WORLD SERIES

At

From a 19-31 record to start the 2019 season, to the National League Wild Card game against the Milwaukee Brewers, to Game 7 of the World Series against the Houston Astros, Washington's historic path to its first World Series Championship can best be described by what Nationals manager Dave Martinez said following Game 4 of the National League Championship Series:

*“Often bumpy roads lead to beautiful places.
And this is a beautiful place.”*

HISTORY MADE

On that bumpy road to winning the World Series, the Washington Nationals had many memorable moments and made some history along the way...

- They became the first team in Major League history to win the World Series by winning all four games on the road.
- The Nationals faced elimination five times in the 2019 Postseason. They trailed in all five and came back to win all five. They are the first team in Major League history to have five comeback wins when facing elimination in a single Postseason.
- The pitchers they beat in those games included Josh Hader, Rich Hill, Clayton Kershaw, Justin Verlander and Zack Greinke.
- In those five contests, the Nationals outscored opponents 19-0 from the seventh inning on.
- From Game 4 of the NLDS to Game 3 of the World Series, the Nationals put together an eight-game winning streak. The eight-game winning streak matched the longest winning streak by any Club in a single Postseason, joining the 2014 Kansas City Royals, 2005 Chicago White Sox and 2004 Boston Red Sox.

NATIONAL LEAGUE WILD CARD GAME vs. MILWAUKEE BREWERS

After capping the 2019 regular season with a season-long eight-game winning streak, the Washington Nationals hosted the Milwaukee Brewers in their first ever appearance in the National League Wild Card game.

Trailing 3-1 in the bottom of the eighth inning, the Nationals loaded the bases against relief ace Josh Hader. Michael A. Taylor reached on a hit by pitch, Ryan Zimmerman singled and Anthony Rendon worked a walk. With two outs, Juan Soto singled to right field, plating Taylor and pinch-runner Andrew Stevenson. Thanks to a fielding error by right fielder Trent Grisham, Anthony Rendon was able to score from first base to put the Nationals ahead, 4-3.

Daniel Hudson closed the game out and the Nationals moved on to face the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Division Series.

LOS ANGELES DODGERS 2
WASHINGTON NATIONALS 3

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES vs. LOS ANGELES DODGERS

The Nationals embarked on their fifth appearance in the NLDS, facing off against their 2016 NLDS foe, the Los Angeles Dodgers. Washington dropped Game 1, 6-0, but evened the series at one game apiece by taking Game 2, 4-2, behind Stephen Strasburg and his 10 strikeouts in 6.0 innings of one-run ball. To much surprise, Dave Martinez summoned Max Scherzer from the bullpen, and he went on to strike out the side in the eighth inning.

After a 10-4 loss in Game 3, the Nationals faced elimination in Game 4. Max Scherzer allowed one earned run in 7.0 innings, while Anthony Rendon (1-for-2, 3 RBI, R) and Ryan Zimmerman (2-for-4, HR, 3 RBI, R) led Washington to the 6-1 victory, forcing a Game 5 in Los Angeles.

Game 5 saw the Nationals fall behind, 3-0, after two innings. Washington scored a run in the sixth inning and, in the eighth inning, Anthony Rendon and Juan Soto clubbed back-to-back home runs off Clayton Kershaw to tie the game at 3-3. The game extended into extra innings and in the top of the 10th, Adam Eaton walked, Rendon doubled and the Dodgers intentionally walked Juan Soto, bringing Howie Kendrick to the plate. Kendrick took an 0-1 offering from Joe Kelly over the fence in center field, a grand slam to give the Nationals the 7-3 advantage. A diving catch by Michael A. Taylor in the bottom half of the inning sealed the win for Washington and sent the organization to the National League Championship Series for the first time.

Anibal Sánchez's masterful performance in Game 1 at Busch Stadium set the tone for the 2019 NLCS. He took a no-hitter into the eighth inning before allowing a one-out single to José Martínez. Sánchez handed the ball to Sean Doolittle, who tossed 1.1 perfect innings to earn the save and secure Washington's 2-0 win.

In Game 2, Max Scherzer attempted to match Sánchez's outing from the night before. Scherzer tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before allowing a single to Paul Goldschmidt in the seventh. He finished the outing striking out 11 batters in 7.0 innings of one-hit, shutout ball. Adam Eaton recorded two RBI and Michael A. Taylor clubbed a solo homer in the third inning to help Washington to the 3-1 win.

The series shifted to Washington for Game 3, and while Stephen Strasburg (7.0 IP, 7 H, R, 12 SO) was magnificent once again, the Nationals offense broke out to lead them to the 8-1 win. Howie Kendrick recorded three doubles and three RBI, while Ryan Zimmerman had a double and two RBI, as well. Victor Robles clubbed a sixth-inning solo home run and the Nationals found themselves one win away from the World Series.

In Game 4, the Nationals plated seven runs in the first inning behind multi-RBI efforts from Trea Turner (2) and Yan Gomes (2). Patrick Corbin struck out 12 batters in 5.0 innings, and despite the Cardinals plating four runs between the fourth and fifth innings, the Nationals held on for the 7-4, NLCS-clinching victory.

OCTOBER 22-30, 2019

HOUSTON ASTROS 3
WASHINGTON NATIONALS 4

WORLD SERIES vs. HOUSTON ASTROS

Representing Washington, D.C. in the World Series for the first time since 1933, the Washington Nationals took Game 1 of the 2019 World Series, 5-4, over the Houston Astros. Trailing 2-0 after the bottom of the first, Ryan Zimmerman clubbed the first home run in National World Series history to put Washington on the board in the second inning. The Nationals tied it in the fourth and took the lead in the fifth inning on an RBI-single by Adam Eaton and a two-run double by Juan Soto. Sean Doolittle closed it out with 1.1 perfect innings to seal the 5-4 victory.

In Game 2, the Nationals and Astros were tied at 2-2 after one inning before the Nationals went on to plate 10 runs from the sixth through ninth innings to take a commanding 2-0 lead in the World Series. Kurt Suzuki and Adam Eaton each clubbed their first career World Series home runs, while Asdrúbal Cabrera went 2-for-5 with three RBI.

Washington's 2-0 lead did not last long. Houston won games three through five at Nationals Park, sending the series back to Minute Maid Park with the Astros leading, 3-2.

In Game 6, Stephen Strasburg capped his historic 2019 Postseason, becoming the only pitcher to go 5-0 in a Postseason in Major League history. He tossed 8.1 innings of five-hit, two-run ball to lead the Nationals. After trailing 2-1 after the first inning, Juan Soto, Adam Eaton and Anthony Rendon homered, and Rendon recorded five RBI on his own to power Washington's offense. Sean Doolittle finished off the ninth inning in relief of Strasburg and the Nationals topped the Astros, 7-2, to force a Game 7.

After being scratched from his Game 5 start with neck spasms, Max Scherzer returned to full strength to take the hill in Game 7. He worked around seven hits and four walks to allow just two earned runs in 5.0 innings of work before handing the ball to rotation mate Patrick Corbin. The first-year National allowed just two hits with three strikeouts in 3.0 shutout innings of relief.

Trailing 2-0 heading to the top of the seventh inning, Anthony Rendon finally got to Astros pitcher Zack Greinke with a solo home run to left field. Juan Soto drew a walk and the Astros replaced the dealing Greinke with Will Harris. Howie Kendrick added to his already clutch Postseason with a two-run home run off the right field foul pole to give the Nationals the 3-2 lead.

The Nationals added a run in the eighth inning thanks to an RBI-single by Juan Soto, and plated two more in the ninth on a bases-loaded, two-run single by Adam Eaton to extend the lead to 6-2. Dave Martinez summoned Daniel Hudson for the ninth inning. After inducing a popup by George Springer, Hudson struck out Jose Altuve and Michael Brantley to give the Washington Nationals their first World Series Championship.

NATIONALS PARK

WELCOME TO NATIONALS PARK

Located in the heart of the nation's capital, Nationals Park serves as a cornerstone of the mixed-use Capitol Riverfront, adjacent to the Navy Yard in Southeast Washington.

INNOVATIVE ARCHITECTURE UNIQUE TO WASHINGTON, D.C.

From South Capitol Street, the ballpark presents a monumental façade of architectural pre-cast concrete, metal and glass – features consistent with the traditions of D.C.'s most notable civic buildings.

Nationals Park is easily accessible for fans, especially those arriving from the north via the Navy Yard-Ballpark Metro Station, or on foot from nearby offices and residential neighborhoods.

Nationals Park guests can easily visit D.C.'s other attractions on their way to the ballpark. In addition to the area around the Navy Yard and Southwest Waterfront on the Green Line, guests can take the Orange/Blue Line to the Capitol South Metro and walk to Nationals Park along New Jersey Avenue to M Street. Guests can also take the Orange/Blue Line to the Eastern Market station and enjoy a multitude of restaurant and retail offerings along Barracks Row's 8th Street SE.

Fans can enter Nationals Park through the Center Field Plaza and continue along the main concourse, which sweeps around the entire ballpark and offers an almost complete 360-degree open view of the playing field.

Other entry gates include: Left Field Gate, with entry access on South Capitol Street SE; Home Plate Gate, with entry access on Potomac Avenue SE; First Base Gate, with entry access on Potomac Avenue SE; and Right Field Gate, with entry access on First Street SE.

The seating bowl wraps around the various levels of the facility in a circular expression of steel and concrete, offering openness and panoramic views of the Anacostia waterfront, Navy Yard and landmarks such as the U.S. Capitol and Washington Monument.

BEST-IN-CLASS FAN EXPERIENCE

Nationals Park is equipped with advanced high-definition audio-visual technology, including a nearly 4,800-square-foot high-definition scoreboard and more than 600 linear feet of LED ribbon board along the inner bowl fascia, updated in the 2023-2024 offseason.

Both the main and out-of-town scoreboards now present images with 8MM clarity – two times the pixel resolution of the original display – making Nationals Park one of just a handful of MLB stadium scoreboards with this capability. The ribbon boards running from foul pole to foul pole have been enhanced to 10MM resolution, while Nationals Park is now also one of the first in MLB with home plate signage featuring 4MM LED technology. Nationals Park is also undergoing improvements to its speakers and audio systems as part of a phased approach that will extend through the 2024 offseason.

The ballpark also features a variety of fan interactive activities, food service venues, retail operations and family-friendly entertainment to ensure a memorable experience.

With a fully functioning meeting and conference center, four large club spaces, luxurious suites and spectacular views, Nationals Park is the ideal backdrop for corporate or personal events. And, with X-Golf America, the largest indoor golf simulator entertainment brand, set to open a new location at Nationals Park in the summer of 2024, the ballpark continues to serve as the cornerstone of one of the hottest and rapidly growing entertainment districts in the country.

GREEN DESIGN

As the first major sports facility in the U.S. to earn the LEED-certified Silver designation by the U.S. Green Building Council, Nationals Park was a pioneer in green design upon its construction and is considered one of the most environmentally friendly ballparks in the country today.

Nationals Park incorporates a variety of sustainable design elements, including:

New Energy-Efficient LED field lighting

During the 2023-24 offseason, Nationals Park installed new, energy-efficient LED field lighting, which is not only more sustainable and environmentally friendly, but also provides unique ways to amplify the park's atmosphere.

Solar Panels

After the 2018 season, the Washington Nationals and WGL Energy teamed up to install 4,132 solar panels in two locations at Nationals Park. Two roof canopies cover the upper deck of the parking garages situated on either side of the ballpark.

The power from the project generates a combined total of 1.4 megawatts of energy, supplying an estimated 10 percent of the ballpark's electricity needs each year. Since installation, the solar panels have produced enough energy to power the equivalent of more than 180 homes.

A Sustainable Site

Located near the Anacostia River, Nationals Park was categorized as a brownfield redevelopment and has served as a catalyst for urban revitalization in the area.

The ballpark's location is easily accessible via public transportation, including access to nearby metro stations and local bus routes.

Use of Materials

The Nationals Park playing field was replaced after the 2023 season, which resulted in the old field being converted into 640 tons of reusable topsoil to be used in other community projects.

Water-conserving plumbing fixtures are used throughout the facility, reducing overall water consumption. These fixtures save an estimated 3.6 million gallons of water each year and reduce overall water consumption by 30 percent.

Building materials used on the project contained a minimum of 10 percent recycled content. Additionally, many building materials used on the project were produced regionally, which cut down on transportation costs while promoting the local economy.

Interior materials including adhesives, carpet glues and paints were specified with low VOC contents.

Roof materials offer a high degree of reflectance, minimizing the amount of heat released to the environment. A 6,300-square-foot green roof above the concession area beyond left field, which houses the CareFirst Giving Garden, also minimizes roof heat gain while supplying the local community with fresh produce.

During the 2023 season, the Giving Garden produced more than 430 pounds of fruits and vegetables that were distributed through Wards 7 and 8, through a collaboration between Cultivate the City and Building Bridges Across the River (BBAR).

An Intricate Ground and Stormwater Filtration System

Because Nationals Park is within close proximity to the Anacostia River, much care was taken to treat storm and ground water runoff.

The result is a unique, intricate water filtration system that separates water used for cleaning the ballpark from rainwater falling on the ballpark and treats both sources of water before it is released to the sanitary and stormwater systems.

The Nationals have been recognized by Major League Baseball for their green initiatives in recent years. The Nationals are winners of three consecutive NL East Green Glove winners in and were named the overall National League winner in 2021.

NATIONALS PARK: QUICK FACTS

Opening Date:	March 30, 2008
Designed By:	The joint venture team of Populous (formerly HOK Sport) and Devroux-Purnell Architects
2024 Seat Capacity:	41,373
Field Dimensions:	Left Field - 336 Feet Center Field - 402 Feet Right Field - 335 Feet

Playing Surface

- Following the 2017 season, the playing field went through a renovation project that included an upgraded irrigation system and a new rootzone for the natural grass field.
- Drainage lines consist of six-inch perforated drainage pipes that were installed in a pea-gravel layer, aligned every 15 feet across the entire playing field.
- The natural grass field consists of a three-way blend of Kentucky Bluegrass that is provided by Tuckahoe Turf Farms, located in Hammonton, N.J.
- Infield clay is a designed mix of sand, silt and clay, provided by DuraEdge Products, located in Slippery Rock, Pa.
- The material used for the warning track is a crushed red lava stone, also provided by DuraEdge Products.

Interesting Facts

- Inspiration for the look of the ballpark was taken from the I. M. Pei-designed East Wing of the National Gallery of Art.
- Because the field is 24 feet below street level, more than half of the crowd will walk straight off the street, onto the main concourse and into their seats, without ever using elevators or climbing ramps or stairs.
- Populous (formerly HOK Sport), the ballpark's designer, borrowed the inspiration for an odd, right-angled jog into the left center field fence from the now-demolished Griffith Stadium, former home of the Washington Senators.
- On Opening Day 2016, the Nationals hit a major milestone when the 25 millionth fan walked through the gates at Nationals Park. Among other gifts, the lucky fan received a pair of Opening Day tickets for the next 25 years and a special Nationals jersey and jacket.

NOT JUST FOR BASEBALL

In addition to baseball, Nationals Park was constructed with the purpose of hosting outside organizations and serving as a civic asset for the District of Columbia and surrounding region. Since opening in 2008, Nationals Park has gained a reputation as one of the premier locations for outdoor events and continues to find new and innovative ways to utilize all parts of the ballpark.

Nats Summer Concert Series

Throughout the 2024 season, the Nationals will host a series of postgame concerts on select Friday nights, as part of the Nats Summer Concert Series. The concerts, which will take place monthly from June to September, will feature Carly Rae Jepsen, Flo Rida, Lady A and Teddy Swims.

Stadiumlinks at Nationals Park

During the 2022 and 2023 off-seasons, Nationals Park was temporarily transformed into a one-of-a-kind golfing experience for golf and Nationals fans alike through a partnership with Stadiumlinks. Participants were able to view and experience the ballpark like never before.

The ballpark was altered into a specially designed, nine-hole golf course that re-imagined the traditional game of golf. The course included unique scoring and hole locations throughout the ballpark, with greens located on the playing field.

Enchant DC

Since 2019, Nationals Park has transformed into a winter wonderland at Enchant DC during the holiday seasons, highlighted by thousands of twinkly lights, the epic 100-foot-tall Christmas tree; an ice-skating trail through the Christmas forest; The Village, comprised of dozens of local vendors showcasing home décor, jewelry and gourmet foods; and a chance to visit with Santa.

CONCERT PREPARATION AT NATIONALS PARK

Thanks to the hard work and dedication of its outstanding grounds crew, Nationals Park hosts outdoor concerts and a variety of other exciting events. The process to transform Nationals Park from a ballpark into a world-class entertainment venue follows several steps:

Concert preparation begins several months prior to concert load-in.

Field transformation begins immediately following the last out of the game preceding the concert. Protective tarps are placed over the entire infield dirt area and protective flooring is placed over the warning track surface.

Next, stage load-in begins. Depending on the stage size and complexity, this can take place over a two- or three-day period. For postgame concerts, this is done within 30 minutes due to a simplified stage set-up. The grounds crew is responsible for overseeing all movement and placement of stage and sound equipment onto the field. It also supervises all crane movement from the time the cranes enter the building until the time they exit.

Once the stage has been constructed, production load-in begins. This process involves speakers, video screens, lights, musical instruments and other electronics. The grounds crew oversees all movement and assists the production team in order to limit or prevent field damage.

Following production load-in, protective flooring is placed across all exposed grass.

The grounds crew then walks the field and stage area several times looking for any last-minute adjustments that need to be made. Air and soil temperatures are closely monitored, as is the soil moisture content.

Concert load-out begins immediately following the end of the concert and concludes anywhere between 16 to 24 hours later.

Upon completion of the load-out, the grounds crew spends the remaining time prepping the field for when the Nationals return home.

NOTABLE EVENTS AT NATIONALS PARK

Pope Benedict XVI Mass

- On April 17, 2008, as part of his tour of the United States, Pope Benedict XVI celebrated Mass at Nationals Park.
- Approximately 47,000 people were in attendance.
- The audience included 14 cardinals, 250 bishops, and 1,300 priests.
- In accordance with Vatican protocol, Communion wafers were distributed within 20 minutes to more than 40,000 Mass attendees.

Billy Joel and Elton John: “Face to Face” Tour

- The first concert at Nationals Park was a blockbuster event, featuring Billy Joel and Elton John in a joint performance on July 11, 2009, as part of their “Face to Face” tour. A sold-out crowd saw the two legendary musicians perform.
- The duo focused on material from the 1970s and 80s during their concert at Nationals Park, and played nothing more recent than John’s 1983 hit “I’m Still Standing.”

Dave Matthews Band

- On July 23, 2010, the Dave Matthews Band performed at Nationals Park in the second-ever show held at the venue.
- The Zac Brown Band was the opening act for the concert, a preview of their 2015 performance at Nationals Park.

Jason Aldean: “Burn It Down” Tour

- Multi-platinum country entertainer Jason Aldean performed on July 25, 2014 at Nationals Park as part of his “Burn It Down” tour. Duo Florida Georgia Line and artist Tyler Farr opened for Aldean.

2015 NHL Winter Classic

- On Jan. 1, 2015, Nationals Park became the center of the hockey universe when the playing field was transformed into a hockey rink for the annual NHL Winter Classic. The 42,842 fans in attendance watched the Washington Capitals top the Chicago Blackhawks, 3-2, in dramatic fashion.
- There were two ice rinks built, one to serve as the playing surface and one to represent the Reflecting Pool on the National Mall.
- 3,000 gallons of Glycol coolant were used to help maintain the preferred ice temperature of 22 degrees Fahrenheit.
- The thickness of the ice was three inches.
- 32,000 square feet of decking was used for construction of the rink.
- 100,000 square feet of new grass was installed to bring the field back to a safe, consistent surface for baseball.

Taylor Swift: “1989 World Tour”

- International pop superstar Taylor Swift, winner of seven Grammy Awards, brought her “1989 World Tour” to Nationals Park on July 13 and 14, 2015. Swift performed in front of two sold-out crowds at the ballpark, totaling 85,014 fans over two nights.
- During the performance on July 13, Swift was joined onstage by New Zealand phenom Lorde. Swift was joined onstage by multi-platinum singer, songwriter and dancer Jason Derulo during the performance on July 14.
- The rock band Haim, singer-songwriter Vance Joy and pop sensation Shawn Mendes were the opening acts for Swift.

Zac Brown Band: “Jekyll + Hyde Tour”

- The “Jekyll + Hyde Tour” was the fifth headlining concert tour by country music group Zac Brown Band. The tour, which supported their fourth studio album, hit Nationals Park on Aug. 14, 2015.
- Nine of the shows on the tour took place at MLB parks, including Nationals Park, Fenway Park and Wrigley Field.
- The show, which lasted for two and a half hours, took place on a three-story tier stage and combined country music elements with EDM, rock and pop.
- During a break in the show, Zac Brown changed clothes and returned wearing a Washington Nationals baseball cap.

“Billy Joel in Concert”

- On July 20, 2016, legendary musician Billy Joel became the first artist ever to play Nationals Park three times. A sold-out crowd watched the Piano Man perform.

Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band: “The River Tour 2016”

- “The River Tour 2016” marked the first tour in two years for Springsteen and the E Street Band and was performed in support of Springsteen’s 2015 “The Ties That Bind: The River Collection” box set and in celebration of the 35th anniversary of Springsteen’s 1980 album, “The River.”
- After playing at the Verizon Center (now Capital One Arena) in January, Bruce Springsteen returned to the nation’s capital and played a nearly three-hour set at Nationals Park on September 1, 2016. Afterward, the band encoed with another eight songs.

James Taylor & His All-Star Band

- James Taylor & His All-Star Band played four concerts at ballparks across the United States in summer 2017.
- Joining Taylor and his band onstage at Nationals Park was a special guest, singer-songwriter Bonnie Raitt.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Washington Nationals are committed to enhancing the quality of life for citizens in the Washington, D.C. region. The primary focus is through a series of initiatives that honor military families, encourage youth participation in baseball and softball, and support K-12 education in the community.

MILITARY INITIATIVES

The Washington Nationals are proud to work with the large community of military bases, installations and hospitals that serve as permanent or temporary homes to military service members and their families living in the Washington D.C. metropolitan area.

» NATS ON BASE

Through the Nats on Base initiative, the Nationals aim to provide year-round experiences that contribute to the quality of life for service members and their families in the Washington, D.C. region, reaching them where they live and work - as well as in-Park. The team works with regional and base leadership to develop programming and identify outreach opportunities at local installations.

- Professional Development

Frontline Forum

Nationals front office executives and coaching staff offer non-military perspectives to service members on a variety of topics, including leadership and specialty fields (security/planning, facilities, field maintenance, public affairs and more).

Base HIIT

Base HIIT is a high intensity interval training (HIIT) workout utilizing the Nationals Park field, warning track, bullpens and stadium steps. The workout is specifically designed for military service members, and it includes nine stations of five-minute workouts, including push-ups, stair running, agilities, shuttle run, medicine ball exercises and core strength work. The Nationals host several Base HIIT workouts throughout the year.

Employee Recognition

The Nationals align with base recognition programs, providing prizes and recognition for employees of the quarter and/or the year.

• Intramural Support

Uniform Program

The Washington Nationals provide, at no cost to the teams, a Nationals-branded jersey and cap to each man or woman participating in the base-affiliated softball league. Teams are differentiated through the use of a variety of styles and colors of T-shirts, jerseys and caps.

Battle of the Bases

Battle of the Bases is a military softball tournament, presented by the Nationals, which serves as an extension of the intramural season at each of the military bases in the National Capital Region. Teams of active duty service members, playing across all National Capital Region installations, participate in the tournament. Preliminary rounds of the Battle of the Bases are held later in the summer to determine which bases will play in a Championship game – under the lights at Nationals Park.

• Morale, Welfare and Recreation

Summer Reading

The Nationals work with base libraries and CYP programs to encourage reading over the summer months. We offer an initial elementary-aged activity book to engage youth, and then reward participants with ticket vouchers for achieving summer reading goals.

Base Program Support

The Nationals support in a variety of ways including mascots, NatMobile, and player appearances, as well as ticket and promotional giveaways.

Player Visits

The Washington Nationals annually visit military medical centers as part of the team’s commitment to the military community.

» In-Park Recognition

• Branch Days

The Nationals dedicate a special game to honor and celebrate each of the six branches of the military, as well as the National Guard. At each of these games, representatives from the branch will participate in the pregame ceremony and the Salute to Service.

April 5 – National Guard Day

May 24 – U.S. Navy Day

June 18 – U.S. Army Day

July 6 – U.S. Marine Corps Day

July 19 – U.S. Space Force Day

Aug. 5 – U.S. Coast Guard Day

Sept. 25 – U.S. Air Force Day

• PenFed Patriotic Series

Celebrating America and the national pastime at Nationals Park, these games feature on-field programming and pregame ceremonies to honor service members and their families.

April 24 – Military Appreciation Day

May 26 – Memorial Day

July 4 – Independence Day

Sept. 11 – Heroes Day/September 11th Remembrance

• Salute to Service

The Nationals offer premium seating in the Nationals Club for select military groups and their families during every home game. At the end of the third inning, honorees are recognized on the NatsHD scoreboard and receive a standing ovation from fans. Tickets are allocated through military hospitals and support organizations and are not available for individual distribution.

YOUTH BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL

An enduring tenet of the Nationals community work is serving area youth ballplayers and their leagues. The primary focus is to:

- Provide resources, programs, and experiences that support and improve the quality of the youth baseball experience.
- Create lasting and meaningful connections for young people and their hometown team.

» BRINGING BASEBALL BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

• Baseball Registration

As part of the Nationals community outreach efforts, the Nationals aim to encourage kids to participate in organized baseball and promote the sport in Ward Six. The Nationals collaborate with Capitol Hill Little League and DPR Rookie League to host baseball registration days at local elementary schools, such as Amidon-Bowen and Van Ness Elementary School and the King Greenlead Recreation Center

Families who register will receive free equipment provided by the Nationals to help overcome financial barriers. Additionally, they are invited to participate in a variety of activities throughout the baseball season at no cost.

• Undefinable Player Series

Started in 2023, the Undefinable Player Series focuses on bringing groups of young Black baseball players from the Washington Metropolitan area to Nationals Park for a special visit to help enhance their talents both on and off the field. These youth players have the opportunity to watch batting practice and speak with a Nationals player, where they receive invaluable advice on the keys to success in both the game and life.

• Team UP presented by Inova

Started in 2015, Team UP is a cornerstone program for the organization. Now in its ninth year, Team UP supports 33 leagues (11 in DC, 16 in VA and three in MD), more than 1,400 teams, and serves more than 18,000 kids. Participating leagues report that since 2015, Team UP has collectively saved them more than $2 million.

Originally designed to defray costs by providing uniform merchandise, Team UP quickly became a robust, multi-dimensional program offering opportunities that cultivate a passion for baseball. Team UP leagues are members in the program and receive unique benefits. In addition to no-cost merchandise, over the years member leagues have received:

- Personal player visits
- Free ticket game days
- Free clinics (youth, coaching, field maintenance)

Baseball has the unique capacity to unite and Team UP continues to build a shared excitement across the region while creating a diverse and cross-sectional community of youth players. Experiences including marching in the World Series parade, mascot visits, ceremonial first pitches and more.

