MEDIA GUIDE

ABOUT THE REDS COMMUNITY FUND

Since its inception in 2001, the Reds Community Fund (RCF) has used baseball and softball as a vehicle to enhance the lives of youth and to improve our community.

As a separate, independent 501(c)3 non-profit affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds, the RCF strives to create programming that connects underserved children ages 4–18 with baseball and softball while providing educational and personal development opportunities to help improve their futures.

Fundraising Events & Ways to Get Involved:

The RCF hosts several fundraising events and campaigns throughout the year to support its youth baseball and softball outreach programs and initiatives. Events include Split the Pot, Opening Day Block Party, Redlegs Run and Telethon.

Outreach Initiatives:

The RCF invests over $2 million annually and impacts more than 50,000 kids and coaches throughout Reds Country through programs like Reds Nike RBI, Fun At Bat, grant funding, field renovations and community makeover projects.

P&G MLB Cincinnati Reds Youth Academy:

This state-of-the-art, 33,000-square-foot facility featuring an indoor facility field, weight room, and four newly renovated ballfields serves as the home to all Reds Community Fund outreach programs, including free fall and winter clinics and activities.

2023 SEASON

- Was named to Baseball America's MLB All-Rookie team, along with IF Matt McLain and IF/OF Spencer Steer...no other team had more than 2 players recognized.
- Was an MiLB Organization All-Star, along with Reds teammates IF Elly De La Cruz, IF Christian Encarnacion-Strand and IF Matt McLain.
- Didn't debut until 6/5 but still ranked among the National League's rookie leaders in strikeouts (2nd), wins (T3rd), ERA (5th), starts (6th), lowest batting average against (6th, .244), lowest OPS against (6th, .741), innings pitched (T6th), WHIP (8th, 1.32) and lowest on-base percentage against (8th, .316).
- Was 1 of 16 players to make his Major League debut and 1 of 23 rookies to make at least 1 appearance for the Reds.
- In his 4-3 win on 7/2 vs SD recorded a career-high 12 strikeouts, tied for second-most by a Reds pitcher in 2023 (Nick Lodolo, 4/8 at Phi)...Hunter Greene recorded a team-high 14 strikeouts on 9/20 vs Min.
- Luke Maile caught 20 of his 21 starts, the only exception on 9/16 at NYM...in that 3-2 win was caught by Tyler Stephenson for the only time this season after Maile, the night before, was hit by a pitch on the back of his left hand.
- Produced 2 of the 3 longest scoreless streaks by a Reds pitcher this season (17.2ip from 6/5-6/16, 17ip from 7/15-7/31)...reliever Sam Moll finished the season with 20-game and 19.0-inning scoreless streaks, both staff highs.
- Began his career with 17.2 scoreless innings, a new club record since 1893, until Col's Brenton Doyle hit a leadoff HR in Abbott's fourth start...the previous team record was held by Wayne Simpson, who in 1970 began his Major League career with 15.0 scoreless innings.
- In the Expansion Era (since 1961), his 17.2-inning scoreless streak to begin his career tied for the 16th-longest such streak among all Major League pitchers...Athletics reliever Brad Ziegler ranks first on that list, with 39.0 scoreless innings to begin his career in 2008.
- In the Expansion Era (since 1961), his 17.2-inning scoreless streak to begin his career tied for the fourth-longest such streak among Major Leaguer starting pitchers (NYY's Luis Gil, 18.2ip in 2021; Bos' Vaughn Eshelman, 18ip in 1995; Bal's Tom Phoebus, 18ip in 1966; Oak's Vin Mazzaro, 17.2ip in 2009).
- Since the mound was moved to its current distance in 1893, became the first Major League pitcher to begin his career with 3 consecutive scoreless starts of at least 5.0 innings...@EliasSports.
- In his first 10 Major League starts, 5 times didn't allow a run...his 5 scoreless starts are the most in Reds history by a pitcher through his first 10 career starts.
- His 8 wins were the most by a Reds rookie lefthander since Tom Browning went 20-9 in 1985.
- Became the first Reds pitcher to win each of his first 3 Major League starts since RHP Wayne Simpson did it from 4/9-4/19, 1970...received no decision in his fourth appearance, a quality start in the 5-3 win vs Col...only 2 Reds pitchers began their careers by winning a minimum of their first 4 Major League starts, Billy Rhines in 1890 (6-0) and Santo Alcala in 1976 (5-0).
- Went 4-0 in his first 5 starts to become only the fourth Reds pitcher since 1893, when the mound was moved to its current distance, to begin his career with 4 or 5 wins without a loss in his first 5 starts (Mel D. Queen, 4-0 in 1967; Pat Zachry, 4-0 in 1976; Santo Alcala, 5-0 in 1976).
- Since 1912, when earned runs became an official statistic in the National League, his 1.90 ERA was the third-lowest by a Reds pitcher after 10 career starts (LHP Tom Browning, 1.65, 1984-85 & RHP Jim Konstanty, 1.89, 1944)...Abbott went 2-4, 6.42 in his last 11 starts.
- Became the first Reds pitcher to win his Major League debut since Hunter Greene did it on 4/10/22 at Atl (6-3 win) and the first lefthander to do it since Reiver Sanmartin did it on 9/27/21 vs Pit (13-1 win).
- Joined the Reds' Taxi Squad on 6/4...the next night vs Mil made his Major League debut after just 41 minor league apps (39gs, 14-7, 3.45)...in 10 starts for Chattanooga and Louisville prior to his promotion went 4-0, 2.50 (54ip, 33h, 17bb, 90k, .171baa).
- When promoted on 6/4 led minor league baseball in strikeouts (90k, 54ip).
- In his Major League debut, threw 6.0 scoreless innings to earn the 2-0 win vs Mil and snap the Reds' 4-game losing streak...became the only Reds pitcher since 1893, when the mound was moved to its current distance, to produce in his Major League debut at least 6.0 scoreless innings while allowing fewer than 2 hits...didn't allow a hit until Joey Wiemer doubled with 1 out in the top of the fifth inning...first career strikeout was Christian Yelich.

