting 43 percent from 3-point range and reaching double figures four times. He played 20-or-more minutes each of NU's final 12 games,

Tech in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge when he hit 7-of-9 shots from the floor, including six 3-pointers. In all, he reached double figures in five of the Huskers' seven non-conference games. Webster got off to a slow start in Big Ten play, scoring just 26 points in his first nine conference contests, despite a 10-point performance against No. 17 Michigan State on Jan. 3 before breaking out in NU's win over Penn State. His final performance off the bench was a 12-point effort on 5-of-9 shooting at Illinois on Feb. 25 before he moved into the lineup against Minnesota on Senior Night. He responded with 10 points, four assists and three steals in the win over the Golden Gophers. Webster supplied most of the highlights in a loss to No. 5 Iowa with 17 points, including 5-of-8 3-pointers, before his 23-point effort at Northwestern. Webster closed the year with 10 points and a pair of steals against Penn State in the Big Ten Tournament.

He emerged as one of the top guards in the Summit League as a sophomore, averaging a team-high 17.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. A second-team all-conference pick, he was fifth in the conference in scoring, assist-to-turnover ratio (1.94-to-1) and 3-pointers per game (2.5) while shooting 41 percent from 3-point range. He had 10 20-point games, including a season-high 26 points at Northern Illinois, while he recorded a double-double at Creighton with 24 points and 10 rebounds. He also shined in the classroom, as he was a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-District V pick and was named to the 2018-19 Summit League All-Academic Team.

Webster started all 28 games as a freshman, leading the Leathernecks in scoring at 15.9 points per game while adding 3.5 assists per game to rank third in the Summit League. He shot 43 percent from the field, including 37 percent from 3-point range, and shot 78 percent from the foul line. Webster, who was named to the Summit League All-Newcomer Team and collected honorable-mention all-conference honors, reached double figures in 22 contests, including eight 20-point performances. He scored a season-high 27 points and dished out a career-high eight assists against IUPUI.

Webster previously starred at Park Tudor School in Indianapolis, helping the school to a pair of state titles in 2014 and 2015 and started his last three seasons at the school. He was a third-team all-state selection as a senior, as he averaged 16 points, four rebounds and four assists. He was invited to the Indiana's Top 60 showcase following a junior campaign when he averaged 14.5 points and 3.7 assists per game. He played his AAU ball with the Indiana Elite, winning a national championship in 2015.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Webster spent the last three seasons at Western Illinois University, scoring over 1,400 points and dishing out nearly 300 assists in 85 career starts. He led WIU in scoring and assists in each of his three seasons, earning second-team All-Summit League accolades in 2019 and 2020.

Webster started all 26 games as a junior, averaging 17.1 points, 3.6 assists and 3.2 rebounds per game in 2019-20. He ranked among the Summit League leaders in scoring (sixth), assists (fifth) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.72-to-1, fourth) en route to garnering second-team all-conference recognition. Webster totaled a team-high 21 double-figure efforts, including six 20-point efforts. His junior campaign was highlighted by a school-record 40-point performance against Omaha, when he went 15-of-24 from the field,

LAT MAYEN

FORWARD | 6-9 | 217 | JUNIOR

HOMETOWN: ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: CHIPOLA (FLA.) COLLEGE

• Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2020)

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Lat Mayen (pronounced LATT [rhymes with MATT] my-yen) provides the Huskers with size and shooting in the frontcourt. Last season, the 6-foot-9, 217-pounder averaged 8.6 points per game while connecting on a team-high 48 3-pointers. Mayen played out of position until Derrick Walker became eligible in January, but flourished when Walker was inserted into the lineup, averaging 10.0 ppg and shooting 39 percent from 3-point range in the Huskers' final 16 contests. Mayen is one of the Huskers' best shooters and his size makes him an ideal stretch forward in Fred Hoiberg's offensive attack. Mayen has a high motor and possesses a good understanding of the Huskers' scheme. Mayen has added about 10 pounds in the offseason as he continues to adjust to the rigors of the Big Ten. With both Mayen and Walker back in 2021-22, the Huskers' frontcourt should be considerably improved from a year ago.

2020-21 (COVID-19 SEASON)

Mayen was one of two Huskers to start all 27 games in 2020-21, as the junior college transfer averaged 8.6 points and 4.5 rebounds per game. The 6-foot-9 forward was fourth on the team in scoring, third in rebounding and led NU with 48 3-pointers while shooting 35 percent from beyond the arc. Mayen also shot a team-best 78 percent from the foul line in his first year as a Husker.

Mayen was playing some of his best basketball at the end of the year, averaging 13.3 points and 6.3 rebounds per game in his final four games while shooting 40 percent from 3-point range. The stretch began with a career-high 25 points on 9-of-11 shooting, including five 3-pointers, in a win over Rutgers and included his first career double-double with 14 points, including four 3-pointers, and a season-high 13 rebounds at No. 5 Iowa.

Mayen was forced to play center early on, as NU was without both Derrick Walker and Eduardo Andre for the first six games of the season. Mayen had 13 points in the opener against McNeese State and 12 points in a win over North Dakota State. He grabbed 12 rebounds and dished out four assists in a win over South Dakota.

It took Mayen a few games to adjust back to the stretch forward spot, but found success when Walker became eligible against Indiana on Jan. 10. Mayen had a then-season high 15 points, including five 3-pointers, and six boards against the Hoosiers, beginning a stretch of five straight double-figure efforts. In all, he averaged 11.0 ppg on 48 percent shooting and 5.4 rebounds per game, including 14 points and seven rebounds against Wisconsin and 16 points against No. 6 Illinois. He went into a little slump following the Penn State game, reaching double figures just once – a 13-point effort at Maryland on Feb. 17 – before closing with a flourish.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Mayen spent the 2019-20 season at Chipola (Fla.) College playing for Coach Brendan Foley, helping the school to an 18-10 record. Mayen, who was the No. 18 prospect in the final Juco Recruiting Top 100, averaged 11.8 points per game on 47 percent shooting along with 8.4 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game. He shot 38 percent from 3-point range (38-99) and 81.5 percent from the foul line for the season. Inside conference play, he raised his numbers across the board, averaging 14.6 points and 9.1 rebounds per game, shooting 47 percent from the field and 39 percent from 3-point range on his way to collecting first-team All-Panhandle Conference accolades. On the year, Mayen totaled eight double-doubles in his lone season at the school, highlighted by a 20-point, 16-rebound effort against Northwest Florida State. In all, he reached double figures in 20 of his 28 appearances and totaled 11 double-figure rebounding efforts as a sophomore.

Mayen began his collegiate career at TCU for two seasons under Coach Jamie Dixon. After redshirting his first season, he played in 17 games before a left knee injury ended his 2018-19 campaign. He averaged 2.1 points and 1.2 rebounds in 7.9 minutes played per game. His best performance of the year came in a win over West Virginia, when he had season highs in points (12), rebounds (six), field goals (three) and minutes (26). He also had eight points on 3-of-3 shooting in 11 minutes off the bench against Lipscomb.

Mayen was one of the top recruits in Australia in the 2017 class. He was a four-star recruit and the No. 2 ranked player in Australia by AUSA Hoops. He was a member of the Australian National Program, playing in the 2016 Albert Schweitzer Tournament in Germany on the U18 team and was in the U19 National Team program. Mayen averaged 12.0 points, 5.3 rebounds and 0.8 assists for Basketball Australia Centre of Excellence during the 2016-17 season, shooting 39.5 percent from 3-point range. He attended Concordia College for school and graduated in December of 2016. Mayen represented South Australia in the Australian U20 national team in 2016 and averaged 11.5 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. He played club basketball with the Sturt Sabres, helping them to a 50-3 record in his final season with the club.

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Trey McGowens returns to the Husker lineup after starting all 27 games last season. The 6-foot-4, 196-pound guard from Pendleton, S.C., was second on the team in both scoring (10.7 ppg) and assists (2.3 apg) while ranking among the Big Ten leaders with 1.4 steals per game. McGowens also made significant strides in his shooting, as he shot 32 percent from 3-point range in his two years at Pittsburgh but raised it to 37 percent last season, including nearly 39 percent in Big Ten play. McGowens, who has 1,052 career points in three seasons, is an elite athlete who can play on or off the ball and may be counted on to be more of a distributor with the influx of talent around him this season. He will be joined in the Husker lineup by his younger brother, Bryce, as the duo will play together for the first time competitively.

2020-21 (COVID-19 SEASON)

Trey McGowens made an immediate impact in his first season at Nebraska after transferring from Pittsburgh. He started all 27 games, averaging 10.7 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.4 steals per game. He finished fifth in the Big Ten in steals per game and ranked second on the squad in both scoring and assists. McGowens who shot just 32 percent from 3-point range in his first two seasons, raised that number to 37 percent in 2019-20 while going over 1,000 career points.

McGowens was playing some of his best basketball down the stretch, averaging 12.4 ppg on 45 percent shooting along with 3.9 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game over NU's final seven games. He closed the season with 13 points, four assists and four steals against Penn State in the Big Ten Tournament. McGowens, who reached double figures in six of his last seven games, nearly lifted the Huskers back against Northwestern, scoring 13 of his 15 points in the second half and adding five assists and six boards against the Wildcats. In all, McGowens had four or more assists in four of NU's final five games, including five each against Minnesota, Rutgers and at Northwestern. The stretch began with 17 points against Penn State before he had 16 points in a loss at No. 5 Illinois.

McGowens averaged 10.6 ppg in NU's first 10 games, highlighted by a 19-point effort against North Dakota State, before erupting for a season-high 20 points along with five rebounds against No. 17 Michigan State. He then followed up with 10 points, six rebounds and a season-high six assists against Indiana in NU's final game before a month-long shutdown. He led NU with 13 points at Michigan State, but then was held out of double figures in five of the next seven games before his final surge.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

McGowens played two seasons for Coach Jeff Capel at Pittsburgh before transferring at the end of the 2019-20 season. As a sophomore, McGowens started 32 of 33

2021-22 OUTLOOK

The return of Derrick Walker provides the Huskers with an inside presence the team had lacked during much of the past two seasons. The 6-foot-9 junior endured a tough start to the season, as he missed NU's first 11 games before making his debut against Indiana on Jan. 10. Walker had 10 points in the loss to the Hoosiers, but then didn't return to the court for nearly a month following the Huskers' COVID-19 pause. As Walker got back into rhythm, the Husker defense made significant strides, holding teams to just 42 percent from the floor in their final 16 games. Walker played some of his best basketball in the final three weeks of 2021, averaging 8.3 points on 64 percent shooting and 5.9 rebounds per game in the Huskers' final seven games. He has a good touch around the basket and will be counted on for his communication and leadership in 2021-22.

2020-21 (COVID-19 SEASON)

Walker gave an immediate boost to the Husker front court after becoming eligible on Jan. 10. He started all 16 games, averaging 5.9 ppg on 60 percent shooting and ranking second in rebounding at 4.8 caroms. Walker closed the season with one of his best performances of the season - an eight-point, eight-rebound, six-assist performance against Penn State in the Big Ten Tournament. Walker reached double figures three times in 2020-21, including a career-high 14 points against Rutgers as he connected on 7-of-11 shots from the floor. He nearly produced his first career double-double against Minnesota with 12 points and nine rebounds along with three blocks and also had 10 markers on 5-of-7 shooting in his debut against Indiana. He scored seven or more points in seven of his last eight contests and had six or more rebounds on six occasions in his first season as a Husker.

2019-20 (SIT OUT)

Walker sat out the 2019-20 season after transferring from Tennessee. He honed his skills working with the scout team. Walker was selected to represent Nebraska at the Black Student-Athlete Summit in Austin, Texas, in January of 2020.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Walker played in 30 games as a sophomore, as Tennessee reached the NCAA Sweet 16 and finished with a 31-6 record in 2018-19. He came off the bench and averaged 0.8 points and 1.1 rebounds per game in just over five minutes per contest. He shot 53 percent from the floor, including 6-of-7 from the field in SEC play. He had five points, two boards and a pair of assists in a win over Georgia.

As a freshman, he was an integral member of the Volunteers' 2017-18 SEC title team, appearing in 34 of the Vols' 35 contests and averaging 1.9 points and 2.2 rebounds in 8.8 minutes per game. He was efficient on the offensive end, shooting nearly 60 percent from the floor, including 68 percent (19-of-28) in SEC action. He totaled five or more points six times, including career bests in points (10), field goals (five) and minutes (25) at South Carolina when he hit all five field goal attempts. He set personal bests in both rebounds (seven) and blocks (two) at Alabama and also grabbed seven boards against Ole Miss. In all, he reached double-figures in minutes 11 times, including seven games against SEC competition.

He spent his senior and postgrad years at Sunrise (Kan.) Christian Academy, where he averaged 14 points and seven rebounds per game in 2016-17. He was a four-star prospect by ESPN.com and a three-star choice by Rivals and 247Sports, which rated him as the No. 2 prospect in Missouri in 2017. Walker played for the MoKan Elite in the summer of 2016, helping the team win the Nike Peach Jam championship. On that team, he played with 2018 first-round NBA picks Trae Young and Michael Porter Jr. He spent three seasons at Raytown High School, helping the school to a conference title and earning second-team all-conference honors. Walker, who attended the same high school as former Husker legend Tyronn Lue, also played three years of football at the school.

TREVOR LAKES

#14

FORWARD | 6-8 | 220 | SENIOR

HOMETOWN: LEBANON, IND.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: UNIVERSITY OF INDIANAPOLIS

• Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2021)

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Trevor Lakes looks to give Husker fans a true indication of his ability this season. The 6-foot-8 forward was slated for a redshirt season, but the ruling in December making transfers immediately eligible allowed Lakes an opportunity to adjust to the pace of Division I. Lakes averaged 3.2 points per game in 14 contests but became a valuable rotation player following the departure of Teddy Allen on March 1. Lakes played at least nine minutes in each of NU's final four games and had five or more points in each of the Huskers' final three games. Lakes underwent shoulder surgery in late March which limited his offseason work, but he was cleared to return to work prior to the start of the fall workouts. During the 1919-20 season at Indianapolis, Lakes averaged 15.7 points and 6.2 rebounds per game while leading his conference with 3.4 3-pointers per game. He enters his final collegiate season with over 1,000 career points and is a career 40 percent shooter from 3-point range.

2020-21 (COVID-19 SEASON)

Lakes was originally going to redshirt after transferring to Nebraska, but was cleared to play on Dec. 17, as all transfers were given a free year of eligibility. Lakes played in 14 games, averaging 3.2 points and 1.1 rebounds per game and saw more playing time following Teddy Allen's departure from the Husker roster. Lakes, who shot 33 percent from 3-point range, hit at least one 3-pointer in nine of his 14 appearances. He set season highs in points (12), rebounds (six), assists (two) and minutes (26) against Doane, when he hit 4-of-5 shots from 3-point range. Lakes played at least 12 minutes in each of his first four contests, including five points in 14 minutes off the bench at No. 25 Ohio State, but played just 21 minutes from Jan. 10 until Feb. 27. Lakes averaged 4.8 ppg in his final four games, including six points at No. 5 Iowa and five points at Northwestern and against Penn State at the Big Ten Tournament.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Lakes spent three seasons at the University of Indianapolis for Coach Stan Gouard, helping the school to a 62-25 record in that stretch. He totaled nearly 1,000 points and 400 rebounds at Indianapolis while his 235 3-pointers in three seasons ranked fifth in program history. In his final season at the school, he averaged a team-high 15.7 points and 6.2

rebounds per game while shooting 44 percent from the field and 40 percent from 3-point range to pace Indianapolis to a 24-6 record and a No. 1 seed in the 2020 NCAA Division II Regional Tournament. A second-team All-Great Lakes Valley Conference pick, he led the conference in 3-pointers per game (3.4/gm) while ranking in the top 15 in the GLVC in both scoring (14th) and rebounding (12th). Lakes reached double-figures 26 times, including nine games with at least 20 points, and recorded nine games with at least five 3-pointers. His season high in 2019-20 was a 25-point outburst against Maryville (Mo.) when he went 9-of-16 from the field, including seven 3-pointers. He posted a double-double at Bellarmine with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Lakes also shined in an exhibition win over Loyola (Chicago) with 22 points, including 6-of-11 from 3-point range, and six boards.

He collected All-GLVC honors as a sophomore in 2018-19, as he led the team in scoring at 14.1 ppg, while pulling down 5.5 rebounds per contest. Lakes paced the conference with 3.5 3-pointers per game and shot 39.7 percent from 3-point range, while ranking among conference leaders in scoring (11th), rebounding (12th) and blocked shots (0.7, 12th). He reached double figures 20 times, including five contests with at least 20 points. He tallied a career-high 27 points against Elmhurst and collected his first career double-double against Quincy with 19 points and a career-high 16 rebounds. Lakes saw action in 28 games as a freshman, averaging 5.6 points per game while shooting a team-best 45 percent from 3-point range. He had a season-high 21 points against Bluefield State and racked up 19 points, including a perfect 6-of-6 from 3-point range, at Tiffin.

He played at Lebanon High School, averaging 22.5 points, 6.7 rebounds and 1.5 blocks per game as a senior en route to earning IBCA Honorable Mention All-State honors. He also was an All-Area Honorable Mention by the Indy Star and High Honorable Mention All-State by the AP. He played four seasons of basketball at Lebanon High School and one season of golf in high school.

PERSONAL

Trevor is the son of David Lakes and Kelli Starkey and was born on Feb. 15, 1999, in Lebanon, Ind. He has three sisters (Kaylee, Kirstie and Sydnie Starkey). Trevor is majoring in child, youth and family studies and is on track to graduate next May.

EDUARDO ANDRE

FORWARD | 6-11 | 236 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: LONDON, ENGLAND
 PREVIOUS SCHOOL: AZ COMPASS PREP

2021-22 OUTLOOK

One benefit of the Huskers' busy February schedule was an opportunity to watch Eduardo Andre develop in game situations. The 6-foot-11, 236-pound forward emerged as the Huskers' top interior backup and averaged 4.7 points and 2.8 rebounds per game over the Huskers' final seven games. Andre, who possesses a 7-foot-5 wingspan, provides an interior presence where his length can impact games. He has already added 15 pounds since the end of last season and will factor into the Huskers' rotation. Andre is a relative newcomer to the sport, as he didn't begin playing until he was 14 years old in his native London.