• Other Activities

The Nationals also offer youth baseball support and recognition through:

- Annual equipment drive
- Champions Day – a series that recognizes high school, 12U, 11U, 10U and 9U area teams that have won state, regional or national championship titles.
- The Nationals also support the annual MLB Play Ball initiative, hosting youth baseball clinics to introduce children to the sport of baseball. More than 1,000 children from around the Greater Washington Region participate each year.

EDUCATION INITIATIVES

» STORY TIME AT NATIONALS PARK

Story Time at Nationals Park offers families additional activities at the ballpark. Pregame programming includes Nationals players reading aloud to children, as well as literacy-focused activities in partnership with regional library systems, the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian National Postal Museum, Turning the Page, Shout Mouse Press and National Geographic Kids. Dates are as follows:

- April 21st
- June 16th
- July 7th
- August 4th
- Sept. 1st

» SUMMER READING

Building on the success of the program throughout the last 10 years, the Nationals are proud to have partnered with every municipal library system in the D.C. metropolitan area including the following systems:

DC Public Library	Arlington Public Library	Prince George's County Memorial Library System
Montgomery County Public Libraries	Fairfax County Public Library	Alexandria Public Library
Loudoun County Public Library	Department of Defense Morale, Welfare and Readiness

Participants who successfully complete their local library system's program receive a voucher for two free tickets to a future Nationals game.

» NATSPREP

NatsPrep is a partnership between the Nationals and the DC Public Schools Academies of Hospitality and Tourism, offers an in-depth course for students interested in hospitality, sports promotion and event management careers.

The Nationals work directly with students throughout the school year by providing experiential seminars with Nationals executives and a pathway to paid summer internship experiences for students who successfully complete the program.

The program has been well-received by the students, faculty advisors and Nationals staff, who have stepped up to serve as presenters and mentors for these seminars.

This year, the Nationals hosted an inaugural Job Shadow Day which matched over 40 students with Front Office staff for a day of networking, mentoring, and a behind the scenes look at a career in sports.

DCPS Chancellor Dr. Lewis Ferebee continues to give the program his enthusiastic support.

» GRAND SLAM SCHOOLS

The Nationals Grand Slam Schools program aims to support member schools through three main pillars of Reading/Literacy, Physical Education and STEM Education as well as in ways that reflect the specific needs and priorities of individual member schools.

The Nationals have assets that help expand education opportunities for students, provide teachers and schools with fun and strategic ways to engage students and associate them with the national pastime of baseball and their local team, the Washington Nationals.

» ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1972, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as The Commissioner's Award) to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries and MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred annually select a winner from a list of 30 nominees, one from each Major League Baseball club.

» HEART AND HUSTLE AWARD

Created by the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association in 2005, the Heart & Hustle Award is voted on by Alumni and active Major League players and is presented annually to an active player who demonstrates a passion for the game of baseball and best embodies the values, spirit and traditions of the game.

The MLBPAA formed 30 committees, comprised of Alumni players with established relationships to each team. One player from each Major League team is chosen by the committees based on the passion, desire, and work ethic demonstrated both on and off the field. These players are recognized prior to a late-season home game. As the season draws to a close, fans, all Alumni, and active players vote to select the final winner from the 30 team nominees.

After his outstanding 2019 season - and his many heroics to the Nationals to the 2019 World Series Championship - infielder Howie Kendrick was named the winner of the Heart & Hustle Award by the MLBPAA.

» BOB FELLER ACT OF VALOR AWARD

The Bob Feller Act of Valor Foundation, through the unique intersection of baseball and the US Navy, recognizes and honors those who support service men and women with the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award. The award uses Bob Feller's story to educate the youth of today on lessons of citizenship, service to one's country and sacrifice in times of great national need. Teaching the legacy of the Greatest Generation to the youngest generation helps instill in them the virtues of service to others. Sean Doolittle was chosen as the league-wide, national winner in 2018.

TOGETHER WE ARE #NATS4GOOD - Official charitable arm of the Washington Nationals

Every professional sports team plays an important role in the civic fabric of its community – authentically knitting together a diverse citizenry in allegiance to a shared fandom. The Washington Nationals are committed to leveraging its powerful, unifying, and highly visible brand to galvanize community engagement that delivers impact greater than the sum of its individual parts.

Washington Nationals Philanthropies is the official charitable arm of the Washington Nationals. Its mission is to help children, families, and communities thrive through sports-based youth development and access to healthy food. The organization delivers on this commitment by spurring investment in community-based programs that address the disparity of opportunity for residents of the region.

Since 2007, the foundation has issued over $6.8 million in grants to local organizations. Through its signature program, the Nationals Youth Baseball Academy, the organization operates year-round youth development and baseball instruction activities, as well as a holistic food access program – delivering nearly 1 million meals into the Washington, D.C. region since 2018. Since 2013, the organization has invested $42 million for facility construction and annual programming through the Academy.

More updates about new projects, events, and initiatives will be available throughout the season. For information, please contact philanthropies@nationals.com or visit nats4good.org.

LOOK BACK: DELIVERING LOCAL IMPACT IN 2023

By joining hands last year, thousands of Nationals fans stepped up to help neighbors in need across the region. Here is a snapshot of what was accomplished together in 2023 as #NATS4GOOD:

- Nationals Philanthropies issued grants to local nonprofits delivering critical programs and services to residents. Since 2019, we have issued funds to 65 different local organizations and invested over $1.8 million through community grants.
- The total jackpot for the 5050 Raffle reached nearly $1 million last season, and Nationals fans went home with half of that. The raffle raises key support to advance our community impact work, creating a healthier DC.
- At the Nationals Homecoming Gala, Nationals Philanthropies honored Ryan Zimmerman with the Power of Baseball award for his leadership on the field and in the community. Zimmerman was the first current or former player to receive the foundation’s annual award.

- In the wake of her cancer diagnosis, Nationals Philanthropies teamed up with Amanda Kuhl, wife of former National Chad Kuhl, to “Strike Out Breast Cancer”. The fundraiser, dubbed “Cancer Isn’t Kuhl!” raised over $75,000 for local nonprofits dedicated to high-quality patient care in the region.

- Together with D.C. sports teams, the Nationals and Nationals Philanthropies announced a renewed commitment to community safety on Wear Orange Weekend. A combined donation of more than $100,000 was made to local non-profit Peace For DC providing direct investment and capacity building to their community-based violence intervention program. Nationals players and coaches wore special t-shirts with the message “ENOUGH” printed in orange in recognition of Gun Violence Awareness Day as part of this initiative.

- Nationals Philanthropies hosted its sixth – and largest – Thanksgiving meal distribution to date, handing out over 20,000 pounds of food at four sites in Washington, D.C. and Maryland during Turkeypalooza presented by BetMGM. In its second year partnering with BetMGM, the annual event expanded to include winter hats and gloves in addition to nutrient-dense Thanksgiving meals for residents in need.

- Contributions from Nationals fans through the “Buy A Bag” campaign allowed us to distribute over 11,000 shares of fresh produce from the weekly farmers market at Nationals Academy. To date, Nationals fans have helped distribute nearly 30,000 produce shares into the community.

Public contributions make this impact possible, fueling our future to build steadily toward a more equitable community. For the latest Nationals Philanthropies news, visit nats4good.org/news.

LOOK AHEAD: 2024 FUNDRAISERS + EVENTS*

Cornerstone activities and fundraising initiatives galvanize the Washington Nationals base – including players, fans, and corporate champions – to support the community, most often by flexing their wallets through fundraising activations. Grassroots fundraising activations spur small dollar contributions from Nationals fans.

IN-STADIUM FUNDRAISERS

» 5050 RAFFLE - All Nationals Home Games

The 5050 Raffle is back at Nationals Park and online this season. To date, the total 5050 Raffle jackpot has exceeded $7 million dollars. Cash, credit cards, and debit cards are accepted. New prizes and more ticket options this season give fans even more ways to win. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit nats4good.org/5050.

» SCOREBOARD MESSAGES - All Nationals Home Games

Nationals fans wishing to display general welcome, birthday, or anniversary messages on the NatsHD scoreboard may do so by making a $100 donation to Washington Nationals Philanthropies at least 24 hours prior to the start of the game they wish to have their message appear. Scoreboard messages are displayed during the middle of the fifth inning. For more information and to purchase messages, visit nats4good.org/scoreboard.

» PHILANTHROPIES DAY - June 15

An annual in-park celebration of the community impact work of Nationals Philanthropies where an exciting memorabilia fundraiser allows fans to take home exclusive signed Nationals memorabilia while supporting the programs of the foundation. For more information, visit nats4good.org.

» JERSEYS OFF THEIR BACKS - Sept. 24 - Sept. 29

Jerseys Off Their Backs is the longest running fundraiser hosted by Nationals Philanthropies. During the final homestand of the regular season, fans can purchase raffle tickets for the chance to win an authentic, autographed jersey "off the back" of a Nationals player or coach at the conclusion of the season. For more information, visit nats4good.org/jerseys.

For other ways to support, visit nats4good.org/ways-to-give.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS

» NATIONALS HOMECOMING GALA - March 26

Nationals Philanthropies will once again welcome the return of baseball to Washington with the Nationals Homecoming Gala at The Anthem at District Wharf. Sponsors and supporters are invited to join the Nationals players, coaches, and front office executives as we celebrate the excitement of a new season at the team's premier off-the-field event. The event features a cocktail reception, silent auction, live entertainment, and an exclusive after party as well as the presentation of the annual Power of Baseball award.

TAL ALTER

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
WASHINGTON NATIONALS PHILANTHROPIES

Tal Alter became Chief Executive Officer of Washington Nationals Philanthropies (WNP) – formerly known as the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation – in 2018. As CEO, Tal is responsible for leading a philanthropic enterprise that leverages the visible and unifying brand of the Washington Nationals to broaden awareness of and deliver programs that address critical issues facing our community.

Tal joined the Nationals as the founding Executive Director of the Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy, now the signature program of Washington Nationals Philanthropies, in 2013. He led the start-up and implementation of an operation that maintains a 9-acre campus and serves more than 1,000 youth each year.

Prior to joining the Nationals, Tal spent five years as Director of Operations for PeacePlayers International, a nonprofit that uses basketball to bring people together in areas of conflict throughout the world. He also previously worked for six years with Positive Coaching Alliance, a Stanford University-based organization focused on transforming the culture of youth sports.

Tal attended Haverford College, where was a member of the baseball team, and received a master’s degree from the Harvard Graduate School of Education, where he studied organizational leadership and non-profit management. Tal lives in Bethesda, MD, with his wife and two young children.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS YOUTH BASEBALL ACADEMY

3675 ELY PLACE

SIGNATURE PROGRAM OF NATIONALS PHILANTHROPIES

Marking 10 years since opening its doors, the Nationals Youth Baseball Academy has served over 6,000 D.C. youth across a continuum of free programs designed to foster their positive character development, academic achievement, and improved health. Since beginning after school programs in the fall of 2013, five classes have matriculated from third through eighth grade in the BASE afterschool and summer program, going on to excel on and off the baseball field at some of the region’s most competitive high schools.

As free programs have expanded to include year-round introductory clinics in Wards 7 and 8, summer leagues throughout the city, and competitive travel-style teams, Nationals Academy has also grown into a community pillar over the last decade, serving as a hub of support throughout the pandemic and a critical food access point for the neighborhood through its weekly produce market and meal programs.

Because of the continued generosity of its partners, supporters, and volunteers, more young people every year will have access to academic enrichment, effective coaching, and the joy of baseball at the Nationals Youth Baseball Academy.

» CORE PROGRAMS

YBA PLAY / Engagement - Ages 5-12, Citywide

A seasonal league that makes the game more accessible to young players. Modified game rules enable a faster pace of play and recognize effort over skill, allowing for deeper engagement and love for the game of baseball.

HUSTLE / Development - Ages 9-17, Wards 7 & 8

A program for players eager for higher competition and advanced skill development. Participants play games against local talent, engage in tournaments, showcases, and “pro” workouts to hone skills, develop on-field accuracy, discipline, and athleticism. HUSTLE sets players up to pursue athletics in high school and beyond.

BASE PROGRAM / Education - Age 8-14, Wards 7 & 8

A holistic, afterschool enrichment program that blends sports activity, nutrition instruction, mentoring, specialized activities, and STEM-focused academic support with socio-emotional skills development. BASE is geared toward overall wellness and ongoing growth.

» FOOD ACCESS

FIELD OF GREENS MARKET / Access

Since 2018, the Academy has operated the only year-round produce market in Ward 7. Every week, Academy families and community members purchase bags of fresh local produce at a heavily subsidized rate. Each bag provides enough produce for a family of four for a week, and heightened demand has persisted since 2020.

PROGRAM ENRICHMENT | Health & Wellness

Ensuring our young participants are not playing and learning on empty stomachs has been a core feature of Academy programs since its opening. Today, in partnership with DC Central Kitchen, BASE afterschool participants receive a nutritious snack on arrival and packaged dinner on departure, and summer participants receive breakfast, lunch, and snacks during the six-week program. In 2023, healthy snack distribution expanded to include all four YBA PLAY sites serving more than 600 summer league and clinic participants.

COOKING CLASSES | Education

Since 2022, nutrition education includes hands-on cooking classes led by DC Central Kitchen food educators in the Academy's fully-equipped teaching kitchen where Scholar Athletes learn about healthy choices and fueling their bodies. In the Academy's teaching garden scholar athletes learn about the building blocks of a healthy diet through gardening and science enrichments. Produce harvested from the teaching garden supplements snacks for Scholar Athletes and provides ingredients for cooking enrichments.

LOOK AHEAD: 2024 KEY DATES*

Public support offsets the Academy's more than $2M annual operating budget and goes directly towards equipment, classroom supplies, and trained coaching staff to support our Scholar Athletes and the surrounding community.

» ACADEMY GRADUATION - June

The annual graduation ceremony recognizes the eighth-grade Scholar Athletes completing the Nationals Academy program and transitioning to high school. Fans are invited to support the next generation of scholars through an annual "Class Gift" fund to propel future Academy programs.

» ACADEMY DAY - July 7

Fans and players at Nationals Park join in celebration of the youth development program at Nationals Academy. Scholar Athletes participate in the pre-game ceremonies in recognition of their hard work on and off the field.

» MUSHBALL CLASSIC TOURNAMENT - Fall

The annual Mushball Classic invites organizations from all industries across the Washington, D.C. region to form a team and compete in a softball-style tournament held at the Nationals Youth Baseball Academy.

» TURKEYPALOOZA - November

Each November, food distribution efforts expand during an annual Thanksgiving meal giveaway providing residents with thousands of free turkeys and fresh, local produce at sites in D.C. and Maryland.

THE NATIONALS AND THE USO TOUR

On several occasions, the Washington Nationals have been personally invited to join the General Martin E. Dempsey, former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on his annual Chairman's USO Holiday Tour. Nationals participants have included Aaron Barrett (2020) and Adam Eaton (2020), as well as former players Doug Fister (2014), Adam LaRoche (2013), Ross Detwiler (2012) and Craig Stammen (2012).

The trip is a whirlwind tour across several countries that is calculated down to the second. For safety reasons, little is known about the trips ahead of time. Past tours have included visits with service members all over the world, including Poland, Romania, Greece, Afghanistan, Italy, Germany, the United Kingdom, Turkey, Bahrain and Kyrgyzstan. Though it's an exhausting stretch of days, every participating player has returned home inspired and with a changed perspective.

"I'll tell you, this won't be my last USO tour. They've touched our hearts. They put their lives on the line over here every single day. Hopefully, we were able to put a smile on their faces."

-Adam Eaton, 2020

"It's humbling. It has been such an amazing journey to be able to give these men and women thanks and to tell them how much we appreciate what they do. We wouldn't be able to play this great game without them, and it's amazing."

-Aaron Barrett, 2020

"The Chairman's USO holiday tour really opened my eyes to the world—and the war. The sacrifice, the threats, the teamwork and chemistry needed between individuals, are just a few of the many things that we were shown throughout this experience."

-Doug Fister, 2014

"I can't say I ever really looked at the flag and thought, 'Somebody paid the price for that.' I will now. I hope it's going to be a lot easier to not take those things for granted like we typically do."

-Adam LaRoche, 2013

"This trip was truly life changing and I will never look at this war or the soldiers the same."

-Ross Detwiler, 2012

Dear Nats Fans:

Welcome to the 20th season of Washington Nationals baseball!

After another energetic Spring Training, we're so happy to be back in Washington, D.C., for what promises to be an immensely exciting season in many ways. We have a talented roster full of young players who are hungry to make a name for themselves, help return Nationals baseball to its winning ways, and become the cornerstones of our next World Series championship team. Plus, we're returning home to an updated stadium, which will elevate the gameday experience for you – the best fans in baseball. You are the heartbeat of our organization, and we are committed to building a World Series contender on the field and delivering you a world-class experience at the ballpark.

Like you, we're looking forward to seeing players like 2023 All-Star Josiah Gray, Lane Thomas, CJ Abrams, MacKenzie Gore and Keibert Ruiz take the next steps in their young careers. We're confident that all of them can develop into perennial All-Stars and award candidates.

The steady, veteran presence of players like Patrick Corbin, Trevor Williams, Kyle Finnegan and Hunter Harvey, plus that of newcomers like Joey Gallo and Nick Senzel, has really brought this group together. This clubhouse is very close, and they are focused on winning.

We also know that the future of our organization is as bright as it's ever been. James Wood, Dylan Crews, Robert Hassell III, Trey Lipscomb, Brady House and a handful of other young players are poised to have an impact at the Major League level very soon. Not only are they tremendous prospects on the field, but they have shown to be incredible young men as well. We are excited to see them become pillars of our organization and our community in the years to come.

Having watched these players throughout Spring Training, we can promise that this is going to be a fun team to watch. Mike Rizzo has put together a great baseball operations staff, and Davey Martinez gets the most out of his lineup day in and day out.

In addition to all the things we're excited about on the field, we're just as proud of what's been happening off it. When you come to Nationals Park this year, you'll notice new field lighting and a new scoreboard, which make for a crisper, more enjoyable viewing experience. We're also proud to have some of the best ballpark food in America, as voted on by fans in USA Today's Readers Choice Awards. We hope you'll enjoy all that our city's beautiful ballpark has to offer!

Because of our place in the city, it's important to us that we're good neighbors. We're proud of our community work, and we congratulate the Nationals Youth Baseball Academy on its 10th anniversary, having bettered the lives of thousands of young people in that time. Our reading programs, military outreach and other community programs are all integral to who we are as an organization. Thank you again for your continued support of this team. We're looking forward to a great 2024.

Go Nats!

THEODORE N. LERNER
1925-2023

FOUNDING MANAGING PRINCIPAL OWNER

From his humble beginnings as an usher in Washington D.C.'s old Griffith Stadium, to the ushering in of a new era of championship baseball in his hometown, Mr. Lerner literally and figuratively built a legacy through his signature mix of tenacity and humility. Guided by love for his family and passion for his hometown, Mr. Lerner dedicated his life to the creation of a better city and a winning ball club.

Mr. Lerner was named Managing Principal Owner of the Washington Nationals on May 3, 2006, and worked tirelessly from that day forward to build a world-class baseball team in his beloved Washington, D.C. He created the framework that brought the 2019 World Series to the nation's capital, and the championship ball club he helped create stands as a reminder of the love he had for this great game and the passion he had for giving back to his hometown.

In addition to his many accomplishments in business and in sports, Mr. Lerner championed the creation of opportunities for all residents of the region and was instrumental in the foundation of the Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy, which provides year-round programming and resources in one of the city's most underserved neighborhoods. Mr. Lerner led by example through his family's own, private philanthropy and set the tone for the ball club's company-wide culture of giving, which still extends into the clubhouse, front office and in the stands. He was honored with the Washington Nationals Philanthropies "Power of Baseball Award" in 2022 in recognition of the many ways he's improved the city of Washington, D.C. and the lives of its residents.

A founding member of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Mr. Lerner was awarded the Golden Plate Award of Excellence from the American Academy of Achievement in 1990. He is a member of the Washington Business Hall of Fame (2003), The George Washington University School of Business Sports Executives Hall of Fame (2007), Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington Sports Hall of Fame (2007) and Washington D.C. Sports Hall of Fame (2014). He received the Thomas G. Corcoran Award by the University Club of D.C in 2014, and in 2015 was awarded the Urban Land Institute Lifetime Achievement Award.

Mr. Lerner's love for this sport, this city and this team built a legacy that will not be forgotten.

ANNETTE M. LERNER

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Annette Morris Lerner was born in Washington, D.C., and grew up in the Silver Spring, Md., area and the eastern shore of Maryland. She has participated in many community projects and supported numerous philanthropic organizations. Mrs. Lerner is both an artist and a collector of fine arts, and is presently on the board of the Palm Springs Art Museum, where she has a winter home.

MARK D. LERNER

MANAGING PRINCIPAL OWNER AND VICE CHAIRMAN

Mark D. Lerner is a native Washingtonian and Managing Principal Owner and Vice Chairman of the 2019 World Series Champion Washington Nationals. He is also a Principal of Lerner Enterprises, one of the largest private real estate developers in the Washington, D.C. area. The company was founded in 1952 by Mark's father, Theodore N. Lerner, and is involved in all phases of real estate including planning, development, construction, leasing, asset and property management. The Lerner organization has developed millions of square feet of office buildings, retail centers, hotels and residential communities in the Washington, D.C., Maryland and Virginia area. He received his BBA from The George Washington University in 1975.

An enthusiastic sports fan since childhood, Mark also represents the Lerner, Cohen and Tanenbaum families as a Partner in Monumental Sports & Entertainment – the sports investment group that owns the 2018 NHL Stanley Cup Champion Washington Capitals, the NBA Washington Wizards, the 2019 WNBA Champion Washington Mystics, and the Capital One Arena. Mark holds numerous volunteer positions within the community. He is currently on the Council of Advisors of the Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington, a member of the Board of Directors of The George Washington University Hillel, a member of the Advisory Board of Israel Bonds, a member of the board of the Washington DC Sports Hall of Fame, Vice President of The Annette M. and Theodore N. Lerner Family Foundation, and an Officer of Washington Nationals Philanthropies. In 2007, he received the prestigious Chadesh Yameinu Award from the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School in Rockville, Maryland, where he previously served as a member of the Board of Directors and as Chair of the Building & Grounds Committee. He was also Co-Chair of the 2004 JCC Maccabi Games of Greater Washington. In 2015, he was awarded Trendsetter of the Year in commercial real estate by Transwestern and Delta Associates. In 2018, the Lerner family was awarded the Irene and Abe Pollin Humanitarian Award by the Bender Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington. In December 2020, the Washington Business Hall of Fame and Junior Achievement of Greater Washington named him a Laureate inductee. This award celebrated his professional and philanthropic contributions to the quality of life in Greater Washington through the private sector economy. In 2022, Mark was inducted into the Washington DC Sports Hall of Fame. In addition, he also sits on Major League Baseball's Competition, Business and Audit Committees.

Adding to this history of community involvement in the Washington area, the Lerner family is pleased to expand their participation in the region through Washington Nationals Philanthropies. This includes major projects such as the state-of-the-art Nationals Youth Baseball Academy in Ward 7 and the Nationals Diabetes Care Complex at Children's National Medical Center. In addition, The Lerner Family Foundation and Nationals Philanthropies helped to create the Nationals Miracle Field in Germantown, Maryland, to encourage disabled children to play baseball. The team also hosts player trips to visit active military and veterans at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, and hosts and honors returning veterans at each of their home games.

Mark resides in Washington with his wife of 45 years, Judy Lenkin Lerner. They have three married children and five grandchildren.

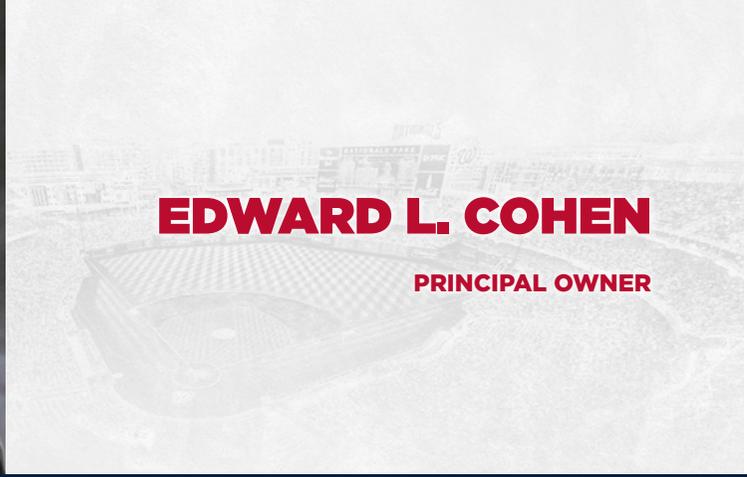

JUDY LENKIN LERNER

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Judy Lenkin Lerner is a native Washingtonian. She works for many community and educational volunteer programs in the Washington area.

She is also President of the Judy and Mark Lerner Family Foundation which supports many local organizations.

EDWARD L. COHEN

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Edward L. Cohen is a Principal Owner and Vice Chairman of the Washington Nationals Baseball Club. Ed is also a Principal of Lerner Enterprises, a private real estate development and investment company in the greater Washington, D.C. area and Executive Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer of Lerner Corporation, the leasing and management affiliate of Lerner Enterprises.

After graduating from the University of Pennsylvania, he earned a J.D. degree from Georgetown University Law Center. Prior to being involved in baseball or real estate, he was a lawyer specializing in nuclear energy matters.

Some of the Boards on which he serves include: The Congressional Award; Georgetown University; and The Duke Ellington School.

DEBRA LERNER COHEN

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Debra Lerner Cohen is a Principal of Lerner Enterprises and an Officer of The Annette M. and Theodore N. Lerner Family Foundation, supporting numerous charitable causes in and around Washington, D.C. She is an Officer of the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation, serving the youth of the city by focusing on their education, health and recreation. She was born and raised in the Washington, D.C. area, and earned her BA from The American University.

Ms. Cohen served as a presidential appointment to the council of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and as chairman for its Committee on Collections and Acquisitions. Additionally, she is a former chairman of the board of the American Committee for the Weizmann Institute of Science in Washington. She is a former member of the board of Imagination Stage, a theater arts center serving the area's youth and was also the co-chair of the Capital Campaign for Georgetown Day High School. In 2007, Ms. Cohen was the recipient of the Washington D.C. Jewish Community Center President's Award following long service on its board. In 2019 and again in 2021 she was honored to be listed in Washingtonian magazine as one of Washington's Most Powerful Women in Business as a Principal Owner of the Washington Nationals

ROBERT K. TANENBAUM

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Robert Tanenbaum is a Principal in Lerner Enterprises, the largest privately held real estate development and management company in the Washington, D.C. area. He also is a Principal Owner and Vice Chairman of the Washington Nationals Major League Baseball Club.

Born in Rochester, N.Y., Mr. Tanenbaum is a summa cum laude graduate of Union College, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He moved to Washington in 1979 to attend law school at the George Washington University and earned a J.D. in 1982. In 2021, he was named a Monumental Alum, which recognizes graduates of GWU who have made an impact on the world through their work and service.