LEADING OFF

- The Reds held a lead in 11 of their first 12 games, second only to TB (13-0) and matching LAD, NYY, Sea and LAA.
- This year's team is only the 13th in franchise history to hold a lead in 11 of their first 12 games of the season (1988, 1986, 1980, 1978, 1973, 1970, 1958, 1941, 1940, 1919, 1913, 1898)...courtesy @EliasSports.
- No Reds team ever held a lead in each of their first 12 games of the season.

SHORT HOPS

- For the seventh consecutive year, the Reds started a different shortstop on Opening Day (Zack Cozart 2012-2017, José Peraza 2018, José Iglesias 2019, Freddy Galvis 2020, Eugenio Suárez 2021, Kyle Farmer 2022, Jose Barrero in 2023).
- It is the Reds' longest such streak since 1900 for that position.
- 3 previous times since 1900, there were stretches of at least 7 straight Opening Days without consecutive starts at shortstop by the same player (though not necessarily 7 different shortstops): 1906-1914 (Mike Mowrey, 2 starts), 1968-1974 (Dave Concepcion, 3 starts) and 2004-2012 (Alex Gonzalez, 2 starts)...notes courtesy @EliasSports.
- In 2022, Kyle Farmer led the Reds with 97 starts at SS...on 11/18/22, he was traded to the Twins for RHP Casey Legumina.

