2014-15 TEAM NOTES

- Alabama returns four starters and eight letterwinners from last season's team. Included in the returning players are a pair of transfers who sat out the 2013-14 campaign in Ricky Tarrant and Michael Kessens. Both were able to practice with the team but did not suit up for games due to NCAA transfer rules. In addition, the Crimson Tide welcomes five newcomers which includes fifth-year graduate transfer Christophe Varidel.
- Tarrant and Kessens both transferred to Alabama and sat out the 2013-14 season due to NCAA rules. Tarrant scored over 1,000 points in his two seasons at Tulane and averaged 15.3 points, 3.4 assists and 1.5 steals a game during his career. Meanwhile, Kessens averaged 13.7 points, 8.8 rebounds and 1.4 assists per game, while shooting 54 percent from the floor as a true freshman at Longwood University in 2012-13.
- Varidel, a fifth-year graduate transfer from Chaminade (Hawai'i) University, played just five games during the 2013-14 campaign before an injury sidelined him the rest of the season. He averaged 21.2 points and 4.6 rebounds per game, while shooting 46.8 percent from beyond the arc. He exploded with a career-high 42-point outburst against then-No. 18 Baylor in the team's opening game of the EA Sports Maui Invitational.
- After playing a non-conference schedule that was ranked as the ninth-toughest in the nation a year ago, the Alabama men's basketball team will play another challenging non-conference slate during the 2014-15 season. The Tide will play the likes of Iowa State (Nov. 24), Xavier (Dec. 6), Wichita State (Dec. 16) and UCLA (Dec. 28), among others.
- Alabama played eight teams (a total of nine games) vs. NCAA Tournament squads. In addition, UA faced six teams (a total of nine games) that made the NIT. In all, the Tide's scheduled featured 15 teams (for a total of 18 games) that made the 2014 NCAA Tournament and NIT.
- According to the final ESPN.com's RPI rankings, Alabama finished with the No. 4 overall strength of schedule and the No. 9-ranked non-conference strength of schedule during the 2013-14 season. Only Kansas (1), Kentucky (2) and Wisconsin (3) played a tougher slate.

- Despite a record of 13-19 on the year, the Tide finished with an RPI of No. 92 in the nation, according to KenPom.com. Alabama owned a record of 6-14 when playing top-100 RPI teams this season.
- Senior Trevor Releford finished the season with 574 points during the 2013-14 campaign, which ranked as the 13th-most points scored in a season in UA program history. It was the most points scored during a season since former standout Rod Grizzard had 611 points (7th in program history) in 2000-01.
- Releford finished his career ranked fourth in total points (1,873) in his career and was first in career steals (263), steals per game (1.9) and total games played (134).
- Forward Shannon Hale earned a spot on the Southeastern Conference All-Freshman team. He became the first Alabama player to earn the accolade since Releford in 2011.

ALABAMA'S TOP-FIVE SCORER

- Guard Trevor Releford finished his career with 1,873 career points, which ranks fourth in program history. He finished just ahead of former great Buck Johnson (1983-86), who closed his career with 1,869 points. Only Reggie King (2,168 points from 1976-79), Eddie Phillips (1,937 points from 1979-82) and Leon Douglas (1,909 points from 1973-76) scored more points in their Alabama careers.
- During his senior season, Releford became the seventh player in program history – and the first since 1993 – to reach the 1,800-point plateau for his career. The last time a UA player reached the 1,800-point plateau came in 1993 when former great James “Hollywood” Robinson achieved the feat.
- During the 2012-13 campaign, Releford became the 46th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point plateau, doing so in just 82 contests.

DIFFERENCE IN HOME AND AWAY NUMBERS

- Alabama finished with a 13-4 record in games played at Coleman Coliseum this year. However, the Tide was 0-15 away from home, which included an 0-4 mark in neutral site games.

- In its 17 home games, the Tide shot 48.4 percent from the floor and 37.4 percent from beyond the arc. However, when playing away from home, those numbers fall to 39.9 percent shooting from the floor and 28.7 percent from deep.
- Below is a breakdown of key numbers on the road and at home this season.

LETTING THE GAME “RUN” AWAY

- Alabama finished the year with a 13-19 overall record, but the Tide's record could look entirely different had it finished some of the close games it lost.
- Alabama finished with a record of 5-13 on the season in contests that were decided by 10 or fewer points.
- In 15 of its 19 losses on the year, Alabama either held the lead or was within striking distance late in a game. However, in each instance, the Tide allowed the opposition to go on a game-deciding run late in the second half.
- Below is a breakdown of each of those 15 defeats, including the decisive run that occurred.

SIXTY IS SWEET, BUT 50 IS BETTER

- Alabama held seven opponents this season to 60 or fewer points, winning five of those contests.
- Since Anthony Grant's arrival in 2009, his teams have held the opposition to 60 or below a total of 83 times, going 68-15 (.819) when achieving the feat.
- The Tide held two teams (North Florida and Charleston Southern) to 50 or fewer points this season.
- Grant's Alabama teams have held opponents to 50 or fewer points a total of 34 times in his five seasons at the Capstone. The Tide is 32-2 (.941) when hitting that mark.

