FAU Looks to Advance vs. La. Tech

The Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team faces the No. 1 seed from the West Division Thursday night at the C-USA Championship tournament.

The Owls are 13-9 overall and the No. 4 seed out of the East Division. The Bulldogs are 20-6.

The Owls and head coach Dusty May cemented a winning season this past Friday. It's the third consecutive for May, who is in his third year with the program. This is the first time in the program's NCAA Division I history that the Owls have put together three straight winning seasons.

Louisiana Tech has won three straight in the series, including a nail-biter the last time the two met in Frisco during the C-USA Championship. Trailing 57-55, the Owls had a 3-point attempt to win that missed, but Karlis Silins drew a foul with one second left with a chance to force overtime. One of his two free throws was good, giving Louisiana Tech the one-point victory.

La Tech leads the all-time series by a 7-2 margin. Both FAU's victories have come in the friendly confines of Abesinnio Court at FAU Arena.

We're Going Streaking!

FAU's current five-game winning streak is the Owls' longest since 2010-11, when the squad won eight straight from Jan. 3-Jan. 27. FAU swept C-USA regular season series from Southern Miss and MTSU and won its fifth straight Wednesday over UTEP.

Trending In The Right Direction

FAU has assured itself of three consecutive winning seasons. Dusty May is the first FAU head coach to lead a team to three straight winning seasons in the Owls' NCAA Division I history. Back in 1992, Tim Loomis coached the Owls to three straight seasons with a winning percentage above .500 while the team was a member of NCAA Division II.

The Owls have won five straight headed into the C-USA Championship quarterfinals Thursday, sweeping Southern Miss and MTSU before Wednesday's win over UTEP.

Cleaning the Glass

Offensive rebounding has been a point of emphasis for the Owls. The message has been received. FAU currently averages 12.5 offensive boards per game, which ranks No. 1 in Conference USA and No. 30 in the nation.

The Owls hold an edge in second-chance points in 18 of 22 games this season.

FAU is also No. 1 in C-USA and No. 12 in the nation in rebound margin (+8.5).

Long-Range Bombers

FAU is one of the more prolific 3-point shooting teams in the nation in terms of shots made from distance and long-range efficiency.

The Owls are No. 2 in C-USA and No. 28 in the nation in 3-point field-goal percentage coming into the weekend and are converting at a .379 clip. In 3-pointers made per game, FAU is No. 3 in C-USA and No. 20 in the nation, averaging 9.6.

2020-21 FAU MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Shilly Showing Up

Big man Karlis Silins played a huge role in the Owls' five-game winning streak and has stepped up his play down the stretch. He is averaging 13.4 points and 5.2 rebounds during this season-long winning streak and is shooting .619 from the field over the last six contests. Wednesday's performance included a career-best 22 points. He has been in double-figure scoring in four of the last five.

Seeing the Forrest For the Threes

Michael Forrest is one of the most prolific 3-point shooters in Conference USA. The junior guard is No. 4 in the league and No. 52 in the nation in 3-point field goals made per game, averaging 2.64 per contest. He is No. 4 in the conference and No. 62 in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage at .379.

His 160 career 3-point field goals made currently ranks No. 8 on the FAU all-time chart.

Forrest is the No. 2-ranked scorer on the team, averaging 12.0 points per game.

Sharing Is Caring

Bryan Greenlee is the Owls' leading playmaker, averaging 2.9 assists per game. He's also the team's fourth-leading scorer, averaging 10.0 points per game. With his 64 assists and his 77 field goals, Greenlee has directly or indirectly accounted for 22.4 percent of FAU's made field goals (141-of-629).

Ingram Finding A Way

Jailyn Ingram has struggled with injuries during his FAU career. He's been dealing with nagging injuries down the stretch. Head coach Dusty May has said Ingram needs to play "old man ball" to avoid injury and has come off the bench the last five games.

At Southern Miss, he scored 12 points in each game of the sweep, hitting huge 3-pointers in both games. Against Middle Tennessee last weekend, he grabbed a career-best 12 rebounds on Friday. Wednesday, he grabbed eight boards vs. UTEP and hit two 3-pointers to open the scoring for the Owls.

Ingram has scored in double digits in 11 of his 19 outings. He has six 20-point performances this season. Ingram has 10 double-doubles for his career. He is the most prolific current Owl in the category of double-doubles (see chart to right).

On Tap: Survive and Advance to Semis

Another game for the Owls is not guaranteed. What is guaranteed is a winning season and a chance to advance to the semifinals with a win Thursday night over Louisiana Tech.

A victory over the Bulldogs would put FAU into a matchup vs. either Old Dominion or North Texas. ODU swept FAU in Norfolk early in C-USA play, while the Owls have not faced North Texas this season.

A loss sends the Owls home.

An FAU Win Would Be ...

- The Owls' sixth straight victory
- The first time FAU has ever advanced to the C-USA Tournament semifinals
- The 48th career victory for head coach Dusty May
- Better than a loss

Last Time Out

Karlis Silins scored a career-high 22 points to lead the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team to a 76-70 victory over UTEP Wednesday night in the Conference USA Men's Championship tournament. The Owls move on to face Louisiana Tech in a quarterfinal matchup Thursday night.

While Silins led the way, it was Jailyn Ingram who got the Owls going after a slow start. UTEP jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first two minutes of the contest. Ingram came off the bench and knocked down a pair of 3-pointers to get the FAU offense on track.