THE ONLY REDS

- LHP Andrew Abbott is the only Major League pitcher since 1893, when the mound was moved to its current distance, to begin his career with 3 consecutive scoreless starts of at least 5.0 innings...over his first 3 starts began his Major League career with 17.2 scoreless innings, a new club record since 1893...broke that team record held by Wayne Simpson, who in 1970 began his Major League career with 15.0 scoreless innings...@EliasSports.
- In the 10-inning, 5-4 win on 6/12 at KC, RHP Ricky Karcher became the only Reds pitcher since 1969, when the save became an official statistic, to record a save in his Major League debut...was 1 of 5 pitchers in the Major Leagues this season to record a save in his Major League debut, joining TB's Braden Bristo (4/13 vs Bos), Min's Brent Headrick (4/19 at Bos), SF's Keaton Winn (6/13 vs StL) and TB's Jacob Lopez (8/14 vs SF)...courtesy @EliasSports.

- Joey Votto on 8/21 reached 16.000 years of Major League Service.
- Became only the fifth active player with at least 16.000 years of MLS, joining Miguel Cabrera (20.074), Zack Greinke (19.030), Adam Wainwright (18.000) and Justin Verlander (17.146).

40

- In the 7-1 win on 9/10 vs StL, Joey Votto came off the 10-day injured list to become the seventh player in Major League history to homer on his 40th birthday (off Andrew Suárez), the first since Alex Rodriguez in 2015.

- Became the first Reds player to homer at age 40 since Jim Edmonds did it at age 40 years, 86 days on 9/21/2010 at Mil off Dave Bush.
- Votto homered on his birthday for the fourth time, the most by any Reds player on his birthday (Tony Perez, 3).

DOUBLE DIPPING

- The Reds played 3 day/night doubleheaders:
- On 8/13 at PNC Park the Reds and Pirates split a day/night DH.
- On 8/23 the Reds swept the Angels in Anaheim (9-4, 7-3 wins), their first sweep of a 9-inning doubleheader since 7/6/2014 vs Cubs (4-2, 6-5 wins) and their first sweep of a 9-inning doubleheader on the road since 6/5/1999 at KC (7-4, 9-4 wins).
- On 9/1 at Great American Ball Park the Reds and Cubs split at day/night twinbill.
- In the doubleheader on 8/23 at LAA, RHP Fernando Cruz became the first Reds player to pitch in both games of a doubleheader since RHP Matt Bowman did it on 5/27/2019 vs Pit.

2024 NOTES

OPPONENTS

Miami's Skip Schumaker was named 2023 National League Manager of the Year in voting of the national chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. For the seventh time in the NL and ninth time overall, the award went to a manager in his first full season in the Major Leagues. The other first-year NL winners were Houston's Hal Lanier (1986), San Francisco's Dusty Baker (1993), Florida's Joe Girardi (2006), Washington's Matt Williams (2014), Los Angeles' Dave Roberts (2016) and Arizona's Torey Lovullo (2017). The two first-year winners in the American League were Texas' Jeff Banister (2015) and Minnesota's Rocco Baldelli (2019). Schumaker is the fourth Marlins manager honored, joining Jack McKeon (2003), Joe Girardi (2006) and Don Mattingly (2020). In 2014 and 2015, Schumaker finished his 11-year Major League career while playing for the Reds.

HISTORY

Relief pitcher Alexis Díaz was the Reds' lone representative in the 2023 All-Star Game at T-Mobile Park in Seattle. He pitched the sixth inning of the National League's 3-2 win. Díaz was the first Reds reliever to make the All-Star team since Aroldis Chapman in 2015 and the Reds' first righthanded reliever since Francisco Cordero earned the honors in 2009. For the second consecutive season, Díaz received from the local chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America the Johnny Vander Meer Award as the Reds' Most Outstanding Pitcher. Also for the second straight year, he was a finalist for Major League Baseball's All-MLB Team. Díaz led the Reds in saves in each of his 2 Major League seasons and in 130 career appearances has posted a 2.47 ERA while converting 47 saves in 54 chances.

