COACHING STAFF

ALEX PRIBBLE

HEAD COACH | FIRST YEAR

IDAHO RECORD: -- | DIVISION I RECORD: --

Alex Pribble was named the 31st head men's basketball coach in University of Idaho program history on March 20, 2023.

Pribble joins the Vandals after serving as an associate head coach for four seasons at Seattle U, where he helped lead the Redhawks to back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since the 1960s and the programs' first-ever Western Athletic Conference regular season title.

During the 2022-23 season, Pribble helped guide the Redhawks to their second consecutive 20-win season and a 7-0 start in WAC play. Seattle U's hot start in conference action received national attention as the Redhawks were among the top teams in the nation to receive votes in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches Poll.

Throughout the season, Pribble was pivotal in the development of First Team All-WAC guard Cameron Tyson, who went on to average 18.6 points per game and total the most three-pointers among all players in the Western Athletic Conference at 97.

The run through the 2021-22 season saw the Redhawks achieve a 23-9 overall record and a 14-4 mark in the WAC, en route to earning a regular season conference championship. Seattle U started WAC play 8-0 for the first time in 10 years and saw the program reach 23 wins for the first time since 1957-58.

Prior to his time with the Redhawks, Pribble spent four highly successful years as the head men's basketball coach at NCAA Division II Saint Martin's University in Lacey, Washington. He took over a program that went 6-22 overall in the year before Pribble's arrival to quickly rebuild a program that put together four-straight winning seasons, two consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, the program's first-ever Sweet 16 berth and achieve the school's highest national ranking (No. 8) in program history.

In the 2018-19 season, Pribble led the Saints to a school record 26 wins and the school's first Great Northwest Athletic Conference regular-season championship. Pribble went on to be named the GNAC Coach of the Year and boast four players who would receive All-GNAC postseason honors and regional recognition.

Before his tenure at Saint Martin's, Pribble spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Washington from 2013 to 2015. During the 2014-15 season, Pribble helped cap off a historic season for the Eagles, who finished 26-9 overall and 14-4 in the Big Sky Conference to clinch a share of the regular-season title and garner the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history.

Big Sky Player of the Year Tyler Harvey helped facilitate the Eagles' run as the nation's leading scorer at 23.1 points per game, en route to being selected as a second-round pick in the NBA Draft in 2015.

Prior to arriving at Eastern Washington, Pribble was the top assistant for two seasons at San Francisco State. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at California-Berkeley under then-head coach Ben Braun.

Pribble graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in sociology in 2007 and a master's degree in education in 2008 from California-Berkeley. A walk-on at Cal before receiving a scholarship after his sophomore season, Pribble played in 76 games for the Bears under Braun during his four-year collegiate career.

A Fairfax, Calif. native, Pribble, 37, graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School in 2003. He and his wife Camille have one son, Braedon.

BRANDON LAIRD

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | FIRST YEAR

Brandon Laird enters his first season as a member of the Idaho men's basketball coaching staff in 2023-24.

Laird joins the Vandal men's basketball staff with over 20 years of coaching experience with stops at Sacramento State, UC Davis and Menlo College.

Most recently, Laird was a program analyst for a UC Davis team that won 18 games in 2022-23 and produced a First Team All-Big West guard in Elijah Pepper.

In a COVID shortened 2021-22 season as interim head coach at Sacramento State, Laird led the Hornets to 11 wins, which is the most overall wins and most Big Sky Conference wins by a first-year head coach in the program's Division I era. Laird's Hornets surged late in the year, winning five of six, including a first-round win in the Big Sky Conference Tournament.

In the nine years prior, as Associate Head Coach for the Hornets, Laird handled player administration, on-floor coaching, scouting, academics, compliance, player development and recruiting. Sacramento State won at least 13 games in seven of the nine years while Laird was with the program, a feat that hadn't been reached for the Hornets since their run from 1966-1973.

As the Recruiting Coordinator and Associate Head Coach at Sac State, Laird played an instrumental role in the recruitment and development of over 20 players who continued their careers in the professional ranks after playing in the Big Sky. This list includes Eric Stuteville, who was the #1 pick in the 2017 G-League draft, Cody Demps who was signed to the Sacramento Kings roster in 2019, and Marcus Graves who just completed his 5th season in the NBA's G-League. Additionally, Laird recruited and coached seven of the top 10 All-Time scorers in Sacramento State history, eight All-Big Sky performers and the 2015 Big Sky MVP, Mikh McKinney, during his 11-year stint in Sacramento.

Laird helped the Hornets to a 16-14 overall record in 2019-20. Sacramento State won its first-round matchup over Weber State in the Big Sky Tournament before the tournament was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19. The Hornets' 16 wins were the second most in the program's Division I history. Defensively, Sacramento State ranked fifth in the nation and first in the Big Sky only allowing 59.7 points per game.

Sacramento State completed the 2014-15 season with a 21-12 record, marking it first time the Hornets finished above the .500 mark in the program's Division I era. The 21 wins were tied for the second-most in program history. The Hornets appeared in the CIT Tournament after reaching the semifinals in the 2015 Big Sky Tournament. Sacramento State earned a 73-66 win at Portland in the first round of the CIT Tournament, collecting the program's first postseason win in 53 years.

The 2015 CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Poll ranked the Hornets as high as No. 14. Sacramento State had previously never been ranked and finished one game back from first place in the Big Sky standings.

From 2009-11, Laird was an assistant coach at UC Davis working with the guards and assisting with on-floor coaching, scouting and recruiting.

