MIKE ANDERSON

HEAD COACH | FOURTH YEAR
@MikeAndersonUA

The Razorback Nation welcomed home one of its own on March 23, 2011, when Mike Anderson was named the 12th head men's basketball coach in Arkansas history. Since being named the head coach of the Arkansas program where he has spent over half of his career, Anderson has helped the Razorbacks improve each year on and off the court as the tradition-rich program grows closer to returning to its glory days.

A longtime assistant and associate head coach at Arkansas, Anderson spent nine years as a head coach at the University of Alabama-Birmingham and Missouri before returning to the Razorbacks. He is now charged with bringing back the winning tradition that was synonymous with the Razorback program throughout the '80s and '90s.

One of just nine current Division I head coaches with 10+ years of experience and no losing seasons, Anderson's 12 years at the helm of a program have resulted in a 259–137 record, eight 20-win campaigns, six NCAA Tournament appearances, two Sweet Sixteen berths and a run to the 2009 Elite Eight.

"It is a tremendous honor to be named the head men's basketball coach at the University of Arkansas," said Anderson at his introductory press conference held on the court in Bud Walton Arena in front of 5,000 fans. "I am extremely excited to once again be a part of this special University and Razorback Athletics. With the continued passionate support of all Razorback fans, I am confident that we will have the opportunity to succeed on and off the court and continue to build on the University of Arkansas' championship tradition."

Over his first three seasons at Arkansas, Anderson has produced a 59–39 record and is the first head coach in program history to win 18 or more games in each of his first three years. Anderson has also re–established Bud Walton Arena as one of the toughest places to play and brought excitement back to the tradition–rich program. Over the last three years, Arkansas has won 51 games at Bud Walton Arena, the most over any three–year span in the arena's 21–year history. Each of Anderson's teams have won a program record 17 home games, while the 2012–13 squad posted just the third unbeaten SEC home record (9–0) in program history and the first since 1998. Arkansas returned to the top 25 in national attendance all three years.

In 2013–14, the Razorbacks returned to the postseason for the first time since 2008, by earning a spot in the NIT. Improving its SEC Tournament seeding by two spots for the second straight year under Anderson, Arkansas finished fifth in the league standings at 10–8 while reaching the 20–win plateau (22–12) for the first time since the aforementioned 2007–08 campaign. Highlighting the 22–win season was the program's first–ever season sweep of SEC rival Kentucky and a 5–1 mark against teams that advanced to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament and NIT.

The Arkansas faithful saw signs of the Coach Nolan Richardson-era style of play that Anderson teaches, as the Razorbacks led the SEC in scoring (80.1), assists (15.3), steals (8.4) and turnover margin (+5.5), figures that all ranked in the top 30 in the nation. Individual development was also critical to Arkansas' improvement in 2013–14, as Bobby Portis became the sixth freshman in program history to earn All–SEC honors as a freshman, snagging a spot on the All–SEC second team, SEC All–Freshman squad and USBWA All–District VII team.

Anderson's ability to change the direction of programs is nothing new. He inherited a program at Missouri that had been sub-.500 for two consecutive years and had the Tigers dancing to the Sweet 16 three years later. He guided Missouri to an overall record of 111-56 (.665) in five years with 13 wins over ranked opponents, four NCAA Tournament victories and a 75-13 mark at home.

Adapting his style of play from his mentor and Hall of Fame coach, Nolan Richardson, Anderson's teams are known for playing "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball."

His up-tempo style and tough defense allowed Missouri to make the biggest turnaround in college basketball during the 2008–09 season when the Tigers went from 16–16 in Anderson's second season to 31–7 a year later. The turnaround of the Missouri program was not lost on the national analysts as he was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year and the Clair Bee Coach of the Year in 2009 after he led the Tigers to the Big 12 Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament Elite Eight.

Anderson's "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" has resulted in his team's ranking among the nation's elite in multiple statistical categories, while compiling some staggering numbers that have resulted in opponents fearing the up-tempo style of play. Anderson's clubs have led the nation in steals four times and have been in the top 10 in steals nine of 12 years, while finishing in the top 30 in scoring seven times. Since 2002–03, Anderson's teams have accounted for five of the 27 team totals around the country of 350+ steals in a season, while he has won the turnover battle in 333 of 396 career games.

The influence of "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" has been obvious in Anderson's three years back in Fayetteville, as the Razorbacks finished in the top five in turnover margin and top 20 in steals each of the last two seasons. Arkansas ranked in the top 40 of six different statistical categories in 2012–13, and bested that by finishing as the only BCS team in the top 30 nationally in scoring (16th), assists (28th), steals (12th), blocks and turnover margin in 2013–14.

Anderson led Missouri to the NCAA Tournament in each of his final three years with the program. His 2008–09 squad marched all the way to the Elite 8, defeating nationally ranked Marquette and Memphis, before falling to Connecticut. He returned the Tigers to the postseason in 2009–10, leading Mizzou to the second round of the tournament and completed the trifecta with a second round exit in 2010–11.

Missouri's success was due in large part to Anderson and his coaching staff who searched for the best talent available to fill the needs of "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball." That search led to back-to-back Big 12 Newcomers of the Year, Missouri's first Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Sixth Man of the Year and multiple All-Big 12 honors. Missouri's 2010 recruiting class was the best in the Big 12 and ranked in the top 10 in the nation by every recruiting service.

Anderson's first head coaching stop was at UAB where in four years he amassed an 89–41 (.685) record with the Blazers. His teams made four consecutive postseason appearances, including three NCAA Tournament runs and his 2003–04 squad went all the way to the Sweet Sixteen, as it defeated No. 2 Kentucky in the second round.

He was named the Ray Meyer Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2004, after leading the Blazers to an overall record of 22–10 and a share of the league's regular season championship. UAB's first round NCAA Tournament victory over Washington was the Blazer's first since the 1986 season and the Sweet 16 run was the first since the 1980–81 season.

While many believed that UAB would be rebuilding following its run to the Sweet 16, Anderson and his coaches went back to work developing talent and recruiting, and produced a 22–11 record the following year. The Blazers advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and defeated SEC Western Division Champion, LSU, in the first round of the Big Dance.

Anderson's success at both UAB and Missouri made him the ideal candidate to fill Arkansas' coaching vacancy when it opened. A 10-day search ended when Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long made his hiring official on the evening of March 23.

"We are extremely excited to welcome home Mike Anderson to the University of Arkansas as our new head men's basketball coach," Long said. "Mike is one of the outstanding head coaches in college basketball. His teams play an exciting brand of basketball that has already proven successful at both UAB and Missouri.

"Under Mike's leadership, I am confident the Razorbacks will be successful in the future on and off the court. The decision to hire Mike Anderson as head coach is based on my firm belief that he is the right person to lead the Razorback program today and in the years to come."

A part of the history and tradition that is Arkansas basketball, Anderson was a volunteer assistant, assistant, recruiting coordinator and assistant head coach over 17 seasons with the Arkansas basketball program with Richardson. During that run, the Razorbacks made 15 post season appearances, five Sweet 16s, four Elite Eights, three Final Fours, finished as national runner-up in 1995 and won the 1994 National Championship.

Anderson was a part of perhaps the greatest run of basketball in Arkansas history as it matched many of the biggest names in the sport in total wins, NCAA Tournament appearances and Final Fours. The Razorbacks won five outright conference championships in his 17 years on the bench, an SEC Western Division title and Arkansas' only SEC Tournament Championship in 2000.

Anderson's coaching career began as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, Tulsa, where he worked with Richardson for three years before moving to Arkansas. His teams were 69–22 (.758) in those three seasons and earned two NCAA Tournament berths.

He played two seasons for Tulsa after transferring to the Golden Hurricane program from Jefferson (Ala.) Junior College. A two-year starter, Anderson averaged 12 points per game. His hard-nosed play helped Tulsa win the NIT Championship in 1981 and make the NCAA Tournament in 1982. He earned his degree in Education in the spring of '82 from Tulsa.

Born in Birmingham, Ala., Anderson was an All-State and All-City guard at Jackson Olin High School. He averaged 19 points as a senior and took his team to the state semifinals as a junior.

Anderson and his wife Marcheita have three children; Darcheita (husband Keith), Michael Jr., and Yvonne and four grandchildren, Aiyanna, Mikayla, Laila and Anderson Keith. Michael Jr., played for his father at Missouri and Yvonne was the Missouri High School Player of the Year in 2008, and played at Texas.

MELVIN WATKINS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | FOURTH YEAR @CoachWatkinsUA

A coaching veteran at the highest levels, associate head coach Melvin Watkins is in his fourth year with the Razorbacks. A 37-year coaching career for Watkins has seen him as a longtime assistant, associate head and head coach at Charlotte, Texas A&M and Missouri.

Arkansas' recruiting coordinator and associate head coach, Watkins was retained on staff at Missouri when Anderson took the head coaching duties at the school before the 2004–05 season and a dynamic relationship formed. The Anderson-Watkins combination immediately turned Missouri into a winning program, as the team went 18–12 in their first year together. Two years later, Missouri was dancing to the Elite Eight and winning the Big 12 Tournament, reaching heights that the Tigers had not seen in many years.

One of the best recruiters and assistants in the nation, Watkins was named the Top Assistant Coach in both 2009 and 2010 by Rivals.com as he helped Missouri advance to a pair of NCAA Tournaments, go a combined 54–18 and win the Big 12 Tournament Championship during those years.

Watkins' prowess on the recruiting trails has already made its impact at Arkansas, as the Razorbacks ushered in the No. 18 ranked recruiting class in 2013 according to ESPN.com, which featured a pair of top 50 recruits.

The dramatic change in the Arkansas roster paid off in year three, as the Razorbacks returned to the postseason for the first time since 2008, by earning a spot in the NIT while the "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" started to take form. Improving its SEC Tournament seeding by two spots for the second straight year, Arkansas finished fifth in the league standings at 10–8 while reaching the 20–win plateau (22–12) for the first time since the aforementioned 2007–08 campaign. Highlighting the 22–win season was the program's first–ever season sweep of SEC rival Kentucky and a 5–1 mark against teams that advanced to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament and NIT.

A stickler for recruiting players that are accountable both on the floor and in life, Watkins places heavy demand on his players' academic pursuits. While head coach at Texas A&M, 14 of the 17 players that completed their eligibility went on to earn degrees while the three that failed to do so began their professional basketball careers early. His players during that time earned 15 Academic All–Big 12 first or second team honors.

Watkins joined the Missouri staff following an eight-year run as a head coach at Texas A&M and his alma mater Charlotte. He spent six years roaming the sidelines for the Aggies (1999-2004) and helped rebuild the struggling program. His efforts in recruiting landed him eight top 100 recruits, including Texas A&M's No. 4 all-time leading scorer Bernard King, 2005 NBA first round pick Antoine Wright and 2007 first team All-American and former Chicago Bull Acie Law.

Prior to landing the head coaching job at Texas A&M, Watkins was the head coach at Charlotte for two seasons and led his team to a pair of 20-win seasons and two NCAA Tournaments. After a 19-year stint with the 49ers as an assistant and associate head coach, Watkins was given the head coaching title for the 1997 season and led his squad to a 22-9 mark and second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The fantastic first year for Watkins earned him Conference USA Ray Meyer Coach of the Year honors, while his second year at the helm of the program saw him guide the 49ers to a record of 20-11, a Conference USA divisional championship and another second round NCAA Tournament run.

Charlotte fans knew about Watkins long before he took over the program, as he was an All-Conference point guard for the school from 1973-77 and led the 49ers to the Final Four in 1977. Watkins then served as an assistant coach at the school for 10 years before being promoted to associate head coach, a position that he served in for nine years. During his 19-year stint as an assistant and associate, Charlotte had three 20-win seasons, made five postseason tournaments and won three conference and conference tournament championships.

Following his standout career as a collegiate, Watkins was drafted by the Buffalo Braves in the fourth round of the 1977 draft. His 49ers number (32) was retired following his senior season along with teammate Cedric Maxwell's.

Watkins's prep career at Reidsville High School saw him earn High School All-America honors as a senior in 1973. That season he acted as team captain and led his team to a state championship.

Watkins and his wife Burrell are the parents of two sons, Manuale and Marcus, and a daughter, Keia. Marcus played basketball for Missouri while Keia is a graduate of the Missouri Medical School. Manuale is currently a sophomore guard for the Razorbacks. Watkins is also the grandfather to Nathan and Eli, Keia and her husband David's two sons.

