OWL NOTES

RELENTLESS OWLS

» The No. 24 Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team (12-4) captured their first American Athletic Conference road win on Jan. 11 in a last-second 85-84 victory over Tulane. It was a battle between the top two scoring offenses in the American Athletic Conference. Trailing by one with 15 seconds to go, Florida Atlantic nabbed several offensive boards to keep the ball that eventually found its way to junior guard Alijah Martin, who was fouled on a three-pointer with just 0.4 to go on the clock and subsequently made two free throws to give the team their first win over Tulane in program history. On the night, the Owls outrebounded Tulane on the offensive glass 18-8 and converted 22 second chance points compared to the Green Wave's four.

as one of five recipients of the Oscar Robertson Player of the Week. On Jan. 10, he was named to the Wooden Award Top 25 Watch List, given at the end of the season to the best player in college basketball. Davis most recently recorded a career high in assists against Tulane with eight, and became the first Owl since the 2010-11 season to record a statline of 14+ points, 6+ rebounds, and 8+ assists in a game. He currently leads the team in points per game (16.6) and total steals (29). Since the beginning of December, he is averaging 20.1 points, 7.0 rebounds, and 2.0 steals per game.

GOLDEN GOLDIN

» The 7-1 junior center Vlad Goldin leads the nation in field goal percentage at 71.2% on almost eight shots per game. In the midst of a career-best 2023-24 campaign, he is second on Florida Atlantic in points per game (14.4) and leads the team in rebounds per game (7.2), total blocks (23), and double-doubles (5). Goldin tied his career high of 19 points three times in the first four games, before finally breaking the 20 point mark against No. 20 Illinois with 23 points in just 19 minutes and again against FGCU with 21 points. Following the win against Arizona, Goldin nabbed exactly 500 rebounds during his career at Florida Atlantic, becoming the ninth Owl to ever do so. For his season-long efforts, he has earned a spot on the AAC Weekly Honor Roll three times (11/13, 12/4, and 12/11).

BALLER BOYD

» After missing eight games early in the season due to injury, redshirt sophomore guard Nick Boyd has returned to the lineup in a big way. A 19-point performance against Charlotte was followed up with tying his career-high in points against Tulane with 21 on a career-best six three-pointers.

NATION'S NO. 24 (CONTINUED ON P.4)

» The Owls are currently ranked at No. 24 in the latest Associated Press Top 25 poll in a season in which the team has amassed a 11-4 record. FAU is 2-1 against other teams ranked by the AP, defeating No. 4 (at the time) Arizona, 96-95, No. 12 (at the time) Texas A&M, 96-89, and falling to No. 11 Illinois by a score of 98-89. In the AP Top 25 preseason poll, Florida Atlantic ranked at No. 10. The Owls are also No. 26 in the NET rankings, which is one of the key tools used by the NCAA Tournament committee in selecting the tournament field. The Owls are the American Athletic Conference's only team inside the top 30 of the NET. Of the teams inside the top 30, only Purdue, Tennessee, Connecticut, and Wisconsin have more Quad 1 and 2 wins than FAU's 6-2 mark.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

» Entering a New Era in the American Athletic Conference, the Owls are already racking up preseason honors. Florida Atlantic was voted No. 1 in the AAC preseason poll, while Johnnell Davis and Aljah Martin were both named the conference's Preseason Players of the Year, as well as named to the AAC Preseason All-First Team. In addition, Davis was named to the Jerry West Award Watch List, awarded annually in March to the nation's top shooting guard.

RUN IT BACK

» The Owls are welcoming back 14 out of 15 players from the Final Four team. They are one of just five D1 teams to not have a single player enter the transfer portal from the previous season. In addition, they bring back their entire coaching staff led by head coach Dusty May, who signed a 10-year contract extension in April. While Johnnell Davis and Aljah Martin both tested the NBA draft waters, they ultimately decided to return to the team to take part in another run for the national championship.