Bob is a member of the Real Estate Roundtable, a non-profit public policy organization based in Washington, D.C. that represents the interests of real estate. He is a member of the Federal City Council, and was a Trustee of the George Washington University for twelve years. During his tenure, he chaired the Committee on Governance and Nominations, the Committee on Endowment and Investments, and the Committee on Academic Affairs. Bob is a member of the Vassar College Board of Trustees. He and his wife are also involved in a variety of other educational, political, and community activities.

MARLA LERNER TANENBAUM

PRINCIPAL OWNER

Marla Lerner Tanenbaum serves as the founding chair and board member of Washington Nationals Philanthropies and as president of her family's philanthropic foundation, The Annette M. and Theodore N. Lerner Family Foundation, which has distributed millions of dollars in the capital region.

Established in 2020, Nationals Philanthropies combines the work of the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation and Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy, of which Marla was chair and vice chair, respectively. Since 2006, Marla has spearheaded the Nationals' community impact efforts, laying the groundwork for Nationals Philanthropies to become a civic partner to every Washingtonian interested in making a positive difference in our region and a leading philanthropic organization in professional sports.

In the spirit of #Nats4Good, Nationals Philanthropies catalyzes the energy of Nationals fans and the generosity and philanthropic goals of Nationals players, corporate champions, and community partners to fuel even greater good for a better Washington. In 2020, a total of 50 community impact grants were disbursed to nonprofit partners across the region to support critical programs and services. This marks a record number of grants issued by the Nationals foundation in a given year, demonstrating the collective power of the Nationals family to deliver direct support to our neighbors when they need it most. Philanthropic efforts are highlighted by the organization's programmatic arm, the Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy, which implements holistic youth development programming and hosts games and community events serving thousands of young people and other area residents throughout the year at its nine-acre education and recreation campus in the Ward 7 neighborhood of Ft. Dupont Park.

Nationals Philanthropies builds on the legacy of the Dream Foundation and its indelible impact on the region made through field refurbishments, grants to local non-profits, and the Washington Nationals Diabetes Care Complex at Children's National Medical Center.

Marla, who sits on Major League Baseball's Diversity Committee, is also a former chair of the board for the Koby Mandell Foundation, which sponsors healing programs and camps for children who have lost family to acts of terror in Israel. She is a past chair and current member of the Anti-Defamation League's Washington, D.C. region and a member of the National Board of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. She is presently serving on the Anti-Defamation League's Sports Leadership Council.

MIKE RIZZO

PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Now in his 16th season as the head of the Washington Nationals baseball operations, Mike Rizzo is the second-longest tenured General Manager in Major League Baseball. Rizzo is widely recognized throughout the baseball industry for his sharp eye in scouting, his wise free agent signings and his ability to construct organizations around the acquired talent. With an emphasis on scouting and drafting the best amateur talent, Washington's player development system is considered amongst the best in baseball. Rizzo's shrewd trades and free agent signings helped the nationals achieve consistent success.

Rizzo was promoted to President of Baseball Operations and General Manager on Aug. 1, 2013 after serving as executive vice president and general manager since 2010. In 2023, he agreed to a multi-year contract extension.

On June 24, 2021, Rizzo celebrated his 1,000th win as general manager. In doing so, he became the ninth active President of Baseball Operations/General Manager to reach the 1,000 win mark and the sixth active to reach the milestone with one team.

The Nationals first ever World Series Championship in 2019, Rizzo's 11th season leading the organization, represented the culmination of his transformation of the bare bones organization that arrived in Washington, D.C. in 2005 after a 33-year absence. Following the Game 7 come-from-behind win over the Houston Astros, Rizzo saluted owner Ted Lerner and honored his own father, Phil Rizzo, a long-time scout who was one of Rizzo's first hires.

On the stage at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Rizzo held the Commissioner's Trophy and exclaimed:

"For our 94-year-old Owner, for my 90-year-old Dad – special assistant to the GM. To all of the scouts and player development people out there, to the players who make it all happen, we're World Champs tonight!"

Phil Rizzo passed away just three months after watching his son win the World Series.

Mike Rizzo was the first and most significant hire made by the Lerner Family after assuming control of the Nationals franchise. Brought in initially as an assistant general manager, the Nationals were ranked near the bottom of the standings. Thus began a makeover in talent, teaching, culture and character. The 2007 First-Year Player Draft, Rizzo's first with the organization, marked the start of his dramatic impact. The draft was rated by Baseball America as the best in baseball. In the spring of 2009, as the newly appointed general manager, Rizzo steadied the Nationals operation in the Dominican Republic, relocating their complex to Boca Chica. The team's Dominican Republic operation has since become one of the most respected in baseball.

Under Rizzo's leadership from 2012-19, the Nationals evolved into one of Major League Baseball's perennially elite clubs, winning the World Series in 2019 as a Wild Card and earning four National League East titles (2012, 2014, 2016, 2017).

Several seminal moments helped propel the Nationals forward. On Dec. 5, 2010, Rizzo signed right fielder Jayson Werth to a seven-year contract, sending the signal to the industry and the fan base that the Nationals were ready to compete for the best talent in the game. The deal transformed the perception of the team. A year later, Rizzo was instrumental in signing franchise cornerstone, Ryan Zimmerman, to a six-year contract extension. In June 2011, Rizzo appointed Davey Johnson to manager. Johnson proceeded to lead the team to its first Postseason appearance in 2012. Solidifying arguably the best rotation in the Major Leagues, Rizzo and the Lerner Family signed 2013 American League Cy Young Award winner, right-handed pitcher Max Scherzer to a seven-year contract and introduced him to D.C. on Jan. 21, 2015.

Two years later, Rizzo pulled off a three-team trade that yielded shortstop Trea Turner and right-handed pitcher Joe Ross from the San Diego Padres in exchange for Steven Souza Jr. (Tampa Bay) among other players.

In recognition of his achievements, Rizzo has been honored with numerous significant awards (see box to the right).

On December 15, 2023, he was inducted into the eminent Italian American Sports Hall of Fame in Chicago.

Raised in Chicago, Rizzo is a third-generation scout. He learned the game from his father, Phil, who spent 50 years in professional baseball and his grandfather, Vito.

Long-time Major League player, coach and manager, the late Chuck Cottier was a close family friend and a formative influence during Rizzo's early years in baseball. He shared his wealth of Major League insight and information throughout Mike's career.

Rizzo began his baseball career as a Minor League infielder in the California Angels organization. After being released, he served as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois while earning a bachelor's degree in communications.

Rizzo began his scouting career with the hometown Chicago White Sox (1986-92) and made his mark by signing future Hall of Famer and two-time American League Most Valuable Player, Frank Thomas. Thomas, in his Hall of Fame induction speech, thanked Mike Rizzo for recognizing his talent and for his confidence in drafting him into the White Sox organization. Rizzo continued to broaden his experience with the Boston Red Sox, working as an area supervisor, international scout and Major League advance scout from 1992-98.

In 1998, Rizzo joined the Arizona Diamondbacks a scouting supervisor, rising to become director of scouting. He helped develop a nucleus of Major League talent that, in 2001, earned him his first World Series ring. Those players included Brandon Webb (2006 American League Cy Young), Brett Anderson, Carlos Gonzalez, Chad Tracy, Justin Upton, Stephen Drew, Dan Uggla, Micah Owings, Tony Pena, Mark Reynolds, Conor Jackson, Miguel Montero, Chris Snyder, Carlos Quentin and most significantly, Max Scherzer, all signed under Rizzo's watch. He would bring his eye for talent to Washington in building an organization from the bottom up.

Following Washington's World Series win in 2019, confronted with the realities of baseball economics, Rizzo supervised the dismantling of the championship team he had created, trading several beloved Nationals for core players of the future.

In the span of approximately 26 hours between July 29-30, 2021, Rizzo and his staff acquired 12 players via six trades that brought Major League talent, top prospects and organizational depth to Washington's Minor League system. Those trades included the additions of a potential front-line starting pitcher in Josiah Gray and one of the top prospects in baseball, catcher Keibert Ruiz.

At the 2022 Trade Deadline, Rizzo strengthened Washington's 40-man roster and fortified the organization's player development system by acquiring some of the top prospects in baseball. Upon being acquired by the Nationals, shortstop CJ Abrams had an almost immediate impact at the Major League level, while left-handed pitcher MacKenzie Gore will be a pillar of Washington's starting rotation for years to come. Outfielders James Wood and Robert Hassell III are two of the top prospects in baseball, and right-handed pitcher Jarlin Susana is likely to join them in the coming seasons.

With the No. 2 pick in the 2023 First-Year Player Draft, the Nationals selected the top position player and one of the most decorated college baseball players of all-time, outfielder Dylan Crews from Louisiana State University. Crews enters the 2024 season as the No. 6 prospect in all of baseball, according to Baseball America.

During an already busy 2023 offseason, Mike and his wife, Jodi, welcomed Santino Sonny Joseph Rizzo (roster name: Sonny), born January 20, 2023 and weighing in at a solid 7 lbs., 3 oz., the Nationals most important 2023 acquisition. Sonny joins his older brother, Michael Jr., a business consultant in San Diego. The Rizzos split their time between Washington, D.C. and West Palm Beach, Florida, site of the Nationals Spring Training and player development facility.

On March 12, 2024, Mike and Jodi announced the formation of The Rizzo Family Foundation. 'Riz Kids' will champion educational equity and invest in children and their families in Washington, D.C., through community grants, scholarship opportunities, and memorable life experiences in the game of baseball to help cultivate stronger communities.

Prior to joining the Nationals, Missy was a principal at the Boston Consulting Group (BCG), working with companies across the consumer industry. She also spent time at Monumental Sports and Entertainment as part of their corporate development team and was responsible for analyzing and implementing new revenue initiatives across the organization.

Missy is a proud graduate of the University of Virginia, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in History as well as an MBA from the Darden School of Business. She grew up in Virginia Beach, Va. and currently resides in Washington, D.C.

VALERIE TODRYK KREBS

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Valerie Todryk Krebs is in her third season with the Washington Nationals, having joined the organization in October 2021 as Executive Director, Communications, before assuming the role of Vice President, Communications in October 2023. In her current position, she oversees all aspects of the department, including corporate and baseball communications.

Prior to joining the Nationals, Krebs spent eight years with FOX Sports working out of the network's New York offices. She handled publicity and communications for several of the network's top properties, including college football, college basketball and digital programming, and worked on major national and international events, including multiple Super Bowls and World Cups.

Krebs spent six years at the Big Ten Conference in Chicago in a variety of roles, including as the communications lead for its men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball and volleyball programs. While at the Big Ten, she worked on two rounds of expansion and realignment as well as the launch of the Big Ten Network, the first conference-owned television property.

A Wisconsin native, Krebs graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a bachelor's degree in journalism. She and her husband Ryan have two rescue dogs, Buddy and Teddy.

MATT LEMIRE

VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Matt Lemire joined the Nationals in January, 2007 as an account manager in the premium sales department and transitioned to corporate partnerships in December, 2009. Since joining the corporate partnership department, Matt has held a number of sales positions leading to his current role as the Vice President of Corporate Partnerships. As the Vice President, he oversees all partnership relationships, both on the sales and activation side, in addition to leading the premium suites sales and service team.

Prior to joining the Nationals, Matt worked as a residential real estate loan officer focused on new construction financing. He earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Economics from Mary Washington College, where he was also a four-year member of the school's baseball team.

Matt currently lives in Fairfax, Va. with his wife, Caroline, son, Benjamin, and daughters, Quinn and Fiona.

GREGORY MONAHAN

VICE PRESIDENT, PUBLIC SAFETY AND SECURITY

Greg Monahan is the Vice President of Public Safety & Security for the Washington Nationals Baseball Club. The security team is responsible for overseeing the security program at Nationals Park for baseball games, other special events as well as the team.

Prior to joining the Nationals in 2021, Greg worked for the United States Park Police for 25+ years and retired in 2021 as the Assistant Chief of Police.

Greg is a graduate of the FBI's National Academy and the National Executive Institute. He received his bachelor's degree in business administration from St. Bonaventure University and a master's degree in public administration from the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

JONATHAN STAHL

VICE PRESIDENT, NATIONALS EVENTS

Jonathan H. Stahl was recently named the Vice President of Nationals Events spending the previous five seasons as the Vice President of Experience and Hospitality. In his current role, Stahl oversees and is responsible for growing the Nationals' non-game day events business.

Joining the Nationals just before the opening of Nationals Park in 2008, Stahl has been instrumental in developing the team's customer service initiatives, as well as the Nationals Park food & beverage program, where he helped create many of Nationals Park's original food concepts, including Enzo's Pizza and Chesapeake Crab Cake Co., and introduced local craft beer and locally sourced products to the ballpark.

Prior to working for the Nationals, Stahl worked for Kimpton Hotels and Renaissance Hotels in various front office positions.

In his free time, Stahl works with many local organizations including DC Central Kitchen, World Central Kitchen, Geshet and The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington. He is also an avid foodie and amateur woodworker. A native of Fairfax, Va., Stahl earned his Bachelor's degree in Hospitality from Syracuse University. He currently resides in Bethesda, Md. with his wife, Cara.

RESUME

Dave Martinez is entering his seventh season as the manager of the Washington Nationals after being named the seventh field manager in team history on Oct. 30, 2017.

- In six seasons in Washington, he has led the club through a steady, unwavering approach, consistent strategy and never-ending positivity and support for players...That includes an improbable run to the 2019 World Series Championship.
- Martinez is the longest tenured and winningest manager in Nationals history (2005-pres.)...Passed Manny Acta, who managed 410 games from 2007-09 on May 6, 2021 at Atlanta...With a 2-1 win on June 4, 2021 at Philadelphia, he passed Davey Johnson (2011-13) for the most managerial wins in Nationals history (2005-pres.) with 225.
- Agreed to a multi-year contract extension on Aug. 22, 2023.
- The 2023 season marks Martinez's 36th season in professional baseball, including 10 years (2008-17) as a Major League bench coach.
- From 2015-17, he served as the bench coach for the Chicago Cubs...He played an integral role in three Postseason appearances, two National League Central Division titles and the Cubs' 2016 World Series Championship.
- Prior to joining the Cubs, Martinez spent seven seasons (2008-14) as the bench coach for the Tampa Bay Rays...Martinez joined the Rays in 2008 after serving as a Spring Training instructor for them in 2006 and 2007...Joe Maddon offered Martinez the bench coach job and he went on to serve that role for ten seasons.

2019 SEASON

Navigated a 19-31 (.380) start to become the second team in Major League history to win a World Series after being 12 games under .500 at any point during a season, joining the 1914 Boston Braves.

- From May 24 through the end of the 2019 season, Martinez led the Nationals to a 74-38 (.661) record, tied for the second-best record in Major League Baseball over that span.
- En route to Washington's first World Series championship since 1924, Martinez led Washington to become the first team in Major League history to record five comeback wins when facing elimination in a single Postseason.
- From Game 4 of the National League Division Series against Los Angeles through Game 2 of the World Series against Houston, the Nationals won eight straight games...The eight-game winning streak matched the longest winning streak by any Club in a single Postseason, joining the 2014 Kansas City Royals, 2005 Chicago White Sox and 2004 Boston Red Sox.

CAREER

The No. 6 overall pick in the 2019 First-Year Player Draft has emerged as one of the top young players in Major League Baseball...Displays a combination of speed and power as well as strong defensive ability and instincts.

- At the time of the trade, was San Diego's No. 1 prospect and the No. 9 prospect in all of baseball according to both Baseball America and MLB Pipeline.com.
- Was cited by Baseball America as being the "Best Hitter" and having the "Best Speed" in all of Minor League baseball entering the 2022 season...Baseball America also named him "best defensive infielder" (2021-2022), "Best Athlete" (2020-22), "Fastest Baserunner" (2020-22) and "Best Hitter for Average" (2020-2022) in San Diego's Minor League system throughout his professional career.

2023

Made strides in his first full season as Washington's everyday shortstop...Was the third-youngest player in Major League Baseball to start the season.

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, was one of seven shortstops in Major League Baseball history (done nine times) to hit at least 15 home runs and steal 45 bases in a season...He was the second-youngest to do so behind Hanley Ramirez (17/51 in 2006; 22.282 years old) and ahead of Alex Rodriguez (42/46 in 1998; 23.063), per Elias.
- Ranked fifth in Major League Baseball (3rd in the NL) with 47 stolen bases, the most in a single-season in Nationals history (2005-pres.)...Broke Trea Turner's record of 46 in 2017...Led Major League Baseball with 36 stolen bases from July 7 - the day he moved to the leadoff spot - through the end of the season.
- Recorded 25 straight stolen bases without being caught from May 3 to Aug. 10, the longest streak in Nationals history (2005-pres.)... Was caught stealing just four times, the fewest of any player with at least 40 stolen bases in Major League Baseball.
- Ranked third in Major League Baseball in baserunning runs above average (9.5), according to FanGraphs.com.
- Was moved to the leadoff spot on July 7, hitting .256 with a .430 slugging percentage (12 2B, 3 3B, 11 HR, 30 RBI, 36 SB) from that point on...Had multi-hit games in eight of first 11 starts at the leadoff spot.
- Hit his first career grand slam, April 27 at New York (NL), putting the Nationals ahead, 8-7...Hit first career leadoff homer Aug. 6 at Cincinnati...Recorded his first career multi-homer game, Sept. 11 at Pittsburgh.
- Plated two separate go-ahead RBI in Washington's 3-2 win over the New York Mets on May 13...Capped a four-run, ninth-inning rally with his second career walk-off hit on July 26 vs. Colorado.
- Ranked tied for tenth in the National League with 12 go-ahead RBI.

2022

Was acquired by Washington at the Trade Deadline...Joined Triple-A Rochester following the trade...Was recalled by Washington on Aug. 15.

- Ranked fifth in the National League (1st among NL rookies) with a .314 batting average and third in the NL (1st among NL rookies) with an 8.5% strikeout rate (9 SO/106 PA) from Sept. 3 through the end of the season.
- From Aug. 15 - his debut with the club - the Nationals ranked fifth in Major League Baseball in opponents' batting average on ground balls (.215 opp. AVG)... From Opening Day through Aug. 14, the Nationals ranked 29th in MLB with a .275 opponents' average on grounders.
- Earned MLB Play of the Week Award for his diving stop on Sept. 9 at Philadelphia.
- Recorded his first career walk-off hit, a 10th-inning single on Sept. 28 vs. Atlanta (Stephens).
- Recorded his first MLB hit on April 9 at Arizona, a ninth-inn. single (Melancon)...Hit his first MLB homer on April 16 vs. Atlanta (Morton).

2021

Opened the season with Reds but was placed on the Injured List with left knee inflammation on May 21...Did not appear for the Reds the rest of the season.

- Made his first career start at third base.
- On May 7 at Cleveland, started at second base in Wade Miley's no-hitter.

2020

Helped the Reds win 10 of their last 13 games to earn their first Postseason berth since 2013.

- Recorded his 100th career hit on Aug. 2 at Detroit, a single off Carson Fulmer.
- Started both games in center in the Wild Card Series against Atlanta.

2019

Hit 12 home runs and stole 14 bases in his rookie season...In doing so, became the first Reds player with at least ten homers and ten stolen bases in his Major League debut season since Chris Sabo had 11 homers and 46 steals in his 1988 Rookie of the Year season.

- Had his contract selected on May 3...Made his debut that day at San Francisco...Recorded his first hit in that game, a single off Tony Watson.
- Hit his first home run in his second game, a solo homer off Derek Rodriguez...Hit three homers in his first four Major League games.
- Despite not debuting until May 3, still ranked among the National League rookies in outfield assists (T3rd, 4), walks (T6th, 30), stolen bases (8th, 14), doubles (T8th, 20), multi-hit games (T8th, 28) and runs scored (9th, 55) and extra-base hits (T9th, 36).
- Hit three leadoff homers: May 6 vs. SFG (Pomeranz), June 12 at CLE (Plesac) and Aug. 18 vs. STL (Mikolas)...Joined Zack Cozart (4 in 2012) and Drew Stubbs (3 in 2009) as the only other Reds rookies with at least three leadoff homers in a season.

2016-18

Advanced through Cincinnati's system, becoming their top prospect and a top ten prospect in all of baseball.

- Was Cincinnati's Minor League Player of the Year in 2017...Ranked tied for fifth in all of Minor League Baseball with 40 doubles...Combined to hit .321 with 40 doubles, three triples, 14 homers, 65 RBI, 49 walks, 14 stolen bases and 81 runs scored in 119 games between High-A Daytona and Double-A Pensacola.

PERSONAL

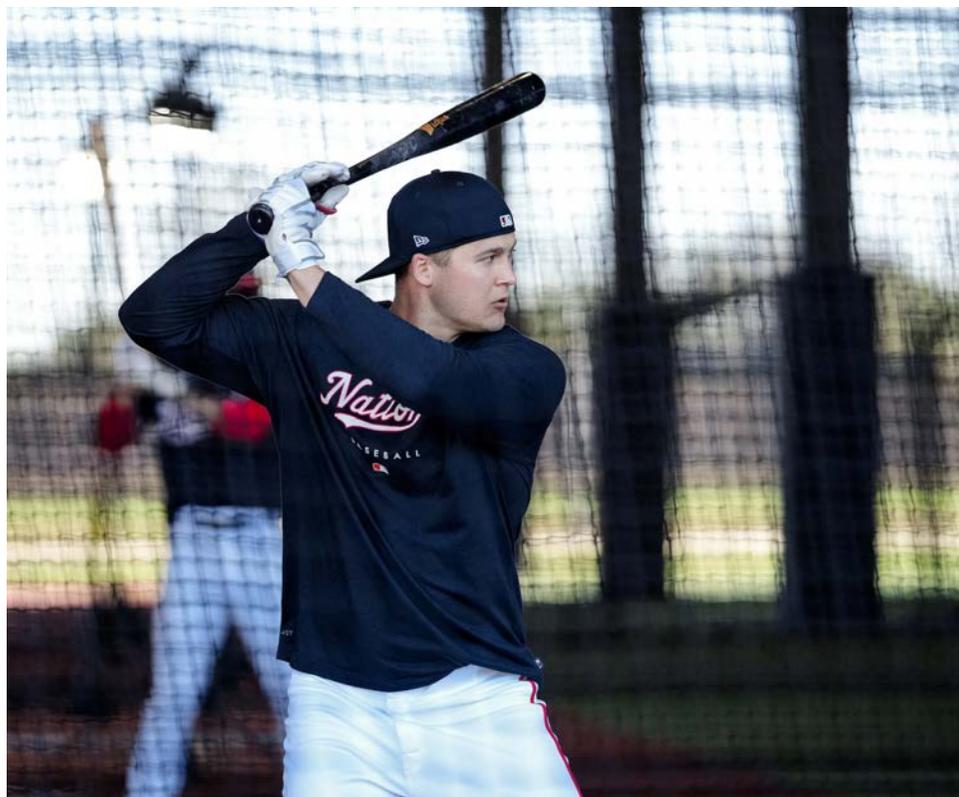

Nicholas Peter Senzel (sen-ZELL)...Graduated from Farragut (Tenn.) High School and attended the University of Tennessee.

- Was a semifinalist for the 2016 Golden Spikes Award.
- Was the MVP of the Cape Cod League in 2015.

CAREER

Tall, powerful right-handed pitcher, World Series MVP and three-time All-Star is Washington's all-time (2005-present) leader in wins (113) and strikeouts (1,723)... In the 2019 Postseason, he became the first pitcher in Major League history to finish a Postseason with a 5-0 record as the Nationals won the 2019 World Series.

- From his debut in 2010 through 2019, he ranked among Major League starting pitchers in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (3rd, 10.60), opponents' slugging percentage (3rd, .352), opponents' OPS (3rd, .631), walks and hits per innings pitched (5th, 1.09), strikeout-to-walk ratio (4th, 4.50), opponents' batting average (5th, .222), ERA (7th, 3.17) and strikeouts (11th, 1,695).
- His 242 strikeout season in 2014 tied for the National League lead, set a single-season team record (2005-present) and were most posted by a D.C.-based pitcher in 101 years (Walter Johnson, 243 K in 1913)...Max Scherzer eclipsed that mark in 2015.
- Has signed two long-term contracts: May 10, 2016 (7 years with opt out) and Dec. 10, 2019 (7 years) that will make him a National for life and cement his place in D.C. baseball history..
- Has put together two historic streaks, a 16-game winning streak (9/15/15 - 7/15/16) and a 35.0 scoreless inning streak (8/19/17-9/17/17).
- On May 2, 2019, he became the fastest pitcher to 1,500 career strikeouts - in terms of innings pitched (1,272.1) - in Major League history.

2023

Did not pitch while recovering from thoracic outlet surgery.

2022

- Returned to the mound in late-May, making two rehab starts with Single-A Fredericksburg and one with Triple-A Rochester.
- Returned to the MLB mound on June 9 at Miami (4.2 IP, 8 H, 7 ER, HR, 2 BB, 5 SO).
- Was placed on the Injured List on June 11 with a stress reaction in his ribs, ending his season
- 2022 Pitch Mix: 4-Seam Fastball (27.7%) Curveball (26.5%) Sinker (22.9%) Changeup (22.9%)

2021

Opened the season with 6.0 innings of one-hit, shutout ball on April 7 vs. Atlanta...Was placed on the 10-day Injured List after his next start.

- Returned on May 21 and tossed 5.1 one-hit, shutout innings against the Baltimore Orioles.
- Underwent thoracic outlet surgery on June 2, ending his season.
- 2021 Pitch Mix: Curveball (30.1%) 4-Seam (29.6%) Sinker (24.6%) Changeup (15.7%)

2020

Had his 2020 season cut short due to carpal tunnel neuritis in his right hand.

- Was scratched from his first start of the season, July 25 vs. New York (AL).
- Returned on Aug. 9 vs. Baltimore (4.1 IP, 7 H, 5 ER, BB, 2 SO)...Took the mound on Aug. 14 at Baltimore, but was removed in the first inning with discomfort in his right hand...He underwent surgery on Aug. 26, ending his season.

2019

Was named the World Series Most Valuable Player and the Babe Ruth Postseason MVP by the New York BBWAA (along with Juan Soto).

- Went 18-6 with a 3.32 ERA and struck out a career-high 251 batters in 33 starts...He led the National League in wins (18) and innings pitched (209.0) and ranked among National League pitchers in strikeouts (2nd, 251), opponents' OPS (4th, .620), opponents' batting average (5th, .210), strikeouts per 9.0 innings (5th, 10.81), WHIP (5th, 1.04), opponents' slugging percentage (6th, .349) and opponents' on-base percentage (7th, .271).
- Along with Max Scherzer (243) and Patrick Corbin (238), he helped the 2019 Nationals become the first team in MLB history to have a rotation feature at least three players with at least 222 strikeouts...They were the first National League team since the 1969 Houston Astros (Larry Dierker/Tom Griffin/Don Wilson) to have three pitchers record at least 200 strikeouts.
- Finished the season strong, going 3-1 with a 1.76 ERA in his final eight starts of the season...Over his last eight starts of the regular season and into Postseason play, opponents hit .098 (6-for-61) with one double, two homers, nine RBI and 26 strikeouts with runners in scoring position.
- Put together an historic 2019 Postseason and was named World Series Most Valuable Player after going 2-0 with a 2.51 ERA (4 ER/14.1 IP) and 14 strikeouts in two World Series starts...Helped the Nationals avoid elimination in Game 6 of the World Series (8.1 IP, 5 H, 2 ER, 7 SO)...In doing so, he became the first pitcher since Curt Schilling (Game 5, 1993) to toss at least 8.1 innings while not surrendering more than two runs in a potential World Series elimination game.
- All told, he became the first pitcher in Major League history to finish a Postseason with a 5-0 record...Recorded a 1.98 ERA (8 ER/36.1 IP) and 47 strikeouts against just four walks in six Postseason games (five starts)...Opponents went 2-for-22 (.091) with 11 strikeouts and one walk with runners in scoring position during the Postseason.
- He made his first career relief appearance in the Wild Card game against Milwaukee, tossing 3.0 innings of two-hit, shutout ball to help Washington top the Milwaukee Brewers, 4-3.