TJ CLEVELAND

ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH YEAR @TJ_Cleveland

A former Razorback and one of the best young recruiters in the nation, TJ Cleveland returned to the University of Arkansas in 2011, and is entering his fourth season as an assistant coach. A 12-year coaching and staff veteran since his playing days at Arkansas, Cleveland's career path back to Fayetteville mirrors that of his mentor, Arkansas Head Coach Mike Anderson.

A player for the Razorbacks from 1998–2002, Cleveland joined Anderson's staff at the University of Alabama–Birmingham (UAB) upon graduation as a video coordinator and was named an assistant coach prior to the 2005–06 season. Cleveland joined his former coach at Missouri for the 2006–07 season and in five seasons with the Tigers became known as a tireless worker and recruiter as well as one of the up–and–coming young coaches in the college game.

Following his fourth season with Missouri, Cleveland was asked to participate and was featured at Nike's Top Up & Coming Assistants Villa 7 Consortium. He has since been featured at Villa 7 in each of the last four years (2010–14).

Cleveland's efforts with the Razorback backcourt were visible immediately, as the Razorbacks have led the SEC in both turnover margin and steals eachof the last three years, statistical categories that are synonymous with Anderson's "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball."

In year three (2013–14) of the turnaround, the Razorbacks returned to the postseason for the first time since 2008, by earning a spot in the NIT. Improving its SEC Tournament seeding by two spots for the second straight year, Arkansas finished fifth in the league standings at 10–8 while reaching the 20–win plateau (22–12) for the first time since the aforementioned 2007–08 campaign. Highlighting the 22–win season was the program's first–ever season sweep of SEC rival Kentucky and a 5–1 mark against teams that advanced to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament and NIT.

During his tenure with Missouri, Cleveland worked predominantly with the Tiger guards and his players flourished under his tutelage. In 2006–07, Cleveland's first season at Missouri, he mentored Stefhon Hannah to Big 12 Newcomer of the Year accolades. Another Cleveland trainee, J.T. Tiller, took Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2008–09 and in between and since there have been several Missouri players that either led or been at the top of the Big 12 and national rankings.

Executing Anderson's style of play from the guard position has been instrumental in the team success that Cleveland has enjoyed both as a player and coach. Missouri ranked second in the nation in turnover margin each of the last three seasons and led the nation in steals in 2010 (10.9 per game) and assists in 2009 (18.4). Cleveland's last team at Missouri ranked second in the nation in both steals per game (9.7) and turnover margin (5.4).

In his one year as a coach with the Blazers, UAB advanced to the first round of the NCAA Tournament and ranked third in the nation in steals per game at 10.9 per contest. UAB also led Conference USA in assists, assist—turnover ratio, turnover margin and field goal percentage.

During his time at UAB and Missouri, Cleveland worked with five eventual NBA players: Donnell Taylor (Washington Wizards), Squeaky Johnson (New Orleans Hornets), first round draft pick DeMarre Carroll (Atlanta Hawks), Kim English (Chicago Bulls), Marcus Denmon (San Antonio Spurs) and Phil Pressey (Boston Celtics). Cleveland was also a teammate of current Brooklyn Nets guard and NBA All–Star Joe Johnson and Charlotte Hornets guard Jannero Pargo.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Cleveland was instrumental in Arkansas' run to the 2000 SEC Tournament title, the only SEC Tournament championship in school history. During Arkansas' four-day run to the tournament title, Cleveland scored 23 points, grabbed 10 rebounds, dished 10 assists and had 11 steals, all off the bench. His best game in the tournament came in the semifinals against LSU where he had seven steals, the most by a Razorback against an SEC opponent in regular season or postseason play.

During Cleveland's four-year career at Arkansas, the Razorbacks made three trips to the NCAA Tournament. A two-year captain, Cleveland led the team in steals three times in his four seasons in Fayetteville and currently ranks tied for fifth on Arkansas' all-time steals list with 226. Cleveland led the Razorbacks in assists two times and three-point percentage in 1999-00.

As a prep player for Minor High School in Birmingham, Ala., Cleveland was an All-State and All-Metro player as well as the MVP of the state tournament as a senior when he led his team to the state championship.

A 2002 graduate with a degree in communications, he is married to Ami (Watson) and the couple have twins: Caynen Thomas and Cayden James.

MATT ZIMMERMAN

ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH YEAR @CoachZ_Arkansas

An Arkansas native and University of Arkansas graduate, Matt Zimmerman returned to his alma mater in 2011–12, this time as a member of the coaching staff. A 19-year basketball coaching veteran at both the high school and collegiate ranks, Zimmerman has been with Arkansas head coach Mike Anderson for each of the past 12 seasons as an assistant with stops at Alabama-Birmingham (UAB), Missouri and Arkansas.

Known for his tireless work ethic and recruiting, Zimmerman is a highenergy coach whose personality is infectious on the court. Over his 12 seasons on Anderson's staff, he has been a part of eight 20-win campaigns, six NCAA Tournament appearances, two Sweet Sixteen berths and a run to the 2009 Elite Eight.

In year three (2013–14) at Arkansas, the Razorbacks returned to the postseason for the first time since 2008, by earning a spot in the NIT while the "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" started to take form. Improving its SEC Tournament seeding by two spots for the second straight year, Arkansas finished fifth in the league standings at 10–8 while reaching the 20–win plateau (22–12) for the first time since the aforementioned 2007–08 campaign. Highlighting the 22–win season was the program's first–ever season sweep of SEC rival Kentucky and a 5–1 mark against teams that advanced to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament and NIT.

Prior to coming to Arkansas, Zimmerman was an assistant at Missouri and helped the Tigers compile a 111–57 record in Columbia. While just 34–28 in his first two seasons, the individual improvements of the Tigers were evident in year three as Missouri was credited with the best turnaround in the nation in 2008–09, going 31–7 overall, winning the Tigers' first Big 12 Tournament Championship and advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight. That 2008–09 team's trip to the NCAA Tournament was the first of three straight postseason appearances for Missouri.

Working with both the guards and the posts, he takes great pride in the individual development of his players and has watched some of his protégés at Missouri, DeMarre Carroll, Phil Pressey, Kim English and Marcus Denmon become some of the best players in Tiger history. Denmon completed his Missouri career as the second-best three-point shooter in school history, while English earned All-Big 12 honors and was joined by Denmon in the backcourt to create one of the most feared guard tandems in recent memory in the Big 12 Conference.

NCAA Tournament appearances. He verteam which ended the year 30–5.

A 1990 graduate of Arkansas wiyears in the ROTC, Zimmerman joined to degree. He would spend five years in graduating from Airborne School in 199 (The Big Red One) from 1991–95. His Platoon Leader, Shop Officer, Company

Zimmerman's first collegiate coaching position was at UAB when he joined Anderson for his first season with the Blazers in 2002–03. In four seasons, UAB advanced to four postseason tournaments, including three straight NCAA bids and a dramatic Sweet Sixteen run in 2004. That year, the Blazers knocked off the No. 1 overall seed Kentucky after defeating Washington in the first round. Along with its postseason accomplishments, UAB also won a share of the Conference USA championship in 2004 with its impressive 12–4 league record.

During his time at UAB and Missouri, Zimmerman worked with five eventual NBA players: Donell Taylor (Washington Wizards), Squeaky Johnson (New Orleans Hornets), first round draft pick DeMarre Carroll (Atlanta Hawks), Kim English (Chicago Bulls) and Phil Pressey (Boston Celtics).

Zimmerman's coaching career began in the high school ranks in Arkansas where he spent seven years as a head coach at both Dardanelle High School and Planview-Rover High School. He amassed an impressive 74–46 record as the head coach at Dardanelle over four seasons and guided his team in 2000 to the quarterfinals of the Class AAA State Tournament. He earned District Coach of the Year honors in each of his final three seasons and was named the KARV Dream Team Coach of the Year and River Valley Radio Coach of the Year in 2000.

As the head coach and athletics director at Planview-Rover, Zimmerman led the Panthers to three conference championships and was selected as the 4A South Conference's Outstanding Boys Coach in 1996.

A veteran of the "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" style that Anderson employs, Zimmerman learned the basics of the system when he was a manager for his alma mater and Naismith Hall of Fame head coach Nolan Richardson. In his three years working with the Razorbacks, Arkansas won two Southwest Conference (SWC) Championships, two SWC Tournament titles and made three NCAA Tournament appearances. He was a part of Arkansas' 1990 Final Four team which ended the year 30–5

A 1990 graduate of Arkansas with a degree in physical education and four years in the ROTC, Zimmerman joined the United States Army after he earned his degree. He would spend five years in the military, earning the rank of Captain, graduating from Airborne School in 1991 and serving with the 1st Infantry Division (The Big Red One) from 1991–95. His other experiences in the military included Platoon Leader, Shop Officer, Company Executive Office and Battalion Adjutant.

JEFF DANIELS

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS | FOURTH YEAR @CoachDef

Beginning his fourth season with the Razorbacks, Jeff Daniels assumed the role of Director of Operations for the Arkansas men's basketball program prior to the 2011–12 season. Arriving at Arkansas from Missouri, where he spent five years on head coach Mike Anderson's staff, Daniels is a veteran of the game.

In his duties with the Razorbacks, Daniels is tasked with team travel, facility scheduling, the men's basketball budget and overseeing the administration of Mike Anderson's Razorback camps.

In 2013–14, the Razorbacks returned to the postseason for the first time since 2008, by earning a spot in the NIT. Arkansas finished fifth in the league standings at 10-8 while reaching the 20-win plateau (22-12) for the first time since the aforementioned 2007–08 campaign. Highlighting the 22-win season was the program's first–ever season sweep of SEC rival Kentucky and a 5-1 mark against teams that advanced to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament and NIT

Daniels has been with Anderson for the past nine years, one at Alabama–Birmingham, five at Missouri and the last three at Arkansas. Over his nine years on Anderson's staff, he has been a part of eight winning campaigns, five 20–win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by a 31–win season and run to the Elite Eight in 2009 at Missouri.

Daniels joined his longtime friend at the Division I level after a 10-year coaching career at Montevallo and Division II Valdosta State. His coaching career at his alma mater, Montevallo, began in 1995 when he was named the program's fifth head coach. His teams were well known for their defensive prowess and he guided the Falcons to steady improvements throughout his tenure. He was named the Gulf South Conference Coach of the Year in 2002 before accepting a position as associate head coach at Valdosta State in 2003.

In two seasons with Valdosta State, the Blazers went 43–13, won a Gulf South Conference championship and ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation. Daniels defensive mindset was instilled in the Blazers arsenal and Valdosta State ranked No. 1 in the nation in field goal percentage defense each of his two years with the program.

Daniels' coaching career began as a graduate assistant coach at Montevallo. He spent two years as a graduate assistant before accepting the full—time assistant position in 1986 on Rob Spivery's staff, helping guide the Falcons to its most successful stint in the program's history. Daniels first met Anderson during his junior college playing days as the two began their post—high school careers at Jefferson State Community College in 1979–80. The teammates reached the National Junior College Athletic Association's national title game, losing to a Nolan Richardson coached Western Texas team.

Following his junior college days, Daniels began a two-year playing career at Montevallo. Daniels was awarded the Dean's Trophy for scholastic achievement as a junior and was named a captain prior to his senior campaign.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Daniels attended Huffman High School. He and his wife, Robbie, have two children, son Andrew (18) and daughter, Makenzie (14).

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT | FIFTH YEAR @Ruston_Rifle

Responsible for one of the most memorable moments in Arkansas basketball history, Scotty Thurman is in his fifth year, as Director of Student–Athlete Development and fourth under head coach Mike Anderson.

Starting in 2014–15, Thurman will add on to his responsibilities when he joins the Razorback Sports Network, as a color analyst for the men's basketball season.

No stranger to Arkansas basketball, Thurman provided his signature moment in the final minute of the NCAA championship game when his three-pointer with 53 seconds remaining secured a 76-72 win over Duke.

Thurman returned to the Razorbacks in 2010-11, after successful professional and business careers to assist the student-athletes, associated with the men's basketball program with their growth as individuals off the court. He is responsible for coordinating and developing programs that enhance personal and career development, along with participating in various community service efforts.

Along with his duties as a mentor to Arkansas' student—athletes, Thurman is also charged with bridging the gap between Arkansas' current and former players. Those results are evident, as Razorback greats like Ronnie Brewer, Darrell Walker, Lee Mayberry, and Todd Day, as well as others, have already heard the call of one of their own.