From there, the Owls got into rhythm, going on a 13-3 run later in the first half. That spurt was capped by a Dardan Kapiti slam dunk to put FAU on top 19-11. The Owls opened an 11-point edge, 26-15, with eight minutes remaining in the half. But UTEP wouldn't go away.

The Miners clawed all the way back within one before the end of the first half, as FAU took a 34-33 edge into the break. Souley Boum scored 12 of his game-high 23 points for UTEP in that first half to pull his team back into the contest.

While there was just one lead change and one tie score in the first half. The second half was a back-and-forth affair. Neither team led by more than five points until the final minute of the contest. There were eight lead changes and 11 tie scores in the second half.

UTEP took the lead for the first time since early in the game four minutes into the second half. But the Owls responded. A Kenan Blackshear 3-pointer and seven straight points from Silins gave FAU its biggest lead of the second half, 48-43. But they couldn't pull away.

With less than four minutes remaining, the contest was tied, 64-64. With 3:14 remaining Bryan Greenlee scored on a layup and gave FAU the lead for good. Another Greenlee bucket put the Owls on top by three, 68-65, with 1:37 remaining. From there, the Owls converted 8-of-10 free throws and locked down on defense. FAU held the Miners without a field goal for over six minutes until Bryson Williams tallied a meaningless dunk at the buzzer.

In addition to Silins' 23-point effort, Greenlee added 14 points and dished out four assists for the Owls. Ingram and Blackshear shared game-high honors on the boards, with eight rebounds apiece.

The victory moved FAU's overall record to 13-9 on the season, while UTEP's season came to a close at 12-12.

2020-21 FAU MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Head Coach Dusty May

Dusty May was named FAU's head men's basketball coach after signing a five-year contract in late March of 2018.

In his first two seasons, the Owls posted back-to-back winning records for the first time since 2007. He is the first FAU head men's basketball coach to open his tenure with back-to-back winning records and the first Owl bench leader to post consecutive winning seasons since 1992.

May joined FAU after three years as an assistant at the University of Florida, where he helped the Gators compile a 69-37 record, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including an Elite Eight in 2017. As a full-time assistant, May's helped his teams compile a 274-166 record (.623 win percentage).

May spent the seven seasons prior to his tenure at FAU on the coaching staffs of Mike White, first at Louisiana Tech for four seasons and then with the Gators.

In his first season, May led the Owls to a winning record for the first time since 2011 and an appearance in the College Insider Tournament (CIT), just the third postseason appearance in school history. For his efforts, May was a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, given to the best first-year coach in Division I. As a team, the Owls set records for rebounding, 3-pointers made, and free throw percentage. The Owls also scored 2,322 points, the second-highest single season total in school history.

May continued the success in his second year. FAU won 14 home games last season, its most since joining Division I, while averaging 71.1 points per game, its highest average in nearly a decade. May also became the fastest FAU coach to reach 30 wins at the D-I level and collected 16 Conference USA wins and 34 overall wins in his first two seasons at the helm, the highest totals of any Owls' coach at the D-I level. May capped off the campaign by leading the Owls to a 66-56 win over Old Dominion at the C-USA Tournament. The victory was the first in-bracket, neutral site conference tournament win for FAU since 2002.

May was retained as an assistant at Louisiana Tech when Mike White took over the program entering the 2011-12 season and the Bulldogs won three straight conference championships – the WAC title in 2013 and CUSA crown in 2014 and 2015.

"The opportunity to recruit in such a fertile region, the momentum this university is enjoying and the enormous potential here are ideal starting points," said May when he arrived in Boca Raton. "We will be winners here, and we will play with tremendous passion and energy. The vision of President John Kelly, the board of trustees and the athletic department under the leadership of Brian White made this move an easy decision. I can't wait to get started."

May served six seasons (2009-15) as assistant coach and associate head coach at Louisiana Tech. In his final season with the Bulldogs, the team went 27-9, including 15-3 in Conference USA to win the regular season championship by two games, and went 17-0 on its home court. Louisiana Tech won 49 of 50 home games from February 2012 through the end of the 2014-15 season.

May was a student manager for the Indiana University men's basketball team as an undergraduate. He graduated from IU in 2000.

May began his professional career as an administrative assistant/video coordinator at USC from 2000-02. He returned to Indiana in an administrative role for three seasons before taking his first step as an assistant coach with Eastern Michigan (2005-06). He has also served as an assistant at Murray State (2006-07) and the University of Alabama at Birmingham (2007-09).

May and his wife, Anna, have three sons, Jack, Charlie and Eli.

On The Radio

Ken LaVicka is entering his 14th season broadcasting FAU basketball. After calling select games in 2007, he became the full-time basketball "voice" in 2009. He took on the same full-time title with Owls' football in 2011, with the 2020 campaign marking his 12th season.

FAU contests are broadcast on Fox Sports 640AM throughout South Florida.

LaVicka is co-host on West Palm Beach-based ESPN 106.3's popular daily program Josh Cohen & The HomeTeam (Mon-Fri, 3-5p). A former newspaper sports writer, Ken graduated from Valparaiso University before coming to South Florida.

He lives in Tamarac, Florida with his wife Vivianne, his two daughters Adaline & Alianna and his dog Howard, who is named after Howard Schnellenberger.
