⇒ Coach Dan Hurley is in his third season as the 19th head coach in the history of UConn men's basketball. Hurley owns a collegiate coaching record of 201-141 (.588) in 10-plus seasons -- two at Wagner College, six at the University of Rhode Island and two-plus at UConn (50-36). ⇒ UP NEXT: A victory tonight would advance UConn to the second round of the East Region of the NCAA Championship, meeting the winner of #2 Alabama vs. #15 Iona on Monday, March 22, at a time and venue to be announced.

BIG EAST AWARDS: In its first season back in the BIG EAST, UConn is making its presence felt in the league's postseason awards. Sophomore James Bouknight, UConn's top scorer (20.2) was named First Team All-Big East, while freshman Adama Sanogo copped a place on the league All-Freshman Team. In addition, two UConn seniors earned individual honors as Isaiah Whaley was named co-winner (with St. John's Posh Alexander) of the Defensive Player of the Year Award and Tyler Polley captured the Sixth Man of the Year Award. The awards are determined by a vote of the league's coaches, with none of them allowed to vote for their own players.

BACK IN THE BIG EAST: UConn, a charter member of the BIG EAST during the league's formation in 1979-80, played its last BIG EAST game on March 9, 2013, before the league broke up. UConn then spent seven seasons as a member of the American Athletic Conference before rejoining the BIG EAST officially on July 1, 2020. In 34 seasons in the BIG EAST Conference plus this year, UConn basketball has compiled a 336-239 record (.584) in regular-season play, 193-94 at home and 143-145 on the road. The Huskies have won or shared 10 regular-season titles and have won seven Big East Tournament titles.

200 AND COUNTING: UConn Coach Dan Hurley notched the 200th victory of his coaching career in UConn's 98-82 win over Georgetown in the regular-season finale. He had 38 victories in two years as coach at Wagner, 113 wins in six years as coach at Rhode Island, and has 50 in two-plus seasons at UConn.

HURLEY IN NCAA TOURNAMENTS: UConn Coach Dan Hurley has coached in two NCAA Championships, taking his Rhode Island teams to back-to-back tourneys in 2016-17 and 2017-18. In 2016-17, Rhode Island came into the tournament as a #11 seed and upset #6 Creighton before losing a second-round game to #3 Oregon. In 2017-18, the Rams were a #7 seed and defeated Oklahoma in the first round before bowing to #2 Duke.

LIFE ON THE ROAD: For the first time in five years, UConn secured a winning record on the road during the regular season. The Huskies went 6-3 in true road games, with wins at Marquette, Butler, DePaul, Xavier, Georgetown and Seton Hall and losses at Creighton, Providence and Villanova. UConn's last season with a .500 record or better on the road was in 2015-16 (6-4). Due to Covid-19 issues, the Huskies were only able to play one neutral-site game, defeating USC, 61-58, on Dec. 3 at Mohegan Sun Arena.

Huskies Sign Top 10 Recruiting Class

UConn signed three players to letters of intent last month, a recruiting class ranked as high as eighth by some recruiting services. It is the third consecutive Top 20 class recruited by Coach Dan Hurley and his staff.

Rahsool Diggins is a 6-3 guard from Philadelphia, out of Archbishop Wood High School. He was named the 2020 Catholic League Player of the Year after averaging 20.3 points, 5.3 rebounds and 4.8 assists per game.

Jordan Hawkins is a 6-5 shooting guard from Gaithersburg, Md., who attends DeMatha Catholic. He averaged 12.5 points and 5.0 rebounds and shot 46 percent from three-point range, helping DeMatha to a 30-3 record and the Washington Catholic Athletic Conference championship.

Samson Johnson is a 6-10 forward, originally from Lome, Togo, who attends The Patrick School, also the alma mater of current UConn freshman Adama Sanogo. He averaged 8.9 points and 3.2 rebounds and was named MVP of the Slam 16 All-Star Game.

UConn Coach Dan Hurley: "Each of these young men has the type of talent, character, work ethic and winning pedigree that will help us continue to build a championship program."

BIG EAST TOURNAMENT: UConn made its return to the Big East Tournament in 2021, earning a #3 seed with an 11-6 conference mark. The Huskies romped over #11 DePaul, 94-60, in the quarterfinals, UConn's most lopsided win in its BIG EAST tourney history. The Huskies had four players score in double figures as R.J. Cole, Tyrese Martin and Adama Sanogo each had 14 and James Bouknight added 10. Things were much closer in the tourney semifinals as UConn and #2 Creighton engaged in a tough, physical, defensive struggle that wasn't decided until the final seconds, 59-56, for Creighton. Bouknight had 14 points to lead the Huskies, while Sanogo and Isaiah Whaley chipped in with 13 apiece. Sanogo was selected to the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team.

First Round vs. Maryland

Dan HURLEY

Head Coach

3rd year at UConn

Again, the Dan Hurley Rebuilding Plan is right on schedule.

Year One brings the arduous process of installing a new culture into every aspect of a struggling program and suffering through the ups and downs that accompany the process. Year Two brings a notable step forward -- in talent, attitude, mindset and results. Year Three brings another infusion of talent and, hopefully, a move into the competition for conference and national championships.

Dan Hurley's UConn program has entered Year Three.

Last season, the Huskies posted the program's first winning season (19-12), the most overall victories, and the most conference wins (10) in four years and, when the season was abruptly stopped by the coronavirus pandemic, UConn was on a five-game winning streak to close the regular season and had major momentum heading into the American Athletic Conference Championship. With seven losses by four points or less -- including four in overtime, two of them in double overtime -- the Huskies' record could easily have been even more impressive.

Had the postseason continued, the Hurley Rebuilding Plan might well have been accelerated considerably. As it is, Hurley and his staff brought in a Top 20 recruiting class in 2019-20, another Top 20 class in 2020-21 and a third consecutive Top 20 class secured for 2021-22.

Hurley's 10th season as a college coach was certainly one of his most satisfying as he watched his UConn program turn a corner. He raised his overall college coaching record to 186-134 (.581) -- and when you eliminate the first season at each of his three head coaching positions, which he had to spend stopping the bleeding at struggling programs, his winning percentage rises to an impressive .653 (149-79).

Under Hurley in 2019-20, UConn had its first First Team All-Conference pick and first All-Rookie Team selections in three years and makes the move into the Big East Conference in 2020-21 riding the crest of an NCAA Public Recognition Award for achieving an APR among the top 10 percent of men's basketball teams in the country.

Hurley became the 19th head coach in the history of UConn basketball on March 22, 2018, when he accepted the challenge of resurrecting a program that had suffered two consecutive losing seasons. It didn't take long for him to put his stamp on the program. Three games into his first season as the head coach of the Huskies, the team had three victories, including its first win over a nationally-ranked opponent in three years.

As the architect of two previous college basketball rebuilding projects, however, Hurley was well-aware that the challenge of returning the four-time NCAA champion Huskies to national prominence wasn't going to be that easy. As with his two other program turnarounds, there clearly was going to be struggles and growing pains, and UConn's final 16-17 record, while disappointing, was not all that surprising.

Hurley is a product of one of the most well-known basketball families in the country, led by his father, Bob Sr., a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame inductee following a legendary high school coaching career at powerhouse St. Anthony in Jersey City (N.J.) and including older brother Bobby, an All-American and two-time National Champion player at Duke, who played for five years in the NBA, and is currently the head coach at Arizona State.

While following in those giant sneaker prints has understandably never been an easy task, Dan Hurley has always embraced the challenge and built himself an extremely impressive basketball resume in the process.

Although he was a national recruit coming out of St. Anthony High School and he put together an impressive college career at Seton Hall, it is as a coach that Hurley has made the basketball world take notice.

Hurley came to UConn following six years at Rhode Island, where he took a program that went 7-23 in the season before he arrived to a combined 51-18 mark and two NCAA Tournament appearances in his final two years, URI's first NCAA appearances in 18 years. In each year, Hurley guided the Rams to a first-round NCAA tourney victory.

In 2017-18, Hurley's URI team posted a 26-8 record, the most wins by a Rams team in eight years, which included a 16-game winning streak, the second-longest in school history. Rhode Island swept to the Atlantic 10 regular-season title with a 15-3 mark, and spent seven weeks ranked in the national polls, rising as high as No. 14 in the USA Today Coaches poll. Earning a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament, URI defeated Oklahoma in the first round before bowing to second-seeded Duke. Hurley was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, earned his second USBWA District I Coach of the Year Award and sent two of his players to NBA teams, Jared Terrell to the Timberwolves and E.C. Matthews to the Grizzlies.

In his six seasons in Rhode Island, Hurley's teams were a combined 113-82 (.579), but an even more impressive 91-43 (.679) with two NCAA appearances and an NIT berth during his last four years.

Previous to his tenure in Kingston, Hurley spent two years at his first Division I head coaching job at Wagner College in the Northeast Conference. Taking over a program that had just five wins in 2009-10, Hurley immediately upped the win total to 13 in his first season of 2010-11 and nearly doubled that total to a 25-6 mark in 2011-12. His overall record in the Northeast Con-

Wagner was not Hurley's first college basketball coaching experience. After graduating from Seton Hall in 1996 and spending a season as an assistant coach under his father at St. Anthony, he was hired as an assistant coach at Rutgers and remained there for four years. When Rutgers decided to change coaching staffs, Hurley opted to go back to the high school level and took over the basketball program at St. Benedict's Prep in Newark, N.J., in 2001.