ABOUT THE OWLS

» Florida Atlantic is coming off a historic 2022-23 season that saw the team set several program bests including wins (35), longest winning streak (20), first NCAA Tournament wins (4 in total), first Final Four appearance, first AP ranking (as high as 19), first appearance in the USA Today Coaches Poll, home wins (17), and 3 pointers in a season (332). The balanced Owls welcome back Johnnell Davis, who currently leads the team in scoring (16.6 ppg) and steals (29), as well as Aljah Martin (12.8 ppg) who was named to 2023 All-Tournament team. Also returning is junior big man Vlad Goldin, averaging a career high 14.4 ppg and has a team high 47 blocks. Redshirt sophomore and senior guards Nick Boyd and Bryan Greenlee return from last year's starting lineup, currently averaging 9.8 and 7.5 points per game, respectively. Other key rotational pieces who return include senior guard Jalen Gaffney, who leads the team in assists with 50 and has knocked down triples at a 44.8% clip, junior forward Giancarlo Rosado, who shot 79% from the field in the 2023 NCAA Tournament, and senior guard Brandon Weatherspoon, who has started 15 games in the 2023-24 regular season.

OWLS AT THE 2023 NCAA TOURNAMENT

» Florida Atlantic began their March Madness journey for the ages in Columbus, Ohio as the East Region's No. 9 seed against future AAC opponent Memphis. Playing in front of 17,000 more fans than FAU's home arena, the Owls fought a highly-contested battle that came down to the very last shot. Trailing 65-64 with 5.5 seconds on the clock, it was guard Nick Boyd who heroically drove in for the layup with just two ticks on the clock to end the game with a 66-65 victory, giving the Owls their first NCAA Tournament win in school history.

» The Owls were not done taking care of business in Columbus. Their Round of 32 opponent was FDU, only the second No. 16 seed to advance to the second round. The hero of the night was Davis who recorded a statline never before seen in the NCAA Tournament: 29 points, 12 rebounds, 5 assists, and 5 steals. Thanks to Davis' two-way efforts, Florida Atlantic pulled away in the second half for a 78-70 victory to advance them to the Sweet Sixteen, where the Mecca awaited.

» Up next was a battle in New York City at the World's Most Famous Arena: Madison Square Garden. The opponent was the No. 4 seed Tennessee, one of the most physical and top defensive teams in the nation. Florida Atlantic did not let themselves get rattled despite trailing for most of the first period. In the second half, the Garden became an Owls nest with "FAU" chants taking over the arena. The team ultimately pulled away and secured a 62-55 win, moving the Owls to the Elite Eight with a chance to win the East Regional championship and be one of the last four teams standing in the nation.

» Matchup two in New York was against the No. 3 seeded Kansas State. In a game with 12 lead changes and seven ties, it was clear that neither team was ready to go home and the Owls would need several players to step up with the game of their life. In addition to usual suspects Martin and Davis, Goldin recorded a monster double-double with 14 points and 13 rebounds, while Greenlee was on fire all night with 16 points on 4-6 shooting from downtown, including a triple just seven seconds into the game. In the end, it came down to clutch free throws and a defensive stand, which the Owls came through with a 79-76 victory and a Final Four berth.

» It all came down to Houston. The Owls stepped foot onto NRG Stadium in front of a crowd of over 74,000 fans, with an additional 12 million viewers tuning in on television, to take on the No. 5 seed San Diego State with an appearance in the 2023 NCAA National Championship Game on the line. FAU found themselves with a 14 point lead, their largest of the tournament, and a seven point advantage entering halftime, but the Aztecs did not quit. Martin was the man of the night for Florida Atlantic, scoring 26 points with 19 coming in the second half, including a clutch acrobatic layup to put the Owls up three with 45 seconds left. Ultimately, the dream season came to an end in heartbreaking fashion with a San Diego State buzzer beating jump shot to give them the 72-71 win. But the story of the 2022-23 Owls was not defined by the Final Four, but the historic journey getting there.

