Games 31-33 Sun Belt Conference Championship Cajun Dome - Lafayette, LA March 4-6, 2007

It took a block at the end of regulation, the biggest crowd of the season, and a couple of huge stops for the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team to overcome Florida International, 91-88, in overtime in the first round of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament at FAU Arena on Wednesday.

"It wasn't the prettiest game, but our guys found a way," FAU Head Coach Rex Walters said. "This is what college basketball is all about."

Carlos Monroe led the Owls with 26 points and 15 rebounds for his 11th double-double of the season, tied for second-most in a single campaign in FAU history. DeAndre Rice scored 23 points, and Jeff Parmer added 18 points and eight boards. Paul Graham contributed 17 points, giving the Owls four players in double-figures. In unfamiliar territory, the Owls trailed at halftime, 36-34. It was the first time FAU trailed at home after 20 minutes since January 26, 2006 vs. Lipscomb, a span of 16 games.

FAU hit 50.0 percent (15-for-30) of its field goal attempts, led by a 7-for-11 effort by Monroe, who finished the first half with 14 points and eight rebounds. Jeff Parmer (seven points) and Paul Graham (six points) each went 3-for-6 from the field in the opening stanza. Nikola Gacesa led the Golden Panthers with nine. FIU shot 48.4 percent (15-for-31) in the first frame. Neither team led by more than five points in the first half.

The Owls held a 24-12 paint-point edge through 20 minutes, but the Golden Panthers turned 13 FAU turnovers into 15 points.

Rice hit a layup with 11:30 remaining in the second half to tie the game at 54, but a foul and a technical foul were called on Derrick Simmons on the ensuing possession. FIU would make all four free throws, and a few minutes later back-to-back threes gave the Golden Panthers a 66-58 lead with just under nine minutes remaining.

Following an intentional foul and two Alex Galindo free throws, FIU had stretched its lead to nine, 70-61 with 7:20 remaining in regulation. Following a three-point play by Rice and a steal and slam by Graham, the Owls had cut the lead down to 70-68 with six minutes left.

With 5:15 remaining, Rice hit a

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING: AMONG THE SUN BELT LEADERS (SBC - 1st Rd)

fade away and was fouled once again. He would convert the free throw to bring the Owls back within one, 72-71. Rice would come up with a steal on the other end, kick it ahead to Simmons who hit Graham on a cross court pass. Graham laid it in, giving the Owls a one-point lead, 73-72, with 4:45 left.

With the game tied at 77, FIU's Nsangou would give the Golden Panthers a two-point lead on a layup with three minutes left. Parmer would be fouled on the other end and split the pair to cut the lead in half.

Brent Crews would be called for his fifth foul with 1:52 remaining and was disqualified in his final home game as an Owl.

FIU's Galindo came up with an offensive rebound with 51 seconds left and a chance to give his team a three-point lead, but he dropped the ball out of bounds and gave the Owls life.

Rice was fouled on the next possession. He would sink both and put the Owls in front, 80-79, with 40 seconds left, but Galindo would atone with a three pointer at the 25-second mark, putting the Owls down two.

Six seconds later, Rice would head to the free throw line after being fouled on a drive. He made both and tied the game at 82.

Monroe came up with a game-saving play, blocking Villega's shot underneath the basket with less than 10 seconds left. A jump ball would give the Owls possession with 2.2 seconds left. Rice's half-court shot was wide, sending the game to overtime.

A Monroe free throw was the first point of the overtime, 83-82, with 3:45 left. A Fuller tip-in with 2:40 remaining and a Mike James layup gave FIU a three-point lead with 2:20 left, but Rice cut the lead back to one with a layup 15 seconds later.

A Sean Alarcon swipe and score gave the Owls a 87-86 lead with 1:21 left in the extra frame.

After a frenzy under the basket, a Monroe right hook gave the Owls an 89-88 lead with 30 seconds left.

FIU's Fuller would miss a three with 12 seconds left. The rebound was grabbed by Parmer and kicked ahead to Graham who threw a dunk down with two seconds left for the final margin, 91-88.

"Special players make special plays," Walters said. "Carlos, Paul, DeAndre, Sean; everyone made plays tonight."

A season-best crowd of 2,017 helped the Owls overcome a nine-point second-half deficit. It's the biggest crowd since February 4, 2002, when 2,110 fans packed FAU Arena.

Crews posted a career-high 11 assists before fouling out, and Rice had a career-best six swipes in the ball game.

2006-07 FAU NEWS AND NOTES || fausports.com

Back-to-Back... The win over South Alabama guarantees FAU a winning regular season for the second-consecutive year. It's the first time since the program moved to D-I. FAU had three consecutive winning seasons from 1989-90 to 1991-92.

Outside Florida... FAU is 3-11 outside the Florida state line this season. FAU was 3-10 outside the state of Florida last season and 4-6 in 2004-05 (10-27 over the last three seasons). The Owls are 31-17 within state lines in those three seasons. FAU's wins outside Florida this season have come against New Orleans, Longwood and Western Kentucky.

Four-headed Monster... If Jeff Parmer finished with a 10.0+ scoring average (currently 10.2) he will give FAU four scorers that average 10+ points for the first time since at least 200-01. FAU hasn't had three players average double-figures since 2001-02, when Raheim Brown (15.4), Jeff Cowans (11.5) and Earnest Crumbley (11.3) accomplished the feat.

South Siders... FAU is 4-1 against its half of the bracket. The Owls were 1-1 against their first opponent, WKU, 2-0 against New Orleans and 0-1 against Arkansas State. FAU is 2-4 against the top half of the bracket. The only teams FAU posted losing records against that currently remain are Middle Tennessee (0-2), North Texas (0-1) and ASU.

100/100... With four more assists, Paul Graham will have 100 assists on the season. Brent Crews already has surpassed the century mark. If Graham reaches 100 helpers, it will be the first time since 2001-02 that the Owls had two players post 100+ assists (120 - Earnest Crumbley, 105 - Anthony Slater).

Monroe and Rice Honored... Carlos Monroe and DeAndre Rice were named to the Second-Team All-Sun Belt. Monroe earns second-team honors despite being the only player in the top seven in scoring (3rd) and rebounding (2nd), and also leads the conference in field goal percentage (60.1). Rice is among the league's most lethal long-range snipers at 48.0 percent from deep and 50.0 percent from the field overall. He leads the Owls in scoring at 19.8.

20/20/20... The Owls had three players score 20+ points against New Orleans on Feb. 21. Carlos Monroe (30) and Paul Graham (22) set new career-highs and Jeff Parmer (21) tied his career-high.

It's the first time three players have scored 20+ points since December 4, 2005 when DeAndre Rice (29) Rodney Webb (25) and Paul Graham (20) hit the mark.