Before UC Davis, Laird served as head coach at Menlo College from 2006-09. In 2008, he led the program to 18 wins, the most for the Oaks since 1990. They also tied a program record with a nine-game win streak. Menlo won the Cal-Pac Conference Tournament and advanced to the NAIA national tournament for just the third time in program history. The Oaks finished the season with a No. 29 national ranking.

His first collegiate coaching experience began at UC Davis serving on the staff for the 2002-03 season. Laird also coached as an assistant at his high school alma mater, El Camino in 2001-02.

A UC Davis graduate, Laird played four seasons (1997-01) with the Aggies men's basketball team playing in 85 games. He helped the program to a 31-2 record and a Division II national title in 1997-98. Laird received the Captain's Award in 2000-01 which was voted on by his teammates.

Laird and his wife Sarah have one son, Nixon.

DAVID DUNHAM

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST YEAR

David Dunham enters his first season as a member of the Idaho coaching staff in 2023-24.

Dunham will serve as an assistant coach on the Idaho men's basketball coaching staff after spending the past seven seasons as the head assistant coach at Western Washington University.

With 17 seasons of collegiate coaching experience, Dunham has been a part of 16 winning seasons, four conference championships and two NCAA appearances. He has been instrumental in developing 20 players who have gone on to play in the professional ranks and has also been selected by Silver Waves Media as one of the 50 most impactful D2 Assistants in America.

It didn't take long for Dunham to make an immediate impact at WWU, as he helped lead the team to a 25-6 overall mark, a GNAC regular season and tournament title, and clinch a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Division II Championships in his first season (2016-17). He sustained that success by guiding the Vikings to its second GNAC tournament title in four seasons and notched a No. 2 seed in the DII Championships in 2019-20.

Dunham helped develop six Vikings who went on to receive professional contacts following the 2017-18 season at WWU.

Prior to his time at WWU, Dunham was the head coach for three seasons at Whatcom Community College from 2013-16. He led the Orcas to a pair of playoff appearances, a runner-up finish in the NWAC championship game, a 48-37 overall mark and was named the NWAC North Region Coach of the Year.

Before taking over as head coach at Whatcom, Dunham served as the top assistant for 10 seasons, including an associate head coach role from 2011-13. He helped lead the Orcas to a North Region record 10 consecutive postseason appearances during his tenure as an assistant.

Dunham graduated with a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology at Lewis-Clark State College in 1994 and earned his master's degree in Sports Administration at Southeastern Oklahoma State in 2022.

Before his coaching tenure, Dunham was a standout collegiate player at Golden West Junior College for two seasons, where he earned first-team Orange Coast League recognition in his sophomore season. He went on to play one more season at LCSC (1993-94).

A Pasadena, Calif. native, Dunham, graduated from Pasadena High School in 1989. He and his wife, Meghan (Valenti) have three children – son Stefon and daughters Hayden, and Quinn.

MATT JONES

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST YEAR

Matt Jones enters his first season as a member of the Idaho coaching staff in 2023-24.

Jones comes to Moscow following five seasons at Seattle University working with the Redhawks men's basketball program.

Jones served as a graduate assistant for two seasons from 2018-2020 before being elevated to Director of Operations in November 2020.

During his tenure as the director of operations at Seattle U, Jones was involved in many aspects of the program. He oversaw the team's travel, day-to-day schedule, and overall team budget while managing the support staff and assisting with academics. Jones also played a large role in the scouting of opponents, video and film breakdowns, and assisting with game plans and practice plans. Additionally, he worked closely with the assistant coaches in the recruiting process.

Prior to Seattle U, Jones attended Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas where he was a four-year member of the Tigers' men's basketball team. Jones served as a co-captain of the squad and was part of the Trinity Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

On his way to earning three All-Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Third Team honors, Jones set the school single-season and all-time records for assists. He also finished third all-time in steals. Additionally, he made the NABC Honors Court in 2016-17.

Jones graduated with a bachelor's degree in Finance from Trinity University in 2018. He then went on to earn his master's degree in Sports Business Leadership at Seattle U in June of 2020.

COACHING STAFF

ADAM ELLIS ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST YEAR

Adam Ellis enters his first season as a member of the Idaho men's basketball coaching staff in 2023-24.

Ellis joins the Idaho men's basketball program after spending three seasons as an assistant coach at Cal-State San Marcos. During his tenure, Ellis was part of a CCAA tournament championship, the first NCAA tournament win in school history and two 20+ win seasons.

In his final year at San Marcos, the Cougars finished runner-up in the tournament championship after finishing with a 20-11 overall record and a 17-5 conference mark. They went on to receive a six-seed in the NCAA Tournament Regional and post a 72-62 win over Azusa Pacific in the quarterfinals.

In 2021-22, Ellis helped the Cougars reach the NCAA Tournament, earning a No. 1 seed in the West Region and finishing the year ranked No. 6/9 in the top 25 poll.

A former assistant coach at Saint Martin's University, Ellis spent three seasons under Pribble, helping the Saints to a 68-27 (.716) overall record, two consecutive 20-win seasons and two NCAA Tournament appearances. The Saints reached the Sweet 16 and posted a 26-6 overall record and a 17-3 mark in the GNAC in his final season (2018-19).

Prior to Saint Martin's, Ellis spent four seasons as the head coach at Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, Oregon.

Ellis got his start in collegiate coaching at Eastern Washington University as a student assistant in 2009 where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise science. He went on to earn a master's degree in coaching and athletic administration in 2012 at Concordia Irvine.

Before getting his start in collegiate coaching, he played two seasons of college basketball at Spokane Community College.

An Oakesdale, Wash. native, Ellis graduated from Oakesdale High School in 2002. He and his wife Emily have two kids, Jett and Addison.