2018

Started his ninth season strong, going 6-5 with a 3.20 ERA in his first 12 starts before exiting his start on June 8 with right shoulder inflammation.

- At the time of the injury, he ranked among National League pitchers in strikeouts (4th, 93), strikeout-to-walk ratio (5th, 4.89), WHIP (7th, 1.06), opp. OBP (7th, .274) and wins (17th, 6).
- Put together his strongest start of the season on April 10 vs. Atlanta...Tossed 8.0 innings of three-hit, shutout ball, striking out eight in Washington's 4-1 win.
- Returned from disabled list on July 20, but again was placed on the Injured List on July 22 with a cervical nerve impingement.
- Was reinstated on Aug. 22 and finished the season strong, going 4-0 with a 2.66 ERA (12 ER/40.2 IP) and 50 strikeouts in his final seven starts...The Nationals went 6-1 in those starts...Recorded four double-digit strikeout games on the season.

2017

Put together a strong first half of the season en route to being named an All-Star for the third time in his career

- Ranked third in the National League (4th in MLB) with a career-best 2.52 ERA...Ranked second in the NL in FanGraphs.com WAR (5.6)...Also ranked in NL in home runs per 9.0 IP (1st, 0.67), opp. SLG (1st, .317), opp. OPS (2nd, .581), WHIP (3rd, 1.02), opp. OBP (3rd, .265), and opp. AVG (3rd, .204)
- Coupled with Max Scherzer (2nd, 2.51) and Gio Gonzalez (5th, 2.96), Strasburg (3rd, 2.52), helped the Nationals become the first team with three starting pitchers ranking in the top five in the National League in ERA in 21 years (since the 1996 Atlanta Braves), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- On May 27 at San Diego, he struck out a career-high 15 batters in 7.0 shutout innings.
- On Aug. 19 at San Diego, he returned from a three-week stint on the disabled list...Since that game, Strasburg went 5-1 with a 0.84 ERA (5 ER/53.2 IP) in his final eight starts of the regular season...All told, went 6-1 with a 0.86 ERA in 10 starts after the All-Star break...Via Elias, it was the second-lowest post-ASB ERA in MLB history for any pitcher with at least 10 starts.
- Recorded a 35.0 scoreless innings streak from that first start back from the DL in San Diego (Aug. 19) that ran until Sept. 17, when an unearned run ended the historic stretch...It was the longest consecutive scoreless innings streak in franchise history (Nationals/Expos) and, per Elias, the longest for any player in the Major Leagues since 2015 (Greinke, 45.2 IP; Kershaw, 37.0 IP).
- Was dominant in the NLDS...Was saddled with the loss in Game 1 despite striking out 10 batters in 7.0 innings without allowing an earned run (7.0 IP, 3 H, 2 R, BB, 10 SO)...He pushed aside a virus that had made him ill for much of the week to rack up 12 strikeouts (re-setting his own Postseason franchise record for single-game strikeouts) over 7.0 scoreless innings in Washington's Game 4 victory...Became the second pitcher in MLB Postseason history to record a win with 12 or more strikeouts while his team faced elimination.
- Also, per Elias, became just the third pitcher in Major League history to post multiple 10-plus strikeout games and no earned runs in a single Postseason series, joining Sandy Koufax (1965 World Series vs. MIN) and Justin Verlander (2013 ALDS vs. OAK).
- Was selected by the Commissioner's Office and was slated to pitch the 12th inning of the All-Star game had the game reached that point, but it ended in a 2-1 American League victory after 10 innings.

2016

Opened his season in historic fashion, beginning the year 13-0 and on a personal 16-game winning streak that dated to Sept. 15, 2015 (see info box below)

- Was the first pitcher in franchise history (WSH/MON) to win at least 15 of his first 16 decisions.
- With a strikeout of Bud Norris in the bottom of the third inning on April 4 at Atlanta, Strasburg became the Washington Nationals (2005-pres.) all-time leader in strikeouts (904), passing former teammate Jordan Zimmermann (903).
- Recorded his 1,000th strikeout, June 4 at CIN (Straily), becoming the first player in Nationals history (2005-pres.) to record his first 1,000 strikeouts in a Nationals uniform.
- Was named to his second All-Star Game, but did not pitch due to his start on July 8.
- Endured two stints on the disabled list (6/16 to 7/3 with upper back soreness and 8/21 to 9/7 with right elbow soreness)...He returned to action on Sept. 7 but was shut down following that start...At that time, he ranked among National League pitchers in wins (3rd, 15), strikeouts per nine innings (3rd, 11.2), strikeouts (6th, 183), hits per nine innings (8th, 7.25) and walks/hits per innings pitched (10th, 1.10).

STRAS WENT STREAKING

Stephen Strasburg opened his 2016 season without suffering a losing decision until July 21, beginning the year 13-0 and on a personal 16-game winning streak that dated to Sept. 15, 2015...Strasburg culminated the historic start to his season with 8.0 innings of three-hit, one-run baseball on July 15 vs. the Pittsburgh Pirates to open the second half.

- Strasburg became the eighth starting pitcher in Major League history to begin a season 13-0, and the first since teammate Max Scherzer opened the 2013 season 13-0 for the Detroit Tigers...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Scherzer and Strasburg are the first set of teammates (at any point in their careers) to begin a season 13-0 since Hall of Famers "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity and Rube Marquard...McGinnity went 14-0 for the New York Giants in 1904, while Marquard started 19-0 for the Giants in 1912 (18-0 as a starting pitcher)...While Strasburg and Scherzer figure to remain teammates for quite some time, McGinnity and Marquard were teammates only briefly with NYG in 1908.
- Strasburg's personal 16-game winning streak set a new franchise best (Nationals/Expos) and trails only that of Firpo Marberry (17 G, 6/23/30-7/25/31) for the longest by a starting pitcher in D.C.-baseball history.
- Strasburg became just the third National League starting pitcher ever to open a season with a 13-0 record, and the first since Marquard in 1912...He also joined Scherzer (2013) and Ron Guidry (1978) for the sixth-longest streak to open a season in MLB history.

2015

Endured two stints on the 15-day disabled list but finished the season very strong, going 8-2 with a 1.76 ERA (16 ER/82.0 IP) in 13 starts while striking out 110 batters and walking just 12 from June 23 to the end of the season.

- After returning from the disabled list on Aug. 8, through the end of the season, ranked among MLB pitchers (min. 10 GS) in strikeouts per nine innings (1st, 12.5), strikeout-to-walk ratio (1st, 11.50), strikeouts (3rd, 92), WHIP (3rd, 0.75), opp. batting average (3rd, .179), opp. OBP (3rd, .206) and ERA (5th, 1.90).
- Matched a career-high with 14 strikeouts, Sept. 15 at PHL...His 55 percent swing-and-miss rate in the contest was highest by a starting pitcher in any start of $>/=100$ P in past 10 seasons.
- Including his start on Sept. 9 vs. NYM (13 SO), he became the first starting pitcher in Washington history (2005-present) to fan 13+ batters in back-to-back starts...Joined Pedro Martinez (2x, 1997: 6/8 & 6/14, and 8/20 & 8/25) as the only pitchers in franchise history (WSH/MON) to turn the trick.
- Named NL Player of the Week for the week of Sept. 14-20.
- Struck out at least 10 batters in four straight starts, Sept. 9-26, the longest streak in Nationals history (2005-present) and second-longest streak in MLB in 2015, behind CWS Chris Sale (8 games)...At the time, since 2005, only five pitchers had put together a streak of 10+ strikeouts of four games or more: Chris Sale (2015; 8 G), David Price (2014; 5 G), Jon Lester (2015; 4 G), Jake Peavy (2007; 4 G)...His 50 strikeouts in that four-start span were the most in Montreal/Washington history since Pedro Martinez (51, 1997).
- Over his final five starts, recorded 57 strikeouts against just five walks...Per Elias, since 1900, only six players have recorded 57 strikeouts and five or fewer walks over a five-start span: Sandy Koufax (1965, 57 SO/5 BB), Mike Scott (1986, 57 SO/5 BB), Pedro Martinez (1999, 69 SO/5 BB), Curt Schilling (2002, 59 SO/3 BB), Corey Kluber (2015, 59 SO/3 BB) and Stephen Strasburg (2015, 57 SO/5 BB).

2014

Washington's Opening Day starter for a third straight season

- Ranked among NL leaders: starts (T1st, 34), strikeouts (T1st, 242), strikeouts per nine innings (2nd, 10.13), strikeout-to-walk ratio (3rd, 5.63/1), WHIP (9th, 1.12), walks per nine innings (10th, 1.80)
- Led the club with 215.0 innings pitched, becoming the first National to start 34 games since 2005.
- His 242 strikeouts tied for NL lead (J. Cueto), set a single-season team record (2005-present) and were most posted by a D.C.-based pitcher in 101 years (Walter Johnson, 243 K in 1913).
- From Aug. 14 to season's end, went 6-1 with a 1.69 ERA (11 ER/58.2 IP) in his final nine starts...Struck out 56 and walked eight over that stretch.
- Struck out at least 10 batters on five separate occasions, matching a career high (also: 2012).
- Made his first career Postseason start, taking the ball in Game 1 of the NLDS vs. San Francisco (L, 5.0 IP, 8 H, 2 R, ER, BB, 2 SO).

2013

Washington's Opening Day starter for a second straight year reached the 30-start threshold for the first time.

- Ranked among NL leaders in home ERA (3rd, 1.73), strikeouts per nine (4th, 9.4), opponents' batting average (4th, .207), OPS (5th, .588), WHIP (6th, 1.05) and ERA (8th, 3.00)
- Recorded his 500th career strikeout (Christian Yelich) in 426.1 career innings, Sept. 22 vs. Miami.
- Reached the 500-K plateau in the third-fewest innings in MLB history; only Kerry Wood (404.1) and Mark Prior (421.2) required fewer innings.
- Earned just eight wins due in part due to missing two starts, lack of run support (one run or fewer while in the game 10 times) and 10 unearned runs (tied for fourth-most in NL).

2012

Finished 15-6 in first complete big league campaign...Paced MLB in average fastball velocity (95.7 mph)...Earned the Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Award for pitchers upon pacing all MLB pitchers in doubles (4) and OBP (.333).

- Ranked among NL leaders in strikeouts per nine (1st, 11.2), strikeouts (T2nd, 195), wins (T4th, 15), ERA (6th, 2.94), quality starts (T5th, 20), strikeout-to-walk ratio (T5th, 4.3/1), WHIP (7th, 1.12) and double-digit strikeout games (2nd, 5).
- Hit his first career homer in a 9-3 victory on May 20 vs. Baltimore (off Wei-Yin Chen).
- Pitched well (7.0 innings, one run, no-decision) in the first Opening Day start of career, April 5 at Chicago (W, 2-1).
- Earned the win and tallied the game-winning RBI by tossing 6.0 scoreless innings and snapping a scoreless tie with a two-out RBI single in the fifth inning in an eventual 4-0 victory, July 15 at Miami.
- Made his final start, Sept. 7 vs. Miami, having tossed 159.1 innings.

2011

Returned to the mound after undergoing Tommy John surgery on Sept. 3, 2010.

- Went 1-1 with a 1.50 ERA in five Major League starts...Struck out 24 and walked just two in 24.0 innings...Did not allow a homer...Only two of 15 hits allowed went for extra bases (both doubles).
- Capped 2011 by fanning a season-high 10 in 6.0 scoreless innings to earn the victory as Washington won, 3-1, on Sept. 28 in final Major League contest at Sun Life Stadium.
- Joined the Nationals after making six rehab starts from Aug. 7-Sept. 1 for four different Nationals affiliates...In those six starts, went 1-1 with a 3.54 ERA (8 ER/20.1 IP), walking three and striking out 29.

2010

Took Major League Baseball by storm with stellar 12-start rookie campaign, but saw his season end prematurely after leaving Aug. 21 start at Philadelphia with what was later revealed as a torn ulnar-collateral ligament in the right elbow... Underwent Tommy John surgery on Sept. 3 (Dr. Lewis Yocum).

- With the entire MLB community watching, made his MLB debut in a 5-2 win on June 8 vs. Pittsburgh...The debut came one day shy of his one-year anniversary of being drafted by the Nationals...Struck out 14 Pirates in 7.0 dominant innings...In that start, he became only the second pitcher since 1987 (the year STATS, Inc. began charting pitches) to fan 14-plus and throw less than 100 pitches in a game (on April 9, 2003 at Wrigley Field, MON's Javier Vazquez struck out 14 in 7.0 innings and required just 96 pitches).
- Only two pitchers ever struck out more in an MLB debut: both HOU's J.R. Richard (Sept. 5, 1971 at SFG) and BRK's Karl Spooner (Sept. 22, 1954 vs. NYG) fanned 15...By striking out the final seven Pirates he faced, he became just the second player to fan seven straight batters in an MLB debut (BAL's Sammy Stewart did so on Sept. 1, 1978 vs. CWS)...With 14 K's in 7.0 walkless innings, became just the fourth rookie to fan 14 or more in a single game and without issuing a walk...The other three were Roger Clemens (16 SO, Aug. 21, 1984 vs. KCR), Dwight Gooden (16 K on Sept. 12, 1984 vs. PIT & Sept. 17, 1984 at PHI) and Kerry Wood (20 K, May 6, 1998 vs. HOU).
- Allowed two or fewer runs in nine of his 12 starts with Washington...Registered as many or more strikeouts than innings pitched in 11 of 12 starts.
- Fanned 12.2 batters per nine innings (SFG's Tim Lincecum led qualified MLB pitchers at 9.8)...Struck out 33.6 percent of batters faced (92 of 274), tops among MLB starting pitchers (Brandon Morrow, 2nd at 28.3%).

2009

Didn't pitch in the Nationals system after signing on Aug. 16 at 11:58:43 pm (77 seconds before deadline).

- After signing, worked out in D.C. and around the Nationals for the better part of a month...First pro exposure came in the Nationals' 2009 Instructional League followed by participating in the Arizona Fall League.
- In five Arizona Fall League starts, went 4-1 with a 4.26 ERA...Was to start AFL Championship game on Nov. 21, but suffered freakish knee injury during the Phoenix Desert Dogs batting practice on November 19...One day later, a precautionary exam performed today by Dr. Lewis Yocum in Los Angeles revealed patellar subluxation in the left knee...The injury's treatment included rest and physical therapy, but did not require surgery.
- Was the 2009 recipient of both the Golden Spikes Award and the Dick Howser Trophy...Regular season and conference tournament efforts—SDSU went 14-0 when pitching—were largely responsible for the Aztecs securing their first NCAA Regional berth since 1991.
- Went 13-1 with a 1.32 ERA in 15 starts as a junior for Tony Gwynn's Aztecs...Fanned an NCAA-best 195 in 109.0 innings as a junior (NCAA-best 16.1 K's per 9.0 innings)...On May 8, 2009 at Tony Gwynn Stadium, struck out 17 while no-hitting Air Force.
- Struck out 23 batters in the win over Utah on April 11, 2008, tying for the third-most ever in a college game and the most since the 1981 season.
- In three collegiate seasons, went 22-7 with seven saves and a 1.59 ERA (43 ER/243.1 IP) in 52 games for SDSU...Was San Diego State's closer as a freshman... Was twice named Mountain West Conference Pitcher of the Year...Was named MWC Co-Freshman of the Year in 2007.

PERSONAL

Stephen J. Strasburg...Graduated from West Hills (Calif.) High in 2006 and attended San Diego State University

- Pitched for Team USA in the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics...Became the first collegiate member of Team USA since pro players were permitted in 2000.
- Was the recipient of the 2008 Richard W. "Dick" Case Award (Team USA's Athlete of the Year), thanks to two-start stint (2.45 ERA in Olympic tournament) and 2008 performance with Team USA's undefeated (24-0) National (collegiate) Team.
- In 2007, pitched for Torrington in the New England Collegiate Baseball League (1-0, seven saves, 1.29 ERA)...Was named NECBL's Top Pro Prospect and Top Reliever.
- Following his MLB debut on June 8, 2010 vs. Pittsburgh, donated game hat and game ball (ball hit for first out recorded, an Andrew McCutchen lineup to SS) to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y.

TRANSACTIONS

2009 ...Selected by Washington in first round (first overall) of First-Year Player Draft.

2016 ...Signed a seven-year contract extension, May 10.

2019 ...Signed with Washington as a Major League free agent, Dec. 9.

2022

Led the final roster of Nationals with a career-high 17 home runs and a .404 slugging percentage while setting career marks in nearly every offensive category in his first full season in D.C...Was named Player of the Year by the D.C. Media.

- On June 3 at Cincinnati, he recorded the seventh three-homer game in Nationals history (2005-pres.).
- From July 23 through Sept. 11, Thomas ranked 10th in the National League with a .311 batting average and ranked in the top 20 in the NL in hits (T11th, 50), doubles (T13th, 11), on-base percentage (T14th, .364), OPS (14th, .867) and slugging percentage (18th, .503) in 44 games over this stretch.
- Posted a 10-game hit streak from Sept. 3-13 that included four straight multi-hit games...Was one of 12 players to have at least two separate four-plus multi-hit game streaks in 2022.
- Posted a .441 slugging percentage against left-handed pitchers.
- Clubbed all three of his leadoff home runs from Aug. 30 through the end of the season.

2021

Was acquired at the trade deadline and was recalled to Washington on Aug. 15... From that point, led the club and was ninth in the National League with 23 extra-base hits (14 2B, 2 3B, 7 HR)

- According to FanGraphs.com, Thomas was the only player in Major League Baseball to record a hard-hit rate of at least 50% during the month of September/October...Thomas was ahead of players such as Miguel Sano (49.2%) and Giancarlo Stanton (48.1%)...The league average for the month was 32.8%.
- In 45 games with Washington, hit .270/.364/.489 with 14 doubles, two triples, seven homers, 27 RBI, 27 walks, four stolen bases and 33 runs scored.
- Had 17 multi-hit games...Reached safely in a career-high 15 straight games from Aug. 29-Sept. 12, going 21-for-62 (.274) with two doubles, one triple, four homers, 12 RBI, nine walks and 13 runs scored.
- Hit leadoff home run on Sept. 4 and Sep. 5 both vs. New York (NL).

2020

Appeared in 18 games for the Cardinals during the 60-game season.

2019

Made his Major League debut on April 17 at Milwaukee (def. replacement).

- Homered in his first Major League at-bat, a pinch-hit two-run home run vs. New York (NL) on April 19 off Seth Lugo...Became the 10th player in Cardinals history to hit a home run in his first Major League plate appearance...Was the first pinch-hit home run in MLB in a player's first plate appearance in 2019.
- His rookie season was cut short after getting hit by pitches in back-to-back games at Milwaukee, landing him on the 60-day injured list.

2014-18

Began his professional career in Toronto's system before being acquired by St. Louis on July 2, 2017.

- In 2018, led all Cardinals Minor League players in home runs (27) and RBI (88) and ranked in runs (T1st, 84), hits (4th, 136), triples (T5th, 6), doubles (T9th, 23), walks (4th, 50) and stolen bases (17, 7th).
- Transitioned to the outfield in 2017 after starting his professional career as an infielder/outfielder.

PERSONAL

Lane Michael Thomas...Graduated from Bearden (Tenn.) High School outside of Knoxville and signed his college letter of intent to play at the University of Tennessee, but was drafted and signed.

- Is married to wife, Chase...They have one son, Henry.
- Competed against Nick Senzel (Farragut HS) in high school...Despite the rivalry, the two are good friends and now teammates.

TRANSACTIONS

2016.....Selected by Toronto in fifth round of First-Year Player Draft.

2017.....Acquired by St. Louis in exchange for international slot money, July 2.

Dr. Robert Najarian

Harvey Sharman

Dennis Cullen, MD

DR. ROBERT NAJARIAN

Dr. Robert G. Najarian enters his ninth season on Washington's medical team after joining the organization in 2016. In 2023, he was promoted the role of Lead Team Physician. Dr. Najarian is a board-certified orthopedic and sports medicine surgeon. With additional fellowship training in sports medicine and more than 18 years of experience, he specializes in treating the knee, shoulder, and elbow, as well as all sports-related injuries. His area of focus is in the treatment of knee cartilage and ligamentous injury, shoulder instability and rotator cuff repair, and elbow injuries in the throwing athlete (Tommy John Surgery). He has been named a Washingtonian Top Doctor since 2016. Dr. Najarian is an adjunct orthopedic faculty member for Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Georgetown University, and the University of Virginia School of Medicine.

From 2009-2013 he served as a team physician for The Ohio State University athletics where he was also an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery. Dr. Najarian also provided care to USA Rugby and the Triple-A Columbus Clippers. He was the medical director for Capital University, responsible for the care of all 16 varsity teams. During his fellowship training, he served as an assistant team physician involved in the care for the Cleveland Browns (NFL), the Cleveland Indians (MLB), and the Cleveland Cavaliers (NBA) professional teams.

A native of New York, Dr. Najarian now resides in McLean, Virginia with his wife and three children. In his free time he enjoys traveling and spending time with his family.

HARVEY SHARMAN

Sharman, a physiotherapist, enters his ninth season with the Nationals. Sharman came to Washington after 15 years with the Leeds United Football Club in the UK, the final eight as the organization's Director of Sports Medicine/Science. Sharman began with Leeds as an assistant physiotherapist, but evolved into the head of the organization's medical department. During his time with Leeds, Sharman focused on movement dysfunction and, subsequently, the development of injury-prevention strategies. With Leeds, Sharman oversaw an injury reduction of over 50 percent, including a significant drop in soft-tissue injuries (muscular/ligament/tendon injuries).

DENNIS CULLEN, MD

Entering his 19th season as the Washington Nationals Team Physician and Head Internist, Dr. Dennis Cullen is a native Washingtonian who attended Georgetown Prep and Bucknell University. He is a graduate of Georgetown University Medical School and did his post-graduate medical training in Internal Medicine at Dartmouth/Mary Hitchcock Medical Center and Georgetown University Medical Center. Cullen is Board Certified in Internal Medicine. He served as Chief Medical Officer of the Drug Enforcement Administration and subsequently enjoyed a four-year tenure with the National Health Service in rural West Virginia. He is currently in Private Practice in Bethesda, Md., where he practices with his brother and son — Dr. Edward T. Cullen and Dr. Conor Cullen — and Dr. Charles Umosella. NATIONALS NEWS

2023 SEASON

The Washington Nationals finished the 2023 season with a record of 71-91 (.438), marking a 16-win improvement over the 2022 Nationals (55-107, .340).

- The 16-win improvement was the second-largest in Nationals history (2005-pres.) and the fourth-largest in Major League Baseball from 2022 to 2023.

MIKE RIZZO

On Sept. 13, the Nationals agreed to a multi-year contract extension with President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Mike Rizzo. Rizzo is in his 15th year as the head of Nationals baseball operations, and over the last three seasons has overseen the installation of the key pieces that will comprise the organization's next championship-caliber team...The 2023 Nationals recorded one of the best season-to-season win improvements in team history, and the player development system is considered among the best in baseball.

- The Nationals are 1,155-1,172 (.496) since the start of the 2009 season, when Rizzo took over Washington's baseball operations...Since 2012, the Nationals are 947-895 (.514), a top-10 record in Major League Baseball over this span.

WIN IMPROVEMENTS - NATS

T4th	2018-2019 Nationals	+11 wins

WIN IMPROVEMENTS - MLB

Rk.	Teams	Improvement
1st	Texas Rangers	+22 wins
2nd	Cincinnati Reds	+20 wins
3rd	Baltimore Orioles	+18 wins
4th	Washington Nationals	+16 wins
5th	Miami Marlins	+15 wins

DAVE MARTINEZ

Dave Martinez completed his sixth season as Washington's field manager...On Aug. 22, he agreed to a multi-year contract extension that will add to his run as the longest-tenured and winningest manager (392 wins) in Nationals history (2005-pres.)... Martinez has led the club through a steady, unwavering approach, consistent strategy and never-ending positivity and support for players.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARDS

The following players were named Washington's 2023 award winners as voted on by members of the Washington, D.C. media:

- Player of the Year - Lane Thomas won the award for the second consecutive season...He led Washington with 28 home runs, 294 total bases, 101 runs, a .468 slugging percentage and a .783 OPS...He became the sixth player in Nationals history (2005-pres.) to record a 20/20 season...On defense, Thomas ranked second in Major League Baseball with a career-high 18 outfield assists, the second-most in a season in Nationals history.
- Pitcher of the Year - Kyle Finnegan earned his second Pitcher of the Year (also 2021) after leading the Nationals and ranking seventh in the National League with a career-high 28 saves...After allowing eight runs in his first three outings, Finnegan pitched to a 1.42 ERA (8 ER/50.2 IP) in 48 games from April 7-Aug. 17.
- Good Guy Award - Josiah Gray won his first Good Guy Award, presented to a player for his always-professional dealings with members of the media, his work in the community and for representing the Nationals organization with class both on and off the field.

STRONG STRETCH

Washington went 33-22 (.600) from June 24 to Aug. 26, their best 54-game stretch since the end of the 2019 season (36-18; .667).

- This stretch included a 27-15 (.643) record from July 8 to Aug. 26 - tied for the fourth-best record in Major League Baseball over that stretch - and an 18-8 (.692) record from July 29 to Aug. 26.

NL RECORDS JUNE 24 TO AUG. 26

Rk.	Team	Record
1st	Los Angeles Dodgers	37-15 (.712)
2nd	Atlanta Braves	35-17 (.673)
3rd	Milwaukee Brewers	32-21 (.604)

START ME UP

The Nationals used just eight starting pitchers this season, tied for the fewest in Major League Baseball with the Toronto Blue Jays...Along with Baltimore (9) only three clubs used fewer than 10 starters in 2023.

- The eight starters used by Washington matched the fewest in a season in team history (2005-pres.) with the 2012 and 2014 Nationals.

NATIONALS NEWS

BORN TO RUN

CJ Abrams ranked fifth in Major League Baseball (3rd in the NL) with 47 stolen bases, the most in a single-season in Nationals history (2005-pres.)...He broke Trea Turner's 2017 record on the final day of the season with two stolen bases against the Atlanta Braves.

- He led Major League Baseball with 36 stolen bases from July 7 - the day he moved to the leadoff spot - through the end of the season...Ronald Acuña Jr. was second with 32 stolen bases over that span.
- Abrams was caught stealing just four times, the fewest of any player with at least 40 stolen bases in Major League Baseball this season...This included a stretch of 25 consecutive stolen bases without being caught, the longest streak in Nationals history.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Abrams was one of seven shortstops in Major League Baseball history (done nine times) to hit at least 15 home runs and steal 45 bases in a season...He was the second-youngest to do so behind Hanley Ramirez (17/51 in 2006; 22.282 years old) and ahead of Alex Rodriguez (42/46 in 1998; 23.063), per Elias.