Efficient O... The Owls have hit at least 50 percent of their field goals in nine of their last 15 games. Twice in that stretch they hit 60+ percent. Entering this week, FAU was ranked no. 20 in the nation in field goal percentage at 48.6%. Carlos Monroe is 22nd among individuals at 60.1 percent. Monroe also entered the week 29th in rebounding at 9.2

Bottom's up... The two teams receiving the fewest points in the Sun Belt Conference pre-season poll (Louisiana-Monroe and Florida Atlantic, 21 pts.) were the no. 4 and no. 6 seeds, respectively in the tournament.

Both teams are in their first year in the SBC. The Owls posted the third-most wins by a first year SBC team. The 10 victories are the second-most by a first-year team outside of the 1991-92 merger season with the American South Conference, when ULL won 12 games and Arkansas State won 11. ULM had 11 wins this year.

First Half Differences... FAU has led at the break in every home game this season until Wednesday's first-round meeting with FIU. Additionally, the Owls have led at the half in eight of their 17 road contests, going 4-4 in those eight games. The wins came at UNF (28-18 at the half), New Orleans (47-42), Longwood (43-31) and Western Kentucky (37-35). The losses came against Marist (35-34), North Texas (28-24), Arkansas State (36-32) and Troy (42-40). The Owls have failed to hold a halftime lead six times this season (twice at home, four times on the road) and have come back from a half-time deficit twice (trailing 34-33 at FIU, 36-34 vs. FIU - 1st Rd SBC Tourney)

Vs. Winners... FAU is 7-7 this season against teams with a .500 or better record at the time the two teams played. All the wins have come against conference opponents: Louisiana-Monroe, New Orleans (2x), Florida International, Troy, Western Kentucky and South Alabama.

Lucky No. 7... After falling in the season's first four games with eight players active, FAU picked up its first win of the 2006-07 season against North Florida on Nov. 22 with just seven players active. FAU did not have all five of its returners active in the same game until January 4 at New Orleans.

No Experience Necessary... Derrick Simmons is the only player on FAU's roster with more than one season of DI basketball experience. Entering the season, seven of FAU's 14 players had not played a Division I basketball game.

No Experience Necessary II... Entering the season FAU's roster had just 219 DI games played under its belt. 69 of those games belong to David Anderson, who is no longer with the team, and 21 games belong to Jeff Parmer who played at Providence his freshman year. If you take away Anderson's games played, 52 of which came at Gardner-Webb before transferring, FAU had just 150 games played, which would rank as the ninth-fewest in all of Division I basketball according to a study by the America East conference based on SID responses.

No Experience Necessary III... Even with Anderson, FAU had just 61 career DI starts under its belt entering 2006-07, the 11th fewest in DI basketball according to the same study.

Home is Where the Heart is... Sammy Hernandez, a 6-5 250-pound forward, has transferred from George Mason to Florida Atlantic. He was an important part of the GMU team that advanced to the Final Four in 2005-06. Hernandez won two high school championships while playing high school basketball in the state of Florida during his prep career.

First Time Winners... The only first-year Sun Belt teams to win the Sun Belt Conference Tournament are Virginia Commonwealth in 1980 and Louisiana-Lafayette in 1992.

Conference Tournament History... Five times the Owls made the Atlantic Sun Tournament. They were 5-4 all-time in tournament games, winning the tournament and automatic NCAA bid in 2001-02. They have not made it past the second round in any year other than 2001-02.

HEAD COACH REX WALTERS (16-14, 1st Year) || fausports.com

Rex Walters was named the sixth head men's basketball coach at Florida Atlantic University on April 28, 2006. The promotion from associate head coach came after one season of working side-by-side with Matt Doherty in laying a foundation for college basketball in Boca Raton.

Walters joined the FAU staff on April 20, 2005. One year and eight days later, he became a head coach for the first time in his coaching career.

He will lead an Owls' roster of 14 student-athletes-including 13 players recruited since his original hire date-into the program's first season in the Sun Belt Conference. He returns five regulars who averaged 4.3 points per game or more last season, including leading scorer DeAndre Rice (16.1 ppg) and A-Sun All-Freshmen honoree Carlos Monroe (11.0 ppg).

With Walters on the sidelines in 2005-06, Florida Atlantic closed its tenure in the Atlantic Sun Conference with a 15-13 record overall and the program's best conference record at 14-6. The 15 victories were a five-win improvement over 2004-05, when the Owls went 10-17 overall.

Prior to Florida Atlantic, Walters' first collegiate coaching job came at Valparaiso, a two-year stint as an assistant under Homer Drew. The 2003-04 Hornets were 18-13 overall and finished first in the Mid-Continent Conference with a record of 11-5.

The following season, Walters' second on the bench, Valparaiso went 15-16, earning third place in the MCC with a 10-6 mark. His coaching career began in 2002-03 in Overland Park, KS, where he served as an assistant coach for a Blue Valley Northwest High School team that reached the Kansas Class 6A State Tournament.

Walters' pedigree for coaching began as a player, receiving tutelage from some of the game's legendary coaches. Roy Williams at the University of Kansas and the NBA's Chuck Daly, Larry Brown and Pat Riley all mentored Walters during his years as a player.

He first made his name known in college, starring for two seasons at Kansas. In 68 starts under Williams, he averaged 15.6 points per game, leading the Jayhawks in scoring during both his junior and senior campaigns.

KU combined to go 56-12 overall in 1991-92 and 1992-93, winning back-to-back Big Eight titles and reaching the 1993 Final Four. Walters was named to the All-Big Eight team both seasons and won Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year as a senior in 1993.

As a junior, Walters averaged 16.0 points per game as the Jayhawks went 27-5. In his senior season, KU had a record of 29-7, with Walters scoring at a clip of 15.3 points per game.

Walters was an outstanding scorer from all areas of the court at Kansas, shooting nearly 51% from the field, 42% from three-point range and 85% at the free throw line. His college career originally began at Northwestern University, where he earned honorable mention from the Big 10 in 1989-90 after leading the team in scoring (17.6 ppg), three-point shooting (47.3%), free throw shooting (79.4%) and assists (125) as a sophomore.

It was during his senior season at Kansas that Walters made his first connection with Doherty, who joined the team as an assistant coach. The two reunited again for Doherty's single season at FAU, opening the door for Walters' move to the top.

After graduating from Kansas in 1993 with a B.S. in education, Walters was taken by New Jersey as the 16th overall pick in the 1993 NBA Draft. He went on to play seven seasons in total with the Nets, Philadelphia 76ers and Miami Heat, averaging 4.6 points and 1.7 assists per game in 13.7 minutes.

Walters averaged a career-best 6.8 points per game for Philadelphia in 1996-97, and made 67 career starts in 335 games. His career assist-to-turnover ratio was nearly two-to-one.

He was New Jersey's top three-point shooter in 1994-95 (36.2%) and Philadelphia's top long-range marksman in 1996-97 (38.5%). A constant competitor who is always ready for the game, he averaged 12.8 points and 7.3 assists per game in eight starts for the 76ers to end the 1995-96 season.

