NCAA Head Coaching Experience

1985-90 Boston University
1990-98 George Washington
1998-2003 St. Johns
2008-pres. Florida Atlantic University

Mike Jarvis is entering his 24rd season as a Division I men's basketball head coach and his fifth as coach of the Florida Atlantic University Owls. Jarvis' long record of success places him among the nation's elite basketball coaches. He has taken three universities, Boston University (1985-90), George Washington University (1990-98) and St. John's University (1998-04) to the Big Dance. Boston University (BU) offered Coach Jarvis the opportunity to begin a collegiate head coaching career in 1985. Immediate success ensued when Jarvis guided the Terriers to a 21-10 record and a berth into the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in his first season. He won two ECAC North Atlantic Conference Championships (1988 and '90) and made three postseason tournament appearances at BU.

In 1990, Jarvis accepted his first coaching position outside the state of Massachusetts, taking over at George Washington University (GW) in Washington D.C. Jarvis immediately transformed GW into one of the nation's best teams, finishing 19-12 in his first season (1990-91) and earning an invitation into the NIT. In his third season at GW, Jarvis led the Colonials to its first 21-win season in 38 years. That 1992-93 team qualified for the first of four NCAA Tournament appearances during Jarvis' tenure at GW and went on to advance into the tournament's Sweet 16. It was also the first year that Mike Jarvis Sr and Jr. Would coach together. In fact it was the first time an African American father and son would coach together in Division I.

Jarvis compiled a 152-90 record in eight consecutive winning seasons at GW, leading the Colonials to seven postseason tournament appearances and three 20-win seasons. He became just the second men's basketball coach in the program's history to be elected to the George Washington University Athletic Hall of Fame.

After outstanding tenures at BU and GW, the 13-year coaching veteran accepted the challenge of coaching a storied St. John's University program in Queens, New York that had enjoyed just one winning season in the five years prior to his appointment. That same season, Jarvis was elected president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

Again success was immediate as Jarvis led the Red Storm to a 28-9 record in his first season at St. John's and his first appearance in an NCAA Regional Final - just one basket away from the Final Four. His coaching efforts were rewarded when the Black Coaches Association (BCA) presented him with the National Coach of the Year Award. FAU offered Coach Jarvis head fourth Division I coaching stop. Despite not taking over the FAU program until May 2008, Jarvis was able to sign a class that included Shavar Richardson, who led all Sun Belt freshmen in scoring and Alex Tucker, who set the school record for career assists. For his second season, Jarvis signed a seven-player class that included Raymond Taylor, who broke Tucker's school record for assists in a season and Greg Gantt, who was among the league leaders in scoring and three-point percentage. Both players were named Third-Team All-Sun Belt at the season's end.

In his third season at FAU, Jarvis continued his remarkable turnaround of the program. FAU garnered national attention with a 61-59 win over Mississippi State, the first win over an SEC team in school history and followed that up with a 50-42 win over USF of the Big East. Prior to the season, FAU had just three wins over teams from the "Big Six" conferences in its history, Jarvis led the team to two such victories in less than a week. Over the course of the season, the Owls had their best conference start in school history (8-0), and tied the school record for the longest winning streak (eight). The Owls had their most wins in a season at the Division I level (21). The Owls also won the Sun Belt regular season title and appeared in the postseason NIT, just the second time in school history that the team made a postseason appearance. For his efforts, Jarvis won the Sun Belt and NABC District 24 Coach of the Year Awards and was named a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award, given to the best minority coach in the nation.

Jarvis and his wife, Connie live in Boca Raton and have two adult children, Mike II, his Associate Head Coach, and his daughter Dana Shaiyen, along with three grandchildren, Geoffrey, Ian and Delaney.

MIKE JARVIS II
Associate Head Coach (5th season)
Boston '92

NCAA Coaching Experience

1992-95 George Washington
1995-96 Drexel
1996-98 George Washington
1998-04 St. Johns
2004-06 Duke (Director of Player Development)
2008-pres. Florida Atlantic University

Mike Jarvis II was named Florida Atlantic University's associate men's basketball coach prior to the Owls' 2008-09 season. A veteran of eight NCAA Tournaments, his impressive resume includes coaching tenures at George Washington University, Drexel University, St. John's University and Duke University.

As a coach, Jarvis II has reached the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 four times. He owns three conference championship rings and was essential in St. John's National Invitational Tournament (NIT) Championship title in 2003 and the Red Storm's run into the NCAA Tournament's South Regional Final (Elite 8) in 1999.