IMPORTANT DATES IN REDS HISTORY

- May 4, 1869 – The 1869 Cincinnati Red Stockings, the first all-professional team, kick off the regular season with a 45-9 win over the Great Westerns of Cincinnati.
- June 15, 1869 – In what was widely considered the greatest game in baseball history up to that time, the visiting Red Stockings defeated the powerhouse Mutual club of New York, 4-2.
- Nov. 6, 1869 – In the final official match of the season, the Red Stockings defeat the Mutuals of New York, 17-8, on Union Grounds. Baseball's first team of professionals finished the season with a perfect 57-0 record (although the team won more than 70 games, team captain Harry Wright only counted games against other National Association clubs as official).
- June 14, 1870 – After 130 consecutive games without a loss, Cincinnati falls to the Brooklyn Atlantics, 8-7, in extra innings. The streak includes 81 official games and 49 exhibitions.
- Feb. 2, 1876 – The National League is formed in New York City with Cincinnati as a charter member, along with Chicago, Boston, St. Louis, Hartford, Louisville, New York and Philadelphia.
- Oct. 8, 1880 – Cincinnati is expelled from the National League, due in part to its refusal to stop renting out their ballpark on Sundays and to cease selling beer during games.
- Nov. 2, 1881 – The American Association is formed in a meeting at the Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati, where the Reds will play for the next eight seasons.
- Sept. 16, 1882 – The Reds clinch the American Association pennant, winning the first league title by a professional team based in Cincinnati.
- April 17, 1889 – The first Opening Day "festivities" included ballpark decorations and a pre-game concert by the Cincinnati Orchestra.
- Nov. 14, 1889 – Cincinnati is granted re-admission to the National League, joining Boston, Brooklyn, Chicago, Cleveland, New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.
- April 22, 1891 – The first Opening Day parade is organized by new owner John T. Brush. The parade consists of Webber's military band and two large horse-drawn wagons, called Tally-ho's, which were occupied by the Reds and the opponent, the Cleveland Spiders.
- April 17, 1902 – One of the most ornately designed ballparks in Major League history, the "Palace of the Fans," hosts its first game.
- April 11, 1912 – Redland Field (later known as Crosley Field) hosts its first game as the Reds beat Chicago, 10-6. The official dedication of the ballpark was held May 18.
- Sept. 16, 1919 – The Reds clinch the first National League pennant in franchise history with a 4-3 victory over the Giants at Redland Field.
- Oct. 9, 1919 – The Reds win the franchise's first World Series, defeating the White Sox, 10-5, in Chicago to claim the eighth and decisive game of the best-of-nine series.
- April 16, 1934 – The Reds' board of directors rename Redland Field "Crosley Field" in honor of new team owner Powel Crosley Jr., a radio tycoon who bought the team on February 4 and assured fans that the team would stay in Cincinnati.
- June 8, 1934 – The Reds become the first team in Major League history to use an airplane to travel from one city to another. They flew from Cincinnati to Chicago.
- May 24, 1935 – The first night game in Major League history is played at Crosley Field. The Reds beat the Phillies, 2-1, before 20,422 fans.
- Jan. 27, 1937 – Crosley Field's playing surface is submerged under 21 feet of water due to local creek flooding. Reds pitcher Lee Grissom and groundskeeper Matty Schwab are photographed in a rowboat crossing the field.

REDS BALLPARKS THROUGH THE YEARS

UNION GROUNDS (1869-70)

Union Grounds served as the first home of baseball's original professional team. The park was located near the area now occupied by the Museum Center in the Union Terminal train station. Anchored by a grandstand called "Grand Duchess," the park could seat up to 4,000 fans.

AVENUE GROUNDS (1876-79)

The Reds headed two miles north from Union Grounds to erect Avenue Grounds, which featured a grandstand that could seat up to 3,000 fans. The ballpark was approximately four miles from the heart of the city's population, so horse-drawn streetcars and trains were a popular way to travel to the park.

BANK STREET GROUNDS (1880-83)

The Reds moved closer to the city with the opening of Bank Street Grounds prior to the 1880 season. The ballpark was located on the north side of Bank Street, south of Western Avenue and just west of McLean Avenue, and could seat up to 4,000 fans. Innovative scoreboard features included players' names and out-of-town scores.