Walters' professional career spanned nine seasons in total, ending in 2002 after playing internationally for two years and also winning an American Basketball Association title with the Kansas City Knights.

A native of Omaha, NE, Walters and his wife, Deanna, have four children: Addison (9), Drew (7), Riley (4) and Gunner (2).

GAME 1: Oklahoma State 95, FAU 50 11/10/06 || 9 p.m. || Gallagher-Iba Arena || Stillwater, OK

Owls Fall in Walters' Debut

Paul Graham scored 14 points and Carlos Monroe added 11 points and four rebounds but it wasn't enough as the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team fell to Oklahoma State University 95-50 in the team's 2006-07 season opener on Friday in Stillwater, OK.

Brent Crews led FAU in rebounding with six, while the Cowboys had five players score double figures, led by Terrel Harris and Mario Boggan with 17. David Monds led OSU in rebounds with eight.

Head Coach Rex Walters thought the Owls played well in the early going of his head coaching debut, but felt like the Cowboys just wore his team down.

"They're a big, physical team and they're used to playing that way," Walters said. "They were far more physical than any team we faced last season."

The Cowboys held a slim 12-11 edge in rebounding at the break, but stretched the advantage to 34-22 by game's end.

The Owls shot 48 percent from the floor in the first half, but allowed the Cowboys to shoot over 70 percent and trailed 48-28 at the break. The Cowboys would go on a 22-4 run to start the second half to put the game out of reach.

"It was a good experience for us in this environment," Walters said. "Our guys will take it and learn from it. We want to be at this level some day, but it's not going to happen overnight."

Jeff Parmer and Sean Alarcon were in the starting lineup for their Florida Atlantic debut. Each had five points and made one three-point attempt.

Seydou Kone also made his FAU debut, going 0-for-2 from the floor with one rebound in 10 minutes.

GAME 2: UMKC 85, FAU 70 11/13/06 || 8 p.m. || Municipal Aud. || Kansas City, MO

Graham Scores Career-High 20 in Loss

Paul Graham tied a career-high with 20 points and Carlos Monroe added a double-double but the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team fell to UMKC, 85-70, in Kansas City, MO.

Graham was 8-for-17 from the floor and 4-for-10 from behind the arc. His previous 20-point outing came in a double-overtime affair against Jacksonville on December 4, 2005.

Monroe grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds and scored 14 points on just 2-of-4 shooting thanks to a 10-for-17 night from the free-throw line, setting new career-highs in both makes and attempts.

Seydou Kone came off the bench and gave FAU's offense a lift, shooting 4-for-5 for eight points and grabbing one rebound in 16 minutes. Jeff Parmer had a strong second half to finish with 15 points on 6-of-11 shooting and grabbed nine rebounds.

UMKC was 12-for-25 from behind the arc on the night, meaning in two games this season the Owls have allowed opponents to shoot 26-for-51 in that area. FAU had four players finish with four fouls.

The Owls (0-2) won the battle of the boards, 38-34, led by Monroe's 14 and Jeff Parmer's nine. UMKC's Alex Pledger had a game-high 15.

Florida Atlantic will now turn its attention to Old Dominion, when the Owls continue their five-game road trip on Friday in Norfolk, VA. Tip-off is scheduled for 7 p.m.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC 0-1

GAME 3: Old Dominion 70, FAU 55 11/17/06 || 7 p.m. || Constant Conv. Ctr. || Norfolk, VA

Owls Fight Back but Fall to Monarchs

After trailing 14-2 early, the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team tied the game at 36 five minutes into the second half, but Old Dominion outlasted a shorthanded FAU squad, 70-55 at Ted Constant Convocation Center in Norfolk, VA on Friday.

Paul Graham once again led the Owls in scoring, dropping in 17 points on 6-of-15 shooting. Jeff Parmer added 11, including seven second-half points before fouling out with 36 seconds left.

ODU got seven points from Valdas Vasylius early to take a 14-2 lead at the 15:03 mark. The Owls would get within five thanks to a Graham layup at the 5:08 mark, 22-17, but a Vasylius jumper and a pair of free throws by Marsharee Neely pushed the lead back to nine, 26-17.

Another Graham layup with six seconds left in the first half made the score 31-24 at the break.

A Brent Crews three-point play on a layup and a foul shot cut the lead to four at 31-27, and a pair of free throws by Graham would tie the game at 36 with 14:35 remaining.

Aided by a Drew Williamson triple the Monarchs would go on a 9-0 run following the Graham free throws, and would lead the rest of the way.

A pair of made free throws by Parmer and a Graham layup cut the lead to 49-44 with 8:42 remaining, but the Owls would get no closer.

Old Dominion out-rebounded FAU 43-19, including a 14-5 edge in offensive rebounding. The Monarchs were 6-of-12 from behind the arc.

Carlos Monroe led FAU in rebounds with six.

GAME 4: Marist 83, FAU 67 11/19/06 || 4 p.m. || McCann F. House || Poughkeepsie, NY

Marist's Second-Half Run Dooms Owls

Derrick Simmons scored a career-high 15 points off the bench and Paul Graham led Florida Atlantic University with 20 points but Marist used a 33-6 second-half run earn an 83-67 victory at the McCann Center in Poughkeepsie, NY on Sunday.

A Simmons steal and score gave FAU its first halftime lead of the 2006-07 campaign at 55-54. Carlos Monroe led the Owls with 10 first-half points, while Simmons and Graham each added nine.

Like the meeting last year between the two schools, the game was decided by a second-half run. This year it was FAU who held a one-point lead after the half, but it was Marist who duplicated their effort last year.

The Owls went 11:27 with just one field goal after a Simmons layup gave the Owls a 51-48 lead at the 14:31 mark of the second half. Marist forward James Smith then hit back-to-back triples to give the Red Foxes a 54-51 lead and start the 33-6 run.

The run was stopped at the 3:04 mark by a Paul Graham layup. FAU would finish on a 10-2 run, but it wasn't enough to get the Owls back into the game.

Monroe finished with 14 points giving FAU three players in double-figures for the first time this season.

GAME 5: North Florida 44, FAU 59

11/22/06 || 7 p.m. || UNF Arena || Jacksonville, FL

Walters Gets First Career Win

Florida Atlantic University men's basketball head coach Rex Walters picked up his first career win as the Owls picked up a road victory against the University of North Florida, 59-44 in Jacksonville, FL on Wednesday.

Paul Graham once again led FAU in scoring with 17 and approached a triple-double with eight rebounds and six assists. Carlos Monroe added 16 off the bench and grabbed six boards.

FAU made the trip with just seven players, each of them scoring at least three points in the game.

The Owls held a 28-18 half time lead, the second straight game they've held a halftime lead.