2020-21 (COVID-19 SEASON)

Andre proved to be a valuable addition to the Husker roster in 2020-21. He appeared in 20 games, averaging 2.7 points on nearly 65 percent shooting and 2.2 rebounds per game. Andre, who missed NU's first six games because of COVID-19 protocols, emerged for the Huskers down the stretch, becoming NU's top front court reserve by the end of the year. Andre played some of his best basketball in the final three weeks of the season, averaging 4.7 ppg on 80 percent shooting and 2.8 rpg over his final six contests and made his final seven field goal attempts dating back to Feb. 27. He played just eight minutes against Penn State in the Big Ten Tournament, snapping a streak of five straight games with 10+ minutes. Andre had six points and three rebounds in 10 minutes at Northwestern despite battling foul trouble. His best performance in Big Ten play came in the win over Minnesota on Feb. 27 when he had seven points and a season-high six rebounds in 15 minutes off the bench. It was his second straight game with seven points, as he also had seven markers in 11 minutes at No. 5 Illinois. Andre, who made his debut against Doane on Dec. 17 with a season-high nine points on 4-of-4 shooting, saw limited minutes until the Huskers' returned to action in early February. His first major impact came at Minnesota on Feb. 8, when he came off the bench in the second half and played most of the half, totaling three boards and dishing out two assists in 13 minutes. From that point on, Andre cracked the rotation as he played 10 or more minutes nine times in the Huskers' final 14 games. He grabbed three-or-more rebounds eight times in his final 14 outings.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Andre came to Nebraska after spending his senior year at AZ Compass Prep in Chandler, Ariz. A three-star recruit by both 247 Sports and Rivals, he was ranked among the top 200 seniors in the country by 247 Sports in 2020. As a senior, he averaged 10.3 points, 9.8 rebounds and 3.9 blocked shots per game. Prior to his transfer to AZ Compass Prep, Andre was rated among the top 10 recruits in Texas in the class of 2020. Andre who didn't begin playing competitive basketball until he was 14 years old, played two seasons of basketball at Woodrow Wilson High School in Dallas, where he averaged 12.3 points, 11.5 rebounds and 4.3 blocks per game during his junior campaign. For his efforts, he was named the District 11-5A Defensive Player of the Year. He played AAU basketball with the Dallas Mustangs program. Andre chose NU over offers from Illinois, Maryland and Texas A&M among others.

PERSONAL

Eduardo is the son of Kiese Candida Andre and was born on May 17, 2001, in Luanda, Angola, before moving to London as a 4-year-old. He has two brothers (Kiese and Melchi) and two sisters (Joyce and Elisa). Eduardo majors in business administration at Nebraska.

GUARD | 6-3 | 177 | R-FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: OMAHA, NEB

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: ELKHORN SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

2021-22 HUSKERS

- Academic All-Big Ten (2021)
- Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2021)
- Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2019, 2020; Spring 2020, 2021)

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Walk-on Jace Piatkowski is in his third year in the Husker program and provides depth in the Husker backcourt. The 6-foot-3 guard played in 10 games off the bench in limited duty, while hitting his only field goal attempt of the year against McNeese State. Piatkowski is a four-time NU Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2021. He continues the Piatkowski legacy in the Husker basketball program, as his father, Eric, ranks second in school history in scoring and is one of four Huskers to have their jersey retired. His uncle, Troy, played three seasons in the late 1990s, helping NU make three postseason appearances.

2020-21 (COVID-19 SEASON)

Jace Piatkowski played in 10 games during the 2020-21 season, including seven Big Ten Conference contests, as one of two walk-ons to see action. He made his only field goal attempt of the season, hitting a 3-pointer in Nebraska's season opening win over McNeese State, as he played a season-high four minutes. Piatkowski also 1-of-2 from the foul line in the first contest at Maryland and grabbed rebounds against North Dakota State and at fifth-ranked Illinois in limited duty.

2019-20 (REDSHIRT)

Piatkowski redshirted during the 2019-20 season, working extensively with the Husker scout team in practice. He did accompany the team on the Huskers' trip to Italy in August of 2019, playing in four games and hitting a 3-pointer in the opener.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Piatkowski starred at Elkhorn South High School for Coach Nolan Reilly. He totaled 775 points in his high school career, including 91 3-pointers, in three seasons on the varsity. As a senior, he averaged 18.6 points and 3.3 rebounds per game in 23 games, highlighted by a 36-point performance against Lincoln High.

He paced Elkhorn South with 46 3-pointers and also shot 77 percent from the foul line in 2018-19. For his efforts, he was a Class A honorable-mention all-state selection and a third-team all-metro selection from the Omaha World-Herald.

Piatkowski averaged 14.0 points and 3.2 rebounds per game as a junior. He topped ESHS with 45 3-pointers and shot nearly 40 percent from 3-point range while also shooting nearly 80 percent from the foul line. A three-year performer, Piatkowski also played AAU ball for Coach Andy King at the Omaha Sports Academy, teaming with fellow Huskers Akol Arop and Bret Porter. Piatkowski is the third Elkhorn South product to play at Nebraska, joining Johnny Trueblood and Justin Costello.

Piatkowski was a member of the Elkhorn South honor roll all four years and earned Academic All-State accolades by carrying a 4.0 GPA. He had some scholarship interest from lower-level schools, and chose to walk on at Nebraska over a walk-on opportunity at Grand Canyon University.

PERSONAL

Jace is the son of Kristen and Eric Piatkowski and was born on May 1, 2001, in Santa Monica, Calif. He has two sisters (Paige and Paisley). Jace majors in finance and is a four-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member. Jace's father (Eric) was one of the greatest players in Husker school history, as he totaled 1,934 points from 1990 to 1994, helping Nebraska to four straight NCAA Tournaments. A two-time first-team All-Big Eight pick, Piatkowski was the MVP of the 1994 Big Eight Tournament, highlighted by a school-record 42-point effort against Oklahoma. He was a first-round draft pick in 1994 and played 14 seasons in the NBA. His No. 52 jersey was retired by Nebraska in 2006 when he was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame. He was also in the inaugural member of the Nebraska Athletic Hall of Fame in 2015.

HOMETOWN: COLUMBUS, OHIO
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

• Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2020; Spring 2021)

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Chris McGraw is in his second year in the Husker program after transferring from Otterbein College. A walk-on, McGraw provides depth in the Husker backcourt and helps run the scout team in practice. He played collegiately for a season at Ohio University in 2018-19, appearing in four games for the Bobcats. He was a teammate of current Husker Trey McGowens at Hargrave Military Academy in 2017-18, as the team went 33-4 and was ranked fourth nationally.

2020-21 (COVID-19 SEASON)

McGraw sat out the 2020-21 season after transferring from Otterbein College. A walk-on, McGraw helped with scout team duties in his first season as a Husker.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

McGraw came to Nebraska after spending the 2019-20 season at Otterbein College, a Division III school in suburban Columbus, Ohio, but did not play because of an injury. He began his collegiate career by walking on at Ohio University for Coach Saul Phillips during the 2018-19 campaign. McGraw appeared in four games and played four minutes. He saw action in wins over Wilberforce, Iona, Marshall and at Akron and missed his only shot from the field.

McGraw did a postgraduate year at Hargrave Military Academy and Coach Lee Martin, helping the Tigers to a 33-4 mark and a No. 4 national ranking in 2017-18, as he was a teammate of Husker guard Trey McGowens. McGraw played his high school basketball at Bishop Watterson High School for Coach Vince Lombardo, averaging 7.8 ppg as a senior and played all four years at the school. McGraw played AAU basketball for the King James Shooting Stars and Coach Keith Boyd.

PERSONAL

Chris is the son of Chris and Laura McGraw, and was born on Sept. 22, 1998, in Columbus, Ohio. He has two sisters (Ellie and Annie). McGraw majors in child, youth and family studies at Nebraska and is on track to graduate next May.

ALONZO VERGE JR.

GUARD | 6-3 | 164 | SENIOR

HOMETOWN: CHICAGO, ILL.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

- Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year (2020)
- Honorable-Mention All-Pac 12 (2020)

2021-22 OUTLOOK

With Dalano Banton foregoing his eligibility to enter the 2021 NBA Draft in July, the Huskers had a need for an experienced backcourt playmaker, and the addition of Alonzo Verge Jr. helped solidify the Husker lineup. Verge spent the last two seasons at Arizona State, where he averaged at least 14 points per game in both campaigns. In 2019-20, he was the Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year, averaging 14.6 ppg to help the Sun Devils to 20 wins and a third-place finish in the Pac-12. Last season, he moved into a starting role at ASU, and was among the conference leaders in scoring, assists, assist-to-turnover ratio and steals. Verge, who arrived on campus in late July, quickly impressed the coaches with his feel for the game as well as his ability to get in the paint and make plays for himself and his teammates. While Verge has been mostly known for his scoring prowess, he uses his size and quickness to disrupt on the defensive end. The coaching staff anticipates Verge making an immediate impact for the Huskers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Verge comes to Nebraska after spending the last two seasons at Arizona State University, where he averaged in double figures in each of the past two seasons and was the Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year in 2019-20.

Last season, Verge averaged 14.0 points, 3.8 assists and 3.9 rebounds per game while starting 21 of 23 games for the Sun Devils.

He ranked among the Pac-12 leaders in scoring (15th), assists (seventh), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.55-to-1, sixth), steals (1.2, 13th) and free throw percentage (.809, 13th). Verge totaled five games of at least 20 points, including a season-high 28-point, eight-rebound effort against Oregon in the Pac-12

Tournament. Verge averaged 27.0 ppg, 7.0 rpg, and 3.0 apg in two conference tournament games for the Sun Devils.

Verge made a major impact in his first season in Tempe, averaging 14.6 points per game, 3.5 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.4 steals per game as Arizona State won 20 games and tied for third in the Pac-12. He was nation's top bench scorer that season, averaging 16.9 points per game in the 19 games he came off the bench for the Sun Devils, highlighted by a 43-point effort against Saint Mary's. The effort – one of nine 40-point outbursts in school history – was the highest scoring effort by any Pac-12 player since the 2015-16 season. After a slow start in Pac-12 play, his game-winning basket in a one-point win over Arizona sparked a season-ending run which saw him average 17.3 ppg on 49 percent shooting over the Sun Devils' final 13 regular-season games. He reached double figures in 12 of the 13 contests, including four 20-point efforts.

Prior to playing at Arizona State, Verge was a two-time NJCAA All-American at Moberly Area CC, where he set school marks with 1,603 points and 486 assists in two seasons. He was a first-team NJCAA All-American as a sophomore, averaging 30.9 ppg, while shooting 49 percent from the field and from 3-point range. He also averaged 8.2 assists and 4.2 rebounds per game. He totaled 35 or more points on 13 occasions, including a school-record 55-point outing. Verge was the first-team all-state pick by the Chicago Tribune and Chicago Sun Times as a senior at Thornton High School, where he averaged 26 points, eight rebounds, seven assists and three steals per game for coach Tai Streets.

PERSONAL

Alonzo Verge Jr. is the son of Tricia Moncrief and Alonzo Verge Sr., was born Oct. 17, 1998 in Chicago. Verge has one sister (Tiara) and a five-year-old daughter (Nami Sky). Alonzo earned his undergraduate degree at Arizona State in May of 2021 in liberal studies.

C.J. WILCHER

FORWARD | 6-5 | 221 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: PLAINFIELD, N.J.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: XAVIER UNIVERSITY

2021-22 OUTLOOK

One trait of any of Fred Hoiberg's teams is a reliance on the 3-pointer, and the addition of C.J. Wilcher (pronounced WILL-chur) will greatly aid the Huskers in that area. The 6-foot-5 guard arrives after spending the 2020-21 season at Xavier, where he was in the Musketeers' rotation during the final portion of the season. Wilcher, a former top-100 recruit in the class of 2020, reached double figures in minutes in seven of his final nine contests, including 32 minutes at Marquette. While Wilcher averaged just 3.3 points per game, he closed the year by averaging 7.0 ppg in his final three efforts. The Plainfield, N.J., product has been one of the Huskers' best shooters since arriving on campus in June while also showing an ability to score from a number of spots. Wilcher, who has four years of eligibility remaining, will be counted on to play a significant role for the Huskers this season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Wilcher came to Nebraska after playing at Xavier University during the 2020-21 season. Wilcher played in 15 games for the Musketeers, who finished with a 13-8 record. He averaged 3.3 points and 1.1 rebounds per game in just over 10 minutes per game, while shooting 40 percent from the floor and 35 percent from 3-point range. Wilcher saw more action down the stretch, playing double-figure minutes in seven of his last nine contests, including more than 20 minutes per game over the Musketeers' final four games. He closed the 2020-21 campaign with seven points in 20 minutes against Butler in the Big East Tournament. His best performance of the year came in his first collegiate start at Marquette, where he set season highs in points (10) and minutes (32). Wilcher had four points and a season-high six rebounds at Georgetown. He hit two 3-pointers in six minutes off the bench in the win over Providence and added five points, including a 3-pointer, in 10 minutes of action in the win at Butler.

A four-star recruit coming out of high school by ESPN, 247Sports and Rivals, Wilcher was ranked No. 81 by ESPN in the class of 2020 and was a top-150 recruit by all three major recruiting sites. He spent his senior season playing for Dave Boff at Roselle Catholic, averaging 18.8 points, 4.5 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game to earn first-team all-state honors despite missing nine games because of injury. Wilcher had 50 3-pointers as a senior, highlighted by hitting six 3-pointers in a 59-58 win over Gill St.

Bernard's in the sectional championship in what would be his final high school appearance. He starred for St. Benedict's Prep in Newark during his sophomore and junior campaigns, averaging 18 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists in 2018-19 en route to a state runner-up finish. As a sophomore, he had 28 points, including five 3-pointers, in a 59-58 win over Blair Academy in the state championship game. Wilcher played AAU ball for both Team Rio and City Rocks on the EYBL Circuit, averaging 19.7 points per game with City Rocks in 2019. In the classroom, he was a member of the honor roll at Roselle Catholic.

PERSONAL

Caleb Jefferson

Wilcher is the son of Sergio and Kimberly Wilcher and was born on July 14, 2001, in Manhattan, N.Y. Wilcher has three brothers (Sergio, Malik and Simeon) and one sister (Zoe). C.J.'s father played collegiately at Morgan State. C.J. has not declared a major at Nebraska.

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Freshman Keon Edwards may be the most overlooked newcomer on the Husker roster. After reclassifying last December, Edwards played at DePaul, but saw limited time for the Blue Demons, as he appeared in five games before transferring to Nebraska after a coaching change. Edwards was a top-50 recruit in the 2021 class before reclassifying, and comes to Lincoln with four years of eligibility remaining. Edwards, a 6-foot-7, 204-pound guard, gives the Huskers another wing with size and shooting ability. He played for national power Hillcrest (Ariz.) Prep in 2019-20, averaging 14.3 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.6 assists, 2.4 steals and 1.9 blocks per game in 2019-20 while shooting 43 percent from 3-point range. Edwards is a shot-maker

Edwards spent his junior season at Hillcrest (Ariz.) Prep, averaging 14.3 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.6 assists, 2.4 steals and 1.9 blocks in 18 games for Coach Nick Weaver in 2019-20, helping the school rank as high as second nationally. He shot 45 percent from the field, including 43 percent from 3-point range for Hillcrest. His season was highlighted by a 44-point effort. Prior to transferring to Hillcrest, Edwards played for Findlay (Nev.) Prep as a sophomore before the school closed in 2019. Edwards also participated in a pair of USA Basketball Men's Junior National Team minicamps in July and October of 2019. He played AAU basketball with Drive Nation on the EYBL Circuit for former NBA all-star Jermaine O'Neal. Edwards chose Nebraska over a host of schools, including Alabama, Georgia, Lamar and Grand Canyon University following his decision to transfer.

PERSONAL

The son of Georgia and Karl Edwards, Keon was born on May 2, 2002, in Corpus Christi, Texas. He has one older brother (Kyre), who played collegiately at Texas A&M-Kingsville. Keon is majoring in communication studies.

with the athletic ability to finish at the rim. Edwards has added nearly 20 pounds since arriving on campus and that added strength will help him withstand the rigors of the Big Ten.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Edwards transferred to Nebraska in April of 2021 after spending the 2020-21 season at DePaul University. Originally in the class of 2021, Edwards reclassified and enrolled at DePaul in December of 2020. He appeared in five games for the Blue Demons and Head Coach Dave Leitao, totaling nine points and four rebounds in 39 minutes of action. Edwards played in 14 minutes against UConn in the Big East Tournament and set season bests with three points and two rebounds at Creighton.

Prior to his reclassification, Edwards was one of the top players in the 2021 class, as he was a four-star prospect and was a consensus top-100 recruit when he signed with DePaul in November of 2020. He was ranked No. 41 by ESPN. No. 75 by 247Sports and No. 80 by Rivals. ESPN also had him rated as the eighth-best small forward in the 2021 class. Edwards was also among Sports Illustrated top 99 high school seniors in the class of 2021.

WILHELM BREIDENBACH

FORWARD | 6-10 | 227 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: RANCHO SANTA MARGARITA, CALIF.
 PREVIOUS SCHOOL: MATER DEI HIGH SCHOOL

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Wilhelm Breidenbach (pronounced bride-en-bock) is one of the cornerstones in the Huskers' 2021 recruiting class. The 6-foot-10 forward was a top-100 recruit coming out of Mater Dei High School in California where he averaged 15.5 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game before a season-ending injury. Breidenbach had led Mater Dei, which had three D-1 frontcourt players, to a 21-0 record prior to his injury. After being limited in his first couple of weeks after arriving on campus in June, Breidenbach quickly regained the form which made him one of the most sought-after players in the country. He is perfect stretch forward in the Huskers' attack, as he can initiate offense as well as step out to the 3-point line. While Breidenbach's skill set is impressive, the thing that has made the biggest mark on the coaching staff is the effort he plays with on the court and his ability to pick up things quickly. His versatility and basketball IQ will put Breidenbach in position to make a significant contribution early in his Husker career.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Breidenbach joined the Huskers after playing for national power Mater Dei High School and legendary Coach Gary McKnight, who has won more than 1,150 games in his 38 years of coaching at the school. Breidenbach was ranked No. 75 in the ESPN100, where he is a four-star product. He was also No. 97 in the 247Sports Composite, which combines all of the major national recruiting services rankings. In all, he was a top-150 recruit by all three major recruiting services. One of three Division I signees in the frontcourt Breidenbach averaged 15.5 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game in 21 contests. At the time of his injury, Mater Dei was 24-0 before finishing with a 27-6 mark. He tallied four double-doubles and six games with at least 20 points. The No. 12 center nationally by ESPN in the class of 2021, he averaged 11.9 points and 8.0 rebounds per game in 2019-20, as Mater Dei went 25-8 and reached the CIF Open Division Regional semifinals. He was an All-CIF Southern Section Open Division team and first-team All-Orange County in 2019-20, as he posted six double-doubles, including an 18-point, 14-rebound effort against Sierra Canyon. As a sophomore, he averaged 12.4 points and 8.8 rebounds per game, including 10 double-doubles, as Mater Dei went 29-5 and was the CIF Southern California finalist. Breidenbach, who was the first California native to sign with the Huskers out of high school since 2006, was a four-year starter at Mater Dei, totaling 1,293 points, 764 rebounds and 193 assists in his career. He played his AAU ball with Team Why Not on the EYBL circuit, helping the team to a runner-up finish in the 2019 Peach Jam. Breidenbach, who selected NU over Marquette, Michigan, Cal and Utah, also carried close to a 4.0 GPA at Mater Dei.

PERSONAL

The son of Jeff Dorsz and the late Silke Breidenbach, Wilhelm was born on Aug. 23 2002, in Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif. He has one sister (Annabel). Wilhelm majors in pre-health.