LEAGUE PARK (1884-1901)

Originally called American Park (in reference to Cincinnati's membership in the American Association), the park was renamed League Park (in reference to the National League) in 1890. The park featured a covered grandstand with leather-cushioned seats and open seats along the first- and third-base sides.

PALACE OF THE FANS (1902-11)

Following a major fire, the Reds rebuilt the main grandstand of League Park in 1902. Today, baseball historians refer to the updated facility as Palace of the Fans. The park featured an illustrious grandstand with pillars and columns carved by hand, as well as 19 fashion boxes (much like opera boxes) and inexpensive field-level seating.

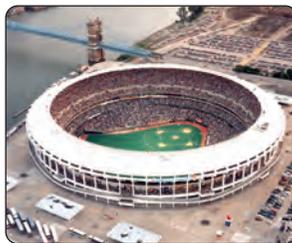

CROSLY FIELD (1912-70)

Originally named Redland Field and renamed in 1934, Crosley Field was the first Reds ballpark to feature a double-decked grandstand. The facility, located at the corner of Western Avenue and Findlay Street, was the site of baseball's first night game and hosted Cincinnati's first World Series Championship team.

RIVERFRONT STADIUM/CINERGY FIELD (1970-2002)

The Reds shared Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field with the NFL's Bengals until 1999. The multipurpose stadium, which could seat approximately 56,000 fans, was considered state-of-the-art upon its opening in June 1970. The facility hosted five pennant winners and three World Series Championship teams.

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK (2003-PRESENT)

On July 7, 2000, Great American Insurance Company, one of the oldest insurance companies in the United States, and the Cincinnati Reds, America's first professional baseball team, joined forces by announcing a 30-year agreement under which the new home of the Reds would be called Great American Ball Park. The facility, with room for more than 42,000 fans, includes a variety of seating and dining options, state-of-the-art sound and scoreboard systems and an array of historical elements scattered throughout. ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system provides a direct feed to scoreboard operations that includes a variety of in-game, season and career information about each player that can be shown on the scoreboards high above left center field and in right field.

The first black player in the Major Leagues, Jackie Robinson played for the Dodgers from 1947-56. The 6-time All-Star was National League Rookie of the Year in 1947 and NL Most Valuable Player in 1949. In 1997, the 50th anniversary of his debut, every team in baseball retired his number. The last Major League player to wear #42 was Yankees pitcher Mariano Rivera, who retired following the 2013 season.

1

FRED HUTCHINSON

Born: 8/12/1919 Birthplace: Seattle, WA Died: 11/12/1964 Number Retired: 1965

Fred Hutchinson's 443 victories and .544 winning percentage as Reds manager still rank among the club's all-time best. The Reds won at least 90 games in 3 of his 6 seasons and in 1961 took the National League pennant. But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only 3 years later by the sadness of Hutch's death. The courage, class and determination Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer. Hutch stepped down as Reds manager in 1964, and he died that November. The following year, Hutch's No. 1 became the first uniform jersey number in Reds history to be retired. Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-renowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a Major League ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past Reds winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Eric Davis, Bobby Tolan, Johnny Bench and Sean Casey.

JOHNNY BENCH

Born: 12/7/1947 Birthplace: Oklahoma City, OK Number Retired: 8/11/1984

Cincinnati's uniform No. 5 belongs to perhaps the greatest catcher ever to play in the Major Leagues. Johnny Bench ended his 17-year storied career in 1983 after earning a pair of Most Valuable Player Awards, 10 Gold Gloves and 14 All-Star Game selections. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989. Bench began his career by winning the 1968 National League Rookie of the Year Award. He ended his career with a .267 batting average and 389 homers, including 327 as a catcher that at the time stood as a record for NL catchers. On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers and RBI (1,376), second in extra-base hits (794) and total bases (3,644), fourth in runs scored (1,091) and fifth in hits (2,048) and doubles (381). He appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976, when the Reds swept the New York Yankees. He twice led the league in home runs (40 in 1972, 45 in 1970) and 3 times led the NL in RBI (148 in 1970, 125 in 1972, 129 in 1974).