Thurman assists with academics and he is a member of the Razorback Foundation's External Operations Team and the Athletic Director's Diversity Council, as well as, the Never Yield steering committee.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Thurman's three years were some of the most decorated in program history, as he helped lead Arkansas to an 85-19 record over that span. The only player in Arkansas history to be named to the All–SEC first team three times, Thurman still ranks 10th on Arkansas' all–time scoring list with 1,650 points. He continues to hold Arkansas' single–season record for three–pointers in a season with 102 and ranks second on the career three–point chart with 267.

Following his first stint with the Razorbacks, Thurman played 11 seasons of professional basketball overseas in Lebanon, Greece, Cyprus and Italy. His successful pro career came to a close after the 2006 season and Little Rock, Arkansas, became his permanent home. There, he worked in the real estate field and, eventually, began working for Episcopal Collegiate School as Director of Community Relations, as well as being a teacher and coach.

Thurman received a bachelor's degree from Philander Smith College in 2003 and his Masters in Secondary Education from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock in 2012. He and his wife Regina have two children, Scotty Jr., and Romani. Scotty Jr. is a junior at Arkansas and is a receiver for the Razorback football team, receiving a scholarship prior to the start of the 2014 season.

LEADERSHIP

LEE MAYBERRY

UNDERGRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST YEAR

One of the most decorated players in program history who was a key part of Arkansas' highly-successful transition from the Southwest Conference (SWC) to the Southeastern Conference (SEC), Lee Mayberry has returned to join head coach Mike Anderson's staff as an undergraduate assistant coach.

A first round pick by the Milwaukee Bucks in 1992 NBA Draft, Mayberry had a seven—year career in the NBA following his illustrious four years at Arkansas. He now has returned to finish his undergraduate degree in American Studies.

Recruited and coached by Naismith Hall Of Fame inductee Nolan Richardson, Mayberry teamed with fellow 1992 NBA first round draft picks Todd Day and Oliver Miller to lead Arkansas to a 115-24 overall record, four straight conference titles (3 SWC & 1 SEC) and four NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by the run to the Final Four in 1990.

Mayberry's legacy is visible all over the Razorback record book, as he still holds the program record for career steals (291) while ranking second in assists (729) and third in points (1,940). An All–SEC first team selection following Arkansas' first year in the league, Mayberry was also a two–time All–SWC first team honoree. Mayberry and the Razorbacks left the SWC in style, winning three straight league titles with a combined record of 42–6 before taking the SEC regular season crown in 1991–92 with a 13–3 mark.

Selected in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft by the Bucks along with Day, Mayberry spent his first four years with Milwaukee and played in 328 consecutive games to open his career. His final three years in the NBA came with the Vancouver Grizzlies as he accumulated over 2,500 points and 1,700 assists over his seven seasons as a pro.

Following his NBA career, Mayberry became a mentor in the National Basketball Developmental League (NBDL) for three years before becoming an NBA Scout for the Golden State Warriors from 2011–2013. Mayberry is the coowner of the Playing with Basketball program. The faith-based program teaches youth the basics of basketball and stresses the importance of quality.

Mayberry is a native of Tulsa and a graduated from Will Rogers High School where he won a state championship in 1988. He is married to his high school sweetheart Marla and together they have five daughters: Taleya, Kaylan, Maya, Wyvette and Rhyian.

LEADERSHIP

WILL BARTLETT

VIDEO COORDINATOR | FOURTH YEAR

Will Bartlett joined the Arkansas basketball program in the summer of 2011 following the hiring of head coach Mike Anderson. No stranger to Anderson's "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball," Bartlett worked with Anderson for five years as a student manager and graduate assistant at Missouri before taking Arkansas' Coordinator of Basketball Operations position prior to the 2011–12 season. Bartlett was promoted to the role of Video Coordinator in fall of 2013.

In his current role, Bartlett is in charge of collecting game tapes, breaking down practice and game footage for instructional use and organizing scouting video for the Razorback coaching staff.

After earning his undergraduate degree, Bartlett was retained by Anderson and his staff to work as a graduate assistant at Missouri. In that role, he coordinated film exchange, organized the video editing, assisted with scouting reports, oversaw the recruiting database and helped to organize summer camps.

Prior to his increased role, Bartlett was the head student manager Missouri and helped coordinate visiting team practices, supervised campers at summer camps, set up a training program for new managers, organized practice equipment and assisted coaches with drills and workouts.

A 2009 graduate of Missouri with a degree in psychology, he also graduated with a master's degree in parks and recreation from Missouri in the spring of 2011. He was a multi-semester member of the Dean's List as an undergraduate and graduated in the top 15 percent of his class when he earned his master's degree.

A native of Macomb, III., Bartlett is the son of David and Martha Bartlett. He was a four-year letterwinner in soccer, basketball and baseball at Macomb High School.

ADAM PETWAY

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING | FIRST YEAR

Adam Petway begins his second year with Arkansas men's basketball, but his first as the head strength and conditioning coach after being promoted in the summer of 2014. Petway spent the 2013–14 season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Petway oversees all aspects of the Arkansas men's basketball strength and conditioning program, including its unique performance training for head coach Mike Anderson's up-tempo style and nutritional guidelines.

In his time with the Razorbacks, Petway has worked diligently to ensure that his strength and conditioning style reflects Anderson's expectations. Aligning with the #Fastest40 mantra, Petway's workouts are explosive and fast. Petway's training platform is functionally bent and is specific to demands of the game and to the athlete's needs. He works closely with each player to develop individualized strength and conditioning programs.

Prior to joining Anderson and his staff at Arkansas, Petway spent two years as a basketball performance intern at Maryland. While in College Park, Md., Petway worked alongside Kyle Tarp and helped run all workouts in the then—new performance center and monitored each athlete's nutrition and post—workout supplementation.

Petway was also a key contributor in the player development aspect of Maryland's strength and conditioning program, and was mentored by David Adkins who is now the player development assistant for the Washington Wizards. The Atlanta, Ga., native earned his degree from the United States Sports Academy in Sports Science in 2013.

LEADERSHIP

A major component of the University of Arkansas basketball program, Terry Mercer is in her 37th season as the executive assistant for Razorback basketball. Her friendly demeanor welcomes visitors to the basketball offices at Bud Walton Arena.

Mercer, whose career has spanned five head coaches, was one of the first people to welcome Mike Anderson back to Fayetteville as the two spent 17 years together in his first stint with the program.

She handles all correspondence for coach Anderson and helps with the administrative details of the Mike Anderson Razorback's Basketball Camp in addition to organizing Anderson's hectic schedule. Other duties include coordinating coach Anderson's speaking engagements and handling the day—to—day business for associate head coach Melvin Watkins.

Mercer has enjoyed the success of the Razorback program, making four trips to the Final Four and 23 NCAA Tournament excursions.

A native of Princeton, N.C., she graduated from Saratoga High School in 1972, she worked for Southern Piping Company in Wilson, N.C., for six years before her husband, Elton, was transferred to Fayetteville.

She and Elton have a daughter, Heather (34), a son, Jacob (27), and two granddaughters Caitlyn (11), and Kenleigh (8).

Amanda Creamer begins her fourth year with the Razorbacks as an executive assistant. Joining the University for a second time, Creamer was a student at Arkansas and later assisted with the recruiting efforts and summer camps for three years before leaving, only to return when Mike Anderson was named head coach.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Creamer was the executive assistant to Mike Anderson at Missouri. With the Tigers she maintained the day-to-day aspects of the office, handled coach Anderson's schedule and oversaw student workers, among other duties.

Creamer was the office manager for the women's basketball team at Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) for two years before moving to Columbia. In that capacity, she assisted with the statistical crew for home games along with her other day-to-day tasks for the Blazers and their Dragon Club.

A native of Harrison, Ark., Creamer earned her bachelor's degree in journalism from Arkansas in 2000 and is close to earning her masters in the same discipline. In six years with the Razorbacks, she worked as a student assistant in the Women's Communications Office as well as an intern in the men's Sports Information Office. She began her work with men's basketball during the summer of 2001.

In addition to her work in athletic departments, Creamer has also worked with the Columbia (Mo.) Chamber of Commerce in various capacities.

- First back-to-back winning seasons in SEC play since 1997–98 and 1998–99.
- First postseason appearance and win since 2008.
- NIT berth was the third in program history and first since 1997.
- One of three Division I programs and the only BCS team to rank in the top 30 nationally in scoring (80.1/16th), assists (15.3/28th), steals (8.4/12th) and blocks (5.6/18th).
- Averaged 86.7 points at Bud Walton Arena, scoring 80+ points in 13 of 19 games.
- Eight wins over the final 10 regular season games was the best finish over the final 10 games since 1995.
- Eight of its 18 SEC games were decided by five points or less, including four games decided by two points or less, the most since the 2004-05 season.
- Six-game SEC win streak was the longest since 1998.
- Appeared on the #SCtop10 11 times, including eight via dunks from sophomore MICHAEL QUALLS.
- Finished the month of February with a 6-2 record, good for the program's most wins in February since 2001.
- Improved SEC Tournament seed by two spots for the second straight year.

OFFENSE

- Lead the SEC and rank 16th in the nation in scoring (80.1) with no players in the top 25 in the SEC in scoring.
- The 80.1 points per game was the most since 1997–98.
- Four 100-point games is the same total produced by the rest of the SEC and the same total produced over the program's previous nine years combined
- Turned in two of the top three scoring efforts by an SEC team.
- 10 different players reached double figures while six players led the team in scoring.
- Six different players scored 20 points in a game.
- Held below 70 points just six times compared to 153 Division I teams averaging below 70 points.
- Arkansas bench averaged 32.2 points, supplied a double figure scorer in 26 games and out-scored the opposition 28 times resulting in a +12.5 per game margin.
- Have a three-pointer in 838 consecutive games, good for the sixthlongest streak in the nation.
- Set a program SEC home record with 110 points against Ole Miss, good for its fourth-best offensive performance in SEC action.
- Equaled a program SEC record with 17 three-pointers against Ole Miss, tying the record set twice vs. Auburn in 1995 & 1998.
- 110 points and 17 threes vs. Ole Miss were both SEC season-bests.

THE #FASTEST40

- Led the SEC in steals (8.4), assists (15.3), assist/turnover ratio (1.3) and turnover margin (+5.5), a figure it has led the league in all three years under coach Anderson.
- Turnover margin of +5.5 ranked fourth in the nation.
- 691 points off turnovers, good for 25 percent of its scoring.
- Won the turnover battle by double-digits seven times and scored 20+ points off turnovers in 16 games.
- Finished with a positive assist/turnover ratio in 28 games, while opponents accomplished the feat five times.
- Won the turnover battle in 83 of 98 games under coach Anderson.
- Owned a 6-0 record when passing out 20+ assists while coach Anderson is 81-1 all-time when his teams accomplish the feat.
- Forced opponents into 20 turnovers 20 times (19-1) under Anderson, including six times (6-0) in 2013-14.

OH WHAT A NIGHT

Freshman BOBBY PORTIS scored an Arkansas freshman record 35 points in a win over Alabama, breaking the 20-year record held by current Director of Student-Athlete Development SCOTTY THURMAN. Portis accounted for 17 straight points over a 6:29 span from the end of the first half and start of the second en route to the third-most points scored by an SEC player in 2013–14, including the second-most in a 40-minute game. Below are some more facts from Portis' record-setting night.

- Accounted for 29 of the team's first 35 points.
- Most points by a Razorback since Feb. 27, 2002, when JANNERO PARGO scored 35 at Mississippi State.
- Fifth-most points by an Arkansas player in an SEC game.
- 43rd Razorback to score 30 points, but just the fifth freshman.
- 14 made field goals fell just two short of Todd Day's Arkansas SEC record of 16.
- Fifth Razorback to block six shots in an SEC game.

Freshman BOBBY PORTIS (@BPortisTime) became just the sixth player in program history to earn All-SEC honors as a rookie.

BUD WALTON ARENA - THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID-AMERICA

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena - The Basketball Palace of Mid-America - for 21 years and has drawn more than 5.7 million fans. In that time, it has ranked among national attendance leaders every season and the Hogs have won 81 percent of their home games.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, then-Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league.

His attention turned immediately to basketball. The Hogs were very successful, coming off a Final Four trip earlier that year, but had just a 9,000-seat home, Barnhill Arena.

One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Walmart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC. Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, Bud Walton Arena was born.

Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months. The Razorbacks played in Bud Walton for the first time in November of 1993. Everything went perfectly during the first full year. Not only did Arkansas sell out the arena, the Razorbacks were unbeaten in their new home (16–0) and won the 1994 National Championship.