It was at St. Benedict's, where he also taught history, that Hurley maintains he really learned his craft, building the program into a national prep school powerhouse. In nine seasons, Hurley compiled a sterling 223-21 record, with four Top Five finishes in the national rankings.

Born (1/16/73) and raised in Jersey City, Hurley was an outstanding high school player at St. Anthony, leading the team to a 31-1 record and a No. 2 national ranking as a senior. At Seton Hall, he played under head coaches P.J. Carlesimo and George Blaney, amassing career totals of 1,070 points and 437 assists and helping the Pirates to three NCAA Tournament appearances and an NIT berth during his career. Following his graduation in 1996, Hurley went directly into coaching, joining his father at St. Anthony for one year before heading into the college ranks at Rutgers.

Dan and wife Andrea, who met while both were attending Seton Hall, are the parents of two sons -- Danny, who is a senior at Seton Hall, and Andrew, who is a freshman walk-on at UConn.

After losing in the second round of the NCAA Tournament in each of the past two years, Kansas, the overall No. 1 seed in the 2016 tourney, was determined not to make an early exit this time. Veteran Jayhawks Perry Ellis and Wayne Selden made sure of it.

The Kansas duo combined for 43 points as the Jayhawks took an early commanding lead and never gave it up, defeating No. 9 seed UConn, 73-61, in the South Region second round. It was the first NCAA Tournament loss as head coach for UConn coach Kevin Ollie after seven straight victories.

Selden had 22 points and seven rebounds while Ellis scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds for the 32-4 Jayhawks. Sterling Gibbs had 20 points for the No. 9 seed Huskies (25-11), who fell into an irreparable deficit that reached 24 points in the first half. Kansas had scoring surges of 16-0 early and 19-0 late to cruise into the intermission in full control with a 44-24 lead.

The Jayhawks made six of their first nine tries from 3-point range. When the jumpers didn't fall, the long arms of Landen Lucas, Jamari Traylor and Ellis were there to snag them. The final rebounds tally was 44-24, Jayhawks.

UConn came within nine points around the midpoint of the second half, but Ellis and Selden got going again to stop the threat. UConn did outscore Kansas, 37-29, in the second half, but it was far from enough.

The Huskies were out of sorts in their half-court offense. Daniel Hamilton was hounded anytime he was inside the arc, forcing multiple off-kilter shots and finishing 4 for 14 for 11 points with eight rebounds and six assists. Rodney Purvis had 17 points but went just 2 for 7 from 3-point range.

Gibbs, the fifth-year senior transfer who played at Texas and Seton Hall before coming to UConn, couldn't get his answer out when asked at the postgame news conference to reflect on his season with the Huskies. He tearfully bowed his head, and Ollie reassuringly reached over to pat his neck.

It was the sixth consecutive 20-win season for the Huskies, the fourth straight since Ollie took over as head coach in 2012-13.

Rodney Purvis, Daniel Hamilton, a stifling defense and 96 percent shooting from the line carried Connecticut back from an 11-point first-half deficit, as the Huskies beat Colorado 74-67 in the first round Thursday, keeping Kevin Ollie unbeaten as a head coach in the NCAA Tournament.

The No. 9 seed Huskies (25-10) went 22 of 23 from the foul line, including six straight by Sterling Gibbs in the final minute to secure the lead and pad their nation-leading percentage of 79.3.

"We just try to relax," said Purvis, who scored 15 of his 19 points after halftime.

Hamilton had 17 points and 10 rebounds, Amida Brimah blocked five shots and the Huskies even outrebounded the Buffaloes 36-33 on their way to the second round of the South Region. Colorado entered the tournament ranked fourth in the country in rebounding.

Josh Scott had 23 points and 11 rebounds for the No. 8 seed Buffaloes (22-12), finishing 0-3 in the NCAA Tournament in his career. He had five of Colorado's 11 misses in 30 free-throw attempts, helping UConn stay within striking distance. Scott made four straight foul shots to bring the Buffaloes within 66-63 with a minute to go, but they couldn't make it closer.

The Huskies, who won the title as a No. 7 seed two years ago before missing the tournament last season, were called for 26 of the 48 fouls.

Scott's jump shot in the paint with 3:01 left before halftime gave the Buffaloes their biggest lead at 33-22, but the bricks they were flinging from the foul line left room for the Huskies to rally.

The Huskies took their first lead at 47-46 with a 3-pointer by Jalen Adams, the freshman point guard who banked in the beyond-half-court shot to force a fourth overtime last week in UConn's win over Cincinnati in the American Athletic Conference quarterfinals.

Purvis swished a 3-pointer right in front of UConn's bench to make it 52-48 before turning to playfully pat Ollie on the chest with the back of his hand.

"I think he was saying, 'Bad shot!' and I was like, 'I got you,'" Purvis said.

University of Connecticut senior guard Shabazz Napier turned in another all-court masterpiece Monday night to lift the Huskies to a 60-54 win over Kentucky's freshmen in the final game of 2014 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. The game was played before a record crowd of 79,238 at AT&T Stadium.

UConn has now four NCAA championships (1999, 2004, 2011 and 2014) and joins an elite group of six programs that have won four or more titles that also includes UCLA, Kentucky, Indiana, North Carolina and Duke. UConn also has an all-time Final Four record of 8-1 for an 88.9 winning percentage - the best in tournament history, easily outdistancing North Carolina State at 83.3.

Connecticut, which finished the season with a 32-8 record, never trailed in the championship game. The Huskies led by as many as 15 in the first half and watched the Wildcats, who finish at 29-11, trim the deficit to one with 8:13 left. Aaron Harrison, Kentucky's big-moment shooter in the last three games, then missed a three-pointer from the left corner that would've given Kentucky the lead and the Wildcats never got closer.

The Huskies were one step ahead of Kentucky all night, holding off furious rally after furious rally.

Kentucky's biggest push started when James Young (20 points, seven rebounds) posterized UConn freshman center Amida Brimah with a monster dunk to start a three-point play and trigger an 8-0 run.

In the middle of that, Boatright, who shut down Harrison's twin brother, Andrew, most of the night, twisted his left ankle while receiving an innocuous-looking pass from Napier. He called a timeout, got it worked on and came back out.

Napier was named the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player and he earned it on both ends of the court, keeping a hand in Aaron Harrison's face most of the night and holding him to a three-for-seven, seven-point, no-damage night. Boatright was a member of the NCAA All-Final Four team as was junior forward DeAndre Daniels.

The University of Connecticut men's basketball team took another step to its fourth NCAA title on Saturday with a 63-54 win over Florida in a Final Four semifinal at AT&T Stadium before a crowd of 79,444. Connecticut now plays Kentucky for this year's championship on Monday at 9:10 p.m. on CBS and the UConn IMG Radio Network.

The win by the Huskies ended Florida's 30-game winning streak, which began after the Huskies beat the Gators 65-64 on Dec. 2 on a buzzer-beating jumper by senior guard Shabazz Napier.

Napier helped seal this game with about two minutes to play when he made two free throws for a 59-47 lead. That margin was the deficit the Huskies faced in the opening minutes after a cold shooting start.

With second-year coach Kevin Ollie in a defensive stance himself most of the game, the Huskies sidetracked the Florida offense by shutting down point guard Scottie Wilbekin and three-point specialist Michael Frazier II, who scored a combined seven points.

The Huskies were impressive on offense, shooting 55.8 percent (24 of 43) from the field against a team that allowed opponents to shoot 39.9 percent this season.

Junior forward DeAndre Daniels had 20 points and 10 rebounds for Connecticut, and it was his two three-pointers in a span of 1:43 that helped ignite the Huskies after they had fallen behind 16-4. Daniels was nine of 14 from the field and played the entire game.

Florida's defense - which was third in the nation - was suffocating early and the Gators took a 16-4 lead with a 7-0 run that was capped by a drive by Wilbekin with 9:47 to play.

The Huskies suddenly found their shooting touch. Connecticut made four straight shots and three of them were from beyond the 3-point line - two by Daniels and another by junior guard Ryan Boatright. A three by Napier brought Connecticut within 20-18 and a three-point play by senior forward Niels Giffey gave the Huskies their first lead of the game, 21-20 with 3:18 left in the half and they never trailed again.

In the second half, the Huskies stretched the lead to 37-27 with 13:10 left after a Boatright driving layup. They fought off every rally by Florida, which cut it to 43-40 with 8:03 left, but never threatened again.

Senior guard Shabazz Napier scored 17 of his 25 points in the second half to lead the University of Connecticut men's basketball team to a 60-54 victory over Michigan State in the East Region final of the NCAA Championship on Sunday before a crowd of 19,449 at Madison Square Garden.

The Huskies now advance to the NCAA Final Four at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. UConn will play Florida in the national semifinals on Saturday at 6:09 p.m. on CBS and the UConn IMG Sports Radio Network. The winner of that game plays in the national championship game on Monday, April 7. Florida has won 30-straight games entering the NCAA Final four, but their last loss was to UConn, 65-64 on Dec. 2.

The Huskies are now 30-8 on the season while Michigan State finishes 29-9. UConn will be playing in its fifth NCAA Final Four and its third in the past six years. UConn won the NCAA Championship in 1999, 2004 and 2011.

