José Ramírez unveils José Ramírez Field in the Clark/Fulton neighborhood in Cleveland

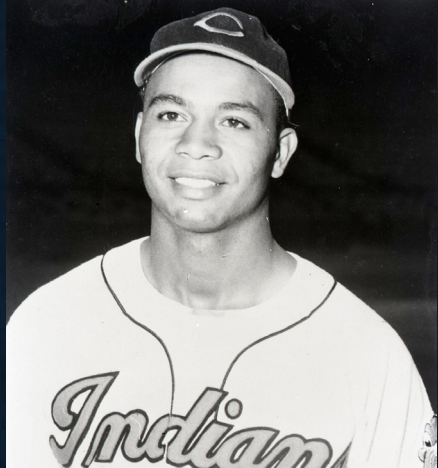

On the morning of August 22nd, 2023, Guardians star third-baseman, José Ramírez helped unveil the newly completed José Ramírez Field during a ribbon cutting ceremony attended by his teammates, family, and local & national media.

Ramírez partnered with the City of Cleveland, and Cleveland Guardians Charities (CGC) to fund a new Fields for the Future project at Clark Field in Cleveland. The CGC Fields for the Future program was created to improve the field conditions for youth baseball and softball players in the City of Cleveland and includes a significant donation from Ramírez. The field is in the Clark-Fulton neighborhood of Cleveland, which has the highest Hispanic population in the state of Ohio. Giving back to the Hispanic community in Cleveland was a valuable factor in Ramírez choosing to help fund this project, which will play host to many youth baseball programs in the Cleveland area.

Lawrence Eugene Doby awarded Congressional Gold Medal

On what would have been Larry Doby's 100th birthday, Doby was posthumously honored with the Congressional Gold Medal in a ceremony at the National Statuary Hall at the U.S. Capitol. The medal is the highest civilian award in the United States, alongside the Presidential Medal of Freedom. The Doby family accepted a newly minted gold coin, where the inscription on the reverse side reads: "We are stronger together as a team, as a nation, as a world".

Doby, a U.S. Navy veteran who served during World War II, became the first African American player to play in the American League, signing with Cleveland and appearing in his first game on July 5, 1947. He also became the second African American manager in Major League Baseball history in 1978.

History of Cleveland Names

1865-72 FOREST CITYS
Cleveland was known as the Forest Citys, playing in the . National Association (1871-1872) and National Amateur Association (1868-1870)

1879-84, 1887-88 BLUES
Played in the National League and American Association

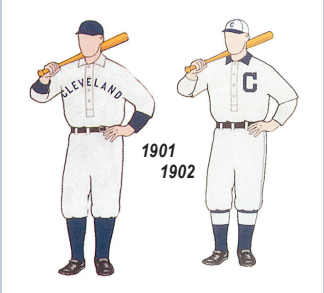

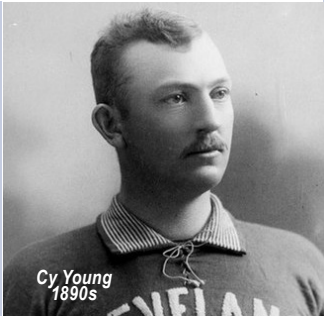

1889-99 SPIDERS
The 1889 Cleveland club was comprised of so many tall and skinny players, the management decided to accent their features, and changed the name of the club to Spiders.

1901 BLUES
Referring to the bright blue uniforms worn by the team for inaugural 1901 AL season and nod to first NL club.

1902 BRONCHOS
The 1902 Cleveland players didn't like the name Bluebirds. They voted and chose the more forceful nickname Bronchos.

1903-14 NAPS
The team discarded the blue uniforms and a local daily newspaper sponsored a naming contest. "Naps" was selected in honor of Napoleon Lajoie.

1915-2021 INDIANS
Upon Lajoie leaving Cleveland for Philadelphia following the 1914 season, team officials determined a new name was in order for the 1915 season. According to The Plain Dealer of January 17, 1915, team owner Charles W. Somers invited the Cleveland baseball writers to help in the selection of a new club name. The writers solicited their readers for suggestions. Through this process the name "Cleveland Indians" was selected. "Indians" was one of the names used by the National League club of the 1890s.