With the score 35-32 with 11:48 left in the second frame, Monroe scored on a layup and was fouled by UNF's James Grimball. The basket made it 37-32 with a free throw pending, but prior to the freebee, UNF's Williams was called for a technical. Sean Alarcon would hit both free throws and Monroe would tack on his continuation free throw, expanding the Owl lead to 40-32.

The Owls shot 45 percent from the floor (23-for-51) and held a 33-30 rebounding edge. They held UNF to jus three triple makes, an opponents lowest output of the season from behind the arc. The Ospreys shot 35.4 percent for the game and committed 20 turnovers.

Coach Walters earns his first win against the same team former FAU head coach Matt Doherly earned his first win against last season.

Jeff Parmer gave the Owls 10 points and four rebounds while Derrick Simmons added five points and five rebounds in a starting assignment. Alarcon finished with five points and four rebounds, while David Anderson and Crews each finished with three points.

GAME 6: Florida Memorial 60, FAU 94

11/28/06 || 7 p.m. || FAU Arena || Boca Raton, FL

Monroe Scores 28 to Lead Owls in Home Opener

Carlos Monroe posted his second-career double-double with a career-high 28 points and 13 rebounds and three other players scored in double figures as the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team earned a 94-60 victory over Florida Memorial at FAU Arena on Tuesday.

Monroe shot 13-of-16 from the floor, a career-high in made field goals. Derrick Simmons (17) and Sean Alarcon (12) posted career-highs in points, while Avery Holley (seven points) and Enrique Rodriguez (three points) made their Owl debuts.

The Lions opened the game on a 7-2 run over the first 1:55 of the contest, but the Owls charged back with a 7-2 run of their own, capped off by a Sean Alarcon triple to tie the game at 9-9 with 16:52 left in the half.

Holley scored his first points as an Owl on a pair of free throws at the 12:09 mark to give FAU a 19-13 lead. Holley, also a wide receiver on the football team, joined the basketball squad following FAU's 31-0 victory over Florida International to complete the 2006 football campaign.

Holley had practiced with the team just three times prior to Tuesday's game.

A Monroe layup gave FAU its largest lead of the half at 34-20 with 7:11 remaining in the first frame and sparked the Owls to a 44-35 halftime lead. David Anderson set a career-high with three blocks, all in the first half.

The Owls have now won four straight against FMU and hold a 4-2 series edge. The Lions were led by Tramaine Stevens' 19 points on 8-of-18 shooting and were aided by Andre Beauford's 16 points. No other FMU player reached double-figures.

Simmons Shines in Sun Belt Opener

Derrick Simmons stepped up when the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team needed him the most.

The junior scored 12 points in a span of 6:05 in the second half to spur the Owls to victory over the Troy Trojans, 91-87, at FAU Arena on Wednesday.

Simmons would lead the team in scoring with a career-high 21 points and four rebounds, his biggest shots coming with the team's top two scorers, Paul Graham and Carlos Monroe, not on the court. Graham left with an ankle injury and Monroe had foul trouble when Simmons made his run.

The win comes in the first Sun Belt Conference game of FAU's initial campaign in the conference, and improves the Owls' record in conference openers to 8-4 all-time.

FAU led 47-42 at halftime thanks to a 54.3 percent shooting half. Monroe led all scorers with 16 at the break.

Troy's Boo Ramsey hit a three-point attempt at the 13:22 mark to give the Trojans a 60-54 lead, and the teams would trade buckets over the next three minutes before Simmons took over.

Monroe, who was held without a bucket in the second half for 19:06, made two critical buckets in the last 54 seconds, the first at the 40 second mark coming after a Ramsey three-pointer brought the Trojans within four. Monroe finished with 20 points.

Senior guard Brent Crews played his best game of the season, finishing with an unconventional double-double, scoring 10 points and adding 10 assists. Jeff Parmer finished with a game-high 11 rebounds.

The Trojans were led by Ramsey's 22. They finished with five players scoring in double-figures while FAU finished with four.

GAME 10: # 2 North Carolina 105, FAU 52 12/19/06 || 7 p.m. || Dean E. Smith Ctr. || Chapel Hill, NC

Rice Returns, but No. 2 UNC Cruises

DeAndre Rice made his 2006-07 debut and led the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team with 13 points, but it wasn't enough as the No. 2 ranked University of North Carolina Tar Heels cruised to a 105-52 victory on Tuesday night at the Dean Smith Center in Chapel Hill, NC.

The Flint, MI native went 4-for-15 from the field, 2-for-8 from behind the arc, and had three assists.

The Owls had a difficult first-half, allowing a season-high 65 points in a half while scoring a season-low 18 points in a half. They went 8:15 without a field goal, a span that saw UNC go on a 24-0 run.

The Tar Heels would stretch the margin to 66 with nine minutes to go in the second half, 94-28. FAU would finish the game on a 24-11 run.

Florida Atlantic (4-6) allowed North Carolina to score 54 points in the paint and 33 points off 24 FAU turnovers.

Jeff Parmer added 11 points and five rebounds.

North Carolina (9-1) was led by Tyler Hansbrough who scored 20 points on 6-of-7 shooting. All five Tar Heel starters finished with at least 11 points. UNC shot 66 percent from the field and held a 38-24 rebounding edge.

Eni Cuka also made his Florida Atlantic debut, going 1-for-4 from the floor, scoring three points in 13 minutes of action.

Rice, Simmons Lift Owls Over Kangaroos, 70-61

DeAndre Rice scored 19 points and Derrick Simmons added 16 points to go with a career-high 16 rebounds as the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team earned a 70-61 win over UMKC at FAU Arena on Saturday.

"Every play that you diagram is a heck of a lot better when the ball goes in, and DeAndre does that for us," Head Coach Rex Walters said. "He's got a very good feel for the game and can score the basketball a lot of different ways. He's our most talented offensive player."

Rice, a native of Flint, MI, was playing in his first home game since being cleared on Dec. 18.

"It feels good to have him back," senior guard Brent Crews said. "We have more weapons and teams have to guard us differently. He's very good on the offensive and defensive end."

A three by Eni Cuka and back to back triples by Rice gave FAU a 34-16 lead with six minutes left, but back to back threes by Gettinger brought the Kangaroos back within 12 at 34-22.

A three by Brumagin right before the half would cut FAU's lead to six and produce the halftime margin, 41-35.

Rice led all scorers at the half with 12 points. Simmons added 10 to go with a game-high seven rebounds, while Dane Brumagin led the way for the Kangaroos with 11 points.

Jeremiah Hartsock would cut the lead to two with just over four minutes remaining before a Simmons layup would extend the lead back to four.

Rice made a pair of free throws with 1:02 remaining to stretch the lead to seven, 65-58, and Holley would hit two free throws with 51 seconds left to put the game out of reach, and the Owls would go on to win, 70-61.

Rice Helps Owls Surge Past Golden Panthers

DeAndre Rice put the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team on his back for the final minute of play against Florida International, and helped the Owls come away with a 68-66 victory in Miami, FL on Thursday.