THE NEXT CHAPTER

» While last season will be remembered in the history books and permanently at the Eleanor R. Baldwin Arena where a Final Four banner hangs, head coach Dusty May and the rest of the squad are only looking ahead to the current campaign. As Vlad Goldin said following the team's season opening win against Loyola Chicago: "New team, new season, new chapter." Florida Atlantic kicked off their 2023-24 regular season with a 75-62 victory in the Barstool Invitational on Wednesday Nov. 8. Goldin led the way with a career high tying 19 points and added 10 rebounds plus a career high five blocks and four steals. This was followed up by a crushing 100-57 victory over Eastern Michigan in the team's home opener on Tuesday, Nov. 15. Goldin matched his previous game's efforts with another 19 point performance, while the team's top five scorers: Goldin (19), Brandon Weatherspoon (16), Bremen Lorient (13), Giancarlo Rosado (13), and Bryan Greenlee (12) shot for a combined 84% from the field (31-37).

WON'T GET EASIER

» In addition to stepping up in conference play, Florida Atlantic proved they belonged biggest stage with a packed non-conference 2023-24 schedule that includes five neutral sites and 10 opponents that have made the tournament within the last five seasons (Loyola Chicago, Bryant, Butler, Texas A&M, VA Tech, Liberty, Charleston, Illinois, St. Bonaventure, Arizona), three of which have been ranked over the course of the season (Arizona as high as No. 1, Illinois as high as No. 9, Texas A&M as high as No. 12). They finished their non-conference portion with a record of 10-3 that included a 96-89 win over Texas A&M, 96-95 win over Arizona, and a 98-89 loss to Illinois.

SHOOTING STARS

» The Owls are scoring 82.1 points per game, 33rd in the nation, thanks to strong shooting performances. As a team, they are currently 22nd in the nation in field goal percentage (49.12%). In their 12 wins, they are averaging 86.4 points per game, which would be ranked ninth in the nation over the course of a season. The Owls have scored 90+ points in six out of 16 games, already tying the mark set in the 2022-23 season, and have shot over 50% from the field in eight games. Of the 10 players who receive significant minutes, seven of them are shooting over 45%.

Dusty May led Florida Atlantic to what is undoubtedly its greatest season in school history in the 2022-23 campaign. May guided his Owls to the Final Four while posting a program-best 35-4 record. Prior to this season, the Owls had one previous appearance in the NCAA Tournament, but this year, May led the Owls to not just their first win in the big dance, but all the way to the Final Four in Houston.

In April of 2023, May and Florida Atlantic reached an agreement on a 10-year contract extension.

The Resu-May is well-decorated, as he was named the CBS Sports National Coach of the Year, as well as the NABC All-District 17 Coach of the Year, Conference USA Coach of the Year and Palm Beach County Coach of the Year. May is the Owls' all-time leader in coaching wins with a record of 101-60, despite having only been on the FAU sidelines for five seasons. FAU has not had a losing season in the five years of the May era. The Owls also captured the Conference USA Tournament and Regular Season Championships, both for the first time in school history.

Under May's guidance, the 2022-23 Owls posted the most wins in school history, the most conference wins in school & C-USA history (18) the longest winning streak in school history and the third-longest streak in C-USA history (20 games). The 35 wins from the Owls were the most in all of NCAA Division I in the '22-23 season and are only three short of the all-time record of 38.

May led Florida Atlantic to a collection of program records, including points (3,035) field goals made (1,084) 3-pointers made (375) rebounds (1,519) and assists (562). He coached Johnell Davis to C-USA Sixth Player of the Year, First Team All-C-USA and NABC First Team All-District recognition. Alijah Martin joined Davis on the All-C-USA First Team and also was named to NABC Second Team All-District honors. FAU closed out the season ranked No. 5 in the USA Today Coaches poll.

In March 2018, May accepted the challenge of building the Florida Atlantic University's men's basketball program into a team that will consistently compete on the national stage.