HOMETOWN: KAUNAS, LITHUANIA
 PREVIOUS SCHOOL: WESTERN RESERVE (OHIO) ACADEMY

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Oleg Kojenets (pronounced Oh-leg Co-yah-nets) continues the Huskers' trend of overseas recruiting under Fred Hoiberg. The 7-foot, 223-pound forward from Kaunas, Lithuania, provides interior size for the Big Red, as NU had just one player taller than 6-foot-9 the last two seasons. Kojenets, the first seven-footer in the Husker program since 2014, arrived to campus in July after a minor injury forced him to miss training with the Lithuanian U-19 team this summer. Even with a late start to workouts, he has made significant strides in his time on campus. Kojenets runs the floor well for his size and has good shooting touch. His development was limited, as he came to the United States for his senior season in high school, but the team played just nine games because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Kojenets comes from a basketball family, as both parents played at the Division I level, while his father played professionally overseas. Kojenets possesses the work ethic and natural tools to become a contributor for the Huskers, and his playing time will depend on gaining strength and adapting to the pace of Big Ten basketball.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Kojenets signed with Nebraska during the spring signing period. A 7-foot, 223-pound forward from Kaunas, Lithuania, Kojenets was a three-star recruit by both 247Sports and Rivals and was ranked in the top-100 nationally by 247Sports prior to his senior season. He was rated No. 208 nationally and the No. 26 center nationally, in the 2020-21 247Sports Composite. Kojenets was selected to the U19 National Team for his native Lithuania in the U-19 Basketball World Cup, but was forced to withdraw because of an injury. He spent his senior year at Western Reserve Academy in Hudson, Ohio, as the team played just nine games in a COVID-shortened season. Prior to coming to the United States, he played for Zalgiris Kaunas' U-18 team at the 2020 adidas Next Generation Tournament, averaging 6.8 points on 50 percent shooting and 4.0 rebounds per game as the team finished with a 3-1 mark. He also represented his country at the 2019 FIBA U16 European Championships in Udine, Italy. In that event, Kojenets averaged 9.1 points, 6.3 rebounds and 1.7 blocked shots per game while shooting 49 percent from the field. He reached double figures in three of the five games of the tournament, including a double-double (12 points 10 rebounds, 3 blocks) against Slovenia in the group phase. He chose Nebraska over Saint Mary's, Georgia Tech and Seton Hall.

PERSONAL

Oleg is the son of Aleh and Jurgita Kojenets and was born on Jan. 11, 2003, in Dombóvár, Hungary. He is majoring in computer science at Nebraska. Oleg comes from a basketball family, as both parents played collegiately at UNC Wilmington. Aleh was a 6-foot-11 center who played in 114 games during his four-year career at the school and helped the program reach the NCAA Tournament as a senior in 2000. After college, he played professionally overseas for more than a decade. Jurgita, was a 6-foot-6 center who still ranks third in school record books in both blocks in a season (71, 1998-99) and career (122, 1997-2000). She also holds the school record with 10 blocked shots in a game at UNC Wilmington.

HOMETOWN: PENDLETON, S.C

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: LEGACY EARLY COLLEGE

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Bryce McGowens brings lofty credentials into the Husker program. The first five-star recruit in program history and a Jordan Brand Classic selection, McGowens was the Gatorade Player of the Year in South Carolina last season. He scored over 2,300 points in high school, including nearly 300 3-pointers while shooting over 40 percent from long distance. At 6-foot-7, 179 pounds, McGowens is a fluid player with the ability to score from all three levels and the athleticism to get to the basket. He possesses the ability to make hard plays look easy and a feel for the game which will help his teammates get open looks. McGowens will be joined in the Husker lineup by his older brother, Trey, who is in second season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

McGowens enjoyed a decorated high school career and was one of the top players in the class of 2021, ranking in the top-25 nationally by both ESPN and 247Sports. He was a five-star recruit by both Rivals and 247Sports and was Nebraska's highest ranked recruit in the recruiting database era. McGowens totaled 2,341 points in high school, including 285 of 699 on 3-point attempts (41 percent) during his high school career. He was selected to play in the 2021 Allen Iverson Roundball Classic, a national showcase of the top seniors in the nation, and placed second in the event's 3-point contest in May of 2021. He was also selected to The Jordan Brand Classic roster, as one of the nation's top 30 players. The top recruit in South Carolina in 2021 by ESPN and 247Sports, he was named Gatorade and MaxPreps Player of the Year in South Carolina as a senior, averaging 21.6 points, 4.7 rebounds, 3.1 assists and 1.1 blocks per contest for Legacy Early College and Coach BJ Jackson. McGowens was the leading scorer at the St. James NIBC Invitational, posting 20.9 points per contest in seven appearances in a field featuring many of the country's top teams and helped the school to a 14-7 record playing a national schedule.

McGowens spent his first three seasons at Wren High School, totaling 1,882 points on 51 percent shooting, 323 rebounds, 220 assists and 126 steals. A three-time all-state performer and two-time Region 1-AAAA Player of the Year, he averaged 25.4 points, 6.3 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.5 blocks per game as a junior while leading the school to a 25-5 record and an appearance in the Class AAAA Upper State championship game. His junior season was punctuated by a school-record 67-point performance in the second round of the state tournament, as he hit 22-of-28 shots from the field, including eight 3-pointers. That was one of eight 30-point efforts as a junior, including a trio of 40-point outings, on his way to player-of-the-year accolades by the Anderson Independent for the second straight year.

McGowens earned regional player-of-the-year accolades for the first time as a sophomore when he averaged 26 points per game on 55 percent shooting, including 45 percent from 3-point range, in leading Wren to a 22-7 mark and a Class AAAA runner-up finish. He burst on the scene as a freshman, averaging 18.4 points per game while shooting 41 percent from long range, to earn all-region honors for the first of three straight years. He played for Team Thad on the prestigious Nike EYBL circuit.

Off the court, McGowens carried a weighted 4.15 GPA at Legacy Early College, while also volunteering for the United Way and at a soup kitchen in Anderson. Bryce selected Nebraska over Georgia, Michigan, Oregon and Florida State.

PERSONAL

The son of Bobby and Pam McGowens, Bryce was born on Nov. 8, 2002, in Pendleton, S.C. McGowens majors in communication studies. He has an older brother (Trey) and one younger sister (Raina). Trey is in his second year playing basketball at Nebraska after beginning his career at Pittsburgh. Bryce's father played football at Clemson before transferring to South Carolina State to play both football and basketball. He finished as the school's all-time receiving leader and helped the school make two NCAA Tournament appearances. Bryce's mother played basketball at Western Carolina and is a high school basketball coach.

QUARAN MCPHERSON

POS | 6-3 | 199 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: QUEENS, N.Y.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: LINK YEAR (MO.) SCHOOL

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Quaran McPherson (pronounced kr-aan) comes to Nebraska after spending 2020-21 at Link Year School, helping the program to a 26-4 record and a runner-up finish at the 2021 Post-Grad Nationals. The 6-foot-3 guard averaged 19 points and four assists per game and provides the Huskers with another solid ball handler who can play a number of backcourt spots. McPherson has impressed the coaching staff with his effort on the defensive end, and he is not afraid of a challenge. McPherson is a typical New York City guard who can take charge and communicates well on the court.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

McPherson spent the 2020-21 season at Link Year School in Branson, Mo., averaging 19 points, four rebounds and four assists per game for Coach Adam Donyes, as the team posted a 26-4 record and earned runner-up honors at the 2021 Post Grad Nationals. He was also invited to the 2020 Pangos All-America festival, which featured 40 of the top players in the country in November of 2020. McPherson spent his senior season playing for Woodstock (Conn.) Academy and Head Coach Jacque Rivera, averaging 14.6 points, 7.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.2 steals per game on a roster which sent 10 players to Division I programs. McPherson was slated to play on Woodstock's postgrad team in 2020-21, but didn't play at the school because of COVID-19 restrictions. Before going to Woodstock, he played two seasons at national power Christ the King High School, helping the school to a 19-10 record and a CHSAA Championship in 2019 despite missing the second half of the season to knee surgery. He came off the bench as a sophomore on a roster which included Kofi Cockburn (Illinois) and Tyson Walker (Michigan State). McPherson played for the New York Rens on the AAU circuit. McPherson had offers from Arizona State, Georgia, St. John's and other high-major programs before choosing Nebraska.

PERSONAL

The son of Abdullah and Crystale McPherson, Quaran was born on Jan. 22, 2002, in Queens, N.Y. McPherson has not declared at major at Nebraska.

KEISEI TOMINAGA

GUARD | 6-2 | 178 | SOPHOMORE

HOMETOWN: MORIYAMA NAGOYA AICHI, JAPAN
 PREVIOUS SCHOOL: RANGER (TEXAS) COLLEGE

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Keisei Tominaga (pronounced Kay-say Toe-may-nawga) brings to Nebraska a reputation as one of the top young shooters in the world. The 6-foot-2 guard showed his prolific ability at Ranger College, connecting on nearly 200 3-pointers and shooting 48 percent from long range in two seasons at the school. Tominaga's shooting will help the Huskers space the floor, as teams have to account for him whenever he is on the floor. In addition, his basketball IQ and playmaking abilities should help him flourish in Nebraska's attack.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Keisei Tominaga (pronounced Kay-say Toe-may-nawga) comes off a strong performance in the Tokyo Olympics, as he represented his native Japan in 3x3 Basketball. The youngest player in the tournament, he finished third in scoring (6.9 ppg), fourth in 1-point shooting (74 percent) and seventh in 3-point shooting (36 percent) in helping Japan to the medal round. He became the third Husker to compete in the Olympics, joining Aleks Maric (Australia) and Ade Dagunduro (Nigeria) in 2012.

Tominaga spent the last two seasons at Ranger (Texas) College, helping the program to a 22-4 record and a NJCAA National Tournament semifinals appearance in 2021, and 50 wins in two seasons at the school. He connected on 198 3-pointers in the last two years, hitting at a 48 percent clip in that span.

As a sophomore, he earned second-team NJCAA All-America honors, averaging 16.3 points per game on 51 percent shooting, ranking ninth in 3-pointer per game (3.4/gm) and 19th in 3-point percentage (48.7) for Coach Larry Brown. He earned a spot on the NJCAA All-Tournament team, averaging 20.3 points, 3.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists and per game, including 26 points in the national semifinals. On the year, he had 21 double-figure performances, including a 31-point, six-assist effort in the regional title game where he hit 7-of-10 from 3-point range. He also had a 39-point performance, where he hit a school-record 11 3-pointers in 2020-21.

As a freshman, he helped Ranger College and Coach Billy Gillespie to a 28-3 record and a berth in the NJCAA National Tournament before the season was ended because of the COVID-19 pandemic. A first-team All-Region V and Northern Texas Junior College Athletic Conference honoree, Tominaga averaged 16.8 points per game on 55 percent shooting, including 47.9 percent from 3-point range. He finished in the top-20 nationally in both 3-point percentage (47.9 percent) and 3-pointers per game (3.4 per game) in 2019-20. He was named conference freshman of the year, leading the conference in 3-point shooting and finishing sixth in both scoring and field goal percentage. He totaled 11 games with at least 20 points in 2019-20, including a season-high 34-point outburst against Victoria College when he went 8-of-14 from long range.

In addition to his 3x3 experience, he was named to Japan's B National team in August of 2020, which consists of some of the top prospects in the country. Previously, he starred for Japan's U-18 team at the Asian Championships, averaging 19.3 points per game to rank fifth among all players in the competition. Tominaga had three 20-point games in the tournament to lead Japan to a fifth-place finish, highlighted by a 33-point performance against Bahrain. He made his national team debut earlier that year, suiting up for the U-16 program at the Asian Championships and averaging 17.5 points per game to finish fourth among all scorers, including a tournament high 3.2 3-pointers per game.

As a high school senior, he averaged 39.8 points per game for Sakuragaoka Gakuen High School at the All-Japan Championship, including a 46-point performance in the third-place game.

PERSONAL

The son of Hiroyuki and Hitomi Tominaga, Keisei was both on Feb. 1, 2001, in Moriyama, Japan. He has one younger sister, Chihiro. Keisei is a child, youth and family studies major at Nebraska. His father, Hiroyuki, was a center on the Japan national team and played in the 1998 FIBA World Championship and played professionally in Japan for a decade.

GUARD | 6-1 | 187 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: GREAT NECK, N.Y.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: NORTH HIGH SCHOOL

2021-22 OUTLOOK

One of two walk-ons in this year's recruiting class, Jackson Cronin comes to Nebraska after starring at Great Neck (N.Y.) North High School. Cronin, a 6-foot-1, 187-pound guard, earned first-team all-county honors after averaging 21.3 points, 8.0 rebounds and 6.1 assists per game. Cronin will provide depth in the Husker backcourt in his first season in Lincoln.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Cronin played four seasons at Great Neck North High School for Coach Kevin Graham. Cronin was a two-time All-Nassau County selection, averaging more than 20 points per game as a junior and senior. He played just eight games because of the COVID-19 pandemic, but averaged 21.3 points, 8.0 rebounds and 6.1 assists per game, highlighted by a 40-point effort against Sewanhaka High School. He earned all-county accolades for the first time in 2019-20, as he averaged 21.2 ppg, 5.0 rpg and 5.3 apg. Cronin broke into the starting lineup during his sophomore campaign, averaging 11.6 ppg. He played AAU basketball for The NY Gauchos and NY adidas, and played in the Maccabi Pan American games in 2019 for the U16 USA Team, earning a gold medal.

PERSONAL

Jackson is the son of Steve and Joanna Cronin, and was born on April 22, 2003, in Great Neck, N.Y. He has one brother (Luke) and one sister (Pelle). Cronin majors in finance at Nebraska. His father (Steve) played collegiately at Tufts.

SAM HOIBERG

GUARD | 6-0 | 183 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: LINCOLN, NEB.
 PREVIOUS SCHOOL: PIUS X HIGH SCHOOL

2021-22 OUTLOOK

Freshman Sam Hoiberg joins the Husker program after playing two seasons at Lincoln Pius X High School. The 6-foot, 183-pound guard garnered honorable-mention all-state honors as a senior, averaging 14.9 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.8 assists to help the Thunderbolts to the 2021 Class A State Tournament. A walk-on, Hoiberg provides the Huskers some backcourt depth and shooting ability and he brings a great understanding of the game and the Huskers' system. Hoiberg chose to walk on and play for his father, Fred, despite getting interest from several mid-major programs. Sam's older brother, Jack, is a senior at UT-Arlington after spending the past four seasons at Michigan State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Hoiberg played two seasons at Lincoln Pius X High School for Coach Brian Spicka, earning honorable-mention Class A all-state honors in both seasons. The 6-foot, 183-pound guard helped Pius X to the Class A State Tournament and an 18-4 record as a senior, averaging 14.9 points, 4.2 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 2.0 steals per game. A first-team all-city pick by the Lincoln Journal Star, Hoiberg was an honorable-mention all-state honoree by both the Omaha World-Herald and Journal Star in 2020-21. He made an immediate impact in his first season in 2019-20, averaging 14.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game as the Thunderbolts went 16-8 and reached the district finals. For his efforts, he was a second-team all-city and first-team Heartland Athletic Conference pick. He played his sophomore season at Hinsdale (Ill.) Central and played AAU basketball with Breakaway Basketball before moving to Lincoln when his father was named head coach of the Husker basketball program in April of 2019. A two-sport athlete, Sam Hoiberg also played golf as a senior, helping the school to a runner-up finish at the 2021 Class A State Championship. He also excelled in the classroom, earning Academic All-State accolades as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL

The son of Carol and Fred Hoiberg, Sam was born on March 21, 2003, in Chicago, Illinois. He has two brothers (Jack and Charlie) and one sister (Paige). His oldest brother, Jack, played for four seasons at Michigan State and is currently at UT-Arlington, while his father, Fred, played collegiately at Iowa State and spent a decade in the NBA with three franchises. Sam is majoring in sports media and communications.

COACHES

FRED
HOIBERG

FRED HOIBERG

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON

ALMA MATER (YEAR): IOWA STATE (1995)
 NCAA RECORD: 129-101 (SEVEN SEASONS)

COACHES

Fred Hoiberg ushered in a new era for Nebraska basketball, as he was named head coach on March 30, 2019, and formally introduced on April 2, 2019. Hoiberg, who was born in Lincoln, is the 28th coach in the history of Nebraska men's basketball, a fraternity that includes his grandfather, Jerry Bush, who guided the Husker program for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963. Hoiberg's ties run deep to Nebraska as his other grandfather, Otto Hoiberg, was a history professor at the University, while his father, Eric, received his doctorate degree from Nebraska.

Hoiberg brought a distinguished resume to Lincoln that includes four years as an NBA front office executive, four years as an NBA head coach and five years at Iowa State, where he orchestrated the biggest turnaround in Big 12 history in 2011-12 and guided the school to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Following his 10-year NBA playing career, Hoiberg worked in the front office for the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves, serving as assistant general manager before being promoted to vice president of basketball operations. He left the Timberwolves to get into coaching, accepting the head job at Iowa State, his alma mater. Hoiberg led the Cyclones to four NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of Big 12 Tournament championships in his five seasons at the school. His success in Ames led him back to the NBA as head coach of the Chicago Bulls, where he helped the Bulls to a playoff appearance in his second season.

Hoiberg has experienced incredible success at the collegiate level. He won more games than any other player during his time as a Cyclone guard and then returned to post the top winning percentage of any coach in Iowa State history. He won four NCAA Tournament games at Iowa State – a program record – and developed four players who eventually became NBA Draft picks and four All-Americans in his five seasons.

Hoiberg has implemented his up-tempo attack in Lincoln, as Nebraska has led the Big Ten in tempo in each of his first two seasons, including 16th nationally in 2019-20. NU ranked in the top three in 3-pointers per game (third) and turnover margin (second) in conference play in his first season. The Huskers, which returned one letterwinner, posted Big Ten wins over both Purdue and Iowa. The 2020-21 season saw the Huskers climb to 40th nationally in defensive efficiency, despite a lineup which featured four new starters for most of Big Ten play. NU ranking second in school history with 8.44 3-pointers per game while facing a top-10 schedule for the second straight season. Dalano Banton became the 11th college player Hoiberg has put into the NBA, as he was a second-round pick by the Toronto Raptors in the 2021 NBA Draft after leading the Huskers in both assists and rebounds.

Nebraska has recruited at an unprecedented level under Hoiberg, as his 2021 recruiting class ranked in the top-15 nationally by ESPN and was highlighted by a five-star signee Bryce McGowens and top-100 recruit Wilhelm Breidenbach.

CHICAGO BULLS HEAD COACH

Hoiberg was named an NBA head coach just five years into his coaching career. He led Chicago to immediate success, as the Bulls finished with a 42-40 record in his first year in 2015-16, when Hoiberg became just the fifth coach in franchise history to have a winning record in his debut season. The next season, Hoiberg took Chicago to the Eastern Conference Playoffs. The No. 8 seed Bulls went on the road and won the first two games of a first-round series against the top-seed Boston Celtics, becoming the first No. 8 seed to take a 2-0 lead against a No. 1 seed since 1993. Hoiberg became the fifth coach in NBA history to have each of his first two career playoff victories come on the road. The 2017 playoffs also marked the first time Chicago had won the first two games of a playoff series on the road since the 1993 NBA Finals. Overall, Chicago won more than 40 games in two of Hoiberg's three full seasons.