With 39.1 seconds left in regulation and the Owls trailing by two, Rice hit a layup and was fouled by FIU's Alex Galindo. The Flint, MI native would hit the free-throw attempt to put FAU up by one, 65-64. Tension built as the Golden Panthers would take a one point lead with 23 seconds left following an Elvis Lora layup, 66-65.

Rice would once again rise to the challenge. The senior guard, playing in just his third game this season, would score his biggest three points of the night on a three-pointer from the left corner with just 5.9 seconds showing on the clock, giving FAU a 68-66 lead.

The Golden Panthers would have a chance to tie the game, as Lora was fouled with 0.7 seconds left in regulation. He would miss both, and Derrick Simmons grabbed the rebound to seal the victory.

Rice finished with a game-high 22 points and Jeff Parmer had a dominant first half for the Owls, scoring 16 points in the first 20 minutes and finished with 21. Paul Graham added 14 off the bench.

FAU shot 60.9 percent in the second half to finish at 42.6 percent for the game. FIU finished at 46.8 percent.

Sanchez Hughley made his FAU debut off the bench, returning from an injury. He played four minutes and went 0-for-1 from the floor, 0-for-2 from the line in four minutes.

UMKC 4-10

GAME 13: Western Kentucky 93, FAU 83 12/30/06 || 7 p.m. || FAU Arena || Boca Raton, FL

Hilltoppers Tough Out Win

DeAndre Rice finished with 16 points, Avery Holley added 14 and Derrick Simmons scored 12, but the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team couldn't pull out a victory at home against Sun Belt Conference power Western Kentucky as the Hilltoppers left Boca Raton with a 93-83 victory.

Preseason SBC Player-of-the-Year Courtney Lee would play just six minutes, hobbled by an ankle injury, but WKU got 27 points from Ty Rogers and 23 off the bench from Orlando Mendez-Valdez as the two combined to go 9-for-15 from behind the arc.

A three-point play by Graham with nine seconds left in the half gave the Owls a five-point lead at the half, 50-45.

Simmons had a team-high 11 at the half while Graham added 10 off the bench. Sean Alarcon hit a pair of threes and two technical free throws to give him eight at the break. Brent Crews had a game-high five rebounds after 20 minutes to go with seven points.

The Hilltoppers came out energized and were able to put a run together and eventually built a nine point lead. A three by Rice would keep the Owls in the game, 85-79 with four minutes left. Two Holley free throws would cut the lead to four, 85-81, with 3:45 to play.

The Owls would pull within five, 88-83, but Joyner would make a layup with 23 seconds remaining to seal the victory for Western Kentucky.

Offensive rebounds killed FAU (6-7, 2-1 SBC) in the game, especially down the stretch. Western Kentucky (11-4, 3-1 SBC) held a 23-9 offensive rebound edge, and a 47-30 rebounding edge overall.

GAME 14: New Orleans 86, FAU 93

Owls Diversify Attack, Pick up Road Win

Carlos Monroe made a huge splash in his return to the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team, as he carried the Owls to a 93-86 road win over the New Orleans Privateers.

The sophomore scored a career-high 26 points in his return, two shy of his career-high set earlier this year against Florida Memorial. He scored 10 straight points for the Owls down the stretch. DeAndre Rice added 18 points and Avery Holley scored 11. Both Rice and Holley added six assists and five boards. Paul Graham added to the diversified attack, scoring 16 points and added six helpers of his own.

The Owls would finish the half on a 8-2 run, spurred by a pair of threes from Paul Graham and Rice to head into the half up five, 47-42.

FAU did not commit a turnover in the first half until the 1:20 mark when McCalebb was able to strip Rice in the corner. UNO committed eight miscues in the opening frame.

FAU continued its offensive surge in the second frame, scoring the frame's first eight points and jumping out to a 55-42 lead with 17 minutes left in regulation. McCalebb would score UNO's first point of the second half on a free throw at the 16:58 mark, cutting FAU's lead to 55-43 and ending a 16-2 Owl run.

The Owls (7-7, 3-1 SBC) distributed 28 assists and committed just 10 turnovers, sending the Privateers (7-8, 3-1 SBC) to their first Sun Belt Conference loss. The win gave FAU back-to-back wins on the road for the first time this season.

GAME 15: South Alabama 101, FAU 76 1/6/07 || 7 p.m. || FAU Arena || Boca Raton, FL

Slow Start Grounds Owls

Carlos Monroe scored a career-high 29 points but the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team couldn't overcome a 25-point halftime deficit, dropping a 101-76 decision to South Alabama on Saturday.

Monroe was 13-for-19 from the floor and 3-for-3 from the free-throw line to go with eight rebounds. It was the fifth time in six games that Monroe has surpassed the 20-point mark.

DeAndre Rice scored 17 points despite a poor shooting night, thanks to a 10-for-13 night from the charity stripe. Paul Graham added 11 for FAU.

All five of South Alabama's starters finished in double-figures, led by Demetric Bennett's 25 and Carlos Smith's 20. The starting five accounted for 91 of USA's 101 points. Smith also finished with nine assists.

USA shot 58.2 percent from the floor, and an amazing 60.9 percent from behind the arc (14-23). FAU hit 48.0 percent of its shots but went just 3-for-17 from behind the arc (17.6 percent). A strong night at the free-throw line (25-for-30) helped the Owl cause.

The Jaguars (9-7, 3-2 SBC) held a 33-24 rebounding edge and committed just 11 turnovers while being credited with 21 assists.

FAU trailed by 25 at the break, 50-25, but played USA even in the second half, 51-51. It's the first time an Owl opponent scored more than 100 points in regulation since Mercer scored 107 on February 19, 2005.

GAME 16: Middle Tennessee at FAU 1/10/07 || 7 p.m. || FAU Arena || Boca Raton, FL

Blue Raiders Hold Off Owls

Poor shooting crippled the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team, and a last minute gasp couldn't save them as Middle Tennessee held on for a 72-68 victory at FAU Arena on Wednesday.

FAU shot 39.6 percent, but three consecutive makes inside 45 seconds remaining helped boost that number up. The Owls were near 35 percent for the majority of the contest. Equally painful was Florida Atlantic's night at the free throw line. The Owls shot 57.6 percent from the charity stripe, including a 10-for-22 effort in the second half.

Middle Tennessee, on the other hand, made 61.9 percent of its shots and hit 17-of-23 free throws.

Carlos Monroe finished with a team-high 17 points to go with seven rebounds. DeAndre Rice added 15 points and four boards, but the majority of his points came in the final three minutes. Jeff Parmer (12 points and eight rebounds) and Paul Graham (11 points) made strong contributions from the bench.

FAU entered halftime with a 32-29 lead despite shooting under 40 percent. Monroe led the FAU with 12 points at the half, while Parmer contributed eight points and six rebounds off the bench. Monroe, Rice and Kone each grabbed three boards.