A proven recruiter and leader, Jarvis II began his collegiate coaching career as a first-year assistant in 1992-93 working with his father, Mike Jarvis, at GWU. Jarvis II immediately made an impact, helping the Colonials to the school's most successful season in history. GWU made its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 in 1999, facing the University of Michigan and its famed "Fab 5" squad before finishing the season 21-9.

Jarvis II spent a total of five seasons on the coaching staff at GWU from 1992-98, taking a one-year hiatus to work as an assistant coach under Bill Herrion at Drexel in 1995-96.

At Drexel, Jarvis II helped the Dragons convincingly win the North Atlantic Conference postseason tournament and compile a program-best 27-4 record by season's end. His year at Drexel still stands as the program's most successful campaign in university history, which was culminated by the Dragons stunning the nation by knocking off fifth-seeded Memphis, 75-63, in the NCAA Tournament's West Regional in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Returning to GWU in 1996-97, Jarvis II again would help the Colonials advance into postseason tournament play. In each of the five seasons he spent on the GWU staff, Jarvis II helped the Colonials to compete on college basketball's national stage, qualifying for three NCAA Tournaments and twice playing in the NIT. In 1997-98, during Jarvis II's sixth season as an assistant coach and his last at GWU, the Colonials went 24-9 and won the Atlantic 10 Conference West Division Championship.

Before moving on to work with his father at St. John's, Jarvis II had compiled a 123-62 record in six years as a Division I assistant coach, finishing each and every season with an invitation to play in either the NCAA Tournament or the NIT.

Jarvis II directed all scouting and game-preparation efforts for a storied St. John's program as the team's top assistant coach from 1998-2004. Success was immediate and remarkable with Jarvis II helping the Red Storm to a 28-9 record and an Elite Eight appearance in his first season, getting St. John's to within one game of the Final Four.

St. John's would return to postseason play four times in Jarvis II's five seasons as an assistant coach. The Red Storm went on to capture the Big East Tournament Championship in 2000 and the NIT title in 2003.

Following his tenure at St. John's, Jarvis II was appointed to director of player development at Duke in 2004. His contributions for the four-time national champion Blue Devils included in-depth scouting reports emphasizing offensive sets, defensive strategies and player tendencies, helping the Blue Devils capture consecutive ACC Championship titles in 2005 and 2006.

Jarvis II reunited with his father at FAU and the duo looked to help establish yet another burgeoning basketball program. Jarvis II even served as head coach for a game, leading the Owls on the road vs. Arkansas State. In his second season in Boca Raton, he was a key figure in helping FAU to an eight win improvement over the previous year. In his third season at FAU, Coach Jarvis II was instrumental in helping the Owls to the postseason for just the second time in their history. Prior to his fourth season, Coach Jarvis was named one of the top assistants in the Sun Belt Conference by the websirtRecruitDirt.com. Coach Jarvis II helps oversee the day-to-day activities of the men's basketball program, in addition to opponent scouting and the development and implementation of in-game strategy. The 2012-13 season will be their 20th as a father-son coaching duo.

Jarvis II continues to be an active member of the National Association Basketball Coaches and Black Coaches Association. He is a graduate of Boston University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in communications in 1992. Coach Jarvis II and his wife Jen have one daughter, Delaney.

After one season with the Quakers, Kaine joined former Winthrop assistant coach Shaun Golden at Newberry College in South Carolina. Kaine directed all scouting and recruiting efforts for the Indians from 2004-2007. While at Newberry, Kaine brought in several recruits that went on to earn all-conference honors. Kaine served as head coach at Newberry for one game during the 2006-2007 season, defeating conference rival Mars Hill.

Kaine played soccer at Winthrop four years after transferring from Tennessee-Martin where he also played basketball for one season. As a high school soccer player, he was selected to the NSCAA All-American team and was voted the Tennessee Player of the Year in 1997. While attending Winthrop, Kaine was a recipient of Big South Conference Presidential Scholar recognition in both 2001 and 2002.

Coach Kaine has been instrumental in the recruiting of several student-athletes since coming to FAU. He is responsible for coaching the Owls' post players, including two-time Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year Brett Royster and Jordan McCoy, who won the team's Most Improved Award as a sophomore. Coach Kaine duties focus on opponent scouting, coaching the FAU post players and tracking in-game trends. He also helps coordinate the Owls' various summer camps..

Kaine is the godson of Duke University head men's basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski. He is married to Jenny Ashworth Kaine and the couple is expecting their first child, a daughter, in February.