Fred Hoiberg helped Dalano Banton become the Huskers' second draftee in three seasons, as Banton was a second-round pick of the Toronto Raptors.

IOWA STATE HEAD COACH

Hoiberg led a resurgence at his alma mater, leaving a lasting legacy in five seasons. He guided Iowa State to a 115-56 record – including a 99-40 mark in his final four seasons – to post the top winning percentage (.673) in Cyclone history. Hoiberg led Iowa State to a program-record four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, while tying the school record with four NCAA Tournament coaching victories. Hoiberg also posted the top conference winning percentage (.557) in ISU history and guided Iowa State to back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles in 2014 and 2015.

Hoiberg inherited a Cyclone program that had not made the NCAA Tournament or had a winning conference record in five years. But after just one rebuilding year, Hoiberg guided the Cyclones to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments before leaving for the NBA. His 115 wins were the most by any coach in a five-year span in Iowa State history.

After a 16-16 debut season, Hoiberg led the Cyclones to a 23-11 record and the third round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament. ISU went 12-6 in Big 12 play in Hoiberg's second season, winning nine more conference games than the previous season to post the biggest one-year turnaround in Big 12 history. Hoiberg was named the Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Hoiberg guided the Cyclones to another 23-win season in his third year, when Iowa State advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. In his fourth season, the Cyclones finished 28-8, won the 2014 Big 12 Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16. In Hoiberg's final season, Iowa State defended its Big 12 Tournament title and earned a No. 3 seed for the NCAA Tournament.

Hoiberg oversaw one of the nation's top offenses during his tenure at Iowa State. The Cyclones led the Big 12 with an average of 77.9 points per game in Hoiberg's final four seasons, ranking in the top 10 nationally in scoring twice in those four seasons. His Cyclones led the Big 12 in 3-pointers in four of his five seasons and in his final season at ISU, his team led the conference in scoring offense (77.8), field goal percentage (.476) assists per game (16.1), turnovers per game (11.0) and 3-pointers per game (7.7).

Hoiberg also excelled at player development at Iowa State, producing four players

MINNESOTA
 TIMBERWOLVES FRONT OFFICE

After spending the final two seasons of his 10-year NBA career in Minnesota, Hoiberg transitioned into the Timberwolves' front office. Hoiberg served as the team's vice president of basketball operations in his final season, overseeing the day-to-day operations of basketball programs including college and pro scouting, salary cap management and NBA Draft preparations. He served as the Timberwolves' assistant general manager in his first three seasons in the front office, where he helped Minnesota orchestrate a draft-day trade for five-time all-star Kevin Love in 2008.

NBA PLAYING CAREER

Hoiberg was a 10-year NBA veteran, playing for the Indiana Pacers (four seasons), Chicago Bulls (four seasons) and Minnesota Timberwolves (two seasons). Hoiberg played in 541 games in his NBA career and was a member of three playoff teams, including a Timberwolves team that reached the 2004 Western Conference Finals. Hoiberg scored 2,944 points in his NBA career, and he was a 40 percent career 3-point shooter. Hoiberg led the NBA in 3-point shooting percentage in his final season in 2004-05 (48.3 percent) and was fourth in 2003-04 (44.2 percent). His pro career ended abruptly at the age of 33 after undergoing open-heart surgery to repair an aneurysm in his aortic root. Hoiberg was a second-round pick in the 1995 NBA Draft, when the Indiana Pacers chose him with the 54th overall selection.

IOWA STATE AND HIGH SCHOOL PLAYING CAREER

Hoiberg was a four-year starter at Iowa State from 1991 to 1995. He is a member of the ISU Hall of Fame and his No. 32 jersey was retired in 1997. Hoiberg is also a member of the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. Hoiberg was a two-time academic All-America selection as a player, including a first-team honoree as a senior. On the court, Hoiberg was recognized as a two-time All-Big Eight selection in addition to being named the 1992 Associated Press Big Eight Freshman of the Year and the 1995 Co-Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year. Hoiberg was also named a third-team All-American as a senior, averaging 19.9 points per game to help the Cyclones win a then-school-record 23 games.

Hoiberg started 123 of his 126 games as a Cyclone with career averages of 15.8 points, 6.9 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.6 steals per game. The Iowa State record holder for consecutive made free throws (34) and steals in a game (7), Hoiberg currently ranks fourth on the Cyclones' all-time scoring chart (1,993 points) and is in the top 10 in five other categories. He made 183 3-pointers in his career and won 78 games, both of which were the most in school history at the time of his graduation.

Hoiberg was a standout athlete for Ames High School before remaining in his hometown to attend Iowa State. As a senior, Hoiberg was Iowa's Mr. Basketball and he was also the Iowa Gatorade Player of the Year in football. On the basketball court, Hoiberg averaged 38.1 points per game in six tournament games while leading Ames to a state championship as a senior. On the gridiron, Hoiberg turned down a football scholarship offer from Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne to play basketball at Iowa State.

PERSONAL

The son of an Iowa State professor, Hoiberg earned his degree in finance from Iowa State in 1995. He was born in Lincoln on Oct. 15, 1972, and his grandfather, Jerry Bush, was Nebraska's men's basketball head coach for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963. Fred and his wife, Carol, have four children: one daughter, Paige; and three sons, Jack and twins Sam and Charlie.

Hoiberg's grandfather is former Husker basketball coach Jerry Bush. Known as the "Big Bear of the Coliseum," Bush guided NU from 1955 to 1963, and directed two of the greatest upsets ever – a 43-41 victory over top-ranked Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain, and a 55-48 victory over No. 4 Kansas State and Olympian Bob Boozer during the 1957-58 campaign.

Fred Hoiberg talks with his son, Jack, following the 2020 Nebraska-Michigan State game in Lincoln.

COACHES

One of the top recruiters in the country, Matt Abdelmassih (pronounced Matt Abdel-masse) is in his third year on the Husker bench. Abdelmassih, who had worked with Fred Hoiberg with both the Minnesota Timberwolves and at Iowa State, joined the Husker staff in April of 2019.

Abdelmassih was featured by ESPN.com in 2020 as one of the top 40 coaches in college basketball under the age of 40. He has helped Nebraska reshape its roster in recent seasons. Nebraska's 2021 class is considered the best in program history, as its ranked 15th nationally by ESPN and is a consensus top-20 national class. The group features the first five-star recruit in school history in Bryce McGowens, as well as top-100 recruit Wilhelm Breidenbach and junior college All-American Keisei Tominaga.

Abdelmassih's first class, which was put together in six weeks in the spring of 2019, ranked in the top 45 nationally, while his 2020 recruiting class produced four of the Huskers' top five scorers last season.

During his four-year tenure at St. John's from 2015-19, Abdelmassih helped the Red Storm improve from eight wins in his first season on the staff to 21 wins and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance in five years before coming to Lincoln to rejoin forces with Hoiberg.

Abdelmassih, who was tabbed the top transfer recruiter in the country by ESPN college basketball experts, recruited a majority of the 2018-19 Red Storm roster, led by two-time, first-team All-Big East selection Shamorie Ponds. In fact, all five starters on the 2018-19 team were recruited by Abdelmassih, as he brought in talented transfers such as Mustapha Heron (Auburn), Justin Simon (Arizona) and Marvin Clark Jr. (Michigan State) along with junior college transfer LJ Figueroa.

In 2016, Abdelmassih helped the Red Storm land a consensus top-25 recruiting class, according to major national recruiting services, which featured Ponds and Bashir Ahmed, who was one of the top junior college transfers in the country. Ponds, along with fellow first-year performer Marcus LoVett, was part of one of the top freshmen scoring duos in the nation in 2016-17. For their efforts, both Ponds and LoVett were unanimously selected to the Big East All-Freshman team.

In his first year at St. John's, Abdelmassih quickly assembled nearly an entire roster of talented newcomers, including Big East All-Freshman Team honoree Kassoum Yakwe, to help rebuild the foundation.

Before returning to his alma mater, Abdelmassih was at Iowa State for five years under Hoiberg, spending his last four seasons as an assistant as the Cyclones made four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

An assistant director of operations for Iowa State in 2010-11, Abdelmassih was promoted to assistant coach in April of 2011. In his four seasons as an assistant coach, Iowa State amassed a 99-40 (.712) record, won back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles (2014, 2015), made four straight trips to the "Big Dance" (2012-15) and reached one NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 (2014).

Abdelmassih was instrumental in making Iowa State one of the primary destinations for some of the top transfers in the country, including DeAndre Kane and Royce White.

Recruited by Abdelmassih, Kane helped lead a 2013-14 squad that advanced to just the fourth Sweet 16 in program history and finished with a 28-8 mark that included a school-record nine wins against ranked teams. Kane earned All-America, first-team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Newcomer-of-the-Year accolades.

Another Abdelmassih recruit, White was the only Division I player to lead his team in scoring, rebounding, assists, blocks and steals in 2011-12. White earned All-America honors, was a unanimous first-team All-Big 12 choice and was the 16th overall selection in the 2012 NBA Draft.

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Abdelmassih worked for the Minnesota Timberwolves for two seasons. He joined the Timberwolves staff in 2008 as a basketball operations intern and worked directly with the coaching staff. Abdelmassih then moved to the front office in 2009-10 with a promotion to basketball operations assistant, a role in which he handled salary cap issues, draft preparation, scouting and free agent analysis.

Abdelmassih was a student manager for the St. John's men's basketball team from 2004-07. During his tenure with the Red Storm, Abdelmassih assisted the director of basketball operations with travel, video and camp responsibilities.

A 2007 graduate of St. John's, Abdelmassih earned a bachelor's degree in sport management. He and his wife Kelly have two sons, Shea and Chance.

Armon Gates is in his fourth season on the Husker coaching staff. A native of Chicago, Gates returned to the Big Ten after serving as associate head coach at the University of Florida. Gates has coached and developed all-conference performers at three schools during his coaching career.

At Nebraska, Gates plays an extensive role in nearly every facet of the program, including individual skill development programs, opponent scouting, game planning and recruiting, while working extensively with the Husker backcourt players.

In 2020-21, Dalano Banton became the second player in school history to record a triple double and was selected in the second round of the 2021 NBA Draft, while Trey McGowens ranked fifth in the Big Ten in steals in his first season at NU. In 2019-20, Gates tutored Cam Mack, who earned All-Big Ten honors and finished third on Nebraska's single-season assist chart. In his first season at NU, Gates helped the development of Glynn Watson Jr., who posted a career-high 13.6 points per game while finishing on Nebraska's top-10 career lists in assists, steals and 3-pointers.

For five seasons (2013-18), Gates was at Northwestern under Chris Collins, helping the Wildcats to a pair of 20-win seasons, including the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017. He also helped bring a top-30 recruiting class to Northwestern in 2014, while the 2018 class was ranked 24th nationally by 247Sports.

Gates worked with the Wildcat backcourt players, including Bryant McIntosh, who finished fifth on the Big Ten's career assist list with 700 en route to earning multiple All-

Big Ten honors. Gates also worked with All-Big Ten performers Vic Law, Scottie Lindsey, Tre Demps and Drew Crawford, who also earned first-team Academic All-America honors as a senior in 2014.

Prior to coaching at Northwestern, Gates spent two seasons at Loyola Chicago (2011-13) during Porter Moser's first two seasons leading the program. During Gates' time with the Ramblers, Ben Averkamp earned All-Horizon League honors in both seasons, becoming the first Loyola player in five seasons to earn first- or second-team all-conference honors. Averkamp also garnered second-team Academic All-America honors in 2013.

Gates spent the 2010-11 campaign as an assistant at TCU, working with the Horned Frogs' guards and helping Hank Thorns become a third-team All-Mountain West Conference selection. Thorns ranked fourth nationally in assists per game (7.0 apg) and was 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio. His 225 assists ranked No. 2 in Mountain West Conference single-season history, while he also averaged 10.7 points per game.

Prior to his season at TCU, Gates spent two seasons (2008-10) as an assistant coach at Kent State, helping the Golden Flashes to the 2009-10 Mid-American Conference regular-season title. In his final year at Kent State, Gates was part of a staff that guided the Golden Flashes to the second round of the NIT.

Gates began his coaching career as a graduate staff assistant at Western Kentucky. In his lone season on the Hilltoppers' staff, the team recorded a 29-7 overall record and reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

During his playing days at Kent State, Gates helped the Golden Flashes to an 88-42 record and three postseason appearances. Kent State recorded four straight 20-win seasons during his time on campus, and he closed out his career tied for second in school history with 200 3-point field goals.

Gates graduated from Kent State in 2006 with a degree in leisure studies and earned his master's degree in sports administration from the same institution in 2007. He was a MAC All-Academic selection. Gates prepped at Hillcrest High School and spent one season at Brewster (N.H.) Academy before attending Kent State.

Armon and his wife Ashley have two daughters (Gaida and Milan) and two sons (Kaiere and Blaze). Gates' older brother, Dennis, is in his third season as the head coach at Cleveland State University and guided the program to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2021.

COACHES

Spencer Dinwiddie, Jake Layman, Bobby Portis, Cristiano Felício, Jerian Grant, Cameron Payne, Denzel Valentine and Paul Zipser, Alfonzo McKinnie and R.J. Hunter.

Loenser spent two years on Hoiberg's Iowa State staff and was a key component in helping the Cyclones to a pair of Big 12 Tournament titles. He was the Cyclones' Director of Player Development in 2014-15, as ISU went 25-9 and tied for second in the Big 12. That season, Georges Niang earned All-America honors, while Niang, Monté Morris and Jameel McKay were recognized on the All-Big 12 teams. McKay was the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season, Loenser served as graduate assistant as the program enjoyed one of its best seasons in program history. The Cyclones finished with 28 wins, won the Big 12 Tournament title and reached the NCAA Sweet 16. ISU ranked in the top three nationally in scoring offense, assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio. Melvin Ejim and DeAndre Kane both earned All-America accolades for their efforts.

After one season at Northern University High School in Cedar Falls, Loenser began his collegiate coaching career at Southern Mississippi. He served on Larry Eustachy's staff for six seasons, helping the Golden Eagles post a pair of 20-win seasons and reach the CIT in 2010. He handled recruiting, opponent scouting and on-court coaching during his tenure at USM. Loenser returned to Iowa to coach high school basketball, serving as the head coach at Spirit Lake High School before joining the Iowa State staff in 2013.

A native of Cedar Falls, Iowa, Loenser was a 2002 graduate of Iowa State, where he played baseball for the Cyclones in 2001. He was a four-sport athlete (baseball, basketball, football, and golf) at Northern University High School, as he fell two tackles shy of the school's single-season record of tackles held by College Football Hall of Famer and current Nebraska Director of Athletics Trev Alberts.

He and his wife Jackie have three daughters, Delaney, Logan and Hadley.

DOC
SADLER

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

One of the top defensive minds in college basketball, Doc Sadler returned to Nebraska in 2019 and is in his first season as special assistant to the head coach and his third on the Husker coaching staff. Sadler coordinates the Huskers' defensive efforts. NU finished 40th nationally in adjusted defensive efficiency in 2020-21.

Sadler, who has over 200 wins as a Division I head coach, returned to Lincoln after serving as the head coach at Southern Miss for five seasons. He helped the Golden Eagles improve their win total in each season since 2014-15, becoming one of three teams in the nation to hold that distinction. Despite two years of postseason bans, scholarship reductions and other inherited sanctions, Sadler guided Southern Miss to back-to-back Conference USA Tournament semifinal appearances in 2018 and 2019. In his final season, he led the Golden Eagles to 20 wins and a C-USA runner-up finish.

He first teamed up with Hoiberg at Iowa State in 2013-14, helping the Cyclones to a 28-8 record, a Sweet 16 appearance and the school's first Big 12 Tournament title since 2000. He coached a pair of All-Americans in Melvin Ejim and DeAndre Kane, while Ejim was named the Big 12 Player of the Year in 2014.

Sadler served as the head coach of the Nebraska program from 2006 to 2012, leading the Huskers to three NIT appearances and posting a 101-89 record. Sadler's Huskers led the Big 12 in scoring defense three times and posted nine wins over ranked opponents in his tenure. In 2010-11, the Huskers ranked in the top 20 nationally in both scoring and field-goal percentage defense. NU held opponents to 38.9 percent shooting - the lowest total by Nebraska in 50 years - while playing 19 games against teams which reached postseason play. He coached two Olympians at Nebraska, while his most prominent pupil was Aleks Maric, a two-time All-Big 12 selection who totaled 1,630 points and 1,030 rebounds and finished his career holding 19 school or conference records.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Sadler had a phenomenal two-year run as the head coach at UTEP (2004-06), producing a record of 48-18. The Miners won 27 games and advanced to the 2005 NCAA Tournament in his rookie season, the ninth-best win total by a first-year head coach in NCAA history. UTEP won 21 games and advanced to the NIT in his last season in El Paso. He also coached for five seasons at Arkansas-Fort Smith (1999-2003), leading the program to a 120-39 mark and three postseason appearances as head coach.

Sadler, who graduated from Arkansas in 1982, previously worked as an assistant coach at eight current Division I schools, including Arkansas (1982-85, under Eddie Sutton), Lamar (1985-86, under Pat Foster), Houston (1986, under Pat Foster), Chicago State (1987-88, under Tommy Suiitts), Texas Tech (1991-94, under James Dickey), Arizona State (1994-97, under Bill Frieder), UTEP (2003-04, under Billy Gillispie) and Iowa State (2013-14, under Hoiberg). He also was Director of Basketball Operations at Kansas in 2012-13 working for Bill Self.

Sadler, who was a four-year student manager at Arkansas under Hall of Fame Coach Eddie Sutton, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1982 before beginning his collegiate coaching career with Sutton at Arkansas. Sadler added a master's of science degree in education from Northeastern State in 1991. Sadler and his wife, Tonya, have two sons, Landon and Matthew.

LUCA VIRGILIO

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Luca Virgilio is in his third year as Director of Basketball Operations after being hired in May of 2019. Virgilio came to Nebraska after spending five seasons at St. John's, most recently as a management analyst for the Red Storm basketball program for two seasons. He was a part of the St. John's staff which made a pair of NCAA Tournaments (2015 and 2019) in his tenure at the school.

In his role at Nebraska, Virgilio is responsible for the men's basketball operations budget. He also serves as the primary day-to-day administrator within the basketball office, coordinating team travel and serving as a liaison to administration, academics, HuskerVision, athletic communications, digital communications, marketing and life skills.

In his role as St. John's management analyst, Virgilio was responsible for devising and delivering strategies to improve basketball operations by using advanced knowledge of research methods, information management and quantitative methods to analyze all areas of the program. Virgilio assisted the coaching staff by preparing analytical reports, delivering recommendations and overseeing the implementation of these strategies for practice and training, style of play, scouting, scheduling and recruiting.