Napier, the East Regional's Most Outstanding Player, hit three huge free throws with 37.6 seconds left, making clutch shot after clutch shot just as Kemba Walker did when Napier was a freshman. The Huskies rallied from a nine-point second-half deficit to become the first No. 7 seed to reach the Final Four since the tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985.

UConn dared Michigan State to shoot three-pointers, and the Spartans nearly made enough, going 11 for 29 from behind the arc. Harris was four for nine on threes, but his teammates were a combined 10 for 32 from the floor.

Trailing 51-49 with more than two minutes left, Michigan State had a chance to tie or take the lead. Adreian Payne fumbled the ball away, and Napier drilled a jumper on the other end.

After Payne's free throws pulled the Spartans back within two, Keith Appling was whistled for a foul - his fifth- for contact with Napier on a three-point attempt.

Napier extended the lead to 56-51, and after Travis Trice missed a three, sophomore forward Phillip Nolan slipped free for a dunk that clinched the victory.

University of Connecticut junior forward DeAndre Daniels was going to keep getting the ball from his teammates until he cooled off. By the time that happened, it was too late for Iowa State.

Daniels scored 19 of his 27 points in the second half to lead UConn to an 81-76 victory over Iowa State on Friday night in the East Regional Semifinals of the NCAA Championship at Madison Square Garden before a crowd of 19,314. UConn improves to 29-8 on the season, while Iowa State finishes at 28-8.

The Huskies, who are the No. 7 seed in the East region, now play No. 4 seed Michigan State on Sunday at 2:20 p.m. for a trip to next weekend's Final Four in North Texas. The Huskies and the Spartans last met in NCAA tournament play in the 2009 Final Four in Detroit as MSU topped UConn in the national semifinals.

The third-seeded Cyclones rallied late, pulling within 67-63 with two-and-a-half minutes remaining, but UConn senior Niels Giffey hit a three in the corner for his first points since the game's opening moments. The Huskies made their free throws in the final minute and the UConn fans packing MSG began to celebrate.

With UConn clinging to a 70-65 lead and less than a minute left, Iowa State's Naz Long missed a three-pointer, and the 6-1 Napier pulled down the rebound and was fouled by Hogue. The guard calmly drilled both free throws.

UConn was 20 of 22 from the foul line, while Iowa State was six of 15.

Napier, the American Athletic Conference player of the year, drained four early three-pointers, then made only one more field goal the rest of the way. The quick start by Napier and junior guard Ryan Boatright opened up space for Daniels.

Since a stretch in late February and early March when he failed to reach double figures in four straight games, Daniels had averaged 15 in his last six outings before Friday. Against Iowa State, he shot 10 of 15 and pulled down 10 rebounds.

"With our seniors on this team, I just want them to go out with a bang," Daniels said.

In a span of three days, senior guard Shabazz Napier and Connecticut knocked out both Philadelphia schools in the NCAA tournament.

Now, the seventh-seeded Huskies are off to the East Regional semifinals in New York City. Second-seeded Villanova became the highest seed to fall so far after Napier scored 25 points in leading UConn to a 77-65 victory Saturday night.

UConn was better thanks to Napier, who scored 24 points two days earlier in an 89-81 overtime win against Philadelphia's other tournament entry, Saint Joseph's.

Napier had 21 points in the second half and helped put the game away by hitting three consecutive 3-pointers to give the Huskies a 54-45 lead with 6:08 remaining.

UConn guard Lasan Kromah scored 12 points for the Huskies, while junior forward DeAndre Daniels, junior guard Ryan Boatright and freshman guard Terrence Samuel (Brooklyn, N.Y.) each had 11.

Connecticut advanced to face the winner of Sunday's game between third-seeded Iowa State and No. 6 seed North Carolina.

The Huskies are marching on to Madison Square Garden in their first season as members of the American Athletic Conference after the Big East was realigned following a series of defections.

The teams traded leads four times in the opening 5:25 of the second half, with Daniels putting UConn ahead for good, 37-36, with a layup.

Poor shooting continued to haunt the Wildcats, who were coming off a 75-53 win over Milwaukee on Thursday.

After hitting five of their first eight attempts through the first 6:11, the Wildcats closed the half going 2 of 15. Their offense went stone cold after Hilliard hit a 3 to put them up 19-9 with 11:30 left.

Villanova went 11:24 without a field goal, missing 10 straight shots before Arcidiacono hit a 3-pointer with 5.9 seconds left in the first half that cut the Huskies' lead to 25-24.

With Jim Calhoun watching from the stands, University of Connecticut senior guard Shabazz Napier capped Connecticut coach Kevin Ollie's first NCAA tournament appearance with a win.

Shaking off a 23-foot miss at the second-half buzzer, Napier scored nine of his 24 points in overtime to lead seventh-seeded UConn (27-8) to an 89-81 win over 10th-seeded Saint Joseph's (24-10) in the second round of the NCAA tournament on Thursday night. The Huskies improve to 27-8 overall with the win.

UConn junior forward DeAndre Daniels scored 18 while freshman center Amida Brimah forced overtime by completing a three-point play in the final minute.

The game turned in the final minute of regulation and after Hawks guard Chris Wilson hit two free throws to put Saint Joe's up 70-67 with 49.2 seconds left.

Napier missed on a drive at the other end, but Brimah got the rebound to the left of the basket, and was fouled while putting it back. He tied the game by hitting the free throw.

Taking over with 39 seconds left, the Hawks never got a shot off on what became their final possession of regulation. Galloway twice lost the ball on the dribble, but got it back both times, before launching a desperation shot that hit off the side of the backboard as the shot clock expired.

With the game tied at 70 entering overtime, Daniels opened the scoring by completed a three-point play with 3:47 left during a 5-minute period the Huskies never trailed. Napier then scored seven straight points -- five of them coming from the line -- to put the Huskies up 82-74 with 55 seconds remaining.

UConn advances to the Round of 32 and plays No. 2 seed Villanova on Saturday at 9:40 p.m. The game will rematch one of the top rivalries from the former Big East Conference. That game will be televised on TBS and heard on the UConn IMG Sports Radio Network.

UConn guards Shabazz Napier and Jeremy Lamb combined for 41 points in a losing effort for the Huskies, who fell to Iowa State, 77-64, in the Second Round of the 2012 NCAA Championship before a crowd of 22,131 at the KFC Yum! Center. Connecticut ends the season with a record of 20-14 while Iowa State (23-10) moves on to face Kentucky in the Third Round on Saturday.

Chris Allen led four Cyclones in double-figures with 20 points and Iowa State scored its last 14 at the free-throw line to beat the Huskies. For the eighth-seeded Cyclones, meanwhile, it's their biggest victory in a season of them, having knocked off Kansas and Baylor during Big 12 play.

After leading by as much as 22 in the first half, Iowa State withstood a UConn rally in the second half. Freshman Ryan Boatright went on a one-man tear, making three straight baskets to pull Connecticut within 58-52 with 8:24 to play. But the Huskies couldn't get any closer, missing their next four shots and going scoreless for more than five-and-a-half minutes.

Allen has played more NCAA tournament games than any player in the 68-team field after making back-to-back Final Fours with Michigan State in 2009 and 2010, and his experience showed. He chased down his miss on a three-pointer from the corner and went up and under the basket, scoring to put Iowa State back in front 63-52 with 4:15 to play.

UConn could never make another run, and all the Cyclones had to do was convert their free throws.

The only thing that could stop Kemba Walker and Connecticut's amazing run was the final buzzer.

On a night when the massive arena felt like a dusty old gym, UConn made Butler look like the underdog it really was, winning the national championship Monday night with an old-fashioned, grinding 53-41 beatdown of the Bulldogs.

Walker finished with 16 points for the Huskies (32-9), who won their 11th straight game since closing the regular season with a 9-9 Big East record that foreshadowed none of this.

They closed it out with a defensive showing for the ages, holding Butler to a 12-for-64 shooting. That's 18.8 percent, the worst ever in a title game.

At age 68, Jim Calhoun became the oldest coach to win the NCAA championship and joined John Wooden, Adolph Rupp, Mike Krzyzewski and Bob Knight as only the fifth coach to win three NCAA titles.

Calhoun coaxed this win out of his team by accepting the reality that the rim looked about as wide as a pancake on a defensive-minded night in Houston. He did it by making his players pound the ball inside and insisting on the kind of defense that UConn played during this remarkable run, but which often got overshadowed by Walker's theatrics.

UConn trailed 22-19 after a first half that came straight out of the '40s.

Connecticut outscored Butler by an unthinkable 26-2 in the paint. The Bulldogs (28-10), in their second straight title game and hoping to put the closing chapter on the ultimate "Hoosiers" story, went a mind-numbing 13 minutes, 26 seconds in the second half making only one field goal.

During that time, a 25-19 lead turned into a 41-28 deficit. This for a team that never trailed Duke by more than six during last year's epic final.

That time, Gordon Hayward's desperation halfcourt heave bounced off the backboard and rim, barely missing. This time, UConn was celebrating before the buzzer sounded, Calhoun pumping his fists and hugging an assistant while the Huskies ran to the sideline and soaked in the confetti.

When the options boil down to winning or heading home, nobody's better than Kemba and Connecticut.