LEVI LOVING HOME COURT

- Levi Randolph enjoyed playing at Coleman Coliseum better than most of his teammates, which is reflected when breaking down his numbers in home and road games during the season.
- In the Tide's 17 home games, Randolph ranked second in the team in scoring at 11.6 points per game, while shooting 49.6 percent from the floor and 38.9 percent from beyond the arc. However, in UA's 15 contests away from home, those numbers fell to 7.2 ppg, while shooting 33.9 percent from the floor and 29.3 percent from beyond the arc.

2013-14 PRESEASON TEAM NOTES

- During the SEC season, the Crimson Tide was a different team before and after intermission, especially on the defensive end of the floor.
- Alabama allowed nine of its 17 SEC opponents to shoot better than 50 percent in the second half of a game.
- Below is a comparison of Alabama's statistics in the first half vs. the second half in SEC games.

HALE NAMED SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

- Alabama freshman forward Shannon Hale has been selected to the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week, league officials announced on March 3.
- Hale became the first Crimson Tide player to earn the league's freshman of the week award since Trevor Releford earned the accolade on Feb. 7, 2011.
- Hale, a 6-foot-8, 220-pound freshman forward from Johnson City, Tenn., earned the weekly honor after averaging 17 points and 6.5 rebounds a game in contests against Ole Miss and Auburn. For the week, Hale shot team-highs of 52.6 percent (10-of-19) from the floor, 66.7 percent (4-of-6) from beyond the arc and 90.9 percent (10-of-11) from the free throw line.
- Against the Rebels, Hale scored a game-high 27 points and pulled down nine rebounds – both season highs. He also contributed seven points and four boards in the win over Auburn.

GETTING TO THE LINE

- Alabama finished the season ranked seventh in the SEC, connecting on 68.5 percent of its free throw attempts for the year.
- Senior guard Trevor Releford finished third in the SEC in free throw percentage (84.8 percent).
- In addition, sophomore guard Retin Obasohan also benefited from the charity stripe this season. The Antwerp, Belgium, native had the most free throw attempts (156) and the second-most free throws made (104) on the team.
- Unfortunately, as good as the Tide was, the opposition was even better. Alabama opponents shot an impressive 74.7 percent from the foul line. According to KenPom.com, UA ranks 344th (out of 351 D-I teams) in the nation in opponent's free throw percentage.

TIDE'S TRENDS

- There were a few noticeable trends throughout the season when it comes to the Alabama basketball team.
- One of the biggest trends to keep in eye was the battle of the boards. The Tide owned a record of 9-1 when outrebounding the opposition, but is 4-17 when getting outrebounded.
- Below is a breakdown of a few other key factors to look into during a game. Alabama is:
 - 11-9 when holding teams below 70 points

- 2-10 when allowing 70 or more points
- 10-2 when holding teams to below 65 points
- 3-17 when allowing team to score over 65 points
- 9-1 when outrebounding opponents
- 4-17 when opponents rebound Alabama
- 13-6 when UA shoots better than opponent
- 0-13 when opponent shoots better than UA
- 8-6 when games decided by 11 or more points
- 5-13 when games decided by 10 or fewer points
- 12-5 when leading at half
- 1-13 when trailing at half
- 11-7 when shooting more free throws
- 1-12 when shooting less free throws

SEC HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

- Over the past two seasons, Alabama has won 16 of its last 18 home games against SEC foes (16-2, .889).
- Since Grant's arrival in 2009, Alabama owns a home record of 34-8 (.810) against SEC competition. Since 2011, the Tide boasts a 30-4 (.882) mark at home against the conference.

HOME SWEET HOME

- Through his five seasons at UA, Grant has a record of 65-16 (.802) on Alabama's home floor. During the 2013-14 season, the Tide finished 13-4 at home and outscored teams by an average of 9.5 points a game (73.4-63.8).
- Since the start of the 2010-11 campaign, Grant has won 61 of the last 72 games played under the arched roof of Coleman Coliseum (61-11; .847).
- Overall, Alabama owns a record of 530-120 (.815) in the facility's 47th season of use.
- Grant also led UA to 24 straight home victories that spanned the final home game of the 2009-10 season through the beginning of the 2011-12 season.

SHUFFLING THE STARTERS

- Head coach Anthony Grant used 14 different starting lineups in the team's 32 games on the year.
- No Alabama player started all 32 contests during the 2013-14 season.

PLAYERS HONORED AT POSTSEASON BASKETBALL BANQUET

- The University of Alabama men's basketball team officially closed the 2013-14 campaign with its annual awards banquet on April 1 at Coleman Coliseum. UA student-athletes, managers and support staff were recognized and honored for their efforts on and off the court throughout the season.
- The Crimson Tide finished the season with a 13-19 overall mark and tied for 10th in Southeastern Conference play with a 7-11 record. Alabama, which ended its season with a loss to LSU in the SEC Tournament, was joined by nearly 400 supporters and members of the Tuscaloosa Tip-Off Club, which sponsored the event along with Tide Pride.
- Following dinner, Grant spoke to the assembled crowd to give a few brief comments on the team's growth and success throughout the season and extended his heartfelt gratitude and thanks to the many supporters of the program.
- In addition to recognizing the entire team and staff, special awards were handed out as Trevor Releford was named the Most Outstanding Player, Shannon Hale was given the Outstanding Freshman Award, while Retin Obasohan was selected for the Hustle Award.
- Carl Engstrom, Levi Randolph and Dakota Slaughter were each given the Student-Athlete Award.