MOST SB IN A NATIONALS SEASON

Rk.	Player (Year)	No.
1st	CJ Abrams (2023)	47
2nd	Trea Turner (2017)	46
3rd	Trea Turner (2018)	43
4th	Alfonso Soriano (2006)	41

JOSIAH GRAY ALL-STAR

Josiah Gray represented the Washington Nationals in the 2023 All-Star Game in Seattle...He ranked 10th in the National League with a 3.30 ERA through the month of June, earning him his first career selection...Gray ranked second in Major League Baseball with a 2.39 road ERA during this same stretch and in nine starts from April 6 to May 21, Gray pitched to a 2.05 ERA (12 ER/52.2 IP), the fourth-best mark in the National League over that span.

DOWN, BUT NEVER OUT

The Nationals recorded 16 wins when tied or behind after the sixth inning from the All-Star break through the end of the season, tied for the most in Major League Baseball (with Minnesota and Tampa Bay), according to the Elias Sports Bureau...Prior to the All-Star break, they had just six wins in the same fashion.

- Washington led Major League Baseball with a .750 winning percentage (6-2) in extra innings this season.
- The Nationals improved to 28-21 (.571) in one-run games in 2023 after going 17-22 (.436) in 2022...The .571 winning percentage ranked fourth in Major League Baseball.
- Washington scored 67 runs in the ninth inning, tied for the fifth-most in Major League Baseball.

NOBODY SHUT OUT THE NATS FOR AWHILE

From April 19 to Aug. 19, the Nationals were not shut out, a streak of 96 consecutive games...It was the longest single-season streak in Nationals history (2005-pres.) and the second-longest streak in MLB in 2023 behind the Atlanta Braves (124 games).

- On the season, the Nationals were shut out just eight times, tied for the seventh-fewest in Major League Baseball.

WORTH THE RISP

Keibert Ruiz (5th, .365) and Joey Meneses (6th, .363) each ranked in the top six in the National League in batting average with runners in scoring position this season...The Los Angeles Dodgers (Mookie Betts/Freddie Freeman) and Colorado Rockies (Nolan Jones/Elias Diaz) are the only other clubs to have two players in the top 10 in the National League.

LET'S GO TO THE TAPE

The Nationals ranked second Major League Baseball with a 74.2% overturn rate on challenges...Led by Kenny Diaz, Washington's replay operation went 23-for-31 in overturned challenges this season...The Nationals trailed only the Miami Marlins (30-for-40, 75%) in all of Major League Baseball.

RUNNING WILD

With a stolen base by Jacob Young in the fourth inning on Sept. 30 at Atlanta, the Nationals recorded their 124 stolen base of the season, the most in a single-season in Nationals history (2005-pres.)...They added three more stolen bases on Oct. 1 to bring the final total to 127 on the season.

- Young stole 13 bases in 33 games during his rookie season...No other player in Major League Baseball recorded more than 13 stolen bases in fewer than 50 games in 2023...Only Los Angeles Angels infielder Andrew Velasquez came close, with 13 stolen bases in 54 games.

NATIONALS NEWS

- According to FanGraphs.com, CJ Abrams (3rd, 9.5) and Lane Thomas (13th, 5.8) ranked among the best in Major League Baseball in baserunning runs above average (BsR)...Only the Nationals and the Phillies had at least two players in the top 15 in Major League Baseball: Trea Turner (8th, 7.3) and Bryson Stott (15th, 5.3).

BAT-TO-BALL SKILLS

Nationals hitters struck out 1,149 times, the second-lowest total in all of Major League Baseball behind the Cleveland Guardians (1,142)...2023 marked the fifth straight season the Nationals have finished in the bottom five in total strikeouts in Major League Baseball.

NOTHING BUT A NUMBER

The Nationals were one of six teams that had least three players in the top 50 youngest players in Major League Baseball to start the season...The Arizona Diamondbacks (5), St. Louis Cardinals (5), Detroit Tigers (3), Pittsburgh Pirates (3) and Seattle Mariners (3) also had three players in the top 50.

- CJ Abrams (22) was the third-youngest player in Major League Baseball, while Luis García (23) was 15th and Keibert Ruiz (24) was 50th.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

The Nationals had 10 players make their Major League debut this season...The 10 debuts matched the 2015 Nationals for the most in a season in team history (2005-pres.).

- Thaddeus Ward - April 1 vs. Atlanta
- Hobie Harris - April 1 vs. Atlanta
- Jake Irvin - May 3 vs. Chicago (NL)
- Jake Alu - May 9 at San Francisco

DRAFT RECAP

A rundown of Washington's top picks in the 2023 First-Year Player Draft:

- The Nationals selected outfielder Dylan Crews from LSU in the first round (No. 2 overall)...Crews was the No. 1 draft prospect according to Baseball America and the winner of the 2023 Golden Spikes Award...Crews hit .292/.377/.467 with nine doubles, five homers, 29 RBI, 14 walks, four stolen bases and 26 runs scored in 35 games across three levels of Washington's system in 2023.
- In the second round (No. 40), Washington selected third baseman Yohandy Morales from the University of Miami...He hit .408/.475/.713 with 13 doubles, 20 home runs and 70 RBI in his junior season...He finished the season ranked among all Single-A/High-A hitters in hits (1st, 52), doubles (T1st, 15), batting average (3rd, .354), extra-base hits (T4th, 19) and RBI (T5th, 31) since he joined Fredericksburg on Aug. 1...Morales reached base safely in 37 of 38 games - including 34 straight to start his professional career - while posting a .355/.424/.507 slash line in his first professional season.
- The Nationals selected right-handed pitcher Travis Sykora from Round Rock High School (TX) in the third round (No. 71)...He was a 2023 First-Team High School All-American by Baseball America.

2023 SIGNATURE MOMENTS

4.8.23 - STONE IN THE ROCKIES

Nationals 7, Rockies 6

The Nationals won their second game in a row, topping the Colorado Rockies, 7-6, thanks to a career-game from Stone Garrett...He recorded a career-high four hits and a career-high five RBI, while clubbing two doubles and a home run to propel the offense...Garrett went 6-for-10 (.600) in the four-game series in Colorado.

5.4.23 - CALL ME DEFINITELY

Nationals 4, Cubs 3

Tied at 3-3 in the bottom of the ninth inning, Alex Call came through with his first career walk-off home run...Call sent the first pitch of the inning from Brad Boxberger over the left field wall...This came after the Cubs plated three runs in the top of the eighth inning to tie the game...With the win, the Nationals claimed the four-game series victory.

5.7.23 - COMEBACK NATS

Nationals 9, Diamondbacks 8

Trailing 7-3 heading to the top of the seventh inning, Washington scored a pair of runs in seventh, one in the eighth and three in the ninth to pull off a dramatic 9-8 win, capped off by Joey Meneses' go-ahead, three-run home run in the ninth inning...It was the second night in a row that the Nationals erased a four-run Diamondbacks lead after the seventh inning...Hunter Harvey closed out the ninth inning for his first career save...He worked 1.0 inning and recorded a strikeout and a walk...With the save, he and his father, Bryan Harvey became the ninth father/son duo in MLB history to record saves, according to Elias Sports Bureau.

5.13.23 - CLUTCH GENE

Nationals 3, Mets 2

CJ Abrams plated two separate go-ahead RBI in Washington's 3-2 win over the New York Mets...His RBI-single in the fourth inning put the Nationals ahead, 2-1 and his solo homer in the seventh inning proved to be the game winner...The game was completed on Mother's Day - May 14th - after the game was suspended due to rain in the third inning.

5.26.23 - SIX FOR LUIS

Nationals 12, Royals 10

Luis García matched a Nationals record (2005-pres.) with six hits, going 6-for-6 with two doubles, two RBI and three runs scored...Garcia became one of 74 players in Major League history to record at least six hits in a 9.0-inning game...At 23 years, 10 days old, he became the second-youngest player in Major League history to record six hits in a 9.0-inning game behind San Francisco's Jesús Alou (22 years, 108 days) who did so on July 10, 1964 at Chicago (NL).

6.25.23 - SERIES WIN / MACKENZIE GORE 9 STRIKEOUTS

Nationals 8, Padres 3

Facing his former club, Mackenzie Gore struck out the first six batters and nine in total en route to the win and the series win for the Nationals...He allowed one earned run on five hits in 5.0 innings of work...The six strikeouts to begin a game marked a franchise (MON/WSH) record.

7.26.23 - ABRAMS WALK-OFF

Nationals 5, Rockies 4

Trailing 4-1 heading into the bottom of the ninth inning, the Nationals scored four times, capped off by CJ Abrams' second career walk-off hit to beat the Rockies, claim the series victory and finish the homestand with a 5-1 record.

8.2.23 - WILD WALK-OFF SERIES WIN VS. MILWAUKEE

Nationals 3, Brewers 2

The Nationals won the rubber game of a three-game series thanks to aggressive baserunning in the ninth inning...Trailing 2-1 with the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth, Ildemaro Vargas came around to score from second base on a ground ball to the third baseman, who threw home to get the tying run, only to have the ball sail wide and go to the backstop.

2023 SIGNATURE MOMENTS

8.8.23 - JOEY MENESES LEADS COMEBACK

Nationals 5, Phillies 4 (Game 2)

With the Nationals trailing in Game 2 of the doubleheader, Joey Menezes tied the game in the seventh inning with a two-run homer and then gave the Nationals the lead with a solo shot in the ninth inning to propel Washington to the 5-4 victory...Andrés Machado (1.1 IP, 1 BB, 2 SO), Jordan Weems (Win, 1.0 IP, 2 SO) and Kyle Finnegan (Save, 1.0 IP, 2 SO) combined to hold the Phillies hitless through the final 3.1 innings.

8.12.23 - RUIZ WALK-OFF HOMER

Nationals 3, Athletics 2

Keibert Ruiz clubbed his first career walk-off home run on the first pitch he saw in the bottom of the ninth inning...Jake Irvin tossed 6.2 strong innings with seven hits, two earned runs and six strikeouts with no walks, while Jose A. Ferrer (1.1 IP) and Kyle Finnegan (1.0 IP, 2 SO) tossed perfect relief.

8.13.23 and 8.18.23- 5-RUN COMEBACKS

Nationals 8, Athletics 7

Nationals 8, Phillies 7

In the span of five days, the Nationals erased two separate five-run deficits to earn 8-7 victories...On Aug. 13 vs. Oakland, Washington plated six runs in the ninth inning to earn the sweep...Jeter Downs' first career walk-off hit gave the Nationals their second walk-off win in as many nights...On Aug. 18 vs. Philadelphia, Washington trailed, 6-1, in the fourth inning before plating six runs in the bottom half of the inning and one run in the sixth, eventually holding to the 8-7 win...CJ Abrams' towering three-run home run into the bullpen put the Nationals ahead and capped the six-run rally.

8.20.23 - LITTLE LEAGUE CLASSIC

Nationals 4, Phillies 3

Participating in the Little League Classic for the first time, the Nationals came out with four runs in the bottom of the first inning...Keibert Ruiz plated two runs with a double and Dominic Smith followed that with a two-run single...Trevor Williams earned the win with 6.0 innings of two-hit, shutout ball...The win clinched Washington's third straight series victory.

9.6.23 - JACOB YOUNG WALK-OFF

Nationals 3, Mets 2

Jacob Young recorded his first career walk-off hit to cap another comeback victory for Washington...Trailing 2-0, the Nationals scored two runs in the seventh inning before Young's heroics in the ninth inning...Ildemaro Vargas and CJ Abrams plated runs with RBI-singles in the seventh inning to tie the game.

9.9.23 - FOUR-HOUR RAIN DELAY WALK-OFF

Nationals 7, Dodgers 6

After enduring a four-hour, ten-minute rain delay, the Nationals and Dodgers played an eventful, back-and-forth 11 innings that ended when Michael Chavis scored on a wild pitch in the bottom of the 11th inning to give the Nationals the win.

10.1.23 - CAPPING THE SEASON WITH A CURLY W

Nationals 10, Braves 9

In the final game of the season, the Nationals won a back-and-forth affair to claim the three game series over the Atlanta Braves...Trailing 7-5 in the eighth inning, Washington plated two runs in the eighth before Atlanta reclaimed an 8-7 lead in the bottom half...The Nationals rallied for three runs in the ninth inning, capped by a Jacob Young bases-loaded, go-ahead, two-run single to give Washington the 10-8 lead.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

An aerial, black and white photograph of Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. The stadium is filled with spectators, and the baseball field is clearly visible. The surrounding urban landscape, including residential buildings and parking lots, is also visible.

Griffith Stadium, located in Northwest D.C., was the home of the American League Washington Senators from 1911-1961. It was host to World Series Games in 1924, 1925 and 1933 as well as two Major League Baseball All-Star Games (1937, 1956). It also served as the home of the Homestead Grays of the Negro League during the 1940s. In 1965, Griffith Stadium was demolished to build the Howard University Hospital. BASEBALL RETURNS TO THE NATION'S CAPITAL - 2004

On Wednesday, Sept. 29, 2004, Major League Baseball selected the Washington, D.C. proposal as its choice for relocation of the Montreal Expos. Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig made the announcement. Relocation of the club was subject to certain contingencies, including a formal vote of ownership at the next owners' meeting in November and passage of legislation by the District of Columbia Council to provide for financing and construction of a ballpark on the Anacostia River waterfront in Southeast Washington. MLB also provided the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida the required notice of MLB's intent to move forward with relocating the team.

The D.C. agreement also included financing for the refurbishing of RFK Stadium, where the Washington, D.C. franchise played through the 2007 campaign.

"Washington, D.C., as our nation's capital, is one of the world's most important cities and Major League Baseball is gratified at the skill and perseverance shown by (then) Mayor Anthony Williams throughout this long process," Selig said. "There has been tremendous growth in the Washington, D.C. area over the last 33 years and we in Major League Baseball believe that baseball will be welcomed there and will be a great success."

Selig also said: "I would like to thank the representatives who worked on behalf of Northern Virginia, Norfolk, Va., Las Vegas, Nev., Portland, Ore., Monterrey, Mexico and others for devoting so much time and energy in their attempts to bring a Major League Baseball team to their communities."

At the time, Washington, D.C. was the largest market in the country in terms of population (5.4 million) and television market size (eighth) without a Major League Baseball team.

Even though Washington, D.C. baseball has a long history with the American League, the team plays in the National League East Division, which in fact marks a return to its baseball roots. The first Washington, D.C. franchise joined the National League in 1886 and was part of the NL, except for a two-year hiatus in 1890-91, until the National League contracted Washington and three other franchises in 1900.

But a year later, Ban Johnson organized the American League and included Washington, D.C. as one of its charter franchises. Although the original Senators were mostly mediocre throughout their history, they fielded one of the game's greatest all-time pitchers, Walter "Big Train" Johnson, and made three trips to the World Series, winning it in 1924 in a seven-game series against the New York Giants. In 1925, the Senators lost in seven games to Pittsburgh and lost in five games to the Giants in 1933.

The second incarnation of the Senators came in 1961 in the form of an expansion team. Like its predecessor, the Senators often finished in the second division and had only one winning season in their 11-year history. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. was without Major League Baseball until 2005.

THE HISTORY OF BASEBALL IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

When the first professional baseball games were played in the nation's capital, the enduring symbol of freedom in America - the Statue of Liberty - was still two years away from being dedicated. There were 38 states in the Union and what would become the State of Oklahoma had yet to be settled. More than seven decades had passed since Washington, D.C. became the capital of the United States and baseball was quickly evolving into the National Pastime.

A Washington team was admitted to the National League in 1885 and played during the League's 10th professional season in 1886. Washington played 12 years in the National League - 1886-89 and 1892-99 - but was part of a four-team contraction in 1900 as the National League went from 12 franchises to eight.

Later that same year, former Western League president Ban Johnson was organizing a second Major League to compete with the National League and announced plans to include a franchise in the nation's capital. The new league was called the American League and began play in 1901.

This Washington franchise was awarded to James Manning and Detroit businessman Fred Postal. Manning retired later that year and Tom Loftus replaced him as the club's primary executive. The Senators finished in sixth place in 1901 with a 61-72 mark and would eventually be sold to an ownership group including Thomas C. Noyes, Benjamin Minor and Harry Rapley, among others.

The first of two individual tragedies struck the organization in only its third season as the Senators lost a key figure when future Hall of Fame outfielder Ed Delahanty was tragically killed in July 1903, when he was swept over Niagara Falls. Delahanty was the reigning American League batting champion and his sudden death took its toll on the team as the Senators finished the campaign with a 43-94 mark.

Effective for the 1905 campaign, the team name was changed to Nationals. Newspaper accounts used the names Senators and Nationals interchangeably for the next five decades.

While it took 12 years before the Nationals finished a season with a winning record, the signing of 20-year-old pitcher Walter Johnson in 1907 would signify a key moment in the franchise's history. Under first-year manager Clark Griffith, the 1912 Washington club posted a 91-61 mark and ended up in second place, 14 games behind the eventual World Champion Boston Red Sox.

Johnson appeared in a remarkable 50 games that year - 37 as a starter - and went 33-12 with a league-leading 1.39 ERA and 303 strikeouts. The following year he was even better as he led the Nationals to their second consecutive 90-win season. The "Big Train" went 36-7 with 11 shutouts and a 1.14 ERA, which still stands today as one of the lowest ERAs by a starting pitcher in a single season.

In 1912, 40 year-old team president Thomas C. Noyes fell ill to pneumonia and eventually succumbed to the disease. Noyes had been instrumental in the franchise's improvements since he took over and was replaced as team president by Minor, a prominent Washington attorney. Minor, unable to devote the necessary time to the club, subsequently sold the controlling interest to Griffith and Philadelphia businessman William Richardson in 1919.

Following a 75-78 season in 1923, Griffith made a controversial decision by appointing 27-year-old second baseman Stanley "Bucky" Harris as field manager. Harris was the fifth manager in the previous five seasons for the Nationals, but he guided one of the great reversals in baseball history as the Nationals won more games in 1924 than ever before, 92, and captured their first American League pennant.

In the 1924 World Series, the Nationals took on famed manager John McGraw and the New York Giants. The Series was one of the closest in history as four games were decided by a single run, including the deciding Game Seven. On the strength of Walter Johnson's four innings of relief pitching - on two days' rest - and the series-clinching hit by Earl McNeely in the bottom of the 12th inning, the Nationals won their first and only World Series Championship.

United States President Calvin Coolidge, who threw out the ceremonial first pitch on three occasions during the series, paid tribute to the hometown victors immediately following the triumph:

"I have only the heartiest praise to bestow upon the individual players of both teams. Naturally, in Washington, we were pleased to see Walter Johnson finish the final game, pitching for our home team. Everybody was pleased to see him come back at the close of the last game. The three contests I witnessed maintained throughout a high degree of skill, and every evidence of high-class sportsmanship which will bring to every observer an increased respect and confidence in our national game."

The following year, Harris once again led the Nationals to a record regular season finish as they posted 96 wins and clinched a second-straight American League pennant. Their second trip to the World Series was just as close, but this time they came up short in a seven-game series to the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Senators had a 7-6 lead entering the bottom of the eighth in Game Seven, but could not hold it as the Pirates scored three runs in the inning off Johnson and held on to clinch the series victory.

Johnson concluded his amazing 21-year playing career with the Nationals in 1927 with career totals of 417-279, a 2.36 ERA, 3,508 strikeouts and a big league-record 110 shutouts. He was among the first class of inductees into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., in 1936.

The "Big Train" was not gone from the Washington scene long, as Griffith brought him back to replace Harris as the Nationals' manager in 1929. Despite posting three straight 90-win seasons, Johnson was removed from his post after the 1932 season and replaced by Joe Cronin, the team's 26-year-old shortstop.

Cronin's first season with the Nationals produced the franchise's best regular season mark ever at 99-53 and its third American League pennant. Washington again faced the New York Giants in the Fall Classic but fell in five games to a team led by the pitching of Carl Hubbell (20 IP, 0 ER) and the hitting of Mel Ott, who clinched the series for New York with a 10th-inning homer in Game Five.

The Nationals franchise then fell on hard times. Washington won just 66 games in '34 and the team posted only two more winning seasons over the next 25 years. The team name was officially changed to Senators for the '56 campaign.

Calvin Griffith, who became team president after his father's death in 1955, was granted permission to seek relocation in Sept. 1960, and an announcement was made in Oct. 1960 that the Senators were moving to Minneapolis, Minn.

At that time, the American League announced plans to expand by two teams for the 1961 season. One team would be located in Los Angeles and the other in Washington, D.C.

The expansion Senators fared no better than their predecessors, as they lost at least 100 games in each of their first four seasons. In 1964, the Senators acquired five players in a deal with the Los Angeles Dodgers for pitcher Claude Osteen. One of those five players was slugging outfielder and the 1960 National League Rookie of the Year, Frank Howard.

An imposing presence at 6-7, 250 lbs., Howard brought a much-needed offensive punch to the Senators lineup and the Senators win total increased in each of his first three seasons in Washington. After struggling again in 1968, new team president Robert Short brought in Hall of Fame outfielder Ted Williams as the new manager of the Senators.

Howard and his teammates responded to the "Splendid Splinter" during his rookie managerial campaign as Washington's win total improved 21 games to 86 in 1969. It was also Howard's best year in the Majors, as he batted .296 with 48 home runs, 111 RBI and 111 runs scored and finished fourth in the balloting for American League Most Valuable Player.

Unfortunately, the team was unable to build upon their success in '69. The Senators lost 92 games in '70 and 96 in '71. On Sept. 21, 1971, owners approved the transfer of the Senators to Arlington, Tex., where the franchise became the Texas Rangers.

After 71 years in the American League and nearly 100 since the debut of professional baseball in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., hosted its "final" regular season game on Sept. 30, 1971 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. was without Major League Baseball until 2005.

NAME GAME

At a ceremony held Nov. 22, 2004 in the historic Main Hall at Union Station, (then) team president Tony Tavares announced the new Washington MLB franchise would be named the Washington Nationals and the color scheme would consist of red, white and blue.

The Nationals moniker had previously served two other Washington baseball franchises. A team called the Nationals first played in the District during the 1870s and 1880s, and a second American League team played at Griffith Stadium from 1901 until 1956. Owner Calvin Griffith then officially changed Washington's name to Senators for the 1957 season.

The name was selected based on an evaluation of a myriad of factors, including data collected through local focus groups and other forms of research.

Nov. 1, 2013.....	Matt Williams is named the fifth full-time manager of the Washington Nationals.
Dec. 2, 2013.....	Mike Rizzo fortifies the Nationals starting pitching rotation, acquiring Doug Fister from the Detroit Tigers in exchange for Ian Krol, Steve Lombardozzi and Robbie Ray.
March 30, 2014.....	The Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy opens in Southeast Washington, D.C.
June 24, 2014.....	Ryan Zimmerman mercifully hits a two-run HR in the 16th inning to lift Washington past the Brewers, 4-3, at Miller Park in the longest game (by innings) in Nationals (2005-pres.) history at the time. Zimmerman's first career extra-inning HR is made possible by a seven-reliever collaboration that lasted 10.0 scoreless innings. Washington's defense turns three double plays and individually, shortstop Ian Desmond makes two dazzling 6-3 putouts in the 5.5 hole, while Denard Span made a game-saving catch at the wall in the 14th. Anthony Rendon's 12th HR, a solo shot in the eighth, ties the score at 2-2 and ultimately sends the game to extra innings.
July 21, 2014.....	Gio Gonzalez becomes the first pitcher to record his 1,000th career strikeout while pitching for the Nationals.
Aug. 12-21, 2014.....	The Nationals post a 10-game winning streak, tied for the longest in Nationals history (2005-present). The 10-game streak ties the longest in MLB in 2014 and featured five walk-off victories.
Aug. 24, 2014.....	Stephen Strasburg becomes the second Nationals pitcher to eclipse the 200-strikeout plateau when he strikes out Giants pitcher Ryan Vogelsong in the second inning.
Sept. 3, 2014.....	Adam LaRoche hits a game-tying homer, laces a go-ahead single and legs out the game-winning RBI in a legendary performance (back tightness, bruised elbow, body flu) in Washington's 14-inning, 8-5 win Sept. 3 at the Los Angeles Dodgers. At 5 hours, 34 minutes, the 14-inning marathon was the longest game (by time) in the 10-year history of the Washington Nationals at that point.
Sept. 13, 2014.....	Ian Desmond steals his 20th base, becoming the fourth shortstop in MLB history to achieve 20-20 status for the third time (Alex Rodriguez - 3, Jimmy Rollins - 4, Hanley Ramirez - 4).
Sept. 16, 2014.....	Nationals clinch their second National League East title via a 3-0 win over the Atlanta Braves at Turner Field. By the end of the 2014 campaign, Washington builds a 17.0-game lead over the rest of the NL East, MLB's largest to that date since the 100-win Angels won the AL West by 21.0 games over Texas in 2008 and the largest in the 81-year history (1901-pres.) of modern baseball in D.C.
Sept. 28, 2014.....	In Washington's season-ending 1-0 home win over the Marlins, Jordan Zimmermann walks one and strikes out 10 while tossing not only the first no-hitter in Nationals history, but the first tossed in the nation's capital since AL Nationals Bobby Burke turned the trick on Aug. 31, 1931 vs. Boston. Steven Souza Jr.'s miraculous diving catch on deep line drive to left field by Christian Yelich secures Zimmermann's no-hitter. In the same game, Denard Span sets a new Nationals single-season mark with his 184th hit, a third-inning double.
Oct. 4, 2014.....	In Game 2 of the National League Division Series, the Giants top the Nationals, 2-1, in 18 innings. At 6 hours, 23 minutes, the game marks the longest (by time) in MLB Postseason history (at the time) and the 18 innings played are tied for the most (Atlanta at Houston, Game 4 2005 NLDS) in MLB Postseason history.
Oct. 7, 2014.....	The Nationals are eliminated from MLB's Postseason after falling to the Giants, 3-2, in Game 4 of the NLDS.
Jan. 21, 2015.....	The Nationals sign Max Scherzer to an historic seven-year contract.
April 6, 2015.....	The Nationals are awarded the 2018 MLB All-Star Game, as announced by Commissioner Robert D. Manfred Jr.
May 6-9, 2015.....	Bryce Harper clubs six home runs in a span of three games, culminating in his third career walk-off home run on May 9 vs. Atlanta. On May 7 vs. Miami, Harper (22 years, 202 days) becomes the 10th-youngest player in MLB history to hit three home runs in a game. He is only the fifth player since 1920 (when RBI became a statistic) to hit at least six home runs and record at least 12 RBI over a span of three games.
May 19, 2015.....	Ryan Zimmerman, aka "Mr. Walk-Off," hits his 10th career walk-off blast.
June 20, 2015.....	Max Scherzer tosses his first career no-hitter and the second in Washington Nationals history. He was perfect through 8.2 innings before a 2-2 slider hits pinch hitter Jose Tabata on the left elbow. Scherzer finishes the day with 10 strikeouts as the Nationals top the Pirates, 6-0.
Sept. 2, 2015.....	With two home runs against St. Louis, Ryan Zimmerman becomes the first player in Nationals history (2005-present) to reach the 200 home run mark exclusively with the Nationals. He joins Vladimir Guerrero (234), Andre Dawson (225), Gary Carter (220) and Tim Wallach (204) as the only players in Montreal/Washington history to reach 200 home runs.
Sept. 4, 2015.....	Pinch hitter Michael A. Taylor hits the first pinch-hit, walk-off home run in Washington Nationals history, a three-run homer to center field as the Nationals top the Atlanta Braves, 5-2. It is the first walk-off home run and first pinch-hit home run of Taylor's career.
Oct. 3, 2015.....	In the second game of a doubleheader, Max Scherzer turns in one of the most dominant pitching performances in Major League history. Scherzer joins Johnny Vander Meer (1938), Allie Reynolds (1951), Virgil Trucks (1952), Nolan Ryan (1973) and Roy Halladay (2010), becoming just the sixth pitcher in MLB history to throw two no-hitters in the same season (including the Postseason). Just one baserunner, catcher Kevin Plawecki, reaches base, due to a fielding error by third baseman Yunel Escobar. Scherzer strikes out a then-Nationals record (2005-pres.) and new career-best 17 batters, including a franchise record (Nationals/Expos) nine consecutive batters from the sixth to the ninth inning.
Oct. 5, 2015.....	Manager Matt Williams is relieved of his duties and the coaching staff is informed that their contracts will not be renewed.
Nov. 3, 2015.....	Dusty Baker is named the sixth full-time manager of the Washington Nationals.
Nov. 19, 2015.....	Bryce Harper is named the unanimous National League MVP by the BBWAA. He becomes the youngest player to unanimously win the award and the first player in Nationals history (2005-pres.) to win the award.