Kemba Walker scored 18 points Saturday night to lift UConn to its 10th straight victory since finishing off a .500 BIG EAST regular season, a 56-55 win over cold-shooting Kentucky that moved the Huskies a victory away from their third, and most improbable, NCAA title.

Walker, a quick-handed junior from the Bronx, added seven assists and six rebounds to help the young UConn team (31-9) extend a winning streak that started with a five-wins-in-five-nights leg-drafter at the conference tournament and now includes five more at the tournament that really counts.

The third-seeded Huskies - the best seed left in a tournament that has been as unpredictable as any in history - will face No. 8 Butler, a 70-62 winner over 11th-seeded VCU in the first semifinal, on Monday at 9:23 p.m. ET on CBS.

But this win, which improved Calhoun to 5-1 in his four Final Four appearances, was not a work of art on either end.

Fourth-seeded Kentucky (29-9) shot 33.9 percent for the game and went 5-39 without a point late in the second half. UConn wasn't much better, but Walker, Alex Oriakhi and Shabazz Napier all made baskets to turn a 48-48 tie into a 54-48 lead with 2:29 left.

DeAndre Liggins made a 3-pointer for the Wildcats to cut the deficit to three, and Kentucky had its chances. But Brandon Knight, one of John Calipari's three sensational freshmen, barely drew iron on a 3-pointer. After Kentucky got the rebound, Liggins drew a foul but only hit one of two free throws.

Kentucky forced one more turnover and went for the win, but this time, it was Liggins whose 3-pointer was short.

Napier made two free throws to make it 56-52, then Knight ended the game with a 3-pointer at the buzzer - a meaningless make and a cruel close to what has otherwise been a remarkable season for Calipari and Co. - Kentucky's first trip to the Final Four since winning it all in 1998.

The Huskies have won by one, by two, by three, by five and more on this unexpected postseason run. Before that, Calhoun's roster full of freshmen lived down to expectations by going 9-9 in their conference. But the Huskies haven't lost since falling to Notre Dame to close the regular season on Feb. 5.

Next up: A meeting with Butler, the small school from Indianapolis that was last year's runner-up. But after this one, it was UConn sounding like the plucky underdog.

Jim Calhoun could scarcely watch when the most improbable postseason run of his coaching life at Connecticut came down to an open 3-point attempt by Arizona's Jamelle Horne.

The shot clanged off the back rim. The clock hit zeros. Nine victories in just 19 days. Calhoun has seen just about everything, but nothing like this - and now his Huskies will keep running all the way to Houston.

Kemba Walker scored 20 points, freshman Jeremy Lamb added 19 and UConn earned its second Final Four berth in three years, beating Arizona 65-63 Saturday to win the West regional. After missing the NCAA tournament entirely last year, Calhoun's tireless team is headed to the Huskies' fourth Final Four, punctuated by an ebullient on-court celebration in a building packed with Arizona fans.

UConn simply hasn't lost since a .500 Big East regular season, winning five games in five days at the conference tournament before this NCAA run. Walker claims he isn't surprised by this sprint through the postseason, while Lamb has nothing to compare it to, leaving Calhoun alone in his grateful disbelief.

UConn also made the Final Four in 1999, 2004 and 2009 - all three times out of the West. The Huskies will next face East regional champion and fourth-seeded Kentucky on Saturday on CBS at approximately 8:49 p.m. ET.

Derrick Williams and Horne missed go-ahead 3-pointers in the final seconds for Arizona, allowing the third-seeded Huskies (30-9) to hang on after Lamb scored six key points down the stretch when Walker encouraged the Huskies to run plays for the fearless freshman.

The Huskies led 50-41 until the Wildcats made a 12-2 run that included two rim-ripping dunks by Williams and the go-ahead slam by Perry with 7:17 left. With Honda Center rocking in Arizona red, Lamb smoothly put the Huskies ahead before following Alex Oriakhi's putback layup with a steal and a dunk with 3:08 left for a seven-point lead.

UConn just keeps rolling in what has shaped up as a magnificent season after last year's disappointing NIT trip. The Huskies roared through the league tournament with an unprecedented display of endurance at Madison Square Garden.

When Kemba Walker led Connecticut back into a very hostile gym for the second half of its eighth game in 17 days, Jim Calhoun wondered whether this frenetic March run finally had drained the fight out of his team.

With resilience and brilliance to spare, these Huskies just keep thrilling their veteran coach - and their lead dog is turning into the biggest star of the NCAA tournament.

Walker scored 22 of his 36 points in the second half of yet another dynamic postseason performance, driving UConn through a tight second half Thursday night for a 74-67 victory over second-seeded San Diego State in the West regional semifinal.

Freshman Jeremy Lamb tied a season high with 24 points as the third-seeded Huskies (29-9) advanced to face fifth-seeded Arizona, 93-77 victors over top-seeded Duke, on Saturday at 7:05 p.m. ET on CBS.

After making a regional final for the 10th time by ending the best season in San Diego State history, UConn will go after its fourth trip to the Final Four - much to the pleasant surprise of a coach who thought he had seen everything.

Walker scored 12 consecutive points down the stretch in his duel with Aztecs point guard D.J. Gay. He hit four 3-pointers, led the Huskies in assists and even drew a momentum-killing technical foul out of Jamaal Franklin by falling to the court when the two bumped shoulders on the way to their benches with 9:19 to play.

Walker wasn't hurt, and he certainly wasn't tired. UConn has been streaking ever since its regular season ended with four losses in five games. Walker, their fearless playmaker from the Bronx, drove them to the BIG EAST tournament title with five wins in five days.

The Huskies then knocked off Bucknell and Cincinnati in the first two NCAA rounds to earn a trip into the backyard of the Aztecs (34-3), who hadn't lost to anybody but BYU all year long.

The most improbable of Big East champions is flying the league's banner in the NCAA tournament, even as the contingent from the conference keeps shrinking.

The Big East finally landed a team in the round of 16 on Saturday night, but only by beating up on itself. Kemba Walker scored 33 points, including 16 over the final 10 minutes, as Connecticut knocked off conference foe Cincinnati 69-58.

Third-seeded UConn (28-9) advanced to play second-seeded San Diego State in the West regional in Anaheim, Calif., on Thursday, while sixth-seeded Cincinnati (26-9) became the seventh of the Big East's record 11 NCAA tournament teams to be eliminated. Another one will exit Sunday when Marquette plays Syracuse in the East regional.

UConn will join the Marquette-Syracuse winner and possibly Notre Dame (which plays Florida State on Sunday) as the conference's only teams to advance to the regional semifinals.

It only makes sense that the Huskies are one of the teams still alive, given their unprecedented five victories in five days to win the Big East tournament. Calhoun said his team still has the momentum from that busy week, and it made a difference late in the game against Cincinnati.

Walker, despite hurting his wrist in the first half and his thigh in the second half, was the difference down the stretch. The score was tied at 45 with 10 minutes to play before UConn ended the game with a 24-13 run. Among the highlights: Walker's steal and assist to set up Roscoe Smith's dunk that pushed the lead to eight with 1:35 to play.

Walker finished 8 for 20 from the field and 14 of 14 at the free throw line in his 10th 30-point game of the season.

Rashad Bishop scored 22 points to lead the Bearcats (26-9). The loss brought to a close a Cincinnati season in which the school completed a long road to return to the NAAs six years after the messy departure of longtime coach Bob Huggins.

It was the first time in NCAA history two teams from the same conference have met this early in the tournament - a necessity because so many Big East teams made the field - and the familiar foes put on a competitive show, led by Walker and Bishop.

 NCAA Tournament 2nd Round

After carrying Connecticut to the Big East title, Kemba Walker decided to get his teammates involved in the Huskies' NCAA tournament opener against Bucknell.

It was a move that earned him a place in the school record book.

Walker had a career-high 12 assists, scored 18 points and grabbed eight rebounds to lead No. 3 seed Connecticut to an 81-52 victory Thursday night.

Roscoe Smith scored 17 and Jeremy Lamb added 16 for the Huskies (27-9), who showed no signs of fatigue after winning five games in five days last week to claim the Big East title. Connecticut led by 17 points at halftime and upped the margin to 32 with just over 15 minutes left.

The Huskies will face the winner of Thursday night's West regional game between Cincinnati and Missouri.

The Bison (25-9) did everything they could to prevent Walker from beating them with his sweet jumper and knifing moves to the basket. They often double-teamed the 6-foot-1 junior guard, leaving him no choice but to pass the ball.

Raymar Morgan broke out of his late-season slump with 18 points, Kalin Lucas added 21 and the smaller Spartans ran roughshod over Hasheem Thabeet and Connecticut in an 82-73 upset in the Final Four on Saturday night. The Spartans will play the winner of Villanova-North Carolina for the NCAA title Monday night, a much-needed boost for a city and state hit harder than most by the economic crisis.

Flashbulbs were popping as the final seconds ticked down. After shaking hands with the UConn players, the Spartans went to center court and saluted the crowd of 72,456, the largest-ever for a Final Four, about two-thirds of which were wearing green. Lucas bearhugged coach Tom Izzo.

The loss snapped Calhoun and Connecticut's perfect run in the Final Four. They'd made it twice before--1999 and 2004--and went on to win the title each time.

The UConn players walked slowly off the court, looking shell-shocked that their season had ended.