The old National League club began to be referred to as the "Indians" upon the arrival of Louis Francis Sockalexis, a Penobscot Indian from Old Town, Maine, who was a member of that club in 1897.

An additional factor that may have weighed in on the name decision was the stunning 1914 World Series Champion Boston Braves, going from last place in July to World Series winners in October.

2022- GUARDIANS
The organization announced their decision to begin the process of changing from team name "Indians" on December 14, 2020, reaching a decisive conclusion on July 23, 2021. While inspired by the iconic sculptures of the Hope Memorial Bridge, the Guardians name is a reflection of the traits we, as Clevelanders, take pride in the most—fierce loyalty, unwavering support and a resolve to stand side-by-side through thick and thin. As a team, as an organization, as citizens of Cleveland, we hope to protect and preserve all that we love about our city and neighboring communities.

Bob Feller Act of Valor Award

PROGRESSIVE FIELD

Progressive Insurance purchased the naming rights to the ballpark on January 11, 2008.

Historians are certain to identify the year 1994 as a significant time in the history of the city of Cleveland. The Gateway Sports and Entertainment Complex, consisting of Progressive Field (formerly Jacobs Field), the current home of the Guardians, and Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse, will be remembered as the crown jewel in the city's ever-changing urban landscape.

Gateway was made possible by its own 50/50 public/private partnership - through the support and cooperative efforts of the Cleveland business community, government, the Guardians, our neighbors the Cavaliers, sports fans, and most importantly, the people of Cuyahoga County.

Progressive Field is an urban ballpark in the truest sense, both architecturally and aesthetically. Built within the physical boundaries of the three main streets in downtown Cleveland (Ontario to west, Carnegie to south, and East 9th Street to the east), Progressive Field offers a fan-friendly facility featuring an intimate environment. The exposed steel design, which matches that of the many bridges on the north coast, and the vertical light towers, which match the smoke stacks of Cleveland's industrial zone and the high-rise office buildings in the city's downtown area, are just a couple of Progressive Field's architectural features that blend with Cleveland's cityscape.

Progressive Field initially opened its gates to fans on Saturday, April 2, 1994 for an exhibition game against the Pittsburgh Pirates, but the official opener occurred on Monday, April 4, 1994. Cleveland came from behind in exciting fashion to defeat the Seattle Mariners 4-3 on an 11th-inning walk-off single by Wayne Kirby. The opener included all of the pageantry of Opening Day, highlighted by President Bill Clinton throwing out the first pitch.

Two Cleveland institutions - the Cleveland Guardians and Progressive Insurance - joined forces on January 11, 2008 to help bring the excitement of championship baseball to fans everywhere. The ballpark that was tabbed as Jacobs Field in 1994 is now Progressive Field.

Progressive, a leading car, motorcycle and commercial auto insurer, partnered with the Guardians on a 16-year deal for the naming rights to the ballpark and also became the Official Auto Insurer of the Cleveland Guardians. Progressive's payments to the Guardians over the 16-year term of the agreement were expected to average approximately $3.6 million annually.

Now entering its 31st season with an array of privately-financed structural and technological ballpark enhancements, Progressive Field has played host to the World Series on three occasions (1995, 1997 & 2016), Postseason play 13 times (1995-1999, 2001, 2007, 2013, 2016-18, 2020, 2022) - 53 home games), and the 1997 and 2019 All-Star Games. It led Major League Baseball in attendance in 2000, sold out prior to Opening Day five seasons (1996-2000), set a Major League record for consecutive sellouts with 455 and has entertained over 62 million fans during the regular season.

A three-year series of renovations from 2015-17 significantly enhanced the fan experience at Progressive Field, updating the in-park entertainment experience while re-imagining communal spaces throughout the ballpark (The Corner Bar, Kids Clubhouse, drink rail areas). More renovations are expected for the 2024 and 2025 campaigns.