Jan. 6, 2016	The Nationals sign Daniel Murphy to a three-year contract.
April 4, 2016	Bryce Harper and Daniel Murphy homer to propel Washington to a 10-inning, 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves on Opening Day. It is Harper's fourth career Opening Day home run and Murphy's first homer in a Nationals uniform. After the game, the Nationals players deliver the game ball to manager Dusty Baker as a memento of his first victory in a Washington uniform.
April 14, 2016.....	Bryce Harper clubs his 100th career home run, and first career grand slam, in the bottom of the third inning.
April 19, 2016.....	Jayson Werth becomes the fourth player in Nationals history (2005-pres.) to record his 200th home run in a Nationals uniform, joining Alfonso Soriano, Adam LaRoche and Ryan Zimmerman. Werth's solo shot with one out in the seventh clanks off the Marlins' home run sculpture in center field, lodges behind a light in the piece of art, breaks the scoreless tie and adds Werth's name to the 200-homer club.
April 24, 2016	In the longest regular season game (by time) in Nationals history (2005-pres.), OF Chris Heisey clubs his first career walk-off home run in the bottom of the 16th inning.
May 10, 2016.....	The Nationals and Stephen Strasburg agree to a seven-year contract extension that keeps the pitcher under contract through the 2023 season.
May 11, 2016.....	Max Scherzer becomes the fourth pitcher in MLB history to strike out 20 batters in a nine-inning game, fanning 20 Detroit Tigers. He joins Randy Johnson, Kerry Wood and Roger Clemens. Only Scherzer and Johnson have a 20-K game and no-hitter on their career ledger. The 20 K's were a Nationals record (2005-pres.), a franchise record (Nationals/Expos) and the most in D.C. baseball history since Tom Cheney struck out 21 batters on Sept. 12, 1962 at Baltimore, but in a 16-inning performance.
June 12 and 15, 2016.....	Jayson Werth records two walk-off hits in the span of four games. On June 12, he laces a two-run single in the bottom of the ninth inning against the Phillies. On June 15, his two-out single in the bottom of the 12th inning gives the Nationals the 5-4 win on getaway day over the Cubs. Werth's excitement carries over postgame, leading to a memorable interview on the field with MASN sideline reporter, Dan Kolko.
June 30-July 3, 2016.....	Danny Espinosa puts together one of the more dominant series in MLB history. Over the course of the Nationals four-game series with the Reds, Espinosa clubs five home runs to drive in 15, a franchise record (Nationals/Expos) for RBI in a single series. He records two multi-homer games in a four-game span, including a grand slam in each of those contests, and in both games hit one home run from the left side of the plate and one home run from the right side.
July 29, 2016	Ryan Zimmerman initiates the first triple play in Nationals history (2005-pres.). With the bases loaded and nobody out in the bottom of the eighth inning, Giants shortstop Brandon Crawford hit a line drive at Zimmerman. Zimmerman stepped on first to double off Buster Posey for the second out, and fired the ball across the diamond to Anthony Rendon to catch Denard Span for the third out. It was the first 3-3-5 triple play turned in Major League Baseball history.
Aug. 23-24, 2016	Trea Turner matches a franchise record (Nationals/Expos) with hits in eight straight plate appearances.
Sept. 9, 2016.....	Trea Turner produces his first career multi-home run game, with the second of the two coming in walk-off fashion to help the Nationals beat the Phillies, 5-4. Since 1958 (the first season with official rookie designations) Turner became the fourth with at least two homers, including a walk-off, in a game he hit from the leadoff spot.
Sept. 17, 2016.....	With a strikeout of Freddie Freeman in the bottom of the first inning, Gio Gonzalez records Washington's 1,343rd strikeout of the season, a new franchise and D.C. baseball record, besting the previous high of 1,342 strikeouts in 2015. The Nationals go on to strike out 1,476 batters in 2016.
Sept. 23, 2016.....	Wilson Ramos' solo home run in the top of the sixth inning is Washington's 195th home run of the season, setting a new franchise record and a D.C. baseball record for team home runs in a season. The previous high was 194 in 2012. The Nationals go on to hit 203 home runs during the 2016 season.
Sept. 24, 2016	With a 6-1 win over the Pirates coupled with a loss by the Mets, the Nationals clinch their third National League East Division title in the last five seasons. Washington's game concludes slightly before the Mets' game, so the Nationals gather in the visiting clubhouse at PNC Park to watch the final outs of the Phillies' victory over New York before popping the champagne.
Oct. 13, 2016	The Nationals fall to the Los Angeles Dodgers, 4-3, in Game 5 of the 2016 National League Division Series, ending their season.
Nov. 16, 2016	Max Scherzer is named the 2016 NL Cy Young Award winner, the first Cy Young award winner in Nationals history. He joins Hall of Famers Gaylord Perry, Pedro Martinez, and Randy Johnson, as well as Roger Clemens and Roy Halladay as the only pitchers to win Cy Young Awards in both the AL and NL.
Dec. 7, 2016.....	At the 2016 Baseball Winter Meetings held at nearby National Harbor, MD, the Nationals acquire Adam Eaton from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for Lucas Giolito, Reynaldo Lopez, and Minor Leaguer Dane Dunning.
April 25, 2017	Trea Turner joins Christian Guzman (8/28/08) and Brad Wilkerson (4/6/05) as the only players in Nationals history (2005-pres.) to hit for the cycle...Not only does he record the cycle, but Turner records seven RBI and becomes the eighth player in Major League history to drive in seven or more runs in a game while hitting for the cycle.
April 30, 2017	Anthony Rendon becomes the first player in MLB history to go 6-for-6 with 3 home runs and 10 RBI. His performance helps the Nationals score a franchise record 23 runs in a 23-5 win over the New York Mets.
July 17, 2017.....	Washington acquires Sean Doolittle and Ryan Madson from Oakland in exchange for Blake Treinen and a pair of Minor Leaguers. From July 18 through the end of the season, the Nationals lead the National League with a 3.40 bullpen ERA.

July 27, 2017In the bottom of the third inning against Milwaukee, Brian Goodwin, Wilmer Difo, Bryce Harper and Ryan Zimmerman club back-to-back-to-back-to-back home runs -- tying a Major League record for consecutive home runs (joining seven other clubs) and marking the first time in franchise history a Nationals or Expos team has accomplished that feat. After a one-batter pause, Anthony Rendon also homers, making the Nationals just the sixth team in Major League history to hit five home runs in a single inning (per the Elias Sports Bureau). Washington's eight home runs tie a franchise record for homers in a single game (July 30, 1978 vs. Atlanta).
July 30, 2017Ryan Zimmerman surpasses Frank Howard for the most home runs in D.C. baseball history with his 238th career longball.

WASHINGTON, D.C. BALLPARKS

Pro baseball teams were formed in our nation's capital beginning in the early 1870s and those franchises played their games in ballparks commonly known as Swampoodle Grounds, Capitol Grounds and Boundary Field.

In 1892, the Washington Senators joined the expanding National League and began playing their home games at a site that would host professional baseball games into the early 1960s. From 1892-99, the Senators played at National Park, which had a seating capacity of approximately 6,500. Although never finishing above sixth place, the team drew fairly well, including more than 200,000 fans in 1896.

When the National League contracted from 12 franchises to eight following the 1899 season, the team was disbanded. However, it would only be two seasons before a professional team occupied that site again.

During those two years, former Western League president Ban Johnson was working to put together a second Major League to rival the NL. In 1901, the American League began play with eight franchises, including the Washington Nationals.

This franchise would play its home games on the same site as the previous National League Washington team, but the ballpark was appropriately renamed American League Base Ball Park and the capacity was expanded to nearly 10,000.

On March 17, 1911, tragedy struck the American League Base Ball Park. The all-wooden ballpark and four surrounding buildings were completely destroyed by a fire started by a plumber's blow lamp and a strong wind. American League Base Ball Park could not be saved as plumbers working on the park's drain pipes had shut off the water supply and by the time firefighters arrived, the grandstand and bleachers were engulfed in flames. At the time, the loss of the ballpark was estimated at $20,000.

Thomas C. Noyes, president of the Washington franchise, gained approval from the Board of Directors to announce that work would begin immediately on a new ballpark with a steel grandstand. With the players at Spring Training and Opening Day less than a month away, crews worked tirelessly to get the ballpark ready for the home opener.

By Opening Day 1911, the grandstands were sufficiently erected for the Nationals to host the Boston Red Sox with President William Howard Taft in attendance. The work on the ballpark continued when the team was on the road and was completed on July 24, 1911 at a final cost of approximately $100,000. Seating capacity was more than 27,000, including a presidential box near the first base dugout.

In 1920, the American League Base Ball Park was renamed Griffith Stadium in recognition of the franchise's owner and president, Clark Griffith. The only major alteration to the ballpark was also made in 1920 as the double-decked stands were extended from the bases to the foul poles.

During the late-1930s and 1940s, Griffith Stadium had another part-time tenant - the famed Homestead Grays of the Negro Leagues. Originally from Pennsylvania, the Grays played half of their games at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh and half at Griffith Stadium when the Washington franchise was on the road. Some of the most revered players in Negro League history played for the Grays, including Josh Gibson, Buck Leonard, Cool Papa Bell and Sam Bankhead, as they won nine Negro League championships.

Griffith Stadium, which also hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1937 and 1956 and three World Series in 1924, 1925 and 1933, remained the home of the Washington franchise until it was moved to Minneapolis following the 1960 season.

The expansion Washington Senators played their inaugural season at Griffith Stadium in 1961 before moving into District of Columbia Stadium for the 1962 season.

After having been the site of professional baseball in Washington, D.C., since 1892, the final game at Griffith Stadium was played on Sept. 21, 1961 as the Senators fell to Minnesota, 4-3, before a crowd of 1,498 fans. Griffith Stadium was demolished in 1965 and the land is now utilized by Howard University. Nearly 1,000 of the original seats from Griffith Stadium were moved to a Spring Training facility near Orlando, Fla., Tinker Field.

A federally-owned stadium, District of Columbia Stadium was a new three-tiered, multi-purpose facility constructed near the Potomac River at a cost of approximately $24 million. The Senators signed a 10-year lease on September 29, 1961 with the D.C. Armory Board for the stadium, which had a seating capacity of 45,016.

On April 9, 1962, the Senators played their first regular season game at District of Columbia Stadium. A crowd of 42,143 - including President John F. Kennedy — saw Senators pitcher Bennie Daniels defeat the Detroit Tigers, 4-1. Interestingly enough, Daniels suffered the loss at both the final game at Ebbets Field in 1957 and the final game at Griffith Stadium in 1961.

Under the direction of the D.C. Armory Board, the stadium was officially renamed Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium on January 18, 1969.

The 1969 Major League Baseball All-Star Game was the fourth hosted by the Senators and the second at RFK Stadium (also first game in 1962). Despite the American League dropping a 9-3 decision to the National League, Washington fans saw future Hall of Famer Willie McCovey hit a pair of homers and hometown favorite Frank Howard hit one as well.

In 1971, the Senators played their final season at RFK Stadium before moving to Arlington, Tex. The final regular season Major League Baseball game was played at RFK on September 30, 1971. Washington hosted the New York Yankees before a crowd of just 14,460 in a game that was never finished. The Senators were holding on to a 7-5 lead with two outs in the top of the ninth inning when fans rushed the field. The umpiring crew could not clear the field and the game was forfeited to the Yankees, 9-0, per MLB forfeit rules.

RFK Stadium hosted 16 exhibition games involving Major League teams after the Senators moved in 1971. A portion of the proceeds from most of the games was donated to various charities. Attendance at the 16 contests averaged more than 27,600 per game. Following is a listing of those games:

On March 14, 2006, Washington, D.C. Mayor Anthony Williams, the D.C. Sports & Entertainment Commission and the Washington Nationals unveiled plans for a 41,000-seat state-of-the-art baseball stadium located in Southeast D.C. Seven weeks later, on May 4, ground was officially broken on the ballpark site. Washington opened Nationals Park on March 30, 2008 with a 3-2 win over Atlanta, televised nationally on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball. President George W. Bush threw the ceremonial first pitch, then Ryan Zimmerman led the club to victory with a game-ending solo shot in the ninth inning.

CAPITAL PUNISHER

Frank Howard blasted 237 of his 382 career home runs during his seven-year tenure with the the Senators from 1965-71. Only Ryan Zimmerman (264) has hit more long balls while representing Washington D.C. Bryce Harper is third with 184

"Hondo" came to D.C. on Dec. 4, 1964 via a seven-player trade with the Dodgers that also netted Ken McMullen, Phil Ortega, Dick Nen and Pete Richert in exchange for John Kennedy, Claude Osteen and $100,000.

A love affair between player and town began almost immediately, as teammates, media and fans alike marveled at Howard's tape-measure home runs, many of which taunted cavernous D.C. Stadium's dimensions.

Howard's 172 homer runs from 1967-70 were the most in MLB in that span, as Hall of Famers Harmon Killebrew and Willie McCovey tied for second with just 151.

Howard eventually represented the Senators in four Mid-Summer Classics and led the American League in home runs twice (44 in both 1968 and '70). "The Capital Punisher" also paced the AL in RBI (126) and walks (132) in 1970.

Howard passed away at age 87 on October 30, 2023.

THE TRADITION OF OPENING DAY IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Each Major League Club has its own unique celebration to mark the opening of the Major League Baseball season, but Opening Day in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., was always a special and sometimes historic event. Washington, D.C.'s Opening Day tradition dates to April 14, 1910. William Howard Taft, the 27th President of the United States, attended the home opener of the Washington Senators against the Philadelphia Athletics. Numerous other government officials, including Vice President James Sherman, joined President Taft at the ballpark.

An overflow crowd of 12,000 fans—the largest baseball crowd in Washington at that time—gave President Taft a standing ovation as he made his way to his seats on the first-base side. Team president Thomas C. Noyes then took the two managers—Washington's Jimmy McAleer and Philadelphia's legendary Connie Mack—to meet the President.

Just prior to the start of the game, umpire Billy Evans walked over to President Taft's box and presented him with a new baseball. Evans instructed President Taft that he was to throw the ball from his seat in the stands to Senators pitcher Walter Johnson, who was standing at home plate, to officially commence the start of the American League championship season. After giving the ball briefly to First Lady Helen Taft, the President adjusted his gloves and made a good throw to Johnson, who immediately gave the ball to catcher Charles Street to have it secured in a safe place.

President Taft watched the entire game, a 3-0 Washington victory in which Johnson hurled a one-hit, complete-game shutout. After the game, Johnson sent the historic ball to the White House accompanied by a note to President Taft asking for his autograph on the ball. President Taft returned the ball after penning the following on it:

"For Walter Johnson, with the hope that he may continue to be as formidable as in yesterday's game. William H. Taft."

Although President Taft was the first to throw out a ceremonial first pitch, it was not the first time a President of the United States attended a Major League Baseball game. Benjamin Harrison, the 23rd U.S. President, is believed to be the first sitting President to attend a Major League game when he witnessed a NL game between Cincinnati and Washington in June 1892. That wasn't even the first interaction with a professional baseball team as nine years earlier President Chester A. Arthur welcomed the Cleveland franchise of the National League to the White House.

Having the President throw out the ceremonial first pitch at Washington's home opener was such an enormous success—not only in the nation's capital but around the country—that it led to the American League granting Washington permission to open the American League championship season one day before the rest of the League. This action was approved on December 13, 1927, in recognition of the U.S. President throwing out the ceremonial first pitch.

Including President Taft's precedent-setting throw in 1910, 12 different Presidents attended a home opener of the Washington Senators a total of 46 times. The Senators posted a 23-23 mark in home openers with a President present.

President Taft (2-0) and Woodrow Wilson (3-0), the 28th U.S. President, were the only two to never see the Senators lose. The only U.S. Presidents never to see Washington win a home opener were Lyndon Johnson (0-3), Richard Nixon (0-2) and Barack Obama (0-1). Following is the breakdown of Washington's record on Opening Day, listed by President:

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES	WASHINGTON'S RECORD ON OPENING DAY
Woodrow Wilson (D)	3-0 (1,000)
William Howard Taft (R)	2-0 (1,000)
George W. Bush (R)	2-0 (1,000)
Calvin Coolidge (R)	3-1 (.750)
Warren Harding (R)	2-1 (.667)
Dwight Eisenhower (R)	4-3 (.571)
Franklin Roosevelt (D)	4-4 (.500)
Harry Truman (D)	3-4 (.429)
John F. Kennedy (D)	1-2 (.333)
Herbert Hoover (R)	1-3 (.250)
Barack Obama (D)	0-1 (.000)
Richard Nixon (R)	0-2 (.000)
Lyndon Johnson (D)	0-3 (.000)
TOTAL	25-24 (.510) Democrats 11-14 (.440), Republicans 14-10 (.583)

Prior to the Senators move to Texas in 1972, each President since Taft was in attendance for a Washington Senators home opener at least once. Several Presidents had to miss on occasion, including President Taft in 1912 because of the sinking of the Titanic and President Wilson in 1918 and 1919 because of World War I.

Since 1972, the tradition of Presidents and Opening Day has continued in other Major League cities. The only two Presidents to never throw out a ceremonial first pitch at an Opening Day game were Jimmy Carter and Donald Trump. President George W. Bush threw out the ceremonial first pitch at RFK Stadium on April 14, 2005 to usher the return of baseball to the nation's capital, then again to open Nationals Park on March 30, 2008. President Barack Obama continued the tradition on April 5, 2010, throwing out the first pitch prior to the Nationals' season opener vs. Philadelphia.

FRANCHISE OPENING DAY NOTES

FRANCHISE OPENING DAY HISTORY

The 2024 season - the Nationals' 20th in the nation's capital - begins on March 28th when they face the Cincinnati Reds at Great American Ball Park...The Nationals are 8-11 on Opening Day, including 4-7 at home and 4-4 on the road...Washington opened 2023 with a 7-2 loss to the Atlanta Braves at Nationals Park.

- The Nationals/Expos record on Opening Day is 26-29 (.472), including an all-time mark of 7-10 in 17 season openers at home and 19-19 in road openers... The Expos went 18-18 (.500) on Opening Day (15-15 in road openers; 3-3 in Quebec and 3-3 when playing host on Opening Day).
- Opening Day 2024 will mark the second time the Nationals (2005-pres.) have faced the Reds on Opening Day...Washington faced Cincinnati at Great American Ball Park on March 30, 2018...The Nationals won that game, 2-0.
- The Washington Nationals opened Nationals Park and earned their first Opening Day victory on March 30, 2008, with a 3-2 win over Atlanta on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball...Ryan Zimmerman led the Nationals to victory with a walk-off solo homer in the bottom of the ninth inning, snapping a streak of four consecutive losses in season openers for the Nationals/Expos...Opening Day in Washington, D.C. has long been a baseball tradition, as from 1952-71, the Senators annually opened the American League schedule by hosting a game.

OPENING DAY HISTORY — BASEBALL IN WASHINGTON, D.C. (1901-PRESENT)

BASEBALL IN D.C. — OPENING DAY

When a Washington-based team has kicked off the season by celebrating Opening Day in the District (as opposed to marking Opening Day on the road), 13 U.S. Presidents have thrown the season's ceremonial first pitch at either a Nationals or Senators game since 1910...The 13 Commanders in Chief to open the season with a ceremonial first pitch: William H. Taft (1910-11), Woodrow Wilson (1912, '14), Warren Harding (1921-22), Calvin Coolidge (1924, '27-28), Herbert Hoover (1929-32), Franklin D. Roosevelt (1933, '35-41), Harry S. Truman (1946, '48-50, '52), Dwight Eisenhower (1953-58, '60), John F. Kennedy (1961-63), Lyndon Johnson (1964-65, '67), Richard Nixon (1969), George W. Bush (2008), and Barack Obama (2010).

WASHINGTON, D.C. AND THE WORLD SERIES (PAGES 9-12 FOR DETAILED LOOK AT 2019 WORLD SERIES)

Washington, D.C. has hosted four World Series, with the original Washington (AL) Nationals claiming the 1924 World Championship and the 2019 Washington Nationals winning the 2019 World Series. Washington needed seven games to top heavy favorites in both Fall Classics. The 1924 New York Giants were appearing in their eighth World Series in 14 seasons and were managed by John McGraw. The Nationals won despite Walter Johnson losing each of his first two starts. However, Washington won, 4-3, in 12 innings as Johnson came out of the bullpen to earn the win in Game 7. The 1924 World Series remains the second of only five World Series to be decided in extra innings of the decisive seventh game.

The Washington (AL) Nationals would go on to play in two more Fall Classics, losing both. As defending World Champions in 1925, the Nationals won 92 games and claimed another AL Pennant, but lost to Pittsburgh in seven games. The Pirates topped the Nationals, 9-7, in Game 7 as Walter Johnson squandered a 4-0 lead after the first inning and eventually suffered the loss. The New York Giants provided payback for the 1924 Series by claiming the 1933 World Series over the AL Nationals in five games.

POSTSEASON HISTORY (AL NATIONALS)

1924

The AL Nationals claim their first of three AL pennants and lone World Championship. The AL Nationals finished the regular season with a 92-62 (.597) mark and a 2.0-game lead over the second-place Yankees (89-63). The AL Nationals won a memorable seven-game World Series over the heavily favored New York Giants, who were competing in their eighth Fall Classic in 14 seasons. The series is best remembered for Game 7. The Giants led, 3-1, in the eighth, but Freddie Lindstrom's critical error on a routine grounder allowed the AL Nationals to send the game to extra innings. Washington won, 4-3, in 12 innings with Walter Johnson earning the win with 4.0 scoreless innings of relief. Earl McNeely's RBI double with one out in the 12th plated Muddy Reul, who had doubled earlier in the decisive inning that included a pair of Giants errors. While pitching in a starting role, Walter Johnson took the loss in both Game 1 and Game 5. Three of Washington's four wins in the Fall Classic were of the one-run variety. The 1924 World Series remains one of only five World Series to be decided in extra innings of the decisive seventh game.

1925

As defending World Champions in 1925, the AL Nationals won 92 games and claimed another AL flag, but lost to Pittsburgh in a seven-game Fall Classic. The Pirates topped the Nationals, 9-7, in Game 7 as Walter Johnson and the AL Nationals squandered a 4-0 first-inning lead and eventually suffered the loss. In Game 3, Sam Rice made the most intriguing catch in World Series history. Rice was patrolling Griffith Stadium's right field for the AL Nationals when, in the eighth inning, he made a dynamic catch of a would-be Earl Smith game-tying homer. Rice toppled over the fence in doing so and disappeared from sight. When Rice reappeared and showed the ball, umpires ruled he had successfully made the catch. Following the game, Rice was coy about the catch and penned a letter that was opened only after his death in 1974. The letter simply said, "at no time did I lose possession of the ball."

The '33 AL Nationals earned a Postseason berth, going an MLB-best 99-53 (.651) and claiming the AL Championship by 7.0 games over the 91-win Yankees. Washington's pitching staff included a pair of 20-game winners: General Crowder (24 wins) and Earl Whitehill (22). However, the heavily favored AL Nationals struggled offensively in the Fall Classic, plating two or fewer runs thrice and hitting a collective .214 with just two home runs in five games. Mel Ott's solo shot in the top of the 10th snapped a 3-3 tie as the Giants claimed both Game 5 and the World Championship.

POSTSEASON HISTORY (EXPOS/NATIONALS)

1981

In a season marred by a six-plus week labor stoppage, the Montreal Expos record a 30-23 (.566) mark in the season's second half to earn Montreal's lone Postseason berth in 36 National League seasons. The Expos finished 0.5-game ahead of the Cardinals in the second-half standings (Montreal played one extra game). Montreal matched up against the Phillies in the NLDS and won a decisive Game 5 as Steve Rogers tossed a six-hit shutout to outperform Steve Carlton for the second time in the series. The Expos' dreams of hosting the first World Series games outside of the United States were dashed, however, as Rick Monday hit a ninth-inning solo shot off Rogers to provide the Dodgers a 2-1 win in Game 5 of the NLCS. To this day, October 19 is still referred to as "Blue Monday" in Montreal.

Eight years after landing in D.C., the Washington Nationals claimed their first Postseason berth by winning the NL East with a 98-64 record. En route to reach the 98 victories and the best winning percentage (.605) in MLB, the Nationals became the first baseball team representing the nation's capital to reach the Postseason since the AL Nationals won the American League pennant in 1953. In the NLDS, the Nationals squared off against the defending World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, who survived MLB's first one-game Wild Card playoff game at Turner Field thanks to a controversial infield fly ruling. Washington stole Game 1 behind rookie Tyler Moore's two-run pinch-hit single, which erased a 2-1 deficit with two outs in the eighth inning. The October-tested Cardinals rebounded in Games 2 and 3 with resounding victories. Game 4 rendered one of the great Postseason games in D.C. history when, with the game tied 1-1, Jayson Werth led off the bottom of the ninth with a game-ending homer that came on the 13th pitch of his epic at-bat. The collective euphoria following Werth's bolt evaporated just 24 hours later as the Nationals squandered 6-0 (after three innings) and 7-5 (after eight innings) leads before losing the decisive contest, 9-7.

For the second time in three years, the Washington Nationals were crowned National League East Division champions, recording the best record in the National League at 96-66. The Nationals finished the season 17.0 games ahead of the second-place Braves and Mets. In the NLDS, Washington faced off against San Francisco, who survived a one-game Wild Card playoff, topping Pittsburgh in the Steel City. The Nationals dropped the first two games at home, including an 18-inning affair that would turn out to be the longest Postseason game in MLB history at the time. Brandon Belt's solo home run in the 18th gave the Giants the 2-1 lead for good. Washington won Game 3 thanks to a three-run seventh inning in which they skipped two runs on a throwing error by Madison Bumgarner. In Game 4, the Giants scored the eventual go-ahead run in the seventh inning when Aaron Barrett's 2-1 pitch played away from Wilson Ramos, allowing Joe Panik to score. Bryce Harper clubbed three home runs in the series, giving him four career Postseason homers before the age of 22, joining Andruw Jones, Miguel Cabrera and Mickey Mantle as the only players in baseball history to do so.