This was expected to be a battle of big men. UConn's Thabeet had been a one-man swat team, averaging a double-double and winning defensive player of the year in the burly Big East for a second straight year. Michigan State's Goran Suton led the equally gruff Big Ten in rebounding and had averaged a double-double in the NCAA tournament.

But the matchup never developed, with neither a factor. Izzo had said all week the Spartans planned to make the game a sprint to keep Thabeet out of his comfort zone. The 7-foot-3 junior certainly couldn't keep up. He looked gassed from the opening tipoff, leaning over, tugging on his shorts and gasping for air not even six minutes into the game.

He finished with 17 points and six rebounds. Suton, who had the main job of corraling Thabeet, didn't score his first field goal until early in the second half and finished with four points and seven boards.

Stanley Robinson and A.J. Price had 15 each for Connecticut, and Robinson added 13 rebounds.

For all that's been made of Connecticut's defense, Michigan State is just as stingy, and it made for a physical first half.

UConn did manage to get within 3 with a minute to go, but the outcome was never really in doubt and Summers converted a 3-point play to put the game out of reach.

Connecticut is making another trip from the desert to the Final Four. The wait goes on for Missouri. Freshman Kemba Walker scored 23 points as the top-seeded Huskies held off Missouri 82-75 on Saturday to earn a trip to Detroit and extend the Big East's dominance of the NCAA tournament.

The Huskies blew an early 11-point lead but survived against the frenetic third-seeded Tigers, who were denied their first Final Four berth.

UConn clinched the victory by going 10-for-10 from the line in the final 1:02. The Huskies are still in the hunt for their third national title - the first two went through regionals in Phoenix in 1999 and 2004.

When it ended, UConn coach Jim Calhoun made an exaggerated fist pump and the Huskies mobbed each other at center court.

"It's an amazing feeling," said A.J. Price, who added 18 points for the Huskies (31-4). "It was a total team effort."

Leo Lyons and Matt Lawrence each had 13 points for Missouri (31-7), which overcame an early 13-2 deficit but couldn't match the muscular Huskies on the boards. UConn outrebounded Mizzou 47-32.

Down 67-59 with 4:15 to play, the Tigers edged within 68-65 on Justin Stafford's tip-in with 2:42 to go.

Walker answered with an off-balance bank shot, and then Price hit a jumper from the lane to push the Huskies' lead to 72-67. The Tigers never recovered.

The first meeting between the schools featured a clash of styles. The Tigers, who had scored 102 points on Memphis on Thursday night, wanted to run. The Huskies tried to force a halfcourt game and take advantage of their superior size and strength.

Early on, it was all UConn. The Huskies easily broke Missouri's pressure defense and built a 13-2 lead before Mizzou coach Mike Anderson called timeout three minutes into the game.

The Tigers regrouped, and on the next possession they drew the first foul on 7-foot-3 center Hasheem Thabeet, who went to the bench. Thabeet returned six minutes later but soon returned to the bench with his second foul.

It was clear the Tigers weren't going to go away.

A bucket off a nifty spin move by Price at the buzzer gave UConn a 44-38 halftime lead.

But Missouri kept coming. Keith Ramsey's layup off a dish from J.T. Tiller gave Missouri its first lead, 50-49, with 13:30 to play. That capped a 9-0 Tigers run.

Sensing the upset, the University of Phoenix Stadium crowd of 18,886 began to roar.

But the Huskies, toughened by a winter in the rugged Big East, began to reassert themselves inside. They went on a 6-0 run to take a 67-59 lead with 4:15 to play and never trailed again.

Hasheem Thabeet, the Big East co-player of the year, scored 15 points, had 15 rebounds and blocked four shots, and top-seeded Connecticut overcame a sluggish first half to defeat Purdue 72-60 in the NCAA West Regional semifinals on Thursday.

"Hasheem just took the game over," UConn coach Jim Calhoun said. "Purdue, quite frankly, ran into one of the best players in America in Hasheem Thabeet. Beyond that, the game might have been different if we had just, quote, a regular center."

UConn jumped out to an early 11-point lead, then went cold and let the fifth-seeded Boilermakers (27-10) claw back into the game. The Huskies shot only 39.4 percent from the floor, but it led by five points at intermission because Purdue was even worse (33.3 percent).

The Huskies had won their first two NCAA tourney games by an average of 41 points, but it was obvious they were in for a fight against the defense-oriented Boilermakers. The Boilermakers trailed 30-25 at halftime, but they ran off the court to the cheers of their black-and-gold-clad followers.

In the UConn locker room at halftime, Thabeet said his teammates told him to step it up.

"They know I'm capable of doing a lot of stuff," said Thabeet, a junior from Tanzania. "Today, the second half, they told me to go back there and do what you do all season long."

Thabeet did exactly that. He scored Connecticut's first eight points of the second half, then blocked a shot to set up a fastbreak layup by A.J. Price, who scored 10 of his 15 points after halftime.

That play was part of an 8-0 run that gave the Huskies a 42-31 cushion with 13:37 to play.

What's more, it told the Boilermakers that they were overmatched in the middle.

But it took Purdue a while to get the message. The Boilermakers answered with a 7-0 burst, and soon they had pulled within 44-40 with 11:24 to play.

"We tried to put them away three, four, five different times, and every time they came back," Price said.

But Thabeet dunked to push the lead back to 57-45 with 6:28 to play, and that was pretty much it for Purdue.

"You've got to shoot the basketball at a very high percentage if you're going to beat them, if you get outrebounded by 15," Purdue coach Matt Painter said. "It is very difficult to keep those guys off the glass. They have a great team, and you've just got to tip your hat to them."

Using its superior size and ability, UConn jumped out to an 8-0 lead in the first three minutes.

Robinson dunked on an alley-oop pass from Price, and then Austrie stripped Purdue point guard Lewis Jackson in the backcourt and swooped in for a layup.

Senior guard A.J. Price (Amityville, N.Y.) scored 27 points and senior forward Jeff Adrien (Brookline, Mass.) added 23 points as top-seeded Connecticut routed No. 9-seed Texas A&M, 92-66, Saturday afternoon in a 2009 NCAA Division I West Region Men's Basketball Second Round game played at the Wachovia Center in front of a crowd of 19,894.

UConn left little to the imagination in the contest, scoring the game's first 10 points in a span of 2:36. Price had assists on all five of those baskets and the Huskies had a stranglehold on the contest. They led by as many as 24 in the first half (at 46-22), and the Aggies got only as close as 14 once, at 53-39 with 17:47 to play, but Price quickly responded with a three-pointer. The Huskies were never seriously challenged again.

Price, who scored at least 20 points for the third straight game (marking the first time he has accomplished that feat at Connecticut), had two impressive individual scoring spurts. He scored eight points in 36 seconds (two three-pointers and a fast break lay-up) in the first half, increasing the UConn lead from 38-22 to 46-22. He also scored eight points in a span of 2:13 in the second half to keep Texas A&M at bay. Price also added a game-best eight assists.

Adrien had a terrific contest for the Huskies as well. He made 11-of-16 shots from the field, including seven of eight before intermission. Adrien finished with a team-high eight rebounds. Adrien continued his fine postseason play as he has averaged 18 points and 11 rebounds in his last four NCAA Tournament games.

Junior forward Stanley Robinson (Birmingham, Ala.) had another solid contest for the Huskies, helping to make up for the fact that All-America center Hasheem Thabeet (Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania) was saddled with foul difficulties. Robinson finished with 12 points and grabbed Junior forward Stanley Robinson (Birmingham, Ala.) scored 24 points to lead four teammates in double figure scoring as No. 1-seed Connecticut routed No. 16-seed Chattanooga, 103-47, in a NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship West Region First Round game at the Wachovia Center Thursday afternoon.

The Huskies played the entire contest without Hall of Fame head coach Jim Calhoun, who was sidelined with an undisclosed illness. UConn was able to record the third-largest margin of victory in a NCAA Tournament game history (54 points) in his absence.

The game was actually tight, at 17-15, when the Huskies asserted themselves. Connecticut scored the game's next 14 points, the middle 10 of which were scored by A.J. Price (Amityville, N.Y.) in a span of 1:41. Price made three consecutive three-pointers and added a free throw in his personal scoring spurt. The Huskies ended the first half on a 31-5 run, holding the Mocs to just one field goal in the last 11:57 of the half.

UConn paced by Robinson (he scored the first six), scored the second half's first 15 points meaning that over a span of just over 16 minutes the Huskies outscored their opponent, 46-5.

Robinson made 11-of-17 field goal attempts, including several dunks, many of the alley-oop variety. It marked the first time in his career that he has scored 20-plus points in consecutive games. He had plenty of company in the scoring column. Price finished with 20 points, marking the fourth time in his career (and second time this season) that he scored 20-plus points in consecutive contests.

Center Hasheem Thabeet (Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania) was his usual dominant self, scoring 20 points, grabbing 13 rebounds and blocking two shots. It was the 26th career double-double for Thabeet and 17th this season. Senior forward Jeff Adrien (Brookline, Mass.) overcame a slow start to finish with 13 points, a game-high 16 rebounds and four assists. Adrien recorded his 46th career double-double and his 13th this year.