The recent 15-year lease agreement agreed to during the 2021 seasons now extends the Guardians occupancy of Progressive Field to at least 2036, with the potential for 10 additional years to 2046, building upon one of the longest successful partnerships between a team and the public in all of sports. New updates began after the 2022 seasons, transforming the left field experience and Terrace Club, re-imagining the upper deck concourse, creating a larger, more engaged social space in the seating area behind home plate, and clubhouse/front office building renovations work during the next two offseasons.

SENIOR EXECUTIVES

CHRIS ANTONETTI PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Now entering his 26th year as a member of the Cleveland Guardians franchise, Chris Antonetti begins his ninth full season as President of Baseball Operations after being elevated to the position on October 6, 2015. The 2024 campaign will mark his 14th overseeing the club's Baseball Operations after spending five seasons as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager from 2011-15.

Antonetti, 49, has worked with GM Mike Chernoff and teammates across the organization to build a foundation for sustained success by seeking to maximize all avenues of player acquisition and development, while also cultivating an organizational culture that supports continual learning and growth.

Chris guided a reshaping of Cleveland's Major League club prior to the 2013 campaign, which began with the hiring of Terry Francona, a two-time World Series champion with more than 30 years of professional baseball experience, as manager on Oct. 8, 2012. In the 11 years that followed, Cleveland posted the American League's 2nd-best record (.549, 921-757) – 3rd-best in the Majors overall – highlighted most notably by four A.L. Central titles (2016-18, 2022) and six MLB Postseason appearances that saw the organization advance to the 2013 A.L. Wild Card Game, 2016 World Series, 2017 A.L. Division Series, 2018 A.L. Division Series, 2020 Wild Card Series and 2022 A.L. Division Series. Over the last 11 seasons beginning with 2013, Cleveland has played a combined total of just 27 regular season games outside of Postseason contention, including only 8 games through 2020. That stretch began with an eight-year span (2013-20) that saw Cleveland post eight consecutive winning seasons and the A.L.'s best record by a six-win margin (.565, 673-519). Cleveland was one of only four MLB teams – two in the A.L. – with eight straight winning seasons from 2013-20 in what was the longest such streak for the franchise since 1994-2001 (8). In recognition of recent organizational accomplishments, Antonetti was named 2016 Executive of the Year by Baseball America following the club's World Series run and 2017 Executive of the Year by Sporting News after Cleveland achieved its third 100-win campaign (102-60) in the now 123-year history of the franchise; Antonetti was named Sporting News Executive of the Year again in 2022, as the youngest roster in MLB came within one win of advancing to the A.L. Championship Series. Following the on-field retirement of Francona, who transitions to a Senior Advisor role in 2024 as Cleveland's all-time winningest manager, Antonetti led a collaborative recruitment process that tabbed Stephen Vogt as the 45th skipper in franchise history.

Over a nine-year period from 2002-10, Chris assisted with significant rebuilding efforts as both Assistant GM (January 2002) and, later, Vice President of Baseball Operations (March 2007) that were rewarded when Cleveland led Major League Baseball in wins and advanced to the 2007 A.L. Championship Series. He originally joined the Guardians organization prior to the 1999 season as an assistant in the Baseball Operations Department and was promoted to Director of Major League Operations in August 2001.

Chris began his career in professional baseball in the summer of 1997 as an intern with the Montreal Expos in West Palm Beach, FL. He was later hired as Assistant Director of Player Development with the Expos in November 1997 and served in that position until joining the Cleveland staff.

Antonetti graduated magna cum laude from Georgetown University in 1996 with a degree in Business Administration and earned a master's degree from the University of Massachusetts in Sport Management the following year. At Georgetown, he was a student manager for the men's basketball team for one-and-a-half years under John Thompson, Jr. Chris currently serves on the MLB Club Executive Committee for The Players Alliance, which was formed in 2020.

Chris and his wife, Sarah, live in Rocky River, Ohio with their daughters, Mya and Ella.

Mike and his wife, Sarah, reside in Beachwood, Ohio with their sons, Brody and Owen, and daughters, Arielle and Saige. His father, Mark, retired in 2022 as Vice President of Programming for WFAN in New York City following an illustrious radio career that spanned four decades.