In his first season at the helm, Dusty Baker led the Washington Nationals to their third National League East Division title in the last five years. The 2016 Nationals did so with a balanced attack and a steady approach, with an average of 15.8 wins per month and a 95-67 (.586) final regular-season record, the second-best mark in the National League (Chicago Cubs: 103-58, 640) and tied with the Texas Rangers for the second-best record in Major League Baseball. Washington faced off against the National League West Division champion Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLDS. Jose Lobaton's three-run home run in the fourth inning of Game 2 propelled the Nationals to the 5-2 win, evening the series, 1-1. In Game 3, Washington scored four runs in both the third and ninth innings to take control of the series with an 8-3 win. In Game 4, Postseason veteran Chase Utley capped a back-and-forth affair with an RBI-single in the bottom of the eighth to put the Dodgers ahead, 5-4, and in Game 5, Kenley Jansen (21 IP, H, 4 BB, 4 SO) and Clayton Kershaw (SV, 0.2 IP, SO) came out of the bullpen to shut down the Nationals in the final three innings and claim the series. Daniel Murphy reached base safely in every game of the NLDS, running his streak to 19 straight Postseason games. The 19-game Postseason on-base streak is the second-longest to start a Postseason career in MLB history behind Boog Powell (25 games, 1966-71).

The Washington Nationals claimed their second consecutive National League East title and fourth in the last six years. Their 97-65 (.599) regular-season record was the second-best mark in the National League (Los Angeles Dodgers: 104-58, 642) and the fourth-best record in all of Major League Baseball. At 50-31 (.617), the Nationals owned the best road record in the NL, as well as a new franchise record (Nationals/Expos) for road wins in a single season (50). The 50 road wins were the most for any National League team since the 2011 Philadelphia Phillies also went 50-31. Washington took over sole possession of first on April 18 and did not relinquish it for the remainder of the season, ultimately winning the division by a 20.0-game margin. The Nationals faced off against the National League Central division champion Chicago Cubs. After dropping Game 1, the Nationals topped the Cubs, 6-3, in dramatic fashion in Game 2. Trailing 3-1 in the eighth inning, Bryce Harper clubbed a two-run home run to tie the game at 3-3 and three batters later, Ryan Zimmerman put Washington ahead 6-3 with a towering three-run home run. Facing defeat in Game 4, Stephen Strasburg pushed aside a virus that had made him ill for much of the week to rack up 12 strikeouts (re-setting his own Postseason franchise record (Nationals/Expos) for single-game strikeouts) over 7.0 scoreless innings as the Nationals won, 5-0. A dramatic back-and-forth affair in Game 5 eventually led to the 9-8 Cubs victory, advancing them to the 2017 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

WASHINGTON, D.C. AND THE NO-HITTER

Throughout the history of baseball in the nation's capital, four pitchers have accomplished the feat of completing a no-hitter. Walter Johnson, Bobby Burke, Jordan Zimmermann and Max Scherzer made their mark in D.C. baseball history with performances detailed below.

Walter Johnson

Bothered by what fans and media would later learn to be a "sore arm," Walter Johnson (H.O.F. 1936) tossed the only no-hitter of his Hall of Fame career on July 1, 1920 in a 1-0 win over the Boston Red Sox. Johnson struck out 10 batters and faced just one over the minimum due to a Bucky Harris' error, allowing Boston's Harry Hooper to reach base in the seventh inning. With two outs in the ninth inning, Hooper again stepped to the plate. He connected on a hard ground ball down the first-base line that many thought would be a base hit. Nationals first baseman Joe Judge made a leaping stab and threw to a covering Walter Johnson to record the final out. Writer Denman Thompson wrote in The Evening Star the following day that Johnson:

"...earned it solely on the strength of his superb hurling. It is doubtful if Walter ever displayed more speed. He did not depend upon his fast ball entirely. He used plenty of curves and also resorted to slow balls upon occasion, but when he chose to he lined the ball over the plate with such velocity that it was physically impossible for a human to gage its flight."

Bobby Burke

With Walter Johnson patrolling the dugout as Manager of the 1931 Nationals, Bobby Burke recorded the second no-hitter in D.C. baseball history on August 8th, 1931 in a 5-0 win over the visiting Boston Red Sox at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. The 24-year-old lefty struck out eight batters, walking five, en route to the accomplishment. Remarkably, this was Burke's first start for the Nationals in more than a month, as he appeared in six games out of the bullpen in between starts. Burke's no-hitter would be the last one thrown by a D.C. ballplayer until Jordan Zimmermann accomplished the feat more than 83 years later. Manager Walter Johnson told the media following Burke's no hitter:

"Before I sent Burke into the game, I told him to cut loose...He gained a lot of confidence in those early innings when the Red Sox started missing those third strikes. He was throwing the last pitch over there as if it was the first one and he soon found out he was getting away with it, like we told him he would." - The Washington Post, Aug. 10, 1931

Jordan Zimmermann

On the final day of the 2014 National League East Division championship season, Jordan Zimmermann took the hill against Miami's Henderson Alvarez. Coincidentally, Alvarez tossed a no-hitter on the final day of the 2013 season for the Marlins. Zimmermann was his calm, efficient self, striking out 10 batters while walking just one, Justin Bour, on a 3-2 pitch that home plate umpire Alan Porter determined was just a bit low. Alvarez also spun a gem of his own, with the lone run of the game coming on an Ian Desmond solo home run into the Miami bullpen. Zimmermann's feat would have never materialized had it not been for Steven Souza Jr.'s miraculous play on the final out. His diving, over-the-shoulder catch of a line drive off the bat of Christian Yelich made an out of what was certain to be an extra-base hit. In a moment of pure emotion not usually shown by the stoic Zimmermann, he dropped his head, put his hands on his hips and would later tell the media, he thought "Double. No-doubt double," as the ball carried to deep left field. To make the catch, Souza Jr. dove backward, almost parallel to the ground, in an attempt to secure the ball. When he fell to the ground and reached his glove to the sky, Zimmermann thrust his right arm in the air as the crowd at Nationals Park erupted and the dugout emptied onto the field, mobbing Zimmermann and Souza Jr.

Max Scherzer

Coming off one of the most dominant pitching performances in Nationals history (2005-present), Max Scherzer took the hill at Nationals Park on June 20, 2015 looking to pick up where he left off. In his previous start, Scherzer struck out a then-Nationals-record and career-best 16 Milwaukee Brewers, while allowing just one hit (a Carlos Gomez flare to right field) in 9.0 shutout innings on June 14 at Miller Park. With a severe rain storm in the evening forecast for the Metro D.C. area, Scherzer took the mound at 4:05 p.m. and was perfect through 8.2 innings against a potent Pittsburgh Pirates lineup, striking out 10 batters along the way. With two outs in the top of the ninth inning, Pirates manager Clint Hurdle sent pinch-hitter Jose Tabata to the plate. A battle ensued, with Tabata quickly down 0-2 before working the count to 2-2. With Scherzer on the doorstep of history, Tabata managed to foul off three straight pitches before a slider from Scherzer ran in and hit him on the left elbow. Replays would spark debate as to whether or not Tabata attempted to move out of the way of the pitch, but Scherzer quickly moved on, telling the media: "You just focus on what you can do next. Just move on to the next hitter and go after Harrison, and do everything you can do and just pound him with fastballs. I was able to collect that final out." Indeed, one batter later Scherzer gathered himself and coaxed Josh Harrison into hitting a high fly ball to deep left field that settled into the glove of rookie Michael A. Taylor, completing the first no-hitter of Scherzer's career.

Max Scherzer

With the 2015 season coming to a close, and once again after carrying a no-hitter through 7.1 innings in his previous outing, Max Scherzer took the hill for the final start of his inaugural season in Washington, D.C., vs. the 2015 National League East Division Champion New York Mets. In the second game of a doubleheader, Scherzer turned in one of the most dominant pitching performances in Major League history. Becoming just the sixth pitcher in MLB history to throw two no-hitters in the same season (including the postseason), Scherzer joined Johnny Vander Meer (1938), Allie Reynolds (1951), Virgil Trucks (1952), Nolan Ryan (1973) and Roy Halladay (2010). Scherzer was the first, however, to throw no-hitters against two postseason-bound teams in the same season, and the first to accomplish the dual feats without walking a single batter in either outing. Just one baserunner, catcher Kevin Plawecki, was able to reach base, due to a fielding error by third baseman Yunel Escobar. When his masterpiece was complete, Scherzer struck out a then-Nationals record (2005-present) and new career-best 17 batters, including a franchise record (Nationals/Expos) nine consecutive batters from the sixth to the ninth inning. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Scherzer's 17 strikeouts tied Nolan Ryan (7/15/73 vs. DET) for the MLB record for strikeouts in a no-hitter. When asked about his place in Major League Baseball history, Scherzer said he was speechless. "You go out there and accomplish as much as you can," he said. "When you start talking about that (kind of history), you don't have words for it."

WASHINGTON, D.C. AND THE ALL-STAR GAME

JULY 7, 1937

The 1937 Midsummer Classic, which was the fifth Major League Baseball All-Star Game, was played on July 7th at Griffith Stadium. President Franklin D. Roosevelt was in attendance for the contest, marking the first All-Star Game to be played in front of a sitting President. Six future Presidents would later follow Roosevelt's lead, combining for eight overall All-Star appearances. The American League won the game, 8-3, improving to 4-1 overall in the five games. In the bottom of the third inning, Cleveland's Earl Averill hit a line drive off the foot of St. Louis Cardinals pitcher Dizzy Dean. Dean suffered a fractured toe and never fully recovered, pitching in just 42 games over the next four seasons. The AL started the scoring with two runs in the bottom of the third inning on a two-run home run by Hall of Famer Lou Gehrig. The homer drove home his Yankees teammate and fellow Hall of Famer Joe DiMaggio. After the NL cut the lead to 2-1 in the top of the fourth, the AL answered with three more runs of its own in the bottom of the inning and never looked back. The game featured 21 future Hall of Famers, including Earl Averill, Joe Cronin, Dizzy Dean, Bill Dickey, Joe DiMaggio, Rick Ferrell, Jimmie Foxx, Lou Gehrig, Charlie Gehringer, Lefty Gomez, Hank Greenberg, Lefty Grove, Gabby Hartnett, Billy Herman, Carl Hubbell, Ernie Lombardi, Joe Medwick, Johnny Mize, Mel Ott, Arky Vaughan and Paul Waner.

JULY 10, 1956

The 1956 Midsummer Classic returned to Griffith Stadium for a second time to host the 23rd All-Star Game. The National League, using just three pitchers for the fourth time in All-Star history, defeated the American League, 7-3, for their second consecutive victory and sixth in seven years. The game was highlighted by home runs from four of the greatest players to ever play the game: Willie Mays and Stan Musial for the NL and Ted Williams and Mickey Mantle for the AL. After the NL built a 5-0 lead, Williams and Mantle hit back-to-back homers in the bottom of the sixth inning to make it a 5-3 game, but that was as close as the AL would get. Musial responded with his solo home run in the top of the seventh and his Cardinals teammate Ken Boyer made one outstanding defensive play after another to go along with his three hits to help the NL maintain the lead. The back-to-back homers by Williams and Mantle marked the second such instance, and one of five overall in All-Star history. NL starting pitcher Bob Friend picked up the victory after tossing three scoreless innings with three strikeouts. The game featured 18 Hall of Famers, including Hank Aaron, Ernie Banks, Yogi Berra, Roy Campanella, Whitey Ford, Nellie Fox, Al Kaline, George Kell, Mickey Mantle, Eddie Mathews, Willie Mays, Stan Musial, Robin Roberts, Frank Robinson, Duke Snider, Warren Spahn, Ted Williams and Early Wynn.

JULY 7, 1962

The first of two All-Star games in 1962 was hosted at D.C. Stadium, marking the third time the Midsummer classic was held in the nation's capital and the first time at the venue. President John F. Kennedy threw out the ceremonial first pitch. The NL topped the AL, 3-1, winning its 11th game in its last 15 attempts. Los Angeles Dodgers shortstop Maury Wills went 1-for-1 with two runs scored and a stolen base to capture the Arch Ward Trophy in the first year it was given to the game's Most Valuable Player. Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente recorded three of the NL's eight hits while the AL scattered just four hits in the game with their lone run coming on a Roger Maris sacrifice fly to score Rich Rollins. National League starting pitcher Don Drysdale threw three scoreless innings before handing the ball to his rival, Juan Marichal of the Giants, who picked up the win with two scoreless innings. The game featured 18 Hall of Famers, including Hank Aaron, Luis Aparicio, Riche Ashburn, Ernie Banks, Jim Bunning, Orlando Cepeda, Roberto Clemente, Don Drysdale, Bob Gibson, Sandy Koufax, Mickey Mantle, Juan Marichal, Willie Mays, Bill Mazeroski, Stan Musial, Brooks Robinson, Warren Spahn and Hoyt Wilhelm.

JULY 23, 1969

RFK Stadium played host to the first of two All-Star Games in history to be played on July 23rd. The game was originally scheduled for the night of July 22nd, but rain forced its postponement to the afternoon of the 23rd. The 40th Midsummer Classic was won by the National League, 9-3, marking the seventh consecutive victory for the Senior Circuit. Reds catcher Johnny Bench hit a two-run home run in the second inning to extend the NL lead to 3-0. The hometown hero, Frank Howard, put the AL on the board in the second inning with a solo home run. The NL answered back with five runs in the top of the third, highlighted by Willie McCovey's two-run homer and back-to-back doubles by Steve Millan and pitcher Steve Carlton. McCovey later homered to capture MVP honors. The game featured 19 Hall of Famers, including Hank Aaron, Ernie Banks, Johnny Bench, Rod Carew, Steve Carlton, Roberto Clemente, Bob Gibson, Reggie Jackson, Harmon Killebrew, Juan Marichal, Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Phil Niekro, Tony Perez, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson, Ron Santo, Tom Seaver and Carl Yastrzemski.

89TH MLB ALL-STAR GAME // JULY 2018

Nationals Park, Washington D.C., Virginia and Maryland were at the center of the baseball universe in July of 2018, serving as the host of the 89th Major League Baseball All-Star Game - the fifth All-Star Game held in D.C. (2018, 1969, 1962, 1956, 1937).

89TH ALL-STAR GAME PRESENTED BY MASTERCARD

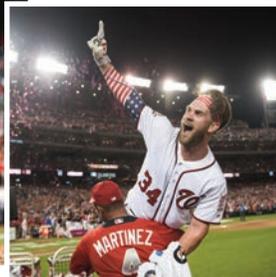

The American League topped the National League, 8-6, in 10 innings. Tied at 2-2 heading to the top of the eighth inning, the two clubs combined to plate 10 runs in a thrilling final three innings. Seattle's Jean Segura clubbed a three-run home run in the top half of the eighth inning, while Milwaukee's Christian Yelich hit a solo homer and Cincinnati's Scooter Gennett hit a game-tying two-run shot in the bottom half. Alex Bregman of the Houston Astros was awarded the Ted Williams Most Valuable Player Award presented by Chevrolet after leading off the 10th inning with a solo home run to give the American League a 6-5 lead. Thirteen of the 14 runs came via an All-Star Game record 10 home runs. Max Scherzer tallied four strikeouts across 2.0 innings while making the start for the National League. Bryce Harper started the game in center field. Nationals manager Dave Martinez served as a coach on Dave Roberts' National League staff. Prior to the game, MLB paid tribute to 29 Medal of Honor recipients with a special video narrated by Bradley Cooper and a unique national anthem with performers dressed and positioned to create a large American Flag.

T-MOBILE HOME RUN DERBY

Nationals outfielder Bryce Harper - with the help of father Ron Harper and motivation from teammates Max Scherzer and Sean Doolittle, as well as former teammates Wilson Ramos and Felipe Vasquez - claimed victory in the T-Mobile Home Run Derby. Harper beat Atlanta's Freddie Freeman (1st rd.), Los Angeles Dodger Max Muncy (2nd rd.) and Chicago's Kyle Schwarber (final) en route to becoming the third player ever to win the Derby in his home ballpark, joining Hall of Famer Ryne Sandberg (1990, Wrigley Field) and Todd Frazier (2015, Great American Ball Park). In the final round, Harper clubbed nine home runs in the final minute and a half before receiving an additional 30 seconds of time. He hit his 19th home run of the round on his second swing, giving him the title. After the Derby-winning homer left his bat, Harper was mobbed by teammates Max Scherzer and Sean Doolittle, and was lifted in the air by manager Dave Martinez.

SiriusXM ALL-STAR FUTURES GAME

Team USA and Team World combined for eight home runs as the U.S. squad topped the World, 10-6. Cincinnati Reds prospect Taylor Trammell earned MVP honors, going 2-for-2 with a home run and a triple. Top Nationals prospects Carter Kieboom (0-for-2) and Luis Garcia (0-for-0, BB) entered the game as defensive replacements.

LEGENDS & CELEBRITY SOFTBALL GAME

The All-Star Legends & Celebrity Softball Game, part of All-Star Sunday, featured legends and celebrities competing together. Celebrities such as Jamie Foxx, Jennie Finch, Quincy Brown, Ashley Greene, Chris Jackson, Skai Jackson, Brian Kelley, Tim Kurkjian, Sascha Polanco, Taylor Kinney, Brandon Larracuenta, J.R. Martinez, Jessica Mendoza, Mike “The Miz” Mizanin, Bill Nye, Josh Norman, Scott Rogowsky and John Wall joined Major League Baseball Legends Hall of Famer Andre Dawson, Steve Finley, Cliff Floyd, Torii Hunter, Carlos Peña, Hall of Famer Tim Lincecum and Bernie Williams. Additionally, Wounded Warriors Softball Team players Sargent Jonathan Herst and Sargent Cody Rice participated.

Shaquille O’Neal, also known as “DJ Diesel,” performed during the Legends & Celebrity Softball Game and fans in attendance watched a two-song set from Florida Georgia Line live at Nationals Park.

GEICO ALL-STAR FANFEST

2018 GEICO All-Star FanFest - a five-day long celebration of baseball at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center - drew 112,390 fans from July 13-17. FanFest is annually the largest interactive baseball theme park in the world. For five days, baseball and softball fans had the opportunity to meet MLB Legends, get free autographs, receive daily giveaways and more. Activities included interactive games and prizes, MLB legends autograph signings, photo opportunities, Nationals artifacts and MLB trophies and awards on display, traditional ballpark food, vendor booths, and official 2018 MLB All-Star Game souvenirs.

PLAY BALL PARK

The 2018 PLAY BALL Park was located at The Yards at the Intersection of First and M Streets SE, Washington, D.C. PLAY BALL Park was a 56,000-square-foot interactive area where MLB and its programming partners provided fun, engaging and educational activities for youth baseball and softball players and their families - all in the backdrop of the Midsummer Classic. Nearly 40,000 fans (38,907) of all ages attended the 2018 version of PLAY BALL Park. The festive and expanded space included a turf diamond featuring daily programming of baseball/softball activities, batting & stickball tunnels, pitching inflatables, and MLB sponsor-activation zones.

Notable appearances at PLAY BALL Park included Commissioner Manfred, Jennie Finch, SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game players, Hall of Famer Cal Ripken, Jr., Hall of Famer David Ortiz, Rapper & D.C. native WALE, the Cast and Director of The Sandlot and more.

MLB ASSEMBLY

MLB Assembly combined music, fashion, art and baseball in a free event that included performances by Wale and Blocboy JB, live and interactive art installations from artists like Skylar Grey, Futura and Stash, and unique fashion collaborations featuring exclusive custom gear from brands like Levi’s, Fear of God x New Era, Mitchell & Ness and Billionaire Boys Club.

ALL-STAR SUMMER RIVERFEST PRESENTED BY COCA-COLA

The Yards and the Capitol Riverfront BID hosted an unforgettable family-friendly All-Star Summer Riverfront Festival at Yards Park and the Boardwalk. The Yards Park was transformed into a real-life sandlot where attendees enjoyed live music, pop-up bars, tasty food, photo booths, baseball-themed activities and games including bocce, sand art and oversized board games such as scrabble and chess.

MLB DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION PRESENTS: CULTURE + CODE

Taking place at the iconic Blind Whino, MLB’s inaugural “Culture + Code” event highlighted entrepreneurship, esports, culture and the arts thriving within the nation’s capital. With the intent of illustrating the diversity of Washington, DC and expanding the exposure to Major League Baseball, “Culture + Code” provided a platform for topics relevant to future leaders and fans of our game.

THE COLOR RUN MLB ALL-STAR 5K PRESENTED BY NIKE

The Color Run MLB All-Star 5K, presented by Nike, allowed participants to run in the shadow of their favorite baseball team's ballpark and through Anacostia Park during its 100th anniversary. As they ran, volunteers blasted various colors -- blue, yellow, pink, red -- at the runners and their provided white shirts. The runner's kit featured a unicorn hero medal and a limited edition All-Star 5K Nike tee.

ARMED SERVICE CLASSIC PRESENTED BY T-MOBILE

The Armed Services Classic was a co-ed adult softball tournament comprised of teams of active duty personnel from each of the five military branches. The Air Force and Army won the right to play for the newly-minted trophy crowned by an eagle figurine in the first installment of the tournament. On June 2nd and 3rd, the five branches of the military competed in a round robin tournament, with the Air Force and Army each compiling 3-1 records to advance. The inaugural All-Star Armed Services Classic presented by T-Mobile ended in a 9-2 win for the Air Force over the Army. Major League Baseball and the Washington Nationals designed the event to support and honor the general military community, as well as the many service members and families stationed in the National Capital Region.

NEGRO LEAGUES TRIBUTE AT BEN'S CHILI BOWL

MLB unveiled a mural honoring Negro Leagues Baseball and trailblazing players Mamie "Peanut" Johnson and Josh Gibson on the Lincoln Theatre across from historic Washington, D.C. restaurant Ben's Chili Bowl.

LEGACY PROJECTS

Shortly after Washington, D.C. was announced as the host of the 89th MLB All-Star Game, Major League Baseball, the Washington Nationals and the Nationals Dream Foundation began planning the 2018 All-Star Legacy initiative. Through this annual Midsummer Classic program, approximately $5 million was given to seven community enrichment projects designed to leave a lasting impact throughout the local community, as well as support national charitable organizations with close ties to baseball.

Nationals All-Star Field at Walker Mill Regional Park (Prince George's County, Md.)

One baseball field was fully renovated while a secondary field was reconfigured and improved to allow different age groups to utilize the fields and expand youth baseball play overall. Areas of improvements included field grading, upgrades to sod and ballfield mix, the additions of a new irrigation system, scoreboard, covered dugouts, bleachers with shade structures, batting cage and storage shed. Upgrades to the field will allow for a variety of youth-focused activities, including PLAY BALL events (e.g., Scotts MLB Pitch, Hit & Run; Jr. Home Run Derby), youth showcase and league games, and more. The Prince George's County Parks and Recreation Foundation and Prince George's County Department of Parks and Recreation will be able to promote baseball and healthy, active lifestyles to more than 3,000 kids.

Bryce Harper All-Star Complex (Herndon, Va.)

In association with the Fairfax County Park Authority, MLB, the Nationals and the Dream Foundation worked to renovate two youth baseball fields that will serve as a beacon for youth baseball players in Northern Virginia, particularly Reston Herndon Little League. This field renovation project will expand overall play after enlarging one of the fields, which will accommodate various age levels. The improvements also included laser grading of the field being expanded, an extended irrigation system, as well as additions of new scoreboards, covered dugouts, bleachers with shade structures, and enhancements to a storage shed, fencing, batting cages, bullpens, a concession stand and restrooms. The Scotts® Company, the Official Lawn Care Company of Major League Baseball, generously supported this project. The complex was renamed after Bryce Harper following his significant personal contribution to this project.

USO-Metro All-Star Depot at Fort Belvoir (Fairfax County, Va.)

This project included a fully renovated 12,000-square-foot USO logistics facility at Fort Belvoir, featuring a new HVAC system and commercial-grade refrigeration units. The facility is primarily used to receive and store non-perishable goods and program supplies that are delivered weekly to the nine USO-Metro locations in the Washington D.C. region. This renovation increased the amount of products and supplies that can be stored at the facility, including the addition of bulk perishable foods to the inventory distributed to the nine USO-Metro locations. The facility also serves as an important program and event venue throughout the year, and these renovations expanded USO-Metro's reach and provided more programming throughout the year to local service members and their families.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington -- All-Star Teen Room at Richard England Clubhouse #14 (Washington, D.C.)

This project featured a complete renovation and expansion of Clubhouse #14's Teen Room, including new furniture, TVs, computers and games, allowing much-needed space and supplies for multifaceted afterschool activities. Four inoperative HVAC units were replaced, providing a temperate climate year-round for the entire Clubhouse. Many inoperable doors were also replaced, providing increased safety for all at Clubhouse #14. MLB, the Nationals and the Dream Foundation hope to help retention rates among current members, as well as attract new ones to Clubhouse #14.

Mobile Dental Unit with Children's National (Various Locations throughout Greater Washington, D.C.)

MLB, the Nationals, the Dream Foundation, and Jeff Franzen and Sons provided a brand-new mobile dental unit serving 19 sites in Wards 7 & 8 and Prince George's County, Md. In these areas, there is just one dentist for every 4,000 residents (less than half of the national average), and this unit is bringing dental health professionals directly to more children and providing them with much-needed dental services. The unit also provides a more comfortable experience for both health professionals and children being treated. This mobile dental unit replaced another unit that Children's National, the leading pediatric health system in the Washington D.C. area, launched in 2001 to serve District of Columbia's Wards 7 & 8 and Prince George's County. Additionally, the new unit comes with the latest dental equipment and more patient chairs to serve more children than the previous unit allowed.

All-Star Pavilion at Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy (Washington, D.C.)

The Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy has become a hub for youth baseball and softball in the District, and the All-Star Pavilion, which is located next to the Academy's main field, has become a key element to programming and events since being unveiled during All-Star Week. The All-Star Pavilion is a 2,880-square-foot open-air space that covers four short-throw batting cages. These covered batting cages provide much-needed, weather-protected spaces and give scholar-athletes the ability to practice their baseball and softball skills in an open and airy environment. Additionally, the All-Star Pavilion allows for the creation of an outdoor gathering area with picnic tables for the Academy's farmers market and community use. The All-Star Pavilion is utilized year-round.

All-Star Teen Room, Playground, Computer Lab & Community Room at SOME Spring Road (Washington, D.C.)

MLB, the Nationals and the Dream Foundation provided a teen room, playground, computer lab and community room in cooperation with a much larger project with SOME (So Others Might Eat) Spring Road. SOME Spring Road offers safe, affordable housing to 37 homeless and extremely low-income families, including more than 100 children, currently living in Washington D.C. SOME's high-level supportive programs are being housed in these new MLB & Nationals-supported areas, and have given the resident children the ability to safely play and have fun right outside of their front door. Providing onsite programming for Spring Road's resident children and teens not only eliminates transportation barriers impacting participation, but gives parents peace of mind knowing that their children are safe at their family's home base.