He won his first MVP award in 1975, when he guided the Reds to a World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox. Morgan batted .327 with 67 stolen bases that season. He was MVP again in 1976, as the Reds roared to their second straight World Series championship with a 4-game sweep of the New York Yankees. That season he hit .320 with 60 stolen bases. Morgan remains the Reds' all-time stolen base leader (406), and his 266 home runs as a second baseman rank fourth in baseball history behind Jeff Kent, Ryne Sandberg and Robinson Canó. He finished his 22-year professional career with 268 homers, 1,133 RBI and 689 stolen bases for the Astros, Reds, Giants, Phillies and Athletics.

In 1975 and 1976, Rose captained the Big Red Machine to World Series championships over the Yankees and Red Sox and in '75 was named the Fall Classic's MVP. His 44-game hitting streak in 1978 still stands as the third-longest in Major League history.

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK PLAYER STATUES

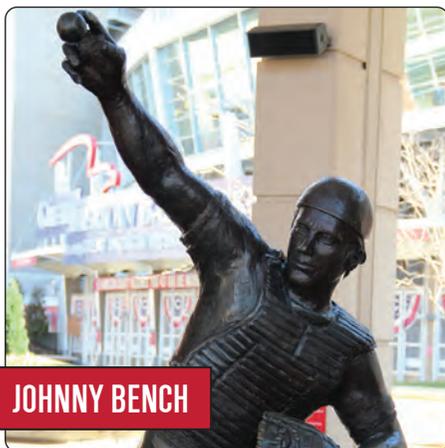

The home of the Reds features many visible acknowledgements of the club's rich history. Notable among them are the seven statues of Reds greats positioned near the park's entry gates. The first four statues installed at the ballpark feature players from the Crosley Field era while the others represent three of the legends from the Big Red Machine club of the 1970s. Each of the statues was created by nationally-renowned artist Tom Tsuchiya. In addition to the Reds, Mr. Tsuchiya has produced works of art for Major League Baseball, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and the National Football League.

TOM TSUCHIYA
CROSLY ERA STATUES

The four statues located at Great American Ball Park's Crosley Terrace main entrance represent four players that a fan vote determined best represented the Reds during the 1912–1970 Crosley Field era. The statues are positioned on a contoured field that evokes Crosley's famous outfield incline which was dubbed "the terrace." The scene depicts Joe Nuxhall pitching to Frank Robinson with Ernie Lombardi serving as Nuxhall's battery mate. Standing on-deck, awaiting his turn at the plate, is Ted Kluszewski. The Kluszewski, Nuxhall and Robinson statues were dedicated during Great American Ball Park's inaugural season in 2003. The Lombardi statue followed in 2004.

BIG RED MACHINE STATUES

JOHNNY BENCH

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2011

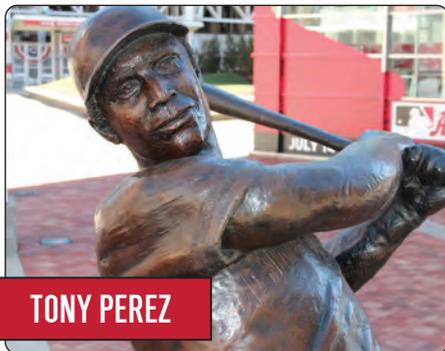

The subject of the first statue commissioned by the Reds Hall of Fame was Johnny Bench, the Big Red Machine's catcher who has been called "Baseball's Greatest Catcher." Known for having one of the most powerful throwing arms in the history of the game, the statue depicts Bench in the act of gunning down a runner trying to steal a base. The statue is located in the Hall of Fame Breezeway, just outside the main entrance to the Reds Hall of Fame on the West side of Great American Ball Park.