During his time as assistant to head coach Chris Mullin, Virgilio provided support for a variety of daily operations within the program. His responsibilities included managing the team's schedule, organizing travel and supervising student-athlete development activities. Virgilio also assisted with the coordination of on-campus recruiting activities, maintaining NCAA compliance-related records and other duties as assigned by the head coach.

He began his tenure as a graduate assistant for two years, where he helped in daily operations, including the team calendar and overseeing the team's managers. Virgilio also aided both the assistant to the head coach and director of basketball operations with administrative responsibilities and team operations.

Virgilio graduated from St. John's in May 2016, earning a master's degree in sport management with a concentration in international dimension of sport. Hailing from Italy, Virgilio earned a bachelor's degree in economics and business administration at Universita degli Studi di Roma Tre in 2012 and a master's of science in business administration at Tor Vergata School of Economics in 2014.

He and his wife, Caterina, were married in Brooklyn, N.Y., in November of 2018.

SHERYL BURBACH

ASST. DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Sheryl Burbach is in her seventh season with the Husker basketball program and fifth as assistant director of basketball operations.

Burbach handles many of the business and operational functions for the coaching staff, including staff travel, expense accounts and budgeting. She also coordinates events around the Husker basketball program, including Legends Weekend and Senior Night. She also assists in team travel, the coordination of the Fred Hoiberg Basketball Camps and Clinics, as well as day-to-day office operations. Burbach also manages speaking and charitable requests for Coach Hoiberg.

Prior to joining the Huskers, Burbach worked for Nebraska's 4-H Office and Nebraska Extension.

Burbach is originally from Sumner, Neb., and moved to Lincoln during high school. She and her husband, Melvin, have four sons, John, Grant, Matthew and Christopher.

KURT JOSEPH

DIRECTOR OF MEN'S BASKETBALL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Kurt Joseph was hired as the Director of Men's Basketball Strength & Conditioning in April of 2021.

Joseph came to Lincoln after spending two-plus seasons as an assistant strength coach with the Minnesota Timberwolves. In that role, he assisted with the development and implementation of the strength and conditioning program for the NBA franchise.

Before joining the Timberwolves, Joseph was the Head Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Iowa Wolves, Minnesota's NBA G League affiliate. In that role, he developed and implemented strength & conditioning program.

Joseph also worked as a weight room assistant with the New York Knicks, where his duties consisted of aiding in team practice, implementing the strength and conditioning program, implementing all prehab and corrective exercise protocols as directed. He also worked as a strength coach intern for the Brooklyn Nets in 2012.

He began his career as a strength coach volunteer at Long Island University Brooklyn while working on his master's degree. In his tenure at LIU Brooklyn, he facilitated all strength and conditioning workouts for the men's basketball team and developed and implemented strength and conditioning programs for the volleyball, men's and women's soccer programs.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Joseph attended LIU Brooklyn, where he was a member of the men's basketball team and helped the school make consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Joseph received his Bachelor's in Sport Science and his Master's in Exercise Science in 2013.

COACHES

MATT HOLT

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Matt Holt is in his fifth season as video coordinator for the Husker basketball program. In his role, he oversees film breakdown and exchanges for the coaching staff, oversees opponent scouting, coordinates the program's digital catalog and is in charge of the Husker managers.

Holt came to Nebraska after spending three seasons as the director of basketball operations at Northeastern University. During his tenure at Northeastern, Holt served in a variety of roles, as the program won at least 18 games in two of his three seasons and made the 2015 NCAA Tournament under longtime coach Bill Coen. Some of Holt's duties included video analysis for opponent and self-scouting, assisting the coaching staff in coordinating opponent scouting, helping to coordinate and monitor academic progress, as well as handling team travel and working with campus entities to coordinate team events such as Midnight Madness and Alumni Day. During his three seasons, Northeastern had six All-Colonial Athletic Association selections, including 2017 CAA player of the Year T.J. Williams.

In addition to his three years of experience in basketball administration, Holt also served as an assistant coach for three seasons. During his two-year stint at the University of New Haven, Holt recruited prospective student-athletes and facilitated player development and game preparation. He aided in the development of New Haven's Eric Anderson, who earned NE10 Defensive Player of the Year honors in both seasons Holt was an assistant. Holt also coordinated team travel, as well as community events such as youth camps, coaching clinics, and alumni weekends.

Holt spent the 2011-12 season at Rhode Island College, where he assisted in scouting opponents. He was responsible for organizing daily team schedules and worked closely with the compliance office to support academic progress for basketball student-athletes.

Holt, who graduated with a journalism degree from Northeastern in 2011, served as the head senior manager for the men's basketball team as an undergrad and helped coordinate team video needs and team travel logistics. He also received a master's degree in management of sports industries from New Haven in December 2013.

BUZZY CARUTHERS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Bertram "Buzzy" Caruthers is in his third year as Director of Player Development. Caruthers fills several roles in the day-to-day operation of the Husker program and assists in developing programming for basketball student athletes. Caruthers has also served as an analyst for Nebraska basketball games on B1G+.

Caruthers has more than a decade of basketball coaching experience. Before joining the Nebraska staff in 2019, he spent two years at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo., before coaching at Maryville University in 2018-19. At Lincoln, he helped the school to consecutive MIAA Tournament appearances, including 17 wins before falling to eventual national champion Northwest Missouri State in 2017.

He gained Division I experience as a graduate assistant at St. John's during the 2015-16 campaign, and he has also worked at Butler Community College, Chipola College, Dodge City Community College, Barstow High School and Sumner Academy of Arts and Science.

At the junior college level, Caruthers helped Butler achieve 19 wins and advance to the regional semifinal in 2016. At Dodge City, Butler Community College and Chipola College, Caruthers coached 20 players who went on to play at either the NCAA Division I or Division II level, including eight all-conference selections.

At the high school level, Caruthers helped turn around the Barstow basketball program, establishing a new culture of winning. He helped lead the team to a program-record 24-win season. Caruthers coached at the MOKAN Elite program, one of the top grassroots programs in the nation. Caruthers directed camps run by former Husker great and current Los Angeles Clippers Coach Tyrone Lue and NBA performer Alec Burks. In the offseason, Caruthers works on skill development for professional players, including Burks, Kyle Weems and former Husker Shavon Shields. Through his camps and various coaching stops, Caruthers has coached more than 40 players who have gone on to play at the NCAA Division I or Division II level.

A native of Kansas City, Kan., Caruthers played his high school ball at Sumner Academy, winning two state championships. Caruthers graduated from Hampton University with a bachelor of science degree in finance in 2006.

ATHAN KATSANTONIS

RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Athan Katsantonis is in his second year at Nebraska and first as recruiting coordinator. He assists the Husker coaching staff in advanced scouting, including opponent and team self-scouting, as well as game preparation. Katsantonis oversees the recruiting landscape for the Huskers, assisting with monitoring the NCAA transfer portal, recruiting research, implementing, and managing NU's recruiting database and constructing innovative recruiting presentations.

Katsantonis helped Nebraska land the 15th nationally ranked recruiting class by ESPN in 2021 which is considered the best class in program history. The group is headlined by five-star recruit Bryce McGowens, as well as top-100 recruit Wilhelm Breidenbach and junior college All-American Keisei Tominaga. Nebraska also added three high-profile transfers in Keon Edwards, CJ Wilcher and Alonzo Verge.

Before coming to Nebraska, Katsantonis spent four years as a student manager and two years as the head manager for Hall of Fame Coach Jim Boeheim. Katsantonis filled a number of roles for the program, including hiring and managing over 30 student managers, assisting the coaching staff with player development, game situational workouts and scouting reports, analyzing film, preparing reports for reviewing biometric data, and spearheaded advanced statistical reports for the players and coaching staff. Katsantonis was also given the title of assistant director of operations his senior year, as he worked closely with the director of operations in overseeing and assisting in the daily operations of the program.

Syracuse made the post-season every year during Katsantonis's tenure, including NCAA Tournament appearances in 2018 and 2019. Katsantonis worked closely with assistant coach, Gerry McNamara, helping produce four NBA players, including Elijah

Hughes (Utah Jazz), O'Shae Brissett (Indiana Pacers), Tyler Lydon (Utah Jazz), and Tyus Battle (Minnesota Timberwolves).

In addition to his duties with the Syracuse program, Katsantonis served as the head coach of the men's club program at Syracuse, organizing games and practices, as well as organizing tryouts and team selection process.

Katsantonis graduated with a degree in human development and family science from Syracuse in May of 2020.

Leblanc, who has been with the Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes since 1987, joined the Nebraska Athletic Department in 1983 as a member of the track and field staff.

Under Leblanc's leadership, Nebraska has become the national leader in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for football and all sports, NCAA Today's Top Ten Award honorees and recipients of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Postgraduate Scholarship. Since he joined the academic staff in 1987, 265 of Nebraska's 341 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans have been honored, while NU has claimed 15 of its 18 NCAA Today's Top Ten Award recipients. Over 3,000 Husker student-athletes have earned their degrees during Leblanc's tenure.

The 94 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), reported in the 2020-21 academic year, for the Nebraska student-athletes was the highest GSR ever achieved for the eighth consecutive year. In addition all Nebraska teams achieved an NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 964 or higher which marks the seventh consecutive year that all teams attained an APR better than 950.

Over the past decade, Nebraska's academic support program for student-athletes has received outstanding reviews from the NCAA Certification Review Team and the Nebraska Faculty Intercollegiate Athletics Committee. In 2012, Nebraska's program became one of only 21 programs nationally to be certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A) for meeting the established standards of service for student-athletes as outlined by the N4A.

Leblanc is a member of the N4A, and in 2002 he received its prestigious Lan Hewlett Award presented to an athletic administrator in recognition of distinguished performance in providing personal, academic and professional guidance to student-athletes.

Leblanc was presented the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students at the 2004 University of Nebraska Honors Convocation, which recognizes individuals who go above and beyond their assigned duties, devoting extra time and effort in serving the needs of students. In 2005, he was presented with an Honorary Mortar Board membership honoring him for his leadership and service to students. In 2007, Leblanc received the Hero Mentor Award through the American Red Cross, which annually recognizes a person for outstanding leadership and mentoring. In 2018, he was inducted into the Omicron Delta Kappa Society, which is a national leadership honor society, recognizing his leadership in athletics on campus.

Leblanc earned his bachelor's degree from Bethany College, and a master's degree from Wichita State University. He and his wife, Coreen, have four children: Olivia, Christian and twins Madeleine and Mackenzie.

RONNIE GREEN

CHANCELLOR

Dr. Ronnie D. Green is Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Nebraska's flagship, Land-Grant and Big Ten institution, where he oversees an enrollment of over 25,000 students and 6,000 faculty and staff.

He received bachelor's and master's degrees in animal science from Virginia Tech and Colorado State University, respectively. His doctoral program was completed jointly at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the USDA-ARS U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in animal breeding and genetics.

Green has served on the animal science faculties of Texas Tech University and Colorado State University, and as the national program leader for animal production research for the USDA's Agricultural Research Service and executive secretary of the White House's interagency working group on animal genomics within the National Science and Technology Council. Prior to returning to NU, Green served as a global executive for Pfizer Animal Health's animal genomics business.

Green has published 130 refereed publications and abstracts, nine book chapters and 56 invited symposia papers; and has delivered invited presentations in 43 U.S. states and 21 countries around the world. He is a past-president of both the American Society of Animal Science (ASAS) and the National Block and Bridle Club and has served in a number of leadership positions for the U.S. Beef Improvement Federation, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, National Pork Board, the National Research Council of the National Academy of Sciences, the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities, and Alpha Gamma Rho national fraternity. He currently is a member of a number of boards including the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, Neogen Corporation, and Supporters of Agricultural Research, and was recently named to the Presidential Forum of the NCAA representing the Big Ten Conference, and an inaugural member of the NCAA Division I Board Infractions Process Committee. He was named a fellow of ASAS in 2014 and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 2015. In 2017 Dr. Green was honored with the American Society of Animal Science's Morrison Award, the highest international academic recognition for an animal scientist.

Ronnie and his wife Jane, a double UNL alumna, are the proud parents of four children – Justin, Nate, Kelli and Regan Green – all UNL graduates – and one granddaughter, Charlotte.

SCOTT FEUSS JR.

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Scott M. Fuess Jr. was named the University of Nebraska-Lincoln faculty athletics representative on Feb. 21, 2020.

As faculty athletics representative, Fuess serves as a liaison between the Office of the Chancellor and Athletic Department. Areas of focus in the role include the welfare of student-athletes, maintaining the positive relationship between athletics and faculty, NCAA compliance, developing and responding to NCAA legislative proposals and representing the university at related NCAA and Big Ten Conference meetings.

The half-time position - which was restructured to an expected term of five years - reports directly to Chancellor Ronnie Green and consults with the Athletic Director. The representative splits academic year time equally between academic responsibilities and faculty representative duties.

Fuess, the Steinhart Distinguished Professor of Business and former chair of the College of Business' economics department, has worked at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since 1986. He serves on the Faculty Senate's Intercollegiate Athletics Committee, having chaired the committee for 2018-19 and a sub-committee in 2017-18.

In August 2018, Fuess was named director of the university's cross-disciplinary master's degree program that offers a specialization in intercollegiate athletics administration. The program - which has been completed by 48 Huskers - is built on MBA coursework, allowing students to earn hands-on experiences through Nebraska Athletics, industry professionals, other universities and alumni.

Fuess earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware, as well as master's and doctoral degrees from Purdue University. His research interests revolve around issues of economics, primarily in labor, collegiate athletics and Japan.

TED CARTER

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA PRESIDENT

Ted Carter became the eighth president of the University of Nebraska on Jan. 1, 2020, following a national search by the Board of Regents.

As president, Carter leads a four-campus university system that enrolls nearly 52,000 students and employs 16,000 faculty and staff on campuses in Lincoln, Omaha and Kearney, plus academic divisions and research and extension centers across the state. He serves as chief spokesman and chief executive officer for the system, which operates on a $2.8 billion annual budget and includes a flagship Big Ten institution, a world-renowned academic health sciences center, Division I athletics programs, and preeminent institutes focused on water and agriculture, national security and defense, infectious disease and early childhood education.

Carter brought with him a distinguished record in education, partnerships and military service, having come to Nebraska from the U.S. Naval Academy, his alma mater, where he served as superintendent. Under his leadership, the Naval Academy achieved a No. 1 national ranking and new records in student success and diversity. Carter previously was president of the U.S. Naval War College in Newport, R.I. A retired Vice Admiral with 38 years of service, Carter has logged more than 6,300 flying hours and holds the American record for carrier-arrested landings.

In his first year at the University of Nebraska – faced with the unexpected and unprecedented challenges presented by COVID-19 – Carter has led with a focus on the land-grant priorities of access and opportunity for students and families. He launched the Nebraska Promise, a financial aid program guaranteeing free tuition for low- and middle-income Nebraskans, and implemented a multi-year budget plan that included a two-year, across-the-board tuition freeze. The result was system-wide growth in enrollment, including record gains among underrepresented students.

Carter oversaw the awarding of a $92 million federal contract for the university's National Strategic Research Institute, one of only 14 University-Affiliated Research Centers in the country conducting exclusive research for the Department of Defense. During Carter's tenure, the NU system has been ranked among the world's top 100 institutions for earning research patents, the Omaha campus was selected as the home for a new federal counterterrorism research center, the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources launched a new effort focused on rural vitality, and the medical center opened an education, training and preparedness facility that positions Nebraska as the world leader in the fight against infectious disease.

Carter serves as the chair of the Daugherty Water for Food Global Institute's Board of Directors. He is a board member for the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce, the Nebraska State Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Naval Historical Foundation and the Naval Aviation Museum Foundation. Carter is also a member of the Aspen Institute's Higher Education Working Group and the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities' Council of Presidents. He is an ex-officio member on the board of the University of Nebraska Foundation, the philanthropic partner of the university system that has a $1.7 billion endowment.

Carter earned his bachelor's degree in physics and oceanography from the U.S. Naval Academy, where he played hockey and served as team captain. He is a graduate of the Navy Fighter Weapons School (Top Gun) and holds educational credentials from the Navy Nuclear Power School, the U.S. Air Force Air War College, the Naval War College and the Armed Forces Staff College. Carter's military career includes service for the Carrier Strike Group Twelve, in which he commanded 20 ships, two nuclear-powered aircraft carriers, and two carrier wings that were deployed to Afghanistan and the Arabian Gulf.

The son of an English teacher, Carter was raised in the rural, one-high school town of Burrillville, R.I. He and his wife, Lynda, live in Lincoln and have two adult children, Brittany and Christopher.

The Board of Regents consists of eight voting members elected by district for six-year terms, and four non-voting student Regents, one from each campus, who serve during their tenure as student body president. The board supervises the general operations of the university, and the control and direction of all expenditures. The board also includes a corporation secretary who manages all records including agendas, minutes, notices, policies and bylaws. Those documents can be found on the web at nebraska.edu/board/.

The board meets regularly, primarily in Lincoln but also in Omaha and greater Nebraska. Persons wishing to provide information to the board or to appear before it should contact: Corporation Secretary, University of Nebraska, Varner Hall, 3835 Holdrege, Lincoln, NE 68583.

TREV ALBERTS

VICE CHANCELLOR, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

A veteran administrator and College Football Hall of Famer, Trev Alberts was named Vice Chancellor for Athletics at the University of Nebraska on July 14, 2021. Alberts returned to his alma mater after spending 12 years at Nebraska-Omaha, guiding the program through a successful transition to the Division I level.

Alberts' tenure leading UNO athletics was marked by successes in competition and in academics; by transitioning the university's athletic programs to NCAA Division I in 2011; and by establishing new homes for many UNO athletics teams, including Baxter Arena, the Maverick Park baseball/softball complex and the soccer pitch at Caniglia Field.

Alberts took the bold step in announcing that Omaha would reclassify from Division II to Division I in all sports in 2011 and simultaneously securing conference affiliation with the Summit League for all of the department's then-Division II programs. His vision for UNO's reclassifying teams was demonstrated even before the four-year transition period had ended. The Omaha baseball team won back-to-back Summit League regular-season championships in 2013 and 2014, while the men's basketball team made its first Division I postseason appearance in 2014 with a berth in the Collegen Insider.com Postseason Tournament.

During UNO's time in the Division I ranks under Alberts tenure, the Mavericks had six teams and four student-athletes qualify for the NCAA Tournament, including hockey advancing to the Frozen Four in 2015 and men's soccer reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament in the spring of 2021. He also expanded opportunities, adding men's golf and men's soccer in 2011 and Omaha will begin a men's swimming and diving program in 2021-22.

ADMINISTRATION

Trev Alberts was named Vice Chancellor for Athletics at the University of Nebraska on July 14, 2021.

Throughout his tenure in Omaha, Alberts was focused on enhancing the student-athlete experience, including the construction and staffing of the Hamilton Academic Excellence Room and the development of the Ethel S. Abbott Student-Athlete Development Wing. Those efforts paid off in Nebraska-Omaha student-athletes posting consistent collective semester grade point averages above 3.3 for 18 consecutive semesters, including at least a 3.5 in each of his final three semesters.