Middle Tennessee opened the second half on a 17-4 run to sprint ahead, 50-38, with 13 minutes to go in the game. A wild series of threes and defensive stops in the game's final three minutes would allow FAU to trim the lead from 10 to as little as two, but MTSU's Nigel Johnson sank four free throws in the final 11 seconds to secure the final margin, 72-68.

GAME 17: Louisiana-Monroe 62, FAU 73 1/13/07 || 7 p.m. || FAU Arena || Boca Raton, FL

Offense Clicks in Owl Victory

DeAndre Rice, Paul Graham and Carlos Monroe all hit big buckets down the stretch and helped the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team come away with a 73-62 win against Louisiana-Monroe at FAU Arena on Saturday.

All three players came up with clutch three-point plays down the stretch in a game that was tight down the stretch after the Owls held an eight-point halftime lead.

In a revamped starting lineup, Monroe finished with a game-high 19 points and nine rebounds, while Jeff Parmer went 8-for-10 from the floor and finished with 18 points and seven boards. Graham and Rice finished with 14 and 12 points, respectively.

The Owls would open up a 13-point lead at the 3:15 mark, 35-22, on a layup by Graham, but the Warhawks would end the half on a 5-0 sprint to produce the halftime margin, 35-27.

The Warhawks had trimmed the lead to three, 44-41, at the 12-minute mark of the second-half on a pair of free throws by Lance Brasher and would tie the game at 44 on a triple by Brown on their next possession.

Graham hit a three to give FAU a six-point lead soon after, but ULM's James Perkins hit a three to answer and cut the lead in half. Monroe would convert an and-one on a layup to push the lead back to six, 66-60 with under three minutes remaining.

Monroe would convert the and-one opportunity following his own block at the other end to put FAU up by nine, 69-60, with 1:15 on the clock. A pair of free throws by Rice would increase the lead to 11 and put the Owls up for good.

GAME 18: Denver 90, FAU 85

1/18/07 || 9 p.m. || Magness Arena || Denver, CO

Pioneers Rally Late, Edge Owls

Carlos Monroe scored 23 points and grabbed 15 rebounds for his fourth-career double-double and DeAndre Rice scored 22 points but the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team couldn't overcome 38 free-throw attempts and a 50.0 percent shooting night by the University of Denver as the Pioneers held on for a 90-85 victory in Magness Arena on Thursday.

FAU shot 47.7 percent from the floor and 70.6 percent from the free-throw line, but with the game tied at 78 with 3:13 remaining, DU put together a 6-0 run thanks to a missed tip-in, a turnover and an offensive rebound and never looked back. Rice hit a three with 1:06 remaining to get FAU within three, 84-81, and a Monroe free throw would trim it to two, 84-82 with 29 seconds left.

The Owls were forced to foul in a comeback attempt, but DU hit all six of its free throws in the final 30 seconds. FAU held a 36-33 rebounding edge but Denver shot 38 free throws (26-for-38), compared to just 17 for FAU (12-for-17).

DU was led by DaShawn Walker's 25 points and Joseph Jackson added 21 off the bench. Walker went 5-for-12 from behind the arc to lead the Pioneer's 10-for-19 effort from deep. Paul Graham left the game after being fouled hard by Walker who was whistled for an intentional foul and is listed as day-to-day with a lower back injury. Head Coach Rex Walters was ejected at the 12:44 mark of the first half following his second technical. Assistant coach Mike Balado took over in his place.

Mean Green Surge Past Owls

DeAndre Rice scored 24 points but the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team allowed 52 second-half points to the University of North Texas to fall 76-59 at The Super Pit in Denton, TX on Saturday.

Rice's 14 points led FAU through the first 20 minutes, but no other Owl had more than five. Florida Atlantic shot 46.2 percent in the first half while holding to North Texas to just 29.0 percent, but UNT stayed in the game on the strength of forcing eight FAU turnovers while holding a 19-16 rebounding edge. The two teams would combine for just four field goals in the half's final nine minutes of the frame as the Owls held a 28-24 first-half lead.

North Texas opened the second half on an 11-3 run to take a 35-31 lead, and the Owls would never regain the lead. UNT's Calvin Watson would hit six threes in the second half after just two first-half points to lead the Mean Green charge. Quincy Williams added eight second-half points to finish with 12 while Michael Sturns would contribute 13 points off the bench.

Carlos Monroe was the only other Owl to finish in double-figures with 11 points, but struggled in a 5-for-16 shooting night. Jeff Parmer grabbed a team high seven rebounds to go with nine points.

GAME 20: Louisiana-Lafayette at FAU 1/24/07 || 7 p.m. || FAU Arena || Boca Raton, FL

Rice, Owls Claw Out Victory Against Ragin' Cajuns

Following a handful of late FAU turnovers that caused a 10-point lead to whittle down to just one, DeAndre Rice hit a big three and two even bigger free throws down the stretch against Louisiana-Lafayette as the Owls held onto the victory, 75-72, at FAU Arena.

Rice finished with 17 points while Carlos Monroe added 18. Paul Graham contributed 10 points in his return to the lineup.

The Owls sprinted out to a 9-2 lead as four different Owls got involved in the offense early. Louisiana-Lafayette would trim the lead down to one, 13-12, with 11:24 left in the first half after a three-point play by Derek Gray, but the Owls would storm back and stretch the lead back to 11, 27-16, with 7:03.

Monroe led the Owls with 10 points at the break. Rice added seven while Graham poured in six as FAU took a 38-28 halftime lead. ULL's David Dees led all scorers with 15 first-half points on the strength of a 7-for-7 first half at the free-throw line.

ULL crept back into it throughout the second half. Following a split pair of free throws the Ragin' Cajuns grabbed an offensive rebound which led to a layup by Dees, cutting the lead to two, 66-64, inside the four-minute mark.

After a pair of free throws and a steal by Monroe, Rice hit a three to balloon the lead back up to seven, 71-64. Lafayette would answer with a long two to shave the lead back to five with two minutes left in regulation and two more Dees free throws cut the lead back to three with 1:12 remaining.

The teams traded turnovers before a Graham jumper with 30 seconds left extended the lead back to five, but Dees would not go away as he hit the continuation of a three-point play to once again bring the Cajuns within two with 26 seconds remaining.

A turnover on the inbounds play would lead to a foul, putting ULL's Elijah Millsap on the line, who split the free throws and trimmed the lead to the slimmest of margins, 73-72.

With 12 seconds left, ULL put Rice on the line and the senior sank both free throws to push the margin back to three. A Dees triple at the horn was short, giving FAU the victory.

Owls Soar Past Trojans

DeAndre Rice scored 24 points, 15 in an offensive explosion during the second half, while Paul Graham added 18 as the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team pulled out a 75-71 win over UALR at FAU Arena on Saturday.