Freshman point guard Kemba Walker (Bronx, N.Y.) had 10 points and six assists off of the bench, while senior guard Craig Austrie (Stamford, Conn.) had a game-high seven assists, the most he has registered since dishing out 14 against Quinnipiac in his freshman campaign.

Sophomore guard Donnell Beverly (Hawthorne, Calif.) had seven points and five assists in eight productive minutes off of the bench.

The Huskies enjoyed a whopping 58-34 advantage on the backboards and held the Mocs to just 26 percent shooting (17-of-66). Connecticut shot 52 percent from the field, had 28 assists and committed just nine turnovers.

Combined with the 117 points scored in the BIG EAST Tournament loss to Syracuse, the Huskies broke the 100-point barrier for the second-straight game. The last time Connecticut accomplished that feat was in the 2003-04 season when the Huskies turned the trick against Iona and Ball State.

De'Jon Jackson hit a fadeaway jumper with 1.2 seconds remaining in overtime as 13th-seeded San Diego knocked off the 4th-seeded University of Connecticut, 70-69, in a 2008 Division I Men's Basketball Championship West Region First Round game at the St. Pete Times Forum in front of 15,920.

Connecticut had clawed all the way back from a 10-point second half deficit to force overtime and had taken only their third lead of the game with nine seconds remaining in overtime when Jerome Dyson made two free throws. After a San Diego timeout, Jackson dribbled and faded back with Stanley Robinson putting an outstretched hand in his face, and made a jumper to put San Diego back in front. Connecticut's inbounds pass was intercepted by the Toreros and the Huskies had been defeated in the first round of the NCAA Championship for the first time in 15 tries.

Connecticut played the final 34 minutes of regulation and overtime without leading scorer and All-American guard A.J. Price. Price injured his knee with 9:39 to play in the opening half and never returned.

Jeff Adrien led the Huskies with 18 points and 12 rebounds, good for his 33rd career and 17th season double-double. Dyson added 14 points in his best scoring performance since returning from a suspension due to a violation of team rules. Hasheem Thabeet had 14 points and blocked four shots.

The Huskies were out of sync offensively after Price was injured as the Toreros quickly extended a 34-29 halftime lead to 10, at 44-34 with 14:37 left to play in regulation. Connecticut turned up the defensive intensity and went on a 9-0 scoring spurt to draw within one, at 44-43. Robinson started the run with a three-point play off of a pretty feed from Doug Wiggins. The Huskies were able to tie the score at 46 when Thabeet hit a free throw. This was part of a personal streak of eight straight points scored by Thabeet for the Huskies.

Brandon Johnson hit consecutive three-pointers to put San Diego back ahead 52-46, but the Huskies battled back once again. The Huskies knotted the score at 60 and forced overtime when Dyson made two free throws with 10.4 seconds remaining. A last second lay-up by San Diego's Clinton Houston was no good and Thabeet corralled the rebound.

In the extra session, San Diego once again forged ahead with the first two baskets, but Connecticut rallied to lead 67-66 with 43.6 seconds left in overtime on a lay-up by Dyson off of a pretty pass by Adrien. Rob Jones made a lay-up with 24.9 seconds left to put San Diego back ahead, setting the stage for the end of game heroics by Jackson.

Gyno Pomare led the Toreros with 22 points on 10-of-12 shooting, while Johnson added 18 points.

Wiggins finished with a game-high five assists, while Craig Austrie chipped in with 10 points.

Senior Denham Brown, whose reverse lay-up at the end of regulation forced overtime, missed a three-pointer at the buzzer in the extra session as No. 11-seed George Mason defeated No. 1-seed Connecticut, 86-84, in the Regional Final of the Washington Regional at the Verizon Center. Connecticut almost made a second consecutive miracle comeback win. The Huskies trailed by four, at 74-70 with 17.6 seconds to play, before All-Region performer Marcus Williams made a runner in the lane. After George Mason's Tony Skinn missed the front-end of a one-and-one, Brown drove under the basket and made a twisting shot to force the extra period. George Mason scored the first points of overtime on a basket by Will Thomas and never trailed again. The Huskies had one chance to win the contest after Jai Lewis missed two free throws with 6.1 seconds to go. Brown took a pass, stepped back and barely missed a three-pointer at the buzzer that would have given the Huskies the victory. The Huskies were led by sophomore Rudy Gay, who scored 20 points, and scored nine straight points midway through the second half when UConn was struggling to score. Gay joined Williams on the All-Region team. Freshman Jeff Adrien gave the Huskies a huge lift off of the bench with 17 points and seven rebounds. He made seven of eight field goal attempts, in setting his career-high in scoring. Williams was his usual solid self, scoring 13 points and dishing out 11 assists to register his seventh double-double of the season in just 23 games. Brown finished with 11 points for UConn. The Patriots made up a nine-point halftime deficit in the first 7:27 of the second half, tying the game at 49-all on a three-pointer by Folarin Campbell. The remainder of the half was a see-saw affair as the lead changed hands 10 times before George Mason was able to eke out four different four-point leads, the last of which, at 74-70, which set up the late-game heroics by Brown. Lewis finished with 20 points, and a game-high 12 rebounds. Thomas added 19 points, while the Region's Most Outstanding player, Lamar Butler, added 19 points. The Huskies finished the first half with a 15-5 run to take a 43-34 lead into the break. George Mason led 29-28 with 3:09 to go until halftime, but UConn responded with a barrage in the final three minutes, getting three-pointers by Gay, Williams, Brown and Rashad Anderson along with a conventional three-point play from Ed Nelson to jump out in front by as many as 12, 43-31. Adrien was vital to the first half effort, coming off the bench to score ten points on a perfect five-for-five performance from the field. Eight different Huskies scored in the first half and UConn turned the ball over only six times while shooting 57.1% from the field.

Senior Rashad Anderson hit a long three-pointer with 1.8 seconds left in regulation to force overtime and top-seeded Connecticut made all eight extra-session free throws to give the Huskies a wild 98-92 victory over fifth-seeded Washington and an entry in the Elite Eight in the 2006 NCAA Championship at the Verizon Center. Connecticut trailed by six, 78-72, with 1:55 to play in regulation after Washington's Jamaal Williams drilled a three-pointer. Senior Josh Boone made one of two free throws with 1:16 to go to bring the Huskies within five. After Washington's Mike Jensen missed a three-pointer, Anderson swished a three off of a pretty pass from Marcus Williams with 34 seconds remaining to make the score 78-76 Washington. Justin Dentmon made two free throws for Washington, but Williams raced the length of the floor and was fouled on his successful field goal -- and made the ensuing free throw to complete the old-fashioned three-point play to bring UConn to within one with 11 seconds to go. Brandon Roy made two free throws with 7.9 seconds to go setting up Anderson's heroics. Connecticut never trailed in the extra session taking early leads on baskets by Williams and Anderson. Senior center Hilton Armstrong made several big plays in the overtime period, blocking a Roy lay-up, hitting a big lay-up with 1:13 to play and swishing two free throws with 24.4 seconds to go. Williams had a spectacular offensive game for UConn. He scored a career-high 26 points and was a perfect 11-for-11 from the line. He also had a game-best eight assists. He was joined in double figures by five teammates. Anderson came off of the bench to score 19 points, making half of his 10 three-point attempts. Senior Denham Brown and sophomore Rudy Gay each had a dozen points. Gay tallied 11 of is points in the second half. UConn trailed by as many as 11 points in the early going of the second half, but strung together a 17-6 run over a seven-minute span to tie the score at 57-57 with 11:40 to play in the contest. Anderson was key in the run, hitting back-to-back three's, while Gay scored six points in the run. Washington took advantage of another barrage of UConn turnovers to start the second half, as six miscues in the first five minutes of the half led to an eight-point edge. UW led by 11 after scoring the six points of the half, making the score 51-40, with 18:24 left in regulation. The lead was eight, 53-45, with 13:48 to go when Roy picked up his third foul and then a double technical foul with Gay that was Roy's fourth foul. Roy went to the bench and UConn went on its game changing run. UConn trailed at the half by a score of 45-40. They turned the ball over 14 times in the half and hit only 12-of-21 free throws during the stanza. The half featured six ties and five lead changes. Washington led by as many as ten points, using an 8-0 spurt in just over a minute of play to take a 34-28 lead with 6:07 to go in the half. The lead grew to ten points after a Roy dunk with 3:44 to play that made the score 40-30. Connecticut went on an 8-2 run to cut the lead to four points, with 1:49 until the break and the teams traded buckets over the final minutes to send UW into the break with a five-point edge.