The Hogs carry a 278–68 (.809) record into the 2014–15 season. In 21 seasons, Arkansas has an all-time average attendance of 16,121 in Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas has ranked in the top 30 nationally in attendance every year in BWA.

Entering the 2014–15 campaign, Arkansas has a combined mark of 592–162 in its last two home arenas for an outstanding home winning percentage of .783 over the last 57 years.

Bud Walton Arena houses a deluxe museum on the ground level that includes a tribute to Arkansas' 1994 NCAA Championship and multiple Final Four appearances as well as the history of Razorback basketball, track and field, baseball, tennis and golf. Eye-catching displays that were recently updated on the concourse level salute Razorback high-lights.

Enhancements prior to the 2009 season included the addition of courtside seating, electronic signage at the scorer's table, new retractable seats in the lower level, electronic ribbon boards along the bottom of the upper deck, replacing the Razorback on the court with the classic Razorback logo and opening up the student section by converting it from chairback seats to benches.

Eight suites were added prior to the 2008 season, raising the total to 47.

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2005, which was redesigned in 2012 and includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area.

The 2004 season marked the debut of a new custom scoreboard in the shape of a basketball hoop. The board, 24 feet, three inches wide by 22 feet tall, features four video screens, each 12 feet, six inches wide by eight feet, 10 inches tall. An LED ring at the top is used to display game statistics.

As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral.

According to Rosser International in Atlanta, when the arena was built, there were more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting.

From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Bud Walton Arena is a rich experience, leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

RAZORBACK BASKETBALL HISTORY

Championships were a tradition at Arkansas long before the Razorbacks earned the national title in 1994. The '94 championship was the grandest of them all, but the NCAA trophy isn't exactly the only one on the shelf in the fabulous Bud Walton Arena museum.

In fact, Arkansas has made six trips to the NCAA Final Four and earned 30 bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Arkansas has won 24 league championships with 22 coming in the Southwest Conference between 1926 and 1991. The Hogs won the Southeastern Conference crown in 1992, their first year in the league, after winning three straight SWC titles. The Hogs have also won seven league tournament crowns.

Since joining the SEC, Arkansas has been a dominant member. The Razorbacks won overall titles in 1992 and 1994, and Western Division titles in 1992, '93, '94 and '95, and won the tournament crown in 2000.

Arkansas has a long-standing tradition of winning in basketball. It started in the 1920s and has carried through to this time. Even though Arkansas didn't begin playing basketball until 1924, the Hogs won more SWC championships than any other school.

It didn't take long for the Hogs to have an impact on the SWC. Two years after starting the program, Arkansas won its first league championship. It was the first of five in a row. Francis Schmidt, Arkansas' first basketball coach, guided the Hogs to the 1926, '27, '28 and '29 titles. Chuck Bassett was the coach of the 1930 championship squad.

Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' first football All-American, captained the 1930 club. He earned All-SWC honors three times. In fact, the Razorbacks dominated the all-conference squads of the late 1920s. In 1928, Arkansas had four of the five All-SWC selections when Glen Rose, Tom Pickell, Gene Lambert Sr. and Schoonover were named all-league. Rose was also the first Razorback to earn All-America honors (1928), followed a year later by Pickell and Lambert.

The Hogs were loaded with all-conference talent during that time. Rose was a three-time All-SWC pick, as was Pickell.

Lambert and Rolla Adams made it twice, as did Milan Creighton. From 1926 through 1929, Arkansas was a combined 60–5.

When Schmidt left Arkansas as coach, he went to league rival TCU and was tough to beat until the Razorbacks hired Rose as head coach.

Rose began another glorious run with a co-championship in 1935. The Hogs won SWC titles in '36, '38, '41 and '42. The 1936 Razorbacks almost represented the United States in the Olympics, winning four games in an Olympic playoff before losing to a team of all-stars from California in the semifinals of the tournament.

Jim Lee Howell, Ike Poole, Taft Moody, Don Lockard, Jack Robbins, Howard Hickey and Johnny Adams were the stars of their day. Adams was an All-American in 1941. He was Arkansas' fifth All-American but the last one UA would have until Ron Brewer made it in 1977.

From 1945 to 1950, Arkansas had four second-place finishes and shared the 1949 title. The Razorbacks then went through a mild recession before claiming a co-championship in 1958. By winning a playoff game against SMU, Arkansas qualified for the NCAA Tournament. It wasn't a pleasant experience. Oklahoma State, which featured Eddie Sutton as a player, downed the Hogs by 25, 65–40, and Oscar Robertson exploded for 58 points as the Hogs were drilled by Cincinnati, 97–62, in a consolation game.

As unpleasant as the tournament experience was, Arkansas would have loved to have gone back, but it didn't happen for 19 years. Not even Rose, who led the Hogs to the '58 title in his second stint as coach, could return Arkansas to glory. He retired following the 1966 season, but neither of his two successors, Duddy Waller or Lanny Van Eman, put a contender on the floor.

Van Eman did, however, bring excitement to the game. His teams regularly scored in the 80s and 90s at a time when the traditional powers played games in the 60s. Van Eman recruited Martin Terry from junior college and Terry set school single-season scoring records that still stand. He averaged 28.3 points per game as a senior. Even though he played only two seasons, Terry still ranks among Arkansas' top 20 all-time scorers.

SCOTTY THURMAN'S clutch three-pointer with the shot clock winding down and 51 seconds left to play gave Arkansas a 73-70 lead in the 76-72 victory over Duke in the 1994 NCAA Championship game.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

The 1944 Razorback men's basketball team.

Unfortunately, Van Eman's teams usually gave up more points than they scored. Twice in 1971, Arkansas scored 100 or more points and lost.

Van Eman's second club managed to win 16 games, but only five came in SWC play. Arkansas and Baylor, which paired for a thrilling 111–110 Baylor victory the year before, put on another wild show with the Razorbacks winning, 131–109, in Fayetteville, setting a league record for points scored by two teams in a conference game.

After the 1974 Hogs won just 10 games, Frank Broyles, newly appointed athletic director as well as an already established football coach, decided it was time to make a commitment to basketball. He turned things around by hiring Sutton.

Sutton caught the state's attention in his first season when the Razorbacks finished 17–9 and second in the SWC. By the time his second team finished its 19–9 campaign, construction workers were already renovating Barnhill Arena, a facility constructed in 1957.

The 1976 Hogs also featured the nucleus of what was to become one of the greatest teams in history. Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph were sophomores. Sidney Moncrief was a freshman and he quietly led the nation in field goal percentage (.665, 149–224), and Sutton knew he had something special.

With half of Barnhill's facelift completed before the 1977 season, a new wave of excitement swept through the entire state of Arkansas.

The Razorbacks blitzed through the SWC unbeaten, winning their first league title in 19 years. Brewer, Moncrief and Delph were the toast of the Ozarks. Arkansas finished 26–2 but lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Moncrief fouled out, allowing Wake Forest to come from behind for a victory.

Expectations were high in 1978 and the Hogs didn't disappoint. For a week, the Razorbacks were even ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. A loss at Houston after two victories earlier in the week dropped the Hogs from their position at the top.

Arkansas shared the SWC title with Texas, but was upset by Houston, again on a last-second shot at the SWC Tournament. Stunned, the Razorbacks returned home unsure of whether or not they would receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hogs got in and victories over Weber State and No. 2 UCLA thrust Arkansas into the regional finals. Brewer hit a long jumper with less than a minute to play and Jim Counce scored on a layup at the end to seal a 61-58 victory over Cal-Fullerton, sending the Hogs to the Final Four.

No. 1-ranked Kentucky ended Arkansas' dreams of a national title with a semifinal victory, but Brewer hit another of his patented buzzer shots in the third-place game, giving Arkansas a thrilling 71-69 victory over Notre Dame.

With All-American Brewer and the sleek-shooting Delph gone, Moncrief and Steve Schall were left to lead the 1979 Hogs. It was almost a repeat performance of 1978.

Moncrief was brilliant. He simply refused to allow his team to lose. After a brief midseason slump, Arkansas won 14 straight games, including two at the SWC Tournament and two in the NCAA Tournament. A victory over Louisville sent Arkansas into the Midwest Regional finals against No. 1-ranked Indiana State and superstar Larry Bird.

Arkansas could not stop Bird, but ISU could not contain Moncrief. In one of the greatest games in UA history, the Hogs suffered a 73–71 setback when a last-second Sycamore shot bounced twice and fell in. Arkansas finished 25–5 and the Moncrief era was history.

Sutton won three more SWC titles and left behind a legacy when his teams won 20 or more games nine years in a row. Arkansas played in the NCAA Tournament in each of those nine seasons, but never came close to returning to the Final Four. The Razorbacks even featured a team that had three future first—round NBA draft choices when Scott Hastings, Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson played together. Joe Kleine, another future NBA product, redshirted that year (1982).

When Sutton left for Kentucky, Broyles turned a completely different direction when he hired Nolan Richardson. Richardson's teams were noted for defense, just as Sutton's were, but it was a different style of defense. Richardson's defense usually turned quickly to offense and his teams at Tulsa had led the nation in scoring.

Inheriting a group of players recruited to play at a slower pace, Richardson had to bite the bullet as his first season resulted in a 12–16 finish. Then he started recruiting. His second team won 19 games and his third was 21–9. His 1989 squad won Arkansas' first SWC title since 1982 and breezed through the league tournament. Arkansas set school scoring records and downed Loyola–Marymount in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before bowing to Louisville.

By then, Richardson's style and players had converted Razorback fans. Barnhill Arena was hopping every time the Hogs played. It wouldn't have taken a Final Four appearance for the state to go nuts, but when the Razorbacks reached the 1990 Final Four, the state went crazy.

The Hogs were SWC champs again and dominated the SWC Tournament for the second consecutive year. Triumphs over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas sent the Razorbacks into the Final Four. A loss to Duke in the semifinals ended the season at 30-5.

MEMORABLE GAMES

The history of Razorback basketball is filled with thrilling and even heart-stopping moments. The Final Four, conference championships and last-second, game-winning jumpers shape the memories of the "greatest" moments in Arkansas history. Following are 10 of those:

NO. 2 ARKANSAS 76, NO. 6 DUKE 72 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APRIL 4, 1994, AT CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Despite UA's incredible basketball success through the years, the Razorbacks had never played for the national championship until their battle with Duke at the Charlotte Coliseum. The Hogs had been ranked No. 1 much of the year, but Duke had won two national titles in the three previous seasons and had defeated Arkansas in the 1990 Final Four at Denver.

Duke controlled the tempo in the first half and Corliss Williamson, who had been nearly unstoppable in the entire tournament, missed his first five shots for the Razorbacks. The Blue Devils led by as many as five points in the opening period, but Scotty Thurman drilled a late three-pointer to give UA a 34–33 halftime advantage.

Corey Beck hit a short jumper early in the second half to give the Hogs a 38–35 lead, but Duke scored 13 unanswered points and suddenly led 48–38 with 17:09 left. While the surge left Duke fans roaring their approval, it also sped up the tempo of the game. The Razorbacks trailed but actually had the Blue Devils right where they wanted them.

Playing at a quicker pace, Arkansas caught up in less than five minutes. When Al Dillard drilled a three with 8:08 remaining to give UA a five-point lead, it looked like momentum had swung to the Hogs for good. Duke fought back and tied the game at 65–65 and finally 70-all with 1:29 remaining. The Razorbacks took a timeout.

When Dwight Stewart fumbled a pass, he quickly passed it out to Thurman with the shot clock winding down. Thurman had no choice but to shoot. As his shot was narrowly clearing the outstretched hand of Antonio Lang, the shot clock hit zero. The shot, though, was true. It was a dagger to the hearts of the Blue Devils and surpassed U.S. Reed's half-court jumper against Louisville as the most famous shot in UA history.

Duke never recovered. Three free throws in the final seconds clinched the 76-72 victory that gave Arkansas the 1994 national championship.

COREY BECK had 15 points, a team-high 10 rebounds and four assists in the championship game victory over Duke.

ARKANSAS 65, NO. 1 NORTH CAROLINA 64 FEB. 12, 1984, AT PINE BLUFF, ARK.

North Carolina was 19-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally when the Tar Heels visited Pine Bluff. Arkansas was on its way to a second–place finish in the Southwest Conference and had defeated SMU in Dallas the day before.