The facilities around Omaha Athletics received a major uplift during his tenure. Maverick Park opened in March of 2021 to rave reviews as the home to the Mavericks' baseball and softball programs. Funding for the complex, which includes a 1,500-seat baseball facility and a 650-seat softball facility, were raised privately and provided both programs a permanent on-campus home for the first time.

Another crowning achievement was the opening of Baxter Arena in 2015. Alberts directed efforts to secure community support and funding to build the on-campus arena, which allowed the nationally prominent hockey program to play on campus and also serve as the home of the men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs. Caniglia Field underwent renovations in 2012, making it one of the finest collegiate soccer facilities in the country, highlighted by a FIFA 2-star rated playing surface and one of the largest LED videoboards in a soccer-only college facility.

Alberts' work on behalf of hockey, UNO's established Division I sport, also paid dividends. He successfully guided the Mavericks into the new National Collegiate Hockey Conference in 2013-14. The following year, Omaha reached the 2015 NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition, Alberts and his team led Omaha Athletics into a partnership with Learfield, a national leader in the marketing of collegiate athletics, and developed Omaha Sports Properties. As the exclusive corporate sponsorship sales unit for UNO Athletics, Omaha Sports Properties further enhanced revenue and increased brand prominence locally, regionally and nationally.

As part of UNO's reclassification to Division I, Alberts oversaw the rebranding of UNO athletics with new primary and secondary logos and a greater focus on strengthening the Maverick brand both regionally and nationally.

As a student-athlete, Alberts was an All-American on and off the football field as a Husker Blackshirt. He was Nebraska's first Butkus Award winner in 1993, helping Coach Tom Osborne's Huskers to an undefeated regular season and an Orange Bowl appearance against Florida State. A first-team All-American by every major publication in 1993, he was also the Football News National Defensive Player of the Year, the Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year, and the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year. His No. 34 jersey was retired at the 1994 Red-White Spring Game. In 2015, he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Off the field, Alberts earned the NCAA's highest honor, The Today's Top Six Award. A three-time academic All-Big Eight honoree, he was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1993. He graduated from Nebraska before his senior season.

Alberts was the fifth pick in the 1994 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts and played for the Colts until 1996. Following his NFL career, he served as an analyst on college and professional football games for major national networks, including ESPN, CNN/SI and CBS Sports Network.

Alberts and his wife Angela have three children – Chase, Ashtynne and Breanna.

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of six men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, and current commissioner Kevin Warren in 2020.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,800 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major video providers and more than 300 additional video providers across the country. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. In addition, the BTN+ platform streams hundreds of events each season.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011. The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten conference center hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly CIC) related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum — the Big Ten Experience — which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast.

Warren and his staff work to meet the educational needs of student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 27 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and remains a vital resource for media and fans seeking information on the Big Ten.

During his first year, Warren has helped spark a number of groundbreaking conference initiatives. On March 7, 2020, in advance of the rising tide of the COVID-19 pandemic, the conference partnered with all 14 of its member institutions to create the Big Ten Task Force for Emerging Infectious Diseases. This group was formed to provide counsel and sound medical advice to ensure the health, safety and wellness of the Big Ten's students, coaches, administrators and fans. It includes representatives from a diverse set of disciplines across campus healthcare systems and schools of public health and their input serves as a resource for the conference in making important decisions based on information received from local, state and federal health departments, along with the NCAA.

Less than two months later on May 4, 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members Johns Hopkins (men's and women's lacrosse) and Notre Dame (men's ice hockey). The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

Following the death of Minneapolis resident George Floyd, Warren penned an open letter on June 1, 2020, announcing the formation of what became known as the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. The United States Library of Congress selected Warren's open letter for inclusion in its historic collection.

A product of the conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

Unprecedented.

When looking back at Nebraska's 2020-21 season, it is a word that described many of the obstacles the Huskers overcame.

From practice restrictions for a nearly rebuilt roster to playing without fans throughout the season to a nearly month-long COVID-19 pause to a schedule that saw Nebraska play 14 Big Ten games in a 30-day stretch, 2020-21 was unlike any of the previous 124 seasons in program history.

While Nebraska finished with just seven wins in 27 games, the lessons learned from the year could play major role in the Huskers' future success. Instead of folding under the extreme challenges, the Huskers came together and played their best basketball late in the season, earning the respect of their head coach.

"When I talked to the guys about in the locker room was just, you know, the character they showed all year the fight they showed all year," Nebraska Coach Fred Hoiberg said after the Big Ten Tournament to Penn State. "How they battled through more adversity than any other team in the country with everything that we went through. They kept coming in and wanting to get better and battling all the way to the end. I enjoyed coaching them, and I normally wouldn't say that with the record we had. As a team, they came in every day and were ready to work, and I appreciated that."

The Huskers battled through a rigorous slate, facing nine top-25 teams, including five top-10 teams, and played 16 of their 27 games against NCAA Tournament teams. NU faced the bulk of its Big Ten schedule in the final month, including one stretch of seven games in 12 days after returning to action on Feb. 6. The games included five games in nine days to begin the stretch and back-to-back conference games at Maryland - the first time NU played conference games on consecutive days in a century. The Huskers' strength of schedule ranked fourth nationally in 2020-21.

Nebraska put together some of its best performances during the final month of the season, posting three wins and taking No. 6 Illinois to overtime in Lincoln. The Huskers broke a long Big Ten losing streak with a 62-61 win at Penn State on Feb. 14, and collected back-to-back conference wins for the first time since early 2019 with wins over Minnesota (78-74) and Rutgers (71-51). The win over the Gophers was highlighted by a strong Senior Night performance from Thorir Thorbjarnarson who had a season-high 10 points, including a pair of game-clinching free throws with 4.0 seconds remaining after Minnesota pulled to within 76-74. The Huskers put together their best performance of the season against Rutgers, hitting 55 percent from the floor and getting a career-high 25-point night from Lat Mayen. The junior hit 9-of-11 shots from the floor, including five 3-pointers, against a team which reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Huskers continued their strong play in the regular-season finale at Northwestern, rallying from a 16-point deficit only to fall 79-78 on an offensive putback with 2.7 seconds left. Kobe Webster, who moved into the starting lineup prior to the Minnesota game, keyed the rally as he scored 20 of his 23 points in the second half. The grad transfer hit a career-high seven 3-pointers and also dished out five assists in the loss. NU was close again in the Big Ten Tournament against Penn State, the third time the teams played in a 25-day span. NU led 37-23 at the break before Penn State rallied, and the game was tied at 59 with 3:49 left before the Nitanny Lions put the game away to put an end to the Huskers' season.

The Huskers relied on their newcomers for offensive firepower, as the top seven scorers on the roster were in their first season of competing for the Huskers.

Junior college transfer Teddy Allen paced the Big Red, averaging 16.5 points per game to rank among the Big Ten leaders in scoring. He scored 20-or-more points eight times, including a 41-point outburst against Penn State on Feb. 23, which was the second-highest total in school history. For his efforts, he earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades in 2021.

Trey McGowens also reached double-figure scoring in his first season as a Husker, averaging 10.7 points, 2.3 assists and 1.4 steals per game. McGowens, who was fifth in the Big Ten in steals, had 17 double-figure efforts and closed the year by playing some of his best basketball. He averaged 12.4 points and 3.2 assists per game over the Huskers' final seven contests - a stretch where NU averaged 73.0 ppg.

Sophomore Dalano Banton was a playmaker after sitting out his first season. The 6-foot-9 guard averaged 9.6 points per game while leading the Huskers in both rebounding (5.9) and assists (3.9), becoming the first Husker since at least 1974 to lead NU in both rebounding and assists. Banton ranked among the Big Ten leaders in assists, blocks, rebounds and assist-to-turnover ratio. He posted the second triple-double in school history with 13 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists in 21 minutes against Doane. Following the season, he declared for the NBA Draft and was a second-round pick by the Toronto Raptors.

Nebraska's frontcourt was significantly improved with the additions of Mayen and Derrick Walker. Mayen started the season at center and moved to a stretch forward when Walker became eligible in January. Mayen averaged 8.6 points and 4.5 rebounds per game for the year, but closed on a high note and averaged 13.3 points and 6.3 rebounds per game in NU's final four games, including a double-double at No. 5 Iowa. Walker, who played in just one game before Feb. 6, added physicality to the Huskers' interior and averaged 5.9 points on 60 percent shooting and 4.8 rebounds per game. Walker had a career-high 14 points in the win over Rutgers, one of three double-figure efforts in 2020-21.

With both Walker and Mayen returning along with the development of freshman Eduardo Andre, who emerged as NU's top interior backup, the Husker frontcourt is poised to make a big leap in 2021-22.

CAREER RECAP

Thorir Thorbjarnarson wrapped up his four-year career for the Huskers in 2020-21. A 6-foot-6 guard, he totaled 444 career points, 292 rebounds and 119 assists while helping the Huskers make postseason appearances in 2018 and 2019. As a senior, he played in all 27 games, including 12 starts, for the Huskers, averaging 3.9 points, 3.1 rebounds and 1.7 assists per game. He returned to the starting lineup for the Huskers' last five games and played some of his best basketball, averaging 6.8 points, 5.4 rebounds and 3.8 assists per game. He enjoyed a strong 2019-20 campaign, making 24 starts and setting career highs in points (8.8 ppg), rebounds (4.8 rpg), steals (1.1 spg) and 3-pointers (48). He ranked among the conference leaders in steals (10th) and 3-point percentage (.372), while posting 13 double-figure games. Thorbjarnarson set a career high in points with 17 on three occasions and tallied two games with five 3-pointers. Off the court, Thorbjarnarson, who graduated in May of 2021, was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten performer and 2020 Big Ten Distinguished Scholar. He signed to play professionally in his native Iceland.

CAREER RECAP

Dalano Banton spent two seasons at Nebraska before declaring for the 2021 NBA Draft. He was picked by his hometown Toronto Raptors with the No. 46 overall pick. Banton, who began his college career at Western Kentucky in 2018-19, played in all 27 games, including 22 starts, for the Huskers in 2020-21 after sitting out the 2019-20 campaign. He averaged 9.6 points per game while leading the Huskers in both rebounding (5.9) and assists (3.9) per game. Banton finished in the top 20 in the Big Ten in assists (ninth), blocked shots (15th) and rebounding (18th) and became the first Husker since 1974 to lead NU in both rebounding and assists in the same year. His posted the second triple double in school history (13 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists) against Doane, one of 14 double-figure scoring efforts on the season. Banton also had a pair of double-figure rebounding efforts, including 10 rebounds against Wisconsin. Banton also had eight games with at least six assists, including eight dimes against North Dakota State and seven each against both No. 17 Michigan State and Indiana.

Opened on Aug. 29, 2013, Pinnacle Bank Arena is the home of the Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs. Located in the Haymarket District in downtown Lincoln, Pinnacle Bank Arena has a basketball capacity of 15,000 and is quickly becoming one of the premier concert destinations in the Midwest. Since its opening, it has hosted concerts ranging from Jay-Z, Paul McCartney, Jason Aldean, Katy Perry, The Eagles and Michael Bubl .

Pinnacle Bank Arena opened to rave reviews during its first year of operation. It was a nominee for best New Major Concert Venue by Pollstar Magazine, one of five facilities in the world chosen for the honor. In April of 2014, the facility was chosen as the Best Arena in College Basketball by Athletic Business, a magazine source for athletic, fitness and recreation professionals.

The 470,400-square foot arena was created with basketball in mind. The facility features a split upper concourse, allowing fans to be closer to the floor than in a typical arena. Pinnacle Bank Arena also features expansive premium seating with 36 suites, 20 loge boxes and over 800 club seats in addition to courtside seating. Other arena amenities include free wi-fi, a Panasonic video board which is 16 1/2 feet tall and 22 feet wide, as well as an upper video board which is six feet tall and 22 feet wide, and retractable seating to allow an intimate environment on game days as well as over 160 concession points of sale. The arena also features an expansive student section with 1,000 seats on the 100 Level, including behind both team benches.

The $179-million dollar arena is easily accessible in downtown Lincoln as nearly 5,100 parking stalls are within walking distance of the facility, including three new parking garages and the Festival Space to the north of Pinnacle Bank Arena. Pinnacle Bank Arena is part of a $344 million project in the Haymarket District in downtown Lincoln which also includes a 200-room hotel, 100,000 square feet of retail space, another 100,000 square feet of office space and 100 residential units.

Mikki Moore led Nebraska to the 1996 NIT championship game, where the Huskers defeated St. Joseph's, 60-56, to earn their first-ever basketball title on the national level.

Cookie Belcher shares the school record with six steals in a postseason game. He accomplished the feat on three occasions as a Husker.

N 2021-22 NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

HISTORY OF NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

By Mike Babcock

As near as anyone can determine, the University of Nebraska was first represented by a men's basketball team on Feb. 2, 1897, just six years after Dr. James A. Naismith set down the rules of the game at the International YMCA Training School in Springfield, Mass.

A team from the Lincoln YMCA was the opponent, and Nebraska posted an 11-8 victory at Grant Memorial Hall, the home of the Huskers for all but two seasons until the Coliseum opened in 1926. The same teams played in Grant Hall three weeks later with a similar result, as NU won 23-14. Nebraska had to rally in the second game. The Hesperian, a student newspaper, reported: "At the end of the first half the score stood 9 to 6 in favor of the visitors but during the second half our boys took a brace and some excellent work was done."

Such was the modest beginning of a program that has enjoyed its greatest success since 1980. In that span, NU has earned a 684-569 record and 22 postseason appearances, including seven NCAA Tournaments, while adding a Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament title in 1994 and the 1996 National Invitation Tournament championship.

Nebraska doubled its schedule in 1898, losing twice to the Lincoln YMCA and splitting two games with the Omaha YMCA. A 16-12 loss against the Omaha YMCA provided evidence as to why Nebraska finished 1-3 that season. According to The Hesperian account: "The great difficulty of the University team was mere recklessness. Our boys have been playing with a loose interpretation of the rules. The officials were strict and of course the resulting advantage was in favor of Omaha." Then as now, overly aggressive play had its drawbacks.

Nebraska played teams from other universities for the first time in 1899, winning two games against Nebraska Wesleyan and one against Doane en route to the unofficial state championship. The next season, Nebraska played an out-of-state opponent for the first time, defeating the University of Kansas, 48-8, at Lincoln. That game still ranks as the worst loss for a Jayhawk team and was the first for either school against a present-day NCAA Division I school.

The Kansas team was coached by Dr. Naismith. The Nebraska student yearbook, Sombrero, wrote: "A closely contested game was looked for. The Jayhawkers were, however, completely outclassed, the score being 48-8." Based on the victory against Kansas and four other similarly decisive victories, "the basketball team for this year was undoubtedly superior to any in the west," the Sombrero concluded. It would be several years before such a claim could be made again.

Nebraska hired its first full-time coach in 1911. E.O. "Jumbo" Stiehm, who scored 24 points against Nebraska as a Wisconsin basketball player in 1908, coached both football and basketball. His first Husker basketball team won 14 of 15 games, its only loss coming at Minnesota, 40-15. The student newspaper, The Daily Nebraskan, blamed the loss on Nebraska's inability to adjust to the Gophers' "100-foot floor."

A Daily Nebraskan account of Nebraska's 29-28 season-ending victory against Kansas at Lincoln in 1912 provides evidence that some fans' behavior hasn't changed much over the years.

"The game as a whole was entirely unsatisfactory, being marred by rough tactics of the visitors, incompetent work on the part of the referee and interruptions by the audience, which were in part justifiable."

Nebraska shared the Missouri Valley Conference championship with Kansas in 1912 and 1914 and won the title outright in 1913 under Stiehm's leadership. The 1913-14 team was "so fast it took a movie camera to catch 'em," according to the Cornhusker student yearbook. It was described as a "point-a-minute" team, which wasn't quite accurate. Typically, games lasted 40 minutes (though that wasn't always the case), and Nebraska averaged 30 points per game. Guard Sam Carrier became Nebraska's first All-America basketball player in 1913. He and Carl Underwood led the Huskers to 17 victories in 19 games. Underwood was the Missouri Valley Conference scoring leader with 66 points in 10 conference games.

Nebraska won another conference title outright in 1916, after Sam Waugh replaced Stiehm as the Cornhuskers' coach for one season. Stiehm, who coached the first game of the season before giving way to Waugh, had planned to remain at Nebraska through the basketball season before leaving to become coach and athletic director at Wisconsin. But the Nebraska Athletic Board decided to replace him.

Waugh was succeeded by E.J. "Doc" Stewart, whose three Cornhusker teams had a combined record of 29-23. Nebraska was 22-2 in 1919-20 and 11-3 in 1920-21 under Coach P.J. Schissler. After the 1919-20 season, Schissler challenged the University of Chicago to a game, but to no avail. The Cornhuskers also were invited to a postseason AAU tournament in Atlanta but didn't go.

Schissler's teams played as independents. Nebraska lost its affiliation with the Missouri Valley Conference because of a decision to play a football game against Oklahoma in Omaha in 1919. Conference rules prohibited such games (Oklahoma had not yet joined the Missouri Valley Conference). Nebraska returned to the Missouri Valley Conference in 1921, and Owen Frank replaced Schissler as basketball coach. The remainder of the Roaring 1920s was, for the most part, undistinguished.

Basketball was rough and tumble. There was a center jump after every basket and no requirement to cross mid-court in 10 seconds or less. The ball was a lot different, too, more like a medicine ball, which contributed to some dull games.

The most significant event during the 1920s was the building of the Coliseum, which was dedicated on Feb. 6, 1926. The Cornhuskers dropped a 25-14 decision to Kansas in the first game at their new home, which was built at a cost of $445,000 and seated 8,000 for basketball. Prior to that, Nebraska played most of its home games in Grant Hall, which seated about a fourth as many fans as the Coliseum and was located just to the north of where the Sheldon Art Gallery now stands.

Athletic Director Fred Leuhning arranged for Nebraska to play its home basketball games at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum in 1921, in order to accommodate more spectators. The Cornhuskers played two seasons at the Fairgrounds Coliseum, which had a wider court than Grant Hall.

The first game there was played on Jan. 14, 1921. Nebraska defeated conference opponent Grinnell 31-10 before an audience of 1,500, according to newspaper estimates. After two seasons, the Cornhuskers returned to Grant Hall, which had been remodeled, and continued to play home games there until the NU Coliseum opened.

Nebraska ended the decade with an 11-5 season under Charles T. Black, a former Kansas All-American in 1928-29. In the next 19 seasons, the Huskers had just two winning records, back-to-back campaigns under Coach W.H. Browne in 1935-36 and 1936-37. The 1937 team tied Kansas for the Big Six championship, after finishing second to the Jayhawks in 1936.

The 1930s produced four more Cornhusker All-Americans: center Don Maclay in 1931, guard Steve Hokuf in 1933, guard George Wahlquist in 1936 and guard Robert Parsons in 1937. Maclay was the Big Six scoring leader in 1930, scoring 112 points in 10 league games.