"Dusty was my number one choice, and I am thrilled to have him lead our men's basketball program," said Brian White. "This hire is a clear demonstration of the ambition we have for our basketball program, our athletic department and our university. Dusty will bring tremendous passion, determination and work ethic to this position. The future of the FAU men's basketball program is bright."

The 2021-22 campaign saw the Owls finish 19-15 to rack up the fifth-most wins in a single season at FAU, which included a trip to the Roman College Basketball Invitational (CBI), the program's fourth-ever postseason tournament appearance. Alijah Martin earned All-Conference USA Third Team honors and Michael Forrest was named to the NABC All-District Team, the first for the Owls in nine seasons. Throughout a stretch of the season, the Owls were on a 10-game home winning streak, being just one of 23 teams in the nation with 10+ straight wins at home. FAU's school-record 11 C-USA wins helped the team earn the third seed in the C-USA Tournament. The Owls went on to earn their fourth consecutive win at the opening/second round of the C-USA Tournament with their dominant 86-59 win over Southern Miss.

The 2020-21 season was another winning campaign, as May became the first coach since the program joined Division I to earn three consecutive winning seasons. The Owls again notched a win at the C-USA Tournament. The team was at the top of the league and among the nation's leaders in total rebounds (first, and No. 9 in the nation), offensive rebounding (first and 29th), rebounding margin (first and 13th), 3-point percentage (first and 16th), scoring margin (second and 20th), 3-pointers made (third and 17th), scoring (third and 38th) and field goal percentage (third and 59th).

In his second year, May led the Owls to their second winning season in a row, the first time that happened since the 1996-97 season. FAU won 14 home games, while averaging 71.1 points per game, its highest average in nearly a decade. May also became the fastest FAU coach to reach 30 wins at the D-I level and collected 16 C-USA wins and 34 overall wins in his first two seasons at the helm. May capped off the campaign by leading the Owls to a 66-56 win over Old Dominion at the C-USA Tournament. The victory was the first in-bracket, neutral site conference tournament win for FAU since 2002.

In his first season at the helm, May led the Owls to a winning record for the first time since 2011 and an appearance in the College Insider Tournament (CIT), the third postseason appearance in school history. Graduate forward Xavian Stapleton was named C-USA Co-Sixth Man of the Year and senior guard Anthony Adger made the All C-USA Third Team. For his efforts, May was a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, given to the best first year coach in Division I. As a team, the Owls set records for rebounds, rebounds per game and free throw percentage.

May spent the previous seven seasons on Mike White's coaching staffs, first at Louisiana Tech University for four seasons and then with the University of Florida. White is the older brother of Brian White, who was named FAU's vice president and director of athletics on March 3, 2018.

May joined FAU after three years as an assistant coach at Florida, where he helped the Gators compile a 69-37 record, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. The Gators reached the second round of this year's tournament after advancing to the Elite Eight in 2017. As a full-time assistant, May's teams compiled a 274-166 record (.623 winning percentage). In their first season in Gainesville, the Gators rebounded from a sub-.500 record to finish 21-15 and advance to the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament.

May was retained as an assistant at Louisiana Tech when Mike White took over the program entering the 2011-12 season, and the Bulldogs won three straight conference championships – the Western Athletic Conference title in 2013 and C-USA crowns in 2014 and 2015.

May served six seasons (2009-15) as assistant coach and associate head coach at Louisiana Tech. In his final season with the Bulldogs, the team went 27-9, including 15-3 in C-USA to win the regular season championship by two games, and went 17-0 on its home court. LA Tech won 49 of 50 home games from February 2012 through the end of the 2014-15 season.

May was a student manager for the Indiana University men's basketball team and after graduating, he began his professional career as an administrative assistant/video coordinator at USC from 2000-02. He returned to Indiana in an administrative role for three seasons before taking his first step as an assistant coach with Eastern Michigan (2005-06). He has also served as an assistant at Murray State (2006-07) and UAB (2007-09).

May and his wife, Anna, have three sons, Jack (guard on the Florida men's basketball team), Charlie (guard on the UCF men's basketball team) and Eli.