JOE MORGAN

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2013

Located at the corner of Joe Nuxhall Way and Second Street on the northwest corner of Great American Ball Park, the Joe Morgan statue captures the Reds' modern era leader in career stolen bases as he breaks for second base on a steal attempt. Possessing a combination of power, speed and superlative defensive skills, Morgan is widely considered to be the best second baseman in baseball history.

TONY PEREZ

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2015

One of the most beloved players in Reds history, Tony Perez was one of the great clutch hitters of his era and was the Big Red Machine's most reliable run producer. Perez's statue depicts "The Big Dog" in the follow-through of his home run swing in the seventh game of the 1975 World Series. Perez's home run sparked the Reds' comeback in the decisive contest that ended with the Reds clinching the first of back-to-back World Championships. The statue is located on Joe Nuxhall Way, near the entrance to the Reds Team Shop. Mounted atop the building directly across the street from the statue is a baseball that appears to be soaring over the building, just as Perez's World Series home run flew over the top of Fenway Park's "Green Monster" in 1975.

PETE ROSE

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2017

The fourth and final statue in the Big Red Machine series that began with the dedication of the Johnny Bench statue in 2011, the Pete Rose statue was dedicated in 2017 and is adjacent to the Tony Perez statue at the entrance to Great American Ball Park. This tribute to the Cincinnati native and all-time career hits leader depicts Rose in his trademark head first slide. Engineers from GE Aviation were enlisted to construct a special internal frame that allows the statue to accurately depict Rose "in flight."

SEPTEMBER 16, 1988: ONE PERFECT NIGHT

In a 1-0 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers on September 16, 1988, lefthander Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history.

It was only the 14th perfect game of 9 innings or more in Major League history, just the third in modern National League history and the first no-hitter by a Reds pitcher since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals, 4-0, on June 16, 1978.

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

 Game 1 of the 2010 National League Division Series at Citizens Bank Park. Roy Halladay's no-hitter was only the second no-hitter in Postseason history, joining Don Larsen's perfect game for the Yankees vs Brooklyn in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series. Halladay allowed only 1 baserunner, a walk to Jay Bruce with 2 outs in the fifth, and threw first-pitch strikes to 25-28 batters.

On 4/21/2016 at Great American Ball Park, Cubs RHP Jake Arrieta threw a no-hitter vs the Reds...prior to that 16-0 loss, the Reds had produced at least 1 hit in 7,109 consecutive regular season games, the longest active streak in the Major Leagues at that time...between no-hitters by Phi's Rick Wise on 6/23/1971 at Riverfront Stadium and Arrieta on 4/21/2016 at GABP, the Reds were held to 1 hit 33 times during the regular season...according to Elias Sports Bureau, the 16 runs scored by the Cubs were the second-most ever produced in a no-hitter...Pud Galvin of the Buffalo Bisons beat the Detroit Wolverines, 18-0, on August 4, 1884.

POSTSEASON

The Reds most recently participated in the playoffs following a 2020 season shortened to 60 games by a global pandemic fueled by the COVID-19 virus, earning 1 of 8 National League playoff spots for their only Postseason berth since 2013. From 2010–2013, the Reds appeared in the Postseason in 3 of 4 seasons, including NL Central Division championships in 2010 and 2012 and a berth in the 2013 Wild Card Game. In club history, that Postseason stretch is matched only by the teams that made 6 playoffs during the Big Red Machine era (1970, '72, '73, '75, '76, '79).

"1919 Black Sox Scandal"

Chicago White Sox Pitcher Eddie Cicotte and outfielder Shoeless Joe Jackson tearfully confessed to a Cook County grand jury that they and third baseman Buck Weaver, center fielder Oscar (Happy) Felsch, first baseman Arnold (Chick) Gandil, utility infielder Fred McMullin, shortstop Charles (Swede) Risberg and pitcher Claude (Lefty) Williams had conspired with known gamblers, allegedly including Arnold Rothstein, to throw the 1919 World Series.