Harry Good was hired as head coach in 1946 and after two losing seasons, turned Nebraska's fortunes around. In 1948-49, Good's Huskers went 16-10, tied Oklahoma for the Big Seven regular-season championship and defeated the Sooners, 57-56, in a conference playoff to qualify for an NCAA playoff game. The NCAA Tournament was structured differently then, and the Cornhuskers needed to win that playoff to advance into the NCAA field. They lost to Oklahoma A&M, the Missouri Valley Conference champion, 52-35, at Kansas City, Mo. Coach Henry P. Iba's Aggies went on to finish second to Kentucky, coached by Adolph Rupp, in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1949-50, Nebraska again won 16 games and shared the Big Seven crown with Kansas and Kansas State. That marks the last time the conference had a three-way tie at the top. "We were King in our day," Claude Retherford once told a newspaper reporter. "They were firing football coaches left and right, but we packed 'em in. Oh, people were interested in football, Bus Whitehead was a two-time All-Big Seven selection in 1949 and 1950. The court at the Hendricks Training Complex is named after Whitehead, who passed away in 2010.

but basketball was THE game on the Nebraska campus when we played." Retherford earned All-Big Seven recognition in 1949 after leading the conference in scoring with a 12.4 points-per-game average.

The Cornhuskers had another first-team All-Big Seven performer in 1949, Milton "Bus" Whitehead. The 6-10 center from Scottsbluff, Neb., also earned all-conference honors in 1950, when he averaged a then-school-record 15.7 points per game. Whitehead was named to the District V All-America team by Collier's Magazine. Whitehead also was the first Cornhusker selected to play in the East-West

All-Star Game in New York City's Madison Square Garden. When he graduated, Whitehead held nine school scoring records.

Nebraska basketball experienced another drought beginning in 1950-51, with 15 consecutive losing seasons. Despite playing for a team that finished last in the Big Seven in 1952, Husker guard Jim Buchanan earned All-America and all-conference honors. And even though the late Jerry Bush, dubbed the "Big Bear of the Coliseum," never produced a winning team in his nine seasons as head coach at Nebraska, his colorful personality and uncanny ability to fashion upsets kept Cornhusker fans entertained.

The most dramatic upset during Bush's tenure as coach came on Feb. 22, 1958, against Kansas. The Jayhawks featured 7-foot center Wilt Chamberlain and were ranked fourth in the nation when they came to Lincoln. Earlier in the season, the Jayhawks had defeated the Huskers, 102-46, at Lawrence, Kan., with Chamberlain matching Nebraska by scoring 46 points. Nebraska scored a 43-41 victory in the rematch, when 5-9 guard Jim Kubacki hit a 15-foot jump shot with two seconds remaining.

But that's only part of the drama. Kubacki, a senior from Toledo, Ohio, spent all but the final 6:53 of the game sitting on the bench in street clothes, forced there by a knee injury and the kind of fate from which legends are built. When the Cornhuskers' captain, Gary Reimers, left the game with leg cramps, Kubacki convinced Bush to let him suit up. Four minutes and seven seconds later, Kubacki went into the game. Two minutes and 44 seconds after that, he hit the winning shot.

Bush also had the distinction of coaching the school's first 1,000-point scorer, guard Herschell Turner, who came from Indianapolis, Ind., where he was rated the second-best high school player in the state as a senior, behind only crosstown-rival Oscar Robertson. Turner earned All-America honors in 1959 and followed with All-Big Eight honors in 1960 and ended his Cornhusker career with 1,056 points.

Following the 1962-63 season, Bush was replaced as head coach by Joe Cipriano, who brought the nickname "Slippery Joe" and up-tempo basketball to the Coliseum. His teams pressed full-court and ran a fast-break offense, which led the Big Eight in scoring average in 1966, 1967 and 1968.

Cipriano's first two teams had a combined record of 17-33. But his third team, in 1965-66, was one of the most successful in school history, finishing 20-5 and second to Kansas in the Big Eight. All-Big Eight guard Grant Simmons, the first Cornhusker to earn academic All-Big Eight honors, was the team's leader.

The 1966-67 team finished 16-9 and made the school's first appearance in the 16-team National Invitation Tournament, played at New York City's Madison Square Garden. Guard Stu Lantz was a two-time All-Big Eight pick and led the Cornhuskers in scoring and rebounding in both 1966-67 and 1967-68.

Guard Marvin Stewart and center Chuck Jura earned All-Big Eight honors for Cipriano in 1971 and 1972, respectively. Guard Jerry Fort, who finished his career with a then-school-record 1,882 points, was the first Nebraska player chosen first-team all-conference three times, from 1974 through 1976. With Fort's leadership, Nebraska began a string of 14 winning seasons.

In the fall of 1976, Cornhusker basketball moved out of the Coliseum and into the state-of-the-art Bob Devaney Sports Center. Located on the State Fairgrounds, the $13 million athletic complex was financed by a special cigarette tax.

Cipriano coached Nebraska to another 20-victory season in 1977-78. The Cornhuskers, led by All-Big Eight guard Brian Banks, finished with a 22-8 record and advanced to the second round of the NIT. Despite failing health – a battle against cancer that he finally lost – Cipriano shared coaching duties with his assistant, Moe Iba, in 1979-80, and took Nebraska to the NIT again. For their efforts, the duo shared United Press International Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Cipriano brought Nebraska into the modern era, coaching 17 seasons and 450 games. His record was 253-197, and those 253 victories represent nearly one-sixth of Nebraska's all-time total. Following Cipriano's death, Iba was named head coach, and he continued Cipriano's winning ways. In Iba's six seasons on the bench, Nebraska was 106-71 and advanced to postseason play four times.

Center Andre Smith was the 1981 Big Eight MVP and twice earned All-Big Eight honors. However, it was the late Jack Moore, a 5-10 playmaker from Muncie, Ind., who captured the hearts of Nebraska fans from 1980 through 1982. Moore earned All-Big Eight honors in 1982, when he won the Naismith Award, given annually to the nation's top player under 6-feet tall. The first three-time academic All-Big Eight pick in Nebraska history, Moore scored 1,204 points and hit .901 from the free throw line during his career.

The cornerstone of Iba's teams from 1983 through 1986 was Omaha, Neb., native Dave Hoppen, a three-time All-Big Eight center and the first Nebraska basketball player to have his jersey number (42) retired by the school. In 1982-83, Hoppen's freshman season, the Cornhuskers were 22-10 and won three games in the NIT before losing to DePaul in the semifinals at Madison Square Garden. The Cornhuskers returned to the NIT each of the next two seasons, advancing to the second round both times.

Hoppen's college career, though, was ended by a knee injury he sustained in a game at Colorado on Feb. 1, 1986. He finished as the school's all-time scoring leader with 2,167 points and broke or tied 19 school records during his four-year stay. After Hoppen's injury,

N 2021-22 NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

HISTORY OF NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

Iba's team regrouped and went on to earn the school's first-ever "official" NCAA Tournament berth. Nebraska lost to Western Kentucky in the first round of the Southeast Regional, 67-59. Following the game, Iba announced his resignation.

On March 27, 1986, Danny Nee was officially introduced as Nebraska's 24th basketball coach. During a news conference to announce his hiring, Nee said a "new era" in Cornhusker basketball was beginning.

Nee's 14 teams appeared in postseason play 11 times and topped the 20-victory mark in seven seasons. In his first season, Nebraska was 21-12 and finished third in the NIT.

After a 13-18 record in his second season, the Cornhuskers got back over the .500 mark with a 17-16 record in 1988-89 and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

Nebraska missed the school single-season record for losses by one in 1989-90 (10-18), then won a school-record 26 games, with only eight losses, in 1990-91. The Cornhuskers reached the Big Eight Tournament championship game for the first time and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, losing to Xavier 89-84 in the first round of the regionals at Minneapolis, Minn.

The 1990-91 team included two first-round NBA draft picks, senior Rich King and redshirt freshman Eric Piatkowski. The 7-2 King was the tallest player in Cornhusker history.

Piatkowski, Nebraska's sixth-man in 1990-91, went on to win first-team all-conference honors twice. He ranks second on the Cornhuskers' career-scoring list with 1,934 points, and he is the only Nebraska player to finish with at least 1,900 points, 600 rebounds (669) and 300 assists (322). In 2006, Piatkowski became the third Husker, joining Hoppen and Stu Lantz (No. 22), to have his jersey number (52) retired.

Three more NCAA Tournament appearances followed the record-shattering 1991 season. In 1992-93, the Huskers registered their highest league finish under Nee by tying for second in the Big Eight.

In addition to reaching the NCAA Tournament for a fourth consecutive season and recording back-to-back 20-victory seasons for the first time in school history, Nee's 1993-94 team made history by winning the school's first Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament title. The Cornhuskers defeated Oklahoma, Missouri and Oklahoma State, in that order, to earn the tournament championship.

Nebraska's NCAA Tournament run ended at four in 1994-95, but the Huskers kept their postseason streak alive with an NIT berth, advancing to the second round. The 1995-96 team struggled down the stretch but was back in the NIT and capped its season with a run to the tournament title.

The Huskers won two games on the road and scored more than 80 points in four of their five postseason games. They finished with a 60-56 victory against St. Joseph's at Madison Square Garden.

"The NIT run was incredible when you look at the teams we beat and how we beat them," Nee said after the remarkable run. "I don't care what anybody says, it was domination."

The 1996 NIT championship team was one of the most talented in school history. Two future NBA players, Erick Strickland and 1998 first-round draft pick Tyrone Lue, were in the backcourt. And two other players on the team scored 1,000 career points, Jaron Boone and freshman Venson Hamilton, who would finish his career in 1999 as the school's all-time leading rebounder and shot-blocker.

Lue's contributions as a freshman to the NIT championship team were only a preview of what was to come. The lightning-quick, 6-0 point guard finished his career as the seventh-leading scorer in school history, and he ranked in the top 10 in 12 other career categories. His leadership carried the 1996-97 Cornhusker team, the first to play in the Big 12, to another NIT appearance.

Behind a late-season run, which included Nebraska's longest conference winning streak in 20 years, Nee's 12th team finished fourth in the Big 12 and returned to the NCAA Tournament. The bid was the Cornhuskers' fifth during the 1990s and extended the school-record postseason run to eight.

The streak reached nine in 1999, as the Cornhuskers just missed an NCAA Tournament bid and advanced to the second round of the NIT. In the process, NU reached the 20-victory mark for a second consecutive season, and Hamilton was named Big 12 Player of the Year.

The optimism that preceded the 1999-2000 season, Nee's last, quickly faded with the loss of guard Cookie Belcher, who was sidelined by a wrist injury and forced to take a medical redshirt. The Cornhuskers were off-balance almost from the beginning of the season and fell far short of expectations.

Even though Nee became the winningest coach in school history in 1999-2000, getting victory No. 254 to pass Joe Cipriano in the Cornhuskers' final home game against Colorado, his final team finished with an 11-19 record. The 19 losses tied for the most in school history.

With then-Director of Athletics Bill Byrne setting his sites on bringing NU basketball back to national prominence, he hired Barry Collier as the Cornhuskers' new coach on April 5, 2000. In Collier's first season with the Huskers, Nebraska finished with a 14-16 mark as Belcher returned to the lineup and earned second-team All-Big 12 Conference honors while finishing third in NCAA history for career steals with 353.

In Collier's fourth season, Nebraska ran to an 18-13 record and its first postseason bid in five years. Nebraska won its first two games in the 2004 NIT, including an exhilarating 71-70

Nebraska won the 1996 NIT title at Madison Square Garden. It was the third time since 1980 that the Huskers reached at least the NIT semifinals.

road victory over in-state foe Creighton in the opening round. After a home-court victory over Niagara, the Huskers' season came to an end three days later in a valiant effort at Hawaii when NU came back from 17 points down at halftime to tie the game at the first media timeout of the second period before eventually falling by a point.

Nebraska struggled the following season but an influx of young talent helped the Huskers move forward. Aleks Maric made an immediate impact as he broke the NU freshman rebounds record and ranked in the rookie top 10 for blocked shots. Maric was a force in the paint as he tied the school freshman record for double-doubles. It was a sign of good things to come as he finished his four-year career ranked fifth all-time in scoring and was only the second Husker ever to record at least 1,000 career rebounds.

NU made its second postseason appearance in three years in 2006 before finishing with a 19-14 record. It was the most wins under Collier and the first time his Huskers won a game at the Big 12 Championship as NU reached the semifinals of the conference tourney for the first time since winning the Big Eight Tournament title in 1994.

Collier looked to have a solid base in place for 2006-07 before abruptly resigning in early August to take the position of athletic director at his alma mater, Butler University, ending his career at Nebraska with an 89-91 overall record.

The late opening posed little challenge for Nebraska as one week later, on Aug. 8, 2006, Kenneth 'Doc' Sadler was introduced as the 26th head coach in program history.

Nebraska finished first in the Big 12 and 18th nationally in scoring defense in 2007-08, allowing just 60.7 points per game. Sadler's specialty was highlighted again in 2008-09 as the Huskers proved it was no fluke, claiming another first-place defense in the league while ranking 22nd nationally by giving up just 60.4 points per contest. It was the second-lowest total in the Husker record book since 1951, giving Sadler-coached squads three of the top four Husker scoring defenses in the past half century.

The Huskers' 20-13 record in 2007-08 included a 7-9 record in league play, after starting the Big 12 campaign with an 0-4 mark. In 2008-09, Sadler helped Nebraska continue its upward trend with eight league victories, marking NU's first .500 record in conference play in a decade. Nebraska's 2010-11 season was highlighted by wins over three ranked teams, including No. 3 Texas, as the victory over the Longhorns was marked the highest ranked team Nebraska had defeated since 1994.

The 2011-12 season began a new era for Nebraska basketball, as the Huskers joined the Big Ten Conference. That season also marked the opening of the Hendricks Training Complex, an 84,000-foot facility for the Husker basketball program which includes practice courts, locker room, team lounge, offices as well as strength and nutrition areas, giving Nebraska one of the best facilities in the nation.

In March of 2012, Nebraska moved in a different direction as then-Athletic Director Tom Osborne chose Tim Miles to run the basketball program. It took Miles only two years to turn the fortunes of the Huskers around.

The 2013-14 season was a rebirth for the Husker program. Nebraska moved into the $179 million dollar Pinnacle Bank Arena in August of 2013 and presold the entire season six months before the opener. The Huskers went 15-1 in its inaugural season in PBA, culminating with a win over ninth-ranked Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 15,998. Terran Petteway earned consensus All-Big Ten honors while Miles was named Big Ten and National Coach of the Year after leading the Huskers to the NCAAs following a 1-5 start in Big Ten play.

Aleks Maric finished his career ranked fifth all-time in scoring and second in rebounding, becoming only the third player in Big 12 history to record at least 1,600 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career.

Since the opening of Pinnacle Bank Arena, Husker fans have been coming out in record numbers, as has averaged more than 15,000 fans per game in each of the past six seasons.

In 2017-18, the Huskers exceeded expectations, winning 22 games, including a pair of wins against ranked Big Ten teams, and finished fourth in the conference with a 13-5 mark. The 13 conference wins was a school record while the 22 wins were the most since 1990-91. Newcomers James Palmer Jr. and Isaac Copeland both earned All-Big Ten honors, as Palmer garnered first-team accolades by averaging 17.2 points per game to rank fifth in the Big Ten.

The Huskers returned to postseason play in 2018-19, going 19-17 and earning another berth in the NIT. Nebraska, which was ranked in the top-25 earlier in the season, battled through a trio of season-ending injuries and with its 80-76 win over Butler in the first round of the NIT, won its first postseason game in 11 years. Another streak was snapped in June of 2019, when Isaiah Roby was drafted in the second round of the NBA Draft, becoming the first Husker taken in 20 years. Miles ended his Husker tenure on March 26, 2019, after guiding NU to three postseason appearances in seven seasons at the helm of the program.

On March 30, 2019, Nebraska Athletics Director Bill Moos named Fred Hoiberg the 28th head coach in school history. Hoiberg brought a distinguished resume to Lincoln that includes four years as an NBA front office executive, four years as an NBA head coach and five years at Iowa State, where he orchestrated the biggest turnaround in Big 12 history in 2011-12 and guided the school to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Hoiberg, who was born in Lincoln, joins the Husker men's basketball coaching fraternity, a group that includes his grandfather, Jerry Bush, who guided the Husker program for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963. Hoiberg's up-tempo style has appealed to fans and players early on, as Dalano Banton was drafted in the second round of the 2021 NBA Draft. Nebraska also welcomes the highest-ranked recruiting class in school history to campus in the fall of 2021.

A crowd of nearly 2,500 were on hand to celebrate with the Huskers on their 2014 NCAA Tournament berth.

After earning all-league honors as a junior, Tyronn Lue was a first-round NBA selection in 1998. During his collegiate career, he helped Nebraska to three postseason appearances and finished eighth in school history in scoring.

Bill Johnson won a gold medal for the United States at the 1954 FIBA World Championships (now called the FIBA World Cup) in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Johnson averaged 9.5 rebounds per game during his three-year career at Nebraska.

Danny Nee is the winningest coach in Nebraska history with 254 career victories over 14 seasons. A 2009 Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Nee was the Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1991 after leading NU to a school-record 26 victories.

N 2021-22 NEBRASKA BASKETBALL HUSKER AWARD WINNERS

Jason Dourisseau (top) and Terran Petteway (above) are two of the six Huskers who are two-time Jack Moore Award winners.

JACK MOORE AWARD HISTORY

Nebraska's most valuable player award is named for late Husker guard Jack Moore, a 5-9 playmaker who set 17 school records in a career that ended in 1982. Moore was presented with the 1982 Francis Pomeroy-Naismith Award as the best collegiate player in the nation under six feet tall. A consensus All-Big Eight performer in 1982, Moore was killed in a plane crash in March of 1984.

Since the award was created in 1985, a total of six Huskers have received the honor multiple times, most recently Terran Petteway in 2013-14 and 2014-15. Other two-time recipients include Dave Hoppen (1985-86), Clifford Scales (1990-91), Eric Piatkowski (1993-94), Tyronn Lue (1997-98) and Jason Dourisseau (2005-06).

1. DAVE HOPPEN – 2,167 POINTS

6-II, 235, C, 1983-86, Omaha, Neb. (Benson)

Three-time All-Big Eight center Dave Hoppen finished his career as Nebraska's all-time leading scorer with 2,167 points. Hoppen, whose four-year collegiate career was cut short by a knee injury in a game at Colorado, Feb. 1, 1986, broke or tied 19 Nebraska records and five Big Eight marks during his standout career. A native of Omaha, Neb., Hoppen was the first player in Husker basketball history to have his jersey number (42) retired.

Originally drafted by the NBA's Atlanta Hawks in the third round of the 1986 draft, he played with both Charlotte and Philadelphia, and a stint in the CBA. Hoppen was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996 and Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

2. ERIC PIATKOWSKI – 1,934 POINTS

6-7, 215, F, 1991-94, Rapid City, S.D. (Stevens)

One of only two players in school history to play on four consecutive NCAA Tournament teams, Eric Piatkowski finished his career as the second-leading scorer in school history with 1,934 points. The Most Valuable Player in the 1994 Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament, Piatkowski had a school and tournament-record 42-point outburst in Nebraska's first-round victory over Oklahoma. A two-time, first-team All-Big Eight pick, Piatkowski averaged 21.5 points in his final season as a Husker, and became the first player in school history to score 1,900 points (1,934), grab 600 rebounds (669) and dish out 300 assists (322).