Sophomore All-America Rudy Gay scored 19 points and sealed the game with two free throws with 3.3 seconds remaining as top-seeded Connecticut defeated eighth-seeded Kentucky, 87-83, to advance to the Sweet 16 round of the Washington Regional of the 2006 NCAA Championship. Gay and junior point guard Marcus Williams were the catalysts as the Huskies held off a late Kentucky rally. UConn led 81-74 with 1:50 to play after freshman Craig Austrie drove through the Wildcat press for a lay-up. Patrick Sparks, who was outstanding all game for Kentucky, finishing with 19 of his 28 points after intermission, drilled a three-pointer to bring Kentucky to within four. After a UConn shot clock violation, Sheryan Thomas made a lay-up to bring the Wildcats within a bucket at 81-79 with 52.5 seconds to play. Williams made both free throws after two Kentucky fouls, sandwiched around a Bobby Perry follow to put UConn ahead 83-79, with 29.4 to play. Perry had another follow hoop, but Gay secured the win with his two charity tosses. Williams led the Huskies with 20 points and eight assists, tallying 16 points in the second half. He made eight of nine free throws, and continued his streak this season of not having a game with less than five assists. Gay finished with 19 points and added four rebounds, three assists and three steals. Three other Huskies scored in double figures as senior Rashad Anderson scored 14 points (all in a frenzied ten-minute stretch of the first half), as did senior Denham Brown. Kentucky started the second half with a flourish, scoring the first seven points of the half to cut the UConn lead to 43-38 with 18:42 to play. The Huskies immediately responded with a 7-2 spurt to get the lead back to ten, 50-40, with 17:08 to go. The lead was back at 13 points, 58-45, with 13:37 to go after an Armstrong jumper, but again the Wildcats would respond. Kentucky scored the next six points, capped by a Sparks lay-up, to make the score 58-51 with 11:16 left in the game. UConn led by 13 points on four different occasions in the first half before settling for a 43-31 lead at the intermission. The Huskies used a 17-4 run to break an 8-8 tie and forge a 25-12 lead with 10:21 left in the half. Anderson was the key to the Husky run, hitting four three-pointers in a span of just over five minutes of play. He finished with 14 points in the half after going scoreless in the first round win over Albany. UConn overcame foul trouble to both big men and held Kentucky to 37.5% from the field, while shooting 51.5% from the field and turning it over only six times in the stanza. The Wildcats twice cut the deficit to six points late in the half, the last time on a Sparks three with 2:55 to go before the break that made the score 35-29 in favor of UConn. The Huskies responded with a 6-0 spurt on two Gay free throws and a pair of buckets by Brown to get the lead back to 12 at 41-29 with just over a minute to play in the half.

Top-seeded Connecticut used a furious 34-9 rally to end the game, in coming back to defeat an extremely game 16th-seeded Albany squad, 72-59, in the First Round of the 2006 NCAA Championship at the Wachovia Center in Philadelphia on March 17. Albany led for much of the game, and after Connecticut's Rudy Gay hit the second half's first basket, the Great Danes scored the game's next 13 points to lead 43-33 with 14:26 remaining. Albany extended their lead to 12, at 50-38 with 11:34 to go, but Connecticut, led by Marcus Williams and Denham Brown, roared back in the game. Junior Josh Boone started the Huskies off with a short jumper, before Williams and Brown combined to score ten of UConn's next 12 points. The Huskies took their first lead since halftime on Williams straight-away three-pointer with 5:49 to go. Hilton Armstrong made a three-point play (his first points of the game) with 4:56 remaining, and Williams followed with another dagger three and the Huskies had finally secured the win. UConn led by a score of 31-30 at the half, shooting 65 percent from the field to compensate for sloppy ball handling that resulted in 11 turnovers. The Great Danes took advantage of eight Husky turnovers in the first seven minutes and held the lead throughout much of the early going. UConn got on the board first, but Albany responded with a 9-1 run to take a 9-3 lead into the first media timeout. The Huskies responded with a 10-2 run of their own to take the lead back at 13-11 with 10:07 to go in the frame. The remainder of the half was a tight affair, with UConn never leading by more than three points and the Great Danes never jumping out by more than one point. By the time the half ended, it had featured four ties and eight lead changes and the Huskies held the one-point edge. Boone had nine points to lead UConn, while Lucious Jordan and Kirsten Zoellner each had eight to lead Albany, in the opening stanza. The Great Danes were led by Jamar Wilson, who scored 19 points and had six assists.

The Knights then cut the lead to four points making it 17-13, as the went on a mini 8-2 run. That was as close as the would be for the rest of the first half as UConn opened up a 17 point lead, 42-26 in the closing moment on a Villanueva basket. UConn eventually led by 16 at halftime -- 47-31. Central Florida did not go away in the second half and stayed with the Huskies the whole way. UConn got the lead back to 10-- 72-62 -- on a Villanueva basket with 2:10 to go. Despite a career best 22 points from Marcus Williams, UConn could not stop Julius Hodge in the game's final seconds and fell to the Wolf Pack 65-62. Hodge scored the game's final three points, banking in a shot off the run from the right side with 4.8 seconds remaining and converting a free throw after Ed Nelson was called for the block. Williams threw up a desperation three pointer at the buzzer but could not get it to fall. Sophomore Charlie Villanueva had yet another double-double, finishing with 16 points and 12 rebounds. This marks just the third time in Jim Calhoun's 19 years at UConn that his teams could not get past the second round of the tournament. The Huskies are now 23-3 in the first two rounds of the NCAA tournament. UConn finishes their season with a share of the Big East Regular Season Championship with an overall record of 23-8, 12-3 in the Big East.

Sophomore guard Rashad Anderson scored 18 of his game-high 22 points in the first half and connected for a career-high six three-point field goals -- again all in the first half -- as the second-seeded University of Connecticut men's basketball team defeated 15th-seeded Vermont by a 70-53 score at HSBC Arena in the first round of the Phoenix Regional of the 2004 NCAA Championship. Vermont, the America East Conference champion, got out to a quick start on the Huskies and scored the first seven points of the game. Anderson kept the Huskies in the game as he scored two three-point field goals in the first five minutes of the contest to make it 7-6, Catamounts. UConn eventually took the lead for good on another Anderson three-pointer with 11:05 to go in the half that made it 17-15, Huskies. Anderson's six treys set a UConn school-record for three-pointers made in an NCAA Tournament contest. Anderson connected on three more treys in the first half and the Huskies led at the intermission by a 37-27 count. UConn led by double digits the entire second half and opened up a 16-point lead, 49-33, with 13:49 left to play. Vermont cut the gap to 51-41 with 11:22 left to play but could get no closer. Three other Husky players joined Anderson in double figures as junior center Emeka Okafor had 15 points and 14 rebounds while senior guard Taliek Brown and junior guard Ben Gordon each added 14. With 4:12 to go in the game, Brown became the 36th player in Husky history to score 1,000 career points.

Juniors Emeka Okafor and Ben Gordon led four players in double-figures as the Connecticut men's basketball team advanced to the Sweet 16 of the 2004 NCAA Championship with a 72-55 romp over DePaul in the Second Round at the HSBC Arena in Buffalo, NY. Okafor notched his 22nd double-double of the season and 51st of his career scoring 10 points and grabbing down 12 rebounds. His 12 boards also propelled him to become UConn's all-time leader in NCAA Tournament play with 99 rebounds in nine games. Gordon scored 18 points on 3-of-7 shooting from three-point range and was 7-for-8 from the free throw line. DePaul missed its eight first shots of the game allowing UConn to jump out to an early 11-0 lead sparked by five points from Taliek Brown. Connecticut held a lead as large as 23 points (35-12) in the late goings of the half, but late in the stanza the Blue Demons went on an 8-0 run to bring the score as close as 35-20. Connecticut went on to score the next four points and headed into halftime with a 39-20 advantage. In the first half, the Blue Demons shot only 27 percent from the field on 9-for-33 shooting, while Connecticut was 43 percent on 15-for-35 shooting. UConn's Denham Brown had a productive first half of play scoring nine points on 3-for-3 shooting in only 11 minutes played. The 20 points UConn held DePaul to in the first half was the least points scored by an opponent against the Huskies in NCAA Tournament action since March 11, 1967 when Boston College held a 14-13 edge. Denham Brown scored 12 points and made four of his six attempts from the free throw line. Taliek Brown finished with 13 points and four rebounds for the Huskies.

Junior guard Ben Gordon scored a game-high 20 points and three other Huskies scored in double-figures as the No. 2 seed University of Connecticut men's basketball team trounced Vanderbilt 73-53 in Regional Semifinal action of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship in Phoenix, Ariz. The Husky defense neutralized Vanderbilt's all-time leading scorer Matt Freije in the first half as the senior forward scored only three points on 1-for-9 shooting including 0-for-4 from behind the arc, and the Huskies built a commanding 45-27 lead at the half. However, the Commodores would not lie down and mounted an 18-7 run, which drew the Commodores to within seven, 52-45, with 12:00 minutes remaining in regulation. Sophomore wing Rashad Anderson answered with a back-breaking 3-pointer just ten seconds later to spark a decisive 8-0 Husky run and Vandy was unable to threaten again. Gordon was one rebound shy of a double-double and also dished out four assists in the victory. Junior All-American Emeka Okafor dropped in 12 points and snared 10 boards for the 23rd double-double of the season and 52nd of his illustrious career. Senior point guard Taliek Brown continued his strong play in the tournament with a 12-point, four-rebound performance. Anderson was a catalyst to the Husky offense once again, as he scored 15 points on 5-of-11 shooting. In a 1:40 second span midway through the first half, Anderson scored eight points as UConn began to distance itself from Vanderbilt. The Huskies led 8-7 with 15:00 remaining in the first half, but charged out to a 25-8 lead at the 9:20 mark on the strength of a 17-1 run. UConn took its largest lead of the half, 45-23, with :50 remaining on a pair of Gordon free throws.