In addition to Rice and Graham, Derrick Simmons gave the Owls 15 points on 7-for-10 shooting off the bench when the team needed him the most - with the Owls other three interior players in major foul trouble. Carlos Monroe was limited to six points, but only attempted five shots in 22 minutes as the Trojans keyed on him.

The Owls were up 15-10, but with three of FAU's four post players in foul trouble early, they needed the bench to rise to the occasion. Simmons did just that, hitting two big shots inside to extend FAU's lead to nine, 19-10.

A 6-0 spurt capped by two inside baskets by Jones-Jennings cut FAU's lead to four, 29-25 as halftime approached, but Rice hit a huge three with 10 seconds on the clock to push the lead back to seven for the halftime margin.

Rice, Simmons and Graham each had nine points in the first half for FAU, while Jones-Jennings had nine for UALR.

Monroe, Jeff Parmer and Seydou Kone played just 17 minutes combined due to foul trouble in the first 20 minutes. Monroe led the Owls in rebounding with four despite seeing limited action (eight minutes) while Jones-Jennings, the nation's leading rebounder at 12.1 per game, grabbed a remarkable 11 rebounds by halftime.

UALR had trimmed the lead to five, 38-33 with 15 minutes remaining in regulation. A layup by Rashad Moss cut the lead down to three seconds later, the smallest margin since the Owls had a 10-7 lead with 12:52 left in the first half.

An Akins triple cut the lead down to just two, 44-42 with 11:10 left to play, a 9-0 FAU run extended the lead back to 11, 53-42. Another Rice three gave FAU a 12-point lead, 65-53, with under four minutes in regulation.

UALR's Jones-Jennings finished with another double-double, his nation-leading 14th, scoring a team-high 18 points and grabbing a startling 22 rebounds.

Indians Edge Owls

DeAndre Rice scored a career-high 32 points and Carlos Monroe added 22 points and 12 rebounds but Arkansas State made seven of its first nine three-point attempts in the second-half to overcome a halftime deficit against the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team, 84-77 at the Convocation Center on Wednesday.

Rice went 13-for-21 from the field, 3-for-9 from behind the arc, in his career performance. He tied a career-high with 38 minutes played and grabbed three rebounds. Monroe scored 22 points on 8-of-12 shooting and grabbed 12 rebounds.

Adrian Banks, who entered the game averaging 21 points as the Sun Belt Conference's second-leading scorer and top three-point shooter, had just three points at halftime but hit five of nine triple tries in the second half to catapult the Indians past the Owls. FAU led from the opening tip until a Banks three gave ASU its first lead of the game with 11:04 remaining in regulation and finished with 22 points, 18 of those coming on threes.

The Owls led 36-32 at the half after leading by as many as 12 in the early going. ASU's Ryan Wedel hit a three right before the break to bring the Indians close. Rice (16) and Monroe (10) combined for 26 of FAU's 36 first-half points.

ASU shot 59.4 percent in the second half, 8-of-13 from long range. FAU shot 46.7 percent in the final 20 minutes, but was just 1-for-9 from behind the arc and shot 17.6 percent from deep in the contest while ASU finished at 50.0 percent (11-for-22).

FAU won the battle of the boards, 39-31, but ASU went on a 13-7 run that started just inside the six-minute mark with the score 66-65 to pick up the win. After FAU had led the first 29 minutes of the game, the lead changed seven times and was tied three times in the final 11 minutes. FAU (10-12, 6-6 SBC) is now 3-10 on the road this season and has lost four in a row away from FAU Arena.

Rice Ties Scoring Record in Loss

DeAndre Rice tied a Florida Atlantic University men's basketball school record with 39 points but Troy University forced overtime and pulled out a 92-87 victory in Troy, AL on Saturday.

Rice went 12-for-24 from the floor, 10-for-16 from behind the arc, and grabbed three rebounds. The 10 made threes were one shy of FAU's school record. He has scored 71 points in his last two games and ties Earnest Crumbley for the school record for points in a single game. Crumbley scored 39 against Campbell on February 26, 2004. Brent Crews led Florida Atlantic with 10 rebounds while Paul Graham had a team-high seven assists. Carlos Monroe narrowly missed a double-double with 12 points and nine rebounds.

Troy had three players finish with more than 20 points led by Sammy Sharp's 25. Cedric Jackson added 21 and 10 rebounds while Richard Chaney scored 23 points.

FAU held a 42-40 halftime lead, but for the fourth-consecutive road game the Owls dropped a decision in which they were tied or led at the half.

The Owls took a six-point lead, 64-58, with 13:15 left in regulation on a pair of Rice free throws but the Trojans fought back to tie the game at 66 with 10:03 left. FAU rebuilt its lead to as many as nine, 78-69, with 5:47 left on two more free throws by Rice, but a 10-2 Trojan run had cut the lead to a single point, 80-79, after a pair of Jackson free throws with 3:55 remaining. Jackson was 10-for-10 from the charity stripe in the contest and the Trojans were 24-for-29 as a team. FAU attempted just 12 free throws, making 10.

A layup by Jeff Parmer gave FAU a three-point lead with 3:10 left, but a three by Boo Ramsey tied it up at 82 just 20 seconds later. Rice's 10th made triple of the night gave the Owls a three-point margin once again with 2:17 left, but Chaney's three with 28 seconds connected and sent the game to overtime as an off-balance shot at the buzzer by Rice was no good.

In the overtime, neither team was able to connect on a field goal attempt, but Troy made eight trips to the free throw line to FAU's two, and outscored the Owls 7-2 in the extra frame, including four clutch free throws by Chaney.

The Owls shot 45.7 percent in the game, 48.1 percent from deep and 83.3 percent from the line. The Trojans (9-12, 4-6 SBC) hit 43.3 percent of their field goals, 33.3 percent of their attempts from long range and 82.8 percent of their free throws.

Owls Snap Road Losing Skid

Carlos Monroe posted a double-double and four Florida Atlantic University men's basketball players scored in double-figures as the Owls ended a five-game road losing streak against Longwood University, 81-63 in Farmville, VA on Tuesday night.

"(Playing three road games in seven days) is about as tough a stretch as you can have," Head Coach Rex Walters said. "For us to come out tonight and be effective was big for our team."

In FAU's final regular-season non-conference game, the Owls outrebounded the Lancers 45-28 and shot 57.6 percent from the floor. Monroe finished with 21 points and 12 rebounds, while Jeff Parmer (16), Paul Graham (13) and DeAndre Rice (10) helped supplement Monroe's effort. Parmer also grabbed eight rebounds while Graham and Rice each were credited with five assists.

"We felt like we had a size advantage inside," Walters said. "Jeff is a kid who can play a lot of different positions for us and had a efficient night offensively."

Longwood's Maurice Sumter scored a game-high 24 points

The win improves FAU's road record to 4-11 and its non-conference record to 5-6.