A first-round draft pick of the NBA's Indiana Pacers, Piatkowski's draft rights were then traded to the Los Angeles Clippers, who he played with for eight seasons. He also played with the Houston Rockets, Chicago Bulls and Phoenix Suns. Piatkowski's No. 52 jersey was retired by the Huskers in 2006, the same year he was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame.

3. JERRY FORT – 1,882 POINTS

6-3, 170, G, 1973-76, Chicago, Ill. (Franciscan)

The first Husker basketball player to earn All-Big Eight honors for three straight seasons, Jerry Fort finished his career with 1,882 points – a record that stood for nine seasons, until Dave Hoppen broke it on Dec. 15, 1985. Fort was a third-round draft pick of the Boston Celtics following his senior season. He scored a then-school-record 40 points against Missouri as a junior. Fort was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1991.

T5. ALEKS MARIC – 1,630 POINTS

6-II, 275, C, 2005-08, Sydney, Australia

(Life Center (N.J.)/Australian Institute for Sport)

Aleks Maric was one of the most dominant big men in the first 12 years of the Big 12 era. The Aussie was a first-team All-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press as a senior and a two-time second-team pick by the coaches. During his senior year, he became only the third player in league history to record at least 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career. Maric tied the school single-season record with 335 boards as a senior in 2007-08. Maric led NU and ranked in the top seven in the league in scoring, rebounding, field-goal percentage and blocked shots as a senior. He finished his career tying or breaking 19 Nebraska and Big 12 Conference records. After declaring for the NBA Draft following his sophomore season, Maric withdrew and returned to Nebraska where he became just the ninth player in program history to reach 1,000 points before the start of his senior campaign. He played overseas following his Husker career for nearly a decade and was an All-Euroleague first-team selection in 2010. In 2011, he helped Panathinaikos win a Euroleague title and represented Australia in the 2012 Olympics. Maric moved into a coaching capacity with the Sydney Kings in 2019.

9. TYRONN LUE - 1,577 POINTS

6-0, 175, G, 1996-98, Mexico, Mo. (Raytown)

Tyronn Lue became one of the few Huskers to eclipse the 1,000-point mark by early in his junior season. He finished his career with 1,577 points before turning pro a year early. Lue was a first-round NBA draft pick of the Denver Nuggets before being traded on draft night to the Los Angeles Lakers where he won a pair of NBA titles. He also played for the Washington Wizards, Orlando Magic, Houston Rockets, Atlanta Hawks, Dallas Mavericks and Milwaukee Bucks. Lue ranks in the top 10 in 13 Husker career categories, including assists (fourth, 432), 3-pointers (10th, 145) and steals (eighth, 154). Lue started 96 of 99 games in his Husker career and led NU to three straight postseason appearances, including an NCAA berth in 1998. A 2013 inductee into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame, Lue was named head coach of the Cleveland Cavaliers on Jan. 22, 2016. In his first season, he guided the Cavs to the first NBA title in franchise history, as Cleveland overcame a 3-1 deficit against Golden State in the NBA Finals. Lue, who coached the Cavs to three NBA Finals appearances in his tenure, is one of only 14 individuals in NBA history to win a title as both a player and head coach. He became the fourth Husker to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Feb. 2, 2017. He guided the Los Angeles Clippers to the 2021 Western Conference Finals in his first season with the franchise.

6-10, 240, C, 1996-99, Forest City, N.C. (Oak Hill Academy)

One of two Huskers to reach the 1,000-point plateau in 1998-99, Venson Hamilton was a four-year standout for Coach Danny Nee. Hamilton finished his career with 1,416 points and ranks 12th on NU's all-time scoring list. His senior season was one of the finest campaigns in school history. For his efforts, Hamilton earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors, the first Husker since 1981 to capture the league honor. Hamilton still owns NU records for rebounds (1,080) and blocked shots (241) and is fourth in games played (129). Hamilton was just the fourth player all-time among Big 12 schools to score 1,000 points, grab 1,000 rebounds and block 200 shots in his collegiate career. He was a second-round draft pick of the Houston Rockets in 1999, and enjoyed a successful professional career in Europe and Morocco.

20. JACK MOORE – 1,204 POINTS

5-9, 165, G, 1979-82, Muncie, Ind. (Central)

Jack Moore will long be remembered by Husker faithful for his gummy play on the basketball court. He was honored with the 1982 Francis Pomeroy-Naismith Award, which was presented annually to the nation's top player under 6-feet tall until 2014. During his four-year career, Moore scored 1,204 points, and shot .901 from the free-throw line – among the all-time best career marks in NCAA Division I history. Moore's .901 free-throw percentage broke the Big Eight record for career marksmanship, which had been held by his coach, Moe Iba. A consensus All-Big Eight selection as a senior, Moore was the first Husker cager to earn first-team academic All-Big Eight honors for three straight seasons, and his 382 career assists ties for seventh on NU's all-time chart. Nebraska's MVP Award is named in honor of Moore, who was killed in a March 1984 plane crash. Moore was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1993.

28. TAI WEBSTER – 1,116 POINTS
6-4, 195, G, 2014-17, Auckland, New Zealand (Westlake Boys)

Tai Webster showed the power of persistence throughout his Husker career. A four-year letterwinner, the 6-foot-4 guard made dramatic strides during his career, becoming one of the Big Ten's best players as a senior. Webster started 30 games as a freshman, helping the Huskers to the 2014 NCAA Tournament. He averaged double figures and was one of the Big Ten's top sixth men in 2015-16 before taking over as a senior. Webster garnered second-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and third-team accolades from the media, averaging 17.0 points, 5.1 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game as a senior. He ranked in the top-10 of the Big Ten in scoring (third), assists (eighth) and steals (fifth) and reached double figures in 30 of 31 contests to capture first-team all-district honors by the USBWA. He represented New Zealand in the 2019 FIBA World Cup and has played professionally in Turkey and his native New Zealand.

30. HERSCHELL TURNER – 1,056 POINTS
G, 1958-60, Indianapolis, Ind. (Shortbridge)

The first Husker cager to top the 1,000-point mark, Herschell Turner finished his career with 1,056 points. Turner teamed with Al Maxey to provide a strong offensive punch for Coach Jerry Bush's teams in the late 1950s. A first-team All-Big Eight selection as a senior, Turner earned All-America honors as a junior. Turner was a strong rebounder and held NU's single-season rebounding record (244) for 10 seasons, until Leroy Chalk grabbed 257 rebounds in 1969. Turner finished his career with 626 rebounds, which ranks 13th on NU's all-time chart. He was a sixth-round draft choice of the NBA's Syracuse Nationals in 1960. He was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1990.

MEDIA INFORMATION

N 2021-22 NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

The 2021-22 Nebraska media guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of the Nebraska Cornhusker men's basketball program. Additional information, including releases, photographs and video may be obtained by contacting the Communications Office at (402) 472-2263, or in many cases can be found on Huskers.com.

Please take a moment to review the following policies and services, which are intended to assist media members in their coverage of Nebraska basketball this season. In addition, Nebraska will follow policies by the Lancaster County Health Department and local DHMs.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials for Nebraska basketball home games should be directed to Vicki Capazo (vcapazo@huskers.com), One Memorial Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, 800 Stadium Drive, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123. Credential requests can also be sent via e-mail to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com) at least one week before the game.

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis:

- 1) Writers covering for same or next day publication;
- 2) Radio personnel for broadcast originations;
- 3) Sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers;
- 4) Official school student daily newspaper, one seat only;
- 5) Approved special coverage as space allows;
- 6) Press and TV working photographers;

Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of the Nebraska Communications Office. Generally, weekly newspaper representatives, Internet news services and non-originating radio representatives cannot be accommodated because of space limitations. Internet writers for sites affiliated with established, nationally recognized media outlets will be considered on a game-by-game basis as space allows. Credentials will not be granted for writers or photographers for Internet sites that are not affiliated with an accredited news organization.

MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA PARKING

Media passes that are not mailed may be picked up at the Will-Call window, located near the main ticket office at Pinnacle Bank Arena. The main ticket office is located on the south end of Pinnacle Bank Arena. The will-call window opens 90 minutes before tipoff and photo identification is required for pickup of credentials or tickets.

For the 2021-22 season, media parking is located in Lot 24, which is located on 8th Street between R and S streets. Media should enter the lot from S Street and the media lot is located about two blocks from the main entrance of Pinnacle Bank Arena. Parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

COACH HOIBERG INTERVIEW TIME

Coach Hoiberg will hold press availability with the local media prior to each game, either at the Hendricks Training Complex or at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Typically one or two players will be available at that time, depending on class schedules. All interviews with Coach Hoiberg must be scheduled through the Communications Office.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road. For home games, Nebraska's postgame news conference will be held following a brief cooling off period in the interview room (C-145) off the northeast corner of the court. The opposing team is housed in the visitor's locker room, located off the northwest corner of the playing floor and will be available following the cooling off period. Make requests for opposing players and coaches through the visiting SID. To access the media work room and postgame interview room, take the elevator from the main concourse behind Section 103.

On the road, Coach Hoiberg and select players will be available upon request after the cooling off period either in person or via zoom. Check with Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight regarding where player interviews will take place.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska basketball players should be directed to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight [office phone: (402) 472-7772, cell phone: (402) 540-0268] at least one day in advance. The best time for in-season interviews is after practices, depending on class schedules. Players are not available on game days or off days.

PRESS SEATING

Press row for writers and non-originating radio networks is located in Section 121 (northwest corner), just below the main concourse. The visiting radio network is located across from the scorer's table, along with the Huskers Radio Network spot and live television tables. Television crews broadcasting live may shoot from either floor level (northeast or southwest baselines) or the camera deck, but they may not occupy space in the upper-level video area.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

A media work room (C-151) is available on the east side of Pinnacle Bank Arena, a short walk from the Interview room. Media can use the room prior to, during and after the game to write and send stories. Wireless Internet is available in the room, while media entities needing ethernet lines to transmit photography and video should contact Joe Mack, Technology Manager at Pinnacle Bank Arena, by phone at (402) 904-5660 at least three days in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEO BOXES

Photography and video boxes are located along both baselines in front of the courtside seating area. Spots will be assigned on a game-by-game basis, and those boxes are the only place photographers can shoot from on the court. Once the team enters the court for pregame warmups, photographers and videographers should not be on the court at any time. All photographers/video working courtside will be required to wear a mask at all times.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Pinnacle Bank Arena has a secured media wireless network for working media. Instructions will be available on how to access the network in the media work room and on press row. A member of NU's computing services staff will be on hand to assist media needing access.

MEDIA SERVICES

Notes, flipcards and media guides will be provided before each game. Final statistics, play-by-play sheets and quotes from each locker room will be distributed via email following the game and will be available on Huskers.com. A light pregame meal will be served in the media work room (C-151) approximately 60 minutes before tipoff.

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

The University of Nebraska Communications Office is located on the third floor of the Osborne Athletic Complex, which is at the north end of Memorial Stadium. The building address is One Memorial Stadium, 800 Stadium Drive, Lincoln, NE 68588-0123, and is located less than one mile away from Pinnacle Bank Arena.

RADIO/TELEVISION BROADCAST SPACE

Requests for live radio and television broadcast space should be made to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight at smcknight@huskers.com. If statisticians are needed, contact Shamus McKnight at least five days in advance.

RADIO BROADCAST RIGHTS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln owns exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University's men's basketball games. Other than the Huskers Radio Network and the University of Nebraska student radio station (KRNU), the only radio stations or networks allowed to broadcast Nebraska games from Pinnacle Bank Arena are those that have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team.

All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the Pinnacle Bank Arena must receive prior permission from the University. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live game action or description of any game while it is in progress, nor shall such representatives air tape-recorded or live commentary of Nebraska coaches or players from the premises for one hour before or 20 minutes after a game.

Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephone lines on press row, or use telephone lines on press row for reporting on games. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to all stipulations.

BROADCAST TELEPHONE LINES

The Huskers Radio Network installs telephone lines for visiting official broadcasts. Those interested in using the lines should contact Mike Elliott of Huskers Radio Network at (402) 472-0751.

Official visiting radio stations are welcome to have their own telephone lines installed at the visiting radio position and may do so by contacting Joe Mack, Technology Manager at Pinnacle Bank Arena, by phone at (402) 904-5660 or jmack@smglincoln.com.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING PASSES

Per Big Ten Conference rules, the University of Nebraska provides press box access to scouts of professional basketball teams based on availability. If no space is available in the press box, scouts may arrange through the Communications Office (402) 472-2263 to purchase tickets for Nebraska home games.

TELEVISION, RADIO, INTERNET BROADCAST RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

Nebraska, its opponent and the respective conference designate the broadcast rights for all games. No pregame coverage shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska, the Big Ten Conference and the broadcast rights holder. Live postgame interviews may not be aired while the television rights holder is still on the air.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the Big Ten Conference. A maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the 96 hours following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, including such television programming simulcast on the internet, wireless or other forms of media, but otherwise may not be distributed on the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

Local television stations may not originate a pre- or post-game show from inside Pinnacle Bank Arena. Any blogs, tweets, live chats, social media posts, etc. from the game site should not serve as a substitute for, or approximate, play-by-play accounts of a game in any medium.

Non-originating radio stations or internet sites may not provide play-by-play coverage, live or delayed, but may provide short news updates provided such news update is one minute or less occurring no more than once per hour. No pregame coverage from inside the arena shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska and the broadcast rights holder.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES

COMMITMENT TO COMPLIANCE

On behalf of the University of Nebraska student-athletes, coaches and Athletic Department staff, I would like to express my appreciation for your continued support of our entire athletic program.

The University of Nebraska is known for its loyal, passionate, and knowledgeable fans. It is this type of fervent support that not only assists Nebraska student-athletes in reaching their full potential on and off the playing field, but also draws the next generation of student-athletes to our campus. However, as a University of Nebraska booster, please remember that you are also required to know and follow NCAA regulations.

Our coaches, student-athletes, and Athletic Department staff members are knowledgeable about NCAA regulations because they receive on-going education. But, to truly attain the excellence the University of Nebraska strives for, we also need our supporters to be educated about these same regulations. In turn, you will be assisting us with protecting the eligibility and well-being of our current and future student-athletes.

Please review the information listed below, which includes some of the most important and frequently asked questions about NCAA regulations for boosters. Since this document cannot address everything you may need to know, I encourage you to contact our office with questions that may arise. Our staff can be reached at (402) 472-2042 or compliance@huskers.com.

Thank you and Go Huskers!

Jamie Vaughn, Senior Associate Athletic Director for Compliance

NCAA PRINCIPLES INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

RESPONSIBILITY

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

COMPLIANCE

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FROM BOOSTERS

AM I A BOOSTER?

Anyone who engages in the following is a booster for the University of Nebraska:

- a) Belongs to a University of Nebraska Athletic booster club;
- b) Makes financial donations to the Athletic Department or a specific Husker team;
- c) Assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- d) Employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relatives/friends of either; or
- e) Promotes the University of Nebraska athletic programs.

WHAT IS AN "EXTRA BENEFIT"?

An "extra benefit" is any benefit provided to a student-athlete or a student-athlete's relatives or friends that is not authorized by NCAA legislation or available to the general student body. The following list is not exhaustive, but includes examples of "extra benefits" that jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility:

- a) Free or discounted: food, merchandise, housing, tickets, repairs, haircuts, tattoos, golf/gym memberships, jewelry, etc;
- b) Use of a car, boat, or ATV; and
- c) Gifts, loans, money, or gift cards.

CAN I CONTACT PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES (RECRUITS) FOR THE HUSKERS?

No. It is not permissible for boosters to contact recruits. This restriction applies to, but is not limited to, the following forms of contact:

- a) Face-to-Face Interaction;
- b) Phone Calls/Skype;
- c) Email/Text Messages; and
- d) Facebook, Twitter, and all other forms of social media communication.

Remember to ask before you act. Contact the Athletic Compliance Office by phone at (402) 472-2042. The compliance fax number is (402) 472-6961 and the office can be reached by email at compliance@huskers.com.

PINNACLE BANK ARENA SEATING CHART

Former Husker point guard Jake Muhleisen and Nebraska Basketball Hall of Famer Kent Pavelka call all of the action of Husker basketball on the Huskers Radio Network.

The newly-formed Huskers Radio Network launched on July 1, 2021, from the production studio on the East side of Memorial Stadium. This new department within Husker Athletics will lead the broadcast efforts for Husker Football, Volleyball, Men's and Women's Basketball, Baseball and Softball. In addition, the Huskers Radio Network team will produce Sports Nightly and Huskers Radio Network podcasts. Sports Nightly airs Monday-Friday evenings from 6-8 p.m. (central) year-round across the network. During the basketball season, Sports Nightly features a weekly basketball radio show with Coach Hoiberg and Husker assistant coaches.

In the state of Nebraska, KXSP (ESPN 590 AM) serves as the Omaha affiliate. KXSP's strong signal reaches a good portion of the Midwest day and night, including parts of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and Kansas. KLIN (1400 AM) serves as the Lincoln affiliate while KRVN (880 AM) is a powerful central Nebraska affiliate that reaches around the state. In addition, the network has several dozen locally based affiliates across Nebraska. All broadcasts are streamed live for free on Huskers.com and the Huskers mobile app.

Sponsorships and advertising on the Husker Radio Network is marketed and sold by Huskers Athletic Partners, which took over Nebraska's multimedia rights on July 1, 2021. Huskers Athletic Partners is led by General Manager Jason Rathe, who oversees all sales and sponsorship fulfillment for the Huskers.

Kent Pavelka returns behind the microphone to handle his 35th overall season calling Husker hoops in 2021-22. Pavelka previously called Nebraska basketball for two long stints between 1974 and 1996 before returning to the Husker basketball play-by-play chair prior to the 2006-07 season. A six-time winner of the Nebraska Sportscaster-of-the-Year Award, Pavelka also handled color analyst duties on NU football broadcasts from 1974 to 1983, and was the play-by-play announcer from 1983 to 1996. Pavelka was honored in January 2009 with the Bud Cuca Special Merit Award given by the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame for his contributions to the NU men's basketball program. He was elected to the Nebraska Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame earlier this year and called his 1,000th broadcast during the 2018-19 season.

Alongside Pavelka as color analyst will be former Husker point guard Jake Muhleisen, who begins his fourth full season on the broadcast team. Muhleisen, who has served in a part-time role for the network for the last few seasons, was a four-year starter and three-year captain for the Huskers, totaling 901 points and 284 assists during his collegiate career from 2002 to 2005.

Director of Broadcast Operations, Mike Elliott oversees studio operations and logistics for the radio network. Elliott has nearly four decades of experience in the radio industry and has previously worked at the Broadcast House, Pinnacle Sports and the Husker Sports Network.