Violent weather kept the Hogs from flying to Pine Bluff until the morning of the game, and the Razorbacks arrived in town two hours before the nationally televised contest.

North Carolina had plenty of weapons. Michael Jordan, Sam Perkins and Brad Daugherty, all future NBA stars, were in the starting lineup along with Steve Hale, a guard from Tulsa whose second choice of schools was Arkansas.

The Hogs were armed with Joe Kleine and Alvin Robertson, but the unsung heroes were Darryl Bedford and Charles Balentine. Bedford, a freshman who had been a little used reserve, hit all six of his shots and scored 12 points. Balentine, of course, was the hero at the end.

A crowd of 7,529 was in a frenzy from the opening tipoff to the final buzzer. They watched Jordan score 21 points and Kleine answer with 20. Perkins had 17 and Hale 15. Leroy Sutton scored 11 points, Balentine 10 and Robertson nine for the Hogs.

The second half was a nailbiter and the Tar Heels led by one with only seconds to play. Balentine drove the baseline and hit an eight–footer to give Arkansas the lead before UNC missed a buzzer shot.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

It nearly happened again in 1991. Arkansas won a school-record 34 games before falling to Kansas in the Southeast Regional finals. Arkansas ended its history in the Southwest Conference by winning the final three regular season and tournament championships.

A new era was launched in 1992 and the Razorbacks didn't miss a beat. Arkansas won the Southeastern Conference title with a 13–3 record. Included were two victories over Shaquille O'Neal–led LSU and a big win at Kentucky. The Todd Day–Lee Mayberry–Oliver Miller era ended with a 26–8 season and another trip to the NCAAs.

After winning the SEC's Western Division in '93 and pushing North Carolina to the limit in a Sweet 16 loss to the eventual national champions, Arkansas enjoyed its best season ever in 1994. UA won nearly everything possible. The Razorbacks were SEC champs, again sweeping LSU and winning at Kentucky, they made the school's fifth trip to the Final Four and completed their dream season by beating Arizona and Duke to win the national title.

A year later, Arkansas was No. 1 in all the preseason polls, but the Hogs stumbled early before making a late-season run. UA repeated as Western Division champion, then downed Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia to earn its sixth Final Four appearance.

A win over North Carolina in the semifinals allowed the Hogs to advance to the finals, but it was UCLA's year as the Bruins beat Arkansas for the 1995 crown, 89–78.

With every starter gone from the back-to-back Final Four clubs, Arkansas was expected to struggle in 1996. Richardson, however, molded together a young team and the Hogs peaked late. Seeded 12th in the NCAA East Regional, UA beat Penn State and Marquette to advance to the Sweet 16 before falling to top-ranked Massachusetts.

In 1997, Arkansas was forced to endure an NCAA inquiry, which proved fruitless, but it damaged the Hogs' recruiting. The streak of nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances ended but the Bud Walton Arena crowds were rejuvenated by three NIT games. Fans who never before had the opportunity to buy Razorback basketball tickets were able to attend and helped UA advance to the NIT semifinals in New York.

It was back to the NCAAs in 1998 as the Razorbacks, who got 10.4 points and an SEC-leading 9.8 rebounds per game from Nick Davis, won 24 games and reached the second round with a win over Nebraska.

Arkansas won its 10th straight NCAA Tournament first-round game in 1999 as Pat Bradley set school records for career three-point shooting (366-915, .400). Derek Hood recorded more double-doubles than anyone in UA history (18) and also led the league in rebounding (10.3), and Kareem Reid broke Mayberry's career record for assists (748).

UA also had one of the most unique weeks in its basketball history. The final two home games came over a five-day span against No. 5 Kentucky and No. 2 Auburn. Never before had Arkansas played two top 10 teams at home in the same week. Arkansas beat UK, 74-70, and topped Auburn, 104-88.

Following an up-and-down season in 2000, Arkansas won four games in four days, including wins over No. 16 Kentucky, No. 10 LSU and No. 23 Auburn to win the school's first SEC Tournament title. Brandon Dean was the MVP after averaging 15.2 points in the title run.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

The 2001 club rebounded from an 0-3 league start with a sixgame winning streak late in the year to earn Arkansas' 13th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years and its 15th straight post-season tournament berth.

The Nolan Richardson era came to an end in 2002 when he was released from his contract. The Razorbacks dropped to 14–15, including a 13–14 mark under Richardson. Mike Anderson was 1–1 as interim head coach for the last two games of the season.

Stan Heath rebuilt the roster with recruiting classes ranked as high as No. 13 by Rivals.com in 2004 and No. 7 by Hoop Scoop in 2003. In 2005, the Razorbacks won the Paradise Jam tournament title and went 18–12.

In 2006, Heath had Arkansas back in the NCAA Tournament, going 22–10 behind honorable mention All-American Ronnie Brewer (18.4 ppg), All-SEC guard Jonathon Modica (16.1 ppg) and SEC Sixth Man of the Year Eric Ferguson (8.1 ppg).

Arkansas earned another NCAA bid in 2007. The Razorbacks won the Old Spice Classic, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and recorded the 27th 20-win season in school history by finishing 21–14. Patrick Beverley (13.9 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was the SEC Newcomer and Freshman of the year, and Steven Hill (6.2 ppg, 2.8 blocks) the SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

John Pelphrey, an honorable mention All-American as a player at Kentucky, became head coach for the 2008 season. His background included playing for Eddie Sutton and Rick Pitino at Kentucky, and working as an assistant coach for Sutton at Oklahoma State, and Billy Donovan at Marshall and Florida.

Pelphrey's first Razorback team went 23–12, was 6–2 against ranked teams, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over No. 24 Indiana. Sonny Weems (15.0 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was first-team All-SEC and won the College Slam Dunk championship.

Pelphrey's second team, in 2009, was short on depth and experience. The Hogs finished 14–16, but had wins over No. 4 Oklahoma and No. 7 Texas, and won the Jim Thorpe Classic. He would lead the team for two more years, but failed to return the Razorbacks back to the NCAA Tournament.

On March 23, 2011, the Razorbacks ushered in a new (old) style of basketball with the hiring of longtime Razorback assistant Mike Anderson. Anderson left the program in 2002 when Richardson departed and went on to highly successful stints at UAB and Missouri before returning to Arkansas. Anderson's first job was to retain a highly-touted recruiting class that ranked among the top 10 in the nation, which he did, and has brought a new mindset to the Razorback program.

Over his first three seasons at Arkansas, Anderson has produced a 59–39 record and is the first head coach in program history to win 18 or more games in each of his first three years. Anderson has also re-established Bud Walton Arena as one of the toughest places to play and brought excitement back to the tradition-rich program. Over the last three years, Arkansas has won 51 games at Bud Walton Arena, the most over any three-year span in the arena's 20-year history. Each of Anderson's teams have won a program record 17 home games, while the 2012–13 squad posted just the third unbeaten SEC home record (9–0) in program history and the first since 1998.

NO. 1 INDIANA STATE 73, NO. 5 ARKANSAS 71 NCAA REGIONAL FINAL MARCH 17, 1979, AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

A Final Four team in 1978, Arkansas was not expected to return in 1979 with the loss of Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph, two of the famed "Triplets." Sidney Moncrief, however, almost single-handedly pushed his team to greater heights than anyone expected.

Moncrief, senior Steve Schall and a cast of sophomores and freshmen put together a 14-game winning streak late in the year and arrived at the Midwest Regional finals ready to challenge No. 1-ranked and unbeaten Indiana State, and superstar Larry Bird. The stakes were a spot in the Final Four.

Bird was awesome. The Hogs simply could not stop him. With 9:22 left, he already had 27 points. Razorback Coach Eddie Sutton then made the ultimate gamble. He put the 6-4 Moncrief on the 6-9 Bird for the final seven minutes.

Bird scored just four more points. Moncrief, meanwhile, was almost as unstoppable as Bird had been. He finished with 24 points and eight rebounds, and had his team in a position to win late. Arkansas had the ball with 1:31 left and holding for the last shot with the score tied 71–71.

With 1:02 remaining, U.S. Reed tripped and was called for walking, giving the Sycamores the ball.

ISU held for the last shot, but could not get the ball to Bird, who was smothered by Moncrief. It was Bob Heaton who launched the shot with two seconds left and the Hogs watched helplessly as it hit both sides of the rim before dropping through, depriving the Hogs of a second straight trip to the Final Four.

NO. 5 ARKANSAS 74, NO. 2 UCLA 70 NCAA TOURNAMENT REGIONAL SEMIFINAL MARCH 16, 1978, AT ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.

It had been an incredible year for Arkansas. The Razorbacks repeated as Southwest Conference champs but had to nervously await an NCAA at–large bid when they were eliminated from the league tournament by Houston in the semifinals. The "Triplets," Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph, were the ringleaders.

Still, the Hogs were underdogs and a new kid on the NCAA block when they faced second—ranked UCLA in the third round at Albuquerque. David Greenwood was the leader of the Bruins, who weren't far removed from their incredible string of NCAA championships.

UCLA was stunned as Arkansas roared to a 40-22 lead that was cut to 42-29 by halftime. The Bruins didn't panic. They pressed the Hogs and took a 60-58 lead.

Brewer tied the game with two free throws, Steve Schall hit a short turnaround and Delph drilled a jump shot to put the Hogs back in front.

Delph sizzled by hitting 11 of his 14 shots, finishing with 23 points. Moncrief had 21 and Brewer 18. Greenwood finished with 17 for UCLA.

The victory moved the Razorbacks a step closer to their eventual trip to the Final Four.

FINAL FOURS

ARKANSAS IN THE FINAL FOUR

1941 TIED FOR THIRD 1990 TIED FOR THIRD

1945 TIED FOR THIRD 1994 NATIONAL CHAMPION

1978 THIRD 1995 RUNNER-UP

During Arkansas' long, illustrious history, the Razorbacks have been to the NCAA Final Four six times.

The Hogs have earned 30 bids to the NCAA Tournament and made 29 appearances, missing the 1944 event due to a car accident prior to the first-round games.

Only eight schools in the entire country have been to the Final Four more than Arkansas, and only eight schools have earned more than UA's 30 NCAA Tournament bids. Among SEC schools, only Kentucky has been to the NCAA Tournament more often. In fact, Arkansas, Kentucky, LSU, Georgia, Mississippi State and Florida are the only league schools to reach the Final Four.

It was tougher to get in the tournament in the early days, but it also took fewer games to win the title.

In the 1940s, only eight teams participated in the NCAA Tournament, which first became an event in 1939. Up to that point, the NIT was the top national post–season tournament. Twice in the '40s, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four.

The 1941 Hogs roared through the Southwest Conference with a 12-0 mark and carried a 19-2 record into the tournament. Arkansas downed Wyoming, 65-40, to reach the Final Four at Kansas City. Washington State handed the Razorbacks a 64-53 setback, meaning Arkansas and Pittsburgh tied for third since there was no third-place game.

UA returned in 1945, again to Kansas City. Arkansas was 16–8 entering the tournament but edged Oregon, 79–76, to reach the Final Four. Eventual national champion Oklahoma State, which Arkansas had defeated once earlier in the season, downed the Hogs and UA tied Ohio State for third place.

It took 33 years for Arkansas to return. In 1978, the Hogs were SWC champs and beat Weber State, second-ranked UCLA and California-Fullerton to advance to the Final Four at St. Louis. Top-ranked Kentucky led by just one with two minutes to play and posted a 64-59 victory.

There was a third-place game and Ron Brewer hit a buzzer shot from the top of the circle to send the Razorbacks past Notre Dame, 71-69. Brewer had 20 points and Marvin Delph 21 in their final game as Razorbacks.

Nolan Richardson guided the Hogs to the Final Four in 1990, 1994 and 1995.

In 1990, wins over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas earned Arkansas a trip to Denver. UA was 30-4 heading into a semifinal showdown with Duke.

FINAL FOURS

Richardson took his club to Denver a day early to adjust to the altitude, but the Hogs fell behind early in both halves and used plenty of adrenaline to catch up. UA led 69-62 with 10:38 remaining, but ran out of gas. Duke came back and won, 97-83, but also used most of its energy. The Blue Devils were beaten by Nevada-Las Vegas in the title game while UA tied Georgia Tech for third.

The ultimate came in 1994. The Hogs downed North Carolina A&T, Georgetown, Tulsa and Michigan to advance to the Final Four at Charlotte, N.C. The win over Arizona was Arkansas' first ever in the national semifinals and set up a clash with Duke.