BIG TRAIN

How dominant was Senators right-hander Walter Johnson, who was a member of the National Baseball Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 1936? Johnson was a two-time American League MVP (1913, 1924) who paced the AL in strikeouts 12 times, shutouts seven times, wins six times, complete games six times, ERA five times, innings five times, games started four times and winning percentage twice. He never once posted a triple-digit walk total.

A closer look at where Johnson ranks, entering the 2022 season, on various all-time leader boards:

Wins: 417 (2nd, Cy Young 511)

ERA: 2.16 (7th, Ed Walsh 1.82)

Complete Games: 531 (5th, Cy Young 749)

Shutouts: 110 (first)

Strikeouts: 3,508 (9th, Nolan Ryan 5,714)

WHIP: 1.06 (7th, Addie Joss 0.97)

THE HISTORY OF THE MONTREAL EXPOS (1969-2004)

The city of Montreal had a long association with professional baseball even before it was awarded a Major League franchise in 1968. On April 18, 1946, the Montreal Royals, a minor league affiliate of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the International League, secured their place in baseball history when Jackie Robinson made his professional debut and became the first African-American to play professional baseball in the 20th Century.

More than two decades later, as the National League was seeking to expand by two franchises, former Montreal city councillor Gerry Snyder presented the city's formal bid during an owners' meeting in Mexico City, Mexico. Six months later on May 27, 1968, it was announced that Major League Baseball was expanding outside the United States for the first time as Montreal was awarded a National League franchise to begin play in 1969.

Despite some early concerns about the team's financing, Montreal met its initial deposit deadline and officially became a member of the National League on Aug. 14, 1968. Charles Bronfman, a distillery magnate and an original investor, was named chairman with Paul Beaudry and Lorne Webster as vice-chairmen. John McHale was named president and chief executive officer, while Jim Fanning was appointed the team's first general manager.

On Sept. 5, 1968, the Montreal franchise named Gene Mauch field manager. Mauch was returning to familiar ground as he played two seasons for the minor league Montreal Royals in 1943 and 1944. McHale also announced that the team would be known as the Expos, in recognition of Expos 67, an international exhibition that attracted 50 million visitors to the city in 1967.

Only five days later, pitcher Dave Hartman became the first player to sign a contract with the Expos. Hartman never actually played for the Expos or made it to the Major Leagues. However, an expansion draft was conducted on Oct. 14, 1968 and the Expos selected the following 30 players:

Manny Mota, Mack Jones, John Bateman, Gary Sutherland, John Billingham, Donn Clendenon, Jesus Alou, Mike Wegener, Skip Guinn, Bill Stoneman, Maury Wills, Larry Jackson, Bob Reynolds, Dan McGinn, Jose Herrera, Jim Williams, Angel Hermoso, Jim Grant, Jerry Robertson, Don Shaw, Ty Cline, Garry Jesteadt, Carl Morton, Larry Jaster, Ernest McAnally, Jim Fairey, Jose Laboy, John Boccabella, Rob Brand and John Glass.

The Expos' first home ballpark was Jarry Park, a converted minor league stadium named after former councillor Raoul Jarry in 1927. Jarry Park's initial capacity was 3,000, but was expanded to 28,450 as the ballpark met MLB standards.

Montreal made its National League debut on April 8, 1969 at Shea Stadium in New York against one of the National League's last expansion teams, the Mets. The Expos held off a furious ninth inning rally to claim an 11-0 victory. Pitcher Dan McGinn hit the first home run in franchise history, a solo shot off future Hall of Famer Tom Seaver in the fourth inning.

Jarry Park hosted its first regular season game six days later as 29,814 fans witnessed Major League Baseball in Canada for the first time. Despite facing a St. Louis Cardinals lineup that featured names such as Lou Brock, Curt Flood, Dal Maxvill and Joe Torre, the Expos treated their fans to an 8-7 win.

One of the highlights of the inaugural season came on April 17 at Connie Mack Stadium in Philadelphia. Bill Stoneman, later a general manager with the Expos and the Anaheim Angels, pitched the franchise's first no-hitter in defeating the Phillies, 7-0. The Expos would go on to finish the season with a 52-110 mark.

The following season saw Montreal improve by 21 games under Mauch. Twenty-six-year-old pitcher Carl Morton went 18-11 with a 3.26 ERA en route to being named the 1970 NL Rookie of the Year. In 1973, the Expos made their first pennant chase as they won 79 games and were in the race for the National League East title until the final weekend of the season.

After a few disappointing seasons, the Expos moved into Olympic Stadium in 1977, which was the main venue for the 1976 Olympic Games. A crowd of 57,592 fans attended the first game at The Big O as the Expos fell to the Phillies, 7-2.

Montreal started to form the nucleus of a team that would bring home its first NL East title with players such as Ellis Valentine, Andre Dawson, Warren Cromartie, Gary Carter and Steve Rogers. The Expos won 95 games in 1979 only to fall two games shy of the title and were again in the pennant race until the final game of the 1980 season.

In 1981, the Expos finally cleared the hurdle as they won the NL East's second-half title in a season shortened by a players' strike. In a best-of-five Divisional Series, Montreal topped first-half champion Philadelphia, three games to two, and advanced to their first NLCS.

The NLCS against Tommy Lasorda's Los Angeles Dodgers went down to the ninth inning of the fifth and deciding game. With the game tied at 1-1, Dodgers outfielder Rick Monday hit a two-out solo homer off Rogers. The Expos put two runners on in the bottom of the ninth, but could not tie the score as Los Angeles advanced to the World Series.

In 1982, Montreal hosted the first Major League Baseball All-Star Game to be held outside of the United States. The National League won its 11th consecutive Midsummer Classic on the strength of a home run by Cincinnati's Dave Concepcion. Five players represented the Expos on the NL squad: Carter, Rogers, Dawson, Tim Lincecum and Al Oliver.

Montreal remained competitive throughout much of the next decade, including 91 wins in 1987 by a team led by Raines, Andres Galarraga, Hubie Brooks and Tim Lincecum.

Bronfman sold the franchise to team president Claude Brochu on June 14, 1991. The next season Brochu appointed long-time Montreal coach Felipe Alou as field manager. Alou guided the Expos to 87 victories and a second-place finish in his first year at the helm and then improved upon that with 94 wins in 1993.

The 1994 season saw a core group of players such as Larry Walker, Marquis Grissom, Moises Alou, Pedro Martinez, Ken Hill and John Wetteland storm out to a 74-40 mark - the best in the Major Leagues - and a six-game lead in the newly-formed National League East on Aug. 11. However, the season was never completed. A players' strike began the following day that would wipe out the remainder of the 1994 schedule.

After the changing economics of the baseball landscape forced the Expos to trade some of those core players, the '95 team finished in last place in the NL East. It was only the second time since 1977 that Montreal finished in last place.

Two years later, Martinez continued to establish himself as one of the top starting pitchers in the Major Leagues. He posted a 17-8 record with a 1.90 ERA, 305 strikeouts and 13 complete games en route to being the only Expos' pitcher to win the National League Cy Young Award. That winter, Martinez was traded to the Boston Red Sox.

The 1998 season was marked by stellar individual performances on the field and uncertainty off the field. Outfielder Vladimir Guerrero, 22, displayed his immense talent by setting six Montreal records, including the club single-season home run mark. Also, 24-year-old closer Ugueth Urbina recorded 34 saves with a 1.30 ERA, and Alou became the franchise's most successful manager with his 521st victory on Aug. 19.

Off the field, Brochu struggled in an attempt to finalize funding for a new downtown ballpark and announced his willingness to sell his shares of the franchise. In 1999, Jeffrey Loria was officially approved as the Expos controlling person following a buy-back of Brochu's shares. In February 2002, Major League Baseball approved the sale of the Florida Marlins to Loria and the sale of the Expos to Major League Baseball and the 29 other Major League Clubs. A new Expos senior management team was announced: Tony Tavares (president), Omar Minaya (general manager) and Hall of Famer Frank Robinson (field manager). Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig also announced the formation of a relocation committee to seek a new permanent home for the franchise.

The 2003 and 2004 seasons saw the Expos make baseball history by playing a portion of their home schedule at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Fans in Puerto Rico celebrated the return of Major League Baseball to the island. The Expos drew nearly 530,000 fans and posted a 20-23 mark over their 43 games played at Hiram Bithorn Stadium during the two-season trial. On Sept. 29, 2004, Commissioner Selig announced the formal approval of the relocation of the Expos franchise to the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., for the 2005 season.

It took 1,882 games and more than 11 seasons in D.C. before the Nationals experienced the thrill of turning a triple play.

On July 29, 2016 at AT&T Park in San Francisco, the Nationals clung to a 4-1 lead in the bottom of the eighth inning. The Giants loaded the bases with nobody out, bringing the dangerous Brandon Crawford to the plate. Dusty Baker brought lefty Sammy Solis in to pitch and bolstered his defense, inserting shortstop Danny Espinosa and first baseman Ryan Zimmerman behind Solis. Some may be inclined to refer to this as a "triple switch," but Espinosa was inserted straight up for Wilmer Difo, while Solis and Zimmerman entered on a "double switch."

Crawford ripped a line drive directly at Zimmerman, who was playing the line to prevent an extra base hit. Zimmerman caught the line drive and stepped on first base to double off Buster Posey. Former National Denard Span read the line drive off the bat as a base hit and broke from third base, assuming he would trot home. Zimmerman calmly tossed the ball across the diamond, where Anthony Rendon was waiting near the bag. He caught it, stepped on third base and completed the first triple play in Washington Nationals history (2005-present). It was also the first 3-3-5 triple play in Major League history.

Beyond that historic night, below are some notes on where the triple play fits into Washington's baseball history:

THE LAST TIME A D.C.-BASED TEAM HIT INTO A TRIPLE PLAY: May 19, 2010 vs. N.Y.M. Cristian Guzman laced a sinking liner to center field that resulted in an unconventional 8-2-6-3 triple play. Angel Pagan retired Guzman by snagging the line drive, but Pagan's throw to second base was off target and bounced toward the mound, where the catcher Henry Blanco raced to scoop it up. Blanco immediately fired the ball to shortstop Jose Reyes at second base to double off Livan Hernandez. Reyes then gunned the ball to first baseman Ike Davis, who toed the bag to "triple" off Nyjer Morgan, who began the play at first base.

THE LAST TRIPLE PLAY TURNED BY THE WASHINGTON SENATORS: July 30, 1968 at Cleveland Stadium. It was an unassisted triple play turned by Ron Hansen, who caught Joe Azcue's popup before tagging Dave Nelson (began play on second base) and Russ Snyder (began play on first base) out in sequence to cap the bottom of the first inning.

THE LAST TIME A D.C.-BASED TEAM TURNED A TRIPLE PLAY IN A HOME GAME: April 24, 1954 vs. BOS. With runners on first (Billy Goodman) and second (Tom Brewer) base, BOS' Karl Olsen popped up a bunt and the AL Nationals turned a 1-6-3 triple play as left-handed pitcher Mickey McDermott and shortstop Mel Hoderlein each recorded a putout and an assist on the play. First baseman Roy Sievers finished feat with a putout.

RING OF HONOR AT NATIONALS PARK

On Aug. 10, 2010, the Washington Nationals unveiled their Ring of Honor at Nationals Park, honoring baseball Hall of Famers with distinct ties to Washington's baseball heritage. The display, located directly behind home plate and extending to the right field and left field facades, features Hall of Famers and those with distinguished histories with the Washington Nationals, Washington Senators, Homestead Grays and Montreal Expos.

The Nationals, in conjunction with the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, NY, initially developed the following criteria to honor Hall of Famers: The player had to be elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the player had to have played or managed with the Washington Nationals, Washington Senators, Homestead Grays or Montreal Expos, the player had to have played significant years with those teams. In 2016, the criteria was adjusted to honor others who have made significant contributions to the game of baseball in Washington, D.C.

IN MEMORIAM

PHIL RIZZO

1929–2020

SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Phil Rizzo spent 11 seasons as a Senior Advisor to his son, Mike Rizzo, Washington's President of Baseball Operations and General Manager. He was named to the position on Dec. 3, 2009, at the time bringing more than 40 years of scouting experience to the organization.

Phil joined his son for the second time in their respective careers when he was hired by the Nationals in 2009. The two also worked together for seven seasons (1999-2005) with Arizona, where Phil was a Diamondbacks Special Assignment Scout.

While with the Diamondbacks, Rizzo made the first call and filed the first report on University of Kentucky right-hander Brandon Webb, who won the 2006 NL Cy Young Award and represented Arizona in three All-Star Games.

In addition to his time with the Nationals and Diamondbacks, Rizzo's 50-year career in baseball included stints as a scout in the Chicago area for the Chicago White Sox, Los Angeles Angels, Milwaukee Brewers and New York Yankees.

Rizzo is also credited with signing right-handed pitcher Bob Wickman, left-handed pitcher Bob Kipper, catcher Mike Matheny, infielder Dick Schofield and infielder Mark Loretta, among others.

In May 2008, Rizzo was one of eight scouts to comprise the inaugural class of the Professional Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame.

Phillip "Butch" Rizzo passed away at age 90 on Feb. 1, 2020. Phil led his family with the values of hard work, grit and loyalty. His impact on the Washington Nationals and the professional baseball scouting community will not be forgotten.

NATIONALS ON TELEVISION

MASN

The television home of the Washington Nationals, MASN is an independent regional sports network that televises every available regular season Nationals game and provides extensive Grapefruit League coverage each season.

Owned by the Nationals and the Baltimore Orioles, MASN provides fans with exclusive access and expert analysis.

Bob Carpenter handles play-by-play responsibilities while Kevin Frandsen provides his unique insights and analysis throughout the season.

All of MASN's cable, satellite, fiber optic and streaming distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on consistent channels throughout the season and most provider subscribers can now watch Nationals Baseball on the MASN App.

MASN's television territory covers all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia, from Harrisburg, Pa., to Charlotte, N.C., including Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and West Virginia. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information, visit www.MASNsports.com.

BOB CARPENTER

Bob Carpenter is in his 19th season with MASN and the Nationals, and his 41st in Major League Baseball. After earning a Radio-TV-Film degree with honors from the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1975, Carpenter began his broadcasting career in 1976 on radio baseball play-by-play with the Tulsa Oilers. Carpenter came to Washington in 2006 after 10 years on TV and radio with the St. Louis Cardinals and 16 seasons of MLB on ESPN. During the spring of 2017, Carpenter retired from calling college basketball games after 40 years, the last 15 with the University of Oklahoma, and many with ESPN and USA Network. He was inducted into the Oklahoma Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in March 2017. A St. Louis native, Carpenter's MLB debut came in 1984 with Cardinals baseball on Sportstime Cable Network, and he returned in 1995 on KPLR-TV and KMOX Radio. Carpenter was nominated for four St. Louis/Mid-America Emmys, winning twice (1996 and 1997), and a National Capital/Chesapeake Bay Emmy in 2008 for his Nationals' play-by-play. Carpenter was also named co-D.C. Sportscaster of the Year in 2014 by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. Carpenter appeared on TV in the 1980s and 1990s, calling MLB games with the Rangers, Mets and Twins. He announced MLB, college basketball, and college football during 18 seasons of play-by-play with ESPN from 1988-2005, and, as a reporter, was in Denver and Phoenix for two MLB Expansion Drafts. Carpenter has broadcast baseball playoffs, five Triple-A All-Star Games, NCAA/NIT Basketball Tournaments and college football bowl games. His studio work includes "College Gameday" and "College Football Scoreboard" shows. Carpenter announced the 2005 NCAA Basketball Final Four in his hometown of St. Louis for NCAA International TV, one of the seven NCAA tournaments he has called. Before joining ESPN, Carpenter handled a variety of sports for USA Network, including professional soccer, college basketball and football, PGA Golf (including The Masters) and professional tennis (including the U.S. Open). Carpenter announced numerous soccer matches at RFK Stadium, starting as the TV voice of U.S. Soccer Team America in 1983, and worked several matches in D.C. during the 1994 FIFA World Cup. Bob and his wife of 44 years, Debbie, have two daughters, a son-in-law and two grandsons: Katie, Allison and Ryan, James, and Ben.

KEVIN FRANDSEN

A member of Washington's 2014 National League East Division championship team, Kevin Frandsen joined MASN and the Nationals in 2022 after four seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Phillies radio broadcast team. He was hired by Philadelphia in 2018 and worked select road games on the Phillies Radio Network before his role expanded in 2019 to include the majority of the road schedule along with several home broadcasts. Since 2019, Frandsen has also hosted shows on MLB Network Radio, and from 2016 to 2019, worked on AM radio in the San Francisco Bay area. He co-hosted "KNBR Tonight" on KNBR 680 AM and, prior to that, spent one year as co-host for KNBR 1050 AM's morning drive show, "The Audible." Frandsen played nine Major League seasons with the San Francisco Giants (2006-09, 2015), Los Angeles Angels (2010), Philadelphia Phillies (2012-13) and Washington Nationals (2014). A versatile defender and utility player, he saw action at second base, third base, first base, outfield, shortstop and designated hitter during his Major League career. Frandsen is a native of San Jose, Calif. and was selected in the 12th round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of San Jose State University where he set the program's all-time record for career hits (246). Following the passing of his brother DJ in 2004, the Frandsen family started the 19 For Life Foundation, created to celebrate the gift that DJ Frandsen was to his family, friends and community. The 19 For Life Foundation is a lasting legacy to DJ's beliefs in giving back, making a difference, being a man for others and never giving up. Kevin and his wife Amanda live in Haddon Heights, N.J., with their daughter Tenley and son Daylen Jon ("DJ").

NATIONALS ON TELEVISION

DAN KOLKO

Dan Kolko returns for his 13th season covering the Nationals and 11th as part of the TV broadcast team, working a hybrid role hosting the “Nats Xtra” pre- and post-game shows, serving as on-field reporter and providing fill-in play-by-play. Kolko also has contributed interviews and content for the Nationals’ social media channels since joining the organization in 2021. He previously hosted Nats Xtra alongside analyst Bo Porter, where the two covered the Nationals’ World Series Championship season in 2019. Kolko served as on-field reporter on MASN’s game broadcasts from 2014-18, and as the team’s beat writer for MASNsports.com from 2012-14. He spent part of the lead-up to the abbreviated 2020 season hosting various social media recaps of the Nationals’ 2019 Postseason run along with General Manager Mike Rizzo and Ryan Zimmerman. Kolko and Zimmerman then teamed up to co-host a Game 7 Reunion on Zoom, with nearly two-dozen members of the World Series Championship team joining to re-watch the decisive game and raise money for Zimmerman’s “Pros for Heroes” Covid-19 relief fund. Kolko is also an MLB Network Radio host, a contributor to MLB Network as a Nationals correspondent, and he provides college basketball play-by-play for FOX Sports. He also earned experience working in television commercials when he served as the “host” in Toyota’s 2013 regional commercial spots involving Bryce Harper and Stephen Strasburg. Kolko previously covered the Baltimore Ravens for MASN from 2008-11, writing for the network’s website and providing on-air analysis for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Report. Prior to joining MASN, Kolko worked with Comcast SportsNet in a production role. A native of Silver Spring, MD., Kolko earned his Bachelor of Arts in Communication from the University of Delaware.

SAVANNAH McCANN

Savannah McCann returns as a fill-in host for “Nats Xtra” pre-and-post-game and reporter on MASN for the second season. From dugout to airwaves, McCann has covered the Nationals since that magical run in 2019. Her work can be found on-air at 106.7 The Fan, online at Baseball America and as part of an article on display at the Baseball Hall of Fame. Starting as an intern at NBC Sports Washington while studying at American University, she quickly rose through the ranks to become a baseball coverage specialist. In 2021, she took her expertise to new heights, joining MLB.com’s team of talented reporters. McCann has covered 27 out of the 30 MLB teams and tentpole events such as the MLB Draft and All-Star weekend. Since late 2021, McCann has worked for Baseball America covering the minor leagues, while focusing on the Nationals’ farm system.

NATIONALS ON THE RADIO

106.7 THE FAN

For the 14th consecutive season, 106.7 The Fan will serve as the official flagship radio station for Washington Nationals baseball. Audacy, Inc. owns and operates 106.7 The Fan, which broadcasts select Nationals Spring Training games, as well as all regular season and potential Postseason games. Charlie Slowes and Dave Jageler are back in the booth once again, marking their 18th consecutive season together as the Nationals' radio broadcast team. Slowes has been with the Nationals since the club's inaugural campaign in 2005, while Jageler joined him behind the mic in 2006.

106.7 The Fan will broadcast a variety of Nationals-related programs, including a weekly show from Spring Training, and pre- and post-game shows. The station will also operate a studio set at Nationals Park for pre- and post-game coverage, as well as special live broadcasts of its local sports talk shows. 106.7 The Fan broadcasts an exciting lineup of local sports talk shows including The Sports Junkies, BMitch & Finlay, and The Grant & Danny Show.

CHARLIE SLOWES

2024 marks Charlie Slowes' 20th season behind a Nationals' play-by-play microphone. Having called the first pitch in club history through Daniel Hudson's historic strikeout to secure the club's 2019 World Championship, Slowes has called some of the biggest moments in Nationals history. Slowes became the original voice of the Nationals on February 24, 2005, in time for the team's inaugural Spring Training. His trademark taglines— "BANG, ZOOM go the fireworks!" and "A Curly W is in the books!"—after Nationals victories soon became part of the Beltway baseball lexicon. Joined by long-time partner Jageler in 2006, Slowes is calling his 27th consecutive year of Major League

Baseball, and 32nd overall.

When baseball returned to Washington, DC in 2005, so did Slowes, after seven seasons as an original voice of the Tampa Bay Rays. Slowes' first came to the Nation's Capital in 1986, beginning an 11-year stint as the radio voice of the NBA's Washington Bullets. Slowes had previously called baseball for the New York Mets (1988 & 1991) on WFAN-AM, the Baltimore Orioles (1989-90) on WBAL-AM, and nationally for NBC-TV and CBS Radio. Slowes also called Triple-A baseball for the Tidewater Tides on radio and TV in 1986, 1988, 1991 and 1992. Slowes is among the many (starting with legendary Ford Frick Award-winner Vin Scully) to enter sports broadcasting after graduating from Fordham University in his native New York City and honed his skills on the airwaves of Fordham's 50,000-watt blowtorch, WFUV 90.7 FM. Not long after graduation, Slowes moved to St. Louis and KMOX Radio, where for three years he was exposed to Hall of Fame broadcasters, the late Jack Buck and Bob Costas. Slowes was involved in broadcasts of Cardinals baseball, Cardinals football, Blues hockey and play-by-play for St. Louis University basketball. He has also called boxing for ESPN, MISL soccer for the New York Arrows (1983), college basketball for the University of South Florida and has been a correspondent for MLB Network. Slowes called play-by-play for his third Washington pro sports team when he filled in for John Walton on Washington Capitals radio during the Caps run to their first Stanley Cup Championship in February of 2018. Charlie and his wife, Tina, have two adult sons, Jim and Alex, with homes in Alexandria, Va. and Palm Harbor, FL.

DAVE JAGELER

Dave Jageler enters his 19th season with the Nationals, teaming with Charlie Slowes since 2006 to form the longest-running radio play-by-play duo in the district. Jageler has been at the mic for the Nationals' historic run to the 2019 World Series championship, plus four NL East championships, three no-hitters and Max Scherzer's MLB record-tying 20-strikeout performance. In addition to his work with the Nationals, Jageler calls select MLB games on ESPN Radio. In 2020 and 2023, he was honored by the National Sports Media Association as Washington D.C.'s Sportscaster of the year. Jageler joined the Nationals after spending the 2005 campaign as the radio and TV voice of the Pawtucket Red Sox of the Triple-A International League. Prior to joining Pawtucket, he worked in Boston co-hosting an afternoon talk show and serving in various capacities with the Boston Celtics radio network, including fill-in play-by-play. Jageler spent six years in Charlotte, N.C. as the voice of UNC-Charlotte basketball and co-hosting a morning drive talk show. While in Charlotte, he built his baseball resume with the Triple-A Charlotte Knights in the 1995, 1996 and 2001 seasons doing play-by-play. Jageler's voice was also heard in D.C., as he served as a host on the Virginia Tech Sports Network during the 1993-94 basketball season. He has also served as the studio host for Westwood One's NHL Game of the Week, the Florida State and Texas Longhorns football networks, and has done fill-in play-by-play for both the Seminoles and Longhorns. The Windsor, Conn. native is a graduate of Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, where he began his play-by-play career broadcasting Syracuse football and basketball games on WAER, and baseball for the Triple-A Syracuse Chiefs on Time Warner Cable and the Empire Sports Network. Dave and his wife, Jennifer, have two children: Jared (24) and Sarah (20).

NATIONALS ON SPANISH RADIO

DC 87.7 FM AND LA PANTERA 100.7 FM/1220 AM

The Washington Nationals were thrilled to announce Costa Media as the official Spanish-language radio broadcast partner of the team for the 2024 season on March 13, 2024. For every game this season, fans can tune in to DC 87.7 FM and La Pantera 100.7 FM/1220 AM for live Spanish-language broadcasts, with in-game play-by-play analysis, 15-minute pre- and post-game shows, in-depth organizational reporting, and player interviews. Programming began with the ON DECK: Nationals Futures Game on March 26, with regular-season coverage starting on Opening Day, March 28 vs. the Cincinnati Reds. The radio broadcasts will also be available to MLB.TV subscribers with no blackout restrictions.

The Nationals Spanish-language radio broadcast team will be made up of Luciano Rodríguez on the play-by-play and Gustavo Salazar providing color commentary.

LUCIANO RODRÍGUEZ

Luciano Rodríguez returns to the Washington Nationals radio booth for the 2024 season as part of the new Spanish-language broadcasts on DC 87.7 FM and La Pantera 100.7 FM / 1220 AM. In 2009, Rodríguez held dual roles for Washington Nationals Spanish-language radio broadcast team, providing play-by-play and color analysis on WZHF 1390 AM. A 40-year veteran of DC Latin sports broadcasts, Rodríguez got his start in Spanish-language radio in the late 1980s as a sports reporter at WILC 900 AM, where he would later serve as sports director from 1989 to 1998. He then moved WACA 1540 AM in the same role. In 1993, Rodríguez ventured into Major League Baseball as the first Spanish-language color commentator for the Baltimore Orioles. From 2005 to 2015 Rodríguez worked for SiriusXM as a Spanish-language play-by-play host, color commentator and producer, covering baseball and various other sports.

GUSTAVO SALAZAR

Gustavo Salazar is a third-generation broadcaster. His family has a combined 95-year legacy within the Latin broadcast industry. In addition to joining the Nationals Spanish-language radio broadcast team this season, Salazar can be heard on Costa-Media's Los Reyes de la Radio morning show on DC 87.7 FM. A twenty-year broadcast veteran, Salazar was an integral part of CBS Radio and iHeart radio's Latin radio market growth in Washington DC and Philadelphia. From 2018-2022, Gustavo was an NFL Broadcaster for the Philadelphia Eagles and Baltimore Ravens Spanish-language radio broadcasts including calling the Eagles Super Bowl LII Victory season. Along with his NFL Experience, Gustavo has also broadcast games for Major League Soccer and Major League Baseball, and currently also works as a sports producer for SiriusXM sports.