Regional Most Valuable Player Ben Gordon scored 36 points and sophomore guard Rashad Anderson added a career-high 28 as the University of Connecticut men's basketball team defeated Alabama by an 87-71 score in the final of the Phoenix Regional in the 2004 NCAA Championship as the Huskies advanced to the Final Four in San Antonio. Gordon was named to the all-regional team along with Anderson and junior center Emeka Okafor. That team was rounded out by the Alabama duo of Chuck Davis and Kennedy Winston. Anderson was six-of-nine from three-point field goal range in the game as his six treys – five of them in the first half – were a career high. Gordon was four-of-seven from three-point range and tied the UConn career record for three-pointers made, which is currently held by Chris Smith with 242 (1989-92). The first six minutes of the game were evenly played as UConn, the second seed in the region, led by a 10-8 score with 14:04 left to go on a Gordon three-pointer. The Huskies opened up their first double-digit lead of the contest on an Anderson three-pointer that made it 23-13 UConn with 11:27 left in the half. Alabama was the eighth seed in the Phoenix region. UConn dominated the rest of the first half as the Huskies closed with a 15-2 run that made it 53-29 Huskies at halftime – its largest lead of the game at that time. The 53 points were the most that the Crimson Tide had surrendered in a first half all season. Alabama could not put a run together in the second half as UConn led by as many as 25 points in the second stanza.

APRIL 5, 2004 NATIONAL FINAL CONNECTICUT 82, GEORGIA TECH 73 ALAMO DOME SAN ANTONIO, TX

Junior Emeka Okafor scored 24 points and junior guard Ben Gordon added 21 as the University of Connecticut won its second NCAA championship in men's basketball with an 82-73 victory over Georgia Tech before a crowd of 44,468 at the Alamodome. Okafor, named the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, was dominant inside against the Yellow Jackets making 10 of 17 field goal attempts and yanking 15 rebounds. He was joined on the 2004 NCAA Final Four team by teammates Gordon and sophomore guard Rashad Anderson and by Georgia Tech's Luke Schenscher and Will Bynum. The Huskies steadily built their lead throughout the first half -- outscoring Georgia Tech, 30-14, over the half's final 13 minutes. UConn was able to increase its 41-26 halftime lead to as many as 25, at 58-33, during the second half. UConn continued its pattern of jumping out to quick leads throughout the 2004 NCAA Tournament, leading 9-4 as Anderson and Gordon hit three-pointers just 3:35 into the contest, but Georgia Tech inched back to take their only lead of the game of 12-11 with 13:41 to play before intermission on a basket by Clarence Moore. Okafor scored to give UConn the lead right back less than a minute later and the Huskies never trailed again. Since the NCAA tournament bracket expanded to 64 teams in 1985, Connecticut becomes just the third school -- joining Kentucky and Duke -- to win multiple championships. The victory gives UConn head coach Jim Calhoun a 35-14 record all-time in NCAA tournament games -- including a 32-9 record at UConn.

MARCH 28, 2003 SOUTH REGION SEMIFINALS TEXAS 82, CONNECTICUT 78 ALAMODOME SAN ANTONIO, TX

The two teams went blow-for-blow in the first ten minutes of the first half as the score was tied on three separate occasions and the lead changed hands a remarkable nine times. Texas took a six point lead with 9:10 remaining on a three by Byron Mouton, making the score 24-18. UConn pulled to within four with 5:20 to go in the half at, 30-26, but Texas put together a 7-2 run for the remainder of the stanza to head into the locker room holding a 37-28 advantage. With 15:50 remaining in the game, UConn found itself down, 54-46, but matters worsened as the Longhorns went on an eight-to-two run over the next 2:35 to take a commanding 62-48 lead with 12:30 to go in the contest. The Huskies would rally though, mounting a 17-5 run over the next 4:10 to pull to within two points of the Longhorns, 67-65, with under eight minutes left. Ben Gordon drained a clutch three-pointer at the 5:21 mark to give UConn its first lead, 74-71, since the 12:30 mark of the first half. With 48 seconds left in the season, and the Huskies down, 78-76, Talek Brown found Marcus White under the hoop. His attempt was blocked and pinned in between the rim and the backboard. The possession arrow pointed towards Texas and UConn would get no closer the rest of the way, as Texas hit its final six free-throw attempts.

Connecticut's Caron Butler had 32 points and Maryland's Lonny Baxter had 29 as the two teams went blow for blow in the NCAA East Regional Championship game before the Terrapins pulled away late to punch their second straight ticket to the Final Four with a 90-82 victory over the Huskies at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse. UConn got back into it in the second half when Butler hit a three-pointer at the 13:11 mark to put the Huskies up 54-53. Tony Robertson tied the game for the 22nd time at 7:11 with 2:31 to go on a lay in. From that point, Maryland went on an 11-3 run that saw the Terps put away the game when Steve Blake hit a three that was the dagger with 25.4 remaining to make it 86-80. Butler, who had six points at the half, exploded in the second for 26 to finish with a game-high 32 on a 9-of-13 shooting effort.

MARCH 19, 2000 SOUTH REGION SECOND ROUND TENNESSEE 65, CONNECTICUT 51 BIRMINGHAM JEFFERSON CC BIRMINGHAM, AL

No. 4 seed Tennessee took advantage of an injury to Connecticut junior point guard Khalid El-Amin and handed No. 5 seed UConn a 65-51 NCAA Second Round setback at the Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center Arena. El-Amin, who sustained a right ankle sprain two days earlier in NCAA First Round play, attempted to contribute but was noticeably hobbled, scoring just three points in 13 minutes of game action. With its leading scorer and floor general watching most of the game on the sidelines, UConn was unable to keep pace with the talented Vols. Tennessee built a 32-22 halftime lead and the closest UConn got in the final 10 minutes was a nine-point deficit, 43-34, with 9:55 left to play. Junior Albert Mouring led UConn with 17 points while senior co-captain Kevin Freeman scored 14. UConn closed out its 1999-2000 season with a 25-10 record.

No. 1 seed Connecticut scored 12 of the game's final 19 points to defeat No. 10 seed Gonzaga by a score of 67-62 and advance UConn to the school's first ever Final Four. The game, played at America West Arena in Phoenix, drew a crowd of 18,053, the largest ever to watch a college basketball game in the state of Arizona. All-American Richard Hamilton paced the Huskies with 21 points and was joined in double figures by junior Kevin Freeman with 15 points and senior Ricky Moore with 12. Freeman also grabbed a career-high 15 rebounds. The game, which featured 11 ties and 6 lead changes, was tied at 55 with six minutes remaining before Freeman gave the Huskies the lead for good with two free throws at the 5:29 mark. Gonzaga came as close as one at 63-62 with 36 seconds left on an off balance three-pointer by guard Quentin Hall, but Connecticut scored the final four points to clinch the victory and the Final Four berth. Connecticut managed the victory despite shooting 37% from the field and failing to make a three point shot. Hamilton was named the Region's Most Outstanding Player and was joined by Freeman and Moore on the All-Region Team.

MARCH 27, 1999 NCAA NATIONAL SEMIFINAL CONNECTICUT 64, OHIO STATE 58 TROPICANA FIELD ST. PETERSBURG, FL

All-American Richard Hamilton scored 24 points, his 5th consecutive tournament game with 20 or more, to lift West Region champion Connecticut over South Region winner Ohio State 64-58 and into the National Championship game. The Final Four contest was played before a sellout crowd of 41,340 at the Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, FL. Hamilton was joined in double figures by sophomore Khalid El-Amin, who had 18 points and also dished out six assists. Senior Ricky Moore again proved to be a huge factor defensively, holding vaunted Ohio State guard Sweeney Penn to just eleven points on 3-13 shooting from the field. UConn never trailed in the second half after holding a slim, one-point halftime lead at 36-35. The Huskies opened the second half with a 15-6 run that created a 51-41 advantage with just under twelve minutes to play. The Buckeyes made a run but were unable to get closer than three the rest of the way. The win set a new single season victory record for the Huskies at 33 and marked the 19th straight time Connecticut has defeated a Jim O'Brien coached-team, dating back to 1988.

MARCH 29, 1999 NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP CONNECTICUT 77, DUKE 74 TROPICANA FIELD ST. PETERSBURG, FL

West Region winner Connecticut defeated East Region champs Duke 77-74 in a game that saw 14 ties and eight lead changes to give the Huskies a national championship in the school's first ever visit to the Final Four. The Huskies came back from a halftime deficit for the tenth time during the season without a loss, trailing 39-37 at the intermission in this case. Senior Ricky Moore kept the Huskies in the game during the first half, scoring all 13 of his points in his most explosive offensive half of the season. All-American Richard Hamilton and sophomore Khalid El-Amin both picked up the slack in the second half, Hamilton scoring 16 of his game-high 27 points and El-Amin 10 of his 12. The Huskies managed to shoot 52.5% from the field for the game, one of just two teams to top the 50% mark against Duke during the whole year. The stifling UConn defense held the prolific Duke offense to just 41.1% shooting, the lowest mark in the 39-game season for the Blue Devils. The Huskies once again pulled away after facing a 53-53 deadlock, never trailing again after grabbing a 55-53 edge. The Huskies fittingly sealed the victory with a defensive stop by Moore on Duke guard Trajan Langdon, who dribbled the ball off his knee as time expired. The Huskies finished the season with a 34-2 record. Hamilton was named the Most Outstanding Player at the Final Four and was joined on the All Final-Four team by teammates Khalid El-Amin and Ricky Moore.