Florida Atlantic (11-13) will return home to host Florida International on Saturday, a game that will be broadcast locally on CSS as part of the ESPN Regional package.

"It will be an exciting environment for us," Walters said. "But most importantly we need wins and need to play better basketball."

GAME 25: Florida International 78, FAU 85 2/10/07 || 6 p.m. || FAU Arena || Boca Raton, FL

Owls Get Big SBC Win Against Golden Panthers

DeAndre Rice continued his dominant play and Carlos Monroe posted a double-double as the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team swept the season series against Florida International, 85-78, at FAU Arena on Saturday.

The Owls picked up a 68-66 win in Miami, FL earlier this season on a Rice triple with under 10 seconds to play. The senior from Flint, MI duplicated his amazing effort in this game, scoring 29 points and went 10-for-11 from the field, 7-for-8 from beyond the arc. Monroe finished with 20 points and 11 rebounds on 8-of-14 shooting, while Paul Graham added 10 points. Derrick Simmons and Brent Crews each added nine.

"Seniors get a real sense of urgency as their final collegiate season winds down," FAU Head Coach Rex Walters said. "DeAndre is playing with that urgency right now and is playing at a very high level."

FAU shot 51.9 percent from the field as a team, 45.0 percent from beyond the arc. FIU connected at 50.9 percent, 38.1 percent from downtown and outrebounced the Owls, 33-31.

FIU was led by Johwen Villegas with 19 points as the Golden Panthers finished with four players in double-figures. Chris Fuller led Florida International with eight boards.

With the win, FAU improves to .500 in conference play at 7-7, 12-13 overall. The loss drops FIU to 4-10 in Sun Belt Conference action, 9-15 overall.

Monroe, Graham Lead Owls in Upset Over WKU

Carlos Monroe registered his third-consecutive double-double and Paul Graham came away with two critical steals in the final seconds as the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team walked into Bowling Green, KY and posted a huge win over Western Kentucky, 78-73.

Monroe was nearly unstoppable in the game, going 10-for-12 from the field and 6-for-10 from the line for 26 points while grabbing 12 rebounds - both game-highs. Graham gave FAU 17 points, but perhaps his biggest plays came on the other side of the ball, picking up two steals with less than 10 seconds left to secure the win.

The Owls shot a remarkable 60.0 percent from the field in both halves, making 30 of 50 attempts and scoring 50 points in the paint. In a game that featured a combined 32 turnovers (16 each), 16 ties and 12 lead changes, FAU made just enough plays to win. Something they hadn't done earlier in the season.

Jeff Parmer gave FAU 14 points while DeAndre Rice added 13. Graham led all players with five assists.

FAU had a four-point lead, 73-69, with 3:38 remaining in regulation. Back-to-back buckets by WKU tied the game at 73 with 1:43 left, but that was only the start of a wild finish.

Rice would miss a three just 13 seconds later, but Graham came up with an offensive rebound. Another Rice jumper came up short, but this time Monroe found the offensive board. The third time was a charm for the senior from Flint, MI, as Rice dribbled out the shot clock near mid-court before driving the lane and hitting a leaner to give FAU a two-point lead, 75-73, and just 32 seconds remained.

Parmer made what was seemingly the play of the night, when he took a charge on Lee in the paint on the other end with 22 seconds left. But the inbounds pass went astray, giving Western Kentucky the ball back with 21 seconds still on the clock. Great defensive work by Brent Crews forced the ball loose from Lee once again and Graham came away with the steal.

The sophomore from Philadelphia, PA would sink the first of two free throws to give FAU a three-point lead, and FAU never looked back. Two Monroe free throws gave the final margin.

MTSU Snaps FAU's Five-Game Win Streak

Derrick Simmons and Paul Graham scored 17 points apiece but the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team fell in its final regular-season contest, 79-59, at Middle Tennessee on Saturday.

The Owls hit just 38.1 percent of their field goals while allowing MTSU to hit 52.7 percent.

FAU trailed 36-28 at the half as MTSU used a diversified attack that saw seven players score at least four points. The Owls were led by Graham's 11 through 20 minutes. Carlos Monroe had seven points and six rebounds in the opening frame despite attempting just four field goals.

Monroe finished a single point shy of his 11th double-double of the season, scoring nine points and grabbing 11 boards in the contest. MTSU finished with four players in double-figures, led by Calvin O'Neil's 15.

The biggest difference in the game came down low, where the Blue Raiders outscored the Owls 34-4 in the paint in a physical contest. MTSU was also able to turn 19 FAU turnovers into 28 points, and led the entire game.

The Owls finish the regular season as the no. 6 seed for the upcoming Sun Belt Conference Tournament and will host no. 11 Florida International on Wednesday, February 28.

Owls Advance to Quarterfinals of SBC Tournament

It took a block at the end of regulation, the biggest crowd of the season, and a couple of huge stops for the Florida Atlantic University men's basketball team to overcome Florida International, 91-88, in overtime in the first round of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament at FAU Arena on Wednesday.

Carlos Monroe led the Owls with 26 points and 15 rebounds for his 11th double-double of the season, tied for second-most in a single campaign in FAU history. DeAndre Rice scored 23 points, and Jeff Parmer added 18 points and eight boards. Paul Graham contributed 17 points, giving the Owls four players in double-figures. In unfamiliar territory, the Owls trailed at halftime, 36-34. It was the first time FAU trailed at home after 20 minutes since January 26, 2006 vs. Lipscomb, a span of 16 games.

FIU's Alex Galindo came up with an offensive rebound with 51 seconds left and a chance to give his team a three-point lead, but he dropped the ball out of bounds and gave the Owls the lead.

Rice was fouled on the next possession. He would sink both and put the Owls in front, 80-79, with 40 seconds left, but Galindo would atone with a three pointer at the 25-second mark, putting the Owls down two.

Six seconds later, Rice would head to the free throw line after being fouled on a drive. He made both and tied the game at 82.

Monroe came up with a game-saving play, blocking Villega's shot underneath the basket with less than 10 seconds left. A jump ball would give the Owls possession with 2.2 seconds left. Rice's half-court shot was wide, sending the game to overtime.

A Monroe free throw was the first point of the overtime, 83-82, with 3:45 left. A Fuller tip-in with 2:40 remaining and a Mike James layup gave FIU a three-point lead with 2:20 left, but Rice cut the lead back to one with a layup 15 seconds later.

A Sean Alarcon swipe and score gave the Owls a 87-86 lead with 1:21 left in the extra frame. After a frenzy under the basket, a Monroe right hook gave the Owls an 89-88 lead with 30 seconds left. FIU's Fuller would miss a three with 12 seconds left.

A season-best crowd of 2,017 helped the Owls overcome a nine-point second-half deficit. It's the biggest crowd since February 4, 2002, when 2,110 fans packed FAU Arena.

Crews posted a career-high 11 assists before fouling out, and Rice had a career-best six swipes in the ball game.