With the score tied with less than a minute to play, a well-defended Scotty Thurman hit a three-pointer to lead the Razorbacks to a 76-72 victory and the national title.

With every starter from the championship squad returning, the Hogs were favored to return to the Final Four in 1995, and they did. Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia were knocked off along the way to the Final Four at Seattle, but none of the wins came by more than six points.

Arkansas fell behind early but rallied to get by North Carolina in the semifinals. Playing in the NCAA championship game for the second straight year, Arkansas came up short in an 89–78 loss to UCLA.

COREY BECK averaged 12.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists in earning Final Four All-Tournament honors in 1994.

U.S. REED'S midcourt buzzer-beater knocked off defending national champion Louisville in 1981 and was ranked by Sports Illustrated as the second-most historic event in college basketball behind North Carolina State's title game win over Houston in 1983.

NO. 20 ARKANSAS 74, NO. 12 LOUISVILLE 73 NCAA TOURNAMENT SECOND ROUND MARCH 14, 1981, AT AUSTIN, TEXAS

Defending NCAA champion Louisville and Southwest Conference champion Arkansas clawed at each other for 39 minutes and 55 seconds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the scoreboard read Louisville 73, Arkansas 72 after Derek Smith's short immer for the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks, who had led by six points with 2:13 left, called timeout. U.S. Reed took the inbounds pass and coolly dribbled to the midcourt area near the sideline. With a second left on the clock, he launched a desperation 49–footer. The only thing desperate after the shot was the look on the faces of the Louisville players as they watched the ball hit nothing but net.

Reed shook hands with everyone on the press table after hitting a shot that will live forever in the minds of Razorback fans. He finished with 19 points. Darrell Walker had 23 and the Hogs were still alive in the NCAA Tournament.

NO. 7 ARKANSAS 106, NO. 23 LSU 92 MARCH 3, 1992, AT FAYETTEVILLE

It was Arkansas' first year as a member of the Southeastern Conference (SEC). Earlier in the season, Todd Day had exploded for a career—high 43 points as the Razorbacks defeated LSU, 101–90, at Baton Rouge. The Tigers recovered from the defeat, though, and by the time they arrived at Barnhill Arena, they had tied the Hogs for the SEC lead.

LSU's first ever visit to Fayetteville would determine the SEC championship.

The Tigers started strong. Shaquille 0'Neal did his best to quiet an overflow crowd of 9,518 with 11 points in the opening half as LSU roared to a 51-36 advantage. 0'Neal, however, scored his last points with 11:37 remaining to give the Tigers a 69-58 lead before the Razorbacks charged back.

Lee Mayberry, who hit a then-school record nine three-point field goals and finished with 35 points, teamed with Day, who finished with 27, to bring the Hogs from behind. Mayberry's last three-pointer tied the game at 87-all and Oliver Miller blocked O'Neal's shot at the buzzer to force overtime.

Arkansas blitzed the Tigers, 19–5, in the extra period. Day scored nine points and Mayberry had four during that time. The victory sent Barnhill Arena into a frenzy and the Razorbacks on the way to their first SEC title.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Without a senior in the starting lineup, playing in the most palatial arena in college basketball with the President of the United States attending four games and led by a coach with a system that could not be drawn up on a blackboard, Arkansas vaulted into the elite of the elite when the Razorbacks won the 1994 NCAA Championship.

Construction workers built Bud Walton Arena in record time and the 19,200-seat showcase dazzled fans and opponents as much as the Razorbacks did. Sellout crowds each time the doors were opened watched the Hogs go 16-0 at home. Only one game, the 84-83 victory over LSU, was decided by fewer than 10 points. UA won those 16 games by an average of 30 points.

UA blitzed Murray State, 93–67, in the Bud Walton Arena opener on Nov. 29, but the building was dedicated a few nights later when Missouri came to Fayetteville for an ESPN showcase game. The Dec. 2 game was decided in the first few minutes as Arkansas roared to a 120–68 victory over a Missouri club that went unbeaten in the Big Eight and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

Ranked No. 1 nationally for 10 weeks during the regular season, the Hogs lost only twice during the regular campaign. Alabama beat Arkansas, 66–64, in Tuscaloosa, and Mississippi State edged the Hogs, 72–71, in Starkville.

Sophomores Corliss Williamson and Scotty Thurman carried much of the load, while junior Corey Beck was the blue collar leader. When the Hogs had to score, they went inside to Williamson, who averaged 20.4 points per game. He shot .626 from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line.

Thurman, though, was the last-minute hero. His three-pointer with seven seconds left gave Arkansas a one-point victory at Tennessee. He hit another three in the last 30 seconds to lift the Hogs past LSU at Baton Rouge in overtime.

Beck did much of the dirty work, defending with tenacity and leading the team in assists. He and junior Clint McDaniel were probably the best defensive guards in college basketball. Head coach Nolan Richardson certainly thought so. McDaniel also provided perimeter firepower, as did junior Dwight Stewart, Arkansas' fifth starter who was more a forward than a center.

Richardson used a deep bench to guide the Hogs to a 24–2 regular season finish. Al Dillard brought instant offense into any contest with his incredible three–point shooting range. He was Arkansas' third–leading scorer behind Williamson and Thurman (15.9 ppg) with an 8.9 average even though he played just more than 12 minutes a game. Roger Crawford, one of only two seniors on the squad, also brought instant firepower off the bench, but he was injured early in the NCAA Tournament run and was not available for the Final Four.

In his honor, UA players wore a No. 31 patch on their jerseys.

Freshmen Darnell Robinson and Lee Wilson, a pair of 6–11 centers, gave the Hogs size they didn't have in 1993 when they won 22 games and reached the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual national champion North Carolina. Senior Ken Biley and junior Elmer Martin also made significant contributions.

When President Bill Clinton visited Bud Walton Arena for a Dec. 28 blowout of Texas Southern, no one realized it would be a preview of later visits to the NCAA Tournament. The nation's most recognizable Razorback fan later appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated wearing sweats presented by Richardson.

A 13-game winning streak was snapped by Kentucky in the SEC Tournament, but the Razorbacks were still seeded first in the Midwest Regional at Oklahoma City. Williamson scored 24 points and had seven rebounds in a 94-79 first-round victory over North Carolina A&T. He followed with 21 points and Robinson, making a surprise start, added 13 in the 85-73 second-round win over Georgetown.

Earlier in the year, Tulsa gave Arkansas a scare before the Hogs won in overtime, 93–91, in Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane surprised UCLA and Oklahoma State to reach the Sweet 16 with UA in Dallas. This one was no contest as Williamson and Thurman scored 21 each, and McDaniel 19 in a 103–84 victory.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Michigan was Arkansas' regional final foe and the Hogs could not contain Juwan Howard, but neither could the Wolverines handle Thurman. With Williamson smothered by Michigan's inside defense and held to 12 points, Thurman tossed in 20 as UA reached the Final Four with a 76-68 win attended by President Clinton.

By the time the Hogs arrived at Charlotte, N.C., they were a confident bunch. They also had been somehow convinced by Richardson that they were not nationally respected, even though they had been ranked No. 1. Arizona was the semifinal opponent and the Wildcat guards, Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves, were billed as the top offensive guards in the nation.

Beck and McDaniel were motivated to the hilt and smothered them. They combined to hit just 11 of their 43 shots, including just two of 22 three-point attempts. Williamson scored 29 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, and the Hogs advanced to the championship game with a 91-82 victory.

An entire state stood still on April 4, 1994. Arkansas fans who could not be there (more than 3,000 made the trip to Charlotte) watched and listened in every corner of the state. President Clinton was there again, and so was Duke, the 1991 and '92 national champion.

After an airtight first half that ended with Arkansas holding a 34–33 lead, Duke jumped out to a 10-point advantage in the first three minutes of the second half. However, the pace of the game picked up during the run and it never slowed down. The Razorbacks took advantage and were even with the Devils less than five minutes later.

When Arkansas built a 70-65 lead late in the contest it looked safe, but Grant Hill's three tied the game with 1:29 remaining.

Although Williamson finished with 23 points, there was no doubt who would take the next shot for UA. Thurman launched a high-arching three-point attempt with only seconds left on the shot clock. The shot fell with 51 seconds left and when it settled through the net, the outcome had been determined. A pair of free throws by McDaniel and another by Dillard sealed Duke's fate, 76–72.

Once the national championship belonged to the Hogs, an entire state celebrated. President Clinton embraced Richardson on the court and later officially honored the Razorbacks at the White House.

The 1994 NCAA championship trophy is on display at Bud Walton Arena.

CORLISS WILLIAMSON was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1994 Final Four after averaging 26.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Arkansas' two wins.

NO. 3 ARKANSAS 103, TEXAS 96 FEB. 4, 1990, AT AUSTIN, TEXAS

Arkansas already had a two-game lead over Texas in the Southwest Conference when the Razorbacks invaded Austin for a nationally televised game.

The Hogs owned a four-game winning streak over the Longhorns, and it was a must-win situation for Texas. The Razorbacks led for most of the first half but Texas gained a five-point advantage midway through the second half. It was 77-72 'Horns when Todd Day fouled out for Arkansas 3:31 from the end.

Texas still led, 86–83, and had Travis Mays at the free throw line with 12 seconds left, but Mays missed the free throw and Lee Mayberry stunned the Texas crowd of more than 16,000 with a long three-pointer three seconds from the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Arkansas made sure Texas never recovered. A three-pointer by Ernie Murry got the Hogs started and Mayberry's jumper at 3:20 put the Hogs in front to stay. Mayberry and Lenzie Howell each scored 23 points to offset 24 by Joey Wright, 23 by Mays and 22 by Lance Blanks. The victory gave Arkansas a three-game lead it never surrendered on its way to the SWC title.

NO. 12 ARKANSAS 73, NO. 2 HOUSTON 68 MARCH 4, 1984, AT FAYETTEVILLE

Hakeem Olajuwon and Houston were on their way to their third consecutive Final Four, they were ranked second nationally and hadn't lost a Southwest Conference game in two years. The Cougars had gone 16–0 in 1983 and were 15–0 going into the regular season finale at Barnhill Arena.

Arkansas was outstanding as well. The Hogs already had upset top-ranked North Carolina at Pine Bluff, but at 13-2 couldn't catch Houston in the SWC standings. No one in the overflow crowd of 9,438 cared as they watched a terrific contest showcased by national television.

Olajuwon was held to 10 points before fouling out, but Michael Young picked up the slack with 22 and Alvin Franklin earned 21. They weren't as hot as the Hogs, though. Joe Kleine, whose inside power put Olajuwon in foul trouble, scored 22 points, hitting all 10 of his free throws. Charles Balentine added 16, Ricky Norton 14 and Alvin Robertson 13 points and nine assists.

Houston led at the half but saw its hopes dim when Olajuwon drew his fourth and fifth fouls in a 38-second span six minutes from the end while trying to stop Kleine inside. Kleine hit all four free throws and the Hogs had a huge victory.

ARKANSAS 104, NO. 2 AUBURN 88 FEB. 24, 1999, AT FAYETTEVILLE

Auburn hadn't won a SEC championship in 39 years but had already clinched the title and was ranked second nationally with a 25–1 record when the Tigers came to Bud Walton Arena for Arkansas' regular season home finale.

The Razorbacks had stunned fifth–ranked Kentucky four days earlier and believed a win over Auburn would clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

It was an emotional evening before the game started. Seniors Derek Hood, Pat Bradley and Kareem Reid, record—setters who persevered through four sometimes—difficult seasons, were introduced to the Bud Walton Arena fans for the final time.

Arkansas' fans created the noisiest environment Coach Nolan Richardson, his players and long-time followers of the program could ever remember. An overflow crowd of 20,298 nearly shook the building with an incredible level of exhortation. Not a player or coach on either side completed an interview without mentioning the crowd.

It was a one-point game with 16:26 left but a rebound basket by Hood spurred the Razorbacks to a 30–10 run that left Auburn in shock. Both teams were quick, but the Tigers must have thought there were more than five Hogs on the floor as the noise pushed Arkansas beyond its highest previous performance level of the campaign.

NO. 9 ARKANSAS 94, NO. 5 KENTUCKY 92 JAN. 29, 1995, AT FAYETTEVILLE

Kentucky's second—ever trip to Fayetteville was a highly—anticipated event. CBS moved the game to Super Bowl Sunday to ensure a large audience for the nationally televised event.

The Wildcats were 13-2, including 7-0 in the SEC. Arkansas, the preseason No. 1 choice and defending national champion, had looked vulnerable at times during the season and was 15-4 with a 4-3 SEC mark.