Prior to the 2022 campaign, his title was expanded to include "Executive Vice President", as Forman's current role supports Chris Antonetti and Mike Chernoff with the co-management of all aspects of Baseball Operations. Among other responsibilities, Forman helps to lead the organization's efforts at the Major League level along with scouting and player acquisitions, player development and performance, and R&D and information systems.

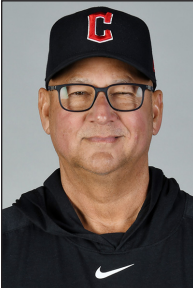

Prior to his promotion to EVP, Forman led the organization's scouting departments (Amateur, Professional & International) and player acquisition processes. Forman also previously held several leadership roles within the club's Baseball Operations department.

Forman's tenure with the Guardians began in 2013 after graduating from Northwestern University in 2011. Matt resides in Rocky River, Ohio with his wife, JoHanna, and their daughters, Olivia and Caroline.

GUARDS POST

Played football as a freshman in high school and was a wide receiver and outside linebacker. Played two years but then broke his wrist and surgery, ending his football career.

Favorite hobbies are going to the beach and playing video games. Listens to Led Zeppelin and Red Hot Chili Peppers due to his parents' influence as a child. First concert was the Rolling Stones.

Studied sociology at UC Santa Barbara and is still working on finishing his degree. Did not receive a scholarship until his junior year. He would have gone into law enforcement like his Dad if he was not playing baseball.

MLB debut was one of the best days of his life because it was also his 23rd birthday. Got the news in Gwinnett, GA when Steve Karsay called him in his office to go over video. Chris Tremie then walked in and was like "look at who is in the video". Then Shane realized the footage was from the Twins and told him he was going to be starting there on Thursday. Talents include juggling and skateboarding.

- ◆ Despite making final start of the first half on 6/13 (vs. Seattle, 5ER/10H/5.2IP) and being on the IL for the All-Star Game, Bieber was named an All-Star for the 2nd time in 3 years.

CLEVELAND GUARDIANS HALL OF FAME

The Cleveland Guardians Hall of Fame, baseball's oldest team hall of fame, was established in 1951 to recognize those players who achieved greatness in a Cleveland uniform. Selected by a committee consisting of baseball historians, writers, broadcasters and executives, inductees must have been active at least three seasons for Cleveland and be retired at least one year. It consists of 47 alumni.

In 2009, the organization established the Distinguished Hall of Fame to honor those non-uniformed personnel whose contributions made a significant impact on the fortunes of the franchise.

NEGRO LEAGUERS WHO PLAYED WITH CLEVELAND

No team brought more players from Negro League baseball to Major League Baseball than Cleveland. Beginning with Larry Doby in 1947, 15 former Negro Leaguers began careers with Cleveland, concluding with Joe Caffie who debuted for Cleveland on September 19, 1956. In alphabetical order, the Negro Leaguers to debut with Cleveland are Walt Bond, Caffie, Doby, Luke Easter, Billy Harrell, Dave Hoskins, Sam Jones, Minnie Minoso, Satchel Paige, Dave Pope, Larry Raines, Jose Santiago, Harry Simpson, Al Smith, and Quincy Troupepe.

GOLD AT SECOND, SHORT, AND THIRD

With 3 Gold Glove infielders in 2000 (Robbie Alomar, Omar Vizquel, and Travis Fryman), Cleveland joined a select circle. Only one other franchise has had the Gold Glove winners at second base, shortstop, and third base in the same season. In 1969 and 1971, the Orioles captured Gold Gloves at all three positions (Second Baseman Dave Johnson, Third Baseman Brooks Robinson, Shortstop Mark Belanger) and did so again from 1973-75 (Second Baseman Bobby Grich, Robinson, Belanger).

GOLDEN '22

In 2022, the Cleveland Guardians earned four Gold Gloves (Shane Bieber, Myles Straw, Steven Kwan, Andrés Giménez), setting a club record. Marked the first time an AL club garnered four awards since the 2003 Seattle Mariners (St. Louis netted five in 2021) and just the second since 1976. Overall, the Guardians are the eighth American League team to net four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards in the same season since its inception in 1957. Cleveland’s previous club record of three came in 2000 (see above).

CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

Only once has Cleveland had a stretch of winning seasons longer than the run of eight years from 1994-2001 again, 2013-2020. Cleveland had a winning record for 10 consecutive seasons from 1947 through 1956.

THE WINNINGEST DECADE

Cleveland won 904 games during the 1950s (1950-1959), the winningest decade in club history. Cleveland's 823 wins in the 1990s (1990-1999) were one win short of matching the 1930s (1930-1939) as the second winningest decade in franchise history.

CLEVELAND ALL-STAR REVIEW

TOP THREE ALL-STAR CROWDS

72,086 at Cleveland Stadium on August 9, 1981

69,831 at Cleveland Stadium on July 8, 1935

68,751 at Cleveland Stadium on July 13, 1954

GAME ONE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 8, 1935, American League 4, National League 1

A crowd of 69,831 - the largest throng to see an All-Star Game (until 1981 in Cleveland) - packed the lakefront Stadium for just the third Mid-Summer Classic in history. The partial American League crowd was thrilled to a 4-1 junior circuit victory, the A.L.'s third straight All-Star win.

Jimmy Foxx belted a two-run homer in the first inning, and the American Leaguers coasted to the win as Lefty Gomez and Mel Harder baffled the National League hitters.

GAME TWO AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 13, 1954, American League 11, National League 9

In a spectacular slugfest that set All-Star marks for runs and hits by the two clubs, the American League edged the National, 11-9. The affair produced six home runs, including three by the A.L. Cleveland All-Stars. Al Rosen clubbed a pair of homers, while he and his Cleveland teammates, Bobby Avila and Larry Doby, combined for eight RBI.

The 1954 matchup was a wild seesaw contest that saw the lead change six times before the A.L. pulled out the 11-9 win with a three-run rally in the eighth. Ironically, it was Nellie Fox's broken-bat single over second base with the bases loaded in the eighth that provided the margin of victory.

GAME THREE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 9, 1963, National League 5, American League 3

After four years as a double feature, the All-Star Game went to a single performance and saw the National League utilize its speed and gain its first Cleveland Stadium win, 5-3.

Willie Mays was easily the game's outstanding performer, going 1-for-3 with two RBI, two runs scored, two stolen bases, a walk and the game's most scintillating catch. 44,160 fans saw the action.

GAME FOUR AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - August 9, 1981, National League 5, American League 4

An all-time record All-Star Game crowd of 72,086 welcomed back baseball from the 50-day players strike and saw the National League edge the American, 5-4. The 72,086 fans gave Cleveland the top three crowds in All-Star history.

Gary Carter clubbed two home runs, including a seventh inning solo shot to put the National Leaguers ahead to stay. Cleveland's Lenny Barker faced just six batters in his two innings of work, striking out one.

GAME FIVE AT JACOBS FIELD - July 8, 1997, American League 3, National League 1

Cleveland hosts the 68th Mid-Summer Classic for a fifth time as Sandy Alomar hit a two-out, two-run homer off SF LHP Shawn Estes in the 7th inning, breaking a 1-1 tie. Alomar sent 44,945 fans home happy, becoming the first Cleveland player ever to win an ASG MVP and the first player in MLB history to be named MVP in his home park.

Randy Johnson and Greg Maddux started the contest, and a total of 14 pitchers were used. Edgar Martinez and Javy Lopez also homered in the game, which took just 2:36 minutes to play.

GAME SIX AT PROGRESSIVE FIELD - July 9, 2019, American League 4, National League 3

Cleveland hosts the 90th Mid-Summer Classic for a record sixth time as Shane Bieber joined Sandy Alomar as the only Cleveland All-Star Game MVP's, striking out the side in the fifth inning. Former Cleveland outfielder Michael Brantley opened the scoring with an RBI-double in the second inning and Jorge Polanco added an RBI single in the fifth. Joey Gallo tacked on the last run with a towering home run in the seventh. Brad Hand allowed a pair of runs in a dicey eighth inning and Aroldis Chapman closed it out.