While none of the 8 players were convicted in court, all were banned from the game for life by the first commissioner of baseball, former Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

Weaver, who had known about the conspiracy from the beginning, refused to participate and batted .324 in the World Series. He was banned, however, for not exposing his teammates. Jackson, who admitted taking $5,000, batted .375 with a homer and 6 RBI.

Risberg committed 4 errors and batted .080, but did not receive a cent. Gandil - the organizer of the scam - walked away with $30,000 and immediately announced his retirement. Cicotte lost 2 of his 3 starts and earned a $10,000 payday. He later told the jury it was not worth the effort.

POSTSEASON

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS 3, CINCINNATI REDS 2

Summary

The Giants became the first team in Major League history, under the 2-3 format, to lose the first 2 games of the 5-game series at home and win the last 3 games on the road...also became the first National League team to win a Division Series after trailing 2-0 and the eighth team overall to win a best-of-5 series after facing that deficit...was only the second time in a baseball Postseason series of at least 5g in which the visiting team won every game (Rays vs Rangers, 2010 ALDS)...there has been only 1 such instance in NBA history (Nets vs 76ers, 5-game 1984 first round) and none in the NHL...the Reds lost 3 consecutive games at Great American Ball Park for the first time all season...Ryan Ludwick led all players with 3 homers, the second-highest total by a Reds player during any single Postseason (Tony Perez, 4hr, 1975)...Dusty Baker, whose Giants won the 2002 NL pennant, became the third manager to oppose in a Postseason series a franchise he previously led to the World Series...Joe McCarthy managed the Yankees to sweeps of the Cubs in the 1932 and 1938 Fall Classics, and Billy Martin's A's were swept by the Yankees in the 1981 ALCS.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL RULES OF INTEREST

Calculating the “Magic Number”: Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit-by-pitch, by at-bats + walks + hit-by-pitch + sacrifice flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. EXCEPTION: The “must-pitch-five-complete-innings” rule in respect to the starting pitcher shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:

- (1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.
- (2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.
- (3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.

(4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions;

- (1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher.
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Rain Delays: Pursuant to Rule 3.10(a), the manager of the home team shall be the sole judge as to whether a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather conditions or the unfit condition of the playing field, except for the second game of a doubleheader. Pursuant to Rule 3.10(c), the umpire in chief shall be the sole judge as to whether and when a game shall be suspended and as to whether and when play will be resumed. An umpire shall not call a game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as he believes there is any chance to resume play.

National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days of service time constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues.

Rookie Status at the Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings-pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the Major League 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).

BASEBALL IN GOODYEAR

In 2010 the Reds moved their spring training and player development operations to the west Phoenix, Arizona suburb of Goodyear.

The club made the move from Sarasota, Florida, where it had trained since 1998.

In addition to the spring training and player development operations, Goodyear serves as the summer home for the Reds' rookie Arizona League affiliate.

Spring training games are played at nearby Goodyear Ballpark, a facility the Reds share with the Cleveland Guardians.

On July 14, 2008 the Reds and the City of Goodyear finalized the terms on a binding use agreement that paved the way for the team to move its spring training facilities there in 2010. The team and city broke ground on November 17, 2008.

The agreement includes a 20-year lease that began in 2010 and two 5-year team options.

The Reds' Player Development Complex on South Wood Boulevard includes a 44,000-square foot clubhouse, 6 full practice fields, 2 half fields and an agility field.

The main ballpark seats more than 10,300 fans, including 500 premium box seats, 8,000 fixed seats and space for 2,000 spectators on a grassy berm in the outfield.

The original plans called for the stadium to be the centerpiece of Ballpark Village, a mixed-use development featuring offices, shops, restaurants, housing, hotels and a conference center.

The Guardians' instructional league team moved to Goodyear in September 2008, while their first Major League spring training camp was held in the new shared facility in February 2009.