By halftime it was obvious another special event was taking place, just as every Arkansas–Kentucky game had been. The Wildcats led by one when Reggie Garrett stunned the visitors with a halfcourt buzzer shot to give UA a 49–47 halftime lead.

UA was tied or led the entire second half until Walter McCarty's short jumper gave Kentucky an 82–80 lead with 5:19 left. From that point on, neither team led by more than four, and there were three ties and three lead changes.

The teams traded salvos until Clint McDaniel made just one free throw with 51 seconds remaining. When McCarty scored on a putback with 24 seconds to go, UK led by one.

Scotty Thurman, UA's greatest last–second shot maker ever, made sure the crowd went home happy. He drove past UK defenders, pulled up and hit an 18–footer with eight seconds to go to put the Razorbacks in front for good. McDaniel made a baseline steal in the final second and hit a free throw for the final two–point margin.

Thurman and Corliss Williamson combined for 50 points as the Hogs won their fourth straight regular season game over the Wildcats.

MEDIA INFORMATION

GAME CREDENTIALS

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made online at www. SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least three days prior to the game.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Communications Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one to whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refused to comply with press row and/or photographic guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; and (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They must be picked up beginning two hours before tip-off at the media will call door to the right of the south entrance to Bud Walton Arena. Be prepared to present a photo identification when picking up credentials.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Located on the south side of Bud Walton Arena, just right of the main ticket window. All passes are left at media will call – no credentials are mailed.

GAMEDAY PARKING

A limited number of spaces are available around Bud Walton Arena. All requests should be made to Director of Men's Basketball Communications Patrick Pierson when submitting credential requests.

MEDIA SERVICES

The University of Arkansas has one of the top statistical crews in college basketball. Our crew has worked NCAA Tournament regional championships and conference tournaments. Media will be provided the following:

- Game program and notes
- Halftime statistics (box score, play-by-play, shot chart)
- Final statistics (box score, play-by-play, shot chart)
- Postgame notes

GAMEDAY LIVE STATS

Live in-game stats will be provided for the media at http://arkansas.statbroadcast.com.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

Bud Walton Arena's work room is one of the most spacious in the nation. It is located on the arena floor level, next to and adjoining the interview room. Weekly press briefings and Mike Anderson's postgame press conferences are held in the interview room. Media members can work and file from the work room or the press seating area in the arena. Wireless internet is available in the work room and in the arena. Please see Director of Men's Basketball Communications Patrick Pierson or a member of the Communications staff for login information. In addition, several telephones are available in the work room.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Visiting teams may utilize the four courtesy phone lines available in Bud Walton Arena. ISDN is available. No banners are allowed to hang in front of any broadcast position.

RAZORBACKS COMMUNICATIONS

The Razorbacks Communications Office appreciates your interest in Arkansas basketball and strives to assist you in your coverage. A list of our staff members, our address, and our telephone and fax numbers follows:

MEDIA INFORMATION

WIRELESS INTERNET

Wireless internet is available at Bud Walton Arena. Please contact a member of the Arkansas Communications Department on game day if you have any problems logging on.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Bud Walton Arena features two photo "wells," located on the baselines next to each team bench. Tripods are not allowed on the floor at any time during play and photographers must sit on the floor so as to not block the view of spectators. Spots in the photo wells are limited and must be requested in advance of any Arkansas contest. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from either sideline due to space limitations. Arkansas Communications reserves the right to limit the number of strobe units used and requests to hang strobe lights at Bud Walton Arena must be made in writing one week prior to any contest.

SEC TELECONFERENCE

Coach Anderson will participate in the SEC's teleconference call every Monday, beginning Jan. 5 through March 9.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and Razorback Sports Properties formed a partnership in the fall of 2008. As the multi-media rights-holder, Razorback Sports Properties is responsible for all website, broadcasts, corporate partnerships and marketing of the university's athletics program. Razorback Sports Properties brings a national presence to the overall marketing of Razorback sports.

Razorback Sports Properties exclusively produces and markets a variety of radio and television opportunities surrounding Arkansas Athletics, through the Razorback Sports Network from IMG, including all radio play-by-play broadcasts, and television and radio head coaches' shows.

Chuck Barrett is in his fifth season with the Razorback men's basketball team. He has worked with Arkansas for nearly 20 years as the radio personality of the baseball program and took on football duties prior to the 2007 season. The Director of Broadcasting for the Razorback Athletic Department, Barrett has been on both sides of the radio as a talk show host and play-by-play announcer. He has called numerous moments in Arkansas history including three College World Series runs and multiple bowl game appearances.

An Arkansas men's basketball legend, Scotty Thurman begins his first season as an analyst. An All-SEC honoree each of his three seasons as a Razorback, Thurman hit the game-winning three-pointer in Arkansas' 76-72 win over Duke in the 1994 NCAA championship game.

Throughout the history of men's college basketball, the Southeastern Conference has captured 11 NCAA Championships and four NIT titles, putting the SEC as one of the nation's top basketball conferences.

During the 2006–07 academic year the SEC became the first conference to win the Division I National Championship in Football (Florida), Men's Basketball (Florida) and Women's Basketball (Tennessee) in the same school year.

Only the SEC and the Big East have ever won both the men's and women's basketball titles in one season. SEC won both three times in 1996, 1998 and 2007. The Big East has won both twice in 2003 and 2004.

The SEC swept both the NIT and NCAA Tournaments in 2006 when Florida won its first NCAA championship and South Carolina earned its second straight NIT title. Only four conferences have won both the NIT and NCAA title, including the Big East (2003), ACC (1992) and Big Ten (1979).

- The SEC was 12–3 (.800) in the NCAA Tournament and 17–8 (.680) overall in postseason action.
- The SEC's 12 NCAA Tournament wins were the most of any conference (Big Ten 10, American 9).
- The SEC won 80 percent (12-3) of its NCAA Tournament games, the best percentage of any conference.
- Kentucky made its second appearance in the NCAA championship game in three years (2012) and 12th overall.
- The SEC has won three of the last nine NCAA titles (2006–Florida, 2007–Florida, 2012 Kentucky). No other conference has won more than two NCAA titles during that stretch.
- Since 1993, the SEC has won six men's basketball national championships Arkansas (1994), Kentucky (1996), Kentucky (1998), Florida (2006), Florida (2007) and Kentucky (2012). Only the ACC (6) has won as many men's basketball titles during this time.
- The SEC has won 11 NCAA men's basketball tournament titles with Kentucky claiming eight (1948, 1949, 1951, 1958, 1978, 1996, 1998 and 2012). Florida has two (2006, 2007) and Arkansas has one (1994).
- Florida and Kentucky advanced to the Final Four and Tennessee made it to the Sweet 16. Kentucky made its 16th trip to the Final Four while Florida made its fifth appearance.
- Kentucky's John Calipari is 43–14 (.754) and Florida's Billy Donovan is 35–12 (.745) in NCAA Tournament games.
- This is the first time since 2006 (Florida and LSU) that the SEC has had two teams in the Final Four. It is the fourth time that two SEC teams advanced to the Final Four (1994, 1996, 2006).
- Florida, Kentucky and Tennessee advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. It is the most SEC teams in the Sweet 16 since 2007 when three teams (UF, UT, VU) advanced to the Regional Semifinals. It is the sixth time in the last nine years that multiple SEC teams have reached the Sweet 16.
- Every SEC team making a postseason appearance in 2014 won at least one game.
- The SEC has had at least one team advance to the Sweet 16 in 24 of the last 25 years. Eleven of the SEC's 12 members have advanced to the Sweet 16 since 1996.
- Three active SEC coaches are the all-time winningest coach at their institution UF's Billy Donovan, UM's Andy Kennedy and VU's Kevin Stallings.
- Every team in the SEC has made at least one NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 11 years.
- The SEC has won at least 65 percent of its non-conference games since the league expanded to 12 teams in 1991–92.
- Over the last seven NBA Drafts, 48 SEC players have heard their names called. Twenty-two of those were selected in the first round and two were the No. 1 overall pick.
- Kentucky is the all-time NCAA leader in wins with 2,111 and the Wildcats' 111 NCAA Tournament victories are the most in tournament history. UK's 52 NCAA Tournament appearances are the most in the nation.
- The SEC is 53-27 (66.3 percent) in the second (formerly the first) round of the NCAA Tournament over the last 16 tournaments (since 1999). In 1999 the SEC won each of its six first round games, becoming the first conference to have six teams win their first round games in the same season.

Transforming the Flagship

Amazing things are happening at the University of Arkansas.
The university has reached numerous new milestones and records over the last several years, and has set an ambitious goal of becoming a top 50 public research university by 2021. We would like to share some of our recent accomplishments with you.

We think you'll agree great things are happening here.

The Campus

Honors College Moves Into New Home

The Honors College has taken a large step towards building a more cohesive honors community on campus and recruiting top students with the completion of its new home on campus, the 21,000-square-foot addition to historic Ozark Hall, and the renovation of Hotz Honors Hall. In the first national study of leading public honors programs, the Honors College tied for third in "Excellence Impact or Value Added" and ranked 17th in "Overall Excellence."

Renovated Vol Walker Opens for Classes

The Fay Jones School of Architecture celebrated the completion of the renovated Vol Walker Hall and its new addition, the Steven L. Anderson Design Center, a $36.6 million project that brings together the departments of architecture, landscape architecture and interior design for the first time in school history.

Biomedical Engineering's New Home

Recent renovations to the John A. White, Jr. Engineering Hall created office, classroom and lab space for the department of biomedical engineering.

Alumni Association Sets Record

The Arkansas Alumni Association's scholarship program awarded $1 million to 442 University of Arkansas students last year – a milestone for the program, which began in 1990.

Coming Attraction: Jim and Joyce Faulkner Performing Arts Center

Plans are in place to renovate the historic old Field House on campus and transform it into the Jim and Joyce Faulkner Performing Arts Center, a venue that will offer seating for almost 600 patrons.

Cost Savings Keep Tuition Low

A cost-savings and containment program was implemented in 2008. This program has now resulted in almost $62 million in cost reduction and savings for our campus and has been put back toward academic programs to help keep the cost of tuition low.

Faculty Achievements, Innovations & Research

Picasolar Recognized as 'Most Promising'

Picasolar Inc., a start-up firm affiliated with the university, recently received a 2013 Energy & Clean Technology Award for its patent-pending process to improve the efficiency of solar cells. The company won more than $300,000 in cash while competing for the U of A at graduate business plan competitions.

Top 10 World Changing Ideas

Scientific American ranked The Sustainability Consortium, which is jointly administered by the University of Arkansas and Arizona State University, among the top 10 World Changing Ideas for 2012.

Study Looks at Broad Effects of Museum Field Trips

Researchers in the doctoral program in education policy conducted the first large-scale, randomized-control trial designed to measure what students learn from school field trips to a museum, in this case the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art in Bentonville. They found that students demonstrated stronger critical thinking skills, displayed higher levels of tolerance, had more historical empathy and developed a taste for being a cultural consumer in the future.

(Fall 2014)

Record $32 Million Grant

The U.S. Department of Education awarded a $32 million, five-year grant to the College of Education and Health Professions and the Arkansas Department of Education to fund a program aimed at improving the education and career outcomes of low-income Arkansas teenagers with disabilities. The federal research grant is believed to be the largest the university has received in its history.

Transformative Contributions

Anthropology professor Peter S. Ungar has been named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science for "extensive and transformative contributions to understanding human evolution, particularly the evolution of diet and paleoecology, and for education and service to his university and discipline."

Adams Honored for Excellence in STEM Research and Mentoring

Paul Adams, an associate professor of chemistry and biochemistry in the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences, received the 2013 Presidential Award for Excellence in STEM Research and Mentoring from the National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers (NOBCChE).

Students First

Razorback Bridge Program Going Strong

Last fall, we welcomed our largest class of 47 Razorback Bridge Scholars, a scholarship program targeting diversity by ethnicity, gender, geography, and first-generation status and supporting student college success and persistence through academic retention resources. The Razorback Bridge Scholarship program is in its fourth year and has so far served 151 scholars.

Graduation Rates Best in State

Graduation rates recently exceeded 60 percent - top in the state among all public universities. Our goal is to reach 70 percent by 2021.

Freshman GPA Rises

The percentage of new students with a high school GPA of 3.75 or higher is at a record high and the percentage of our freshmen classes with ACT scores of 30 or higher also continues to set new records for the university.

ACT Academy Helping Drive Diversity Growth

College Access Initiative served a record 230 students last summer in its ACT Academy, an intensive college readiness program overwhelmingly serving minority students from east, central and south Arkansas. Since the inaugural academy in 2010, one-third of participants have enrolled at the U of A.

Business Plan Teams Create Jobs, Receive National Recognition

Since 2009, U of A entrepreneurial teams have won 20 national business plan competitions, two times more than the next competitor, and over $2.3 million in cash prizes. In the past six years, student startup teams have founded 12 high-growth businesses, raised over $25 million in grants and investments and employed more than 100 Arkansans in high-wage jobs.

Student-Athletes Set GPA Record

Razorback student-athletes set a new record with a 3.18 cumulative GPA for the 2013-14 academic year, continuing a streak of nine consecutive semesters with an average cumulative GPA of 3.0 or more.

National Reputation

School of Law Best Value in Country

The National Jurist ranked the School of Law the "Best Value" among American law schools. The School of Law is also ranked in the top tier of law schools for the fifth consecutive year and continues its steady climb in the rankings, now at 36th place among public law schools.

Bumpers College No. 22 Nationally

The Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences was tied for No. 22 among all United States institutions listed and tied for No. 51 in the world according to the QS World University Rankings by Subject published by TopUniversities.com.

Full Circle Campus Food Pantry Honored as Champion of Change

The Full Circle Campus Food Pantry was recognized by President Obama as one of five winners in the White House Campus Champions of Change Challenge. Four students and one staff member traveled to Washington, D.C. to be honored for their work.

Top Ranking for Programs in Creative Writing

In its "2013 MFA Index," Poets & Writers magazine ranked the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences' creative writing and translation program 39th, including eighth in job placement for its graduates.

Architecture Program Ranked 8th in Nation Among Public Institutions

The Fay Jones School's architecture program ranked 19th in the nation, and the eighth-best program among public universities, in the 13th Annual Survey of America's Best Architecture and Design Schools, a study conducted by the Design Futures Council, which also twice ranked the School of Architecture No. 1 nationally for "Best Small School Design Program" and "Top for Regional Respect and Admiration."

Walton College First in M.B.A. Job Placement

The Sam M. Walton College of Business tied for 27th among the nation's top public undergraduate business schools, according to the U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges 2014, and was 47th overall among public and private business colleges. The full-time Walton M.B.A. program is ranked No. 1 in the nation in the percentage of students with jobs the day they graduate.

Rehabilitation Counseling Program Among Top 20

In U.S. News & World Report's 2014 Best Graduate School Rankings, the rehabilitation counseling program in the College of Education and Health Professions was ranked 16th nationally. It is also ranked No. 8 in the nation for scholarly productivity by faculty members.

CHANCELLOR DR. G. DAVID GEARHART

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university as vice chancellor for University Advancement.

Prior to being appointed chancellor, Gearhart oversaw the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, the most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs. That campaign included a $300 million gift to found an Honors College and endow the Graduate School.

In every imaginable way, the university was transformed by this campaign.

"The impact of the $300 million investment from The Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation and the success of the $1 billion campaign have been monumental," Gearhart said. "They have given us the means and the momentum to create and nurture a culture of excellence within every college and school, to become a catalyst for growth of the state's knowledge-based economy, and the confidence to know that we can become one of the country's very best land-grant, flagship universities."

As chancellor, Gearhart instituted the first tuition freeze in 24 years and implemented a $350 million campus building renovation and refurbishment plan, as well as a campuswide energy savings plan. He has also undertaken a renewed emphasis on the arts on campus, including the establishment of the "All Steinway Campus" and the Jim and Joyce Faulkner Performing Arts Center, scheduled to open in 2015. He is well known for his emphasis on "Students First," a philosophy which has resonated across campus and beyond.

In 2010, the Carnegie Foundation awarded the university its highest research classification; in August 2011, the Chronicle of Higher Education named the University of Arkansas to its list of "Great Colleges to Work For"; and most recently, U.S. News and World Report recognized the university as one of 10 "up-and-comers."

During his tenure, the university has undertaken a dramatic marketing program and has promoted transparency and accountability. Gearhart implemented a major cost savings program that has already resulted in almost $62 million in cost reduction and savings. Campus enrollment has also grown dramatically to almost 26,000 students. At the same time, diversity in the student body has increased significantly. Gearhart has been heavily involved in the promotion and advocacy of the Dream Act on both the national and state levels.

In addition to his responsibilities as chancellor, Gearhart is a tenured member of the faculty in the College of Education and Health Professions, holding the rank of professor. A nationally respected expert in capital campaigns, he is the author of two books, The Capital Campaign in Higher Education and Philanthropy, Fund Raising and the Capital Campaign, as well as numerous articles.

Among his current professional affiliations, Gearhart serves as vice president of the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Campus Foundation, is a member of the board of advisors for the Arkansas World Trade Center, is a member of the Northwest Arkansas Council, and is a member of the advisory board of the Pryor Center for Arkansas Oral and Visual History. He also is a licensed attorney in the state of Arkansas.

His Bachelor of Arts degree is from Westminster College where he was named a distinguished alumnus in 1992. Both his law degree and his Doctor of Education degree are from the University of Arkansas. He is a native of Fayetteville.

He and his wife of nearly 40 years, Jane, have two children and three grandchildren.

DR. SHARON HUNT | FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. Dr. Hunt has been on the University of Arkansas faculty since 1990, and she served as the department head of the recently renamed Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation from July 1,1990, until June 30, 2011, except for the 2000-01 academic year, when she served as the interim dean of the College of Education and Health Professions On June 30, 2011 Dr. Hunt stepped down as department head and returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

A high school athlete, Hunt's involvement with collegiate athletics dates back to her own college days at the University of Arkansas when she played extramural sports with the women's basketball and tennis teams prior to the enactment of Title IX. After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the university, she went on to earn a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Georgia, where she taught a variety of undergraduate courses as a graduate assistant. Upon the completion of her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky for 13 years, where she taught both undergraduate and graduate courses and served as the graduate coordinator for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

The FAR's responsibilities lie in three broad areas: academic integrity within the athletics program, student—athlete well—being, and institutional control of the athletics program. Dr. Hunt is involved in the student—athlete advisory council on campus and chairs the Academic Credential Review Committee and Athletic's Academic Integrity Committee, and serves as an ex-officio member of the Faculty Athletics Committee. In addition, she travels to represent the University of Arkansas at various SEC and NCAA meetings.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. The athletics department provides support to students in the athletic training education program in the form of a stipend, books and travel to the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association annual meeting. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department. Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have a son and daughter as well as one grandson and granddaughter.

University of Arkansas Leadership

The Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas serve as the institution's governing body. The board is comprised of 10 trustees representing each of the state's four congressional districts. The president is the chief executive officer of the University of Arkansas

System and reports to the Board of Trustees. Each campus has a chancellor as its chief executive officer, reporting directly to the president.

A Message from Chancellor Gearhart

Bud Walton Arena is once again one of the toughest places for opposing teams to play! Coach Anderson and his players deserve most of the credit, but your support is what makes this venue special.

At the University of Arkansas, we are very proud of Razorback Athletics and our student-athletes. They are impressive not just on the court or on the field, but in the classroom as well. Our student-athletes set a new record with a 3.18 cumulative GPA for the 2013-14 academic year, continuing a streak of nine-consecutive semesters with an average cumulative GPA of 3.0 or more. Our student-athletes are also generous when it comes to volunteering on campus and in the community.

On behalf of the university, thank you for your support of them and all of our students, faculty and staff.

JEFF LONG | VICE CHANCELLOR & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

In his seventh full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has helped transform the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics into one of the most successful and nationally respected programs in the country. Along the way, Long has gained national attention and earned numerous awards for his progressive leadership of a program encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long's appointment as the first ever chairman of the College Football Playoff Selection committee provided further evidence that he is already one of the most respected and influential leaders within intercollegiate athletics.

Long chairs a committee of 13 individuals that collectively features more than 230 years of college football experience two former top-level university administrators, five current athletics directors, three members of the College Football Hall of Fame, three former college football head coaches, a former United States Secretary of State, a former member of Congress, and a retired three-star general. As the playoff's selection committee's first chairman, Long will not only lead the distinguished group in selecting the best four college football teams for the inaugural playoff in 2014, but will help the committee define the parameters for selections for years to come.

Even before his appointment as the College Football Playoff Selection Committee's Chairman, Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics has not gone unnoticed. In 2013, Long was named as an Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year for the Football Bowl Subdivision. In 2012, Long was named a finalist for the SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a combined gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

Long leads a comprehensive athletics program committed to the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. A member of Chancellor G. David Gearhart's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community.

In each of the past five years, Razorback Athletics has transferred funds totaling more than $1 million to support the university's academic mission. For 2014–15, the department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives will include $2.25 million in direct funding of academic programs including financial support for a new classroom and laboratory building to serve the entire University of Arkansas student population.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 19 conference championships and advanced to 94 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football and a national title at the 2013 NCAA Men's Indoor Track and Field Championships. In the Learfield Sports Directors Cup, a year-long competition ranking the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletic programs, Arkansas has finished in the top 30 programs nationally six times in the past seven years.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a school record student—athlete grade point average of 3.18 in 2013–14. It marked the sixth consecutive year Razorback student—athletes posted a GPA exceeding 3.0. In 2014, for the second consecutive year, Arkansas exceeded the national APR multi—year rate in all 19 sports and had three teams earn NCAA Public Recognition awards. Graduation success rates continue to rise with a total of 112 current or former Razorback student—athletes graduating in 2013–14.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the establishment of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes are more active than ever volunteering more than 6,500 hours of time for more various agencies, organizations and schools around the state.

One of the nation's most active athletic directors on Twitter, Long embraces the opportunity to interact with members of the Razorback Nation whether in person or through social media. He currently has more followers than any other athletics director.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs into one combined athletic program. Long adeptly blended the men's and women's athletic departments into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

JEFF LONG | VICE CHANCELLOR & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student—athletes. According to USA Today, Arkansas is one of only 23 financially self—sustaining Division I—A athletic programs in the nation. As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million during the course of the decade—long agreement.

Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. that will outfit all 19 Razorback sports programs through the 2014–15 season. In December 2012, Forbes Magazine estimated the value of the Razorback Football program at $83 million, ranking the University of Arkansas in the top 10 nationally for the second consecutive year.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student—athletes. In 2012, Long guided the program to a record breaking fundraising year further bolstering Arkansas' financial strength.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the Southeastern Conference and nationally over the next 30 years. The first major project from the master plan, the $40 million Fred W. Smith Football Center, opened in the summer of 2013. In the summer of 2014, the baseball and track indoor training center was completed. In addition, a Basketball Performance Center and Student—athlete Success Center are currently under construction.

According to a recent economic impact study, Razorback Athletics will have an estimated economic impact of more than $1 billion in the next five years. The study estimated that Razorback Athletics generates $153.6 million annually to the region's economy including the benefits of drawing more than a million fans annually to campus to cheer on the Razorbacks. Planned athletic construction during the course of the next five years will generate another $239.7 million.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC – gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I—A Athletic Directors' Association. Long served on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure the Panthers' were selected as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

RAZORBACK FOUNDATION

ABOUT THE FOUNDATION

As the primary fundraising organization for Arkansas Athletics, the mission of the Razorback Foundation Inc. is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas. The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing financial support for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

WHY WE NEED YOUR HELP

Through contributions from our members, who understand the need and cost of maintaining a premier athletic program, we are able to provide scholarship support, funding for facility enhancements and financial assistance to other programs designed to elevate student—athletes and Arkansas Athletics.

Being an active member of the Razorback Foundation is not only an investment in the athletic program and the University of Arkansas, it also unlocks many special benefits to you. Those include priority access to season tickets and parking for athletic events, priority points, membership thank you packet, invitations to exclusive member-only events plus more!

JOIN TODAY!

There is no better way to support Razorback Athletics than to contribute to the Razorback Foundation Annual Fund. Your gift, no matter the size, will significantly impact the lives of more than 460 student–athletes.

Several membership levels are available and you may designate your gift(s) to football, men's basketball, baseball, men's Olympic sports and/or women's sports. Gifts may be made outright or via automatic payment plans. The Foundation also offers a Collegiate Membership for current University of Arkansas students as well as a Young Alumni Program for recent graduates.

For more information about membership levels, benefits and other giving opportunities, please contact us at 877-436-0013 or gohogs@razorbackfoundation.com. More information may be found at razorbackfoundation.com.
